BRANT.

A party of Brantford canoeists returned on Friday from a trip down the river from Elora. Two of the members of the party in running the rapids at Elora were badly swamped. They were carried over a small fall into what is known as the Devil's Punch-bowl, and barely escaped with their lives. Their names are Mr. A. D. Hardy, brother of Hon. A. S. Hardy, and Mr. H. Curtis. They reached the bank in a terribly exhausted condition.

A fashionable marriage took place at a private house, two weeks ago, when A. Hardy, son of Henry Hardy, of Brantford, was married to Miss Kate Harriet Brandon, daughter of Horatio Brandon, Brantford, who lived in the house at the time.

The Brantford Baptist Association will meet on Friday night this week. The union of the women's missionary circles in connection with the association will meet at the same time. There will be a number of delegates from Brantford present.

BRUCE.
John Burwash has been drowned in the Bouris River, Manitoba. It is supposed that the drowned man was John Burwash, formerly of the 4th of Bruce, and brother of Sam Burwash.

ESSEX.
The other night Patrolmen Campbell and Stenton heard quarrelling in the house of Violet Litton, 165 West Congress street, Detroit, and forced an entrance. They found inside the house a gang of young women. One of the females was a girl named Ross, 14 years old, whom it appears had been enticed from Windsor to the house. The police took the child to the police station, where she was held. She was being wholly true. He imposed a fine of $50 upon the Litton woman and $25 upon her companion, Lizzie Howard.

The police took charge of the little girl, who was being wholly true. He imposed a fine of $50 upon the Litton woman and $25 upon her companion, Lizzie Howard.

HURON.
The loss of a serious loss, and Harry Wheeler, of Kincardine, is the unfortunate one who has suffered. The heel of a rivet struck him in the eye and knocked it out.

James Johnston, of Wingham, who has been ailing for about ten years with abscess of the stomach, became mentally deranged the other day and tried to put an end to himself by shooting. The wound was not fatal, and a few minutes after he again shot himself in the forehead. The bullet has been extracted, and it is now thought that he will recover, though he is very low.

KENT.
A number of Chathamites were invited to attend the opening of the new Hotel Belair at Courtwright. Among them were Col. Webster, United States consul, Dr. Ray, M. Wilson, C. C., and W. N. Warburton, of the E. and H.

LAMBERTON.
The sudden death is announced at Sarnia on Friday of Wm. Symington, one of the pioneer settlers of Plymouth township, in the county of Lambton. He was known as the "Greatest King of Lambton" and amassed a considerable fortune from operating several factories which he owned. He leaves a widow with five children—three daughters, Mrs. Cattanaeh, of Sarnia; Mrs. Battray, of Sarnia; Mr. Robert J. Symington, of Sarnia; and two sons, Thomas Symington, of Sarnia, and James Symington, of Sarnia.

MIDDLESEX.
Miss Annie J. McIvor, of Fergusson, and Miss Jennie McIvor, of Elmdon, are on a visit at Rev. F. Ballantyne's, of Kirkwall, their former pastor at Elmdon.

OXFORD.
Wm. Thompson, butcher, residing on the Clark farm, just over the 11th line bridge, died Monday morning about 11 o'clock. The deceased was about 60 years of age and well known throughout the town of Woodstock and district.

Rev. J. S. Ross and Rev. E. J. Elliott left Woodstock Monday morning to attend the Methodist Conference stationing committee at St. Catharines. The Woodstock delegates are James Lund, Dr. Bartlett, J. Hippon, J. S. Parmenter and E. L. Dawson.

A team of horses belonging to Mr. Chas. Cryan, of Ellice, were stolen from his stable the other night. The owner thinks he knows where they are and so obtained a search warrant, which was executed by High Constable McCreath, of Stratford.

PERTH.
Rev. J. W. Holmes, of the Central Methodist Church, Stratford, has signified his intention to apply to the president of the conference to be given another station next year. The congregation will ask that Rev. G. F. Salmon, who is located at Brussels, be appointed to the pastorate.

WATERLOO.
The Galt Report says: "On Tuesday night Wm. Paisley was committed to Berlin jail as a vagrant. A few years ago 'Bill' was an active, energetic young man, with good business prospects and lots of friends, but intemperance played havoc with him, and he has sunk very low, neglecting his family and bringing them to the verge of starvation."

The Berlin News says: "It is reported that a citizen of Hoopler went into the other evening and attempted to murder his wife and children, but was prevented from doing so by the neighbors, who were attracted by the victims' screams. It is supposed that he was under the influence of liquor."

How Padewski Lined His Pockets.
Henry I. Flack, the musical critic and biographer of Wagner, furnishes some sympathetic paper in the June Forum. The pianist's total earnings in America this season, he says, exceeded $100,000—a sum never before reached by any instrumental prima donna and rarely equaled by a favorite bel canto. To some of the concerts in the music cities extra Padewski's fee was run from neighboring towns, and another young lady was a special concert for the which the audience spent $1,200. A higher figure than that New York was reached in Chicago, where one concert was sold out a month in advance, while the other received $1 for $2.50 seats.

DESERTED HIS BRIDE

And Let Her Penitence the Fifth Day After Their Marriage.

BUFFALO, May 29.—Mrs. E. R. George went before Judge King Saturday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of her husband, who deserted her at Erie, Pa., five days after their marriage. Mrs. George was 19 years of age, and was engaged as a saleswoman for a Boston house until she met E. R. George, who was at the time of their first meeting employed by the same firm. Her maiden name was Edith in Cleveland. A short time ago he returned to Erie, Pa., and was engaged in a wedding trip and stayed there four days at the Red House. On the fifth day Mrs. George went out for a walk. When she returned she found on her dresser a note from her husband, saying that he had gone away with Nellie, and asking her to think as kindly of him as possible. He took all of her money and her diamond ring and left her penniless.

Up to this time she never entertained a doubt of her husband's constancy. The telling word she received was a letter which he wrote her a month ago and in which he would send her $100. She is living here with friends and intends to prosecute the delinquent husband if he can be found. Nellie is a New York girl to whom George was previously engaged to be married.

All Said She Could Not Live a Month

Now Alive and Well—Thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I must praise Hood's Sarsaparilla, for it is wonderful medicine. I suffered 10 years with Neuralgia and Dyspepsia and fainting spells. Sometimes I would be almost stiff with cold perspiration. I spent a great deal of money for medical attendance, but did not get any benefit until my daughter told me about Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I began to take it. I weighed less than 100 lbs. and was

THE WHEEL.

THE SARNIA PROGRAMME.

If a fast track, costly prizes, and hard work count for anything, then the C. W. A. race tournament at Sarnia on July 1, 2 and 3 will be by far the greatest event of its kind ever held in the Dominion. The Sarnia wheelmen have been most untiring in their endeavors to make the approaching meet the most successful in the annals of Canadian cycling. Their track, which is already the fastest in the Province, has been resurfaced, top-surfaced, and perfected in every manner possible. In the preparation of prizes aggregate in value $1,200, included in which is a $150 diamond offered as a special record prize in the mile open on the second day of the meet; and their entertainment committee is now devising means for giving visiting wheelmen the most enjoyable time possible. In the preparation of their programme of events care has been taken to give every class of riders an opportunity to win fame and trophies. This programme was completed last night, and is now first made public. It is as follows:

First day, Saturday, July 1.—Races commence 2 p.m. as follows: One mile novice, one-quarter mile Canadian championship, one mile open, one mile 2:30 class, one mile Canadian championship, one-half mile open (flying start), two-mile 6-minute class, five-mile Canadian championship.

Second day, Sunday, July 2.—Special church services to wheelmen; sight-seeing in Sarnia, Port Huron and Point Edward; sail on St. Clair River and Lake Huron; short rides over some of the best roads in Canada.

Third day, Monday, July 3.—Races as follows: Two-mile novice, one-quarter mile open (flying start), one-half mile Canadian championship, two-mile 6:30 class, one mile open, three-mile handicap, three-mile Canadian championship, two-mile county race, two-mile open, five-mile team club race (three riders in a team).

This is decidedly the largest and most complete programme ever given at a championship meet. It records are not broken

SPOKES.

In addition to winning the King's prize at Brussels, Sanger won also a three-mile race, making the last quarter in 28 3/5 seconds. He received an ovation in Brussels.

The English papers of last week state that Zimmerman and Sanger, the Americans, were doing fast work in practice at Horne Hill. Sanger is regarded by many of the Englishmen as the more dangerous man of the two.—[Wednesday's Mail.

THE CUE.

CONTEST BETWEEN CHAMPIONS.

LONDON, May 29.—The billiard match between Frank C. Ives, American champion, and John Roberts, jun., English champion, began this evening at Hiley's circus, the close of the play for the night. Ives had scored 689 points. Roberts had scored 1,000. The game is 12,000 points for $2,500 a side. The regulation English table with six pockets was used.

ATHLETICS.

SLAVIN KNOCKED OUT BY HALL.

LONDON, May 29.—Jim Hall met Frank Slavin at the National Sporting Club tonight for $2,500 a side and a purse of $8,500, and knocked him out in the seventh round. The fight was a disappointment to the spectators. Slavin was the favorite in the betting up to the opening of the first round, but from the beginning he made a poor showing.

TRUSTS IN KANSAS.

Trusts have a hard road ahead in Populist Kansas, as witness the following from Attorney-General Little to the prosecuting officers of the State in regard to the paper trust:

"In consideration of the vast injury the people of Kansas have suffered at the hands of the trusts and are likely to suffer, I therefore call upon you to seek out the agents of this great trust and arrest each and every one of them and spare no pains in their prosecution. Let me know and you shall have assistance at once. The Governor and myself will give all the aid needed with pleasure. Please notify me at once of the steps you take in the matter."

The Populist Governor and Attorney-General of Kansas are influenced neither by fear nor favor in their dealings with those who enter into combines in their territory. More power to the elbows of Populists everywhere. The power of Populist legislators comes from Populist voters.

THE PROPOSED U. S. TARIFF.

The lines upon which the new United States Congress will act are likely to be as follows:

1. Taxes upon raw materials and upon such articles of food as can be regarded as necessities will be abolished. The principle of obtaining the largest amount of revenue with the least obstruction to commerce will be kept in view, consequently the greater part of the dutiable goods will not be taxed higher than 25 per cent. A few luxuries (manufactured tobacco, wines, etc.) will be subject to a 50 per cent. tariff, but nothing will be taxed at a higher rate.

2. The duties will be entirely upon the ad valorem system, as they were from 1846 to 1861. The arguments for and against this plan are all well known and have often been discussed.

3. The ad valorem duty upon beer, spirits and wines will be imposed as an inland revenue tax upon similar articles manufactured at home.

4. There will be no specific free list, all commodities not mentioned as dutiable being free. As barley is chiefly used for making beer, there is little probability that it will be admitted free; the duty, however, is not expected to exceed 20 per cent.

This tariff will produce a revenue of $120,000,000 at the least for the first year, and will probably increase.

An income tax upon patents, railways, telegraph and other franchises and monopolies will be resorted to as a means of supplying any deficiency in the revenue.

LEGAL QUERY.

INTESTATE.—A man owning a small lot died intestate, leaving a widow and several children. One son is at home with his mother. The rest are all willing that he should get the house and lot at the widow's death. A person whose land joins the said lot wishes to buy a portion of it. How can he get a good title with the least expense, as he has to bear all the expense? Some of the children live in the Northwest, and all are of age. ANS.—A deed from the widow and children is apparently all that is necessary. There should be no difficulty in getting it, and the expense would depend upon the number of separate executions of it. The wives of any of the children who are married should bar their dower. Better employ a lawyer.

A Sad Surprise.

Widower (to his 10-year-old daughter)—Do you know, Fanny, that your governess is going to get married?

Fanny—I'm so glad to get rid of the hateful thing; I was afraid she was never going to leave us. Who is she going to marry?

Widower—Me.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS: Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

METHODIST Y. P. UNION.

Inauguration of a New Society in Connection with the Church-Sunday School Literature Sharply Criticized.

From time immemorial the conventional Sunday school library book has been a necessary adjunct to every well-regulated institution of this kind, and its beneficial influence has rarely, if ever, been called in question. At a meeting of representative Methodists last evening in Wesley Hall for the purpose of forming a young peoples' union, however, Mr. E. P. Weekes of London South, in a paper on "Literature in the Epworth League," made a delivery indicative of skepticism on his part as to the retention of Sunday school books—the representative, typical Sunday school book—as a portion of the religious education of Canadian youth.

In his preliminary remarks of his paper, Mr. Weekes mentioned the methods to be pursued in the formation of an Epworth League Literary Society. He instanced the organization connected with his church as an example of a well-conducted literary club. This body had read—he enumerated and particularized—a large number of the finest English classics; not, he represented, to drink deeply of these fountains of instruction, but to become acquainted with the beauties which lay near the surface. This club was evidently, from the speaker's statement, Macaulay in its admiration of Bunyan; Carlyle in its predilection for studying the Bible as a sample of noble English, and a follower of Kossuth, the Hungarian patriot, in its predilection for Shakespearean drama reading. From their list of books to be pursued, Mr. Weekes said, such seemingly instructive and morally uplifting works as those of "Pansy" and E. P. Roe were strictly expunged. These books would never lay the foundation for an appreciation of good literature. "Such books," continued the speaker, "are at the foundation of the present widely evinced by young people for detective stories and other wish-washy novels." Continuing, the speaker stated it as his opinion that such fiction was given altogether too conspicuous a position in the libraries of Sunday schools. Books of more universal and permanent value should be substituted. Mr. Weekes' paper was interesting throughout. In his handling of the subject he departed from the usual mode of treatment, and his independence of view appeared to be appreciated by the audience. William Copp's address on "Character as a Factor in Christian Life" was a pleasing effort. His mind seemed to be a perennial fountain of felicitous phrase.

After the Rev. Edson E. Marshall had delivered a pithy utterance, the work of adopting a constitution for the newly-formed organization was entered into with zest. The "Methodist Young People's Union," was decided upon as a name. The objects of the body is to induce greater interest among the membership in the various Epworth League branches in the objects of the general society; to increase their mutual acquaintance, and to render possible concerted action when necessary. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. J. Wattam; vice-president, W. Foot; secretary, Harry Gorman; treasurer, Frank Keane.

The weather seems to be very unsettled. Just think, it is now nearly June, and many ladies—the sensible ones—are still wearing their jackets and some their furs. It has, indeed, been a backward season. Many thought to struggle through with last season's jackets, but since we have laid out our entire new stock on the bargain counter many minds have been changed, with the result that many fashionable jackets are now noticeable on the streets, and bought, too, at prices surprisingly low. We do not want to keep them over. They are moving out rapidly, we are happy to state. These jackets are all this season's importations, and they come in all the fashionable shades and styles. Ladies with balloon-sleeve dresses can secure balloon-sleeve jackets from us, made especially to accommodate the prevailing fashion. The price is reduced on these as well. All are elegantly finished and from the best makers. We could not praise them too much, but you must call and see. Do not miss this opportunity. It is a rare one, as these jackets will all be fashionable in the fall.

British Grain Trade.

London, May 29.—The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: English wheat averages 27s 6d a qr in the country and 27s 6d in London. The sales at the market today the past week amounted to 61,789 qrs. It is believed that the farmers are selling too freely and would do well to hold out until July. Foreign wheat has reached 6d since Whitehead. The arrival of wheat includes 105,000 qrs of California, 20,000 qrs of Australia and 10,000 qrs of Argentina.

Sudden Death of Mrs. (Dr.) Drake.
Her many friends will be pained to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. (Dr.) Drake, which took place at her residence, Queen's avenue, yesterday without the least warning. Deceased had all along been in good health, and her demise was a terrible shock to her husband. She had been married less than three years, and was a daughter of the late Judge Stephenson, of Toronto, and a sister of Mrs. (Dr.) Moore. Her brother was formerly a partner with the late Dr. Fraser here. The funeral will be private.

Foiled the "Detectives."
A man named Cox claims that he was accused by six men in London West the other evening and relieved of some of his money. Thereby hangs a rather ludicrous story. County Constable Mason decided to arrest James Cavanagh on a charge of being implicated in the alleged robbery. He found his man, who wished to see the warrant. Mason put his hand in his pocket to produce the paper, and Cavanagh was off like a shot. It is unnecessary to say that he escaped. About the same time Village Constable Ward arrested Wm. Tierney on the same charge. The prisoner asked the officer to take him home and his mother would go his bail. This Ward did, but the bail was not necessary, for Tierney escaped as soon as he entered the house.

S. of E.
In speaking of the Sons of England demonstration at Woodstock on Sunday, the Sentinel-Review says: "The Sons of England demonstrated in the Dundas street Methodist Church yesterday afternoon, the turn out being a large and representative one. The London contingent with the splendid band of the order numbered about 200 and among other visitors was a fair representation from Ingersoll, St. Thomas and Aylmer. They came to Woodstock by special train at 12:30, and forming in line, marched from the depot by way of Bay and Dundas streets to the market. The visiting brethren were then billeted at the various hotels for dinner and a couple of hours in the afternoon pleasantly spent seeing the sights. At 4 o'clock a procession was formed and marched to the church, headed by the band. Mr. Chaplain was chief marshal of the day. The pastor of the church, Rev. R. J. Elliott, conducted the service, and the local and visiting brethren to the number of about 200, besides many others present, listened to an earnest and able address. The text was taken from Exodus xxxii, 30-35.

Death of Mrs. Welch.
St. Thomas Times: "On Saturday Mrs. Welch, relict of the late Robert Welch, of London, and mother of Mrs. (Rev.) M. G. Freeman, of this city, died of the ripe age of 76 years. Reviewing the Report.
Conference of No. 1 and the L. and P. S. R. Board.

Timely Suggestion by Mr. F. E. Leonard.
Engineer Jennings' Report on the State of the Road Read to an Inattentive Audience.—"What Does the Grand Trunk Owe the City?" Is Still an Unsettled Question.

The joint meeting of the Port Stanley Railway Board and No. 1 committee last night was attended by Mayor Essery, Ald. Moule (chairman), Ald. Coe (secretary pro tem.), Ald. Chas. Taylor, Ald. Carrothers, Ald. Drenney, Ald. Parnell, Ald. Shaw, Ald. Welford and ex-Ald. Judd.

The little spat between the mayor and Ald. Coe appears to have blown over. "I move that Ald. Coe act as secretary for this joint meeting," said the mayor in gentle tones, as he looked over his glasses at the member for No. 2 ward.

"I second that motion," added Ald. Shaw, and thus, with everything smoothly adjusted and without police assistance, the meeting settled down to business.

A letter was read from Mr. F. E. Leonard, who was unable to be present, suggesting that the report of Mr. Jennings, re the L. and P. S. R., be compared with that of Messrs. Shophand and Childs.

"For," the letter read, "I judge from the brief attention that we gave it, that Mr. Jennings is rather low in his estimates of buildings, etc. As soon as you arrive at the amount to be asked of the G. T. R., I should suggest the demand be made immediately, as we will perhaps be called upon to do some repairing on the road ourselves, if the syndicate does not."

A telegram was also read from W. T. Jennings, engineer, stating that if he was needed in connection with the report, to wire him at Suspension Bridge and he would be able to arrive by 10 o'clock on Tuesday night.

Engineer Jennings' report was read, and then a wait was made until the Shophand-Childs' report was forthcoming.

Ex-Ald. Judd—Is any provision made in Engineer Jennings' report for gravel used by the G. T. R.? I heard a report last summer that a large quantity of gravel had been taken by them and used for ballasting the Air Line.

The stenographer's notes on the trip taken by Mr. Jennings were then read. There were 30 closely type-written pages of them, and the aldermen relieved one another as they got through.

At 10:15 Ald. Welford was reading vigorously. Chairman Moule had a dreamy look in his eyes, and the mayor was figuring valiantly. The other aldermen were in different attitudes, some taking notes from the record, or commenting on the quality of Toronto's buttermilk, sandwiches, and cigars, and the possible winner of next year's Queen's plate. There was also some discussion as to whether the millennium of an electric street railway would strike the city first.

Ex-Ald. Judd relieved Ald. Welford at 10:40, and the latter went home. Ald. Taylor had preceded him by an hour at least. The end was reached by the committee was more at sea than ever. "What does the Grand Trunk owe us?" was the question, and an answer was badly needed. Exhaustive as the report and notes had been, those present could form no idea of what was coming to the city. There was $3,500 needed to replace the passenger station and freight house here that were burned in '88. The old city L. and P. S. round-house is at present used as a blacksmith's shop, and three forged for their original purposes, derelict useless for their original purposes. To put the Port Stanley turntable in decent repair it is estimated would cost $2,200 or $2,500. Then there was a little matter of a station at St. Thomas burned in 1875 and never rebuilt. Two thousand might remedy this. But, oh my, the innumerable items along the road! It was simply impossible to arrive at a safe statement.

Mr. Essery advised the resubmitting of the report to Mr. Jennings, together with the Shophand-Childs report, and that he be asked to make a short statement showing what the claim should be from the Grand Trunk, and what for.

Ald. Carrothers—The Grand Trunk took down a station at Pond Mills and one at St. A. Westminister, and erected one at the third.

Mayor Essery (writing vigorously)—Now, that's business.

Ald. Carrothers gave some further information with regard to the gravel said to have been taken from the L. and P. S. gravel pit.

Then Ald. Parnell moved that Mayor Essery and Ald. Moule form a sub-committee to get a specified claim from Mr. Jennings.

Ald. Coe moved in amendment that the sub-committee see Mr. Jennings personally. Either the aldermen wanted to live up to the mayor's auto-election-non-junketing-promises, or else they sought to ignore Ald. Coe; anyway they did not seem to care to go to see Mr. Jennings.

Ald. Shaw was inclined to second Ald. Coe's proposal when the mayor suggested that the sub-committee be composed of Ald. Coe and Shaw.

Ald. Coe then raised the point that there was no quorum. The mayor then made a motion to adjourn, accusing Ald. Coe of raising meaningless objections.

Ald. Coe denied vigorously and emphatically, and when he was through Ald. Carrothers, who had covered those present, drew the attention of the mayor and Ald. Coe to the fact that there was a quorum.

Ald. Parnell amended his motion to admit of Engineer Jennings being consulted and it carried.

Adjourned at 11:15.
