

NEW BRUNSWICK, ON FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF WAR, REAFFIRMS HER LOYALTY TO THE EMPIRE

"With the Motherland and Her Allies to the Last Man and Last Dollar" Keynote of the Meetings Held Throughout the Province Yesterday—New Brunswick Has Done Well, but More is Possible.

In New Brunswick our lumbermen are enjoying record prices for deals in agriculture farmers find their produce selling at prices seldom before equalled. In St. John during the past season the exports were eighteen million dollars better than the best previous year, and in addition to these advantages we have had the benefit of extensive orders for munitions and other military supplies which have brought very considerable amounts of money to our people and have provided continuous employment for many. For these and other reasons we have not felt the effects of the war as they have been felt elsewhere, and under these circumstances it is especially our duty to make every sacrifice which may aid the Motherland toward success. Canada to date has done nobly, and that our efforts are appreciated is evidenced by the fact that Premier Borden when he crossed to England recently was given such a reception as had never previously been accorded any Canadian. He was the honored guest of the King; he was awarded the Legion of Honor by the President of France, and he was presented with the freedom of the City of London.

HON. J. D. HAZEN
Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

Canada's Share.
Today Canada has in the field seventy-five thousand men, and there are seventy-five thousand more under arms in this country awaiting word from the British war office, ready when the call comes. This reflects the greatest credit on our government, and indicates that Canada is prepared to make every sacrifice in return for that protection which we have enjoyed for so many years. Thousands of our men have offered themselves to the service of the Empire; those who remain at home have also made sacrifices and must be prepared to make more.

JUDGE FORBES

At the war season following the outbreak of hostilities parliament granted authority for the establishment of the Patriotic Society, in whose hands has been placed that fund raised to care for the wives and families of the men at the front. Our leading business men throughout Canada have associated themselves with that fund, and while generous contributions have been made, these have not been enough. Mr. H. B. Ames, secretary of the fund, told me only a few days ago that at the rate money is being expended the total collections will be exhausted in April or May and that further calls will have to be made. Every additional man enlisted or married or with helpless ones depending on him, means additional demands, and in New Brunswick although the subscriptions have been most generous the local collections will have been expended within a very short time. There seems to be an impression in some quarters that this Patriotic Fund is sufficiently large to last indefinitely, but such is not the case.

Call for More Men.

This province has also done its duty in the matter of recruiting, as compared with other parts of the Dominion. The call however, has now gone out for more men, and a very prompt response is being made in Ontario, in some portions of Quebec and in the West. We have no surplus of population here as in some of the western provinces, and it is to be hoped that our people will do their share in filling up the battalions assigned to this province, and this without unnecessary delay. I realize in saying this that our population in years gone by has been seriously depleted by calls from the west, and that no doubt many who are enlisting in these western provinces are maritime men who now make their homes there. Yet in spite of this I believe our people should and will do their duty in filling the ranks come and we may before long expect to see her armies sweeping westward in a volume that no German power can withstand. While present day incidents may appear somewhat gloomy, yet the sunshine of victory will soon break through the clouds and if we all work in union for the good of the Empire all will be well with us. Our men have done well. On hard fought battlefields in Flanders they took their medicine and came back for more. Their conduct has shown to the world that the sons of the Empire overseas are chips off the old block, and to the opinion of the German Emperor that a long and blessed peace had enervated our Empire it gives the answer that the fibre of British manhood has not deteriorated but is as history has recorded here to do or die in the defence of right.

Judge Forbes.

His Honor Judge J. G. Forbes also spoke in the square and in the course of his remarks said: "Just one hundred years ago we were engaged in a great struggle when we had practically the world against us. Napoleon with his thousands of veterans was supreme in the world and unconquerable and it was England's task to defeat him on the field of Waterloo. Today on almost the same ground we are assisting the allies of whom we feel justly proud, in driving back a relentless and merciless foe. We have come to the rescue of Belgium, heroic little Belgium, down-trodden, ravaged, but unbeaten, by a foe more heartless than the foe of old.

"We have come to the rescue of France, Russia and little Serbia, and now with the aid of these countries we are endeavoring to overcome the common foe. England entered into this war, totally unprepared for the struggle, but on the whole she has nothing to be ashamed of. The old wooden walls of England are still as powerful as they ever were and now the war and commercial vessels of the enemy have been swept from the seven seas. Only in that small strip of water, the Baltic Sea, are they able to maneuver with any degree of safety. (Cheers.)

"It is a matter of great pleasure to me, ladies and gentlemen, to see such a large audience and to recognize that the old flag is still flying proudly in the breeze, and the country from which we have come free from invasion thanks to her all powerful fleet.

"I am proud to think that St. John has done her share in sending men to the contingents representing Canada on European battlefields. We must be that they are well provided for in the years to come. We assure you, young man, if you go forward to the front in defence of your life and country that you and yours will be provided for. We should respond nobly every citizen in Canada, every citizen from the east to the west, and join heartily in supporting these men who have gone forward to fight our fight. The day of peril is here, gentlemen, the call to strike for liberty is at hand. Every man with a strong right arm should go and bear the burden and sacrifice."

His Worship in introducing Justice McKeown said that a pleasure and privilege to introduce a gentleman who for so many years has occupied such an imposing position in the public and political life of New Brunswick.

Judge McKeown.

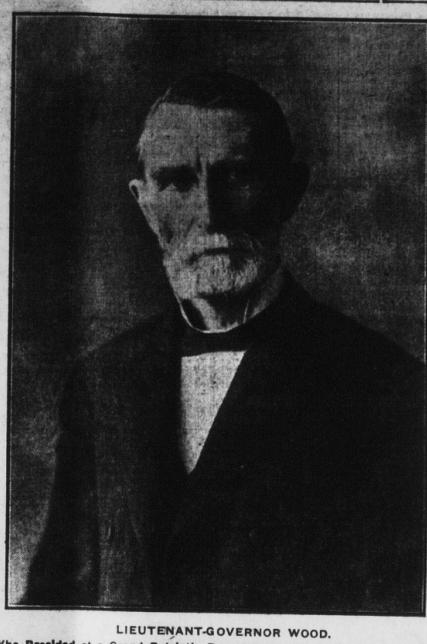

Justice McKeown said: "A little over two months ago in Guild Hall, London, at a meeting presided over by the Mayor of London, a resolution prepared by the Premier, Mr. Currie, was passed expressing gratitude to the dominions beyond the seas for the assistance they were giving England in this struggle.

In response to this, the Canadian Patriotic Society, at the meeting held all over Canada on this day to commemorate the declaration of war. Not only is the marsh drum beat of England floating about the world tonight, as the United States Secretary of State has introduced the call to follow the sun and kept company with the hours following around the earth, but other countries of ours are now standing up and resolving to fight or to die. In the annals of faith should we degree that England must fall we will go down with the Mother Country.

"We have had twelve months of war under conditions chosen by the enemy. Colossal preparations on the part of our enemy of all the force and genius of the past German drive. Before then it was written in the German calendar, that Paris would be taken. The Kaiser would rule in London, and Canada and Australia would be German provinces. But I think the balance has been ever on our side." (Prolonged cheers.)

Calling You

"Young men the opportunity is before you to enlist. The motherland is calling you and the men who have gone before you are calling you. They are setting an example of heroism which re-echoes in the hearts of many a young man tonight.

LEUTENANT-GOVERNOR WOOD.

Who Presided at a Grand Patriotic Demonstration in Fredericton yesterday.

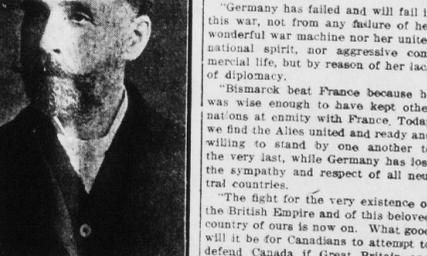

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, Aug. 4.—One of the most successful patriotic demonstrations ever held in Fredericton was that today to mark the first anniversary of the declaration of war by Great Britain upon Germany, and when, as in every community in the British Empire, a resolution was passed reaffirming Great Britain's determination to carry the war through to a successful issue.

Where Allies Stand.
"German warships and mercantile ships have been swept off the high seas. The few German fighting ships other than those cooped up at Kiel have been sunk or interned. Germany has lost practically all her colonies, namely, Kiaochow, Southwest Africa, Togoland, Kamerun, Samoa. What chance is there that Germany can turn her present gains into any real profit. The Allies would not for a moment consider peace after one year's warfare. If they did it would leave Germany mistress of Europe.

A Gigantic Effort.
"In twelve months, England has had to manufacture an army. She has had to provide for new plant and material for turning out her munitions of war; other words, to endeavor to perform in twelve months work that Germany has been preparing for and accomplishing within the last twenty years. In the twelve months past England has built up an efficient army, growing stronger every day. The Allies' manufacture of guns and munitions of war is now under way and the output is slated to be steady and continuous.

What Has Germany?
"In all fairness and broad-mindedness it is a fair question to ask, what has Germany accomplished in the last twelve months? Today Germany occupies practically all of Belgium. She is in possession of about eight thousand square miles of France, part of this territory being before the war the centre of French industry and French mineral productions. In the East the German armies have pressed well into Poland, drawing near to Warsaw, Rega and Brest-Litovsk. What territory of the enemy have the British and her Allies today? The French have a small foothold in Alsace, and the Allies a foothold in the Dardanelles, but this last mentioned foothold in the Dardanelles has cost France and England in the period of a few weeks more men than fell during the whole of the Crimean War. In other words, Germany has held France, England and Belgium at bay in the West, and has forced are prisoners. It is a safe axiom for any person or for any nation never to under-rate an enemy.

W. J. Mahoney.
In the Gem Theatre, W. J. Mahoney said this was not a time to indulge in idle boasting, or self-indulgence, nor yet is it a time for mourning. Britain yet is not downhearted. "And yet," he said, "we have cause to boast a little in the work of our army and navy, for they have done great work. The whole world wonders at Belgium's at bay in the West, and has forced

DEMONSTRATION AT CAPITAL TO MARK THE ANNIVERSARY

Lieut.-Gov. Wood Presides at Meeting Attended by Thousands — Premier Clarke and Members of the Government Attended—Men Out of the Trenches Bring Call for Help From the Manhood at Home.

Lieutenant Governor Wood, after tracing the origin and explaining the steps which brought Great Britain into the struggle, said: "Great Britain did not seek nor desire this war. On the contrary, she did everything she could to prevent it. Anyone who reads the negotiations which have since been made public, and which on the part of Great Britain were conducted by Sir Edward Grey, must be convinced that every possible effort was exerted by that statesman to settle the questions at issue without war and that England was finally forced by honor and treaty obligations as well as national security, to take up arms.

If Britain Had Not Acted.
"We can today, with the experience of the past year judge whether Great Britain was justified, by contrasting what would have been consequences if she had not offered to assist her allies, Belgium and France, at that time, with the position she occupies today. If England had declined to take part in this war, Belgium today would have been not only crushed, but a vassal to Germany. France would have been unable to defend her territory without assistance and Great Britain would have stood humiliated before the world, her prestige gone, her pledges broken and her national existence imperiled. Contrast that with the position of Great Britain today.

Special Services in Churches.
There were special services of intercession in the churches during the day, and in the afternoon there was a public gathering every place of business which could close, shutting its doors at noon. Automobile owners did not make a parade of decorated automobiles and decorated automobiles took part, being made for recruits as well as the passing of a formal resolution marking the first anniversary of the war. Then a picnic, festival and bonnet hop took place, the historic hall room of old Government House being used for dancing in the evening, while thousands of people patronized the attractions on the grounds, all the proceeds being for the patriotic fund.

Justice McKeown.
She is confident with her allies of ultimate success, she has won the respect and sympathy of the civilized world; her faith is firm in the justice of the cause for which she is fighting and her determination is stronger than ever to fight it out to the end.

Proud of New Brunswick's Response.
"When this war was declared one year ago today, I had the honor of sending the following telegram to His Royal Highness the Governor General: 'The government of New Brunswick, now in session, desire me to assure you that this province may be relied upon to assist to the full extent of its ability, with men and money, in maintaining the integrity of the Empire and upholding the strength of her arms.'

"I feel proud today of the way in which the people of New Brunswick have redeemed that pledge. I feel proud of the response with which calls

"We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved"—H. M. The King.
TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

THE WAR AND THRIFT.

As the war progresses a changed opinion is being manifested by some of the great newspapers in Britain. Formerly these moulders of public opinion advocated that money should be spent as freely as of yore, that there was no occasion for husbanding one's resources and that the better plan would be to keep the money in circulation. That view is still largely held but it is noticeable that some of the newspapers are advising that the war is likely to be prolonged to a point beyond original expectations and that in such case a reserve of treasure will be of inestimable benefit to the Allies.

Financial leaders of opinion in the mother country are calling for the silver bullet as one of the most important weapons in connection with the prosecution of the war. These men know what the ability and borrowing power of the British government is and the relation the financial condition of the people bears to such power. The latest government loan was popularized, that is floated in notes of such small denominations as to attract the shillings of the working man as well as the hundreds of thousands of pounds of the capitalist.

It is a theory of national finance that the nation can only spend what its people save or what can be borrowed on the credit of their present or prospective savings. Increase of thrift on the part of the people will add to the borrowing power of the people's administrators. The man who puts by his savings for the "proven rainy day" is helping to provide the store of silver bullets with which the Germans will eventually be beaten. The savings banks are the financial arsenals of the country and a store of "slivers of war" accumulated therein will prove mightily useful before the conflict is fought to a conclusion and in the period of readjustment which must follow before the return to "good times" can be ushered in. Canadians can do their share in this sort of warfare as well as the people of the Mother Country. And it can be done without loss or sacrifice for money borrowed by the state is not lost; on the contrary it provides a profitable and absolutely safe avenue of investment.

Of course it is not advisable that there should be a rush to the savings banks at the expense of other avenues of investment. If everybody saved all their surplus with the idea of lending it to the government the wheels of legitimate industry might slacken and stop. That would be but robbing Peter to pay Paul and would be but poor business. But in this country as in every other there is a vast amount of wastage on the part of the people. Such waste money should be conserved. Economy if not carried beyond reasonable limits is always personally prudent—in war time it becomes more than that—it becomes patriotic.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

The announcement has been made that the American Red Cross has decided to withdraw all of its units serving in Europe save those members of that association who are laboring in Belgium and Serbia. The reason that has been given to the public for this withdrawal from active service of these most valuable forces is that the American Red Cross has come to the end of its resources and that having expended more than a million and a half dollars upon this work the condition of their treasury will not warrant a continuance of these operations.

No one can attach any blame to the American Red Cross people for their approaching retirement from this most important field of service, however much it must be regretted, for their activities have been always and entirely a labor of love and have been entirely prompted by those humanitarian sympathies and motives which for years amidst the smoke grime of battle have shone as stars of hope for the human race. The most that can be said of this necessitated withdrawal of these doctors and nurses from Europe where they are needed so badly is that it points significantly to the financial condition of the United States as revealed by the fact that a people who are known to all the world for the liberality of their benefactions, have been forced by financial conditions induced by the war to seriously limit their gifts in support of one of those many causes which has ever made a most successful appeal to the universal American purse. The burden of this war, as is well known, has not by any means been confined to those countries actually engaged in battle.

Neutral countries also have been compelled to bear their own part of these burdens and of these certainly America has had its full share; it is well known that in that country aside from those who have been manufacturing war supplies of various kinds there has been a serious shrinkage of income.

GRACIAN'S MAXIMS

"Oraculo Manual," that splendid compendium of maxims by Balthasar Gracian, the eminent Spaniard of the seventeenth century, which has at various times received the attention of the world's scholars from Schopenhauer to Mr. (now Sir) Mountstuart Grant Duff, by whom it was translated into German and English respectively, has again been offered to the English reader by Joseph Jacobs, under the rather catching title of "The Art of Worldly Wisdom."

As has been intimated these maxims were translated into German by Schopenhauer and surely must have been familiar to his large circle of pupils of whom perhaps not the least was the famous or notorious Nietzsche, whose teachings whether advisedly or otherwise, some have held responsible in measure for that war obsession witnessed in present day Prussia.

Unfortunately for the reputation of the leaders of modern Germany but scant attention has been paid by them either in their diplomacy or in the conduct of their armed forces to those worthy ideals and noble lines of action once so clearly pointed out by the Spanish Gracian and time and again commended as worthy of the attention and consideration of all by their own Schopenhauer. Perhaps it would be expecting too much even of the plodding German mind to have looked for its retention of all these hundreds of words of wisdom which their illustrious teacher had thus made accessible but certainly there are some of these maxims whose neglect Germany shall for long ages regret.

Of such, as we turn over the pages of this interesting volume, we select the following almost at random:—"You may be obliged to wage war, but do not use poisoned arrows. Gallantry in the battle of life wins all men's praise; one should fight so as to conquer, not alone by force but by the way it is used. An honorable man never uses forbidden weapons, such as using a friendship that's ended for the purposes of a hatred just begun. The slightest taint of treason tarnishes a good name. In men of honor the smallest trace of meanness repels; the noble and ignoble should be miles apart. Be able to boast that if gallantry, generosity, and fidelity were lost in the world men would be able to find them again in your own breast."

"There is no occasion to seek dislike; it comes without seeking quickly enough. There are many who hate of their own accord without knowing the why or the how. Some manage to be on bad terms with all because they always either produce or experience vexation of spirit. Once hate has taken root it is like bad repute, difficult to eradicate. Pay respect that you may be respected and know that to be esteemed you must show esteem."

"Have friends, 'tis a second existence. The most and best of us depend on others. Gain good-will for thus the first and highest cause forces and furthers the greatest objects. Some trust so much the merit that they neglect grace, but wise men know that service road without a lift from favor is a long way indeed."

Slight Fire

An alarm was sounded shortly after one o'clock yesterday from box 125 for a slight blaze in a house on Metcalfe street. Fire apparatus from No. 5 Station responded, including the hook and ladder and two chemicals. The fire was confined to bed clothing and was readily extinguished.

End War by Hastening Munitions

Sir George Paish, editor of the London Statist, governor of the London School of Economics and an excellent analyst of finance, sets forth important things in a prepared statement on war expenses and the abilities of nations to pay. It appeared in the New York World, and coming at the time of the statement of the Secretary of the Imperial German Treasury and a financial report from Russia, one gets a freshened perspective of the comparative lasting qualities of the different belligerents. Germany and Austria, closed off from trade, are—so farmers say of horses which are not working—"eating their heads off" through the prodigious expenditures of stored wealth, while Britain in one year of war has merely consumed the annual income of her wealth, and through savings to be made will weather the coming year at a net war expenditure of one billion dollars instead of two billions, as in the last twelve months—that is, organized on a new economical basis he will spend but half her annual income and equipment to the armies making loans to her allies. Moreover, "the great war outlays are increasing the incomes of nearly every individual in Britain."

Sir George does a service to Mr. Bryan and those pacifists and Anglo-Germans who have argued so tirelessly that the best way to shorten the war is for Americans to stop selling munitions to the Allies. Sir George demonstrates that an embargo on war supplies from this country would simply prolong the struggle for an indefinitely long time—while to furnish quickly all munitions possible will hasten it to a finish. It is this way: The war divides itself into three periods. First, the period for drilling, training, equipping the forces of the quintuple alliance until their numbers and equipment are equal to the forces and equipment of Germany, Austria and Turkey. Second, the period when both forces are on terms of equality in numbers and equipment and equally capable of attack and defence. Third, the period when the armies of Britain, France, Italy, Russia, Serbia, Rumania become "greatly superior in numbers and equipment to the armies of their enemies." When this last period begins it is possible that Teuton and Turk may see that further sacrifice would be worse than useless, and so yield for a peace. Present sentiment in Germany over the war is due optimism, is for "fighting to the last." Time to prepare soldiers and munitions is all the Allies want—they have the money. Time nibbles away the opposing forces, who have put about all the available in the field, and daily their resources of money, men, munitions and food are being worn away, with scarcely anything coming from beyond the blockade.

Germany has had to help Austria and Turkey with loans. She has little or no accumulated wealth which she can turn into cash (much of her foreign investments being in Austria and Turkey), and "consequently must keep her aggressive expenditures down to her own reduced powers of production—within the much smaller income she is able to make with a large part of her male population engaged in war and with her foreign trade almost completely cut off." The other hand, Britain, France and Italy are doing business with the world, and Japan is held in reserve. Britain has not yet felt the pinch of war; wages are higher, there is no unemployment, and she has $20,000,000,000 of capital invested abroad, one-quarter of which can be if necessary turned into cash during the war. New ships have been launched to the total of over a billion tons. It happens then, that after a year of war Britain is "just as healthy as she was before," and that she has met the expense of war "wholly out of the money she otherwise would have saved, out of extra savings, and out of increased income." She is $2,000,000,000 less well off than she would have been, but no poorer than when war broke last August. Germany's treasurer declares that the very fact that German foreign trade is practically cut off helps her. "We produce practically everything needed; expenditures for war resolve themselves into savings." This, it is remarked in criticism, is as much as to say you can lift yourself by your own boot-strap.

In brief, the Allies costs in the twelve months have been $15,500,000,000, as the National City Bank reckons it, but their wealth is above $280,000,000,000, and as the economist Sir George shows, Britain, with loans sufficient for her allies, is scarcely spending her income. Towns and provinces here and there may fall to German arms, submarines may continue to pick up two per cent of British shipping, but they are drops compared with the cloud that is preparing when the final period shall have been reached and the Allies have armies in the field greatly superior in numbers, greatly superior in equipment, and all the world to draw upon for supplies. The commanding fact brought out by Sir George's analysis to our mind, is that the sooner America and other countries manufacture the munitions needed by the Allies the sooner the inevitable peace will come to pass. Those who want to see the war end should, if they are sincere, be booming munition-making instead of speechifying and causing strikes against it.—Boston Transcript.

A Word-Making Contest

This week I have decided to let you have another word-making contest.

How many words can you make out of the letters in the word "Celebration"? You must only use the letters included in the word. For example, a word like "rat" is correct, but "ratle" would be wrong, as there are not two letters T in the word.

To the boy or girl not over 15 years of age who sends me in the most number of correct words, I shall award a valuable story book as a prize. Each list must have three coupons attached to it, filled in, and be sent by Thursday, August 5th, to

FIELD KITCHEN FOR REGIMENT IN ENGLAND

Mayor Frink arranged for its shipment to 26th Battalion—Cabled Regimental Fund.

Mayor Frink yesterday morning purchased a field kitchen for the 26th Battalion and made arrangements for immediate shipment. He also cabled the regimental fund to the O. C. His Worship's action was taken on the strength of a cablegram received from Lt. Col. J. L. McAvity at London yesterday morning, in which he asked His Worship to "send kitchens soon as possible and cable funds." Mayor Frink immediately got into communication with the McClary Manufacturing Company and found that they had a kitchen available for immediate shipment, which he accordingly purchased with the fund subscribed for the purpose. He arranged that it should be forwarded to Montreal and shipped at once. The amount subscribed some time ago as a regimental fund, $1,454, was cabled to Lt. Col. McAvity.

INTERPRETED POPE'S APPEAL WRONGLY

Osservatore Romano says His Holiness' wrote as Father of Great Christian Family.

Rome, Italy, Aug. 4.—The Osservatore Romano, in an editorial which is considered to have been inspired, replies to comments and criticisms in the world's press on the Pope's appeal for peace.

"We see in some British newspapers," the Vatican organ says, "a wrong appreciation. They see a connection between the Pontifical document and recent events in Russian Poland. The letter was due to the spontaneous initiative of the Pontiff. He was led to write it only by the anniversary of the war, and his solicitude, as the Vicar of Christ, at the spectacle of misery and anguish wrought to his children by the year of war."

"It was addressed to all, indiscriminately, and without consideration as to who are at fault. It was the father of a great Christian family who spoke. 'Altruism to peace while the conflict still is raging now are infrequent or remote. Thus we salute with joy the messages of Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, and William the Second, or all words which do not vibrate with hatred and revenge. They show the first rays of a bright dawn.'"

For Machine Guns. The machine gun fund is reaching good proportions. The Mayor received yesterday $1,000 from the Partington Pulp & Paper Company, and $500 from Percy W. Thomson, also the following sums: Miss Eliza T. Hanford $10.00, Miss Jean Rowan 25.00, Fred Oldfield, aged 11, 2.00.

For the Serbians. The Knights of Columbus have received $2.00 from Mrs. A. McAllister, South Bay, for the Serbian Relief Fund.

Red Cross. The people of Loch Lomond and vicinity had a good time on Tuesday evening, and with their enjoyment gave considerable aid to patriotic funds. This was through a pie social held in the Agricultural Society Hall, which was well attended. After the sale of the pies there was a dance, which did not break up until 4.30 o'clock. The auction sale of pies was conducted by Wm. B. Daley, of St. John, whose eloquence was successful in wringing big prices from purchasers. The largest sum paid for a pie was $19. The entertainment realized $150. The sum of $50 will be given for a bed in Dr. Murray MacLaren's hospital in France, and the remainder will be handed over by the Red Cross Society.

GERMANY NEED EXPECT NO HELP FROM ROUMANIA

Once friendly relations may be regarded as no longer existing, Count Reventlow writes in Berlin paper.

Berlin, via London, Aug. 4.—A warning that nothing can be expected from Roumania, is conveyed to the readers of the Tages Zeitung in an editorial this morning by Count Ernest Reventlow. His article is headed "Roumania's Falling Quotation," summarizing the situation in the following paragraph:

"Those friendly relations with Roumania made sacred by tradition and, on the German side by firm confidence—can hardly longer be considered as existing." Count Reventlow points to Roumania's refusal to permit export of grain or to permit ammunition for the Turks to pass through its territory, although Russia was permitted to transport munitions to Serbia. He also points out that Roumania has never fulfilled its treaty obligations, or kept an upright and well wishing neutrality, but that the contrary came to pass.

Roumania's neutrality became "incomplete," he asserts, with a tendency to enter the conflict on the side of Germany's enemies.

MORE COMPLICATIONS IN DOMINION TRUST COMPANY'S AFFAIRS

Vancouver, Aug. 4.—New complications are constantly arising out of the liquidation of the Dominion Trust Co.

It now transpires that a two thousand dollar bond which the company placed with the provincial government never had the first premium paid on it and for this and other reasons the guarantee company will contest payment. In the meantime the provincial government has agreed to advance this amount but the difficulty has arisen regarding the parties to whom the amount should be apportioned.

TRACKS BLOCKED BY ROCK SLIDE

Calgary, Aug. 4.—A huge rock slide buried the C.P.R. track near Golden, B. C., on Tuesday. It was at first thought a new track would have to be built around the slide. Eventually, however, a temporary track was thrown over the top of the mass and this will be used later as the permanent track.

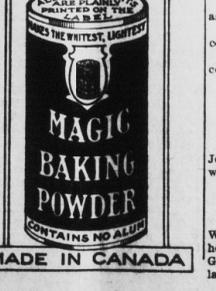

There is no hope of clearing the original main line.

LONDON PRESS COMMENT ON NOTES TO U.S.

Leave opening for adjustment by appeal to an International Tribunal—Main contention of United States accepted.

London, Aug. 4.—The comment of the afternoon newspapers of London on the correspondence between Sir Edward Grey, British Foreign Secretary, and U. S. Ambassador Page admits generally that American and other neutrals have a grievance, but they insist, to use the words of the Westminster Gazette, "that Great Britain has been compelled to modify some of the accepted rules because Germany has deliberately broken these rules."

The Evening Standard, in an editorial article, says: "The notes exchanged show that the differences between Great Britain and the United States, although serious, are by no means irreconcilable. It points out that Sir Edward Grey unreservedly accepts the main American contention that international law must prevail over national law."

Continuing, it argues that the order-in-council makes national law conform fully to international requirements, but if the United States does not accept this view, then Sir Edward Grey concedes that Great Britain will make no objection to an appeal to an international tribunal. This latter is a very strong point, the Evening Standard sets forth, inasmuch as the United States has elected to stand on international principle.

GENERAL IN AUSTRIAN ARMY ONE OF VICTIMS OF ASIATIC CHOLERA

Zurich, Switzerland, Aug. 4.—The number of cases of Asiatic cholera in the Austrian empire on Aug. 1, totaled 629, according to an official announcement made today in Vienna.

Among those who succumbed to the disease was Gen. Von Ziegler, the commander of an army corps, who was the only officer of the entire staff who refused to be inoculated against cholera.

PATRIOTIC PICTURE FROM GILLETTE RAZORS

The Standard has received from Messrs. A. McKim Ltd., of Montreal, a very effectively arranged print of an advertisement issued by the Gillette Razor Company of Canada. This advertisement is an adaptation of the well known picture of the bull dog on the British flag, but in this case the inscription is extended and now reads "What we have we'll hold, but what we haven't we'll make."

The Gillette Razor Company of Canada is not only one of the leading national advertisers, but is one of the most progressive manufacturing concerns in this country, and has added materially to the prosperity of its community in which it carries on its business. Contrary to the usual custom in advertising of this sort the picture is the chief part and the inscription and reference to the Gillette Company is so placed as to detract but very little from the value of the painting as a decoration. The drawing is an exact reproduction of the original, and those favored persons in Canada who have received framed copies—in which number The Standard is pleased to be included—appreciate not only the idea conveyed by the advertisement but the real value of the picture itself.

PILOT CENSURED AND LICENSE IS SUSPENDED

Wreck Commissioner's finding in case of grounding of steamer Henry B. Hall, blames manner in which steamer was navigated.

Montreal, Aug. 4.—Scathing criticism of the manner in which the steamer Henry B. Hall was piloted and navigated when she grounded about a mile and a half southeast of the stone pillars, fifty miles below Quebec, on the evening of June 10, is expressed in the judgment of the Dominion Wreck Commissioner, Captain L. A. Demers.

As a warning to "the laxity of some of the pilots in giving ordinary attention to their duties," Captain Demers suspended the license of Pilot Lucien Lachance for one year. The investigation was held on July 23 and 24.

The vessel was chartered to carry pulp from the Saguenay to Ogdensburg. Captain D. H. Klain is the chief officer of the Henry B. Hall.

SWINE HUSBANDRY THROUGHOUT CANADA

An educative booklet recently issued by Department of Agriculture.

The second edition of Bulletin No. 17 of the Federal live stock branch, entitled Swine Husbandry in Canada, has been issued, and may be had on application to the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

The interest in swine raising stimulated, no doubt, by the high values of pork products, made such a demand for information on this subject that the first edition printed last year was quickly exhausted. This edition brings up to date statistics with respect to pedigree registration and trade in hog products. It is shown that the total exports for the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1915, amounted to 166,048,519 lb. as against 27,561,140 lb. the previous year. This bulletin covers the whole field of swine raising, giving the results of official experiments as well as the practices of successful farmer swine raisers. An interesting section describes the system of feeding hogs in Denmark where combination of food are prepared according to their food units in which one pound of grain, wheat, barley, peas, corn, etc., constitutes one food unit which is equal to 8 lb. mangels, 4 lb. boiled potatoes, 5 lb. alfalfa, 6 lb. skim milk or 12 lb. whey. It is shown that the diet is varied in a definite way for pigs of different ages.

NEW BRUNSWICK ON FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF EUROPEAN WAR

(Continued from page 3) stand against Germany, and we, as Belgium's ally, must assist her in the struggle. Again our attention is called to the famous song "Rule Britannia", for that is just what she is doing at present—ruling the waves.

"Some people say our navy is doing nothing at present; if this is so, it is because it has done what is required of it, for the great ocean routes are free from German warships, and the submarines are not coming into too plain sight lest the navy, which is always on the watch, should seize them. But, should the German navy summon up courage enough to come out into the North Sea we can be sure that our navy will be ready for them. It is altogether due to the navy that we are still able to carry on business as we are.

"Look what Canada has done. She has sent well on to 100,000 men to Europe, and nobody can say that they have not done their duty. But for all this, more men are needed—recruiting must be stimulated. Munitions also are needed, and we, who stay at home, must see to it that they are sent. St. John is in no way behind any other part of Canada in this line, for she has sent her share of men and in a short time 20 machine guns will be forwarded.

"There are between six and seven hundred applications for help from the Patriotic Fund. The St. John fund is getting low, and it is time that the citizens of St. John began to replenish it.

"The war cannot but make better men of us, and there is little doubt as to the final outcome. We should not feel discouraged, for Britain does not feel discouraged.

"Germany long ago began to gain the confidence of Europe by signing every peace agreement that was proposed, and then, when the opportunity was given, all these were swept aside as "mere scraps of paper." She has broken all laws of humanity in the way she has carried on the war, using all kinds of horrible weapons as they do. Her submarines have treacherously sunk many merchant ships—when there was no British warships in sight. But in spite of all this, she cannot overcome the allies. They will defend liberty and justice to the end.

"This is the British spirit, and should dominate the whole Empire. At the close of this speech ladies from the Daughters of the Empire went through the audience, to collect money for the Canadian Patriotic Fund.

R. E. Armstrong, secretary of the Board of Trade also spoke in the Gen. W. E. Foster.

W. E. Foster was present at the Lyric. He said: "When the war broke out we were looking forward to the making of a bigger and better St. John. This is the greatest war in history, and it means either the making or the destruction of the liberty of the whole world. Britain did not declare war merely because it was for her own interests, but to protect the rights of a smaller nation, which was unable to protect itself."

He reviewed conditions arising from the war and spoke particularly of the part taken by Britain in the great struggle.

DEMONSTRATION AT CAPITAL TO MARK THE ANNIVERSARY

(Continued from page three.) upon your liberality and your manhood have been met, and I have the same confidence today in your willingness to continue making all further sacrifices required until this war is ended.

Appeal to Young Men of Province. After Mayor Mitchell had spoken Very Rev. Dean Neales made a striking appeal to young men of New Brunswick to answer the Empire's call for men. "What are we doing in support of the nation of which we are so proud?" he asked. "We speak of this nation in glowing terms for having borne the brunt of all wars before, and let me say here that this is not the occasion for a gala day celebration. Young men, you surely must heed this call that comes to you now from the Motherland if you are filled with the spirit of your forefathers who fought and bled that you might enjoy the freedom we cherish and which we are now called upon to defend. This call comes from the leaders of the nation, the call is for men and more men. The need is urgent. The seriousness of the crisis has not yet passed."

A Message Direct from the Trenches. Col. Currie was then called upon and his remarks were listened to with interest.

Senator Gilmore presided at the meeting and the combined choirs of the churches and the St. George Convent Band were present and rendered selections at intervals during the programme. The speakers occupied the band stand and in calling the gathering to order Senator Gilmore made a striking address on matters of vital interest. Rev. J. Spencer was heard in reference to the efforts of the Red Cross Societies. Dr. Alexander, Dr. Russell and Rev. Dr. Stewart and Dr. Johnston also spoke.

The resolution was introduced by Dr. Taylor and was seconded by Dr. Harrison. During the evening ice cream was sold and a collection taken. The sum of $175 was realized for patriotic purposes.

Following Col. Currie's speech Mayor Mitchell moved a formal resolution reaffirming Great Britain's determination to carry the war through to a successful issue.

Premier Clarke seconded the resolution and declared that the speech which Col. Currie had delivered would cause many to go away with a determination to do more than before for the British Empire.

At St. Stephen, Aug. 4.—The first anniversary of the war was fittingly observed here this afternoon. Business was suspended and the people gathered on the Market street school grounds in large numbers. Mayor Grimme presided and excellent addresses were delivered by M. N. Cockburn, K. C., and Gilbert W. Ganong, who received most attentive hearings. Mr. Ganong's address was regarded by many present as the most impressive that they had heard since the war began. Judge Cockburn's address was also well conceived and appropriate.

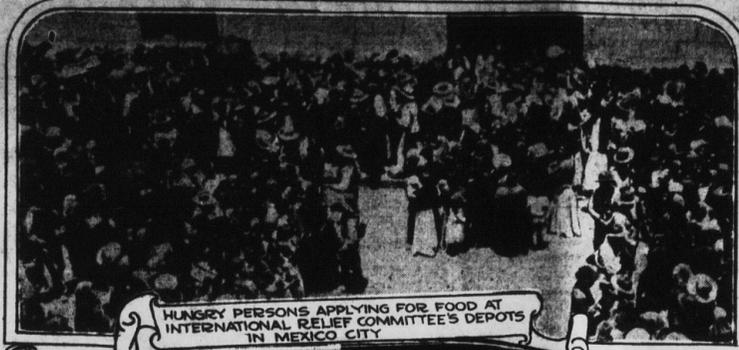

Music was furnished by the massed choirs of St. Stephen and Milltown churches, and by Short's Military Band. This evening a lawn party is being given by the Matron and Nurses of Chipman Memorial Hospital for patriotic purposes, and is being largely attended.

Resolved that we, the inhabitants of St. George, in meeting assembled on this the anniversary of the declaration of war do hereby affirm our unalterable confidence in the righteousness of the policy of our Empire in the present struggle and our unwavering loyalty and adherence to the person of our most gracious sovereign majesty King George.

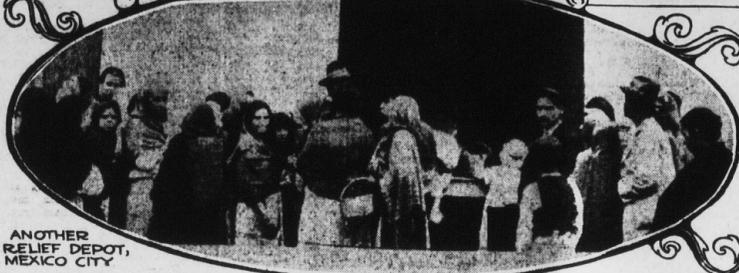

And whereas fair Belgium has been devastated by the German armies and parts of Poland and France are still occupied by the said army, do solemnly pledge ourselves to our righteous cause and determine by every means in our power to assist our Allies until the enemy shall be driven from their lands, praying that the God of right and justice will nerve the arms of our soldiers and sailors to fight on till finally victory is achieved, right and truth triumph and peace, honorable, permanent and abiding is established among the nations of the world."

FAMINE, DISEASE, ANARCHY AND BARBARIC OPPRESSION RULE MEXICAN REPUBLIC

HUNGRY PERSONS APPLYING FOR FOOD AT INTERNATIONAL RELIEF COMMITTEE'S DEPOTS IN MEXICO CITY

ANOTHER RELIEF DEPOT, MEXICO CITY

The report that famine, disease, anarchy and barbaric oppression rules the Mexican Republic, is substantiated in affidavits and photographs by American residents there. These documents have been put before President Wilson of the United States. The affidavits presented tell of the wanton killing of foreigners, attacks on women and the killing of infants. Incidentally they depict of the starving conditions existing in the stricken country. They even assure the Yaqui Indians of cannibalism. The accompanying pictures surely bear out the reports.

C., and Gilbert W. Ganong, who received most attentive hearings. Mr. Ganong's address was regarded by many present as the most impressive that they had heard since the war began. Judge Cockburn's address was also well conceived and appropriate.

Music was furnished by the massed choirs of St. Stephen and Milltown churches, and by Short's Military Band. This evening a lawn party is being given by the Matron and Nurses of Chipman Memorial Hospital for patriotic purposes, and is being largely attended.

Resolved that we, the inhabitants of St. George, in meeting assembled on this the anniversary of the declaration of war do hereby affirm our unalterable confidence in the righteousness of the policy of our Empire in the present struggle and our unwavering loyalty and adherence to the person of our most gracious sovereign majesty King George.

And whereas fair Belgium has been devastated by the German armies and parts of Poland and France are still occupied by the said army, do solemnly pledge ourselves to our righteous cause and determine by every means in our power to assist our Allies until the enemy shall be driven from their lands, praying that the God of right and justice will nerve the arms of our soldiers and sailors to fight on till finally victory is achieved, right and truth triumph and peace, honorable, permanent and abiding is established among the nations of the world."

Senator Gilmore presided at the meeting and the combined choirs of the churches and the St. George Convent Band were present and rendered selections at intervals during the programme. The speakers occupied the band stand and in calling the gathering to order Senator Gilmore made a striking address on matters of vital interest. Rev. J. Spencer was heard in reference to the efforts of the Red Cross Societies. Dr. Alexander, Dr. Russell and Rev. Dr. Stewart and Dr. Johnston also spoke.

The resolution was introduced by Dr. Taylor and was seconded by Dr. Harrison. During the evening ice cream was sold and a collection taken. The sum of $175 was realized for patriotic purposes.

Following Col. Currie's speech Mayor Mitchell moved a formal resolution reaffirming Great Britain's determination to carry the war through to a successful issue.

Premier Clarke seconded the resolution and declared that the speech which Col. Currie had delivered would cause many to go away with a determination to do more than before for the British Empire.

At St. Stephen, Aug. 4.—The first anniversary of the war was fittingly observed here this afternoon. Business was suspended and the people gathered on the Market street school grounds in large numbers. Mayor Grimme presided and excellent addresses were delivered by M. N. Cockburn, K. C., and Gilbert W. Ganong, who received most attentive hearings. Mr. Ganong's address was regarded by many present as the most impressive that they had heard since the war began. REAR ADMIRAL LIKELY TO TAKE CHARGE OF HAYTI AT DORCHESTER

Dorchester, Aug. 4.—A large crowd gathered in the auditorium of the First Baptist church here tonight to celebrate the anniversary of the beginning of the war. Interesting exercises were carried out, and addresses were given by Rev. W. H. Freda, B. A., and Chaplain Thomas of the Penitentiary. The sum of $10 was collected for the Red Cross Society.

The ancient colony observes anniversary. St. John's, Nfld., Aug. 4.—The anniversary of the outbreak of war was observed this afternoon and a public holiday with services in all the churches and various patriotic functions for machine guns, the naval hospital and other funds. A big patriotic meeting takes place tomorrow night, under the presidency of the governor when formal announcement will be made of the result of the fund started on July 15th to present two airships to the imperial authorities; so far it is known that enough has been subscribed to present three airships and twenty machine guns while the fund will probably be continued to secure a still larger number later.

More machine guns in sight. Toronto, Aug. 4.—Ontario's civil servants, resident in Toronto, will give a machine gun to help the British and allies cause. They will probably man it, too, from the men who contribute to its cost. An enthusiastic meeting of the provincial employees in the parliament buildings this afternoon heard Acting Premier Lucas state that if the gun was manned by men from the buildings the government would allow them full pay, and keep their positions open for them. Twenty guns from Middlesex Patriotic League. London, Ont., Aug. 4.—The donation of at least twenty machine guns to the Canadian troops is the aim of the Middlesex Patriotic League, which was organized here tonight to direct a machine gun campaign in London and Middlesex county. The Lewis gun, of English manufacture, and costing $1,000, is the type decided upon. The London Victrola Association today decided to donate two machine guns.

BRAVES PRIMED ONCE MORE FOR ANOTHER MIRACLE DASH

Notwithstanding the fact that twenty-seven games separate Boston and Philadelphia in the American League, compared to eleven and one half between Philadelphia and Cincinnati in the National, both races are open, uncertain and interesting enough to call for wide and diversified commentary. In his year of troubles for the owners such races in the two present organizations mean a lot to the sport, for through this "gate" is not alone helped, but the "fans" are kept at fever pitch trying their wits in what city to reserve their world's series seats.

Just at present the National league is commanding the greatest amount of attention, as it seems a foregone conclusion that only Chicago, Boston and Detroit have a chance to finish ahead in the American. And two teams in the National are being watched more closely than the others, these being the Boston Braves and the Brooklyn Dodgers.

On July 1 the Braves were in last place and slumping badly, after only an indifferent start. Here they braved and during the month struck the stride which made them pennant winners last year and also gasps of astonishment from the critics. They struggled to a record of sixteen games won out of seventeen played up to last Friday, where they were stopped by Cincinnati, who added insult to injury
by again winning from the Braves Saturday.

Braves Still Chase.
The indomitable spirit of the Braves coupled with their winning baseball, makes them stand out as the best team in the league, regardless of the fact that they only are third. But during the month of July the Braves crept up four games on the Phillies, and they have more than two months to overcome this lead. If "Bill" James could rid himself of a sore arm, which has made him practically useless for the season, the Braves would find little trouble repeating.

The biggest disappointment to Brooklyn "fans" personally, and to the rest of the league generally, is the fall-ure of the Dodgers to win away from home. Since leaving Ebbets Field from home, where they enjoyed remarkable speed, they have lost five out of six games, three out of four to Pittsburg and two to Cincinnati.

This inability of the Dodgers to win on the road probably robs them of what chances they had of winning the pennant. It is a remarkable fact that Brooklyn never could do much when away from the quiet of Flatbush, and it seems they are only living up to precedent. If Brooklyn could have made a fair showing on this trip West, many would have figured there was a possibility, but their failure so far practically counts them out.

Giants Not Progressive.
The other teams in the league, including Philadelphia, are in front at present, are only playing indifferent baseball. The Giants still are unable to progress. Shouldered out of the first division during the last week by Boston and Pittsburg, John McGraw's team now is having its hands full from dropping into last place again. The best the team seems able to do is break even in double headers. There is no consistency in either the attack or the pitching, and without this consistency the team cannot be considered a factor.

Recently McGraw became so discouraged with the playing of his outfield that he shifted Fred Mickle from first base to centrefield, benched Fred Ste-grass and placed the youngster Fred Brainard on the initial sack. This added some hitting power to the club, but did not make it win any more frequently.

Every one has figured that ultimately the Giants would get into winning stride and begin knocking down obstacles, as they have done in years past.

AN EASTERN CHAMPION

R. Norris Williams, 24, of Boston, national singles champion, and W. W.
Washburn, of New York, won the Eastern doubles tennis championship on the courts of the Longwood Cricket Club in Boston. The pair, playing together for the first time in a title tournament, defeated Irving C. Wright, of Boston, and
W. F. Johnson, of Philadelphia.

JUVENILE PLAYERS.
In the Playground League game on the Barrack Green yesterday morning the Centennials defeated the Allisons by a score of 7 to 4.

The batteries were: for the winners, Scott and Doherty; for the losers Fleet and Shaw. G. Gorman umpired
the game.

London, Aug. 2.—Advices received in London by wireless telegraphy say that the British schooner Gypsum Queen, which sailed from Halifax, N.
S., July 13, for Preston, Eng., with a cargo of lumber, has been abandoned at sea. The crew was saved. The Gypsum was of 652 gross tonnage.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACING

Kalamazoo, Mich., Aug. 4.—After a delay of two days, Kalamazoo's Grand Circuit meet opened this afternoon. A downpour of rain two days and an almost constant drizzle today, made the track exceedingly slow. The surprise of the afternoon was the defeat of The Eno, favorite in the $2,000 Michigan
United Traction trot, Saint Frisco, the Geers entry, took the event in four heats, The Eno winning the first heat.

The 2.08 pace proved easy for Accounte, who won in three straight heats.
Lou Jennings, favorite in the 2.09 trot, finished last in the first heat and was distanced in the second. Lizzie Brown won this race by taking the last three heats.

The 2.13 trot was the slowest race of the day being won by F.A.L. He was not driven out until the third heat.

THE GOLF SPECIAL.
It is hard to beat Chicago for update ideas, especially time savers.
One of the railroads running out of the Windy City has a "golfer's special," which leaves the city every day, except Sunday, at 12.20 p. m. and stops only at the stations of golf clubs.
This train is equipped with a luncheon car, which begins business promptly at noon. This same "golfer's special" also brings the tired players back to Chicago at 7 o'clock each night.

THE WEATHER

Forecast: Maritime—Showers in the Bay of Fundy district, elsewhere fair.

Toronto, Aug. 4.—Pressure remains comparatively low over the Great Lakes and highest in the Maritime Provinces. Rain fell heavily today in the Ottawa Valley, and a few showers have occurred in the other portions of Ontario. Elsewhere the weather has been fine, and in the west decidedly warm.

Table with 3 columns: Location, Min., Max. Includes entries for Dawson, Prince Rupert, Victoria, Vancouver, Kamloops, Edmonton, Battleford, Prince Albert, Calgary, Medicine Hat, Winnipeg, Port Arthur, Parry Sound, London, Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, St. John, Halifax.

Around the City

Automobile Ditched. An automobile owned and driven by Fred McCullough left the road on Robbsey Avenue last night and was ditched. Fortunately the car was not damaged but it was some hours before it was hauled out on the road again.

Inspected Railway. In the private car "Rosemary" attached to the Boston express, H. C. Groot, general superintendent of the C. P. R. Atlantic division, returned to the city last evening from Edmonton, where he has been on an inspection trip. He was accompanied by J. F. Beatty, district engineer, and C. Kyle, master mechanic.

Held by Police. Inspector Wickham, with Detectives Barrett and Gibbs, placed a sailor under arrest in West St. John last night. There was no charge entered against the man on the police books last night but it is said that the sailor on board a vessel took some liquor which had been in bond on the ship, and the prisoner was given in charge by the captain.

River Business. All three river steamers, Majestic, Victoria and Champlain arriving at Indiantown yesterday carried good cargoes and many passengers. Farm produce continues to come in large quantities, while raspberries and blueberries are becoming more plentiful. Tourists are beginning to make their appearance on the river, but the season is not yet as good as was expected.

Said to be a Deserter. Among those who assembled on the King Square last evening, to celebrate the anniversary of the declaration of war by Great Britain, was Roy Peters. The man had a jag with him and was quickly gathered in by the police. In addition to being charged with drunkenness, Peters has the dishonor of being entered on the police blotter as a deserter from the 6th Mounted Rifles. The mounted corps are now training in England preparatory to going on the firing line.

Wanted a Dollar. Yesterday morning a young man supposed to hail from the States, entered John Glynn's hack at the Royal Hotel and on instruction was driven to Wall street, the Bank of Montreal, the office of the American consul and then to police headquarters where he asked Chief Simpson for a dollar. The young man was detained in the guard room for a short time and allowed to go. It is thought he had been drinking and the effects of the liquor was responsible for his actions.

Give a Machine Gun. The officials and employees of the Rhodes Curry Company, Ltd., at Amherst, Halifax and New Glasgow, N. S., and contracts at St. John, N. B., Wolfville, Halifax and Trenton, N. S., have placed one thousand dollars in the hands of the Minister of Militia and Defense for the purchase of a machine gun. The money was raised through the contributions of the officials and employees of this large concern, and the certified cheque for the amount was sent to the Minister of Militia on Monday last with a letter stating that the senders were endeavoring to do their "little bit" as part of their duty to the King and Empire.

PERSONAL. Miss Ella Pitt of Reed's Point, Kings county, will visit Mrs. William N. Smith of Oromocto for a few days. The many friends of Mrs. Samuel Merlin are pleased to know that she is improving after having undergone a serious operation at the St. John Infirmary. Captain C. G. Placombe, 28th N. B. Dragoons has returned from the Royal School of Instruction at Halifax where he qualified in the machine gun and field officers courses. He has accepted a position in one of the overseas units. Mrs. Donohue of Roxbury, Mass., is visiting her mother, Mrs. R. Korrin, 124 Main street.

A NEW GRAIN ELEVATOR TO BE ERECTED AT THE LOWER COVE

F. P. Gutelius, General Manager of Government Railways, assured delegation from Board of Trade of improvements at this port—Piers and other facilities.

A delegation of St. John men, comprising the Council of the Board of Trade, met F. P. Gutelius, general manager of the Canadian Government Railways, yesterday afternoon, on his arrival in the city, and conferred with him in reference to increased facilities in St. John. Mr. Gutelius came to the city in his private car "Dufferin," attached to the Halifax express, and was met at the Union depot by the following gentlemen: Percy W. Thomson, H. P. Schofield, R. B. Emerson, J. M. Robinson, W. E. Foster, W. A. Ganong, C. S. Phillips, J. H. White and R. E. Armstrong.

The delegation had several questions which they asked the general manager and he answered them as far as he was able. With regard to the coming season's export of grain Mr. Gutelius said he did not expect much over the Transcontinental and all would be handled by the Canadian Pacific Railway by their two elevators at West St. John.

He did not favor the erection of an elevator on the old site because the government had improvement plans in view for increased facilities which would require the land. For this reason the elevator would not be built at the Union depot.

With regard to the Valley Railway, Mr. Gutelius said the most desirable route to St. John would be from Mc-Givney Jet, to Fredericton and from Fredericton to St. John following the valley route on the west side. This would save the construction of large and expensive bridges and the government would be $5,000,000 in pocket with which he thought they could increase facilities here and along the line.

Mr. Gutelius outlined a type of elevator, plans of which were now in preparation. It is proposed to erect the elevator in Lower Cove, probably on the Charlotte street extension, just north of the Sugar refinery. The new facilities would also include two piers, each 750 feet long. He had been unable as yet on account of the war, to secure the funds with which to undertake the work, but as soon as this difficulty was overcome the elevator and piers would be built.

Mr. Gutelius said the government considered St. John their port and extensive plans for increased facilities were underway, but he added he was unable to tell them at present. They were doing everything in their power to help St. John and he thought the time was not far distant when extensive work would be carried on here for increased railway accommodation.

Mr. Gutelius was pleased with the meeting and J. A. Lidsky, on behalf of those present, thanked him for the interview. He left again for Moncton in his car attached to the 6.10 train.

NEW OFFICERS FOR SALVATION ARMY

Changes in the staff in St. John made during the present week.

Adjutant and Mrs. Jos. Green, who have been appointed to succeed Captain and Mrs. Ham in charge of the Citadel Corps, will take up their duties here today. Adjutant Green's last appointment was at Moncton, where during his two years' term, much progress was made in every branch of army work.

Captain H. Friesen and Lieutenant T. Laurie have been appointed to West St. John, succeeding Captain McAmmond, who has been transferred to Parrsboro.

Brigadier L. E. Taylor, who has had the oversight of the army's work in the St. John division for four years, has been notified by Commissioner Richards that he and Major Thos. Coombs will be included in the general staff change this fall, and according to present plans will farewell in October.

Captain J. B. Holloway and Lieutenant Alex. McNichol have been appointed to St. John II. Corps, and will take charge this week.

Captain Samuel Capson, who has been stationed in Bermuda since leaving the training college, will return by the next boat, and have a short furlough at his home in this city, before taking another appointment. Lieutenant I. Brett has been promoted to the rank of captain.

WEDDINGS

Alexander-O'Brien. The Church of St. John the Baptist yesterday morning at 6.30 o'clock was the scene of a pretty event, when Miss Alice T. O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. O'Brien of 184 Britannia street, was united in marriage to Francis Joseph Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alexander of 285 Charlotte street, with nuptial mass, by Rev. W. P. Donahoe. The bride was given away by her father, and was attired in a costume of brocade lace over white satin with tulle and veil with Juliet cap and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. The bridesmaid was Miss Lillian O'Brien, sister of the bride, who wore pink silk with hat and plumes of corresponding shade and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, Edward G. Alexander. Following the ceremony, breakfast was served at the home of the bride, after which the bride and groom left for a visit to New York.

Among the many gifts received was a handsome limoges combination dinner and tea set from F. G. Spencer with whom the bride was a popular office employee; a kitchen cabinet from the staff of the Unique and Lyric Theatres, and a Morris chair of fumed oak and leather from the employees of J. & A. McMillan, with whom the groom is employed. The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst of pearls, to the bridesmaid a pearl ring, and to the groomsmen a pair of engraved cuff links.

FIVE AMBULANCES FOR RED CROSS WORK

Salvation Army doing good work in assisting with wounded.

At the noonday prayer meeting held in the Charlotte street citadel yesterday, Brigadier Taylor announced that the Salvation Army in Canada, in keeping with what they are doing in other countries, would provide five fully equipped motor ambulances, for service on the battlefields of Europe.

Salvationists in the St. John Division are being asked to contribute the sum of five hundred dollars toward the cost, and donations will also be gratefully received from any friends who desire to help. Cheques may be made payable to the Salvation Army or to Brigadier L. E. Taylor, Merchants' Bank Building, St. John, N. B.

The Salvation Army has now many motor ambulances fully equipped and manned by Salvationists, doing Red Cross service on the battlefields. The first unit of five with an additional motor truck, was dedicated at a special meeting presided over by the Lord Mayor of London, in the Guildhall. The second unit of the same number of cars was dedicated by the Queen Mother and by her permission is named "The Alexandra Unit."

FINED BY CHIPMAN MAGISTRATE FOR CREATING DISTURBANCE

Betts having failed to make his appearance, the magistrate ordered with the trial and imposed a fine of $10 or 30 days in the county jail. Mr. Wm. M. Ryan of St. John appeared for the plaintiffs.

EXODUS FROM RIGA BEGUN

Government Institutions being removed to Tula, near Moscow—Shipping Agencies work.

Riga, via London, Aug. 4.—In obedience to orders for the removal of government institutions, the State Bank already has been transferred from Riga to Tula, to the south of Moscow. The other banks are being removed and the educational institutions are being mainly transferred to Dnepet, 187 miles northeast of Riga. Owing to the exodus of families the shipping agencies are overworked and are refusing further orders for the shipment of household goods.

The departure of working men from the city has created an emergency which the Russian government is meeting by establishing temporary employment agencies here and in interior places.

Meet me at the Ononette patriotic fair Saturday, August 7th.
