REPORT.

On reviewing the state and prospects of the British Wesleyan Missionary Society, the Committee of the LOWER CANADA DISTRICT feel highly encouraged to furnish their Annual Report, not only from the belief that they are encleavouring to carry out the benevolent purposes of Almighty God in the conversion of the world, but also from the pleasing fact, that much success has already attended their efforts : thousands have been turned "from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God ;" many of whom have left this world, "in sure and certain hope of the resurrection of life ;" others are determined to continue to "adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour" "till" their "change come."

Although the Mission Stations bear so pleasing an aspect, yet much of this habitable globe still "lieth in wickedness." A most appaling, but strictly true description of the world is given by the eloquent MR. HARRIS, in pleading the cause of Christian Missions :---" The wants of the world," says he, " are more urgent than ever, or, what amounts to the same thing in the matter of our responsibility, we are better acquainted with them, and our facilities for meeting them, as far as Christian instrumentality can meet them, are greater than ever. The map of the world, in the days of the Apostles, was only the map of a province, compared with that which lies before Every geographical discovery since has only served to enlarge us. our ideas of the great Satanic empire. Oh ! in what a small minority does the Christian stand ? What a fearful expanse of darkness around him !---and that darkness how dense !---and what hideous enormities does it conceal ! There, cruelty has its chosen habitation, and feasts perpetually on human blood. There superstition has its temples, and its sacrifices of human suffering, and its music of human groans. There, sin has its priesthood-its ceremonial of murder, and its ritual of lust !

" By a very slight effort of the imagination, we can cause the hosts of evil to pass before us, and what a spectacle to behold ! First, come the Jews out of all nations under heaven, each with a veil over his heart, and stained with the blood of the just One. Next, nominal Christians, by myriads, and from all parts of Europe, headed by one who drags a bible in triumph, as a dangerous book, and embraces an image, or an amulet, instead. Then comes the crescent of imposture, followed by Turkey and Persia, by large tracts of India, the islands of the Eastern Sea, Egypt and northern Africa, the inhabitants of the largest and the fairest portions of the globe. After these, the swarthy tribes of Africa, Central, Western, and Southern, with their descendants of the West Indies, laden with the spells of witchcraft, and covered with the charms of their Fetish worship. Now come the aborigines of the two Americas, and the islanders of the great Pacific. fresh from the scalp dance, the cannibal feast, or the worship of the snake god. Next, the selfish Chinese, one-third of the species-in appearance all idolaters-in reality all atheists-a world of atheists, to whom all truth is a fable, and all virtue a mystery. Last comes India-the nations of Southern Asia, and the many islands of the Eastern Sea, a thousand tribes, including infanticides, cannibals, and the offerers of human blood, dragging their idol-gods, an endless train, with Juggernaut at their head, worn with the toil of their penances, and marked with the scars of self-torture. And who are these that close the train ? The Thugs of India, just discovered-a vast fraternity of secret murderers-the votaries of Kalee who has given one-half of the human race to be slaughtered for her honour .--Christians, did you count their numbers as they passed? Six hundred millions at least. Did you ask yourselves, as they passed, whither they were going ? Follow them, and see. Can you do so, even in imagination, without feeling an impulse to rush and erect the cross between them and ruin? That is your office, that is the great practical design for which the church exists, to go and testify this faithful saying, that Christ has come to save them all."___

While the Committee feel impelled on the one hand by signal proofs of the Divine approval, they are also stimulated on the other, by the deplorable condition of our race : they are therefore resolved to aid the unwearied exertions of the Parent Society, to spread "Scriptural holiness through the land," by the instrumentality of a Missionary Ministry.

It is with unfeigned gratitude to the Great Head of the Church that the Committee observe the increasing liberality for the spread of the Gospel, and that the General Treasurers of the Society's Fund are able to record an increase of \pounds 1,115 16s. 3d. to their ordinary income, which last year amounted to the noble sum of \pounds 74,990 17s. 5d. sterling. If this were the produce of a special effort, it could not fail to create feelings of thankfulness in our heart; but when we remember that it was raised by ordinary means, and that it will probably be exceeded next year; and further that it has been contributed during a time when the streams of Wesleyan liberality have been flowing with an unprecedented fulness, into the #200,000 sterling.

Notwithstanding the unhappy disturbances which have taken place in this Province, we find that the interest of the Mission cause has actually extended, so that an increase of no less than £186 0s. 1d. above the last year, has been realized by the District Auxiliary.

It would be highly gratifying to the Committee to furnish a detailed account of the Society's proceedings, in all their Stations, but the limited space allowed in an Auxiliary Report, not admitting this, they beg leave most respectfully to submit the following mere outline of their extended and greatly extending operations. EUROPEAN MISSIONS.

IRELAND.—By the Report of the Parent Society, we learn that the agents in that island are of three classes: Missionaries, Schoolmasters, and Scripture-Readers. The Missionaries are twenty-four in number. The salaried Schoolmasters, thirty-one. The Scripture-Readers, eight. The united labours of these agents have been accompanied with success, and we trust that by the divine blessing, the "Sister Island" will soon assume her proper position, in sending her sons to "preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ."

SWEDEN is another station where there is one Missionary who preaches both in Swedish and in English; recent accounts give us to understand that the Mission is in a very promising condition; besides a number of native Swedes and others, constantly, under his pastoral care; he has been visited by a company of Laplanders, one of whom was at the advanced age of seventy-three, and another sixty-two years. These have urged upon Mr. Scott, the Missionary, to endeavour to procure them a teacher of righteousness. This we hail as a pleasing indication that the inhabitants of the polar regions are coming forward to the standard of the cross.

The attention of the Committee having been directed to GERMANY, they have now in Winnenden, one Missionary Agent, who is assisted by upwards of forty coadjutors. His labours in that place are widely spread, for he visits upwards of thirty different towns and villages, and under God has formed Societies, in which there are upwards of five hundred members.

In FRANCE there are thirteen Missionaries, and four Assistant Missionaries, some of them preach in English, and the rest in French; it is said that these Missions "never presented an aspect of so much encouragement as they do at present." The number in Society is six hundred and five: in the Schools there are six hundred and forty-six children.

The number of Missionaries in SPAIN are three, two of these are for the Spanish, and the other for the British population; besides these, there are three other salaried Teachers; and eighty-six members in Society. In the Schools there are one hundred and fifty-six children. Although that country has been for some time a seat of political strile, of war, and of bloodshed, yet we confidently anticipate a period when "they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks:" when "nation shall not lift up sword against nation, and when they shall learn war no more."

In MALTA there is one Missionary, who reports favourably of the state and prospects of the Mission. There are sixty members in Society, and sixty-five children in the School.

CONTINENTAL INDIA is one of the most important fields of missionary labour which the world now presents. Its vast population, the character and fame of its idolatrics,—its intimate connexion with Tartary, Burmah, China, and other vast regions of the east ; and especially from the fact of its being accessible to missionary efforts in all its villages, cities and provinces. In that extensive tract of country the Society has twelve Missionaries, and six Assistant Missionares who preach the Gospel in English, Tamul, Canaresc, and Portuguese. There are three hundred and forty-six members in Society, and one thousand three hundred and seventy-five children, chiefly native Hindoos, in the Schools: so that though the difficulties are great and numerous, yet the prospects are bright and encouraging ; and we hope that the days of their idolatry "are numbered, and their end draws near."

CEYLON has been the scene of missionary labour by the agents of this Society for upwards of twenty years, it may therefore be expected that Christianity has done much for that people, notwithstanding the degrading idolatries, and spiritual apathy of the various sections of its inhabitants. An account of this mission, given by the Rev. BENJAMIN CLOUGH, who has been obliged to relinquish his labours in the East, by the entire failure of his health, has recently been published, from which we make the following extract : " The education of the heathen youth, on Christian principles, has furnished such ample means of information, as to produce an almost universal discussion on the subject of religious doctrines and worship. Thus truth and error are brought into general collision, so that of late years the effect has been a great and almost convulsive shaking of the heathenism of Ceylon. A general falling off in the public display of the heathen priesthood,-the loss of their influence over the native population,-a diminution of the revenues of the temples, which on all hands are falling into ruin and decay,-and a cessation of public heathen ceremonies and festivals,-and were it not for the influence exercised by the uneducated, and, consequently more devoutly superstitious female part of the population, heathenism would almost cease to exist. In many instances a spirit of enmity and retaliation has been excited among the priesthood, who leave no means untried, on their part, to check the progress of Christianity, and to engender feelings of rancour and hatred against the Mission-Yet the cause, under the guidance and proaries and their people. tection of the God of Missions, steadily and firmly advances, and presents very cheering prospects of great good. The Schools are exceedingly prosperous, and might be increased to any extent ; the number of readers is daily multiplied ; Christian knowledge is rapidly disseminated; the doctrines of the Gospel are gaining an extensive ascendency over the minds of the people ; regular Christian congregations and societies are collected and established all over the country. Christian Teachers of various classes are rising up, and going forth bearing the precious seed of the word of life ; places for religious worship are in the constant course of erection by the natives themselves; the word of God is sought after by all classes of the natives, so that great numbers of copies of the sacred Scriptures are continually in the course of careful distribution by the hands of the Missionaries and their Assistants ; and thousands of copies of religious tracts are every month issued from the Mission Press, in four different languages, which are eagerly sought after, and carefully read. Besides these general effects, the Missionaries have the satisfaction of witnessing from time to time, instances of sound conversion to God,-of natives, who by a consistent life, adorn their Christian profession,-and of others who die in the Lord, leaving behind them the most satisfactory testimonies of their sure and certain hope of eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ." In this truly interesting island the Society has eight Missionaries; fourteen Assistant Missionaries, and ninety-nine salaried Catechists and Teachers. printing press is established at Colombo. There are seven hundred and ninety-five members in Society ; and in the Schools five thousand nine hundred and fifty-one children.

SOUTH SEA MISSIONS.

In NEW SOUTH-WALES and VAN DIEMAN'S LAND the Missionaries labour not only among the respectable classes of Colonists, but also among those outcasts of men whose crimes have banished them from their native land, and although they disregarded ordinary morality at home, many of them are now attending to the truth as it is in Jesus, and display its sanctifying influence in their reformed habits of life. In these stations there are belonging to the Society fourteen Missionaries, and one Assistant Missionary; seven hundred and forty-one Members : and one thousand three hundred and eighty four children in the Schools.

NEW ZEALAND is another of our Mission Stations. Some of its inhabitants having obtained a limited acquaintance with our holy religion were so eager for Christian instruction that they built for themselves several Chapels; and sent no less than five different deputations to wait upon our Missionaries to request Christian Teachers: and it is with much pleasure that we can say the ear of mercy was open to the cry of their necessities, so that there are now nine Missionaries, one Assistant Missionary a Printing Press, six hundred Members in Society, and five hundred persons under schoolinstruction in that station.

Among other islands of the South Pacific, the Society has Agents in the FRIENDLY and FEJEE groups, to the number of twelve Missionaries, one thousand five hundred and thirty-five Native Teachers. There are seven thousand eight hundred and sixty-six Members in Society, and seven thousand five hundred and fifty-five persons receiving school-instruction. These Islands which were once so famous for the ferocity of their inhabitants, have for some time gladdened the hearts of thousands of Christians, by the almost unparalleled success which has attended our Missions there. The infanticide mother has been taught to save her offspring, and press them to her heart, for the Lord does not receive "our first-born for our transgression, the fruit "of the body for the sin of the soul"—the blood-thirsty cannibal has been led to feast on "the bread of life which came down from heaven ;" and has been strongly impressed with the solemn truth that "no nurderer hath eternal life abiding in him."

AFRICAN MISSIONS.

The Continent of AFRICA is also furnished with Gospel labourers, called of God and sent thither under the direction of the Wesleyan Missionary Committee. In its Southern parts, we are informed their "labours have not been in vain in the Lord." In Graham's Town and its vicinity the Society has been doubled. Among the British and Dutch settlers, the Kaffers, the Bechuanas, the Corannas, the Mantatees and others, there are not less than twenty-one Missionarics, two Printing Presses, one thousand two hundred and nine Members in Society, and two thousand four hundred and ninety-four children in the Schools. The increasing carnestness manifested by some of the Chiefs to obtain Missionaries, is no mean proof of the growing attachment which the Kaffers feel for the Messengers of God, by whom "the word of their salvation is sent."

In the Western parts of Africa, frequently designated " the grave of Missionaries," there are still nine who " count not their life dear unto them, so that they may finish their course with joy, and the ministry, which they have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the Gospel of the grace of God:" besides four Assistant Missionaries and other Agents. In Sociely there are two thousand three hundred and twenty-four Members, and in the Schools one thousand three hundred dred and sixty-one children. These regions of death have been blessed with much spiritual life, so that the work of God continues to prosper there. The Missionary Society has never lacked a supply of Ministers for that part of the world who freely and nobly offered themselves to be "baptized for the dead."

AMERICAN MISSIONS.

The West-INDIES has long been a field of spiritual operation occupied by this Society. Its Ministers had for many years to struggle with the trammels of slavery, which greatly impeded the progress of piety; but since the chain has been broken, the slave has not only been admitted to the privileges of a freeman, but means to facilitate his admission to the "glorious liberly of the children of God" have become accessible to him, the beneficial results of which is, that in Jamaica alone, upwards of six thousand Members have been added to the Society since the Abolition Act came into operation. BRITISH NORTH AMERICA .- The Wesleyan Missions on the American Continent were the first establishment of that description which emanated from our Connexion. The devout discrimination of the venerable Wesley, well discerned that merely Nominal Christians contending with the difficulties of settling in a New Country, were in the most fearful danger of falling into a Paganism of the worst description; and thus not only of placing in peril their own everlasting interests, but also of rearing up their children " without God and without hope in the world !" The impiety and irreligion of a neglected population. would have rendered their rising villages and towns so many fortified garrisons, where the armies of the aliens might either have securely entrenched themselves, or violently have sallied forth therefrom, in wasting rebellion against " the Lord of Hosts !" The early Methodists therefore deemed it a charity of the highest description, to care for the spiritual wants of their "kinsmen," according to the Christian profession; and the first Missionary money raised among us for this object, was contributed by the Methodist Preachers in Conference assembled. The Conference referred to was held in Leeds, in the year 1769, under the Presidency of Mr. Wesley himself; and the money subscribed was sent by two of their own number, towards the erection of the first Wesleyan Chapel in New York. It is not a little gratifying to know that the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, which has arisen from those early beginnings of Missionary effort, is now following up the truly Wesleyan principle : and while sending her highly useful Missions among the Indians of their territory, she is also zealously following with the means of grace the numerous families who are settling in the wilds of their extensive country, and who otherwise would be in danger of " perishing for lack of knowledge."

The KAITISH PROVINCES OF NORTH AMERICA have well repaid the Apostolic toils and privations of the early Missionaries of our Society, who found the scattered inhabitants in their coves, and by the river sides, and followed them into the almost inaccessible sottlements in the backward lands. There they sometimes met with them, not merely without a Bible, but almost without a book ! In these circumstances, the Wesleyan Missionaries have found a hearty welcome into the humble shandy; while persons for many miles around them would come to attend their ministry, at the appointed visits : and the grateful offerings of many a bursting heart have supplicated blessings on those benevolent friends of man, by whose Missionary contributions they have been favoured thus to receive the heraids of salvation.

In the Province of UPPER CANADA, the attention of the Society is chiefly directed towards the long-neglected Aborigines of the country—the remnant of the representatives of a once numerous and flourishing portion of the human family, which has been almost swept from the face of the earth by the operation of European vices and diseases. Amongst this interesting people, we have established nine Stations, with which there are connected ten regular Preachers, besides Schoolmasters and Mistresses, native Assistant Missionaries, Exhorters and Interpreters, and upwards of a thousand of the Red Race of the West, amongst whom the errors of a Pagan Creed have given place to a knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus. Indolence and intemperance have been succeeded by industry and sobrietythe tomahawk and the scalping-knife have been exchanged for the Word of Salvation, and the implements of agriculture and peace .--In this department of the Society's operations, while success in some places encourages to perseverance, the ignorance, superstition, and misery that exist in others, loudly call upon the Committee to " go forward." A wide and an effectual door is open before us, into which we may enter, and preach the Gospel to thousands of Pagan Indians, whose condition is as deplorable as is that of any class of the heathen in any part of the world. To the north-west of Lake Huron there are 30,000 Indians, who speak the Chippeway language, waiting for the messengers of the Churches. From the neighbourhood of the Rocky Mountains, and to the shores of the Pacific, the multiplied sorrows of men who hasten after strange gods, call upon us to enlarge the place of our tent, and to stretch forth the curtains of our habitation, that these wanderers may be enclosed within the evangelical fold. Twenty qualified native Preachers and Exhorters-heathen sinners saved by grace-are ready to go forth to proclaim liberty to their captive brethren, and are only waiting for the means to enable them to embark in this work of mercy.

The Report of the state of the Societies in Quebec, Montreal, and the Rural Districts in our own Province of LOWER CANADA, is of a favourable character. Though suffering variously from the effects of the public disquietudes during the last two years, the several Stations afford encouragement to those " who are over them in the Lord." They have the satisfaction to know that none have been more faithful to the British Government during that eventful period, than have been the people of their charge. Had it been otherwise, they would have painfully felt it to have been a disgraceful impeachment of the Scriptural piety of their beloved flocks. But over such an ecclesiastical dishonour, they have not been doomed to lament. In the most severe conflict of the last Winter, a very large number of them were in the hottest part of the action, and were graciously shielded by the God of battles, while bravely and victoriously exposing their lives in the righteous Cause of defending the throne of our empire, and thereby protecting their homes and their altars !

In this Province the Missionaries preach the Gospel to no less than twelve thousand persons; two thousand five hundred and twenty of whom are closely united in church-fellowship with us, and are steadily increasing in Christian knowledge and holiness. The Sunday-Sch their ch and the In N are emp

In NovA SCOTA and New Brunswick, thirty-eight Missionaries are employed by the Society, who minister the bread of life to the few and scattered occupants of the new and remote settlements; in many of which, but for them, the public worship of God would be entirely neglected, as well as in the older and more populous districts of these important Provinces. The number of members of Society amounts to between five and six thousand, and the number of regular hearers is not less than twenty thousand. The Sunday-Schools contain two housand two hundred and fifty children, and are supplied with two hundred and eighty-nine Teachers, who are zealously engaged in this important service.

It is with mingled emotions of pleasure and of pain, that the Committee refer to the Stations occupied by the Society in the Island of NewFOUNDLAND. There the fields are white unto the harvest, but there is a lack of evangelical labourers. Forty thousand Protestants are scattered around the inhospitable shores of that island, a large proportion of whom are in a state of entire religious destitution !---" They neither food nor feeder have !?

RECAPITULATION.

The Society occupies about two hundred and twenty-four principal Stations; its Missionaries are about three hundred and forty; its Catechists, salaried Schoolmasters, &c. are about three hundred; the Assistants and Teachers not salaried, are upwards of four thousand. Six Printing Establishments are supported on the Foreign Stations.

The Members of Society, or Communicants under the spiritual care of the Missionaries, are upwards of sixty-six thousand eight hundred. The total number attending their Ministry may be reckoned at about two hundred thousand. In the Schools there are upwards of forty-nine thousand adults and children.

More than twenty different languages are used by the Missionaries; and into several of them their translations of the Holy Scriptures and other useful and instructive books, have either been completed or are in progress.

In CONCLUSION; the Committee present their most affectionate and cordial thanks to all who have contributed to the funds of this Society for the spread of the Gospel. They would at the same time congratulate you upon the accession of honour to which your liberality has raised you; it has distinguished you with the lofty appellation of co-workers with God, in the infinitely benevolent purposes of rescuing the world from present wretchedness and future misery. Many of you have been made partakers of his saving grace; and by that act of mercy on the part of the Divine Being, he not only intended your own salvation, but the salvation of others by your instrumentality. And though you yourselves may not be called of God to go to the heathen with the word of salvation, nor even to make the painful sacrifice of surrendering your son to this office; yet your aid is necessary to send others whom the Great Head of the Church has called.

When we look over the face of the earth, and count the habitations of cruelty,-when we see the miseries and hear the cries of the destitute for the bread of life, we feel constrained to appeal to the sympathies of the public for greater liberality, not liberality which waits for annual calls, or public excitement,-not that liberality which gives a little from much, but much from a little. " The liberality wanted is that which will induce the wealthy Christian parent to offer up his pious son," whom God calls, " on the Missionary altar, and to lay beside him, at the same time, whatever may be necessary to make the oblation complete." Persons of property ought not to forget that they hold in their possession that which would send the "messengers of peace" to the self-destroying enemies of God. To Christians we turn with entreaties that they would join their prayers to their pecuniary aid, that a larger measure of Divine influence may attend all those "who preach the Gospel of the grace of God." The success of the past, the prosperity of the present, and the prospects of the future. all encourage us to be incessant in our supplications that " the kingdoms of this world may become the kingdoms of our God and of his Christ."

INCOME OF THE WESLEYAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, FOR THE YEAR 1838.

We are happy to inform our Friends, that the Society's Income for the year lately closed, exhibits a progressive improvement, as compared with the Income of former years; which though not large in its amount, calls for renewed gratitude to Almighty God, and is the earnest, we trust, of that much more considerable augmentation which the growing obligations of the Society render absolutely necessary. The account is as follows :—

 The Contributions sent directly to the Mission-House in London, and those received through the medium of the various Auxiliary Societies at home and abroad, amount to £73,573 13 1

N. B.-This Item shows an increase,

2 .- The Legacies received in 1838, amount to N. B .- The Legacies received in 1837, amounted to £3182. 6s. 1d.; so that, under this Item there is a decrease of £1765. 1s. 9d.

two Parliamentary Grants for 1837 and 1838, 3633 1 5 From the preceding Statement our Friends will see, that the two first Items of Contributions and Legacies which constitute what can alone be considered as the regular and ordinary Income of the Society, have amounted in 1838, to the sum of £74,990. 17s. 5d. being a Net Increase, under those two heads conjointly, of £1115. 168. 3d.

But it is our duty to add, that the Expenditure of the Society, during the year 1838, has exceeded the ordinary Income from Contributions and Legacies, large as that Income is, by a very heavy sum. So that the Friends of the Society will perceive the absolute necessity of further exertions on behalf of its Funds, during the year now current, both to liquidate the existing debt, and to provide for future claims.
