ENTRIES COMING IN FOR QUEEN CONTEST; THE FIRST PICTURE IN TIMES TOMORROW

INTEREST IN COMPETITION FOR ROYAL HONORS INCREASES

St. John Queen May Return From Montreal With the Title of Miss Canada—Guest of the Winter Carnival There in Week of February 5 and in Competition With Lovely Representatives of Other Cities.

The Times Carnival Queen Contest, from present indications, is going to be a big success. Entries have already started to come in and the Carnival Editor has been called upon to deal with several communications and telephone calls in connection with the contest. It is hoped to be able to publish the first pictures of the entrants in The Times tomorrow afternoon.

SHE MAY BE MISS CANADA.

Miss St. John, besides being crowned Queen of the St. John Winter Carnival, will have an opportunity of competing with the most beautiful young ladies all over Canada in the contest which will be staged in Montreal during the Winter Sports, for the title of Miss Canada. During the week in which this competition will take place Miss St. John, with her beautiful sisters from the other parts of the Dominion, will be the guest of the Montreal Winter Carnival Committee.

A telegram received from John J. Fitzgerald, of the Montreal committee yesterday says:

"Your candidate comes to Montreal bearing the title Miss St. John. Candidates will be entertained and expenses paid during week they spend in Montreal, February 5 to 12. Candidates will be judged while wearing winter sports costume in connection with no sport. Proficiency in sport not necessary. No rules set down by judges. Decision will be awarded for attractiveness, bearing, style and general appeal."

In other words, Miss St. John, the young lady chosen as the most attractive in St. John City and County will go to Montreal and represent this section of the country in the search for Canada's most beautiful young lady. Her costume will be furnished here, and in addition she will receive a prize of $100. In Montreal she will be looked after by the Winter Sports Committee and she may well come back as the queen of all Canadian loveliness.

SEND THEM EARLY. The contest for the selection of Miss St. John will close at noon on January 27, so the sooner entries are submitted the easier it will be to make the selection. A good start has been made. All that is necessary is to send in photographs addressed to the Carnival Editor, filling in and attaching the coupon printed here-with.

CARNIVAL QUEEN CONTEST. NAME, ADDRESS, OCCUPATION. (This coupon to be cut out on dotted line, filled in and attached to the back of the photograph.)

Says it is Police Frame-up—Detectives Were Seeking Her After Finding Name on Drug Peddler's List.

New York, Jan. 12.—Arrested in a West 81st street apartment house, where detectives found her garbed in an Oriental sleeping robe, Juanita Hansen, motion picture star, spent the night in a police cell on a charge of illegally possessing narcotics.

Miss Hansen protested that she was a victim of a police frame up. Magistrate McGuire held her in $500 bail, which was furnished.

Detectives, it was disclosed, had been looking for Miss Hansen for several weeks, since her name was found on a drug peddler's list along with that of Wallace Reid, moving picture star who is now recovering in California from illness that followed a breakdown and ending.

Wm. Coulter, Poisoned But Alive, on High Commissioner's Steps

Believed to be Man Who Was Here on Hike to West.

Was Complaining of Treatment Given Him as a Soldier—Has Been Causing Officials in London Annoyance.

(Canadian Press) London, Jan. 12.—"Canada's outrageous and inhuman treatment is responsible for this," were the words found on a scrap of paper lying beside a man named William Coulter, aged 40, who was found poisoned but alive yesterday on the steps of the Canadian High Commissioner's office. Coulter is said to have come from Vancouver.

It was ascertained that for months past the man has caused considerable annoyance to the Canadian authorities in London who apparently had shown every consideration. They had given Coulter money for a ticket to Southampton and passage home but he returned to the Canadian office in a few days. Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 12.—William Coulter is believed to be a man of the same name who carried on a street propaganda here in 1921.

HIKERS SEND AN ULTIMATUM TO BONAR LAW

Premier Refuses to Receive Deputation on Unemployment and Invasion Threat Follows.

London, Jan. 12.—(Canadian Press)—The secretary of the hikers, who some weeks ago descended upon London seeking an interview with the heads of the Government regarding unemployment, yesterday renewed his request to Premier Bonar Law to receive a hikers' deputation.

The Premier again declined and thereupon the secretary dispatched an ultimatum demanding a more favorable reply within twenty-four hours, otherwise further reinforcements would be called to London from the provinces.

N. Y. CLERGYMAN PUTS END TO HIS LIFE WITH BULLET

Rev. Dr. Percy Gordon, of St. Bartholomew's Shoots Himself in Head.

New York, Jan. 12.—The Rev. Dr. Percy Gordon, assistant rector and superintendent of the Sunday School at St. Bartholomew's church for many years, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the head with a revolver.

The vestry of St. Bartholomew's church at 50th street and Park avenue had accepted the resignation of Dr. Gordon two months ago. Conflicting statements were made as to the reason for the resignation.

The clergyman was sixty years old. He had been suffering according to persons close to him, from an impairment of mental faculties, causing erratic conduct which had preceded his resignation.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I would I were twenty, with a pair of snowshoes, a pair of skis and a toboggan." "Well," said Hiram, "if you was out to the Settlement, an' could look fer miles over the meadows an' hills—all covered with two or three foot o' snow—I guess you'd want them there snowshoes if you was eighty."

Mystery Man To Penitentiary; Two Year Term

"Frank J. Smith" Believed to be From One of Best Families in Montreal.

Oshawa, Ont., Jan. 12.—Maintaining the silence that has marked his conduct since he was arrested, Frank J. Smith, Montreal mystery man, was in the police court yesterday sentenced to two years in Kingston penitentiary on charges of theft and of escaping from custody. The sentences will run concurrently. Asked if he had anything to say, Smith briefly replied in the negative, the first word uttered to court attaches since his arrest, about a month ago. From papers found in Smith's pockets police learned that the man comes from one of the best families in Montreal. As he did not dispute any of the evidence against him, his identity was not disclosed. It is known, however, that Smith is not his right name.

CALL SURGEON ON OCEAN BY RADIO

Vessel Hastens to Ship on Which Seaman is Very Ill and Operation Performed.

New York, Jan. 12.—Radio today brought the story of an act of mercy performed on the high seas when the Lloyd Sabauda liner, Conte Rosso, ran 150 miles off her course to pick up a seaman on a freighter whose life could be saved only by an immediate operation.

The Conte Rosso left Naples for New York on Jan. 4. A radio message was received from the U. S. shipping board steamship Eastern King stating that a member of the crew was seriously ill, and that an operation was imperative within twelve hours.

ARRIVES FOR INSPECTION OF ST. PIERRE

New York, Jan. 12.—On an inspection tour of St. Pierre, Miquelon, Albert Sarraut, French colonial minister, arrived here yesterday on the S. S. Roussillon. He will leave today for St. Pierre.

He declined to discuss the liquor question and dismissed the rumor of the sale of St. Pierre to the U. S. or Canada as "sheer nonsense." Mr. Sarraut will return via Halifax to France.

GIVEN UP FOR LOST WITH 33 ON BOARD

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 12.—The German steamship Heinrich Kayser, which left Norfolk, December 3, and has not been heard from since December 6, when she reported by wireless that her steering gear was broken, has been lost at sea, it is believed in local marine circles.

GERMANS OUTWARDLY CALM BUT PROTEST TO POWERS

French Intimate They Will Occupy More Territory If Necessary—General Situation Unchanged Today.

Paris, Jan. 12.—Premier Poincare, in his statement before the chamber of deputies yesterday on the steps being taken by France, in the Ruhr district, said the Government's plans provided for the eventual occupation of Bochum, "if Germany fails to carry out the French demands."

The occupation of Bochum, which is the site of the iron and steel works of Hugo Stinnes, is said to be set for Saturday, although this is not officially confirmed. France at last has a grip on the "productive guarantees" she has sought from Germany, and has served notice, through her Premier, that she is prepared to extend her holdings if her economic occupation of Essen does not yield satisfactory results. It was understood here today, in fact, that another Ruhr zone would be subjected to "invisible occupation," within three days.

London, Jan. 12.—An unmistakable feeling of relief that the first 24 hours of France's Ruhr adventure passed without a breach of the peace was evident here today. Although the French movement continues to be widely condemned and deplored, there is no general desire to see Great Britain's ally involved in conditions which would seriously add to the economic straits of the British Empire.

Essen, Jan. 12.—The forty thousand employees of the Krupp plant here went to work this morning as usual, according to information officially supplied to the French economic mission in Essen by the German authorities.

The French have moved their outposts to Gelsenkirchen, three miles northeast of Essen, and to Velbert, five miles to the southeast.

Essen, Jan. 12.—All the factories will close next Monday morning from 11 to 11.15 a. m. in protest against the occupation of the Ruhr. The directors of the German railwaymen's union has issued a protest against the French occupation of Essen. The statement urges the workers to remain calm, saying:

"Since we are defenceless we must submit to force in the expectation that a protest to the conscience of the world will obtain our aim."

London, Jan. 12.—The possibility that the Rhenish Westphalian coal syndicate which moved from Essen to Hamburg to escape the French, may ship its papers to the Ruhr, is reported under reserve by the Westminster Gazette.

The story, the newspaper says, is that such a step may be taken if the French try to fetch the syndicate's staff and to enforce its new plan of action, as a right to protect the player in his right of advancement.

He will also enter in the races at St. John and in the Jubilee meet here. Recently he has been showing great form. His father, Charlie Smith, was a champion speed skater and cyclist and holds a large number of medals.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TREAT

St. Bartholomew's Church Sunday school, Coldbrook, held their annual Christmas tree on Tuesday evening. A much appreciated programme of recitations, solos and singing was greatly enjoyed by the large number who attended. Those taking part were: Eva Bawn, Helen Phillips, Helen Olive, Guy Olive, Eileen Potter, Kathleen Thorne, Lois Parker, Dave Olive, Edna Olive, Bertha Barton, Beatrice Scridge, Kathleen Potter, Percy William and Harry McEwaine. Mrs. Howitt and Miss E. Mills provided the music which credit is given to H. W. Barton, the superintendent.

BURIED TODAY. The funeral of Mrs. Alice Logue was held this afternoon from her late residence, South Bay, to St. Rose's Church, where service was conducted by Very Rev. Dean Charles Collins. Interment will be in Holy Cross cemetery.

TRAINS LATE. Both the Boston and Montreal trains were reported late today at noon. The Boston was running one hour and ten minutes late, while the Montreal was thirty minutes behind schedule.

Manufacturers Get Concession Re Receipt Tax

(Special to Times.) Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 11.—A delegation representing the Canadian Manufacturers' Association interviewed the Minister of Customs yesterday with regard to the new stamp taxes on receipts, which they thought should be exempt in some particulars.

In one particular the minister agreed. This was with regard to what may be called stock printed postcards used as receipts. There is already a surtax of one cent on postcards imposed under the war-measures taxation act, and the contention of the delegation was that, under the spirit of the act which precludes double taxation, postcard receipts of the class named should be exempt. This will be admitted by the department. There are some further contentions of the class named which are under consideration.

FOUR CRAFT WITH LIQUOR ARE CAPTURED

Net Result 1,000 Cases Seized by U. S. Prohibition Navy.

New York, Jan. 12.—The swarm of rum-running craft, which yesterday sought by sheer strength of numbers to overwhelm the prohibition navy with its newly-acquired gun-tuffing flagship Lexington, last night suffered its first "casualty" when the launch Margaret B., laden to the gunwales with whiskey, was captured by a coast-guard crew off Sandy Hook. Almost simultaneously three others were reported to have been seized by coast-guard craft off Ambrose Channel Lightship. The quadruple haul totaled 1,000 cases.

Besides the Margaret B., officials said they had confiscated the Evelyn, a twenty-five foot sea skiff, an unnamed launch and a rum-runner's scout boat, all of which were believed to have been owned in Highland, N. J.

SAYS LEAGUE IS ONLY SOLUTION
Rev. Dr. Root Sees Danger to Whole World in U. S. Failure to Join—Blames America for Massacres.
U. S. responsibility for a world government was the subject of an address at the Revere Women's Club last week by the Rev. Dr. Edward Tallmadge Root, representing the Massachusetts branch of the National Council for the Prevention of War. He said, in part: "The problem before the world is this: How shall we prevent war, human nature being what it is? "The clue is found when we ask: How, in spite of the same human nature, can individuals, though untrained, live comparatively safe in life and property? Why does not the commonwealth of Massachusetts need to fortify the Berenshams against its powerful neighbor to the west? The answer is that state and national governments give protection with a minimum of force. "This way, and the only way in which international peace can never be secured—the establishment of a world government. Massachusetts, by the world-state resolution of our General Convention in 1915, has officially called upon the United States to declare in favor of such a government, with legislative, executive and judicial departments, and to invite all nations to join in establishing it. "That resolution was adopted in the period of clarity when we were watching the World War. We entered into it because our people were convinced that it was a final struggle between democracy and democracy, the support of the church was gained through the 'Committee on the Moral Aims of the War' by the promise, on the part of our government, that it was to be 'an end war' and would be followed by the establishment of a 'League of Nations' and the guarantee of the rights and territory of every nation, large or small. Suppressed Report. "When victory came, it was apparent that the world's danger-post lay in the territory of the present Turkish empire. Our government sent Paris, a commission, consisting of Henry Churchill, president of Oberlin College, and former Ambassador to France. It was to report, long suppressed, has just been made public. It shows that every section of the Near East asked for the United States as a mediator, even the Turks themselves, though no one had suggested a mandate for them. "The commissioners said: 'If the League of Nations were to be a sham, all nations must be willing to bear their share in the resulting responsibilities. America certainly cannot be an exception. It is not roasting dreamlike practical politics of the most imperative sort to do something to bring back men's faith in men.' "Unfortunately, we had not then learned that, in making peace, even more imperatively than in making war, all party lines must stop at our boundaries. Our consequent Turkish mandate has already proved the most calamitous mistake in human history. Millions are dead, and tens of millions are wretched, and the peace of the whole world is in jeopardy because America refuses to continue to do her part in making possible international government. "The very desperation of the Near East and European situation today is again forcing the other powers to ask America to consist out participation in the solution of both problems. If she again refuses, our whole western civilization is apparently doomed, said Lord Cecil, addressing the assembly of the League of Nations, Sept. 26: 'If once again, we have to face a world-war civilization itself will be destroyed. It is no exaggeration, but it is literally true, that the nations of the world must disarm or perish. Let them choose life or death! "The only possible conclusion to which any sane man, it seems to me, can come, is that of the joint utterance of The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ, the Church Peace Union, The World Peace Foundation and the World Alliance for International Friendship, that our government should 'take immediate steps to bring the United States into real relationship with the other nations of the

however, be a terrible blow to Austrian pride, as in view of the existing economic helplessness of Austria, Czechoslovakia would undoubtedly be the predominant partner. On the other hand, the Prague Government might well have migratings about admitting 6,000,000 German-speaking Austrians to citizenship. It already possesses a German population of 3,000,000, and this has up to now proved a thorn in its side, as it has shown a most irreconcilable spirit. What the attitude of this German-speaking minority would be if reinforced for centuries to the Austrian Empire, have at least a working knowledge of German. From a commercial and industrial point of view, the union would be excellent, as economically one country is the complement of the other. The greatest barrier, as has been stated

NEW YORK WOMAN ROBBED IN CHICAGO

Mrs. Frank Wright is Kidnapped and Jewels Worth $5,000 Stolen by Four Bandits.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—Four bandits kidnaped Mrs. Leurette Wright, aged 26, wife of Frank Wright of the cooperative firm of G. I. Fraser of New York, and robbed her of five diamond rings and a jewel studded wristwatch of a total value of more than $5,000.

Mrs. Wright has been spending the holiday season at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Colan. While calling at the home of a friend, Miss Winifred Keating, Mrs. Wright met several of her host's friends. A party was proposed and at a late hour they went to a Chinese restaurant near Clark Street and Belmont Avenue. While in the cafe she met John J. Cassidy, an old friend. When the party broke up shortly after 3 o'clock this morning Cassidy took the others to the home of Miss Keating, and with Mrs. Wright started for the home of Mrs. Colan.

While he was driving down Fifth Avenue the machine was overhauled by the car hearing the robbers. One of them stood on the running board of the machine brandishing a revolver. He fired one shot through the window of the Cassidy machine and as it slowed down leaped on the step.

Smashing a glass in the side of the limousine, the robber entered the car and was soon joined by three others. Three of Mrs. Wright's rings were wrenched from her fingers before she was taken from Cassidy's car, when two more rings and the wristwatch, which she had hidden in her lap, fell to the floor and were also seized.

Thrown into the bandit car, Mrs. Wright and Cassidy were again searched, while the machine was being driven to Polk Street and Kedzie Avenue, where they were thrown out.

The robbers left Cassidy $22 when he made a plea for carfare.

Frank R. Wright is the New York sales manager of the G. I. Fraser Company, which has headquarters in Asheville, Tenn. Mr. Wright, who has an office in Room 917, 180 Nassau St., could not be located last night.

Marriage License Helps Detectives Trace Man Accused of Killing Victim of Hold-up.

New York, Jan. 11.—His whereabouts revealed by a marriage license obtained at the Municipal Building showing he was to be married at the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel on Jan. 16, George Gentile, 21 years old, a presser, wanted in Scranton, Pa., for murder, was arraigned before Magistrate Edgar V. Frothingham in Harlem Court and committed to the City Prison for thirty days as a fugitive from justice, to await arrival of extradition papers.

In a signed confession presented to the Court Gentile told of his part in the hold-up in which Evan Parker of 108 Lloyd Street, Dickson, Pa., a town five miles from Scranton, was shot by four robbers in an automobile.

According to the story told by Gentile he and the other three men, who are under arrest in Scranton, set out to get money for Christmas presents. Three hold-ups that night prior to their accosting Parker netted but $6, Gentile is alleged to have stated.

Detectives Rudolph Unger and Joseph Ryan received information that Gentile had come to his city and was planning to get married. A search of the records at the License Bureau showed that a license had been issued to him to wed Philomena Prapanelli, 17 years old, of 2235 Fifth Avenue. They sent a registered letter to the address given by Gentile in the license application, and when the letter on Saturday appeared at the door of his home to sign for the letter he was arrested.

Sue Deserting Wives for Alimony!

Boston, Jan. 11.—Women will no longer be permitted to sue for breach of promise in Massachusetts if Representative Martin Hays has his way. He is introducing a bill to stop 'em. But if Representative Hays thought he was making himself solid with the women voters of his state by such a course, he has found out differently. For the howl that went up is being echoed from coast to coast—proving that women not only believe in women's rights, but in women's privileges. "Breach of promise suits are simply 'hold-ups,'" said Mr. Hays. "To sue a man for changing his mind is plain blackmail. A woman is no more entitled to redress for a broken heart than a man, and what recourse has he if a girl jilts him?" "It sounds fair, but it isn't," objects Miss Ivy Curvala of Dorchester, one of the first to take up the fight against the bill. "Men are more inconstant than

WOMAN BURIED ALIVE, RESCUED, DIES OF TERROR

There comes from Merida, the metropolis of Yucatan, an authentic story of premature burial which is, if possible, even more gruesome than is usual with tales of such lamentable occurrences. The victim of the terrible blunder was a woman who had been ill only a few days. The attending physician pronounced her dead, and unhesitatingly issued a burial permit. The funeral was held, and the procession arrived at the cemetery shortly before nightfall, when, in consideration of the late hour, the burial was deferred to the next day.

But on the following day when the gravedigger had thrown only a few shovelfuls on the coffin he heard a noise coming from it. Then he distinctly heard groaning. He hastened to notify the members of the family, who hurried to the cemetery. The coffin was immediately opened and she who was thought dead rose and looked about, bewildered. Suddenly she understood that had happened, and, overcome by terror, swooned and then died.

New York, Jan. 12.—The marital difficulties of Jonathan P. Meeker of Plainfield and his wife, Anna G. Meeker of Riverdale, which began in 1892, and have outlived two judges, were at last temporarily settled in Newark this week, when a divorce was granted to Mrs. Meeker on the ground of abandonment by Vice Chancellor John E. The couple were married Sept. 27, 1883. Seven years later they separated, and Mrs. Meeker sued for separate maintenance. The suit was dismissed by the late Vice Chancellor Robert S. Green. Three years later Meeker sued for divorce on the ground of desertion. The petition was denied by the late Vice Chancellor John R. Emory, who

What is it you want? asked the Magistrate. "I'll tell you, Judge. I'd like to have you give me back that summons I turned in. I'd like to take it home and frame it. You see I've never been in court before in all my years, and I'd like to keep the ticket as a souvenir of the occasion." The Magistrate told him it would be against court procedure, but gave him permission to bring a photographer to make a picture of it.

LABOR TO PRESENT LEGISLATIVE IDEAS TO THE CABINET

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—Monday, January 22, has been chosen as the day when labor will present its legislative programme to the government. Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress, will head the delegation which will lay before the Prime Minister and members of the cabinet the suggestions of organized labor as to legislation which should be put through during the coming session. The legislative programme is now in course of preparation.

A very enjoyable congregational gathering was held last evening by the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, in the Sunday school room, with a large attendance. The evening was spent in games and friendly talks. Violin solos by Miss Mae Betts and A. O. Patriquen were appreciated. Refreshments were served toward the close. The social was given under the auspices of the senior branch of the W. A., of which Mrs. Amy Bender is president.

The following recipes are put in with the hope that they will prove of service and make this page one to be looked forward to each Friday.

RAISIN CUP CAKES
1-8 cup sugar
2 eggs
1-2 cups oil
2 tablespoons baking powder
1-4 teaspoon salt
1-8 nutmeg
1-4 cup milk
3-4 cup Sun-Maid raisins
Cream butter and add sugar gradually, creaming together. Add beaten eggs. Mix well. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and nutmeg. Add butter mixture alternately with milk. Bake in greased muffin tins 20-30 minutes on hot oven.

Oatmeal With Raisins.
1 teaspoon salt
3 cups boiling water
1 cup oatmeal

Novelty Salad.
4 large celery roots
Water to cover
3-4 tablespoon salt
Pepper
Ripe olives
Salt
Sugar
1/2 cup stewed Sun-Maid Raisins
1/2 cup vinegar

CREAM PUFFS.
1 cup boiling water.
2 cups washed butter.
2 cups flour.
6 eggs.
Place butter and boiling water in saucepan, bring to a boil and add all once the flour. Stir until it forms in ball that will not stick to sides of pan. Place cooked paste in a bowl and beat in one at a time the eggs. With teaspoon place the mixture in little balls on buttered pans two inches apart. Bake twenty to thirty minutes in moderate oven. When cool cut small slit in side and fill with whipped cream mixed with seedless Sun-Maid raisins, or chocolate filling with raisins. Dip top in white frosting. For chocolate filling add to 1/2 cups scalded milk 1/2 cup flour mixed to smooth paste with half cup cold milk. Place in double boiler and cook fifteen minutes, stirring constantly. Beat the yolks of four eggs with cup of sugar and 1/4 teaspoon salt, and stir into hot mixture. Add two squares of melted chocolate and one tablespoonful of butter. Cook until well blended, remove from fire, cool and flavor with vanilla or almond.

English Raisin Scones and--

If you call for tea at an English place they bring you Raisin Scones—they go together. They look like a hot cross bun only larger and divide into four plump raisiny sections and go great toasted. 24c doz.

FRUIT CUPS, ALSO NEW.

Filled with raisins and peel spicing and topped off with coconut icing. A dozen for 35c.

Not so new, but a recent recipe that has "taken" tremendously are Daisy Brown Layer Cakes. Cream filled, marshmallow covered and just luscious—35c.

GOOD WILL GROWS DESPITE POLITICS

Peoples of the world are finding ways of coming closer together despite the political difficulties and obstacles that have arisen since the treaty of Versailles, Herbert S. Houston, publisher of "Our World," points out in an introductory article in the January issue of the magazine.

"That will is based probably on an emotion, rather than on a clear expression of judgment, but it is all the stronger for that very reason, being an inner conviction in the consciousness of millions of people; they have seen war at close range and now lift their hands to shield their eyes from ever seeing it again," Mr. Houston says.

The peace programme of the war veterans of eight allied nations who met recently in New Orleans is an index to what millions are thinking all over the world, Mr. Houston declares.

The agrarian revolution in Europe that is giving land and power to millions of peasants is a direct result of the war and a bulwark against future wars, Mr. Houston maintains.

The churches of the world are making a campaign for a warless world and in the conference of the World Alliance for Friendship Through the Churches which met in Copenhagen in August, took definite steps for binding differing creeds together in a world brotherhood movement.

The Young Men's Christian Association is continuing its work of relief and education to thousands of students and war refugees, laying the foundation for a deeper understanding between peoples, Mr. Houston points out.

The Rockefeller Foundation, in its world war against disease, and the extensive relief activities of the American Relief Administration, also contribute to closer bonds of fellowship, Mr. Houston emphasizes.

The activities of each of the organizations building toward world unity are described in detail in special articles in the January issue of "Our World."

A FRIEND OF THE CHILDREN.
At the monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society last evening the president and several members of the board spoke of the loss the society had sustained in the death of Mrs. J. W. Smith. It was recalled that she was one of those who labored to get a Children's Protection Act for the province and to have a Children's Aid Society for St. John organized; and while her health permitted she took an active interest in the work of the Home in Garden street, as she did in the first Home in the city. A message of condolence had been sent in the society's behalf by the secretary to the bereaved family.

PARKER CASE TO THE JURY THIS AFTERNOON

Counsel Addressed the Jury This Morning

Senator Fowler and Dr. W. B. Wallace Heard, and Judge Barry Begins His Charge—The Court Room Crowded.

Counsel for the crown and defense addressed the jury this morning and Judge Barry began his charge in the case against Mrs. Bessie Parker, charged with the murder of Mary Emily Frontin. Senator G. W. Fowler, K. C., for the defense occupied an hour and ten minutes in his address and he was followed by Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., for the Crown, who spoke for forty minutes. The judge began his charge at 11:55 and was adjourned at one o'clock. His Honor said that there remained one or two points upon which he would address the jury this afternoon.

Throughout the morning Mrs. Parker maintained an air of composure. Her mother was seated directly back of her. The court room was crowded. His Honor announced that no more cases would be taken up this week. It was expected that the case would go to the jury about three o'clock.

Senator Fowler, for the defense, said that the jury must decide as individuals not as a group. Each man had a right to his own opinion. The life or death of the accused was in their hands. If a verdict of guilty were brought in through a mistake there could be no remedy. The evidence was peculiar in this case. One important actor in the drama had passed away. There was a witness who could not be called. Further there was the evidence of the sister to which he did not think much evidence should be given. As to the evidence of Dr. McDonald he said the doctor had sent no word of her condition with her when he sent her to the hospital. This was on September 26 and she was treated for twenty-four hours before further steps were taken to treat her. If Dr. McDonald had sent a brief statement to the hospital she would have been treated differently when she went in. There was a great spirit among doctors of standing by one another in this case had refused to answer his questions for reasons of their own. It was a noble profession, though in some cases the members acted as assistant bartenders. The Crown would try to show that the cause of death was an operation alleged to have been performed by the accused. He contended that if the girl had been promptly and properly treated her death might not have occurred. He thought, with all due deference to the judge, that the dying declaration had been improperly admitted. He said that the language of the dying declaration was that of an uneducated girl would use, and that it had not been dictated by her, but drawn up by Mr. Gale. Under the conditions existing the girl would sign whatever was presented to her. He commended to the jury the attitude of the accused on the stand under a running fire of questions. Hers was a very embarrassing position, and she was under a terrible strain. He reviewed the evidence on the stand. Referring to the knitting needle, he said it could not cause such a wound as the doctors had described. He claimed that the current might have caused the wound during the progress of the currying. The case came down to the statement made by the girl when she was under the influence of the needle or something else. It was impossible for a current to cause it. He said that the treatment accorded the girl at the hospital had not in any way contributed to her death. Death certainly was caused by an abortion. He dealt with the duties of Crown counsel and how it was regarded, and went, at some length, into the matter of reasonable doubt. The jury owed a duty to the living as well as to the dead. He appealed not for mercy but for justice. This was a case of murder or nothing. The Crown might call them a murderer or manslaughter. The latter was a compromised verdict, and meant imprisonment for life. For the Crown. Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., said the jurors had a duty to perform for the community. The crime was a serious one—the punishment death. One fact was absolutely clear, and that was that the girl must have died as the result of a puncture, whether caused by the needle or something else. It was impossible for a current to cause it. He said that the treatment accorded the girl at the hospital had not in any way contributed to her death. Death certainly was caused by an abortion. He dealt with the duties of Crown counsel and how it was regarded, and went, at some length, into the matter of reasonable doubt. The jury owed a duty to the living as well as to the dead. He appealed not for mercy but for justice.

First of Series of School Lad Events on Lily Lake Tomorrow—The Entries and the Officials.

Everything is in readiness for the big school boy meet which will be commenced tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on Lily Lake, according to announcement of W. E. Strling, physical director of the Y. M. C. I., under the auspices the races are being held. The entry list closed yesterday and includes boys, under seventeen years of age, from practically every school in the city. A feature of the meet will be that any boy who qualifies in his class will have the privilege of stepping up into the next class should he desire. There is a splendid ice reported at the rink at Lily Lake today.

Known only the ten and twelve year old classes will be skated. Next Saturday the fourteen year class will be run off and on the following Saturday the sixteen year old boys will compete. Following is the list of entries and officials:

Edward Wood, C. Kirkpatrick, James Robertson, Edgar Peterson, Donald Dunbrack.

Rickers, Walter Mer, William T. Kiley, Walter Carson, Gordon King, Harold Chase, Walter G. Moore, Gustave Comeau, Robert Kelley, David McMann.

Sixteen Year Old.
Fred Bridgeo, Clement O'Connor, Gerald Atkins, William Logan, William Ervine, Donald McCaverty, William Gray, Gertrude McCavour, Ervin Leonard, Murray Treacraft, Anthony Belyea, Harry Webster, Harry Toole, Bruce Gordon, Lloyd Allaby, Herbert Cassidy, Clarence Merryweather, William McKenzie, Arthur Reid, Gregory Hammond, Charles Johnson, Sam McLehlan, Hugh McLehlan, Lloyd Strling, Robert Howe, John Chandler.

Officials.
Referee, C. A. Owens; starter, Dr. J. R. Nugent; timers, M. R. Dolan and H. J. Sheehan; judges, Thos. Killen, E. H. L. Nixon, T. R. Sweeney; clerk of course, W. E. Strling; scorer, F. W. Kelly; assistant clerk of course, Noel Jenkins.

He thought the evidence of the sister of the dead girl should be given credence. As to the shadow of doubt, it must come from the whole of the evidence. The jury had a right to take into consideration any facts which might cause them to arrive at some other verdict than that of guilty of murder. The woman might have committed the crime without the intention of causing death and therefore she might be found guilty of manslaughter. Speaking of the knitting needle, he said it did not appear to have been used much for knitting.

Judge's Charge.
Judge Barry said it was his duty to instruct the jury in the law and make such observations on the evidence as he considered necessary. It was their privilege to find one of three verdicts—guilty, not guilty of murder but guilty of manslaughter, or not guilty generally. They had nothing to do with the measure of punishment. He went quite fully into the legal meaning of the act of murder. The section in the Criminal Code which applied to this case was that which said that if the offender performed for an unlawful object an illegal act which she knew or ought to have known would likely cause death, the accused was guilty of murder. His Honor then dealt with the crime of manslaughter. If the jury thought the accused had used an instrument not dangerous in itself and with no intent to cause death she was guilty of manslaughter. Where the death resulted from an act performed the accused would be guilty of murder unless there were sufficient extenuating circumstances to reduce the charge to manslaughter or justifiable or excusable homicide. In this case they must look for extenuating circumstances.

He reviewed the facts of the case. The Crown had to satisfy the jury that the woman was guilty either of murder or manslaughter in order to obtain a conviction. The Crown must prove their case beyond reasonable doubt. It was giving the prisoner the benefit of the doubt. He was satisfied that an instrument had been used either by the girl herself or someone else. There were three salient questions in the case: First, was an illegal operation performed on Mary Frontin? second, did Mary Frontin die as the result of the operation? and, third, did Mrs. Parker perform this operation? If the jury found affirmatively they must find her guilty of murder. If not, they must acquit her. Mrs. Parker had given very straightforward evidence, but no one knew what took place between Mary Frontin and Mrs. Parker but themselves. Miss Frontin was dead. He read a brief summary of the evidence given by the accused, and placed over against it the dying declaration of Mary Frontin. He regretted that Mrs. Parker's evidence had left with him the impression that the identification of herself at the hospital had been a frame-up. (Mr. Fowler vigorously protested that such was not the case.) With reference to the whole case it was for the jury to decide whom to believe. He was thoroughly satisfied that he was right in admitting the dying declaration.

FIRST MOTORS CROSS SAHARA

Tractor Caravan Covers a 2,000-Mile Trip in 21 Days—Camels Require at Least Three Months.

Paris, Jan. 12—A new kind of caravan, composed of five little French caterpillar automobiles, has crossed the Sahara desert from Algeria, on the north coast of Africa, to French West Africa, making the 2,000-mile trip from Tugurt to Timbuctoo in twenty-one days.

Camel caravans require a minimum of three months to make the journey. These were the first automobiles to cross the great desert.

The tractor expedition was organized by M. Citroen, a French automobile manufacturer, both from the standpoint of scientific exploration and experiment in automobilism.

Each of the automobiles was constructed somewhat differently from the other, so that a practical demonstration might be made of various devices.

Lays Murders at Door Of the Hooded Klan

Giant Witness in No Fear as He Testifies—Tells of Kidnapping—Names Make Auditors Gasp as Striking Revelations are Made.

Bastrop, La., Jan. 11.—Capt. Skipwith told me that the Klan had already gotten two of the six marked men, Daniel and Richards, and would get the other four.

There are no other important iron and coal deposits in the French ore fields and the Ruhr coal region, and France's whole policy of occupation is based on exploiting these two districts, said Dr. Arnold Voltmann and Machine Works, here today.

He intimated the opinion that passive resistance to the French on the part of German labor might result in a wholesale shutdown of the great industrial plants of the Ruhr Valley.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The legal consideration on which Germany will probably be bound to accept the terms of the Versailles treaty cited by France as warrant for her course were intended to cover only economic and financial measures and not the use of force.

Ottawa, Jan. 12.—The recent military expedition on the part of France into the Ruhr Valley would never have taken place if the labor movement in France had been as solid as it was in 1919.

In a packed court room he related the story of the kidnapping on the night of Aug. 24, when five men were abducted, two of whom were murdered.

By his statement Norsworthy linked the Klan with the murder of Daniels and Richards, plantation owner; Dr. E. M. McKain and many others in the operations of the Klan.

Norsworthy started the court room spectators with his statement: "I was a member of the Klan but after attending two meetings, I resigned." From that moment on, little prompted by the officials of the state, for the witness seemed eager to tell all, thrills plenty were provided.

The testimony of the witness was more than a general outline of the operations of the Klan. He mentioned names that he had seen in the list of orders issued by the Klan and of plans made to drive out or kill its enemies.

Openly he denounced the Klan as an organization which he shrank because of its lawlessness. He held of receiving an order from Capt. Skipwith instructing him to assemble a white mob and two negroes to the Arkansas state line, after whipping them, and to order them not to return to this parish.

There was a stir in the court room when the witness mentioned the names of four men who he declared were present when the Hamilton girl was kidnapped and ordered from Mer Rouge.

Thomas Banks and sons wish to thank all friends for the kind sympathy and spiritual offerings shown to them during their recent sad bereavement in the loss of a loving wife and dear mother.

DELEGATION MAY BE SENT TO OTTAWA

Breakwater Extension and More Grain Conveyors.

December Payments $240,500—Report of Committee of the Whole Adopted Save for Section Dealing With Fixed Valuations.

The sending of a delegation to Ottawa to urge upon the Dominion Government the necessity of extending the Negro Island breakwater to Partridge Island and of providing more grain conveyors for this port was advocated by some of the commissioners at a meeting of the City Council this morning.

Commissioner Frink thought that the City should be careful that the new conveyors did not cause an increase of the insurance rates and he suggested that Commissioner Bullock get assurance from the insurance companies.

Commissioner Frink thought that rather than sending resolutions, a delegation should go to Ottawa and get a definite answer from the minister of public works.

Commissioner Bullock said he did not anticipate an increase; he had hoped some, on account of some added facilities for a reduction in the rate.

SAVE THE VICTORY

Admiral Sturdee's Appeal to the Empire in His London Address.

(Navy and Military Record) Lecturing on "The Victory's Life History, and what she means to the Empire," at the Royal College of Science on Thursday night, Admiral of the Fleet Sir F. C. Doveton Sturdee made an appeal for funds to ensure the restoration and preservation of the Victory.

A ship's history, he continued, started with the ship of its name, so that the Victory was a century older than any of our regiments and older than most ships in the navy at the present time.

"I have come to the conclusion," added Sir Doveton Sturdee, "that we are the best hated nation in the world. Other nations hate us because they are jealous, because we are the greatest power in the world, and we have to be prepared to defend our possessions.

Says Glass of Salts Helps to Overcome Rheumatism Acid.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly, keep the feet dry, avoid exercising, and avoid eating sweets of all kinds.

Rheumatism is caused by body waste and acids resulting from food fermentation. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this poison from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of its impurity.

RADIO TO GUIDE FISHERS IN SEARCH FOR HERRING
 Gothenburg, Dec. 6.—(By mail.)—The radiophone is becoming a serious menace to the safety of the herring of the Swedish coast. The fishermen out at sea soon will be told from the Gothenburg radio central the exact location of the herring schools. This unique service, which will tend to eliminate wasteful waiting on the part of fishermen, and will doubtless mean a considerable increase in the catches of herring, is the newest commercial use to which the wireless telephone will be put in Sweden, according to plans just completed.

While merchant vessels have for some time been required by law to carry wireless equipment, the smaller fishing vessels have hitherto operated without systems of communication with the land. They will now receive weather reports, forecasts and news, as well as the radio tips regarding the appearance of the herring.

Plans are on foot to distribute news in Sweden by radio telephone. Experiments are being made from Stockholm as a centre.

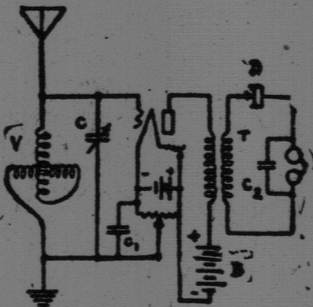

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

Lesson No. 204. AMPLIFIED CRYSTAL RECEPTION.

Under normal conditions a crystal receiver is sufficiently sensitive to operate satisfactorily for the reception of music or speech within a radius of twenty-five miles from a broadcasting station. Within this range the minute amounts of energy in the electromagnetic waves have the necessary strength to properly actuate the crystal detector and thereby convert the high frequency oscillations into impulses that flow in one direction. After rectification these impulses are impressed upon the sensitive mechanism of the receiving telephones and converted into audible sounds.

When the energy contained in signals radiated from a distance transmitting station is too feeble to operate the crystal detector, it is possible to build up the strength of the original radio wave by inserting one or more stages of radio-frequency amplification between the antenna and the crystal detector. In the accompanying diagram is shown a circuit adapted for short wave reception, consisting of one stage of radio-frequency amplification used in conjunction with a crystal detector.

The tuned circuit consists of the variometer or variable inductance (V) and the variable tuning condenser (C), these elements being adjusted to the frequency of the incoming signal. The voltage variations of the signal are then impressed upon the grid of the amplifier tube, the filament of which is heated by a six-volt storage battery known as the "A" battery. The voltage variations on the grid cause amplified voltage variations in the plate circuit which includes the "BY" battery with a potential of approximately forty-five volts and the primary coil of the radio-frequency amplifying transformer (T). A potentiometer having a resistance of 200 ohms is connected to the sliding contact so as to adjust the potential of the grid to the critical value necessary to obtain proper amplification without distortion. The condenser (C-1) has a capacity of .002 micro-farad and provides an easy path for the oscillations of radio-frequency.

The amplified radio-frequency oscillations in the plate circuit are transferred by means of the voltage amplifying transformer (T) and impressed upon the crystal detector (D). By means of the increased strength obtained through amplification, the signals actuate the detector and are converted into a series of uni-directional pulsations, each pulsation placing a charge on the plates of the telephone condenser (C-2), which has a capacity of .002 micro-farad.

The receiving telephones are connected across the condenser and the charge leaks through them in the form of current variations which act on the diaphragm and reproduce the sounds of music or speech which originated at the transmitting station. Although the oscillations impressed upon the detector are rectified into uni-directional impulses, it is important to note that these impulses have a high frequency and would be obstructed by the large impedance of the receiving telephones were it not for the easy path provided by the telephone condenser (C-2). This condenser is sometimes omitted, due to the capacity existing both in the telephone leads and between the windings, but as the value of this capacity is small, better results are obtained by using the condenser.

If the crystal of galena is employed for the detector the opposing contact should be a fine wire resting upon a sensitive point of the crystal with a light pressure. With a crystal of carborundum, however, the firm pressure of a sharp contact is necessary and also the addition of an external circuit consisting of a low voltage battery regulated by a potentiometer, thus providing a steady flow of current through the crystal and rendering it more sensitive.

Buffalo, Jan. 11.—Twenty-four persons, including four women, are under arrest on charges of violating the Federal Narcotic act as a result of the raids by Federal agents, Ralph H. Oyler, Federal chief for New York State, who personally directed the raids, declares that a vicious dope ring which had been operating in this city for years has been broken up, and all the ring leaders are in custody.

More than forty persons were found in the several places raided. All persons in the places raided were taken to the Federal Building, where their records were taken. Most of them were drug addicts. One has given the Federal agents valuable information which probably will result in the arrest of a very prominent Buffalo druggist.

Among the prisoners is John Mangano, a druggist, who is alleged to be one of the principals in the drug rings, though not the chief druggist in the outfit. The Federal agents say Mangano has been supplying street peddlers with dope for the last year. When his place was raided the agents found cocaine and morphine valued at $2,000 ready for distribution to agents.

Newsboys have been in Mangano's employ for some time, and used newspapers as a side line, the Federal men allege, and others who are charged with selling and possessing drugs have been supplied from the same source.

SCIENTISTS TO EXPLORE AUSTRALIAN MYSTERY LAND

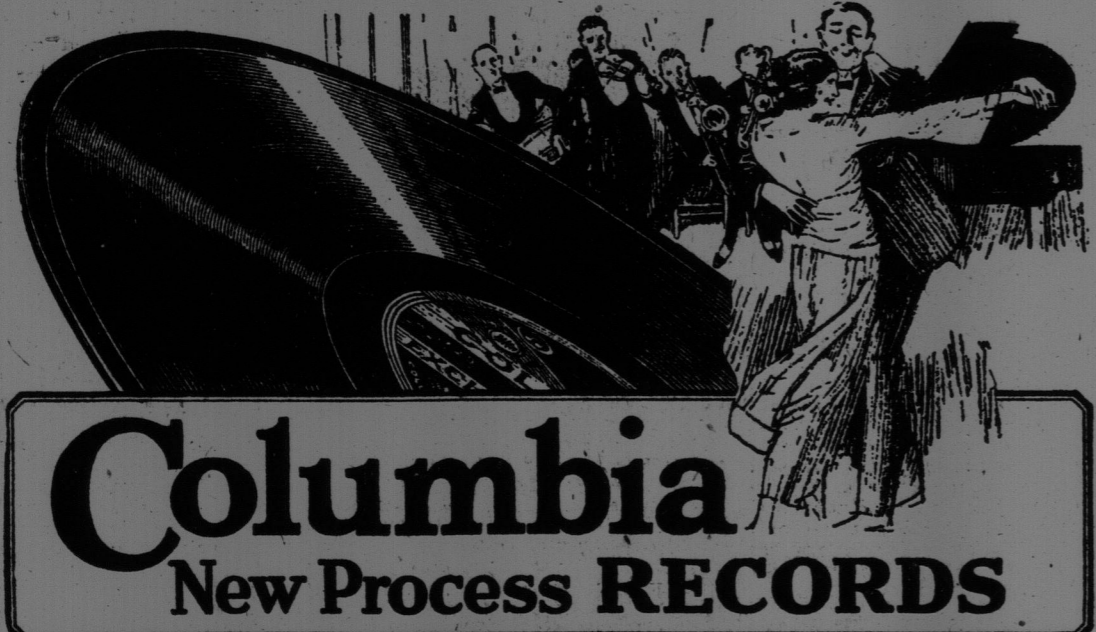

British and American Group to Search Wild Interior of Continent.

Sydney, N. S. W., Dec. 12.—(By Mail.)—A vast area in central Australia that has remained virtually a mystery land because of its inaccessibility is to be penetrated by a group of British and American scientists exploring under the auspices of the British-American Exploration Syndicate. Two of the explorers are C. W. Rogers, of San Diego, and Sergeant A. A. Waelly, who was with the 18th American Engineers in France. Final arrangements will be made in Townsville and the party will sail around Cape York and across the Gulf of Carpentaria to Port Darwin, where final stores will be shipped. An endeavor will be made to land between Port Darwin and Broome.

The party intends to proceed inland through country inhabited by negro tribes, which are said to be hostile to white men. The explorers hope to conciliate the tribe members and to gain much valuable assistance from them.

The equipment of the party will include a small wireless telegraph plant by which it is hoped that communication may be maintained with some of the cattle stations on the northwest coast. A motion picture machine will be used and pictures will be taken of various features of the country and of the tribes, if possible. It is estimated that the expedition will be away between eighteen months and two years. They hope to work across Australia to the south.

Thirty per cent. of the automobile tires manufactured in the U. S. are used west of the Mississippi river.

Columbia New Process RECORDS

Melody unmarred by distracting noise!

Columbia discovers a process which produces records virtually free from objectionable surface noise.

As a phonograph owner you have always been annoyed by the swish, grinding and scratching noises of records. This "surface noise" has been considered impossible to remove. After years of experiment the Columbia Graphophone Company to-day presents to the world a record that is virtually noiseless.

An ultra fine surface
 This record has been made possible by Columbia's patented laminated, or three-ply construction. The core or centre leaf in Columbia New Process Records, because it is absolutely distinct from the playing surfaces, is made of a harder, more durable substance. Over this rigid backbone are laid the two playing faces made of the new, ultra fine, ultra smooth surface fabric.

Just pure melody
 With New Process Columbia Records you get all the real beauty of voice, all the exquisite delicate tones of the 'cello and the violin! You get melody unmarred by objectionable surface noise that has been considered impossible to remove until Columbia removed it!

Fully protected by patents
 In no other record can you get the same wonderful degree of surface quietness and pure, uninterrupted music, for the simple reason that Columbia alone possesses the secret of making a material which, employed as a surface for phonograph records, obliterates obnoxious and intrusive surface sounds.

Here are two new dance records, New Process of course, and your dealer will gladly play them, or any other recent Columbia selections. You will be delighted by the clear reproduction of every note—nothing is lost by surface sound.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

N. B. FAILURES IN 1922 WERE EIGHTY-FIVE

Dun & Co. Report on Business in the Province Last Year Not Very Prosperous, But it is Felt the Worst is Over—Trade More Optimistic—Reports from Various Lines.

The Mercantile Agency, R. G. Dun & Co., report as follows on trade conditions the last year and the general outlook for 1923. In commercial circles the year 1922 is not likely to have proved very prosperous though it is felt the worst is over, most hopeful sign being the attitude of the trade, which is much more optimistic, and this is reflected in a practical sense in spring bookings, which are much better than last year.

The lumber situation has shown much improvement in the last six months. There is good demand, and most unskilled workers are light, and in all sections woods operations are comparatively heavy and the outlook for the coming spring is regarded favorably.

Like other lines, groceries have been affected by the drop in values, but they are pretty well recovered and steadier market conditions are the outlook for the current year. There is an increasing demand for heavier groceries owing to larger lumber operations.

In the hardware the last year has been a fair one. Tendency in the last three months has been toward a stiffening in prices of certain lines, and that has meant somewhat freer buying in order to take advantage of old stocks.

1922 was quite unfavorable in the boot and shoe trade, and liquidation of stocks resulted in low prices to the consumer. It is felt that the limits have been reached, however, and the trade report is stiffening in quotations.

The year 1922 would be classed as only fair in the fish trade. Salmon, hake and gaspareux were pretty well up to the average catch, at least sufficient for the demand.

1922 was a fair year for the cottons—Demand fair; prices strong; production at high point. Silks—Fair demand; prices firm; production gaining.

Woolens—Demand seasonally slack; prices firm, with likelihood of advance; production high.

Apparel—Spring demand growing; prices firm; production gaining slightly, but threatened by possibility of strikes.

Leather—Demand fair; inventories in the Chicago Style Show engross attention of shoe trade.

Jewelry—Business rather spotty; prices unchanged; manufacturers preparing for Easter season.

MORE RECORDS MADE AT STOCK EXCHANGE

Buying Movement Resumed at Stock Exchange Opening Today—Quiet in Montreal.

New York, Jan. 12.—(opening)—Resumption of yesterday's late buying movement in the opening of today's stock market. Specialties continued to attract the most attention although such market leaders as Baldwin and Studabaker soon moved to higher ground, with American Locomotive, Republic and Crucible steels, Pan-American and Houston Oil. Toronto Petroleum advanced 1 point to 81, another new top. There were a few weak points, the most conspicuous of which was Mack Truck, off nearly a point.

Delaware and Hudson, which was in free supply yesterday on rumors that the present dividend was in danger, opened 7 1/2 points higher at 118 on overnight announcement by President Loree, that no change in dividend policy was contemplated. Steel and Tube preferred was pushed up five points to a new high on the movement and Hartmann Corporation established a new peak price on a gain of two points.

Baldwin Asks Fair Deal in Debt Parley

Business Adjustment, Not Charity, Britain's Aim—United States to Get Every Cent Due, He Says

Negotiations at Washington this week between the American and British debt funding commissions opened with a declaration by Stanley Baldwin, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, that all his government wanted was a "square deal" in the settlement of its war debt to the United States, aggregating more than $4,000,000,000.

Text of Baldwin Address. The text of Mr. Baldwin's address follows: "On behalf of the British delegation, I take this opportunity of expressing to the American Government and people our heartfelt appreciation of the warmth and courtesy of our reception, a reception so characteristic of the generosity of this great nation."

It was the first contribution made by the United States to save civilization from being engulfed and the people being brought under the destructive rule of a military autocracy; it was followed by the contribution of the most powerful of the United States, which soldiers fought so gallantly with ours and those of our allies for the same purpose.

Points to Britain's Taxes. "The payment of our debt to you will impose upon us the necessity of levying heavy taxes to meet these payments. From the beginning of the war we have endeavored to reduce our taxes, but we have not been able to do so because of the necessities of the war."

Our wish is to approach the discussion as business men seeking a business solution of what is fundamentally a business problem. May I put it in another way? We intend to pay, but how can international credit be made liquid when the creditor nation is unwilling to permit liquidation through the direct delivery of goods and is so unwilling to see the current sale of her products to the debtor nation interrupted, and when the debtor nation is unable to put in the position of being unable to buy the products of the creditor nation?

COPPER MARKET FIRM

Based on estimates of three big New York selling agents there were 270,000 pounds of copper sold in December for domestic and foreign shipment.

World a nugget of gold worth $400,000,000 we would have spared no sacrifice to obtain it, and should have brought it with us, but unfortunately the limitations of nature put such a simple method of payment out of the question and we have to explore other means.

"At the time these goods were bought we were associates in a great war. Out of $7,000,000,000 worth of goods bought after the United States came into the war, we paid for $3,000,000,000 worth, leaving $4,000,000,000 which were supplied to us on credit. Now, the debt is a debt for goods supplied, it would be natural to ask, 'Why not repay with goods?'"

"I am sure that consideration is sufficient to answer that question. These goods were supplied in war time at war prices. Prices have fallen so far that to repay $4,000,000,000 Great Britain would have to send to America a far greater bulk of goods than she originally purchased with the money, and laying aside all consideration of the tariff barrier, would it be possible for America to accept repayment in coal, iron, steel, manufactured cotton goods and so forth—a method of payment which would affect the employment of her people for years to come?"

"We have now seen that immediate that an equivalent transaction in repayment by goods is full of difficulties, to us shall have to explore other remaining method of international payments are presented by the markets of the world."

"I have already referred to the weight of our taxation which with the prolonged unemployment is already crushing on our women and children. So far from the war having left us richer by the acquisition of new territory, the acceptance of mandates and the most disturbed parts of the world have involved us in vast unproductive expenditures in policing and patrolling territories in which we have no rights which are not open equally to other nations."

OPTIMISM IN OLD AGE

(Indianapolis News.) Henry G. Gentry, a famous showman, recently received an offer of $50,000 to leave his home and manage a circus, a business that he had followed for more than 40 years. He is not wealthy, as wealth is counted, but he refused the offer. He said, "I have visited every town of any size in the United States, Canada and Mexico. The name of Gentry has become known wherever there is a little boy or girl who attends the dog and cat show, and yet business has taken from me the embraces and kisses of my children. In the years that I have been on the road I have seen my children grow up and get acquainted with my wife and children. I am going back to Bloomington, where I can live with my boyhood friends, and where I won't be lonesome and sorry for myself. I am going to get back into the sunshine where there is real life, real happiness, real laughter and real cheerfulness."

GREEK VERSUS TURK

(New York Times.) The issue between Greeks and Turks is not one of comparative atrocities—though even on that basis the Greeks could show the better record. With the Greeks, destruction of villages and killing of inhabitants have come from immediate bitter passion. With the Turks, they spring, as a rule, from a settled policy. The Turk is unable to deal with a superior race except by massacre and deportation.

Prices Are Now Up About $2 a Ton From December Levels. (Boston Herald.) Pig iron, which the past three weeks has advanced about $2 a ton over the lows of December, is scheduled for further advances in the near future. Majority of merchant furnaces are well sold throughout first quarter, and coke, a leading item in production cost, has recently advanced over fifty per cent, from about $9.25 the second week in December to $9.50, Connellville. Continued demand for coke as substitute for domestic sizes of anthracite precludes probability of easier coke prices before March 1.

D. MAGEE'S SONS, LIMITED MASTER FURRIERS SINCE 1859 ST. JOHN, N. B.

WIFE SUES HER MISSING HUSBAND OVER GEMS Lawyer's Third Spouse Attaches His Property After She Redeems Jewelry.

New York, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Myrtle Goodrich Bauchle, third wife of George Young Bauchle, lawyer and grandson of George Young, licentiate manufacturer, is suing her husband in the Supreme Court for $4,896.

The wife alleges she paid pawnbrokers to redeem jewelry which she says she entrusted to her husband for safekeeping between 1916 and 1921. She says he pawned them.

Mrs. Bauchle got an attachment against her husband's property on the ground that he disappeared last year and she did not believe he intended to return. Before he went he had the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company substituted as trustee under his grandfather's will of a fund of $250,000 which his daughter, Joyce, now seven years old, a child of his first marriage, will inherit when she is twenty-one years old. She also obtained an order from Justice Tierney permitting her to serve the papers upon her husband by mailing them to an address from where he wrote last summer to the trust company.

The petition of Mrs. Bauchle stated that she was told by Nathaniel Evans, former business associate of her husband, that he is now in China and does not intend to return. She said she asked Arnold Rothstein about her husband, and Rothstein said he did not believe he was in this country, because he thought he would have heard from him on account of a claim by Bauchle that Rothstein owes him money.

Mrs. Bauchle adopted her step-daughter in 1916. She had herself appointed guardian for the daughter in the Surrogate's Court last spring on her statement that Bauchle told one of the officers of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company that he had squandered property left him by his grandfather and that he owed $50,000 to hotels, restaurants, shops and other creditors when he left New York. At the time he left he was technically in contempt of court for failing to appear for examination in supplementary proceedings on a judgment obtained by his second wife, Mrs. Florence Fyles Bauchle, under an agreement to support her when she got her divorce in Reno in 1913.

A party of about eighty of the Y. M. C. I. seniors and the senior members of St. Vincent's gymnasium classes returned to the Y. M. C. I. afterwards enjoyed a toboggan party at Lily Lake last night. It was an ideal night and the outing was good fun. The party substituted as trustee under his grandfather's will of a fund of $250,000 which his daughter, Joyce, now seven years old, a child of his first marriage, will inherit when she is twenty-one years old. She also obtained an order from Justice Tierney permitting her to serve the papers upon her husband by mailing them to an address from where he wrote last summer to the trust company.

Curb on Divorcees BY ATLANTA CLERGY 37 Ministers Decide Not to Remarry Any Except Innocent Parties in Infidelity Suits.

Atlanta, Jan. 12.—Stirred by the increase in divorcees which has become a local scandal, the Evangelical Ministers' Association voted that its members should not wed divorced persons unless the divorce was granted on the biblical ground—infidelity.

The resolution, signed by every one of the thirty-seven clergymen present, read: "We, the Evangelical Ministers' Association of Atlanta, viewing with dismay the growing evil of divorce which is so grievously destroying the sanctity and integrity and lowering the ideals of married life, desire to put ourselves on record that we will not perform any marriage ceremony in which either party to the contract has a former husband or wife living, except in the case of the innocent party divorced for the reason given in the New Testament. We make this statement in order that no one in the future may be put to the embarrassment of being refused."

So great has become the divorce evil in Atlanta, which has become known as the Reno of the South, that one Judge intimated the other day that as a remedy it might come to pass that judges will decree that divorce cases will take their places on the civil docket like any other cases. This would mean that some divorcees would not be reached for three or four years.

Fredericton Exhibition Game.
Fredericton won an exhibition game from Marysville on the Fredericton Ice last night by the score of 3 to 2. The game was fast and good, with the home team showing the best team play, while the individual work of their opponents was brilliant enough to keep the ice in doubt.

Fatality in Columbus.
Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 12. — Lloyd George Patsy White, twenty-two, middleweight boxer, died in a local hospital last night of injuries received in a bout here on last Monday night. He suffered concussion of the brain, the result of his head striking the floor when he was knocked down by Giant "Kid" Clark of Columbus. He never regained consciousness.

Willard Barred.
Topeka, Kan., Jan. 11. — Jess Willard, for a short time world's champion boxer, official records show, is at least forty years old, and therefore barred from the ring under rules of the State Boxing Commission of New York. The age limit fixed by the commission is thirty-eight, while Willard's promoters have asserted Jess is but thirty-six.

Reno in Demand.
New York, Jan. 12. — (Canadian Press.) — Jack Renault, who has acted as sparring partner for Jack Dempsey, has made such a favorable impression in recent bouts that his services are largely sought. CURLING.
Thistles Win Blair Cup.
The Blair Cup, the famous curling trophy competed for at the big bonspiel yesterday, was brought back to St. John by the Thistle Club representatives after a hard-fought match in the evening with the Fredericton curlers, the former holders of the cup. In the semi-finals Thistle rink No. 1 beat Bathurst and Fredericton No. 1 beat Thistle No. 2 and in the finals Thistle No. 1 proved too much for their opponents from the capital. The two skips, J. S. Malcolm and W. A. Shaw, veterans of many curling battles, stood up well under the strain. The final score was as follows:
Thistles. Fredericton.
T. A. Belmont. 11 J. S. Malcolm. 16
F. P. Hatt. 9 W. A. Shaw. 16
The afternoon play was as follows:

Scots at Quebec.
Quebec, Jan. 17. — (Canadian Press.) — The Scotch curlers competed in eleven games here, yesterday, winning five. They met Victoria, Quebec, Three Rivers, Wayagamack and Shawinigan. Four of the visitors' victories were won in the afternoon and the fifth in the evening play. Incidentally the game won by the Scots required an extra end. On the day's play the Scots were outscored 85 to 78. Col. Alkman, the captain of the Scot-fish team, was unable to participate in the games here owing to illness.

All of the Scotch curlers, with the exception of those who took part in the evening games, left on the late train for Montreal. The others will leave his afternoon.
BASEBALL.
The Big Leagues.
New York, Jan. 11. — Opening games of the National League on April 17, disclosed today at league headquarters, will find New York at Boston, Pittsburgh at Chicago, Philadelphia at Brooklyn and St. Louis at Cincinnati. The shift after the first four-game series will bring New York to Brooklyn, Pittsburgh to Cincinnati, St. Louis to Chicago and Philadelphia to Boston.
American Openers.
Chicago, Jan. 11. — Detroit will be the attraction for the opening of the American League season at St. Louis; Chicago at Cleveland; Washington at Philadelphia, and Boston will pry off the lid with the Yankees at New York. President Johnson announces.
The season will open April 18, the day after the National League starts.
The New York War.
(New York Times.)
Last week's brief battle between Yankees and Giants had in it more animus than logic, but there was also a saving touch of unconscious humor that was supplied when the one club called the other mercenary. In this era of the national sport that is a terrific charge, and perchance Commissioner Landis ought to do something about it.
Possibly the Giants were a bit too frank in their communique—the statement that started the battle of Manhattan. They told President Heyden that five extra Sunday games would mean a cool $100,000, and that is an item which no shrewd magnate can overlook these days. In rebuttal the Yankees roared into the higher realm of ethics; they declared that they were anxious only for the cause of Sunday baseball in New York. In the next sentence there was a sudden drop back to more sordid matters, for they informed Ban Johnson that the Giants were merely trying to get back in extra Sunday game receipts, the Yankee rental which they had lost, and "if we permit them to secure this money we acknowledge that our league will again confess to the feebleness against which the construction of the Yankee stadium is supposed to fortify us."

It is to be feared that the sacred cause of Sunday baseball is a minor issue in the controversy. Undoubtedly if the Yankees could get five extra Sunday games without the Giants also getting the same number they would take them and let the finer ethical points slide. It looks very much as if the Yanks are waving a noble disdainful hand at $100,000 to keep their business rival from making the same sum, and that is doubtful logic in any business.
Politicians are influenced by votes, and if there are 100,000 people at Sunday games here instead of 50,000 the cause of Sunday ball is strengthened rather than weakened. This institution is firmly entrenched in Chicago, and yet there they had three games going on the same afternoon in Federal League days without Sunday baseball being hurt by it. Let the Yanks and Giants play if there are fans who want to see them; if one game is a benefit and boon to the community, as baseball men claimed when they sought the legalizing of Sunday contests, then two games must be a double benefit.

For a player who reached his greatest fame in the nineties, Willie Keeler held an unusually high place in the affections of present-day fans. When he died last Monday, hundreds mourned who had never seen him on the field of play. He was a picturesque figure, a maker of hitting records, a superb hunter and a wonderful fielder. There has never been any other man who equaled him in place hitting, outfielders of baseball, and he was a gentleman in a day when that was almost a term of reproach on the diamond.
ATHLETIC.
Service Men's Rally.
The Great War Veterans Association of Canada has been invited by Field Marshal Earl Haig, president of the British Legion and the British Empire Service League, to send a team of athletes to London to compete in the classic rally to be held there on July 1. A special request was made that Canada enter a team in the relay race for the King's Shield. It is proposed by the G. W. V. A. to form a central committee to keep in touch with various meets and with the records made.

NOMINATIONS FOR FUTURITY OF 1925 ARE INCREASED TO 1,499
New York, Jan. 12. — Entries received through the mails by the Westchester Acing Association increased the total for the Futurity, the two-year-old turf classic to be run in 1925 at Belmont Park, to 1,499. Among the late arrivals of nominations were those of Adolph Spreckels of California. He named ten mares, bred mostly to Runymede, the sire of Morvich. Further entries from Rudolph Spreckels and others on the Coast are expected today. These additional ones will probably swell the grand total well beyond the 1,500 mark. The present entry of 1,499 is 109 more than was received for the juvenile classic when it closed a year ago for its running in 1924 and 100 more than the highest recorded in any other year. Nominations by the Nursery Stud were forty-seven instead of twenty-seven, the latter number having been announced as official through an error in transcription. This total lifts the well-known Kentucky establishment well up on the list of patrons for the greatest two-year-old prize. These forty-seven dams have been mated with Fair Play, Hourless, Man-o-War and other sires which Major August Belmont deemed worthy of patronage.

INTER-SOCIETY POOL.
In the inter-society pool tournament last night, in the Y. M. C. I. St. John the Baptist society defeated the Y. M. C. I. by the score of 100 to 88. McDonald and Spears represented St. John the Baptist society and McCrossin and Kiley played for the Y. M. C. I.
TOUR ICE CIRCUITS.
Charlottetown, P. E. I., Jan. 12. — Colonel D. A. McKinnon, local horseman, has left here for Mount Clemens, Michigan, where he will take possession of his recent purchase, Dan Patchen (E. I.). He will tour the Michigan and Ontario ice circuits.
The finance committee of the School Board met last night to deal with several matters which had been referred to the committee, at the last meeting of the board. The greater part of the time was taken up with figuring on the adjustment of salaries. Several recommendations were made which will be dealt with by the board later.

Red Cross Work of Year In Province is Reviewed

Miss Jarvis, at Meeting Today, Presents Detailed Report of Activities—Now to Be Self-Supporting—The Financial Statement.

Today the annual meeting of the New Brunswick branch of the Red Cross Society is being held in St. John. Some of the reports are here presented: The report of Miss Ethel H. Jarvis, secretary, was as follows:— To the President, Officers and Members of the N. B. Division Provincial Red Cross I beg to submit the following annual report from December 9, 1924 to January 12, 1925.

Throughout the last 13 months the division has held eleven regular and twelve special or executive meetings. To all the regular meetings notes have been sent of branches throughout the province. It is a matter of very sincere regret that it is not possible for many to attend these monthly meetings, but it is with the greatest pleasure that we welcome today and feel that truly it makes an annual meeting well worth while.

Following the hearty welcome that we extend to our delegates must come a sincere good wishes we express to our new branches—Grand Manan, Campbellton, the branch re-organized in Shediac and to our auxiliary at Sussex. Each and all of these new branches are showing the most tremendous vitality and we are indeed glad to receive them in our ranks.

Visits From Head Office. The year has been a most eventful one in the matter of visits from head office. Only last month we were privileged to meet and to hear from our grand chief chairman of the executive, Dr. Jas. W. Robertson. His message to us was indeed a great inspiration to continue in the work that has been so well begun.

Junior Red Cross Committee in obtaining the sanction of the Board of Education to operate the Red Cross in the schools. In the spring two deputy supervisors, Mrs. H. Lawrence and Miss Jessie Lawson, were appointed to take charge of the work, and we are indeed glad that our children may now receive the advantage of this great movement—said to be the greatest discovery of the war—the teaching of children in a most attractive way to keep the rules of the health game.

Campaign. Another important activity was the organizing of the campaign. In August Mrs. G. A. Kuhring came to the province at the request of the executive to assist in taking charge of the work. Her idea, and a brilliant one was to hold a Red Cross pageant that would in a spectacular way give the greatest peace time policy of the Red Cross. To the Miramichi belongs the honor of the first production of the pageant held on two successive evenings under very able committees from both Chatham and Newcastle. These productions were most successful and were followed by others in St. John and Sussex and in part in St. Stephen and McAdam. Other committees have expressed their intention of holding it later.

Provincial Local Relief. Owing to the unusual unemployment conditions of 1922 our relief work in St. John and through the Province was very heavy. In St. John the use of the depot was loaned to the Rotary Club and Salvation Army for the period of six weeks as a civic employment bureau. This demonstration proved beyond the necessity of a permanent bureau which we now have in the city. In two weeks time over 400 men registered as being out of work, thus showing in need about 2,000 people.

Donations. From the depot have gone as usual a great many donations. These have been distributed to soldiers memorial hospitals, Campbellton, Newcastle poor relief, St. John Local Poor Relief, Soldiers' Settlement, Patriotic Fund, to Lancaster and East St. John and River Glade hospitals, to St. Stephen Poor Relief, to Minto and to St. John Health Centre, to the Fort Nursery, Provincial Memorial Home, Children's Aid, Seaman's Institute, Fairville fire sufferers and Kelly's Beach typhoid sufferers and to individuals.

Donations received by the division have come from head office in the form of a money grant, literature, World's Health and Canadian Red Cross magazines, disaster case, membership pads, buttons, films, marking tape, wool and stationery. Recreation Hut. One of the principal and outstanding events of the year has been unquestionably the building and opening of the Red Cross hut at Lancaster. This opening occurred in July and we were fortunate in having as our speakers the Rev. Fred Porter, Dr. Roberts, Mr. Hayes and Mrs. Taylor. An appeal was made to the branches and was ably backed up by the Globe newspaper for furnishings and this appeal met with a most generous response, as also did that for the Christmas stockings.

WOMEN OF THREE GENERATIONS. The daughter, mother, and grandmother have all proved from personal experience the remarkable strengthening and tonic properties of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in overcoming the ills of women. It was first made from roots and herbs in 1875 by Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., for her neighbors and friends. Its fame has spread from shore to shore until it is now looked upon by women everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills. It has been proved that it benefits 98 out of every 100 women who try it, which is a marvelous record for any remedy to hold.

When preserving again looms to the front, will not other branches remember the boys at Lancaster, East St. John, at River Glade? The depot will gladly forward any parcel sent in its care.

Nursing Service. Our nursing service has been most ably and capably handled by Miss Melkjohn. We feel indeed a great satisfaction when we remember that out of six nurses sent to six communities four are now self-sustaining. Our one difficulty that lies in the way is a very serious one—that of obtaining the trained public health nurses for our work. Perhaps before another annual meeting some way may be found to overcome this difficulty.

Red Cross Committees. Our committees, whose detailed reports come later, are indeed a tower of strength to the work of the Red Cross. The hospital committee under Mrs. Taylor, to whom the branches owe much for their constant care of the soldiers; the sewing committee, under Miss Allison, who send on request the ready-cut work to our busy branches, institutes, and I. O. D. E's; who in turn send in the finished garments that make relief work possible and to whom we indeed owe many things; the bulletin committee, under Mrs. James F. Robertson, who thus broadcasts the news of the Red Cross activities throughout the province; the campaign committee, under Mr. Dykeman, who organized the Rotary Club of the city into canvassers to the Junior Red Cross already alluded to; who in turn send in the finished garments that make relief work possible and to whom we indeed owe many things; the bulletin committee, under Mrs. E. T. Sturdes, who is ever at her post when a call comes, and to Mrs. Rowan and the V. A. D.'s, who so nobly assist in the great work being done by the Red Cross at the port. It is to the existence of these committees and the branches and organizations supporting them that we owe the success of the work.

Exhibition. The Red Cross as usual took its place at the exhibition and beside its useful booth and distribution of literature the Junior supervisors, weighed and marked over 700 children. On the lower floor a Red Cross nurses' was inaugurated and this proved indeed a boon to tired mothers who checked their babies in perfect safety under the care of Miss Jean White and the girl guides. Just such a similar nursery was held in Chatham fair last year. Fair booths in St. Stephen and Hillsboro the Red Cross sent large posters and literature. That at St. Stephen was most successful under the charge of the Red Cross nurses, Miss Murray. Gift to Lancaster. A very lovely and thoughtful gift of jams and jellies was sent this year to the Lancaster Hospital by the Sussex Women's Institute, and next year,

Mr. Kerr and Mr. Flewelling and the Boy Scouts for their contributions. To the press we know not how to say enough; they have spared their staff to attend all our monthly meetings, and by that means a knowledge of what is taking place is conveyed to many parts of the province. Each and every newspaper has given us editorials unsolicited and much space besides in their news columns. Again to me I say "Thank you."

Self-Supporting. If this report has been unusually lengthy, it is because I have tried to give a pen picture of what this great work is and what we are doing for the cause of humanity and patriotism. We are now to be a self-sustaining society. All grants have ceased from head office. It rests with us, the citizens of New Brunswick, to show by our enthusiasm and our energy that we do consider the work worth while. The Red Cross is still inspired with the spirit of sacrifice that was its mainspring and life during the war, and still it marches on, seeing and knowing well that a suffering world is awaiting the divine touch of healing through the earthly channel of the Cross of Red on the Field of White.

HEALING CREAM IS QUICK RELIEF FOR HEAD COLDS

Colds and catarrh yield like magic to soothing, healing antiseptic cream that penetrates through every air passage and relieves swollen, inflamed membranes of nose and throat. Your clogged nostrils open right up and you can breathe freely. Hawking and snuffling stop. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable.

FOR LONG LIFE, MODERATION. We Should Live at Least 150 Years, Says Dr. Legrand. "We live longer than did our fathers and we shall live even longer yet." Such is the prediction made in a book entitled "Longevity Through the Ages," written by Dr. Legrand and reviewed in the French "Revue Medicale de l'Orient."

"Man should live at least 150 years, and if he dies before that time he is killing himself," continues the review. "This is the axiom of Seneca that man does not die, but kills himself, corroborated. That he, barring accidents and inherited diseases.

"Toward 1850 Flourens asserted that human life was continually growing longer, but no one believed him. Statistics show that in Graeco-Roman antiquity the average life was seventy-one years; in the Middle Ages it fell to 62.4, rose again in the Eighteenth Century to 67.5, and is now again seventy-one.

Elfin Voices. Imagine yourself in a tiny theatre. A diminutive orchestra plays—an elfin figure appears and a silvery voice bursts into song. As the song increases in volume its reproduction on the Starr Phonograph seems to bring the singer into the very room beside you.

The tones of the voice, the violin, the band or orchestra, are reproduced with marvellous purity and clearness by the Starr Phonograph through its throat of silver grain spruce, the master "music wood of the centuries."
