RUSSIAN DUMA DENOUNCES THE CRUELTY OF THE POLICE.

Governments Attempt at Justification Not Well Received, a Strong Resolution Passed—A Split in the Ranks

ST. PETERSBURG, May 31.—The Lower House of Parliament yesterday denounced an unparliamentary resolution made by the Government in the matter of the tortures inflicted upon prisoners at Riga, and consequently the affair will be submitted to the Emperor. In the course of the debate the Minister of Justice denied that officials of his department had taken any part in inflicting these tortures, as had been charged, and declared that the information of the Duma committee in this respect, was absolutely untrue. M. Mikaroff, assistant Minister of the Interior, then denied that the police had been guilty of inflicting tortures. He said a preliminary inquiry had shown that in some cases, policemen had struck prisoners with their fists, but these blows were never severe. A total of 42 police officials had been assigned on charges. He did not wish to justify their conduct, but under the existing abominable conditions the actions of the police might be excused by the cruelty of the revolutionaries. It could not be expected that the police always should remain calm when more than one thousand comrades had been killed or wounded in the Baltic provinces alone. Numerous resolutions for this against the Government having been requested, the House finally adopted a resolution declaring the matter left to the Government to be unsatisfactory. The debate on the answer of the Government to the inquiry into the Riga April 13, when seven revolutionaries were killed and 12 wounded, was then continued. This matter first came up in the House on April 23. The Minister of Justice, M. Chotolovitch, denied that medieval tortures had been inflicted on the revolutionaries but admitted they had been beaten with Cosack whips and iron chains. He said that of the session today Count Bobrinski, Monarchist, who had been charged with inquiry in connection with the election in Tula, explained the floor on a question of privilege and accused F. I. Roditchoff, Constitutional Democrat, of falsehood. At the same time he announced that V. V. Shulgin, Monarchist, had challenged M. Roditchoff to fight a duel. M. Roditchoff refused the bribery charges and declined to accept the challenge. LONDON, May 30.—The congress of the British Social Democrats which has been in session in this city since May 31, decided today by a majority of 43 votes definitely to sever all relations with the Constitutional Democrats and other Liberal parties which they lost a year ago. This decision was reached after days of wrangling and passionate discussion and constant narrow divisions on the clauses of the resolution. Eventually the congress decided by a majority of 7 to consider a resolution of the majority declaring that the Constitutional Democrats had completely turned their backs upon the revolution, that they openly supported the government in a plan to bring about an anti-democratic constitution based on property qualifications and that their growth of the revolution was in the nature of a monarchy safeguarded by a police regime, the two chamber system and the standstill policy against the attacks of the proletariat. In Parliament the opposition declares the Irish League to be responsible for the growth of the movement, using it as a means to force the government to grant the Irish demands. Chief Secretary for Ireland, Birrell, speaking in the House today admitted there was considerable cause for anxiety, but denied the existence of any evidence of widespread conspiracy.

SCHOONER CAPTAIN HAS SMALLPOX AT SUMMERSIDE

P. E. Island Hospital Annual Meeting—The Endowment Fund is Slowly Growing.

CHARLOTTE TOWN, May 31.—The annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Hospital was held last night. Current receipts were $3,638; expenditures $4,785. During the year 338 patients were admitted, an increase of twenty per cent. $215 was added to the endowment fund which is now $10,410. A painting in oils of the late Dr. Richard Johnston, one of the founders of the institution, was presented to the hospital by his family. The schooner Lois arrived in Summerside from Pictou Sunday. Yesterday her captain George E. Day was reported to be sick, and the health officer Dr. John P. McNell, boarded her and fearing it might be smallpox, had the vessel quarantined. Further examination confirmed his suspicion. The vessel is ordered into strict quarantine and is about half a mile from shore. Besides the captain there are six sailors on board. Two of them have been vaccinated. The other one has had smallpox and is in charge of the patient. It is a very mild case.

THOUSANDS OF FRENCH SEAMEN ARE ON STRIKE

Warships are in Readiness to Preserve Peace at Various Ports, and to Carry the Mails.

PARIS, May 31.—French commerce is threatened with complete paralysis as a result of the general strike of seamen belonging to the naval reserve which is in operation at all the ports of France. The naval reserves comprise almost all the entire maritime population devoted to seafaring life. They number about 117,000 men, of which 25,000 belong to the navy. Practically all the French personnel of the merchant marine, as well as the longshoremen, are included in the naval reserve. The government's new bill increasing pensions from $40.80 to $72.50 in the case of seamen, and from $156 to $200 in the case of captains, is being inadequate. The government promptly ordered the army transports at Marseilles to be placed on commission in order to insure a mail service between France and her African possessions, but the transportation companies were taken by surprise and at the mercy of the strikers. The officials of the French Trans-Atlantic company, however, stated that the company was in a position to receive the men, as being members of the naval reserve the crews are subject to heavy penalties for disobedience, but it is reported as more likely that they will effect a compromise.

SPAIN MUST PAY FOR NAVAL EXPANSION

The Large Expenditures in Armament Call for Economy in Other Directions.

MADRID, May 31.—The scheme for an enlarged navy now being carried forward under the direction of Minister of Marine Ferrandino has necessitated extensive reforms and economies in other directions, and as a result a number of over paid officials are hard hit. Consequently the minister's plans are receiving considerable opposition at some of the arsenals and naval sections, whence a number of heated protests have been received. The minister, however, is supported firmly by the cabinet and the chamber of deputies and is proceeding with his policy in spite of this opposition.

SEVEN ARE NOW DEAD FROM TROLLEY CAR SMASH

ELYRIA, O., May 31.—Three persons died of injuries received in the trolley car smash at Cleveland and southwestern trolley car yesterday, making a total of seven dead. Those who died today were Mrs. J. W. Elyria, Miss Emily V. Wurst, Elyria, and C. V. Porter, clerk, Elyria. Of the injured the following are expected to die: Margaret Bitter, Elyria; Miss Mary Dean, South Amherst; Miss John Leslie, Carlisle; Mrs. Saly, wife of Rev. J. P. Saly, Elyria; and W. S. Avery, conductor, Elyria.

Passengers on I. C. R. Trains Will be Protected

Body of a Sailor Found Near Shediac—Brakeman Injured While Coupling Cars at Moncton.

MONCTON, N. B., May 31.—Havelock Mitton, car inspector at the I. C. R. depot had his head severely jammed while coupling hose on the maritime express last night. Mitton was between the engine and the baggage car when the latter attached the Pullman car at the rear of the train. In the jolt Mitton's head was caught between the drawbars and a severe scalp wound was inflicted. He was knocked out for a few seconds and it was at first feared he was seriously injured, but his injuries proved to be superficial only. Besides his head being bruised and cut one shoulder was lightly injured. The I. C. R. police are making special arrangements for the protection of train passengers against sharpers and pickpockets who are likely to follow in the wake of the circus which tours the province next week. Plain clothes men are to be sent to the train on the days when the circus shows in St. John, Sussex, Moncton, Amherst and other places on the I. C. R. line. Last year there were a number of complaints of theft from the train passengers, a Pettit codicid man losing a large amount. The body decomposed and that of a man was found last night near the light-house, half a mile below Pt. Du Chene, and is thought to be that of the body of a Swedish bark at Richibucto last fall. Joseph Gallant made the discovery while walking along the shore and immediately reported to Corporal R. A. Smith at Shediac. The initials "C. N." were found on the arms, and some of the clothing was the same as had been found on the body of a man who had evidently been in the water a considerable length of time.

WIFE SAYS PASTOR ESCAPED SCANDAL

Deep Mystery of Dr. Dalrymple's Flight From Family Cleared Up by Her Statement.

WORCESTER, Mass., May 30.—Because of interviews with her husband—published in the neighborhood where the trio were held up with the result that Mrs. Dela E. Dalrymple today authorized the publication of a very carefully prepared statement, which she said was the real reason for her husband's midnight flight from the Milbury Unitarian church, of which he was pastor, from his children and herself, whom he is never again to communicate with or see. The publication of the interview has caused a sensation in Worcester and Milbury.

Mrs. Dalrymple said that her husband had been over money matters, he was worried about handling her affairs and estates. For the sake of peace she had allowed him to deposit her money in his name. When he threatened suicide many times after unfortunate speculations she sent for her brother, Horace Dalrymple, and her family attorney, and bared a secret she had long kept to herself, namely, that her husband had had improper relations with a beautiful girl whom she took into her home at the age of sixteen and who became a singer. That very night her husband and the girl disappeared, first writing to Mrs. Dalrymple that she came to her present, but could not resist temptation.

NO WORD YET.

LONDON, May 31.—The fate of the two lieutenants of engineers who ascended from Aldershot in a military balloon May 29, during the review in honor of Prince Pushimi of Japan, still remains a mystery. The war office has not received any news since the enquires made during the night, refuting the story that the aeronauts had arrived at the Selly Island. Warships are cruising in the Channel in the hope of obtaining some clue to the officers' fate.

JAMES T. JACKSON.

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 31.—The death occurred this morning of James T. Jackson, a well known and respected resident of this city. Deceased leaves a widow and one daughter, the latter being the secretary of the York County municipality. Rev. Horace Dibble, rector of Ormoka, arrived home last night from his California trip. A couple of evenings ago oil-stoves were lighted and left burning in Thos. Potts' dry rooms on North Market street, where a quantity of bananas were being ripened. The rooms were without very much draft and in the morning when an employee opened up the store he was met with a strong odor of smoke. On investigation he found that one of the oil-stoves had been overturned during the night and some of the wood work had been slowly burning. If there had been any draft in the room it is thought that the flames would have given the fire department a severe lesson in the wooden buildings in connection with the fruit establishment were in great danger.

IRISH PEASANTS UP IN ARMS AGAINST THE LAND OWNERS.

WRECK WHEN FOUND

Milbury Unitarian Pastor Living at Cheap Chicago Boarding House

CHICAGO, May 30.—Apparently forsaken by his wealthy wife and relatives, and cast out by his church, the Rev. Charles H. Dalrymple, arthritic pastor of the First Unitarian Church, at Milbury, Mass., who left that city suddenly a week ago, lies a nervous wreck in a cheap boarding place at 294 East Sixtieth street. Up to the time of his departure from Milbury, the Rev. Mr. Dalrymple acted as manager of his wife's fortune, which amounts to $120,000, and was highly respected. He is the father of five children. Before he left Milbury the clergyman signed a paper agreeing never to return and severing all interest in his wife's property. She is seriously ill at a hospital at Milbury. "My action was entirely voluntary, and for the best interest of all concerned," was the statement he made tonight. "The constant strain of business worry incurred by the management of my wife's estate was undermining my health and that of my wife, who aided me, until it became necessary for me to leave. H. W. Eaton, my wife's brother, who is a trained business man, was the natural one to take charge of affairs, and it was an amicable agreement between us that led to his being given the trust." A VARIETY OF CASES IN POLICE COURT TODAY

There was a variety of cases in the police court this morning. Leonard Vanhorn, who was intoxicated last night, felt ashamed of himself this morning. He had a ticket for Amherst and three dollars and the only thing to prevent his departure was a four dollar fine. This was allowed to stand pending future good conduct and he was advised to hasten home. Edward McCluskey was drunk early this morning on Clarence street and was accompanied by Frank Kelly and Wm. Costello. Script Campbell and Policeman Scott, hearing some profanity in the neighborhood where the trio were, held them up with the result that McCluskey was arrested for being drunk and his companions for not giving a satisfactory account of themselves. The magistrate this morning took Kelly to task and told him that as a young man whom he only last week allowed out of jail he had no business on the street early in the morning as he would be unfit to get out to his work, and he was paving the way to become a drunkard. Kelly was fined $5.00 and his companions were each fined $2.00. Albert Moody and George Foley, two Musquash youths, were in the city yesterday and after drinking some beer had lunch in the Boston Restaurant and for fun stole two cut glass salt cellars and two napkins. Geo. Wansmaker, the manager of the restaurant, followed the men, and with the assistance of Policeman Crawford arrested them in John Martin's house at Spruce Lake last evening about eight o'clock. The men were very sorry for what they had intended as a joke, pleaded guilty and were allowed to go on a suspended sentence.

Wife From Whom He Separated Told of Prison Flight Twenty-Five Years Ago—Seeks Pardon.

WEST PLAINS, Mo., May 30.—Betrayed by the woman in whom he had once placed his trust, George W. Watkins, a respected farmer living near this city, was arrested yesterday and returned to the Tennessee penitentiary from which he escaped six years ago. Watkins obtained a divorce a short time ago from his second wife. Before he married her he got it his duty to advise her of the stain upon his character and she kept the secret until after the separation. Watkins escaped from the prison mines in Tennessee on September 22, 1882. He had served four months of a five year sentence for housebreaking. In 1890 Watkins brought his second wife to West Plains and bought a farm. He soon gained the respect of his neighbors and he worked hard for a living. They were separated a year ago, but she did not betray him until this week. Already a movement is on foot here to induce the President to pardon Watkins. A petition will be circulated among several men of influence here, and it is believed that he has a good chance as William Jackson, of Kansas City, whom President Roosevelt recently pardoned under similar circumstances.

FLEEDED OF $76,000 IN PITTSBURG POKER GAME

Rich Ohio Man Charges Gamblers With Giant Swindling Scheme

PITTSBURG, May 30.—A. T. Nye, a rich man of Marietta, Ohio, today entered suits at Pittsburgh against John R. Curry, of Marietta, F. B. Ranger, of Pittsburgh and Frank T. Thompson, of Pittsburgh, well known in sporting circles, charging them with conspiracy to beat him out of a large sum of money at cards. It is alleged that in one crooked poker game some time ago Nye and O. C. Davis, a wealthy oil man of Marietta, were beaten out of $76,000. Davis some time ago made information against those who, he said, had robbed him, and they were to be given a hearing today. Curry and Ranger were arrested today, but Thompson, who fled to New York about the time Davis laid his information, has not been taken.

It appears that a most gigantic scheme of gamblers here to bring rich men to Pittsburgh and fleece them of their money in crooked games, has been discovered.

CHICAGO, May 31.—The Chicago Chronicle this morning announces that it will cease publication with this issue owing to the fact that the paper has been unprofitable for some time. The Chronicle began publication on May 28, 1895 as the only Democratic morning paper then in Chicago.

GUATEMALA CITY, May 30.—The trial of the persons charged with complicity in the recent attempt upon the life of President Manuel Cabrera commenced Tuesday of this week. The court handed down sentences of six months to fifteen years to the prisoners and these sentences are now awaiting confirmation at the hands of a higher court. The error has only today permitted the transmission of details of the trial.

Joseph Kehler, aged 59, died at his home in Carleton today. His brother, Patrick, died only a few days ago.

Lively Scenes in Several Districts Where a More Equitable Distribution of Land is Demanded—Magistrates Side With the Malecontents

DUBLIN, May 30.—The latest phase of the land agitation in the congested districts of Ireland is taking the form of a crusade against the holders of grazing farms on the eleven months lease system and is developing with great rapidity and intensity. Roscommon, Kings County and North Tipperary are the centres of lawlessness. In bygone times these localities saw many evictions and today the peasants are determined that the land shall be re-distributed to small holders. Reports are received daily of the gathering of large bands of peasants who destroy gates and fences and clear the grazing ranches of cattle, which they drive back over miles of country to the farms of the farmers. In two cases men who had leased ranches were compelled to abandon their holdings because of intimidation. The authorities have drafted large forces of police in the disturbed districts with the result that there may be, so serious conflicts between the police and the peasants and many persons on both sides have been injured. There have been numerous prosecutions, but the sympathy with the aims of the peasants is so strong that in one or two instances even the magistrates have declined to concur in the conviction of the disturbers of the peace, one magistrate even going to the extent of declaring himself ready to go to prison with the defendants.

Our New RAINCOATS.

There is nothing loud or extreme in the styles and patterns of our Raincoats. As the Raincoat is a favored overgarment for most any occasion, the dark patterns are usually preferred, especially when it comes to the finer grades. We invite special attention to our Dark Grey (Cravenette) Raincoats at $7.50, $8.75, $11.50 and $13.75. These garments have been made especially for us, and are known throughout the land as the best values in America. Spring Suits $6.75 to $15.75.

NOVA SCOTIA FISHERMEN MEET WITH ENORMOUS LOSS

Twenty Thousand Dollars' Worth of Nets and Traps Swept Away by the Ice—Have Met Crisis, However, with Undaunted Courage—Again Making Preparations.

ST. PETERS, N. S., May 30.—The drift ice which for several weeks hovered about the east coast of Cape Breton made its appearance at Point Michou on Sunday last, and since then has swept the coast westerly by Lardosee, Rockdale and St. Peter's, and has extended far up the Lormon Passage. Tuesday the wind set in from the north, and this encouraged the fishermen along the coast to believe that the ice would be driven out to sea. That afternoon hundreds of nets were set out in anticipation of the appearance of mackerel, which were hourly expected. Wednesday night the ice was swept ashore and carried away everything before it in the shape of nets, mooring and lobster traps, of which there were thousands lost. The loss to the fishermen of Lardosee, Rockdale and Grand Cove can be estimated at $20,000 in gear carried away and destroyed. This on the very eve of the mackerel fishing involves an enormous loss to the fishing class. These brave men, however, have met the crisis with undaunted courage, and have already made arrangements to renew their gear to be in readiness for the fishing season now already upon them. No such devastation was ever known in the history of Richmond county, and its effect upon the district named will be far reaching.

HALIFAX FIRM GRANTS INCREASE

Longshoremen Refuse to Appoint an Arbitrator to Conciliation Board—Government May Do So

HALIFAX, N. S., May 30.—The longshoremen have drawn first blood in their strike for higher wages. This afternoon the firm of A. G. Jones & Co. gave in to the demands of the men, took all their old employees back, and will pay them 25 cents for day work, 30 cents for night work. This will enable the firm to unload the steamer Vinland, which has been tied up four days. On behalf of the other steamship companies, De Briel of the Labor Department, held a conference with the men and offered them an increase of five cents per hour for day work, but not any extra for night. The men rejected the offer, and also refused to appoint an arbitrator to a conciliation board. It looks as if the government will have to make the appointment.

FISHERMAN LOST HIS LIFE AT SYDNEY

SYDNEY, N. S., May 30.—Joseph Wetherell, fisherman on the schooner Oran, lost his life in the harbor this afternoon by drowning. The schooner is in for salt, and this afternoon three of her crew, Wetherell, Farrell and Spencer, were at McDonald's wharf loading a dory. The first two named were in the dory while Spencer was on the wharf. When a bag of salt was lowered down it upset the dory, precipitating both occupants into the water. Neither could swim, and they foundered about in the water. Spencer on the wharf was unable to render any assistance. Farrell managed to lay on the dory, which kept him afloat until assistance came from the schooner. But Wetherell, weighted by his heavy clothes, sank to the bottom. The deceased belongs to Fortune Bay, Nfld. He was 32 years old, and leaves a wife and four children.

VICTORIA ROLLER RINK BAND To-night

The Victoria is the Biggest, Brightest and Best With the Smoothest Floor and Best Skates.

FROM EDITORIAL IN United States Trade Reports

We hear so much these days about the "Ground Floor" and yet very few realize how much has been accomplished in the building of fortunes by this Ground Floor idea, in fact almost every one of the great fortunes of today, originated from some lucky opportunity or far-seeing thought which enables some one to know where to place a few dollars which will quickly jump into hundreds.

When we learn of an opportunity which is beyond the ordinary we feel we are doing a service to our readers in pointing it out.

By far the best thing we have heard of for many months is the proposition of the Cove Hydro-Electric Co., whose offices are at 1014 Fremont Bldg., Boston, Mass., and 125 Prince William St., St. John, N. B.

Our readers should look into this. The company is offering their stock and those who grasp the opportunity now will indeed be on the Ground Floor.

FINANCIAL CONTROL OF CITY MUCH IMPROVED

Ald. Bullock's Budget Shows That With the Exception of the Police and Sewerage Accounts Every Department Shows Surplus Over Last Year--His Worship and Ald. Lantulum in Sharp Clash

The regular monthly meeting of the Treasury Board was held last evening. Those present were: Ald. Bullock, chairman; Aldermen Kelley, Lantulum, McGowan, Frink, Vanwart, Baxter, McGoldrick, Pickett, Chamberlain, Sandall and Common Clerk Wardrop.

Financial Statement. Reviewing the report of the chamberlain, coupled with that of the director of public works, for the year ending Dec. 31, '06, the following large payments appear other than ordinary and fixed charges: Expenditures on city wharf properties, $26,733.00

Expenditures on water extension, $80,000.00. Included in the latter is an item of $2,000.00 for the new 38 inch main on the Marsh. The estimate for this work was $38,000.

Over-expended. $338,793.00. This practically covers a period of two years--represented as an overdraft at the Bank of New Brunswick. The bond market being dull, our debentures were lodged with the bank as collateral, during February, and since the close of the report bonds to the extent of $721,000 were deposited to the Bank of Commerce, so that the above overdraft has been wiped out.

Bonded Debt: For 1906 was $4,387,868.18. In 1906 was reduced to $4,345,632.18. A reduction of $42,236.00.

Interest Account: For 1906 was $184,270.44. In 1906 was reduced to $192,939.28. A reduction of $8,668.84.

Portland school loan, $7,800.00. Old city debt, $2,400.00. Charlton street improvement, $8,000.00. $ p. c., $15,800.00.

All of which will be provided for out of the sinking fund. Tax collections: Received in 1906 and defaults, $456,949.25. Received during 1906, $49,849.25.

A total increase of $58,899.97. Receipts from water rates: Received in 1906 and defaults, $116,415.27. Received in 1906, $119,983.16.

Harbor revenues: Received in 1906, $43,267.59. Received in 1906, $39,220.17. Received in 1906, $6,734.61.

Increase of $21,514.44. Being first whole year since traffic charges went into effect at Sand Point. All of the public wharf properties show a shrinkage except Union wharf, Pettegill wharf, McLeod's wharf, including harbor master's fees and anchorage.

CIVIC FINANCES.

The report of the city's financial position which was presented at last evening's meeting of the treasury board is the most encouraging in years. It indicates that an effort is being made to improve not only the financial condition of the city, but to bring about a much needed reform in the system of accounts, to modernize the book-keeping, and to keep a check on the various spending departments. The only criticism which may be offered at the present time is that the statement is too late. It should have been presented three months ago, but the delay, it appears, was unavoidable owing to the increasing amount of work required from the chamberlain's staff, and the poor facilities afforded Mr. Sandall and his associates in conducting the business. The chamberlain deserves credit for the improved system which is made, and the chairman of the treasury board must also receive a large measure of praise for his untiring efforts towards systematizing and consolidating the accounts. Ald. Bullock has succeeded in securing a better rate of interest on the debt, this being brought about by an agreement which has still eighteen months to run, and which will not doubt be renewed on the same or more favorable terms. It is shown that in most of the departments, expenditures have been kept well within the limits, and in some cases the indebtedness has been materially reduced. This is a radical change from the habits of the past, for as a rule each department has spent whatever it desired, without regard to the amount assessed. The policy of strictly limiting the expenditure appears to be effective, and may be more rigidly enforced during the present year, for there is evidence that the department has been inclined to disregard orders. The results in the conduct of the country market are particularly gratifying, for it has for the first time been found unnecessary to assess for sinking fund. The revenues now pay the entire maintenance and provide for the debt.

At the present time the city is paying about six dollars a ton for coal. Contracts were made for fixed quantities and the tenders accepted, but after the quantities called for had been used, the dealers naturally demanded the current market price. A change in the form of tender which would call for an approximate quantity to be required during a certain space of time would no doubt save a few dollars and this applies equally to supplies other than coal.

However, such reforms will no doubt be brought about as time passes, and just now there is certainly cause for satisfaction in the very gratifying report presented and especially in the marked success which has attended the collection of back taxes.

THE HALIFAX STRIKE.

St. John, having had experience, can sympathize with Halifax in the longshore strike now in progress. Nothing can possibly be gained by the action of the men, but loss will be sustained no matter what happens. The longshore workers who now earn twenty-five cents an hour are asking thirty. They decline to submit their request to impartial arbitration and to continue work until a decision should be given, but quit their jobs and are now idle. The steamship companies backed by large capital can easily meet the loss occasioned by the present dispute. The men who earn their livings from day to day cannot afford to miss the opportunity for employment now offering, though as is often the case with labor unions, they are willing to make almost any sacrifice for what they consider a

Italian Clergy Make Accusations Against Pontiff.

ROME, May 30.—A group of Italian priests have issued a remarkable open letter to the Pope. It is a daring reply to the censures uttered by his Holiness in his allocution of April 17, against the most modern school of ecclesiastics and it accuses the Pontiff of violating the rights of conscience in his treatment of Father Murri, who was suspended from the priesthood for criticizing the Vatican's policy, and other priests.

YARMOUTH MAN COMMITS SUICIDE

YARMOUTH, N. S., May 30.—The community was shocked today when it became known that Charles Trask, a former conductor on the Yarmouth street railway had committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor in his bath.

LET HIM DIE

"Charlie said he would die for me." "You don't mean Charlie Gospy, the awful bore?" "Yes." "For goodness sake let him die."

HIS INTENTIONS GOOD.

Fond Mother—"Johnny, what are you going to do with the little boy next door for a birthday present?" Johnny (remembering a recent difficulty)—"I know what I'd like to give him, but I ain't big enough."

Singing the Praises of Our Shoes. Well Dressed Feet

On men and women are everywhere sounding the praises of our good Footwear. Your comfort, health and appearance depend greatly on your Shoes. We have Shoes for you and for everybody. If you wear Shoes bought here, your feet will be comfortable. They way a Shoe is made has a great deal to do with the fit. Neither money nor pains have been spared to have the lasts on which our Shoes are made just right. Our Shoes are made to fit the foot. It is when you try to make the foot fit the Shoe that harm and discomfort result. Our Spring styles are so attractive we like to show them—high or low cut—right up to the minute in style, and prices as moderate as these.

TRAGEDIES.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 30.—At the laying of the corner-stone of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church late today, a temporary flooring collapsed, throwing about sixty persons into the cellar, twelve feet below.

For over an hour the utmost excitement prevailed. Ladders were procured from neighboring factories and with the aid of the police those who were hurt were removed. Some were able to walk to their homes, while others were taken to hospital.

Bishop Hoban, of Scranton, who went down to the crash was soon rescued by friends and removed to a place of safety. He was badly shaken up, but fortunately escaped injury.

ELYRIA, Ohio, May 30.—Crowded with holiday passengers, a Cleveland and southwestern trolley car, running from Wellington to Cleveland, was struck by another car at the corner of Sixth street and Middle avenue shortly before six o'clock tonight. Two persons were killed and eleven persons were injured. Two of these injured, it is thought, will die.

The car which was wrecked, had slowed down to allow three passengers to get off when a trailer crashed into the crowded rear vestibule.

FITCHBURG, Mass., May 29.—Seven persons were quite badly injured, none, it is believed, fatally and several others sustained painful bruises today by the demolition of an electric car of the Fitchburg and Leominster Electric Railway upon which members of the local Grand Army post, women and children were being carried to Forest Hills Cemetery to decorate soldiers' graves.

The accident, which was probably due to the spreading of the rails, occurred as the ten-seated open car, with its full quota of passengers was rounding the curve at the corner of Everett and South streets. The car suddenly left the track and shot diagonally across the street narrowly missing a telegraph pole and landed in the gutter with such force that all the passengers were thrown forward and many hurled to the ground. The car was traveling at a moderate rate of speed and fortunately it did not overturn. The car was only slightly damaged. Physicians were soon on the scene and attended to such of the injured as needed their services and later the injured were sent to their homes.

HIGHLANDVILLE, Mass., May 29.—George O'Hara, 15 years of age, was struck and killed this evening by an automobile driven by George Armstrong of Needham. The boy started suddenly across the street on a bicycle just as the automobile swung around the corner. He was carried to a nearby house, but lived only a few minutes after the accident.

BOSTON, Mass., May 30.—"My body wanted to live but intellect wanted to die. My intellect won out," read a note found in the pocket of Herman Unger, of Pittsfield, Pa., who committed suicide by taking morphine sulphate at Clark's Hotel today.

Unger came to the hotel Tuesday and engaged a room. He was about the house as usual until noon today. Shortly after noon today his unconscious body was found in his room, and the man died at the city hospital without recovering consciousness.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 28.—Pasquale Martino, aged 3 years, and his brother Antonio, aged 5, perished in a fire alleged to have been started by playmate Julius Harjoie, 5 years old, today, which destroyed a barn containing several tons of hay, where the children were playing. It is said that the Harjoie boy, not realizing what he was doing, touched a lighted match to the hay. The property loss is small.

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 30.—The Italian colony gave up another characteristic murder tonight when "Jimbo" Giordano, long known and feared as the man of supernatural strength, was laid low from a blow from a hand-axe which a comrade was in the habit of carrying under his coat. Giordano, the terror of Italians because of his strength, pushed his way into a game in a East Side saloon. When the game failed to go to the giant's Giordano setted the leader by the throat. In another moment the axe descended upon his head, and he lay dead on the floor. The murderer is at large, but "Little Italy" breathes easier tonight.

LET HIM DIE
"Charlie said he would die for me." "You don't mean Charlie Gospy, the awful bore?" "Yes." "For goodness sake let him die."
W. S. Carter, Inspector of schools, arrived home last night, after attending the closing exercises at the university.

(Victoria County News.)
The good old summer time is almost here and our people have begun to do their farming. Field heads are making their appearance.
Eljah Watson is home from the drive.
Post cards are the order of the day, one of our neighbors received one the other day and she was so pleased she resembled a thunder cloud.
Mrs. Cash, Watson is visiting her mother for a few days last week.
Mr. Amos Watson, Jr., expects to visit with her sister at Van Burren shortly. Amos Watson, Sr. is slowly recovering from his long illness. Wm. Watson is at present on the sick list. Cash, Watson is working at Sigan where he expects to remain for the summer.
Our school house presents a very neat appearance since the observation of Arbor Day.
Austin Parker, Robert Walker, and Leo Boone have returned home from the drive.
Mr. Haman, the pulp agent was in this vicinity last week.
It is coming to something now, a person must pay two cents before you can take a postal card out of the post office, besides a one cent stamp on it. I wonder who it was got left in the rain one Sunday night.
We are very pleased to say John Day is improving in health and expects to come home in June.
H. Hunt spent a couple of days home.
Farming seems to be the order of the day at present.
F. Cave has just arrived from England and will live with his brother-in-law W. H. Laffing of this place.
Mr. and Mrs. D. McInnis paid a short visit at Perth also Master Kenneth.

RECENT DEATHS
SAMUEL STAFFORD.
Announcement has been received of the death of Lereaux on Wednesday of Samuel Stafford, one of the best known residents of that section and a man having many friends in St. John. NO MORE EVIDENCE IN LIBEL EXAMINATION Defense Fails Utterly to Prove Alleged Ejectment from Hotel.

Hotel Employees, Called by Defense, Largely Corroborate His Statements—Magistrate will Give Decision on Monday.

FREDERICTON, May 30.—The preliminary examination of Jas. H. Crockett, charged with criminal libel on information laid by Hon. H. R. Emmerson, was concluded this afternoon. Only five additional witnesses were examined during the two sessions today. The principal witnesses produced by the defense were Harry Dean, formerly night porter at St. Lawrence Hall, and John Lloyd, the night clerk. Both admitted that Mr. Emmerson and the Dean said that after the ladies went to Mr. Emmerson's room they made such a noise there talking that he was bound to go to bed or they would have to leave. Another witness whom it was understood the defense intended calling was Detective Skelton. This, however, was not done. At the conclusion of the defendant's case there was some discussion as to when the court should adjourn. After some consultation they announced that they would offer no further evidence, and as no argument of counsel was to be heard, adjournment was made until eleven o'clock on Monday morning. Mr. Crockett stepped up to the magistrate and asked about his recognition. Col. Marsh replied with a smile that he thought he would be safe and Mr. Crockett thanked him and left. While the last of the crowd was filing out of court the veteran magistrate, apart, one being in the old building and one in the addition. The witness remembered the evening of June 10th, 1906, he went on duty at 11 o'clock on that evening and remained on duty until 7.30 a. m. Dr. Pugsley here told in evidence which was told to him unless Mr. Emmerson were present when such communication was continuing said that the night in question he was sitting in the office of St. Lawrence Hall at about 1.30 o'clock, reading a paper. He remembered the time because the night house watchman had just wound the clock. He was sitting there when one of the night porters came down into the office. The witness started to give evidence as to what the night porter said to him. Dr. Pugsley objected to the witness giving any evidence as to what the porter said. Mr. Crockett admitted that this evidence should be admitted, as it went to the very essence of the case. The objection was sustained. The witness then told that he had received other complaints. Q. What were the complaints? A. They were the same. Q. Mr. Lloyd on receiving these two complaints from 157—learned friend knew that nothing has been given in evidence to show that these complaints were made of room 157, and I therefore object to having it taken for granted by the learned counsel that the room was 157? Objected. Objection overruled. A. They were the same. Q. Were both of these reports correct? A. Yes, both of them. Q. Having received these two complaints what instructions did you give night porters? Dr. Pugsley—This has been overruled by the court. Police magistrate—I cannot allow the question. Q. S. Crockett and Dr. Pugsley then had a clash at arms over the ruling. Mr. Crockett in strong language denounced the decision rendered by the judge, claiming it to be the most extraordinary ruling that he or any other lawyer had ever heard of. He contended that Mr. Crockett was being governed by everything that Dr. Pugsley said. Dr. Pugsley—I feel that the remarks of Mr. Crockett are too impudent to be answered. Mr. Crockett then became very much enraged and in a trade of abuse claimed that Dr. Pugsley was trying to come here and run the whole court, and he as a member of the Fredericton bar objected. Police magistrate—"Dr. Pugsley does not seem to have any such intention, but there are certain lawyers apparently who would like to rule the court." Mr. Crockett—"We probably all would, but the rest of us are not as successful as the attorney general." Q. What did you see the night porter do? A. After he made the complaint he went back. Q. What occurred next? A. The next thing that happened was that one of the ladies came down stairs. Q. How was she dressed? A. I cannot remember.

Q. Was she dressed for the street? A. Oh no, I do not think so. Q. What did she do when she came down? A. She was very cross and went back grumbling. I did not understand what she said. Continuing, he said that this lady came down stairs to pay her bill. She paid the bill of her friend and of the gentleman in 157. Q. Did you give her the bill for the gentleman without her asking for it? A. No, she asked for the gentleman's bill. She came down in a little while again. Q. What did she say? Objected to by Dr. Pugsley. Objection sustained. The witness said that then the porter brought down their baggage and they went away in a cab. This was nearly two o'clock. This was Sunday night or Monday morning. Q. Was Mr. Emmerson in the habit of stopping at St. Lawrence Hall? A. I have not seen him there for 15 or 16 years. He might have been there in the daytime and then I would not know whether he was there or not. In continuing the witness said that he always looked over the register to see who had arrived during the day. Guests sometimes do not register when they come in to meals, but they always register when they stay over the night. The witness said he had never seen Mr. Emmerson's name on the register in years. On the night in question Mr. Emmerson did not leave through the office other way. The ladies did not go out through the office either. Dr. Pugsley then commenced his cross-examination of the witness. Q. How many guests a day do you have at St. Lawrence Hall? A. About two hundred and fifty or three hundred a day. Q. You would not remember one thousand part of the guests who have visited St. Lawrence Hall in the past ten years? A. I could not. My work is to look after the office and assign guests to their rooms. Q. How far would Mr. Emmerson's room be from the ladies? A. About 200 yards. Q. If any guests were to come to the hotel before eleven o'clock in the evening and were to leave after 7.30 o'clock in the morning you would not see or know they were there? A. Yes, that is correct. Q. Then Mr. Emmerson might have been there scores of times and you would not have seen him? A. That is right, as I never had occasion to notice much who came and went. Q. Do you know Senator Davis, of Saskatchewan? A. Yes, I know him well. A. Yes, he was there recently and often visits there. Q. Do you remember of Mr. Emmerson being at St. Lawrence Hall with Senator Davis two years ago? A. No, I do not know Mr. Emmerson, but I know Senator Davis well. Continuing witness said that Mr. Emmerson and the ladies left by the tunnel, which was a usual mode of exit by night. Dr. Pugsley—How many night porters were there at the time? Witness—Two. Dr. Pugsley—How long had Dean been there? Witness—About 12 months. Dr. Pugsley—How long since he left? Witness—The porters change so often I do not try to keep track of them. A. Yes. Q. How do you know that these were the same ladies who were in 157? A. I recognized the tall one.

Q. Was there only one tall lady in the hotel at the time? A. Search me. Q. Had you any other reason to know who they were? A. Yes; No, 9 was unoccupied. Q. How many lady guests were there in the hotel at the time? A. Why not refer to the register? Q. Was it not quite usual that the ladies should cross the parlor to get to the lavatories? A. No, there were others close to their rooms. There were enough of them. They would not go a half a mile. Dr. Pugsley—Don't speak so recklessly. It was not half a mile. How far was it? A. About as far as from here to the door (the width of the court room). Q. Did you see the ladies' faces crossing the parlor? A. Five or six inches. Q. When you looked in No. 9 how much was the door open? A. I saw her coming along the hall and twenty minutes later I saw her at the office. I went my round to the cellar in the meantime. Dr. Pugsley further questioned the witness about when the ladies left the room, and witness complained that the attorney general was trying to tie him up. Dr. Pugsley—Not at all. Witness—Well, then you seem to be very much mixed. Dr. Pugsley—Well, that is my mistake. The re-examination by Mr. Hazen followed. Q. Are there plenty of ladies' lavatories near No. 9? A. Yes, and a bathroom right in the vicinity. Q. Did you know anything about one of the ladies being in the room? A. No. Q. Did you see any one of them? A. No. Q. If not insulted why did she go down to the office? A. Because I had told her to make less noise. This concluded the witness' evidence and court adjourned until Monday at 11 a. m.

MASSEY HARRIS CO., GOING TO MONCTON. Takes Over Abrams Foundry Property and Will Erect Big Building—Milk Dealers Combine. MONCTON, N. B., May 30.—The transaction transferring the Abrams Foundry property to the Massey-Harris Company, which intends to make Moncton its distributing point for the Maritime Provinces, was completed today. It is understood that the price paid for the property was in the vicinity of six thousand dollars. The erection of the company's brick warehouse and extensive offices will commence early in July. The milk dealers of Moncton have formed a combine, and agreed to charge six cents per quart for milk during the entire year. Edward Bourgeois, a former Moncton boy, now of Jamestown, Va., is spending a few days at his old home here. The equity court held sittings at Dorchester on Tuesday. The first case was that of William Peters and others versus the Sheldie Boot and Shoe Co. in which an application was made in two suits on behalf of the Boot and Shoe Company for the dismissal of the suits for want of prosecution. The case of Albert Gray v. Stillman Ayles was brought to have certain conveyances of real and personal property made by the defendant, Ayles, set aside and declared fraudulent and void on the grounds that the conveyances were made with the object of preventing the plaintiff from realizing a judgment of $20, obtained by him in the supreme court against the defendant. In the suit of N. Bradford Carter v. Thomas Lowerson, on motion of A. W. Bennett for the plaintiff, leave was given to take his bill pro confesso at the hearing against a number of defendants for want of appearance. This suit is brought for the partition of site of certain lands and premises belonging to the late Robert Loverton.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT DID ROUTINE BUSINESS

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 30.—The local government held a short session this evening, but the premier says that nothing outside of routine business was transacted. The regular schedule was taken up and this will occupy some time yet. The government will meet here all day tomorrow and the premier will not tender his resignation until the standing business is closed up. A. F. Stewart and Gerard Tuel returned tonight from up river. They drove from here to Woodstock and from there went as far as Aroostook Junction. They express themselves as being most pleased with the country through which they have gone. They will drive from here to St. John and complete their inspection of the proposed valley road. PRESENTED WITH CHECK. TORONTO, Ont., May 30.—E. King Dods, editor of the Canadian Sportsman, who has recently gone blind, was presented at Woodbine this afternoon with an address and a check for $2,300. The presentation was made after a luncheon at which Dr. Andrew Smith presided.

For the Home Dressmaker

SOME EASILY COPIED BATHING SUITS

SALT or fresh water bathing forms so important a part of the summer life, that the question of bathing suits is of decided interest. There was a time when a woman was content to make a guy of herself when in the water, but that day is long past. Now she knows that no costume better repays time and thought spent upon it than the one in which she takes her daily dip.

The bathing suit may be the most becoming thing a woman can wear, or it can be absolutely the reverse. It is, however, her own fault if it is the latter. Given suitable materials cut on good lines, and there are comparatively few women who do not look well when ready to enter ocean, lake or river. Her after-appearance naturally is another affair, and a cloak or cape should, if possible, be in readiness for the decomposing run to the bath-house.

Few women care to wear a rented bathing suit; quite apart from the unpleasantness of the idea, they are usually far from beautiful. Therefore a suit must either be bought when a vacation is in prospect, or one must be made at home. The latter is usually much more satisfactory, though surprisingly nice-looking suits are to be found ready-made if one is willing to pay for them.

Any one who has spent many seasons at watering places realizes how radically we have changed our ideas of the correct costume for bathing. Heavy serges, flannels and gilets, with all they mean of unbearable weight in swimming, have almost entirely given place to mohair, brilliantine and silk, which shed the water easily, and at the same time retain their color.

The freak suits of painful obtrusiveness have also lost their prestige, and nowadays the best-dressed women wear the quietest and most inconspicuous bathing costumes. While color is undoubtedly attractive in the water, that color is now furnished in trimmings rather than in garish whole suits of red, yellow, blue, lavender, pink or the broad stripes once so popular. Sometimes the color touch is given by cuffs, belt and collar; more often by trimming, stitching or braiding. Black and dark blue are distinctly the first choice for a bathing suit, the former strongly in the lead so far as silk is concerned. In fact, the black suit, unrelieved even by a touch of color, is in great favor. One of the smartest seen this season was of heavy black taffeta, cut with a widely flaring skirt with a few side pleats, and a full blouse with a slightly square neck braided with narrow black soutache braid on neck, sleeves and belt. A tiny piping of light blue to outline the neck was the only bit of color to be seen.

There is undoubtedly a growing fancy for the silk bathing suit, despite its unserviceableness and cost. Certainly nothing looks better in the water, or, more to the point, on coming out of it, than taffeta, and if expense is not an object, there can be no better choice. True, doctors will tell you the danger of shock and cold is greater in silk than in woolen fabrics, but that consideration has apparently little weight where fashion is concerned.

Dark blue is a popular color for woolen fabrics, while particularly smart are the mohairs and serges in striped suit seen recently was in black brilliantine with a white hair-line, braided in narrow black silk braid, with collar and turn-back cuffs of pale blue.

In cut there is no special difference this year from last, though a very flaring and full circular skirt is quite new. The gored skirt, however, pulls less, and when cut with a decided flare and made with a stitched box pleat in front and one or two side pleats, has little more weight than a circular model. Skirts come just to the knees.

Sleeves are almost invariably short, unfortunately for the thin-skinned woman whose arms freckle, and necks are usually slightly low, either on square or surplus lines, though now and then a woman, with the thought of décolleté gowns ahead, insists upon a standing collar.

The sailor collar is still in evidence, but is scarcely as popular as a yoke or a collar simulated with braids. These latter, moreover, cannot float in the annoying way the broad collar does. Braiding is quite a feature of the new suits, several widths of a soft silk braid being used.

Skirt and blouse are usually made in one, stitched together at the belt. The bloomers should be buttoned to straps attached to the waist underneath.

The woman who wishes to make her bathing suit early can find no more attractive designs than these charming French models of Jeanette Hope.

Suitable for a young girl who can venture on novelties would be the brown and white checked mohair, trimmed with a dark brown mohair braid a half-inch wide in a striking yet simple design. Both blouse and skirt have a broad box-pleat with short side pleats. A light blue silk handkerchief is tied around the head in a stylish manner, while tan stockings complete a very smart costume.

The second model is good either for black taffeta or for white serge, though the white bathing suit is not to be recommended for this country. The skirt is circular and quite flaring, while the blouse is full and plain, with a shaped yoke, cuff and girdle trimmed in two widths of black silk braid.

The woman who values a white neck will fancy the next model of black taffeta, with its yoke and high collar of black and white taffeta. This striped trimming is both novel and easily applied. Stitched side pleats give the necessary fulness to both skirt and blouse.

Dark blue mohair, with a simple trimming of dark and light blue braid, forms the last model. The skirt is circular, and the blouse is plain, save for a few pleats on the shoulders in front. A light blue handkerchief with large dots covers the hair.

Though the expert swimmer wears a hat, those worn are usually large turn-down panamas or rough straw hats, tied with gay ribbons.

Notes

EVENING coats of dyed lace are very lovely, though sometimes it seems like rank extravagance to point to meet what must be at best a passing fancy. A handsome long Empire coat of Irish lace, seen not long ago, was of that rich wine color called mulberry, trimmed with chiffon to match.

A smart sailor hat has clusters of moss rosebuds in the form of floral aigrettes, high on either side of the front, and a wreath of white hyacinths around the crown.

Many ostrich feathers are seen dyed in shaded colorings from the deepest, darkest tones down to the palest and most delicate tints.

CHAIRMAN BAXTER'S FERRY INNOVATIONS WERE ALL ENDORSED

Chamberlain Will Handle Returns in Future

Ludlow's Life Boats of No Use Now, as They Cannot be Lowered—Other Changes

The ferry committee held its first meeting for the year yesterday afternoon. Ald. Baxter was elected chairman and outlined many reforms in the ferry service that he desired to see inaugurated. Those present were Ald. Baxter, Ald. Bullock, Ald. McGowan, Ald. Sproul, Superintendent Glasgow and the common clerk.

The first business was the election of a chairman. Ald. Baxter was appointed to the position. He proceeded to bring before the committee several needed improvements to the service. Changes Approved. Ald. Baxter said concerning a change in regulations that it was a matter of allowing the captains to run the boats as they liked or not. He had acted and wished the committee to endorse his action.

On Ald. McGowan's motion this was done. Ald. Baxter next proposed that the ticket returns be handled by the chamberlain's office and not by the ferry superintendent. Ald. Bullock moved that this be done.

Chaired. The chairman also brought up the matter of ventilation of the Ludlow's engine room and stoke hold. Nothing, however, was done with regard to the matter. Report on Ferry Fleets. Superintendent Glasgow next reported concerning the condition of the ferry boats. The Ludlow, except for the lack of a coat of paint, was ready for use.

The Otago was in condition for immediate service. The Western Extension, however, was leaking quite badly. There were water blocks to put her on, nor any on which to paint the Ludlow. Blocks were needed. It was decided that the Ludlow be painted on Hillyard's blocks.

Some discussion concerning the washing and cleaning of the Ludlow followed. After some talk on the renovation of the East Side toll-house it was decided to settle the matter at a special meeting of the committee.

Ald. Bullock moved that the matter of the East and West Side ferry gates and approaches be left to the superintendent and the chairman to report at the next regular meeting. The chairman next proposed the substitution of electric incandescent lights for the West Side pier-head lights. He decided to investigate the cost of the substitution and report at the next meeting.

Ald. Baxter recommended changes in the hand-steering gear of the Ludlow in order that it might be made a little handier. He will take no matter up later and the change will be made when the boat is laid up for inspection. Life Boats No Use. Chairman Baxter next informed the meeting that it had been practically demonstrated to him that the Ludlow's life-boats could not be lowered into the water. They were no good unless they could be used. The matter will be further considered in the future.

Ald. McGowan next brought up a matter which had come to his notice. A little girl had sat on the railing and only by the merest accident had not fallen overboard. Yet the life-preservers were all inside the cabin. These should be placed for life preserving about the railing. Ald. Baxter—"Yes, Ald. McGowan, but we can't have nursing bottles and baby carriages on that boat. Children should have sense enough not to sit on the railing. If anything happens it is their own fault."

New Caps for Employes. The chairman was next instructed to get new uniform caps for the ferry employes. It is likely a uniform of some kind will soon be provided for the men, and they will be required to pay a part of the cost. The superintendent was instructed to make a test of Springhill coal on the Ludlow. The remainder of the meeting was private.

EVERY COLLIERY OF N. S. STEEL AND COAL CO., NOW CLOSED DOWN. SYDNEY MINES, N. S., May 29.—Every colliery of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Co. was closed down today and 2,500 men are idle. This is one of the results of the ice conditions which prevailed in Sydney harbor and along the Cape Breton coast during the past two weeks, preventing a large fleet of chartered steamers taking cargoes from the former place. Already there are nearly 100,000 tons of coal banked ready for shipment, and the management deem it necessary to lay the men off for a day or so. Large quantities of ice on the coast and in the harbor have caused serious conditions, particularly for the N. S. S. & C. Co. Man yields to custom as he bows to fate—in all things ruled, mind, body and estate.—Crabbe.

GALE CAUSED HAVOC AT MILLIDGEVILLE

Several of the R. K. Y. C. Fleet Were Driven Ashore and One Salmon Boat Was Swamped and Sank

The stiff breeze which blew in the city yesterday afternoon amounted to a gale at Millidgeville and created havoc among the boats of the Royal Kenebec Yacht Club. Several of the boats were driven ashore and were injured, while others dragged their anchors. The Pasha, a gasoline launch owned by G. E. Sweeney, slightly injured. The Zuleika, belonging to J. Fraser Gregory, was anchored some distance from shore, but the force of the gale drove her toward the land and caused her to drag her anchor. However she was checked before grounding or being

MAHONEY GIVEN TWO YEARS FOR STEALING THE STOVES.

Counsel Made a Strong Plea for Mercy—Unable to Get a Jury in the Golding-Wood Stealing Case

The criminal docket was taken up at this morning's session of the county court. William Golding and Joseph London were brought into court. The charge of robbing Mrs. Hambley Wood on Sydney street on Good Friday last, was read to the prisoners. Both pleaded not guilty. A complete jury was not present and Judge Forbes adjourned the court until 12 o'clock, and the sheriff was instructed to summon twenty jurors. At the appointed hour only about ten jurors were present and these had all sent in applications to be excused from service. The jurors at the first session of the court this morning were all challenged by the counsel for the defense, with the exception of Andrew McNichol, F. E. Law and R. R. Batchford.

At 12:15 o'clock a complete jury had not been secured and Judge Forbes ordered that Wm. Mahoney be brought into court. The prisoner had elected to be tried under the Speedy Trials Act and his honor thought it best to deal with this case while the court waited for more jurors.

After the charge had been read, Mahoney pleaded guilty of stealing two ranges and two small stoves. His statement was that he did not steal three ranges as the charge read. B. L. Gerow, who appeared for the prisoner, read letters from Dr. Kennell and W. H. Mowatt. Mr. Gerow also produced an affidavit from the prisoner's sister which stated that the prisoner had received a fall in the cotton mills here and sustained injuries from which he never fully recovered. Counsel for the defense asked for the mercy of the court for the prisoner, Dr. D. E. Berryman, who was in the court, stated that he had been summoned to the cotton mill about ten years ago at the time of the accident. He knew that Mahoney had been in the mill, but when a man is found guilty, the law must be carried out. He therefore sentenced Mahoney to two years in Dorchester Penitentiary. His honor offered to send the letters of recommendation to the Minister of Justice for further consideration. Judge Forbes stated to the prisoner that if he knew of others implicated in the thefts at the McClary warehouse, he would be back again in giving their names. Mahoney was then taken back to jail.

Sheriff Ritchie was directed not to send Mahoney to Dorchester until a reply is received from the Minister of Justice. Mahoney has a wife and two children. The scene in the court room this morning was a sad one when Mahoney was sentenced. His sister who had sent the affidavit was so overcome with grief that she was obliged to adjourn to the anti-room. The prisoner himself took the sentence hard and when he was being led back to jail, tears streamed from his eyes. The case of Golding vs. London will be taken up at 2:30 this afternoon. Not for many years has so much trouble been experienced in getting a jury. Two panels were exhausted and when the court adjourned two more jurors were needed.

W. L. Robson, of the buying staff of M. R. A. Ltd., left yesterday for Canadian and American markets, and will continue his journey to the Old Country on June 7th by taking the steamer Virginia from Montreal. Mr. Robson will be absent several months.

CHILDREN'S COLORED DRESSES FOR COUNTRY OR CITY

Cute Get-Ups, Spick and Span.

NOTHING SO PRETTY, SO FETCHING AND CLEAN as these soap-and-water summer dresses for the little girls, and, indeed in the smaller sizes the boys wear them as well. Pretty nearly any kind you want we have in stock, any price and for all occasions—outings, parties, Sunday, or just for playing in.

MOTHER HUBBARDS, 50c to 95c.
To fit children 2, 3 and 4 years. In pretty Prints, Gingham, Chambray, etc. Dainty little yoke, lace, medallion, Swiss embroidery, edging and trimmings. Various kinds of yoke treatment. Pinks, blues, ox-blood, and mixtures. Checks, polka dots, stripes and plaids. A big line from which to make a choice.

BUSTER BROWN DRESSES, 75c to $2.15.
With the childish pleated backs and fronts, in plain blues, gray, ox-blood, polka dots, stripes and so forth. Feather stitching, Swiss insertion, Dutch cut necks, etc., each dress having regulation belt. Fit children 2, 4 and up to 12 years. Summer material in light and airy as well as dark colors. A popular model.

RUSSIAN DRESSES, 95c to $2.10.
A style still in high favor with parents who like to have their little ones looking sweetly and childishly clad. In navy stripes and in polka dots, nicely offset in white trimmings. Regulation belt. Variety of sizes. In Holland also in Blue Duck.

SAILOR PATTERNS, $1.15 to $2.75.
One of the most favored of all styles for children, 8 to 14 years of age. Such charmingly juvenile combinations as navy and white stripes, with polka dot sailor tie; natural linen with thread of navy blue; plain linen with black tie, pale blue duck with white braid, etc., etc.

WAIST DRESSES, 80c to $2.90.
Dresses that may be put to a variety of uses, for dress-up purposes when in pure white and for out-of-doors and the playground when in colors, light or dark. In Fancy Prints, Chambray, Gingham, Linen, etc. Finished in lace, embroideries, edgings, feather-stitching, pleatings, beadings, etc., with particular attention to detail and design of which there are very many. All tastes and fancies carefully considered.
