LOVE, JEALOUSY, MURDER. Detroit, March 3 .- Disappointment, jealousy and love, accentuated in a beer-befuddled brain, Saturday night, caused "Pete" Perry to shoot his former employer, Mrs. Sarah Tallman, whose love and liquor business he coveted, and then turn the revolver upon himself. Both died within a few minutes. The shooting occurred in the saloon which has been run by the woman at Franklyn and Antoine streets. Only her 15-year-old daughter, Irene, witnessed the struggle in the darkness of the up-stairs rooms, which resulted in the death of both parties.

CHINA'S NEW REBELLION

Serious Trouble at Nan Ning, Quang See Province.

United States Consul Told Missionaries to Leave at Once.

Recent Defeat of the British Government Explained—How the Remount Scandal Came Out-Rothschilds Behind Rosebery.

Pekin, march 3. - The Chinese foreign office admits that the rebellion in the vicinity of Nan Ning, Province of Quang See, seventy miles north of the gulf of Tonquin, is very grave. Over 1,000 former soldiers are engaged in pillaging. An edict has been issued ommanding the Chinese authorities to afford protection to the missionaries and other foreigners. Mr. Conger, the United States minister, has been notified by Prince Ching, head of the foreign office, that he expects China will speedily suppress the rebellion and protect the foreigners in that part of the country. At the request of the governor of Quang See, the missionaries were ordered by United States Consul McWade | sul. to leave immediately under a pledged STOLEN BANK NOTES RETURNED escort, to be taken to Wuchow. THE GOVERNMENT'S DEFEAT. London, March 3 .- Although the vote of the House of Commons on Tuesday night will have no immediate political ing on the charge of having illegal consequences, it was an important possession of the notes. Lewis adnight will have no immediate political event. The defeat of a government which has a normal majority of 130 is an ominous sign of the times. The question excites very great interest among railway servants, and concerns the traveling public. Capt. Norton, a were remanded at the Bow street Liberal member for London, moved police court Saturday.

that the board of trade should require from railway companies a return of all of the cases where the men were worked for more than twelve hours. This the board of trade has power to do under Mr. Mundella's act of 1893, but it has neglected to do so. Mr. Bell, the member for Derby, and a workingman, who seconded the mo- given rise to disquieting rumors. tion, gave some appalling statistics of excessive labor. He cited an instance in which an engine driver had gone on duty at two in the afternoon and re-mained at work till midnight, and resumed at six next morning, and gave another example of 22 hours' continuous employment, with another of 166 hours on duty in the six days. He showed that for some years, in spite of Mr. Mundella's act, the hours of railway labor tended to increase, and that the increase had been accompanied by the rise in the number of accidents. Mr. Jackson, chairman of the Great Northern Railway, did not succeed in refuting Mr. Bell's arguments or in disposing of his statistics, while the president of the board of trade, who proposed too late a futile amendment, Stone is untrue. She is still at Salontook the dryly official line that all complaints received due consideration. is not a question of complaints, but of humanity and safety. The motion only called upon the government to carry out the law. It would have done better to accept it. REMOUNT SCANDAL.

A curious light has been thrown on the remount scandal by a high officer of the government, who says that, it would never have come up had not a private squabble arisen between members of the House of Commons. According to this statement one member sent in a bid for horses which was refused in favor of a Newmarket dealer. Against the latter the disappointed bidder and several racing members of the House of Commons had bitter grudges. A cabal was formed, quite regardless of party lines, and a determination was arrived at to make the government suffer for giving contracts to a man who was not in favor with the aristocratic parliamentary racing set.

"LIBERAL" UNIONISTS. The annual meeting of the Liberal Unionist Council is not usually an important event, nor does the Duke of Devonshire's speech excite a very lively interest, for the difference, if between Liberal Unionists and Conservatives has long been invisible to the naked eye, but this year the meeting had an object, and the duke had a subject. Liberal Unionists would be either more or less than human they did not chuckle over the new Primrose League. Sixteen years ago they separated from the Liberal party because they would not support home rule for Ireland. Now Lord Rosebery has definitely abandoned home rule Of his three vice-presidents, Sir Edward Grey is understood to have practically done the same; Sir Henry Fowler never mentions the topic, but the third, Mr. Asquith, has hitherto been a strong home ruler. His future utterances on Irish policy are awaited with a good deal of curiosity. He is one of the ablest debaters in the House of Commons, and if a cave is to be New York, March 1.-The British formed, there he will be a valuable leader. Apart from home rule the rea-

> STRONG BACKING FOR ROSEBERY To successfully diagnose the intentions and prospects of the new Liberal movement under the auspices of Lord Rosebery would be to solve a puzzle which has every politician in Great Britain by the ears. For more powerful influences than appear on the surface are at work in behalf of that curious yet all-important development which has ensued upon Lord Rosebery's re-entrance into public life. The remarkable attitude of the London Times continues to such an extent that this Unionist organ deliberately takes up the cudgels in behalf of Lord Rose-sons for the formation of the new

Times could never oppose a Conserva-tive government that these outspoken utterances pass almost without com-

ROTHSCHILDS BEHIND HIM. An explanation of this was afforded by one of Lord Rosebery's fellow peers who is a personal friend of the former premier, though opposed to him in politics. He said:

"I believe it is quite true that the Rothschilds now own a half interest in the Times. We (the speaker is a member of the government) can no longer rely on the Times' support and can only deduce that the Rothschilds intend to back up Lord Rosebery's movement with all their millions and the other resources under their con-

Lord Rosebery's family connection with the Rothschilds (Lord Rosebery married Hannah de Rothschild, the eldest daughter and heiress of Baron Meyer de Rothschild) and their frequent outspoken dissension with the financial and internal policy of the present cabinet strengthens the supposition and the statement of the peer above quoted would stand against any number of formal denials, and means far more than mere schism in the Liberal party. It is said there are several other papers in London waiting for a favorable opportunity to come to the support of Lord Rosebery.

WORK WILL BEGIN WITHOUT DELAY

Construction of Middlesex and Elgin Inter-[St. Thomas Journal.]

James C. Dance, one of the promoters of the Middlesex and Elgin Interurban Railway, was in the city today, and says that the road will be built without delay. Two of the leading capitalists of the road and an engineer have, within the past few days, gone over the proposed route, and are much pleased with the absence of any serious engineering difficulties, and the prospects of its being a paying business concern from the start. They do not propose to touch the public highways except at road crossings where his distinguished services at the seat it is unavoidable. The farmers along the track are in many cases so anxious to have the convenience which such a road will afford, that they are offering to give the necessary land along the roadside free. It is the intention to have the roadbed and equipment equal to the best electric railway in the United States. They will use 80-pound rails, and the coaches will be as attractive, comfortable and modern in every respect as can be found anywhere, and no money will be spared to give the very highest kind of service. They calculate on providing a speed of not less than 60 miles an hour, and will cater, not only for the pas-senger, but also for the freight traffic Special provisions will be made for the carrying of market stuff on the market days. St. Thomas will be the central point with London, Aylmer and Port Stanley as the three termini. ## THE CONVOY DISASTER

Fifty British Killed and Over One Hundred Wounded.

More Hope That the War Will Soon Be Ended.

Another of the R. A. C. Force Dead From Fever and Another Seriously III.

London, March 3 .- Late last night a further official casualty list was issued with reference to the British convoy disaster near Klerksdorp on Feb. 25. It is now known that 50 officers and men were killed and 126 wounded. The Boers have released 104 prisoners, but 352 are still missings. This makes a grand total of 632 casualties in the disaster. No mention is made of the two guns lost. It is now beyond all doubt that they are in the hands of the Boers. Not even at Nooitgedacht, which was fought so long ago as December, 1900, have British trops sustained so severe a reverse. The total losses on that occasion were 602. TO END BY SEPTEMBER. London, March 1. - On the best informed opinion, the Pall Mall Gazette rophesies the end of all serious hostilities in South Africa by September, and this is rather a pessimistic than an optimistic view, Judging from Lord Kitchener's progress this week and the well-founded rumors of Gen. Botha's personal inclination to surrender, the practical end of the struggle may considerably antedate September. HORSES SCARCE. A dispatch from Pretoria to the London Times says that the supply horses is still lamentably short of the demand, and scarcely a single column can place its full mounted strength in the field. The wastage is caused be-cause many horses are hurried on the trek before fully acclimatized, and by unnecessarily hard treatment. Many to replace. Major Septimus A. Denison Is Now Lieutenant Colonel.

motion.

Not only the citizens of London and military men all over Canada, but many true soldiers in all parts of the empire will congratulate Major Septimus A. Denison, on the news which comes from Ottawa. The forthcoming Gazette will contain the information that by an order in council, duly signed by the governor-general, Major ployed in these establishments. Denison has received the brevet rank of lieutenant-colonel in consideration of of war in South Africa. Major Denison was first made aware of his promotion in a particularly pleasant manner, being congratulated on it by the governor-general himself in Ottawa on Saturday, Major Denison being in that city to attend the Paardeberg dinner given by Lord Minto. Major Denison's proud record with the Canadian forces and as a member of Lord Roberts' staff, are well known to everyone who has followed the history of the war. The promotion is a deserved one, and will meet with unanimous approval.

Every Man Must be That, to Retain His Health and Digestion.

THE GREAT HUXLEY.

There are thousands of people in this world who eat no meat from one year's end to another, and certain savage tribes in Africa and Polynesia are almost exclusively meat eaters; but while there are thousands of these there are millions who live upon a mixed diet of meat, vegetables and grains, and if numbers is a criterion, it would seem that a mixed diet is the best for the human family.

The fact that you will find many vegetables an active out-door life should The fact that you will find many vege-tarians who appear healthy and vigor-ous, and meat eaters equally so, and any bus, and meat eaters equally so, and any humber of robust specimens who eat both meat and vegetables and anything else that comes their way, all goes to show that the old saw is the true one, that every man must be a law to himself as to what he shall eat and drink. To repair the waste of tissue in brainworkers as well as to replace the muscle. workers as well as to replace the muscle and sinew of the laborer, can only be done through the process of digestion. Every nerve, muscle, sinew, every drop blood is extracted from the food we and digest.

In these days of bustle and worry and artificial habits of life, scarcely one person in a thousand can lay claim to a perfect digestion; dyspepsia is a national affliction, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a national blessing.

Most cases of poor digestion are caused by failure of the stomach to secret sufficient gastric juice or too little hydro-ed by failure of the stomach to secret sufficient gastric juice, or too little hydro-chloric acid and lack of peptones, and all of these important essentials to per-fect digestion are found in Stuart's Dys-pepsia Tablets in convenient, palatable form.

The great English scientist, Huxley, said the best start in life is a sound stomach. Weak stomachs fail to digest food properly because they lack the proper quantity of digestive acids (lactic and hyprochloric) and peptogenic products; the most sensible remedy in all cases of indirection into take after each cases of indigestion is to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply in a pleasant, harmless form all the elements that weak stomachs lack. Cathartic pills and laxative medicines have no effect whatever in digesting food, and to call such remedies a cure for dyspepsia is far-fetched and absurd. ## PRINCE HENRY ON AN ENGINE

Traversed Three States in Quick Time-Left His Dinner to Greet a Little Crowd.

Cincinnati, March 1. - Prince Henry of Prussia traversed the States of Maryland, Pennsylvania and Ohio today, and tonight his special train is speeding through Kentucky into Tennessee, with the battlefields around Chattanooga as its final southern goal.

The train had lost two hours at Portage by reason of a wreck to the westward of that point, and when the special got a clear track again an attempt was made to win back some of the time that had been lost. At times the swaying engine was running sixty miles an hour, and when the prince left the cab he was almost as grimy as the engineer.

He dined at 7 o'clock in the evening, and while he and his guests were at the table the speed of the train was cut down to 40 miles an hour. The prince left the dining-table to acknowledge the cheers of a small crowd that had gathered about a water tank outside of Xenia. They numbered less than 50, but when the prince heard that they wanted to see him, he went to the rear platform. He bowed to the little crowd and then waved his napkin, which he had carried out with him.

SETTLED FOR $250. Windsor, Ont., March 3. - John Francis, the Sandwich East farmer, who shot his employe, Frederick Hardis, met his victim in Magistrate Bartlett's court, and they agreed to with-draw the charges against each other on Francis' suggestion that he should pay Hardis $75 for his injury, $52 back wages, $75 to Dr. Asbaugh his surgeon; $30 to the hospital, and $17 costs of the court-a total amount of $249. Hardis is still suffering from his wounds. Dr. Asbaugh, however, says he will not be maimed in any way as a result of the injury.

AT LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN. Indianapolis, March 2. - Prince Henry of Prussia went up Lookout Mountain today, and after viewing the ground where the Union and Confederate armies were in conflict and hearing afresh the story of battles, resumed his journey to the north Louis Railroad, his train ran through a corner of Alabama, and then, turning to the north, hurried across Tennessee, within a short stop at Nashville; through Kentucky, with brief stays at Louisville and Bowling Green and up into Indiana to another brief halt at Indianapolis. At Indianapolis course was turned to the westward again, and on the tracks of the Vandalia line, his train tonight is on the reach for St. Louis. His reception in the south was hospitable and demonstrative. The negroes manifested great curiosity as to the prince and they interested and amused him.

At Ste. Scholastique, Que., James Flaherty was acquitted by the jury of the charge of murdering Frank Blais, who was killed in a row at Flaherty's house last August.

Miss Eugenie Blair and her company played a return engagement at the New Grand on Saturday, presenting a rather weak dramatization of Charles Reade's well-known novel, "Peg Woffington." The company tried hard to make up for the dramatist's shortcomings, but succeeded only partially. ## CONSTIPATION Causes Headache, Abdominal Pains, Piles and in Severe Cases Insanity and Apoplexy.

It is a common mistake to conclude that Constipation is not a dangerous condition. Although at first it is only accompanied by slight inconvenience and pain, yet if not corrected, it will inevitably lead to very dire results. Great care should be used in selecting a remedy for constipation, because if a violent purgative is employed, it is sure to set up pain, irritation and congestion, and finally result in piles. "It is the inability of the shrewdest criminal to keep going without making a fatal mistake that detectives depend upon to catch them," says Roger "Men with more brains than O'Mara. the Biddle boys, men higher up in the profession of burglary, have made mistakes just as they did, and lost their freedom or their lives thereby. It is nearly always drink, women or cards with criminals, and the officers watch the haunts of these fellows as closely as possible. With the Biddles it was a woman. I never expected them to try to take Mrs. Soffel with them. What I expected—and the reasonable thing for them to do—was to make an appointment to meet the woman somewhere, then never meet her, I had no idea they would be taken until they were arrested for some new crime. But they made one fatal mistake. They kept together and took the woman along, and they were im-mediately a mark for everyone who reads the papers.

THORNDALE.

Thorndale, March 3.-The death of Mrs. Dundas, beloved wife of John Dundas, which took place at Thorndale on Feb. 27, after a brief illness, has created universal regret. Deceased, who was the youngest daughter of Squire Robert Garner, was a general favorite, possessing a quiet and ami-able disposition. Her husband and little boy, Ralph, have the sincerest sympathy of all in their sad bereavement. She is also survived by her father and mother, three sisters and two brothers mother, three sisters and two brothers
—Mrs. Edward Scatcherd, of Wyton;
Mrs. George McQueen, of Michigan;
Mrs. D. D. Brazil, of London; Robert
H. Garner, of Nissourl, and W. C. Garner, of Hazelton, Mich. The funeral took place from the family residence on Saturday, March 1, to Brown's Cemetery, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. Impressive services were conducted by the Rev. M. D. Madden, of the Methodist Church. Among the many floral offering were a handsome pillow of roses from the aged father of deceased, as a last token of love; a beautiful cross of roses and lilies of the valley from Miss Emily Scatcherd, roses from Mrs. Ray Garner, and a wreath from the Chosen Friends, of which her bereaved husband is a member.

They Believe There Is No Cause for Fear-Forty Came Ashore Friday Night.

Bay City, Mich., March 1 .- The condition of the fishermen on the ice floe in Saginaw Bay today is the same as last night, with the exception of about 40, who came ashore last midnight through the aid of a boat run out by William Houser from his fishery on the shore. Mr. Houser crossed the open water several times and landed the men safely, and they came up to the Oak Grove resort, where some of them remain. Speaking of the ice going out, one of the men said this afternoon: "We noticed the ice began moving at 3 o'clock, and those of us who wanted to get ashore started to the south and were taken from the ice by Houser. The others remained in their shantles and will stay out on the ice until it is blown back or until they are satisfied there is to be no more fishing. The ice is from 18 to 24 inches thick, unusually solid considering the warm weather, and there is no danger of it going to pieces. If it does not break up the fishermen will be safe. In case they wanted to get ashore now they could mostly old, experienced hands and know when to make a bee line for shore. They will probably remain out there for two weeks longer. J. L. Fisk, the fish buyer, who went out with his team of horses every other day, barely escaped being caught on the runaway ice. He crossed the big crack on his way in with a load of fish at noon, and three hours later the ice went out." The shanties are mostly on the north and west side of the crack in the ice, and while they cannot get ashore with-out boats in the vicinity of Sebewaing, it is thought the ice on the north shore of the bay is intact, in which case the men are in no danger except by reason of small open fissures. Paul Fouriner, of Essexville, who came ashore at Sebewaing today, does not expect that the men will experience much difficulty in getting ashore unless the ice breaks up with a rush. THOMAS SABIN, of Eglington, says: "I have removed ten corns from my feet with Holloway's Corn Cure." Reader, go thou and do likewise.

The rapid progress indicated by the figures given will in the next ten years, we believe, mount up to figures considerably higher. Canadian companies in 1880 carried 41 per cent of the insurance in force, then amounting to $91,272,126, or $37,838,518, and now carry 62 per cent, the total being $431,069,846, or $267,151,086, that is, the Canadian companies in 1900 carried three times as much insurance as all companies together carried twenty years before.

The percentage carried by British and United States companies has in each instance declined, but United States ompanies in the volume of business transacted show a much larger increase than British companies. British companies have about doubled the total; United States quadrupled; and amount of praise for its scenic char-Canadian companies multiplied by seven. ## Coal In the Yukon.

The fuel question is being solved in the Yukon, though there are some difficulties in the way. At several points tawa, which reflects in all its splendor coal has been discovered, and is taking the place of wood, which is very scarce, and not of any too good quality. Near White Horse there is a good prove of great value to that growing tropical sunset; the air is not pellucid, community, but it is a long way from Dawson, and the coal cannot be taken there except at an enormous expense. Not far from Dawson, however there is a good deposit of soft coal, but to get it to burn effectively it has first to be "thawed out." This fact illustrates the amount of frost that is in the ground in that country. The deposit is some 100 feet below the surface, yet when it is dug out and marketed it is frozen, and though it will burn in that the waterfall. Even at best, the comfound that the moisture in the fuel is ion, a really good fire can only be obtained from it after it is roasted. Despite these and other difficulties,

A Proud City.

The Yukon delegates now in Ottawa, who are composed of former residents of Ontario, Quebec, and various states of the neighboring republic, are united in saying that Dawson City is the best-lighted, the best-drained and "sewaged," the best all-round governed, and enjoys the best telephone service of any corporation on the continent. This is a feather in the caps of portant matters, to be sure, but they ex-Commissioner Ogilvie, Commissioned J. H. Ross and their associates, and pared to the industrial paralysis that the statement must give much satisfaction to the Minister of the Interior and his colleagues, who had to bear all the brunt of the cock-and-bull stories put on foot a year or two since by Yankee adventurers who could not get things all their own way.

Bad Times in Germany.

Hard times are prevalent in Germany, despite the fact that they have a high tax policy, which some of the people of this country profess to believe, contrary to the experience of Great Britain, is a panacea for every out of work, while 53,501 are working short hours, and in addition to this 19.239 workers are out of employment because of illness or physical disability. Thus, not counting the sick or disabled workpeople, 126,530 persons remain who are in good health, but have either no employment at all, or whose wages are curtailed owing to shortened hours. These figures take no account of the very large number of workmen who are employed by the job, and are receiving much less than normal wages, owing to the bad times.

It must be a source of great satisfaction to Canadians that so far, for the past six years, the times have been good and the outlook is as yet bright. Canada is certainly a good country to live in these days.

A Montreal man first killed his wife and then suicided. By killing himself, he deprived the hangman of a job, but he also saved the country a good deal of expense. But his final act would have met with greater appreciation at the hands of his fellow-citizens if he had carried it out before he undertook

The egg famine that now seems imminent touches the poor man's breakfast table, while the entertainment of who can afford it and are falling over themselves to be touched.

With cold storage eggs at 35 cents a dozen on Water street and the retail price soaring skyward, the outlook for sherry flips and milk punches is distressing, to say nothing of the gloomy prospect for that favorite western luxtry, "ham-and-eggs, country style."
The stringency in the egg crop is laid at the door of the American hen.
She refuses to respond to the usual treatments that have been found efficacious. Feeding her red peper has even failed to fill her with a burning desire to do her duty. And as for bone-dust, she will devour it with a glad cackle and in large quantities without showing the slightest disposition to drop anything in the egg cheap pauper hens of Canada. Congressmen grew eloquent as they pictured the havoc and ruin that would wrought in the egg industry, and how the American hen would be driven cut of business by the poorly paid hens acress the Canadian border.

But has the American hen shown a proper appreciation of this "protec-" accorded her in the Dingley tariff? We think not. The few eggs we can buy are of the vintage of 1901, and will not stand the candle test.

QUESTION OF THE FISHERIES

An Old Dispute Reopened in the Dominion House.

During the Consideration of Estimates for Hon. Mr. Sutherland's Department.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Feb. 28 .- One of the important questions now in dispute between the provinces and the Dominion of Canada relates to the country's fisheries, probably its most valuable asset, next to the agricultural industry. When Hon. James Sutherland's estimates for his department of marine and fisheries were being considered this afternoon, this dispute was the subject of a long discussion, during which the government's determination to send it to the courts for an unquestionable decision was revealed. It is a dispute of rather venerable age, so far as it is correct to apply that word to any problem in a country whose united history is as short as Confederation. This will not be the first time that it has brought wrinkles to the brows of the gentlemen of the highest Canadian courts. Once before the provincial and federal governments agreed to seek its settlement in this way. They got their decision, and with it got fresh troubles. Not only is the government confronted with the original difficulty, but also with the difficuity of deciding what the decision No one, of course, supposes that the judges intended it this way; it is a dilemma that legal decisions not nfrequently accentuate.

This was the only question that was in any way lengthily discussed. Indeed the success that the honorable minister from Woodstock had in getting his estimates passed was quite reto his department his whole vote of a million and a half dollars was put This is explained easily enough. The minister of marine and fisheries has no frills about him, no nonsense about technicalities. When he has to make an explanation of dedoes it as a business man should. He is without doubt one of the most truly popular men in the house, among followers of both lead-

But when he ased for $85,000 for salaries, and the disbursements of fisheries' inspectors, overseers and guardians, the gentlemen whose duty it is to keep the government strictly upon the straight and narrow path of rectitude, desired to know if take was not being made. Immed ly the fisheries question was born anew, so far as its parliamentary life is concerned. As nearly as can from the court's ruling, the provinces have territorial rights to the fisheries, but the enactment of regulations re-garding them is within the explusive jurisdiction of the federal parliament, and not within the rights of the prcv-Both governments can exact fees for fishing privileges.

The opposition balked, because they preferred to see a direct revenue before apportioning so large a sum for the fisheries service, a position which, on the face of it, seems reasonable enough. But the weakness of their stand was disclosed by Mr. Fraser, of Guysboro, who said that no doubt as to responsibility for protecting the industry existed. That was the Dominion government's, and therefore, even if no immediate returns were in sight, the government's duty was to protect this valuable asset. The leaders on both sides agreed that is was desirable to have the misundering regarding the share of expenses for protection, and the share of revenue which is to go to the provincial and federal governments, settled at once. Mr. Emmerson, of Westmoreland, suggestd that the Dominion should somplete territorial rights over ries, and thus solve the perplexity; and he aftorney-general said that he be-leved the Dominion had far larger powdeved the Dominion had far larger powers than the provinces think. However, he promised that, if the parties cannot gome to an agreement as to the way in which the judgment already handed down should be construed, he will submit to the courts another list of questions for their decision.

The Rev. Gentleman Replies to Some of His Critics.

The General Assembly and Prohibition-Signs of Change in Popular Feeling on This Subject.

[To the Editor of the Globe.] For the sake of some readers who wish to grasp my argument as a whole, and for the sake of others whom it is unnecessary to describe minutely, it will perhaps be wise for me to begin this letter with a brief recapitulation.

In my first communication I maintained that the government-having before them their pledges and the Privy Council's decision-were morally bound to submit a prohibition measure to the house; also that they should ascertain the mind of the people, not as it was in 1898, but as it is in 1902, and that there would probably be a larger vote on a concrete measure, With eggs soaring beyond our reach and Easter but four weeks away, it is a good time to reflect upon the statesmanship of the men who framed the mean that I am in favor of prohibition, Dingley law, and who put a tariff of 5 or that I am under the strange decerts a dozen upon eggs in order to lusion that questions involving man's protect the American hen from the right and obligation to seek the truth and to make constant choice between the good and the evil can be settled by a majority vote. I am not under pledges to prohibitionists. The Privy Council's decision does not affect me in the slightest degree. I am simply one of the people. But, it would have shocked every honest man if the government had not introduced a prohibitory measure, once the limits of their power were made known clearly unto

THE NEW BRUNSWICK FAILURE. The main argument of the second communication was that the speedy repeal of provincial prohibition in the one case in Canada—that of New Brunswick-in which it had been tried, and the apparent success of local option laws, contrasted with the sweeping failure of the Scott act in Ontario, explained in great measure in this, as in the case of a province, by the different conditions in rural and in urban communities, ought to convince openminded men that, according as area widened on which prohibitory laws are tried, the more dismal would their failure. Tilley and Anglin, en of the highest standing and politically opposed to each other, were cited as sworn witnesses of the first failure; Hodgson— one of the most candid and earnest of men-who had worked hard for prohibition in city and country, witnessed to its being, in his judgment, still a blessing in the country, though it had proved a curse in Charlotte-The third communication showed in detail the grievous injuries which prohibitionists are now inflicting on the cause of true temperance and public norality, and that some other method of dealing with drinking customs and a number of bitter, un-Christian, or rather anti-Christian, annonymous greatest offense. I can only say that every word of it was weighed, and that it was written with an earnest prayer that it would be considered almly and in the same spirit of zeal for the highest interests of humanity in which it was written. In my fourth communication, after showing the defects inherent in the license system, and even in state management, I advocated the company or society method now generally adopted in Scandin-

A CRITICISM RECEIVED. I pause here to say that the criticisms on my letters do not call for answer. No one has attempted to state, much less to meet, the arguidents. The first sentence of the most moderate private letter which I have received on man deeply in earnest, gives in substance the position of my critics. "We see," he says, "that your name is again in the Globe newspaper against prohibition, the same as it was four years ago, and just take the liberty of writing to ask you if you will do us the favor, if you have had no experience or no knowledge except theoretical knowledge along the lines of dealing with the question of the evils of intemperance, will you be good enough to hinder us in this work for God and humanity." "O, sancta simplicatas!" John Hess exclaimed, when he saw a pious old woman piling the faggots

It seems to me, then, that the public with drunkenness must be tried. From that they are on the Lord's side as were the earnest men and women who, in the middle ages, tried to prohibit letters recently received, I learn that heresy by external laws. Priests and this is the letter which has given the laity alike expatiated on "the educative value of law," and in all conscience they made the law stringent enough as well as at great cost to themselves, so deeply in earnest were they. When told that their laws interfered with personal liberty they answered as plausibly as do our prohibitionists: "All law interferes with personal liberty for the benefit of the community"; and again, "The community should be protected those who murder souls, even more than from those who only kill the body.'

LEGISLATIVE SHORT CUTS. It is melancholy to think that all the marvelous developments of our age and all the vast range of material possibilities by means of mechanical appliances which increase our power over physical conditions, have the subject, evidently written by a nothing better for us spiritually than to debase popular ideals and to excite desires to reach the chief end of our being by legislative short cuts, regardless of the far-reaching consequences which the reflective mind knows are sure to follow, and which are of the most importance. The correspondent from whom I have quoted has not the slightest notion of what is involved in his position, for he actually goes on to advise me to assist in educating the people "by moral suasion"! Even my general grumble instead of argument. He is annoyed at me for not saying "quick" all that I have to say. Why so impatient, brother? You who have had to write every week, and almost every day, for years (and may you long continue to write!) on a limited range of subjects, should not consider three or four letters excessive, when the matter is so important, and when no demand is made for space in your own columns. This subject cannot be settled "quick." The discussion of it is part of the education of the people. That requires time and temper. As you refer to the General Assembly, let me assure you, too, that a great change has come over the tone of that venerable court in its dealing with this question. Just compare the blue books of the last three years with the recommendations and resolutions formerly In 1899 passed, almost unanimously. the prohibitionists carried their motion only by a majority of 95 to 84; and in the two assemblies since, the recommendations made no mention of prohioition, and it gave me much pleasure to vote for them. SIGN OF POPULAR CHANGE. This to me is one of the signs of popular change with regard to prohibition. The fever of ten years ago has passed, and men are not only thinking calmly, but speaking out, as few ventured to speak then. Hence we have not only boards of trade and town councils warning the government to "hasten " but even a judge, when addressing a grand jury, warning them that, under the Scott act, "men became so trained and used to false swearing that it was carried to other branches of the administration of justice, to the ordinary civil and criminal business of the country;" and the grand jury recognizing the truth of what he said, added that the difficulty of detecting breaches of the law "the treating of that by the law as a crime which is not looked upon as such by individuals, at least in its initial steps, renders the passing and the proher enforcing of a prohibition liquor law, unless backed by the

of Ontario are now prepared for something better than prohibition, and perhaps for the superseding of licensing by the company system; and that, in view of the good results which have accrued elsewhere from it even a plebiscite this year would be unlikely to give a majority in favor of prohibition, if only the simplest organization could be effected for bringing out the vote. establish the Scandinavian system all that is needed, in addition to the present local option law, is that power should be conferred on the authorities of towns and cities to hand over the licenses, allowed in each case, to a company consisting of such persons who would undertake the business, not for the sake of profit, but for the pub lic good; that the shareholders should not derive profit beyond the ordinary rate of interest on the capital invested and that the profits should be devoted, after equitable consideration of the men formerly engaged in the busine to the municipality, or to the prom tion of temperance, and the establish ment of reading-rooms, coffee houses and other philanthropic objects. is the principle of the Gothenburg system, and the "fact that no single community, so far as has been learned, which has ever tried it, has afterwards abandoned it," is the best cer-tificate in its favor, and a striking contrast to the changes in public opinion and continued legal tinkering in Canada. On the basis of this principle, old friend, Dr. Courtice, emits only a a system suited to Ontario could be agreed on, were it once generally recognized that prohibition is impracticable. I would gladly join such a company, and invest liberally in it, being convinced that in this, better than in any other single concrete way, I would be promoting the cause of temperance; while fully recognizing that

Danes Have Reached Their New Station Every Year Since It Was Founded.

A while ago the Danish supply steamer Godthaab returned to Copenhagen from her annual visit to Angmagsalik on the east coast of Greenland. This is the only station that Denmark has on the east coast. It was founded five or six years ago for the purpose of trading with the natives and carrying on missionary work among them.

The east coast has always been regarded as very difficult to approach on account of the masses of floe ice which press against it during the summer season. In every year, however, since the station was started, it has been reprovisioned by a steamer from Denmark. Considerable trade is carried on with the 500 natives who exchange the characteristic products of Greenland for European commodities they have learned to prize. The missionaries are having a good influence and no unfavorable report has ever been heard with regard port has ever been heard with regard to Denmark's latest colonial enterprise. There are romantic reasons why the world should be interested in the little station of Angmagsalik and glad to hear of its prosperity. The Esquimaux living there were never heard of by the white the little stretch of coast they occupy, these natives had been completely cut off from the world perhaps for centuries. Until Capt. Holm discovered them along the coast between 65 degrees and 66 degrees north latitude, in his remarkable journey of 1883-85, these people knew nothing of the world outside their little of West Greenland. In fact they were a lost part of the human race that had strayed away from their fellows and been forgotten been forgotten.

Holm spent ten months in Augmagsalik, and therefore had an excellent opportunity to study the inhabitants, who differ in many respects from all other Esquimau tribes. They numbered, when Holm saw them, 548 people.

They were of course pure-blood Es-

They were, of course, pure-blood Esquimaux, while in West Greenland there is scarcely a pure Esquimau, for all the natives have a greater or less admixture of European blood. They spoke a dialect of the Esquiman language, and were understood with difficulty by the west coast natives the explorer had with him The sea was the source of nearly all There they found their food, and the ice brought to them trunks of trees, planks and a considerable amount of debris from shipwrecked veswhatever of the world outside their homes, they had long been able to use some articles made by civilization. Their harpoons were tipped with iron from the hoop iron washed shore, and relics of many a ship that went down, probably hundreds of miles from their coast, were found in their humble huts serving some useful though unaccustomed purpose.

Their lives have been greatly changed since they came to the knowledge of their fellow-men. They trade not only with the whites, but also with the national control of the control

Attractive Programme for Grossmith's Appearance Here.

The programme arranged by George Grossmith for his appearance at the New Grand tomorrow night is well worthy his reputation as an eminent entertainer. He introduces his programme with a piano solo "Home, Sweet Home" with variations never before heard upon this well known theme. "A Few Idle Thoughts" being experiences in the one-and-one-halfbrick-thick mansions of the London apartments house district, serves to introduce two famous love songs, "'Twas in the Time of Turnips" and "Oh! That Today Were Tomorrow." The second part consists of the new sketch "Some-bodies and Nobodies" in which Mr. Grossmith describes the London police-"Twas in the Time men, the butler, somebodies on a train, somebodies at an English banquet. a college student, and the major and his song. The songs introduced are "How to Work Up a Pedigree" and "The Merry Bankrupt." The third part will be made up of selections of laughable stories, anecdotes, etc., from Mr. Grossmith's immense repertoire.

ANOTHER MILESTONE HAS BEEN PASSED

Seventeenth Anniversary of the Opening of Adelaide Street Baptist Church.

Seventeen years ago yesterday the members and adherents of. Adelaide Street Baptist Church celebrated the opening of their present place of worship at the corner of Adelaide and King streets. This church has had a varied streets. This church has had a varied experience. Its membership—composed chiefly of working people—has been subject to great fluctuations, and was largely depleted when the G. T. R. carshops were destroyed by fire. Then, too, it has on two occasions been without a pastor for a long period. In spite of all-drawbacks, however, it has bravely struggled on through difficulties and discouragements; it has maintained a couragements; it has maintained steady, healthy growth, extended its insteady, healthy growth, extended his influence, inaugurated a mission (Egerton street), given several young men to the work of the ministry, furnished four missionaries for the foreign field, maintained a large Sunday school, and has fully met its financial liabilities each year the only liability being a 1400 year, the only liability being a $1,400 mortgage on the church property, its assets being $11,525 in excess of its lia-During the past year the church raised in all $2,812 16, of which $423 01 was given for home missions and $398 19 for foreign mission work. As the pastor, Rev. T. S. Johnson remarked, the outlook for the church is bright, and it is evidently stronger than ever before in its At yesterday's services Professor A. L. At yesterday's services Professor A. L. McCrimmon, M.A., principal of Woodstock College, gave two masterly discourses. The preacher's morning theme was "The Relationship of the Church to Christ Jesus." the text being Ephesians i., 22, 23. After speaking of God's manifest desire to bring a fallen world back to himself through the gift of his son, and of Christ, after leaving the world, designating a band of people to carry on his work, the preacher showed the relationships of Christ and his people by scriptural figures—Christ the cornerstone of a great spiritual edifice, the scriptural ngures—Christ the corner-stone of a great spiritual edifice, the church; Christ the vine, his people being fruit-bearing branches; Christ the head of the body, of which his children are all members. In these varied relations they were representatives of the incar-nate God, commissioned to carry on and fill up the work that he had become nate God, commissioned to carry on and fill up the work that he had begun. In the evening Professor McCrimmon took as his text John xvi., 13, his theme being "The Holy Spirit." In forcible and eloquent terms the preacher showed who the Holy Spirit was, and what he does for man. Many scripture proofs were quoted from both the Old and New Testaments to show that the Holy Spirit was a person—not a mere influence. The Holy Spirit's work was evidenced in the

Two Workmen Killed by Collapse of a Scaffold-Fall of Two Big Buildings With Fatal Results.

Cleveland, O., March 1 .- The fourth floor of the Cleveland Baking Company's plant on Central avenue fell beneath the weight of a large number of barrels of flour today, crashing through the three floors to the basement. Five persons are missing-four girls and a man. They are buried beneath the debris in the basement and are undoubtedly dead. Their names are May Kelly, Mollie Roemer, Florence McGrath, Maggie Heiser and Joseph Woelker. Besides the missing fourteen persons were injured, including Lena Zuzy, back broken and cnest crushed, will die. Tweive women and three men were carried through with the fallmen were carried through with the laining floors. Those who were rescued were dug from the ruins by the firemen and police. A number of other girls in the building saved themselves by rushing to the windows and clinging to the sills until rescued by firemen with ladders.

SCAFFOLD GAVE WAY. Philadelphia, March 3.-A scaffold used In the erection of the addition to the Fidelity Trust Company's building on Chestnut street, collapsed on Saturday. Two workmen are known to have been killed, and three were taken to a hospital seriously injured.

THREE TRAINMEN KILLED. Philmont, N. Y., March 2.—Three men were killed by the wreck of a freight train on the Harlem division of the New York Central Railroad near here yesterday. Those killed were Engineer Stewart, Fireman Watermeyer and Brakeman Clark. The wreck was caused by a wash-out on the line.

WORKMAN'S HEAD CUT OFF. Philadelphia, March 2.—A portion of a new addition to the Fidelity Trust Company's building at No. 328 Chestnut street, in course of construction, collapsed yesterday, killing Daniel Maginnis and Geo. Wharton, Charles Anderson and Frank J. Borie were injured. The men were terribly crushed by the three tons or more or stone and bricks which fell, and Maginnis was decapitated.

MET DEATH ON THE TRACK. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., March 1.—A man named Clery, employed by the Allied Companies of the Canadian Soo, was killed by a west-bound Canadian Pacific train, while walking on the track. MANGLED BY MACHINERY.

Toronto, March 1 .- About 4 o'clock this evening, while several men were lifting a ponderous piece of machinery on to a freight car at the C. P. R. freight sheds at the foot of York street, the machinery fell and pinned two of the men to the ground. They were extricated with some difficulty and removed to the hospital, where it was found that Robert Ingles, 24 Phoebe street, was very badly injured. He received severe internal injuries, having his pelvis badly crushed and his body severely bruised. The other man, John McKenna, had his left leg evening, while several men were lifting man, John McKenna, had his left leg looked for. badly crushed.

Traffic Proves Serious.

Fire-Swept Paterson in Danger of Being Deluged.

Inhabitants of Many Towns Have to Desert Their Homes and Flee for Their Lives.

New York, March 2.—The floods along the line of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad are interfering extensively with traffic, according to reports given out at the Grand Central station in this city. No through trains for the west are being dispatched in the afternon and evening. The 3:35 train for Albany left on time, but went only to Hudson. No passengers would be taken beyond that point, as bridges are down and tracks washed away between Hudson and Albany. The greatest trouble, however, was reported at points along the main line between Albany and Buffalo, where trains are stalled or have not been sent out because of the floods along the

TRAVELERS IN DESPAIR.

All day long hundreds of passengers wishing to reach Rochester, Syracuse, Buffalo, Detroit and Chicago were in despair and making anxious inquiries as to when trains would start for these points, only to be told by the station master that "it might be any minute and it might be hours."

ROWBOAT TRANSPORTATION. Albany, N. Y., March 2. - Railroad traffic has been badly interfered with and not a wheel has turned on a street car line today as a result of the Hudson River overowing its banks. The entire southern portion of the city is under water and residents have to use rowboats to get to and from their homes. The trains which left New York at 7:30 last night and on board of which were more than 100 passengers, did not Joseph Gallagher, a 14-year-old boy, was drowned by falling from a bridge into the river, and James O'Malley, a miner, 35 years of age, who has not been seen since Saturday morning, is supposed to have lost his life in crossing Keyser Creek on his way home from work.

PATERSON'S PERIL. Paterson, N. J., March 2.-This city, so recently swept by fire, is now over-whelmed by flood. Three weeks ago the greater part of its business section was burned out, and today the quarter occupied by the houses of the poorer class is inundated. Hundreds of families have been made homeless by the overflow of the Passaic River,

ONE DEATH.

So far but one death has been reported. The great peril now is that the Spruce street raceway may overflow, in which event a great loss of property in the manufacturing districts is sure to ensue.

TRAIN LEFT PHILADELPHIA. Philadelphia, March 2.-The Schuylkill River is again within its banks and close to its normal condition tonight. destruction wrought by the storm was so great that many industrial establishments along the river's banks will be unable to resume work for several days.

MUST BE NO DISCRIMINATION

In the Matter of Telephone and Telegraph Tolls.

Terms of the New Bill of Which the Minister of Justice Has Given Notice.

Ottawa, March 3.-The bill of which the minister of justice has given notice in regard to telegraphs and telephones is to be known as the telegraph and telephone act. The provisions of the measure are largely founded upon or adopted from clauses in the railway and telegraph acts. The bill provides against any increase in telegraph or Scranton, Pa., March 2.-Incessant committee of the privy council power plaints or disputes respecting tolls charged or demanded, or charges of unjust preference or extortion.

TERMS OF THE BILL. Mr. Fitzpatrick's bill gives telegraph and telephone companies the right to construct lines on roads and highways, provided the public use of such roads and highways is not incommoded, or free access to any house or building shut off. Subject to the provisions contained in this act, or in the special act. a telegraph or telephone company is authorized to fix by bylaw the tolls to be taken for messages or services. The tolls may be fixed for the whole or any particular portions of the company's lines, but they are to be charged equally to all persons, and no reduc tion is to be made either directly or indirectly in favor or against a particular company or persons. The works of all telegraph and telephone companies and the country for miles around the incorporated under provincial laws are city is under water. benefit of Canada. The bill will fix a period after the passage of the act within which telegraph and telephone companies must submit their bylaws fixing tolls to the governor in council, through the public works department, for approval. The government is given power at any time to assume temporary or permanent possession of any tele phone or telegraph line, and the rights privileges of such company are then vested in the crown. In the event of differences between a company and the crown as to the compensation to be paid, reference will be had to arbitration. The clauses relating to government ownership are taken bodily from the present telegraph act. Upon the application of any person to a telephone company, and tender by him of the lawful amount of toil, the company is required, with all reasonable dispatch, to install telephones upon such person's premises, situated within any city, town, village or territory within which a general service is given by the company, and adjoining or within 150 feet of any highway or street upon which the company has a main or branch line, and to make the necessary connections with its system. Except as otherwise provided in the bill, no higher tolls than those usually collected in any place within which a telephone company has a general service are to be asked, to be chargeable, payable or recoverable. Any sum paid in excess after the act comes into force may be recovered in an action at law or deducted from any tolls unpaid. Every bylaw fixing and regulating tolls is made subject to revivision from the railway act against the granting to any person of any secret special toll, rebate, drawback or concession is embodied in the present bill. Authority is conferred upon the directors of any telegraph or telephone company to enter into arrangements with any other similar company for the regulation and interchange of messages or services, and for the working of the lines for a maximum term of 21 years, subject to the approval of the governor in council. The provisions of the present bill are not to apply to existing contracts. The railway committee of the privy council is given power to inquire into, hear and determine any applica-tion, complaint or dispute respecting (1) tolls charged or demanded by any telegraph or telephone company, (2) unjust preference, discrimination extortion by any such company, (3) any matter, act or thing which by this act or the special act is sanctioned, required to be done or prohibited. ## A BIG BLAZE IN TORONTO

Fire Broke Out On Union Loan Building.

Janitor's Family Had a Narrow Escape-Loss Estimated at $30,-000 to $40,000.

Toronto, March 3 .- Fire broke out at 1:30 o'clock this morning in the office building, 28-30 Toronto street, formerly occupied by the Union Loan and Savings Co. It is supposed to have startway up the elevator shaft with great

NARROW ESCAPE.

The caretaker, James Massen, jun., his wife, and his father, Jas. Massen, sen., were asleep in their rooms at the rear. When they were aroused the flames were all around them. They made their way out through a window to the roof of an adjoining building, and from there they escaped safely to the street below. The building is an old one, and it lent ready fuel to the flames. In a short time the upper floors were a mass of fire. Shortly be fore 2 o'clock, when it was seen that the building near by, including the Canada Permanent Building, the Dominion Government offices and the warehouse of Rice Lewis & Son were in danger, a GENERAL ALARM WAS SOUNDEL. The full force of the brigade was then exerted towards saving the adjoining structures. The building is a five-story structure, and is now owned by the Toronto Mortgage Company. It has been built for many years, and contains a large number of offices. H. O'Hara & Co., John Stark & Co., C. C. Baines, brokers: Maclaren, Macdonald & Shepley, barristers; Burke & Horwood, architects, are among those who occupy offices there.

THE LOSS. At 2:15 a.m. the fire was confined to the rear of the building, the action of the brigade preventing its spread to the Toronto street front. At that time the upper floors were badly gutted, and it was not possible to tell what the outcome would be. The building has a wide frontage, and was in good repair. The value of it has been roughly estimated at between $30,000 and $40,000; while the contents, including office furniture, law libraries, records, etc. are worth many thousand dollars in addi-The fire was confined to the third and fourth stories of the Union Loan building, and by means of several streams poured in from the roof of the Aberdeen Chambers and other adjoining buildings, was extinguished about 2:30 The building was insured for $35,000, divided among the Scottish Union and National, the Aetna and other companies.

A Physicians Testimony For Labatt's Stout.

ALEXANDRIA, DEC., 20th. 1901. Speaking from personal experience I can state that your Stout is excellent in building up the system—I was very much run down and was advised to use Labatt's Porter—this I have done for some time and I largely attribute to its effects my steady improvement in strength and weight. I deem it but justice to you, and it certainly is a pleasure to me, to add my testimony to its sterling qualities, and I gladly recommend your Stout as an excellent tonic and food in cases where such is required. WEATHER NOTES. Since Saturday another severe disturbance has traveled from the Gulf of Mexico to the St. Lawrence Valley, giving gales and heavy rains in Quebec and the Maritime Porvinces. Colder weather is now spreading into Ontario and Quebec, and for the present outlook a period of cold may now be expected, although no very low temperatures are indicated.

London, March 3 .- In a dispatch from Pretoria, dated today, Lord Kitchener sends details of the disater to the escort of the convoy of empty wagons at Vondonop, southwest of Klerksdorp, Transvaal Colony. The British casualties in killed, wounded and men made Bro. Edwin Paull, 14 degrees, Ex. grand captain of host; Sov. Prince John Robprisoners, reach the total of 632. In addition, the Boers captured two guns. Lieut.-Col. Anderson, who command-

REPEATED ATTACKS. The burghers were driven off and the convoy resumed its march, when a more determined attack was made on the convoy's left flank, the Boers getting within a hundred yards and stampeding the mules harnessed to a number of wagon. The attackers were again driven off.

At about 6:30 in the morning the rear guard was attacked by a strong force of Boers and simultaneously another body of Boers boldly charged the center of the convoy and stampeded the mules in all directions, throwing the escort into confusion, during which the Boers charged and recharged, riding down the separated British units.

FOUGHT TWO HOURS. The fighting lasted for two hours, during which the two British guns and a pompom almost exhausted their ammunition. A detachment of 200 mounted infantry from Klerksdorp at-tempted to reinforce the British, but were held in check by the Boers.

Lieut.-Col. Anderson adds that the strength of the Boers was estimated at 1,200 to 1,700. Commandants De-larey, Kemps, Celliers, Lemmer, Wolmarans and Potgleter were all pre-Commandant Lemmer is said to have

THE BIGGEST LOCOMOTIVE.

The 130-Ton Freighter Built for the Santa Fe Road.

It Could Haul a Train a Mile and a Half Long and is Half the Height of Niagara Falls.

The world's biggest and most powerful locomotive, an American compound, built at Schenectady by the American Locomotive Company, is on its way from the Mohawk Valley to the far west, where it Mohawk Valley to the far west, where it will haul heavy freight on the Santa Fe road, says a New York paper. It represents the highest achievement in locomotive design, the most notable effort of American builders to produce an engine of enormous tractive power adapted to the needs of our transcontinental lines. As a bold venture in massiveness 989's service tests in the mountains of the transmissouri will attract the attention of the railway engineers of the world. The builders of England and the continent judged us insane when we passed nent judged us insane when we passed the hundred-ton mark, but here is a monster, weighing, without the 50-ton monster, weighing, without the 50-ton tender, 130 tons—twenty-one times as much as the historic De Witt Clinton.

From the end of the tender to the point of the pilot, this giant of the rails measures 70 feet. Two engines of 989's type, if they could be suspended in the air one above the other, would reach a height nearly as high as Niagara.

To the top of the stunted smokestack is sixteen feet above the ties, and to such a height does the dome reach that its

is sixteen feet above the ties, and to such a height does the dome reach that its top had to be taken off before the locomotive could pass in safety under the overhead bridges between Schenectady and Buffalo. The massive boiler is perched so high in the air that a tall man can stand under it.

But while the dome is thirteen feet above the driving wheel axles, the center of gravity is very low-several inches below the top line of the drivers. The engine gets its great stability from its below the top line of the drivers. The engine gets its great stability from its massive frames, cylinder castings, driving wheels and driving mechanism.

On a level track 989 could haul a train a mile and a half long, carrying the harvest of 10,000 acres of wheat. Its tractive power is 53,900 pounds—that is, it could lift this amount of dead weight.

Its great wheel base gives 989 this world's record hauling power. Ten massive driving wheels, nearly as tall as a man, and so heavily counterbalanced that they appear almost solid, grip twenty feet of track.

On these ten drivers, which gave the name of decaped to this type of engine, a weight of 232,000 pounds is carried. The pony truck carries only fourteen tons, much of the weight of saddle and cylinder castings being distributed over the drivers by the covaliger heams so distinct. drivers by the equalizer beams so distinc-

drivers by the equalizer beams so distinctive of American design.

To make use of this unprecedented driving weight of 115 tons, 989 must produce steam as no other engine ever has. Following the growing practice among the railways of the southwest, the Santa Regulation of the southwest of the steam of the railways of the southwest. d to a tensile strength of 60,000 pounds to the square inch, is about as big as the bedchamber of a New York flat. Its two thick shells are held together by 2,000 tough staybolts each one e of lifting a yard engine without breaking.

The grate area is 60 square feet, which is unapproached in any other locomotive ever built. The bottom of the firebox reaches out over the tops of the drivers, after the fashion of recent American ocomotives.

The most remarkable feature of 989's construction is the unprecedented heating surface. The other day in England ing surface. The other day in England an eight-coupled mineral-hauler locomotive was put into service on one of the English rallways, and the foreign technical journals spoke of its remarkable heating surface—2,500 square feet, the heating surface—2,500 square feet, the record in English construction.

The heating surface of the Santa Fe's great freighter measures nearly double that of the English record-breaker, or exactly 4,682 square feet. Between the tube sheets 989's boiler measures eighteen and a half feet, and in the big barrel are massed flues two and a quarter inches in diameter. Placed end to end these flues would make a pipe a mile and these flues would make a pipe a mile and a half long.

While foreign builders cling to the double piston rod type of four-cylinder compounds, the Schenectady draughtsmen have evolved a simpler plan. Following the design of powerful stationary engines, they place the cylinders in series instead of parallel, to borrow an electrical distinction.

In 989 the massive low-pressure cylinders are next to the forward drivers.

In 989 the massive low-pressure cylinders are next to the forward drivers. The smaller high-pressure cylinders are directly ahead, a construction which makes one piston rod do for each pair of cylinders. This is designated as the tandem compound. The live steam is first used in the forward cylinders, which exhaust into the 30-inch chambers of the places of safety before the ice gorge formed. The water will have to fall about ten feet before the trolley lines in the city can be started.

Trains from New York are run to Hudson on the main line of the New York Central, and from there pass over the Harlem division to Chatham, where they are transferred to the Boston and Abany for transfer to this city. Trains from the west use the West Shore tracks to Rotterdam Junction, and come in from there on the New York Central tracks.

He turned even walked to the win-I shall even listen to you."

He turned away, walked to the window, and began to amuse himself by humming a tune and looking into the street. She began to play, first absurdly and weakly; but she gradually gained confidence to such an extent that she forgot that she was not alone. Indeed, music to her mind suggested the idea of solitude. When the piece was over, however, her misery returned a hundredfold. He was standing over her. He was standing over her.

"But did you never feel any discontent? Did you never wish to spread your wings and fly?" This was a wonderfully poetic flight for him, and he emphasized it by imitating the process with his arms.
"Never, Monsieur. I was quite content And as for my wings-"

"Then you played to yourself almost daily?"
"Whenever I could. It was, indeed, my great pleasure. I do not know why, I am sure, for I play very badly, I know, an what am sure, for I play very badly, I know, and I never was taught more than what I told you; but somehow, whenever I found myself alone, and with nothing better to do, I used to sit down and play without thinking about it. Very often I did not know what I was playing, or even whether I was playing at all."

"And what did you play?"

"Oh, anything that came in my way. Ah, Monsieur, you cannot think what I sometimes found in that old harpsichord of ours. I think I used to find in it everything in the world. I am afraid you must think me very foolish; but when other girls were reading novels and talking the nonsense that we girls do talking the nonsense that we girls do talk among each other, you know, they never seemed to get so much as I did, in my own way. I used to play the same thing over and over again, and always seemed to get something new and fresh out of it. And sometimes I used to seem to understand everything without underto understand everything without understanding it, and sometimes to lose my-self altogether, and sometimes—" [To be Continued.]

IS BEYOND DOUBT.

Received Wireless Messages All the Way on Trip Across Atlantic.

New York, March 1 .- Signor Marconi, who arrived today on the Philadelphia from Southampton, reported a new wireless telegraph record.
"This time," said Mr. Marconi,
"there can be no error. Capt. Mills and Chief Officer Marsden signed each message received as witnesses. Fifteen hundred miles at sea regular messages were received from the Cornwall station and ticks were recorded at a distance of 2,000 miles. It has been said that my Newfoundland messages were due to my imagination and to atmospheric currents, so I requested the captain's signature to bear me out. "A complete connected message of four words was received from the Marconi system at Poldhu, Cornwall, near the Lizard, when the ship was 1,5511/2 miles from that point. Furthermore signals were taken by the instrument on the Philadelphia, which were sent from the station at a distance of 2,099 miles. With a station on this side equal in transmitting force to that in Poldhu, we could have maintained constant, effective communication ashore during the entire voyage."

Mr. Saunders, the Marconi director, was enthusiastic over the success of their experiments on the trip. "It is a grand triumph for the Marconi sys-tem," he said. "The messages trans-mitted back and forth between the ship and the station at Poldhu were all of a private character, and dealt largely with the experiments we are making. After we lost the Poldhu station, practically in mid-ocean, we did no more, talking until 11 o'clock last night. At that hour we spoke the Nantucket station and sent several messages ashore. We go from here to Canada in a few day to arrange for the putting up of a permanent station at Cape Breton. There will be many strides forward made in the next few months.'

MORE SNOW SLIDES OCCUR IN COLORADO

Fatalities at Telluride May Reach 20 or 25-Many Buried Under the Snow.

Ouray, Col., March 1 .- News has just reached here of one of the biggest snowslides that ever occurred in the Sneffels mining district, about fifteen miles north of this place. The slide came down Thursday morning, and passed so close to the buildings of the Governor mine that the water tank was carried along into the gulch, 1,500 feet below, and the boiler torn from its foundation and turned around. So great was the slide that the gulch was entirely filled with snow and debris.

Telluride, Col., March 1.—A slide occurred today in Marshall Basin, at the Sheridan mine. John H. Johns, a miner, was killed. A slide is also reported at the Gold King mine, south of this city. The tramway was wrecked, but it is not known whether any lives were lost. The number of lives lost in the four avalanches that swept down the sides of Smuggler Mountain yesterday is now estimated from twenty to twenty five. Nineteen men are known to have An unknown number are buried under the snow, and twelve are badly injured and in the hospital. Several other men who are hurt are at their homes. It is believed that few, if any, more bodies can be recovered until the snow melts.

Spring Millinery a Feature of the Past Week-Falling Off in Failures.

IN CANADA.

Toronto. Feb. 28 .- Dun's Review says: Failures in Montreal district are still gratifyingly few, only six insolvencies being reported for the week, and except in one case the liabilities are quite small. Letters received by wholesalers would indicate that country roads, both in the east and west are still unsettled, but general remittances do not appear to be very materially affected. The firmness indicated in cottons last week has taken a much more definite shape, and the Dominion Cotton Company, the Montreal Cotton Company and the Merchants' Company have notified the trade that they can only accept orders subject to adprice for new crop molasses, in Barreduced two cents a gallon. Canned spring for some years. Leather shows a moderate movement, but boot and shoe manufacturers are busy.

The wholesale trade at Toronto this week was fairly satisfactory, in spite of general dullness reported in country retail circles. There was an active demand for spring drygoods, with the tone of prices firm. Country stocks are said to be comparatively small, and as the spring opens the outlook for trade is good. The millinery houses are making extensive preparations for the openings next week. They are receiving large quantities of both foreign and domestic goods, and a very large business is expected. In hardware and metals the demand is active and the tone of the markets firm.

Leather is in moderate demand at unchanged prices. In groceries there is some improvement in the volume of business. About the only change in prices is a decline in sugars. The grain trade is quiet, but prices are relatively firm, owing to small quantities coming forward. Provisions fairly active, with cheese and best qualities of butter higher. Money is easy in Toronto, with call loans on stock collateral ruling at 5 per cent. Prime commercial paper is discounted at 6 to 61/2 per cent. From London we learn that the wholesale spring millinery opening has been the feature of the week. The fine weather has brought out a large num-Philadelphia, March 3.—Joe Bern-stein, of New York, bested Billy Whist-hibit has shown perhaps a greater ler, of Baltimore, Saturday night, in a variety of colors and designs than for some years past. This function is always looked forward to by the retail trade of the west with great pleasure, as it enables them to get a good idea, at very little cost to labor, of what has been provided by the European and York markets, for their mutual benefit and to give pleasure and comfort to the female part of the community. From the interest shown it is confidently expected that a successful season's business will result. Business in general in Hamilton and district shows no special activity, and until the country roads improve retail lines will continue quiet, although a little better feeling prevails this week. The coal situation is still uncertain, and creates some uneasiness in manufacturing circles. Offerings of grain and produce are light, and prices rule Sen

No failures have been reported in the past week.

Spring-like weather in Quebec City and district has helped some lines of business and hindered others. Traveling in certain sections has been hampered by bad roads, but trade on the whole is satisfactory, and collections well up to the mark.

IN THE UNITED STATES. New York, Feb. 28 .- Dun's review: Although the shortest month of the year was further curtailed by two holidays and handicapped by the most severe storms of the winter, industrial and trade results were most satisfactory. The closing week brought out a general resumption of activity in the lines that suffered from the weather, and preparation for an exceptionally heavy spring business was reported at

"To say a pleasant word to anyone was almost impossible."

"I was troubled with female weakness for eight years; and suffered more than I can tell," writes Mrs. Gust. Moser of Ovando, Deerlodge Co., Mont. "My disposition was affected to such an extent that to say a pleasant word to anyone was almost impossible.

"I had two operations performed by one of the most skilled surgeons of the West, but did not get relief." Then, against my doctor's strict orders, I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and also folcovery,' and also fol-lowed the advice viser. "I continued this given in the Common Sense Medical Adtreatment for three months, and to-day am as healthy and well as a woman can be. I cannot thank Doctor Pierce enough for his kind letters to me."

Womanly discases, as a rule, spoil the "disposition," because of the extreme nervousness and suffering they cause. Hap-piness as well as health is restored to the woman whose diseased condition is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After eight years of suffering and two fruitless operations, three months' use of Favorite Prescription" restored Mrs. Moser to perfect health. This remedy for woman's ills, establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures many points, southern cities alone being backward. Crop prospects are considered encouraging, in so far as anything can be learned at this time. Numerous interruptions would account for a considerable loss in railway earnings, yet reports thus far available for February show a decrease of only 8 per cent from last year's figures, and a gain of 13.5 per cent, as compared with the traffic in 1900. More foreign steel has been engaged, and domestic concerns are still bidding in the German market. Footwear buyers are leaving New England without doing much more than a fair ample business outside special lines. As a rule woolen goods are well maintained and in brisk demand. Cereals opened the week with a decided reaction. Statistics of supplies and movement were not satisfactory to speculative holders. Storms have interrupted communication and restricted new operations. Crop news was generally satisfactory, and foreign purchasers were less interested. Failures for the week numbered 215 in the United in Canada, against 31 last year. Bradstreet's report: Current demand is of a full volume for this season of the year, while business on spring account goes forward in large volume. This, too, in the face of unfavorable weather conditions in large sections of the country, interruption to mail and telegraph facilities and the check to transportation operations accentuating older troubles growing out of car shortages. Inclement weather has, however, helped retail trade in rubber goods and boots and shoes. Prices show very little important change during the week. vance at any time. Groceries are yet only moderately active. Sugars were close of last week, contrary to expecreduced five cents a cental on Wed- tations, did not bring to light the renesday, and owing to the low opening ported large waiting business on export account. Corn, among the cepadoes, local jobbing quotations are reals, noted the chief advance of the week. Hog products have been irregtomatoes and gallon apples show much strength, also evaporated apples. Or- also with the movement of live hogs for general hardware, glass, to market. Some reduction in prices paints and oils still come in briskly, in of country produce, notably eggs and fact, hardware men expect the busiest butter, is reported. Iron and steel are quieter on the surface, but consumption remains undiminished. Finished products show no diminution of demand, and the scarcity of steel is still the feature, leading to predictions that imports of this material will be very heavy. In textiles cotton goods appear to be facing a crisis. Woolen goods display good activity, though labor troubles are still unsettled. Business failures for the week number 204, as against 228 last week.

Senator Tillman Says the President Should Stay Away From South Carolina-Maj. Jenkins Declines the Proffered Sword.

New York, March 3 .- The Times Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, of South Carolina, was a caller on Senator Platt, at the Fifth Avenue Hotel Saturday. The talk lasted over half an hour. One of the principal topics of conversation was the proposed visit of President Roosevelt to the Charleston Exposition.

Senator Tillman is said to have been very explicit in his assertion that it would not be politic for President Roosevelt to make a visit to South Carolina, owing to the state of public feeling there over the McLaurin-Tillman incident and the withdrawal of President Roosevelt's invitation to the senator to meet Prince Henry at dinner at the White House, which was followed by the telegram from Lieutenant-Governor Tillman, of Carolina, canceling the invitation to the president to present a sword to Major Micah Jenkins. Less than 30 minutes later a girl named Holiday, living on Simcoe street, was walking down Waterloo. Near the corner of Grey street she was accosted by a stranger, who clasped her mouth with one hand and at-tempted with the other to take liberties. The girl screamed, and the stranger ran, passing near Hill street, a man named Cook, who had heard the screams and was coming to the girl's assistance. Cook's description of the man is the only one which the police have to work upon. On being notified of the second assault, Detectives Egelton and Rider, and half a dozen policemen went out to look for the suspect, but they were handicapped by the absence of electric lights which were out for an hour or more. The police intend to keep up the search and meanwhile it would be well for women to avoid going out unescorted
