REPORT.

THE return of another Anniversary once more enables the Committee of the Nova Scotia Bible Society to lay before their friends and patrons their usual Annual Report, exhibiting the affairs of the Society during the past year.

The Committee feel deeply grateful to their Heavenly Father that they have been permitted during another year to carry on successfully the work of circulating God's Holy Word. This, the primary object of their institution, has been conducted silently, but yet progressively. No startling events, such as quicken the pulse and stimulate the energies of the agent and colporteur in other countries, mark the efforts of your Committee. They can only endeavor, in some small degree, to bear up the hands of those engaged in this noble enterprise in the Mother Country, and in their own sphere to make use of agencies for the purpose of disseminating the Word of Truth throughout their own Province, and of stimulating their several Branch Societies to further exertions in the good cause. They endeavour to ascertain whether there is any destitution of the Scriptures within their own limits, and to supply the deficiency if any such exist; but having done this, they feel that their work is in a great measure accomplished. They can, then, but turn to the Parent Society's operations to witness the results effected by the great benevolent organization to which they feel it a privilege to contribute. These results are to be found in the Parent Society's report for the last year, to which your Committee would first briefly call your attention.

They commence with FRANCE. This country, the parent Committee say, furnishes one of the most deeply interesting chapters in the history of Bible circulation, and to it they turn with feelings of deepest thankfulness, as they can discern, in a variety of forms, the decisive and permanent effects produced by the operations of the Society.

The past year forms no exception to the general success which has marked their operations in France. Many exciting topics have engaged the thoughts of Frenchmen, and the discussions to which they have given birth in all circles, have created an influence which has increased rather than diminished the demand for the Scriptures. The circulation, resulting in a great degree from these influences, is announced as considerably in advance of the last few years, and it is with sincere gratitude to God that the Agent states, that between March 1st, 1864, and February 28th, 1865, the actual distributions amounted to 87,454 copies.

A large portion of the purchases made have been of complete Bibles, and M. de Pressinsé, the agent, finds great cause of encouragement in this fact. It is presumed that in the majority of cases they are purchased for thoughtful perusal; and the ease with which these sales are now made contrasts very vividly with the long and persuasive efforts which were once necessary to accomplish the same object.

An important step has been taken in connection with the work in France, from which beneficial results are confidently anticipated, namely, the formation of an independent Dépôt for the sale of the scriptures, in one of the leading thoroughfares of Paris. Hitherto the Society had been without any such central point. Suitable premises have been secured in the Rue St. Honoré, near the Place Vendôme, and the dépôt has been opened under very favorable circumstances. Of the results so far, the devoted Christian who has charge of it writes:—

The report
the work of

“I have visits at the depôt from persons belonging to all classes of society, from the rich ones of the earth in their carriages, to the workman, and the poor Roman Catholic woman, all of whom, having heard something about the Protestant Bible, are desirous of knowing what it really is. These applications for information have given occasion to many most interesting conversations, most of which have ended in the purchase of a Bible or a New Testament. A policeman was one with whom I had the greatest trouble. He proclaimed himself openly as a materialist, whilst at the same time he declared that he was desirous of reading the Bible. Nearly every day did he come to re-commence the attack, and the further our discussions proceeded, the more firmly did I feel persuaded that he was really desirous of knowing the truth. At length the man, who is possessed of much intelligence, purchased a Bible, with the intention, as he told me, of carefully examining it before coming again to converse with me. I have already told you that a large number of our customers consist of Roman Catholics, belonging to the common ranks of the people. What always astonishes me is, that these worthy people, who rarely purchase a New Testament, but nearly always a Bible, invariably require to have it well bound, that is to say, with gilt edges, involving an expenditure which would have been considered as beyond their means. They say, that as it is the best of books, it is worth while to spend on its purchase whatever may be necessary to show how highly it is esteemed. But I have been most of all interested by the frequent intercourse I have had with a worthy master blacksmith, a Roman Catholic, who, from his own experience, has become so convinced of the great benefit produced by the reading of the Scriptures, that he is doing all in his power to supply copies to the men whom he employs, as well as to the persons with whom his business brings him in contact. The subject of his frequent visits to me is to purchase copies of the Scriptures.”

The report of the Agent is crowded with facts bearing upon the work of colportage. This continues to be, as it has always been, the main feature in Bible distribution in France, the principal means by which the many thousands of the volumes of the Word of Life have been distributed throughout the country. The great changes which have confessedly taken place among the people, have been owing, under God, to this peculiar agency. And still the work goes on, and the laborers press forward in this noble enterprise. Many touching narratives of the results of their labours are given in the report, but the limits of this brief outline forbid their insertion; but your Committee cannot pass from this slight reference to so deeply interesting a subject, without asserting that if any person wishes to learn the modes of thought of the middle and lower classes of the French people in reference to religious matters, in no way can he do it more effectually than by reading the narratives of the colporteurs, extracted from the Agent's communications, and yearly given in the Parent Society's Report, some of which present the discouragements as well as the encouragements in the work. An extract bearing on each, may be given:—

“ I could mention a number of facts, showing the violence and the insults of various kinds to which the growing hatred of sacred things, and more especially of the person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ, is exposing our poor Colporteurs. In one place it is an innkeeper, whose revolting atheistical views, on reading the designation of Bible Colporteur on the passport presented to his notice, led him to refuse and that on a tempestuous night in December, a lodging to our friend, who is thus compelled to find what shelter he can in an old barn.

“ Elsewhere another of our friends is refused accommodation under these circumstances. He had been allowed to enter the miserable inn, and the people there had even agreed to prepare his frugal meal for him. To eat his meal he had been shewn into a room where about a dozen men were seated round the tables, drinking and smoking. These persons were wrangling about politics, and when they were tired of that topic they began doing the same about religion. On hearing such a subject touched upon, and in terms revolting and blasphemous beyond description, our Colporteur felt that he would be guilty of an act of unfaithfulness were he not to open his mouth for the purpose of trying to put a stop to such fearful impiety. He consequently took up one of the Bibles and lifting his heart to the Lord, and with as much firmness as gentleness, began to defend the cause of his Saviour, without suffering himself to be intimidated by the grossest of insults which were addressed to him. Notwithstanding the interruptions which proceeded from all sides of the room, he was able, by means of passages of Scripture, to make an appeal to the hearts and consciences of the topers. When they had utterly exhausted all their invectives, and found, that whether they would or not, their mouths were closed, they rose in a body and summoned the innkeeper, whose customers they were, to turn the poor Colporteur out of doors, and that at twelve o'clock at night, in the midst of a pelting rain; and our friend was reduced to the necessity of seeking such shelter as he was able, in an old shed, exposed to the four winds of heaven, and to the heavy rain which was coming in at all sides."

"I have been greatly encouraged in my Colportage work. No one now repulses me, but on the contrary, every one receives me with kindness; and in my visits, more particularly during the period when all work was suspended, I could not fail to remark with what evident pleasure a large number of these poor workmen welcomed me; and in many houses I was told that they looked upon me as a friend, and a real comforter. Very frequently, too, I have not been suffered to leave them without having offered up a prayer on behalf of those present. Elsewhere, and likewise very frequently, I have found to my great delight, that, in the case of a number of these unemployed workmen, this period of inactivity is devoted to reading the Word of God. One day I was moved to tears by what occurred under my own eyes. In a cottage in the country, inhabited by a family of workpeople, and situated in a very lonely place, and where I had called in passing, I offered a New Testament to a woman whom I found there, on which she immediately rose from her chair, offered me her hand, and thanked me for the good work which I was carrying on for the benefit of every one. 'But,' added she, 'I have already derived profit from this work; and both myself and mine have been much benefitted by it.' Then, going to a cupboard, she took out a New Testament of Ostervald in 12mo, which had been so much used, that it was almost falling to pieces. On opening it in several places, I saw that numbers of passages were underlined; and I must own that I was really pleased to see this. 'Your book has been well used,' I said to the woman, 'and ere long, if I dared, I would advise you to buy a copy of the whole Bible; but I know how hard the times are.' On this she eagerly interrupted me by exclaiming: 'Have you, then, really, the whole Bible? Oh, how long we have been wishing to have it? But what you just said makes me think that it must be a very expensive book. . . . 'It costs three francs.' 'Not more than that? Why, that is very cheap; and so cheap, too, that I will not let this opportunity slip without buying one. I have here three francs, and only a few sous more. To spend this money all at once will certainly put us to some inconvenience; but never mind; God will provide.' 'But your husband; what will he say to it?' 'That does not matter, for were he here, he would do the very same that I intend doing.' Could any conduct be more touching than this?"

IN BELGIUM, amid many discouragements, the Committee have to report the successful distribution of 9,481 copies of the Word of God; and in Holland the work proceeds most satisfactorily, but with little variation of issues from year to year.

In the vast GERMAN field, which comprehends nearly the whole central portion of Europe, the Committee announce a state of things which fills them with great joy, and leads them to anticipate such spiritual results as shall hasten the overthrow of error and superstition, and win the allegiance of many hearts to the God of Truth.

The work in Germany is divided into two Districts, the Western of which has been placed under the superintendance of the Rev. Mr. Davies, and the Eastern under that Mr. E. Millard. From the reports of both of these agents, most interesting extracts are given.

Mr. Davies reports the circulation of the Scriptures within the limits of his agency at 226,691, being an increase of 30,353 on the previous year. But there was one branch of his work that was attended with results that cannot fail to be of permanent value. The war which was waged between the German Powers and Denmark, afforded him an opportunity of distributing the Word of Life to many who were every moment exposed to the perils of the battle-field. Colporteurs were most successfully employed in this particular work, and a large number of Scriptures were circulated in the Austrian, Prussian, Hanoverian and Saxon armies, and among the Danish prisoners of war. In referring to his visits through Germany, Mr. Davies describes how a large sale of the Scriptures is partly effected at Eisenach, in the identical apartment where Luther in the sixteenth century accomplished the translation of the New Testament into the German language, a work which had a marvellous influence on the progress of the Great Reformation.

"In the very room in which Luther, certainly not without higher help, completed this wonderful work, are now sold every year to persons who resort to this scene of his seclusion some 600 copies of the New and Old Testaments. The sales are superintended by the Wartburg Bible Society. The copies of the Old Testament sold are very few. The New Testaments are drawn from our Depôt, and thus the British and Foreign Bible Society, also, takes part in this tribute to the memory of the great German Reformer. The President of the Wartburg Society has since ordered some copies of our 12mo pocket Bible, to see if this edition, as a portable one, may prove more attractive than the larger edition up to this time of sale."

The labors of Mr. Millard in his particular sphere of operations are spoken of in terms of great praise. His work is an arduous one, embracing a wide extent of territory, and a population speaking a great diversity of languages, and numbering sixty millions of people. Through his perseverance, attended with a blessing from on High, a door has at last been opened in the Empire of Austria, by the decision of the Government to permit the printing and circulation of the Scriptures. Under this authority a depôt has been opened at Vienna, and the agent speaks with great delight of the successful sales effected. A depôt with similar success has also been opened in Pesth, the capital of Hungary.

DENMARK is spoken of as having especially engaged the attention of the Committee during the season of affliction which she has lately passed through. One effect of the disastrous war was to stimulate Christian zeal, and to lead to efforts for an abundant diffusion of the Scriptures of Truth. Multitudes have been supplied with the Word of God who never possessed it before. In the thought of danger and the prospect of death, that Word has spoken peace to the sin-burdened conscience, and imparted rest and joy to the troubled spirit.

IN NORWAY and SWEDEN there has been the same attachment to the Scriptures exhibited, as has for years marked the population of the Scandinavian peninsula.

IN RUSSIA, although the operations of the Society are limited, yet all lovers of the Word will be pleased to learn that the printing and circulation, by the Russian Church, of the New Testament in modern Russ, have proceeded without interruption on a considerable scale, and the demand on the part of the public has been well sustained.

OF PORTUGAL the Committee speak hopefully. It has been ascertained that there is no impediment in the laws of the country to printing the scriptures, and in view of a favorable SPAIN, on the other hand, seems barred at present against every effort made to instruct its population in the knowledge of the Word of God.

Of ITALY, the Committee say, that the operations in which this Society is engaged are restricted to a single object, that is, to give the Bible to the people of this beautiful country. In fulfilment of this purpose, it may be affirmed that there is no city or town in Italy, from the Adriatic to the Mediterranean, which has not been penetrated by their Colporteurs, who, with no little bravery and self-denial, have faced difficulties and dangers which would have appalled men of weaker faith. So far as Northern and Central Italy are concerned, there is scarcely a village, however small its population, into which these useful laborers have not found their way and sold their precious merchandize. In the South, owing to the excesses of brigandage, there may be spots to which the Colporteur has found it impracticable to extend his labors; but it may be presumed that even in such spots the Bible is not altogether an unknown book, for it rarely happens that copies cannot be traced even in the most remote and obscure localities.

The circulation of the Scriptures in Italy during the past year has been 28,237 copies, which have been disseminated over every part of the country. Mr. Bruce, the Agent, writes respecting the Colporteurs:—

“On the whole, I believe that the Colporteurs do their duty, and are anxious to spread the Scriptures in their native land from the highest motives. During the Reformation of the sixteenth century, the Truth made way chiefly among the upper ranks of society, leaving the laborer and artisan much as it found them. It was in the palace of the noble, the dwelling of the prosperous burgher, or the cell of the convent, that the Bible, costly and not easily procured, was searched and valued. Now, in the wise arrangements of God's Providence, it is chiefly the laboring classes who are interested in the blessed Volume. It is not, as formerly, those who are to be found among the retinues of emperors and viceroys, that listen to the tale of redeeming love. It is chiefly the poor to whom the Gospel is preached, and thus your Society and others engaged in a similar work are provided with labourers which three centuries ago were not to be found. With perhaps three exceptions, the Colporteurs were all brought out of the darkness of popery, and some of them have evidently a considerable knowledge of the Scriptures. Doubtless, they do good beyond the mere sale of so many copies of the Bible; and a seed dropped, a word spoken in love in a careless ear, will one day be found, in some instances at least, to have been owned of God to the conversion of a soul. It is to be regretted that so many of them have, for obvious reasons, little opportunity of hearing the Gospel preached or of benefitting by fellowship with other Christians. Altogether their calling from one point of view is not an enviable one. They are exposed to all weathers, to cold and to long seasons of wet and heat; they offer a hook which God has in mercy given them to guide man, with his darkened heart and wandering step, to Him who is the "Light of the world;" but the scowl of the bigot, and the contemptuous sneer of the unbeliever, is too often the only reply. It is sometimes difficult in these circumstances for these sons of the South to present the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit to those who oppose them. Consider, that all this is repeated from day to day, and from month to month, many rejecting where one makes a purchase or gives a word of encouragement, and you will see that the life of a Colporteur in Italy is not an easy one. At the same time in all labour, and especially in Christian labour, there is a compensation; all hearts are not closed to the story of grace, and labour in the Lord's vineyard, if a service of love, is richly rewarded. Your Colporteurs sow the seed with pains, and I trust with prayers. Some fruit does gladden their hearts; and the readiness with which so many attend when a ball is opened in any city or town for the first time for the preaching of the Gospel, is one evidence that their labor is not in vain."

Events of very serious importance have occurred in TURKEY during the past year, in reference to the Society's operations. In accordance with privileges which had been granted by the late Sultan, they were prosecuting their operations with great success, particularly in the city of Constantinople. Under the pretext, however, that public insult was offered to the religion of Mahomet, that the faith of the people was being unscrupulously assailed by foreign Missionaries, and that a flame of fanatical passion might be kindled, the effects of which would be most disastrous, the Turkish government resorted to acts of violence and coercion which have called forth the indignation of British Christians, and led to a most important diplomatic correspondence between the English government and that of the Porte. On the 18th of July, without any previous intimation, the Turkish police entered the depôt at Constantinople, and peremptorily ordered it to be immediately closed. Subsequently they took entire possession of the depôt, and carefully inspected the books stored there, but happily they could not find a volume of any description to justify their illegal proceedings. A remonstrance was made through the British Ambassador, and eventually the depôt was restored, and the operations proceeded as usual, the Turkish government having tendered an apology for their conduct.

The Society feeling that this conduct was an infringement of rights granted by treaty, and fearing that impediments may be thrown in the way of the Colporteurs, have felt it their duty to memorialize Earl Russell, the Foreign Secretary, who has addressed a despatch on the subject to the British Minister in Turkey, and it is hoped that the result of this intervention will be to give wider scope to the efforts and operations of their agents.

INDIA has always been an object of deep solicitude to the Society, who feel that the responsibility of giving the Word of Truth to its teeming and idolatrous population increases year by year. The events of each year seem to strengthen the tie that binds the Indian Empire to the throne of England, and by so much the more increases the claim which the population of that country has upon the sympathy and generous zeal of all christian people. While progress is so obviously impressed upon everything which relates to the material interests of India; while commerce and education are rapidly advancing, and the tide of prosperity is reaching the remotest provinces, those who are toiling for the spiritual and eternal interests of that wonderful land, should act their part with befitting vigour and noble enterprise, proving by their deeds of christian love and self-denial that the religious elevation of India is the paramount object at which they aim. In order in some measure to discharge their duty to this country, the Committee have determined to employ special agents, acquainted with the people and their wants, who, keeping beyond the limits of existing Auxiliaries, and not clashing with their efforts, should organize plans for a very comprehensive circulation of the Word of God. This idea has been partially carried out, and the Committee are hopeful of success.

From CHINA the Committee report encouraging tokens of success. A day of Gospel light is dawning upon this vast empire which shall shine brighter and brighter unto the perfect day. A foundation has been laid on which the superstructure of Christ's Church shall be gradually reared. Although the steps taken are as yet but preparatory, yet it must be admitted that a great deal has been already accomplished. The Scriptures have been translated,—missionaries planted in populous centres,—churches organized—schools commenced—-itinerant operations pushed gradually into districts previously unvisited by Europeans—twothous and five hundred converts making a profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ—the sacred volume dispensed with a bountiful hand,—these are means by which a leaven has been created which cannot fail to act widely and penetrate deeply, and greatly facilitate the triumph of God's truth “in the land of Sinim.”

The Committee state that more has been accomplished for the circulation of the Scriptures in this country than at any former period. Their agents have been penetrating its vast interior, now thrown open to their operations, and with marked success. There are few pages in the Report more interesting than the extracts given from the narratives of some of their Agents, who have been permitted to penetrate districts, and to circulate the Scriptures, where a Missionary has never yet ventured to go. The Committee, with all Christian friends, may wait trustfully for the harvest which in God's good time will surely spring up from the seed thus sown.

The Committee also advert to their successful operations in the distribution of the Scriptures in other parts of the world particularly in the Islands in the South Seas, and in connection with this it is well to state that the printing of the Book of Psalms into the Aniteum language, is being carried on in our own city of Halifax, under the superintendence of the Rev. Mr. Geddie, and at the expense of the Bible Society.

We now turn to the Home operations of the Parent Society.

The Committee in referring to the financial condition of the Society, express their thankfulness for the generous Christian sympathy which has increased the funds during the past year a larger amount than in any previous year. They state the receipts of the year from ordinary sources have amounted to the sum of £181,073 14s. 5d., being £12,168 10s. 5d. more than at any former period of the Society's history. The total expenditure of this year has reached the sum of £169,746 13s. 10d., being a large increase of payments over the previous year.

The issues of Scriptures by the Parent Society during the past year have reached a total of 2,450,127 copies. The total issues of the Society now amount to forty-seven millions, nine hundred and eighty-nine thousand, five hundred and seventy-nine copies.

Passing over much interesting matter in the Report relative to Home work, we dwell for a moment on the agency of Bible Women, which is now known by the designation of "the Missing Link." In the help extended to this agency, that portion of labor only is paid for by the Society which relates exclusively to the circulation of the Scriptures. It may be truly affirmed, that the Bible has been placed in thousands of families for the first time, by the help of the "Missing Link," and it was a source of gratification to the Parent Committee, that last year 9,844 copies of the Scriptures were drawn from the Auxiliary Depôts to supply the demands of humble subscribers, through the agency of the Bible Women, two hundred of whom are now laboring in the very worst districts of London. The Committee further mention the gratifying fact that within seven years 50,000 Bibles and Testaments have been sold through this instrumentality among the poor working classes, and that not less than £4,000 have been cheerfully paid for this great boon.

We have now to advert to the operations of our own Society during the past year.

Our Agent, Mr. Russell, has been employed as usual in visiting the Branch Societies, and supplying those destitute of Scriptures. His reports to the Committee are always deeply interesting, and show the importance of his mission, without which the work of circulating the Bible would languish in many localities. Indeed, the services of such an agent are felt to increase in value every year.

Our work in the city is carried on at the Depository, where sales are made and the local business of the Society faithfully attended to by the lady in charge. The Bible Women employed by the Ladies' Branch Society are also employed in the distribution of the Scriptures, and are valuable assistants in the good cause.

The Ladies' Bible Associations and the Branch Societies have nobly sustained the Committee in their several spheres during the past year.

The Committee, before closing this report, would advert to the loss which they have sustained by the death of one of their oldest and best tried friends, the Rev. JOHN MARTIN, whose advocacy of the cause of the Bible, and whose attachment to its precious truths, were conspicuous during his long ministerial career in this city. The friends thus taken from us only admonish the more those who remain to use every exertion during the time still allotted, for the spread of God's Holy Word, as the best instrumentality for the salvation of immortal souls.

SEVENTEENTH REPORT

OF THE

Halifax Ladies' Bible Association.

THE Committee of the Halifax Ladies' Bible Association have only to state that with the exception of the Agent and Colporteur having been so happily and usefully employed, as they believe, they have very little to record. His Annual Report tells its own story, and they hope will be read with as much interest and pleasure as heretofore.

TO THE COMMITTEE OF THE
HALIFAX LADIES' BIBLE ASSOCIATION,—

In presenting my fifth Annual Report, I may state at the outset that there is nothing unusual to relate. During the past year, as formerly, in addition to advocating the claims of the Bible Society, I have been circulating the Word of God in various districts of the Province. The counties, in parts of which I have been travelling with the Word of Life, are Antigonishe, Lunenburg and Shelburne. In the heat of summer and amid the snows of winter, my time has been fully occupied, either in going from house to house with the precious book, or in attending and addressing meetings connected with the circulation of God's word. In every county in Nova Scotia proper, and with the single exception of Cumberland, twice, in each county have I travelled, advocating the claims of God's Word. In the Quarterly Reports given in, I have particularly described my work in these places, specifying the parts where the greatest destitution existed.

During the past year I have, in prosecution of my work, travelled by rail, coach, and private conveyance, 2,867 miles; sailed 218, walked 967; visited 931 families, and 24 schools; supplied 70 families with Bibles, who were destitute; addressed 161 meetings; disposed of 421 Bibles and 524 Testaments—in all 945 copies of the Word of God.

Incidents are frequently occurring, trivial perhaps in themselves, yet important as showing the necessity of carrying on the work in which we are engaged. A few months ago in a house which I happened to visit, a poor looking woman who lived miles distant, and had heard of my work, fearing I might not visit the place where she lived, sought me out, and introduced herself as Mrs. B——. Slowly unrolling a small piece of paper, she began by saying she "had been trained always to give something to the Bible Society." She "had no money, but if I would accept it, here was a broken gold ring. It was," she added, "all she had, but it was from love to Christ she gave it, and she hoped I would accept it." I took the ring, and in answer to my inquiries as to whether she was well supplied with the Scriptures, she said she had a Bible, but some of the leaves were gone. I immediately gave her one, which she gratefully received, and also a Bible for her two children. These, however, she was reluctant to accept, for fear I might think she had given the broken ring to get them. I satisfied her on this point, and with many thanks she received the books.

During the past year a considerable number of copies of the Scriptures have been purchased by Roman Catholic families. In every instance when there was no money in the house, and when an anxiety was manifested to obtain the Word of God, I gave a copy. But I never have pressed the Word of God on destitute Roman Catholic families, as I do on nominally Protestant ones. Not unfrequently, however, as the result of conversations held, the book is given. Let me relate one circumstance. Entering a Roman Catholic family one day, and exhibiting my books, the mistress of the house took a New Testament, and looking at the title page, observed, "This Testament is not the same as ours." "No," said I, "it is not exactly the same, and yet, after all, there is not much difference; all the books are in the one that are in the other; but," added I, "you may judge for yourself as to the difference," and turning over to the Lord's prayer as given in St. Matthew's gospel, I handed her the book, which she had returned. She read the words, said, "no, there was not much difference," but, handing back the Testament, added, in an indifferent tone, "I've got no money." I thought nothing could be made of her, but offered, as I generally do, a few tracts. She took them. The title of one—"The lost child brought home," attracted her attention. "Oh," said she, "is that the story of the prodigal son?" "No," said I, "it is a story of a child that was lost in England, and recovered; and then," said I, "this tract tells us that by nature we are all lost,—all sinners against God,—all wandered from Him,—and that Jesus Christ came into the world to seek the lost,—to save sinners. But," continued I, "the story of the prodigal son is here," and turning to the 15th chapter of Luke, and pointing to the 11th verse, I handed her the book that she might read. Instead of beginning where I had pointed, she looked at the preceding verses, and exclaimed, "I've heard the story of the prodigal son, but I never heard of the pieces of lost silver before." I said there were many such parables in the New Testament, all spoken by our blessed Saviour. She appeared now very anxious to procure the book; but said, though in a very different tone from the way she had spoken the words before, "I've no money." I said I sometimes gave a book to those who had none, and had no money to purchase, and that if she would promise to read in it every day, I should leave the book with her. After saying more about the Word of God I handed her the New Testament, and wish the Committee could have seen the joy she manifested.

Another day, in a very poor Roman Catholic family, I had, after some conversation, given a book to the eldest girl, and the shout with which she and the others received it and several tracts I gave them, showed how glad they were. The children literally danced on the floor for very joy, and then commenced to read.

On the whole, after another year's labour, there is, I think, nothing to dishearten, and much to encourage, in the efforts God is permitting us to make to circulate his own word. As year after year passes on, bringing with it various successes, as well as occasional disappointments, and lessening also our opportunities to labour in our Master's service, may we be found diligent and faithful in the work which has been committed to us. May we listen to the voice of God speaking to us individually in his word, and by his Providence, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave whither thou goest."

ALEX. RUSSELL.

Halifax, January. 1865.

There is, however, one new feature in the Report, viz : the employment of two pious and useful women, as Bible Women, from the months of February to November, 1864. Since the latter date, the elder of the two, a most faithful and zealous laborer has, owing to illness, been laid aside from active work. She has, notwithstanding, been useful in conducting, with the assistance of her friend and fellow-worker, various meetings for the instruction of the poor, morally and spiritually, where the Bible has been read and explained, leading in some measure to its sale to those who before "cared for none of these things." The B. W. have furnished their superintending ladies with a monthly Report of their proceedings, extracts from which are now published. Some accounts of their first labours were published in the N. S. Society's Report last October, and as they were received with much favor, this Committee trust that a continuation of them will prove acceptable. Miss Swan commenced her work February 15, 1864, under the direction and guidance of Mr. Morton, city missionary, to whom your Committee are much indebted for furthering the work, by giving his advice and assistance at the outset. To human observation it seems unfortunate that Miss S. was very soon attacked by a slight illness, which obliged her cousin, Miss Mary Swan, to occupy her position, which she has done so faithfully and assiduously, whether working alone or with her companion, as to have given perfect satisfaction. Indeed, it is feared that since Miss S. has been entirely laid by, she has been overworked, and thus injured her own health. It seems, however, inseparable from the circumstances; and submission to the will of God, who has doubtless afflicted in wisdom and love, is the only wise course. They were both, from the first, warmly welcomed, and requested to repeat their visits. From Feb'y to the end of December they jointly paid 1993 visits. The distribution of Scriptures has neces-

Miss Mary S. paid in January 58 visits, and distributed 14 copies of the Word of God. In February she was laid by, ill; so that, much to the regret of the Committee, comparatively nothing was done during that month. Mrs. Patterson, teacher of the Infant School in this place, was proposed as Bible Woman in the first instance; but, obstacles to her employment having arisen, she was meanwhile offered the situation of Teacher of the Infant School, and accepted it. She has during the emergency, kindly consented to give her leisure to Bible work, in which she is much interested, and of which she is very capable.

The following extracts are taken from the Bible Women's Reports :—

OCTOBER 1, 1864.

The last month has been one of trial in some respects; but I would here raise my Ebenezer and inscribe—"hitherto hath the Lord helped."

In visiting those dens of iniquity in the different parts of the city the last month, I have been pained and shocked beyond expression, and Satan has taken advantage of my weakness and tempted me to give up; but, by God's grace I will go on, making mention of His righteousness, and His only. I have made 158 visits this month; about twelve of these families have not been visited before. The sale of the Scriptures has been very small this month; I have only sold 2 large Bibles at half price, and gave 2 Testaments; I also have 2 subscribers for Bibles—6 in all.

I have been visiting a young man almost every day for the last week, who sustained a bodily hurt ten or twelve days ago; he is a stranger in the city; he cannot read, and appears to like me to read to him. His mind is very dark and clouded; he knows nothing of Jesus, the sinner's friend. I have spoken very faithfully to him, and tried to set before him the awful danger of neglecting this great salvation. He is not able to converse much, and appears unwilling to open his mind freely to me. May God, by His Holy Spirit teach him and bless the reading of His word from day to day to his poor soul.

My soul was cheered by the words of a poor dying girl a few days ago. She held up her hand and exclaimed with a joyful countenance, O, that my feeble voice could reach to thousands of poor dying sinners, I would point them to Jesus, my blessed Saviour; tell them, said she, that I have proved His love, in health, in sickness, and death, and now I go to prove it to all eternity; "for O, eternity's too short to utter all His praise."

May the Lord of the harvest water the seed that has been sown, and cause it to spring up and bear fruit to his honor and glory.

MARY S. SWAN.

NOVEMBER 5, 1864.

This reminds us that another month has passed away, and we are so much nearer the eternal world. Everything around reminds us of the changing seasons. The fading flowers and leafless trees speak of coming winter. May the glowing presence of Jesus melt away the cold winter of our hearts, and prepare us all for that blessed estate where it is one perpetual summer.

Being three weeks in the Reformatory this month left me very little time for Bible work; but I would like to speak a word or two about that poor little girl who died a few days after we left. I think I am justified in saying that she gave very satisfactory evidence of a change of heart, and I look forward with a fond hope of meeting her one day in heaven.

On my return to my former field of labour I had a very warm welcome from all I have visited. One old woman said, where have you been? I thought you had gone home again. I have often thought of you. Do not be so long in coming back, for the comforter always comes with you.

I have had great pleasure and comfort in visiting the dying bed of a young girl I mentioned in my last report. Going in one day this week, I found her so weak that she appeared to be very near the gates of death. I thought she could not speak, so I turned to leave; but she beckoned me to come to her bedside, and with an effort she said, pray! I did so, and she revived so as to be able to speak. She looked up with a sweet smile and said, Oh, tell me more of Jesus,—do you think I will get home to-day? Then looking up, she said,—Sing, oh sing to me of heaven. Oh, how delightful! how charming to stand by the dying bed of such a christian! Let me die the death of the righteous. Let my last end be like hers.

I have made 35 visits this month.

ANNA SWAN.

NOVEMBER 5, 1864.

We have much encouragement in the prayer meetings at the Barrack gate. There is no doubt but God is viewing the work, and making it a blessed means to many souls.

The sale of Bibles have been very small, but I do not feel discouraged by that. The winter is coming on, and the poor are looking forward to many hardships in a worldly point of view.

I have only sold one large Bible at 25 cents; one small Bible at 10 cents; one Testament at 5 cents; given one large Bible and one Testament. I have made 160 visits this month. May the Lord add his blessing.

I could mention many that never thought of reading their Bibles except in Church, that now read them with deep interest as often as time will permit; but suffice it to say, that God has blessed and is still blessing the seed that has been sown in so much weakness.

The sales of Bibles have been very small this month. I have only sold three large Bibles, at 25 cents, and given two. I have made 104 visits since our last meeting. May the Lord of the harvest abundantly bless the seed sown, for Jesus sake.

MARY S. SWAN.

Miss Swan has received her salary of £40 per annum, from grant of Committee of N. S. Society. Miss Mary Swan £25 yearly from money collected by Superintendents from their friends, in the following sums:—

MR. RUSSELL'S REPORTS.

QUARTER ENDING APRIL, 1865.

To the Committees of the Halifax Ladies' Bible Association, and the Nova Scotia Auxiliary Bible Society.

On Friday, January 20th, I commenced the visitation of the various Branches of the Pictou Auxiliary Bible Society, and spent between three and four weeks at this duty. It was gratifying to witness the increased interest taken in the cause of the Bible Society in almost every locality. Returning to Truro, I visited the Branches in Londonderry, where meetings had been appointed last fall, but had not been held. In Holly, Great Village and Portaupique, good meetings were obtained. The respective clergymen of these places, Rev. Messrs Ross and Wyllie, lent their valuable aid. The results in all cases were very gratifying. At these meetings, having with me the first Report of the N. S. A. B. S., containing among other names, a list of the subscribers in Londonderry 51 years ago, and the amounts they had paid, I read the list. At one meeting in Great Village, an old man—one of these subscribers—was present, who spoke a few minutes, and closed the proceedings with prayer. I then visited the Branches in Middle and Lower Stewiacke. Good meetings were obtained in both places—the one in Middle Stewiacke was especially interesting. At the request of Rev. Mr. McGillivrey, President of the Middle Stewiacke Branch, I addressed, a few evenings after, a meeting in Brookfield, in which place I hope something will soon be done to our good cause.

In Lower Stewiacke, the meeting though small, was spirited. I much regretted that severe indisposition prevented the Rev. Mr. Alexander, the respected Secretary, from attending. Subscriptions were taken up here last Fall, and it was resolved to wait a few months ere more should be solicited. One or two present demurred to this, so far as they were concerned, and came forward and paid—from a quarter of a dollar to four dollars. A day or two after, the Rev. Mr. McLean took me to Gays River. Before a small audience there, (the meeting was held in the afternoon, and the season a busy one,) brought forward the claims of the Bible Society. In this thriving settlement, upwards of forty years ago, both a male and female Bible Society existed. But both had gone down, and nothing had been done for years. A Branch was re-organized. Mr. Cameron McDonald was elected President, and James Sutherland Secretary and Treasurer. Arrangements were made to obtain and forward subscriptions, and it was particularly wished that I should again, in a few months, return to Gays River.

Went on to Kings County, where I spent several weeks circulating the Scriptures, and visiting the various Branches. Meetings, some larger some smaller, were held in Lower Horton, Wolfville, Church Street, Canard and Canning. At these meetings, the Rev. Messrs. Storrs, Somerville, Sprague, Desbrisay, DeBlois, Murray and Hennigar attended, taking part, and advocating the claims of God's Word. In Horton some subscriptions were received, and more will be procured. In Wolfville and Church Street, arrangements are to be made for obtaining some. In Canard and Canning several dollars were subscribed and paid, and more will soon be received.

While circulating the Scriptures in Gaspereaux Mountain through the kindness of Rev. Mr. Read I had an opportunity of bringing before the people there the claims of the Bible Society ; and I have hopes that a Branch may yet be formed in that place.

In returning, addressed large meetings in Hantsport and Rawdon. In the former, where no Branch heretofore existed, one was organized. Rev. Mr. Burton (who manifested the deepest interest in the matter) was elected President, Robert McCulloch, Secretary, and James Elder, Treasurer. A Committee were appointed to secure subscriptions and have a Depôt formed.

In Rawdon above $8 were subscribed, part of which was obtained, and collectors were appointed to secure the remainder.

The places visited with the Scriptures were places about the back of Horton, Gaspereaux Mountain, &c. I discovered in all six families without Bibles, who were all supplied, and about an equal number of families who had part, but not a whole Bible. In some very poor families, also insufficiently supplied, I gave away some Bibles and Testaments.

During the past quarter, in prosecution of my work, I have travelled by rail, coach, and private conveyance, 470 miles ; walked 262. Visited with the Scriptures 172 families ; addressed 39 meetings ; disposed of 91 Bibles and 54 Testaments—of these 10 Bibles and 14 Testaments were given away gratuitously ; the remainder sold. In all 145 copies of the Scriptures have been circulated.

I have nothing very particular to notice with regard to the work of last quarter. There is, so far as I can perceive, no abatement, but a marked increase in the interest taken in the circulation of God's Holy Word. That book every quarter is finding its way to the homes, in retired places, of some who did not previously possess it. With each copy given a promise is exacted to read a portion of its contents daily. I trust the promises made will be kept. That the Scriptures

"will be searched." At all events, duty is ours. Results are with God, and His promise is, "My word shall not return to me void."

ALEXR. RUSSELL.

QUARTER ENDING JULY, 1865.

To the Committees of the Halifax Ladies' Bible Association and the Nova Scotia Auxiliary Bible Society.

The past quarter has been spent in visiting the different Branches along the shore in the Western Counties; and in circulating the Scriptures in part of the county of Yarmouth.

About the 1st of May I left home for Chester, where, on Wednesday evening, May 3rd, a meeting was held. Owing to the unfavorable evening, not many had assembled, still the interest manifested was highly encouraging. Previous to my arrival, several ladies had kindly interested themselves in collecting subscriptions, and more were obtained at the meeting. The day following walked to Chester Basin—five miles distant—where in the evening a meeting was held. A goodly number assembled. Pressed on those present the duty of assisting the circulation of God's Word; and suggested, that either by connecting themselves with the Chester Society, or by forming a distinct Branch, they might aid in the good work. A Branch was formed. Rev. Mr. Skinner was elected President, Alexr. Anderson, Secretary, and Joseph Eisenhauer, Treasurer. Next day took the coach to Mahone Bay, and the succeeding evening held a meeting, which, owing to the very inclement weather, was but thinly attended. Nothing was effected that night in the way of obtaining subscriptions. Next Monday went to Lunenburg town, and in the evening addressed a small meeting. On that occasion, and on the first fair day afterwards, obtained about $33 of subscriptions.

Through the kindness of Rev. Mr. Duff, was forwarded to Lower LaHave; but the very rainy weather (there was hardly a fair day the whole week) prevented one meeting, and caused a thin attendance at another. Still there was an opportunity, both at Lower LaHave and at Dublin Shore, of bringing before different audiences the claims of the Bible Society, at which meetings collections were obtained; and I am not without hopes but that more will be procured. From Dublin Shore walked to Petite Riviere, and held a meeting with the Branch there. Rev. Mr. Spike was elected President, in place of the late Lemuel Drew, Esq. Arrangements were made to procure and forward subscriptions, as was done last year. Through the kindness of Rev. Mr. Johnson, from Petite Riviere was taken to the Ferry; and by Rev. Mr. Duff was taken to Lunenburg, from which place I proceeded to Bridgewater. Our meeting here, from various causes, was small; but the subscriptions obtained the two following days, show no falling off in the interest taken. Assisted by Rev. Mr. Morton, and by Mr. Gcw, as large an amount was obtained as on the previous year. From Bridgewater, went to Hills Village. An unpleasant evening caused a thin attendance at our meeting, still there was considerable interest manifested. Subscriptions, both old and new, were received. The cause of the Bible Society has some warm friends in this rising village.

When I reached Liverpool, learned that in consequence of the absence of the Secretary, Rev. Mr. Howell, the contemplated Annual Meeting could not take place. It was arranged that in returning I should remain a day or two, and the meeting would then be held. That evening addressed a small congregation (owing to the unfavorable weather) in Milton, Rev. Black presiding. Arrangements were made that another meeting should be held on my return.

Next day took the coach for Shelburne. At our meeting here, Rev. Messrs. Burns and Clark very warmly advocated the claims of the Bible Society. The day following, accompanied by Mr. Clark, gathered up about $40 of subscription. Through the kindness of James Muir, Esq., was taken to Clyde River, where a meeting was held, and a Branch formed. Rev. Mr. Henry, President, James Munro, Secretary, and Peter Stalker, Treasurer. The day following went to Barington. At the Head, and down the Passage, held meetings. Severe indisposition prevented the venerable President, Winthrop Sargent, Esq., from attending, but the Rev. Mr. Brettle very kindly took his place, at the Head. In the Passage the Rev. Mr. Jordan presided, and gave some interesting facts which had come under his own observation regarding the operations of the British and Foreign Bible Society at Malta. Both at the Head and Passage, subscriptions were taken—amounting, with some additional ones waiting me on my return, to $30.45.

Went on to Argyle, to which place, or rather to Pubnico, adjoining, three boxes of Bibles and Testaments had been forwarded. Spent some time in Pubnico, and in Upper and Lower Argyle, &c., &c., in circulating the Scriptures, and addressing meetings. There was not, in general, much destitution of the Scriptures in the places visited, yet I discovered and supplied five families with Bibles who had none, beside another who had but part of one. One family, destitute of Bible, was one which had recently come to the place. Another was one where the husband was at sea, and had taken the "Testament,"—the only copy of God's Word in the house—with him. Three very poor families, living beside each other in an out of the way place, called "Boyd Settlement," were without a Bible; and at another house, where the door was fastened, and the children sitting before the door, I fear there was none. One of the children, a girl about twelve years of age, could hardly tell me whether there was a Bible in the house or not. Indeed, the poor girl did not know all her own name. In reply to my question, "What is your name?" "Mary Jane," she answered. And when I enquired, "what more?" she shook her head, and said, "No more, just Mary Jane." Her religious knowledge was equally defective. I spake a few simple words to her about the Saviour, gave her a book, and urged her to try and get her parents to send her to school.

In another house, a very old woman, in answer to my question, "have you a Bible?" said, "Yes, we have had a Bible more than forty years; we never had but one; we got it in Boston; and," added she, as she handed me the Bible, "we've raised seven children on that book." I looked at it. About half the contents were gone. I gave her a new one, after exacting a promise (as I always do) that a portion, longer or shorter, would be read every day.

Having spent some time circulating the Scriptures, went to Yarmouth, and held meetings in that town, and at Jebogue. No abatement in the interest manifested in this thriving town, in the cause of the Bible Society. Those who so kindly aided before, just as willingly assisted again. About $100 were obtained of subscriptions and collections, besides $22 paid on purchase account.

A meeting had been appointed in Hebron, and there was every prospect of a good attendance; but the sudden death of a lady in the vicinity, caused so few to assemble that it was deemed prudent to postpone the meeting.

Taken by Dr. Farish—whose house, as on former occasions, had been my home while in Yarmouth—to Tusket, I addressed a small meeting there, in the Rev. Mr. Martell's church. Some subscriptions were obtained, and I hope that more will yet be procured. Returned to Argyle. Held meetings; collected something, and circulated the Scriptures, until it was time to leave for the meeting in Liverpool. Found, when I reached that place, that the Secretary had not returned; and no notice having been given of a meeting in Milton, proceeded to Lunenburg. It had been arranged that a meeting should be held at a place called the "Second Peninsula," six miles out of town; but, though I was at the place, a heavy rain which came on an hour or two before the appointed time of meeting, prevented any gathering.

During the past quarter, in prosecution of my work, travelled by rail, coach, and private conveyance, 647 miles; walked 202; sailed 5. Visited with the Scriptures 224 different families; supplied five families who had none, and one family who had but part of a Bible; addressed 42 meetings; disposed of 118 Bibles and 93 Testaments—selling 96 Bibles, and giving away 22; selling 72 Testaments and giving away 21. In all disposed of 211 copies of the Word of God. Obtained from sales of Scriptures, subscriptions, payments on purchase account from Branch Societies, $453.27.

So far as the obtaining of money is concerned, the past quarter has been the most successful since my connection with the Society. And this is all the more gratifying when it is remembered that in many places visited, money—at least so I was told—was scarcer than it was last year. Other good results, I humbly hope, have followed the visits made. That an increased love to the Book has caused some to contribute who had not previously assisted, and induced others to continue, and in some instances increase, their subscriptions.

Not so many destitute families have been discovered and supplied, as have been in some previous quarters; but next to the gratification of supplying those with the Word of Life who do not possess it, is the satisfaction of knowing that the book is possessed. As formerly, I have visited the sick, and when fitting opportunity presented itself, tried to press on those who purchased, the duty of daily reading the Word of God. This duty is, I fear, sadly neglected. Oftener than once last quarter, when circulating the Scriptures, I have been coolly told, "I have not time to read the Bible." My general reply has been, "You will not tell your Maker that when you meet him in judgment." Still, every quarter I see much to encourage in the work in which we are engaged. We know our cause is God's, and it will ultimately triumph.

July 11th, 1865. ALEXR. RUSSELL.

QUARTER ENDING OCTOBER, 1865.

To the Committees of the Halifax Ladies' Bible Association and the Nova Scotia Auxiliary Bible Society.

After the customary rest, following the last Quarterly Meeting, I left Truro on the morning of July 27th for Maitland, where a meeting was held that evening. The busy season of the year, (it was about the middle of haying,) and another meeting occurring at the same hour in the village, occasioned a much smaller audience than was obtained last year. Still, all present seemed interested. Some subscriptions were received, and more will be collected and forwarded. Next day, the Rev. Mr. Currie kindly forwarded me (as he did last year) to Noel. In the afternoon addressed an excellent meeting in the Presbyterian Church. At the close a Branch Society was regularly organized; Rev. Jacob McLellan was elected President, J. J. O'Brien, Esq., Secretary and Treasurer. Above $13 were paid in, and arrangements were made to have a Depôt opened. The following day, kindly forwarded by J. J. O'Brien, Esq., almost to Walton. I had the opportunity of singing before a large audience in the Baptist Church in that rising village, the claims of the Bible Society. At no previous visit had I been able to secure so large a gathering, and I trust the result will be the increased efficiency of the Walton Branch.

Taken by G. R. Allison, Esq., the respected Secretary of the Walton Branch, almost to Chivrie. I had the opportunity, in the Temperance Hall, of bringing before a small audience the claims of God's Word. Here I obtained $13 of subscriptions, and arrangements were made to have a Dépôt opened. Next day walked to Kennetcook, where a very thin meeting was held. Next day taken by Rev. Mr. Tweedie to Brooklyn, Newport. I purposed addressing a meeting in the evening; but the attendance at the hour appointed, owing to the very busy season of the year, was so small that, at the suggestion of the friends there, it was deemed better to postpone the meeting for a few weeks. Next day walked to Avondale. In the evening addressed a good meeting in the vestry of the Wesleyan church. Efforts are to be made to increase and collect the subscriptions signed that evening. The following morning took the ferry boat to Windsor. Found, when I reached that town, that the Committee of the Branch there had judged it better to postpone the meeting a few weeks; so leaving Newport and Windsor to be visited after my return from Cape Breton, I set out for that Island. On my way, addressed meetings in Antigonish. At the suggestion of the President collections were taken, amounting in all to $16.

From Antigonish proceeded to the Strait of Canso, crossing which, addressed a small meeting the same evening in Hawkesbury. There are some warm friends to the Bible Society here, and efforts will be made—as on the occasion of my last visit—to collect and remit subscriptions. Next day, taking the coach to Mabou, held a meeting the following day in Hillsburg. Although I had written nearly a fortnight before, no public notice had been given of my visit; hence the meeting was small. The President had removed from the Province, and the Branch here has sustained a heavy loss in the death of the Hon. W. McKeen; still I am in hopes that something will be obtained this fall from Mabou Branch.

About the end of the week had to employ a man to drive me on to Margaree, where excellent meetings were obtained in the Baptist church, and a very warm interest manifested in my work. About $10 were obtained, which sum I expect will be increased.

From Margaree, went to Baddeck, where I held a meeting, but it was not largely attended. The absence of the President, (who was from home,) and notice of my visit not having been widely circulated, caused this. Our Branch there has sustained a heavy loss in the removal, by death, of Angus Tupper, Esq., who was the Secretary and Treasurer. T. A. McKeen, Esq., (to whom I am under great obligation for much personal kindness when there,) has kindly consented to act in Mr. Tupper's place. From Baddeck, went down to St. Ann's as far as English Town; but found it impracticable (owing to so many heads of families being from home) to hold a meeting. The President of the St. Ann's Branch, Wm. Ross, Esq., handed me $6.50 on purchase account and his own subscription. Through the kindness of Mr. Ross and Rev. Mr. McIntosh, I was forwarded to Baddeck. The Sydney steamer not sailing on her appointed day, I had, Tuesday, August 29, to engage a private conveyance to take me to North Sydney. Here arranged for a meeting a fortnight hence, and crossing next afternoon to Sydney town, made a similar arrangement about a meeting.

From Sydney walked to Little Glace Bay, where I expected a box of Bibles and Testaments, which had been shipped on board the "Prince Alfred" in Halifax four weeks previously.

Heard when I reached Little Glace Bay, that the vessel had not come round, but was still at Cow Bay. Next day walked round through Big Glace Bay, &c., to Cow Bay, where I found the vessel and procured the books. Spent several days in Cow Bay going round, chiefly among the miners, with the Word of God. The success was very encouraging. Here, and at Mira Bay (which I afterwards visited), disposed of the whole, and had I more I could have sold them. I much regretted that I could not return to Little and Big Glace Bay, (where, as at Cow Bay, there are a large number of miners,) with copies of the Scriptures; but resolving, if the Lord will, to visit Cape Breton next season. I made arrangements in the meantime to forward from Halifax a box of Bibles and Testaments to Glace Bay to one who will take charge of, and sell them. Both at Cow Bay and Mira Bay held meetings and formed Branch Societies. At Cow Bay the Rev. John Winterbotham was elected President, John McDonald Secretary, and Thomas P. Jones, Treasurer. At Mira Bay, the Rev. J. F. Kempton was appointed President, Ronald McAuley, Secretary and Treasurer. In both places arrangements were made to procure and forward subscriptions, and to have Depôts opened.

Returning to Sydney, a small meeting was held in the Bethel, North Sydney. Rev. Wm. Meek, President of the Branch, presiding. A subscription of upwards of $45 had recently been forwarded to Halifax, and I found a large supply of Bibles and Testaments in the Depôt. Notwithstanding our small meeting, I am persuaded there is a warm interest taken in this very stirring place in the cause of the Bible Society. In Sydney town an excellent meeting was obtained in St. Andrew's church. About $35 were signed, nearly all of which was paid ere I left.

Reached Cape Canso in time to hold the meeting which had been announced,—but not so early as I had expected. This circumstance, I have no doubt, caused a thinner attendance than would have otherwise been. Next day took the mail for Guysboro', which I reached only about an hour before the time appointed for the meeting. Much interest in the cause of the Bible Society, is still taken in Guysboro'. From the Ladies' Bible Association I received $23, beside $2.95 on purchase account; and the subscriptions from the other Branch (revived last year) will, I expect, soon be forwarded. While in Guysboro, I was kindly taken by the Rev. Mr. Burns to Manchester. Circumstances did not permit holding a meeting here. The coach to St. Mary's (which I had next to visit) runs only twice a week, and I had to leave by it early the following morning. At Glenelg, St. Mary's, addressed two meetings in the Presbyterian church. The first, owing to defective notice, (my letter was forwarded to the wrong Post Office,) was thinly attended. The second, of which general notice had been given, was very large. A Ladies' Bible Association was formed here, (being the second one in Guysborough county,) of which Mrs. M. Archibald was elected President, and Mrs. Pitblado Secretary and Treasurer. Collections will very shortly go round, and a Depot will be opened for the sale of the Scriptures. From Glenelg went to Goshen, and had an opportunity of again bringing before an excellent meeting the claims of the Bible Society. Rather more than a twelvemonth ago, I first visited this settlement. No efforts had been previously made in it to obtain assistance to the Bible Society. About a month after the former meeting and address, the people assembled, and formed themselves into a Branch Society, collected and remitted about $60, and the Treasurer paid me $12.33, which had been paid after the former remittance had been sent. Arrangements were made for another meeting to appoint collectors to go round for subscriptions.

From Goshen (kindly forwarded by John Sinclair, Esq., of Glenelg,) I proceeded to Caledonia. As formerly, held two meetings here, in places seven miles distant. Obtained above $16 of subscriptions, and $8 on purchase account. In Caledonia spent some time in visiting certain families with the Scriptures, taking for this purpose some Bibles and Testaments which I had left in Goshen at my last visit.

I regretted that I had not leisure, while passing through, to remain in Musquodoboit a few days and hold meetings, but arranging, D. V., to return soon, I proceeded to Windsor, where a good meeting was held in the Court House on the evening of last Tuesday. Part of next day was spent in collecting subscriptions, and $32.05 were obtained. It being the week of Quarter Sessions, and many friends called on, being absent, the Committee concluded it would be better to appoint lady collectors to call round. What they receive will be forwarded before the Annual Report is printed.

On Thursday morning went to Newport. Here, in Woodville, Scotch Village and Brooklyn, excellent meetings were obtained, and I confidently expect that even an increasing interest will be taken here in the cause of the Bible Society.

Returned to Halifax by this morning train, to attend the quarterly meetings.

During the past quarter I have, in prosecution of my work, travelled by rail, coach, and private conveyance, 1,050 miles, walked 187, sailed 102; visited 18 distinct Branches, and formed four new Branches; addressed 37 meetings; visited (with the Scriptures) 89 families. Disposed of 92 Bibles and 66 Testaments—in all 158 copies of the Word of God; selling by far the greater part. Obtained $311.30½ of subscriptions; $122.90½ on purchase account, and for sales of the Scriptures $28.63½.

I have nothing particular to note regarding my work for last quarter. The travelling has exceeded the average travelling of previous quarters. I cannot say how many, nor, indeed, be absolutely certain that any, of the miners supplied with the Word of God were previously destitute of it; but I think in some cases it is not improbable there was a want of the book of God. My visits to them were necessarily very hurried ones. If I mistake not, some Roman Catholic miners purchased. One woman—a miner's wife—with a marked Irish accent, wanted to know "if I had not a book with the life of Moses in it," I told her I had, a book which contained all that could be known with certainty regarding him,—and sold her a Bible.

May God's blessing accompany the efforts I have been again privileged to put forth; and may His own Spirit bless to every purchaser of it, the reading of His own word.
