CAIRO RIOTERS THROW VITRIOL INTO EYES OF STRIKE-BREAKERS

GERMANS MUST SIGN TREATY OF PEACE OR BLOCKADE WILL BE KEPT IN FORCE UNTIL THEY GET SENSE

Major-General Maurice Declares Active Resistance To Allies Impossible Now, and the Nation Longs For Peace—Conditions and Outlook in Britain Getting Brighter All the Time.

Major-General Maurice, K.C.M.G., C.B., for two years chief of the British military staff and for a long time, as director of military operations, the mouthpiece of the British military authorities in communicating to the public, through the press, the progress of the war, arrived in the city yesterday by a special train, and was met by a large number of officials, including Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Leonard.

Gen. Maurice this morning granted an interview to a representative of "The Advertiser." He stated that his reason for visiting America was to tell the people of Canada and the United States of the part taken by all the Allied armies in winning the war. It was important, he said, that the viewpoint on the war should be a broad one, and that undue emphasis should not be placed on the accomplishments of one nation rather than those of the others. It was in order to create a balanced comprehension of what had been done by the Allies, acting in concert, that he had come to America.

Understanding Desirable. "An understanding of the part played by Britain and France and the other Allied armies, and the part played by the United States, is to be hoped, will bring better understanding between the people of Great Britain than existed in the past. If such understanding can be brought about, the Anglo-Saxon nations of the world will be the key-stone of a world peace structure."

General Maurice was in France when the armistice was signed, and in Paris during the first few weeks of the conference. Just before he left the French capital on March 2, he said Lord Robert Cecil expressed to him the opinion that the peace treaty would be ready about the first week in May. Present indications were that the estimate would be approximately correct, and in this connection the general said:

No Unjustifiable Delay. "The fact that nearly two months ago Lord Robert Cecil made an estimate which bids fair to be fulfilled is no proof that it would be foolish to expect a decision all in a hurry. We must have patience."

As to the ultimate outcome of the conference Sir Frederick was optimistic. "The Germans," he said, "may object to some details of the treaty. They may, for instance, declare that they are unable to pay the indemnities assessed against them, and may adopt a policy of passive resistance. On the other hand the Germans more than any nation among the belligerents, will desire peace as quickly as possible. They realize that, if they refuse to sign the treaty, the blockade will be maintained and that they will be unable to secure food or raw material which they must have before their industries can resume operations, and unless they can get back to industry they realize that they are doomed."

TEXT OF PEACE TREATY TO BE MADE PUBLIC IN ONE WEEK

Paris, April 19.—The text of the preliminary peace treaty will be transmitted to the press on Friday or Saturday of next week, April 25 or April 26, the Petit Parisien says.

The Echo de Paris declares that in case Germany refuses to sign the preliminary peace a special train will immediately be put at the disposal of the enemy delegates for their return to Germany, and the Allies will take military and naval measures to enforce the treaty.

STATUS OF EGYPT AND MOROCCO CONSIDERED AT SPECIAL MEETING

London, April 19.—(Special cable to the Canadian Press by Leon Trepier.) On Wednesday and Thursday last Sir Robert Borden presided at three important meetings of the British Empire delegations, at which the commission on economic questions, the inter-allied commission on the international regime of ports, waterways and railways and the inter-allied commission on aviation were under consideration. It is understood that certain questions in connection with labor conventions were also discussed but were not finally disposed of.

On Thursday afternoon Sir Robert Borden attended as chief British representative at a meeting of the foreign ministers at the Quai d'Orsay. It is understood that excellent progress was made at the meeting, and that among other important questions, the future status of Egypt and Morocco was under consideration.

At early meetings held yesterday morning and this morning, Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Robertson, in conference with the Canadian ministers regarding the disposal of payment for Canadian surplus food products, the final settlement of certain questions awaits the arrival of a British representative, who is expected to reach Paris this evening.

GERMAN DELEGATES TO PEACE CONGRESS WILL COME BY WAY OF SPA

Paris, April 19.—The German delegates to the peace congress are coming to France by way of Spa, Belgium, to which point they will travel by their own conveyances, says the Petit Journal today. At Spa, however, a special train provided by the French authorities will await them, and their journey thence will be made under military guard. At Versailles a military delegation will receive them and conduct them to their lodgings.

The German representatives, and the newspaper states, will be treated courteously, but will be regarded as enemies by the French people. They will not be allowed to go about as they please, nor will newspapers be permitted to interview them, on pain of being charged with communicating with the enemy.

IN PEACE CONFERENCE

AND NOW, WHAT SHALL BE DONE ABOUT THE CORE?

AMERICAN AVIATOR FLIES FROM COAST TO COAST IN 24 HOURS

Fort Worth, Texas, April 19.—Major T. C. MacAuley, commander of Tailfeather Field, who has flown from coast to coast in 24 hours, at an average speed of 137 miles an hour, arrived here safely this morning.

JUDGE QUASHES TWO CLAUSES OF DAYLIGHT-SAVING BYLAW; OTHERS WERE NOT ATTACKED

Those Which Apply Only To Civic Offices and Employees Stand, While Those Affecting Populace As a Whole Are Declared Illegal.

Clauses 1 and 4 of the daylight saving bylaw of this city were quashed this morning, Judge Denis H. Flannigan, 870 Dundas street, who was acting on behalf of himself and other citizens, was the plaintiff. The city will be compelled to pay the costs of the action. Other parts of the bylaw were not attacked, and so they were not dealt with in court.

P. H. Bartlett, who appeared for the motion to quash the bylaw, attacked it on two grounds. One of these was that it was not read three times, and it was also claimed that a minority of the council voted for it, and nine aldermen being present at the meeting at which it was passed, and only five of these voting in favor of it. The plaintiff also had no authority for calling the special meeting at which the bylaw was passed.

Only a Request. T. G. Meredith, appearing for the city, thought that there was no ground for attacking Clause 4, because it was merely a request.

Following are the two clauses which were quashed: "1. That the hours of the time in the city of London shall be changed by making them one hour earlier than standard time from the 1st day of April, A.D. 1919, during the operation of Canada's railways under daylight time, and shall be known as daylight time."

"4. That the inhabitants of the city of London are requested to open their places of business or employment and close their homes at daylight time, and to have their employees and others under their control commence their employment or work and cease to work according to daylight time from the 1st day of April, A.D. 1919, during the operation of Canada's railways under daylight time."

Some local legal authorities are of the opinion that the city could have and can yet accomplish as much by issuing a proclamation as by a bylaw, this proclamation to state that the city officers and employees were following the daylight saving time and requesting the citizens to carry on their business by the same time as the civic authorities.

Below are the two remaining clauses in the bylaw: "2. That the city officials and city employees shall commence work according to daylight time and shall continue to work according to daylight time from the 1st day of April, 1919."

WOULD ARREST ALL MENNONITE LEADERS AS ALIEN ENEMIES

DIFFERENT SIGNALS OF AVIATORS MAY CREATE CONFUSION

Captain Irvine of Carmania Says Such Arrangement Will Cause Misinterpretation.

URGES ALL HAVE SAME Sopwith Aviators Were Intending To Use White Light for Distress Sign.

Halifax, N. S., April 19.—That there is a mixup in the signals to be used by the aviators at present in Newfoundland, in an attempt to fly across the Atlantic, which may lead to a misinterpretation on the part of ships, was explained by Captain Irvine, of the Cunard liner Carmania, which arrived here yesterday. According to the instructions he received before leaving Liverpool, the wireless message subsequently picked up, the Sopwith and Martinsyde aviators will not use the same signals.

In the instructions the captain received before leaving Liverpool from the Martinsyde people, the following signals were to be used: A white light would mean that the aviators are waiting for their position; a green light that they acknowledge receipt of their position; a red light would mean that they are in distress.

Aeroplane Cannot Send. On the 15th a wireless message was received, stating that the Sopwith machine would be leaving St. Johns the following day (this flight was postponed), and requesting that all ships sighting the airplane to make their position known to her at low speed, and repeat three times. The aeroplane can receive, but cannot send any wireless.

The message stated that a white light would be used as a signal of distress. Capt. Irvine explained that during the war the red light was used as a signal of distress, and if the Sopwith machine was in distress and sent a white light, a ship would be likely to misinterpret the signal. As the aviators were using the same signals, serious consequences might result. A ship could not distinguish between a machine in distress and one which was showing a distress signal which would be taken as a signal for information as to her position.

Door Against the Germans Must Be Double Locked, Declares Allied Commander-in-Chief—Warns Against the Belief That Germans Are As Helpless As Reported—Would Be a Mistake To Give Enemy the Slightest Leeway.

We must stay on the Rhine, Marshal Foch said. "Pray impress that on your countrymen. It is our only safety, and their only safety. We must double lock the door."

Marshal Foch then discussed with the correspondent the possibilities of another war. Asserting that what saved the Allies at the beginning of the present war was Russia, he asked on whose side Russia would be in the next war. "With us or with the Germans?"

MONOTONY WORST TROUBLE IN SIBERIA

No Excitement and None Is Anticipated.

SO SAYS CORP. MAYNARD

Writes Interesting Letter To Capt. Watt From Far Country.

J. M. Watt, until recently attached to the mobilization centre here, and who had expected to go across the Pacific with the Siberian expedition, but was disappointed almost at the last moment, has received an interesting letter from Capt. W. E. Maynard, one of the members of that force, dated from Siberia. Its contents in part are as follows:

Dear Cap.—I suppose that by this time you're just John M. Watt, Esq., enjoying once more civil life in its full extent. I envy you if you are, and pray, don't be sorry to have missed the expedition to Siberia. I do not mean by that that you're having a "hell of a time," only that it's not quite as attractive as we had pictured it.

We sailed from Victoria, December 28, on the S. S. Proteus, a freighter converted into a transport, whose accommodations were rather "mediocre."

We had rough weather nearly all the way across; naturally we were rocked and pitched mercilessly.

No Amusements.

No Amusements.

No Amusements.

We kept on drilling a little. The worst part of the lot is that we have practically no way to spend our spare time in a cheerful manner. We have not even books to read.

We are doing our best to procure amusements, but you know—too tame. We spend most of the time in playing cards. We also have a lot of fatigues to do, and they help in killing time. I am in a machine gun section of No. 4 Platoon, commanded by Capt. Atkinson. He is now suffering from a bad knee. We are not found out yet how much he is enjoying it.

I have been feeling fine all the time. Was not even sea sick. We have had two mails since our arrival, which created the biggest excitement. Was lucky enough to get five letters in each; none from London, though. Are they all dead up there?

We are close to a beautiful bay. The scenery is grand around here. I must close. Writing you the best of luck. I remain, yours faithfully,

W. E. MAYNARD.

SPRING FLOWERS ON MARKET FIND QUICK SALE THIS MORNING

Easter Lily Predominates in Fine Showing.

BLACK RABBITS SHOWN

Attract Great Deal of Attention From Those Who Go a-Buying.

The biggest feature of the market this morning was flowering plants, which appeared in large numbers and every color and variety. The Easter lily naturally predominated, and was being sold rapidly, while many an envious eye was cast toward the flower wagons drawn up to the curb.

Here and there tiny bunches of spring flowers were seen on the farmers' wagons. One large-nosed pig proudly displayed several small bunches of May flowers, which had been gathered in the woods, even at this early date, and were offered for sale.

A litter of coal black rabbits were attracted a great deal of attention. One man, in passing, was heard to remark, "Black rabbits! Aren't they extremely rare? I have never seen them before," and he looked like a sophisticated gentleman of indefinite years, too.

Maple syrup was in evidence, as well as quantities of young onions, radishes, lettuce, etc., in company with the fast-diminishing stores of winter roots and potatoes.

The market was crowded even quite early this morning. With each week, the number of women who carry their baskets to that quarter of the city increases, and the indications that it will not be long before the big summer market will be in full swing once more.

BELGIAN ACCUSED OF EVADING SERVICE SENT TO JAIL TILL WEDNESDAY

"What a Belgian an M. S. A. deserter?" exclaimed Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon in police court this morning when Charles Busche of Cedar Springs, Ont. stood up to answer to a charge of failing to report to the military authorities when ordered to do so. He was remanded to jail till Wednesday next.

"I think that it is a pretty serious thing that a Belgian should be an evader," continued the court, "especially since Great Britain and the other allied countries gave their best manhood to save your country. I don't think that you are deserving of much sympathy."

Still He Chewed.

"The magistrate's speech didn't seem to worry the youth much. He went on composedly chewing gum."

"Perhaps if you took that gum out of your mouth I would better be able to hear your explanation," observed Mr. Graydon. Busche got rid of the objectionable material that was causing his jaws to wag overtime and told the court that he had been at Cedar Springs for eighteen months. He had never received any order to report. He had not evaded the law.

Much Wanted.

Sgt. J. Wilson of the Dominion police stated that some half dozen constables had been after Busche at various times, and had never been able to locate him. He was arrested Friday at Cedar Springs.

Michael J. Burke, apprehended at the factory of the Canadian Manufacturing Company two weeks ago, satisfied the court that he did not try to evade the law. He had been working for the C. P. R. in New York.

PROGRAM ANNOUNCED FOR INTER-ALLIED ATHLETIC MEETING

NEW YORK, April 18.—The program for the inter-allied games to be held near Paris about the middle of June, was announced here today by Dr. George Fisher, head of the physical education department of the Young Men's Christian Association. The list of contests which will require several days to complete, resembles the program of the Olympic games.

There are twenty track and field events, the running races being at standard distances ranging from the 100 metre sprint to 1,500 metre run. High and low hurdle events are included, running high and broad jumps, pole-vaulting, javelin, discus, shot-put and a modified marathon race of 16,000 metres and a cross-country run for individual competitors of 10,000 metres. There are also a number of events.

Team games, both English and American, hold a prominent place and there is a rule that other events can be added where two or more Allied nations enter teams for such competition. Swimming, shooting, boxing, wrestling and rowing for various weights and classes are also included.

Candidates for teams to represent England, France, Belgium, Holland, British colonies and other nations are in training. Later the team squads will gather at one point for final work.

Special trophies for certain exceptional events such as the paralympic are to be donated by kings, presidents, premiers and others of the Allied nations.

Twenty-three Teams Enter W.F.A. at Annual Meeting

London G. T. R. Shops Repre sented—W. F. A. Decides to Affiliate With Ontario Football Association—D. Forsyth Elected President

STRATFORD, April 18.—After having been inactive to any extent for the past three years, owing to war conditions, the Western Football Association is planning for a big step towards regaining its position again in the field of sport. And the step is not being taken without a marked confidence of success.

At the annual meeting held here today there were upwards of thirty-five delegates present, and there was spirit predominating throughout the day's proceedings that the W. F. A. must make up for lost time, and reconstruct itself to meet the changed conditions.

To revise constitution. One of the big steps forward which it is held will have a big bearing on the future of the association was the appointment of a committee to revise the constitution and playing rules of the W. F. A., and make them conform as far as possible with those of the Ontario Association. Up to the present the variance in these rules has meant that each year the W. F. A. has had to cope with a list of amendments, and then when it came to playing off the Ontario finals, W. F. A. teams found themselves at a disadvantage, because the governing rules were not the same. The proposal did not meet with the unanimous approval of the meeting. There were many who held that the Ontario rules were not just ideal, but when it came to a vote they allowed the motion to go through, and the new order of things will be given a trial.

Towards of twenty-three clubs filed their affiliations with the secretary at the meeting. There were fourteen seniors, four intermediates, one junior and four Hough cups.

A welcome band of delegates present were from Brantford, Paris and Simcoe. Their presence is taken by enthusiasts to forecast the extension four teams entered competition, Galt being the winners.

It was decided to send greetings to the Ontario Football Association and the Ontario Lacrosse Association, which were meeting at the same time.

D. Campbell of Stratford moved and J. Rawcliffe of Brantford seconded that the W. F. A. amend its constitution to conform as far as possible with the O. F. A. and that a committee of three be appointed to edit the same.

Sam Law of Galt, who proposed a number of amendments to the rules, expressed a willingness to withdraw his amendments in favor of the motion. However, if the motion was defeated, he desired to press his amendments.

WOODSTOCK FOOTBALL TEAM AND BRANTFORD ELEVEN PLAY TIE GAME

WOODSTOCK, April 18.—The football season was opened here today, when an exhibition game between teams representing the local and Brantford sides was played at the middle of the last period on a nice piece of combination. Woodstock scored in the first half on a penalty kick, Purchase kicking. The visitors evened up about the middle of the last period on a nice piece of combination. Jack McGrattan kicking the goal after the two had been worked up close to the posts. It was the first game for both teams, but some nice combination was worked up, the visitors especially showing the fans some clever foot ball. Coles, on the back division, showed up well for the local soldiers, as did Jack Anderson and Bottoms. The visiting wings were good, McGrattan doing some brilliant work.

FOUR HOME RUNS FOR RUTH

BALTIMORE, Md., April 18.—"Babe" Ruth, of the Boston Americans, who played left field today in an exhibition game with the Baltimore International League team, made four home runs in six times at bat. The other two times he was given bases on balls.

BRANT AND WATERLOO BOWLERS TO FORM BOWLING LEAGUE

GALT, April 18.—A meeting was held today of the bowling clubs from all places along the G. T. R. and L. E. and N. radial lines for the purpose of considering the organization of a trolley bowling league. There were, however, some objections to such an extensive organization and to the long trips that the clubs would have to make, and the outcome of the meeting was that two county leagues will be organized, one in Brant and one in Waterloo, each club to enter three rinks. The winners in the two leagues will play off for the championship. Field days will be held. Waterloo County League will play 21 rinks to play the Brant League in Brantford in June, and the Brant League will play return games in Kitchener and Waterloo. Delegates were present from Brantford, Kitchener, Waterloo, Hespeler, Preston, Ayr and Meno.

TILLSONBURG TENNIS CLUB REORGANIZED

TILLSONBURG, April 18.—The annual meeting of the Tillsonburg Lawn Tennis Club, the first in two years, having been suspended while a large number of its members were overseas, was held Wednesday evening in the council chamber, with a very large attendance, and C. E. Parlow in the chair. The meeting decided to get the courts in shape at once, so as to be able to compete as in the pre-war tournament days. The following officers were elected: President, Mayor H. McQueen; president, Mrs. W. S. McDonald; first vice-president, Mrs. E. McDonald; second vice-president, Miss M. McGowan; secretary-treasurer, Miss M. Galt.

LONDON BASKETBALL TEAM WILL PLAY AT HAMILTON TONIGHT

The semi-finals series in the Junior O. A. B. A. will open at Hamilton tonight, when the London "Y" juniors will play the Hamilton Y. M. C. A. five. A home and home series will be staged, and points will be earned. The winners of the semi-finals will meet Kingston in the finals.

For the past two years the local team has captured the Junior O. A. B. A. championship, and if it falls in the hands of the London "Y" juniors this year the cup will remain the property of the locals.

Coach A. T. Taylor is confident this team will put up a good game against the Hamilton boys tonight. The team is in good condition for the series and has been doing a considerable amount of practicing lately.

The date of the returned game will be settled by the league tonight. The game will be played at the Y. M. C. A. gym some time next week.

The following will line up on the London team: Gordon Henderson, Dunc McLean, "Doc" Climo, Earl Argott, Glabe and George Young. The game will be in charge of a Hamilton referee.

INFILDER MAGEE IS TRADED TO BROOKLYN

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 18.—Infielder Magee was traded to the Brooklyn Club for infielder Larry Roush, according to an announcement from the offices of the Cincinnati Baseball Club here today. Magee did not take the spring training trip with the local team, as the club refused to meet his demands for a salary increase.

It was also announced by the Cincinnati Club management that the demand of Outfielder Ed. Roush for $10,000 salary was not met. "We have offered Roush a contract calling for more money than any other outfielder in the league," Magee is getting," said President August Herrmann, "but we will not pay him $10,000."

BILLIE BURKE, 'FATTY' ARBUCKLE, DOROTHY GISH AND MARGUERITE CLARK ARE STARS IN PROGRAMS AT THE MAJESTIC NEXT WEEK

Big Double Bill Will Be Presented on Monday and Tuesday
—Dorothy Gish on Wednesday and Thursday in "Peppy Polly"—Marguerite Clark on Friday and Saturday in "Three Men and a Girl."

The adventures of Annabelle, as set forth by the inimitable Billie Burke in "Good Gracious, Annabelle," one of the headline attractions on the big double show at the Majestic Monday and Tuesday of next week, are resolved into a very amusing comedy, in which the fair heroine emerges triumphant, plus a perfectly good husband and riches galore.

As a stage offering, "Good Gracious, Annabelle" won instant recognition and appreciation. There is every reason to believe that the film version will meet with similar success. Billy Burke is at her best in this portrayal of a fascinating dancer who flits yowzously through a mist of impending troubles with a naïve disregard of what tomorrow may bring, so long as her wants road yard are heralded as the most exciting "stunts" disclosed in motion pictures—even by the acrobatic "Doug." Assisting Fairbanks in the presentation of these thrills is William A. Wellman, well known ace of the Lafayette Flying Corps, owner of a Croix de Guerre and who has seven Roche planes to his credit.

Majestic patrons may expect to see this production shown at the Majestic as soon as it is released in Canada.

DOROTHY GISH IN "PEPPY POLLY," HER NEWEST PICTURE

Favorite Star Appears at the Majestic on Wednesday and Thursday Next.

Almost anyone will tell you it is not a deuced hard job to be arrested. Dorothy Gish, whose latest Paramount picture, "Peppy Polly," is coming to the Majestic on Wednesday and Thursday next, tells an entirely different story, at least, with regard to motion pictures.

She just had to get arrested in order to have the people who were abusing girls in the Melville Reformatory shown up in their true colors, but although she stole a coat from a pawnshop and ran down a whole block, no one paid any attention to her. Reluctantly she went back and ran down the street again, with no greater success than before, and so she marched back to put the coat away for the third time.

Just as she was putting it back the owner ran out and grabbed her by the arm. A policeman emerged from a doorway and ran to them. But instead of arresting Dorothy, he showed the merchant back into the store and apologized for the way she had been treated. Dumfounded, she went down the street looking for more trouble.

And she finally had to break the show window of a jewelry store with a brick and take out two watches in order to attract enough attention to be put in jail.

But Dorothy says she doesn't think that would happen if she tried it in real life, for every time her speedometer shows half a mile over the limit there is sure to be a traffic officer in sight. Miss Gish is finely supported in this absorbing photoplay, her leading man being Richard Barthelmess.

Winnie the Country Girl and Her Small Town Dude Beau Are Main Characters in Arbuckle Comedy

"Fatty" Arbuckle in his new comedy, "Love," is appearing at the Majestic Theatre on Monday and Tuesday. The story is as follows:

Winnie, a pretty country girl, is courted by her father, a poor old farmer, when all a small-town dude arrives with a letter of introduction from his father, who owns all the farm land adjoining. This letter proposes to Winnie's father that the boy and girl get married and consolidate the two

Scene from "The Unpardonable Sin," showing for the last time today at the Majestic Theatre. An extra feature is a Mack Sennett comedy, "East Lynne With Variations."

Fascinating Billie Burke in her latest film success, "Good Gracious Annabelle," showing at the Majestic on Monday and Tuesday next. Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle in "Love" appears on the same bill.

After a shopping trip, Sylvia returns to camp. MARGUERITE CLARK in "Three Men and a Girl." Appearing at the Majestic on Friday and Saturday next.

"DOUG" FAIRBANKS BIGGEST PRODUCTION AT MAJESTIC SOON

More Than Quarter of Million Dollars Spent on His Latest Photoplay.

Arrangements have been consummated between the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation and Douglas Fairbanks for the distribution of "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo," Doug's first big special production since his contract with that organization expired several months ago.

When the year's release schedule of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation was announced last fall, a series of Douglas Fairbanks' pictures was included, it being confidently felt at that time that Fairbanks would remain his contract for a number of films during the coming year. With the release of "Arizona," however, the contract expired last December and negotiations for the distribution of "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo" were started by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation when Fairbanks started work on this film.

The new Fairbanks production is reported to be his best, as well as most expensive photoplay, the presentation of this story involving an expenditure of $254,000. The picture is seven reels in length and will be handled as a special attraction for longer bookings and with greater exploitation than in the case of previous Fairbanks offerings.

MARGUERITE CLARK AT THE MAJESTIC FRI. AND SAT. NEXT

Dainty Little Screen Star in "Three Men and a Girl."

Ninety days before Marguerite Clark, the most famous "sweetest girl in motion pictures," became the bride of Lieut. H. Palmerston Williams, she declared in an interview that she "never was in love in her life, and that she believed love such an enormous waste of time." Since her marriage, her admirers refuse to accept her as a "Mrs.," and she is still, best beloved of screen stars.

Miss Clark will be seen at the Majestic next Friday and Saturday in her latest photoplay, "Three Men and a Girl," a picture of "The Three Bears," which scored a decisive hit in New York.

Miss Clark appears as Sylvia Weston, a young woman who rebels against her proposed wedding with the rich old man whom she hated, and who later comes in contact with three bearlike men who hate womankind. She is still, however, brought to her feet by the magic of her personality and charm.

The photoplay is one of exceptional interest, and it affords Miss Clark another delightful role. She has few, if any, superiors in her presentation of a delightful girl characterizations, and her admirers have another pleasing hour in prospect, which her characterization in "Three Men and a Girl" insures them.

Richard Barthelmess is her leading

Dorothy Gish, a favorite with Majestic Theatre patrons, will appear at this popular playhouse on Wednesday and Thursday next in "Peppy Polly."

"FOUR JACKS AND A QUEEN" PRESENT HEADLINE ACT AT GRAND FIRST HALF OF WEEK

Classy Singing Act Will Be Feature For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Claire Hanson and "the Village Four" Have Vaudeville Sketch of Mirth and Melody—Three Other Excellent Acts Comprise the Program.

On Monday the Grand will resume its popular vaudeville policy with an exceptionally attractive program of feature acts and one of the season's greatest photoplay successes. The head-line attraction on Monday's Tuesday's and Wednesday's bill will be "Four Jacks and a Queen," a charming young lady, assisted by four handsome young men, who will present an offering which is described as "A Gamble of Class and Harmony." For real classy harmony singing there is no better quintet of entertainers to be found on the vaudeville stage today. Their pleasing voices will be heard in a number of new and old song successes that are certain to win the immediate approval of their listeners. The female member of the group is a beautiful young lady, who not only possesses a sweet singing voice, but also those great essentials to success on the stage—a delightful personality and an ability to wear stunning costumes.

Act of Mirth and Melody. Claire Hanson and the Village Four, presenting fifteen minutes of mirth and melody, is another feature that is sure to please. Miss Hanson in surrounding herself with juveniles has certainly picked four winners, for besides being excellent singers who really harmonize, they have the "ginger" and "zip" that is essential to the character of an energetic school boy who delights to cut up and do things, which a bunch of earnest. The act as a whole is

Cal Dean and Sorority Girls in Miniature Musical Comedy at Grand Next Thur., Fri., Sat.

Another excellent vaudeville and picture program has been booked for the Grand, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, when Cal Dean and Sorority Girls will be the feature attraction. This offering can be richly called a miniature musical comedy, inasmuch as it contains all the essentials necessary as regards plot, pretty girls, funny situations, stirring climaxes, blitting song numbers and pretty music with good clean wholesome comedy of the kind that keeps an audience in roars of laughter. The story has to do with a student, who visiting finds his chum away and replaced with a Sorority girl, this change naturally evokes many peculiarly funny situations.

Cal Dean, as the visiting student, and Marie Fey as one of the Sorority girls, proceed to make things lively from the moment of their appearance until the finish of the act, aided and abetted by a chorus of four charmingly pretty girls who can talk, sing and dance in the most competent manner, as well as wear a number of changes of costume that are chic, pretty and up-to-the-minute in style and character. As an entertaining proposition, the Sorority Girls is the faculty of being an A. No. 1 success, pleasing to everybody.

Jonah and Her Hawaiians is the title of a singing, dancing and instrumental novelty that will be a special feature.

Miss Muriel Thomas, one of the musical comedy stars appearing at the Grand again this afternoon and evening in the big musical success, "The Bride Shop."

Old Bill, Bert and Alf, "The Three Musketeers," in "The Better Ole," the New York production, which will play at the Grand Opera House on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 29-30, matinees and nights.

AT THE GRAND

and that serves to introduce Jonah, "The Pearl of Hawaii," and her troupe of Hawaiian singers and instrumentalists. With beautiful scenery visualizing the "Paradise of the Pacific," a land of sunshine, music and flowers, this Hawaiian act is by far the prettiest one yet sent us from the land of sweet content. The group is composed of five real Hawaiians who are excellent musicians and singers, who play and sing their selections in a manner that transports an audience to the painted shore depicted in the scenery. They are not only masters of their own melodies, but of the latest, as well.

A Clever Farce. A man who, besides being a comedian of exceptional ability, is a pianist of international reputation, and a woman with unusual personality, who sings and does imitations, will present a singing and talking act, entitled, "The Volunteer Pianist." The skit was built for laughing purposes, and, of course, as a player of the piano. In the number he introduces his remarkable trick-playing, as well as furnishing a musical treat that will be most acceptable. Jack and Jill, in a comedy novelty offering, "On the Playgrounds," and Leonard and Haley, in a singing, dancing and talking skit, will be the other acts on the bill.

"THE BRIDE SHOP," A MUSICAL COMEDY, AT GRAND TODAY ONLY

Tuneful Melodies and Dazzling Display of Beautiful Gowns.

A most pretentious production and one that is bound to please even the most fastidious, is "The Bride Shop," the musical comedy in two acts by Fred D'Gressac, author of "The Enchantress," "Road," and "Sweethearts," which George Chios will present at the Grand twice today, matinee at 2:30 and evening 8:15.

In a clever book full of witty lines and funny situations, Mr. De Gressac appears to have given the stage the best work of his career, and this, supplemented by the excellent scenic and musical of D. L. MacGill and Walter L. Rosemont, all of which are interpreted and relayed by a capable company of farceurs, makes a most delightful evening's entertainment.

"The Bride Shop" is a farce—a most

Maxine Elliott, the well-known actress co-starring with William Faversham in "Lord and Lady Algy," which will be presented at the Grand Opera House on Monday, April 28.

NOTED THEATRICAL STARS AT THE GRAND MONDAY, APRIL 28

William Faversham and Maxine Elliott in "Lord and Lady Algy."

The dramatic and social event of the theatrical season will be the appearance of William Faversham and Maxine Elliott in R. C. Carton's sparkling comedy of "Lord and Lady Algy" at the Grand Monday evening at 8:15, April 28th.

Not in many years has so important a co-star organization been seen in this city. William Faversham has long been recognized as one of the leading actor-managers of the American stage and his career has been identified with the best of the theatre. Maxine Elliott returns to the stage after an absence of seven years. According to the best New York critics she is more beautiful than ever and is seen to the best advantage. Supporting these players are Frederick Lloyd, Maud Horford, Mary, Robert Allyn, Philip Leigh, Percy Warran, Evelyn Anderson, Emily Fitzroy, F. J. Fox, Herbert Belmont, Eleanor Benedict, H. Jess Smith, Frederick Raymond and others. Faversham and Elliott have long been a favorite one in large repertoire. He first acted with her in the company under Charles Frohman's management. The comedy has been beautifully staged. Maxine Elliott wears some unusual costumes designed by Lady Duff Gordon, (Lucille), Miss Thurn and an Al Haggins, the New York artist.

delightful farce—brimful of snappy action, interrupted at the right time with the most tuneful melodies and above all as well played. Further, more in the second act, the scene of which is where the play derives its name, there is the most dazzling and bewildering display of gowns and lingerie ever shown on the stage anywhere.

bullies. In this role he adds new laurels to those he has won in such notable measure the last few seasons. Lionel Barrymore plays the swagging, blustering soldier who is the chief cause of the suffering and achieves a distinction that is as rare as it is emphatic. In hand, he wears solid gold rings, so sincere and so great an ovation as that which nightly is accorded these two. The rest of the cast with which Arthur Hopkins is surrounded is equally fine in almost every role. Gilda Farrell, Maud Horford and E. J. Balentine are those who stand out in the notable cast. The play seems destined to take rank as the most notable dramatic offering of the year.

"A Good Bad Woman" is the title of a drama of social problems, now at the Harris Theatre. It is from the pen of William Anthony McGuire, and the play has been a success. It is a story of a woman who is connected with its production. "A Good Bad Woman" is a propaganda play leveled against abortion. It is frank and sincere in its presentation. It is technically known as "comic relief" and it is written with what is called a "comic relief" touch. It is quite unnecessary to tell the story of the play, but it is pleasant to say something of those who play it so well.

Margaret Hinton, Robert Edson, Wilton Lackaye, Katherine Keeler, Richard Taber, Hazel Turney and Amy Langley are the ones of most unusual excellence. To see such distinguished players on the stage at the same time is a treat. But one may be forgiven for wishing the play to which they bring so much might bring even more to them.

Ancient Hindu Romance. "Shakuntala" is the name of the ancient Hindu romance which is being seen in a series of Tuesday and Friday matinees at the Greenwich Village Theatre. The precise date at which it was written is shrouded in mystery, for some declare it is as old as the beginning and others as young as the end of the Roman Empire. But with devotedly faithful attention, the important fact still is plain that "Shakuntala," from the pen of Kalidasa, is even today an interesting and poetic stage story; indeed, Goethe, a hundred years ago, ranked it among the greatest love dramas of all time.

The heroine of Frank Conroy, "Shakuntala," is well worth seeing. The story is about Shakuntala, the daughter of a wood nymph, whom a king meets while hunting, and marries. But at an angry god puts a cloud upon the memory of the king, and when Shakuntala goes to his court to bear his child, he forgets his domestic vows and repudiates her. But the goddess carries Shakuntala through the skies, and then the cloud falls from the king's eyes, and he wanders forth seeking his bride. The play is a romance and hopeless longing. In the end they are reunited. The child is Bharata, the hero of the great epic of the Mahabharata. As the characters are, nevertheless, they're deeply human and present universal appeal.

One who has read the drama in its original Sanskrit cannot refrain from paying tribute to the skillful hand that pruned away the unnecessary scenes, leaving only the vital. Produced by Frank Conroy, who with Harold Meltzer plays two parts, the nineteen characters of the drama are well dressed, the scenes finely staged and the costumes and settings by Livingston Pratt—charming and not over-colorful, which is indeed high praise.

"Come-On Charley" is the title of a new comedy by George V. Hottel, at the Forty-eighth Street Theatre. Very unusual in its methods and distinctive in its treatment, "Come-On Charley" is a laughing hit that is full of surprises. The play is in three acts and five scenes. The first scene is the office of a lawyer who is about to fulfill an old friend's bequest by paying over to the old man's nephew ten thousand dollars. The lawyer has a theory that money makes money, so he decides to make the payment of the ten thousand dollars coincident with an announcement that it is the fortune of a million. If the young man can run the initial hundred into half a million within six months. Now, the lawyer has a daughter and a headache. To his daughter tells his scheme, and when she offers him one headache powder he takes two and drops off to sleep. The three scenes that follow show that the young man actually is on the verge of making good on the conditions. From one of the most solid-looking shoe shops our stage has seen, the young lawyer, who wears the wings of the golden eagle, although he begins by striving to present everyone who comes in with a portion of his ten thousand, it would be spoiling the enjoyment of a very good farce to describe the methods and the manifold tricks by which the young man accomplishes the financial windfall. Yet—if one desired—he might discourse on the farce within a farce disclosed in the plot, but to be brief, the footlights methods of finance are ingenious about to make this farce fun. The last scene, disclosed in a surprise finish which rounds out the story and brings the play to a consistent and laughable ending.

Cast is Excellent. The cast of "Come-On Charley" is good indeed, and every one of the 25 seems thoroughly to enjoy the fun. Chief among the laugh-makers is Frank McCormack, in the part of a small-town sport who is up to the times in slang if in nothing else. The lawyer is played by Charles Abbe, his daughter by Amy D'Amico. The role of the young, Lynn Overman scores very pleasantly indeed.

Blind as a bat, the moral is: "Don't try to play destiny—you can't even make up for it." "Come-On Charley" may not take rank as a great play; but it assuredly is a farce of genuine enjoyment.

CANADA'S REPARATION CLAIM AGAINST GERMANS INCLUDED IN THAT OF GREAT BRITAIN

PARIS, April 18.—Reuter's correspondent says he learns that the British claim for reparations against Germany will include those of the various British dominions and India. At first it was intended that they should be submitted separately. This decision, the correspondent adds, was recently made by the delegation of the British Empire to the peace conference.

The correspondent adds that immediately after the Germans sign the peace treaty, a meeting will be held in London, when an adjustment of the claims of Great Britain's dominions and India will be made.

EXPRESS STRIKE ENDS: DISPUTE TO BE ADJUSTED

Railway Adjustment Board To Deal With Demands—Both Sides Accept.

MEN RETURN TO WORK

Settlement Arrived At by Conference Held at Montreal on Thursday.

MONTREAL, April 18.—The settlement of the Canadian Express Company workers' strike came yesterday, following a conference between John Pullen, president of the company, the strikers' representatives and Senator Gideon Robertson, minister of labor, who had come to Montreal for that purpose. The men had been on strike since Thursday, April 10, and a general strike of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees as wider strike ramifications, had been threatened.

All points in dispute are to be laid before the Canadian Railway Board of Adjustment No. 1, and both parties to the controversy have agreed to accept the award of that body.

The men returned to work this morning. Back to Work and Happy. The entire night staff of the Canadian Express Company here went back to work last night at 7 o'clock as a result of orders received from strike headquarters in Montreal.

"We got our orders from our leaders in Montreal that everything would be adjusted to our entire satisfaction and to go back to work," said one of the 65 strikers speaking over the phone to the advertiser last night. "Here we are and ready for business. Of course, there isn't much being handled tonight, but we should worry."

The men are all jubilant at the way things have gone and look on the settlement as a distinct victory for them.

FRENCH WOMEN TO DEMAND REVENGE FOR DEPORTATIONS

Want Guilty Germans Brought to Justice For Acts.

PARIS, April 18.—A petition asking for the punishment of the Germans responsible for the deportation of women from Lille, Roubaix and Tourcoing, in the spring of 1918, will soon be handed to the peace conference. It is signed by 15,000 women, including Madame Gaston Calmette and Mrs. Anna Roosevelt. The petition says:

"In spite of the most elementary laws of humanity, thousands of women, girls and children of every condition were systematically abducted from their families and were forced to submit to the most odious treatment. We women of France, with bleeding and broken hearts, demand justice from the peace conference on behalf of our martyred sisters."

"To prevent such crimes from ever being perpetrated again, we demand that those guilty of them be punished like ordinary criminals. We trust you will exact full justice from Germany and her allies. We are nearing the anniversary of the day, April 23, 1918, when that odious deed, against which the women of all nations protest, was carried out and the first of the year will not elapse before the guilty are punished, both those who issued the orders from Berlin and those who executed it in the most brutal way."

CLAIM GOVERNMENT AGENT IS AFRAID TO MEET WAR VETERANS

Expected Twice, But Failed G.W.V.A. Clamors For Action.

ST. THOMAS, April 18.—In view of the fact that W. M. Jones, the Dominion representative of the soldiers' land settlement act, has failed to put in an appearance in this city, despite the fact that he has been billed to appear on two occasions, the local branch of the Great War Veterans intend to make inquiries as to why he continually fails to come. It was openly intimated at last night's meeting of the veterans that probably he was paying shyness in evading the question here.

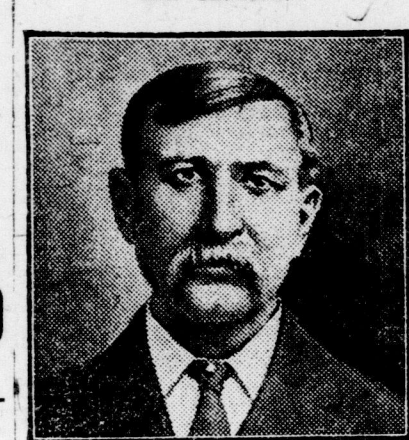

The local branch has a large number of members who are actually anxious to take up a settlement of land at once. Some have been waiting for some months, and in view of the supposed inducements offered by the Government, they have been inquiring. They claim, however, from practical experience that it would be impossible to pay back the money borrowed from the Government on such a settlement on the terms laid down by the Unionists at Ottawa. They forwarded several resolutions to the department at Ottawa, demanding some change, and in reply they were informed some months ago that W. M. Jones, the representative of the Government, would be in the city, and would explain the land settlement act to the local men.

About midday on the last date set for his appearance, Secretary Ward received a telegram stating that owing to illness Mr. Jones would be unable to come to St. Thomas, and he followed this up with a letter, stating that his physician had ordered him to take a prolonged rest.

The veterans received this information with a smile, and as soon as the letter had been read at last night's meeting, Corp. Kay, one of the men who would start work on the land at an early date if able to do so, wanted to know if Mr. Jones was afraid to put in an appearance. It was then decided, however, that a resolution be prepared and forwarded to Ottawa, and that the secretary keep in touch with Mr. Jones and see that he put in an appearance in St. Thomas as soon as his "rest cure" is completed. "What we want is action, not continual delay," declared Comrade Chamberlain. He stated that the Government needed waking up very sorely.

BAY RUM AND HAIR TONIC AS BEVERAGE IS FATAL TO FOUR

Two Men and Two Women End All-Night Party at Flint.

FLINT, Mich., April 18.—Two men and two women are dead here as a result of an all-night drinking party Thursday, in which bay rum and some sort of hair tonic, the identity of which has not been established, were indulged in freely by all four. The victims are: Mrs. Ada Nook, 34 years old; Mrs. Jessie Nestle, 46; Harley Trimble, 35, and Robert Tedhams, 137.

Hicks, barman, and William Bateman, barber, are being held on suspicion of having furnished the bay rum. The prosecutor's office has ordered an analysis of the contents of the stomachs of the victims. The symptoms of all four are said to point to wood alcohol poisoning.

HENRY FORD SELLS HIS HOLDINGS TO GENERAL MOTORS

Transaction Will Involve Many Millions of Dollars.

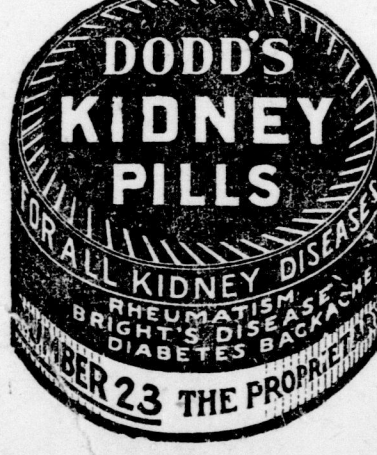

MONTREAL, April 18.—The Gazette has received the following dispatch from New York:

The Henry Ford holdings in the Ford Motor Corporation have been acquired or are about to pass to the General Motors Corporation, according to information in high financial circles here tonight. The amount of money involved was not known in Wall street. It was said in well-informed circles that it will total many millions.

Control of the Ford Motor Corporation would make the General Motors Corporation the biggest factor in the automobile business in the world. This corporation already manufactures the Cadillac, the Oldsmobile, the Scripps-Bow, the Buick, and many other well-known motor cars.

Henry Ford resigned as president of the Ford Corporation on December 31, 1918, and his son, Edsel Ford, was elected to succeed him at a salary of $150,000 per annum. After going into the newspaper business, Mr. Ford decided that his best field probably lay in the automobile business and recently announced he would manufacture an automobile that would sell for even a more moderate price than did his "oliver."

McQUARRIE-NAIRN. GODERICH, April 18.—A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Promptly at 11 o'clock the bride, with her father, entered the drawing-room, which was prettily decorated with palms and ferns, to the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March, played by Miss Adelaide Nairn. The bride wore her traveling suit of rose taupe gabardine, with hat and veil to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and sweet heart roses. She was attended, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. C. McDermid. A dainty lunch was served, the table being decorated with white tulips and daffodils. Guests were present from Brussels, Detroit, Walkerville and Galt. The bride and groom left for Toronto, where they will make their future home.

Highest Salary for Organist Now Paid to Woman Musician

ST. THOMAS, April 18.—Mrs. Myrtle Rice of Aurora has been appointed as organist of Central Methodist Church in this city, and will begin her duties in about two weeks. As a result of this appointment St. Thomas' highest paid organist is now a lady. Mrs. Rice will receive a higher salary than any other organist in the city. She has been for some time at Owen Sound. She is a choir leader of great ability.

MUTINY CHARGES POLES TO HAVE AT KINMEL CAMP ACCESS TO SEA COURT PROCEED IS NOW DECIDED

Gunner Burton Not Guilty of Two Charges—Is Released. Danzig Will Be Internationalized, Decides Big Four Peace Council.

DOUKHOBOR IS TRIED ITALY'S CLAIMS TODAY

Capt. Sawley Accuses Him of Hitting Superior—Defence Is Peculiar. Adriatic Question Will Be Discussed and Conflict Brought to Close.

LONDON, April 18.—(Reuter.)—The Kinmel Camp court proceeded with the case against Gunner W. Burton, who is charged with joining in mutiny by combining with other soldiers to resist lawful authority and to destroy the property of No. 2 camp at Kinmel Park. There was a second charge of having used violence to a superior officer. The accused pleaded not guilty.

The unusual course of sitting on Good Friday was adopted in order to expedite the trials. Gunner Burton, giving evidence in his own defence, was asked about the evidence put in by prosecution to the effect that, during the riots, he spoke about a strike. Burton denied that he had said anything to do with strikes or strike-breaking in the United States or elsewhere, and he did not recollect having mentioned the subject to a sergeant-major.

Major Weyman, for the defence, said there was evidence which established that Burton was not guilty of the riots was hopelessly drunk, yet the chief witness for the prosecution had not noticed it. Major Weyman contended that most of the evidence showed that Burton was on the side of good order in the camp, and that the authorities had released Burton from arrest on the evening of the riotous episode, that they at first regarded him, not as a mutineer, but as an ordinary drunk.

Major Weyman urged that, whatever the accused did, he was not responsible for his actions, and that he had not intended to use violence towards his superior officer.

Col. Rowland replied on behalf of the prosecution, after which the court adjourned to consider the evidence in private.

Found Not Guilty.

Gunner Burton was found not guilty on all charges and was released from custody.

Pte. Charles Sherstoftoff, a Russian Doukhobor, pleaded not guilty to charges of joining in a mutiny and striking a superior officer. By arrangement with the agent-general for British Columbia, Capt. George Black, former commissioner to the Yukon, defended the accused.

Capt. George Sawley, of the 12th Reserve Battalion, C. E. F., stated that while getting a crowd of soldiers away from the women's quarters, two men aimed blows at him, one with a tin can and the other with a two-by-four plank. He knocked down the former, but the latter, whom he regarded as the ringleader, he did not touch. He struck him on the shoulder, a man came from behind and knocked down the accused with his rifle.

Russian's Defence.

The accused denied the charge on oath, declaring witnesses for the prosecution were mistaken. The defence in Sherstoftoff's case was that it was one of mistaken identity and that he was a poor, ignorant foreigner who had accepted the responsibility of citizenship in the country of his adoption and had fought as a volunteer.

Sentence will be pronounced.

SANDERS EXPLAINS STATEMENTS; DENIES INCLUDING VETERANS

ST. THOMAS, April 18.—Speaking in the resolution demanding a public apology passed last night at the meeting of the local branch of the G. W. V. A., Ald. Sanders in conversation with The Advertiser today, denies ever having used such statements as he is credited with at that meeting.

"I have always done, and always will do, as much as anyone else for the returned men, but when it comes to suggesting that they be engaged in sweeping the streets to take the place of the men on strike, I never thought of such a thing," Ald. Sanders explained that what he actually said was that he thought 25 cents per hour too much for street sweepers. He said that the men at present employed on the streets were old men, many of them pensioners; that they were glad to get the work and that it was necessary to get younger men. He wanted the old men kept on the streets at a small wage, rather than dismiss them and pay bigger money to young men.

"Some one suggested that probably the returned soldiers would take the work," declared Ald. Sanders, "but I did not think that returned men would want the work."

The men at present employed on the streets are pensioners from local railway shops, and Ald. Sanders says that he still believes that there are plenty of men out of work in the city who are continually raising wages to keep the old employees on the job.

PARIS HAS BOLSHIEV PAPER; CENSOR'S ACTION SUGGESTED NEW TITLE

PARIS, April 18.—The first Bolshiev newspaper in France appeared today under the name Le Titre Censure (The Title Censored), as the title originally proposed, Le Bolshiev, had been prohibited. The paper is a weekly, and is edited by George Anquet, who in an editorial proclaims himself a Bolshiev doctrine. The editor says he will undertake a defence of Bolshievism. He denounces the present condition of human society.

EVANGELICAL SESSION CHOOSES DEACONS

TAVISTOCK, April 18.—The Thursday sessions of the annual conference of the Evangelical Association in progress at Zion Evangelical Church here were largely taken up with purely conference business. The many committees were busy in preparing their reports for presentation to the conference. At the morning session the following were voted their ordination as deacons: J. N. Wettlaufer of Tavistock, and M. G. Gell of Selkirk.

Rev. C. House, agent for the Church Publishing House at Cleveland, Ohio, at the afternoon session gave an instructive address with respect to the publishing interests of the church.

Rev. Canon Tucker of London, representing the Social Service Council of Canada, also addressed the conference in the interests of this work.

A session of special interest was held on Thursday evening, when "The New Forward Movement" was explained by Rev. B. R. Wiener, Naperville, Ill., general field secretary, and by Bishop Q. H. Harncliffe, D.D., of Cleveland, Ohio.

IF HUNS WON'T SIGN.

PARIS, April 18.—(Havas.)—Military experts under the direction of Marshal Foch have been charged with the drafting of a report on what should be done in the event that Germany refuses to sign the treaty of peace. It is indicated that the methods of coercion which the Allies would adopt may include the occupation of more German territory, the blockade of enemy ports and the discontinuance of the dispatch of food supplies to Germany.

PARIS, April 18.—With the return of Premier Lloyd George, the council of four comprising the British, French and Italian premiers and President Wilson, resumed its deliberations today.

The council held both morning and afternoon sessions, occupying itself chiefly with the question of the disposition of Fiume and to the problem of Danzig. It developed today that contrary to the plan originally contemplated, there will be no German text of the peace treaty.

Corridor to Sea.

The Polish-German boundary question is finally disposed of by the council of four this morning. No announcement was made of the decision, but it is understood that Danzig will be internationalized, while the Poles will have a corridor running from that city to their frontier, to give them access to the sea.

Only routine work in connection with the coming of the German delegates was taken up in the afternoon. The most important remaining question to be settled is that of Jugoslavia and Italian claims in the Adriatic. This matter will come up tomorrow, with Baron Sidney Sonnino, the Italian foreign minister, probably present to set forth the Italian case. It was said tonight that the council of four intends to settle this conflict at tomorrow's session.

GERMANS WON'T OPPOSE.

The Associated Press review of the international situation says: Little opposition to the peace terms is expected from the Germans, according to the latest reports in circulation in Paris, as they are declared to have accepted the terms of the treaty. It is asserted that there is to be no such thing as a German document to be issued only in the French and British languages.

BUILDERS TO BLAME FOR SHORTAGE OF HOUSES, SAY BROKERS

ST. THOMAS, April 18.—The need for greater housing accommodation in this city was never so keenly felt as at present, according to local real estate men. The present boom, W. T. Black, a local broker, states, is not for speculation purposes, but houses are being bought out of necessity. He states that property is not going to drop, but will continue at present high prices, and may even increase in value. It is absolutely imperative, however, that extensive building operations be started at an early date, he says.

Real estate men do not believe that high prices of material are responsible for the shortage of houses, but attribute it to the lack of interest in local builders.

Each New Day Brings a Better Maxwell

MOST anyone would think that after building 50,000 motor cars on one chassis plan that close on to perfection would be reached.

That is true in a large measure; but it happens to be only the point at which the Maxwell executives began.

They decided to keep on building Maxwells better and better as each new day went by.

The locomotive engineer drives his engine better every day. The banker who loans money does so with more and more judgment. The man at the forge—likewise.

This is the principle on which the Maxwell is built. It is not new in the business world. But it is sound.

And to-day, with 300,000 Maxwells built on this plan, anyone will readily understand—

Why a Maxwell runs on and on and never quits with age;

Why a Maxwell seldom turns in at a repair shop;

Why a Maxwell is so eagerly sought for in the second-hand market.

One of the last of more than 1000 improvements made since the first Maxwell was built is the appearance.

Let your eyes glance over this present day Maxwell and you'll think the price $200 more than we ask for it.

QUERIES REGARDING MILITARY SERVICE

Address Your Problems to the Military Editor of The London Advertiser and They Will Be Answered From Our Own Information.

PELCE ISLAND: Q.—1. I am a farmer 62 years of age, and have about 200 acres of land, with only one very young son to assist me. I have a son in the army who was drafted last May. Is there any possibility of him getting home if I were to pay his fare?

A.—Where can I write regarding this matter as I need him very badly at home?

A.—Yes.
2. Write to A. A. G. M. D. No. 1, Volunteer Barracks, London, Ont., giving full particulars of case, and include your full name, date of enlistment, present unit, regimental number, and rank. The case will then be referred to Ottawa for consideration, and if a decision is reached in favour of your son, his return to Canada will likely be arranged for the near future.

KNACK READER: Q.—1. I enlisted in the Canadian army on January 4, 1916, and served in England only. I was returned to Canada and discharged in March, 1918, and received three months' post-discharge pay on discharge, the first time. How much more service gratuity am I entitled to when discharged again?

A.—Will I receive it on being discharged or will I have to wait for same?

A.—Up to the present you have served in both enlistments more than two years (about 33 months) and less than three years, which you will receive 132 days' pay and allowance at a minimum rate of $100 per month for a married man, and minimum rate of $70 per month for a single man. If before being discharged your service totals three years or more you will receive 153 days' pay and allowance at the same rate, minus post-discharge pay already received.

2. On discharge you will receive the first month's war service gratuity, and monthly payments will follow until the amount to which you are entitled is received.

MOTHER: Q.—My son's address in England is Machine Gun Section, Third C. C. D. Battalion, Sussex, England. What Canadian division is he in, and when should he be home?

A.—This unit is the Canadian Cavalry Depot, and is not attached to any particular division. The strength is a floating one—that is to say, as members of the various units are sent home as casualties, they are assembled at this depot, and later sent out to the fighting line as reinforcements. Your son will not return to Canada with this particular division, but will be returned with miscellaneous details, although the exact time of his return cannot be known to the military authorities in Canada. It is likely that he will return in the near future, but further than this there is no official information available at this office.

WAR WOMAN: Q.—1. My husband enlisted in the Royal Canadian Dragoons of Toronto in December, 1916. He proceeded to England and was later transferred to the 20th Canadian Battalion. He saw heavy fighting in France. How much war service gratuity is he entitled to?

A.—It is only wounded soldiers who receive a pension.

2. No. In addition to wounded soldiers, men suffering from disabilities resulting from injuries received in accidents, and as a result of service, are also entitled to pension, provided that the disability was due to service in the army.

M. D. Q.—1. My husband enlisted in August, 1914. He was killed in December, 1915. Am I entitled to any war service gratuity, as he had ten months' service in England and six months' service in France?

A.—Are mothers who receive pension entitled to war service gratuity the same as wives?

A.—To whom should I write regarding same?

A.—Yes. Regulations under the war.

IF THE HEAVENS WEEP, SHE WILL WEEP, TOO!

EDUCATION COST IN LONDON BELOW THAT OF OTTAWA AND TORONTO FOR THE YEAR 1918

Inspector Edwards Compiles
Figures Showing Average
Here Per Enrollment Is
$32.64.

Inspector C. B. Edwards has prepared a statement comparing the cost of education per pupil in London with that of Toronto and Ottawa. In the following extract he also outlines the methods of arriving at the cost of education.

As yet no uniform system of estimating the cost of education in rural and urban districts has been formulated and approved by the department of education, as is done in the United States by the national bureau of education.

The annual reports of the 122 cities disclose a variety in the methods of estimating the annual cost per pupil in the public schools.

Business practice would seem to indicate that the logical way to arrive at the desired result would be to include the salaries of all persons employed by the school board, either in the administrative departments or in teaching, in the maintenance of the school plant, fuel, repairs and improvements, light, water and all the services necessary to education, and authorized by the school law.

To these expenditures should be added the amount paid for interest on debentures and sinking fund payments. All expenditures of capital, i.e., for building and equipment should be provided for by the debenture issue.

Having ascertained the total expenditure for the year, there remains the problem of selecting the divisor. Three methods have been adopted for this: (1) The total number enrolled for the calendar year. Most cities do this. There is, however, a more business-like method, i.e., of using the total number enrolled for the month of November, based on the average cost per pupil for the year.

In the financial report of the city of Toronto, 1917, the following information is obtained: It must be explained, however, that in the method of estimating the annual cost per pupil, based on the total enrollment for the year, the amount expended for interest on debentures and sinking fund is deducted, and even then the annual cost per pupil is given as $43.58.

In the financial report of the annual charges for sinking fund and interest on debentures amount to about one-third of the total operating charges, and if this ratio be added to $43.58 it would amount to approximately $68 per pupil.

In the report of the senior inspector of the Ottawa public schools for 1918, the average cost per pupil in the grades, based on the enrollment for the month of November, is given as $36.01, while in the kindergarten classes the average cost, based on the average enrollment, is $34.22. The nearest approach that can be made to compare with Ottawa public schools in the matter of cost would be to use as a divisor the average monthly enrollment, and include the kindergarten with the public schools. This would give for London an average cost per pupil of $40.20.

KEMP WILL VISIT THE FOURTH DIVISION AND CANADIAN BATTLEFIELDS

WINDSOR PHYSICIAN SINKING.
WINDSOR, April 18.—Physicians in attendance upon Dr. Richard Carney, who was stricken with paralysis several weeks ago, state tonight that the patient's condition is very low and his death seems but a matter of hours. Dr. Carney is over 70 years of age.

but let us have liberty, who are worthy of it and not more of it.

Yours respectfully,
R. B. S.
THE PUBLIC AND THE
RETURNED MAN.

[Press Department, Repatriation Committee.]

If the disabled soldier is to achieve useful, comfortable and self-respecting employment, the public must have a sympathetic understanding of the problem of re-education and the program of rehabilitation.

The rehabilitation of the disabled soldier is the responsibility of every family, every employer and every individual in the community. It is necessary to see the hopeful aspect of disability and ignore the depressing. The importance to the disabled soldier of vocational training for self-support should be appreciated by all, and the soldier should be encouraged to take advantage of it.

The public must get behind the plans for re-education and make them successful. Friends of the disabled soldier during the course of training should encourage him at every turn. This will maintain a proper morale and help the disabled soldier to win through.

Through generosity individuals are apt to do things that tend to pauperize the returning man and put a barrier upon him in his honest desire to be successful through the usual channels of opportunity. Successful crippled and blind men testify that the handicap of public opinion is a greater obstacle than amputation, limb or loss of sight. If the disabled soldier is to be restored to self-respect and self-support, the public must assume the right attitude of mind.

In a circular issued by the Red Cross in the United States a square deal is asked for the disabled soldier. It says that, in the past, people have assumed him to be helpless and have only too often persuaded him to become so. It turns upon him the responsibility of his own needs in the kind of job he is fitted for and training in preparation for it. The individual duty is to find the disabled man a good, busy job, and encourage him to tackle it, for the disabled man who is handicapped is no longer handicapped.

In another statement the duty of the employer in reconstructing the disabled soldier is emphasized. His duty is to study the job under his jurisdiction and determine which might be satisfactorily held by disabled men; to give disabled men the preference for these jobs; to utilize to the greatest extent possible labor which would otherwise be unproductive; to do the returned soldier the honor of offering him real employment, rather than proffering him the indignity of a charitable job.

It is the duty of every citizen, who is interested in the reconstruction of returned citizens and the country, to do his bit in educating his fellows to regard the disabled man as a useful, comfortable and self-respecting citizen. And it is the duty of every citizen to help him get it as soon as possible.

SARNIA'S MONEY BYLAW.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:—I notice in today's issue of The Advertiser a statement to the effect that the money bylaw to be voted on at an early date was to provide funds for the repair of Sarnia's street railway. This is a mistake.

I will, with your kind permission, state what it is intended for. Between ten and fifteen years ago a considerable length of pavement was put down on the most traveled street and this pavement was surfaced with what was supposed to be asphalt blocks. This surfacing has not stood well and is now some times worse than others. The first intention was to repair only the worst portions and some of the best of that pavement, but it is now evident that it will all require renewal. It is now certainly well at very early date, and the city council has deemed it wise while the Warren Paving Company have their plant here to have the whole of the so-called asphalt block pavement resurfaced with sheet asphalt. As, however, there are only funds on hand sufficient to do part of that work, it requires the consent of the property owners qualified to vote on money bylaws before sufficient money can be raised, and this is what is being submitted to them at the present time. Thanking you in advance for this correction, I remain, yours, etc.

WILLIAM NISBET,
Mayor.

Sarnia, April 17th, 1919.

E. C. COMMISSIONER.

VANCOUVER, April 18.—The provincial executive council has appointed Mayor Leslie of Vancouver to be chairman of a committee to be appointed to investigate the situation of the utilities commission for British Columbia.

The Sovereign Porcupine Mines Limited

has heretofore been the subject of a few plain, explicit statements. In all these we have aimed at absolute accuracy. But it is pleasant to have official authority to support our claims for this great property. Incontrovertible facts are detailed in the third special report on Porcupine by the thoroughly competent and entirely disinterested geologists of the Ontario Bureau of Mines. This report, with its accompanying geological map, shows that there are two kinds of lavas or volcanic flows, one a coarse-grained, non-pillow lava; the other dense, heavy, fine-grained, and exhibiting considerable fluidity. In fact, it is called pillow lava owing to pillow shapes thereon, due to fluidity when cooling. It is high in iron and low in silica or quartz. The non-pillow lava is higher in silica and lower in iron, and besides it is much more friable. It yields readily to vein formation and therefore it is the most favorable for gold.

The Bureau of Mines shows that the preferable non-pillow lava occurs on the Hollinger Consolidated and the Sovereign Porcupine. It occupies an ancient volcanic vent about one mile long by a quarter of a mile wide. This is the only occurrence of this great gold bearing formation shown on the Government map. Therefore, the Sovereign and the Hollinger are linked together by official authority.

Should the Sovereign Mines develop according to the most accurately defined indications, the company could pay, in proportion to capitalization, dividends equal to the Hollinger Consolidated.

On 1st January, 1919, the latter had established a production record of $25,480,753. Its dividends were $9,424,000, and its total operating profits $13,379,074. The great mine was, however, severely handicapped by the war. Adequate labor was not available, and steel explosives, chemicals, and in fact, supplies of all kinds, were abnormally high.

Before the end of this year there will be about 2,500 men on the pay roll. The gross output will be at the rate of $10,000,000 per year, and earnings over $5,000,000 can be easily maintained. This is more than those of the two largest Canadian banks. The Hollinger Consolidated is, in fact, the greatest gold mine in the world, and the Sovereign has actually a part of the same rich territory. There is significance in proximity to this big mine, for the special enrichment on the one extends also over the other. Dollar for dollar of shares, the prospects of the Sovereign are today fully equal to those of the Hollinger Consolidated.

Sovereign treasury stock is being offered at the present time at 30 cents per share. This is less than one-third of the par value. Every condition is favorable for the Sovereign property becoming a profitable producer, and we recommend the stock for investment. For further information regarding the Sovereign, fill in the accompanying coupon and mail same to us without delay.

Chicago, April 18.—Corn prices took a decided upturn today, influenced by rapid absorption of wheat supplies and by the unlikelihood of stocks of corn. Forecasts of unsettled weather tended also to stimulate bullish sentiment. Week-end adjournment of trade was a handicap to the bears. Opening prices, which ranged from 3/4¢ off to 1/2¢ advance, were as follows:

PROVISIONS.
Chicago, April 18.—Provisions reflected the advances in grain. At first, however, the market was weak on absence of support.

WALL STREET REVIEW.
New York, April 18.—Trading in the stock market this week interrupted by the stock market's recess, was of a two-sided character, suggesting an over-bought or over-sold condition. The pace continued very rapid, however, much of the news and attendant developments accelerating the advance which began some two months ago, mainly as a result of buying orders from interior points.

Rails and steels again failed to move with the general current, the former probably because of conditions which have been furthering the steel market, and net returns, and the latter chiefly because of the existing price deadlock, attributed to the federal railway administration.

Money considerations were nominal, in the sense that little time money was available, though unchanged. Foreign exchange continued quiet, with no tension in countries of the Entente, notably France and Italy.

WALL STREET.
New York, April 18.—Trading in stocks today was enlivened by further substantial gains in many speculative issues, notably shipping, equipment, oil, motors and food shares. Gains of 10 to 20 points were recorded in demand for American International, Atlantic Gulf, Marine preferred, Harvester, Steel, United States Food Products, Wilson & Co. Hide and Leather preferred, and International Paper. United States Steel gained over a point, but was held by a heavy selling pressure on its own account, and sagged on light offerings. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 650,000 shares. Most including Liberty issues, were variable.

WILLIAM FARNUM IN 'THE RAINBOW TRAIL' AT PATRICIA SOON

New Photoplay Is Sequel to
"Riders of the Purple Sage."

When a great writer produces a new masterpiece the whole reading world rushes to get copies of it. It is the talk of every book-reading centre. A like feeling comes when we speak of William Farnum's latest photoplay masterpiece, "The Rainbow Trail," which will be presented at the Patricia on May 5, 6, 7.

Mr. Farnum's reputation for good, clean, thrilling dramatic pictures cannot be equalled. "The Rainbow Trail" is a sequel to "Riders of the Purple Sage," both of which are books written by Zane Grey.

Mr. Farnum, as usual, does splendid work in the dual role he plays in "The Rainbow Trail." He makes the love theme stand out, and gives it a heart which thrills with sentimental interest. He fights for himself and for those he loves as only William Farnum can fight on the screen.

Cop Spoils Lad's
Purchase of Smoke,
Presumably for Dad

He was a small boy, five years old and could not talk plainly enough to be understood by strangers. So small was he that one feared he might be lost in the crowd that thronged the streets on Wednesday night. When first seen he dodged out from behind a lamp post at the corner of Dundas and Wellington streets about 9 o'clock. A passing auto struck him, but he was uninjured and after the little excitement had cleared away he resumed his journey towards the great white way of Dundas street, between Wellington and Richmond street. In his chubby little arms he hugged a cigar box. One was reminded of the story of Mark Twain, who was accosted by a matronly woman when carrying a cigar box down the street and told that he was smoking too much. The humorist was not to be caught, however, and insisted that he was simply moving to another boarding house and the little box contained all the earthly possessions that he valued.

Not heeding the passers by, who stopped to gaze on the youngster, he dodged in and out of the fruit stores along the blocks. He appeared to be collecting souvenirs of some sort. Possibly he was gathering stray fig leaves to send to the Fiji Islanders, so that they might protect themselves from the sun. At any rate, he was meeting with considerable success in his mission, whatever it was. This could be gathered from one look at his smiling countenance as he trudged along the street.

One kindly old gentleman pressed a Canadian nickel in the lad's hand. Without bothering to attempt to show his appreciation, the kiddo beat it for the nearest cigar store, which happened to be in a pool room. Standing in front of the show case he pointed his fat little finger towards a cigar and held up the coin which had been given him. He could not make himself understood by talking, but he clearly indicated what he wanted. Whether he wanted to buy a present for dad or not could not be learned, for just at this time a "cop" happened on the scene and took him in charge. He was taken over to the police station, where a call was received from his anxious parents, who had been searching for him for some time. His father came down for him and the lad went home, and for many moons he will regale his companions with the story of how he did the night sights of London "all by myself."
