TROUBLE BREWING FOR THE JUNKERS

German Government Warned That Unless the Demands of The Reichstag for Reforms Are Granted Strong Measures Will be Taken.

Copenhagen, Aug. 31.—A warning that unless the German Government heeds the demands of the Reichstag for reforms, a majority of the parties will take strong measures, was given before the Reichstag main committee Wednesday. Resolutions of the majority introduced by Dr. Karl Heine, Socialist, demanded for the fourth or fifth time the abolition of political censorship and limitation off military censorship to facts connected with the conduct of the war and criticism thereof. This was held to be necessary, because it is notorious that military authorities exercise a sweeping political censorship on the German press on the pretense that publications of a political nature may affect the military spirit of the people.

Dr. Heine gave the government four weeks until the assembling of the Reichstag to mend its ways. Otherwise, he said, the Reichstag majority would be forced to take steps. The government has received some half dozen earlier warnings of a similar nature and its response in the present instance will not be an unfair test of the influence of the present majority in the Reichstag.

Speeches and pronouncements of Emperor William were criticised in the debate on the censorship. Mathias Erzberger Centrist leader, and Dr. Heine called attention to the effect caused by the Emperor's impulsive statements which sometimes run counter to the ostensible policy of the government.

PREPARING FOR NEXT BIG BLOW

British and French Artilleries Are Making Ground Ready for a Forward Thrust in Near Future.

London Aug. 31.—None of the three big campaigns now in progress on the western front seems again to have got into full swing. General Cadorna, whose great drive for Trieste is perhaps the most spectacular of the current operations, is displaying an activity more pronounced than either General Petain or Field Marshal Haig in their respective fields near Verdun and in the Arras-Flanders areas. Even the Italian commander, however, apparently is in the midst of one of the pauses characteristic of virtually all the great drives against strongly-fortified positions in this war.

On the front below Lens Field Marshal Haig reports the repulse of a German raid on the British lines five miles southeast of the city. No mention is made of the activities on the British side but, the War Office intimates that the artillery battle is being carried on in virtually continuous form in preparation for the next forward thrust, with every indication that the wearing down process is having its due effect on the Germans.

General Petain's report indicates the possibility of a speedy renewal of the infantry battle at Verdun. The artillery on both sides of the Meuse is actively bombarding the German lines. The Germans have shown some activity in Alsace making an attaek near Hartmanns-Weilerkopf, which French troops repulsed completely.

Although the British armies on the front in France and Belgium were engaged in much notably heavy fighting during August including the great attack of the Anglo-French forces in Flanders the casualties were notably fewer than during July. The total published British figures during August were 58,811, as compared with 71,832 for July, a falling off of more than 12,000. The casualties, indeed, have been on a descending scale during the entire period since the active campaigning season opened, the high mark being set in the May figures, which totalled 112,233.

London, Aug. 31.—The repulse of a German raid on the front below Lens was reported by the War Office today. The report reads:

"The weather is unsettled. During the night the enemy heavily shelled our forward positions near Arleux-en-Gohelle (five miles southeast of Lens) and at an early hour this morning attempted to raid our lines. The German troops were repulsed completely."

Paris, Aug. 31.—"East of Cerny a German patrol which was attempting to approach our lines was repulsed by our fire," says an official report issued here today. "There was active artillery fighting on both banks of the Meuse. In Alsace an enemy attack south of Hartmanns-Weilerkopf was repulsed completely. There is nothing to report from the remainder of the front."

SEATTLE SHIPBUILDING STRIKE ON WEDNESDAY

Seattle, Aug. 31.—A strike of more than 12,000 workers in Seattle shipyards and plants engaged in manufacturing shipbuilding material to enforce the demands for a general increase in wages, was set for next Wednesday by officers of fifteen affiliated unions of the Seattle Metal Trades Council in executive session today.

HUNS WILL USE POLISH TROOPS

Vigorous Attacks by Allies on the Western Front Compels Germany to Make Use of Army Raised in Captured Russian Territory.

Amsterdam, Aug. 31.—The Central Powers have decided to put Polish troops in the field against the Entente according to a dispatch from Vienna received here today the move being prompted by the vigorous allied attacks, the dispatch adds.

Negotiations between Austria-Hungary and Germany for the establishment of a Polish government are approaching conclusion and it is expected that within a short period institutions will be established whereby the country will re-enter the list of independent states.

The Polish troops referred to doubtless are those raised in Russian Poland after it had been conquered by the Central Powers, and recruiting the so-called Polish army began Polish enlistments in this force are understood to have been limited. Recently some units resigned rather than be put into the field under Austro-German command.

BUSH FIRES ARE STILL RAGING

The bush fire which on Thursday did considerable damage to the plant of the Mountain District Brick & Tile Company, and seriously threatened the mill of the New Ladysmith Lumber Company near East Wellington, continued to burn fiercely yesterday and is still raging through the ravine lying between the Little Mountain and Mount Benson. For a time yesterday the fire was uncomfortably close to the Jingle Pot mine but with the burning of all inflamable material in the vicinity of the mine and settlement, the danger to property is now considered past, and any future loss will, from the present outlook, be confined to standing timbe

GERMANS PLANNING MURDER CAMPAIGN

Rome, Aug. 31.—Intense and concentrated submarine warfare against the United States, as well as Britain, may be one of the results of President Wilson's declination of the Pope's peace appeal, in which the American executive clearly showed he was not impressed by the steps toward democratization Germany has taken to date.

Diplomatic circles here today revealed their belief that the Central Empires has been aiming, through so-called democratic decrees and discussions to influence American public opinion. The reply of Pres. Wilson is evidence that they have failed in this. Germany's next step then, diplomats here believe, may be expected in the form of a new outbreak of terror from her U boats.

Pope Benedict, it was learned today, has expressed himself as greatly disappointed over the rejection of his peace plan by the American President.

According to rumors here Emperor Karl of Austria and even Kaiser Wilhelm have written the Pontiff indicating pledges of the widest democratization within their empires.

LOCAL COMPANY IS REORGANIZED

British Columbia Coal Mining Company Takes the Place of Vancouver-Nanaimo Coal Company.

It is good news that there has been a complete reorganization of the Vancouver-Nanaimo Coal Company, as a result of which the Alvensleben interests have been eliminated [illegible] der the new organ[illegible] pany will [illegible] Columbia Coal [illegible] its only officers [illegible] Messrs. Warner & Gallagher, of Vancouver, and Mr. H. N. Freeman. The latter now takes the title of general manager, and has full charge of the mining operations.

No one will welcome the change more than the general manager. His duties as manager were not rendered any the easier by the fact that alien capital was represented in the company. However, his duty was to keep the mine running, and this he has done for years with conspicuous success. He will pursue the same policy as of old. He has none but English-speaking miners working for him, and as far as possibe he is cutting out Asiatic labor.

He is just completing the installation of a lumber mill which will be operated in conjunction with the mine. There is a considerable quantity of valuable timber on the company's land and this will be logged and cut for the local market. The capacity of the mill will be about 20,000 feet per day and Manager Freeman expects to place finished lumber on the market within the next thirty days.

DEFEAT WILL FINISH HUNS

London, Aug. 31.—"If we can gain a big and important military victor[illegible] this autumn it [illegible] will precipitate a serious poli[illegible] crisis in Germany," a high official here said yesterday "Germany is nearing the exhaustion of her man power, as is shown from the fact that a great number of the prisoners now being captured are under 17 1-2 years of age. I personally have received a letter from a German boy of this age who said that he was called last spring but exempted then because the medical examiners found he was growing too fast and was not strong enough for service. Otherwise he would have been taken then, indicating that the Germans, months ago were taking all the boys of 17 who possibly could be useful at the front. Conditions are more serious now than they were then."

That the Germans authorities are greatly concerned over internal conditions is shown in the recent tightening of the frontiers. It is almost impossible now for Germans to get permission to enter adjacent states or for citizens of neutral states to pass into Germany. During the first year of the war 200 Germans arrived daily in Denmark. Now four arrive daily

It was reported recently, according to a Copenhagen dispatch, that Germany was to be hermetically sealed. This is attributed to the determination to prevent untoward news of uprisings from reaching the outside world.

The German concern to keep news from the Allies is shown in the announcement that German superintendents have been placed in complete charge of operations of the railroad between Berlin and Constantinople. German guards have even been placed at all stations enroute This and other demonstrations of German misgivings are causing intense concern in Turkey.

WELLING STOPPED TOUHEY

Joe Welling, of Chicago, stopped Tommy Touhey of Paterson, New Jersey, in the sixth round of a ten-round match, the latter's seconds throwing up the sponge. Welling weighed 136 and Touhey 133½.

In spite of the decrees and discussion within the Central Empires and the letters to the Vatican diplomats here believe the "democratic" moves are designed for American consumption rather than for the Teutonic peoples themselves. The failure of this plot of the German autocracy then leaves but one alternative—new strokes against its foes which may be delivered by the U boats through renewed attempts to starve out Britain and prevent supplies reaching the American army from the United States.

SEVERE FIGHTING IN MACEDONIA

Violent Engagements Took Place West of the Vardar River and in the Hilly Region West of Monastir.

Paris, Aug 31.—The following official communication was issued to-night.

"No infantry action took place during the day. The cannonade was spirited in the region of Cerny and on the right bank of the Meuse river and also north of Hill 344 on the Verdun front.

"Eastern Theatre: During the day several violent engagements occurred at Srka Di Legen, west of the Vardar river and in the hilly region to the west of Monastir.

"At Srka Di Legen, two strong Bulgarian attacks which had been successful in the night in gaining a foothold in some elements of advanced trenches, were repulsed almost completely by our counter attacks, which lasted until daybreak. The enemy continued his attacks during the day, but was everywhere repulsed.

"In the region west of Monte Peak troops from Seres entered an advanced position of the enemy and captured a score of prisoners. In the region of Monastir and Doiran the cannonade was very violent on both sides."

MUST PAY PRICE FOR QUALICUM LAND

Manitoba Farmer Who Selected a Tract of Land at Qualicum is Debarred from Repudiation.

"To me it is a matter of comment to what extent an experienced farmer can be misled by the representations of a real estate speculator who is casting his net in search of a certain well known fish of the carp family," observed Mr. Justice Morrison, in a written judgment handed down yesterday, in which his lordship dismisses the counterclaim of Mr. Arnott, a Qualicum farmer and gives judgment to Mr. Fullerton for the balance of the purchase price due on the sale of the Qualicum property occupied by Mr. Arnott.

Mr. Fullerton, points out his lordship, is a "pushful land speculator" who had subdivided property at Qualicum Beach and part of whose land was bought by Arnott, a Manitoba farmer of thirty years' experience, but who was seeking a milder climate. After being on the land at Qualicum for a couple of years, Arnott abandoned the property on the plea that he could not make anything out of it. In reply to a suit for the balance of the purchase price he counterclaimed for a return of the moneys already paid, alleging misrepresentation.

In regard to climate, markets, social conveniences and transportation his lordship observes that there was no ground for complaint and the case comes down to a question of soil. As Arnott was an experienced farmer and had selected his own tract, his lordship finds that he had no redress and must pay the balance of the purchase money.

Mr. Peter Conroy felt a number of years thrust upon him yesterday, when he received word of the arrival of a grand nephew at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Carson, Worcester, Mass.

BIJOU THEATRE

Fannie Ward, with a carefully selected company in a five-reel refined comedy "A School for Husbands," is the feature attraction at the Bijou today, and with this is shown a two-reel Keystone Comedy, which is a sure fire gloom dispeller.

BADOUD KNOCKED OUT

New York, Aug. 31.—Ted Lewis, England, welterweight champion, knocked out Al Badoud, the French champion in the first round of a ten round, match here tonight. A right to the jaw ended the contest after two minutes and 45 seconds of boxing. Lewis weighed 144 pounds and Badoud 151.

VICTORY IN PALESTINE

London, Aug. 31.—British forces in Palestine, attacked last night southwest of Gaza on a front of 800 yards, it is announced officially. The line was advanced 200 yards.

MIGHTY OFFENSIVE BEING PLANNED

Allies Are Formulating Plans For a Combined Offensive on all Fronts in Europe Next Spring.

New York, Aug. 31.—The New York Tribune's correspondent at Washington, wires:

Plans are being formulated by the Allies on the greatest scale yet attempted during the war for an immense offensive on all the fronts in Europe next spring. The hope of the Allies year after year has been to inflict a crushing blow upon the Central Powers in the spring and the offensives decided upon for the present year were expected to yield far more important, if not decisive, results, but fell enormously short of expectations on account of Russia's military and political disorganization and the consequent economic distress.

The first great direct military blow to be delivered by the American army is believed to be planned for next spring, in conjunction with the terrific Anglo-French, Italian and Russian drives. It was asserted here today that should the United States at that time have 250,000 men in France the number would be sufficient for her to take a highly important part in the operations. The American soldiers will have all the machine guns they demand, and one company with machine guns, it is pointed out, is worth a battalion with rifles. In addition the United States will send to France a vast number of aeroplanes. Even the republic's deficiency in guns of large calibre, such as the great British howitzers, for the demolition of the ground-works and lesser weapons like the French 75's may be made up before the winter is spent.

RECOMMENDED FOR MEDAL

Mrs. Caisley of this city has received word that her brother, Pte. Jack Parker has lost the sight of an eye as the results of wounds. Jack has been at the front since the early days of the war, and has been in hospital for eleven months due to previous wounds. He has been recommended for the Military Medal for rescuing an officer and warning his company of the presence of a German mine.

MARKETING OF FRUIT AND VEGETABLE CROP

Ottawa, Aug. 31.—Exporters from all parts of the Dominion have been selected by Food Controller Hanna to co-operate with the food distribution bureau to secure the marketing of this year's crop of fruit and vegetables at the lowest possible prices to the consumer while giving fair returns to the producer. The commision, which held a session to-day at the Food Controller's office, consists of F. M. Black, public utilities commissoner, of Calgary, chairman; Prof. M. Cumming, Deputy Minister of Agricultural College at Truro; D. Johnson, fruit commissioner, Ottawa; C. W. Baxter, chief fruit inspector, Ottawa; R. Robertson, of Robertson, Morris & Co., fruit brokers, Vancouver; George Spencer, chief operating officer of the Dominion Railway Commission, Ottawa; J. R. Hastings, secretary-treasurer of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association, and F. H. Grindley, of the fruit commissioner's staff, Ottawa, secretary.

A trial shipment of western grain via the Panama Canal is to be made during the first week of September, Arrangements have been made to send 100,000 bushels of grain to Vancouver at once and this will be loaded on a vessel without delay. The shipment is expected to demonstrate the suitability of the canal route for shipment of products of the prairies to the European market.

CLERGYMAN CONFESSED TO NINE MURDERS

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 31.—H. M. Havner, Attorney General of Iowa, late tonight announced that he had received verification of the report that Lynn George Kelly, Itinerant Clergyman, had confessed to the murder of eight persons at Villisca, Iowa, in 1912, in connection with which he has been under indictment since last spring.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 31.—Federal Judge James E. Boydy today declared the Keating-Owen child labor law unconstitutional.

TWELVE MILES FROM TRIESTE

Victorious Italian Troops Are Nearing Austria's Stronghold on the Adriatic—Fall of Trieste is Expected in a Short Time.

London Aug. 31.—By United Press. Italy continues her attacks on three Austrian fronts today but otherwise there was a lull in the European fighting zones. Trieste is now not more than 12 miles distant from the battle line.

The Austrians on the Biansizza Plateau have been powerfully reinforced, Rome reported. Strong counter attacks have been constantly thrown at the new Italian positions.

The Rome official statement had little to say of the fighting in the sector before Trieste, but unofficial dispatches indicated today a redoubling of artillery fire and of aerial reconnaisance, indicating preparations for renewed offensive action there. Trieste is now not more than twelve miles distant from the battle line.

Col. Repington, military expert of the London Times in reviewing Cadorna's victory over the Austrians, reminds his readers that Cadorna is the sole commander among the Allies who has retained his command throughout the war.

The Austrians had twenty-one divisions on Aug 1 between Tolmino and the sea. They also had 2300 guns, of which 1600 were of medium large calibre. Half Austria's weight in men and guns was on the Carso between Vippacco and the sea. The Austrian right was turned and crushed.

"Since nearly a third of the entire Austro-Hungarian army is on the Julian front, we can not expect to see it swallowed at a gulp—the triumph of the second Italian army opens great possibilities, but we must remember the roadless and waterless character of much of this district and not expect our gallant allies to perform miracles." Col. Repington writes.

WAS PRESENTED WITH A BEAUTIFUL HANDBAG

Mrs. John Diamond, a resident of Nanaimo for a number of years, left Wednesday for the East, where she intends taking up her residence.

On the eve of her departure from the city she was presented by the teachers and officers of the Wallace Street Methodist Sunday School with a silver mounted handbag, and an address worded as follows:

Dear Friend and Co-Worker:

I am requested on behalf of the teachers and officers of the Wallace St. Methodist Sunday School, upon this, the eve of your departure, to mark the occasion by extending the very best wishes possible. We very heartily appreciate your devoted energy and willing support at all times in connection with our work, and now, at the parting of the way, we unite in saying "May the Lord watch thy going out and thy coming in." In thus showing our appreciation, we trust you will remember your associates, and follow up the good work in your new sphere, and can assure you that if it is not expecting too much, we hope the time is not far distant when we can again welcome you amongst us, meantime we commend you to those with whom you will commune.

Signed, on behalf of the above,
E. H. GOUGH, Sec.

THE LEADERSHIP

The Western Liberals have made it a condition of their supporting a union government that Sir Robert Borden should resign the leadership. Sir Robert told his followers that he was willing to step aside, but his followers would not hear of it. This action on their part was natural enough, but this is not a time for hasty, or ill-considered decisions. We do not know exactly which Western Liberals were represented in this demand. Nothing has been made clearer than that the politicians who packed the recent convention at Winnipeg represented nobody but themselves. So in this latest move we suspect that the men who laid down this condition only claimed to be representing Western Liberals. At the same time the proposition is worth considering. Some reasons must have been advanced for demanding that Sir Robert Borden resign the leadership, and judgment can be withheld until these have been published. Personally we cannot see what benefit would be derived from changing leaders, but if by changing the cause we all have at heart could be better served, then by all means let us make the change.

NO TRICK TO LIFT A CORN RIGHT OUT

Says There Is No Excuse for Cutting Corns and Inviting Lockjaw.

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can harmlessly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quarter of an ounce of freezone at any drug store, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callous without pain or soreness or the danger of infection.

This simple drug, while sticky, dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue.

This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heel footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.

FOOD REGULATIONS

On the face of it the regulations issued by Food Controller Hanna are very much of a farce. Why should the eating of meat be prohibited in a hotel or restaurant and permitted in private houses? No one is surely crazy enough to think that meat and bacon will be voluntarily cut off the menu in private homes. Why, then, should all not be treated alike? Again, the department might reasonably take some steps to make known its decrees. The fact that an Ottawa dispatch appears in a local newspaper is hardly sufficient notice to keepers of restaurants and hotels that beef may not be served on certain days. At present no one knows where he is at with regard to carrying out the regulations, and the regulations themselves are very much of a farce.

MONTREAL

There have already been turbulent scenes on the streets of Montreal. It remains to be seen whether or not the mobs who have been parading the streets are at all representative of the people of Montreal or of Quebec as a whole. To some extent it appears that conscription is being used as a conscript for rowdyism. Some of the leaders and speakers in the demonstrations that have taken place would use any opportunity to mock at the British flag and stir up trouble for the government. There is one thing certain and that is that the time has come for a show down. A great deal is being made of Sir Wilfrid's Laurier's advice to his compatriots in a speech delivered in the House of Commons in June of this year. The trouble is that mere words do not go very far. Sir Wilfrid has always talked fairly and used nice phrases since the beginning of the war. He once told us all that nothing on God's earth mattered if Germany were victorious. His recent actions have not squared with his speech. Nobody can do more than him to lessen the possibility of trouble in Quebec but apparently he is more likely to wash his hands of the whole busines. He has his opportunity and the government has its duty to discharge with or without his help and co-operation. The best plan is to show a firm hand at the very beginning. The authorities in the United States have turned a worse corner than those in Canada have to negotiate. All noise does not end in violence but just at present it is as well to squelch the noise. The meetings that have been held all over the Dominion have at least afforded proof that the English-speaking people will support the government in the enforcement of conscription.

WILL CONSCRIPT CANADIANS IN U.S.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Colonel John S. Dennis, commanding the western division of the British recruiting station, said today that sufficient Canadians and Britons had enlisted since the recruiting of England's subjects in the United States began to make more than six full battalions, and that work now under way was augmenting the number at the rate of 300 a week.

"It should be a thousand a week at least," Colonel Dennis said. "I am authorized in saying that Britons and Canadians living in the United States who do not volutarily enlist within the next few weeks will be conscripted."

POINCARE REVIEWS HEROES OF VERDUN

Grand Headquarters of the French Armies in France, Aug. 30.—Ragged and mud-covered heroes of the Verdun victory, comprising delegations from all the regiments which participated in the brilliant advance of the French troops, today passed in review before President Poincare and Gen. Petain, the commander-in-chief, while hundreds of guns thundered nearby.

Torrents of rain and a tempestuous wind only served to render the scene more impressive as tattered regimental flags were uufurled and bands played "The Marseillaise" on the arrival of the chief of state.

Gen. de Fonclare received the decoration of Grand Officer of the Legion of Honor and Gens. Franciatte and Martin commanderships, while hundreds of officers and men were awarded the war cross and medals.

WOMEN ON EQUALITY

Petrograd, Aug. 30.—The Provisional government has authorized the admission of women to all forms of State service on the same conditions as men. Countess Panin who, for a time, was assistant minister of Social Tutelage, has been appointed Secretary of State for Public Instruction.

FIRST LIBERTY LOAN COMPLETED IN STATES

Washington, Aug. 30.—$400,000,000 was paid into the treasury here today in the final installment of the Liberty Loan. Approximately $1,615,000,000 already has been paid, representing principal and interest, on the Liberty bonds.

Today's payment completes the financial transactions with the issue of the bonds and it is thought likely the bonds themselves will be ready for distribution within a short time.

Now that the first loan has been fully disposed of, it is likely that an announcement concerning the second issue of bonds will be made shortly by Secretary McAdoo.

CANADIAN Chalmers

Wins in TRAFFIC test

ONE more proof that the Chalmers is the sound, speedy car for every-day driving.

On March 26th a remarkable run was made in Chicago. 24 hours' driving through the crowded streets. A stock Chalmers was used. First and second gears were taken out and the trip made on high gear. There were four passengers. One of them, an official of the American Automobile Association, made the report. The driver was an amateur. The engine never stopped.

In the 24-hour run 586.8 miles were rolled-up. This beats every previous traffic test by 228 miles! Average speed 24.45 miles per hour. 14 miles to the gallon of gasoline.★

This is performance—wonderful performance. It is exactly the test a car gets under ordinary driving. Stopping. Getting away. Slowing down. Jumping into speed. You want a car that can do this. You want the reserve power, the smoothness, the flexibility of the Chalmers motor.

There is a great surprise awaiting you when you drive the Chalmers and put it to the test.

Drop in for a demonstration.

NEW AMUSEMENT TAX BARS OUT DEAD HEADS

Begining October 1, with the enforcement of the amusement tax, dead-head" in the local theatres will be a thing of the past, according to the provisions of the Act, the regulations for which have been approved by the Minister of Finance, Hon. John Hart after a lengthy conference with Mr. Gordon chief censor of the moving pictures.

The feature of the act which does away with "dead- heads" leaves no latitude for the exercise of discreation on the part of the proprietor, as it prohibits him from allowing any person, other than the bona-fide employees, to enter his place of amusement for the purpose of witnessing a performance unless a tax is first paid. This, it is believed, will apply to members of the police force and other uniformed officials, to say nothing of representatives of the press, and many others who have been wont in the past, to stroll past the doorkeeper without passing in a ticket, by virtue of their friendliness with the management or in exchange for advertising space.

It is understood that the plan adopted calls for two series of tickets one the regular admittance ticket, the other the ticket representing the tax. A patron of a theatre or other performance which comes under the operation of the Act will have to pay for two tickets at the box office. Seperate receptacles will be placed at the entrance, into one of which will be deposited the house ticket and into the other the tax ticket. The treasury Department will supply the tax tickets to the proprietor of the amusement house in quantities of not less than $20 in aggregate value, and a discount will be allowed to the amusement place proprietor, varying from ten per cent on the price of the low-priced admittance to three per cent on those which apply to the high-priced tickets. This discount will, it is believed, reimburse the proprietors for the extra trouble in making the collection of the tax. The proprietors will be called upon to make a weekly report to the censor, under whose supervision the enforcement of the Act falls, showing the daily attendance, the respective number of admission tickets issued and taken in, and other details, to permit of a regular checking up by the censor of the business of the house.

McGRAW IS FINED THOUSAND DOLLARS

New York Aug. 30.—John J. McGraw manager of the New York National Baseball Club, was today fined $1000 and censured and reprimanded by the board of directors of the National League for approving an interview, subsequently published containing an attack upon John K. Tener, president of the league.

This action was taken as the result of the demand for an investigation of the case by the New York Chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, after McGraw had signed a statement repudiating the interview when brought before the league on charges filed by President Tener.

WHEAT FIXED AT TWO-TWENTY BUSHEL

Washington, Aug. 30.—The price of Number 1 Northern Spring wheat was fixed at $2.20 a bushel at Chicago for the 1917 crop today by the Wheat Fair Price Committee, headed by H. A. Carfield, whose findings, reported after three days' deliberations, were submitted to and approved of by President Wilson.

Labor representatives on the committee voted first for $1.84, and the farmers for $2.50. After a long discussion a compromise at $2.20 was approved unanimously.

Extract from Vancouver Province, Aug. 22, 1917:

LIQUOR PRICES AGAIN ADVANCE

Jump 10 to 12 per cent. and another Increase expected in a Few Days.

Private purchasers of liquor who are holding back in the hope of buying high-class whiskies at slaughter prices just before prohibition comes into effect on October 1st will probably be disappointed. Imported liquors took a 10 to 12 per cent. advance within the past few days and are due for another increase within the next two or three weeks it was intimated today.

FRENCH CAPTURED ENEMY TRENCHES

Germans are Forced to Yield Ground to French Northwest of Hurtebise—Strong Enemy Surprise Attack was Repulsed.

Paris, Sept. 1.—A communication issued by the War Office tonight reads:

"Northwest of Hurtebise we enlarged ground conquered, and captured an enemy trench on a front of two hundred metres, and thirty additional prisoners. A German counter attack this afternoon was not able to reach our lines.

"In the Champagne south of Butte du Mesnil, we repulsed a strong enemy surprise attack.

'On the left bank of the Meuse there was lively artillery fighting north of Hill 304 and Lemort Homme."

Made Bombing Raid.

London, Sept. 1.—A bombing raid was carried out by our naval air squadron Friday night on Ghiselles airdrome, according to a British Admiralty statement tonight.

"Several direct hits," says the statement, "were made on sheds in the southwest corner of the airdrome in which vicinity a fire was started. Bombs also were seen to explode on the adjoining Ostend-Throurout railroad line. Many tons of explosives were dropped.

All our machines returned safely.

LOCAL FAVORITES MADE HIT AT DOMINION

Those two local favorites Miss Hazel Martin and Miss Grace Morgan demonstrated at the Dominion Theatre Friday night to a large audience that Nanaimo has at least two amateurs that are very close to professional excellence. The solos, duets and particularly the dance with which they finished their act were exceedingly well done and it is to be hoped that the management of the Dominion may be able to induce them to appear again in the immediate future. A word of praise is due to the costuming which was harmonious in color and in thorough good taste. Praise is also due the Dominion orchestra which under the able leadership of Mr. J. L. Reynolds provided the accompanying music which made so much for the excellence of the performance. " A little vaudeville now and then is relished by the best of men."

CIGARETTE CASE SAVES HIS LIFE

Having lost one eye and receiving fifty-three wounds, Lieut. Allan G. Horsfield, of Trail, has returned home from France. He left Trail at the start of the war, going overseas with the first contingent, and has experienced some peculiar things in the way of injuries, carrying positive proof the the battles he was engaged in, for under his skin there still remains many bits of shells that the surgeons did not remove and perhaps never will.

He went overseas in 1914 with twenty-seven other volunteers from Trail. After spending five months at Salisbury Plains he left for France with the Royal Field Artillery as lieutenant. He fought at Festubert and Ypres, receiving the wounds at the latter battle that placed him in the hospital. The extent of his injuries can be easily judged when he had to spend a whole year in the hospital. When the shrapnel struck him it drove his wrist watch into two different places in his head, and a cigarette case saved his life by stopping a bullet. The shrapnel caused over fifty other wounds at one time.

While convalescing in England, Mr. Horsfield met Miss Helen Rising and was married in December last. The couple have now returned to Trail, where Lieut. Horsfield will have charge of a large ranch. The citizens of Trail to show their appreciation of his services have given him a motor boat to enable him to travel to and from the ranch, which is on an island.

SETTLERS APPLY FOR COAL RIGHTS

When Time Expired Yesterday for Filing Claims Over Hundred and Thirty Had Registered.

Yesterday was the last day on which, under the act passed at the last session of the Legislature, claims under the Settlers' Rights Act could be made by those who claim ownership to mineral rights under properties held by them, the closing of the period finding upwards of 130 claims registered.

The act, passed in 1904, has been amended from time to time to permit of settlers filing their claims. A further extension was made by the Legislature at this year's scession to August 31.

The settlers' rights question has been a long standing one. For twenty-five years it has formed the basis of inquiries by Commissions and law suits and has reached the Privy Council. The dispute had its origin in the terms under which this province entered Confederation. One of the terms was that a railroad should be built on Vancouver Island and that a land grant should be given. The then provincial government set aside what was afterwards known as the E. & N. Railway land grant, the land being made over to the Dominion which was to have the railway constructed. The late Hon. Robert Dunsmuir and associates took over the contract for the building of the road and ultimately it was built from Victoria to Wellington.

But while the negotiations were being carried on and the line was being built, settlers were going into the area comprising the grant, and when the time came for the signing of the agreement between the Dominion government and the railway company, and the formal transfer of the land to the latter was made, the settlers who applied for their deeds to the provincial authorities in the customary manner found that they could not get them. Instead they were referred to the company, which was ready to give the deeds, but insisted upon reserving all mineral rights, the company claiming all rights under the surface throughout the great area of the land grant, a claim that required a Privy Council decision before the company released its grip upon metals which, it was held, had not been granted by the Crown and was therefore the property of the miners who had developed them, but in all cases where the land had not already been alienated before the grant was made.

The settlers claimed that the land was given to them by the government when they entered upon it and filed their papers, or attempted to file for in the latter years of the negotiations the papers were refused.

The matter was taken up at Ottawa and a commission was appointed which investigated and reported that the settlers were entitled, not to the coal rights, but to compensation for the coal from the Provincial government. A commission appointed by the province found that the settlers were not entitled to anything at all.

Matters reached a climax about fifteen years ago when Mr. J. H. Hawthornthwaite then member for Nanaimo, and in the position in the then legislature in which his vote could swing the decision of the House either way, introduced a bill calling for the granting to the settlers of their deeds carrying the coal rights. The bill became law. Legal actions followed, until final decision was obtained from the Privy Council and the settlers were awarded their coal rights.

But many settlers failed to take advantage of the provisions of the bill to put in their claims, and when the time limit set by the bill expired, another act was passed extending the time for filing the claims. This time elapsed, but there were still more claimants who wanted their claims established, over one hundred in all, most of them descendants of the original settlers.

The House this year extended the time limit until September 1. It is these claims which will have to be dealt with. Some of the claims to be adjudicated upon cover some of the best coal lands on the Island.

RAID ON GERMANS WAS SUCCESSFUL

East of Wytschaete Scene of British Success — Enemy Suffered Severely from Machine Gun Fire South of Havrincourt.

London, Sept. 1.—The official report from British Headquarters tonight reads:

Early this morning we carried out a successful raid east of Wytschaete and bombed enemy dugouts. We inflicted casualties with machine gun fire on his garrison as they endeavored to escape across the open southwest of Havrincourt.

A hostile raiding party was driven off without loss to our troops. Yesterday evening the weather cleared for two hours for the first time in four days and normal aerial activities was resumed. In air fighting one German machine was brought down in our lines, another was driven down out of control. One of our aeroplanes is missing.

The number of German prisoners captured by British armies in August was 7279 including 158 officers making a total of 10,697 prisoners, including 234 oficers taken by us since the morning of July 31. During the past month we have taken 38 guns including 6 heavy guns also 200 machine guns and 72 trench mortars. These figures are exclusive of the prisoners captured in Flanders by our Allies.

NEEDLES FIRE SWEPT

Needles Cal. Sept 1.—A fire which started early this evening in the business district is still burning tonight. "The Needles Nugget" has been burned out and Vaughan and Hallstead business building destroyed. The flames are spreading tonight.

EASTERN FIRM HAS BRANCH IN NANAIMO

One of the most significant business transactions of the year is the extension of the interests of the Gideon Hicks Piano Company of this city, just announced. Mr. Gideon Hicks has been retained as manager of this new branch of the company.

Heintzman & Company Limited, is possibly the oldest and most extensive firm manufacturing and distributing pianos in Canada. It was established in the year 1850, founded on the solid basis of integrity and progressiveness, and the results of the sixty-seven years of its existence indicate at a glance the confidence the firm has gained among the people of the nation. Previous to the extension of the company interests, there were thirty-seven branches in Canada alone, and of late years a very extensive business has been done with the far away Commonwealth of Australia. The establishment of "Ye Olde Firme" on Vancouver Island is in line with its progressive policy of the past and emphasizes the faith the company has in Victoria and the West.

The acquiring of the Gideon Hicks Piano Company includes the sheet music department of the business and the agency for this Island for the Victor phonograph products. In short, the only change in the policy of the stores, both in the Victoria and the Nanaimo branch, will be that of expansion under the prestige of the acquiring company. It will be greatly to the satisfaction of the patronage of these two stores that Mr. Hicks has been retained as the managing head. His own personality has made hosts of friends for his business and it will go far to strengthen Heintzman prestige in his new association.

PREPARING LIST OF RESERVE OFFICERS

Work point is now busily engaged in preparing a list of the newly authorized Reserve Officers, spoken of a few days ago in Ottawa dispatches.

The personnel of the reserve will be made up of officers who have returned to British Columbia after service overseas and are now struck off the list of those actually serving. Those included in the list will be given a special rating exclusive of that which they hold in the regular militia list, and they will be available for special military employment.

Mr. Thos. Wheatley, of the Herald staff, is spending the week-end in the Terminal City.

NO PAPER TUESDAY

Owing to Monday being a holiday, there will be no issue of The Herald Tuesday morning.

NEWS SERVICE IS REORGANIZED

Starting with the morning papers of next Monday, September 3, there will be made available to the daily newspaper readers of Canada for the first time in the history of the Dominion a truly national news service, linking up in a news sense the remotest sections of the country, from Sydney, Cape Breton, to Victoria, B. C., and including within its scope every Canadian daily paper published in the nine Provinces, as well as the daily papers of Newfoundland and the Yukon.

This great national development is made possible by the operation of leased wires extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific and bridging, for the entire twenty hours, the formidable gaps that have tended in the past to segregate, on the one hand, the public opinion of Ontario and Quebec from that in the Maritime provinces; on the other that of the Prairie west from British Columbia; and even more conspicuously the West from the East by reason of the thousands of miles of unproductive territory lying along the north shore of Lake Superior.

This great system of leased wires will form a spinal column for the free and instant flow of news from one end of the Dominion to the other, with its nerve centres in the keyboards of the telegraph operators of every considerable daily paper in the country. It will permit the immediate exchange of public opinion as well as supply a constant and prompt service of news embracing every branch of activity in the Dominion, whether it be of the crops of the Prairie for Eastern readers, the record of industrial and commercial activities for Western consumption, or the mirror held up day by day right across the continent to reflect the swiftly changing political situation.

Thus is fulfilled a dream long cherished by the daily newspaper publishers of Canada. The need has been felt, and never so sorely as during the present war, which has worked like yeast in all that is best of Canadian public opinon, operating against sectionalism and for a larger and more united Canada.

But it has just been because of the war—because of the falling revenues and increased cost it brought to daily publishers—that it has seemed most remote of attainment. In fact, had not Sir Robert Borden and his government come to see that here lay a great national work of unification, and thus have come to the aid of the Canadian Press as a whole, the National Press organization, that is now on the eve of achievement, must have been put off perhaps for many years.

For the cost of bridging by leased wire the great geographical gaps is enormous and beyond even the collective effort of the Canadian daily press. It is precisely because the Dominion Government has undertaken to assist materially in leasing for the newspapers the wires over these gaps—between Montreal and St. John, Ottawa and Winnipeg and Calgary and Vancouver—that the National Canadian News service has come into being."

NAVAL CLASH OFF JUTLAND

Four German Mine Sweepers Destroyed in Naval Engagement Between Mosquito Craft off the West Coast of Denmark.

London, Sept. 1.—Four German mine sweepers were destroyed today off the coast of Jutland by British light forces, according to an announcement issued tonight by the Admiralty. The official statement reads:

"Our light forces operating off the coast of Jutland, Denmark, this morning destroyed four enemy mine sweepers."

Copenhagen, Sept. 1.—A naval engagement occurred this morning between British and German mosquito craft off Nyminde Gab, west coast of Jutland. British destroyers attacked four German armed trawlers and drove them ashore. A Rinkiobing newspaper says the British bombarded the trawlers after they landed, completing their destruction. About one hundred German seamen landed, many of whom were severely wounded. One rumor has it that one hundred dead have come ashore, but apparently this is a distorted version of the fact that about one hundred men reached shore. The German craft were presumably engaged in patrolling and mine sweeping to clear the route for German submarines. German ships and submarines, according to one account, took part in the fight.

A semi-official Danish report says that four German trawlers were driven ashore near Rinkiobing Fiord and that the crews were landed. The remainder of the fleet of German armed trawlers fled south.

PROHIBITIONIST IS PUT IN CHARGE

According to Announcement of Attorney-General There Will be no Government Distributing Store in Nanaimo.

Mr. W. C. Findlay, who acted as secretary for the last prohibiton convention held in Vancouver, and who was one of the most active members of the organidation committee of the People's Prohibition Movement, has been appointed a special commissioner to take charge of the administration of the prohibition act. This information was made public yesterday morning by Attorney-General J. W. deB. Farris to whose department Mr. Findlay will be attached.

"Mr. Findlay will take office on Tuesday morning and will have a month in which to arrange the machinery for administering the new prohibition law," said Hon. Mr. Farris, who stated that the recommendation for Mr. Findlay's selection had been made by the executive of the prohibition party, whose counsel had been sought by the government. Mr. Findlay's headquarters will be at Victoria."

The personnel of the staff of the government liquor vendors has not yet been decided by the minister, who stated that a further announcement of appointments might be made at the end of next week. At present the exact number of government liquor stores had not been finally decided, but it is stated that there will be one establishment in Vancouver, one in Victoria, one in Prince Rupert, and another in Prince George. Rossland and Kamloops are also under consideration with the likelihood that a government liquor store will be opened in each place.

A large number of former Nanaimoites arrived from Vancouver last night to spend Labor Day with relatives here.

ALL READY FOR THE ELKS' PICNIC

Big Time Expected at Labor Day Picnic For Soldiers Wives and Children—Will be Tug of War Contest.

Given fine weather the picnic for soldiers wives and kiddies to be given by the local lodge of Elks on Monday gives every promise of being a most successful and interesting event. The big time will be held at Newcastle Island and whatever surplus remains after expenses are paid will be held in reserve for a christmas tree entertainment for soldiers' children.

Arrangements have been completed whereby all soldiers' wives and children will leave for the picnic grounds from the Western Fuel Company's landing by scow, the first starting from there at 9 and the second at 10.30 o'clock in the morning, returing at 6 and 7.30 p. m. A continuous half hourly service of launches commencing at 9 a.m., will also be run from the Farmers' Landing throughout the day, for the convenience of the general public. For this a charge of 15 cents per head for the round trip will be made.

A big attraction from the standpoint of the general public will be the tug of war contest for a $220. sidebet between teams representing No. 1 and Reserve Mines. The match is the outcome of the pulling contest held in connection with the miner's picnic two weeks ago and as both teams have hundreds of supporters interest in the match in exceptionally keen and a big crowd is expected to be in attendance. The match is best two out of three pulls, three foot pull, the first pull being timed for 4 o'clock. The rival teams are as follows:

No. 1 Mine—H. Killeen, F. Killeen, R. Charnock, J. Tognela, J. Patterson, J. Anderson, A. Newberry, R. Mercer, N. Tognela, W. Adderson and F. Tattery. Captain William Bradley—

DR. MICHAEL CLARK WILL STAND AGAIN

Winnipeg, Sept. 1.—Word from Calgary states Dr. Michael Clark, M. P. for Red Deer, has reconsidered his desire to retire from politics and will again contest Red Deer at the coming election He expects to have little opposition.

LADY McBRIDE IS EN ROUTE TO B. C.

BRUTALITY OF HUNS EXPOSED

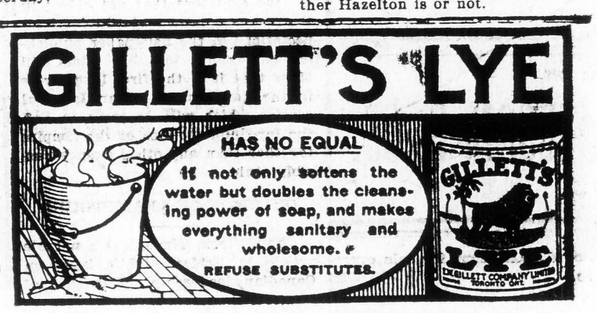
Escaped Belgian Gives Evidence of Treatment Meted out by Germans to Captured Civilians Enslaved for Use of Fatherland.

Washington, Sept. 1.—Further evidence of the disregard of the Germans for the rights of prisoners of war and subjugated peoples has reached the state department in the story of an escaped Belgian. Exposed to shell fire, gas attacks and unprovided with protective masks enslaved natives are being compelled to work just behind the German fighting lines he asserted where unsanitary conditions brought disease to those who escape death or injury incident to a battle. Because relatives are yet within acquired German territory the State Department has eliminated from its report all names of individuals and localities.

"It is no use to protest," he is reported as saying. "It only meant prison and blows. The Germans are only too glad if you do resist. They have made a rule to send to Germany any man or woman who gets more than three months imprisonment. And none of those who have been deported has come back after his time. Six months ago one of my neighbors, a widow, who had to protect her daughter against a German officer, received four months for having said an this occasion, that all Germans were pigs. She was sent to Germany and we have heard since that she is obliged to work in a Kommando, and has no hope of returning before the end of the war. This is only one case among a hundred. German tribunals have provided many thousand workers for the Fatherland."

CHIEF JUSTICE HUNTER MAY HEAD TRIBUNAL

While there is no official information upon the subject a suggestion is heard that the conscription tribunals which will be appointed for military district No. 11, embracing British Columbia, will have at their head Chief Justice Hunter of the supreme court. It is expected information upon the subject will be divulged soon.



Men enrolled for military service under conscription will have no claim to select the particular branch of the service to which they desire to be attached, as was the case under voluntary enlistment. They will be selected, presumably, for the branches of service for which they are best fitted, not where they will be best satisfied. This is the view expressed by Brigadier-General Leckie, O. C.

However, as far as possible, it is probable that recruiting officers will meet the request of recruits appearing for examination between now and the time when the draft is put into effect. However, this will be optional with the officers.

Hastings Park, in Vancouver, Queen's Park in New Westminster, and the exhibition grounds in Victoria are likely as the places of mobilization of the proposed new army.

However, as the flying corps is not a branch of the Canadian army, but of the imperial, the status of Canadians joining this corps, or conscripts who desire to join it is a matter for decision and agreement between the military authorities.

It is rather unkind of the Free Press to suggest that Chief "Bill" Dunwoody is suffering from cold feet. Bill is much more likely to be afflicted with sore feet in his search for Hazelton. Allowance should also be made for the fact that Bill was landed into a brand new job, and in consequence he will hardly have had time even to think of his friends back in civilisation. Indeed, he stated before he left that it might take him a few weeks to get collars on all the Indian dogs, and he was a little in awe of the number of tin Lizzies operating up there. Anyhow, it's a cinch Bill is not lost whether Hazelton is or not.

A NATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

Tomorrow afternoon a new epoch in Canadian newspaperdom will be inaugurated with the formal opening of the new service of The Canadian Press Ltd. The Canadian Press, Ltd., is an association formed some years ago embracing practically the entire Canadian newspaper field. Commencing Monday morning it will operate its own wire from the Pacific to the Atlantic, with tentacles penetrating to every section of the Dominion in which newspapers are published. It will maintain its own news distributing organization—editors, telegraph operators and correspondents—with central depots or nerve centres for each of the geographical divisions of the country. It thus will be able to provide a prompt, complete interchange of news between the various sections of the Dominion, which hitherto has not existed. Readers of the British Columbia newspapers will be brought into direct touch with conditions and developments in the other districts as far as Cape Breton, and even with Newfoundland. The new service therefore will become a strong factor in the unification of Canadian sentiment in the creation of a national community of interest and the development of a truly national spirit.

But the covering of the Dominion field is only one aspect of the activities of the Canadian Press Ltd. Through its arrangements with the Associated Press, of which it is the Canadian counterpart, it has the full benefit of the facilities of that great organization whose connections extend to every quarter of the world. This and other affiliations give it complete access to the foreign field. While the Canadian Press, Ltd., has had such an arrangement for some years, until now it has had no organized system of distribution of its own in Canada of foreign news. The papers of the various districts had to make their own connections with the Associated Press at the points most convenient to them. These connections with the Associated Press at the points most convenient to them. These connections were with New York, Chicago, Minneapolis and Seattle. Now the main connection with the Associated Press will be at Montreal and New York, the Canadian Press, Ltd., conducting its own bureau in the big American centre. From Montreal the news thus collected will be circulated along the great trunk wire from British Columbia to Cape Breton which the Association now controls.

The establishment of a national news service is the consummation of a project which has absorbed the thought and energy of far-sighted Canadian journalists for many years. Various plans have been proposed from time to time, but on each occasion formidable obstacles presented themselves and the advocates were disappointed. One of the difficulties was the expense, another and even more forbidding obstacle was the failure to secure unanimity on the part of all the newspaper interests of the country. Sectional disagreements developed. It was hard to bring the East and West together. Now happily, the gap has been bridged. The Canadian press, the most powerful institution in this country is a unit behind the scheme and this guarantees for its complete success.

The cost of the service is borne by the Canadian Press Ltd., and is assessed proportionately against the newspapers comprised in it. The state has contributed $50,000 to the cost of leasing the ocean-to-ocean telegraph wire. As The Manitoba Free Press in an appreciative editorial article today says, without that assistance from the public the project would have had to be abandoned. The cost of operating a leased wire over the great gaps of unproductive territory west of the Great Lakes would have been prohibitive, especially at this time when newspaper revenues are severely strained by war conditions and the extraordinary efforts the papers are making to supply their readers with full reports of the war developments. For our part we are confident that not only will the new service equal the high expectations of the newspaper publishers of Canada but that time will show that it is the first long stride in the development of an Imperial service which will do more to link the far-flung sections of the Empire together than any other agency possibly could.

QUESTION OF LEADERSHHIP

The Victoria Times had a notable article in Friday night's issue on Canadian leadership. The gist of the editorial was that Sir Robert Borden had proved unequal to the task of piloting the Dominion through the present war crisis. Let it be admitted that the Times was right in many of its arguments and contentions, there still remains the question of who should succeed Sir Robert. The "Times" had not a single suggestion to offer. Its indictment of the Premier might be incontrovertible; but where is such a man to be found as the Times contends is necessary to the salvation of Canada. The "Times" is a strong Liberal newspaper, but it has shown a commendable air of independence in its treatment of the issue now confronting Canada. It was courageous enough to break with Sir Wilfrid Laurier on his attitude towards conscription. It still affirms that conscription of the manhood of the Dominion is the first necessity of the presnt situation in Canada. This being so, and granted that Sir Robert Borden has not proved the man of the hour, who is the man the Times would put in his place. This is no time for juggling or quibbling. So far as the House of Commons is concerned Sir Robert still enjoys the confidence of the majority of the members. We believe further, that he will be endorsed as leader by the majority of the English-speaking people of Canada. Coming right down to cases, who is there in the public life of Canada who could better fill his place? Let the "Times" and the other critics of Premier Borden answer the question, and there would be some value to their criticism. As it is, the Times is simply helping to make an already difficult situation more difficult.

"I FEEL LIKE A NEW BEING"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought The Joy Of Health After Two Years' Suffering

MADAM LAPLANTE

85 St. Rose St., Montreal. April 4th.

"For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant Headaches, and had Palpitation of the Heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the Constipation was dreadful. I suffered from Pain in the Back and Kidney Disease.

I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried "Fruit-a-tives" as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no Headaches, no Palpitation, no Heart Trouble, no Constipation, no Pain or Kidney Trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was "Fruit-a-tives" that gave me back my health".

The Carruthers Captain Beazis which was launched at North Vancouver on June 28 and which loaded in Vancouver at the Government dock for Port Adelaide, took 1,606,000 feet for Port Adelaide. The Esquimalt, Capt. Fisher, which was launched at Victoria on June 12 and loaded at Chemainus for Melbourne, took 1,507,000 feet, but her cargo included a big shipment of laths. Both ships passed out at Cape Flattery on August 21.

STRUGGLING AGAINST HIGH COST OF FOOD

Paris, Sept. 1.—Workmen in the Swiss cities of Berne, Zurich and Basel went on a half-day strike yesterday as a protest against the high cost of living, says a Havas dispatch from Basel. The manifestation was organized by Socialists who, the dispatch adds, declared that if it does not produce results, a prolonged strike involving municipal services such as gas and electricity will be ordered out.

"One Meatless Meal a Day" is a good food slogan for war time, or any time—better make it two meatless meals a day—it would mean health and strength for the nation. But be sure and get the right substitute for meat in a digestible form. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is the ideal substitute for meat. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat prepared in a digestible form. Two or three of these little loaves of baked whole wheat make a nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of only a few cents. Delicious with milk or cream or fruits of any kind.

Made in Canada.

TRAINING IS EASY FOR TRAPSHOOTERS

In virtually every sport in the curriculum columns of matter have been written about the proper methods of "training" for the event. In this respect the word training means not practicing, but rather physical conditioning.

Nothing has been said upon the subject of "training" for trapshooters for the very good reason that no "training" is necessary in that sport in the general acceptance of the term. Good shooting does not depend upon finely-trained bodies, nerves worked to a fine edge and the perfection of wind and limb.

There is virtually no set of physical standard that covers the description of trapshooting champion. The good trapshot is the man, who after studying the game has kept his mind and eye in good condition, not through any special course of physical training, but living a clean, healthy life, the only requisites to a clear eye, and alterness of mind.

In this respect trapshooting is a blessed sport. This explains why it can be followed virtually from the cradle to the grave. It imposes no tax upon vitality and does not place a premium upon physical strength or, for that matter, upon the best of health. But it does gradually act as a physical developer, and remedial to the system. For who can spend hours out under the open sky, feeling the sun beating down upon them, the winds playing over them, and not gradually be restored in mind and body to the limit of vigor.

The trapshooting line at any tournament is an interesting study. It is composed of men of the most diverse occupations, or callings, of absolutely a variety of physical and mental attributes yet all possess in common steady nerves and eyes, which, after all, are the best indications of a sound interior, and a sound mind.

However, despite the fact that trapshooting does not impose the necessity of training constantly, or so developing the physical to an inordinate degree, trapshooters would do well to observe a few simple regulations in the course of their preparations for competition, which, after all, are the secret of success in this life.

The regulations are:

1—Practice regularly.

2—Eat in moderation of things you like and that agree with you.

3—Keep outdoors as much as possible, but avoid violent exercise.

4—Get eight hours sleep per day

5—Smoke if you want to, or drink if you are accustomed to it, but be moderate.

6—Don't worry.

JIM CORBETT IS ATHLETIC CHAIRMAN

Princeton, N. J., Sept. 1.—James J. Corbett, former heavyweight champion of the world, Tuesday received an appointment from the United States Government to be chairman of the war department committee on athletics. Serving also in the body will be Sergt. Norman Selby (Kid) McCoy; Mike Donovan physical director of the New York Athletic Club; Prof. Richard Nellingan, of Amherst College, and Robert Edgren, sporting editor of the New York Evening World.

The committee has formed plans, it was announced to gather together the most famous boxers in the United States to teach boxing tactics to the soldiers on the ground that it will be helpful in bayonet fighting and other war activities.

WASHINGTON PAYS LESS FOR PAPER

Washington, Sept. 1.—In an order which newspaper publishers declare will serve as an important precedent, President Wilson has fixed a price of two and one-half cents on newsprint paper for publishing the Government Daily Official Bulletin. Newspaper publishers who learned of the order today voiced the hope that it might open the way for cheaper newsprint to publishers generally.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years renewal for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of section, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights only, rescinded by such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights are not being operated Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

LIQUOR PRICES AGAIN ADVANCE

Jump 10 to 12 per cent. and another Increase expected in a Few Days.

Private purchasers of liquor who are holding back in the hope of buying high-class whiskies at slaughter prices just before prohibition comes into effect on October 1st will probably be disappointed. Imported liquors took a 10 to 12 per cent. advance within the past few days and are due for another increase within the next two or three weeks it was intimated today.

SHORT MEETING OF THE COUNCIL

Hired Vehicles By-law Was Given Third Reading—Analysist Reported on Condition of Cement Samples Taken From the Millstream Bridge

The regular weekly meeting of the City Council was held last night the full board being present, His Worship Mayor McKenzie presiding.

A communication was received from Mr. Alfred King inclosing a report of Messrs. G. S. Eldridge & Co., of the Vancouver Assay Office, on the result of an analysis of samples of cement taken from the Millstream Bridge.

After giving the proportion of solids, calcium, magnesium, sulphates, chlorides, acidity, etc., found in the samples submitted the analysist stated: "There is nothing in the above analyses to indicate that the water surrounding the pier had a corrosive action on the cement. The results show that the water is sea water mixed with varying amounts of fresh water, depending on the state of the tide.

With a specified mix of one part by volume of cement to 2 parts of sand and 5 parts of gravel even the concrete taken above high water will not pass the above specification.

If, however, the specification should read 1:2:5 parts by weight of cement, sand and gravel, then the concrete above high water will just pass.

Of course, the concrete below high water is considerably below requirements.

To sum up, it is our opinion that the sea water did not have a corrosive action on the concrete; that the cement supplied by the Associated Cement Co. was sound when it left the works; and that the cause of disintegration of the concrete was either that the cement has become wet and partially set before using, or that the proper precautions were not observed in placing the concrete in moulds.

Yours faithfully,
G. S. ELDRIDGE & CO.
Per G. S. Eldridge.

On motion of Ald. Ferguson, seconded by Ald. Forrester, the communication was received and filed for future reference.

Fire Chief Parkin reported ten fires during the month of August.

Water Works Manager Shepherd reported as follows:

Gentlemen,—Referring to the fire hydrant installed on the corner of Selby and Wentworth streets:

It was decided by the Water Works and Fire Warden Committees in the early spring to purchase six Ludlow hydrants, and immediately upon arrival they were to be installed on the following streets:

Corner of Selby and Wentworth Streets.

Corner of Church and Chapel Streets.

Corner of Milton and Albert Streets.

Corner of Winfield Crescent and Crace Streets.

The two remaining hydrants to be on hand in case of an accident to other hydrants. I therefore installed the above hydrant with the understanding from the Water Works and Fire Warden Committees that it was to be installed immediately upon its arrival.

Committees—Ald. Forrester, Ferguson, Harding and Morton.

I am, your obedient servant,
J. H. SHEPHERD.

On motion of Ald. Morton, seconded by Ald. Sharp, the report was received and filed.

The Street Foreman reported an expenditure in wages during the week of $103.85 on streets, and the Water Works Manager reported an expenditure of $60.48.

The Pound Keeper reported 11 cows, 1 horse and 2 dogs impounded, and $30 collected in dog tax during the past month.

The Hired Vehicles Bylaw was reported complete from committee and given the third reading.

His Worship Mayor McKenzie drew the attention of the Legislative Committee to the fact that owing to the coming into force of prohibition on October 1st it would be necessary to amend the Liquor Licinse Bylaw in order that hotel men be refunded the amount of license money overpaid.

Ald. Ferguson informed the Council that Ernest Rivers and Charles Green were returning home from overseas and were expected to arriv[e] at Vancouver on Thursday morni[ng]. He suggested that some action b[e] taken whereby the Council could [be] informed when returned soldiers [arrive] ver so that definite plans [may] e made for their reception in [Nan]o.

[The] cil then adjourned.

RIGA ABANDONED TO THE HUNS

Petrograd, Sept. 4.—Riga, Russia's principal Baltic port, has been abandoned to the Germans under the threat of an offensive by land and sea, in which the deciding stroke on the land side was delivered by the Germans last Saturday.

The fate of Riga was virtually sealed when German troops, powerfully initated their offensive, forced a crossing of the Dvina, southeast of the city, and began to push northward after making good their foothold on the right bank of the stream.

Menaced also by the attack of a column of Teutonic forces moving from Mitau, southeast of Riga, and by the German naval forces recently reported hovering in the vicinity of the Gulf of Riga, the Russian authorities evidently considered the city no longer tenable and decided to evacuate it.

The possible ultimate military consequences of this development are difficult to estimate. The right flank of the entire Russian western front was anchored on the Gulf of Riga, at a point to the west of the city, and with the anchorge apparently lost, the possible strategical developments of the situation seem infinite.

Much depends on the purpose of the Germans and the size of the forces at their disposal for operations in this war theatre.

Riga, the capital of Livonia, had a population of more than 500,000 persons before the war, and aside from Petrograd was the most important Russion commercial and industrial town having access to the Baltic.

The text of the offcial statement dealing with the Riga retirement says:

"On the left bank of the river Dvina, to the west of Riga, our troops, towards the morning of Sunday, retired to the line of Bilderlingshof, Medem and Dahlen.

"In the direction of Ukskull, on the north bank of the Dvina, in the course of Saturday and Sunday, the Germans contfnued stubborn attacks, chiefly on the front Shtall-Melmuger-Skripto-Lausin and the confluence of the river Oger. Towards Sunday evening they succeeded in penetrating our positions on the river Jaegal, in the region of Melmuger and Skripto.

"Some of the detachments voluntarily left their positions and are retiring to the north of our positions and gave no definite reasons.

"On the remainder of the front there were fusilades which were more intense in the direction of Vilna.

German Attacks Fail

Rumanian front: In the direction of Fokshani the enemy attacked Rumanian positions near Guerile and Varnitza several times yesterday, but was repulsed with large losses. There were fusilades on the remainder of the front.

"Caucasian front: There is no change in the situation.

"Aviation: On the lower course of the river Zrucz, Lieut. Lakman, a French aviator, burned an enemy observation kite balloon."

Germans Bridged Dvina

Petrograd, Sept. 4—The German offensive on the Riga front began Saturday by an attack on the Russian Kull positions following artillery preparations which lasted several hours. The Russian troops defending the Dwina river withdrew, and the Germans succeeded in throwing two bridges across the Dwina and passing to the eastern bank.

The Russian infantry could not stop the German thrust and the enemy, taking advantage of this rapidly developed his success and began an advance northward. Russian counter attacks against him were unsuccessful.

Among the passengers from Vancouver last evening on the "Pat" were Walter Machim, Fred Hart, J. Wheatley, Thos, Wheatley, Mrs. J. Piper, Miss Dailey, Mr. and Mrs. F. Campsall, James Hardy Mr. and Mrs Addie McKenzie, Mrs. Andrew Tait, Mr. and Mrs. Victor McKenzie, Miss May, Mrs. C. Cornish and Miss Potts.

The Womens Auxilliary of the Nanaimo Hospital wish to thank Messes W. W. Gray, W. M. Langton, J. E. McKenzie, J. Freeby, W. E. Rumming, The Electric Light Company, the Silver Cornet Band, and all those who in any way helped to make the recent Garden Party a success.

WAS BIG CROWD AT ELK'S PICNIC

Wives and Children of Nanaimo Soldiers Were Given a Splendid Outing by Local Elk Lodge on Monday.

The officers and members of Nanaimo Lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, earned the unqualified praise of the wives and children of the soldier boys of Nanaime on Monday last by reason of the manner in which they were entertained and treated at the big picnic held on Newcastle Island.

The scows, generously loaned by the W. F. Co. for the purpose of conveying the soldiers' wives and children to the picnic, were loaded to capacity, and with a steady launch service being well patronized, by midday there must have been fully 3000 persons of all ages on the Island. Here all possible arrangements had been made for their convenience and the material needs of the kiddies were excellently looked after. Realising that the appetites of these same kiddies would be of the keenest the committee in charge of the refreshments had made liberal arrangements and in the course of the day there were given away to the children 2,000 of both sandwiches and cakes, 1000 bananas and 1000 oranges, 75 gallons of ice cream, 1000 bags of candy and 500 bags of peanuts, 60 dozen aerated waters and tea, coffee and lemonade, ad lib.

Of sports for the children there were plenty, one event following hard upon another throughout the day; nor were the ladies forgotten, there being many events for them. Of these the most exciting and interesting was the ladies' tug-of-war, into which the participants entered with such spirit as to provoke many admiring comments from the onlookers.

The day's events:

Boys, 6 years—1, W. Shaw; 2, E. Kinsley.

Girls, 8 years—A. Solan; 2, M. Beard.

Boys, 8 years—1, C. Wallace; 2, D. Fielding.

Girls 10 years—I. Fielding; 2, D. Copeland.

Boys 10 years—1, W. Beard; 2, V. Robinson.

Girls 12 years—1, M. Solan; 2, M. Simm.

Boys 12 years—1, H. Watson; 2, A. Wallace.

Girls 14 years—1, M. Donaldson, 2, M. Sharp.

Boys 14 years—1, H. Wallis; 2, F. Watson.

Soldiers' Wives race—1, A. Gordon; 2, Mrs. Main.

Soldiers' wives tug of war, with returned soldiers as captain—1, Pte. Jones and team; 2, Pte F. Fielding and team.

KELLER—HARDY

A wedding of considerable interest to Nanaimoites was solemnized on Monday, when Miss Mary Ethel, second eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardy, of Parksville, formerly of Nanaimo, became the bride of Captain Cornelius James Keller, of the 147th Battalion, who was wounded in action and returned to his home in North Vancouver, on a six months' furlough.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Hitchcock, of Parksville, the bride being attended by her sister, Miss Sadie Hardy, the groom being supported by his brother, Dr. Keller. A large number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed at noon at the home of the bride's parents, after which the newly married couple left on a honeymoon trip prior to taking up their residence in North Vancouver.

While returning home from Newcastle Island Monday evening a canoe carrying Miss Bella Gray and Miss Ethel Little, was capsized by the wash from a launch in which the Reserve tug-of-war team was being conveyed to town. Three of the team jumped overboard and succeeded in rescuing the young ladies who were not much the worse for their submersion.

TAIT GETS DECISION ....

Winnipeg, Sept. 3.—Clonie Tait, lightweight champion of Canada earned the decision over Charlie Scully, of Chicago, in a twelve round open air bout this afternoon. Tait had the advantage in five rounds, while Scully took two, and five were even. The fight was at catch weights.

MUTINY ABOARD FLEET

Madrid, Sept 4, via London.—Mutinies have broken out aboard some of the Portuguese warships. Many arrests have been made.

RESERVE TEAM WON THE TUG OF WAR

The tug-of-war contest pulled off on Newcastle Island on Monday between teams representing No. 1 and Reserve Mines, was won by the Reserve eleven in two straight pulls, the first in 1 hour and 28 minutes, and the second in 7 minutes and 15 seconds.

The Reserve team came off victorious by reason of its superior staying qualities. The first pull was one of the hardest ever witnessed in these parts. In the first ten minutes Reserve gained a foot but for the next hour the rope did not deviate more than an inch or two either way. It was a case of main strength and staying qualities fighting for supremacy and in the end No. 1 gave way with the result that they were forced to concede two feet in less than ten minutes and the first pull went to the credit of the Reserve.

The strenuous 88 minutes had sapped No. 1 pullers of all their staying powers with the result that it required only seven and a quarter minutes for the Reserve to walk away with the second pull and the match.

There was a big crowd in attendance and both teams had a large number of supporters. There was considerable betting on the result, with the Reserve the favorites in the betting. The two teams lined-up as follows:

No. 1 Mine—H. Killeen, F. Killeen, R. Charnock, J. Tognela, J. Patterson, J. Anderson, A. Newberry, R. Mercer, N. Tognela, W. Adderson and F. Tattery, Captain William Bradley—

DOMINION THEATRE

As a special feature for Friday night only, Manager Beattie announces Miss Jean Patterson in some of her song successes. She will appear at both performances on that evening. Adjust your engagements if you can so that you will not miss this.

BIJOU THEATRE

George Beban concededly the greatest character actor on the stage will be at the Bijou today in one of his latest successes "The Bond Between." In it he gives one of his noted Italian impersonations, a line in which he has absolutely no equal. With this will also be screened a very amusing comedy.

The thirteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Towers was left behind on Newcastle Island Monday evening, at the conclusion of the Elk's picnic, having missed the last scow. The shock unnerved her to such an extent that she fainted, but luckily her cries had been heard and two young men in a launch picked her up and brought her to the city. She was immediately taken to the hospital where she is reported to be doing well.

I. W. W.'S HAVING HARD TIME IN AUSTRALIA

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 4.—The authorities here are continuing vigorously their attempt to put an end to the activities of the I. W.W. Three more members of the society here and 34 at Broken Hill have been sentenced to six months' imprisonment for belonging to unlawful association.

OFFSETTING LOSSES CAUSED BY U BOATS

London, Sept. 4.—Commenting on the rapid increase in shipbuilding to offset losses from the submarine campaign, the Cardiff correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says that two supplements published by Lloyds Shipping Register show that between June 3 and July 17 more than 190 steamships, of which 63 are British, were added to the register. Most of these vessels are of larger tonnage.

Lloyd Jones returned yesterday to Port Moody after spending Labor Day with his parents, "Rosedale," this city.

NANAIMO BOYS IN CASUALTY LIST

Sergt. Reginald Bryant Killed in Action, and Other Volunteers from This City Wounded or Gassed on Western Front.

The week-end brought sad news to a number of Nanaimo homes, official information having been received by relatives, from the War Office, of the death or wounding of a son or brother On Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bryant, of Albert street, were officially informed that their son Sergt. Reginald W. Bryant, had been killed in action on the western front. "Reg." as he was familiarly known to his fellow employees of the Geo. S. Pearson & Co., and to numerous residents of the city, was a native of Nanaimo, 26 years old. He enlisted with the Signal Corps and had been at the front two years, for some time on scout duty, but recently transferred to the infantry.

Besides his sorrowing parents, he is survived by four brothers, William, who is also at the front, Charles, Henry and Herbert, all of this city, and one sister, Mrs. J. A. Campbell of Livingstone, Montana, with all of whom the very deepest sympathy will be felt.

Corporal William George Martin, was admitted to the Lord Derby hospital at Warrington, Eng., on Aug. 28th, suffering from a gunshot wound in the abdomen, according to official word received from the War Office by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Martin, Newcastle Townsite.

Mr. F. S. Whiteside has received official intimation that his son Lce.-Corp. Frederick B. Whiteside, was admitted into No. 22 general hospital in France, on August 22, suffering from a gunshot wound in the back and elbow. Corporal Whiteside would have completed two full years of service in the trenches on the 21st of this month.

Mrs. S. Fisher of Dixon street has been notified that her husband, Lce. Corporal J. L. Fisher, of the Royal Engineers, is in No. 16 general hospital at Le Treport, France, suffering from severe gas poisoning.

Mr. Robert Brown, of Albert St., received official notification that his son Pte. John Brown has been admitted into the 22nd general hospital on August 23rd, suffering from a gunshot wound in the leg, which he received at the front in Flanders.

Mrs. A. R. Eastwood, manageress of the Imperial Laundry, has heard, through a private source that her husband was killed by shell fire on the French front on August 11. Her information is to the effect that the dugout in which her husband was sleeping, three miles behind the front line, was hit by a German shell, and that its three occupants, her husband being one, were all killed.

Mr. John Jones of this city, has received word that his brother, Pte. George Jones has been blinded in action, but regained the sight of one eye in hospital at St. Ibridge, Worcestershire, Eng. Pte. Jones went overseas with the 62nd and was recently with the First Pioneers. He has been overseas for ten months.

Mr. John Lewis, Haliburton St., is in receipt of the appended telegram from the Director of Records, Ottawa: "Sincerely regret to inform you 808,922, Lance Corporal Thos. McGuffie Lewis, infantry, officially reported admitted to 22nd general hospital, Camiers, August 23rd, 1917, gas poisoning. Will send further particulars as received."

Private George Ritchie was admitted to No. 4 General Hospital, Damies Canneres, France, on Aug. 22nd, suffering with gunshot wounds in feet. Pte. Ritchie is a son of Mr. Walter Ritchie, Vancouver and nephew of Mr. William Ritchie, Mrs. W. McKinney and Mrs. T. Horne of this city. He enlisted with the 103rd. Battalion at which time he was employed in the local law office of Messrs. Leighton and Elder.

Mrs. Monks, of "The Chalet," Cameron Lake, has received news that her husband, Lieut. A. M. Monks, was killed in action on August 21. He left Victoria as a sergeant with the 88th Battalion on May 23, 1916.

Miss Johnson of the Nanaimo hospital nursing staff, is in receipt of information to the effect that her brother, Gunner Alfred H. Johnson, was admitted to the first general hospital, Takerley, Liverpool, on Aug. 24th, suffering with gas poisoning. Gunner Johnson, who is a grandson of Mr. Herbert Charman, of this city, was well known in Nanaimo, and has many friends here, who will wish him a speedy recovery.

MADE AIR RAID UPON CHATHAM

Upwards of One Hundred Navy Men Killed and Eighty-Six Wounded at British Naval Station.

London, Sept. 4.—In last night's air raid 107 navy men were killed and 86 were wounded at Chatham, it is announced officially.

Six aeroplanes took part in the raid.

In addition to the naval casualties one civilian was killed and six were injured.

The announcement follows:

"Lord French, Commander of the British Home Forces, reports that last night's air raid was carried out by about six enemy aeroplanes which proceeded up the south bank of the Thames estuary to Chatham. Bombs were dropped on the Island of Thanet and in the Sheerness-Chatham area between 10:40 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. There were no army casualties.

"Civilian casualties reported so far are: Killed 1; injured 6. The material damage was slight. Our machines went up and anti-craft guns came into action, but without result.

"The Secretary of the Admiralty reports that in the course of the air raid last night the following casualties were caused among naval ratings: Killed, 107; wounded, 86."

London, Sept. 4.—Reports received here from southeast coast towns say that during Monday night's raid the air along the coast for several miles inland resounded with the noise of aircraft engines. One of the raiders passed over a coast town headed seaward, its engine making the loudest noise ever heard there from an aircraft. The sound resembled the noise of a zeppelin and came from a great height.

The raids over the southeast coast on Sunday and Monday nights seem to have been more for the purpose of testing the possibility of attack by moonlight than in the hope of doing any considerable damage. Like the single aviator who dropped bombs on Dover Sunday night, those who came last night kept at a great altitude, and while their machines could be heard they could not be seen. Nevertheless, British aeroplanes went up in pursuit.

After dropping bombs over a wide area, many of them falling into fields or the sea, the raiders departed as quickly as they had come. Dispatches thus far received say little damage was done.

London, Sept. 4.—A dispatch to the London Star from Chatham says part of the naval barracks there was struck by a bomb during last night's raid, this causing serious loss of life. The Chatham dockyard, the message states, entirely escaped damage.

JONES—COUNDLEY

Mr. Cecil Jones, second eldest son of Mrs. Williams, Wallace street, was united in marriage yesterday to Miss Cledia Coundley, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Coundley, Esplanade.

The marriage was performed by the Rev. Dr. Fea, at the home of Mrs. (Capt.) Rowe, Vancouver, the bride being attended by her sister, Miss Marguerite, the groom being supported by Mr. Cecil Horne, of this city.

The newly married couple arrived from Vancouver on the Patricia last evening and were tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents where a number of friends spending a most pleasant evening in general merrymaking.

The bride is a native daughter of Nanaimo and has a host of friends in the city with whom The Herald joins in wishing herself and husband many years of happy and prosperous married life.

WINNIPEG PRICES RAISED

Winnipeg, Sept. 4.—Coal is up 50c a ton here. The price for domestic coal is now $12.50. A shortage of supply, due to coal mines trouble is given as the reason for the increase.

WAR PROFITEER FINED

Spalding, Eng., Sept. 4.—George Thompson, a Lincolnshire farmer, was fined 5,500 pounds today for selling potatoes above the maximum prices set by Food Controllers.

ELIMINATION AND NOT CONSCRIPTION

Proposed Conscription Measure Will be Process of Eliminating Those Who Can be Spared from Vital Industries for Services at Front.

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—The Evening Citizen says today:

"It is the intention of the Government to apply to an even more generous extent than included in the Military Service as a bill itself, and emphasis is to be laid on the fact that the bill is not conscription in the broad acceptance of the term, taking everybody of military age, but a process of elimnation of those that can be spared as distinguished from those whose services are vital to the country at home. Men who are bona fide who are engaged in vital industries and who cannot be replaced, will, according to the regulations be entitled to examination. In this class are those engaged in agriculture, mining, fishing and other lines of production connected with the prosecution of the war.

Preliminary commissions for examinations are likely this week to act with exemption boards and judges.

W. HOGGAN HIGH GUN IN "A" CLASS

At the last regular shoot of the Gun Club, W. Hoggan was high man in 'A' class with 24, while, for second place R. Hoggan, W. Harrison, and C. Martin sen., tied with 20. In the "B" Class F. Evans carried off the honors with 21, T. Wallis being second with 19.

In the handicap series for the Hercules Powder Company's trophy the six highest scores to date are: W. Hoggan 167, F. Evans 164, J. Thompson 160, C. Martin sen. 156, D. Little 155 and F. Tattrie 152.

The big event of the season, the shoot for the cup emblematic of the championship of the district, will take place next Sunday, and for this event it is expected that quite a number of Vancouver's experts will come over.

MRS. CHAS. ROWBOTTOM LOST INFANT SON

The death occurred Monday evening of Donald, the six months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowbottom, of 520 Kennedy street. The event is rendered doubly sad by reason of the fact that the infant's father is at present in hospital in England, he having enlisted and gone overseas with the 11th C. M. R. The funeral under the direction of Mr. H. McAdie, will take place this afternoon at 2:30, from the family residence, the Rev. W. E. Cockshott officiating.

NEW FRANCHISE BILL

The provisions of the new Federal Franchise Bill will meet with no opposition from all those whose chief desire at present is to help win the war. There will be general agreement with the intention to disfranchise men of enemy alien birth, whose sympathies are against and not with Canada in this war. As a matter of fact there are hundreds of men in Canada enjoying the full privileges of Canadian citizenship, who should be interned. Of course, the utmost care and discretion will have to be exercised in dealing with the franchise of these aliens, for many of them have proved their loyalty and devotion to their adopted country. At the same time it is unthinkable that men whose sympathies are with the enemy should be allowed a voice in determining Canada's action and conduct in the war.

Some doubts may be felt about the bill's proposals in regard to conscientious objectors. There should be no exception made in favor of these citizens, and a great many men who never had a conscience will now develop the strongest scruples. The British authorities found the only way to deal with the difficulty was to treat all men alike. If a man, who had been called up, urged conscientious objections to handling a rifle, he was given service outside the firing line. After a little active service even of this kind, a very large percentage of these objectors shed all their scruples and asked for a rifle. The principle involved is that when, in the interests of the state, conscription has become a necessity, no man should be exempt from service of some kind.

The third main proposal of the bill is to give the franchise to the female relatives of the men who have gone to the front. There will be no objection to this, although there may be some dissatisfaction that universal women suffrage has not been adopted. The bill has yet to pass through the House, and may be amended in discussion. Certainly it will be easy to place the members who object to the principles of the measure, and if there is to be a general election it will be as well to have a preliminary show down. The bill, be it understood, is purely a war measure and will remain in force only for as long as the war lasts.

DE PALMA BEATEN

Chicago, Sept. 3.—Winner of first two events at 20 and 50 miles, Ralph de Palma lost the 100 mile event, the big race of the programme at Speedway Park today, because he was forced to stop for a change of tires in the sixth-eighth mile. The race went to Louis Chevrolet, who covered the distance in 556:29:05. Dave Lewis finished second and De Palma third.

FAMILY DOCTOR'S GOOD ADVICE

To Go On Taking "Fruit-a-tives" Because They Did Her Good

ROCMON, P. Q., JAN. 14th, 1915.

"I suffered for many years with terrible Indigestion and Constipation. I had frequent dizzy spells and became greatly run down. A neighbor advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives". I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve, and he advised me to go on with "Fruit-a-tives".

I consider that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives" and I want to say to those who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation or Headaches—'try Fruit-a-tives' and you will get well". CORINE GAUDREAU.

A Message To The Young Men of NANAIMO

Thomas A. Edison Says:

"I have watched the progress of the I. C. S. almost from the very beginning, and, while your rapid growth might be marveled at by some, to me it is easily understood because I realize the practical value back of the I.C.S. training."

Most of your time is mortgaged to work, meals and sleep. But the hours after supper are yours, and your future depends on how you spend them. You can fritter them away on profitless pleasure, or you can make these hours bring you position, money, power, real success in life. Thousands of splendid good-paying positions are waiting in every field of work for men trained to fill them. There's a big job waiaing for you, in your present work, or any line you choose. Get ready for it, as many ambitious men (names furnished on application) have done through the

P. P. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Edncation, recently paid a visit to the I.C.S. After an inspection of the system, he said:

"I fully believe in the principle of instruction by correspondence for those who are unable to attend the schools, and for those who wish to continue their work in any subject or group of subjects beyond what they are able to get in the schools."

International Correspondence Schools

No matter how limited your previous education, the simply-written, wonderfully-illustrated I.C.S. textbooks make it easy to learn. No matter what career you may choose, some of the 280 I.C.S. Courses will surely suit your needs.

UNIQUE TEXTBOOKS

More money has been invested in the preparation of I.C.S. textbooks than upon any other textbooks ever published. The Course in Architecture cost $98,000; the Course in Civil Engineering $88,000; the Course in Textiles $76,000; the Agricultural Courses over $225,000. The superior service is always at your command.

I.C.S. textbooks are used for reference and instruction in colleges and universities, in government schools, institutes of technology and vocational schools, in America, by the U. S. Navy Department in its Ship Board Training Schools, and by many of the largest industrial corporations in their training classes for apprentices and employes.

Facts worth Knowing About I. C. S.

Some idea of the great work of the I.C.S. may be had from the following: First student enrolled October 1891; total enrolment now more than 1,850,000; 7 Home-office buildings-7½ acres of floor space; 3000 employes—25 branch offices—32 foreign agencies; 280 Courses taught; daily postage bill $700; 32,000 pieces of mail handled daily; 5½ tons of paper used by the Printing Department daily; 600 completed text books turned out by the Printing Department daily; advertisements run in 100 national magazines and technical trade publications each day; 250 new students enrolled daily; 250 railroad and industrial companies have entered into agreement with the I.C.S. for training their employes.

Jesse G. Vincent, Designer, Packard "Twin Six"

"I take great pleasure in recommending I. C. S. courses to any young man who is ambitious and anxious to get the necessary education to enable him to make the most of his opportunities.

"I found your system thorough. If the student is conscientious there is no reason why he cannot accomplish what he set out to accomplish when he enrolled.

"My I.C.S. Course enabled me to obtain the training that was absolutely necessary in order that I might be in position to take advantage of opportunities for advancement as they presented themsives."

JESSE G. VINCENT,
Vice-Pres. of Engineering
Packard Motor Car Co.

SERVICE TO STUDENTS

A large department is maintained by the I.C.S. for the sole purpose of helping students to obtain every possible benefit from their studies.

Many of the largest employers in the country are interested in the work of the I.C.S., and, at their request, are being informed regularly concerning the progress of I.C.S. students among their employes.

Successful efforts are also made to secure good positions for deserving students, and competent employes for employers.

When everything has been made easy for you—when one hour a day spent with the I.C.S. in the quiet of your own home will bring you a bigger income, more comforts, more pleasures, all that success means—can you afford to let another priceless hour of spare time go to waste? Make your start today by marking and mailing the coupon in the corner.

There are Some I.C.S. Students in Your Section

In every city in the United States there is a representative body of I.C.S. students. Besides, there are thousands of students in other parts of the world. Our representative will tell you the names of the students in your neighborhood.

Proof Positive That It Pays

Advanced $100 a Month

I am now receiving $150 per month; when I enrolled was receiving $50. This increase was made possible by your splendid instruction. My only regret is that I lost ten years of opportunity by not enrollig when I first went to work in the electrical field.—EDWARD G. CAMPBELL, Municipal Light and Water Works, Crete, Neb.

Chief Engineer at $2,100 a Year.

I was a machinist at $3.25 a day when I enrolled. Two years later I accepted a position as chief engineer with the Bowie Lumber Company. My salary is $2,100 a year. I feel certain that I would never have been able to fill the position satisfactorily without the knowledge received from my I.C.S. Course.—ERNEST LeBLANC, Bowie, La.

Employer Finds I.C.S. Students Most Efficient

I was a salesman when I enrolled. Am now treasurer and general manager of the F. A. Nauffus Company, Inc. I have thirty employes twenty have taken I.C.S. Courses, and I find these twenty the most efficient. I always advise men to take your Courses.—F. A. NAUFFTUS, 220 W. 42nd. St., New York, N.Y.

MORRIS DISQUALIFIED IN FULTON BOUT

Canton, Ohio, Sept. 5.—Carl Morris, of Oklahoma City, was disqualified in the sixth round of his scheduled fifteen round go with Fred Fulton, of Minnesota, for continually butting. Fulton had a big lead when the referee stopped the bout. Morris was mobbed by angry spectators as he left the ring. Morris was not badly hurt. Morris and Fulton were battling for the right to meet Jess Willard, heavyweight champion. The title holder has promised the winner. Fulton tried to leave the arena at the end of the fifth round but was held in the ring by his handlers. Once during the sixth round Fulton started to his corner saying, "I'm not going to fight any more." Referee Hinkel ordered him to continue and Fulton resumed the battle.

Fulton proved the better boxer and was benefited by the clean break rules. Morris took the aggressive in the first round and forced the going throughout.

Morris worked with both hands for the head while Fulton caught Morris coming in with left jabs and left uppercuts to the head. Referee Hinkel said after the bout:

"I was forced to disqualify Morris after I had warned him a dozen times for buttting and hitting in the breaks.

ROSSLAND SOLDIER SHOWN HIS OWN GRAVE

Not many men have had the delightful pleasure of being assured that he is dead and at the same time be informed that his grave is just one hundred feet away, but such is one of the adventures of Clem Cave Brown Cave, formerly of Rossland. On two different occasions Cave has been reported dead. At one time he was chasing the enemy when he discarded his service coat, which contained his identification papers. Another soldier found his coat and arrived at the conclusion that Cave have been killed. Later on the finder donned the coat and was shot and again Cave was reported dead. It was here that he was taken to the grave of the soldier that wore his coat and was an interested spectator at his own grave, for he was supposed to be the man beneath the sod.

Gossard Corsets are not Expensive

Rising prices has made Gossards even greater corset value than before—because Gossards remain at standard prices and at standard quality.

People who have seen the new Fall Corsets and brassieres enthusiastically declared that the Gossard line exceeds in beauty and value anything that they have ever had the privilege of examining.

"How much have your prices raised?" The question is almost invariably asked by those who see the new Gossard merchandise. They are surprised to learn that the prices have not increased.

The reason why there will be no advance in prices of Gossard corsets and brassieres is simply this—that the raw materials were purchased at the old prices last year when every resource of the Gossard Company was utilized in accumulating merchandise that reached the Gossard standard.

Every woman who wears a lace Front Corset will get more for her money this Fall by wearing a Gossard than she did before.

For excellence of material and workmanship give the greatest durability to Gossards. They wear longer. They are rust-proof and washable. Lacing in front makes it easy to adjust the corset each morning comfortably and mould the body. The Gossard selected according to your exact figure type must outwear any less perfectly individualized corset.

WAR SITUATION ON ALL FRONTS

Russians Continue to Retreat in Riga Sector, and Italians Have Again Started Their Offensive for Trieste—Artillery Actions on Western Front.

While the Russians continue their flight before the Germans in the region of Riga, the Italians, after a few days of comparative idleness, have again started their great offensive against the Austrians on the Bainsizza plateau and to the northwest of Gorizia.

In the south, however, the Austrians at one place momentarily forced the Italians to cede territory. A counter attack by the Italians not alone retrieved the lost positions, but resulted in the capture of more than 400 prisoners.

On the Bainsizza plateau northeast of Gorizia, the Italians have made further gains, capturing an important Austrian position near Ocroglo. No confirmation is at hand of the reported capture by the Italians of Monte San Gabriele, the last dominating position held by the Austrians north of Gorizia. Nearly 1700 men have beene captured by the Italians in the Gorizia sector. Again the Italians have sent their airmen over Pola the Austrian naval base in the Adriatic dropping bombs, explosions of which nave added materially to the damage done in previous raids.

In the region of Riga the Russians are retiring eastward and northeast, all along the line pursued by the Germans. The army which evacuated Riga, has crossed the Aa river in Livonia, while the army from Uxskull river is astride the Riga-Pskov-Petrograd railroad.

War vessels, which were reported shelling the Riga, coast line, and which it was thought probably might be covering the landing of troops to cut off the retreat of the Riga army were submarines—probably craft which were reported earlier as operating in adjacent waters in company with torpedo boat destroyers, and mine sweepers.

Operations on the Western front in Belgium and France continue to be carried out mainly by opposing artilleries, although the British are still making trench raids or warding off enemy attacks. Two rather strong attacks against the French front on Californie plateau on the Aisne front were repulsed by General Petain's forces.

Reciprocal air raids continue to be carried out by the British, French and German airman at points far behind the fighting line German aviators have dropped bombs on the French hospitals in the region of Verdun. Eleven persons were killed and 62 injured in Tuesday night's aerial attack by Germans on the southeastern English coast

DOMINION THEATRE

Jean Patterson needs no introduction to Nanaimo people. They have all heard her sing in the past and have watched with pleasure her progress upward in her chosen profession. For a year past she has been delighting other audiences with her voice and personality, having through her engagement with the Pollard Opera Company appeared in nearly all the larger cities of the United States and Canada, and has been universally praised by press and public alike. Manager Beattie has induced her to appear at the Dominion Theatre next Friday night only, in some of her favorite [illegible] notably one written and composed for her by a well known New York song writer. There will be two shows Friday evening, Miss Patterson appearing in each. No advance in prices.

LOCAL DELEGATES AT CONVENTION

The Half-yearly meeting of the Independent Order of Rechabites was held in Vancouver Labor Day, Sept. 3 at which a good gathering of members and visitors was present including a strong representation from Nanaimo.

The council meeting was opened at 10:30 a.m. by the D. C. R. Bro. Thos. Wallace assisted by all the district officers with the exception of Trustee Sergeant D.B. Brankin who is overseas with the 102nd Battalion. Bro. E.J. Pope of Nanaimo occupied the Deputy chair. The reports of the District Executive and Dist. Secretary showed the District to be in good shape financially and also a small increase numerically, despite the financial depression also that 13 members were on Active Service. The Society has about 75,000 members on active service and the contribution of all these members are paid by the society in addition to all sick benefits and death claims which have amounted to over 5,000 since the start of the war. There has beene paid as contributions a sum of over $412,000 and as benefits $249,890 which goes to show the financial strength of the order. The B.C. Dist. has invested its surplus funds in the Canadian War Loan.

The report from the various Tents showed them to be in good shape financially with prospects of increasing membership. The thanks of the members are due to the Tent secretaries for the manner in which the work has been carried on during the half year.

The report of the representative to the High Movable conference held in Manchester Eng. showed the order to be flourishing all over the world wherever a Rechabite tent was pitched. Several of the representatives spoke regarding the charges of the Medical Fraternity and the opinion of the meeting was that all Friendly Societies should employ their own medical officers for Friendly Society work only, as is done in other countries, especially in Australia and New Zealand.

After the business was finished and the Council meeting closed those present adjourned to partake of luncheon provided by Perseverance Tent No. 206, to which full justice was done. The annual meeting will be held during February, 1918, when the election of District officers will take place.

PRIVATE ALBERT DIXON DIES FROM WOUNDS

Mrs. Dixon, of Kennedy street, at present living with her son, Mr. John Dixon in Vancouver, is in receipt of a telegram from Ottawa, informing her that her son, Pte. Albert Dixon, had died of wounds. A telegram received a week ago, informing Mrs. Dixon her son had been seriously wounded, prepared her for the worse news received yesterday. Pte. Dixon enlisted with the 103rd, and was later transferred to the 143rd, and finally to the 47th. Much sympathy will be felt for the bereaved mother, who is in her eighty-seventh year.

WILSON TAKES DRASTIC ACTION

Meeting Places of I. W. W.'s, Socialists and Other Anti-War Organizations Raided by Government Officials—Records Seized.

Washington, Sept. 5—The Government today took drastic measures to end the anti-war propaganda conducted in the name of the Industrial Workers of the World, the Socialist party, and other organizations throughout the United States.

On orders from Attorney General Gregory, United States Marshals in many towns and cities descended at 2 p.m., central time, upon Local headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the World, seized books, checks, correspondence and other documents, and in some instances, arrested officials of the organizations. The arrest at Chicago, of Haywood, National Secretary, was a conspicuous example.

LABOR PLEDGED TO SUPPORT WAR

Gompers Denounced Peace Propagandists, and Denounced Those Who Would Split Ranks of Labor on War Issue.

Minneapolis, Sept. 5. — Samuel Gompers today pledged the united support of organized labor to the Government in its prosecution of the war, assailed peace propagandists and denounced futile the activity of those who would split labor's ranks on question of war.

He attacked the arguments of those who declared the working masses want peace, and challenged the pro-German societies to step forth into the open and match their disloyalty against labor's loyalty.

JAPAN IN THE WAR TO STAY

Washington, Sept. 5.—Japan's comradeship and co-operation in the war was delivered to the House today by Viscount Ishii amid hearty applause from a crowded floor and gallery. The special Ambassador told the House, as he had told the Senate and President Wilson, that his country was in the battle against military oppression to stay, and welcomed the opportunity to fight beside the United States.

RETURNING SOLDIERS WILL REACH HOME TONIGHT

Ald. Ferguson, chairman of the Civic Returned Soldiers' Committee received word late yesterday afternoon from Vancouver to the effect that Ernest Rivers and Charles Green, two of Nanaimo's soldier lads who are returning from the front, will reach here by this evening's boat.

He has already secured the services of the Silver Cornet band, the members of which have gladly consented even at the risk of considerable personal loss, to be present to aid in welcoming these gallant chaps who have done so much for the honor of Nanaimo. The Mayor and councilmen will probably be on the scene in full force, and it only remains for the citizens generally to turn out and show by their presence and their cheers that they appreciate what these two brave lads have done in the Empire's cause.

HUN ATTACK ON FRENCH FAILED

German Attacks on the Aisne and Champagne Fronts were Repulsed by French Troops —Huns Bombed French Hospitals at Verdun.

Paris, Sept. 5.—The official statement issued tonight reads:

"This morning after a violent bombardment the Germans delivered against the Californie Plateau two attacks, which were repulsed. There were spirited reciprocal artillery actions on both banks of the Meuse."

Paris, Sept. 5.—German attacks on the Aisne and Champagne fronts last night were repulsed by French troops, says an official report issued here today. French troops made a successful attack in the Champagne. French hospitals were again bombarded by German aviators.

The announcement follows:

"After a spirited bombardment yesterday evening German troops made an attack on the Casemates Plateau. Checked by our fire they were not able to approach our lines. In the Champagne we repulsed an enemy attack north of The Casque. We made a successful attack northeast of The Teton and took prisoners.

"On both banks of the Meuse River violent artillery fighting continued through the night.

"In upper Alsace there were patrol engagements in the region of Seppois.

"Last night German aviators bombarded the new hospital behind the Verdun front and are reported to have caused deaths and injuries.

"Bar-le-Duc also received a number of projectiles, and there were several victims among the civilian population.

"On September 4 five German aeroplanes were brought down by our pilots and five others, badly damaged, fell within the German lines. Another aeroplane was brought down by some of our machine guns. In retaliation for enemy bombardments of our sanitary establishments two of our aviators bombed Treves last night.

"Our bombing aeroplanes carried out a number of expeditions, attacking the railroad stations at Roulers and Pitthem, the aviation grounds at Ghistelles, munitions depots at Thourout, where a violent fire was observed; barracks at Lahr, aviation grounds at Shhelestadt and factories at Hagondange."

Mr. and Mrs. L. Manson have received word that their son, Ernest has been admitted to the 11th General hospital, Camiers, suffering with gunshot wounds.

ADRIANOPLE BOMBED

London, Sept. 5.—British naval airplanes penetrated far inland on Sunday, dropping many bombs on the city of Adrianople, says an official statement issued today.

RETURNED SOLDIERS ARE TO MEET HERE

Teams Selected from Qualicum and Esquimalt Will Play Cricket Here on Saturday.

A cricket match of more than usual interest will be played on the Caledonian grounds on Saturday first, when two elevens composed of soldiers returned from the front will struggle for supremacy with the bat and ball. The match has been arranged by Major Harvey, the officer in charge of the military hospitals commission in B. C., and Captain Aylmer, the officer commanding at Qualicum. The men under Major Harvey's charge are all men who have been sent back from the front incapacitated through illness or maimed and injured by wounds. They are returned to these camps so that they may be looked after and made fit to go back to the work they left to fight for the Dominion.

Major Harvey is a great believer in the value of outdoor recreation in getting the boys their health back again and he has given every encouragement to the good old game of cricket. Captain Aylmer has done the same, but the boys up the Island have not been able to get many games. Some time ago they journeyed down to Esquimalt and administered a healthy drubbing to the boys there. The game on Saturday is something in the nature of a return match, and should be well worth seeing. The men just back from tossing up bombs and grenades are keener than ever on the old game, and there should be a good turn-out to see them play.

Final arrangements have not yet been completed, but the match will be played under Red Cross auspices.

SCARBOROUGH IS SHELLED BY SUB

Scarborough, Sept. 5. — During a thick mist a German submarine appeared about two miles off shore at seven o'clock last evening and bombarded the town. About two dozen shells were fired, the shore at the time being crowded with visitors.

British mine sweepers attacked the submarine and the cannonade became deafening. The submarine submerged and was not seen again. The damage inland was small. The bombardment lasted ten minutes.

HELD SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC LABOR DAY

(Contributed).

A very successful Sunday School picnic of the scholars attending the St. Philip's Church, Cedar, was held on Labor Day, when about 50 of them journeyed by wagons, buggies, cars, etc., to Ainscough's Point, on Quennell's Lake.

After lunch had been partaken of and cleared away a programme consisiting of sports which included all manner of races, in which all took part, young, old, ladies and gents. There was also a great number of bathers, for which the place is well adapted. Mr. W. Wilkinson kindly placed his launch at the service of the Vicar (Mr. Pearson), for short trips around, which was gladly accepted. The affair was pronounced a huge success by all attending.

At the close of the day thanks were accorded Mr. and Mrs. Ainscough for their kind and genial manner in offering their house and grounds; also to the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson for their keen interest they took in everything pertaining to the children's comfort and happiness during the day.

Advance Temple No. 3, I. O. G. T. will re-open tonight at 7 o'clock.

HIGHER PENSIONS ARE PROMISED BY OTTAWA

Toronto, Sept. 5.—A sixty per cent increase in the pensions for members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force is to be granted by a Dominion order-in-council within the next few weeks.

The announcement of such a large pension increase, amounting to many millions of dollars, was made to local officers of the Great War Veterans' Association by the Cabinet at Ottawa according to their statement here.

BASTION CHAPTER HAS BEEN ACTIVE

For the future the Chapter will hold a regular meeting on the first Monday afternoon of each month, and an adjourned meeting on the third Monday evening of each month the latter to be held at the I.O.D.E. headquarters.

The headquarters will be open every day from 3 to 5 from now on wards.

The Chapter has contributed the following to the Military Convalescent Hospital at Qualicum: 2 cases of surgical dressings, 12 table covers, 2 bed rests, one from the Chapter and one donated by Mrs. Kirkup, 15 pairs of socks.

Tobacco was sent to 102 of our own Nanaimo boys on Sept. 1st.

The Chapter will hold an Xmas cheer shower the first week in October, for the boys at the front. All contributions will be most gratefully received. Details published later.

An exhibition of the work done by the Chapter will be on view in charge of the Canadian Field Comforts committee, of which Mrs. Beckley is convener, at the Agricultural Exhibition next week.

A certificate from the Canadian Field Comforts Commission, Moore Barracks, Shorncliffe, England, will be awarded to those ladies who knit 100 pairs of socks for the commission.

For further information apply to I.O.D.E. headquarters.

At the meeting on Monday, the Regent presented war clasps to the following mothers of boys who have served or are serving overseas: Mrs. Pender, Mrs. H. McKenzie, Mrs. D. Smith and Mrs. Rivers.

A letter has been received from the secretary of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Nanaimo Hospital acknowledging the sum of $329.64, being the proceeds of the Alexandra Rose Day.

The Chapter will serve light lunches, ice cream, candy and soft drinks at the exhibition on the 11th, 12th and 13th of this month.

Donations not previously acknowledged: From Hon. Wm. Sloan, $32.74 in payment for advertising postponed garden fete; 2 pairs socks from Mrs. E. Shakespears; 4 pairs socks from Mrs. Hoggan; 1 pair of socks from Mrs. Beckley.

SHIPPING LOSSES INCREASED

London, Sept. 5.—British merchant ships sunk by mines or submarines in the past week numbered twenty of more than 1600 tons and three under 1600 tons, according to an official statement issued today.

SAN GABRIELE IN ITALIAN HANDS

Last of the Great Austrian Strongholds in the Gorizia Region Passes Into Hands of General Cadorna's Victorious Forces.

London, Sept. 5.—An Italian official announcement received here says in the resumption of the battle on the Julien front, and the capture of the Austrian position on Bainsizza plateau south of Acrogolo, 86 officers and 1600 men were made prisoners.

On the Carso Plateau the enemy after a most violent bombardment, launched infantry forces against our positions from Castagnavizza to the Sea. On the northern section of the line the attack was repulsed. In the centre betweene Koerile and Celle our troops gallantly resisted seven furious assaults, and maintained their positions.

Two hundred and sixty-one of our airplanes participated in the battle bombing enemy troops and their communication lines.

London, Sept. 5.—Italy's long years of preparation and General Cadorna's strategy and ability as commander continue to bear fruit in the great offensive the Italian armies are now waging for Trieste.

Although official announcement is lacking, there seems little reason to question dispatches from various sources stating that Monte San Gabriele, the last of the Austrian strongholds in the Gorizia district, has been taken by the Italians.

Now that his troops have taken this peak, the way seems cleared for General Cadorna to complete his domination of the Bainsizza Plateau, and push on into the Chiapavono Valley, driving a wedge in between the Austrian northern and southern armies on the Isonzo front.

London, Sept. 5.—A dispatch received in London confirms the report of the capture by the Italians of Monte San Gabriele, together with 950 prisoners, including 32 officers. The Italians now possess the entire chain of mountains which dominate Gorizia.

Paris, Sept. 5.—The Petit Parisien says news has been received in Paris stating that Italian forces have taken possession of Monte San Gabriele.

Udine, Italy, Sept. 5.—It is impossible thus far to give even an approximate idea of the immense quantity of booty which has fallen into the hands of the Italian forces since the beginning of their advance The materials captured indicate the precipitate manner in which the Austrians fled all along the line of attack. On the Bainsizza Plateau, near Santo Spirito and Laska whole convoys of arms and munitions were abandoned in such haste that there was no time to destroy them. At one point thousands of boxes of projectiles hand grenades, rockets, rifles, shoes and helmets were strewn everywhere. Some of the caverns are still packed with Austrian dead.

Mule paths and the adjacent side hills are littered with unexploded projectiles which the fugitives threw away, together with daggers, swords and iron-studded maces used for dispatching the wounded. On Hill 652 Italian troops captured three 105-millimetre cannon. Two of them the Italians turned on the fleeing enemy, firing 1,900 shots.

In an armored dugout near Rarena Italian troops discovered the entire equipment of an Austrian brigade.

THE AIR RAIDS

The German air raids in England have once more raised the question of British air defences. Three raids in succession must have come as rather a trial to British calm. In one instance, also, a lucky shot resulted in a large number of casualties, and people are, as a consequence, inclined to take a mistaken view of the raid. A good deal is being made of the fact that the German raiders appeared over the British coast, dropped their bombs, and sailed away again unscathed. Where, the question is being asked, were the British defensive machines? The question is much easier asked than answered. It should not, however, be forgotten that Germany is not having things all her own way in the air. French and British airplanes are raiding German territory almost every day. There are no reports of the damage inflicted by these raids, but so far as is known some of them have been very successful. The fact is that it does not seem a very easy thing to stop raiding airplanes, a factor which the indignant critic is apt to overlook. As to whether or not airplanes are being used as much as they should be in the war it is difficult to say. Here again it should be remembered that Britain started the war a long way behind. On the fighting front she has already established her supremacy, and it is altogether unlikely that, with the lessons her rulers and military leaders have learned, she will allow Germany to get ahead with raiding squadrons.

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia.

Weak, Anaemic, Nervous Run-down

WHEN your system is undermined by worry or overwork — when your vitality is lowered—when you feel "anyhow"—when your nerves are "on edge"—when the least exertion tires you—you are in a run-down condition.

Your system is like a plant that is drooping for the want of water. And just as water revives a drooping plant—so Wincarnis gives new life and new vitality to a "run-down" constitution. Because Wincarnis possesses a four-fold power. It is a tonic, a restorative, a blood-builder and a nerve food—all in one. Therefore Wincarnis promotes new strength, new blood, new nerve force and new vitality.

The benefit begins from the first small dose. You can feel it doing you good. You can feel your whole system being surcharged with new vitality and new life.

That is why over 10,000 doctors recommend Wincarnis.

Wincarnis quickly brings back your old-time vigor—gives a sparkle to your eyes—and coaxes the roses back to your cheeks. You look well—feel well—eat well—sleep well—and can revel in the new health and new life Wincarnis creates. But, remember, that only Wincarnis can give you this new and vigorous health. Imitations only waste your money and disappoint you.

ITALIAN SUCCESS

The capture of Monte San Gabriele by the Italians clears the last Austrian obstruction north of Gorizia and greatly facilitates Count Cadorna's progress eastward. It also completes Italy's conquest of the formidable Isonzo defences which Austria believed could not be forced and concerning an Italian campaign against which even high military authorities in the other Entente countries were somewhat dubious. From the time of Napoleon's penetration of the northern valleys of the Julian Alps and his occupation of Vienna as the ultimate consequence, Austria has devoted persistent attention to the reinforcement of the defensive facilities Nature had erected on that front. During the last few years notwithstanding her alliance with Italy her engineers labored constantly to make the line impregnable. The successive chains of mountains, with the torrential Isonzo rushing to the Adriatic between them were regarded as her main western door—the door to not only Trieste, her lung on the sea, but to the very heart of her Empire. That line is now in Italy's possession. The Italian flag flies over the several chains of mountains, every one of which was a powerful fortress, and the door has been forced open.

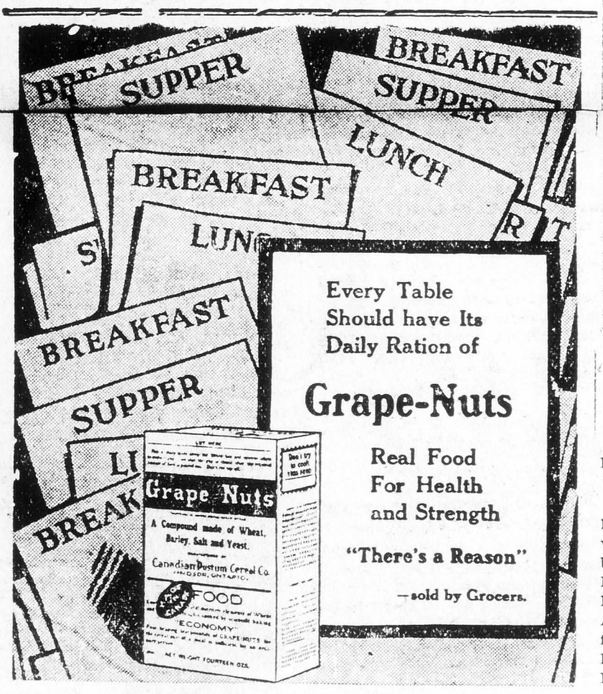
VISITED RESTING PLACE OF FALLEN HERO

In a letter to his mother, Pte. Richard Broad, a Nanaimo lad, who has been on the firing line for some time writes of having visited the grave of Pte. "Jack" Nicholson, son of Constable Nicholson of the City Police force, who gave up his life on a battlefield in Flanders several months ago.

Pte. Broad writes: "I was down to see Jack Nicholson's grave last night. It is fixed up good. I told you I would look to it, but there is a man looking after that cemetery, and Jack's grave is fixed up nice. They have put a new big cross on it, and his grave is covered with beautiful flowers. Poor lad. I was just thinking of the times we used to have down at the Newcastle beach swimming. If we were allowed I would like to take a photograph of Jack's grave and send it to his dear mother, because it looks fine just now, with all the flowers in full bloom."

Pte. Broad closes his letter with the following poem:

The Lonely Cross



On a battlefield of Flanders
Partly overgrown with moss,
Midst a scene of desolation
Stands a simple wooden cross.

Though it be not made of marble;
Sculptured by a hand of fame,
Yet it tells its own true story
Of brave men without a name.

Crudely formed by sorrowing comrades,
Hampered by foe's shot and shell,
That it may refresh their memory
Of the spot where heroes fell.

In the graves beneath its shadow,
Undisturbed by boom of gun,
May their rest be calm and peaceful
For their duty they have done.

Whilst this token of remembrance
Still reminds us of our loss,
Friend and foes alike pay homage
And salute the lonely cross.

DOING HIS BIT TO BEAT HUNS

Bombing Corporal W. Hamilton, of Nanaimo, writes the appended interesting letter from "Somewhere in France":

August 9, 1917.

Editor Herald.

Sir:—

I trust that the following short letter from the firing line may be of some interest to your readers. It is now just 12 months since I crossed to France with the 47th Battalion determined to the last to do my bit, help shake up old Fritz, and incidentally collect a few souvenirs. During that time I have seen a little of this game after having been through the scrapping of last Fall and this Spring When the big drive started on April 9th, the Canadians were sure in it. Against machine-gun, rifle, bomb, and shell fire we successfully stormed and [illegible] — probably one of the greatest victories of the war. Needless to say I consider myself very fortunate in having dodged all the various missiles and scrap iron that Fritz has thrown at me.

In the winter the mud was one of our worst enemies, and we learned the gentle art of pulling one another out of shell holes with the aid of a rifle for the unfortunate one to hold on to. At last Spring came and with it the sun. I shall never forget how we welcomed its warmth. It was paradise to have dry clothes and feet. As a rule we spend several days, perhaps a week, in the front line, and then have a similiar length of time behind the lines. They call it rest. It includes about six hours drill each day, with various other duties such as shining buttons and boots, and cleaning rifle and ammunition, things a soldier only does because he has to. In the winter time it often takes several days to clean the mud from ones clothes and equipment.

But after all we have a fairly good time when out of the trenches and every afternoon (weather permitting) we hold either Bn; Bde; or Div. sports and in the evenings there are band entertainments in the Y. M.C.A.. I wish to state here that the Y. M C. A. are doing great work in France and the boys sure appreciate it. Everything is free of charge. They have got the Movies in every rest camp behind the lines.

Then again I often wonder if the ladies in Canada realize what a great part they are playing in this war by keeping up the constant supply of socks mittens parcels and other necessities which go to make the lives of the Boys here lighter. If these good people only knew what the comforts they send mean to us, and knew how we appreciate every little thing that comes from B. C., they surely would not think that their work was in vain. I take this opportunity, on behalf of my fellow comrades, to thank every lady or association in B. C. which is furnishing needs for the boys over here. I know they do not receive any letters from us, but it is very hard to find time to write.

Now comes the Burning question of the moment, "what do we think conscription in Canada?"

At first let it be clearly understood that we do not wish to accept any praise for being in uniform. We plainly saw it to be our duty, but what I am about to say does not apply to men or those with dependants. The whole question then is, what do we think of the able bodied man who has no just reason for not fighting , but is content to stroll around in civilian clothes, read the papers and look at the pictures each day to see what his pals are doing over in France, and then at the end of each month, consoles his conscience with planking down 25 cents for a home for wounded soldiers. Or perhaps he is one of those queer guys trying to stop our rum ration or tobacco issue. Of such men I daren't say what I think. I only wish we could get along without his help; Nuff Sed.

I am due to leave for England or Paris, I am going to spend my ten days in Blighty. I have met a bunch of the Boys from the Coal City lately Sergt. (Sandy) Young Mat Guiness and many more too numerous to mention. By the way it might be pleasant to let you know that we have quite a bunch of players from the old Silver Cornet Band; they are now in our Reg. Band and they take some beating.

I will close now:—

PTE. ERNEST CORBETT KILLED IN ACTION

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Corbett of Wellington B. C. have just received word that their son, Pte. Ernest Corbett was killed in action on Aug. 21. He enlisted in the 210 Battalion in Moosejaw Sask. in March, 1916. In April of this year he left that city for overseas, after reaching England he was transfered to the Mounted Rifles.

Don't Eat Less—But Eat Better. There is no need of anyone going hungry. Canadians should eat foods that supply the greatest amount of nutriment at the lowest cost. The whole wheat grain is the most perfect food given to man. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is the whole wheat grain prepared in a digestible form. Every particle of the whole wheat berry is used—nothing wasted, nothing thrown away. Two or three of these biscuits with milk, sliced peaches or other fruits make a nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of only a few cents.

Made in Canada.

W. HEPBURN APPOINTED AS NEW MOVIE CENSOR

Victoria, Sept. 5.—The resignation of C. L. Gordon for the position of moving picture censor for British Columbia, which he has held since the formation of the office over four years ago, and the announcement that ex-Alderman Walter Hepburn, of Vancouver, had been appointed to immediately take over the office was announced this afternoon by Attorney-General Farris.

The matter arose through Hon. Mr. Farries advising Mr. Gordon that strong representations had been made to him (Mr. Farris), urging the passing of the film play "Damaged Goods" that had previously been rejected by Mr. Gordon, and suggesting to Mr. Gordon that he might, by cutting out certain parts of the play, reconsider his decision.

The attorney-general stated that a few days ago the matter of the picture was brought to his attention. At private showings of the film in Vancouver, Victoria and Revelstoke, a number of prominent professional men and clergy were present, including Dr. Sutherland, of Revelstoke, Dr. McLean, minister of education for British Columbia, Archdeacon Heathcote and Rev. Mr. Hunt ley, of the First Baptist church Calgary, who is supplying in Vancouver and a number of ladies. Some of these ladies and gentlemen personally interviewed the attorney-general urging the passing of the picture, being unanimous in their claim that the picture should be shown in the public interest.

On the strength of these, the attorney-general wrote to Mr. Gordon informing him of the requests of these prominent people and suggesting that with the elimination of certain parts of the play Mr. Gordon might reasonably reconsider his decision.

The manager of a theatre in Chilliwack was fined $5 for permitting a boy under 14 years of age to attend his show without a guardian.

CASSIAR IS FLOATED

The steamer Cassiar which went ashore recently on Privett Island, while bound from Kingcombe Inlet for Vancouver, has been raised by the British Columbia Salvage Company, of Victoria, the work having been carried out under the direction of Capt. F. C. Stratford, who left Victoria in command of the steamer Salvor for the scene of the wreck immediately following the mishap.

The Cassiar is owned by the Union Steamship Company, of British Columbia. The vessel will be taken to Vancouver for survey and repairs will probably be carried out at once. The steamer Cheakamus is at present looking after the Cassiar's run.

EDMONTON STRIKERS

Edmonton, Sept. 5.—The motormen and conductors of the Municipal Railway, who went on strike Saturday to enforce a demand for a 20 per cent increase, met tonight and adopted a resolution to Mayor Henry stating that they are ready to return to wrok on the old basis of pay pending arbitration on a raise of 10 per cent. The resolution was submitted to the council. A number of cars were operated tonight, and Superintendent Moir says he has men enough to operate the whole system. The motors of a number of cars appeared to have been tampered with by some person with an expert knowledge of the machines.

The date of Thanksgiving Day has been set by the secretary of state for Monday, Oct. 8.

Miss S. Morris of Victoria has returned home after spending a few days with Miss Janet Waugh Selby Street.

A telegram from the Military Department last Sunday evening conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of Private James Sharp in action on the 16th of August. Private Sharp was well known in Ladysmith, where he had resided for a number of years. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland, 39 years ago, and went through the Boer war, retiring as a sergeant.

Mr. Robert Simpson, of Ladysmith, had the misfortune to have his barn burned to the ground on Sunday morning. He lost a cow and other animals besides a quantity of chickens. He had a couple of hundred dollars insurance, but his loss will be considerably more than that amount.

Extract from Vancouver Province, Aug. 22, 1917:

LIQUOR PRICES AGAIN ADVANCE

Jump 10 to 12 per cent. and another Increase expected in a Few Days.

Private purchasers of liquor who are holding back in the hope of buying high-class whiskies at slaughter prices just before prohibition comes into effect on October 1st will probably be disappointed. Imported liquors took a 10 to 12 per cent. advance within the past few days and are due for another increase within the next two or three weeks it was intimated today.

HUN FLEET OFF FINLAND GULF

With Appearance of German Fleet in the Gulf of Riga, Difficulties Facing the Russian Armies are Much Accentuated.

London, Sept. 6.—It is reported from Helsingfors, Finland, that a German fleet has been observed at the entrance to the Gulf of Finland. It is supposed that the fleet is preparing for an attack on Reval and Kronstade. Russian naval bases.

Petrograd, Sept. 6.—It is semi-officially announced that a German fleet has appeared in the Gulf of Riga.

London, Sept. 6.—With the appearance of a German fleet in the Gulf of Riga the difficulties of the problem facing the Russians in the operations on their northern front are accentuated. Not only is the safety of their armies concerned, but apprehensions are excited as to what will happen to the Russian fleet if the German naval forces are given full swing in the Baltic.

Only submarines so far have been operating against the Russian right flank as it fell backalong the Gulf of Riga coast. Larger warships now bid fair to take part in the activities increasing the troubles of the Russians in the task of keeping their flank protected.

On the forty mile front of the break in the Russian land lines the Germans are pushing their advantage and have as yet met with no effective resistance. It is declared, however, that the Russian retreat is by no means a rout and that a well defined plan is being carried out in the retrograde movement. Its success admittedly depends upon the behavior of the Russian troops, whose morale on this front is now reported to be better than the earlier accounts of the retreat seemed to indicate.

Petrograd, Sept. 6.—The Russian troops are continuing their retreat toward the northeast of the Riga region, crosing the Melupe river, the War Office announces.

"In the Riga sector, north of the Livonian River Aa," reads the statement, "we continued our retirement northeastward, crossing the river Melupe. In the region of the Pskoff road and the Livonian Aa, our infantry retired in the region of Segevold and Liga, which is 25 versts southwest of Venden.

"Our troops operating in the region east of Riga are continuing to retire under enemy pressure, reaching the approximate line of Klangsenberg, Moretzberg, Kestran and Freidrichstadt.

"There were fusilades elsewhere on the front."

Petrograd, Sept. 6.—During the last two days the Riga front has been broken on a width of sixty versts. Throughout Tuesday the Germans energetically pursued their offensive, particularly north of Uxkull, in order to cut the Riga-Venden railway.

MANY SHIPS MISSING IN PACIFIC WATERS

At no time in the history of the Pacific has there been such a large list of vessels posted as missing as now.

Nine vessels, one steamship and eight sailing vessels are overdue between the Pacific coast and Australian ports. Three of the vessels have been given up by the underwriters. The vessels believed to have met disaster include the schooner R. C. Slade, 130 days out from Sydney for San Francisco; the schooner Winslow, 104 days out from Sydney for San Francisco via Apia and the British steamer Wiaruna, 103 days out from Auckland for San Francisco and British Columbia.

The vessels overdue and which have not been given up as lost are: The barque Beulga 108 days out from San Francisco for Sydney; the schooner Cecelia Sudden, 117 days out from Grays Harbor for Melbourne; the schooner Encore, 99 days out from the Columbia river for Sydney; the schooner Manila, 99 days out from Newcastle, N.S.W., for Honolulu; the schooner A. B. Johnson, 110 days out from Willapa Harbor for Newcastle, and the schooner Oceania Vance, 113 days out from Mulkilteo for Port Adelaide.

OBSEQUIES SIR. RICHARD M'BRIDE

Impressive Services Marked the Laying to Rest of the Ashes of the Late Sir Richard McBride in Victoria Yesterday.

Victoria, Sept. 6.—With impressive rites befitting the occasion the ashes of the late Sir Richard McBride, Agent-General for British Columbia and former Premier of the Province, were laid to rest this morning at Ross Bay Cemetery. The memorial service held at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock, was attended by a congregation which filled every seat in the edifice, former political colleagues in the late government, cabinet members and other representatives of the present government under whose auspices the rites were held, civic officials, personal friends, and a great body of the public who had held the late Sir Richard in high esteem composing the throng of people there gathered to do last honor to him who is no more.

Pulpit and reading desk and the railing around the choir-loft were draped in black, the casket in which the ashes reposed also being black, although a beautiful wreath of white carnations and pink and mauve sweet peas rested thereon. The sombreness of the funeral emblems was relieved by masses of flowers on pulpit and altar. Rev. W. L. Clay, D.D., and Rev. Capt Campbell, D.D., the latter in the uniform of the Chaplain to His Majesty"s forces conducted the rites

Rev. Dr. Clay delivered an address in which he eulogized Sir Richard McBride's outstanding qualities and abilities. His gift for making and retaining friends was particularly noted, although the speaker referred to the very marked ability which the late Premier and Agent-General had shown in his offices. They were forciby reminded on the sad occasion of the great weight which the government imposed on the shoulders of its agents. It was even in normal times a burden under which many sank but in troublous times such as the present, it was a grievous and unceasing weight.

"When our men at the front are crying out for support when they are calling for reinforcements, they are met by party bickerings at home, sedition and deliberate outrage it is in such times as these that the burden of government becomes a tax on the strength of our strongest men," said Dr. Clay. "Over the ashes of one who bore his responsibilities right here among you for so many years I beseech you not to be blind to the injunction laid upon you, to pray without ceasing, to add your supplication for those whom you have already sent forth in that great struggle."

"Even in this land of opportunity it is seldom that a man in such short years reaches a place of such eminence in the counsels of the nations," continued Dr. Clay. He referred to the conferring of the honor of knighthood on the late Sir Richard. This had been recognition by the King of the late Premier's ability, it was testimony to the confidence which he reposed in him, a confidence which the people had shown themselves. Now there remained only a gracious memory. "Only the actions of the just smell sweet and blossom in the dust," he quoted. "'Friend' best describes our regard for him. To a great, almost to a unique degree, he possessed the gift and faculty of friendship. It was his outstanding characteristic. It robbed political opposition of its bitterness. Idoubt if the strongest opponent feels anything but kindness toward him today. And those who knew him in closer relationship knew much better how much this characteristic was part of his being. It was doubtless true that this particular gift contributed very largely to his political success; the same gift equally, however, no doubt exposed him to attacks and made him the victim of men of less generous impulses and instincts."

MADAME SOUKHOMINOFF CHARGED AS ACCOMPLICE

Petrograd, Sept. 6.—Witnesses at the trial of Gen. Soukhomiloff, accused of high treason, unfolded today a story of Madame Soukhomiloff bearing on reports of the influence she established over her husband. She is on trial as an accomplice in the crimes which the General is accused.

Gold miners from California and Mexico are looking for placer deposits in the Hudson Bay zinc mine, Salmo.

MADE SLIGHT GAIN SOUTHWEST LENS

New Positions Gained by British Forces Were Attacked by Germans Without Success — Ten Enemy Airmen Brought Down.

London, Sept. 6.—The official statement from the British in France tonight reads:

"On Wednesday there was again great activity in the air. The enemy on several occasions interrupted the work of our artillery and attacked our airplanes employed behind our lines by hostile machines during the night, doing little damage.

"During the day our machines dropped eight bombs on the railway sidings near Ghent, five on large sheds at Maubeuge, 54 on billets around Douai, 38 on airdromes east and northeast of Cambrai, and 60 on various other targets.

"In air fighting yesterday five enemy machines were brought down, and five others were driven down out of control. Three of our machines are missing.

"As a result of successful operations this morning our line posts were advanced slightly southwest of Lens. Later in the morning the enemy attacked our new line, but was repulsed. The enemy casualties were considerable. The enemy twice attempted to raid our trenches early this morning east of Armentieres.

"The casualties caused by hostile air raids during Tuesday night include eighty-five German prisoners, of whom thirty-seven were killed, and forty-eight wounded by bombs dropped from enemy airplanes."

TEUTONS PLAN TO DIVIDE POLAND

Germany Proposes Taking One-Tenth and Austria Nine-Tenths of Russian Poland.

Zurich, Sept. 6—According to information received here from Vienna, the Central Powers have decided to carry out the partition of Poland. Germany has annexed such parts of Russian Poland as she needs, "to rectify her strategic frontier," amounting to one-tenth of the territory. Austria will annex the remaining nine-tenths, and Emperor Charles will promulgate a decree uniting Russian Poland with Galicia and proclaiming the whole territory to be the United Kingdom of Poland with himself as King.

AUSTRIAN LINE IS REINFORCED

Counter Attacks of Great Strength by the Austrians Thrown Unsuccessfully Against Italian Front — Hermanda Heights Bombed by Italian Airmen.

Rome, Sept. 6.—Italian Commander Cadorna continues his reticence concerning operations he has in view against the Austrians his latest communication merely announcing the continuation of heavy fighting northeast of Gorizia, and the repulse on the Carso plateau south of Brestovizza valley of strong Austrian counter attacks.

On the Carso Plateau, south of Brestovizza valley, where Bavarian troops, appealed for by the Austrians, doubtless have reinforced the Austrian line, counter attacks of great strength have been thrown, but unsuccessfully, against the Italian front. Italian airmen have effectively bombarded the Hermanda Heights, the key to Trieste, which is in the hands of the Austrians.

The western front in France and Belgium remains virtually quiet. A renewal of activity on the Macedonian front is recorded in the latest French official communication, but this also is being carried out to a large extent by artillery duels which are particularly spirited on both sides of the Vardar river where the British violently bombarded enemy works.

East of Lake Doiran the Bulgarians attempted two infantry attacks but both of them were repulsed by the British.

Mrs. Richard Fielding returned home last evening from a visit to friends in Vancouver.

ITALIANS REACHING OUT FOR TRIESTE

General Cadorna Continues to Report Progress in Offensive Launched Against Austrian Positions in the Adriatic.

London, Sept. 6.—The Italian campaign for Trieste is being vigorously pushed in the face of vast concentrations of Austrian infantry and artillery and General Cadorna continues to report Progress. It seems that the unofficial reports of the capture of Monte San Gabriele by Italian forces were premature, judging from the latest advices from the front, but ultimate reduction of this last remaining stronghold of the Austrians in the Gorizia hills is accounted a certainty by the military writers in view of the steady Italian progress through the protecting works

Rome, Sept. 6.—The desperate battle for possession of vital positions in the district northeast of Gorizia is continuing, according to a War Office report issued today. The Italian forces yesterday took more than 500 additional prisoners.

The text of the report follows:

"The struggle continues northeast of Gorizia. Yesterday we captured 26 officers and more than 500 men.

"On the Carso repeated attacks by the enemy south of the Brestovizza Valley were broken up by our firm resistance and prompt counter attacks. We made more than 200 prisoners.

"Enemy batteries and troops in the Bazza Valley, at Tolmino, to the east of the Chiappovano Valley in the Voiscizza region, and on the reverse of the Hermada position were very effectively bombarded by our aviators.

"On the Trentino front parties of Arditi destroyed one of the enemy's advanced positions near Baone Chiez and emplacements in the Zurez region east of Lake Garda."

AGAINST POPE'S PROPOSAL

Nice, France, Sept. 6.—Nikolai P. Pachitch, the Serbian Premier, who is stopping here, will soon issue a protest against the Pope's peace proposal, according to The Eclaireurde, of Nice. The protest will be based on the fact that the Pope's note failed to mention Serbia, the paper says.

It is reported that a Nanaimo man has bonded his claims adjacent to Ladysmith for the sum of $75,000. Other claims in vicinity are receiving attention.

MOVEMENTS IN THE WORLD WAR

Russians Continue to Fall Back Before German Pressure on Riga Front—Italians Under Cadorna Continue to Harrass the Austrians.

The Russian and Austro-Italian theatres continue the centers of interest in the world war. In the former the Germans are still pressing the Russians in retreat from the Riga region, and in the latter the forces of General Cadorna continue to harrass the Austrians, but with the enemy offering stout resistance on the major sectors, north and northeast of Gorizia, and along the Carso Plateau.

With the Russian front already broken over a distance of about forty-five miles between Riga and Friedrichstadt, the province of Livonia is fast being overrun by the Germans. Everywhere the enemy is pressing the retreating Russians, among whom disaffection daily becomes more apparent. Although the Russians have fallen back with great speed all along the line, it seems evident that they have not been put to rout, and that loyal troops are fighting splendidly in rear-guard actions. This, seemingly, is borne out by the fact that the German bag of prisoners thus far has been less than eight thousand, and the capture in guns only 130.

An added menace to the situation of the Russians is contained in an unofficial report that the German fleet is manoeuvring at the entrance to the Gulf of Finland.

EXHIBITION WILL OPEN TUESDAY

Annual Exhibitions of Agricultural Society and Kennel Club Will be Held Jointly Next Week.

The Annual Exhibition of the Nanaimo Agricultural and Horticultural Society will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next, with $1,500 in prizes. The annual exhibition of the Nanaimo Kennel Club will also be held in connection with the show and the two big attractions should draw a record attendance.

At a meeting of the directors last night it was decided to charge an entrance fee of 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children under 12 years of age, and also to accept entries up to Monday next at 6 p. m.

Members of the local chapter Daughters of the Empire will be in attendance during the exhibition and serve luncheon and refreshments.

PREPARING FOR BIG DAY SATURDAY

The only thing that is necessary to ensure a successful cricket day on Saturday is fine weather. At present the outlook is not very promising, but in the meantime arrangements for the match are being completed. Thanks to the kindness of Mr. Thos. Cunningham, who is always ready to do anything he can for the returned soldiers, the field will be in first class shape for the game. The owners of the ground were practically beaten in their efforts to secure a team of horses to cut the grass when Mr. Cunningham solved the difficulty. The Qualicum men will be down on Friday, and they will give the finishing touches to the ground. The Esquimalt and Resthaven men will be up at noon on Saturday, and the match will start as soon after one o'clock as possible.

The Red Cross Society have been interested in the game, and will undertake the supplying of light refreshments. For the rest of the sport-loving community will get the idea into their heads that the men playing this match are but just returned from the battlefields of Flanders there will no doubt be a good attendance.

Prairie capitalists have closed a deal for the purchase of the Dunvegan group on Fish creek, ten miles from the C. P. R. east of Revelstoke.

HON. W. SLOAN IN NICOLA VALLEY

Minister of Mines is Being Entertained by Mining Fraternity and People of the Nicola Valley.

Merritt, Sept. 6.—The mining fraternity and the people of the Nicola valley are busily engaged this week entertaining the Hon. Wm. Sloan, minister of mines, who is spending several days here in company with Mr. Joseph Walters, M.P.P. for Yale, and Mr. W. R. Thomson resident engineer of Mineral Survey District No. 3. The minister and his party are having an exceptionally busy time since their arrival and are making an endeavor to see all of the leading coal and metalliferous mines of this district.

On Monday trips were made to the Aberdeen copper mine on Ten-Mile creek, to Mamette Lake and to the Aspen Grove section, where several very promising copper properties are now under development. A visit was made to the mines of the Middlesboro collieries this morning and to the Diamond Vale collieries this afternoon. At both of these mines the minister went down into the workings and was shown through all parts of the properties. Last evening Mr. Sloan and Mr. Walters met a deputation of local coal miners and discussed a number of matters in which they are vitally interested. On Wednesday he will motor to High land Valley and pay visits to the Highland Valley Mining & Development Co. property, and to the O. K. group continuing his journey to Ashcroft for a visit of inspection to the mines of that section.

This is the Hon. Mr. Sloan's first visit to this district, and he expresses himself as being wonderfully pleased with what he has seen. He has not had very many idle moments since his arrival, having been kept on the go almost all of the time. He predicts a great future for the mining industry in the Nicola valley, and believes that there are marvelous opportunities here. Mr. Sloan stated that he believed the future of this camp was assured and that as soon as the resources of this district became better known to the outside world capital would pour in for the development of the numerous most promising properties he had seen on his visit.

Not only is the misinter well pleased with his trip here, but he has also created a most favorable impression on the people. The miners at all of the properties visited were glad to welcome him into the workings and made his visit as pleasant as possible.

RETURNED HOME FROM OVERSEAS

Nanaimo Gave an Enthusiastic Welcome Last Evening to Four Nanaimo Volunteers Who Served the Empire in Europe.

Despite a heavy downpour of rain hundreds of Nanaimoites last night turned out to welcome home Privates A. E. Toombs, Charles Green, John Duggan and Ernest Rivers, four volunteers from Nanaimo, who have been returned from overseas after having done their bit in the titanic struggle being waged between the forces of Democracy and Autocracy.

The Silver Cornet Band was present on the wharf upon the arrival of the "Pat" from Vancouver, and rendered a number of appropriate patriotic selections both at the wharf and at Dallas Square, where the returned heroes were given an ovation.

On behalf of the citizens His Worship Mayor McKenzie extended a welcome home to the boys and at the conclusion of his remarks called for three cheers and a tiger, which were most enthusiastically given.

Pte. A. E. Toombs went overseas with the 102nd Battalion and was wounded in the hip by shrapnel and shell shock. After being four months in hospital he recovered sufficiently to enable him to do light service, and up to the time of his departure for Canada was serving in the War Records office in London.

Pte. Charles Green, brother of Mrs. William Burnip of this city, lost the sight of his left eye at Vimy and is still in a weak condition from the effects of his wounds. He will leave the city in a few days for further medical treatment at Esquimalt.

Pte. John Duggan of Northfield, familiarly known as "Lal" Jack, was wounded in the abdomen by shrapnel at Vimy. He enlisted with the 62nd, and was with the 47th when he received his wounds.

Pte. Ernest Rivers, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rivers, Kennedy street is celebrating his seventeenth birthday today. He was only fifteen when he enlisted with the 103rd and went overseas with that battalion, being one of the youngest volunteers to go from the province. He tried on several occasions to get to the firing line from England, but was always balked by the authorities who did not permit him to go to the front owing to his youth. Pte. Rivers has returned home for duty and may be called on at any time to respond to a call for his services.

FINAL SHOOT OF THE SEASON ON SUNDAY

The Nanaimo Gun Club will hold its last shoot of the season on Sunday next, with events starting at 9:30 a.m., and closing with the championship events in the afternoon.

Trap men are expected from throughout the district, from Victoria and Vancouver, including such well known shooters as Dr. Baker, Britton and Reid.

The championship event is at 50 targets, the winners in the past ten years, together with their scores being as follows:

Year.	Name.	Score.
1907—	H. McGarrigle,	39
1908—	H. Wright	40
1909—	R. Hoggan	37
1910—	R. Hoggan	39
1911—	C. Martin, Jr.,	46
1912—	R. Cox	45
1913—	V. Harrison	41
1914—	R. Eastham	49
1915—	W. Graham	46
1916—	W. Hoggan	45

FOOD CONTROL

It is surely time that the Food Controller realised that, up to the present, the efforts he has made and the regulations he has issued are very much of a farce. We learn now that an advisory committee has been appointed for this province to co-operate with the food controller in devising means for economising in Canada's food production. We would like to know what such a committee can do in this matter. It does not require any committee to advise the food controller that to interfere with the menus of hotels and restaurants and to leave householders free to do as they please is the quintessence of folly. Why should the man who eats at a restaurant be deprived of beef and bacon so many days a week, while the man who keeps a house may eat beef three times a day seven days a week? Surely Food Controller Hanna cannot expect the press of Canada to back up and support such silly regulations as these. More than this the Food Controller has missed the chief object in his appointment. The people of Canada, before they join wholeheartedly in any campaign of economy, want to be assured about the prices being charged for food. When the war broke out in August flour sold in Nanaimo at $1.75 a sack today the same flour is selling at $3.50 a sack, an increase of over one hundred per cent. What has caused this increase? Canada is producing as much wheat as ever before in its history. The sole reason for practising economy is that a greater surplus of Canadian wheat may be available for export to the allied nations. The Food Controller of Canada is therefore virtually asking the people of Canada to economise in their consumption of food so that there may be a greater surplus of Canadian products for export. The consumer would willingly agree to this, but why should he be asked to pay more for doing it. If the Food Controller of Canada wishes to effect any economy in the consumption of food then he must forthwith tackle the question of prices. It is not to be expected that the people will stint themselves in the use of food merely to enhance the profits of the producer. It must be said that Mr. Hanna appears to be very much in earnest; but so far his energies have been badly misdirected

STRICKEN IN THE STREET

Completely Restored To Health By "Fruit-a-tives"

382 St. Valier St., Montreal.

"In 1912, I was taken suddenly ill with Acute Stomach Trouble and dropped in the street. I was treated by several physicians for nearly two years, and my weight dropped from 225 pounds to 160 pounds. Then several of my friends advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives". I began to improve almost with the first dose, and by using them, I recovered from the distressing Stomach Trouble—and all pain and Constipation were cured. Now I weigh 208 pounds. I cannot praise "Fruit-a-tives" enough". H. WHITMAN.

RUST OF WHEAT

Some time ago the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa issued a very timely card-poster with wide descriptive coloured border on "Black or Stem Rust of Wheat". The poster in succenct plain language tersly gave advice on the best course to pursue in the preparation of land and seeding to prevent approach of the dread disease which entailed the loss of millions of dollars to Canada in 1916. A bulletin has now been issued, and can be obtained free by addressing the Publications Branch of the Department at Ottawa amplifying the advice given in the poster. It is also designed to answer many inquiries that have been received and that prove that the theories possessed regarding the disease are frequently astray. The bulletin explains that there are several distinct kinds of rust and defines them. It tells of the cause of rust and of the infection of the wheat plant; gives particulars of the red summer stage and the black or winter stage of the disease, details the action of the fungus on the host plant and makes a specialty of describing the relation of stem rust to the barberry. "We regard the barberry in Canada," say the authors of the bulletin, "as a known contributory factor to grain rust. In this attitude we are supported by practically every scientific observer on this continent and we, therefore, would strongly recommend the complete extermination of this shrub, at any rate throughout the regions of the Dominion principally devoted to grain growing. There are other factors contributory to the severity of grain rust over which we have no control—weather conditions for one—but the question of the barberry is one that might easily be overcome. It is one of the principal precautionary measures that should be taken in the interest of the grain-producing regions throughout the Continent of America." The bulletin proceeds to tell in detail of precautions that can be taken to reduce losses from grain rust.

CANADA'S FOURTH WAR LOAN.

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—Canada's fourth domestic war loan will be floated in November and will probably be for $100,000,000 and at a rate which will net subscribers nearly 6 per cent.

A Message To The Young Men of NANAIMO

Thomas A. Edison Says:

"I have watched the progress of the I. C. S. almost from the very beginning, and, while your rapid growth might be marveled at by some, to me it is easily understood because I realize the practical value back of the I.C.S. training."

Most of your time is mortgaged to work, meals and sleep. But the hours after supper are yours, and your future depends on how you spend them. You can fritter them away on profitless pleasure, or you can make these hours bring you position, money, power, real success in life. Thousands of splendid good-paying positions are waiting in every field of work for men trained to fill them. There's a big job waiaing for you, in your present work, or any line you choose. Get ready for it, as many ambitious men (names furnished on application) have done through the

P. P. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Edncation, recently paid a visit to the I.C.S. After an inspection of the system, he said:

"I fully believe in the principle of instruction by correspondence for those who are unable to attend the schools, and for those who wish to continue their work in any subject or group of subjects beyond what they are able to get in the schools."

International Correspondence Schools

No matter how limited your previous education, the simply-written, wonderfully-illustrated I.C.S. textbooks make it easy to learn. No matter what career you may choose, some of the 280 I.C.S. Courses will surely suit your needs.

UNIQUE TEXTBOOKS

More money has been invested in the preparation of I.C.S. textbooks than upon any other textbooks ever published. The Course in Architecture cost $98,000; the Course in Civil Engineering $88,000; the Course in Textiles, $76,000; the Agricultural Courses over $225,000. The superior service is always at your command.

I.C.S. textbooks are used for reference and instruction in colleges and universities, in government schools, institutes of technology and vocational schools, in America, by the U. S. Navy Department in its Ship Board Training Schools, and by many of the largest industrial corporations in their training classes for apprentices and employes.

Facts worth Knowing About I. C. S.

Some idea of the great work of the I.C.S. may be had from the following:

First student enrolled October 1891; total enrolment now more than 1,850,000; 7 Home-office buildings-7½ acres of floor space; 3000 employes—25 branch offices—32 foreign agencies; 280 Courses taught; daily postage bill $700; 32,000 pieces of mail handled daily; 5½ tons of paper used by the Printing Department daily; 600 completed text books turned out by the Printing Department daily; advertisements run in 100 national magazines and technical trade publications each day; 250 new students enrolled daily; 250 railroad and industrial companies have entered into agreement with the I.C.S. for training their employes.

Jesse G. Vincent, Designer, Packard "Twin Six"

"I take great pleasure in recommending I. C. S. courses to any young man who is ambitious and anxious to get the necessary education to enable him to make the most of his opportunities.

"I found your system thorough. If the student is conscientious there is no reason why he cannot accomplish what he set out to accomplish when he enrolled.

"My I.C.S. Course enabled me to obtain the training that was absolutely necessary in order that I might be in position to take advantage of opportunities for advancement as they presented themsives."

JESSE G. VINCENT, Vice-Pres. of Engineering. Packard Motor Car Co.

SERVICE TO STUDENTS

A large department is maintained by the I.C.S. for the sole purpose of helping students to obtain every possible benefit from their studies.

Many of the largest employers in the country are interested in the work of the I.C.S., and, at their request, are being informed regularly concerning the progress of I.C.S. students among their employes.

Successful efforts are also made to secure good positions for deserving students, and competent employes for employers.

When everything has been made easy for you—when one hour a day spent with the I.C.S. in the quiet of your own home will bring you a bigger income, more comforts, more pleasures, all that success means—can you afford to let another priceless hour of spare time go to waste? Make your start today by marking and mailing the coupon in the corner.

There are Some I.C.S. Students in Your Section

In every city in the United States there is a representative body of I.C.S. students. Besides, tnere are thousands of students in other parts of the world. Our representative will tell you the names of the students in your neighborhood.

WILLARD EXPRESSES READINESS TO FIGHT

It looks as if there really would be another bout for the world's heavyweight championship before long. Jess Willard declared before the Morris-Fulton affair that he would condescend to let the winner fight him for the title, and now that Morris has been put out of the running by Fulton, Jess has once more reiterated his willingness to fight Fulton. In fact, he has waxed quite eloquent over his admiration for the man who aspires to his crown.

Word came from Indianapolis that Willard, when interviewed on the point, was feeling very good over a record-breaking attendance at his circus and was eager to announce his readiness to meet Fulton.

Willard says he is in fine shape weighing about 250 pounds. After his experience as a circus owner, the heavyweight champion feels that he is competent to promote his own fight with Fulton, so that with the elimination of any scrapping with managers and promoters over the price of his services, it should not take him long to get down to business unless Fulton should put too big a price on his services in trying to win the championship for himself.

THE SYMBOL OF REFINEMENT

Is your home interesting? Is it distinctive—a home in the truest sense characteristic of you and your family.

A home cannot be made to order—your home reflects you as faithfully as a mirror does. It reflects your refined tastes and preferences, your whims, your artistic and intellectual inclinations, your sense of pleasure and comfort.

A piano in the home bespeaks a love of music. It is a symbol of refinement—alike to all men and women.

When you see the Gerhard Heintzman Piano in a man's home you know instinctively that the man and his wife and their children have a true music sense—a refined appreciation of good music. And every one likes really musical people. Sit down at a Gerhard Heintzman—any model you choose. Play the piece you love best. Adjectives tell you that this wonderful instrument plays clear, true, mellow—yet they cannot really describe its magic tone.

You certainly should see the Gerhard Heintzman before your final choice is made. It is Canada's Greatest Piano — a half century's achievement, a musical masterpiece. The longer it is a part of your home, the greater is your love for it.

BIG CARNIVAL BY RED CROSS

Carnival of Flowers Will Be Given by Local Society in Building of Agricultural Society on Sept 26, 27 and 28.

As September 26th, 27th, and 28th is set aside by the local Red Cross Society for the big Carnival of Flowers, which will be held in the Agricultural Building, it is time that the general public be made acquainted with a few of the facts pertaining thereto. Last year the Carnival of the Allies, which was under the auspices of the same organization, was considered a huge success, and being the first attempt along these lines, the sum realised was considered quite gratifying.

This season, however, the society boast of many new members enrolled during the past year, and it feels in a position to handle any task regardless of size and responsibility, so when it announces that the coming celebration will outshine all former events, it means that one can expect something out of the ordinary.

There will be rows of beautiful booths laden with things that one must have and cannot get elsewhere, attended by artistically gowned ladies, only too pleased to prove the merit of their stock. A glance in J. B. Hodgins' window where a few raffles in connection with the fancy-work stall is exhibited, will reveal the fact that the convener of this committee is an adept in the art of needlecraft, and, with many assistants equally well skilled the showing at this particular booth will be a marvel of beauty.

The home-made candy stall will contain an abundance of this toothsome delicacy, which always help to make a Carnival, the ones who have charge of the home-baking booth intend to prove to their patrons that their cakes, pastry, etc. excels in quality and variety. The ones at the head of the booth known as Raffles, which proved one of the biggest drawing cards at the former event, are about to display such magnificent things that it will be almost necessary to post signs warning the public that if anyone is injured during the rush no damages can be collected from the society. This booth has a beautiful hand-worked night-gown and boudoir cap, which is displayed at Spencer's, for ten cents a chance.

There will be Ye Old Country Store that will remind the visitor of the days of '49, and special attention is directed to two raffles, namely fifty dollars in gold and a thoroughbred bull dog pup, who sports a very attractive pedigree, together with the boast that no relative has brought less than fifty dollars.

No one need worry about Xmas gifts this season. Just visit the Apron and Handkerchief stall, and there, in plain view, will be a variety of aprons from the good old sensible kind that is so essential in the kitchen, to the finest tea apron; also a splendid collection of hand-made handkerchiefs that will grace any box during the Xmas season.

A beautiful flower stall will be erected showing masses of cut flowers and potted plants. Then there is the tea room where real live roses will serve dainty refreshments, a parcel post which will enable the purchaser to examine all articles, and a special booth for children. This ought to prove doubly interesting to the kiddies, for not only will there be raffles of children's toys, but a special line of amusements for the juvenile visitors, and whilst mother is feasting on all the beautiful things around her, the children may also indulge in games that are suited to them.

Perhaps the most conspicuous feature will be the appearance of Her Majesty, in the person of Miss Babe Martin, who was the unanimous choice of the society. Babe will lead the automobile parade and upon arriving at the fair grounds will be crowned Queen of the Carnival. She will be attended by Miss Estelle Hirst and Miss Florence Dendoff, who will act as Maids of Honor.

Every evening there will be a cabaret at which about thirty artists will enchant all present, wearing original and exclusively designed gowns and introducing many new songs.

Particular attention is drawn to the beautiful infant's layette which is on exhibition in M. L. Master's window. This raffle consists of forty pieces, and is very complete.

The grounds surrounding the Agricultural building will be dotted here and there with many amusements and for a nominal sum one can indulge in a little jolity that will bring back memories of Coney Island. How gratifying it is to know that one can spend an afternoon visiting the different amusements, knowing that by so doing they are helping to swell the war fund which means more comforts for our Tommies who gladly endure maddening hardships that we might enjoy freedom.

ALL DEPENDS ON SEA SUPREMACY

Premier Lloyd George Declares German Submarines are Unable to Down Hopes of Allies—Says Russia Will Recover.

Birkenhead, Eng., Sept. 7.—Mr. Lloyd George in a speech here today on receiving the freedom of the city, declared that the whole Allied cause and the freedom of the world depend ed on supremacy at sea and that he

The German statesmen, he said, had been at great pains to impress upon their people that the submarine figures given out by him in the House of Commons recently were inaccurate. He declared that these figures were absolutely correct and that they put an end to all hopes of the enemy for success.

He was absolutely convinced that the German submarines never would be able to beat down the strength of the British Empire or beat down the hopes of the Allies, even by means of all the efforts the Germans could link with their submarines.

The news from Russia in the last few days had not been good. He had thought when the revolution came that it would have the effect of postponing victory but he had expected an earlier recovery. However, "through all we must exercise patience," he added.

The Russian leaders, all brave and patriotic men, knew the enemy attempts in the Riga region involved the fate of the revolution, the fruits of which they would do their best to defend. Under fire, the Russian leaders were repairing their machine, which had broken down, and he was confident that in the end they would succeed.

"What I am concerned about most, the Prime Minister went on, "is not the effect which the failure of Russia would have on the war, but the harmful effect it would have on the cause of democracy in the world." It took as long a time for an oppressed people to get accustomed to freedom as it did for a free people to get accustomed to oppression.

"One thing gives me satisfaction," he continued, "Germany's attempts to sow dissension between the Allies east and the Allies west have failed. Germany decided to invade Russia with the sword only because all her other methods and machinations had failed."

He repudiated with scorn the calumny that Britain was responsible for the war.

"Britain drew the sword in honor of her pledged word," he declared.

Far from being despondent about the crisis in the eastern theatre, Mr. Lloyd George said further that the people should look forward to Russia with hope, because she would recover and play a greater part yet before the war was over in saving the world from Prussian domination.

"Dark as may be the clouds in the Russian sky," he said, "there is sunshine on the banners of the Allies in all other theatres of war. Germany may boast her victories in the east against resisting forces, but she has her reply in the success of the Allies in the west, and especially the recent success of the Italians.

"The United States which has now come into the conflict, has never known defeat. On this occasion, too, she with her allies will triumph over her foe.

"For all these reasons I ask you to be of stout heart. There may be stony paths to climb, but we will climb them."

DR. FROST OF LADYSMITH HOME FROM FRONT

Capt. Frost of Ladysmith returning home last evening after two years with the forces at Salonica. The doctor was met back east by Mrs. Frost, and Mr. and Mrs. Frost visited relatives in New Brunswick before coming west. They were met at the wharf upon their arrival from Vancouver last evening by Ald. Walkem, Mr. Knight and other residents of Ladysmith and the doctor was extended a most cordial welcome. The party left for home by auto last evening.

Mrs. Cross, of Nanoose, crossed over to Vancouver yesterday afternoon on the "Pat".

LINE ADVANCED ON LENS FRONT

British Advanced Positions Have Been Pushed Forward Slightly—Five German Machines Brought Down in Air Fighting.

London, Sept. 7.—The statement from British Headquarters in France and Belgium issued tonight, reads:

"On the Lens front our line of advanced positions has been pushed forward slightly. Except for the shelling of some of our positions at La Bassee and northeast of Messines hostile artillery has shown less activity.

"On Thursday bad weather caused a dimunition of air fighting. A certain amount of bombing was carried out during the day, over 200 bombs being dropped on various targets. Two enemy machines and one German observation balloon were brought down. Two other hostile machines were driven down out of control. One of our airplanes is missing."

LOCAL LODGES TO AMALGAMATE

Court Sherwood and Companions of the Forest of this city are to amalgamate on Monday next under the name of Court Progress, A. O. F. The amalgamation ceremonies will take place in the Foresters' Hall, commencing at 8 o'clock, and will be in charge of District Chief Ranger Gibson, of Vancouver, and other District officers.

Members of Court Nanaimo Foresters Home and visiting brethren are invited to be present.

REVERSES ARE UNITING RUSSIANS

Petrograd, Sept7.—The newspapers here of all shades of opinion, shelving all other questions, comment extensively on the Riga disaster. The Socialist papers publish articles in almost identical terms calling on the workmen to perform their duty in defending the revolution.

The organ of the Social-Democrats and Maximalists, The Rabotchayor, asks the workmen not to wait for the moment when the Riga disaster will have become irreparable, but to close the ranks immediately with iron discipline and proceed to prompt and decisive action. The proletariat, it says, must rally around its organizations, and by a vigorous effort, save the country and the revolution.

The Semillia-Vremya, the organ of the Revolutionary Socialists, says:

"History will show on whom lies the blame of our military debacle. Meanwhile the situation demands that all internal political quarrels be forgotten and that an energetic and unanimous effort be made to face the enemy."

Petrograd, Sept. 7.—Although Petrograd, in the opinion of many military authorities, is in no immediate danger on account of the fall of Riga, preparations are being made against the eventuality of an unexpected descent by the Germans. The temporary government has appointed a special civil commission, with authority to preserve order. The Cabinet has decided that there is as yet no need for the government to be transferred elsewhere.

Although there are no signs of a panic, there are elements in the population, particularly members of the wealthy class, who are leaving or attempting to leave in large numbers. Many business firms are considering transferring their headquarters to Moscow, Nijni-Novgorod, or some other provincial city.

According to the newspapers, the present Russian front represents the arc of a circle from the mouth of the river Aa southeastwards about 40 miles from Riga. Dwinsk, according to reports, still is holding out.

The annual exhibition of the local Agriculturad Society, will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next, and will be officially opened on Wednesday afternoon by the Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines.

RUSSIAN PLOTTERS TO BE EXILED

Kerensky is Dealing with a Firm Hand With Russian Grand Dukes and Others Friendly to Deposed Czar.

Petrograd, Sept. 7.—The newspapers here report that the government decided to release and exile abroad, as a result of the recent exposure of a counter revolutionary plot, Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, Grand Duke Paul, Mme. Virubova, confidant of former Empress Alexander, who lately was released from the Petropavlovsk fortress; former Minister of the Interior Khvostov, and the former palace commandant, General Voveikoff. Former Premier Sturmer's secretary, the notorious Manassevitch Manuilov, was sent abroad yesterday.

It develops that the arrest of Mme. Margarete Pitrovo, said to have been one of the chief conspirators in the plot, was effected when she was caught trying to enter the prison of former Empress Nicholas at Tobolsk with a letter. Her correspondence was seized and she was put on board a steamer under a heavy guard and dispatched to Petrograd. The government has sent three commissionaires to Tobolsk to watch the former Empress.

Petrograd, Sept. 7.—A crowd of fanatical and reactionary women at Taganrog, in the territory of the Don Cossacks, hearing that their champion, Bishop Loann, had been forbidden to preach in the cathedral, marched to his house and insisted that he preach. After the service the women made a wild demonstration at the city hall. They complained that the building did not contain the portrait of a single Romanoff, and demanded that the bishop be given for his residence the palace in which Emperor Alexander I. died.

The women marched through the streets crying: "Russia is perishing—Orthodoxy is perishing—down with the synagogues."

ESQUIMALT TEAM IS HERE TO-DAY

With good weather there should be an interesting game of cricket on the Caledonian grounds this afternoon. The team from Esquimalt and Resthaven will come up on the morning train, and the match will begin about 1:30 p.m.

The Red Cross Club will serve tea on the field, and it is expected that there will be a big attendance to see the boys and the game, and incidentally help along a good cause.

DROP POISON FOR KIDDIES

Mont Bellard, France, Sept. 7.—German aviators are continuing to drop poisoned candy in this region. Some has been found wrapped in paper bags. Other poisoned sweets are in the form of chocolate cherries wrapped up in lead coated paper.

NEW B. C. COMPANIES

Victoria, Sept. 7.—New company incorporations announced in the current week's provincial Gazette are:

Inlet Timber Company, with headquarters at Vancouver and capital stock of $35,000; British Columbia Coal Mining Company ($300,000), to acquire from J. T. Hill all his interest in the agreement for a lease between him and the Vancouver-Nanaimo Coal Mining Company; Qualicum Sawmill Company ($25,000), head offices Vancouver; Northern Mills and Timber Company ($20,000), head offices Vancouver; The Great War Veterans Publishing Co., ($10,000), head offices Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Winn Foster, of Medicine Hat, returned home yesterday after a visit to Mrs. Foster's mother, Mrs. W. E. Webb, Crescent. They were accompanied as far as Vancouver by Mrs. Foster's sister, Mrs. J. E. McKenzie.

BIJOU THEATRE

Jack Pickford and Louise Huff are seen to advantage in the five act photo-play "What Money Can't Buy" in which they are featured to-day at the Bijou. With this will be shown a very funny two-reel comedy.

CANADIANS IN HARD FIGHTING

Germans Unsuccessfully Attacked Canadian Line West of Lens—Canadian Gains in Region of Green Crassier Extended.

Canadian Army Headquarters in France, Sept. 7.—After a hard day of fighting following an attack by our troops in the Green Crassier area near the Arras Wood the enemy counter attacked this morning all along the front to the west of Lens. He succeeded after several efforts in driving us out of part of our positions, the bombing of which was told in yesterday's dispatches but in the region of Greene Crassier gains made by our men were not only held but extended, and our new front constitutes a serious menace to enemy positions along the northern side of the Souchez river.

In the northern part of Avion also where our line has been stationary for some time new and important outposts have been established.

GERMAN BORN CUT OFF LIST

Kitchener, Ont., Sept. 7—The new Franchise Act, introduced in the Commons, hits German born in this former city of Berlin, and makes a clean sweep of 1200 names from the voters' list. It was learned that a strong application was made to Sir Wilfrid Laurier to vigorously oppose the measure in the interests of the electors of North Waterloo, both in the Commons and the Senate.

VON KUEHLMAN IS FOR PEACE

Amsterdam, Sept. 7.—The statement that German Foreign Secretary Dr. von Kuehlmann is for peace is made in a dispatch received here today from Vienna, which place the secretary recently visited. Dr. von Kuehlmann's calm and steady manners made a good impression at Vienna, especially as he, like the Imperial Chancellor, is free from all chauvinism regarding the situation, and in favor of peace by understanding.

Mrs. F. G. Peto has been called to California owing to the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Good, formerly of this city.

Mrs. Robert Smith, of 314 Haliburton street, has been officially notified that her son Private John Anderson is reported as missing since Aug. 15. Private Anderson enlisted at Fernie and went overseas with the first contingent. Later he was transferred to the 13th Battalion, the Royal Canadian Highlanders.

A few days ago the big hotel at Van Anda, Texada Island, was burned to the ground. The fire broke out in the Union building and, fanned by a high wind, quickly spread to the hotel and general store. The Chinese residents formed a bucket brigade and were successful in preventing the fire from crossing the street to their own houses. The destroyed property is partially covered by insurance.

Western Fuel Company shipping this week included the Marmion with scow, Celestial Empire for bunker, Pronative for bunker. Swell with scow, Westham for cargo and bunker, Belle for bunker, Kildonan with scow, Valdez for cargo, Tees for cargo, North Bend for cargo, Clansman for bunker, Clayburn with scow, the Northern Light for cargo, Monte Cello for bunker, and Tancred is in for cargo.

At Boat Harbor this week the Pronative was in with scow, Red Fir for bunker, and the Lornette for bunker.

Don't forget Oct. 13th, W. C. T. U. Sale of children's dresses, aprons, etc. Also home made cooking and candy.

AUSTRIANS ON VERGE COLLAPSE

Capture of Last Remaining Austrian Stronghold Northeast of Gorizia is Imminent—Austrian Losses Are Heavy.

London, Sept. 7.—Although the Austrians apparently still retain a precarious hold upon Monte San Gabriele, their last remaining mountain stronghold northeast of Gorizia, the end is in sight for them in that region, according to Italian belief.

General Cadorna's report today shows the Austrians still resisting desperately, but staggering under the heavy losses which the incessant Italian pressure of the last few days has inflicted upon them. This pressure is being maintained and is becoming decisive, the commander of the attacking forces announces.

The Italian reports are invariably conservative and it has been noted that General Cadorna has a habit of withholding an announcement until he is sure of his ground. The confident tone of today's communique from Rome therefore is considered significant.

According to experts in strategy, General Cadorna has only to obtain a secure hold on Monte San Gabriele to give him complete dominance of the Bainsizza Plateau and the country far to the south, making it possible to push his way into the Chiapovano Valley and drive a wedge between the two Austrian armies, virtually isolating the southern army, which directly bars his way to Trieste Several times the San Gabriele peak has been in Italian hands, but the Austrians have battled desperately for this position and each time surged back again. There has been no let-up in the Italian pressure, however, and it now seems as if the decisive phase of the battle had been reached.

Rome, Sept. 7.—The Italian pressure against the Austrians in the region northeast of Gorizia is becoming decisive, the War Office announced today. The enemy has suffered extremely heavy losses for several days in his desperate resistance.

The statement says:

"Northeast of Gorizia the enemy having suffered heavy losses for several days, is making desperate resistance against our pressure, which is being continued decisively."

"Yesterday three officers and 201 men were made prisoners.

"On the Carso the bitter fighting of the past few days has been followed by local actions for rectifying the line and by intense bombardments.

"Our aeroplanes repeatedly destroyed or threw into confusion enemy batteries in the Panovizza Wood and the Ternova Forest and communication lines on the Carso."

Ernest E. McKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McKenzie, Victoria Crescent, left yesterday for Toronto to join the Aviation Corps.

Mr. W. F. Andrews returned to his home at Britannia Mines yesterday, after a short business trip here.

Miss Evelyn Dean, Kennedy street, left yesterday on a visit to relatives and friends in Vancouver.

Mr. John Frederickson, a former well known Nanaimoite, has been over from Vancouver the past two days on business. He rethrned home yesterday afternoon.

Pte. Alfred Alexander Green, of Cowichan Lake, has been killed in action in France. He was born in Ireland some forty-six years ago and his father came to reside at Hillbank about 1885. In the following year his brother Charles ran the first stage from Duncan to Cowichan Lake and started the Riverside Hotel there. He was drowned in the Clallam disaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Voitkevic, Mrs. Akenhead, Miss Akenhead and Mr. Sid Whitty returned on Thursday from a motor trip over the Georgian Circuit. They report a splendid trip and state the roads of Washington cannot compare with those of B.C.

WAR SITUATION ON ALL FRONTS

Canadians Have Been Engaged in Hard Fighting With Germans—Artilleries Active on French Front—Austrians and Italians Fighting Hard.

London, Sept. 7.—There has been no infantry action on a large scale on the western front. North of Frezenberg in the Ypres region the British have been compelled to withdraw from positions occupied Thursday. Around Lens the Canadians have been engaged in hard fighting with the Germans. On a part of the sector west of Lens German counter attacks resulted successfully, but on the south end of the sector the Canadians held and extended their positions.

On the French front there was no infantry activity. Friday along the Aisne in Champagne, and on both sides of the Meuse, opposing artilleries were active. German bombs, dropped on military hospitals have caused the death of one officer of the Medical Corps of the American army. German airmen last Tuesday bombed a group of British-American hospitals along the French coast. One officer of the American Medical Corps was killed and three officers were wounded severely. Five Americans were among sixteen other persons injured.

Heavy fighting for possession of Monte San Gabriele and other important positions northeast of Gorizia is still in progress but the Italians are pressing home their attacks despite desperate resistance.

Although suffering heavy losses, the Austrians are battling tenaciously for height positions. General Cadorna's latest report, however, says that Italy's pressure is continuing decisively. The Italians have added two hundred more to the number of prisoners taken in the fighting there.

On the Carso and in the region of Hermenda, the Austrians have stopped their unsuccessful attacks, but the artillery battle rages incessantly, making the whole region an inferno. Only local infantry actions for the purpose of straightening out their lines, have been carried out by the Italians.

The Italians have already taken 30,000 prisoners, and the total loss of the Austrians is estimated at 120,000. Northeast of Gorizia the Austrians have been on the defense. In the region of Hermanda their offensive efforts have failed with great losses.

German cavalry has been engaged with Russian rear guards at Zegevold, forty miles east of Riga, but apparently the German advance in force has slackened. Around Friedrichstadt about fifty miles southeast of Riga the retiring Russians have set fire to several villages.

DOMINION THEATRE

Jackie Saunders one of the best if not the best soubrette on the silent stage is featured to-day at the Dominion in the comedy drama "The Wildcat" which shows this popular little star at her very best. With this is screened perhaps the funniest of all Charlie Chaplin's two-reel comedies "The Rink."

Miss Cassie Stewart has returned home from an extended visit to friends in the Terminal City.

FOOD CONTROL

It appears that in discussing the question of food conotrol we altogether lost sight of that hoary economic bug-bear, the law of supply and demand. According to our evening contemporary it is to the simple but inevitable operation of this principle that we owe the high cost of living. We are also advised that there isn't a thing to be done. Natural laws have simply brought about high prices, and all that is left for us to do is to pay them. This is an admirable philosophy, particularly in a newspaper, and may be applied to the blackest kind of profiteering. Meantime it would help some if it were pointed out where the law of supply and demand applies to the food situation in Canada. So far as we know the production of food supplies is greater than it has ever been, while the consumption in the Dominion itself must perforce be less. Of course there are outside markets to be supplied, but why should the people of Canada, the country in which these food supplies are produced, be taxed additional prices because there is a shortage of food outside? Why should the price of flour have jumped the way it has, and what had the law of supply and demand to do with it?

Mr. Hoover, the American Food Controller, has looked into the question, and the United States government is taking action on his report. Mr. Hoover also blundered past this hoary, old economic law. He declared that while the American consumer was paying from 60 to over 100 per cent. more for his food supplies, the producer was not getting a cent more for his crops. The extra cost of living had gone to gamblers and speculators. We suppose that this couldn't happen in Canada. At all events the American government is fixing prices regardless of economic laws. After all when the government steps in and says what the people shall eat, it might upset a few more precedents and also say what they shall pay to eat. We believe that so far from the government having done about all that can be done, its refusal to tackle the high cost of living and the general question of profiteering constitutes the greatest weakness and biggest blunder in its whole administration of the war business of the country.

NO POLITICS

The Manitoba Free Press, one of the strongest newspapers of the west, has disassociated itself from all political considerations during the period of the war. It is to be hoped that other Canadian newspapers will follow its example. The great mistake made by the engineers of the Winnipeg Convention was that they counted on a docile press. As a matter of fact no newspaper will support a party machine at present other than those which are maintained by party funds, for party ends, an illustratious example of which is to be found in the Sun. Here is the pronouncement of the Free Press, and no doubt other publishers will follow suit:—

"In order to prevent any possible misunderstanding, the Free Press declares that it will not take the responsibility of assisting in the election of any Liberal candidate—however high his position in the party, however emphatic his protestations as to war policy—if he seeks the suffrage of the people solely as a party candidate without the endosement of a union convention. The Free Press will take no chances of being trapped into unwillingly helping forward this huge game of political flim-flam, which was played with such open contempt for public sentiment at the recent western Liberal convention and is still being played secretly and with greater skill.

"For the duration of the war, the Free Press is out of party politics. It knows only Canada and her perils, and it recognizes only one duty—that of serving the country with wholehearted devotion."

'In the coming Dominion elections, the Free Press will be happy, to the extent of its power and influence, to support any candidate who is placed in the field by a bona fide union convention representing all the elements in population devoted to the prosecution of the war and to support the national win-the-war government which is going to be formed in spite of all scheming by politicians, corporations and variegated influences to force a party fight upon the people of the Dominion.

"The Free Press will not be concerned respecting any such candidate with anything beyond his attitude toward the war. It will make no difference to it whether he is in politics Liberal, Conservative or Independent; in religion Protestant Catholic, Hebrew or Mussulman; in race, white red or black. Nothing counts or matters in these times but getting on with the war."

Most assuredly the business before the country is to get on with the war, and we will only get on with it properly and effectively when we have done away with the political machine and the politicians it turns out.

The Cameron-Genoa Mill Shipbuilders will launch the fifth auxiliary schooner contracted for by the H. W. Brown interests in about two weeks and the sixth vessel of the same type will be launched about November 15, thus completing the orders for the ships, which the company now has on hand and leaving it free to give all its attention to the building of the four wooden steamers for which it has been given contracts by the Imperial Munitions Board representatives.

Hurrah! How's This

Cincinnati authority says corns dry up and lift out with fingers.

Hospital records show that every time you cut a corn you invite lockjaw or blood poison, which is needless, says a Cincinnati authority who tells you that a quarter ounce of a drug called freezone can be obtained at little cost from the drug store but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callous.

You simply apply a few drops of freezone on a tender, aching corn and soreness is instantly relieved. Shortly the entire corn can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

This drug is sticky but dries at once and is claimed to just shrivel up any corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

WALLACE SHIPYARD WILL REPAIR CASSIAR

The wrecked steamer Cassiar of the Union Steamship Company's fleet which was raised on Sunday morning by the steamer Salvor of the B. C. Salvage Company of Victoria, has left the scene of the wreck in tow of the Salvor and is expected to reach Vancouver on Saturday according to a wire from Mr. E. H. Beasley, manager of the company. He stated that the Cassiar would be placed on the ways at the Wallace Shipyards, North Vancouver, for repairs.

The steamer ran ashore in a dense fog on August 26 off Privett Island, near Simoon Sound and sank in ten minutes. It was at first thought the wreck would be a total loss but the salvage company was able to construct a coffer dam around the vessel and to effect temporary repairs which will keep it afloat until it reaches Vancouver.

Extract from Vancouver Province, Aug. 22, 1917:

LIQUOR PRICES AGAIN ADVANCE

Jump 10 to 12 per cent. and another Increase expected in a Few Days.

Private purchasers of liquor who are holding back in the hope of buying high-class whiskies at slaughter prices just before prohibition comes into effect on October 1st will probably be disappointed. Imported liquors took a 10 to 12 per cent. advance within the past few days and are due for another increase with in the next two or three weeks it was intimated today.

Don't Waste, Don't Starve—there is plenty of food for all if you will only do your bit in preventing waste. Demand the whole wheat grain in breakfast foods and bread. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is 100 per cent. whole wheat—nothing wasted, every particle utilized. It contains more real nutriment than meat, and costs much less. For any meal with milk and fruits.

Would You Like to Earn $1 or $2 Daily the Year Round at Home

The Hosiery trade is booming, and the Demand far exceeds the Supply. We gladly take all the goods you can send us.

We must have more workers at once to help us keep pace with the demand. The Auto Knitter is sent on favorable terms to reliable persons, and we furnish full instructions how to knit sox, etc., also all yarn needed. The work is simple and easily learned; the Auto Knitter is a high speed machine, and works by turning a handle. Our fixed rates of pay guarantee you a steady income the year round, no matter where you live, but our workers often largely increase this by working for private customers.

Working either whole or spare time, this pleasant employment has brought prosperity to many workers in their own homes, and should do the same for you.

Write today, enclosing 3c in stamps, for full particulars, rates of pay, etc., and see what you and your family can now earn at home.

KILLING WAS EXCUSABLE

Fargo, N. D., Sept. 7.—"Justifiable, excusable, and proper," was the verdict of the coroner's jury that inquired into the shooting of Robert Williams, Industrial Worker of the World, by Northern Railway police detectives, whom Williams attempted to hold up on a moving freight train last night.

THINKS DEMPSEY IS COMING CHAMPION

Heavyweights are not nearly so scarce as they were a few years ago. New ones have been springing up in various parts of the country, and in some cases they look very good. Jack Kearns, the San Francisco manager and promoter, thinks he has a coming champion in Jack Dempsey, formerly of Salt Lake City. Dempsey was roaming about the desert part of the country for a while and finally drifted to San Francisco, taking up with Kearns as manager. He has had a number of fights on the Coast, and the showing he made was enough to convince such men as Eddie Graney, and Jack Welsh, both high class referees, that he has the ability in the heavyweight class.

Kearns is all enthusiasm over his find and says: "Its is not 'rot' when I tell you that I have the most sensational fighter in the country today, at least I think so, and that is the opinion of many California fight fans and sport writers. To my mind Jack Dempsey is the coming heavyweight champion. He holds that title now on the Pacific Coast, having won ten consecutives fights by the knockout route. His last two starts were against Al Norton, whom he stopped in one round, and he beat Billy Meehan in four rounds. He is only twenty two years of age and stands 6 feet 1 inch, and weighs 202 pounds in condition. Spike Kelley, who has been training him and knows a fighter when he sees one, thinks that Dempsey is the greatest piece of fighting machinery he has seen or handled since the days of Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons and Stanley Ketchel.

"Dempsey is not the mauling, bruising kind of a boxer like Carl Morris and others. He is a ring master of the Benny Leonard type and knows how to box as well as fight. He is originally from west Virginia, but the Californians have adopted him as a native son. I am ready to match him with any heavyweight in the world, and do not draw the color line. I hope to match him up with Fred Fulton, whom I consider the best heavyweight in the country today, Carl Morris, or Frank Moran. I say this, because I do not think any of them can stop Dempsey and we are willing to take a chance over any distance."

FIFTY BUSHELS TO ACRE

Calgary, Sept. 7.—R. C. Noble, of Nobleford, Alta., has one field of wheat, 1400 acres, which will thresh out 50 bushels to the acre. He has a total wheat crop of 10,000 acres. which will yield an average of 30 bushels. They are now threshing this crop.

HEADACHES AND THE EYES

One thing has been demonstrated without a shadow of doubt—it is this:

90 per cent. of all headaches are caused by eye-strain and can be relieved quickly and permanently by suitable eye glasses.

We fit more cases for eye-strain than we do for defective vision, and the results are gratifying—so conclusive, that you ought to know about them.

UNITED STATES MAY BRAEK RELATIONS WITH SWEDEN

Exposure of Duplicity of Scan dinavian Nation Has Aroused Bitter Feeling in Washingt on—Foreign Office at Stockholm Used for Three Years as Telegraph Office for the German Government.

Washington, Sept. 8.—How the Swedish legation in Argentina, acting as a secret means of communication between the German charge in Buenos Ayres and the Berlin Foreign Office, transmitted information regarding the sailing of ships and directions for their destruction by submarines was revealed today in official dispatches made public by the State Department.

The following was issued at the State Department:

"The Department of State has secured certain telegrams from Count Luxberg, German charge d'affairs at Buenos Ayres, to the Foreign Office at Berlin which, I regret to say, were dispatched from Buenos Ayres by the Swedish legation as its own official messages, addressed to the Stockholm Foreign Office.

Besides revealing the manner in which Germany used Sweden in her machinations in Argentina, the dispatches show how the German charge, at the time Argentina was having a critical diplomatic controversy with Germany over submarine destruction of her ships, was sending through the Swedish legation information of the sailings of certain vessels with recommendations they be sunk "without leaving any trace" and other dispatches informing the government how to regard Argentina's portest against the destruction of her shipping.

Duplicity of Sweden.

London, Sept. 8.—Intense interest has been aroused in diplomatic and political circles here by Washington dispatches concerning Sweden. The Associated Press learns that the Foreign Office at Stockholm has been acting as a telegraph office for the German government and for the last three years has regularly transmitted cables in German cipher under the guise of Swedish government messages.

May Break Off Relations

Washington, Sept. 8.—Baron Arkenheim, the Ambassador, rushes to the defense of the Swedish Minister at Buenos Ayres, and says he does not believe he knew of the contents of the messages. The feeling here is that the United States is likely to break off relations with Sweden unless the grave incident is explained away. Argentine is in a position bordering on a crisis on account of the sinkings, and it is likely will immediately demand the recall by Germany of its minister.

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 8.—President Iroygen, of Argentine, will call upon the German government for an explanation as soon as he gets confirmation from Ambassador Naon in Washington.

TO PROTECT MINERS IN CROWS NEST PASS

Victoria, Sept 8.—Safety measures for the collieries of the Crow's Nest Pass area are to be established shortly following recommendations made by Mr. George H. Rice, chief engineer of the United States bureau of mines, who reported on conditions there following "bumps" which led to loss of life last year.

Mr. Rice, in reporting to Hon. Wm. Sloan, minister of mines, said that tests showed the Crow's Nest field is among the most gaseous in the world. He recommended methods of mining to relieve the pressure to which the "bumps" are due and also the appointment of a permanent commission to be on the spot and conduct tests and advise the operators on how to avoid danger. The government has decided to appoint a permanent chemist to the area, pending such time as financial conditions will permit of the appointment of a commission.

Mr. Rice has also submitted recommendations as to the best methods of draining the coal measures of gas, but states there are many obscure matters connected with the investigation which only further and continued research work could clear up, including the work of phenomena, such as rock tremors, "bumps" and outbursts and the trial of methods of mining. He advocates among other things the establishment of a seismograph registering vertical waves at two or three points on the face of the mountain above No. 1, south mine.

Officers and members of Court Nanaimo Foresters Home are invited to attend the ceremonies in connection with the amalgamation of Courts Sherwod and Companions of the Forest, Monday night, at eight o'clock.

AUSTRIAN BODIES LYING IN HEAPS

Udine, Sept. 8— The ferocity of the Austrian counter attacks of the past few days, in which the best fresh troops were launched column after column regardless of the enormous losses, is explained by a council of war held recently under the presidency of Field Marschal von Koeves and General Borcevek. They are reported to have taken an oath to drive the Italians from Austrian territory.

Sections of the battlefield on which these charges were made are literally heaped with bodies. Austrian attacks were directed with particular severity against Selo, from which the Italians threaten the northern slopes of the Hermada position, the key to Trieste. Selo was in ruins when the Italians captured it. Now the ruins have ben pulverized. The surrounding country has been plowed up by the shells and all signs of vegetation have disappeared.

Kamloops may soon have letter carriers.

You cannot be healthy unless your teeth are in good order!

The reason is that unless your teeth are in good shape you cannot eat properly. You perforce swallow your food when it is only half masticated.

If your food is not properly masticated your stomach cannot digest it properly.

If your digestion is impaired then you do not get proper digestion from your food.

If your food does not give you nourishment then it follows that your health must suffer.

GERMAN LOSSES WERE SEVERE

Enemy Suffered Severe Casualties in Patrol Fighting Northeast of St. Julien—Langemarck Was Heavily Shelled.

London, Sept. 8.—The official report from British headquarters in France reads:

"Enemy artillery was somewhat more active than usual today near Hargincourt. Elsewhere hostile artillery activity was less marked.

"No infantry action has taken place."

London, Sept. 8.—Today's official statement reads:

"In patrol fighting on the Ypres sector last night the enemy suffered severe casualties northeast of St. Julien. In the neighborhood of Gavrelle a successful raid as carried out by a small party of our troops.

"Langemarck was heavily shelled by the enemy yesterday evening and there was some hostile artillery activity at other points later in the night. No infantry action developed."

German Statement.

Berlin, Sept. 8.—French forces have assumed the offensive in the Verdun region, according to today's War Office statement. They attacked last night on a 20-mile front, but were repulsed, it is declared. This morning the battle was renewed.

MINERS WOULD OPERATE PROPERTIES

Miners in Nicola Valley Coal Mine Submit Plan for the Consideration of the Minister of Mines.

Victoria, Sept. 8— To take over and operate the pro[illegible] of the company fo[illegible] been employed and by w[illegible] still owed some $7000 i[illegible] the somewhat unique suggestion that was made to Hon. Wm. Sloan, Minister of Mines, by the workmen of the Island Coal and Coke Company, a concern operating in the Nicola Valley. The proposition was made to the minister when he was on a trip to that section early this week. He returned to the city yesterday morning.

It was while conferring with the representatives of the men employed in some of the mines in that district that the minister was requested to consider the plan with the idea of coming to some arrangement with the company. It appears that the company has got into financial difficulties and now owes the Province royalties to a considerable amount. There is no disposition, the minister stated, on the part of the government to insist upon payment of such royalties at once. Rather the desire is to take such action as would be best for the district and in the interests of the men and production.

Hon. Mr. Sloan was accompanied on his trip by Mr. Joseph Walters, M P. for Yale, and Mr. R. W. Thompson district engineer of Mineral Survey District No. 3. In the course of his trip he visited many of the leading coal and metalliferous mines in the valley.

The improved conditions in the coal mining industry were indicated by some concerns which were hard hit with the advent of fuel oil into British Columbia. For instance, the Middlesborough collieries and the Diamond Vale collieries experienced the effect of the great increase in use of that kind of fuel but latterly the demand for coal has been so great that the output has been limited only by the ability to secure labor, which is in great demand and at present the collieries of the district are coming back into their own again, in fact they are unable to fill orders and have been forced to refuse.

The minister visited the Aberdeen copper mine on Ten Mile Creek and properties on Mamette Creek and in the Aspen Grove section, where there is underway considerable development, and outside capital is being increasingly interested. At the collieries Hon. Mr. Sloan went under ground making a thorough inspection of the workings. At the Highland Valley Development Company's holdings in the Highland Valley energetic development work is underway and a concentrating plant with a capacity of fifty tons per day is in operation handling 4 per cent. ore. That company has adopted what is known as the oil flotation process with excellent results.

Hon. Mr. Sloan expressed his pleas are at the signs of increasing development in that section which is of remarkable potentialities and will he believes, prove one of the great producing sections of the Province.

GERMAN DRIVE IS AT AN END

Lateness of the Season Makes it Improbable that Von Hindenberg Intends to Continue Campaign This Fall.

London, Sept. 8.—Despite the continued retreat of the Russians on the Riga front(indications are not wanting that the German drive in this region has nearly reached its limit. This view is taken by leading German military writers who point to the lateness of the season as making it improbable that von Hindenburg intends to push his campaign further this fall. He will be content with dispositions to safeguard his new acquisitions, the bases of Riga and Duenamuende, they intimate.

Copenhagen, Sept. 8.—Leading German military circles consider that with the capture of the important naval bases of Riga and Duenamuende the operations on the Riga front have virtually been ended, says a Berlin dispatch to The National Tidende. It is considered too late in the year to advance further, as this would require the building of new roads and the establishment of depots. On this account, the dispatch adds, it is unlikely that Field Marshal von Hindenburg will permit the troops to continue to advance with Petrograd as an objective.

Petrograd, Sept. 8.—No further advance by the Germans on the Riga front is reported in today's official statement. The Russian positions are being reconnoitred by German cavalry.

Berlin, Sept. 8.—The Russians are hastily entrenching in the Riga region to the west of Venden, says today's army headquarters statement. The text reads:

"Eastern war theatre, front of Prince Leopold's—Between the Baltic and the Dwina our cavalry is in fighting touch with the enemy west of Venden, near Bending, Nicau, and Lubenhof. The enemy on this line is hastily entrenching.

"Advanced Russian detachments were pressed back at several points

"On the Dwina the enemy has evacuated his positions to a point west of Kokenhuzen (about 12 miles east of Friedrichstadt).

"The number of guns captured on the battlefield of Riga has increased to 216."

MAKING OF WHISKY CEASES IN STATES

Washington, Sept. 8.—Manufacture of whisky will cease throughout the United States at 11 o'clock tonight, when the prohibition clause of the food act becomes effective. How many bushels of grain will thus be released for food no one knows, for the manufacture of alcohol for beverage purposes is so closely blended with the production of alcohol for industrial and medical purposes that there is no way of learning the amount.

Of the 100,000,000 bushels of grain or thereabouts which goes into the distilleries each year, about 40 per cent, experts claim, comes out in the form of whisky and other distilled beverages. The remainder, made in alcohol of exactly the same characteristics as that used for whisky, eventually finds its way into perfume, toilet waters, bay rum, medicines and to industries where nedatured alcohol is used in ever-increasing quantities.

Approximately 160,000,000 gallons of whisky has been produced each year by American distillers. Production of alcohol by the same distillers for commercial and medicinal uses other than beverages has approximated 146,000,000 gallons. The manufacture of alcohol for the latter purposes will continue as usual, probably in great volume, and few of the large distilleries, if any, will have to shut down.

Few men will be thrown out of work by the operation of the law. The distilleries now running will continue to produce alcohol for commercial purposes with little change in their forces.

The owl, hawk and buzzard have almost exterminated the song birds in British Columbia.

NAVAL ATTACK IN THE BALTIC

Great Attack by German Fleet on Baltic Coast Towns is Expected—Attack on Torpedo Patrols in Riga Gulf.

Stockholm, Sept. 8—It is reported that German naval forces of considerable strength have been observed in the southern Baltic taking a northerly direction. The leading squadron consists of submarines and torpedo boats with cruisers following. It is believed to be the German Baltic fleet reinforced by part of the High Seas fleet. A great naval attack on Russian Baltic coast towns is expected.

Petrograd, Sept. 8— Today's official statement says:

"On the Baltic Sea yesterday 23 enemy airplanes and battle planes made a series of flights and reconnaissances over Tserel, Arnsburg and the region of Hivsta. In the Gulf of Riga five enemy machines attacked our torpedo boat patrols without success. In an aerial battle near Arenburg our naval aviators brought down an enemy battle plane.

"Our aviators dropped bombs on the small town of Telekhany where the staff of a German regiment was stationed. Successful hits were observed.

PTE. RICHARDSON KILLED IN ACTION

Mrs. Richardson, Howard Avenue, was officially informed yesterday that her husband, Pte. Percy Charles Richardson was killed in action on August 19th last.

Pte. Richardson was a native of Essex, England, aged 34 years and had been a resident of Nanaimo six years. He was a carpenter by trade and went overseas with the 88th Battalion. He had been in the trenches one year and a day when he fell in action. The heartfelt sympathy of the community will be extended Mrs. Richardson and her three children in their hour of bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Pope, Irwin Street received a telegram yesterday from the War Office informing them that their son Private James Pope, had been admitted on Aug. 9th to a Scottish National General Hospital, Glasgow, suffering with trench fever. Pte. Pope had been in the trenches two years and a year ago was wounded in action. After recovering from his wounds he was transferred to the Machine Gun Section of the 15th.

PRESSURE AGAINST ENEMY CONTINUES

Austrian Line and Communication Northwest of Gorizia are Kept Under Intense Barrage Fire by Italians.

Rome, Sept. 8—More than 30,500 prisoners have been taken during the Italian offensive, the War Office announced today.

Italian forces are still energetically exerting pressure upon the Austrian lines northeast of Gorizia (the San Gabriele region), keeping them under an intense barrage fire.

The Carso fighting is being carried on mainly by the artillery, the statement indicates.

The text of the report follows:

"Yesterday we continued our energetic pressure northeast of Gorizia keeping the enemy's lines and communications under an intense barrage fire.

"On the Carso there were artillery duels.

"In the Concei Valley, west of lake Garda, local attacks against two of our advanced posts were repulsed.

"The total number of prisoners captured by us during the actual offensive is 30,672, including 878 officers. A large quantity or arms and war materials taken from the enemy is now being gathered and classified."

Washington, Sept. 8— Word reached Washington through official channels today indicating that the Italian forces are now moving toward Klaganfurt and Lubiano, the last strong Austrian position except Monte San Gabriele. With those two positions taken, the dispatch states, the Istrian Peninsula would be lost to Austria-Hungary, and that would mean the isolation of Trieste, Fiume and Pola and the destruction of Austria's naval base.

The roads from Klaganfurt and Lubiano lead to Vienna and Budapest. Whether the capture of these places is planned for the present offensive by General Cadorna the Italian commander in chief, could not be learned here. The life of the offensive is dependent on the quantity of supplies, chiefly munitions, left to the Italians after their 18-day effort, which has marked one of the most momentous campaigns of the war.

QUALICUM WON A CLOSE GAME

Splendid Bowling by Both Teams Marked Match Yesterday Between Qualicum and Esquimalt.

The returned soldiers from Qualicum scored their second victory over their comrades from the Esquimals and Resthaven camps yesterday afternoon on the Caledonian grounds. Curiously enough the bowlers on both sides had the upper hand from the beginning of thee match on what looked to be a batsman's wicket. The result was a low-scoring game but the play was always keen enough.

The Qualicum boys batted first, and when they were all retired for a total score of 46 the game looked easy for the Esquimalt team. However Silverwood and Carse bowled in great style, and none of the opposing side was able to stand up to them. Silverwood was top scorer for the Qualicum side with 13 runs, and he was the only man to get into double figures. None of the Esquimalt meen got into double figures, and Capt. Craddock was high man with seven.

With such low scoring the bowlers came out with a fine analysis. Welsh for Esquimalt took 6 wickets for 20 runs; King 4 for 14 and Barton 1 for 9. For Qualicum Silverwood came through with 5 wickets for 7 runs, and Carse 6 for 11.

The full scores of the match are as follows:

BIJOU THEATRE

A laugh feast pure and simple, that is what the Bijou offers for Monday in the five act comedy 'Tillie Wakes up." with Marie Dressler in the leading role, supported by a strong cast of fun makers, headed by that favorite light comedian Johnny Hines. Don't forget this one; it is good.

Mrs. A. C. Riddell, accompanied by her son, is visiting her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. J. Rowley Kennedy Street.

CONSPIRED TO AFFECT ESCAPE OF ENEMY

San Francisco, Cal. Sept. 8.—Lawrence De Lacy, Editor of the Weekly publication, Djharnedy a shoe merchant and William Mullane, a bartender, were found guilty in the United States district court here late today of conspiring to affect the escape from an internment camp on Angel Island of Franz Bopp, former German consul General here and Baron Schaek, former vice-consul.

THE SITUATION ON VARIOUS FRONTS

Russians Are Digging In to Make a Stand Against Hindenburg's Forces, and German Invasion is Apparently Near At End.

Russia's new line in Livonia following the retreat from Riga under von Hindenburg's pressure, is beginning to define itself. The retrograde movement appears to have been definitely halted in some sectors at least where the Russians are digging in to make a stand.

Berlin reports reveal this state of affairs more clearly than Petrograd.

Of both German and Russian opinion the Russian opinion seems to think the new German invasion will not proceed much further this fall. The approach of wet and cold seasons militates against a real push toward Petrograd at present, it is held, even if von Hindenburg had men to spare for the task.

On the Austro-Italian front Cadorna seems to be meeting with resistance even more desperate than before in his drive toward Trieste.

On the Franco-Belgian front Verdun seems again to be developing into the chief centre of interest. Berlin at least indicates a serious effort by the French to renew their successes in this battle scarred area. The French launched an attack on a wide front Friday night centering their efforts east of the Meuse between Samogneux and Beaumont Vacharauville road, says the German War Office, which claims a repulse was inflicted upon General Petain. Saturday morning, however, after a drum fire the attack was renewed, the front of the drive apparently being extended as far east as Bezonvaux, a point on which the French right flank hinged in the recent successful offensive.

In none of the other war theatres have there been actions of wide importance.

Secretary Lansing in Washington [illegible] today copies of [illegible] dispatches sent by German charge Buenos Ayres through the Swedish Legation in Argentine to the Berlin foreign office which reveal that information was transmitted to Berlin regarding the sailing of merchant vessels and the direction given for their destruction by submarines.

The communications it is announced, were in cipher, and were sent by the Swedish Legation as its own.

MEMBER WENT AFTER TRAITORS

Washington, Sept. 8.—An attack on what he called the treasonable propaganda of the People's Council for Democracy and terms of peace was made in the House today by Representative Johnson, of South Dakota, one of the members of Congress, who voted against the declaration of war.

He said it was about time that the Congressmen made it known to the people who are sending them this literature that Congress is united and that the men who voted against the entry of the United States into the war are supporting the government in every possible way.

Ten Japanese fishermen have been arrested and six Japanese boats seized by the state of Washington patrol boat John R. Rogers. The men and boats hail from British Columbia and it is alleged they were fishing near the Fraser river in United States waters in violation of law. Nine Japanese boats altogether have been seized lately. Under the Washington fishing laws aliens are not permitted to catch fish in United States waters.

THE PREMIER'S SPEECH

Premier Lloyd George invariably modulates the tone of his speeches to attune with the particular circumstances of the hour. He was more than usually optimistic in his speech at Birkenhead, and the reason for this is to be found in the untoward turn events have taken in Russia. The failure of the Russian armies has undoubtedly been the cause of bitter disappointment to the peoples of the allied countries. It is fairly obvious that if the Russians had been able to continue as they did last year the war would have been almost over now. The British Premier expresses his confidence that the Russian leaders will be able to pull their country through. This may be true enough; but it is impossible to say just how much the Germans will gain in the meantime For some reason no news of the internal conditions of Russia has been allowed to be published. Why this censorship should have been exercised seeing that the country is swarming with German spies is more than we can understand. It is possible that the German invasion may convince the cranks and visionaries that before they can establish a Russian millenium they will have to avert destruction at German hands. Premier Lloyd George was on safer ground in his references to the submarine danger, but apparently he said nothing on the growing aerial menace. Under the circumstances this was natural enough, for aerial supremacy will have a good deal to do with deciding the war, and none of the powers are giving out their plans. After all the chief fact in the military situation is that on the west front where Germany and Austria have massed their full strength, the allies are adding victory to victory, and slowly but surely wearing down the vaunted might of Prussian militarism.

AUTOINTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition Which Produces Many Well Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" — The Wonderful Fruit Medicine — will Protect You

Autointoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the Kidneys and Skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes Indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Disturbed Stomach. It may produce Headaches and Sleeplessness. It may irritate the Kidneys and bring on Pain in the Back, Rheumatism, Gout, and Rheumatic Pains. It is the chief cause of Eczema—and keeps the whole system unhealthy by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Autointoxication or self-poisoning—as "Fruit-a-tives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

SUE PROVINCE FOR BREACH OF CONTRACT

As the outcome of prolonged negotiations with the Provincial Government, through her solicitor, negotiations which, she claims, have failed to give her the justice she asserts is her due. Mrs. Thomas Atkins will shortly institute action against the Province, and the first step to be taken in that direction will be the application for the fiat of the Attorney-General permitting her to start action.

Mrs. Atkins has been seeking a crown grant of a large section of so-called agricultural lands in the Bear River district, near Fort George. She purchased the lands some years ago and has paid the amount thereon. When she applied to the present government for a crown grant she was refused on the ground that the lands are timber lands and could not be classified as agricultural lands, the latter being the classification under which they were sold to her by the late government.

Mr. G. G. McGeer, M.P.P., who is solicitor for Mrs. Atkins, has had numerous conferences with the government on behalf of his client, but without success He has retained Mr. Joseph Martin, K.C., as counsel in the case against the Province. Mr. Martin, it is stated, has advised that the government can be held liable for damages for breach of contract. A decision in this particular case will have an important bearing in connection with other lands taken up by various parties under similar circumstances.

Edonston the mile walk (7 min. 35 2-5 sec.); Gunner Phillips the half-mile race (2 min. 5 4-5 sec.); Captain Frank the shot-putting (36 ft. 7 1-4 in.); the high jump (5 ft. 8 in.), and the hammer-throwing (127 ft. 9 1-4 in.); Sergeant Thorpe the mile race (4 min. 47 2-5 sec.); Sergeant Hughes the pole vault (10 ft.); Lieutnnant R. A. Walker the discus-throwing (119 ft. 11 in.); and Lieutenant J. H. Rogers the broad jump (21 ft.). Seaford won the mile relay race, and Witley and Thorncliffe tied in the three-mile relay race.

LACK OF SHIPS IS AFFECTING BELGIANS;

New York, Sept. 7.—Lack of ships to carry an adequate supply of foodstuffs to Belgium during the last four months has caused the mortality in the industrial centres in that country and Northern France to rise from 15 to 65 per thousand and recent cable dispatches report the whole population as showing pitiful signs of under-nourishment according to a statement issued here by Prentiss Gray of the Commission for Belgian Relief.

The commission hopes that through the assistance of various Governments shipping may be provided to relieve the suffering in the occupied country.

Food Controller Hanna has prohibited the serving of bacon in hotels and restaurants on Tuesday and Fridays of each week. A government commissioner reports that there is more bacon in Canadian storage houses than there was a year ago. The Imperial authorities have announced that they will buy no more bacon in Canada. There seems to be a joke on somebody.

LIBERALS NAMED BY SIR WILFRID

Ottawa, Sept 7.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier handed to Sir George Foster this afternoon, in the absence of Sir Robert Borden, through temporary indisposition the list of the twelve men whom the Prime Minister asked the Opposition Leader to name as members of the board of selection appointed by joint resolution of both houses of Parliament to select members of the local tribunals throughout Canada under the Military Service Act.

The names given to the Government are as follows:

Ontario—Sir J. M. Gibson, Hamilton; Lieut.-Governor of Ontario; A. B. Lowe, Ottawa representative of the International Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees.

Quebec: Hon. S. N. Parent, Montreal, ex-Premier of Quebec; Hon. Sidney Fisher, Knowlton, ex-Minister of Agriculture.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years renewal for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of section, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights only, rescinded by such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights are not being operated Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

SOUTHPAWS WILL FIGURE IN WORLD'S SERIES

Southpaw heavers will cut a big figure in the coming world's series It does not matter much whether the Red Sox or the White Sox capture the American League pennant, the left-handers enter into the limelight. In the parent league the Giants are considered the winners.

McGraw has Schupp, the youngster, and Sallee, the veteran, and the fans concede these two to be the greatest southpaws in the business.

Lined up with the Red Sox is Babe Ruth and Dutch Leonard, and these two have shown more than once what they can do in a world's series.

Fans who have seen the teams play delight in expressing their opinions how things will shape up in the first game. If the White Sox start against the Giants it is thought that Rebel Russell will pitch the first game. Red has nerves of steel and nothing can feaze him. Besides, he has wonderful control and wonderful speed. Faber, too is a wonderful pitcher and Williams can be depended on. Fans seem to also think that the White Sox will back up the pitchers with great hitting and fielding. The White Sox also have Cicotte and Jim Scott to fall back on.

As for the Giants, every man on the team with one or two exceptions, is a veteran campaigner, and their experience will greatly help them in the big battles. Leadership counts, and with each man having been through the mill, the Giants can be depended on to play a wonderful game. McGraw has built well when the Giants go forth to battle for the long end of the great classic every man will be keyed up to the highest pitch and will be ready to play the game as he never played before.

Sallee is looked on as the man to pitch the opening game for McGraw. Jawn J. always was sweet on this pitcher and knows his worth. Man for man, McGraw compare Sallee with Christy Mathewson when the grand old master was in his prime. Schupp is like old wine. He gets better the further he goes, and has been a wonderful pitcher since last fall, and the bigger the stake the better will he pitch.

McGraw will have a batting strength in the field with an average of at least .270, possibly better, Still some of the wisemen are making the White Sox favorites at 10 to 9.

A bank of Nova Scotia $5 bill, raised to a $50, was recently passed in Golden. People should be careful about taking $50 bills.

HEADACHES AND THE EYES

One thing has been demonstrated without a shadow of doubt—it is this:

90 per cent. of all headaches are caused by eye-strain and can be relieved quickly and permanently by suitable eye glasses.

We fit more cases for eye-strain than we do for defective vision, and the results are gratifying—so conclusive, that you ought to know about them.

THE RECORD played on the Columbia Grafonola is more than a record; it is a reality! Through the marvelous Columbia Reproducer, every individual musical pulsation, every modulation of every note comes back with volume and warmth the same as the very original itself.

Clear, natural, brilliant, true—these words are hardly enough to describe it. Only one word can truly tell all that "Columbia tone" implies—and that single word is: LIFE!

Until you have heard the "Columbia tone" you have not heard the world's TRUES T reproduction of sound.

TO CONFER WITH SCHOOL TRUSTEES

City Council and Board of School Trustees Will Hold Conference Over Question of General Increase in Salaries.

The principal business transacted by the City Council at last night's meeting was the passing for payment of accounts contracted during the past month, totalling $7,669.89, and the decision arrived at by the aldermen to meet the Board of School Trustees for a discussion of the question of a proposed increase in the salaries of the teaching staff of the local schools.

In connection with the last named subject the appended communication was received from Mr. S. Gough, secretary of the School Board:

Gentlemen,—The Board of Public School Trustees of this city has directed me to communicate with your honorable body, regarding the salaries of the teaching staff of this city.

It has come to the notice of the members of the Board of School Trustees that the wages of the City workmen have been increased by the Municipal Council, while these wages were not subject to any cut on the rate paid during the year 1915.

Under these circumstances the members of the Trustee Board would like to restore the school salaries to the former figures, and respectfully request that the Municipal Council may be pleased to grant an additional sum to the general school estimates, to enable them to place the salaries at the rate they were during the year 1915. It is estimated that the sum of $840 additional to the general school estimates will be sufficient for this purpose during the remainder of this year.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
S. GOUGH,
Secretary.

It was the general feeling of the meeting that if the salaries of the teachers were advanced it would mean an increase in the salaries of civic officials all round, and on motion of Ald. Coburn, seconded by Ald. Sharp, the communication was received and filed and the City Clerk instructed to arrange for a meeting with the School Board for a discussion of the question.

The Street Foreman reported an expenditure in wages during the past week of $70.20 on streets and the Water Works Manager reported an expenditure of $34.61.

Accounts for the month of August totalling $7,669.89 were approved for payment, the largest items of expenditure being as follows:

Public Works	$ 625.46
Water Works	688.91
City Offices	422.25
Police Department	444.05
Fire Department	346.10
Schools	3,140.80
Cemetery	102.50
Street Lighting	521.00
City Council	125.00
Hospital	169.75
City Pound	80.00
Board of Health	50.00
Electrical inspection	13.85
Millstream Bridge	130.25
Charities	127.35
Interest	288.12
Insurance	291.37

On motion of Ald. Morton the Hired Vehicles Bylaw was reconsidered and finally adopted.

Ald. Morton was granted permission to introduce an amendment to the Regulation Bylaw No. [illegible] 1917, said amendment being necessary owing to the coming into force of prohibition on October 1st next. The bylaw was given the first and second readings and will be considered in committee at the next meeting of the Council.

M. RIBOT CANNOT REFORM CABINET

Paris, Sept. 10.—Premier Ribot this evening gave up the task of endeavoring to reform his ministry on account of the refusal of the Socialist party to collaborate with him A settlement of the ministerial crisis by the formation of a new ministry under M. Ribot had been expected tonight. M. Ribot, with this idea, got to work early this morning and, by noon, had conferences with the minister of marine, M. Painleve, and the minister of munitions, M. Thomas all of whom, it was asserted, seemed likely to retain their old portfolios. M. Ribobt had conferences with other persons this evening without results.

STILL POUNDING AUSTRIAN POSITIONS

Since the Beginning of Present Offensive Italian Forces Have Captured 145 Guns From Austrians.

Rome, Sept. 10.—Gen. Cadorna continues to press the Austrian forces norntheast of Gorizia, according to a report issued today by the War Office here. Yesterday there was a very great artillery bombardment in the south on the Carso front.

Since the beginning of the battle the Italian forces have captured 145 guns.

An official report issued here last night said:

"Northeast of Gorizia, in the Monte San Gabriele region, the artillery battle is continuing without cessation.

"On the remainder of the front there were the usual patrol actions and artillery fire."

Udine, Sept. 9, via Rome and London, Sept. 10.—The fight against the heights northeast of Gorizia continues night and day during good and bad weather. The continuous contest seems to the observer to be animated by superhuman force, the Italians and the Austrians almost constantly engaging in hand-to-hand encounters. A strange situation is brought about by the two armies, practically equal in strength, numbers and determination, struggling for supremacy in a circumscribed area where it is impossible for either side to employ more men or artillery. Losses in the ranks are instantly filled and thus the contending forces remain so balanced that victory apparently is almost impossible for either side. The fierceness of the struggle is proved by the fact that in 12 hours the Italians attacked the enemy five times.

REPORTS CITY FREE OF DISEASE

The members of the City Council, sitting last night as Board of Health decided to send Health Officer Drysdale to a meeting of Health officers of the Province to be held in Vancouver on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The meeting was also in receipt of a communication from the Health Officer informing the Board the city was free from any quarantinable diseases during the greater part of August and so far in September.

ISLAND TRIBUNAL LOCATIONS NAMED

Victoria, Sept. 10.—Judge P. S. Lampman of the County Court, exercising the authority given him by the Military Service Act, has decided upon the location of the twelve exemption tribunals that are to be established in and around Victoria.

Each tribunal is to have two members. One member will be appointed by Judge Lampman and the other by the local representatives of the board of selection, Dr. J. H. King and Mr. R. F. Green, M.P., who will be entitled to act as soon as their nomination has been approved by joint resolution of the Senate and House of Commons.

While the membership of the tribunals in Vancouver district has been announced by Judge McInnes, this has not yet been done in Victoria. Judge Lampman expects to have completed his selection by early this week.

There will be five tribunals for the filing of claims for conscription exemption in central Victoria, and there will be one tribunal for each of the following localities: Oak Bay, Royal Oak, Sidney, Salt Spring Island, Pender Island, Mayne, and adjacent islands, Esquimalt and Port Renfrew.

Judge Barker of Nanaimo, will appoint a member to each of the tribunals to be allotted to that part of the Island lying north of Judge Lampman's jurisdiction, which extends as far as Sidney.

Chief Justice Macdonald will soon establish for British Columbia a sufficient number of appeal tribunals and will assign to each such tribunal one judge of any court of this province. He will distribute the appeals to the various appeal tribunals.

It will cost $10,000 each for every American soldier placed on the front in the present war.

RUSSIAN TROOPS ON OFFENSIVE

"Death Battalion" Composed of Women Soldiers Defeated Huns and Forced Them Back in a Southerly Direction.

Petrograd, Sept. 10—The Russian troops yesterday took the offensive against the German forces in the region of Seegeveld, 32 miles northeast of Riga. In certain sectors, the statement says, the Russian "Death Battalion," composed of women soldiers defeated the Teutons and forced them back in a southerly direction.

The battle is proceeding between advanced German detachments and Russian rear-guards, who are holding the Burtnetsk line on the Psokoff road.

Sixteen German aeroplanes yesterday dropped 40 bombs without result in an attack on the Russian torpedo boats in the Gulf of Riga.

London Sept. 10.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Petrograd, tells of the commencement of a partial evacuation of Petrograd.

"People," says the correspondent, "are hastily leaving the city on outgoing trains which are filled to their utmost capacity and there are tremendous queues of people at all stations.

"The government is taking measures to empty the city."

Miss J. Doran will give lessons in step dancing at 145 Nicol street, Thursday evenings. Terms on application. 63-3t*

His Honor Judge William Wallace Burns McInnes has resigned his seat on the bench to accept the nomination of the Liberals of Comox-Alberni in the coming federal election. The resignation was officially announced yesterday morning by His Honor Judge Grant at the opening of the fall term of the County Court, Vancouver.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Andrew's Church will hold their annual Bazaar on November 10th. Handkerchiefs, aprons, fancy work, candy, and home cooking will be on sale, and afternoon tea served. Particulars will appear later. 1t

CANADIAN SOLDIERS FAVOR CONSCRIPTION

Winnipeg, Man. Sept. 10.—Mayor Davidson received the following cable from Gen. Steele this evening.

"Canadian soldiers overseas are to a man in favor of conscription. Borden must be backed up. It would be ruin to Canada to retire at this stage. The proper way to back Gen. Currie is to keep his corps reinforced. Canada to keep her place as a nation with the Empire, must stand by the gallant men or be eternally disgraced. The result of the Winnipeg convention was apparently misunderstood. Empty compliments count for little."

William Farnum the famous legitimate and screen actor will appear at the Bijou today in one of his greatest triumphs "The Fires of Conscience," supported by an admirable company of real artists. This annoucement should and doubtless will pack this popular play-house to the doors.

BAKER WON THE CHAMPIONSHIP EVENT

Dr. Baker of Vancouver won the championship shoot held by the Nanaimo Gun Club on Sunday, twenty-five shooters taking part in the event Owing to a drizzling rain and a dark atmosphere the shooters were considerably handicapped and as a result there were no phenomenal scores Caddom's straight 25 and Eastham's straight 15 being the best of the day.

The championship event was at 50 birds, Dr. Baker winning break being 45, second place being taken by Jos. Tassin of Ladysmith with 44. Messrs R. Hoggan; W. Hoggan, Vanderoy and Patterson all broke 43.

The high aggregate for the day was taken by W. Hogan with a break of 110 out of 124, J. Eastham second with 106 and C. Martin Jr. was third with 103.

In the first 15 singles event of the day W. Graham and J. Eastham tied with 14 for high, W. Hoggan and F. Tattrie breaking 13. In the second 15 singles J. Eastham made a straight, W. Graham breaking 14 and Davis, Vanderoy, W. Hoggan and C. Martin, Jr. breaking 13. In the 20 bird event, W. Hoggan and Carder tied with 19 for high, R. Hoggan, J. Eastham and C. Martin, Jr. breaking 18.

The twelve doubles was most interesting, W. Hoggon carrying off the honors with 22, C. Martin, Jr. second with 20 and J. Eastham third with 18.

It may be interesting to note that no less than 1222 clay birds were thrown during the progress of the shoot.

For the Hercules trophy the handicap shoots for hich have been running through the season, a very keen contest has taken place. W. Hoggan succeeded in maintaining his lead, and finally won the gold fob, which was put up as first prize. The silver fob was won by F. Evans who took second place, and the bronze fob by J. Thompson who was third.

In the "A" class W. Hoggan was again victorious, winning the trophy for the season while J. Thompson was high gunning "B" class.

EXHIBITION WILL OPEN TO-DAY

After Lapse of Four Years Local Agricultural Society Will Resume Annual Exhibitions Today.

Entries closed last night for the Annual Exhibiton of the Nanaimo Agricultural and Horticultural Society which will be held today Wednesday and Thursday, and which will be offically opened tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, by the Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines.

Entries of live stock, farm and dairy produce and particularly of preserved foodstuffs have come in well during the past few days and it is anticipated that when all have been placed in their respective positions, the hall will contain an exhition of which this province may well be proud.

Special attention appears to have been paid to the work of the ladies this year, and some really beautiful speciment of their handiwork will be on exhibition, while an exhibit of illuminated lettering contributed by Mr. Swanson, of East Wellington, should arouse interst in an almost forgotten art.

Motorists will find much to interest them. Tom Weeks has secured and will have on exhibition, something very special in the way of the newest types of cars, including the very latest 8-cylinder Cadillac, a new type of the Dodge car and also of that popular little model, the Chevrolet.

The Sampson Motor Company will also show some of the latest models in McLaughlin and the indispensible Ford cars, while the show of accessories for motorists will be as complete as can be loked for.

There will be a meeting of the Western Fuel Company Picnic Committee in the bandroom at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening.

TO TRANSPORT AMERICAN SOLDIERS WITH SAFETY

Washington, Sept. 8—A joint board of army and navy officers headed by Captain William R. Shoemaker, of the navy, has been appointed to work out a system to be employed in getting American troop saftaoi taoi taoi taoi taoi aoin aoihr transports across the Atlantic in safety. Necessarily its conclusions and recommendation will be regarded as confidential. Submarines have made an entirely new system of convoy regulations necessary. Presumably the board will incorporate into the new regulations all that has been learned by the British and French navies in three years of naval warfare as to the best way of protecting troopships.

COAL SHORTAGE SERIOUS

Berlin, Sept. 5.—Theatres will curtail performances this winter to conserve coal, as the mines' shortage is growing to be a greater concern than food.

TEUTON ADVANCE BROUGHT TO HALT

Russians are Offering Strong Opposition to German Forces on the Riga Front, and Teutons Are on the Defensive in Roumania.

The Russian government is again facing a crisis but apparently with his usual "blood and iron" method Premier Kerensky has taken vigorous steps to combat it and to punish severely those opposition elements who brought it about.

Indications that Kerensky and his followers have a good chance quickly to bring about order is contained in a proclamation issued by soldiers' and workmen's council urging that all army and navy organizations obey the Provisional government, and refuse to adhere to the conspiracy, and asserting that Korniloff will be punished for his treachery.

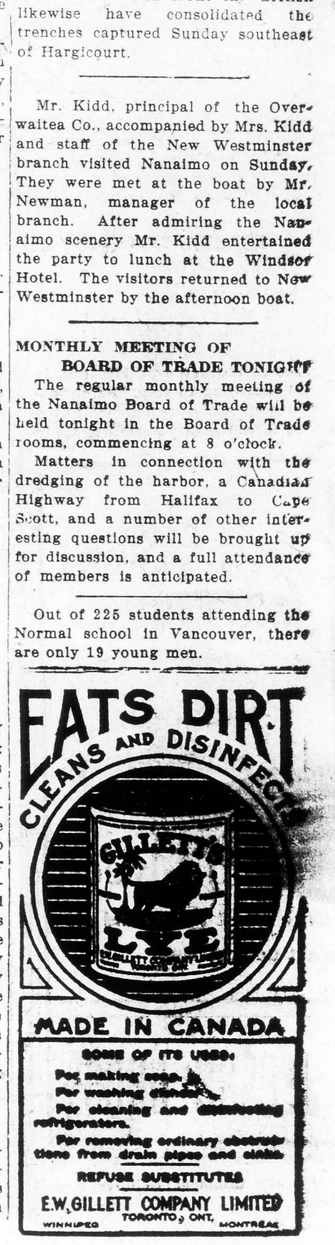
On the northern Russian front the Russians are now offering strong opposition to the Germans who are endeavoring to press their advantage further eastward from the Riga-Dvina line. Thirty-two miles northeast of Riga near Segovold, the "death battalion" has even defeated the Germans and forced them to retreat to the south while along the Burtnetsk line to the Pskoff railroad the Russian rear-guards are giving strong battle to advanced Teuton contingents.

In the Russian theatre also the Russian and Rumanians again have assumed the offensive, delivering repeated attacks with large effectives against the Teutonic allied positions in the Trotus and Oitus Valleys.

Around Monte San Gabriele General Cadorna continues to hammer away at the Austrian positions. No claims to further progress on this sector are made by the Italian official communication, but it is announced that attempts by the Austrians in counter attacks have been repulsed.

Northeast of Verdun the French troops have consolidated the positions taken from the German Crown Prince in Fosses and Cauriers woods and the Germans doubtless because of their enormous losses have ceased for the time being their violent counter attacks.

On the British front the British likewise have consolidated the trenches captured Sunday southeast of Hargicourt.



Mr. Kidd, principal of the Overwaitea Co., accompanied by Mrs. Kidd and staff of the New Westminster branch visited Nanaimo on Sunday. They were met at the boat by Mr. Newman, manager of the local branch. After admiring the Nanaimo scenery Mr. Kidd entertained the party to lunch at the Windsor Hotel. The visitors returned to New Westminster by the afternoon boat.

MONTHLY MEETING OF BOARD OF TRADE TONIGHT

The regular monthly meeting of the Nanaimo Board of Trade will be held tonight in the Board of Trade rooms, commencing at 8 o'clock.

Matters in connection with the dredging of the harbor, a Canadian Highway from Halifax to Cape Scott, and a number of other interesting questions will be brought up for discussion, and a full attendance of members is anticipated.

Out of 225 students attending the Normal school in Vancouver, there are only 19 young men.

R. R. HINDMARCH

AN EXPLANATION

There seems to be some misapprehension on the part of a few directors of public institutions as to the business methods of the Herald. It has at least come to our knowledge that these men are charging that Herald advertising rates are extortionate. A special case in connection with a public institution is quoted in which the Herald, for the same service charged more than double that the Free Press. Seeing that this story, as it is being told, is not calculated to help the Herald's business a brief explanation will be in order.

In the first place there was a mistake in this particular Herald bill, a mistake which was corrected. This, we claim, is as much as the Herald could be expected to do. It is true that there still remained a difference of three dollars in the Herald and Free Press bills, but it is for the Free Press and not the Herald to explain how this came about. The chief point is that the Herald's advertising rates are published in the paper at least once a week. This schedule of charges was carefully drawn up, and is published for every one to read. The cost of an advertisement can be ascertained before it is inserted and it can be checked by this published schedule after it is inserted. We are not going to enter into a cut-price competition. We are running the Herald as a business proposition as well as we know how and there is no reason for misapprehension as there is no excuse for misrepresentation. The bill against the Hospital was charged according to our advertised rates, neither more nor less. We were not asked to make a donation of the advertisement either in whole or in part. On the other hand, for the benefit of our friends who are retailing this story, we want it understood that there was no overcharging.

NEW FRANCHISE BILL

The Liberal Press or that section of it in the control of the Liberal party machine, is raising a tremendous howl about the application of the closure to the new franchise bill. It is all according to rote. Purely obstruction tactics were pursued in order to force the government to apply the closure. Now the application of the closure is being used to obscure the real principles involved. First of all there would have been no new franchise bill if the politicians had not schemed for a general election. There was never any need for an election and the men responsible for it are guilty of a crime against the Dominion. Secondly, any bill, whatever defects it may have which disfranchises men of German birth and enemy sympathizers will have the support of all patriotic Canadians, no matter how it is passed through the Commons. If the Liberal press wants to align itself with the German element of the prairie provinces let it come out openly. The new Franchise Bill is not so much a vote-catcher as a vote-stopper, and as such it needs no defence. Thirdly, any provision which will tend to give full effect to the vote of the men in the firing line is entitled to support and will get it. After all, the real opposition to this temporary franchise measure comes from the men of German and Austrian birth whom it deprives of their vote.

FURTHER LIST TAKEN BY SUNKEN STEAMER

Fresh difficulties and problems face the B. C. Salvage company's corps who have undertaken the task of raising the sunken steamer British Columbia, which sank at the Hastings Mill wharf some time ago. The vessel yesterday slipped further down the shelving bank in front of the wharf and now lies almost flat on her starboard side on the bottom. The steamer's masts which held her against the wharf, broke off and allowed her to list over almost flat on her side.

As there is about 40 feet of water there at high tide the vessel is completely submerged at high and just portions or rather the outline of her hull shows at low tide. In this position the vessel will be much more difficult to raise as she will first have to be righted before any further attempt is made to raise her. Work is still proceeding in the dumping of a couple of scows loads of sand and gravel outside the vessel so as to make a bank for her to rest against when she is righted. Incidentally, the dumping of this material there will mean further dredging job after the steamer is raised. It is just possible to read the vessel's name on the port bow at low tide.

GERMANS TO TRY AND CHECK HAIG

Amsterdam, Sept. 10.—The Telegraff attaches great inportance to the reported visit of the German kaiser to Brussels, and to the heavy movement of troops across Belgium It declares that a great counter-offensive is in preparation, as it is absolutely essential to check the British advance into Belgium, which has for its objective the capture of the coast line and the destruction of the submarine bases at Zeebrugge and elsewhere.

"One Whole Wheat Meal a Day"—that's the slogan for those who want to conserve food and also conserve strength and health. But be sure it is the whole wheat prepared in a digestible form. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is 100 per cent. whole wheat—nothing wasted, nothing thrown away. Fifteen years ago Shredded Wheat was eaten only as a breakfast cereal; now it is eaten for any meal as a substitute for meat, eggs, or potatoes. Two or three biscuits with milk or cream and some fresh fruits make a nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of only a few cents.

A Message To The Young Men of NANAIMO

Thomas A. Edison Says:

"I have watched the progress of the I. C. S. almost from the very beginning, and, while your rapid growth might be marveled at by some, to me it is easily understood because I realize the practical value back of the I.C.S. training."

Most of your time is mortgaged to work, meals and sleep. But the hours after supper are yours, and your future depends on how you spend them. You can fritter them away on profitless pleasure, or you can make these hours bring you position, money, power, real success in life. Thousands of splendid good-paying positions are waiting in every field of work for men trained to fill them. There's a big job waiaing for you, in your present work, or any line you choose. Get ready for it, as many ambitious men (names furnished on application) have done through the

P. P. Claxton, U. S. Commissioner of Education, recently paid a visit to the I. C. S. After an inspection of the system, he said:

"I fully believe in the principle of instruction by correspondence for those who are unable to attend the schools, and for those who wish to continue their work in any subject or group of subjects beyond what they are able to get in the schools."

International Correspondence Schools

No matter how limited your previous education, the simply-written, wonderfully-illustrated I.C.S. textbooks make it easy to learn. No matter what career you may choose, some of the 280 I.C.S. Courses will surely suit your needs.

UNIQUE TEXTBOOKS

More money has been invested in the preparation of I.C.S. textbooks than upon any other textbooks ever published. The Course in Architecture cost $98,000; the Course in Civil Engineering $88,000; the Course in Textiles $76,000; the Agricultural Courses over $225,000. The superior service is always at your command.

I.C.S. textbooks are used for reference and instruction in colleges and universities, in government schools, institutes of technology and vocational schools, in America, by the U. S. Navy Department in its Ship Board Training Schools, and by many of the largest industrial corporations in their training classes for apprentices and employes.

Facts worth Knowing About I. C. S.

Some idea of the great work of the I.C.S. may be had from the following:

First student enrolled October 1891; total enrolment now more than 1,850,000; 7 Home-office buildings-7½ acres of floor space; 3000 employes—25 branch offices—32 foreign agencies; 280 Courses taught; daily postage bill $700; 32,000 pieces of mail handled daily; 5½ tons of paper used by the Printing Department daily; 600 completed text books turned out by the Printing Department daily; advertisements run in 100 national magazines and technical trade publications each day; 250 new students enrolled daily; 250 railroad and industrial companies have entered into agreement with the I.C.S. for training their employes.

Jesse G. Vincent, Designer, Packard "Twin Six"

"I take great pleasure in recommending I. C. S. courses to any young man who is ambitious and anxious to get the necessary education to enable him to make the most of his opportunities.

"I found your system thorough. If the student is conscientious there is no reason why he cannot accomplish what he set out to accomplish when he enrolled.

"My I.C.S. Course enabled me to obtain the training that was absolutely necessary in order that I might be in position to take advantage of opportunities for advancement as they presented themslves."

JESSE G. VINCENT,
Vice-Pres. of Engineering.
Packard Motor Car Co.

SERVICE TO STUDENTS

A large department is maintained by the I.C.S. for the sole purpose of helping students to obtain every possible benefit from their studies.

Many of the largest employers in the country are interested in the work of the I.C.S., and, at their request, are being informed regularly concerning the progress of I.C.S. students among their employes.

Successful efforts are also made to secure good positions for deserving students, and competent employes for employers.

When everything has been made easy for you—when one hour a day spent with the I.C.S. in the quiet of your own home will bring you a bigger income, more comforts, more pleasures, all that success means—can you afford to let another priceless hour of spare time go to waste? Make your start today by marking and mailing the coupon in the corner.

There are Some I.C.S. Students in Your Section

In every city in the United States there is a representative body of I.C.S. students. Besides, there are thousands of students in other parts of the world. Our representative will tell you the names of the students in your neighborhood.

NO GRAPE JUICE SAYS DEAN HICKS

Spokane, Sept. 10.—The substitution of grape juice for fermented wine in the sacramental ceremonies of the Episcopal church is decried by the Rev. Wm. C. Hicks in the current issue of "The Cathedral Chimes." He argues that the historic church has always used fermented wine and that the early church went so far as to say that only a fermented wine constituted a sacrament.

"There is no reason for departure from the ancient custom even though every state in the union should declare for prohibtion," say the article.

"Much of this discussion seems to have arisen because of the difficulty there is of securing wine in some of our dry states. There is some difficulty, we admit, but none which will justify the substitution of grape juice for wine.

"The law makes provision for the purchase of sacramental wine, and if it did not, it would certainly be unconstitutional, as it would be an infringement on the religious liberty of the peole; and no legal requirements or difficulties in the way of securing wine as a reason why one should take the matter in his own hands and substitute that which has never been sanctioned in the history of the church."

CRAWFORD TO RETIRE

Sam Crawford, the famous slugger of the Detroit Tigers, probably will retire from the big leagues at the finish of the present season. He may wind up his career on the diamond as a manager.

Crawford will go out with one record to which he can always point with pride. In eleven different years he has batted better than .300. Only fifteen other batsmen of all the thousands of all time have equalled this mark. Crawford was four years with Cincinnati, and had an average of .311; fourteen years with Detroit for a grand mark of .309, and for the eighteen years has an average of .310. These figures do not include the present season.

Two ships loaded with munitions of war and in all probability operating from a base "somewhere" in the Dutch East Indies, have recently supplied the German armies in German East Africa with munitions. One of these vessels succeeded in returning to Java in a shell-riddled condition. The fate of the other is unknown. The feat performed by these gun-running vessels vividly recalls similar attempts by the Maverick and other vessels operated by Mr. Fred Jebsen.

Military Service Act

1917

Explanatory Announcement by the Minister of Justice

THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT has received the assent of the Governor-General, and is now part of the law of the land. It will be enforced accordingly, and the patriotism and good sense of the people can be relied upon to support it. Resistance to its enforcement, however, by word or act must and will be repressed, as resistance to any other law in force must be.

Reinforcements Under Military Service Act Immediately Required

It is the intention of the Government immediately to exercise the power which the Act confers, and to call out men for military service in order to provide reinforcements for the Canadian Forces. This is necessary, since the military authorities report that the reserves available or in sight for reinforcement will shortly be exhausted unless this step be taken.

First Call Limited to Men Between 20 and 34, Who Were Unmarried, or Widowers Without Children, on July 6, 1917

The present call will be limited to men not in the schedule of exceptions, who were unmarried or widowers without children on 6th July, 1917, are at least twenty years of age, and were born on or since 1st January 1883. Of this class, all those will be entitled to conditional exemption whose services in their present occupations, agricultural, industrial or other, are essential in the national interest, and whose business or domestic responsibilities are such that serious hardships would ensue if their services be required. Conscientious scruples based upon a prohibition of combatant service by the articles of faith of the religious denomination to which men belong will also be respected. The men first required to serve will consequently be those who can be called upon with the least disturbance of the economic and social life of the country.

Civil Tribunals to Deal with Exemptions

Questions of exemption will be determined, not by the military authorities or by the Government, but by civil tribunals composed of representative men who are familiar with local conditions in the communities in which they serve, who will generally have personal knowledge of the economic and family reasons which those whose cases come before them have had for not volunteering their services and who will be able sympathetically to estimate the weight and importance of such reasons. Provincial Appellate Tribunals, constituted from the existing judiciary of the respective Provinces, will be provided to correct mistakes made by Local Tribunals, and a Central Appeal Tribunal for the whole of Canada selected from among the present judges of the Supreme Court of Canada, will be constituted in order that identical principles may be applied throughout the country. In this way every man may rest assured of the fair and full consideration of his circumstances and the national requirements, both civil and military.

Proclamation Will Announce the Day

A proclamation will issue calling out the bachelors and widowers referred to, and fixing a day on or before which every man must report for service to the military authorities, unless he has before that day made an application for exemption.

How to Apply for Exemption

Applications for exemption may be made by written notice on forms which will be available at every post office and will be transmitted free of postage. They will not, however, be required to be made in this way, but may be presented by the applicants in person to the Exemption Tribunals. The cases of those who have given written notice in advance will have precedence, and appearance in person will therefore be likely to involve considerably more inconvenience and delay to the men concerned, so that it is recommended that advantage be generally taken of the facilities for written application.

Exemption Tribunals in All Parts of Canada

The Local Exemption Tribunals will be constituted with the least delay possible, consistent with the selection of representative individuals to compose them, and the instruction of the members in their duties. There will be more than one thousand of such Tribunals throughout Canada, each consisting of two members, one of whom will be nominated by a Joint Committee of Parliament, and the other by one of the Judges of the existing courts. Every effort will be made by the wide distribution of Tribunals, and by provision where necessary for their sitting in more than one place, to minimize the inconvenience to which men will be put in obtaining the disposition of their cases.

A Registrar will be appointed in each Province, who will be named in the proclamation, and to whom enquiries may be addressed. Each Provincial Registrar will transmit to the appropriate Tribunal the applications for exemption which have been submitted in advance of the sittings, and men who have sent these in will not be required to attend the Tribunals until notified to do so. Other applicants should attend personally on the Tribunal without notice.

How to Report for Service

Men who do not desire to claim exemption will report to the military authorities for service, either by mail or in person, at any time after the issue of the proclamation. Forms of report by mail will be found in all post offices and, like application for exemption, will be transmitted free of postage.

Early Report Advantageous

No man who reports for service will, although he may be medically examined and passed as fit, be required to go into camp or join a battalion until after a day fixed by the proclamation sufficiently late to permit of the disposition by the Local Tribunals of most, if not all, of the applications for exemption which may come before them. Thus no advantage will be gained by delaying or disadvantage incurred by prompt report for service on the part of those who do not intend to apply for exemption.

Facilities for Immediate Medical Examination

Immediately upon the issue of the proclamation, Medical Boards will sit at every mobilization centre for the examination of men who report for service or who, subject to their right within the time limited to apply for exemption, desire to have their physical fitness determined in order to allay any doubt as to their physical condition, or to know definitely and in advance whether there is a possibility of their services being required. Certificates of physical unfitness issued by these Medical Boards will be accepted without any further investigation by Exemption Tribunals when they sit. Men found physically fit who have not reported or service may nevertheless apply for exemption on any of the prescribed grounds, including even their physical condition if dissatisfied with the Medical Board conclusion.

Notice to Join the Colors

As reinforcements are required notice to report at the nearest mobilization centre will be given from time to time to the men found liable and passed as fit for service. Disobedience of such notice will render the offender liable to punishment, but punishment for failure to report for military service, or to report subsequently for duty when called upon, will be imposed ordinarily by the civil magistrates; offenders, however, will remain liable for the performance of their military duties notwithstanding any civil punishment which may be imposed, and will be liable to military punishment in cases in which civil proceedings are not taken.

Watch for the Proclamation

Notice of the day appointed for the making of a claim for exemption or for report for military service will be published as widely as possible, but as no personal notice can be given until the individuals called out have so reported themselves or claimed exemption, men possibly concerned are warned to inform themselves with regard to the day fixed, since neglect may involve the loss by them, of important privileges and rights.

THE LATEST METHOD of grafting skin over a severe burn or scald is by the Zam-Buk process. Zam-Buk contains herbal ingredients that literally grow new skin. How much safer, simpler and cheaper than the old method, which was by surgery!

Mrs. George Currie, of 194 Waterloo Ave., Guelph, Ont., writes: "My baby sustained a very severe burn, and although he received medical attention for eight weeks, he got very little better. Finally the doctor told me that skin would have to be grafted.

"Meantime I had heard of Zam-Buk and decided to try it first. This soothing balm soon drew out the inflammation, and in a short time I could notice a great improvement. New skin began to form, and in three weeks' time the burn was quite healed over, without having to resort to surgery."

Zam-Buk is equally good for cuts and bruises, as well as for eczema, old sores, blood-poisoning and piles. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

VOLUME XVII. NANAIMO, VANCOUVER ISLAND, BRITISH COLUMBIA, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER, 12, 1917. NUMBER 164.

NANAIMO EXHIBITION IS NOW IN FULL SWING

Splendid Display of Fruits, Vegetables, Flowers, Art, Etc.—Feature of Exhibition is Display Made by Government Experimental Farm at Saanichton—Exhibition to be Officially Opened Today.

Those who today attend the Agricultural Society and Nanaimo Kennel Club will find the show at its best for the judging of the exhibits is almost completed and the live stock will be on hand together with added attractions. Owing to the exceedingly dry summer the number of exhibits is not as large as would have been the case had weather conditions been more adapted to successful gardening or farming. In puality, however, the exhibits are of a high standard, the vegetables, fruits and flowers being fully up to the high standard set in the past.

In connection with the exhibition several local merchants have displays including D. Spencer, Ltd., Heintzman & Co., and W. Mainwaring. The exhibit of Mr. Mainwaring's is most artistically displayed and consists of teas, coffees and spices, together with coffee mill and all the paraphernalia necessary to the equipment of an up-to-date Tea and Coffee house. All visitors to the exhibition will receive a sample of this firm's splendid teas and coffees, and Mr. Mainwaring is also donating to the Daughters of the Empire all the tea and coffee they use in connection with the booth conducted by them during the progress of the exhibition.

Tom Weeks has on display four splendid cars, including a Cadillac, Dodge, Chevrolet and a Republic truck, and in addition has a complete stock of auto accessories on exhibit. The Studebaker Company has an exhibit which attracts considerable attention, and Messrs. Martindale and Bate have a Gray Dort on view which adds materially to the ...ction of the exhibition.

...out doubt the most interest... attractive section in the ...ble building is the display made by the Dominion Government Experimental Farm at Saanichton. In this exhibit is everything in miniature which is to be found on a modern farm. There is a sheep dipping tank, Plant for Hot Beds or Vegetable Plant Frame, Wool Packing Box, Plan for stable floor, showing the modern cow stalls, Root Cellar, Plank frame Truss Barn, Hurdles for sheep or swine, Hog Cabin, Fattening Crates, Sheep Barn, Trap Nests, Poultry Yards, Bee Hives, Poultry House, Hoopers, Silos and many other things about a modern farm too numerous to mention. The Experimental Farm also has on display samples of what B.C. can do in the way of growing bulbs and seeds, and in a word the show made from Saanichton is an exhibition in itself.

The Daughters of the Empire are showing articles of soldiers comforts which they are constantly sending to the boys at the front and the display of ladies and children's fancy work is worthy of flattering comment. Mr. John May has an interesting exhibit in the way of violins. Mr. May is a noted maker of violins and he has on display violins in every stage of manufacture, from the raw material to the finished product.

Columns could be written of the many articles on exhibition of the dog show, and exhibit of live stock, and any who attend today will be well rewarded for their effects. The exhibition will be officially opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon by the Hon. William Sloan, and a band will be in attendance besides other special attractions this afternoon and evening.

The prize winners up to the present are as follows:

RIVAL RUSSIAN FORCES CLASH

Troops Under Korniloff Have Bombarded Government Positions with Heavy Guns—Army Marching on Petrograd.

Petrograd, Sept. 11.—Gen. Korniloff's march toward Petrograd continues. According to a statement circulated at the Winter Palace early this morning the first collision between forces already has taken place, followers of Korniloff having begun hostilities by bombarding Government positions with heavy guns.

London, Sept. 11.—At the Russian embassy here this evening it was stated that no cable messages have been received there from Petrograd since Monday morning.

"We are absolutely in the dark concerning what is taking place, and are now dependent on the press for information" said one of the secretaries.

ADDED FEATURES AT FIRST AID

Additional sporting features are being added to the programme for the First Aid Field Day which will be held at Ladysmith on Saturday, Sept. 29th. A big tug-of-war competition will be staged and already four local teams have announced their intention of competing. A silver cup has been donated by W. Emmerson for competition by Juvenile First Aid teams, and it is probable that the Frost Cup will also be competed for. There will also be foot races and the Daughters of the Empire are to be asked to put up a booth. Indeed, special efforts are being made by the organisers to make the day a success.

GERMANY CALLS BOYS TO FIGHT

Grand Headquarters of the French Army in France, Sept. 11.—(By Associated Press). — The Associated Press is able to give approximately the figures representing the manpower of Germany in the war at the present time, together with the casualties, as follows:

Fixed formations on the various fronts, employed on lines of communication or stationed in the interior, 5,500,000.

Divisions undergoing formation and men in depots, 600,000.

Losses in killed, permanently disabled and prisoners, 4,000,000.

Wounded under treatment at hospitals, 500,000.

Total 10,600,000.

These figures account for all the men called up to the present for service as follows:

Trained men mobilized immediately on the outbreak of the war 4,500,000.

Untrained ersatz (compensatory) reservists called out August, 1914, to February, 1915, 800,000.

Class of 1914, recruits called out November, 1914 to February 1915, 450,000.

First ban of untrained landstrum called out at the beginning of 1915, 1,100,000.

Class of 1915 called out May-July 1915, 450,000.

Remainder of untrained landsturm called out the same month 150,000.

Class 1916, called out September-November, 1915, 450,000.

Contingent of hitherto exempted men called out early 1916, 300,000.

Second contingent exempted men called out early in 1916, 200,000.

Second landsturm early in 1916, 450,000.

Class of 1917, called out March-November, 1915, 450,000.

Third contingent exempted men late in 1916, 300,000.

Class of 1918 called out in part in 1917, 300,000.

Additional exempted men, 1917, 150,000.

Total, 10,500,000.

The small discrepancy in the figures is accounted for by the omission of the male units. The total mobilizable male resources of Germany since the beginning of hostilities, including the yearly classes of recruits up to 1920, number about 14,000,000. Those called upon are 10,500,000. The remainder are accounted for as follows:

The remaining portion of class of 1919 awaiting call, 150,000.

Class of 1920 still uncalled, 450,000.

Men employed as indispensible in industries and administrations 500,000.

Men abroad unable to reach Germany, 200,000.

Men entirely exempted owing to physical disability, 2,100,000.

Recruits of the 1920 class cannot be called legally until they attain their seventeenth birthday.

REGULAR MEETING BOARD OF TRADE

At Meeting Last Night Mr. J.M. Rudd Was Elected President and Mr. John F. Doyle Vice-President—Many Matters Considered.

At the regular monthly meeting of last night Mr. John M. Rudd was elected president to succeed Mr. C. C. McRae, who resigned the office prior to his departure from the city to Alberta, and Mr. John F. Doyle was elected to succeed Mr. Rudd as vice-president.

The meeting endorsed a resolution submitted by the Kamloops Chamber of Commerce calling upon the Dominion government to take immediate action for the establishment under its direct control, of such plant or plants as may be necessary for the handling of the iron ore deposits of the province and for the conversion of the same into finished iron and steel products.

The secretary was instructed to forward copies of the resolution to the local member at Ottawa and to the Honorable William Sloan, Provincial Minister of Mines.

A communication from the Department of Marine asking the Board to endorse the proposal to have the pilotage districts of Nanaimo, Vancouver and Victoria consolidated under the Minister of Marine and Fisheries as the Pilotage Authority, was referred to the Trade and Commerce Committee with instructions to meet the Nanaimo Pilotage Board and discuss the proposal and report to the Executive of the Board of Trade for action.

The question of the dredging of Commercial Inlet was brought up for discussion and the secretary was instructed to communicate with Mr. Shepherd, M.P., and the Department of Public Works urging that Commercial Inlet be dredged for the benefit of small craft and that the south channel of the harbor be widened, and No. 3 buoy be placed back in its original position.

The Secretary was instructed to make representations to Postmaster Horne on matters pertaining to the service rendered the public by the local Post Office staff.

ESQUIMALT CRICKETERS MAKE CURIOUS CLAIM

According to Tuesday's Colonist, the Esquimalt Returned Soldiers' cricket club do not admit that they lost the game against Qualicum on Saturday. The Esquimalt boys argue that the game was never finished, and that, therefore, Qualicum should not have been credited with the victory. The claim of Esquimalt comes perilously near to being an abuse of good sportsmanship on the part of the Qualicum players. Take their own explanation which appeared in the Colonist. "Qualicum," they say, "went in first and made 46; Esquimalt made 22 in its first innings, and, following on scored 61 for 5 wickets." Under what law of cricket did Esquimalt follow on? They were only 24 behind. How then, did they follow on? Is not the explanation to be found in the good sportsmanship of Qualicum, who wanted them to have another knock? There was no idea of a second innings, or if there was, why didn't Esquimalt play the game. The fact that they batted out of turn shows at least that when they began it was with no idea of the second innings counting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewing, Nicol street, leave today to take up their residence in Victoria. Residents of Nanaimo for a number of years they have been prominently connected with the Wallace Street Methodist Church, the members of which met last night at the parsonage and gave them a farewell reception.

FRENCH FORCES WON SUCCESSES

Germans Defeated by Petain's Armies in Champagne—Heavy Artillery Duels Along Belgian Coast.

London, Sept. 11.—The internal situation in Russia is still grave and chaotic, and just how it is to be solved is impossible to forecast. Apparently, however, discord has so widened that either M. Kerensky, the or Gen. Korniloff, will be engulfed.

Around Verdun fighting between the French and Germans is down to intermittent artillery duels. In the Champagne there has been resumptions of somewhat violent operations in which Gen. Petain's forces have won successes. From the Belgian coast well down into Flanders artillery duels continue of a most violent nature.

German aviators continue the shelling of allied hospitals behind the lines. Monday night they carried out their latest raid in the region of Dunkirk where bombs which fell on a hospital wounded five women.

AUSTRIAN ATTACK WAS FAILURE

Rome, Sept. 10.—Statement issued tonight says:

"In Trentino enemy reconnoitering parties were put to flight by our advance posts. In Carnia an attack carried out after careful artillery preparation against our positions on Monte Granude and Cuelt ground completely failed.

"The collecting of large booty captured since the beginning of the battle has not been completed. At the present time the following is ascertained guns 145 including 80 medium calibre, 93 trench mortars and bomb throwers, 323 machine guns 1, 197 rifles. Many of these arms already been put in action against the Austrians.

BRITISH CAPTURE ENEMY TRENCH

London Sept. 11.—Heavy fighting of a local nature occurred between the British and Germans on the Somme front, the British capturing a German trench nearly a quarter of a mile in extent. There were also artillery duels in the neighborhood of Ypres.

SECOND READING OF C. N. R. BILL

Ottawa, Sept. 11.—At 11 o'clock tonight the bill to acquire the capital stock of the Canadian Northern Railway at a price to be fixed by arbitration secured second reading in the Senate by a vote of 43 to 37. or a majority of six for the government. Three government members Senators Beaubien, Montplaisir and Landry, voted with the opposition, while Senator Edwards, on the Opposition side, voted with the government.

The amendment of Senator Bostock, Liberal leader, calling for the submission of a mass of information, was defeated, as was also a further amendment of Senator Power which provided that the legislation of 1914 should be invoked for the acquirement of the system, and that the capital stock be declared to possess no value.

Both amendments were voted down by a government majority of six.

Senator Belcourt then moved that the bill should not be given a second reading until the government assurance that it would enforce the provision in the contract of 1914, providing that, in connecton with the main and the branch lines of the C.N.R., Mackenzie and Mann should make no claim for contractors' "profits or for similar service." A division was taken and the vote was the same, 43 to 37.

Senator Bostock asked if the government would undertake to have the bill amended in committee so that the maximum limit of payment for shares would be indicated.

MINISTER OF MINES VISITS COAL MINES OF DISTRICT

Hon. William Sloan, Accompanied by Chief Inspector of Mines, Mr. George Wilkinson, Made Inspection of Reserve Mine Yesterday—Will Make Visit to all Coal Mines in the District.

A thorough inspection of the Re... ty both to the Company and to the ... was made yes... was especially interested.

terday by Hon. Wm. Sloan, Minister of Mines. In his visit to this section of the holdings of the Western Fuel Co., he was accompanied by Mr. George Wilkinson, Inspector of Mines and some of the mine officials. This is the first of a series of similar visits which Mr. Sloan has planned to make during the week, it being his intention to cover the district personally, going down all the mines of first importance which are in operation in the immediate vicinity, in order to acquaint himself with the problems which the Companies are facing in the development of the coal areas of Vancouver Island and to ascertain, at first hand, the conditions under which the miners are working.

It came somewhat as a surprise to the coal workers to find a newcomer in their midst in the person of the Minister of Mines who came and went as one of themselves, clad in overalls which bore the dust and the grime of the mines of the Crow's Nest field, Fernie, as well as of those of the Merritt Field, from which he has just returned. He reached the 930-foot level of the Reserve Mine as the afternoon change of shift was taking place, and, swinging one of the latest electric safety lamps, soon was striding off to the remoter workings. Before doing so, however, he made inquiry as to the arrangements made for the carrying out of the regulations with respect to the inspection of safety lamps, the recording of mine conditions at different periods during the day and again took occasion to emphasize his approval of "Safety First" devices. He heartily commended, in this connection, the good work of the Vancouver Island Safety First Association.

The methods of taking the coal from the Reserve Mine was a source of much interest to Mr. Sloan, it being shown by the officials that the unusual conditions with reference to this particular property had necessitated the employment of a system not often found on this part of the Island. The seam does not run as regularly or evenly as in some of the other mines, the coal being "pockety"—found in parts in large patches and in other parts thinning out until nothing is left but a trace, so that there are sections of the tunnel which runs through rock until it again picks up the coal, while there are sections in which large blocks are found. The effect of this peculiarity in the strata is to make the under ground working a matter of difficul-

The Minister visited several of the facings at which miners were engaged in gouging out the coal which, later on, will be burning brightly in the homes of Victoria, Vancouver, and other British Columbia cities, bringing warmth and good cheer to the approaching winter evenings. By coming into personal contact with these men at work the men who are at "the source" of the fuel a famine of which has been so much feared, he was enabled to obtain one point of view of the question which is being so widely discussed at present

The party was shown also the point at which, a short time ago, a fire started. It occurred in one of the lower workings but, fortunately, was so quickly got under control and sealed that it did not damage except to the locality adjacent to where it originated.

Today Mr. Sloan will leave Nanaimo at an early hour to spend the forenoon visiting one of the mines in the vicinity. In the afternoon he will officiate at the opening of the Nanaimo Exhibition.

Regarding his trip, yesterday's Colonist says the present week will be spent by the Minister of Mines in making a personal inspection of the coal mines in the vicinity. The Minister, since his advent to office, has possessed himself of a full suit of overalls, which he carries with him on his various trips to the mining sections of the Province, and adorns himself in it when he goes underground in the various mine workings The suit will be in demand during the present week.

Hon. Mr. Sloan's visit to the coal section may be taken advantage of to discuss with the operators the present fuel situation, the prospects of output and also the question of prices. Recently when a deputation representing the City of Vancouver waited upon the executive council and urged that the government take steps to relieve the fuel situation there, the promise was made by the Premier that the Minister of Mines would get into touch with the coal operators and secure full data relative to cost of production, etc. It was hinted then that should it be found that the companies were in any way responsible for an undue increase in prices that action would be taken to effect reduction. Since then nothing has transpired to indicate what the findings of the Minister have been in respect to the situation from the standpoint of the price of fuel to the consumer.

BABY DROWNED IN POOL

Regina, Sask., Sept. 11.—Peter Debert, aged two, son of A. Debert, residing just north of the city, was drowned in a slough near the residence. The father found the body in two feet of water.

RETURNING SOLDIERS ....

An Atlantic Port, Sept. 11.—A ship arrived here yesterday afternoon from overseas with a passenger list of approximately 1,400, among whom were 830 men returning from the front, many of them on furlough. Among those who were landed were 81 for Maritime Province points, including Lieut.-Col. Bauld, Major Guy Mott, Capt. S. D. A. Rankin, and Capt. Sircom.

The members of the Western and Upper Canada battalions were sent forward to their homes as rapidly as possible, and those who had their homes in this city were allowed to proceed to them.

Premier Holman, of New South Wales, who is returning to his home after a visit to Britain, was among those who will proceed to an American port in order to embark for the Antipodes.

WORLD'S SERIES SEAT PRICES TO BE REDUCED

St. Louis, Sept. 11.—President Johnson, of the American league, said today that if Chicago wins the American league pennant, the plans for a reduction in seat prices for the world's series will be carried out as far as the games played in the American park are concerned.

"The new scale will be simply this," said Mr. Johnson: "Seats will be just double in price over those prevailing during the playing season. Comiskey will have 7,000 bleacher seats at fifty cents; 5,000 pavilion seats at $1, and the entire grandstand reserved for $1.50. Box seats will cost $5.

"If Chicago wins, I think there is little doubt that the series will begin Saturday, October 6, as that will enable us to get in a Sunday game in Chicago."

I. W. W. DISBURSEMENTS

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Search of the I.W.W.'s books seized here in last week's federal raids has revealed that the Chicago office of the organization disbursed $109,000 up to August 1, it was announced today. The government officials were informed that this money was handled by William Haywood, executive secretary.

The books also showed that the membership is approximately 90,000 and that it has increased approximately 1,000 per cent. in three years.

The entries on disbursements indicated that they were mainly for "defence purposes," printing literature and publishing newspapers.

THE EXHIBITION

The Nanaimo Agricultural Show, the first for four years will be formally opened this afternoon by the Hon. Wm. Sloan, Minister of Mines. It is hardly necessary to bespeak public support for the exhibition. In previous years the shows have always been fairly successful, and coming after a lapse of four years, there should be more than usual interest and curiosity in the exhibits tabled in the exhibition building. The society has held together in the face of a good deal of discouragement and now it can see a clearer and a brighter future. From a preliminary look round the building we would say that this year's show will uphold the reputation of the society for quality of exhibits but the quantity could very well be increased. The Daughters of the Empire will have a stall, and a feature this year will be automobile exhibits. There will, indeed, be enough and to spare of attractions for the public, and it is to be hoped that the attendance during the three days of the exhibition will better expectations.

SIR WILFRID'S LEAD

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is making it particularly hard for his western followers to support him as even a possible leader of a Canadian government. He is definitely and emphatically opposed to conscription. He has taken his stand with his fellow countrymen of Quebec and it is only stating a fact to say that Quebec, where it has not been opposed to Canada's participation in the war, has been utterly indifferent to the part she played in it. So far as Quebec is concerned it would prefer to see Canada quit the war tomorrow, and so far as we have been able to see Sir Wilfrid Laurier has done nothing to alter that attitude. The crisis was reached when Sir Wilfrid and his followers refused to vote an extension of time to the present government. With the result of this step, most impartial men and women who realised that the only issue before Canada was the war, were very well satisfied. The government was not equal to the task which had devolved upon it. What was and is needed is a national government, with no politics in it, but united on a win-the-war policy. The Borden government had failed for the reason that it was a party government composed of party politicians. There has never been any reason to think that a Laurier government composed of Liberal politicians could have done any better. A coalition Cabinet could have been formed very easily, and a general election averted. But again politics came in, and the result is that all efforts to form a union government have failed. The men directing the Liberal political machine thought they saw a chance of winning a party victory, and this counted infinitely more with them than helping to secure a victory over the Huns. There were likewise, men associated with the Conservative party machine who did not like the idea of giving away anything, and so the game has gone on until thousands of Canadian citizens are sick of the name of politics. All the same there is to be an election, and it is just as well to be clear as to the issues involved. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has lined up with Quebec, and is opposed to conscription. If he is returned to power there will be no conscription. He has protested the disfranchisement of men of German and Austrian descent whose sympathies are naturally with the enemy. Thousands of Canadians have made the supreme sacrifice for their country but the cause for which they laid down their lives has yet to be won. Sir Wilfrid would have aliens in this country, whose sympathies are with the Huns vote on the issue for which these loyal Canadians have laid down their lives. There are thousands more Canadians who, from the very nature of their services, will be unable to vote, but Sir Wilfrid would have Germans in this country cast a vote. The soldier vote does not concern him, for obvious reasons; the alien vote does and for the same reasons. He will be a brave politician who will follow Sir Wilfrid's lead on this alien question out in the western provinces.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the only medicine in the world that is made from the juices of fresh ripe fruits. Thus, it is manifestly unfair to say, "I won't take Fruit-a-tives because I have tried other remedies and they did me no good". On the other hand, the fact that "Fruit-a-tives" is entirely different from any other preparation in the world, is just why you should give it a fair trial, in any trouble of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys or Skin. WILL REJUVENATE THE BROOKLYN CLUB

The blow that recently struck Chief Meyers and Mike Mowrey, separating them from the famous Ebbets payroll in Brooklyn, is only the beginning of a drive along the entire front, persons close to Ebberts and Wilbert Robinson declare. Robby, ably assisted by Bill Dahlen and Nap Rucker, is scouring the bushes. He is buying everything from a bat boy to a pseudo manager, and the Dodgers are not, in the future, going to be made up of a lot of slow-foots, whose only claim to big leaguering is an ability to paste the daylights out of the ball. Already the results are being tried out with varying success.

The acquisition of Pitcher Leon Cadore and Infielder O'Rourke already has had an effect on the Dodgers. The release of Wheezer Dell made a hole for Cadore, and the release of Mowrey moved up a spot for O'Rourke. Recently John McGraw decided he didn't need Ernie Krueger and released him to the Dodgers, so Chief Meyers had to get out of the way. Krueger is young, a lefty hitter, and possessed of an excellent arm. He is a veteran in minor league experience, and has had several chances to stick in the majors.

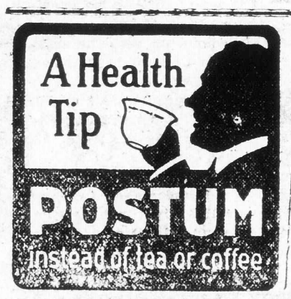
The policy of the Brooklyn club in times past has been to gather in just as many men who could drive a baseball out of the park as the law would allow. Of course, the value of a good pitcher was appreciated, but before Wilbert Robinson became manager of the Brooklyn team pitchers were a secondary consideration with Brooklyn managers. And that's what was willed to Robby in the way of playing talent.

The ability of Robinson to develop pitchers won him a pennant for he already had the hitters, but it is a noteworthy fact that the Dodgers on the bases at times looked like they were tied. Bunched hits in an inning that would have meant many, many runs to any other big league club, meant but little to the Dodgers. They had to have a superabundance of base hits before they could score their runs. That's been their main trouble this year, for the heavy maulers have not been doing the amount of mauling they did a year ago. Retaining the heaviest artillery Robinson is beginning to put more speed into his team. The youth and pep will field just as well and hit pretty near the veteran's mark.

NEW YORK POLICE FOUND BOMB MAKING PLANT

Hoboken, N.J., Sept. 8— What appeared to be a fully equipped bomb making plant was disclosed to the police tonight when an explosion blew off the roof of a small building in Third street as two detectives passed. A man who fled was seized by one of the officers. He admitted he was of German birth.

HERMAN, EXEMPT FROM ARMY, TO DEFEND TITLE



New Orleans, Sept. 11.—Pete Herman, claimant of the world's bantamweight pugilistic championship, today was granted exemption from the army draft until October 15 by [illegible] to defend his title. Herman had claimed exemption from service in the national army on the ground of dependant parents. He stated he had several fights pending which would bring hm sufficient money to provide for his parents and the board decided to give him until October 15 to join the army. Herman's manager stated he had bouts arranged with Johnny Eggers of New York, and Frankie Burns of New Jersey.

POLE CUT EIGHT HOME RUNS IN ONE CONTEST

Montreal, Sept. 11—Toronto drove the first nail into their pennant chest when they hammered out a victory, winning from the locals by the score of 19 to 16. The locals fought the leaders with all their power, making a six-run rally in the ninth that brought the teams on an even footing with the score standing 16 all. The game was a record here this season for hard hitting, eight home runs being made during the afternoon. Six of these came in the first inning, each club getting three.

Gentlemen,—I was badly kicked by my horse last May and after using several preparations on my leg nothing would do. My leg was black as jet. I was laid up in bed for a fortnight and could not walk. After using three bottles of your MINARD'S LINIMENT I was perfectly cured, so that I could start on the road.

JUST LIKE A HOUSECLEANING

Every room needs an occasional "Cleaning up", no matter how carefully the regular sweeping and dusting is done. Especially is this true after any unusual event, a party, a wedding or a quilting bee.

So it is with your body. No matter how regular your habits or well cooked your food, there comes a time when you don't feel just right. You may recall an unusually hearty meal or two, irregular hours, or eating something that "didn't agree with you", or it may be just the "dust-gathering".

In any case a few doses of a really good carthartic is all you need to put you right. For this purpose nothing is quite so suitable as

Chamberlain's Tablets

Two or three after supper the first night, and one each night for two or three days, and your digestive apparatus is just like the well-cleaned room. Every part of your body is more vigorous, you go about your work with a new feeling and begin again to enjoy life. Are these benefits not worth getting? You know they are. Then you need have no hesitation about beginning them for fear you must "keep it up". The effect is just the opposite.

ROYAL STANDARD FLOUR
Milled in British Columbia

ROYAL STANDARD is without exception the most poular bread flour in Western Canada. The reasons for this are:

Milled especially for household use.
Great rising power.
Better knitted, closer textured bread of full food value.
More loaves to the sack.
Prepared under conditions of snow-white cleanliness.
From No. 1 Canadian Hard Wheat.
Tested daily, insuring absolute uniformity year in and year out.

HEADACHES AND THE EYES

One thing has been demonstrated without a shadow of doubt—it is this:

90 per cent. of all headaches are caused by eye-strain and can be relieved quickly and permanently by suitable eye glasses.

We fit more cases for eye-strain than we do for defective vision, and the results are gratifying—so conclusive, that you ought to know about them.

VOLUME XVII. NANAIMO, VANCOUVER ISLAND, BRITISH COLUMBIA, THURSDAY, SEPT. 13, 1917 NUMBER 165.

LAST DAY OF THE BIG EXHIBITION

Was Formally Opened Yesterday by the Hon. Minister of Mines—Good Crowds in Attendance in the Afternoon and Evening.

Yesterday was Citizen's Day at the annual exhibition of the Nanaimo Agricultural and Horticultural Society, which was officially opened yesterday afternoon by Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines.

In declaring the exhibition opened Mr. Sloan expressed his pleasure at being present, but disappointment at the unfavorable weather conditions. It was four years, he declared, since the last exhibition, and by reason of the fact the directors had had an uphill task in bringing this year's affair to a successful consummation. Now that a start had been made, however, the minister expressed the hope that exhibitions be held annually, for it was only by such actions that interest in agriculture could be sustained. The Agricultural interest of the province, he declared, required development, for while B. C. exported lumber and minerals, it was compelled to import practically all of its agricultural necessities. A large amount of money went out of the province every year for products of the farm which condition of affairs should not exist for here was the soil, and one had only to look around him to see what could be grown in British Columbia. The requirements of the province, declared the Minister of Mines, were going to increase very materially in the very near future. Nanaimo district was looked upon as a coal producing community and the speaker predicted that five years from now production of coal would be increased five-fold, which would mean an increased demand for the products of the farm, and he advised that agriculturists get busy, dig out the stumps and place all available agricultural land under cultivation.

The attendance during the afternoon and evening exceeded all anticipations of the directors. The Boys' Brigade Band was in attendance and rendered a splendid program of selections which was very favoraly received, visitors thronging the show rooms up to the time of closing.

A number of exhibits are exceedingly attractive and were given much favorable comment. The exhibit of Mr. William Newberry of the Five Acres is worthy of more than passing comment. It consists of a large and assorted display of flowers, including geraniums, cape primroses, gloxinias, begonias, fuchsias ferns, petunias, etc., the whole exhibit being most tastefully displayed in the very centre of the building. Through out the day Mr. Newberry's exhibit was the centre of interest and is alone well worth the price of admission to the whole exhibition.

The dog show comprised some forty-three entries and was marked by keen competition in most of the classes. Judging of the dogs will be completed this morning so that visitors to the exhibition today will see all ribbons in place and prize cards displayed. The show closes this evening and those who have not yet visited the grounds should not fail to make a call today. The Society has an uphill struggle in showing after an absence of four years and should be supported by all public spirited citizens.

TRIED TO AVERT A CIVIL WAR

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—An abortive attempt to prevent civil war was made by Professor Paul Miliukoff, leader of the Constitutional Democrats, former Foreign Minister and one of the prime movers in the revolution. He first offered by telephone his services as intermediary with General Korniloff and later held a personal conference with Premier Kerensky, at which General Alexieff, former Commander-in-Chief of the Russian army, was present.

M. Miliukoff related that a few days before Korniloff had invited him to come to his headquarters but M. Miliukoff refused to go. M. Miliukoff said he proposed that he go to headquarters with authority from the government to negotiate peace between the factions. Premier Kerensky however, declared that no reconciliation was possible and received the backing of other members of the government in his demand for the unconditional submission of Korniloff.

General Alexieff, after the conference, issued a statement to the press in which he said he intended taking no official position or any action in the present situation. He added that he considered himself a private individual and outside of the conflict.

THE MINNEHAHA WAS TORPEDOED

Large Atlantic Transport Was Sunk on Friday Last off the Coast of Ireland.

New York, Sept. 12.—Word was received tonight from England that the Atlantic transport liner Minnehaha, which has made twenty-six voyages between New York and London, carrying 16,000 tons of munitions and supplies on each trip, was sunk on Friday last off the coast of Ireland by a submarine, and fifty of the officers and crew lost.

The Minnehaha was on her return voyage to New York and was carrying a full cargo, including a race horse valued at $30,000.

The torpedo struck the ship in the engine room on the starboard side and killed almost the entire engine-room crew.

Western Fuel Co. shipping this week included the Fearless with scow, Canada for bunker, Squid with scow, Tepic with scow, Amur for cargo, Coquitlam for cargo and bunker, Storm King for bunker, Jessie Mack for bunker, Daisy for bunker, Berquist for bunker, Northern Light for cargo, Monticello for bunker and Tancred loading cargo.

LOCAL COMPANY BUYS VESSELS

Nanaimo Canners and Packers Closes Deal for Fleet of American Fishing Boats, and Will Operate Them from Their Local Cannery.

Seattle, Sept. 12.—Frank F. Dow closed one of the biggest deals in fishing vessels in recent history on receiving a telegram from the United States Shipping Board at Washington, authorizing the sale and transfer from American to Canadian registry of four well known craft, the Esther, Wadena, Wamega and Wauneta, the purchasers being the Nanaimo Canners and Packers.

The vessels are now in Friday Harbor, but were ordered to leave today for Victoria, B.C., where they will be turned over to their new owners.

Mr. Purcell, manager of the Nanaimo Canners and Packers, operators of the cannery near Brechin, last night confirmed the above mentioned transfer, and states the vessels will be operated in inland waters, viz., off Qualicum, Nanaimo, and Chemainus, and their catch taken care of at the local cannery. They are gasoline propelled vessels, and will operate with seines.

Professor E. Odlum, of Vancouver who has made a special study of the war and religion, will speak at the services of the Baptist Church Sunday, Sept. 16th.

Subjects: 11 a.m. The World war in the light of Revelation.

7 p.m. The Final Results of the War in relation to Great Britain.

He will also speak on Monday night at 8 p.m. t1.

EXEMPTION FORMS FOR CONSCRIPTION

Ottawa, Sept. 12.—More than 2,000,000 forms of exemption and report under the Military service Act are in the hands of the printers and will be distributed in the course of a few days. Distribution will be made through the Post Office Department and the forms will be available at any post office in the Dominion.

Medical boards are to be established almost immediately in all the large centres of population.

While a man in the first class to be called out will not be compelled to submit himself for medical examination until the time limit for exemption expires, it is hoped by the Military Service Council that full use will be made of the boards.

In the interests of both the employers and men, it is pointed out, it is essential that a reliable estimate should be obtained without delay of the number of men in the first class of recruits available, on physical grounds, for service. Certificates of physical unfitness granted by any of the medical boards will be accepted by the tribunals and the men exempted from service on that ground. Should a man feel that he has not received justice from a medical board, he can still appeal to the tribunal and submit outside medical opinion as to his physical fitness or unfitness.

The Military Service Council has taken offices at Sparks street here.

NANAIMOITES ON THE FIRING LINE IN FRANCE

Chief of Police Neen received a letter last evening from Sergt. Matthew Gunnis, from "Somewhere in France" stating he was still going strong and wishing to be remembered to all old friends. Mat. states he was present at the time Pte. Shirass was treated for his wounds in the right arm and back and assisted in preparing the former Nanaimo constable for removal to a base hospital. Pte. Shirass' many friends will be pleased to learn his wounds are not serious and expects to be around again soon. Sergt. Guinnis also mentions having met Gunner Bell, who is feeling fit and looking good.

CONSENT NOT NEEDED FOR FOREIGN SERVICE

Washington, Sept. 12.—Denouncing introduction of such a proposition, the Senate Military Committee today reported adversely Senator Hardwick's resolution which would provide that the consent of every drafted man be received before he is required to perform foreign service. The Committee, the report says, believes the draft law is constitutional and that every man drafted into the national army can be used abroad. The situation arising out of this spirit of opposition to the selective draft act is serious, says the report, "and taken in connection with the unrest amongst the civilian population growing out of commercial and industrial conditions, stimulated in some cases doubtless by pro-German sympathizers and propagandists, places our country in a situation of extreme peril at a time when all should be united in a common cause.

"It is the view of the Committee that the selective draft act is neither violative of American tradition nor the constitution, and entertaining this view, the Committee feels justified in saying that there is no necessity for such legislation as that proposed, either on the ground of expediency or necessity.

"The psychological effect of calling in question an act, the principles of which, it seems to the Committee have been sustained by the courts of the country, is bad and the tendency of it all is to impair the military efficiency of the men who are already in the service and those who may yet be called to serve in this time of need."

KORNILOFF'S ARMY IS OUTMANOEVRED

Army Marching on Petrograd to Overthrow Provisional Government Has Retreat Cut Off—Army Leaders Loyal to Kerensky.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—A representative of the Associated Press was personally informed this afternoon by Minister of Finance Nekrasoff that the forces of General Korniloff in the direction of Pskeff and at Dno which were marching on Petrograd have been outmanoeuvred by troops loyal to the Provisional Government and that their retreat has been cut off.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—So long as General Korniloff does not open hostilities there is a strong feeling in government circles in Petrograd in favor of avoiding bloodshed. It is probable that the Government will postpone attacking the rebels until all hope of their secession from General Korniloff is lost.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—A representative of the Associated Press was informed unofficially early this morning at the Winter Palace that Premier Kerensky was about to assume the position of Commander-in-Chief of all the Russian armies, at least until the revolt has been crushed.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—Major-General Bronch Bruyovitch has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Russian army in succession to General Korniloff.

The Provisional Government today declared that a state of war existed in the town and district of Moscow.

The central committee of the Constitutional Democratic party today informed Premier Kerensky that the party had agreed to its members joining a reconstituted Cabinet in order to avoid civil war.

Vice-Premier Nekrasoff in an interview distributed today by the Russian official news agency said that the political situation could be considered perfectly favorable.

All the commanders at the front with the exception of General Denikine, commander on the western front who had been arrested with his chief of staff by the military committee, remained faithful to the Provisional government.

Pskoff is in the possession of the Government troops.

Petrograd, Sept. 11.—Delayed.—Members of the Kerensky government informed a representative of the Associated Press tonight that while they are unable to report the final overthrow of General Korniloff they are optimistic concerning the general situation.

Unconfirmed reports said that a part of General Korniloff's army is surrendering to the government.

Moscow, Sept. 12.—The municipal council of Moscow has issued a proclamation intimating that the inhabitants of the ancient capital of Russia ought to rise as one in defence of the revolution and prevent civil war. The proclamation appeals to all cities of Russia to support the Provisional government.

The Moscow garrison and the associations of workers, of professional classes and railway workmen have passed resolutions of loyalty to the Provisional government.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—All elements of the population of Moscow according to reports received here, emphasize the assurances of support to the Provisional government which already has been given by the municipal council. General Vorkhovsky called all the officers of the garrison together in the public square and was given assurance that they would support Premier Kerensky. The St. George Cavaliers have made a special offer of their services and there appears to be unity among the workmen's group.

Vladimir Purishkevch the well-known reactionary under the old regime who was arrested at Dwinsk, and later released, is reported to be again in custody.

Petrograd is said to have sufficient provisions to last four or five days.

SITUATION ON THE WAR FRONTS

Artillery Duels and Small Operations Taking Place on the Western Front — San Gabriele Scene of Vicious Attacks by Austrians.

While pessimism reigns in the Provisional Government in Russia that the successful issue of the counter-revolution started by Gen. Korniloff, will soon be returned in favor of Premier Kerensky, the situation still remains most acute. All dispatches from Petrograd at the present are emanating from the Provisional Government or supporters of Kerensky.

Late reports from Petrograd are to the effect that Korniloff's march on Petrograd has been checked and that even his retreat has been cut off by the forces faithful to the Provisional Government, also that there has been serious defections from the ranks of Korniloff, and that a great majority on the commander's front are still adhering to the Government.

On the battle fronts military activity generally is far below the past weeks. On the line in France and Belgium only artillery duels and comparatively small operations by infantry are being carried out. Some further advances have been made by the French in Champagne. Near Monte San Gabriele in the Austro-Italian theatre, has been the scene of another vicious attack by the Austrians in an unsuccessful endeavor to dislodge the Italians from the recently captured positions.

In the Battle of Riga according to the German War Office, 8,900 Russians were made prisoners, and 325 guns and large quantities of war stores captured.

FORMER GRAND DUKES UNDER SURVEILLANCE

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—The newspapers here announced today that by order of the Government ex-Grand Dukes Michael Alexandrovitch and Paul Alexandrovitch have been transferred from their private residences at Galtchina, near Petrograd, to the Ministry of the Interior.

Ex-Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch is a brother of the deposed Emperor Nicholas. When the Imperial regime was overthrown on March 15 Emperor Nicholas designated the Grand Duke Michael as regent, but in turn he abdicated on the following day. Last week the former Grand Duke was arrested in connection with the discovery of a counter revolutionary plot.

Ex-Grand Duke Paul Alexandrovitch is an uncle of the former Emperor.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—Alexander Guchkoff, the Octoberist leader and former Minister of War and the Navy who, after leaving Petrograd last Saturday joined the Korniloff movement, has been arrested. He is now under guard at Pskoff.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—The government has issued an order doubling the fixed prices of cereals. The order also provides for increased remuneration for freight on these foodstuffs.

SINKINGS SHOW DECREASE

London, Sept. 12.—The Admiralty report of sinkings show a decrease. Twelve vessels of more than 1600 tons were sent to the bottom and six less than 1600, compared with twenty in the large and three in the small last week.

FRENCH CABINET IN THE MAKING

Paris, Sept. 12.—Paul Painleve Minister of War, announced today that he had been unable to form a new Cabinet to succeed that of M. Ribot, owing to the eleventh-hour withdrawal of Albert Thomas and M. Varenne, Socialists, but it is understood he will try once more to construct a new ministry.

M. Painleve went to the Elysee Palace at one o'clock this morning where he was joined by M. Bourgeecis and other statesmen, with whom he had conferences at the ministry of War. He returned within an hour and announced to newspaper men that President Poincare had insisted that he continue his efforts to form a Cabinet and that he had asked for time to think over the situation.

M. Painleve's first combination proved even more abortive than did M. Ribot's the retiring Premier, and collapsed from the same cause, namely, the exigencies of the Socialists. What those exigencies are is not exactly known.

Shortly before one o'clock this morning, M. Painleve recieved the newspaper men and said:

"I was charged by the President with the task of forming a Cabinet of national union which should comprise the elements belonging to all parties. As a result of incidents arising at the last moment the union which I had expected, failed. Under the circumstances, I am going to the President to relinquish the mandate which he confided to me."

The Matin says M. Thomas, Socialist member of the War Council and Minister of Munitions, refused to collaborate in the Cabinet because the retiring Prenier, M. Ribot, was to remain at the Foreign Office. When the new Ministers assembled last night M. Thomas rose and said: "We can not agree to form part of a Cabinet that has M. Ribot as a member."

SEATTLE YARDS GET INCREASE

Seattle, Sept. 12.—Wage increases demanded by the 12,000 metal workers in Seattle shipyards has been granted with the approval of the United States Shipping Board, which had authority to make recommendation because the yards are working on government boats. The settlement was effected in Washington after two conferences of representatives of the metal workers, the yards, and Shipping Board. The new scale will be submitted to the Seattle metal workers for ratification.

PAID VISIT TO EXTENSION MINE

Minister of Mines Had a Busy Day Yesterday Inspecting Workings of Mine at Extension—Intends Visiting No. 1 To-day.

Vancouver Island Coal Mines No 2, Extension, Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Ltd., was visited yesterday by Hon. Wm. Sloan, Minister of Mines. With Mr. Sloan, besides Mr. George Wilkinson, Chief Inspector of Mines, Was Mr. T.A. Spruston, Mine manager. The trip underground occupied all the forenoon, a start being made from the surface by electric tram at about 9 o'clock, prior to which the Minister had motored from Nanaimo.

Entrance was made by the main tunnel, which is approximately a mile in length, and which serves to connect No. 1, 2, and 3, Mines of this district. This is a splendid work and is of a comparatively recent enterprise which, Mr. Sloan was informed, has been found to be worth the large expenditure involved by way of facilitating haulage and generally simplifying the handling of the mines' output. From this point No. 2 Slope was descended for at least an equal distance, upwards of three-quarters of the operating sections of the mine being visited by the minister in the course of his inspection.

It was explained that the Company now is engaged in pillar work on this particular property. The coal bed having been developed to its limits, the fuel which was left behind as the men advanced is now being taken out. This involves both the removal of pillars and the driving of cuts to coal deposits which are known to exist but which at the outset were left untouched. To clean up the mine completely will take at the present rate of 1,000 tons per day between five and six years according to very conservative estimates. From this it will be seen that there is yet considerable coal to be placed on the market from this, one of the best known fields of the Island.

Today Mr. Sloan will go into No. 1 Mine, Nanaimo, Western Fuel Co., the oldest, biggest, and still the largest producer of the Pacific Northwest.

BIJOU THEATRE

"Royal Romance" is the Fox production in which Virginia Pearson appears at the Bijou to-day, and never was a happier or more daintily humorous picture present to the public. Irving Cummings heads the supporting company, and as William Fox is the producer, nothing need be said as to settings and photography. With this is showing charming Billie Burke in "Gloria's Romance," now nearing its exciting finish.

Mr. Dan. H. McGillivary, formerly of the Ladysmith Lumber Co., and Mr. F. D. McInnis, commission broker, of Vancouver, paid a short visit to the city yesterday, returning to Vancouver on the Princess Patricia in the afternoon.

CHEAP AGITATIONS

The coal mining industry is one of the leading and most important in the province. It is also one of the least understood on the outside, and has always been the butt of cheap agitations. Papers like the Victoria Times, which, today, are howling at the rank injustice of depriving enemy aliens of their votes, a few short months ago would have had the mine operators of the Island jailed for employing them. There was an election on at the time, and Liberal candidates and the Liberal press denounced the Federal authorities and cried shame on Bowser for such a truly outrageous condition of things. It was all politics of course, and it really did not matter that an important industry was turned into a political football.

At present there is a great outcry about the price that is being charged for coal. The agitation breaks out every few days and we have newspapers like the Colonist, which has all the facts in its possession, asking for the results of the Victoria conference between the Minister of Mines and the operators. Two years ago the mines on the Island were not working to half capacity. Coal, mined in this province, had been ousted from its market by fuel oil from California. The foreign oil was coming in duty free, while, in addition to paying taxes, the operators paid a royalty on every ton they mined. This condition of things existed under a government which had been returned to power on its policy of protection. Yet we do not remember that the Colonist wasted much space in boosting the campaign of the mining communities for a protective duty on fuel oil. Of course it may be admitted that the Colonist is on more popular and probably more lucrative ground in agitating against the current price of coal.

There is nothing to be said against an investigation. Indeed one was held a few years ago, but the Colonist has forgotten about it. Yet the results of that commission should be valuable today and quite applicable to the situation as it exists. The cost of coal has been the one steady thing in a period of rising prices. So far as we know there was no change in the price of coal for 14 years. The gradual rise in the cost of living, followed by the increase in prices of necessaries consequent upon the war, made it imperative for the operators to pay their employees higher wages. The extra dollar a ton they are now charging for coal does not even offset the advances in wages they have granted the men. And, in addition to higher wages, they have to pay more, in some cases from 50 to 100 per cent, for supplies and equipment that they must have. These are the conditions that led to the increased price of coal, and it is hard to understand why the Colonist should feign ignorance of them.

From any point of view it is poor business for a reputable newspaper which is at least under the obligation of trying to give its readers the facts. No industry contributes more to the general prosperity of the province than that of coal mining. The operation of a mine such as that in Nanaimo represents a capital investment of several millions of dollars. There is no sure road to success, and no guarantee that the money so invested will ever be paid back to the investors. The mines give employment to thousands of men, and on their continuous operation directly depends the well-being of thousands of families, and indirectly the prosperity of thousands more. Altogether it is an industry which should receive reasonable consideration, and this is all that is asked for it, but so far it is a good deal more than it has got.

WILLING TO ACCEPT THE POPE'S PROPOSAL

Amsterdam, Sept. 12.—The Weser Zeitung says the German reply to Pope Benedict's peace note will contain no details, but will accept the principle the Pope's peace note outlines. The paper adds that the reply will not be submitted to the main committee of the Reichstag.

There is considerable mining activity around Hudson Hope and several placer miners are working on the upper Peace River. Two gold dredges will soon be working on the Peace River near Hudson Hope.

SHAKE-UP LIKELY IN PROVINCIAL POLICE

A shake-up in the provincial police service which besides reorganizing the department along lines which will effect economies thereon, will result in a number of heads of long-time members of the department dropping into the basket, is on the cards and early steps towards that end are certain. Just when and to what extent the changes will effect the department is shrouded in mystery. Those ministers, now in Victoria, admit that some such action has been under contemplation, but none have any idea when they will be made. Hon. J. W. deB. Farris, Attorney General, under whose department the provincial police force is administered, has nothing definite to give out in regard to the reorganization, but admits that there will soon be "something doing."

Among some of the changes proposed it is stated, is the combining of the duties of provincial police and game wardens, and, perhaps, fire wardens, thus obviating what is claimed to be a duplication of work, especially in [illegible] country sections where all three branches could be conducted by the provincial police. The suggestion has been made too, one which has been made from time to time, to put the members of the force into uniform.

Another contemplated change which will probably be soon made affective will be the elimination of the system whereby sheriffs, who are now paid by fees will be placed upon a salary basis.

MINISTER SUMMONED TO FEDERAL CAPITAL

Victoria, Sept. 12.—Hon. J. H. King, minister of public works, and one of the British Columbia members of the board of selection under the military service act, has received official notification by telegram this morning from Sir Robert Borden calling him to attend a meeting of the whole board to be held in Ottawa September 24 next. The premier states that it is the desire of the government that all local tribunals under section six of the act shall be constituted not later than Tuesday, September 25.

HAS A NEW METHOD TO ADVANCE PEACE

Copenhagen, Sept. 12.—Bishop Fraknei, of the Roman Catholic church in Hungary, promises a new method of inaugurating peace negotiations. He suggests in a church newspaper that the parliaments of Hungary, Austria and Germany invite the Ango-French and American parliaments to appoint three delegates each for an unbinding interchange of views with similar deputations from the central powers under the chairmanship of Pope Benedict or his representative. The bishop says that Socialists attempts were doomed in advance to failure.

The Vorwaerts of Berlin believes that the bishop's suggestion is worthy of consideration.

HELD BY GERMANS

London, Sept. 12.—Privates Michael Younger (830607) and T. W. Powden (829263), of the Canadian forces, are reported prisoners of war in Germany.

Is More Appreciated

Made of whole grains — rich, flavory, concentrated nourishment.

How Much Whole Wheat do you eat? You have never thought much about food. You have eaten what you liked regardless of food value—and you may continue to eat what you like but you are certain to like the foods that nourish and strengthen if they are prepared in an appetizing way. Thousands now eat Shredded Wheat Biscuit as a substitute for meat, eggs and potatoes and they have learned many palatable ways in which to serve it. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat. For any meal with milk or cream, sliced peaches or other fruits.

RIOTING AT PACKING PLANT

Kansas City, Sept. 12.—A riot in which it is estimated more than 2,000 striking packing house employees and sympathizers participated, took place tonight at Armour & Co.'s plant in Kansas City, Kansas, with the result that one man was fatally injured and two others were injured. All saloons in the packing house district, 53 in number, immediately were closed by the police, who finally succeeded in restoring order.

KORNILOFF IS NEARING CAPITAL

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—Gatchins, 30 miles southwest of Petrograd, has been occupied by the forces of General Korniloff after it had been evacuated by the Government troops, Gen. Savinkoff, commander of the troops defending Petrograd, told the Associated Press today. Another Korniloff force is 34 miles south of Petrograd in the direction of Tsarskoe-Selo.

CONFERENCE IS NOW ABANDONED

Geneva, Sept. 12.—Swiss Socialists have been informed that owing to the recent violation of neutrality by Sweden, the Socialist conference planned for Stockholm has been definitely abandoned even by the Germans themselves.

Those behind the movement are now planning to hold the conference in Switzerland.

HEADACHES AND THE EYES

One thing has been demonstrated without a shadow of doubt—it is this:

90 per cent. of all headaches are caused by eye-strain and can be relieved quickly and permanently by suitable eye glasses.

We fit more cases for eye-strain than we do for defective vision, and the results are gratifying—so conclusive, that you ought to know about them.

Come and make an appointment with me today.

LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEER HAD LEG FRACTURED

Mr. James Cameron, Finlayson street, a locomotive engineer employed by the Western Fuel Company, sustained a fractured leg yesterday when the locomotive he was driving jumped the track while on the way in from the Harewood mine to the shipping wharves with thirty-eight loaded cars.

Messrs. Hickman, brakeman, and Dykes, conductor, escaped injury by jumping when the locomotive left the rails.

ALEXIEFF IS IN COMMAND

Washington, Sept. 13.—Two developments in the Russian situation which caused officials here to regard it more hopefully today were the abandonment of General Korniloff by Moslem troops and other professional fighters on whom Korniloff probably had placed much reliance in his advance on Petrograd, and the appointment of General Alexieff, the former commander-in-chief, as chief of staff under Premier Kerensky, who has assumed the rank of Commander-in-Chief.

The first was interpreted as an indication that the revolt was fast facing collapse unless new help came from sources yet undisclosed in unofficial advices reaching here.

The second was taken to mean that General Alexieff, as chief of staff, virtually will be commander, since Kerensky is not a military man and his assumption of the chief command probably is for the psychological effect and inspiration of his personality upon a nervous country. Alexieff probably can be counted on to carry out the reforms in army discipline which Korniloff sought by his coup. Out of the threatened division there may develop elements of better organization than they had before.

General Alexieff, it was recalled here to-day, was largely responsiblbe for adherence of the army to the revolution which disposed the Romanoffs. He assumed command of the new armies under the Provisional Government and was replaced recently by Korniloff because the inevitable army disorganization followed the revolution demanded a change At the Moscow conference he made a speech denouncing advocates of loose discipline and predicted serious consequences if reforms did not come soon.

AMERICAN ARTILLERY TRAINING IN FRANCE

American Training Camp in France Sept. 13—(By the Associated Press)—A large contingent of American artillery has joined the expeditionary army and is well along with its intensive training under French supervision. Hitherto the arrival of the artillery contingent had been carefully guarded and permission to mention the fact has just been given. The American artillerymen are using the latest models of the famous French 75's and also 6-inch howitzers.

PAID VISIT TO NUMBER ONE

Oldest Producing Coal Mine On Vancouver Island Was Visited Yesterday By Hon. William Sloan Minister of Mines.

The Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines paid an official visit yesterday to Number One Mine of the Western Fuel Company, Nanaimo, the Minister being accompanied by Chief Inspector of Mines George Wilkinson and Mr. John Hunt, Company Superintendant.

The Longwall workings were what Mr. Sloan was particularly anxious to see and they therefore, were the first objective. A welcome lift was obtained at the outset by electric motor, a distance of about 2 miles being covered in this way. The rest of the trip was covered on foot. The first stop, for purposes of inspection, was made at the No. 3 Longwall face Here men run the modern machines which the company has operating in the extraction of the splendid body of the fuel for which there now is a strong demand throughout the world—a demand which, as Mr. Sloan stated Wednesday at Nanaimo Exhibition is daily becoming stronger. The rotary, the puncher, the cutter and the drills—all were witnessed in action. This work held Mr Sloan's attention for some time and he commented in terms of the highest approval on the efficiency of the men and the fine organization through which the countless cars are kept steadily on the move, conveying their contents to the tipple, returning empty to be refilled by the miners at the workings.

From the section Mr. Sloan came back to the starting point and set out again, down the South Slope. At the faces here a different method of mining was witnessed, the magnificent coal in most of the places again calling forth the exclamation both on the part of the minister and those with him, "that old No. 1 was not done yet."

The party got to the surface at about 2 p. m. when the minister of mines received a deputation which laid before him the necessity of the government taking steps to secure a new ambulance, the one now in use being said to be antiquated and entirely unsuited for the work it is required to do.

Mr. Sloan promised that the matter would be investigated immediately with a view to securing the relief solicited.

TRIED TO AVOID A CIVIL WAR

Petrograd, Sept. 13.—Diplomatic representatives of the Allied Powers have issued a statement denying all allegations made by newspapers that they are taking steps to support Gen. Korniloff's action, or hinder his suppression, which the statement adds is contrary to the role of the Allies with respect to Russian internal affairs.

"The Entente Powers," says the statement, "are in sympathy with the greater democracy of their Ally and offered their good services in order to avoid shedding blood through a civil war."

MARSIL SEVERELY BEATEN

Montreal, Sept. 13.—Tancrede Marsil, anti-conscriptionist ,was severely beaten last night on Fletcher's Field and is now a patient in the general hospital. He said he was set upon by two soldiers and a civilian, and was carried to the hospital in an ambulance. How long the fight lasted he could not tell, as he said he lost consciousness and woke up in the hospital.

Jack Belton, Shoe shine magnate, window-cleaner, head of the messenger service, retailer of many lines of goods is taking a holiday. Jack has been slightly under the weather of late, suffering from aenamia, and has gone to Shepherd's Springs, on the Thompson River, to be cured. His business, meantime, is being carried on as usual, and no doubt Jack will soon be back with the smile that never fades.

BERLIN ADMITS GERMAN CAVALRY DRIVEN BACK

Berlin, Sept. 13.—German cavalry posts to the south of the Riga-Wender road, on the northern Russian front yesterday withdrew before strong Russian pressure according to an official announcement issued here to-day.

RECALLED FROM BERLIN

Amsterdam, Sept. 13.—Argentine's naval attache at Berlin has been recalled.

AL DAVIS WILL MEET HOLIDAY

Al Davies of Victoria who will meet Len Holiday of Vancouver, in the main event of the boxing contest [illegible] evening, Sept. 22nd, in connection with the Cowichan Fall Fair, is one of the finest boxers that has ever been developed in Canada. This boy as an amateur met and defeated the best American boxers, and yet to be defeated while competing in his own class. Of late years he has not been able to secure contests with boys at his own weight and has had to take on much heavier contestants in the feather and lightweight classes. Notwithstanding this tremendous handicap he has performed the miraculous by defeating them all, with the exception of Eddie Campi to whom he lost a decision in 11 rounds. Most of these contests he has won in a most decisive manner.

Davis, who is a native of Durham England, has been living in Canada for the last 8 years, and while an amateur was successful in winning several important championships while representing the J.B.A.A. and the V. I. A. A. against the big American Clubs. Since turning professional he has won the Canadian Bantamweight Championship, also the Pacific Northwest Championship, and it is his intention, after the war, to go after the British and World's championships. In his contest with Holiday he will be giving away about 12 pounds in weight, and when it is taken into consideration that Holiday is reputed to be one of the fastest boxers on the Coast, it will be readily seen that he has quite a job on his hands, his supporters, however are quite confident that he will again come out winner, and quite a number will make the trip up to Duncan to give him all the support they can. In the meantime Al is working out every evening at Victoria with Joe Bayley George Corkle and the Picca boys and he claims that it will be an aggressive whirlwind scrap.

REVEAL PERFIDY OF CONSTANTINE

Athens, Aug. 15—(By mail).—The Minsiter of Foreign Affairs, M. Politis, was busy putting the finishing touches on the white book, which is to reveal to the Greek people the extent to which the recent administration of King Constantine was under German influence, when a staff correspondent of the Associated Press called on him today.

"This makes a serious record of perfidy," the Minister said on glancing over some of the proof sheets of the whitebook.

He spoke in a tone of regret of these unpleasant revelations, which were made, he said, only that the public might be aware as to what extent German influence operated in shaping the neutral regime of Greece up to the time of King Constantine's recent abdication.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF PARLIAMENT

Dissolution Will Probably Take Place the First Week in October—Members Already Leaving.

Ottawa, Sept. 13.—There is now no prospect that Parliament will remain in session until it goes out of existence on October 7. The Lberal opposition in the Senate will not hold up the War-Time Election Bill, which will be ready for the consideration of that body by Saturday. Three or four days probably will suffice for the bill in the Senate and other work which will be left to be done after the end of the week can be disposed of in a day or two. It is probable the Senate will not attempt to dispose of the new railway bill but that it will go over for final consideration by the upper House next session.

There is a disposition to have the House rise not later than Friday next week, so that members can be home for the week-end. Many of those who live at a distance already are departing and it is likely that only a bare quorum will remain in the capital for the closing ceremonies.

Cabinet reconstruction is expected after prorogation. Formal dissolution of Parliament probably will not take place until the latter part of the first week of October.

HAIG REPORTS NO BIG DEVELOPMENTS

London, Sept. 13.—A report from Field-Marshal Haig to-day concerning military operations on the British front in France and Belgium says:

"Our patrols brought in a few prisoners during the night in the Lens sector.

"Hostile artillery showed activity in the neighborhood of Bullecourt, southeast of Messines and north of Langemarck."

AUSTRALIAN SOLDIERS TO HAVE A REST

Adelaide, South Australia, Sept. 13, (via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).—The director-general of recruiting, states that arrangements have been made to send 50,000 of the original Australian troops home for holidays irrespective of whether corresponding reinforcements are sent. The director-general believes the visit of these gallant men will give a great stimulus to recruiting.

FIRST CALL FOR RECRUITS SOON

Every Tribunal Under the Military Service Act Must be Appointed Before End of the Month.

Ottawa, Sept. 13.—Every tribunal under the terms of the Military Service Act must be appointed by September 30. An order-in-council to this effect has been passed. If the appointments are not made by the date mentioned, the Minister of Justice is empowered under the act to fill vacancies.

The passing of the order-in-council is an indication that the first call for recruits will be issued soon. There still remains a number of points to be determined before the order calling the first class is published, but every effort is being made to avoid postponement.

Men coming within the first class are again urged by the military authorities to submit themselves for examination to the medical boards which will shortly be established in all the leading centres of population. No recruit, it is pointed out, need be under any apprehension that he will be classed as fit unless he is able to pass the same strict tests that are imposed on volunteers. The military authorities have no wish to take unfit men into the army. The idea is merely that the authorities may obtain a reliable estimate of the number of fit men coming within the class.

With a view to explaining the exact scope of the act, leaflets are in preparation and will be sent broadcast. They will indicate the necessity for early enrolment and on what grounds exemption may be obtained.

QUEBEC COUNTY "DRY"

Montreal, Sept. 13.—Mississipuoi County, Quebec, went dry yesterday, when the Canada Temperance Act was carried by a majority of 1,750 The full vote is not known. The effect of yesterday's vote will be the closing of more than 20 hotels and a number of saloons on the 1st of May, 1918.

MR. THOMAS BREWSTER HAD SPLENDID DISPLAY

One of the best displays at the local exhibition which closed last night was that made by Mr. Thomas Brewster of the Five Acre Lots. Said exhibit was the centre of interest and demonstrated in no uncertain manner what Nanaimo District can do in growing vegetables. Mr. Brewster carried off many prizes, including a silver medal donated by the Canadian Bank of Commerce for the best display of potatoes.

HUN INTRIGUE BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Washington, Sept. 13.—Another chapter to the story of German intrigue in neutral countries and diplomats, was revealed tonight by Secretary Lansing, in the form of a letter to the Imperial Chancellor from the notorious Von Eckhardt, German Minister at Mexico City, to whom the intercepted Zimmermann note was addressed. It disclosed that Folke Gronholm, then Swedish charge in Mexico was depended upon by German diplomats to furnish information "from the hostile camp" and to transmit to Berlin, and that Von Eckhardt wanted him rewarded by a secret award from the Kaiser of the "Order of the Crown of the Second Class."

BERKMAN HELD IN JAIL

New York, Sept. 13.—Alexander Berkman, the anarchist, wanted in San Francisco on a charge of murder in connection with the death a year ago of three persons in a preparedness day explosion, was today remanded to the Tombs for thirty days pending the receipt of extradition papers from California.

Berkman's counsel protested against the court's action, contending that the tribunal had no power to keep his client in jail. He announced that he would appeal to the Supreme Court to have Berkman bailed.

Berkman was permitted to confer with Emma Goldman and two other women, one of whom said she was Lydia Gibson, an artist of California.

PREMIER AWAITS END OF SESSION

Ottawa, Sept 13.—As soon as the House is prorogued, which will be the end of next week, Sir Robert Borden will proceed with the reorganization of his cabinet. It is not expected that there will be formal union between the western Liberals and the Government, but Sir Robert has not abandoned his idea of forming a cabinet which will represent all the elements of the country which are united behind him in his policy of conscription and forward war policy.

It is taken for granted that Mr. Hugh Guthrie, member for South Wellington, will be brought in as representative of the War Liberals of Ontario. It is also rumored that General Mewborn, who at present is acting adjutant general, will become Minister of Militia and will represent the Ontario Liberals, He would run in Hamilton.

There will be representatives of agriculture, labor and manufacturing interests. The name of Mr. T. A. Crerar, of the Manitoba Grain Growers, is mentioned as the agricultural representative, likewise Mr. W. H. Woods president of the United Farmers of Alberta.

Mr. J. G. Turiff, of Assiniboia, is likely now to represent Saskatchewan. However, the Premier is keeping his own counsel, and nothing definite will be known until the general announcement is made.

CRIMINAL CHARGE WITHDRAWN

Edmonton, Sept. 13.—Following instructions from the Attorney-General's Department, the criminal charge against Sylvester J. Harrington, C.N.R. train dispatcher, who admitted his responsibility for the C. N.R. wreck at Calahoo, Indian River, some weeks ago, has been withdrawn and Harrington is again a free man. As a result of the coroner's inquest after the tragedy, Harrington was given a preliminary hearing in the police court, and was sent up for trial on a charge of manslaughter. He was released, pending trial, on $5,000 bail.

BIJOU THEATRE

Pauline Frederick at the Bijou today and Saturday. That is the announcement which is sure to bring pleasure to a host of motion picture patrons in this city. She will appear in a powerful five-reel drama entitled "Sleeping Fires," in which she has made a sensation wherever shown. A rollicking two-reel comedy accompanies this great feature.

TEUTON CAVALRY FORCED BACK

Russian Forces Score Victory Over Germans South of the Riga-Wenden Road—Austro-Germans Lose Height to Roumanian Arms.

General Korniloff's rebellion against Premier Kerensky apparently has been quelled, as official reports from Petrograd say Korniloff's headquarters surrendered, and that Korniloff himself desires conditionally to place himself in the hands of the authorities. The Government, however, is demanding abject capitulation.

Meanwhile Korniloff's troops continue to desert and return to the Government fold, declaring they were misled by Korniloff's professed aims.

Kerensky has been confirmed by the Cabinet as Commander-in-Chief of the army, Chief of Staff, Gen. Alexieff.

Near Riga German cavalry was compelled to retire south of the Riga Wendon road, while in Rumania a height was captured from the Austro-Germans, and more than 400 men made prisoners. German positions south of Sventsiany, which lies between Vilna and Dvinsk, is being heavily bombarded.

The situation in France and Belgium continues comparatively quiet.

In the Austro-Italian theatre the Austrians in another violent assault on Monte San Gabriele have been rewarded with slight gains.

CARDER IS WINNER OF SHOOTING MATCH

The match shoot at the Oak Street traps Vancouver which took place yesterday afternoon between Dr. Baker and F. D. Carder for a side bet of $100, was won by Carder with the handsome score of 38. Dr. Baker lost practically in the last five frames Carder scoring 9 hits while Baker scored but 4.

Carder is a dark horse in coast gun circles but he is a good shot, as is shown when he can defeat so good a man as Dr. Baker. Carder is said to excel on doubles and it was this game the men shot off.

Dr. Baker's total was 32. The wet weather and general cloudness affected shooting to a certain extent the match being called for five o'clock in the evening when the day was getting along toward the fag end, and the gloom of the afternoon was intensified by the twilight shadow. Carder did better even than some of his friends expected, for taking weather conditions in consideration there were men at the traps who were offering to wager that neither marksmen would get a higher score than 35.

DOMINION THEATRE

Beware of Strangers—men and women! Hundreds and thousands of people have been robbed of their savings by falling into the nets spread for them by smooth swindlers.

Mann Act blackmailers, the wire tapping game, etc., are all presented. The drama has been seen and endorsed by Maclay Hoyne, famous State's Attorney of Chicago. It was shown to the Department of Justice Washington, D.C., and commended The play has been endorsed by Pre and Pulpit.

During the course of the drama there is developed a soul stirring love theme and a succession of exciting situations with a smashing big finale.

Tom Santschi, Fritzi Brunette, Bessie Eyton and other stars enact the play which abounds in beautiful scenery and lighting effects.

At the Dominion Friday and Saturday only. Three performances daily: 2:30, 7 and 9 p.m.

Prices for the matinees, 25c; Children 15c for the night, 25c general admission.

E. E. HINDMARCH

THE RUSSIAN SITUATION

Reliable news of the situation is very slow in coming through. According to dispatches from Petrograd Kerensky is having no trouble in coping with General Korniloff's revolt. On the face of it, however, this news is evidently one-sided. Korniloff is the Commander-in-Chief of the Russian armies, and he must have felt fairly confident of his standing with the men and leaders under him before he undertook to defy the government. And it is impossible not to look with sympathy on his enterprise. It begins to look as though Russia can be saved only by such an exercise of arbitrary power. The Provisional Government, even with a man of Kerensky's personality and power at its head, has been unable to restore order out of chaos or avert military disaster. With things continuing to go as they have been nothing could save the country from complete and inevitable ruin. Herein is to be found the mainspring and motive of Korniloff's action, and who can deny that he is not justified in attempting a dictatorship.

For the military situation, and particularly the condition of the armies, Kerensky and his government are directly and immediately responsible. It was, we believe, Kerensky who slackened the bonds of discipline, which has culminated in rank disobedience and insubordination even on the field of battle. Brussiloff, Gourko, Alexieff, one after the other, resigned the command of armies. Korniloff, at the Moscow conference, asked for a free hand in the reorganization of the armies, and warned the government what would happen if his request were refused. The curious medley composing the government were afraid of the power Korniloff wanted for himself, and there followed the loss of Riga. Korniloff has dared to step into the breach. He believes that unless the reorganization of the army is undertaken at once, and according to his methods, his country will be overrun and enslaved by Germany. Events so far have justified his conviction, and it really looks as though the only solution of Russia's troubles, as well as her only salvation in this dark hour of peril, is a military dictatorship. Kerensky is the man in the way, and he will hold to his path as tenaciously as Korniloff to his. The result is on the knees of the Gods.

THE ONLY MEDICINE THAT HELPED HER

"Fruit-a-tives Again Proves Its Extraordinary Powers

ROCHON, QUE., March 2nd, 1915.

"I have received the most wonderful benefit from taking "Fruit-a-tives". I suffered for years from Rheumatism and change of life, and I took every remedy obtainable without results. I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and it was the only medicine that really did me good. Now I am entirely well—the Rheumatism has disappeared, and the terrible pains in my body are all gone. I hope that others, who suffer from such distressing diseases, will try "Fruit-a-tives". MADAME ISAIE ROCHON.

EDMUND BURKE ON ADVERTISING

"Let us only suffer any person to tell us his story, morning and evening, but for one twelve-month, and he will become our master."—Edmund Burke.

While not referring to advertising in the above striking epigram, Edmund Burke nevertheless stated the underlying "psychology" of advertising in an unforgetable way.

He emphasized the law of reiteration, the law of appeal. Advertisers understand the laws governing in these matters, and utilize them. Wise merchants realize that to secure attention, interest and response to offers they must tell their story untiringly—with full personal belief in it.

If, in telling us his story, the merchant grows weary of his task, and decides that he should take a recess, the effect is lost. He loses the thread—the readers of his story lose contact with it, and their attention is diverted to other things. Such loss of attention is difficult to regain.

If Burke's supposititious man, who, through telling us his story every day for a year, becomes "our master," decides that for a brief period he will "let up on us," thus "saving" himself the trouble of the story-telling and sparing us the possible annoyance of hearing his story, he will fail to win the coveted mastery over our interest and attention.

And this is true of every advertiser who fails in persistent effort to win attention and interest and response. Progress which has been under difficulties is nullified when the advertiser ceases to show unaltered belief in his cause and unaltered determination to induce us to share his belief and to respond to his proposition.

A store's story must be told anew with every new day. It is a story abounding in new facts—yet it is the store's story always. Only persistent telling will "get it over," get it believed, understood, appreciated. It is a "continued story," a real-life serial; and its readers must find the new chapter in every new issue of their newspaper.

WILLIE RITCHIE IS GETTING BACK FORM

Willie Ritchie is making a clean sweep of the California welter and middleweights.

The former champion further proved that he was back to old-time form last night when he defeated Battling Ortega in a four-round bout in Emeryville. Ritchie polished off Barrieau the other night, and his victory over Ortega just about establishes his claim to the Coast honors.

B. C. MINES

The Magnesite near Atlin has been sold to an English company.

New York capital will develop placer property on the Peace River.

Several feet of milling ore has been struck in the Noble Five in the Slocan.

The high price of silver should open some of the idle mines around Greenwood.

The vein on the No. 8 level of the Slocan Star near Sandon, has widened to six feet.

It was 26 years ago that the Payne was located in the Slocan.

In 1887 the Lanark mine, near Illecillewaet, shipped 422 tons of galena to San Francisco.

Several Yukon copper mines are shipping ore to the Trail, Tacoma, and Ladysmith smelters.

A 50-ton concentrator will be built at the Bowena group of ten claims on Bowen Island.

The King Soloman, near Greenwood, is shipping several carloads of 15 per cent. copper ore.

A mill and compressor plant will be put in at the Victor, a silver-lead mine near Fort Steele.

In a short time there should be great mining activity in the Beaverdell and Greenwood camps.

A .H. Watkins has shipped about 2,500 tons from the Whitewater dump to the concentrator at Roseberry.

At present the McIntyre-Porcupine is the only gold mine in northern Ontario that is paying dividends.

M. J. Halpin has obtained a new lease upon the third and fourth levels of the Whitewater, in the Slocan.

During July the Electric Point at Northport, Wash., earned $60,000. This property is a few miles from Rossland.

A report from Atlin says that Captain Alexander has sold the Engineer mine for more than a million dollars.

In the country tributary to Prince Rupert, Moody and Lowery have struck a lead running high in gold and copper.

Last Thursday at the Bluebell, on Kootenay lake, three miners were killed by an accidental explosion of dynamite.

Blind deposits of good ore have been found on the 750-foot level of Erin, near Kamloops. The Erin is close to the Iron Mask.

A diamond drill will be put to work on the Pedro, near Marysville. This old property produces lead, silver, zinc and copper.

Sam Johnston was in Spokane last week making arrangements to resume work on his placer claims on the Kettle River, at the mouth of Rock Creek.

WHY IS IT

that chronic skin diseases which have defied all other treatments yield to Zam-Buk?

It is because Zam-Buk is germicidal, and also has such power of penetration that it reaches disease in the underlying tissues and cures from the "root" up. That is the only way a permanent cure can be effected.

Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 E. Broadway, Portland, Oregon, says: "For chronic skin diseases there is nothing like Zam-Buk. For fifteen years I had eczema, and I tried an endless number of so-called 'eczema cures,' but nothing was capable of curing me permanently—unt l I used Zam-Buk. Ten months' use of Zam-Buk has effected a complete cure."

For ulcers, abscesses, boils, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts, Zam-Buk is equally good. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years renewal for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of section, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights only, rescinded by such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights are not being operated Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

TOLL OF SPORTSMEN SHOWS AN INCREASE

London, Sept. 12. — Casualties among prominent British sportsmen show a big increase in the latest list issued, as a result of the severe fighting on the Western Front, and include among the killed the name of E. R. Mobbs, one of the greatest Rugby players of recent years. For six years Mobbs captained the Northampton Rugby team, and in 1908-'9 he played for England in all the international games, including those against Australia and France. In the following year he played against Ireland and captained England against France at Paris. At the out break of the war Mobbs raised a company at the Northhamptons and joined as a private. It was not long before he was promoted to lieutenant, and by the time the regiment left for France held the rank of captain. After the battle of Loos he was made major and was promoted lieutenant colonel in May 1916. He was wounded in August. Apart from the brilliance in the field Mobbs, was an ideal captain, and in addition to captaining England he was at times in charge of the East Midlands and the Barbarians.

Amongst other famous international players who have made the big sacrifice are Poulton, Lambert, Watson and Dingle. Lieut. R. R. Airth, killed, was the best all-round cricketer in the Leys School eleven of 1909,'10-'11. Lieut. G. J. M. Hardy, died of wounds, was the well known member of the Marylebone Cricket Club, the Authentics, the Incogniti and other prominent cricket clubs. Lieut. F. M. Hills, killed was educated at Maidstone Grammar School and Tonbridge, where he was in the cricket eleven and football fifteen.

Lieut. E. S. Household, died of wounds, was captain of the Watford Grammar School cricket and football teams and held the school record for throwing the cricket ball (101 yards) and the high jump (5 feet 2 inches), up to 1914. While still under 20 he played for West Herts and the county eleven and was a splendid batsman. Capt A. S. Taylor, the famous Irish international player, has been killed in action. He was a graduate of Edinburgh University and captain of the Rugby fifteen. In 1910 he played for Ireland in all the international games against England, Scotland and Wales.

TONEY'S TWENTIETH VICTORY A MODEL GAME

Toney's twentieth victory was a model game in every way. He did not walk a man and he was in perfect command of the situation at all times. Three men got to third base but none of them could be shoved across. The big fellow has won more than one-third of the Red victories this season, and has clearly earned his reward. He has pitched consistently good ball, with 20 victories and 11 defeats, an average much higher than that of the club. His best feats were his ten-inning, no-hit game against the Cubs in Chicago early in May, when the Reds did not get a hit off Jim Vaughn until the tenth inning, and Toney won 1 to 0, and his double victory over the Pirates on July 1 at Redland field, when he worked at his own request in both games in a double-header, and allowed only three hits in each contest, winning them both by scores of 4 to 1 and 5 to 1. He has wound up in style, his last two games being shut-outs. In compiling his 20 victories he has played no favorites, but has beaten every club in the league at least twice. He has won four from St. Louis and Pittsburg, three from Chicago and Boston, and two each from New York, Philadelphia and Brooklyn.

Some of the credit for his great work belongs to Ivy Wingo, who has caught him in 19 out of his 20 victories, and has handled his delivery perfectly and with fine judgment. The only game that Ivy did not catch out of the 20 was the no-hit game at Chicago, which was caught by Emil Huhn, as Wingo had a bad hand that day. He will purchase an automobile with his bonus money as soon as the team gets back to Cincinnati. But his season's work is not over. The Reds have 41 games to play, and he is likely to pitch in at least 10 of them so that he may win close to 30 games before the season is over.

Dawson, Y. T., Sept. 12.—It is expected that much work will be done during the coming winter in the new placer creeks, Kitchener and Seymour, and tributaries near Selkirk. Staking continues, and the Seymour is already staked for eight miles. Some claims have several men working.

MR. JOHN MAY IS EXPERT AT MAKING VIOLINS

Passing reference in the Herald was made to Mr. John May's stand of violins. The exhibit was Mr. May's in a peculiar way. The violins on exhibition are all the work of Mr. May's own hands and shows the making of a violin from the rough wood to its finished state.

Mr. May has made a life-long study on violin production, and the art practised by the old masters. Before coming west he was recognised as an expert in Chicago, and some of the instruments he turned out in his early days are now valued at hundreds, and in one case at thousands of dollars. When he came west he brought away with him some special wood, when today it is inpossible to get. Those who visited the exhibition will have seen and noted its fibrous strength and weight. It is from this wood, and along the lines dictated by practical study and life-long experience that Mr. May has made the violins he is exhibiting. Full dependence can therefore be placed in [illegible] workmanship, and players are at liberty to try them and test their tone. They are all for sale at moderate prices.

A Great Big Place in Your Every-Day

There are houss at home that seem empty—when weariness of the day's toil brings on the "blues" and the heart craves after the restful and stimulating. Those are hours when music wields its greatest charm, wins greatest appreciation.

Thus there grows a great, big place in your every day life for a piano—a good piano. Good music is good medicine—and good music is satisfying only when expressed by a good piano.

When the moment comes for you to buy we feel sure that the Gerhard Heintzman will fill that big, vacant spot in life as no other piano could. It is genuine 24-carat goodness through and through, good for 365 days' pleasure each year—for many years to come.

In tone it has the bewildering richness that is ever a new inspiration. Sweet and soothing, mellow and sound, broad and fulsome—whatever the mood of the player is has an answering tone-quality that fascinates.

For it is Canada's Greatest Piano—built today with the same integrity as fifty years ago, with the added skill that comes of half a century's piano-craft.

Master artists have produced each design, master craftsmen have built each Gerhard Heintzman model. So it is a piano whose charm and finish enrich the refinement and distinction of any home.

Hear the Gerhard Heintzman—its enthralling beauty of tone is instinctively appreciated even by ordinary ears. See for yourself how dignified is its strength, how charming its delicacy. Mark it as the piano whose outstanding merit wins for it the honor of filling that big, vacant place in your life and in the lift of your family.

We welcome your inspection always. You know the convenient location of our comfortable, quiet showrooms.

BIG FEAT OF ITALIAN ARMS

The Crest of Mount San Gabriele Has Been Taken from the Austrians After Three Weeks of the Most Bitter Fighting.

The crest of Monte San Gabriele, commanding the plain of Gorizia to the south and southeast, and Frigido Valley to the east, has been captured by the Italians after three weeks of most bitter fighting, the Italian Embassy at Washington announces.

This news of victory is probably the greatest feat of Italian arms thus far in the war. The latest official report from Rome, Friday's statement from the Italian office, says that on Thursday fighting on the entire Austro-Italian front was impeded by a heavy rain.

The political situation in Russia is still beclouded. The revolt of General Korniloff apparently has failed dismally, but the former commander-in-chief of the Russian armies has not surrendered to the Provisional Government.

Gen. Krymoff, in command of the Korniloff forces sent against Petrograd committed suicide by shooting when informed by Premier Kerensky of the probable fate that awaited him. Premier Kerensky has begun to reconstruct the Government, some of his former ministers apparently opposing the taking of drastic measures against General Korniloff and his aides.

NANAIMO ASSIZE COURT MEETS OCTOBER NINTH

The courts of assize at various points throughout the Province, are announced in the current week's Provincial Gazette, as follows: Victoria, October 2, criminal; Vancouver October 2, criminal; New Westminster, October 2, criminal and civil; Clinton, October 3, criminal and civil; Kamloops, October 9, criminal and civil; Vernon, October 22, criminal and civil; Prince Rupert, November 29, criminal and civil. Sittings of the Supreme Court for the trial of civil causes only will be held as follows: Nanaimo, October 9; Nelson, October 15; Revelstoke, October 15; Fernie, October 22; Cranbrook, October 31.

KERENSKY FORMS NEW CABINET

Petrograd, Sept. 13, 7 p.m., via London, Sept. 14.—Although the revolt can be considered formally ended only after the announcement that General Korniloff, its leader, has actually surrendered, the capital and the country already show signs of recovering their composure and are attempting a new process of reconstruction.

The Provisional Government activity is chiefly concerned with measures to restore the interrupted economic and social life, and although the fundamental difficulties which inspired General Korniloff's adventure, remain, hopes are expressed that the Cabinet, which is now under reconstruction, will in future show greater vigor and decision.

Last night the director of communications, M. Liverovsky, was able to announce that railroad communication had been restored on the Warsaw, Moscow, Windau and other interrupted lines, which all today resumed the transport of freight.

Premier Kerensky tonight issued an order giving to the military governor of Petrograd, who temporarily is General Paltchinsky after General Savinkoff's resignation, special powers with regard to the press.

Petrograd has entirely recovered its calm, a remarkable effect of the suppression of the revolt being that the panicky rush from the capital, caused by the fall of the Baltic port of Riga, has ceased and the railroad stations have recovered their normal appearance. On the Bourse, where only private deals are transacted, there was a sharp rise in securities.

From Moscow it is reported that refugees have begun returning to Petrograd. Doubtful elements in the provinces who certainly would have backed General Korniloff had he succeeded in his revolt, are passing resolutions in support of the Provisional Government and in condemnation of the revolt.

The new Cabinet is rapidly progressing towards completion though friction again has arisen between the Constitutional Democrats and the Socialists.

BIG EXODUS LOCAL HUNTERS

Yesterday afternoon and evening witnessed the departure of a large number of local nimrods for their favorite haunts so as to be on hand bright and early this morning for the opening of the shooting season. Commencing at sunrise today it is lawful to kill willow or blue grouse and deer, but ducks do not come in season until October 15. A hunter is not allowed to shoot more than 12 grouse in any one day and is allowed three deer in the season.

Every person carrying a gun must have a license, which is $2.50 for grouse and deer, and $5.00 for big game.

You can't trust a defective tooth--

Once a tooth develops weakness—the cracking of the enamel or the small spot of decay, you can never trust that tooth again until it has received proper attention.

Sooner or later, that tooth is going to cause you pain and trouble. It will break out sometime, when possibly it is not convenient for you to have it given immediate attention and thus cause you double trouble.

That defect will also grow and spread—it will never grow less. It will strike in and eat away the body of the tooth. It will strike down toward the root canal—affect the nerve—and, possibly, cause an abscess at the root.

The only thing to do with a defective tooth is to promptly see a dentist and have the defect remedied.

If you will come to my office I will make an expert examination of your teeth and advise you as to their exact condition.

BRITISH GAIN NEAR ST. JULIEN

Good Progress Made Against the Enemy by British Forces Who Captured Prisoners—Artillery Active Near Ypres and Bombs Dropped on the Enemy's Billets.

London, Sept. 14.—The British official announcement says:

"There was local fighting during the day in the neighborhood of Winnipeg Cross roads northeast of St. Julien. Our troops made good progress and have taken a number of prisoners.

"Enemy artillery was active today in the Lens sector. There was considerable artillery activity by both sides near Ypres.

"Thursday the weather was very unfavorable for aerial observations. Eighty bombs were dropped by our airplanes on enemy billets east of Lens and his troops in the open and in the trenches were barraged by machine gun fire from a low altitude. There was a certain amount of active fighting under difficult conditions. Three of our machines are missing."

French Line Entered.

Paris, Sept. 14.—The French advanced line on a front of five hundred metres north of the Caurieres Wood, northeast of Verdun, was entered by Germans in an attack today, the official statement says. The fighting for the possession of the trenches is still going on. Artillery activity was quite spirited in the Champagne.

Mr. John Ovington, Chase River, returned last evening from Vancouver from visiting his daughter Margaret, who was successfully operated on recently at the Vancouver General Hospital.

ARMY INSURANCE BILL PASSED

Washington, Sept. 14.—The administration's soldiers and sailors' insurance bill, amended so as to equalize the allowance of the dependents of enlisted men and officers, passed the House tonight.

The vote was 319 to 0, Representative Platt, of New York, and Herzy, of Maine, changing negative votes to aye before the result was announced amid thundering applause.

As the bill went to the senate tonight, privates and officers and their dependents stand on exactly the same basis. Benefits and allowances now provided for are slightly higher than those originally proposed as the minimum for privates by the committee and considerably lower than the maximum amounts which officers and their dependents would have received

President Wilson scored a personal victory by the adoption, 141 to 77, of an amendment raising from $6,000 to $10,000 the maximum amount of optional insurance polices that the government would issue to all men in the service. The original draft of the bill carried $10,000, but it was stricken out in committee.

GERMAN CREWS ARE INTERNED

Montevideo, Sept. 14.—The crews of eight interned German steamers have been brought ashore and the authorities took charge of the vessels. Many loose pieces of machinery which the crews had been unable to hide were found on board the vessels. Last night further mass meetings were held with demonstrations against Germany, but order was maintained by the authorities.

CLAIMS WANTED.

All those having accounts against the Nanaimo Agricultural Society, (except prize money), are requested to have them in the hands of the Secretary not later than Tuesday, Sept. 18th.

WIN WAR LEAGUE AT PARKSVILLE

A branch of the Win the War League was instituted at Parksville on Thursday night, with the following officers:

President—Rev. H. V. Hitchcocks
Vice-Pres.—W. Stanhope.
Secretary—E. D. Thwaites.
Executive—Messrs. Custance, Ford Chandler, Craig and Lowery.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. J. M. Rudd and addressed by Messrs. David Langham, of Vancouver, President of the Provincial War Veterans' Association, and a returned soldier; Rev. W. C. Cockshott, of Nanaimo; Richard Wallis, of Nanoose; Rev. Hitchcocks, of Parksville, and Powell Chandler of Parksville.

The meeting unanimously adopted the appended resolution:

Resolved "That this meeting demands:

(a) The formation of a national, union, non-party, win-the-war government.

(b) The immediate enforcement of selective consoription by the Military Service Bill of 1917.

(c) The immediate conscription of war profits, as in England and the utilization of the whole resources of the Dominion for the prosecution of the war.

(d) Immediate and adequate provision for the welfare of returned soldiers.

And for the purpose of making the foregoing effective we each pledge ourselves to support no candidate for election to the House of Commons who will not submit to the above principles.

TEUTON REPLY TO THE POPE

Amsterdam, Sept. 14.—Advices received here from Vienna quote The Politishe Rundschau as saying that the reply of the Central Powers to Pope Benedict's peace proposal will be presented next week.

Germany and Austria, says the newspaper, have reached a full agreement concerning the date of the dispatch of the note and its contents.

It is reported in well-informed circles, the newspaper continues, that the reply will be thoroughly friendly and conciliatory and will warmly thank the Pope, who by his action contemplated only the welfare and happiness of mankind. It will emphasize the readiness of the Central Powers in principle to conclude a lasting peace which will safeguard the rights of all states and peoples. It will deal in detail with some of the proposals made in the Pope's note. The essential contents of the reply will be published the same day that it is presented.

According to The Berliner Tageblatt, the discussions of Germany's reply in the Chancellor's committee have been extremely lively. The reply, says the newspaper, will specify the German terms rather more in detail and will not define more than previously has been announced Germany's condition regarding Belgium beyond saying that Belgium must in no circumstances become a British bulwark on the continent.

COUNT LUXBUG WANTED HOME

Amsterdam, Sept. 14.—Don von Keuhlmann, the German Foreign Minister, has requested the Argentine Legation at Berlin, to communicate telegraphically, a request to Count Luxburg, German Minister in Argentine to come to Berlin in order to personally report, according to advices received here from Berlin. Argentine has been asked to secure a safe passage for him.

Ex-Judge W. W. B. McInnes arrived in the city last night from Vancouver, and was busy all evening shaking hands with old Nanaimo friends. Mr. McInnes, who is the prospective Liberal candidate for Comox-Atlin in the pending Dominion Election, will spend a few days in the Island section of that district.

London, Sept. 14.—Seventy-five non-commissioned officers and men have been repatriated from Germany and Switzerland so far. There is no record of Canadian civilians repatriated so far.

RUSS SOLDIERS KILL LEADERS

Chief of Fortieth Russian Division, Commander of Viberg, and Five Other Officers of Korniloff's Forces Killed by Soldiers.

London, Sept. 14.—Gen. Orawavsky, chief of the Fortieth Russian Division, General Stefauvov, Commander of Viberg, Finland and five other officers who joined Korniloff, have been killed by their soldiers, says a dispatch from Viberg. General Kerimoff, commander of troops of General Korniloff, sent to attack Petrograd, has succumbed to the wounds he inflicted on himself last night after an interview with Premier Kerensky.

Petrograd, Sept. 14.—The Associated Press is officially informed that General Korniloff has not yet surrendered. Still faithful to him are some of the "striking battalions," and also a considerable number of detachments of Tekke Turcomans.

BIJOU THEATRE

Pauline Frederick in one of the very best roles she has had since going on the silent stage, is the feature at the Bijou today. "Sleeping Fires" is the title of the five-act photo-play in which she appears, and it is an intensely strong and appealing picture. With this is shown two very amusing comedies, and for good measure a comic cartoon.

FRANCHISE BILL IN THE SENATE

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—The Franchise Bill has passed the third reading and gone to the Senate. The closure was applied within the first few moments of debate and it was under closure rules for a third time that discussion proceeded. While the debate generally followed familiar lines, there were many exciting episodes. At the evening session Col. A. J. Currie made an attack on Laurier who he declared "has not only Burked everything in this house, but he has sat in his seat for four weeks when his followers in Montreal were using dynamite and threatening daggers to every one in the country."

DOMINION THEATRE

"Beware of Strangers" has proved itself one of the screen sensations of the year and has broken box office records which have stood for many seasons. Its graphic expose of Mann Act blackmailers, wire-tapping, badger and panel games is startling in its realism. A carefully selected cast including some of the leading lights in motion pictures, gives a marvelous presentation of this remarkable picture.

COAL EXPORTS TO BE STOPPED

Washington, D. C., Sept. 14.—By order of the Fuel Commissioner exports of coal in large quantities, destined for the lakes and coming to Canada, will be stopped. Shipments will be by license.

While Canada has been piling up a reserve store of coal, the northwest is threatened with a shortage this winter, which, it is declared, may force industries to close down. The lakes will be open to traffic only a few weeks longer, and unless ample supplies are provided by ships the Northwest will suffer.

Auctioneer Good has been instructed by Mr. Gregory, of Haliburton street, to sell on Friday the 21st, all his fine dairy stock, etc., consisting of twelve milching cows, wagons, eac. Full particulars in Sunday's Herald.

RUSS SITUATION IS IMPROVING

Leaders at Petrograd are Convinced That Korniloff's Rebellion is Definitely at an End.

Petrograd, Sept. 14.—M. Soskite, secretary to Premier Kerensky, told the Associated Press to-day that "the situation shows steady improvement."

"General Korniloff has not surrendered, but is quite prepared to do so, and is in a position of complete helplessness, he added. We have just received an offer of surrender from twelve companies of Korniloff's troops who say they were deceived, and General Kaledin, who with his Don Cossacks began a menacing movement against the Government, has been checked. We expect that he soon will be taken."

London, Sept. 14.—According to a dispatch from Petrograd to Reuter's, General Kaledin, of the Don Cossacks, has been arrested at Rostov by the local Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Deputies.

London, Sept. 14.—Convinced that General Korniloff's rebellion is definitely at an end, although the general himself has not formally surrendered, the leaders at Petrograd are setting about the reconstruction of the government. Formation of a new Cabinet is said to be well along toward completion.

The submission of so many of the troops and leaders who were adhering to General Korniloff apparently has left the leader of the revolt in a position of helplessness. He is said to have notified the Government of his intention to surrender upon the arrival at his headquarters of General Alexieff, who has become chief of staff under Premier Kerensky, the new Commander-in-Chief of the Russian armies. One of Korniloff's principal supporters, General Kaledin, chief of the Cossacks, is said to have been arrested.

Meanwhile the Russian army at the front, particularly in the northern sector, is displaying a fighting spirit and according to official statements is regaining some of the lost ground recently abandoned to the Germans in the Riga district. Several villages have been occupied, probably in a movement to consolidate the Russian positions and organize a defensive line which would be cohesive in case of attack.

London, Sept. 14.—The Petrograd correspondent of The London Daily News says M. Vertensby, commissioner under the Provisional Government, has forwarded a report to Premier Kerensky in which he states General Korniloff knew Riga would be unable to hold out, and hence at the Moscow conference he colored his information in such a manner that when the city fell he was able to say the disaster was due to the disorganization of the army.

HODGINS-JONES

A wedding of much interest to Nanaimo people was solemnized last Wednesday September 12th, at 11 a.m. in St. David's Church, Vancouver when Mr. J. B. Hodgins and Miss Martha Jones were married by Rev. J. R. Robertson of St. David's Church formerly of St. Andrews' Church Nanaimo. Mr. Hodgins has been for many years a well known druggist of the city and Miss Martha Jones who for several years has been the accomplished milliner at "Master's" will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of a large circle of friends in Nanaimo among whom they are so well known and deservedly popular.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodgins returned to the city last evening from a short honeymoon tour and will take up residence in their beautiful home on Kennedy Street.

After selling the Farm Auctioneer Good will dispose of several head of Milch Cows, Heifers, etc.

This will be followed by all Machinery, Farm Implements, etc., winding up with Household Effects.

Sale takes place on Wednesday Afternoon, Sept. 19th, at sharp One p. m.

COMPLETES TOUR OF DISTRICT

Minister of Mines Completes His Tour of District Coal Mines by Visiting Three Collieries Yesterday.

With a personal visit to three mines of the local district yesterday, namely, the Morden Shaft (Pacific Coast Coal Mines Ltd.) No. 1, East Wellington, Jingle Pot, (B. C. Coal Mining Co.) and the Grant Mine (Nanoose Collieries Ltd.,) Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, completed the tour which he has been carrying out vigorously throughout the week. Tuesday he was down the Reserve Mine, (Western Fuel Co. Ltd); on Wednesday, No 2 Mine Extension, Canadian Collieries, (Dunsmuir) Ltd., was visited; and on Thursday he was through No. 1 Mine, Nanaimo (Western Fuel Co.), of which he made a very thorough inspection.

Hon. Mr. Sloan, Mr. George Wilkinson, Chief Inspector of Mines and Mr. Newton, Inspector of Mines for the District, were joined at the Morden Shaft by Mr. Robert Bonner, Superintendent, and Mr. Wm. Roper Mine Manager. They first went down the new slope and into the first and fourth inside left levels, afterwards going into the main slope.

The evidence of active development work was one of the points which interested the visitors. Among these may be mentioned the extension of the main shaft 18 feet in order to meet the requirements of the new slope and to facilitate generally the haulage system. At the same time it was shown that the output is being maintained at 450 tons a day. In this connection Mr. Sloan's time was occupied in obtaining a first hand grasp of some of the many difficulties which confront the company in opening up new coal and the men in mining it. He saw some magnificent bodies of bright, clean coal on which the miners were engaged and besides witnessed instances where, through the development of faults in the seam, somewhat extensive prospecting has been rendered necessary. This of course, is a condition by no means peculier to this property, being common to all Vancouver Island mines and a condition which any concern is extremely lucky to find entirely absent. Another feature is the splendid concrete pit-head, the only one of its substantial character west of Pennsylvania, and a monument to the faith of the company in the present and prospective value of its Island holdings.

On leaving the Morden Shaft the Ministerial party proceeded direct to No. 1 East Wellington, better known as the "Jingle Pot," the property of the B. C. Coal Mining Co. Here the experience of the visitors was varied to some extent. They had gone underground at the Morden by the usual cage from the tipple. This time they were loaded into open cars and shot down the slope at an angle of 25 or 30 degrees. All the West side and No. 4 East Level were inspected. Some fine large pockets were seen, the seam widening to over 20 feet on occasions, although the average is 6 feet. Here the company is engaged at present in retreat work, the total of the mine's production to date being estimated at three-quarters of a million tons. It is figured that there is coal enough in sight to maintain an output of 230 tons, the present rate, for several years. Mr. Freeman the mine manager, accompanied the minister through the underground workings.

Early in the afternoon the Grant Mine, of the Nanoose Collieries Ltd., situated on the bay of that name, was given a call. Mr. J. J. Grant and Mr. John, the latter being mine manager, received the Minister and made it their business that the Minister of Mines and those with him should see everything relating to the company's operations. The new tipple and machinery, the former still being under construction but almost completed, and the latter in course of installation, were first seen after which the underground activities were inspected. Here was found a mine, as yet small but well laid out and possessing in all its levels and workings a fine substantial roof. Coal, of high quality, is being taken out at the rate of 100 tons a day, and the management, it was explained, is preparing plans for extensive development.

The Women's Citizenship Club are holding a "Win the War" mass meeting on Wednesday evening next, Sept. 19 in the Dominion Theatre, through the kindness of Manager G. W. Beattie.

FUEL CONTROLLER'S DUTY

Mr. C. A. Magrath, the Fuel Controller, is coming to the Coast to inquire into conditions, which is a hopeful sign that some arrangement may be reached to prevent further advances in the price of coal. In our advocacy of an investigation into this matter The Colonist has been taken to task by The Nanaimo Herald, but our contemporary argues the question entirely from the standpoint of the operators and miners. We know that the industry is laboring under many handicaps nowadays, and undoubtedly deserves consideration, but Winter is approaching, and if prices continue to advance they may go beyond the means of many living in this community. Doubtless the operators can secure all the orders they want from the Admiralty, from the steamship companies and from railroads, and, to this extent, the industry is safe, but the people should also be considered. Because miners in Nanaimo district consider themselves to be worth up to $10 a day and operators pay them this wage, and because of such a wage they will not work more than two-thirds of the month and consequently production is not what it ought to be, do not constitute reasons why people in Victoria and elsewhere should be made to suffer the privation of cold so that others may live in comparative luxury. We assume that it is to rectify conditions of this character that a Fuel Controller has been appointed.

This amazing note appeared as an editorial in yesterday's Colonist, and we have never seen a more grotesque distortion of facts. The Herald was not arguing entirely from the standpoint of the operators and the miners. It was arguing in the interests of the community in which it resides against ignorant interference and cheap agitation. Nor was it content with merely arguing. It quoted some facts of the situation which the Colonist ignores and of which in the near future it will again feign ignorance. The Colonist goes back to its favorite position of an imaginary rise in prices. The impression it conveys is that prices have been steadily jumping and that there is a strong probability that further increases are pending. This comes dangerously near to deliberate misrepresentation of the situation. There has only been one advance in the price of coal by the operators. It amounts to less than 25 per cent. It is less than the advances in wages which have been granted to the men. The chief point, however, is that there has only been the one advance, and not as the Colonist suggests a continued series of advances. As for the reference to the wages being earned by the miners it is absurd and viciously untrue, and we can assure the Colonist that it was not to correct such cock and bull stories as this that a Fuel Controller was appointed.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years renewal for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of section, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights only, rescinded by such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights are not being operated Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

FRUIT EMBARGO REMAINS

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—In a dispatch from the Colonial Secretary, received by the Government, regret is expressed that it is impossible for him to give a favorable answer to the request from Canada for the removal of the embargo against Canadian fruit in the United Kingdom. Difficulties in finance and tonnage make it necessary that the whole of the resources of Great Britain be devoted to maintaining the supply of established foodstuffs.

CANADIAN Chalmers

A Motor that wins

STEP into a Chalmers, Swing it into the road. Feel the life, the agility of it. Put the motor to the hardest test you know. It is a costly motor. Finely balanced. Built for unusual performance. It gives keen pleasure to the most critical driver.

This motor has won some amazing records for the Chalmers.

In a 24-hour traffic test in Chicago the Chalmers, running on high gear, rolled up a total mileage of 586.8. Beating all previous traffic tests by 228 miles. 14 miles to the gallon of gasoline.★ This is officially confirmed by the American Automobile Association.

A Chalmers special won the Giant's Despair Hill Climb at Wilkes-Bane, defeating four 12-cylinder cars, several racing cars and some of the costliest cars in America. The 6,000 foot course with a rise of 691 feet was covered in 1 minute 41 seconds.

Made the Chicago to New York run in 31 hours—1047 miles. The best previous record was 35 hours 43 minutes, made by a high-priced 12 cylinder car.

This sturdy, powerful, economical car has every comfort, every motor luxury. It has an appearance and finish you will admire. Above all, it is a sound car at a sensible price.

HANDS ULTIMATIUM TO COAL DEALERS

Vancouver, B. C. Sept. 13.—Vancouver, through its city officials, has handed an ultimatium to coal dealers to cut the price of coal or the city will step in and sell some on its own account far below the price generally charged.

The city has arranged to buy direct from the mines at Nanaimo, and intends to put a halt to extortionate charges wherever it is possible.

A report which will be furnished by the city engineer at the next meeting will show, by the installation of proper machinery the price of coal can be cut at least $1 per ton and still leave a fair margin for the city.

City authorities are quoted as saying that the dealers should be able to sell lump coal at $8, with corresponding reduction for other grades.

CLOSURE FIXED FOR FINAL STAGE

Ottawa, Sept 14.—For the third time notice of closure on the new Franchise Bill has been given in the House. It was on the third reading. The second reading went through on the closure rules; the committee stage was likewise closured. Formal notice was given tonight that discussion on the final stage in the House would also be limited.

The House has spent practically the whole day in supply. There was little animation, the discussion varying from approporiations to provide stenographers for members to representations that Quebec rural judges should be placed on the same footing as city judges.

Then when the evening sitting had been in progress for a couple of hours, Sir Robert Borden, seconded by Hon. Dr. Reid, moved the third reading of the Franchise Bill.

Hon. Jacques Bureau protested on the ground that he had not had an opportunity of seeing the bill as reprinted. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, hurriedly taking his seat in the House, declared that the move was totally unexpected.

"I thought I was understood," said Sir Robert Borden, and in the absence of any assurance of a third reading this week, he gave notice of closure. Later the debate on the reading was adjourned on motion of Ernest Lapointe and the House rose

BELGIANS RECOVER BODIES OF AIRMEN

Havre, Sept. 14.—A tragic combat took place on the afternoon of September 9 above the Belgian trenches along the railroad from Nieuport to Dixmude. An English airplane which had been surrounded by 5 Germans, fell east of Ramscapelle in No Man's Land with 150 yards separating the lines.

The Germans opened a hot gunfire on the English machine, but several men from a Belgian regiment, determined to lend aid, crawled out in the broad daylight to the aircraft. Both aviators were found dead.

The Belgians brought in one of the bodies, and returned a few hours later for the other. They saw the Germans robbing the dead man, but the Germans fled on the approach of the Belgians. The rapid fire guns resumed the shelling of the spot where the machine lay, but the Belgians nevertheless succeeded in bringing back to their trenches the body of the other Englishman.

SAYS THE DRUG IS AN EITHER COMPOUND

Just a few drops loosens any corn so it lifts out without pain.

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that, while freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whittling at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

REVENUE OF DOMINION SHOWS AN INCREASE

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—For the first five months of the fiscal year the Dominion had a total revenue of $112,000,000, an increase of $22,000,000 over the same period of last year. Ordinary expenditure, including interest on war loans, amounted to $43,000,000, or about the same as for the same period last year. Capital expenditure was less than that of last year by $75,000,000.

Taking in account both receipts and expenditures on capital account and ordinary account, the period in question shows a surplus of receipts over these expenditures amounting to $62,000,000.

For the five months the war expenditure was $75,000,000. The revenues are about sufficient to meet all the war expenditures. The overseas war expenditure is arranged for with the Imperial treasury in London.

VOLUME XVII. NANAIMO, VANCOUVER ISLAND, BRITISH COLUMBIA, TUESDAY, SEPT. 18, 1917. NUMBER 169.

SHORT MEETING OF THE COUNCIL

Board of School Trustees Informed Civic Finances Will Not Permit of Any Increase Being Made in Teachers' Salaries.

The City Council met in regu[lar] session last night, the full board [be]ing present, His Worship Mayor McKenzie presiding.

A communication from Mr. Thomas Weeks, asking permission to install a 250 gallon gasoline tank in front of his garage on Wallace street, was referred to the Fire Wardens Committee for investigation and report.

A communication from Miss Murray, secretary of the Nanaimo Women's Citizenship Club, inviting the Council to attend the "Win the War" meeting on Wednesday, was received and the invitation accepted on motion of Ald. Coburn, seconded by Ald. Harding.

The appended communication was received from the secretary of the Dominion Association of Fire Chiefs:

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 1, 1917

To the Members of Municipal Councils:

Gentlemen,—At the Ninth Annual Convention of the Dominion Association of Fire Chiefs, held in the cities of Port Arthur and Fort William, Ont., July 27 to 28, 1917, the following resolution was adopted:

That whereas a large part of the fire loss of this country is caused by the accumulation of rubbish and combustible matter in and around buildings, that this Association respectfully recommend to the Municipal Councils, as follows:

That the weeks commencing with the first Monday in the months of May and October in each year be known as Fire Prevention and Clean-Up Weeks, and that a systematic campaign be undertaken to gather up and destroy all rubbish and combustible material during the said weeks, [in] effort to reduce the fire loss of Canada and Newfoundland, and that the secretary be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to the Muncipal Councils.

Complying with the above resolution, I have pleasure in bringing this matter to your attention for consideration and action.

Sincerely yours,
JAMES ARMSTRONG.
Secretary, Dominion Association of Fire Chiefs.

On motion of Ald. Forrester, seconded by Ald. Harding, the communication was referred to the Fire Wardens for report back to the Council.

A communication was received from Mr. H. Bose secretary of the Union of B. C. Municipalities, asking the Council to send a full representation to the annual convention to be held at Vernon on October 10th and 11th, and requesting the remittance of the annual fee.

On motion of Ald. Forrester, seconded by Ald. Ferguson, the Council decided to forward the usual fee but not to send any delegates to this year's convention.

On motion of Ald. Morton the Revenue Consolidated Bylaw was considered in committee and given the third reading.

A communication from Secretary of the Board of School Trustees in reference to a proposed increase by the Board of teachers' salaries, was taken from the table for discussion.

In moving the communication be received and filed and the School Board informed that after a discussion of the question by a joint meeting of the School Board and City Council, the Council had decided that qwing to the straitened condition of the city finances it was impossible to comply with the request for an increase Ald. Coburn stated he thought the Trustees understood the situation and although every member of the Council was in favor of the teachers getting an advance conditions made it impossible to grant it.

Ald. Morton seconded the motion which was adopted and the Council adjourned.

OF INTERESTS TO AGRICULTURIST

Discussing some phases of the agricultural situation in British Columbia, in an interview given to the press at Victoria Saturday, Mr. Maxwell Smith, Chairman, Land Settlement Board said;

The land Settlement and Developement Act, passed at last session of the Legislature, was designed with the object of benefiting every citizen [by] increased agricultural production.

The administration of the Act is entrusted to what is known as the Land Settlement Board consisting of the Chairman and five Directors.

While the loaning of money to farmers for developement purposes will continue to be an important feature of the Board's work, the public development and settlement operations, provided for in the Act, will doubtless be the most far-reaching from financial and educational point of view, as there are many areas of unoccupied fertile lands within the Province where the Board may undertake extensive clearing, draining, dyking, irrigation and reclamation schemes, thereby helping to solve many of the diffculties with which the farmer is confronted.

It should be borne in mind that the Board is not entering the competitive but rather the co-operative field as it is the intention that both the loaning and developement features of the Board's work shall be made self-sustaining and conducted on sound business principles.

I am a believer in legitimate and judicious advertising of the Province, with is vast natural resources and opportunities, but our first duty is to create conditions that will facilitate the profitable occupation of the land, making it possible for the farmer to earn a fair living under congenial circumstances. Then there will be no need to worry about getting people to occupy and cultivate the soil.

Nothwithstanding the assertion made in some quarters that "British Columbia is not an agricultural country" I have no hesitation in saying that my knowledge of the Province goes to confirm the contrary opinion that we possess large agricultural possibilities, which may be realized through a sane and common sense administration of practical land development policy.

In the Land Settlement and Developement Act I believe a good start has been made along practical lines, as the Board is empowered to undertake important land developement work that should revolutionize the agricultural status of the Province.

The establishment of demonstration areas in different parts of the Province, having a diversity of climatic and soil conditions, will not only facilitate rapid and permanent settlement of these areas, but all the imformation thereby obtained, as to the best and most economcal methods of clearing, dyking, draining, irrigating, cultivation, etc., with accurate figures as to cost and possibilities of revenue, will be available for the benefit of private enterprise.

We should not be satisfied with the agricultural conditions of British Columbia until she is producing her own consumption of necessary foodstuffs and has begun to export a sufficient surplus of what we can grow ourselves, to purchase the luxuries we are compelled to import from other countries.

While more or less paternal, it must be distinctly understood that the Land Settlement Board is not a benevolent instituton. Its operations must be conducted on sound business principles. It is proposed to make our demonstration developmental schemes sufficiently revenue producing to re-imburse the Government for the expenditure, while at the same time facilitaing settlement under reasonably advantageous conditions.

The loaning department must also be conducted on a self-sustaining basis. Loans are made on first mortgage securities for agricultural purposes.

We thus propose to help the farmer to help himself, and the consumer in the cities should be equally interested in his success. The transportation companies should meet us half way in the matter of freight rates and, with the hearty co-operation of all concerned, every industry and class in the province should benefit in accordance with the progress and development of our agricultural interests.

I have a very keen appreciation of the difficulties confronting the Board in these abnormal times, not the least of which is the question of obtaining the necessary funds with which to operate during the present unsettled state of the money market.

Everything is abnormal. Men say and do these things these days that fill us with amazement and it would seem to be a good time for a little self-examination to discover whether our own minds are not a little abnormal. It is certainly a time when men occupying responsible positions should practice the virtues of humility and extreme caution in order to best serve the public interests.

When thrones are tottering and systems of government all over the world are being severely tested is no time for arrogance and unreasonable demands, and is behooves the people to be patient with the public servants who are doing their best to serve them.

In time of war prepare for peace. For when the smoke of battles and wreckage of human strife have been cleared away, the eternal hills and fertile valleys of this fair province will still be here to yield their wealth for man's comfort in pursuing the nobler arts of peace.

DAUGHTER OF GOVERNOR GENERAL TO WED

Capt. Mackintosh is an officer in the Royal Horse Guards, and comes of a distinguished Scottish family.

CELEBRATED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF MARRIED LIFE

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Wilson of Kennedy street, last night celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. A large number of friends met at the family residence and spent a most enjoyable evening in games and social amusement, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson being the recipients of many gifts from admiring friends. They have resided in Nanaimo the past twelve years, and were married in Dearham, Cumberland, England.

COWICHAN FALL FAIR WILL OPEN THURSDAY

The Cowichan Fall Fair and Dog Show which opens at Duncan on Thursday next promises to exceed any previous show ever held in that district. Entries which closed on Saturday have surpassed all previous years, there being upwards of one hundred head of cattle entered. There are a large number of entries in the ladies' and gentlemen's riding events and jumping competitions, which will take place on Saturday afternoon.

A "Win-the-War" Mass Meeting under the auspices of the Women's Citizenship Club of Nanaimo will be held in the Dominion Theatre tomorrow (Wednesday) evening. The speakers will be Mrs. (Dr.) Conky and Mr. E. P. Davis, K.C., of Vancouver; and Mrs. (Rev.) West, of Nanaimo. 1t

COMPANY PURCHASES PEARSON'S BUSINESS

Acting on the request of a large portion of their employees the Western Fuel Company are preparing to operate a store, and have arranged to purchase the business of G. S. Pearson & Co. The transfer will be made October 1st and the Store will be opened shortly thereafter on a cash basis. This store will be under the management of Mr. J. B. Bowen who has had a wide experience in the management of stores. For the present the Company will confine its businesss to foodstuffs and household supplies. The store business will be carried on by a separate corporation which will soon be organized.

The information was received yesterday by his relatives here that Pte. Frank Dawkin of the 143rd. Battalion was admitted to the 12th Field Ambulance Station on Sept. 10th suffering from a gunshot wound in the back, but that he had been reported as having returned to duty on the same day.

FOOD SUPPLIES IN COLD STORAGE

Ottawa, Sept. 16.—The Commissioner re the cost of living reports today's that there are in cold storage nearly fifteen million dozen eggs, twenty million pounds of butter, eight hundred thousand pounds of bacon, more than a million pounds of ham or more than thirty three percent increase over the same month last year.

GERMAN SUBS WERE WORSTED

London, Sept. 16.— Stories of some recent successes of the British navy against German submarine were given to the public tonight in a series of descriptions of eight encounters in which eight and possibly nine U boats were accounted for. These eight sea battle pictures were selected so as to cover practically the whole ground of anti-submarine activities. In one case there was a battle between an auxiliary cruiser and a submarine, in another engagement between a sea-plane and a submarine, and finally two tales of successes of armed merchantmen against the enemy.

Not all the best gun shots in the district are to be found attending the regular trap shoots of the Nanaimo Gun Club. There is many a dark horse lying back until the opening of the shooting season to show his skill. One of these is Mr. Ben Griffiths of the Townsite, who, on Sunday did some splendid shooting, not allowing a single bird to get away, making both right and left barrels count as the occasion required.

ENEMY PAYING TERRIBLE TOLL

British Artillery and Shell Bombs Are Working Destruction in German Lines in the West—British Air Service is Supreme.

With the British Army in France, and Belgium, Sept. 17.—(Associated Press).—There must always be periods of "comparative" quiet when big spectacular offensives are lacking on the great fighting fronts. Recent days have constituted one of these periods along the British lines in the western theatre and to the outside world. Reading the Commander-in-Chief's laconic "there is nothing of importance to report," or a brief account of seemingly inconsequential raid, it may appear hostilities naturally ceased. A terrible toll of deaths is being exacted from the enemy by artillery and continual drainage of war supplies by destruction caused by shell bombs is having effect. The German wall of defense is still strong, but it is weaker than it was and sooner or later must crumble. Every Tommy along the line is aware of it.

Last night's infantry raids are examples of the work being done, much of which is never published to the outside world. English and Scottish regiments about midnight, conducted three successful raids. East of Cavrelle several prisoners were taken and a large number of the enemy killed. Five big dugouts were bombed to pieces and two saps destroyed. A similar success was achieved south of Arras, several dugouts being demolished and a number of trench mortar emplacements wrecked, besides other damage.

The British air service still maintains its supremacy and big raiding machines have been doing vast damage. One of the spectacular air incidents occurred yesterday, when a British plane dispersed two thousand infantrymen by turning its machine gun on the men along one of the highways. The ever grinding killing process never ceases. This has been continued by the British steadily since the recent big offensive. Artillery has kept up an unceasing thunder along the whole front, and air raids and thrusts by infantry have been working great destruction.

SPLENDID BOXING BOUT AT DUNCAN

Len Holiday, of Vancouver, ex-Pacific Coast bantam champion, who will be opposed to Al. Davies, of Victoria, in the main event of the Cowichan Fall Fair Boxing Contests, which will be held at Duncan on Saturday, Sept. 22. Holiday is a product of the Vancouver Amateur ring and is a protege of Chet McIntyre, the famous ex-Vancouver Athletic Club instructor. This boy is credited of being one of the fastest two-handed boxers performing on the coast today. Like his opponent, he has met and defeated some of the best representatives of the Olympic Club, San Francisco, Multonomah Club, Portland, Spokane A. C., and other big American Clubs. Holiday met his first reverse in the boxing ring at the hands of Al. Davies. This bout is still remembered by the Vancouver fans as being one of the best contests ever seen in that city, this contest was the semi-final for the B.C. amateur Bantamweight championship the Victoria boby gaining the descision after three rounds of whirlwind battling on the part of both contestants, several of the spectators thought that the bout should have been declared a draw. Shortly afterwards Holiday turned professional and as the Victorian remained an amateur until a few months ago, they have'nt had a chance of meeting in a return contest. The Vancouver boy states that he will enter the ring on Sept. 22nd in first class condition and he feels confident of winning the contest, he realizes however that in Davies he is meeting one of the best boys in the country and that he must be in condition to travel at top speed from the tap of the gong. Consequently he has been working out every day in Vancouver with Ross and Stan Clements besides devoting quite a lot of time to roadwork, shadow boxing etc. It is expected that there will be quite a crowd of Vancouver fans on hand to boost for their representative.

SOLDIERS AT FRONT APPRECIATE GIFTS

Below are two of the letters received by members of the Light Infantry Chapter and speak for themselves as to whether the jam sent by the I. O. D. E. is appreciated or not. The response to the appeal for jam for the soldiers has been much smaller this year owing to the scarcity of fruit; but it is not too late for plums and apple jelly or jam. Sugar tins and labels on which name and address of sender is written are supplied same can be had by phoning to Mrs. (Capt.) Carpenter, Seafield Heights or Mrs. C. Bewlsby, South Wellington.

Private Harry Brown writes as follows:—

Dear Miss Brown

Many thanks for your most delightful jam. It was just issued to us this morning; I happen to be the battalion baker and proceeded to make some jam tarts without delay. It was the best treat we have had since joining up. We are going to serve the rest of the jam sent by you and other kind ladies of your chapter to the men tonight and I feel assured I can convey the thanks of them all to you now. Believe me to be Dear Miss Brown your very grateful soldier boy.

Miss J. McKay

I have just finished eating some black currant jam which had your name on the label. We had some jam served out to our boys a few days ago; but the tin with your name was put to one side and I happened to discover it half an hour ago and I thought I would write and let you know how good it was. I hope you will not be offended at me writing to you but I guess you often wonder where your work for us soldiers goes to. I know my sisters do. Hoping this short note reaches you.

I am yours grateful.

CHICAGO-GOTHAM SERIES WOULD BE A REAL HUMMER

A failure by the White Sox to win this year's American league championship would constitute not only the most famous reversal of form in the history of the great pastime, but would be the means of robbing baseball of the grandest chance it ever had to simply wallow in glory.

It is a foregone conclusion that the Giants will trot under the National wire first. Hence, a White sox victory would bring representatives of the nation's two largest cities together in a grapple for the world's title. The commercial and civic rivalry that already exists between these two cities would inject interest in such a series that could be brought about in no other way.

Such a world's series would be reminiscent of the Cub-Giants days when the players used to fight as ball players nowadays never fight. It will bring a flicker of recollection of the famous day when Fred Merkle, through his failure to touch second, lost a ball game and a National league championship for the Giants. The Cubs won the play-off and the right to enter the world's series.

The White Sox park at Chicago holds more than 30,000 persons. The Polo grounds will seat even more than Comisky park. The sum-up of probably five or six games would doubtless be a full stand at every matinee maybe the greatest crowd in the history of baseball.

The financial benefit to baseball itself probably would not be within many thousands of dollars of previous highwater marks, for it is an accepted fact that the national commission this year will donate a large share of its receipts to the Red Cross and that the magnates and players will do the same.

RUSSIA IS NOW REPUBLIC

Republican Form of Government Has Been Proclaimed by Kerensky and His Colleagues with Kerensky as First President.

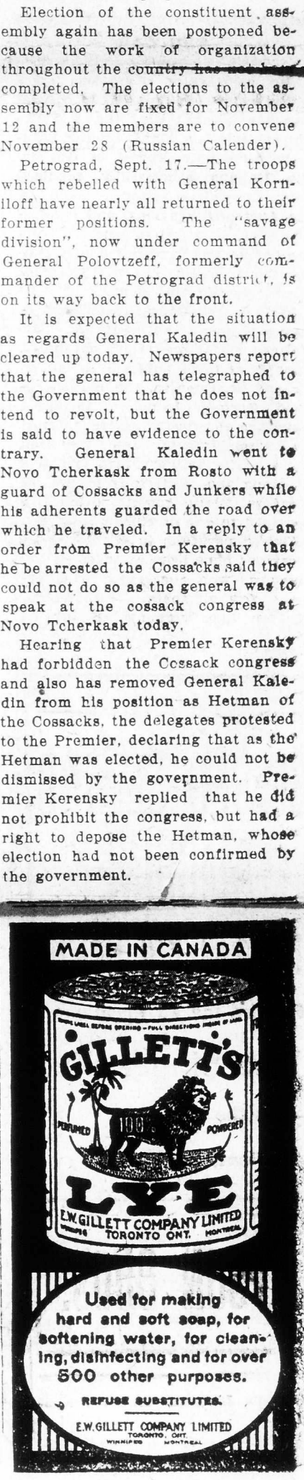
Petrograd, Sept. 16, via London, Sept. 17.—Russia has been proclaimed a republic. The Provisional Government has issued the following proclamation, dated September 14.

"General Kornloff's rebellion has been quelled, but great is the confusion caused thereby, and again, great is the danger threatening the fate of the Fatherland and its freedom.

"Holding it necessary to put an end to the external indefiniteness of the state's organization, and remembering the unanimous and rapturous approval of the republican idea expressed at the Moscow state conference, the Provisional Government declares that the constitutional organization according to which the Russian state is ruled is a republican organization, and it hereby proclaims the Russian Republic.

(Signed)
Minister of President, KERENSKY.
"Minister of Justice, YAROUDNI."

The Provisional Government announces that all the affairs of state have been entrusted to five members of the Cabinet. The following is the text of the official communication:



"Pending the definite constitution of a cabinet and in view of the present extraordinary circumstances, all affairsof state have been entrusted to M. Kerensky, Premier; M. Terestchenko, Minister of Foreign Affairs; General Verkhovsky, Minister of War; Admiral Verdervski, Minister of Marine, and M. Nikitin, Minister of Posts and Telegraphs."

Election of the constituent assembly again has been postponed because the work of organization throughout the country has not been completed. The elections to the assembly now are fixed for November 12 and the members are to convene November 28 (Russian Calender).

Petrograd, Sept. 17.—The troops which rebelled with General Kornloff have nearly all returned to their former positions. The "savage division", now under command of General Polovtzeff, formerly commander of the Petrograd district, is on its way back to the front.

It is expected that the situation as regards General Kaledin will be cleared up today. Newspapers report that the general has telegraphed to the Government that he does not intend to revolt, but the Government is said to have evidence to the contrary. General Kaledin went to Novo Tcherkask from Rosto with a guard of Cossacks and Junkers while his adherents guarded the road over which he traveled. In a reply to an order from Premier Kerensky that he be arrested the Cossacks said they could not do so as the general was to speak at the cossack congress at Novo Tcherkask today.

Hearing that Premier Kerensky had forbidden the Cossack congress and also has removed General Kaledin from his position as Hetman of the Cossacks, the delegates protested to the Premier, declaring that as the Hetman was elected, he could not be dismissed by the government. Premier Kerensky replied that he did not prohibit the congress, but had a right to depose the Hetman, whose election had not been confirmed by the government.

THE WAR

No spectacular operations on a large scale were reported in official communications from the belligerent capitals last night. On the Bainsizza plateau, northeast of Gorizia, the Italians successfully repulsed four determined attacks made by the Austro-Hungarians, and increased artillery activity is reported from the Carnie sector of the Austro-Italian front, which lies northwest of the Isonzo fighting zone.

Field Marshal Haig's campaign of attrition during the breathing spells between major operations continues. In raids at three points between Arras and St. Quentin, the British entered German trenches, inflicting casualties and destroyed trench mortar emplacements and munition dumps The artillery arm is active all along the western front and in Flanders, Berlin reports, drum fire increased to one of violent intensity.

French positions in the forest of Apremont have been attacked by the Germans, who succeeded in entering a few elements, from which, however, they were quickly thrown out by the defenders.

Expressions of regret over telegrams sent by Count von Luxburg, the German minister to Argentine, to Berlin, through the Swedish minister at Buenos Ayres, have been made to both Sweden and Argentine by the German government.

A GOOD EXAMPLE

Political prejudice has been sunk by Red Deer Conservatives who have agreed to give their support in the coming election to Dr. Michael Clark the Liberal member who has repudiated Laurier and pledged himself to support Sir Robert Borden's policy and government during the war.

It is to be expected that conscriptionist Liberals who cannot follow Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the war issue will take similar action in constituencies represented at present by Conservative members who will be in the field as solid supporters of Sir Robert Borden's policy.

Thus, as in Red Deer, can the division of the conscriptionist win-the-war forces be avoided.

With the war dwarfing all domestic issues into insignificance there is no reason but political prejudice why Conservatives should oppose Dr Michael Clark, who is solidly behind Borden on the war issue. They proved broad-minded enough to support him. By the same token there is no reason except political prejudice why conscriptionist win-the-war Liberals who place the war issue above everything else, should not give their support to members supporting Sir Robert Borden and who will again be candidates, Borden candidates are sound on war policy. The only practical alternative to a Borden government is a Laurier government.

POLICY OF SILENCE

The British navy continues its policy of refusing to give the German admiralty the definite information it desires concerning the fate of the scores of submarines which have never returned to their bases. Berlin would like to know how many have been sunk, how many have been captured and all the means employed against them. It does not receive the information, but the British admiralty has broken its silence on this question by giving four instances to show how some U-boats have been sent to the bottom. In one case the submarine was sunk by gunfire, in another was torpedoed by a British submarine, in two other instances the U-boats were destroyed by explosives dropped from above the point at which they submerged.

U-boat hunting is a dangerous game, especially to the U-boats, but it is a type of fighting at which British seamen are bound to excel.

New York, Sept. 14.—Jack Britton of Chicago, outpointed Marty Cross in ten rounds; Ted Lewis, of England, welter champion outfought O'Hagen of Albany; Harry Grieb of Pittsburg, stopped Jack London in nine rounds, and Phil Bloom broke his ankle in the second round of a bout with Benny Leonard.

BREAD SECOND ONLY TO BULLETS IN WAR

Philadelphia, Sept. —Declaring that bread is second only to bullets as a war essential, Charles J. Brad, chief of the bureau of markets of the Department of Agriculture, speaking before the national conference of the American Academy of Political and Social Science to-day said that a relative scarcity of food supplies already exists. This shortage is created partly, he said, by unfavorable crop conditions and partly by the changing of forces of reproduction to forces of destruction. The outlook for the current year, however, is good and there need be no fear of famine so far as the population of the

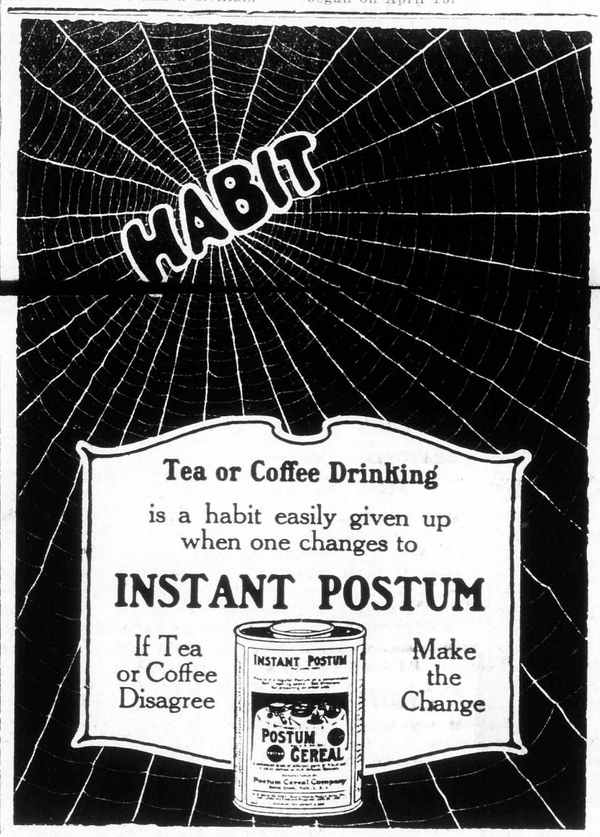
SOLDIERS NOT INVOLVED



Montreal, Sept .1.—Soldiers had no hand in beating up Trancrede Marsil, the anti-conscriptionist who was assaulted Tuesday night at Fletcher's Field, so Major-General E. E. Wilson, of Calgary, commanding Military District No. 14, and Major-General E. Hall of Calgary, commanding a unit of the military hospital, after having made investigations. Marsil says he was assaulted by two soldiers and a civilian.

ANOTHER AVIATOR LOSES HIS LIFE

Camp Borden, Ont., Sept. 17.—Flight Cadet Whetrick, of the Royal Flying Corps, lies dead in the morgue as the result of an accident to his machine five miles east of Camp Borden on Saturday. The accident occured under peculiar circumstances. Another machine had made a forced landing and its pilot called out to Whetrick, who was not far away, to take word to the camp to send the repair truck. To hear better, Whetarick shut off his engine and did not succeed in gettng it going again to raise his machine, which took a nose dive from about 150 feet and was badly smashed up. He came from Buffalo.

Eat Less Meat—Eat More Whole Wheat—that is the way to save money, save strength, save health and save food. Cut out the expensive indigestible foods. The whole wheat is the most perfect food given to man. But be sure you get the whole wheat grain in a digestible form. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is 100 per cent. whole wheat and is made digestible by steam-cooking, shredding and baking. It contains more real body-building nutriment than meat, and costs much less. Delicious for any meal with milk or cream, and fruits.

OLD CHIEF BENDER IS STILL IN UNIFORM

New York, Sept. 15.—Let us pay tribute to the pitching of Chief Bender, greatest of the Chippewas, former invincible moundman for Connie Mack, now at an age when most pitchers have either crept back to the minors or are out of baseball entirely, one of the leading hurlers of the National league and one of the most effective in baseball.

Bender, the Indian, passed up in 1914 by Connie Mack as a has-been along with Eddie Plank and Jack Coombs, has come back this year, outpitched both of the others and strengthened the belief that Mack didn't know what he was doing when he released the trio.

Bender shut out the Cubs a few days ago, allowing one hit. It was his third successive shut out and his fourth straight victory.

In the three shut outs he allowed a total of eight hits, one against Chicago, three against Pittsburgh and four against Boston, a record that any pitcher might well be proud of.

Bender's marvellous eyes, said to be the keenest in baseball, which have not failed under the strain of years in baseball, his wonderful nerve, which has carried him through many hard games, and his Chippewa cunning have done more than his failing arm to bring him back in the baseball spotlight.

When Bender was released by the Phillies last season, after a disastrous year, it was believed the Indian had seen his last season in big league baseball.

He won seven games, losing the same number, allowing almost four earned runs per game.

This year he has allowed only a trifle over two earned runs a game, and his performance during the last three years have been equal to his best season.

Bender's one hit game was perhaps the best game of his career. The one hit was more or less fluky. Only three men reached first base, two on passes. Five Cubs fanned.

RUSSIAN ARMY HITTING BACK

Germans Driven Back in the Riga Region, and Roumanians Captured Section of the Austro-German Defences at Varintza.

London, Sept. 18.—The Russian northern army which has made some progress towards driving the Germans back to the line in the Riga region on Sunday, occupied several German positions between Pakoff and Riga. On Monday they captured Teuton defenses northeast of Friedrichstadt south of the Riga. In its official report Berlin makes no mention of activity in this region.

General Stcherbatcheff, commander on the Rumanian front has carried out successfully an operation in Sachitze valley northwest of Fokshini. A section of the fortified Austro-German defences near Varnitza, were occupied by the Rumanians. German attacks in the Pantziu region to the southeastward, were repulsed.

Raids continue on the northern end of the western front with both British and Germans as the aggressors. Berlin, however, mentions no infantry activity on the front of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria. Artilery and aerial activity on the western front remains intense. From Nieuport near Arras and especially in the Ypres sector opposing guns are showing increased activity. In two efforts against the French positions on the Aisne front the German Crown Prince again has met with failure.

Near the Meitte rives, on the Neufechuel road the Germans reached the French advance lines only to be thrown out again.

The Italians are still withstanding successfully the Austro-Hungarian effort on the southeast edge of the Bainsizza plateau, while big guns are hurling their monster shells over the shattered torn area of Carso Plateau.

France, according to her new minister, Prof. Painleve, will continue the war until Alsace-Lorraine is restored and the Germans have made payment for damages caused by their ruthlessness in the occupied areas of the republic.

The French by the end of 1917 will have expended 103,000,000,000 francs since the beginning of the war.

The provincial authorities caused the revenue tax of five dollars to be deducted from the ages of the employees of the Canadian Collieries during the last pay day. Several of the Chinese resented the tax and claimed exemption on the ground that they were beyond the age limit. John Baird, the Government Agent, did not see it that way, although one Chinaman did claim that he was born somewhere about the year 1791

GERMANY AGREES TO BRITISH VIEW

German Papers Report That the German Government Has Decided to Abandon all Claims to Belgium

Berlin, Sept. 17.—Delayed.—The Pan-German Tages Zeitung, chafing under the persistent rumors that the German Government has decided to yield up Belgium, calls on the Government to make an unequivocal declaration of its purposes.

Von Reventlow's paper refers to the rumors that the Government has concluded to abandon the idea of maintaining dominion over the territory of the populous kingdom of Belgium, adding that such conclusions are said to have been arrived at by authoritative factors in the presence of the Kaiser. The paper declares:

"We wish to emphasize that a mere semi-official contradiction to the effect that no Crown Council had been in session or that no similarly constituted body had met for the purpose would be of no avail and would only contribute to the existing feeling of unrest."

A dispatch from Copenhagen yesterday said publication of three Berlin newspapers, The Tages Zeitung, Boersen Zeitung and Freisinnige Zeitung, had been stopped by the military censor.

Amsterdam, Sept. 18.—In connection with the report published in the Tages Zeitung that the German government had decided to abandon all claims to Belgium, The Koelnische Volks Zeitung says:

"We, too, have received similar information, from which it may be concluded that last week a decision about Belgium was reached in conformity with the British views."

Mathias Erzberger, Clerical Centre leader of the Reichstag, speaking at Biberach on Sunday, said:

"The foundation of peace must be no conquest of any kind. We are advancing with long strides toward such a peace—peace built on the basis of the Reichstag peace resolution."

Miss Elizabeth Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson, of Haliburton Street, is leaving on Friday morning for San Francisco where on Monday she will become the bride of Mr. George E. Roy, of Bristol, Conn. She will be accompanied on her trip by Miss Francis Gillespie, who will act as her bridesmaid at the ceremony. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Roy will take up their residence in Eureka, Cal.

TUG DESTROYED BY FIRE AT LADYSMITH

The tug Ruth, owned by a Seattle company, was burned to the water's edge on Sunday morning at Ladysmith. She was an oil burner and had two scows loaded with coal when the fire started. The scows were detached and the tug drifted down to Morrison beach, where she went ashore. An examination shows that the only useful parts left are the boilers and oil tank, and the loss is said to be about $20,000. No couse is assigned for the fire.

KERENSKY WILL MEET KORNILOFF

Russian Premier and Ministers of War and Marine Will Confer With Leaders of Recent Revolt — Gen. Korniloff's Fate Not Yet Decided.

London, Sept. 18.—Russia, having progressed to a great measure from the effects of recent internal difficulties, is preparng to make a firmer stand against the common enemy. It is announced that the leadership of the Russian armies has been organized and that fruition of reformative plans in the armies themselves is expected shortly.

Premier Kenersky and the War and Marine Ministers in his Cabinet have gone to Mohilev, the Russian great headquarters to confer with military leaders. They will also see General Korniloff, and his leading aides in the recent revolt. Whether Korniloff is to suffer the supreme penalty for his act probably will depend upon the result of the conference at Mohilev.

CORP. "REG." BRYANT MOURNED BY BATTALION

Mr. Thomas Bryant, Albert street, is in receipt of the appended letter regarding the death of his son, Corp. Reg. Bryant, from Lieut. Fraser of the 7th Battalion:

France, Aug. 23, 1917.

Dear Sir,—It is with great regret that I must tell you of the death in action of your son, Cpl. R. W. Bryant, on the morning of August 15th. He was killed instantly by a heavy shell when moving forward with the attack.

Always his work has been done most efficiently and his loss is mourned, not only by yourself, but by many friends he has made in the Battalion.

Sincerely yours,
F. A. FRASER, Lieut.
7th Can. Battalion.

WILL MOBOLIZE AT NANAIMO

Nanaimo Selected One of Eleven Centres Where Troops Under Conscription Will be Mobolized.

The location of the eleven centres in British Columbia where troops are to be mobolized following the enforcement of the Military Service Act was announced Monday

The list of centres comprises Fernie, Fort George, Grand Forks, Hazelton, Kamloops, Nanaimo, Nelson, New Westminster, Prince Rupert, Revelstoke, and Vernon. At all of these places will be established exemption tribunals, and men called up for service in the surrounding localities will report at a central station in each town. Those who are declared eligible for the draft armies will be congregated together and, under the supervision of a military officer delegated from Victoria headquarters, will be given transportation to either of the two big training centres—Victoria or Vancouver. Those of the eleven centres that are to supply drafts for Victoria, and likewise those for Vancouver, will later be designated.

While New Westminster may event ually be classed as a training centre in conjunction with Victoria and Vancouver, for present purposes it is included in the list of mobolization points. It will hold that position until the facilities for handling soldiers at either of the two bigger cities become overtaxed. It is believed at headquarters that the men taken by the first draft in this Province will not number more than 7,000 at the outside, in which case they will be allocated as follows: Victoria and Vancouver 2,500 each; New Westminster, 2,000. It is improbable, however, that any will go to New Westminster until there are at least 2,000 men quartered in each of the other cities, as it is the plan of Major-General R. G. E. Leckie, the G. O. C., to concentrate training and administration in the effort to secure maximum efficiency, and as economically as possible. Centralization of authority and training will be the watchword of the British Columbia military organization during the enforcement of compulsory service.

Gasoline is 28 cents a gallon in Oroville, and 50 cents in Rossland.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT AT QUEBEC BRIDGE

Quebec Sept. 18.—The breaking of a bracket used in a chain elevating the central span of the Quebec bridge caused delay in the work this afternoon. The bracket snapped when pulled by a lifting motor and a new one had to be made. When the bracket broke, part of it fell into a man's face on the bridge and the laborer had his nose broke.

THE LAST BOAT FUR DAWSON

Dawson, Y. T., Sept. 18.—The last boat for Dawson from Fairbanks this year leaves here Sept. 24. The last boats for White Horse from here are expected to leave in about three weeks. The big lower Yukon fleet which has been handling heavy tonnage from St. Michael, Alaska, for the new American government railway at Nenana is expected here soon and will go into winter quarters at Dawson and White Horse.

HUN SUCCESS SHORT LIVED

Germans Were Ejected by the French Troops from Trenches South of the Miette River — Enemy Losses Were Heavy.

Paris, Sept. 18.—German troops, after a violent bombardment south of the Miette river last night, launched an attack and reached the French lines toward Neufchatel road. An official report issued here this afternoon says that after a sharp fight the Teutons were ejected from the positions, losing heavily and leaving prisoners in the hands of the French.

The artillery was active on both sides of the Meuse river and in the region of Fosse Wood.

London, Sept. 18.—Field Marshal Haig reported today:

"Beyond patrol encounters in the Ypres sector, in which we secured a few prisoners, there was nothing of special interest to report.'

Montreal, Sept. 18.—A special dispatch to The Montreal Gazette from Amsterdam says:

Bombing attacks are made daily by Entente airmen in North Flanders and along the coast. Bombs have been thrown on the Bruges railway front and the station of Donck with the object of rendering military work more difficult. The place of attack is a new aerodrome which is likely to become the largest of such German centres in Flanders.

In the wooded region of Scheevege, between Donck and Moerkerke, many civilians are busy under the German lash. A gigantic fort has been prepared scarcely an hour's walk from the Dutch frontier. The whole neighborhood of civilians from Cele and other hamlets as far as Baalgerhoeve must go south to work between Zeebrugge and Blankenberghe, where the civilians of Bruges are obliged to work. These works indicate a contradiction of the recent rumor that the Germans are likely to surrender the coast quickly. High German officers frequently come to Bruges to inspect the work.

RED CROSS SOCIETY'S CARNIVAL OF FLOWERS

The Red Cross Carnival of Flowers which opens next Wednesday will undoubtedly be the grandest event ever given in Nanaimo, which will demonstrate the strength of this society. Every woman should give war work a portion of her time, regardless of how she is situated, as much of this work can be accomplished in the home.

The parade will commence from headquarters at 2 p.m. sharp Wednesday afternoon, headed by the Boys' Brigade Band, proceeding to Post Office, thence along Crescent to Fire Hall, back to Wallace street up to Fair grounds. Everyone will hasten to see the Queen, her attendants, and the other flowers who occupy the cars. It is not necessary to have a lunch first, just line up with the crowd and await proceedings.

Upon arriving at the fair grounds one will have an opportunity of visiting "Rose Arbor" for refreshments. The garden of roses will also supply refreshments during the cabaret.

About 75 tables will be reserved at cabaret at 50 cents per seat, which includes general admission, refreshments being extra. The general admission fee is fixed at 25 cents, for which about 200 seats will be provided. The programme is very interesting and will introduce many new artists to the Nanaimo public.

Her Majesty, Miss Babe Martin will desert her throne to open the cabaret with a dance. Babe intends to show her audience that Queens sometimes unbend, and that even they can jovial be. Miss Jean Patterson will also appear. Everyone knows Jean, who toured with the Pollards last season, and received very flattering press notices.

Miss Hazel Martin, whilst not a professional is capable of posing as such in her song of joy, "That's Done."

Then there is Miss Grace Morgan, another local favorite, and Madame Koscies, who will render the Marseillaise in the native tongue, which is bound to conjure up visions of No Man's Land. Other artists to grace the programme will be Miss Kathleen Merrifield and Mrs. Williams.

The outside amusements are under the capable direction of local men who, with unceasing efforts, are arranging to offer some very novel attractions. This afternoon the outside work will begin, and a very cordial invitation is extended to anyone who will assist in the erection of tents, etc.

It is hoped that many men in town will realise their duty and put in an appearance at the agricultural building this afternoon to assist in this work.

LABOR CONGRESS IS IN SESSION

Premier Borden Given Rousing Welcome By Delegates To Trade and Labor Congress.

Ottawa Sept. 18.—The thirty-third annual convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada opened here Monday morning. About 300 delegates prominent in union affairs in all parts of Canada assembled in St. Patrick's Hall following the street parade for the formal opening of session. At 10 o'clock, John Cameron, president of the Ottawa Trades and Labor Council, who occupied the chair, opened the convention and welcomed the delegates. On behalf of the city of Ottawa, Mayor Fisher welcomed the delegates.

The chariman then called upon Hon. T. W. Crothers, Minister of Labor, to address the delegates. As the minister wended his way through the crowd from the rear of the hall one of the delegates arose and remarked to the chairman: "I do not see Mr. Crothers' name on the programme. I do not think that we should waste time listening to him."

A storm of protest arose from the delegates, and a point of order was established. Upon one of the committee stating that the convention was in the hands of the reception committee it was unanimously decided to hear the Minister of Labor and the protest was vetoed.

Mr. Crothers stated that he desired to say that the workers had played a most important part in the great struggle, about 150,000 of them being overseas. These men were entitled to the greatest consideration—the men who had gone the men who are going and the men who had returned.

At this juncture Sir Robert Borden arrived. His entrance was the signal for the greatest enthusiasm, and cheer after cheer resounded throughout the hall.

President Cameron introduced the Premier, who was again cheered as he rose to speak.

Sir Robert paid a high tribute to the great work accomplished by labor in the crisis of the last three years, and the magnificent part that the workingmen had played in the war. Speaking of the atttude of organized labor, he was convinced that he was voicing the sentiments of the entire populace of Canada when he congratulated the labor delegates upon the magnificent effort of the men they represented.

The Premier said that he had come to welcome the delegates. He referred in glowing terms to the boys at the front fighting on the battlefields of France, and exhorted the delegates to remember the great sacrifices that the men in khaki were making.

"These men knew what they are fighting for," said Sir Robert, "and I know that they know, for I have stood face to face with thousands of them. They realize the importance of the cause that they are laying down their lives for. The future of the world is at stake, and I do not know what the result will be unless we bring about some orderly system of dealing with international questions. What will this world come to, with all these terrible devises of war and implements of destruction; if something is not done? We must see to it that something is done to avoid such a war in the future and render all recurrence impossible. This will not be accomplished the nations possess the power of self-control and organization. The means to the end in that statement which was made by Mr. Lloyd George when he said 'The democratization of the nations of Europe.' With democratization and the control of the people, I have no fears as to the future. The people will see to it that all differences will be adjusted, not by the horrible means by which they are being adjusted now, but by methods entirely different and more humane. Conventions such as this will have a great influence, and we must spare no effort until the final object in achieved."

The Dominion Parliament is expected to prorogue Thursday afternoon. The only possibility of further delay is winding up an unusually prolonged session is that they may not be able to dispose of the bulky revision on the Railway Act.

HAS RESOLUTION ON CONSCRIPTION

Attitude of Organized Labor of Canada on Conscription Measure Will be Stated at Convention Now in Session at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—The chief interest in the resolutions to be offered during the convention of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress in session here centres in that brought forward by the Transcona Trades and Labor Council regarding conscription, because the decision on it will fix the attitude of the organized labor of Canada on this most important issue. The text of this resolution follows:

"Whereas this Council, in common with other Trades and Labor Councils throughout Canada, has gone on record as being absolutely opposed to conscription in any form whatever;

"And whereas, Sir Robert Borden and his colleagues have totally ignored the strenuous opposition of organized labor regarding conscription and at no time since the beginning of the war have consulted the leaders of organized labor with a view to securing the advice and cooperation of labor on legislation wherein the workers are directly affected;

And whereas the workers of this district are denied the right of free speech, as on different occasions when they have attempted to hold meetings to discuss the conscription of man-power the most memorable occasion being on Sunday, July 1, on Market Square, Winnipeg, whereat the city police permitted and apparently acted in co-operation with officers and members of the army and navy veterans and Returned Soldiers Association, who severely assaulted the speakers and by such riotous methods broke up the meeting and for hours afterwards paraded the streets of Winnipeg brandishing clubs and other weapons, threatening organized labor leaders and defying all law and order;

"And whereas the employment the workers are engaged in, such as construtcion, production, repairing, manufacture, transportation or delivery of ships, works, buildings, munitions ordnance, guns and explosives and supplies of every nature for the use of the military and naval forces of the country is just as vital for the successful prosecution of the war as the maintenance of the Canadian army at the front;

And whereas all the industries aforementioned are contributing directly to the assistance of the state, therefore the state should own and control all such industries;

"And whereas the Dominion Government apparently contemplates taking no steps to conscript wealth and wealth production and to nationalize the industries of the country;

"Therefore, actuated by the noblest and most patriotic motives (the interests of the country) this council deems it necessary for organized labor, the head of all the great mass of workers in this country, to take drastic action to wrest from the present capitalists the profits which belong to the people, and with that end in view presents the following resolution:

"Resolved that in the event of the Dominion Government enforcing conscription of man-power without conscription of wealth and wealth production and the nationalization of all industries hereinbefore mentioned, the council strongly urges that the delegates in council assembled formulate plans for a general strike of organized labor from the Atlantic to the Pacific, such strike to continue until such time as the Dominion Government does conscript the wealth and nationalize the industries this being a national necessity more than conscription of man-power is a military necessity."

THE RED CROSS

The officers and members of the Nanaimo branch of the Red Cross Society are to be congratulated upon the success attending their labors during the past year, as demonstrated by the annual statement made public on Monday. Every city and town in Canada has its local branch of the I. O. D. E., and Red Cross, but nowhere, it is safe to say, can there be found organizations more active and securing bigger results for their labors than in this city. The fiscal year of the local Red Cross, which closed on August 31st, reveals twelve months of untiring labors which netted upwards of five thousand dollars in cash, which amount was expended in the purchase of comforts for soldiers, the relief of Canadian wounded and the relief of Belgian sufferers. The ladies are engaged in a noble work and every credit is due them for the good they have accomplished.

WIN THE WAR MOVEMENT

The British Empire, including Canada, has been at war since August 1914 and the struggle is not yet ended. Indeed, despite three years of heroic sacrifices on the part of the sons of the Allied Nations, the ranks of the Central Powers present a practically unbroken front and more sacrifices will have to be made before Prussianism is forced to taste the dregs of defeat. To win the war should be the one aim and ambition of every patriotic citizen of the Empire and with this object in view associations have been formed and are being instituted to organize those not in the fighting ranks into a single unit, with a single purpose to concentrate every effort in order that those who have given their lives for the Empire have not died in vain.

During the past few weeks the "Win the War" movement has made much headway and branches have been organized in many centres. Tonight an effort will be made to organize a branch in Nanaimo and every citizen who has the welfare of the nation at heart is asked to attend the Dominion Theatre where addresses will be delivered by several prominent speakers, including Mrs. (Dr.) McConky and Mr. E.P. Davis K.C. of Vancouver who will advance reasons for the formation of a national union, nonparty, win the war government in Canada, the immediate enforcement of selective conscription, the immediate conscription of war profits in Canada as in England, the utilization of the whole resources of the Dominion for the prosecution of the war and immediate and adequate provision being made for the welfare of returned soldiers. The putting into effect of these principles in the national affairs of Canada would undoubtedly be of material assistance toward the winning of the war and Nanaimoites of all political faith and religious creeds are urged to get behind the movement by attending tonight's meeting, and assist in the organization of a branch of the "Win the War" movement in this city.

THE ENGLISH "TOMMY."

Correspondents of British newspapers with the forces in France and elsewhere and prominent writers in the United Kingdom have lately taken up the cause of the English soldier as distinguished from the Irish or colonial troops of the British army. It had been the habit of correspondents to speak appreciatively of the gallant deeds of Irish regiments, the Canadian and the Anzacs, but to say little or nothing of the troops from England. This practice gave a certain credibility to the taunt of Great Britain's enemies that most of the fighting was being done by the colonies, while the English hung back. It is likely that the unjust criticisms have finally pierced the British calm of the war office, for recently figures have been given out which prove that purely English casualties have been six times greater than the casualties of the overseas forces. In the battle of Ypres the English casualties have been nine to one.

Capt. John Hay Beith, of the Argyle and Sutherland regiment who is known to the literary world as Ian Hay, attracted a good deal of attention recently by an article intended to give the English soldier proper credit. Since then other wrters have followed his example, so that it is likely that the English soldiers, who hitherto have been unheralded and unsung, may be praised for their valiant deeds.

There has been no disposition to detract from the magnificent courage and splendid achievements of Canadians, Australians, New Zealanders and the Irish regiments in the war. The writers have pointed out that whenever a difficult trench was taken by these troops full credit has been given, but that when the Grenadier Guards, the Manchester Rifles of the Coldstream Guards did something creditable little was made of it. Now that the war office records show that the casualties have been from six to nine times heavier in the English regiments than in the overseas forces, the taunt of Great Britain's enemies will lose much of its force.

EIGHT GROUNDS FOR EXEMPTION FORM CONSCRIPTION

Exemption from service, under the Military Service Act, may be claimed on eight sepearate grounds. The forms of application which will be available at postoffices through the Dominion in the course of a few days, make this clear. The grounds are:

First—Importance of continuing employment in habitual occupation.

Second—Importance of continuing employment as—' for which he is especially qualified.

Third—Importance of continuing education or training.

Fourth—Serious hardship owing to exceptional financial obligations.

Fifth—Serious hardship owing to exceptional business obligations.

Sixth—Serious hardship owing to exceptional domestic postion.

Seventh—Ill health or infirmity.

Eighth—Adherance to religious denomination of which the articles of faith forbid combatant service.

It is proposed by the Anthropological Division of the Canadian Geological Survey, which has already publised some very interesting memoirs on the ethnology of the native race of British North America, to publish as a set of annotated texts with free translations the large collection of Nootka family and origin legends obtained in recent years, the manuscript being forwarded by Alex Thomas, of Alberni.

NO SUCCESSORS APPOINTED TO OFFICIALS RESIGNED

London, Sept. 18.—German newspapers point out, says the correspondent at Amsterdam of the Exchange Telegraph Company, that after the resignation of Dr. von Sandt, the German Civil Governor of Belgium, his assistant, Herr von Lutz also resigned. No successors yet have been appointed.

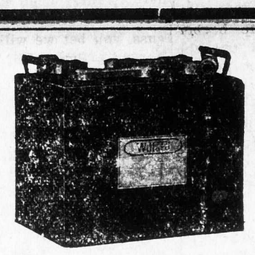
The resignations are said by the German newspapers to be in conjunction with German plan regarding the future of Belgium.

NO SUBMARINE ON THE EASTERN COAST

Washington, Sept. 17.—The Navy Department, after as comptete an investigation as is possible, is satisfied there is no foundation for reports of a hostile submarine off the New England coast.

MISERABLE FROM STOMACH TROUBLE

Felt Wretched Until He Started To Take "Fruit-a-tives"



594 CHAMPLAIN ST., MONTREAL.

"For two years, I was a miserable sufferer from Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. I had frequent Dizzy Spells, and when I took food, felt wretched and sleepy. I suffered from Rheumatism dreadfully, with pains in my back and joints, and my hands swollen.

A friend advised "Fruit-a-tives" and from the outset, they did me good. After the first box, I felt I was getting well and I can truthfully say that "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine that helped me". LOUIS LABRIE.

BIJOU THEATRE

Dainty Vivian Martin with Jack Pickford are the bright particular stars at the Bijou today in the clever photo-play "The Girl at Home." This is a picture of the higher class, and the principals are both well placed. There is a very amusing comedy also on the bill.

TRANSMITTED GERMANY'S IMPOSSIBLE PROPOSALS

Ian Malcolm, M.P., Secretary of the Balfour Mission to America, who, according to Lord Robert Cecil, in the Commons, gave to Britain from Germany the Kaiser's hypocritical and dangerous suggestions for novel methods of diplomacy between the two powers.

When business gets dull, advertise more. The reverse is the rule among country merchants.

GOING SOME

By Charley L. Gant

The world is moving some, by jings, the price of meat—and other things—has gone so high by jumps and tilts a fellow has to walk on stilts to get within the reach of meat or any other thing to eat. The Kaiser with his Zepp and Sub has raised a lot of hell with grub. We tremble at the price of spuds—the laundry man has raised the suds, the barber says the wartime air is making bristles of our hair which dulls his razor and his shears and does a lot of things that queers the barber game, increasing toil—and, too, the price of polecat oil has got so high these war scared days the barber says he has to raise the price of hair cut, singe and shave to save him from a pauper's grave. They've done away with all our booze and now the man who smokes and chews must add to every smoke and chew a lot of wartime revenue.

The slaughter house has moved to Mars, the price of pork is in the stars and butcher stuff is pront to stray somewhere along the Milky Way, and I surmise that very soon that gink who stays up in the moon will take to wearing on his yops some very fancy mutton chops. The poultry, too, has hit the breeze and way up in the highest trees have found a roosting for their legs—and Mr. Mann, the price of eggs has gone so high above the earth they're worth a lot more than thy're worth. Wheat and corn and oats and rye have got Mount Baker skinned so high and even now, the new mown hay has taken wings and flew away and all that we can do is wish when we bething ourselves of fish. The Sockeye almost failed to sock, and cod, the Linn and Kelp and Rock, are humping where the Humpback humps with prices going up by jumps.

A man today would have to steel to meet the upward price of veal and it's as hard as saying prayers to get a mess of Belgian hares. The middle man has cornered yams, the law has gobbled up the clams, the ducks and geese come in by drabs and the submarines have killed the crabs. The Jersey cows with coats of silk demand a fortune for their milk and butterfat and cottage cheese—I never saw such times as these in all my life, though it's a crime, I'm going to raise the price on rhyme and prose and ads and little boosts to where I can be introduced to one good, old square meal a day—puffs come higher anyway. We've stinted all that we can stint, the trust has raised the price of print, so in the high price days to come the printer he'll be going some.

The clothier's raised the price of clothes, the hosier's raised the price of hose, the "Pantser's" raised the price of pants—it only takes a half a glances to see I'm patched from bow to stern, it's taking all that I can earn to furnish paper, press and ink to print this sheet and so I think that quite a squad of you old ginks who sponge the dope a printer thinks never comes thru with a sou—it's wartime and it's up to you to drift in with a little kale—we need some more wind in the sail—we want to moisten throat and lips and sing some more about the ships we're building here to carry grub to fight the chap called Kaiser Bill—We'll lick that cuss, you bet we will and change his name to "Sissor Bill." But while we sing another verse just please extract that trusty purse, we need the money on the square, there's rheumatism in our hair.

Some of the appointments on the selective draft tribunals made by ex-Judge McInnes were roundly denounced at a meeting of the Great War Veteran's Association held in Vancouver during the week end. Before the meeting dispersed a resolution was unanimously passed emphasizing the objection and an agreement reached to lodge a protest with Premier Borden and also with the local government authorities.

NANAIMO IN LINE IN WIN THE WAR MOVEMENT

Public Meeting Last Night Appointed Committee Which will Take Initial Steps Toward Organizing a Branch in Nanaimo—Stirring Addresses Delivered by Col. Macdonald, E. P. Davis, K.C., Mrs. West and Others.

Preliminary steps in the organization of a branch of the Win the War Movement in Nanaimo were made last night at a public meeting held in the Dominion Theatre, which was largely attended, when a committee consisting of Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Randle, Rev. Cockshott, Rev. Hardy, Jno Shaw, Ald. Coburn and John Hunt were appointed to nominate a committee of twenty-five representative citizens who, at the earliest moment will complete the organization and call a public meeting of all citizens interested in the movement.

The meeting was most enthusiastic, the audience listening with keen interest to stirring addresses by Col. Macdonald and E. P. Davis, K.C., of Vancouver, and Mrs. West of Nanaimo, a resolution being unanimously adopted favoring the formation of a national union non-party Win-the-War Government, the immediate enforcement of selective conscription by the Military Service Act, 1917, the immediate conscription of war profits as in England, the utilization of the whole resources of the Dominion for the prosecution of the war and immediate adequate provision for the welfare of returned soldiers.

Resolution Endorsed.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Women's Citizenship Club of Nanaimo, and was presided over by His Worship Mayor McKenzie. Mrs. Arthur Randle, the president, explained the aims and objects of the Club and Mrs. W. W. Lewis moved the appended resolution which was seconded by Mrs. T. Spencer:

"Resolved, That we, the members of the Bastion Chapter, do hereby [illegible] scriptive Military Service Bill, 1917" the immediate enforcement of the same and furtherance of the prosecution of Canada's share in the war, the taxation of wealth, the mobilization of all our resources, and the elimination of profiteering in all food and food products, or in the manufacture of materials of war until the final victory of the Allies has been assurred, and that we do hereby approve and urgently endorse the early formation of a National, Non-partisan Government to carry these resolutions into effect.

"And It Was Further Resolved, that a copy of the above resolution be submitted to all other Women's Organizations in the City and District, with a request that the same be adopted by each, and that a public meeting of women and women's organizations be called by the Women's Citizenship Club, for the purpose of adopting the above resolution.

Miss Murray, secretary of the club informed the meeting the resolution had been endorsed by Miriam Rebekah Lodge No. 3, Light Infantry Chapter, I.O.D.E., W. C. T. U., Ladies, Orange Lily Lodge, Pythian Sisters, Maccabees, Red Cross Society, the Bastion Chapter I.O.D.E., and the Women's Citizenship Club, the resolution then beng submitted to the Mayor meeting by His Worship [illegible]ous vote. and adopted by a unanim[illegible]tion.

Favored Conscription.

Mrs. (Rev.) West of Nanaimo, who was the first to address the meeting has two brothers at the front, and one who has made the supreme sacrifice. She made an impassioned appeal in favor of conscription for the sake of the boys who have borne the brunt of the struggle during the past two or three years and who, she stated, are now in need of a well-earned rest. The speaker reviewed the progress of the war and enumerated many of the atrocities committed by the Germans on the unhappy people of Belgium and France, and stated the only thing that prevented the perpetration of similar atrocities in Canada was the "watch dogs" in the North Sea and the thousands of young men who had gone overseas from Canada, Australia and other colonies. It would be too late, she declared for the men left behind to get out and fight when the Germans had landed in Canada, but the time to fight was now. The men left behind did not save the women of Belgium from outrage at the hands of the German invaders, but were shot down in cold blood without even a chance to protect themselves and unable to give any protection to their wives, mothers and daughters from the brutal Huns. The same thing would happen in Canada, the speaker stated, if the enemy was allowed to land on its shores, and now was [illegible] the young men to get [illegible] to strengthen the line into khaki a[illegible]ing terribly thin.

No Party Politics.

K.C., of Vancou-

Mr. E. P. Davis [illegible] of the resolution ver, spoke in favor [illegible] Women's Citi- and congratulated the [illegible]o upon the zenship Club of Nanai[illegible] Win-the-War inauguration of the W[illegible]omen, he Movement in Nanaimo. W[illegible] influence declared, will have a great[illegible] upon the in the coming election and [illegible]s how result of the election depen[illegible] Canada the war will be conducted by [illegible]ion of in the future. The main sect[illegible]ed in the resolution submitted declar[illegible]ment, favor of a Non-party Govern[illegible]n end which, in other words, meant [illegible]ental of Party Politics. The fundam[illegible]ment, principle of Non-party Gover[illegible]otism, the speaker declared, was patri[illegible]eeded and patriotism was what was ne[illegible] Da- now if ever it was needed. Mr. Vin- vis resented the charge that the [illegible]cal the-War Movement was a politi[illegible]ly move in disguise and stated the on[illegible]e object of the movement was to hav[illegible] in power a government that woul[illegible]e take every step possible to win th[illegible] war. The speaker stated he ha[illegible] been a Liberal all his life and in the past would have considered it almost a crime to vote for a Conservative candidate, but while the war was on he had forgotten party and was in favor of men who were out to win the war. The fate of conscription, he declared, depended upon the men who were returned to power in the coming election and he urged the election of men who would, above anything else, see that the conscription bill was carried into effect in all its details. In conclusion, the speaker referred to German atrocities and stated Canada did not want any such kind of immigrants after the war ended and he advocated the placing of a barrier against the entry of any Germans into Canada, and an embargo on all German manufactured goods.

More Men Needed

Colonel Macdonald, of Vancouver, who has been invalided home from overseas, was given an enthusiastic reception. The Colonel told of the necessity of sending reinforcements to the men in the firing line, who- when they volunteered, had the assurance of Canada that they would be supported. The great need is a these men now, he declared, was at rest and a change, and Can[illegible] to do present had not enough men[illegible]y made this. A politician had late[illegible] necessi- the statement there was [illegible]nat Canada ty for conscription, [illegible]ements in Eng- had enough rei[illegible] all the men at the land to relieve a man makes such a front. [illegible], declared Colonel Macdonstat[illegible], either through ignorance or with a[illegible] intent, he was a liar and a traitor, and a man who made such a statement was taking a serious responsibility. In conclusion the speaker stated "I know we need more men at the front. I know many who are now in Canada ought to go, but the trouble is the war has not been brought home forcibly enough to Canadians yet, and were it not for the thousands who have gone from Canada, Australia and other colonies the people of this province would probably today be paying tribute to Germany, and I believe it would be a good thing if some of our so-called citizens were doing so."

Rev. Mr. Cockshott also briefly addressed the meeting, referring to the noble work women are doing in connection with the war. He read an extract from a letter received from Sergeant Pickman of Nanaimo, which stated the women of Canada were doing a noble work in supplying the soldiers with comforts and no women were doing better than those in Nanaimo. All of us are sick of party politics, declared the speaker, and the object of the Win-the-War Movement is to elect men irrespective of politics who will sink every consideration to that of the necessity of prosecuting the war until a lasting peace is secured. Rev. Mr. Cockshott then moved the following resolution:

"Resolved, That this meeting demands:

(a) The formation of a national union, non-party, win-the-war government.

(b) The immediate enforcement of selective conscription by the Military Service Bill of 1917

(c) The immediate conscription of war profits, as in England and the utilization of the whole resources of the Dominion for the prosecution of the war.

(d) Immediate and adequate provision for the welfare of returned soldiers.

Ald. Coburn seconded the resolution which was unanimously adopted.

Mr. J. M. Rudd moved, seconded by Mrs. T. Spencer, a resolution naming a committee of seven as stated in the opening paragraph of this article which was adopted by the meeting, which also extended a vote of thanks to the speakers of the evening on motion of Mr. E. Marshall, seconded by Mrs. A. Randle.

During the course of the night Mrs. Drysdale rendered two patriotic solos, the meeting closing with three cheers for Col Macdonald and the singing of the National Anthem.

WOULD IMPRISON ALL PROFITEERS

Orange Lily Lodge of Nanaimo Goes on Record in Favor of Conscription of Men and Wealth and Interning of Alien Enemies.

At a special meeting held on Tuesday of last week, Lady Orange Lily Lodge of Nanaimo unanimously adopted the following resolution;

Resolved, That we go on record in accordance with the obligations of our Constitution to render every assistance in the great struggle for the supremacy of the Allied nations fighting for the Liberty and Freedom of the world, but are most bitterly opposed to the dilatory actions of the government who, for three years have watched the young life of our nation bleed and die on the battlefields of Europe without making any serious effort to conscript the wealth and resources of the country. To conscript all men of whatever nationality in Canada, and whoever are considered dangerous to our interests intern them as prisoners of war, using them in the most essential way at soldiers' pay. To imprison all profiteers who are raising out of all reason food prices and other commodities, thereby bringing untold hardships on the wives and children, widows and orphans of our brave men who are laying down their lives that we may live. To release all salaried positions throughout the Dominion, held through political patronage since the war began, and give them to returned soldiers.

We would therefore call upon all honorable societies and institutions throughout Canada to demand by mass meeting and petitions, that the government do their duty or resign.

ELIZA FAULKNER, Worshipful Mistress; SUSAN NAYLOR, Secretary of Orange Lily Lodge, No. 109, Nanaimo, B. C.

RED CROSS GETS NEAT CHECK FROM WHITE SOX

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago American League Baseball Club, has sent the Red Cross a checpue for $3,044.37, making a total of $17,113 contributed by the club this year. Mr. Comisky promised the Red Cross ten per cent of the club's receips during the season.

AUSTRIAS REPLY TO THE POPE

Amsterdam, Sept. 19.—Austria's reply to Pope Benedict's peace proposals, says the Wiener Allgemeine Zeitung, will be handed to the Papal Nuncio at Vienna on Thursday, and will be published Saturday.

The reply confines itself to a detailed discussion of the Pope's suggestions, it is said.

The report that it will contain new and astonishing peace proposals, the Vienna newspaper adds, is absolutely at variance with the facts.

Amsterdam, Sept. 19.—The Vorwaerts, the Socialist organ of Berlin, holding that the complete restoration of Belgium is corollary to the Reichstag peace resolution, declares;

"Whether the German government remains deaf thereto, it is not only a question of power or policy, but justice and conscience. No policy is truly wise that disregards the moral and legal factors in the life of nations. Despite the howling of the mailed fist politicians, we affirm that right is right and that Belgium has the right to its independence."

GERMAN LOSSES EXTREMELY HEAVY

Huns are Compelled to Use Boys Under Fifteen to Replace Losses Made in Recent Heavy Fighting.

Geneva, Sept. 19.—The Recent great wastage of men on the German fronts is officially recognized inadvertently, by military authorities who have just issued notices at Munich and Cologne that they will accept in future boy volunteers aged 15 for the army.

This order accounts for the recent influx into Switzerland of German boys sent for safety by their parents. German supervision of the Swiss frontier lately has been redoubled, especially facing Basel.

London, Sept. 19.—Reports from the British front in Flanders continue to mention only raids and artillery and aeroplane activities. Notwithstanding that virtually all the recent official reports have been similarly lacking in records of major operations, the British casualty lists disclose the fact that there has been heavy fighting. The casualties on all fronts reported during the week ended yesterday, for instance, totalled more than 27,000, of whom the killed numbered 4,800.

Point is given these facts by the recent reports of correspondents that despite the laconic official announcements the British activities are by no means as unimportant as they might seem, and that all arms of the British service are being constantly employed in the process of wearing down the German resistance. The German casualties for specific periods are not so readily available, but observers at the front calculate them as extremely heavy in the sort of fighting now in progress.

MEDAL FOR DIBBLE

Toronto, Sept. 19.—Harry Dibble of the Don Rowing Club, junior singles and doubles champion of Canada has been, according to dispatches, awarded the Military Medal for conspicuous bravery in the recent fighting around Lens. Dibble is a brother of Lieut. Robert Dibble, the senior singles sculling champion of America now lying wounded in France. Harry Dibble, like his famous brother, is a husky youth of six feet and over.

Washington, Sept. 18.—The $7,000,000,000, war deficiency bill carrying huge appropriations for the army, fortifications and shipping Board, passed the House to-day by a unanimous vote.

SHIPPING LOSSES DECREASE

London, Sept. 19. — British merchant ships of 1600 tons and over sunk by mine or submarine during the past week, numbered eight, the Admiralty reports tonight. Twenty ships under 1600 tons also were sunk and one fishing vessel.

RUMAN FORCES OCCUPY HEIGHTS

Austro-German Arms Were Forced to Give Way to Roumanians South of Grodechti.

Petrograd, Sept. 19.—Roumanian forces yesterday attacked the Austro-German positions south of Grozechti in the Ocna region, and occupied heights there, the War Office here announced today.

The text of the statement follows:

"Western (Russian) front—Apart from fusilades of great intensity on several sectors of the front there were no military operations.

"Roumanian front—In the Ocna region Roumanian troops attacked a section of the enemy positions south of Grozechti and occupied one of the heights. On the rest of the front there were fusilades, more intense in the region north of Irechti and east of Geriechti.

"Caucasian front—There was no material change."

London, Sept. 19.—Reporting today on operations on the British front in France and Belgium, the War Office said:

"The successful raid against German positions in Inverness Copse reported in last night's communication was made by troops of the York and Lancaster Regiments.

"There is nothing of special interest to report."

Paris, Sept. 19.—German trenches on various parts of the front were raided last night by French troops and prisoners were taken, says today's official report. A violent artillery action is in progress on the Verdun front east of the Meuse river.

Berlin, Sept. 19.—French aerial squadrons on Sunday bombarded several German cities in Wurttemburg, Rhenish Prussia, and Upper Alsace, according to a statement issued today by the War Office here. The announcement reads:

"Our enemies on Sunday undertook several bombing raids against South German territory. Stuttgart, Tuebingen, Freudenstadt, Oberndorf St. Inglebert, Saarbruecken and Colmar were attacked."

"Near Stuttgart one soldier was slightly wounded. At Froudenstadt and at Colmar damage was done to buildings. All the attacks caused neither loss in killed or wounded, nor material damage. Three enemy aeroplanes were shot down on German soil."

ARGENTINE IN FAVOR OF WAR

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 19.— The Argentine Senate by a vote 23 to 1 to-day declared for breaking off relations with Germany. The resolution now goes to the Chamber of deputies. There is strong public feeling in favor of its final passage.

PLENTY OF OIL FOR STATES AND ALLIES

Atlantic City, N.J., Sept. 19.—There is not the slightest danger of a deficiency in the supply of crude oil or its products, kerosene and gasoline, for the use of the United States or its allies, in the opinion of A. C. Bedford, of New York, president of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey. Mr. Bedford expressed this conviction today before the war convention of the American Chamber of Commerce.

Anti Conscriptionst Arrested

Montreal, Sept. 18.—The third anti-conscription orator [illegible]rrested here on a charge of treason is Paul Emile Mongeau, who was taken into custody this morning. He was arraigned in court, pleaded not guilty and was allowed out on bail.

ALEXANDER McLACHLAN PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY

The death occurred in the hospital yesterday morning of Alexander McLachlan, a native of Ayrshire, Scotland. Deceased, who was in his 35th year had lived for the past five years in Victoria, where he was manager of the Ailsa Mansions.

In company with his wife and with Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Neil Hayes, also of Victoria, Mr. McLachlan had been spending a holiday motoring up the Island. He was taken suddenly ill at Qualicum on Monday, and was immediately rushed to the Nanaimo hospital, where, in spite of all that could be done, he passed away as stated.

The body will be shipped to Victoria today by Mr. D. J. Jenkins and the funeral will take place in that city.

ORDERED UP FOR EXAMINATION

Members of Civil Service in First Draft Are Ordered to Appear Before the Medical Board on Friday.

Ottawa, Sept. 19.—Those members of the civil service who are in the first class to be called under the [illegible] dered to present themselves for medical examination and the first will go before the local boards at the base recruiting offices on Friday.

Ottawa, Sept. 19.—Officers of the Canadian Expeditionary Force drawing both military pay and pay as civil servants are to be returned from overseas. This applies only to officers in England and not to officers on active service in France. Sir George Perley, Overseas Minister of Militia has been requested by the Militia Department to take action in this regard.

TWO VENDORS IN PROVINCE

Victoria and Vancouver Will be the Only Two Depots for the Distribution of Liquor.

Victoria, Sept. 19.—The announcement was made yesterday afternoon by Hon. J. W. deB. Farris, attorney-general, to the effect that following the principle adopted by the Alberta government, there will be two government establishments for the sale of liquor by specially appointed vendors, under the British Columbia Prohibition Act. One of these establishments will be located at Victoria and the other in Vancouver. The decision has been arrived at consequent upon the visit of Prohibition Commissioner Findlay to Edmonton. Both the attorney-general and his deputy and Mr. Findlay were in consultation this morning, dealing with the commissioner's report. The appointment of the two vendors will be made in a few days.

Mainly to get a first-hand knowledge of the administration and enforcement branches of the working of the Alberta Prohibiton Act, Mr. Findlay spent three days last week in Edmonton, returning to his office in the Parliament buildings this morning with much valued information and fully convinced of the advisability of his trip to the Albertan capital.

That the government of the neighboring province has succeeded in reducing the administration of their measure to a science is the opinion formed by Mr. Findlay, and the fact that he was enabled to examine thoroughly into the whole of the now perfectly-working machinery, he says, means from the illustrations of their pitfalls and mistakes in the earlier days of the operation of the act, he was able to note the caution signs which will be of great benefit to British Columbia.

While the government does not expect to experience any real difficulty in the administration or enforcement of the act, Mr. Findlay sought to secure the hearty co-operation of the Alberta authorities in several very important connections. The question of importation and exportation and effectual trace of shipments under both heads was gone into exhaustively, with the result that a good deal of possible infraction along these lines will be easy of detection in both provinces before assuming any large proportion.

Both the British Columbia and the Alberta acts require brewers and distillers to open up their books when required for inspection by government officials. Consequently with the reciprocal machinery working between the two provinces it will be easy to detect what importations are coming from Alberta into British Columbia and to whom such are consigned and in what quantities. The day of the "bootlegger" will, in the belief of Mr. Findlay, be numbered almost at the start by the co-operation system, for which he has been able to arrange.

GREAT WAR CREDITS BILL IN STATES

Washington, Sept. 19—Agreement on the war credits bill authorizing $11,538,000,000 of new bonds and certificates was reached to-day by Senate and House eonferees with no change in issues proposed.

FIRST CLASS WILL BE CALLED SOON

Board of Trade Members Are Asked to Assist the Government in the Work of Calling Up the First Draft of Men.

A statement from the Deputy Minister of Justice at Ottawa has been received here stating that it is the [illegible] out for service in the first class under the Military Service Act.

This first class comprises unmarried men and widowers between the ages of 20 and 34, when, of course, physically fit. Some delay will necessarily be involved in the establishment of the Exemption Tribunals provided by the Act. But it will be of advantage if the question of physical fitness can be determined at as early a date as possible, as the employer will benefit by knowing definitely which of his employees are exempted on the ground of physical unfitness so that he may know the extent to which his business may be disarranged and consider whether application for exemption of any of his employees who are found fit should be made on other grounds; and it will help the members of the class called out to know as soon as possible whether they are physically eligible or not.

Members of the class called out may be examined, and if found unfit they will upon application to the local tribunals be exempted. If found fit they may consider whether they should apply for exemption upon any ground or make their arrangements for giving up civilian life.

It will also be of assistance to the government to be able to get this portion of the very large amount of work to be handled covered as soon as possible.

On the recommendation of the Military Service Council it is proposed to establish medical boards at convenient centres which will pass authoritatively on the question of physical fitness, and it is hoped that the various communities will give their co-operation in support of the measure. In Victoria as well as in Vancouver there are already military medical boards established which can be made use of in this connection.

The local Board of Trade has been asked to facilitate the intentions of the government along these lines.

SOLDIERS WRECK I.W.W. QUARTERS

Los Angeles, Sept. 19.—A crowd of soldiers variously estimated from two to four hundred wrecked the Headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the World here late to-day Typewriters and furniture were broken, windows were smashed and all movables demolished. There were no reported casualties and no arrests.

The American steamer Platuria, 3445 tons, owned by the Standard Oil Co., has been torpedoed with the loss of the master and eight members of the crew.

CHRISTMAS CHEER FOR CANADIAN SOLDIERS

The Bastion Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, has received word from Captain Plummer of the Canadian Field Comforts Commission, that they will require Christmas cheer for 100,000 fighting men of the Canadian forces.

To be sure that these gifts reach the boys by Christmas, the Bastion Chapter, I.O.D.E., are holding a Christmas Cheer shower, the first week in October, during which time a committee will be at Pearson's old store, from 10 a.m. each day to receive contributions either in money or kind.

The following will be gratefully received :

Cakes, shortbread, almonds, and raisins, cigarettes, tobacco, home-made candy, chewing gum, cocoa, playing cards, soap, tooth brushes, tooth powder, pipes, mouth organs, stationery; any donation, however small, will be welcome.

Nothing in glass can be accepted as it cannot be packed.

It is confidently expected that everyone in the city, great or small, young or old, will help to make the "Christmas Gift Shower" the unequalled success which it deserves to be.

THE WAR.

This is the 1143rd day of the great war and it finds the forces of the Allies on the offensive on all battlefronts, even in the eastern theatre where the Russians appear to have rehabilitated their forces and have not only checked the enemy but have recaptured several villages from the Huns in the Riga sector. Last night's dispatches to The Herald state the bombardment by British artillery of the German lines in the Ypres sector in Flanders continued most intense but there has been no infantry movement in force but an attack on a larger scale than the usual daily raids, probably is imminent. Berlin, apparently, is much exercised over the ever-increasing volume of shells from British big guns, for, from Houtholst Road northeast of Ypres to the River Lys, on the Belge-French border, Berlin reports artillery fire has been destructive and Field Marshal Haig's artillery increased its volume of shots to drum fire several times. At several points from the Aisne valley to Lorraine, the French made raids into German defenses. Here, too, the expenditure of ammunition is great, especially on the Aisne front and northeast of Verdun.

The Italians have been more active on the Trentino front, harrassing the enemy with raids and strong artillery fire. In a forward movement near Carsano, in the Sugana Valley, east of Trent, the Italians captured 200 prisoners.

Austro-Hungarian attacks on the Bainsizza plateau continue, but General Cadorna's men held them for no gains. The Roumanians continue their offensive in the mountain region northwest of Fokshani, Moldavia, attacking the Austro-German defences south of Crozechti near Ocna, where the Roumanians captured a height. Berlin reports the Roumanians at first successful, but eventually were driven from positions, suffering casualties and losing prisoners.

The official report given out by the Admiralty of shipping losses during the week, show a most satisfactory condition of affairs, as only eight vessels of over 1,600 tons have been sunk by mine or submarine during the past seven days, the smallest number shown since February last.

ARE ONLY RUMORS

Another crop of peace rumors is afloat. It seems to have originated about the time that it became known that the pope was sending out peace proposals, but before the nature of those proposals were ascertained.

The entente peoples would be very foolish to expect peace, except on German terms, to arise out of anything except crushing defeat of Germany's military machine. To that defeat economic and food problems will, of course, contribute, but they are only a factor. It is by means of men and guns and munitions that Germany will be beaten.

Germany's military strength is crumbling, but not sufficiently quickly to give any ground for hope that it will collapse within a few months. Entente victory is only a matter of time, now that Germany's military strength is on the down grade, but next summer is the earliest date at which it can be expected that a crushing blow can be dealt to the Teuton armies. After that has occurred events may move more rapidly toward an enduring peace.

FORMER NANAIMO TEACHER HAS ENVIABLE RECORD

Victoria, Sept. 18.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of Municipal Inspector E. B. Paul's association with the teaching profession in Victoria has come round. Mr. Paul has been actually longer in this district, having been transferred from the Esquimalt school to the Victoria High School in September, 1892. He entered upon his duties on October 1.

Mr. Paul came to British Columbia in February, 1886, and shortly afterwards commenced his association with the profession, being for a short time in the Lilooet district before he was appointed to Nanaimo. From that city he came to Esquimalt where he was located for a short time.

His present office as Municipal Inspector of Schools has kept him in close touch with the profession since he ceased actual teaching. There are not many men or women associated with the profession in the province who can look back on thirty-one years of connection with scholastic work.

In the seventies Mr. Paul had a very interesting association with the British diplomatic service in Japan, when that remarkable country was just opening to European civilization following the restoration in 1868.

SOLDIERS VICTIMS OF TYPHUS IN GERMANY

Paris, Sept. 18.—Albert Champion, a French soldier who on his third attempt has just escaped from Germany brings the information, according to the Paris edition of The New York Herald, that 3,700 French and British soldiers and 1,500 Russians have died from typhus at the German camps at Kasel, 90 miles northeast of Frankfort-on-the-Main.

POLICY OF NEW SAME AS OLD

New Government of France Re-affirms Determination to Continue War Until Alsace-Lorraine Return to France.

Paris, Sept. 15.—A declaration of the policy of the new Government of France was read in the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon by Premier Painleve, who reaffirmed the determination of France to continue the war until the dis-annexation of Alsace-Lorraine from Germany is secured, along with reparation for the damage caused by the Germans.

Alluding to the efforts made by the Germans to weaken the moral forces of the country, the declaration said that in cases already under investigation, and those that might hereafter require inquiry, justice would follow its course without hesitation or weakness and without taking any account whatever of the personalities involved.

"Whoever makes himself an accomplice of the enemy," said the Premier, "must suffer the rigor of the law."

In the first place the declaration affirmed the resolution of the government to pursue a vigorous "republican and social policy."

The French democracy, it contended, had shown itself worthy of the confidence its leaders had in it, and the absence of a representative of the Socialist party in the present Cabinet could not and must not be interpreted as involving in any way a diminution of that confidence.

While carrying out its declared policy, the government would endeavor to give the country proper guarantees that justice would be properly administered.

As regards the conduct of the war the declaration expressed the resolve of the government to impart to this phase of its duties a greater impetus every day. It attached the greatest importance to the intensification of the manufacture of materials for war purposes, to close collaboration among the Allies and the pursuit of a more methodical diplomatic policy.

ISLAND DAY AT THE HOME PRODUCTS FAIR

Friday, September 28th, is to be Island Day at the Victoria and Island Home Products' Fair, which will be held in the new Hudson's Bay Building, in the Capital City the week of September 24-29. The feature that day will be an Island luncheon to be held in the Fair Building. Speeches will be delivered on topics of interest to the Island as a whole, and it is expected that a number of interesting points will be brought up. Invitations have been sent to the Mayor of this city and the President of the Board of Trade to be the guests at the luncheon, but citizens generally will be made welcome.

The Fair this year is said to exceed in size and interest the successful exhibition held last October. Many interesting exhibits have been secured and the showing of both the Dominion and Provincial governments will be features. The Fair will be formally opened by Mayor Todd of Victoria, on Monday, September 24th. Special rates are available from this point during the week.

WINCARNIS gives New Health to all who are

Weak, Anaemic, Nervous, Run-down

DON'T let your life be clouded by indifferent health. Don't let ill-health steal your good looks. Don't remain weak, or anæmic, or nervous, or run-down. Don't suffer needlessly. Get well the Wincarnis way—the quick, sure, and safe way to new and vigorous health.

Wincarnis is the quick way, because the benefit begins from the first dose—the sure way, because it has given new health to countless thousands of sufferers for over 30 years—the safe way, because it does not contain depressing drugs. Wincarnis is recommended by over 10,000 Doctors, because it possesses a four-fold power in producing new health. It is a Tonic, a Restorative, a Blood-maker, and a Nerve Food—all in one. Therefore it promotes new strength, new blood, new nerve force and new vitality.

This life-giving Wincarnis is the one thing you need when you are Weak, Anæmic, Nervous and Run-down. Because Wincarnis quickly brings back your old-time vigor—gives a sparkle to your eyes—and coaxes the roses back to your cheeks. You look well—feel well—eat well—sleep well—and can revel in the new health and new life Wincarnis creates. But, remember, that only Wincarnis can give you this new and vigorous health. Imitations only waste your money and disappoint you.

Remember that Wincarnis is not a new untried preparation. Wincarnis has an unrivalled reputation of over 30 years' standing. Begin to get well now. Buy a bottle to-day. Imported only in two sizes—90c. and $1.50 per bottle.

CARD OF THANKS

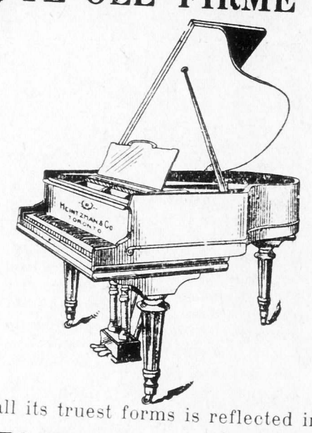
The Regent and members of the Bastion Chapter Daughters of the Empire, wish to convey their heartiest thanks to the members of the Agricultural Society, for the kindly help given to the committees in charge of the lunches, ice cream, soft drinks, candy, and I.O.D.E. exhibits. They would also like to thank all those who sent in contributions to the above.

The following donations are most gratefully acknowledged by the Bastion Chapter, Daughters of the Empire:

$5 from Mrs. Wilkes (senior).

Rose Bead Chain from Mrs. A. E. Planta.

40 pairs of socks from the Queen Alexandra Lodge.



The making of a dozen packing

Eating for Health and Strength calls for intelligent food selection. It is easy to keep in top-notch vigor of mind and body at low cost if you know Shredded Wheat Biscuit. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat—nothing wasted, nothing thrown away — contains more real body-building nutriment than meat, eggs or potatoes and costs much less. Full of nutriment, tasty and toothsome. Most people like the nutty aroma of the baked wheat, especially when served with hot milk. Delicious with sliced peaches, bananas and other fresh fruits.

Made in Canada.

GERMANY DENIES ANY PEACE MOVE

Berlin, Sept. 1[illegible], via London, Sept. 18.—The German Foreign Office, in a statement given to the Associated Press today, denies stories appearing in Danish and other foreign newspapers to the effect that the government had indirectly communicated its peace terms to Washington or had sought to sound sentiment in the United States.

The Foreign Office further informed the Associated Press that the rumors were promptly discredited on the strength of the peace terms ascribed to Germany and further by the fact that there was no occasion for Germany to address the Washington government in this respect.

The assertion made by Mathias Erzberger, the Clerical leader in the Reichstag, that Germany's note in reply to Pope Benedict's peace proposals already was on its way to Rome, also was denied in official quarters.

The Centre leader informed his electors ot this effect in the course of two meetings which he addressed in Wurtemburg on Sunday.

UNION GOVERNMENT IS NOT IN SIGHT

Winnipeg, Sept. 19.—Premier A. L. Sifton of Alberta, who is in Winnipeg today, said that he did not think much more would be said about national government, at least until after the House at Ottawa had prorogued. He knew of no negotiations in progress at the present time as to the formation of a national government. He intimated that much of the newspaper talk about negotiations was without foundation.

Premier Sifton thinks that if the Borden Government goes to the country as a party government and makes a partisan appeal, there will be an election on strict party lines. If a national government is formed, the character of the election, the Albertan thinks, will depend on who are in the national government.

LLOYDS INQUIRING INTO LOSS OF SHIPS

London, Sept. 18.—The Daily Mail is authority for the statement that Lloyds is preparing an exhaustive inquiry into the loss of vessels posted "missing" which are not included in the weekly Admiralty reports. The Daily Mail says that sometimes half a dozen or more missing vessels are posted a day, adding: "The reason for the increase is not difficult to discover, in view of the 'sink without trace' cipher message of the German Minister to Argentina.

"Many steamships which have been posted this year as missing represented over $250,000 each.

Interesting Exhibition of New Fall Wearing Apparel at Spencer's.

Millinery for Fall and Winter

Stylish simplicity seems to be the keynote in connection with the Fall Millinery styles. Rich velvets, plushes and Velours, also velvet and satin combinations are very popular. Every authentic style will be found here. Principal colors are black, purple, white and combinations of black and chartreuse, black and green, black and purple, also black and gold. To give our customers a stylish hat at a reasonable price has been our chief endeavor. Come and see how well we have succeeded.

Fall Suits and Coats

Well dressed women will have no difficulty in finding here the style and quality of clothing they are in the habit of buying. In Suits for Fall we are showing a fine range of serviceable Tweeds and Serges, very reasonably priced. The Winter Coats are particularly smart. Warm Blanket Cloths and Tweeds, also plushes and Curl Cloths are the fabrics mostly used. Large collars and belts are popular for this season. We ask you to come and see them. You will not be urged to buy.

SUCCESSFUL BRITISH DRIVE EAST YPRES

GERMAN LINES PIERCED TO OVER MILE IN DEPTH

North Country and Australian Troops Captured Hamlet, Zevenkote, Veldhock, and Polygon Wood—Two Thousand Germans Taken Prisoners and Heavy Casualties Inflicted Upon the Enemy—Important Positions Captured.

London, Sept. 20.—Another concentrated effort by the British to break down the German defenses to the east of Ypres is under way. A British drive along a front of eight miles between the Ypres-Comines and the Ypres-Staden railway was started at dawn Thursday morning. At nightfall the British Commander reported the occupation of important positions, the capture of more than two thousand prisoners, and infliction of heavy casualties on the Germans.

The Associated Press staff correspondent at the front declares that if the British maintain the positions which they have advanced they will have accomplished one of the most remarkable and most important accomplishments in recent months.

Two Thousand Prisoners.

London, Sept. 20.—(Official) — Two thousand prisoners were captured by the British in the Flanders drive.

London, Sept. 20.—The British forces on the Belgian front attacked the German positions this morning on a wide front east of Ypres.. Satisfactory progress is being made. Sir Douglas Haig reports, and some valuable positions are already captured.

The British success was particularly marked in the crucial sector between the Ypres-Roulers railway and Hollebeke, and the German infantry and artillery are making desperate efforts to retain this ground. There is no word yet of the number of prisoners taken or the losses inflicted on the enemy.

The British barrage swept the country like a broom.

Captured All Objectives.

London, Sept. 20.—Field Marshal Haig's official report says that the North Country and Australian battalions penetrated the German positions in the center to a depth of over a mile and captured the whole of their objectives. These included Hamlet, Veldhock, and the western portion of Polygen Wood. Further north Zevenkote was captured and also a few guns.

Berlin, via London, Sept. 20.—A report from headquarters this evening on the British attack says:

"The battle in Flanders is still in full swing on the British front from Langemarck to Hollebeke. In the foremost part of our defensive zone bitter and fluctuating fighting has been taking place since morning."

London, Sept. 20—The text of the report of Field Marshal Haig tonight says:

"Our attack this morning east of Ypres was made on a front of about eight miles between the Ypres-Comines railway and the Ypres-Staden railway.

"Great success attended our troops and positions of considerable military importance have been won. Heavy casualties were inflicted on the enemy."

RENEWS SEARCH FOR OWENS

Mrs. Georgia Bage Says Brother Has Been Missing 27 Years.

Mrs. Georgia Bage, 2207 North Illinois Street has started a new search for her brother, Richard T. Owens, who disappeared twenty-seven years ago. Their mother, Mrs Myron Ransom, of Conneautville, Pa. has urged that the search be renewed Owens was a boy when he disappeared. He was living with a family named Cole, at Grand Haven, Mich. Owens returned to Grand Haven in 1913, for a visit, but Mrs. Bage says he did not hear of his return until a year later, and was unable to trace him. She said she heard that he had been in the mining industry in Alaska and elsewhere and that he was a civil engineer. Mrs. Bage has sent appeals to a number of cities asking the authorities and newspapers to assist in finding her brother.

Francis, the American Ambassador, tonight presented to the Russian Provincial Government the telegram addressed by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, to Premier Kerensky, pledging the support of American Labor in the war urging the aid of Russian democracy.

POPE AWAITS REPLY

Rome Sept. 20.—Cardinal Gasparri, the Papal Secretary of State, this evening declared to the Associated Press that the reply of the Central Poers to Pope Benedict's peace proposals had not yet been received at the Vatican.

Cardinal Gasparri believes that the reply of the Central Powers was held up when Kaiser Wilhelm went to Riga, and that it is not likely that it will reach the Vatican until next week.

THOMAS RUSSELL DIED IN MICHEL

Heart Failure Carries off Former Well Known Resident of Nanaimo

Stricken with heart failure while at work at Michel on Wednesday morning, Thomas Russell, mine manager for the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Co., and one of the best-known mining men in British Columbia, died suddenly. A native of Chapelhall, Lanarkshire, Scotland, the deceased came to British Columbia about twenty-eight years ago to take charge of the Dunsmuir Collieries on Vancouver Island, later holding the position of mine manager for the Vancouver Coal Mining & Land Co., Ltd., and for several years acting as the first manager of the Western Fuel Co., at Nanaimo.

The late Mr. Russell had a lifelong experience in colliery operations and management, having graduated from the Gartsherrie school at Coatbridge, Scotland, and was throughout his life held in high esteem by all with whom he came in contact.

He is survived by a widow, three daughters, residing in Vancouver, and one son, who is now in training at Shorncliffe, England, one brother and five sisters being also left to mourn his loss.

Last Friday evening a surprise party was tendered Mrs. W. Rolston, of Wellington, by the ladies of the Red Cross Club, and other friends. Mrs. Rolston, who is leaving for Vancouver was for nearly three years the secretary of the Red Cross and in token of appreciation for her valuable services, she was presented with a purse of money by the President, Mrs. Loudon. A very delightful evening was spent in singing, games, and dancing.

MARRIED IN ENGLAND

Montreal, Sept. 20.—A special cable to The Gazette from London says:

"The marriage of Lieut. G. S. S. Playfair, Canadian Infantry, to Frances, daughter of the late W. R. Green, of Gravesend, and of James A. Robertson, Calgary, to Agnes W. O. Scott, daughter of the late G. J. Scott, Aberdeen, were solemnized today."

FIRST WIN-THE-WAR CANDIDATE.

John G. Kerr, life-long Liberal worker, and Mayor of Chatham, who was nominated at a bi-partisan convention at Win-the-War Candidate for Kent, Ontario, to oppose the Liberal sitting member, Archie B. McCoig, also re-nominated for the Commons.

ANOTHER GERMAN PEACE MOVE DUE

London Press Sees Attempt of Germans to Create an Atmosphere for Another Peace Move.

London, Sept. 20.—The attempt by the German press and officials to create an atmosphere for what is believed here to be another peace manoeuvre again is given prominence in the newspapers which are of the usual opinion that there can be no peace until Prussian militarism has been crushed.

The Daily Mail under the heading "The Hun Peace Plot," declares:

"The true friends of peace are the Allied armies of the Governments which are striving to remove the cause of all this misery, unrest and bloodshed by destroying Germany's military autocracy."

The Times says:

"While the well-disciplined German press affects to maintain an agitated discussion as to whether the forthcoming reply to the Papal peace note does or does not contain an offer to evacuate Belgium upon terms which would leave her in the perpetual servitude of her oppressors the answer of the Allies to any proposals of the kind reaches Germany at the same time from both sides of the Atlantic. France is bleeding from three years of the frightful struggle against a foe who thought to crush her by a treacherous onslaught. The United States is but entering the fray for the defence of right and liberty, but from both comes the same clear refusal to listen to any insidious projects of Wilhelmstrasse for peace on terms of the status quo. Status quo began the war; we will not revive it."

The Express asserts that the U-boat figures issued last night are the best commentary on Germany's desire for peace adding that they are the worst on record for Germany, and concluding: "No peace on whatever terms could have any value unless those terms insured the impossibility of another German attempt to wreck the world."

"Great Britain," said the Chronicle, "which strove the hardest to preserve peace, entered the war for certain definite ends, and primarily to fulfill its obligations of honor. If those aims are not achieved, the blood shed so lavishly for the fulfillment which has been split will have been shed in vain. God forbid that we should be guilty of any such recreancy to our heroic dead."

The Post declares that it is only by means of combined economic action of the Allies that Germany can be taught to what disabilities prolongation of the war would subject her.

THIRTY-FOUR KILLED IN GERMAN PLANT

London, Sept. 20.— Thirty-four persons were killed and 24 injured as the result of an explosion in a munitions factory at Cologne, according to a telegram from Amsterdam to the Central News.

HEAVY FIGHTING ON ALL FRONTS

French Checked German Attack Southeast of Cerny—Russians Are Resisting Teuton Attacks on the Riga Front—Letts Defeated the Teutons.

London, Sept. 20.—On the French front no important fighting is reported, except a German attack to the southwest of Cerny, which was checked by the French fire before the enemy reached the French lines and French attacks near Hill 344, and east of Samogneux which broke down without success, according to the Berlin War Office.

The Russians are determinedly resisting attacks on the Teutonic Allies on the Riga front. After strong infantry attacks of Germans in the region east of Lemberg, Lett troops in a counter attack, drove the enemy back with heavy losses.

In the Ocna region on the Roumanian front the Germans forced the Roumanians to abandon positions they had previously taken from the Teutons.

In the Caucasus region battles between the Russians and the Kurds continue in a freezing temperature, with snow four feet deep in places.

SENATE PASSES FRANCHISE BILL

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—The War Times Election Act was given a third reading in the Senate before midnight tonight, following another conferences between Conservative and Liberal senators which resulted in an amendment being drafted relative to the Nova Scotia election lists which was adopted when the House met.

The new amendment provides that when the lists have been made up by enumerators who will take the provincial lists as a basis they will be subjected to revision by county court judges. Although this amendment was adopted in the Senate it was stated at a late hour by Liberal members of the Commons from Nova Scotia that it was not acceptable, that they had agreed to no compromise, and that they would be opposed to the House of Commons concurring in the Senate amendment. They asserted that they objected to any revision of the provincial lists by enumerators, and said that t telegram had been received from Premier Murray, of Nova Scotia, objecting to such revision.

Should the Opposition in the Commons persist in their objection to the bill as it now stands prorogation may still be delayed.

When the Senate resumed after the evening conference Sir Jomes Lougheed stated that an agreement had been reached.

In view of the understanding declared to have been reached, and on the suggestion of Sir James, Senator Boique and Senator Ross withdrew their amendments.

Senator Bostock moved an adjournment to strike out the disfranchisement clause of the bill.

This was declared lost on division.

Senator Choquette, seconded by Senator Cloran, later moved the six months hoist, which was also declared lost, and the bill was given third reading.

CONTINUE DEBATE ON CONSCRIPTION

Trades and Labor Congress Debates Proposal Submitted by Calgary Delegate for the Conscription of Wealth as Well as Men.

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—When the session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada opened here this forenoon the debate on the conscription resolutions was resumed. Delegate Farmillo, of Edmonton, proposed the following amendment to the executive committee's report, which was seconded by Delegate Ross, M. P. P., Calgary:

"That all words after 'existence' in the 13th line of the section of the executive council's report be deleted and the following substituted. 'This Congress cannot stultify itself to the degree of either withdrawing or contradicting ths year its firm and carefully thought-out views on the question of conscription as embodied in the resolutions of 1915 and 1916; neither has the government by its actions, justified us in recommending a willing submission to the Military Service Act, particularly in view of the fact that up to the present they have not regarded the conscription of wealth as being equally important as the conscription of man power in the successful prosecution of the war. We also would point out that no guarantee has been given that the enforcement of manpower will not be used for the conscription of men for industrial purposes. With such fatal omissions this Congress regrets that it can not unreservedly recommend to the wage workers of the Dominion of Canada that the law be observed, but on the other hand would recommend that every effort be made to force the complete conscription of wealth as an essential part of conscription for war purposes, and that pending the conscription of wealth, no support be given to the principle of conscripting men for war purposes."

WILSON PARDONS CO. OFFICIALS

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 20.—President Wilson pardoned James B. Smith and Frederick Mills, former Vice-President, and Dock Superintendent, respectively, of the Western Fuel Company, who are serving sentences of 18 months each in San Quentin penitentiary, for defrauding the government, according to a telegram from United States Senator James D. Phelan, to John S. Irby, surveyor of the port here, Irby announced today.

Rome, Sept. 19.—The Italian shipping losses on all seas for the week ended September 16, an official announcement says were one steamship under 1,500 tons and one small sailing vessel.

MOMENTOUS SESSION OF PARLIAMENT IS ENDED

Dominion Parliament Was Prorogued Yesterday Afternoon, After the Enactment of Legislation Which Will Have a Far Reaching Effect on the Affairs of Canada—Speech From the Throne Refers to Conscription and Other War Measures.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 20.—Parliamen prorogued, shortly before six o'clock when some final questions being put as to the administration of the Franchise Bill, the black rod summoned the members of the House to the Senate and in a few moments the session was at an end.

Just previous to prorogation, R. B. Bennett informed the House that the Department of National Service had ceased to exist and sketched the work accomplished in regard to registration.

The speech from the throne in closing the House was as follows.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate Gentlemen of the House of Commons.

Important measures for the effective prosecution of the war have engaged your close attention during the long session and I am now happy to release you from further attendance. Since your labore began the high and worthy character of our cause has been confirmed by two significant events. Our Allies, the Russian people are engaged under trying circumstances in establishing institutions which shall fully conform to their ideals of liberty and order. In the midest of inevitable difficulties which command our sympathy they have affirmed their determination to remain faithfully to the alliance. The United States of America, refusing to tolerate the arrogance and menace of Prussian militarism have made common cause with the allies and are vigorously co-operating in the struggle for freedom and humanity. Already the Canadian people have given many expressions of warm welcome with which they greet their great kindred neighbor as a comrade. The meeting of the Imperial War Cabinet and the Imperial War Conferance in the early yart of the year very materially facilitated a thorough cooperation of Dominion both in the prosecution of war and in preparation for the future. They conststute also an important step in the development of constitutional relationships between the nations of the British commonwealth. Notwithstanding the increasing military strength of the Allied nations the stubborn resistance of the enemy in all important theatres of the war demonstrates the need of throwing our utmost effort into the struggle and thus hastening the day of abiding peace. In the western theatre the Canadian Army Corps, by its capture of the coveted Vimy Ridge and by its recent operations at Lens has sustained its distinguished record and contributed in important measures to the ascendancy in which the Allies gained that theatre. In order to secure reinforcements essential for the support of our forces further steps have become necessary and the authority you granted for compulsory military enlistment on a selective basis will meet the urgent need for reinforcements. At the same time it will provide means for conserving more effectively essential agricultural and industrial activities of the Dominion. You have recognized your duty in providing the best possible safeguard for enabling those engaged in the defense of their country to have their voice in the decision of national questions which vitally affect them. For this purpose as well as to give due recognition to service and sacrifice in affairs of the state necessary adjustments which you have made in legislation revelent to these matters will doubtless prove effective.

The legislation you have passed with the purpose of assisting returned soldiers to settle on land will not only aid materially in restoring these gallant men to their rightful status in the community but should greatly increase the agricultural production of the country.

The appointment of a Food Controller, invested with important powers and duties is founded upon the impressive need of the utmost economy and saving in order that our national strength may continue unimpaired. In order that our industries may be equipped to cope with the intricate problems of the future, provision has been wisely made for promoting scientific and industrial research. Important progress has been made in solving our difficult problems of railway transportation and means have been provided where by a great railway system shall become the property of the people of Canada and be added to their national undertakings.

In the name of His Majesty I thank you for the liberal provision you have made for the needs of the public service and for the prosecution of the war. Although the stress of the war becomes increasingly severe, the people of Canada, resolute in the supreme purpose of achieving a thorough victory and abiding peace, have not faltered and I am confident whatever further effects are necessary will be unhesitatingly put forth in the stern determination that the vast sacrifices already made shall not be in vain.

OUT FOR TERMS TO END CONFLICT

Under the Leadership of Premier, Which Favors Peace Without Annexations.

Copenhagen, Sept. 20.—The new Hungarian government paper Deilyi Hirlap, says that a new Hungarian party composed of adherents of Count Apponyi, Count Adrassy and M. Vassonyi has been formed under the leadership of Dr. Alexander Wekerle, the Hungarian Premier. The party, it is understood, will favor peace without annexations.

Copenhagen, Sept. 20.—Count Michael Karolyi, president of the Hungarian Independence Party, according to a Budapest dispatch, declared at a meeting yesterday that he would agitate for an early peace between the warring countries. He said he had been invited to participate in a peace conference at Berne on October 15, and would leave for Switzerland notwithstanding the violent attacks that probably would be directed against him.

INVESTIGATING MINES

Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, is continuing the inspection of mines in the Cumberland district, and as a result of his investigations it is indicated that the facilities for rescue operations may be considerably improved.

[illegible] the Minister spent all day in visiting Nos. 4, 5 and 7 mines at Cumberland, operated by the Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir)' Ltd. He was accompanied by Chief Inspector of Mines George Wilkinson. Today he will explore the underground workings of No. 8 mine of the same company; also the Puntledge River Power Plant and the Draeger rescue station. Mr. Sloan plans to have more modern facilities installed at the Draeger depot so that it will be equipped to deal with any emergency.

that you get the maximum return for your money when you buy Zam-Buk, because Zam-Buk is all medicine—not 5% medicine and 95% animal fat as ordinary ointments are.

The herbal extracts and vegetable oils of which Zam-Buk is composed are so wonderfully blended and refined that Zam-Buk possesses unusual power of penetration. Instead of remaining on the surface skin, as ordinary ointments do (owing to the amount of coarse animal fat they contain), Zam-Buk literally soaks through until it reaches the "root" of the disease, which is always in the underlying tissues. Then it cures from the "root" up, which is the only thorough and permanent way of curing skin troubles, and is why Zam-Buk succeeds when other treatments fail.

Zam-Buk is best for eczema, pimples, blotches, psoriasis, chronic sores, blood-poisoning, teething rash, boils, piles, cuts, burns and scalds. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

R. R. HINDMARCH

THE LATEST THRUST

The much vaunted Hindenburg line in the west has again been shattered and the latest advices up to the time of going to press records the capture of two thousand enemy combatants by Haig's attacking forces. The scene of the latest British drive was on a wide front east of Ypres where Haig reports satisfactory progress is being made and valuable positions already captured. The full force of the British attack was centred in the cruicial sector between the Ypres-Roulers railway and Hollebeke and official reports state the Germans are making desperate efforts to check the British drive here for should their lines be penetrated to any appreciable depth the result might be an irreparable German disaster.

Various reports of the strength of the armies on the west front indicate that the ratio of man power of the opposing forces is as five to three, with the odds in favor of the Allies. Germany, according to reliable sources of information, has approximately 5,500,000 men under arms, with about 500,000 of these doing guard duty or engaged in activities away from the zones of fighting. Of the total army strength, 3,500,000 men are facing the allied armies in Northern France and Belgium. On the allied side, at the front, are approximately 3,000,000 soldiers of France and aoout 2,500,000 British troops. Any special activities on the Roumanian or Russian front generally divert at least 500,000 Germans from the west to the east front. The ratio of man strength, therefore, is practically as five to three, and at this ratio the allies are able to make but slow headway, fighting against the strongly prepared positions of the kaiser's armies.

It is the general belief of French and British military experts that, should Russian resistance collapse completely, Germany would be able to concentrate no more troops on the western front than would be sufficient to create a stalemate. The war in the west, therefore, in any aspect of possible alignment, is at a stage where neither adversary in the field is likely to secure a decision.

Into this equation of war the American army is expected to bring the decisive punch. By late spring of next year the United States should have 1,000,000 soldiers back of the battle lines in France and Belgium, ready to exert their aggressive strength against the common enemy. It would raise the ratio of man power to about six to three, or two to one, and should leave no reasonable encouragement for the kaiser to prevail, and, indeed, Berlin itself should be in danger.

The German military experts doubtless see the situation clearly. They have glimpsed the possibilities for some months, and, now that the U-boats are losing their greatest destructive power, doubtless the view is much clearer. Germany wants peace while she is yet occupying much conquered territory, and before the weight of America is thrown into the scales. President Wilson's reply to Pope Benedict's overtures has not disposed of the peace question. There is reason to believe that German parliamentary leaders are to meet the president's suggestion as to dealing for peace with the German people, or at least they are to make a show of it. There will be much more of peace talk.

DISFRANCHISED HUNS

Supporters of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the senate are trotting out the stock arguments against the disfranchisement of enemy voters in wartime. They contend that the German and Austrian of recent naturalization should be permitted to say whether Canada shall continue to wage vigorous warfare against Germany and Austria. Senator Beique argues that "the good faith of the crown is seriously imperiled," charging that the government is breaking the naturalization contract. Issuance of naturalization papers does not involve a contract by the government to grant the franchise, but even supposing that it did, who is it that has broken the contract? It is the enemy resident who has sworn complete allegiance to Canada and has violated that oath by retaining his sympathies for Germany and Austria. A man cannot be for Germany and for Canada.

Senator Watson thinks the disfranchisement of enemy voters will make it difficult for Canada to get immigrants after the war. If Germans, Austrians, Turks and Bulgarians feel after the war that they do not care to come to Canada it seems that the people of this country will not lose very much sleep over it. In any event, Canada is at war. It would be better to lose a million Teuton immigrants after the war, supposing the country wanted them, than for Canada to slacken its efforts in the war. It would have too many Teuton immigrants each wearing a spiked helmet, if the Allies were beaten in Europe.

AUSTRIA'S GRAND FLEET SAFELY BOTTLED UP

From its Washington headquarters the National Geographic Society issues the following war geography bulletin on Pola, Austria's chief naval base, where that country's fleet it now reported to be "bottled up" by the Allied fleets of Great Britain and Italy.

"In 1900 the population of Pola was about what it had been eighteen centuries before the rule of Roman emperors. During the succeeding ten years, however, it grew from 45,000 to 70,000.

"Situated near the extremity of the Istrian Peninsula, eighty-five miles by rail southwest of Trieste, Pola's sole important activity before the war was connected with the repairing, provisioning and harboring of the Austrian naval forces. The town is virtually without industrial establishments or manufactures.

"The practically land-locked harbor is divided, the upper or northern half being the commercial roadstead and the lower half (below the chain bridge which connects Scoglio Olivi, or Oliver Island, with the mainland) being the Porto Militare, with the extensive marine arsenal on the southeastern shore.

"The city itself clusters around a castle-crowned hill which was once the site of the Roman capitol. The castle is a memento of the days of Venetian prowess.

"Before the war Pola was annually visited by many American and English tourists, not on account of its strongly fortified harbor, but because of the interesting and well-preserved monuments which have survived since the days of Roman occupation.

"Its settlement attributed to the Colchians who pursued Jason and his argonauts, Pola's splendid harbor became a Roman possession in 178 B.C., but Julius Caesar destroyed it for having espoused the cause of Pompey. Some years later it was rebuilt by the Emperor Augustus at the instance, according to Pliny, of his beloved daughter Julia. Whether this be true or not, it is certain that thereafter it was known as Colonia Pietas Julia, and became an important war-harbor.

"The most impressive ruin in Pola is the vast amphitheatre, erected at the beginning of the Christian era in honor of the Emperors Septimius Severus and Caracalla. This is believed to be the only Roman amphitheatre whose outer walls have withstood the ravages of time.

"The temple of Augustus, erected in 19 B.C., is another monument of antiquity, which is remarkablby well preserved.

"About the middle of the twelfth centuryy Pola became a Venetian city. It passed to Austria at the end of the Napoleonic wars, however, and its modern growth dates from 1848, when it was selected as an Austrian naval base.

"Pola lies almost due east of Venice, a distance of seventy-five miles across the Adriatic."

FULL JUDGMENT IN LOCAL DIVORCE CASE

Mr. V. B. Harrison, counsel for the applicant in the divorce suit of Place vs. Place, is in receipt of the judgment given by Justice Gregory, as follows:

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Judgment of The Honourable Justice Gregory, Place vs. Place.

The respondent's answer to the petition herein consists solely in a denial of the allegations in the petition, but at the trial he was unable to offer any trustworthy evidence in support of the same, and his counsel contented himself with urging that there could be no decree for divorce as no cruelty had been proved. It is quite true that there has been no proof of physical violence resulting in injury to the petitioner's body, but there is ample evidence of cruelty in the sense in which it must be proved. It is only necessary to show acts which cause injury or danger to life, limb, or health, bodily or mental, [illegible] able apprehension of it. This I think has been proved to the fullest extent. It is difficult to speak in moderate language of the respondent's treatment to his wife—the woman he solemnly promised to protect, love and cherish.

This man was a member of the Provincial Legislature and married the petitioner in October 1915, and after leaving her in Victoria for a short time, took her to a small back room in the Gibson Block, Nanaimo, a place inhabited almost exclusively by men. There was scarcely any furniture in the room, and only one chair, which, it is needless to say, he occupied himself. Thier daily supply of milk was one half pint, which he would frequently drink, saying hot water was good enough for petitioner. He absolutely neglected to supply food, and had it not been for petitioner's parents and friends, she would frequently have gone hungry, although in her condition it was essential that she should have nourishing food. In this condition she was compelled to use the public toilet, and there were no other woman on that floor. He studiously ignored his wife in every way, and refused to announce their marriage, addressed letters to her in her maiden name and only appeared twice with her in public, and then it was accidental and only for the shortest possible time. On the 15th of June, 1916, he left her, and took another woman to live with him on an island near Nanaimo, and when his wife went there to see him, and asked what he was going to do about his wife and child (who was born in the February previous) he replied "Oh! I had not considered that at all—I might be away tomorrow." This is only the merest outline of the inhuman way in which he neglected his wife, but in all conscience it is enough to satisfy the law. The poor woman, a hetlthy, strong girl before her marriage (as Mrs. Hardy testifies) became, as doctor says, a nervous wreck. Such poverty, the same lady says, made her sick . Surely the wives of our legislators are entitled to something more than this.

There is not the slightest doubt in my mind that the petitioner is entitled to a decree, with custody of the child, and in all the circumstances it should be a decree nisi.

As to the question of alimony, that will have to be dealt with later, as mentioned on the argument.

There will be a decree absolute, with custody of the child and costs.

TREMBLAY CONSENTS TO GIVE EVIDENCE

Montreal, Sept. 20.—Joseph Tremblay, who was committed to jail last week by Judge Bel C,J. because he refused to answer certain questions put to him by the Crown Counsel in the case of Elie Lalumiere, at whose hearing on a charge of stealing dynamite. Tremblay was called as a witness, intimated to the judge today that, now that Monette is in custody, he may answer questions asked him in court.

The hearing was postponed till tomorrow because of the absence of Crown Counsel Pellissier. The judge ruled that Tremblay's confession, which was published a few days ago, should be admitted as part of the court record.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years renewal for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of section, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights only, rescinded by such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights are not being operated Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

BATTLES RAGING ON ALL FRONTS

Opposing Armies Engaged in All Theatres of War With Most Activity Being Displayed on the Western Front.

London, Sept. 21.—While all Germany is discussing peace the opposing armies still are busy from the North Sea to Switzerland in the west, from the Baltic to the Black Sea in the east, in Macedonia, and in the Austro-Italian mountains to the Adriatic. In Flanders, however, activity is most intense. The British are holding tight to the new positions taken from the Germans on Thursday. Berlin officially admits that the British effort was successful, and that the Germans were forced to evacuate some of their defences in the vital Ypres salient, but it attempts to minimize the importance of the advance. The British losses in the assault are reported to have been light.

On the southern end of the western front the German Crown Prince has suffered severe losses in an unsuccessful attack on Monte Haute in the Champagne. Other attacks by the Germans on the Aisne front and near Verdun were repulsed by the French.

There has been marked fighting activity on the eastern front. Gen. Alexieff, chief of staff to Premier Kerensky, Commander in Chief of the Russian armies, has resigned and differences betweene the two men over matters appertaining to the Korniloff revolt, are given as the reasons.

The Austrians and Italians apparently are resting on the Carso front. In Trentino, however, the two armies have been more active. In an attack at Cima Sief in the Delomite Alps, the Italians gained the enemy defences. The impossibility of securing shelter, however, forced

The Argentine Chamber of Deputies has postponed until Saturday action in the matter of the Republic's relations with Germany. The Foreign Ministry has received new information which probably will compel Argentine to take drastic and rapid measures, including the possibility of a declaration of war against Germany.

Cpl. C. H. Atcherley, cavalry, "pushed through our barrage and destroyed the enemy's wire, enabling rapid passage of our main troops.

Sgt. R. P. Barr, "held in check superior numbers till artillery assistance was secured."

Cpl. J. Crouch, cavalry, "attacked and silenced a machine gun, killed six and captured 22, drove the remainder into our barrage and then reorganized leaderless troops, took command and bombed 16 dugouts."

Cpl. C. R. Keene, cavalry, "led a torpedo party, clearing the way through two lines of wire.

Sgt. Z. C. Kirby "repeatedly led his company against machine gun fire and took command when the platoon leader became a casualty."

Sgt. W. McCandlish "surrounded and put a machine gun out of action leading bombers around the enemy flank."

Sgt.-Maj. McCorquodale "was first through the wire and bombed four dugouts himself. He assisted in evacuating wounded, and was, with the commander, last to leave the enemy's position."

Sgt. A. R. Macneill, "undertook a daylight patrol under heavy machine gun fire, after being on continuous duty 36 hours."

Cpl. C. D. Eicol, "his Lewis gun becoming temporarily disabled, he maintained his position by rifle fire"

Sgt. F. Wigstone "regardless of danger, led his platoon and rallied them after being considerably shaken by a mine explosion, bayonetting the enemy who fired the mine."

SEDITIOUS MANIFESTO CIRCULATED IN GERMANY

Amsterdam, Sept. 21.—According to the Socialist newspaper Vorwaerts of Berlin, the following manifesto has been circulated throughout Germany:

"Citizens: The fatherland is in peril. It is in worse peril than three years ago. Today the enemy is in our midst and he is at work."

The newspaper adds: "It is not enough that the whole world is fighting us. The men who are responsible for this manifesto being issued also want to war against their own people. The civilian truce is over. Let us have a civilian war. Very well, let them have it. But the Reichstag must see to it that nothing shall interfere with the people's defence against the civil war agitators."

GERMANS ADMIT BRITISH SUCCESS

Berlin, Sept. 21—British troops at Paschendaele and Gheluvelt, on the Belgian front, at times yesterday pressed forward for a distance of more than two-thirds of a mile, says a statement issued to-day by the German general staff. West of Paschendaele the British were pres[illegible] North of the Menin-Ypres road a portion of the terrain remained in the hands of the British.

The statement also says that after fluctuating fighting between Langemarck and Hollebeke, the British were able to advance for a depth of two-thirds of a mile.

General Ludendorff reports that in all the other sectors the British, sustaining heavy losses, were thrown back into the crater field. All the villages in the fighting zone are declared to be in German possession. The German troops, it is added, successfully withstood the first day of the third battle of Flanders.

So far this morning, the statement says, the British have not resumed the battle.

HAIG'S MEN HOLD ALL THEIR GAINS

Latest Reports from British Army in France Confirms all Reports of Early Successes Against Teutons.

London, Sept. 21.—Today found the British in Flanders holding all the valuable ground they gained in their attack of yesterday when they surged forward on an eight-mile front on both sides of the Ypres-Menin road, penetrating the German lines more than a mile in places and capturing prisoners in excess of two thousand.

All the reports emphasize the completeness of the success the British troops achieved. They hold Veldhoek, Zevenkote and numerous strategically important farms and wooded tracts which had been heavily fortified by the Germans, but which were captured in the resistless British sweep.

The Germans began to counter attack late yesterday but every thrust was effectively dealt with by the British guns, which wiped out the advancing lines of German infantry. The heavy casualties sustained in these fruitless attacks evidently impelled the German command to order their cessation, for there were no repetitions of them last night, and the British were able to consolidate their newly-won ground without disturbance.

EMPEROR CHARLES LONGS FOR PEACE

Expresses the Hope the Enemies of the Central Powers Will Enter Into Peace Negotiations Along Lines Suggested by the Pope.

Amsterdam, Sept. 21.—The reply of Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary to the Pope's peace note, says a dispatch from Vienna, was handed to Monsignor T. Valfre di Bonzo, Papal nuncio at Vienna on the third.

Peace would come if the belligerents would enter into negotiations in conformity with the Pope's note, says the Emperor, and says he hopes the nations opposing his own will be animated by the same idea. The German government's reply also "cherishes a lively desire" that the Pope's appeal will meet with success.

CROWN PRINCE MEETS DEFEAT

Paris, Sept. 21.—Troops of the German Crown Prince last night attacked the French positions on Mont Haut, in the Champagne region, but according to the War Office, were repulsed with serious losses.

The text of the report follows:

"We easily repulsed enemy surprise attacks north of Vauxaillon, in the sector of Cerny, and on the Verdun front near Bethincourt and La Morville.

"In the Champagne the night was marked by lively artillery activity in the hilly region. A German attack on Mont Haut was repulsed by our fire before the enemy was able to reach our lines. The Germans suffered serious losses.

"Elsewhere the night was calm."

LABOR WILL NOT FIGHT CONSCRIPTION

Dominion Trades and Labor Congress Approves Resolution of Executive Committee by Majority of Thirty.

Ottawa, Sept. 21.—By a majority of 30 the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada last night adopted the amendment of the executive committee, defining the attitude of labor on the question of conscription. The gist of the resolution is to the effect that while labor does not approve of forced military service, it is deemed inadvisable and not in the best interests of the state, to interfere with the enforcement of the measure.

The convention delegates divided on the passage of the amendment, which came at the close of a protracted and stormy debate. The vote was 136 for and 106 against. There was some slight argument after the vote had been taken, but it goes on the records as being the sentiment of the congress in regard to conscription. When President Watters asked all those who were opposed to conscription to stand there were only a scant half dozen delegates who remained in their seats.

The Bruce substitute motion was lost by a vote of 142 against 100. A standing vote was taken on the Arcand and Farmillo amendments. Both of these were defeated by a good majority.

When the afternoon session of the congress opened a telegram was read from the Lithographers' Union of Toronto, calling upon the congress to demand representation on the military tribunals and demanding the conscription of wealth.

The Farmillo-Ross amendment was then made the order of the day and Delegate Arcand, Montreal, took the floor. In his opening remarks he stated emphatically that he was opposed to conscription in any form.

"Borden told us to remember the soldiers in the trenches," he said. "I will—we will—do that. My oldest boy went to the front and is fighting with his regiment. I have nine other boys at home. If they want to go let them go, but do not force them to go. In the interests of the country and the Empire we should stop these criminals from enforcing that law. The matter should be referred to the people and I have sufficient confidence in the citizens of Canada to abide by their decision. We have done our share and just as much as any other country. I am not in favor of a general strike."

PREPARING FOR THE WORLD'S SERIES

Cincinnati, Sept. 21.—The world series between the Giants and the White Sox will open in Chicago on October 6. The second game will also be played in the western city on Sunday, October 7.

The third and fourth games will be played in New York on October 9 and 10, and should the fight for the title then run into six games, the series will run into the following week.

The fifth game will be played in Chicago, October 12. This is Friday. No attempt will be made to jump to New York for a Saturday game, and should a sixth game be necessary, it will not be played until Monday, October 15. Sunday ball is not permitted in New York.

Should a seventh game be necessary the date and place will be decided later. The umpires are Klem and Rigler of the National League, and O'Loughlin and Evans of the American League.

The National Commission announced these details of the series at its meeting here.

Invitations will be extended President Wilson, General Bell, General Barry and General Parker to attend the opening game.

One per cent. of the commission's receipts will be given to the Ball and Bat Fund. If the series is finished in the west, an exhibition game between the two teams will be played at the cantonment at Rockford, Ill. If finished in the east, the game will be played at Mineola, L.I., cantonment.

APPOINTMENT DELAYED

What would appear to indicate that the appointment of the Commissioner, under whose supervision the new Civil Service Act passed at the first session of the Legislature this year will be placed, will not be made for some time, perhaps for some months, is the fact that there has been named by the executive council a committee comprising some members of the present civil service staff and including several of the deputy ministers to carry out a full investigation into the present civil service to co-ordinate the various departments and make recommendations to the executive council as to necessary changes in methods, rearrangement of staffs, etc., the duties of the committee being such as to practically empower it to carry out a work which, according to the terms of the Civil Service Act, were to devolve upon the new Commissioner.

It was the supposition when the Civil Service Act passed this year was under discussion that the Commissioner who would be given practically carte blanche in re-organzng the civil service would soon be appointed, the announcement having been made by the Premier that just as soon as a competent man could be secured an appointment would be made. But the naming of the committee to carry on what will be virtually amount to a reorganization investigation is taken in civil service circles as meaning that re-organization will likely be effected, to a considerable extent at least, before new commissioner takes office.

Comptroller-General A. N. Mouat, is head of the committee and Mr. M. A. Grainger, chief forester, will act as its secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey have received word from their son, Private William Bailey, who was recently wounded in action, stating he is getting along ncely and is convalescing in a London Hospital.

Battle of Menin Road Yields a Large Batch of German Prisoners—Strong Counter Attacks by Enemy Repulsed with Heavy Losses.

London, Sept. 21.—The number of German prisoners taken by the British in yesterday's fighting on the Belgian front now exceeds 3,000 according to a British War Office statement tonight. The British yesterday repulsed several strong counter attacks, inflicting exceptionally heavy losses.

London, Sept. 21.—Field Marshal Haig, in a later report regarding the British offensive on the Belgian front, east of Ypres yesterday, when the British pushed through the German lines for a distance of more than a mile, says that the completeness of the British success is confirmed by detailed accounts of the battle. The War Office, after the receipt of Field Marshal Haig's report today, issued this bulletin:

"More detailed accounts of yesterday's battle confirm the completeness of our success.

"During the evening local attacks delivered by us in the neighborhood of Tower Hamlets and the northeast of Langemarck cleared up a number of strong points, and completed the capture of our objectives in these localities.

"It is now estimated that in the many counter attacks delivered by considerable forces of the enemy during yesterday afternoon and evening his casualties were unusually great. The clear light of the latter part of the day enabled our troops to obtain warning of the impending attacks, and in every case the advancing lines of German infantry were destroyed by the concentrated fire from our rifles and machine guns.

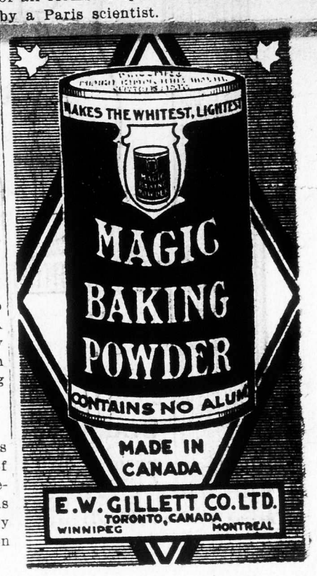
"The obstinacy with which the enemy constantly repeated his attacks only added to his losses without recovering for him any of the valuable ground we had won.

"Exhausted by his previous efforts the enemy made no counter attacks during the night, and our troops were able to consolidate the positions undisturbed.

"Our own losses in the battle were light.

"In the course of the night small hostile attacks were driven off west of Havrincourt and west of Lens."

British Front in France and Belgium, Sept. 21.—(By the Associated Press).—During the night the British forces with comparatively little opposition consolidated and considerably improved the new line which they won in their offensive against the Germans east of Ypres.



Southwest of Gheluvelt, German troops still were holding a position which the British desired and today at 9:30 o'clock Field Marshal Haig began a local attack here.

EVADING CONSCRIPTION

The young men of the country eligible for military service under the 20 to 34 year limit of the military Service Act, who believed that by securing employment in some industry which it had been thought would be exempted have received a rude jolt by an announcement made yesterday from Ottawa that there will be no absolute exemption of any particular industry. The Dominion authorities have considered the experience of Great Britan in regard to preferential occupations where the practise of exempting individual trades by name and as a whole was found to be unsuccessful and led to much abuse by reason of men rushing to the exemption trades to evade military service.

The Dominion authorities some two we ks ago announced that in all probability certain occupations such as farming and mining would be exempted, but now that this order has been abrogated every man, whatever his occupation or calling, will stand on an equal footing, and those who thought they were going to escape the draft by changing their jobs will [illegible] some other excuse to prevent them being drafted into the army.

The idea in Canada, therefore, and one of which no just criticism can be made, will be that of particular consideration of the individual case, and unless a man can show he is indispensable to the occupation in which he is engaged, whatever that occupation may be, he will be called for duty in defence of his country. The fear has been expressed that men will be drafted wholesale into the army without consideration for business conditions. Such fear, it is pointed out by Ottawa, is groundless, the central idea governing the creation of the Exemption Tribunals being that they shall select for military service those who can best be spared in the national service.

CANADIAN RESERVES

W. W. B. McInnes, who has resigned from the county court bench to contest Comox-Atlin as a Liberal nominee, declare "conscription at the present time is not necessary." He found his argument on his assertion that there are "over 100,000 fit Canadian soldiers in England who have never crossed the channel."

That statement is incorrect. The official records prove that on May 14 the total number of Canadian soldiers in Great Britain was 126,251. This included 31,000 men who may be fit for duties behind the lines, but who will not be fit to be sent to the trenches. Most of them have been wounded. Another 18,000 lay in hospital beds. An additional 13,500 were classified as temporarily unfit; 1100 were given as "not classified." A total of 61,000 was given of men who might ultimately be fit for service. But on May 14 only 26,000 were fit to be sent to France and of this 26,000 only 14,000 were infantry The remainng 12,000 were largely men of non-combatant units. Of the men classified as those who may ultimately be fit for service a large number are soldiers who have fought and bled for their country . Because of the lack of reinforcements they are compelled to return to the trenches upon recovery from wounds.

Yet Mr. McInnes says that there are 100,000 Canadian soldiers in England who have never crossed the channel. Where does he get his figures? From his fellow anti-conscriptionists Bourassa? Or Tancrede Marcil?

Casualties have averaged 7,800 a month. In the last two weeks of August the wastage totaled 8275. Recruits for the infantry in that period numbered 800. The wounded who re cover and the few voluntary recruits who are being found to cross the Atlantic cannot for long keep Canada's divisions at strength.

RETREATING IN BELGIUM

From various sources comesthe hint the Germans are preparing to relinquish at least a part of Belgium. The news that the civilian population at Ostend and other Belgian coast cities had been sent inland and that Germany was planning to give back to the Belgians the control of purely local government may be taken as an indication of the purpose of the German high command to shorten its lines of defense and to withdraw from a salient which is likely to prove dangerous.

The announcement that the Germans were stripping Belgium of machinery and of everything likely to be useful to the starving population left behind is additional proof that the kaiser is preparing to withdraw. That course preceded the withdrawal from cities in Northern France when Hindenburg made his famous 'strategic retreat." The part of France relinquished by the Germans was left a desert, and the carefully-thought-out schemes of frightfulness in retreat added greatly to Germany's debt to humanity.

If Germany hopes to attain a better position by restoring to the Belgians the purely local government, or if it hopes to appear in a better light in the peace councils by relinquishing its iron grip on that desolated country, it has made a mistake. The United States will not assent to any peace which leaves Belgium a desert and its people homeless, and in that idea the entente allies are in perfect agreement.

The coast cities of Ostend and Zeebrugge have been valuable to the Germans as submarine bases and any scheme which includes their abandonment is proof that the German U-Boat program has failed. The British navy and the British air fleet have steadily bombarded both harbors, and it is likely that their usefulness has been i[illegible] stroyed. Stripping [illegible] ern France was stripped will not add greatly to the force of the German peace plan of "no indemnities.' The demand for reparation in Belgium is likely to make a stronger appeal than ever to the entente allies.

SWEDEN'S CONTRIBUTION

Since the beginning of the war Sweden has been one of the great assets of the Prussian war machine. Her neutrality has been a sham, her pretense that she has been an unprejudiced non-combatant a mockery declares the New York Herald. Like Greece, Sweden was counted upon by the Kaiser to help the fatherland because members of the German royal family had been shrewdly allied in marriage with the rulers at Athens and Stockholm. Unlike Greece, Sweden was able to carry out its part of the matrimonial-military contract through furnishing to the central empires the war supplies and foodstuffs which the latter so sorely needed.

For almost three years Stockholm has been little less than a second Berlin. Court cirlces and a large group of profiteering exporters have all but raised the German flag, and would have done this if they had not feared the growing spirit of democracy which even in Sweden is making the throne unsteady . How America's refusal to permit Sweden to remain a go-between for Germany has blocked the Stockholm-Berlin war arrangements is told in a special cablegram from Paris. Therein is demonstrated by an American what suicidal folly it was for Sweden to permit herself to be made a cog in the Kaiser's war machine and how the whole country now is reaping a bitter fruit from the seeds which the pro-German element at Stockholm planted in their great zeal to garner the Teutonic gold.

Sweden now calls on high heaven to witness the terrible plight of her famishing people and begs the United States to give her relief. But a government that can call on high heaven to witness her undeviating neutrality, and at the same time be a practical comrade in arms of a power that seeks to enslave the world must not be surprised if honest folk refuse to place any trust either in her calls for help or her promise of future good behavior.

DREDGE MADE RICH HAUL AT HONOLULU

Quicksilver brought up from the depths of Honolulu harbor by a clam shell dredger caused a two-day sensation recently, and for a time reports were in circulation that a quicksilver mine had been located.

Finally someone remembered that previous to the declaration of war against Germany by the United States several German naval vessels had been anchored near where the quicksilver had been brought up by the dredger. Investigation revealed that the quicksilver had been thrown overboard by the Germans when the crews of the ships put the machinery of the vessels out of commission.

The German system of registering pressure and vacums in the engine room is by the use of quicksilver and not by springs, and when the German sailors destroyed the machinery of their vessels a large quantity of the metal was thrown overboard. Quantities of it ran in the bilges of the boats, and in repairing the gunboat Geir at Pearl harbor more than 1,000 pounds of quicksilver was removed from the bilge of the gunboat.

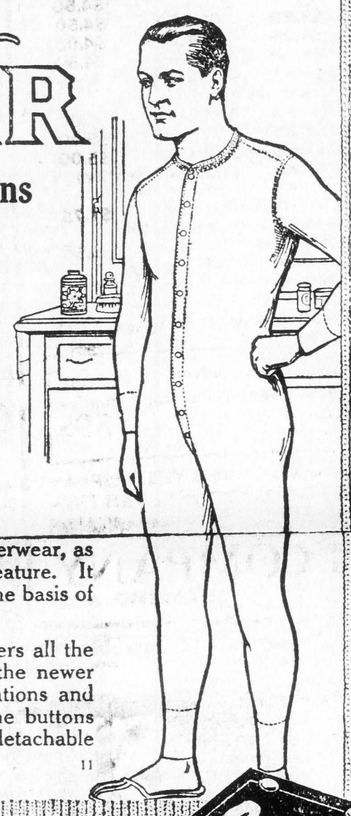
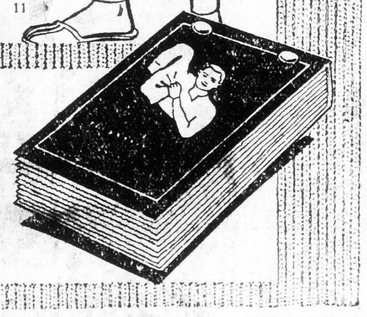
STANFIELD'S



Unshrinkable UNDERWEAR

Made and Worn by Two Generations



Over a quarter of a century ago the late C. E. Stanfield, Pioneer underwear manufacturer of Truro, N.S., discovered a way to prevent woollen underwear from shrinking—by the radical but sensible plan of taking the shrink out of the wool before it went to the knitting machines.

His secret process at once overcame the one fault of woollen underwear, and started a keen and steadily growing demand for the Stanfield's product. On it, by steady development, his two sons, at the head of Stanfield's Limited, have built a thriving business, providing underwear for hundreds of thousands of Canadians.

From the very first, the sterling quality of Stanfield's Underwear, as proved by wear and washing, has been its most prominent feature. It actually DOES NOT SHRINK, "full up" nor mat—and on the basis of length of service it is the best value offered in underwear.

Not content with superior quality, Stanfield's give wearers all the little niceties that make undergarments luxurious. Among the newer improvements are the wonderfully handy Adjustable Combinations and Adjustable Sleepers for growing children. Simply moving the buttons on the waist allows for two to three year's growth, and the detachable lower part is a great convenience.

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freezone applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freezone, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove very hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Clip this out and pin on your wife's dresser.

ARE COPING WITH U-BOAT MENACE

London, Sept. 21—The Press Association hears on high naval authority that the new defensive measures against submarine warfare are meeting with success, justifying the hope of a further reduction in the losses, and says it can be stated on official authority that the results of methods during the past months give cause for growing confidence.

According to an Admiralty statement, lots of ships have been saved by the smokebox system with which the Admiralty, during the past few months, has supplied a majority of the British merchantmen.

ISLAND WARRIORS RETURN DISABLED

Victoria, Sept. 21.—Several Island soldiers returned with yesterday's party of veterans, bound for the Esquimalt, Resthaven or Qualicum Convalescent Hospitals. With them was Lieut.-Col. G. W. Marriott, who is commanding officer of the big discharge depot at Quebec controlled by the Military Hospitals Commission Command.

Lce.-Cpl. J. Crooks, of the 1st. Canadian Pioneers, is a Sydney man. He enlisted over two years ago in North Vancouver with the 6th Field Company Canadian Engineers, and after spending eight monts in France contracted trench fever. He was also wounded slightly in the left cheek. He was met at the boat by his wife and the two made their way back to the Sidney home on the afternoon train.

Refused here by the military authorities on medical grounds, Sapper B. F. Mears, of Victoria, went on to Calgary to enlist, and there was accepted by the 50th. Alberta Battalion. In England he transferred to the 4th Field Company of the Canadian Engineers in the 2nd Division. He was eight months close to the firing line and was wounded in the right leg by gunshot at the Lens fighting, which he describes as "one continuous round of pleasure."

An Esquimalt soldier, Pte. W. Crouch, went away with the 48th. Battalion with reinforcements. He contracted illness after a year in France.

CANADIAN Chalmers

A stock Chalmers car has just made a run of 586.8 miles in 24 hours through Chicago's congested streets

This beats every previous test by 228 miles. The whole trip was made on high gear—the first and second gears having been removed for the test. The engine never stopped. Among the four passengers was an American Automobile Association official, who verifies the record.

The average speed was 24.45 miles per hour. 14 miles to the gallon of gasoline.*

Every Chalmers motor is a costly piece of work. It is accurately balanced. It runs smoothly and has great power reserves. This Chicago test is official proof of the motor's wide flexibility, speed and thorough soundness.

It proves the cooling. Proves economy. Thousands of owners can verify it.

You can test it.

Come in. Take the Chalmers out and drive it. You will be amazed at the action of this sound car.

ARGENTINE ON BRINK OF WAR

South American Republic Is Awaiting Reply From Germany Which, If Not Satisfactory, Will Mean Declaration of War Against Huns.

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 22.—The Argentine government has sent an ultimatum to Germany. In its note, the government demands a formal statement from the German government of its attitude toward the behavior of its minister, Count von Luxburg, and a repetition of the promises made respecting Argentine shipping in connection with the Toro settlement.

The government is anxiously awaiting Berlin's response before deciding on a rupture of relations or a declaration of war and, according to the Foreign Office, if the German government's reported appreciation of von Luxburg is confirmed, Argentine will consider it an insult and declare war immediately. If no confirmation of this report is forthcoming only a rupture of relations is likely.

SPEAKER IS CUTTING DOWN COBB'S LEAD

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Tris Speaker is cutting down Ty Cobb's batting lead in the American League. Unofficial averages released today show only 14 points separating them, as compared with 21 a week ago. Cobb is batting .373, and Speaker, the 1916 champion, .359. The averages include the games of Wednesday.

Bush, Detroit shortstop, continues to draw away from Cobb in scoring. He has 103 runs to his credit, a lead of five over the Georgian. Bobby Veach, of Cleveland, added three more runs to his credit, bringing him up to 48. Chapman, his team mate, is pressing him with 42, and is far in the lead with sacrifices with 65. Pipp, of New York, took the lead in home runs, hitting with nine. Detroit remains out in front in team batting with .258.

In the National League Rousch of Cincinnati, with an average of .342, has an eighteen point lead over Roger Hornsby of St. Louis, who is second. Three members of the New York club, Kauff, Burns and Wilhoit, are among the ten leading batters. Kauff is third with .308. Burns of New York, the leading scorer, brought his total to 99, and Carey, of Pittsburg, increased his mark in base stealing to 45. The record of 12 home runs hung up by Cravath, of Philadelphia, remains out of danger. Deal, of Chicago continues to show the way to the sacrifice hitters with 28. Cincinnati, leading in team hitting, has an average of .265. The averages include games of Wednesday.

GERMAN PERFIDY IS LAID BARE

Washington Has Made Further Disclosures of the Far-Reaching Extent of Hun Plots Against the Laws of a Friendly Nation.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22—Further disclosures of the far-reaching plots in this country prior to the diplomatic break with Germany were made today by the committee on public information.

In bulletin style, the "official expose" committee quotes numerous letters and extracts from letters seized by the Department of Justice in April 1916, in a raid upon the New York office of Wolfe Von Igel. Von Igel, in carrying out his manifold pro-German and anti-American activities, the documents show, was in constant touch with the German Embassy and with Count von Bernstorff, German Ambassador to the United States.

"In the form of letters, telegrams, notations, checks, receipts, registrars, cash books, cipher codes, lists of spies and other memoranda and records," the committee says, "were found indications— in some instances, of the vaguest nature, in others of the most damning conclusiveness—that the German Imperial Government, through its representatives in a then friendly nation was connected with—'violation of the laws of the United States'; 'destruction of lives and property in merchant vessels on the high seas'; 'Irish revolutionary plot against Great Britain'; 'fomenting ill feeling against the United States in Mexico'; 'subordination of American writers and lecturers'; 'financing of propaganda'; 'maintenance of a spy system under the guise of commercial investigation bureau'; 'subsidizing of a bureau for the purpose of stirring up labor troubles in munition plants' and 'bomb industry and other related activities.'"

CHICAGO HAS THE PENNANT CINCHED

By defeating Boston on Friday, Chicago cinched the American League baseball championship. The New York Giants broke even in a double header yesterday with Pittsburg, and has still to win another game before the championship of the National League is theirs. Yesterday's scores were as follows:

Notional League—

Boston 0, St. Louis 0. (14 innngs), called, darkness.

Philadelphia 2-4, Chicago 1-1.

New York 2-0, Pittsburg 1-1.

Brooklyn 2, Cincinnati 4.

American League—

Detroit 4, Washington 0.

Chicago 1, Boston 4.

St. Louis 4-3, New York 2-0.

Cleveland 3-2, Philadelphia 0-1.

HUNTER SHOT SHEEP ON DENMAN ISLAND

A man named Weber, of Cumberland went over to Denman Island for the opening of the hunting season. Failing to secure any game, he deliberately shot one of Abraham Pickles sheep through the shoulder, skinned the animal, and took the carcass home. On Monday while Mr. Swan and a neighbor were walking about the woods their dog brought them a sheep's leg. This aroused their suspicions and they started to investigate with the result that they soon found where the sheep hide was thrown over a cliff. Enquiries soon pointed to Webber, the only man who had been in the vicinity, and a search warrant was secured and the skin given to the constable who found the carcass that fitted it at Webber's home, Webber was taken into custody admitted the shooting.

"THE BARRIER"

From the first showing of "The Barrier," by Rex Beach, from his famous novel, at the Broadway Theatre, in New York, this wonderful picture has proved an amazing success. It captured the big audience at the very start. It held them breathless through scene after scene of swift, stirring action. It called forth waves of applause as the thrilling climaxes were reached. And all because "The Barrier" is a picture greatly produced—the highest development of the photo-drama.

A unique phase of the New York run is that the press has been absolutely unanimous in praise of "The Barrier."

The entire production was made under the direct supervision of Mr. Beach himself, who organized the Rex Beach Pictures Co., to produce in moving pictures his many popular novels. "The Barrier" will be seen at the Dominion Theatre on Monday and Tuesday next.

HOLDING FAST TO ALL GAINS

Three Counter Attacks by Germans Were all Repulsed and the British Still Hold all Ground Gained to the East of Ypres.

London, Sept. 22.—Today's reports show Field Marshal Haig to be holding fast to all the valuable ground east of Ypres he gained in the great attack on Thursday in the face of the most persistent German counter attacks. The Germans heavily increased their losses in their efforts but failed to achieve any compensating gain.

The only point at which the Teutonic thrusts were even temporarily succesful was east of St. Julien and there the Germans were immediately driven out of the small section of ground they had penetrated.

Three counter attacks in all were delivered last evening by German troops. Apparently they had become exhausted by the failure of the first two efforts for the third attack, made east of Langemarck, did not have to be faced by the British infantry, the artillery alone being able to cope with it.

New energy seemed imparted to the Germans during the night, probably by the bringing up of fresh forces, for heavy fighting was reported this morning in the vicinity of Tower Hamlets, where the German resistance has been most desperate.

British Headquarters in France and Belgium, Sept. 22. (By Associated Press)—Fighting still is raging today in the neighborhood of Tower Hamlets, which has been the scene of almost continuous strife since the British offensive to the east of Ypres on the Belgian front began. On the left the British line was reported to be intact, but no news of the situation on the right could be had this morning.

British Front in France and Belgium, Sept. 22.—The battle for the occupation of the slight elevation at Gheluvelt was still continuing this afternoon, the position known as Tower Hamlets being the centre of the struggle. The tide of the conflict here has surged back and forth over a narrow territory almost since the inception of the offensive on Thursday morning.

CANADIAN CASUALTIES

Martindale and Bate have one of the best buys in the city to offer, consisting of a four-roomed house with pantry, bath and basement. The house is almost new and has a good garden. They are offering this splendid property at only $150 down and the balance at $15 a month at only 6 per cent. interest.

PRIVATE JAS. W. PERRY AGAIN WOUNDED IN ACTION

Mr. James Perry, Irwin street was officially notified yesterday that his son Pte. Jas. W. Perry, was admitted to the 22nd Casualty Clearing station on Sept. 22nd, suffering with gunshot wounds in the right arm and leg.

Private Perry has been in the thick of the fray since his enlistment three years ago, and in addition to having been previously wounded by gunshot in the shoulder, has been confined to hospital with appendicitis. His many Nanaimo friends will wish for him a speedy recovery from his most recent wounds.

REPORTS FROM FIGHTING FRONTS

Russians Forced to Retire on the Dvina—Desperate Battle Still Rages in Flanders Where Germans Have Suffered Heavy Losses.

In the midst of Russia's internal trouble has come another German stroke on the Russian northern front, resulting in the capture of a Bridgehead and the town of Jacobstadt on the Dvina, and the enforced retirement of the Russians to the eastern bank of the river.

The Germans gained possession of new territory on a front of approximately 25 miles and six miles in depth enabling them to push their lines to the west bank of the Dvina in this area. They took only 400 prisoners, but gathered in fifty guns from abandoned positions.

Dramatic as this suddenly developed operation was, it seems unlikely to develop anything comparing in importance in its effect upon the general military situation with the desperate battle on the Flanders coast. Loathe to give up a valuable ridge the British wrested from them on Thursday the Germans continue desperate counter attacks. This fighting has been very costly to the Germans, and the London official statement lays stress on their severe losses.

The German command seems particularly reluctant to surrender slight elevation west of Gheluvelt, close to the Ypres-Menin road. Fierce fighting developed there Saturday, engagements centering about the position known as Tower Hamlet. Press despatches said that up to midafternoon there had been no cessation of the struggle the tide of battle flowing back and forth within a narrow area.

Berlin's official statement makes no claim of any ground recovered from the British. It records the fighting of Friday the day following the British initial dash, as a continuation of British attacks along the Langemarck Hollebeke front which were repulsed, and describes Saturday's engagement as fighting of local character which resulted in German successes. Meanwhile, as a compliment to the land fighting in Belgium, British warships of Belgian coast patrol have been bombarding Ostend, where German naval works were shelled with results which are pronounced satisfactory.

The British aviators continued their extensive bombing operations behind the German lines, Ostend being one of the points successfully attacked by aviators as well as the fleet. Complete text of the German and Austrian replies to the Papal peace note shows that neither lays down any definite terms as a basis for peace, and unofficial expression from the British foreign office pointed to the lack of any mention of "Reparation" or "Restoration" in the German reply.

The death occurred yesterday of Jessie McFaydn, eleven month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Connor, Howard Avenue. The funeral will take place from the family residence, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Unsworth officiating. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of Mr. H. McAdie.

BERLIN DENIES OFFER TO REWARD CAPTURES

Amsterdam, Sept 22.—A Berlin dispatch from the Wolff Bureau, the semi-official news agency, received here today, denied as a ridiculous invention the report from Paris that the German emperor had promised a reward of 300 marks and three weeks' leave to the first German who captured an American soldier. The Wolff Bureau message adds that after capturing 3,000,000 prisoners, Germany has no occasion to offer head money for more.

German Attacks on New British Positions Gained Nothing but Rather Increased the Enemy's Losses.

London, Sept. 22.— Troops of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, continued last night to launch heavy counter attacks against the new British lines east of Ypres on the Belgian front. Field Marshal Haig in a report today to the War Office says the Germans used considerable forces in their attacks without gaining any results except to increase their losses heavily.

The text of the official report follows:

"Hostile counter attacks continued yesterday evening on the Ypres front. Considerable German forces were engaged without any result being gained except a heavy increase in the enemy's losses.

"At dusk the enemy launched a powerful counter attack in massed formation on a wide front east of St. Julien. At one point his troops succeeded in penetrating a short distance into our new positions, but they were immediately and completely driven out by our counter attacks.

"At all other points West Lancashire and London troops repulsed the enemy's infantry with great losses. At the end of two hours of fierce fighting our whole line was intact. The attack was delvered with great determination and the enemy's losses were exceedngly severe.

"Early in the night, after the failure of his attacks on the Tower Hamlets ridge during the afternoon the enemy again attacked with strong forces on both sides of the Ypres-Menin road. Here, also, heavy fighting ended in the complete repulse of the enemy.

"During the evening a third hostile counter attack east of Langemarck was crushed by our artillery."

HUNS HURLED IN MASSES AGAINST BRITISH LINE

Hard Fighting Developed at Various Points Along Front of New British Offensive East of Ypres—Enemy is Driven Back at the Point of the Bayonet Leaving Ground Strewn With German Dead and Wounded.

London, Sept. 22.—Heavy fighting was in progress all day south of the Ypres-Menin road, according to [illegible] German counter attacks were repulsed, but in one section the British advanced troops were compelled to retire slightly.

With the British Armies in Belgium and France, Sept. 22.—Hard fighting developed during the night at various points along the front of the new British offensive east of Ypres as a result of several heavy counter attacks by the Germans. But while local battles are still continuing, the enemy was thrown back in most places with severe losses. Generally speaking the situation remained unchanged.

One of the heaviest counter attacks made by the Germans was west of the Gravenstafel ridge, about a mile and a half north of the Ypres-Roulers Railway. The enemy surg[illegible] mass formation and [illegible] ves against the British along a front of nearly a mile. It is reported that the Germans advanced under a white flag, and if they did they were fully rewarded for their treachery, for they were repulsed with very heavy losses.

The assault here was most determined and sanguinary fighting followed. At one point the onrushing enemy penetrated the British line for a distance of a fifth of a mile, but was quickly driven out at the point of the bayonet and the whole attacking force was compelled to retreat, leaving the ground strewn with German dead and wounded.

DAVIES-HOLIDAY ABOUT A DRAW

Duncan, Sept. 22.—(Special to The Herald).—The ten-round boxing contest here tonight between Len Holliday of Vancouver and Al. Davies of Victoria, was a rattling go. Holliday had a shade in the second, fourth and eighth rounds, the rest of the rounds being even. The two judges declared the contest a draw, but Referee Skiuce of Victoria, awarded the bout to Davies. The decision was not popular, even Davies hmself declaring he was not entitled to the verdict, which, in his opinion should have been a draw.

The attendance was in the neighborhood of 500, the preliminaries between the Picca brothers and the Davies youths of Victoria, being interesting exhibitions.

JUDGES FOR ASSIZES

With the exception of Victoria the assignment of judges, who will preside at the forthcoming Fall assizes at various points throughout the Province, has been made. Mr. Justice Clement will sit at the New Westminster and Prince Rupert assizes: Mr. Justice Murphy at Vancouver, and Mr. Justice Macdonald at the Clinton, Kamloops and Vernon sittings. It is probable that Mr. Justice Gregory will take the Victoria assizes which will open on October 2 for criminal cases.

GENERAL LECKIE IS CALLED TO OTTAWA

Having been summoned to attend a military conference at Ottawa in connection with the enforcement of conscription measures, Major-General R. G. E. Leckie, the G. O. C., left yesterday afternoon for the East. He was accompanied by Major G. A. B. Hall, the Assistant Director of Medical Services for this district. Major Hall will probably be given definite instructions as to arrangements for the medical examination of conscripts.

All persons donating to the Refreshment Committee of the Carnival, are kindly requested to leave their donations at Miss Ingham's, corner Albert and Robarts street; Miss Pender, Prideaux street; Mrs. Dendoff, Machleary street, or Mrs. Yates, Townsite, by 11 a.m. on Wednesday and Thursday next. 2t

LADYSMITH SMELTER HAS CLOSED DOWN

A Few Men Will Be Kept to Unload Ore and Look After Improvements to the Plant.

After running for about five weeks the Ladysmith smelter closed down on Thursday, the cause being a shortage of ore, says the Chronicle. During the time it was in operation is was shown that the ore can be treated at this smelter very economically and the experimental run was most satisfactory in every respect. How long the plant will remain closed will of course depend altogether on the ore supply, and no doubt the company will make an effort to get more extensive ore shipments so that when the time comes to resume operations they will be enabled to run without stoppages, but just at the present time it cannot be stated definitely how long the close-down will last nor how much improvement work will be done in the meantime. A few men will be kept on the pay-roll, but the number has not been decided upon. The cre will be cut as low as possible consistent with unloading of ore and what few improvements and extensions will be made in the plant, but it might be said that at the present time no very extensive additions are in contemplation.

DOWARD—GANDERTON

An event of considerable interest took place Friday evening when a party motored to St. Philip's Church Cedar District, where the Rev. H. Pearson united in marriage Mr. Geo. Doward of the C. P. R., Victoria, only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Doward, of Northfield, to Hannah, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Ganderton of Northfield.

The bride, who was given away by Mr. T. S. Kitchin, cousin of the groom was attired in a nigger brown tailored suit with hat and gloves to match and carried a shower bouquet of Chrysanthemums and ferns. the gift of the groom. She was attended by Miss Isabel Doward, sister of the groom, who wore a pretty costume of blue crepe with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white asters. The brdegroom was supported by Mr. G. Ganderton, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony the bridal party motored back to the home of the bride's parents, where a number of intimate friends and relatives awaited them. Here supper was served, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Doward left on yesterday's afternoon train for Victoria, where they will reside, taking with them, in addition to the best wishes of all their many friends, an abundance of useful wedding gifts.

BIJOU THEATRE

Kitty Gordon, she of the beautiful face and figure, and likewise of the gorgeous gowns, will be at the Bijou tomorrow in "The Crucial Test", her latest hit. The leading role fits her perfectly, and the supporting cast, setting and photography are all that could be desired. With this fine attraction is also screened a very amusing comedy, and an interesting travel film.

NOT A CANDIDATE

With reference to an item appearing in yesterday's issue of our morning contemporary which stated that Mr. E. P. Davis, K.C., of Vancouver, had announced his intention of becoming a candidate for the Dominion House at the forthcoming election in the Conservative interest, the Free Press is authorized by Mr. Davis to make unequivocal denial thereof.—Free Press.

The Herald said nothing of the kind. Here is what appeared in the Herald:

"Mr. E. P. Davis, K.C., of Vancouver, who spoke in Nanaimo Wednesday night at the Win the War Meeting, will probably be the Conservative candidate in Burrard (Vancouver), in the pending Dominion election."

Quite a difference, and comment is unnecessary, except to state that Mr. Davis says there is absolutely no truth whatever in the suggestion that he will enter the political field as a Conservative candidate. The statement that Mr. Davis would probably be the Conservative candidate appeared in Vancouver papers, and it appears rather odd to say the least, that Mr. Davis should ask a Nanaimo paper to make a denial.

IN NAME OF KULTUR

By Scott C. Bone

Germany has given a promise not to blow up any more hospital ships.

As immediate proof of Hohenzollern good faith and autocracy's conception of humane warfare, German airplanes have proceeded to drop bombs upon the suffering soldiers by the scores.

A Berlin pledge of today is as worthless as a Berlin pledge of yesterday.

All such things in the philosophy of a mad militarism, become mere scraps of paper.

As well ask Germany to respect missions of mercy and spare the innocents as to expect the inmates of the homicidal ward at Steilacoom to stop their ravings and practice brotherly love.

Is it in reason conceivable that a nation which puts boys of 14 in uniform and sends them forth to sacrifice their lives for the kaiser in death traps; a nation that officially enjoins illegitimacy to recruit its dwindling birthrate; a nation that makes slaves of war prisoners and sets wolf hounds upon them to bite and tear and thus reduce them to abject subjection and servility; a nation that countenances rapine and pillage and the wanton destruction of holy places a nation whose Nero-like ruler would have the bible re-written and made to conform to German kultur; a nation under the sway of sodden and besotted war lords running amuck in outlawry and making Europe a slaughter pen—is it in reason believable that such a nation, decadent and crumbling and approaching its doom, will in this crisis withhold murderous submarine attacks upon hospital ships and adopt civilized and humane modes of warfare?

Then answer comes in the killing of maimed soldiers and heroic nurses in France by the dropping of death-dealing bombs from the clouds.

War by Germany, in its inception, in its spread and now at the acme of its delivery and ghoulishness, is a war that knows no counterpart outside the dark ages.

Begun in Ruthlessness and pursued in Frightfulness and Terrorism, those three words written in blood comprehend German warfare and bespeak German kultur.

Make terms with an international mad dog?

Impossible!

Destruction of the beast is the sole alternative. And virtually all civilized nations are today enlisted in that imperative and righteous duty.

At the "proper time," the president says, peace both permanent and serene, toward which the efforts of indignant humanity the world over are now being exerted, will come. It is to secure such a peace that America is arming as never armed before and drawing upon its blood and treasure in fullest measure. But peace "permanent and serene" is absolutely contingent upon the complete and final overthrow of German militarism and the wiping from the face of the earth forever of so-called German kultur, as exemplified n this war. And nobody understands this fact more thoroughly than Woodrow Wilson, president of these United States.

Undoubtedly the hard-driven German empire, its wickedness shaming the devil and appalling mankind, today craves peace. It is surfeited with blood. Its sins bear down crushingly upon its own miserable people and will be felt for generation and generation to come. It would cry quits and stop the war. But how? By restoration of the status quo! It would have a peace on Germany's terms that would wipe out and forgive its infamies and preserve the head and crown of the unspeakable kaiser. Such a peace will never come.

"I think it my duty to tell you what "Fruit-a-tives" has done for me. Three years ago, I began to feel run-down and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney Trouble. Having read of "Fruit-a-tives", I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. During the 3½ years past, I have taken them regularly and would not change for anything. I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using "Fruit-a-tives", and I know now what I haven't known for a good many years—that is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain".

REAL SAND LOT HERO

Since the days when Joe McGinnity and Louis Durham scintillated in the starry baseball firmament, iron men have been scarce. Word has come out from Cleveland, however, which would indicate that a certain youngster who was tagged by his parents to be known as Mike Casper (which should mean a lot in baseball language) is gathering momentum which, in a few years, should put him in line for a generous slice off one of those rolls managers are said to always carry as bait for startling material.

Mike is now 14. In a single afternoon not long ago he is reported to have pitched and won three games for the Train Street team, participants in the city playground championship. Mike trimmed the Lincolns 24 to 1, the Fairviews 6 to 5, and the Broadways, his third game of the day 4 to 0. Then the next day Mike came right back and pitched his team to a 5 to 4 16 inning victory over the Putnams in the final struggle for the flag. This is pitching baseball.

$10,000 REWARD FOR TAKING GERMAN CHIEF

Forth Worth, Tex., Sept. 22.—Citizens of Gerard, Kent county, have raised a $10,000 fund to be offered as a reward for the taking, dead or alive, of the German commander of the Eleventh division. It was this commander who recently was reported in Associated Press dispatches to have offered a reward of 400 marks, or approximately $100, for the first American soldier, dead or alive, brought behind the German lines.

CONTROLLER FIXES PRICES OF COAL

Vancouver, Sept. 22.—Dominion Fuel Controller C. A. Magrath, tonight fixed the prices of coal for British Columbia as follows:

Screened and delivered in sacks, per ton, $8.50; screened at wharf in sacks, per ton, $7.50. Delivered in bulk, wagonside $8 at wharf in bulk, $7.

In view of the abnormal conditions of a temporary character at present existing, the coal dealers agreed to deliver lump coal in the regular delivery limits at the prices above quoted.

A ruling has been made by the Minister of Finance, Hon. John Hart, to the effect that dance halls come within the scope of the new Amusement Tax Act and will have to make provision for the collection of the tax on lines similar to those to be made effective on October 1 in theatres and other public amusement places governed by the act.

Riccardo Stracciari — great Italian baritone — makes his American debut on Columbia Records.

His initial offering is that classic baritone solo, the "Largo al Factotum" aria from Rossini's "Barbiere di Siviglia." And never has baritone equaled Stracciari's magnificent rendering of this rollicking air. You will marvel at the new master's sweetness of tone; his flexible, resonant voice; his marvelous control; his subtle artistry.

Hear These Wonderful Selections

49181, 12-inch, $1.50 — Largo al Factotum. (Make Way for the Factotum.) From Barbiere di Siviglia. (Rossini.) Riccardo Stracciari, baritone. Orchestra accompaniment under the direction of Giorgio Polacco.

A2337, 10-inch, $1.00 — Minuet in G. (Beethoven). Francis Macmillen, violinist. Piano accompaniment.

Souvenir. (Drdla). Francis Macmillen, violinist. Piano accompaniment.

A5980, 12-inch, $1.50 — Forgotten. (Cowles). Vernon Stiles, tenor. Orchestra accompaniment.

Daddy. (Behrend). Vernon Stiles, tenor. Orchestra accompaniment.

A5981, 12-inch, $1.50 — Ave Maria. From Cavalleria Rusticana. (Mascagni.) Lucy Gates and Frank Gittelson. Soprano solo with violin obbligato. Orchestra accompaniment.

Sing, Smile, Slumber. (Serenade.) (Gounod.) Lucy Gates, Soprano. Orchestra accompaniment.

A5984, 12-inch, $1.50 — Raymond. (Thomas.) Overture. Part I. Philharmonic Orchestra of New York under direction of Josef Stransky.

Raymond. (Thomas.) Overture. Part II. Philharmonic Orchestra of New York under direction of Josef Stransky.

Lucy Gates sings "Ave Maria" with a tenderness that brings a little ache to your throat. It is all the richer, all the sweeter, for the haunting melody of Gittelson's violin obbligato. On the back is "Sing, Smile, Slumber."

Josef Stransky himself leads the New York Philharmonic through the brilliant measures of the "Raymond Overture"—Macmillen's throbbing violin renders the incomparable Beethoven "Minuet in G" and on the other side, Drdla's "Souvenir"—Vernon Stiles contributes "Daddy" and "Forgotten" with the tender sympathy such matchless things require.

These are only a few of the splendid Columbia Records for October. There are dance records; popular song-hits that everybody is singing; whistling pieces; saxophone numbers; bagpipes; hymns—a brilliant, varied selection for you.

They are on sale Now—hear them at any Columbia dealer's.

COMEDY

Is This Your Home?

Dinner over. News of the day all read. It has been a weary, worrying day. Yet a long stretch of two hours—two vacant, empty hours—before bedtime? If only we knew how to spend that time enjoyably, satisfying! If only we had the nerve-soothing, heart-gladdening charm of—music!

Is this your home? Are you denying yourself that greatest medicine of the mind—rich inspiring music?

How fine it is to be able to sit down each evening, to laugh with the lilt of the latest rag, to have one's thoughts enriched by a great master-classic, to be cheered in mind by a wonderful song!

Why should we deny ourselves this needful pleasure?

Why should we even choose a player-piano on a basis of price, price, price, when the measure of its rich satisfaction is beyond all value.

The better the piano, the better is our enjoyment, the profounder grows our love of music, the deeper and worthier becomes our pride in its possession.

On this basis Gerhard Heintzman ideals were founded; a beautiful tone of lasting richness in a piano of in-built goodness The craftsmen of today have made its merit a by-word.

Thrilling Photo-Play of Primitive Life

Such scenes as "The Barrier" depicts have never before been seen in film dramas. They are unique in conception, in setting, in action, in startling realism, in tense, absorbing human interest. The love story, with its problem of "the barrier" of race and blood, is one of unusual beauty and charm, gripping your heart as no other story ever did. Big, dramatic moments follow one another breathlessly. Daring, dangerous situations arise at every turn. The fights are real fights. That terrific struggle for the kidnapped girl on the desolate banks of the Yukon River is a classic.

VOLUME XVII. NANAIMO, VANCOUVER ISLAND, BRITISH COLUMBIA, TUESDAY, SEPT 25, 1917. NUMBER 175.

COUNCIL WILL BE REPRESENTED

Mayor McKenzie and Ald. Forrester Will Represent Nanaimo at Annual Meeting of B. C. Municipalities at Duncan.

The full Board was present at last night's meeting of the City Council, His Worship Mayor McKenzie presiding.

A communication was received from Mr. M.P. Furnell, Honary Secretary Treasurer of the Navy League which has taken over the affairs of the British Sailors Relief Fund, asking the Council to appoint a committee to either hold a tag day or make a house to house canvass of the city on Oct. 21st in aid of the fund.

Ald. Coburn moved, seconded by Ald. Harding the communication be received and filed and a special committee appointed to comply with the request. The motion was adopted and His Worship appointed Ald. Coburn, Harding and Sharp the committee.

A communication was received from Mr. William Henderson, resident architect of the Department of Public Works, calling attention to the fact the basement of the local post office was being flooded, apparently from a broken water main. He asked the Council to open up the street and ascertain the cause of the seepage, stating if the same was not caused by a city water or sewer main the Council would be reimbursed for its expenditure.

In moving the communication be received and filed Ald. Forrester stated the matter was already receiving attention, the city foreman and water works manager having come to the conclusion after investigation that the seepage was caused by a broken water main.

A communication was received from Mr. H. Bose, secretary of the Union of B.C. Municipalities, informing the Council an error had been made in a former communication in which he stated this year's convention was to be held in Vernon. The convention he stated will be held in Duncan on Oct. 10, 12, and he requested the Council send its full representation.

In moving the Council reconsider its decision of last week not to send any delegates, Ald. Forrester stated such action had been taken owing to the expense of sending delegates to Vernon but as the meetings are to be held at Duncan he moved the Council send its full representation.

Ald. Morton seconded the motion, which was adopted and on motive of Ald. Coburn, seconded by Ald. Morton, His Worship the Mayor and Ald. Forrester were appointel delegates.

The street foreman reported an expenditure in wages during the past week of $199.52 and the Water Works manager reported an expenditure of $48.83.

A recommendation of the Street Committee that a second-hand wagon be purchased for the City Team at an expenditure of $40. was adopted on motive of Ald. Ferguson, seconded by Ald. Harding.

The Consolidated Revenue Bylaw was reconsidered and finally adopted on motion of Ald. Morton seconded by Ald. Sharp.

Ald. Ferguson reported the actions of the Street Committee is connection with its efforts to have Mr. Janey move his building back from the Crescent line, although Mr. Janey had promised to do so up to the present had failed to live up to his promise.

The suggestion was made that Mr. Janey be compelled to act in conformity to the wishes of the Council but it was pointed out by Ald. Forrester and His Worship that legal notice had been given some time ago to move his building back but until 18 months had elapsed the Council could do nothing further in the matter.

The question of the painting of the Millstream bridge was brought up by Ald. Harding, and on motion of Ald. Forrester, seconded by Ald. Morton, the Street Committee was instructed to make a report on the condition of the bridge, prepare specifications and secure an estimate of the cost of painting the structure.

EARLY MORNING FIRE

The Fire Department was called out at 3:30 o'clock this morning to a fire at the home of Mr. Jos Wall, Haliburton street. The fire burned a sofa, and the partition between the dining room and parlor but how it originated is a mystery as there has been no fire kept in either room for some time.

CROWN PRINCE IS SCORED BY PRESS

London, Sept. 24.—Bavarian Socialist newspapers are protesting against the action of the German Crown Prince in inviting a number of singers from the Munich Opera to proceed to his headquarters by special train.

Newspaper critics characterize the proceedings as scandarous at a time when railway congestion is so great that even foodstuffs are untransported. Two of the newspapers have been suppressed for publication of attacks upon the Crown Prince

GERMANY ABUSED U. S. PROTECTION

Glanders Germs and Powerful Explosives Dug Up by American Diplomat in Legation Garden at Bucharest.

Washington, Sept. 24.—How Germany "shamefully abused and exploited" the protection of the United States by secreting in the German legation at Bucharest, after the American government had taken charge of Germany's affairs at the Rumanian capital, quantities of powerful explosives for bomb plots, and deadly microbes, with instructions for their use in destroying horses and cattle, was revealed today by Secretary Lansing.

It was another of the series of Mr. Lansing's disclosures of German intrigue, made public, without comment, in the same manner as the Von Luxburg telegrams, which have brought Argentine to the verge of war with Germany, the Von Eckhardt letter from Mexico City, and the Von Bernstorff telegram asking the German foreign office for authorization to spend $50,000 to influence Congress. The latest story is told in a report to the state department from William Whiting Andrews, secretary of the legation at Bucharest, and a letter from Foreign Minister Porumbaru, of Rumania

Parcels and boxes taken into the German consulate at Bucharest with display of great precaution aroused the suspicions of the Rumanian government. On August 27, 1916, the evening prior to the date of Rumania's declaration of war, some of the cases were taken to the German legation, located in a different building from the consulate.

Convinced that the boxes were not taken away from the legation by the German diplomatic mission on its departure from Bucharest, the Rumanian authorities later ordered the police to find and examine their contents.

The police communicated with American Minister Vopicka, then in charge of German interests, who reluctantly assigned Secretary Andrews to observe the search.

The boxes were found buried in the garden of the German legation.

MORE MILLIONS FOR BRITAIN

Washington, Sept. 24.—The government today advanced $25,000,000 to Great Britain, bringing the total advanced to that country thus far to $1,190,000,000 [illegible] credits to the Allies up to $2,426,400,000. Increased to almost eight billion dollars the urgent deficiency bill, said to be the largest appropriation measure ever presented in any nation, was favorably reported to the Senate today by the Appropriations Committee.

Senator Martin gave notice it be called up tomorrow. Speedy passage of the message is forecasted.

Mrs. F. G. Peto returned from Pasadena, Cal., late Saturday night, bringing with her her mother, Mrs. J. B. Good, widow of the late Canon Good, who for so many years was rector of St. Paul's church here. Mrs. Good will take up her residence in Nanaimo with her daughter on Wallace Street.

FIFTY-NINE KILLED

Amsterdam, Sept. 24.—Budapest dispatches printed in German newspapers arriving here tell of an explosion in the Lubenz coal mines. Fifty-nine persons were killed and 55 injured.

HUNS WORSTED ON ALL FRONTS

French Repulsed Enemy Attacks Northeast of Verdun—Russians Continue Their Attacks on the Riga-Dvinsk Sector — Italians Repulsed Austrian Attacks.

Violent attacks by the Germans against the new French positions northeast of Verdun on Monday were checked with heavy losses.

The assaults began with an attack on a front of about a mile and a quarter north of Bois Le Chaume. Only in the center of the assaulting line were the Germans able to reach the French positions, artillery dispersing them elsewhere. The French fought valiantly and remained masters of the situation after inflicting heavy losses on the Germans.

Later in the day the Crown Prince hurled two new attacks against Bois Le Chaume, only to meet further failure.

On the Aisne front there has been only artillery activity except for the repulse by the French of a German surprise attack north of Braye en Laonnois.

In Flanders there has been no great infantry activity, although the opposing artilleries still are busy. German fire is reported heavy on both banks of the Scarpe, east of Arras, around Lens and northeast of Ypres.

On the Riga-Dvinsk sector of the eastern front the Russians continue their efforts to drive the Germans back toward Dvina in the region immediately southeast of Riga. Petrograd reports the capture of a German defensive position in the sector of Sileeme.

Northwest of Trent in the region of Marmolada the Austrians have failed in an attempt to dislodge the Italians from their recently won gains.

GERMANY PLANNED WORLD CONQUEST

Fifteen Years Ago German Naval Officer Told Admiral Dewey of Plans of His Nation for World Power.

Washington, Sept. 24.—The prediction that Germany would wage a war for world conquest in about fifteen years, was made to the late Admiral Dewey at Manila in 1898 by Capt. von Goetz, of the German Imperial navy, Senator Lewis today told the Senate.

Quoting a report from Admiral Dewey to the Navy Department, the Illinois Senator said Von Goetz told the American naval officer Germany would capture Paris as the first step to subjugating England, the taking of New York and Washington to follow in order that Germany might secure an enormous cash indemnity. The wiping out of the Monroe Doctrine and control of South America by Germany, also were predicted by the German officer, declared Senator Lewis, who was discussing peace negotiations.

RESOURCES OF NORTHERN B.C.

Edmonton, Sept. 24.—A recital of the great natural resources of Northern B.C., and the Peace River country in Alberta was the feature of an address at luncheon in the MacDonald Hotel this afternoon by Premier Brewster. The luncheon was an impromptu affair, given by prominent Liberals to the Premier, and B. C. Minister of Lands Hon. Mr. Patullo, of Prince Rupert. Premier Sifton, speaking first, welcomed the guest of honor.

Premier Brewster's trip has been made to ascertain the needs of the section that was little known and the tour has been an eye-opener. In an almost unknown land herds of 300 cattle have been found, and wheat that graded Number one Northern. The Premier left tonight for Regina.

MOTOR CYCLE FIRE WAS SOON EXTINGUISHED

One of the best practical demonstrations of the fire extinguishing qualities of the Pyrene was given yesterday afternoon when a motor cycle ridden by a local resident, caught fire on Wallace street by reason of the rider taking to the curb to escape colliding with a vehicle. The crash caused the machine to take fire The cycle was a mass of flames when an employee of Tom Weeks' garage rushed to the scene with a Pyrene and extinguished the fire in less than ten seconds, the machine being but slightly damaged.

During the coke shortage, the Josie at Rossland shipped its ore to Ladysmith. It is again shipping to Trail.

ATTACKS UPON FRENCH FAILED

Germans Driven Back with Heavy Losses by the French Fire Along a Mile and Quarter Front North of Verdun.

Paris, Sept. 24.—The Germans made repeated attacks against the French lines today, particularly north of Verdun, where they were driven back under the French fire, along a front of a mile and a quarter. Secondary attacks north of Bozonvaux and near Beaumont were also repulsed with sanguinary losses according to a statement of the War Office tonight.

London, Sept. 24.—Heavy cannonading was again in progress last night on the Flanders battlefront northeast of Ypres, but the infantry had a relief from the recent hard fighting. The last German reaction was not encouraging enough, apparently, to warrant a speedy repetition as Field Marshal Haig last night reported that when the Germans assaulted the British lines northeast of Langemarck yesterday they not only were repulsed but lost ground in a British counter-drive.

Signs of possible violent activity impending are appearing in other sections of the British front, notably in the Arras region near the Scarpe and in the vicinity of Lens, which city still is being closely pressed by the Canadian forces. Considerable artillery activity is announced from these sectors.

The artillery on both sides also is notably busy on the French front in the Verdun region. Last night its activity reached the stage of intense violence in the Fosses and Chauman Woods regions, Paris reports.

London Sept. 24.—German heavy guns were active this morning on both banks of the river Scarpe, on the Arras front in France, Field Marshal Haig reported today. A German raiding party near La Bassee Ville was driven away after a sharp fight last night with the British. The text of the report follows.

"A hostile raiding party last night near La Bassee Ville was driven off with loss after a sharp fight. A few of our men are missing.

"The enemy's artillery was active this morning on both banks of the Scarpe and artillery activity also was shown during the night south of Lens and northeast of Ypres."

The following official report was issued last night:

"At dawn today an attack delivered by German storming troops northeast of Langemarck was completely repulsed, the enemy leaving 25 prisoners in our hands. English rifle regiments then attacked in turn and after a sharp fight captured a further portion of the German defence system in this neighborhood with a number of prisoners.

"On the rest of the battlefront the organization of our newly-captured positions is proceeding. The infantry action has been confined to patrol encounters resulting in the capture of a few prisoners. Our artillery activity continues.

"Another hostile attack was launched early this morning against the positions we recently captured east of Villeret, but was repulsed with enemy losses. Our casualties were light.

"Since the opening of our attack on September 20 we have captured on the Ypres battlefront 3,223 prisoners, including 80 officers."

MOTHER AND CHILD BURNED TO DEATH

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 24.—Mrs. Charles Mooney, aged 45 and daughter Mary, aged 11, were burned to death in their home near Maidstone. The exact cause is unknown, but it is supposed the girl caught on fire while her hair was being curled.

The mother's dress was burned off her body in attempting to save the child, who had the presence of mind to telephone to neighbors for help. She lived only a few hours.

MONTREAL DEATH

Montreal, Sept. 22.—The death of R.C. Smith, K.C. one of the Leaders of the Montreal bar and a prominent Liberal here, occured this morning.

Miss Helena Haarer left by the Princess Pat yesterday morning for Virginia, where she is to be married next week to Mr. Rhodes, formerly employed by the Canadian Explosives Co., at Departure Bay.

ARGENTINE'S FLEET TO MOBILIZE

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 24.—The mobilization of the Argentine navy has been ordered at rendezvous thirty-seven kilometres from Buenos Ayres There is unusual military activity in the Republic. Although this is ostensibly due to the general strike, a high official said today that the general staff has its eyes open to "other necessities."

Mrs. Tully Boyce Jr. and Miss Kate Boyce, returned last evening from a month's visit to relatives in Seattle.

RED CROSS CARNIVAL WILL OPEN WED.

Attractions Will be Numerous, and the Cabaret Programme Unusually Attractive.

The Carnival of Flowers will open on Wednesday and from all indications the society will have every reason to be proud of the undertaking. The evening programme for all three nights is an exceptionally good one, and will be produced under the personal direction of the Misses Wilcox and Hazel Martin. The Cabaret girls have been rehearsing every night for weeks past and are now fully prepared. This entertainment will occupy the main floor of the building and about 70 tables have been reserved for the use of patrons at a price of 50c per seat, while arrangements have also been made to provide about 200 seats at 25 cents each. There will be no charge made for entrance to the grounds until after 8 p.m., at which hour the cabaret performance starts. After this hour all who enter must pay whether they wish to attend the cabaret or not

The programme for this entertainment will be a very fine one with those universal favorites the Misses Hazel Martin, Grace Morgan and Jean Patterson, as well as several new soloists on the list. Mrs. Williams, though new to Nanaimo audiences, has become very favorably known in Victoria and only recently made a special trip to that city in order to take part in a public concert. She will appear in an Oriental number aided by a chorus in costume. An other number which is expected to make a great hit is a feature from a recent London Hippodrome production, "Hello, My Dearie, Somewhere in France," in which sailors and nurses appear in a little telephonic song and dance. Then there is the song Miss Martin has selected as her leading number, "That's Done," in which both acting and chorus work is said to be of an exceptionally striking nature. The vital question "Does Marriage Make One Nervous?" will be answered.

Miss Kathleen Merrifield will make her first appearance in Gaby Desly'y song "I Love a Piano," with a chorus wearing very original costumes, different to anything shown here before.

Miss Jean Patterson, who is always so welcome will introduce one of Anna Held's successful songs, "When Sun Goes Down in Romany," and her melodious voice is not the only sweet part of this number.

Miss Grace Morgan needs no introduction, and will appear to great advantage in her Egyptian number.

Madame Koscies will render the Marseillaise in French which completes a programme containing variety and worth more than the price of admission. Much time and money has been expended on costumes, etc., some of the artistes making six changes during the evening.

How delightful to know that one has the privilege of purchasing lovely things at normal prices, and at the same time helping to serve the greatest cause the world has ever known. The patriotic individual will make a list of the ones to be remembered at Christmas, then visit the Carnival, and leave his money where it will help to serve the Empire. Don't worry about assortment, the fancy work stall has such lovely articles that will surely please the most fastidious and a very special assortment of bags without which no fall outfit is complete.

The Old Country Store can supply you with things that you use every day, why not plan to give them a portion of your trade. The Flower stall will raffle a beautiful plant and will give you a fortune with flowers. There will also be on display a beautiful assortment of satin roses. 1f

CIVIC FINANCES FOR HALF YEAR

Ald. Coburn Shows Deficit in Civic Affairs for Past Six Months, but Expects Taxes to Wipe Out Indebtedness and Show Surplus.

At last night's meeting of the City Council, the Finance Committee presented a statement showing receipts and expenditures for the six months ending June 30th last. In moving the report be received and filed Ald. Coburn pointed out the deficit of $8,727.50 was accounted for by the payment of unpaid bills and money borrowed from the bank. The committee, he stated, had every reason to believe receipts from now on would materially increase and expenditures reduced pro ratio, and that the next report of the Committee would be considerably improved and would probably show a surplus instead of a deficit.

The statement submitted at last night's meeting shows the following items of receipts and expenditures:

HUN HYPOCRISY

Austria and Germany have both replied to the Pope's peace note and both replies contain the most nauseating conglomerations of cant and hypocrisy that have yet emanated from the Central Empires. Austria is "happy in the thought that our desires from the first were directed toward the same object which your holiness today characterizes as one we should strive for." It argues that the "future arrangement of the world" should be based on "the moral force of right," and it declares itself "imbued with the hope that the strengthening of the sense of right would morally regenerate humanity."

And this is from one of the nations responsible for plunging the world into war, committing deeds of barbarism told of by Mrs. West and E. P. Davis, K.C. at the recent "Win the War" meeting held in this city, the rape of Belgium, the enslavement for sale to Turkish harems of thousands of young Serbian girls, the murder of Nurse Cavell, the slaughter of thousands of Armenians, ruthless submarine warfare, the bombarding of hospitals, the enslavement of French and Belgian men and girls, the killing of hundreds of women and children by zeppelins, and all the countless other crimes against humanity and decency which stand to the shame of the Huns and their barbarous and treacherous allies. Germany, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria are a nice aggregation to prate about the "moral force of right," and "the moral regeneration of humanity."

In accepting the Pope's proposal for a return to the status quo anti bellum, Germany and Austria accept a proposition which the Entente has already refused. Britain, France and their allies, which include the United States, will make no peace with governments which treat solemn agreements and treaties as mere scraps of paper. When Germany and Austria are ready to talk peace on a basis of some reparation for their wrong doings, together with the restoration of territory they have occupied and a redefining of boundaries on a basis of nationality, the Entente will be ready to listen to them. Not until this is done and Prussian Militarism crushed, will there be peace.

Join the Home Defence movement for the conservation of food. Help to prevent waste by demanding the whole wheat grain in breakfast foods and bread stuffs. Substitute whole wheat for meat, eggs and potatoes. The whole wheat grain is the most perfect food given to man. In Shredded Wheat Biscuit you have the whole wheat grain made digestible by steam-cooking, shredding and baking. Every particle of the whole wheat grain is used including the outer bran coat which is so useful in keeping the bowels healthy and active. For any meal with milk, and fresh fruits.

Made in Canada.

IF WASTE WERE ELIMINATED

It is impressive to learn that enough food is wasted in Canada every day to feed every Canadian soldier who has gone overseas to fight for us.

Through carelessness and inefficiency there is wasted in garbage every year throughout Canada, food to the value of $50,000,000 or about $7.00 per capita of the home population, according to the recent estimates of the Canadian Food Controller. To this huge sum must be added a large, though indeterminate, number of millions lost through poor storage, delay in transportation, and unhygienic surroundings. What the grand total would be there are no present means of discovering. The important points are that this waste is needless and preventable.

Wasting $7.00 worth of food per year means a daily waste of only 1.92 cents per head. Without doubt larger crops, better distribution, closer buying on the part of the house keeper, more careful preparation and more thorough utilization of our foodstuffs, would not only correct this waste, but would appreciably reduce the actual cost of living very considerably. Let it be assumed that, by complete national organization and rigid economy, the cost of living could be reduced by 5 cents per day for each individual. Roughly, then, counting in the elimination of garbage waste, we would have a saving of 7cents per day, or $25.55 per capita annually. The national grand total saving would then amount to the astounding sum of $204,400,000; enough to feed an army of one million men for a year. These figures are appalling, but they are not beyond the range of achievement.

"There is a great demand for Zam-Buk at the front. I have personally given it to many of my men for cuts, scratches, burns, bruises, blisters and sores, and in all cases the results have been eminently satisfactory." Capt. R. Nunn, who is with No. 2 Section, 8th D.A.C., comes from Vernon, B.C., and before enlisting was cured of a chronic ulcer by Zam-Buk. Writing of this, he says: "For two years I suffered from an ulcer on my leg, which, notwithstanding all I did for it, became worse and worse, until I was advised to go into a hospital. A friend, however, asked me to try Zam-Buk, and it was wonderful the effect it had. The inflammation and soreness were soon drawn out, healing began, and to cut a long story short—Zam-Buk completely healed the ulcer."

YOU'RE BILIOUS! LET "CASCARETS" LIVEN LIVER AND BOWELS

Don't stay headachy, constipated, sick, with breath bad and stomach sour.

Get a 10-cent box.

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have a bad cold.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets work while you sleep: cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your tomach sweet, liver and bowels regular, and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL TO MAKE EASTERN TRIP

Discussion with the Federal law officers of a number of matters in which the Provincial and Federal jurisdicitions in this Province more or less clash will be had by Attorney-General J. W. deB. Farris when he is in Ottawa early next month. He contemplates leaving for the East at the end of the present month, and after a short stay at the Dominion capital, will go on to New Brunswick on a visit to his old home.

Among some of the matters he will take up with the Federal authorities will be the future jurisdiction of the Province in respect to policing federal parks, chiefly the Banff reserve, a considerable portion of which is within the Province. As yet no definite arrangement has been reached with the Dominion in regard to that matter.

These Men Will Help You Decide

Are you liable to be selected for service under the Military Service Act?

The answer to this question is being made readily available for you. Remember that the first class to be called includes only men between the ages of 20 and 34, both inclusive, who are unmarried or widowers without children, those married after July 6, 1917, being deemed single for the purposes of the Act.

Medical Boards are now being established throughout Canada. These Boards will examine, free of charge and obligation, all men who wish to be examined as to their physical fitness for military service. They will tell you in a very short time whether your physical condition absolves you from the call or makes you liable for selection.

It is important that you obtain this information as soon as possible. A certificate of unfitness from a Medical Board will secure for you freedom from responsibility under the Military Service Act from any Exemption Tribunal. A certificate of fitness will not preclude an appeal for exemption on any ground.

In order that you may be able to plan your future with certainty, visit a Medical Board as soon as possible and find out if you are liable to be selected. Your family and your employer are interested as well as yourself.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT STOPS DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Hair stops falling out and gets thick, wavy, strong and beautiful.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few week's use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

All persons donating to the Refreshment Committee of the Carnival, are kindly requested to leave their donations at Miss Ingham's, corner Albert and Robarts street; Miss Pender, Prideaux street; Mrs. Dendoff, Machleary street, or Mrs. Yates, Townsite, by 11 a.m. on Wednesday and Thursday next. 2t

Is This Your Home?

Dinner over. News of the day all read. It's been a weary, worrying day. Yet a long stretch of two hours—two vacant, empty hours—before bedtime? If only we knew how to spend that time enjoyably, satisfying! If only we had the nerve-soothing, heart-gladdening charm of—music!

Is this your home? Are you denying yourself that greatest medicine of the mind—rich inspiring music?

How fine it is to be able to sit down each evening, to laugh with the lilt of the latest rag, to have one's thoughts enriched by a great master-classic, to be cheered in mind by a wonderful song!

Why should we deny ourselves this needful pleasure?

Why should we even choose a player-piano on a basis of price, price, price, when the measure of its rich satisfaction is beyond all value.

The better the piano, the better is our enjoyment, the profounder grows our love of music, the deeper and worthier becomes our pride in its possession.

On this basis Gerhard Heintzman ideals were founded; a beautiful tone of lasting richness in a piano of in-built goodness The craftsmen of today have made its merit a byword.

HOME OF MRS. FOY DESTROYED

Residence and All Household Effects on Victoria Road Destroyed by Fire Last Night—Was but Little Insurance on the Property.

The home of Mrs. Joseph Foy, situated on the extension of Victoria Road on the Gordon Estate, was completely destroyed by fire last night together with all household effects including a player-piano valued at $700, and as but little insurance was carried, Mrs. Foy's loss will be in excess of $2,000.

Just how the fire started is not known and the most feasible theory that can be advanced is that it had its origin through defective electric wiring. Several times during the evening Mrs. Foy thought she detected the odor of something burning, and made repeated searches throughout the house and basement, but failed to discover any signs of fire. She had put the younger members of the family to bed and was waiting for her son and a boarder to return home from work when the fire suddenly burst forth in the dining room. Mrs. Foy had barely time to get the children out of bed and outside before the whole building was a mass of flames.

The Department answered the alarm promptly, but owing to the house being situated outside the city limits some distance from the nearest hydrant it was some time before a stream of water could be thrown on- [illegible] time it was a hopeless task to save the structure.

Mrs. Foy is the widow of the late Joseph Foy, who lost his life in the South Wellington flood disaster some three years ago, and much sympathy will be felt for her at her financial loss. Her daughter, Miss Elizabeth is to be married on Monday next to Mr. James Smith, who boards with the family, and both prospective bride and groom lost all their belongings, including wedding toggery, in the conflagration.

CHRISTMAS CHEER SHOWER FOR CANADIAN SOLDIERS

The Christmas Gift Shower under the auspices of the Bastion Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, begins next Tuesday, Oct. 2nd.

The list of articles suggested for the Shower can be seen in the I. O. D. E. Bulletin Board, at Dunsmuir's Music store.

Those contributing cakes are asked to make them in 12 oz. baking powder tins with covers. These tins are easily packed, and have the additional advantage of being used by the men, when empty, for making hand grenades. The claims which our gallant soldiers have upon us all are so numerous and so well understood, that it seems scarcely necessary to recount them. When being asked to give of our comparative plenty in order that those who have been willing and able to take an active part in the defence of our Empire, may at Christmas time have the little luxuries that are so much appreciated and looked forward to, it should only be necessary to think for a moment how much our soldier lads have saved us from, to make the response to this appeal for Christmas gifts so generous, that Nanaimo's contribution will be second to none in the province.

A committee will be in Pearson's Old Store to receive contributions every day from 1 p.m. to 6.30 p.m.

BIG FIELD DAY AT LADYSMITH

Second Annual Meet of Vancouver Island Mine Safety Association is to be Held on Saturday Next.

The second annual meet of the Vancouver Island Mine Safety Association to be held on the Sports Grounds, Ladysmith, next Saturday, should prove one of the most interesting and successful gatherings of the kind yet held on Vancouver Island. STILL ANOTHER HUN AIR RAID

London, Sept. 25.—Another air raid was made on London district tonight. There were two attacks forty minutes apart. In the first attack the raiders were driven off without reaching the city of London.

London, Sept. 25.—The second raid was only brief and was finally driven off by anti-aircraft guns. At 9:30 the signal "all clear" was given. The few bombs dropped caused twenty casualties.

DECLARED FOR WAR WITH HUNS

Argentine Chamber of Deputies Voted in Favor of a Rupture With Germany by a Vote of 53 to 18.

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 25.—The Argentine Chamber of Deputies today voted in favor of a rupture with Germany. The vote was 53 to 18.

The government is considering imposition of a rigid censorship of all messages in the republic to prevent misuse of the cables such as that practiced by Count von Luxburg, the dismissed German minister.

Strikers have cut the telegraph line to Valparaiso, Chile, paralyzing direct cable service to the United States.

The resolution declaring for the breaking off of relations with Germany adopted today by the Chamber of Deputies was passed last week by the Argentine Senate by a vote of 23 to 1.

The government desired to postpone formulation of its policy until it received from Ambassador Naon, at Washington translations of the 415 telegrams received or sent by the Swedish legation here. The messages were telegraphed to Dr. Naon with instructions to send translations.

At Ladysmith on Monday, Mr. Michael Maki of Nanaimo, was united in marriage to Miss Mary Rosella Michek of Ladysmith. The ceremany was performed by the Rev. Father McLean, the bride being attended by Miss Helen Michek and Miss Annie Juhasick, the groom being supported by Mr. John Michek.

This year 125,000 tons of potatoes were grown in British Columbia.

BRITISH SHELLS DID NOT STRIKE CHURCH

London, Sept. 25.—The German report saying that during the bombardment of Ostend, Belgium, Saturday, shells had struck the cathedral, killing seven persons and wounding others, is referred to in an official statement from the British Admiralty tonight, which declared that photographs taken after the bombardment show no signs of the cathedral having been hit.

The Admiralty statement follows:

"In reference to the German wireless message reporting that an English monitor had bombarded Ostend and that a few shells had struck the cathedral, killing seven and wounding twenty-four Belgians, a careful examination of a photograph taken at Ostend after the bombardment shows no signs of a hit on the cathedral.

"On the other hand, photographs indicate clearly that one floating dock was sunk and keeled over, that one workshop on the dock had been demolished and that seven others were damaged.

The official statement issued by Germany on September 23 regarding the bombardment of Ostend said:

"Yesterday morning British monitor assisted by aeirial observers, bombarded this port. A few shells struck the cathedral, in which early mass was being held. Seven were killed and twenty-four injured. The monitor was driven off by the fire of our coast batteries."

Texan Governor Impeached

Austin, Texas, Sept. 25—Governor Ferguson was formally removed from office and barred forever from holding public office by the adoption of impeachment by the Senate.

HUN RAIDERS KILLED FIFTEEN

London, Sept. 25.—Fifteen persons were killed and seventy injured in last night's air raid over London.

The zeppelins which crossed the [illegible] coasts did not penetrate inland, being driven off by gunfire. Three women were injured.

Only two aeroplanes at the most penetrated the limits of London last night, it was reported by Lord French, commander of the home defences, in the following communication today:

"Aeroplane raid—The latest reports on last night's aeroplane raid show that the group of raiders which approached London was driven off by the fire of anti-aircraft guns. Only one, or at the most two machines penetrated the defences. The casualties in all these raided districts reported by the police up to the present are:

"Killed, 15; injured, 70. The material damage was not great.

Airship raid — Enemy airships crossed the Yorkshire and Lincolnshire coasts between midnight and 3 a.m. There is no evidence of their having penetrated to any distance inland. They were driven off by gunfire from various defended localities which they attempted to approach. Bombs were dropped at one coast town, three women being slightly injured. Little material damage was caused."

The recent staking of about 40 claims in Camp McKinney, west of Greenwood may mean a great revival of that old company on its route to Princeton will run through McKinney

Wm. Thompson will be in charge of the mineral exhibit at the New Denver fair this week. It will not be quite as large, but just as interesting as the great exhibits that he had charge of for so many months at the exposition in San Francisco and San Diego.

On Friday a special matinee will be held for children only. Admission 15 cents. On Friday night there will be a dance, admission 25 cents, and during the afternoons Mrs. Paterson and Mrs. Whiting will "read" teacups—At the Carnival.

GERMANS ATTACKING CALIFORNIA CATTLE

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 25.—Dr. Charles Keane, state veterinary, declared today that an epidemic of anthrax which is affecting cattle in Yolo County has reached an alarming stage and he feels confident the germs are being injected by agents of the enemies of the United States.

GERMAN SUCCESS SHORT LIVED

Desperate Enemy Attacks upon New British Positions Were Temporarily Successful, but British Line Was Finally Re-Established.

London, Sept. 25.—The Germans delivered a powerful attack against the British east of Ypres today and succeeded in getting a foothold on a narrow front. Hand to hand fighting ensued and after another strong German attack the British drove them from the newly won positions, and re-established their line in its entirety. Gen. Haig's report tonight says:

"Under cover of a thick mist the enemy launched a powerful counter attack this morning against our positions on the ridge west of Ypres between Tower Hamlets and Polygon Wood. On the greater part of this front the enemy was repulsed, but at two points, one just north of the Ypres-Menin road and the other immediately south of the Polygon Wood, he succeeded in penetrating our lines for a short distance on a narrow front.

"Fierce fighting continued during the morning and at mid-day the enemy launched another heavy counter attack. Despite his efforts the enemy was unable to make further progress, and early in the afternoon our counter attacks drove his troops from the positions into which they had entered. Our line has been re-established on the whole front attacked.

"The enemy also raided one of our posts early in the morning south of Queant and two of our men are missing. There has been great activity on both sides during the day east of Ypres."

INCREASE IN WHEAT CROP OF CANADA

Ottawa, Sept 25.—The preliminary estimate of this year's wheat crop in Canada made by the census office is for a total of 249,164,700 bushels from 14,755,800 acres, the average yield per acre 16.88 bushels as compared with 17 bushels in 1916 and 29 bushels in 1915.

The estimated yield of wheat in 1916 was 229,313,000 bushels from 13,448,250 acres, so that the estimated total for 1917 represents an increase of 19,851,700 bushels, or 8 per cent.

LAWYERS ARE WARNED TO LEAVE EXEMPTION

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—The Ottawa Citizen says:

"A scheme has came to the attention of the Justice Department whereby certain lawyers offer to secure exemptions from military service for clients for a consideration of $100.

"A warning is issued that such tactics will not avail anybody, while lawyers undertaking any such scheme will expose themselves to prosecution"

CALLING OUT FIRST CLASS MEN

Selection Board is Busy at Ottawa Choosing Members for Tribunals Under the Military Service Act.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—Details in connection with the calling out of the first class of men under the Military Service Act are under discussion at a conference today between the Military Service Council, the general officers commanding the eastern military districts and the registrars for the eastern provinces. The purpose of the conference is to reach a uniform understanding as to the operation of the measure.

The Board of Selection established to appoint one member of each local tribunal probably will not complete its work for a few days. Under the strict terms of the order-in-council, the appointment of all local tribunals should be completed today. Otherwise the Minister of Justice is empowered to fill the vacancies. While no official announcement has been made, it is understood the Board will be given until the end of the month to complete its selections. It is expected that with very few exceptions the tribunals will be completed by that time.

In some of the more sparsely settled districts of the west it is probable the number of tribunals will be increased. The original basis was one tribunal for each 7,500 of population, but it has been found that adherence to a hard-and-fast line would work inconvenience in isolated settlements with populations of 2,000 or 3,000. It is to meet such cases that an increase in the number of tribunals is under consideration.

A point which has arisen in regard to the cities is that of locating the tribunals in such a way as to give the minimum of inconvenience to applicants for exemption.

FAMOUS FRENCH AVIATOR BELIEVED TO BE DEAD

Paris, Sept. 25.—Captain Georges Guynemer, the famous French aviator, is believed to be dead.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL ON VISIT TO COBALT

Cobalt, Ont., Sept. 24.—The Duke of Devonshire arrived in Cobalt yesterday afternoon. Fully 5,000 persons turned out to meet his party.

It is rather difficult to run a top boot paper in a shoestring town.

PLAN TO MEET SUB MENACE

Paris, Sept. 25—(Via Reuter's Ottawa agency.)—A high French naval authority questioned by Le Matin on the subject of defense against submarine attacks replied as follows:

"It is certain the submarine danger is being diminished with every day that passes by successful innovations made in the system of defense. The multiplication of patrols, the new route arrangement and arming of merchant ships, are reducing the losses of the Allies more and more

"Besides the smoke clouds, there are other inventions which increase the difficulties of the pirates. Our submarine listening mircrophones have been perfected to a degreee which we would never have ventured to hope for only a few weeks ago. This is progress which is proved by rewards bestowed on Admiral Chaumet, the Minister of Marine, and the brilliant officers, Lieuts. Brogelio, Fromaget and Walser, who have so successfully devoted themselves to such inventions. Once they are supplied with these devices, all ships will soon be able to recognize the presence of a submarine, its distance and its direction, and a vessel can manoeuvre so as to avoid it while on the other hand gunboats and scouting vessels can at the same time take up the pursuit."

SIAM CONDEMNS SIX GERMAN STEAMSHIPS

London, Sept. 25.—A Bankok dispatch to Reuter's states that the prize court at Bankok has condemned six German steamships of a total tonnage of 8,021.

WAR SITUATION ON ALL FRONTS

Germans Made Another Air Raid on England—Artillery Active in the Ypres Sector—Austrian Attacks Repulsed.

For the second night in succession German airmen raided the southeastern section of England and reached London. Tuesday night the Germans did not succeed in penetrating to the heart of London, being stopped on the outskirts by defensive forces. The latest reports on the raid of Monday night show fifteen dead and seventy injured. German airplanes Tuesday night followed the same course as the raiders on Monday night, attempting to reach London through Kent and Essex and up the course of the Thames.

Great artillery activity is in progress on the sector east of Ypres. Northeast of Verdun infantry activity slackened. After ineffectual efforts on Monday they unsuccessfully attacked the French near Bois le Chaume early on Tuesday. Berlin claims officially to have taken trenches here on Monday and to have held them against counter attacks. On the Aisne front the artillery battle continues. There has been no great activity on the other fronts.

The Italians have repulsed attacks on the Bainsizza plateau, northeast of Gorizia.

German efforts to recapture new positions gained by the Russians southeast of Riga have been checked.

Capt. Georges Guynemar, the leading French aviator, is believed by the French War Office to have been killed. Guynemar left Dunkirk for a flight on the German lines in Flanders two weeks ago, and nothing has been heard of him since. Lieut. Vosse, the leading German aviator, has been killed in action with his fiftieth adversary.

Great Britain and France have formally notified the Provisional Russian government that they will not conclude a separate peace to the detriment of Russia. These assurances were in reply to reports current in Russia that Germany was endeavoring to make peace with Britain at the expense of Russia.

THE RED CROSS CARNIVAL OF FLOWERS.

All Will be in Readiness This Afternoon for the Opening of This Great Event.

By dint of hard and well-sustained effort, the ladies of the Red Cross Society expect to have everything ready for the great event in this present year of their activities. From early morning until late at night, preparations are under way and the somewhat barn-like structure of the Agricultural Hall has taken on a really festive air.

The majority of the booths were fast taking shape last night, under the deft fingers of many willing workers, most of whom seemed equally at home whether wielding hammers or needle' or whitewash brush, and any mere man who was brave enough to wander in, received ocular evidence that woman's domain "after the war" will have become greatly enlarged.

Given fine weather, such as it is sincerely to be hoped may prevail, and the parade today from the Oddfellows Hall, with which the Carnival opens at 2 o'clock, will be a lavish display of charming ladies and dainty costumes. On arrival at the Fair Grounds, His Worship the Mayor, will perform the ceremony of crowning the Queen of the Carnival, Miss Babe Martin, following which the Hon. Wm. Sloan, Minister of Mines, will perform the official opening ceremony.

From then on until Friday night, when the Carnival closes, the staid old Agricultural Hall will be the scene of such gaiety and laughter as has but rarely resounded within its walls. There will be something to please everybody and it is safe to say that everybody will be pleased. The ladies have done their part and done it nobly, all that is now needed are clear skies and bright sunshine, to make this year's carnival the outstanding success it deserves to be.

There are 11,000 Japs in British Columbia, all doing well.

THE ELECTION

There is a noticeable lull in political activity pending the announcement of the date of the general election. As soon as the government publishes its decision we may look out for our friends the politicians. It is at election time that we can truly describe them as our friends. Their smile is brighter than usual, and their hands seem to spring out to greet and grab you. The grave crisis through which the country is passing, and the momentous issue to be decided will make no difference to their methods. It is, however, a cheering thought that there may not be so many politicians around, and even those who are around stand a mighty good chance of being left.

This is as it should be. It is a crime that an election should have to be held. Politics and politicians are alone responsible for this crime and it is essential that the responsibility should be placed where it belongs. The time is one for sacrifice and patriotism, and not for selfish party seeking. Even if the government had committed all the blunders with which it has been charged by Liberal manipulators there would still be no justification for forcing an election. And it cannot be too plainly emphasized that there is neither excuse nor justification for attempting an election on political party lines. The election now is unavoidable, but it is up to the electors to see that it is carried out along national lines. This will make it particularly hard for the politicians, and the harder it is made for them the better it will be for the Dominion and everybody in it.

A WIERD STORY

There is no denying the enterprise of the Vancouver World. Some time ago its management sought to increase its circulation in this district by giving premiums to subscribers. The campaign was very nicely timed to anticipate a general rise in mail rates by the bigger dailies on the coast. Having exhausted the premium system the World next started a local delivery plan and again at the cut rate. And just to match its enterprise and give its local readers full value for their money, it published last night the wierdest story concerning Island miners it has ever been our lot to read. It has found the real source of the coal shortage, and the consequent high price of coal. It is all the fault of the miners, who, instead of digging coal, are cavorting around the upper reaches of Nanaimo River in their autos. Some car ride! But the World is serious enough. It declares that as soon as the miner has made enough money to buy groceries and the few other necessities he requires, he fills up the tank of his car and a-hunting goes for the rest of the week. The rest of the week represents two days at least, and frequently three; so that according to the World the best the miner will do is to work half time or a little better. The wonder is that the miners are producing any coal at all, and the story in the World is enough to give all its Vancouver readers the shivers. It is more likely to develop heat locally.

SELECTION BOARD MEETS AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—Sir John M. Gibson, former Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, presided over the first sitting of the board of selection established under the Military Service Act held here today. The board consists of twenty-four members appointed by joint resolution of the House and Senate committees. Half of the members were nominated by the Government and half by Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The opening sittings today were taken with a general discussion of questions arising out of the appointing of the 1,100 odd tribunals whose duty it is to deal with exceptions. E. L. Newcombe, Deputy Minister of Justice, explained the purpose of the act, and replied to a large number of questions.

The proceedings of the board were entirely harmonious. There was an evident desire upon the part of the members to facilitate the operation of the act. It was agreed before adjournment that the members from the different provinces should get together with a view to reaching an agreement on nominations to local tribunals and, if possible, to submit the list agreed upon at a further meeting tomorrow morning.

Under the terms of the act the board of selection appoints one member of each tribunal.

AUSTRIANS SUFFER IN COUNTER-ATTACKS

Rome, Sept. 25.—The Austrians made a counter attack yesterday on the position the Italians recently captured in the Marmolada region. In this effort the attacking forces suffered heavy losses, according to today's official announcement. The text of the statement follows:

"There was artillery activity along the entire front yesterday.

" Acounter attack storming parties against the positions recently occupied by us in the Marmolada region cost the enemy considerable losses and some prisoners.

"The railway line i nthe Bazza valley east of Tolmino was the objective of our air forces yesterday. In the morning one of our bombarding squadrons, well escorted, arrived almost by surprise over the railway station at Grahavo when an intensified railway movement was proceeding and four tons of bombs were dropped there. At night an airship by dropping high explosive bombs, greatly damaged an establishment in the neighborhood of Podmelec.

"At the same time another airship again bombarded numerous enenmy troops in the Chiapovano valley.

"Two enemy machines, brought down by our airmen, fell in flames."

INLAND REVENUE RECEIPTS

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—Receipts from inland revenue during the month of August totalled $2,579,737. an increase over the figures for the same month last year. The total for August of 1916 was $2,575,3212. Revenue from excise last month brought in $2,198,731 of which tobacco alone brought in $1,169,513 and cigars $73,654. Excise duties on spirits realized $730,765. War revenue came to $312, 898.

THE TONIC THAT BRINGS HEALTH

"Fruit-a-tives" Builds Up The Whole System

Those who take "Fruit-a-tives" for the first time, are often astonished at the way it builds them up and makes them feel better all over. They may be taking "Fruit-a-tives" for some specific disease, as Constipation, Indigestion, Chronic Headaches or Neuralgia, Kidney or Bladder Trouble, Rheumatism or Pain in the Back. And they find when "Fruit-a-tives" has cured the disease, that they feel better and stronger in every way. This is due to the wonderful tonic properties of these famous tablets, made from fruit juices.

HAVE MADE SLAVES OF MORE BELGIANS

Havre, Sept. 25.—The German military authorities at Bruges, Belgium are conscripting forcibly all the boys and men of that city between the ages of 14 and 60 to work in munitions factories and shipyards.

The rich and poor, shopkeepers and workmen, are all being taken only the school teachers, doctors and priests escaping.

The Germans virtually conducted raids in the city, according to reports received here, seizing men in their homes, in the streets and in all public places. The provincial committeee has been ordered by the Germans to release 75 per cent, of its staff.

BITTEN THROUGH HAND

A stud groom named C. Anderson, employed on the late Captain Watson's estate at Westholme was holding his horse at the Fall Fair at Duncan on Saturday when the animal got nervous and bit the man's hand completely through. Dr. Dykes of Duncan dressed the wound and found eight stitches to be necessary It is feared that he may lose his hand as its condition this morning was serious.

HOW PRISONERS IN EAST AFRICA ARE TREATED

London, Sept. 25.—Details concerning the treatment by the Germans of British prisoners in German East Africa are contained in a white paper just issued. The paper contains a mass of testimony recited by prisoners and others, including a number of women, to the effect that the Germans deliberately adopted a policy to lower the prestige of the British in the eyes of the natives forcing them to do all kinds of degrading work and subjecting them to terrible hardship without proper food, clothing and shelter. Bed linen was offered to the prisoners but they were forced to lodge in native huts which were damp and all became ill. The commandant declared that the prisoners had no rights and that anything was good enough for the British.

LAFOLLETTE STILL ATTACKING WILSON

Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 25.—Denouncing war in general and the United States Democratic Government in particular, United states Senator Robert M. Lafollette addressed a large Socialistic gathering here last night.

He attacked the press, declaring that the American newspapers are for the most part "controlled by the war party" and the financial interests of the country.

He declared that his remarks in St. Paul last week were misconstrued and that he was being deliberately misquoted throughout the country.

Mr. Lafollette also said that the President of the United States swayed Congress to such an extent that the declaration of war was not the representative opinion of a democratic Government.

LIBERALS IN GERMANY CHALLENGE REICHSTAG

London, Sept. 25.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen says the main committee of the National Liberal Party of Germany has adopted a resolution opposing the Reichstag's peace resolution, disarmament, establishment of a parliamentary government in Germany and the restoration of Belgium and advocating annexation of conquered territory The Socialist newspaper Vorwaerts, of Berlin, characterizes the resolution as a challenge to the Reichstag majority.

GERMANS CONTINUE TO KILL BELGIANS

Amsterdam, Sept. 25.—Advices have been received from the frontier by the Telegraaf to the effect that about thirty residents of Ghent, Belgium, have been put to death by the Germans in the last three weeks on charges of espionage.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, FROM CONSTIPATION

If tongue is coated, breath bad, stomach sour, clean liver and bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverisn, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its bowels without griping and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweetens the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

UNITARIAN CONVENTION

Montreal, Sept. 25.—More than 800 delegates were today on their way to this city to attend the convention of Unitarians of the United States and Canada, which formally opens tomorrow. Hon. William H. Taft, ex-President of the United States, will make two addresses during the convention. At an international gathering at Windsor Hall on Wednesday, when Mr. Taft will speak, Canada will be represented by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, ex-postmaster-general.

KAISER IN ROUMANIA

London, Sept. 25.—Emperor William, says a dispatch from Amsterdam to Reuter's has visited the battlefields in Roumania and inspected the troops who participated in the campaign in Transylvania and Roumania in the Autumn of 1916. These troops are now in Moldavia battlefront. Addressing the troops, Emperor William pointed out the world-wide historical importance of this fighting, which, he said, was also of great importance economically for the homeland. The Emperor concluded with the declaration that "if war were to continue it was not the Germans' fault."

MAN JUMPED FROM BROOKLYN BRIDGE

New York, Sept. 24.—Passengers on a car crossing the Brooklyn Bridge got a thrill at 6 o'clock last evening when Harold Plume, a printer, laid down a newspaper he was reading, swung off the car, climbed the rail and dropped into the East River.

The printer's body turned over several times and hit the water a few feet from a tugboat. The crew got out boat hooks and soon had Plume on the deck. They put in at a pier and an ambulance was called.

Plume, little the worse for his experience, was taken to a hospital a prisoner. He refused to say what prompted him to try to take his life.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years renewal for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of section, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights only, rescinded by such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights are not being operated Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

STEEL SHIPBUILDING MAY BE DELAYED

The Coughland Shipyards of Vancouver has announced that according to information received there will no supplies of steel plate available for ninety days, owing to an embargo placed on exports by the United States Government. Steps are being taken to urge the Dominion Government to take the matter in hand and intercede.

The shortage of steel is being felt acutely at the Wallace Yards at North Vancouver and at Coughlan's. While there has been no trouble so far, construction of the steel steamers will be seriously interfered with if steel plate cannot be obtained.

Four ships are under construction three of the six contracted for, and the first is to be launched at the end of November. Up to the present there has been no lack of material, and good progress has been made.

There is sufficient material on hand to finish the vessel with the exception of a couple of hundred tons of steel. As this is probably on the way, however, and will not be affected by the embargo, work on the boat should not be delayed.

The other three are not so far advanced, but about 70 per cent of the material for each is on hand, so work can still be carried on. If the Canadian Government does not intercede for the exportation of a supply of steel from the States, of if their efforts are not successful, there will be trouble in finishing these other boats. This is a situation which, of course affects shipyards in the East as well.

In addition to all these troubles the shipbuilders are now facing a demand from their employees for increased wages. Recognizing that they cannot meet the situation under existing conditions, the whole matter is being referred to the Dominion Government with a request for an increase in the contract price of the vessels, sufficient to meet the demand for higher wages.

The wage demands would necessitate an outlay of about 30 per cent additional on wages. At the Coughlan yards there is a payroll of $75,000 a month, so that a 30 per cent increase in wages would be a very considerable item. The value of each of the steel vessels is between a million and a quarter and a million and a half dollars.

IMMEDIATE ADVANCE IN WAGES IS DEMANDED

Washington, Sept. 25.—An immediate wage increase of from twenty to seventy per cent. was demanded by the country's coal miners tonight following a meeting of the miners and operators, representatives of the Central competitive field. There is every indication that the mine owners will flatly refuse on the grounds that the President's fixing of the prices will not permit of any advance.

WHY DREAD OLD AGE?

IT should be the pleasantest time of life and if coupled with good health it is. Many of our most remarkable men and women have won fame and prominence after reaching the sixties, and in lots of cases they have not been robust in youth.

The secret of health in old age is the prevention of bowel disorder. Constipation is the foe to be dreaded. Care in diet is necessary, also the avoidance of harsh cathartics, which only aggravate the trouble.

The ideal laxative for aged people is Chamberlain's Tablets

On account of their mild and gentle action, you hardly realize that a medicine has been taken. Yet the effect is none the less certain, and the tonic properties of these Tablets so build up and strengthen the digestive system that the health is greatly benefitted. Try a bottle today.

BRITISH CUT DEEP INTO GERMAN LINES

IMPORTANT POSITIONS WERE WRESTED FROM GERMANS

Powerful Resistance Was Offered to British Attack, but Haig Reports "Our Operations Were Entirely Successful"—Terrific Struggle is Still Being Maintained On Ypres-Menin Road—Attack Carried Out Along a Wide Front.

London, Sept. 26.—In an attack along a six mile front to-day, British troops captured an important position around Tower Hamlets and strong German field works according to an official report from Field Marshall Haig tonight.

Powerful resistance was offered by the Germans throughout the day and they delivered strong counter-attacks but says the British commander "Our operations were entirely successful."

Berlin, Via London, Sept., 26.—British forces in the new offensive in Flanders have penetrated German positions to a depth of about two thirds of a mile at several places, according to German official communications issued tonight. Desperate fighting is continuing.

British Front, France, Belgium, Sept., 26.—Another heavy attack was delivered by the British at daybreak today against the Germans east of Ypres and early reports showed that assaulting troops had pushed the enemy out of many important positions. The offensive was started along the greater part of the line that the British reached in last Thurday's battle extending from east of St. Julien to southwest of Cheluvel. Along the northwestern half of the line of attack, the British success was marked but meager details have been received from the sector of Polygon Wood and south of that place. On the north an advance of from a thousand to twelve hundred yards was made quickly at numerous places and it was reported that strong forces of British troops were engaged in fierce fighting along a few hundred yards west of Seonnebeke.

The Germans are resisting desperately and along a front of about thousand yards astride the Ypres Menin Road, a terrific struggle has been proceeding. The most important point involved in the new offensive as was the case six days ago lay directly east of the city of Ypres between the Ypres Roulers railway and the Ypres Menin highway. Here are situated these strongly held elevations that still remain to the Germans out of numerous ridges and forest which formed a vital part of their defence in this section of Belgium. Last Thursday they suffered a crushing blow in the loss of such strongholds as Anzac Nuns Wood, Glencore Wood and Inverness Copse and now an ever rising tide is reaching out for still more. Australian Scotch and English troops this morning were pushing out into difficult country over ground heavily sodden from rains and floods among concrete and steel redoubts heavily armed with machine guns, over elevations and through bits of wood choked with rapid firers they might fail in their object and still have covered themselves with glory. The Germans undoubtedly knew that the attack was pending and it is probable that their heavy counter attacks yesterday and last night against British positions on the ridge east of Ypres, Polygon Wood and tower Hamlets were carried out in an attempt to frustrate the British plan. The battle which started here yesterday continued with great fury all night and it was along this bit of front that the bitterest work was being done this morning. British artillery has been pounding the whole front of the new offensive for days but last night a concentrated fire was turned on that section where counter attacks were made and the entire ground was torn and smashed together with men, who hidden under sparse shelter were endeavoring to hold this point of vantage. Guns of all calibres came to the assistance of the infantry here and bombardments for long periods were maintained with drum fire intensity. The Australians north of Polygon Wood and Scotch and English to the north of Anzac appear to have met with nothing like the opposition encountered to the south. The Germans replied weakly to the British bombardment prior to the attack to the nonrth of the Ypres Roulers Railway. The enemys' main efforts early today were directed against the advance on the right of the offensive and his attack against Tower Hanmlets ridge west of Ghulevelt have undeubtedly been continued as a protection against a possible attack on the Zandvoorde ridge to the south. For days the Germans have been bringing up reinforcements in anticipation of to-days attack and unless all signs fail much sanguinary fighting is to follow. The attack to-day was started at 5:50 in the morning and again the infantry was preceded by great barrages

MINISTER MINES OPENED CARNIVAL

No Profiteering in Ranks of Red Cross Club, Declared Hon. William Sloan in His Speech Yesterday Opening Red Cross Carnival.

The second annual Carnival of the Nanaimo Red Cross Club was opened yesterday afternoon by Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, Nanaimo's representative in the Provincial Cabinet, addressing the large concourse of citizens as follows:

It is a real pleasure to me to be with you on such an occasion as the present and, at the outset, I wish to assure you of my keen appreciation of the honor you have done me in asking that I formally open this Carnival of the Nanaimo Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society. What we see about us today, this magnificent testimonial to the resource and the energy of the members of the Society, it seems to me guarantees the event the success which the good cause prompting it deserves. Such an outcome doubly assured by the large number of Nanaimo people assembled in order to assist in achieving the desired result. I am sure that the citizens of Nanaimo, as a whole, will unite, perhaps as they have never done before, in making your Carnival a credit to the city and a pronounced success in point of its financial return to the great work of the Canadian Red Cross.

The work of the Red Cross, of which our organization is a part, is a subject which could be discussed at great length. It woulr be impossible, as a matter of fact, to tell all the good that it has done since the war began and it is doubtful whether, even after the guns are quiet and peace returns the historians will be able to give the public the full story. But of this there is no doubt—the Red Cross Society's activities will demand many pages in the coming history of the world war.

Wherever soldiers are engaged there is found the Red Cross in some form or another. Wherever Canadian soldiers are fighting for the liberty of our country there are found your representatives carrying the means of healing, relieving and bringing comfort to our gallant men. Could there be a work worthier of support? Is it possible to conceive anything to which we should be more willing to devote our spare time and our means? These are some of the reasons why I believe that the members of the Nanaimo Branch of the Canadian Red Cross are justified in their pride of membership and why I am sure that the people of our city will rally to their support, assisting to their utmost ab-

BORDEN MAN OF THE HOUR

Senator Planta Returns Home—Ottawa Justifies Recent Dominion Legislation as Necessary in Present Crisis—Premier Borden Needed at the Helm.

Senator Planta arrived home on the Princess Patricia last night from attending his first session in the Canadian Senate at Ottawa. The session proved to be easily the most momentous and notable in the history of the Senate, and Senator Planta considers himself fortunate in having taken his seat at such a crisis in the fortunes of the Dominion. He has brought away with him many varying and striking impressions of the sittings of the House, but his first expressions are of pure delight to be back in Nanaimo. He has grown to like Ottawa for its many attractions, and he has visited many of the eastern cities the time he has been away but none that appeals to him as does Nanaimo. Nanaimo is home and he is unfeignedly glad to be back again.

While away he utilized the week-end recesses of the Senate to see as much of eastern Canada as possible, and visited many of the more important cities and places of outstanding interest. Among the latter was Niagara Falls, where he took in all the sights and experienced all the thrills prepared there for sightseers. He also was in Toronto during the Fair Week and the exhibition of stock and farm produce was an eye-opener to him.

Discussing the session he has some interesting impressions to give of the debates on and passage of the Conscription and new Franchise Bills. The latter, he admits to be a radical and drastic measure but claims it was absolutely justified by the circumstances. Both bills, he declares, were framed and carried with the one object of enabling the country to carry on the war to the best advantage and with the best resources of the country. Sir Robert Borden, he affirms, is absolutely and obviously sincere in his leadership, and has a strong following in the east. Indeed, says Senator Planta, it is generally recognized in the eastern provinces that Sir Robert is the only possible leader in the present crisis. The Premier is sanguine of his ability to form a union government with which to carry out a straight win-the-war policy.

Senator Planta is right behind all the legislation passed by the government, and actively supports the win-the-war movement. He takes the ground that Sir Robert Borden is the only possible choice for leader of a union win-the-war government and must inevitably rally to his banner all candidates who sincerely desire to see Canada go through with the war to the limit of its powers and resources.

CARNIVAL IS IN FULL SWING

Second Annual Carnival of Red Cross Club Had an Auspicious Opening Yesterday—Will Continue Today and Tomorrow.

The second carnival of the Nanaimo Red Cross Society was formally opened in the Exhibition Building yesterday afternoon by the Hon. Wm. Sloan, the Minister of Mines, after Mayor McKenzie had performed the ceremony of crowning baby Martin as Queen of the Carnival. There was a big crowd present for the opening ceremonies, and five minutes after the Carnival had been declared open the building was packed with curious and interested sightseers. With good weather there is not the slightest doubt that the affair will be a huge success, and most assuredly this is no less than the ladies deserve.

They must have felt pretty blue yesterday morning. A pelting rain was not a very cheering prospect for them after they had put in weeks of hard unselfish labor preparing for the Carnival. Luckily towards noon the rain ceased and Old King Sol burst through the clouds. Then just about the hour set for the parade a sudden wind sprang up, and there came a brief shower of rain. By this time automobiles of every grade and size had lined up along Commercial street, and there was some pretty smart work in putting up covers. But behold in a minute or two, out came the sun again, and the way the covers of the machines were slapped down again was an eye-opener to those standing around.

And now everything was ready for the parade, and there were hundreds of people there to see it start. The ladies have made this a flower carnival, and each group of active workers in the Carnival was dressed to represent a flower. The result was a striking and attractive blend of dresses, making the parade one of the gayest and most fetching yet seen in Nanaimo.

Headed by the Boys' Brigade Band the parade set out along Commercial street to the Fire Hall, then back to the Post Office, and then along Commercial street again and up Wallace street to the Exhibition Building. By the time the parade reached the grounds there were hundreds of people there waiting for it, and the scene was both animated and picturesque. The opening ceremonies were performed on the east steps of the building, Mayor McKenzie crowning the queen, and Minister Sloan delivering a formal opening speech.

Mayor McKenzie, after expressing his appreciation of the honor the

BLIGHTY LAND AT THE CARNIVAL

If New York has its Bright Way, Nanaimo has its Blighty Land—a place of entertainment of a varied character is provided and side shows and attractions staged with the object of catering to the whims and caprices of the public who are out for a good time.

Nanaimo's Blighty Land is an attraction for only three days. It is being conducted in connection with the Red Cross Carnival on the Exhibition grounds and the manner in which it was patronized yesterday is sufficient guarantee of its entertaining and amusing qualities. There is something doing every minute in Blighty Land and the lucky ones can walk home with a ham, a side of bacon, live or dressed poultry, or a hundred and one other przes which are given away at the various stands. There is the Wheel of Fortune with its 16 winning numbers carrying prizes ranging in value from 25 cents to $5; the Red Cross Derby run on an up-to-date racetrack, with fifteen starters in every heat, and all you have to do is to put your money on a horse and draw down the kale. There is also Aunt Sally, and Hit the Kaiser, Ring the Bell, and Cup and ball, and also a modern shooting gallery with moving targets which tax the skill of the most expert marksman to topple over.

Blighty Land comprises the best side attractions ever seen in Nanaimo. It is brimful of merriment and as special prizes are being awarded today, a rush business is anticipated. It is open for business at 2 p.m.

ISLANDS WAR SHRINE UNVEILED SATURDAY

From the district known as The Islands no less than 20 per cent. of the entire population have responded to the call to arms. Ten per cent. of the manhood to leave Salt Spring Island alone will never return. These were the facts given to Lieut. Col. Marriott, to whom the pleasing, if somewhat sad duty of unveiling, The Islands' War Shrine at Ganges Harbor on Saturday last was taken adtage of, and in consequence the ceremony was attended by a large concourse of people happy to pay tribute to the honored dead.

There are 256 names already inscribed on the commemorative tablet, which has been patterned somewhat after the style of the shrine recently unveiled at Esquimalt, and the list is by no means complete. In alluding to the magnificent response to the call to arms made by the manhood of the Islands, Col. Marriott said that those who had perforce to remain behind might well be proud of the great part their district had played in the noble fight for liberty and civilization.

The Colonel, who is the officer commanding the Discharge Depot at Quebec, spoke from an intimate knowledge of the war of the, great sacrifices that were still necessary before a proud foe could be counted out. It was a source of great pride to him to perform such a ceremony as the unveiling of the shrine, and to know that from such a sparsely populated district, each with his own particular problem, there had been so noble a contribution to the great cause.

BRITISH THRUST WORRIES HUNS

Haig Cuts Deep Into Hindenburg Line—Menace to Ostend-Lille Railway, Cutting of Which Would Seriously Affect German Bases on the Coast of Flanders.

London, Sept. 26.—Haig's new thrust was delivered from the base of the front line positions captured and consolidated last week before which the Germans had numerous vantage points of strategic value, barring the city to further inroads by the British or for harrassing the British line by machine gun and rifle bullets.

As on previous occasions Haig loosed a veritable inferno of artillery fire against the Germans before launching his attack early Wednesday morning, and when night fell many important positions had been ridded of the enemy.

Probably the most significant gain of the British which the Germans assert was to a depth of two-thirds of a mile at certain points, was near Zonnebeke to within a few hundred yards of the western outskirts of which village they penetrated, placing them about six miles from the railway running from Ostend to Lille

The cutting of this line would seriously affect the transport of Germans from their naval bases at Ostend and Zeebrugge.

Prior to the land attack, British naval forces heavily shelled Ostend and again Wednesday afternoon repeated the bombardment. Meanwhile naval airplanes dropped bombs on towns in northern Belgium with good results.

On other fronts, except in Champagne and Verdun sectors of the line in France no hostilities of great importance are in progress.

Before Verdun big guns are roaring in a mighty duel evndently the forerunner of big infantry operations in the near future. In Champagne, the French are heavily shelling the positions of the German Crown Prince.

In the Austro-Italian theatre the Italians continue successfully patrol engagements against the Austrians and air raids on military establishments.

LOCAL MEMBER RETURNS HOME

Mr. F. H. Shepherd the Federal member for the Nanaimo riding arrived home from Ottawa at noon yesterday via the Charmer. In spite of a strenuous and momentous session Mr. Shepherd looks remarkably fit and well, although he claims he is feeling tired. Naturally he is delighted to be home again. He has nothing as yet to give out as to the political situation, the date of the election or the possibility of a union government. He will have a full statement to make in the course of a few days.

VANCOUVER VENDOR IS NOW APPOINTED

Hugh A. Urquhart, of Vancouver, has been appointed by Hon. J. W. deB. Farris, Attorney-General, to be the official vendor for the Government Liquor Store at the Terminal City. As his assistant in the same connection the Reverend William Ross, a retired Presbyterian minister has been appointed.

Up till about eight years ago Mr. Urquhart had bben in the liquor business from his very early days of commercial life and is regarded as an expert in his particular calling. He is a man of high repute and his appointment will be favorably received by all classes in Vancouver.

Now fifty years of age, his native town was Glengarry, Ont., but when quite a young man he came west and is well-known on the coast and in many parts of British Columbia.

MANY ENJOYED CARNIVAL CABARET

The Cabaret entertainment given in connection with the Red Cross Carnival at the Exhibition Building last evening was one of the best and most enjoyable of the kind ever put on in Nanaimo. The ladies seem to do better with every performance, and last night they had the gratification of seeing a packed house. Indeed many people were unable to gain admission at all, and scores more stood throughout the entire performance. And it was a wholly satisfied crowd that left the building at the conclusion of the performance. From the opening dance of the Queen of the Carnival to the final number there was never a hitch. There were catchy choruses, pretty dances by daintily costumed girls, and splendid individual solos. Space forbids a review of the programme as a whole, and indeed, where every number was so excellent it is unnecessary. Nobody should miss the performance, and many who were there last night will go again. Don't forget the Cabaret performance tonight if you want a real spectacular and musical treat.

Canadian Pacific Earnings

Montreal, Sept. 26—Canadian Pacific Railway earnings for the week ended Sept. 21, 1917, $2,964,000; increase $185,000.

SUB MENACE LESS SERIOUS

London, Sept., 26.—Thirteen British merchantmen of 1600 tons and over, and two vessels of less than 1600 tons were sunk by mines or submarines last week according to the weekly admiralty statement issued this evening.

In the aggregate this is the smallest number of vessels sunk during any one week since Germany began her intensified submarine warfare last February.

HUN PLANES ARE INTERNED

London, Sept. 26.—Two large German seaplanes have been brought into Flushing, Holland, by a Dutch torpedo boat, and it is reported they participated in a raid on England, says a dispatch from Rotterdam. One of the four German airmen was seriously wounded. Three others have been interned.

IRISH CONVENTION AGAIN IN SESSION

Cork, Ireland, Sept 25.—The Irish convention reassembled here today.

Though no definite arrangement yet has beene reached with the Ulstermen, it is stated that speeches of some of their leaders, couched in very eloquent and friendly language, have given good grounds for hope of a peaceable settlement. There was some apprehension of the opposition to the convention on the part of the Sinn Feiners in Cork, but John MacNeil and Arthur Griffiths, Sinn Feiners leaders, urged their followers in this city to follow the example of their Dublin compatriots and let the convention alone.

About ninety delegates attended the first sitting here, with Sir Horace lPunkett in the chair.

The following motion was carried unanimously by the delegates at their business meeting:

"First—That on the conclusion of the debate at the present sitting of the convention the various schemes which had been submitted will be referred to a grand committee in order if possible to prepare a scheme for submission to the convention, which would meet the views and differences expressed by different speakers during the course of the debate.

Second — That the convention stand adjourned after this week's sitting until the grand committee is in a position to report."

THE RED CROSS CARNIVAL

The Carnival, organized and arranged by the Red Cross Society of Nanaimo opened most successfully in the Exhibition Building yesterday afternoon. It will continue today and tomorrow, and it is not necessary to bespeak a generous public support for it. Unstinted credit is due the ladies of this society for their powers of organization. With the cause they are working for every one is in full sympathy. But while their cause undoubtedly tends to secure them support, it must be said that the ladies earn and deserve by their own untiring and unselfish labors the success they achieve. We doubt if any Red Cross Club in the Dominion has shown more real consistent activity or, in proportion to the field of their endeavors, has accomplished more for the cause for which they are working. The ladies have succeeded beyond their expectations; but they have worked for success with a singleness of purpose altogether admirable. The present Carnival is organized on a basis which might well daunt any amateur society but the ladies in charge have had neither doubts nor qualms about it. They have worked enthusiastically themselves, and communicated their enthusiasm to all their helpers. The result is that the Carnival was a success from the minute it was opened, as it richly deserved to be. A thriving business was done all afternoon, and the building would not hold all the people who waited to get in for the cabaret at night. There should be packed houses for the remainder of the Carnival, and judging by last night the Club will do even better than it did last year. All honor and praise to the ladies for their enterprise and indefatigable perseverance in organizing such a really creditable entertainment.

FRANCE'S HERO AVIATOR

Captain Georges Guynemer is missing and all France is in mourning. If our gallant ally had lost a distinguished general or statesman it would not have been shocked as severely as it must have been yesterday, when a laconic communication expressed the belief that its foremost aviator, the hero of scores of thrilling aerial combats, the victor over more than fifty adversaries, had beene killed. Guynemer was in a class by himself in the eyes of France. His youth, daring, skill, extraordinary success and sensational achievements appealed to the French nature with irresistible attraction. When the war broke out he offered himself for the army but was rejected because of his delicate phyysique. He thereupon presented himself for the air service and finally was accepted. He was then about nineteen years old. At that time Pegoud, Garros and the Navarre twins were France's brilliant knights of the air. Garros was captured, Pegoud was killed and the chief Navarre warrior was withdrawn from the service. Meanwhile Guynemer had forged to the front and soon his achievements surpassed those of his predecessors. He became a national idol and world famed hero. His appearance in Paris was the occasion for sustained ovations. Neither Joffre, Gallieni, Petain nor Foch attracted as much attention in the capital. Now France has lost Guynemer. He has been missing for more than two weeks, and we may be sure the Germans would have been quick to announce the fact if he had been taken prisoner. France, suffering grievously from the ravages of war, will carry an extra-heavy heart today.

MINISTER OF MINES OPENED CARNIVAL

ility in making it a splendid success.

What has been accomplished by this branch of the Britsh Empire's War Organization since the beginning of the war is truly marvelous. A few days ago, just by way of illustration, I talked with a medical man of Canada who was through the Gallipoli Campaign. He was stationed on one of the medical transports, which handled at different times thousands of the wounded from the Peninsula field. In giving me an outline of his experiences, he said: "I don't know what we would have done for the wounded soldiers had it not been for the Red Cross. All the material we used was from that organization and, although at that time the work was not as thoroughly organized as it is now, none of the doctors' demands were ever refused. There always was material available—Red Cross material. Thousands of lives were saved as a result."

This leads me to the matter of organization. The work to which the Nanaimo branch is contributing is now thoroughly organized throughout Canada. I do not know as much of the details as the officials and members present do or as I would like to, but I do know something of the results. For the benefit of the general public present, however, perhaps it would not be taken amiss if I touch on a few of the salient features. In Toronto is situated the headquarters for Canada. The Canadian Red Cross is represented in London by a Commissioner whose duty it is to keep in touch with the British Red Cross and obtain all information which may be of value as to the demands and the needs of the soldiers in the field. This is necessary it will be easily understood, because these requirements are constantly changing with the change in character of the military operations in which we are engaged. Thus the Canadian Red Cross may be said, literally, to be in touch with the front at all times. Each Province has a Provincial Red Cross Society which directs the energies of the hundreds of subsidiary organizations, the only exception to this rule being British Columbia. In this Province, for the sake of convenience in transportation, etc., there have been established districts, and it is to the district comprising Vancouver and adjacent Islands, that the Nanaimo branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society belongs. With the Provincial and district organizations the headquarters at Toronto, Ont., are in close and constant touch by correspondence. Consequently all the Red Cross workers in Canada are able to know what the men want most while they fight and endure in order that our freedom may be preserved.

In Nanaimo therefore, we are most interested in the achievements of the Red Cross of this district and in this connection I have a few figures which will show what a splendid work is being done by the district with which Nanaimo is associated.

During the year ending the 31st of August last there was collected in cash the sum of $142,725. This was expended approximately as follows:

Material	$70,895
Remitted to headquarters to be applied to motor ambulances, prisoners of war fund	50,414
To British Red Cross	14,805
To French Red Cross	16,000
Of District	2,402

There are no salaries, or wages of any kind paid. The whole district work is kept running by voluntary effort and I am sure that, after hearing what was accomplished last year it will be pleasant to know that the total expenses only reached $1,187.35, there being no profiteers in connection with Red Cross work.

Of the almost incredible amount of supplies sent forward from this Red Cross district there were 36,302 pairs of socks; 36,000 garments of various kinds; 42,109 bandages of the kind required in attending the wounded; 1,528 comfort bags, and 1,352 military kit bags. Besides there have been forwarded from time to time a large amount of sundry articles by special request to the Toronto headquarters, and in connection with this work I might state that per capita Nanaimo leads all other cities of the province.

In conclusion Mr. Sloan said:

"Last year you honored me by extending on invitation to open your Carnival. On that occasion I expressed the hope that before another of your Carnival events would come around we would see the dawn of peace. The year has passed with many notable events, but peace is still in the distance. In the meantime our Canadian troops have won unperishable fame upon the fields of battle. Many more of our sons have crossed the seas; many have paid the price. We are living in an age of sadness and of bitterness, but we do not despair. May I again express the fervent hope that before another year shall have passed away we shall celebrate a victorious peace, which shall mean 'Peace on earth, good will toward men.'

"Ladies and gentlemen, in declaring your Annual Carnival open, while I know that the calls are many and frequent on your resources, do not forget that your financial assistance and support all goes to further that one aim and object; that goal we are all striving to attain, namely—winning the war.

"Ladies and gentlemen, the Carnival is now open."

TAKE "CASCARETS" IF HE'DACHY, BILIOUS AND CONST?IPATED

Best for liver and bowels, bad breath, bad colds sour stomach.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull throbibng, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right, complexion rosy and your liver and bowels regular for months.

VESSEL SAILED AROUND WORLD

Eighteen days out from Yokohama a Japanese freighter of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha has reached Victoria, with a full cargo of Oriental merchandise in which is included 4000 bales of raw silk valued at over $3,000,000. The vessel has proceeded to Seatttle where she will discharge the silk for overland shipment. This steamer was formerly on the run between Yokohama and Calcutta, but her last voyage took her completely around the world, the trip covering about thirty thousand miles.

She loaded at Yokohama for New York and proceeded to the Hudson by by way of the Panama Canal. A full cargo of case oil was then loaded at Gulf ports for Capetown, Port Elizabeth and Port Natal, South Africa, discharging her cargo the vessel shifted to East London to take on a shipment of wool for the return trip to Japan.

The steamer was formerly a British vessel known as the Willowdene. She was built 16 years ago by Rd. Craggs & Sons, of Middlesboro. She is steel screw steamer of 4709 tons gross and 2920 tons net, being registered at Tokio. Capt. Nomura is in command.

The high school at Revelstoke has three teachers and 65 pupils.

INTERNATIONAL SOCCER MATCH IS CALLED OFF

London, Sept. 26.—The Football Association have decided that the time is not yet opportune for the playing of an international match with Scotland in aid of war funds.

The F. A. has also decided to modify the resolution of July 18, 1915, which forbade the playing for cups medals, or other reward. Permission is now given for competitions arranged for war and charitable objects approved by the F. A. to present cups and medals upon condition that they are not presented out of the gate receipts, and that the regulations of the F. A. are observed.

STORVIKEN LIMPING BACK TO PUGET SOUND

Crippled by the breaking of her air pump, the Norweigan steamer Storviken, which sailed from Seattle on September 8 for the Orient, is making her way back to Puget Sound for repairs. The accident occurred when the vessel had reached 1,100 miles off shore. She is expected to make port by the latter part of the week. The Storviken is a steel vessel of 7,500 tons, completed recently at the plant of the Seattle Construction and Drydock Company.

Don't remain Weak, Anaemic, Nervous, Run-down

Wincarnis Offers New Health - New Life

GET a bottle of Wincarnis to-day and see how quickly it will help you to regain your former health and vitality. Wincarnis possesses a four-fold power in creating the health you need.

Wincarnis is a tonic, a restorative, a blood-maker, and a nerve food—all in one. Therefore it promotes new strength, new blood, new nerve force and new vitality. That is why over 10,000 doctors recommend Wincarnis. And it is also the reason why you can take Wincarnis with the certain knowledge that it can give you new health.

If you are weak, Wincarnis will give you new strength. If you are anaemic, Wincarnis will give you new rich red blood. If you are nervous, Wincarnis will give you new nerve force. If you are run-down, Wincarnis will give you new vitality.

Wincarnis has been famous in Europe for a third of a century. Thousands have testified that it has restored them to health and strength. Don't confuse it with the many inferior preparations of apparently similar nature; buy Wincarnis itself, the tonic that has been unsuccessfully imitated for 33 years.

CARNIVAL IS IN FULL SWING

Red Cross Society had done him. offered a few remarks upon the work the club had accomplished since the war began. The women, he said, had set a worthy example to the manhood of the Dominion. They had worked untiringly to supply the boys at the front with comforts and necessities, and the ladies of Nanaimo took second place to none in their efforts and the success they had achieved. If the men had worked as unselfishly and with the same singleness of purpose there would have been no need of win-the-war meetings. At the last annual meeting of the Society they had re-elected all the old officers by acclamation. They had no time for elections and thought only of getting on with their work. In this they had set an example which might well have been followed by the legislators of the Dominion. In conclusion he expressed the hope that the Carnival would be the financial success it deserved to be, and appealed to the public of Nanaimo to support it to the very best of their ability. He then crowned Babe Martin as Queen of the Carnival and asked that all should be her loyal subjects during her reign.

The Hon. Wm. Sloan, Minister of Mines, next formally opened the Carnival, his remarks being published elsewhere in this issue.

The interior of the bulding gave striking evidence of the work the ladies of the Society had carried out to win success for their Carnival. The whole building is completely decorated with greenery, relieved by a profuse display of flowers and plants. Booths are scattered around in every nook, and at the far end is the Queen's throne, where, with her two wee maids of honor she sits in state. And it should be mentioned that her majesty presents a most winsome appearance as do also her two maids of honor. There are other booths up-stairs, and all around there are all kinds of articles on sale with the usual profusian of raffles. Nothing is lacking to charm the eye or draw the reluctant quarter from the most parsimonious pocket.

Outside the building other booths where the enterprising adventurer can chance his luck or his skill in drawing down prizes. The whole thing is a tribute to the enterprise and organization of the Society, and it is eacy to predict for it a phenomenal success.

RIVAL TEAMS IN WORLD SERIES

New York, Sept. 26.—Twelve different styles of play, perfected to the topmost point, will meet in battle when the White Sox and Giants tear the wrapper off this year's world's series.

John McGraw manager of the New York Giants is a graduate of the old Baltimore Orioles where the only thing they taught was hit and run. Clarence Rowland is a graduate of no school save that of his own observation, and he pleads for the sacrifice, mixing it with just enough of the hit and run to relieve the monotony. Hit and run and sacrifice styles have met before, notably in 1912, when the Giants fell before the Red Sox. But never before have two teams come together where both typified the highest excellence in these two basic points of baseball strategy.

It is saying a lot for the sacrifice style of play to point to the Sox's scoring record for the year, during which time they have accumulated fewer hits than have the Giants but have scored more runs.

The sacrifice play is the one-run game. The devotees of this strategy believe in using every trick sacrificing everything in order to get a runner around, once he reaches first base. As a rule, amongst leaders in the American League, pitching is tough enough for a margin of two runs to assure victory. The squeeze play is an amplification of the sacrifice, but, despite its use, is sincerely hated by most American League managers and certainly by John McGraw.

McGraw is a believer in the maxim that a hit is a hit. If a man is going to hit he might as well hit with a runner on first, thus placing another runner in position to score.

The hit and run style, many maintain will be disastrous for the American League team that tries to stop it, because they will be unconsciously looking in vain for the sacrifice.

This seems to be ungenerous consideration of American League baseball. It seems rather certain, to be true, that the mixed use of sacrifice and hit and run will make the Sox more cautious, ready for anything, refusing to move far out of position to stop a baserunner and thus miss a ball smashed through the infield.

TO ORGANIZE NAVY LEAGUE IN CANADA

The Navy League of Canada, which will take up the work hitherto carried on by the British Sailors' Relief Fund for the relief of disabled and wounded sailors of the British Navy and Mercantile Marine, and the widows and orphans of those who have sacrificed their lives in the war, is to be organized throughout the Dominion, and in this connection Lieut. Col. Cecil G. Williams, who has been appointed general secretary of the league for Ontario and the Western Provinces, will make a tour extending to the coast during the next two months for the purpose of organizing branches of the league.

Lieut.-Col. Williams has, during the past three years, been chief recruiting officer for the Dominion, and early in life spent some ten years in the British Navy. The Navy League of Canada is to be a permanent organization and will carry on the work of the British Sailors' Relief Fund, which has been only a temporary measure for the relief of the widows and orphans of sailors of the Royal Navy and mercantile marine.

British Gains Held Against German Attacks

ARMIES ACTIVE IN THE WEST

Western Front is the Busiest Theatre of the War—Encounters Near Zonnebeke Are of a Sanguinary Character.

With all the objectives of their new offensive near Ypres securely in their hands, English, Scotch and Australians units now are tenaciously holding them notwithstanding fierce German thrusts that have launched in an effort to regain the lost ground. As had been expected by reason of the contour of the country in which the battle raged, fighting throughout has been most of a most violent character. Near Polygon Wood, north and northeast of St. Julien and northwest of Zonnebeke encounters have been of a sanguinary character the Germans losing heavily in counter attacks. Of all points of vantage gained by Field Marshall Haig the village of Zonnebeke probably was the most important for six miles further on lies the Ostend-Lille railway the cutting of which by the British would seriously interfere with operations between Germany's naval bases at Ostend and Zeebrugge. Only at two points during the fighting were the Germans able to recapture lost ground. This was east of St. Julien where two redoubts again fell into the hands of the enemy. One of these had to be relinquished by the British and still remaind in German hands but from the other the Germans were scattered pell mell by a fresh British onslaught.

The German Crown Prince along the Aisne front and in the Verdun sector has made several attempts to break the front of Gen. Petain but as on former occasions the attacks were all repulsed with heavy casualties. On the greater portion of the line held by the French artillery duels are in progress.

On the Front in northern Russia and in Rumania activity of the Germans and Austro-Hungarians has almost ceased except for small outpost operations here and there and artillery duels of slight proportions. The Germans however apparently reconnoitering in the Baltic sea preparing for attacks against the Russian fleet.

There has been no resumption by Gen. Cadorna of his intensive offensive against the Austrians along the Isonzo front, where many minor operations have taken place.

On the Carso plateau the Austrians have begun a violent bombardment Large quantities of explosives have been daily dropped by the Italians on Austrian positions behind the fighting front.

In Belgium British and French airmen also are keeping up their raids against German bases, contonments and other important objectives and are scoring hits which give visable indications of great damage.

FREE OF DUTY

Paris, Sept. 27.—Tobacco sent to American soldiers henceforth will enter France free of duty. Similar arrangements already have been made as regards British, Russian, and Portuguese troops fighting in France.

MRS. ANDREW BROWNLEE PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY

The death occurred yesterday morning at her home Wentworth street, of Grace, wife of Mr. Andrew E. Brownlee. Deceased, who was a native of Lanarkshire, Scotland, was 43 years of age, and had one son, John, at the front. In addition to her husband and son, she is survived by two daughters Ellen and Margaret of this city, her mother, three brothers and a sister in Scotland, and one brother in Vancouver.

The funeral, which is in the hands of Mr. D. J. Jenkins, will take place from the family residence on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Frank Hardy officiating. No flowers by request.

SERVICE BADGES TO BE ISSUED

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—While the recent order-in-council provides for the issue of war service badges to honorably discharged soldiers and those who have applied to enlist before August 10, 1917, and who were rejected as medically unfit, the Militia Department will not be ready to make distribution for a few weeks.

When the time for making application arrives this fact will be given due publicity in the press throughout the country, together with all information regarding the method of making application. Briefly, the procedure will be as follows:

Applicants will apply to the officer in charge of war service badges at the headquarters of the military district in which they reside.

This officer will furnish them with forms which are to be filled in and returned to him. This applies both to those who are in possession of badges issued by the Canadian Patriotic Fund, and who are applying for registration of their badges for certificates authorizing their wearers, and also to those who have never received a badge and who are now applying for one.

Men who have been rejected as medically unfit should also apply to the above officer for instructions. They will, if necessary, be advised by him, when and where to present themselves before a medical board to undergo a further examination, as in order to receive this class badge men must be medically unfit at the time of making application and the fact that they were rejected six months or so ago will not of itself be sufficient.

HERZOG IS REINSTATED

New York, Sept. 27.—President Hempstead, of the National League Club, announced today that the indefinite suspension of Capt. Charles Herzog of the Giants, has been lifted and that he will play in the world series. Herzog recently was suspended for refusing to accompany the team on its western trip on the ground that he was in poor condition. He will report with the Giants at Philadelphia next Tuesday.

THE CARNIVAL TO CLOSE TODAY

Big Attendance at Cabaret Last Evening—Carnival Will be Brought to a Close This Evening.

Weather conditions cast a damper on the Carnival yesterday afternoon but did not prevent a large attendance at the Cabaret last night which, if anything, was even better than on the opening night.

Miss Babe Martin, the Carnival Queen opened the entertainment with a dainty little dance, and was followed by Miss Jean Patterson in costume, who rendered in a charming manner "When the Sun Goes Down in Romany." Mrs. Williams, who is making her second appearance before a Nanaimo audience, gave a splendid rendition of a charming Japanese love song, supported by a chorus in costume, which proved to be one of the prettiest items on the splendid program. "Egypt in Your Dreamy Eyes," was exceptionally well rendered by Miss Grace Morgan assisted by a splendid chorus, and the chorus "Hello, My Dearie, Somewhere in France," received well-merited applause. Miss Kathleen Merrifield appeared as soloist in a chorus which made a hit with the audience in the rendering of "I Love a Piano," and Miss Hazel Martin, ably seconded by a chorus of twelve, made the hit of the evening in her song "That's Done," and was compelled to respond to a well-merited encore.

During the evening the various stalls were kept busy and "Blighty Land" the side-show section of the Carnival, kept things going in a most lively fashion.

The Carnival closes today, and any person who has not yet paid a visit to the grounds should not fail to put in an appearance this afternoon and evening. A special matinee for children will be held this afternoon, admission 15 cents.

SOLDIERS WAITING FOR REINFORCEMENTS

Out in France the Canadian boys are holding their part of the line, confidently expecting the early arrival of the long-promised reinforcements, according to a letter received from a Victorian officer yesterday.

"Sorry I let the odd week-end slip by without a line," it reads, "but the truth is we were more than busy having an argument with Fritz, who doesn't yet seem to know that he gets the worst of it when he tries to pull off counter attacks against us. Unfortunately, it has cost us very dearly to beat him off and a lot of fine chaps have been into their last fight. It has certainly been the most stubborn fighting that our battalion has ever experienced.

"We are, of course, expecting reinforcements, both in officers and men, to complete our establishment, and put us up to strength again."

DOMINION THEATRE

Owing somewhat probably to the weather and considerably no doubt to the drawing powers of the Red Cross Carnival, the audience last night the Dominion was not as large as the excellence of the entertainment merited. The company is made up of artists in their respective lines and give a clean, original and intensely interesting exposition of hypnotism and mind reading. Nothing of a disagreeable nature was offered and the fun, and there was lots of it, created by the hypnotic subjects under the control of Dr. Herbert Travelutte was absolutely free from any valgarity or coarseness. A very amusing and instructive two hours can be passed with this clever troupe of performers, Marvelous Max who was prevented by the rain from presenting his remarkable act of escaping from a straight acket while suspended by his feet from the roof of the theatre, will perform this tonight at 6:45, weather permitting.

LOCAL MERCHANT LEAVES ON PURCHASING TRIP

Mr. Peter Conroy, of the Model Furniture Company leaves on Saturday on a purchasing trip to Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, and other American cities. Mr. Conroy reports business was never better with him than at the present time, his last month's sales being double those of any previous month since he opened for business in the city.

TEUTONS WORSTED IN ROUMANIA

Enemy Attacked in Dense Waves in Rumanian Sector, but Failed to Hold Captured Trenches—Germans Active in the Baltic.

Petrograd, Sept. 27.—The War Office here today issued the following report:

"In the region of Riga south of the Pskoff high road, near the Allachi castle, enemy reconnoitring parties which approached our lines were repulsed.

"Western and southwestern fronts—The fighting activity has been limited to fusilades.

"Roumanian front—In the region south of Mory-Sereth-Onoudory, the enemy at 5 o'clock in the afternoon opened an intense artillery fire with heavy and light guns. Toward six o'clock he undertook an offensive in dense waves, penetrating our trenches. However, he was driven out again by our counter attack and the position restored.

"Baltic Sea—Since September 14, the enemy activity has been intensified, characterized chiefly by aerial reconnaissances and submarine manoeuvres, in an endeavor to prevent our vessels from approaching the Courland coast. Near the Courland coast and in the Irbe Channel our torpedo boats and submarines and aerial forces are preventing enemy vessels from entering our waters.

"Enemy activity has been observed recently on the Courland coast of the Gulf of Riga, during the night searchlights, rockets and fire signals being observed. Our coast defences in the Irbe Channel were attacked by zeppelins on the night of September 25, nearly 40 bombs being dropped.

"Two enemy aeroplanes have been brought down in the region of Husiatyn, while one Russian machine was put out of action. With burning liquid an enemy aeroplane set fire to a Russian captive balloon in the region of Baranowichi. The occupants of the balloon reached the ground safely with their parachutes. An enemy aeroplane and its two occupants has been captured near Kilia, in the region to the south of the Danube."

PEACE MOVE WAS CLUMSY EFFORT

Two Weeks Ago Newspaper Correspondents Were Informed of German Campaign in Favor of a German Peace.

Washington, Sept. 27.—About two weeks ago the State Department warned newspaper correspondents that it had information showing that the German Government was about to begin a campaign with a view to influencing sentiment in the Allied countries, and particularly in the United States in favor of a peace which would bear leniently on Germany.

This warning is recalled by officials now that apparently inspired press dispatches have come from Berne, Switzerland, stating that Kuehlmann, the German Foreign Minister, had informed the Papal nuncio to the court of Bavaria at Munich that the German Government would be willing to conclude peace on the basis of the restoration of Belgium.

Although the terms attributed in the Berne dispatch to the German Foreign Minister are more definite than any the German Government hitherto has suggested in its various "trial balloons" to sound peace sentiment, there is no inclination in diplomatic circles here to heed these latest German overtures. Officials in Washington do not credit the mind of the German autocracy, and particularly of its diplomatic agents with enough intelligence to understand that the Allies are not to be fooled by any half-way proposals even regarding the fundamentals of a peace conference.

By those who understand the attitude of the Allies it is regarded as out of the question for the Governments at war with Germany to consent to accept peace on the basis of the restoration of Belgium under the conditions outlined in the Berne dispatch.

AWAITING MOVE OF ARGENTINA

Ambassador Naon Called at State Department, Washington — Next Move of Argentine is Watched Eagerly.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Ambassador Naon, of Argentine, was an early caller at the State Department today but both he and the officials there refused to discuss the visit.

There was little doubt that the Ambassador saw Secretary Lansing in connection with the same 400 dispatches passing through the Swedish legation in Argentine, which are believed to show further evidence of how Count Luxburg, the German Minister in Buenos Ayres, used the neutral legation to communicate secretly with Berlin.

With full revelations of German duplicity before it, the next move of the Argentine government is being eagerly watched.

Mexico City, Sept. 27.—It is stated on good authority that an investigation here shows that the passage of messages in German code between the German legation and Berlin by way of the Swedish legation here and Stockholm, as revealed recently by Secretary of State Lansing, extended as far back as the early part of 1916. It also is stated that these messages were not confined to dispatches from Heinrich von Eckhardt, German minister here, to Berlin, but that they consisted in part of messages from the Berlin Foreign office, which were transmitted through the Swedish legation to von Eckhardt, and were answered by the same route.

SIR GEORGE FOSTER SPEAKS OF CONFLICT

Buffalo, N.Y., Sept. 27.—Ultimate victory over the Central Powers, with the fresh man-power of the United States the deciding factor, was predicted by Sir George Foster Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce, speaking before the Grain Dealers' National Association Convention here last night.

"Perhaps in three and a half years perhaps in four," he said, "when millions of men from the United States occupy the trenches across in France, and strike the blow which will crush autocracy for all time, then the hour of victory will sound because of your fresh man-power in that long fighting line which for three years has saved this world from the soulless, conscienceless military domination of the Teuton."

The Canadian minister pleaded for the closest co-operation between the Allies and especially between United States and Canada. "We can not afford to fix the price at less or more than you fix it,' he said. We must go forward together lest we go forward not at all."

AIMING AT CLOSER WAR CO-OPERATION

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—Finance, the provision of food stuffs, the full use of Canadian shipbuilding facilities and of the manfacturing resources, are among the subjects it is announced, which will be taken up and dealt with during the coming visit of Lord Reading and Lord Northcliffe to Ottawa.

The general object of the visit is to ensure the utmost unity of purpose and effort in all activities rendered necessary by the war. The mission will confer with the various government department and arrange important matters in which, co-operation between corresponding services in Great Britain, the United States and Canada is essential.

Lord Reading and Lord Northcliffe will be accompanied by the Viscountess Reading and several members of their respective missions. They will be in October on October 4, 5 and 6.

TORONTO WINS SECOND

Toronto, Sept. 27.—Toronto, the champions of the International League, defeated Indianapolis, American Association champions, 4 to 0, the second of the post-season series here yesterday. Each team have won one game. Only 29 visiting batsmen faced Gould and only one man reached second base.

H. H. STEVENS OUT IN CENTRE VANCOUVER

Vancouver, Sept. 27.—Announcement of his candidature for renomination was made today by H. H. Stevens, now M.P. for Vancouver. His constituency having been cut up, Mr. Stevens has decided to offer himself for nomination in Centre Vancouver.

Mr. Stevens has issued an electoral address in which he declares that he is "firmly convinced of the absolute necessity of the strict enforcement of Sir Robert Borden's selective conscription measure," and of the mobolization of the wealth and energy of the Dominion "for national advantage and not for private profit."

PLATEAU IS IN ITALIAN HANDS

Washington, Sept. 27.—Italian troops have completed their occupation of the entire Bainsizza Plateau, which is now firmly in Italian hands, says an official dispatch from Rome.

The troops are consolidating positions lately won.

The principal offensive activity at present is by Italian aeroplanes, scouting over the western lines and bombarding depots and columns of troops.

It is the opinion among Italian officers here that the Austrians are trying to fortify their lines so as to have good winter quarters by the time the snow interferes with active operations.

GEN. MAXWELL KILLED

London, Sept. 27.—Brigadier-General F. A. Maxwell, D.S.O., a member of the late Lord Kitchener's Indian staff, has been killed in action, according to a report in the Express. With the exception of Lieut.-General William R. Bedwood, says the Express, it is a remarkable fact that all of Earl Kitchener's Indian staff have lost their lives in this war.

DIED IN TORONTO.

Toronto, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Angus Duncan Macdonnell, mother of Senator A. Claude Macdonnell and of Brig.-General Archibald Hayes Macdonnell, is dead. She was in her 84th year.

General Macdonnell reached an Atlantic port just a few hours before the end came, having obtained brief leave to come to his mother's bedside.

12,150,000,000 FRANCS FRENCH APPROPRIATION

Paris, Sept. 27.—The appropriation bill for the last quarter of the year, passed by the Chamber of Deputies last night by a vote of 490 to 2, calls for 12,150,000,000 francs.

HAS MOVED INTO MORE COMMODIOUS QUARTERS

As will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere in this issue, the Willson Hardware Company have moved from the McKinnell Block to new quarters int he Vendome Block, corner of Bastion and Commercial Streets. The steadily increasing trade of the firm made it necessary to find larger premises and those they now occupy in the Vendome Block give ample scope for the display of the large stock of hardware and sportsmen's supplies carried by the firm. Mr. Willson is pleased with his new quarters and will appreciate a call from his old customers as well as new ones.

SAPPER JAMES CARR WOUNDED IN ACTION

Mrs. James Carr, 4162 Millar St., Vancouver, has received word that her husband, Sapper James Carr, formerly of Nanaimo, has been admitted to the Second Australian General Hospital, Wemereux, with gunshot wounds in legs and a compound fracture of the leg. Sapper Carr has been in the firing line two years, having left with the first draft of the 47th.

Speaking of the draft, the Clevelands may lose Harris, Morton, Klepfer, Elmer Smith and Evans, as all have been accepted for the national army, and Evans alone has claimed exemption.

BRITISH VICTORY WAS COMPLETE

Germans Again Defeated on the New Line in Belgium—Haig Reports All Attacks of the Enemy Repulsed.

London, Sept. 27.—Yesterday's victory of the British forces in Flanders appears to have been about as complete as any they have gained in this year's operations. Today found them not only in entire possession of the ground they had won on a six-mile front from Tower Hamlets to St. Julien, but pressing the Germans hard after repulsing numerous counter attacks.

It had taken hard battling, nevertheless, to maintain the gains of from half a mile to two-thirds of a mile which they had accomplished in Wednesday's drive. The Germans returned repeatedly to the attack yesterday evening with large forces. They were successfully met at all points, however, the War Office reports.

New fighting developed today south of the eastern extremity of Polygon Wood, the Australian forces there giving the hard pressed Germans no rest. On the British right heavy fighting also continued for elevations northwest of Zonnebeke.

London, Sept. 27.—The fighting yesterday afternoon and evening along the front of the new British attack in the Ypres sector was exceedingly severe says an official report issued here today. The Germans made four vain counter attacks in great strength.

The announcement reads:

"Later accounts show the enemy spared no effort to regain the important ground captured by us in the Ypres sector. The fighting on the battlefront yesterday afternoon and evening was exceedingly severe. Between 4 p.m. and 7 four successive counter attacks were made in great strength against our new front from Tower Hamlets to the St. Julien-Gravenstafel road.

"The struggle was the most severe in the area south of Polygon Wood, where English, Scottish, Welsh and Australian troops defeated repeated attempts of the enemy to break into our positions. The enemy's attacks were all repulsed after fierce fighting, in which the German losses from our artillery and infantry fire were extremely heavy.

"Later in the evening the fighting gradually died down, leaving our troops in possession of the ground they had captured during the day."

British front in France and Belgium, Sept. 27,—(By the Associated Press)—The British forces are maintaining their new line strongly. The main battle today was in the neighborhood of Cameron House, south of the eastern extremity of Polygon Wood, where the Australian forces are pressing the Germans hard. The situation as a whole is virtually unchanged.

Northwest of Zonnebeke, heavy fighting continues in the region of the elevations, which dominate a considerable extent of territory.

From the British standpoint, the situation resulting from the new offensive is exceedingly satisfactory.

London, Sept. 27.—British seaplanes again dropped many tons of bombs on German military establishments in Belgium on Tuesday night. A report issued today by the Admiralty says:

"On Tuesday night some of our naval aeroplanes dropped many tons of bombs, making several direct hits on the railroad lines at the Thourout Junction, the Lichtervelde Junction and the Courtemarck Junction. All our machines returned safely."

RULES OF THE ROAD

From time to time the City Council has taken up the question of the regulation of vehicular traffic in the streets of the city and it at present engaged in revising the by-laws dealing with the matter. No one who is around our streets very much will deny the necessity for drastic regulations and their strict enforcement. Meantime it is rather curious that people driving vehicles should be allowed to disregard the ordinary rules of the road. So far as we have been able to observe it is an exception even on Commercial Street to find a horse-drawn vehicle travelling anywhere than in the dead centre of the street. And both in the case of vehicles and automobiles too little care is exercised at street crossings and turnings. It would appear that many of the drivers do not know the rules of the road. A case in point came within our observation yesterday. A double-horse team was going along Comox Road towards Bridge Street and a car was coming in the opposite direction. The team if anything was across the centre of the road on the wrong side. The driver made no sign that he was going to turn into Bridge Street, and as a matter of fact he could only have made the turn by cutting around the right-hand corner of the sidewal.k He was several feet away from where he should have been, and yet was ignorant enough of the rules of the road to hold the automobile at fault. It is ignorance and carelessness such as this which lead to accidents. Motorists have lately been fined for minor infractions of the law from which there was no danger, whereas the ordinary rules of the road are set at defiance every day.

"Fruit-a-tives" Made Him Feel As If Walking On Air

ORILLIA, ONT., Nov. 28th. 1914.

"For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. One day I saw your sign which read "Fruit-a-tives make you feel like walking on air." This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends'

MIXED METAPHOR

The President of the German Reichstag makes a mock of the suggestion that the German people can ever be turned from their support of the Kaiser. "He who attempts to drive a wedge between the Kaiser and his people bites on granite," declared the President. The reference is obviously to President Wilson, although the metaphor is more than a little mixed. And there is no reason to take the President's statement at its face value. There is evidence enough to show that the German people are not so blindly loyal to the Kaiser as they were. There has been a good deal of criticism of the government of late, and several newspapers have been suppressed as a consequence. There is still a great disillusionment in front of the German people, and the French and British troops have already begun the process on the west front. That is where the wedge is being driven between the Kaiser and his people, and it will be driven right home, the president of the Reichstag notwithstanding.

The President's taunt about the United States leaving Greece in the lurch was obviously for home consumption. Altogether a more unfortunate reference could hardly have been made. The Greek people were with Venizelos, and in favor of participating in the war on the side of the Allies. King Constantine, brother-in-law and tool of the Kaiser, defied the chosen government of the country and betrayed and dishonored his people. Between issuing orders to King Constantine to take a vacation and leaving Greece in the lurch there is difference enough even for a blind German to see.

CHICAGO'S MAYOR WOULD BE SENATOR

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Mayor William Hale Thompson, of Chicago, tonight announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States senator to succeed James Hamilton Lewis, Democrat, at the preliminary election next September, basing his contest on the ground of giving the people of Illinois "an opportunity to vote on vital government policies involving the most precious rights of American citizens." The announcement says:

"I stand upon my record as a public official, my public addresses and my authorized public statements."

FILES REPORT ON DOMINION TRUST

Vancouver, Sept. 27.—With $144,-[illegible] one-half years of liquidation with which to meet the $2,746,000 claims against the Dominion Trust Company the liquidator of the institution, Andrew Stewart, has today filed a report with the Supreme court covering the history of the proceedings to June 30 of this year.

Owing to the involved state of the liquidation and the number of large claims yet undecided, the liquidator informs the court that he is as yet unable to state approximately the amount of any "possible dividends." The costs of the liquidation to date amount to $167,657, of which $126,215 belongs to the Vancouver office and $41,441 to branch offices.

PERU IS NEXT

HUGE DEFICIT IN AUSTRIA-HUNGARY

Amsterdam, Sept. 27.—According to Vienna advices the Austrian Finance Minister has presented the 1917 1918 budget to the lower House of Parliament, showing estimated expenditures of 22,169,000,000 kronen and an estimated revenue of 3,890,000,000 kronen. In order to meet the deficit the Government is asking authority to raise credits of 18,000,000,000 kronen.

The total war expenditure of Austria-Hungary for the first three years of the war was 27,893,000,000 kronen. The expenses of the fourth year are estimated at 12,000,000,000 kronen.

TO SALVE BOILERS OF STEAMER BEAR

An attempt is being made to recover the boilers from the wrecked steamship Bear which a year ago drove ashore near Blunt's Reef, Cal. Wreckers have been at work for several weeks and practically everything movable has been taken from the vessel, all that remains of value being the engines and boilers. The engines are expected to be removed without much trouble, but the shifting of the two big boilers is likely to prove a heavy task.

The position of the wreck makes it impossible to lighter the boilers, so a plan is said to have been evolved whereby they will be sealed watertight, dumped into the sea and towed to safety. The operation will be observed by steamship men will great interest.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years renewal for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of section, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights only, rescinded by such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights are not being operated Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

HARVEST IN FLANDERS

In Flanders fields the crosses stand--
Strange harvest for a fertile land!—
Where once the wheat and barley grew,
With scarlet poppies running through
This year the poppies bloom to greet
Not oats nor barley or white wheat,
But only crosses row by row,
Where stalwart reapers used to go.

In Flanders fields no women sing,
As once they sang, at harvesting.
No men come wth scythes to mow
The little crosses row by row.
The poppies wonder why the men
And women do not come again!

In Flanders, at the wind's footfall,
The crosses do not bend at all,
As wheat and barley used to do
Whenever wind went running thru,
The poppies wonder when they see
The crosses stand so rigidly!

O God, to whom all men must bring
What they have done, for reckoning,
At harvest time what byre or bin
Have You to put their crosses in?
What word, for men who march to sow
Not wheat, but crosses, row by row?
Alas! our tears can never bring
The men who came here harvesting
And come no more! We do not know
What way the singing women go.
Their songs are still! But crosses stand
Row after row in Flanders land!
—Louis Driscoll, in New York Times.

DON'T SCOLD, MOTHER! THE CROSS CHILD IS BILIOUS, FEVERISH

Look at tongue! If coated, clean little stomach, liver, bowels.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

MINISTER REPORTS ON BRITISH LABOR

London, Sept. 25.—"Things are gradually settling down in the British industrial world, and I have no fear that there will be any great upheavel in labor circles," said G. C. Wardle, the new representative of the Labor party in the Lloyd George cabinet, in an interview. He was asked about the "labor unrest" which has been talked about in the newspapers of late.

"Here and there," he said, "in this or that trade, in one district or another, some signs of unrest are noticeable, it is true. But such unrest is slowly, yet appreciably giving away before the new spirit which is beginning to animate both sides in the treatment of labor problems.

"The great necessity of the times is that the new spirit of sympathy forbearance and understanding should be more and more diffused among all grades connected with our industries. It should actuate the Government in its approach to labor difficulties. It should be equally the spirit in which employers listen to employees. Effort must also be made to insure its permeating into every rank of labor itself.

"What must be granted is labor's claim to some sort of share in the control of industry.

"There are some extremists that claim labor should have full control and logically there may be much to be said for that position but as things are, it would be disastrous to jump from one extreme to the other. But it is altogether desirable and necessary that labor should have some part, that it should enter into copartnership with capital in some way or other.

"What are the grievances of British labor in these days? For one thing, high prices must be taken into account, the workingman's budget gives him and his wife much anxiety nowadays. A more serious trouble is the long hours entailed by the demands of the war.

"But perhaps the most real cause of unrest is that there is too much centralization in the industrial world alike among employers and employees. Departments, committees, conferences, the system or representation, all prevent the opinions of the individuals from getting to the centre That is why we see the labor leaders so often disavowed by the men themselves. Some thing must be done to put those in control into touch with local feeling and local complaints.

"That is why I lay stress on the new spirit that I see beginning to prevail in our industrial situation That is why I have great hopes, if only that spirit can be extended downwards and upwards, if only a closer rapport can be brought about between grades of labor and the world of industry. Then I don't think we need have any fear of violence and revolutionary propaganda."

FITIZ AND SHARKEY LIFELONG ENEMIES

Pugilistic feuds are usually short-lived, but one of the longest on record was that of Boz Fitzsimmons and Tom Sharkey. It was seventeen years ago that the freckled blacksmith and the tattooed sailor mingled in their famous grudge fight at Coney Island, Bob, with the bitterness of former defeat, which he called "highway robbery," rankling in his heart, refused to shake hands with his brawny antagonist. From to tap of the bell Fitz went after Tom hammer and tongs, and fought so cleverly and viciously that in the second round Sharkey was stretched out for the count. Even after his victory the Cornishman refused to shake hands. The cause of the bitterness dated back to 1896, when Fitz, who was then contemplating the annexation of Corbett's title, fought Sharkey in San Francisco. Bob had the best of the argument, and in the eighth round landed what seemed to be a solar plexus, which sent the sailor tumbling. Fitz received the surprise of his life when the referee, Wyatt Earp, announced that Fitz had perpetrated a foul, and awarded the victory to Sharkey. The Cornishman frothed at the mouth, and intimated that he considered Jesse James an honest man compared with Sharkey and Earp.

ENEMY WORSTED ON ALL FRONTS

All German Attacks Upon British Positions East of Ypres Repulsed With Heavy Losses—French Beat Back Attacks by Huns.

London, Sept. 28.—[illegible] last accounts Field Marshal Haig was consolidating the positions won from the Germans in Wednesday's battle east of Ypres, the extension of which would give him a position dominating the Ostend-Lille railroad, and flanking both the northern and southern parts of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria's line. All commanding positions taken by the English, Scotch and Australian troops in the latest drive have been firmly held by them despite numerous furious counter attacks delivered with huge effectives in which the Germans suffered terrible losses.

A Berlin official communication reports that to the east of Ypres the British artillery has again assumed the proportions of drumfire which is always an indication that Haig has in store for the enemy still further relentless attacks against his lines.

Crown Prince Frederick William, probably imbued with the idea that some time he will be able to pierce General Petain's front along the southern part of the battle line in France continues here and there to strike violently. His latest attempt has been in the forest of Argonne, where three times he threw his troops against the French. The efforts of the Germans were fruitless, and brought to them only additional heavy casualties.

Comparative quiet prevails on all other battle fronts although there has been a resumption by the Russians of their activities in the Caucasus where at several points the Ottoman forces have been defeated.

Hon. T. H. Johnson, of the Manitoba Cabinet, mentioned for the re-organized Federal Government. He is Icelandic, and strongly pro-conscription.

HUN ATTACKS ON BRITISH FAILED

German Efforts to Break Into New Ground Won by the British in Flanders Were Frustrated with Heavy Losses.

London, Sept. 28.—Efforts to break into the new ground won by the British in the renewal of the Flanders offensive on Wednesday are being continued by the Germans. They tried it last night at Zonnebeke where the British have pushed far along the road to Roulers. The British artillery, machine gun and rifle fire was too much for them, however, and the attack was broken up.

Zonnebeke is an important point for the British. Their present position in the village places them within a half-dozen miles of the important north-and-south railway line connecting Lille and Ostend, on the coast, the cutting of which or its domination at even medium range artillery fire would seriously handicap the Germans in their operations in Flanders.

In the Tower Hamlets and Polygon Wood regions toward the British right flank the clearing up process which followed Wednesday's battle was carried out further last night and the Germans were driven from isolated positions to which strong parties of them were clinging.

There has been little other military activity except in the Argonne region on the French front. The Germans of the Crown Prince's forces made an attempt last night to break into the French lines in this sector, attacking three times. The assaults were all repulsed, the Germans sustaining heavy losses, says an official report issued today in Paris.

London, Sept. 28.—Another German counter attack was made last night against the new British positions in Zonnebeke. The attack was broken up by the British, the War Office announces. The text of the report follows:

"Yesterday evening another counter attack by German troops against our positions in Zonnebeke was broken up by our rifle and machine gun fire and artillery. South of Tower Hamlets and south of Polygon Wood isolated strong positions in which parties of the enemy were holding out close to our new position have been cleared up.

"We killed or captured several Germans without loss to ourselves in carrying out a successful raid last night southwest of Cherisy.

"The enemy's artillery showed considerable activity during the night south of Lens.

"The artillery on both sides has been active on the battlefront."

Mr. J. B. Hodgins has been confined to his home the past three days with an attack of la grippe.

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 28.—Eighteen persons were killed and a number injured late today when a westbound St. Louis and San Francisco passenger Train No. 7 crashed into an empty troop train at Kelliville, Okla. Most of the dead are negroes.

TEDDY SCORED HUN AGENTS

Minneapolis, Sept. 28.—The loudest so-called "conscientious objectors" in the United States today are paid or unpaid agents of the German government, Theodore Roosevelt declared here tonight in a speech before the Eanor Loyalty League. He asserted that a majority of these men are not actuated by conscience at all, and that the bulk are slackers pure and simple, or else traitorous pro-Germans.

Describing various kinds of pacifists in the United States Mr. Roosevelt said that some of the leading apostles of applied pacifists are not timid men, but they are brutal, violent men, who are perfectly willing to fight but only for themselves and not for the nation.

DOMINION THEATRE

Three performances to-day of the great Travelutte Co. at 2:30,-7 and 9 p. m. Two good audiences witnessed the performances of this fine company of artists last night and were amused as well as mysified by the exhibitions of mind control and thought reading. Marvelous Max as advertised gave his outdoor exhibition at the front of the theatre before the evening performance. It was a wonderful example of nerve, skill and physical strength.

BIJOU THEATRE

Marguerite Clark, the universal favorite, the admired of old and young, has in the leading role of "The Valentine Girl," a part that exactly suits her charming personality. She is the personification of girlish grace and beauty, her support is up to every requirement, setting and photography are flace and it can truly be said that "The Valentine Girl" is one of the best entertainments the screen has offered.

RUSSIAN SUCCESS

Petrograd, Sept. 28.—Russian troops have captured Cromary, 24 miles west of Meri, in the Caucasus, it is announced officially.

ENEMY REPULSED IN ARGONNE

Three Times the Germans Attacked French Lines but Were Each Time Repulsed with Heavy Losses.

Paris, Sept. 28.—German troops made an attack last night in the Argonne region. An official report issued here this afternoon says they were repulsed three times, suffering heavy losses.

The text of the report follows:

"There was unusual activity last night over the great part of the front. The Germans undertook a series of attacks on the Aisne front, in the region of Pantheon, south of La Royere, in the region south of Ailles and against our trenches Northwest of Courcy. All these attacks were repulsed by our fire.

"In the Argonne, at Four-de-Paris northwest of Tahure, and west of Navarin, enemy troops made three successive attacks against our positions, but the fire of our artillery and infantry prevented them from approaching our lines, inflicting heavy losses on them.

"Spirited artillery engagements occurred on the right bank of the Meuse River and also in the region of Hill 304.

"Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions our aviators last night dropped a large number of projectiles on the aviation grounds at Marville and Mars Latour, the railway stations at Brieulles, Fleville, and Romagne-Sous-Les-Cotes, and on barracks at Peuvillers and Seivery-sur-Meuse. Al our objectives were obtained."

German Statement

Berlin, Sept. 28.—British forces which yesterday advanced for strong local attacks northeast of Frezenberg and on the Menin road, on the Belgian front, were driven back, says an official statement issued here today. On the Ypres-Passchendaele road, the statement adds, the British still occupy crater positions on the German front line.

DISTURBANCE IN CORK; ONE SHOT

Cork, Ireland, Sept. 28.—A police sergeant was shot in the thigh last night while he was preparing a squad near the court house to charge a crowd which had been making an attack with stones. He had given the order to fix bayonets when five shots were fired and the sergeant was seriously wounded.

The shooting was the culmination of a night of disorders fomented by Sinn Feiners, small groups of whom paraded the streets whistling Sinn Feiners' tunes.

HOUSE PASSED SHIPPING BILL

Washington, Sept. 28.—The Administration Bill to permit foreign merchant ships to engage in American coastwise trade, was passed by the House today without roll call. It now goes to the Senate where promp action is expected. The admission of foreign vessels to the coastwise trade is an essential feature of the government's shipping programme as all available American tonnage is to be placed in overseas routes.

RED CROSS CARNIVAL BROUGHT TO A CLOSE

Last evening marked the close of the Carnival of Flowers, held under the auspices of the local Red Cross Club the past three days in the Agricultural Building, Kennedy street. The Affair was in every way successful, but what the net financial results will be will not be known for several days until all returns are made by the several committees.

The Carnival was brought to a close with a dance last evening which was largely attended and much enjoyed.

BRITISH GAINS WERE IMPORTANT

London, Sept. 28—On his return from a visit to the Italian front, Major-General F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the War Office, today issued the following statement on the situation in Flanders with the Associated Press.

"During the past month there has been a long pause, thanks to the rain [illegible] Flanders," he said.

"The pause was made necessary by more ample preparations than ordinarily after a first advance—preparations equivalent to launching an entire new battle. But the result amply justified the preparations, and while on previous occasions we won our objectives only after protracted fighting, we were yesterday in possession of the whole of our objectives before 8 a. m.

"The fighting yesterday was in the most vital area, the nexus of the ridge system dominating the plain of Flanders, and the key to the whole series of ridges. There is a good deal more to be said about this battle than what we gained.

"Officers who have been with the British army from the beginning all agree that since the battle of Ypres there has never been a slaughter of the Germans compared to that they suffered in the repulsed counter-attacks of the past few days. The Germans counter-attacked in masses, and dozens of these counter-attacks were swept away by our fire with terrible loss to the Germans.

"The most important aspect of the Flanders battle is summed up in the words 'wastage of reserves,' said General Maurice. "The Germans have done their best to keep us off the series of ridges. When we finish getting those ridges we shall claim a victory.

"The question, then, is whether we can exploit that victory, and exploiting it depends on whether we have not more reserves than the enemy. Thus far the German wastage has been much greater than ours and they have used 75 per cent more divisions than we since July 31.

"Regarding the Eastern front situation, it is chiefly remarkable for the little advantage the Germans have taken of the notorious situation in Russia," General Maurice continued.

"The question is, have they done so little because they have been unable to do more, or have they withheld their hand for political reasons. It is too early to reach a decision on that question, but in my mind I have no doubt that the strain on the Western front is the chief reason for the small German progress in the East."

KAISER FEARS OPEN DEBATE

Copenhagen, Sept. 28.—Great efforts are being made in Germany, it is asserted, to avoid open debate in the Reichstag regarding peace and Germany's reply to the Pope's peace proposals, in the fear that this might embarrass the government and accentuate the difficulties between the Reichstag parties, which were made so manifest by the National Liberal resolution adopted at a meeting of that party last Sunday.

Amsterdam, Sept. 28.—Dr. Michaelis, the German Chancellor, in a speech to the main committee of the Reichstag said that Pope Benedict's peace [illegible] were inspired by moral seriousness, pure justice and neutrality, which things were lacking in the reply made by President Wilson to the Pope.

Amsterdam, Sept. 28.—The constitution committee of the German Reichstag adjourned yesterday after passing an order of the day which declares: "The Reichstag will cooperate in the event of the conclusion of peace."

Copenhagen, Sept. 28.—Under orders of the military authorities the Pan-German newspaper Deutsche Zeitung, of Berlin, has been suppressed and the Socialist Vokswacht, of Dantzig, has been placed under preventive censorship. In connection with this and other recent suppressions of newspapers in Germany, it is interesting to recall the ultimatum issued by the main committee of the Reichstag at its session in August. The committe gave the government four weeks to reform the censorship restoring it to its proper place in the control of publication of military news. Censorship of political newspapers by the military has never been more active than at present.

ANOTHER AIR RAID

London, Sept. 28.—Hostile airplanes attacked the southeast coast of England this evening. A few of them attempted to reach London but failed. No reports of casualties or damage have been received as yet.

WIN THE WAR COMMITTEE NAMED

General Committee Selected to Complete Organization of Win-the-War Movement in Nanaimo.

The committee appointed at the public meeting in the Dominion Theatre last week to nominate a general committee in connection with a local branch of the Win-the-War Movement, submitted its report last evening to a general meeting held in the Council Chambers, which endorsed the following as the personnel of the general committee, viz.:

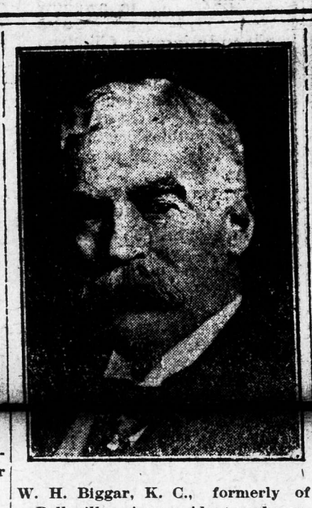
Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. A. Randle Mrs. J. W. McMillan, Mrs. A. E. Planta, Mrs. J. A Caldwell, Mrs. T. A. Lewis, Mrs. J. R. McKenzie, Mrs. Jno Shaw, Mrs. J. Priestley, Messrs. Geo. S. Pearson, Fred. Jepson, A. Randle, J. Bailey, Dr. Brown, Mayor McKenzie, Ald. Coburn, J. Rudd, Rev. Frank Hardy, E. Marshall, W. Glahoin, G. W. Bowen, John McGregor, Bonner, H. Freeman, Rev. J. K. Unsworth, T. Parkinson, John Hall, Priest, Dr. Drysdale, J. A. Murray, N. Stephenson, J. Bell, J. T. Hepburn, T. Price, A. Coombs, T. Cunningham, A. R. Wilson and Moses Woodburn.

The general committee will meet early next week for the purpose of perfecting the organization.

NEW FISH SHOP IN THE CITY

The Island Fish and Fowl Company, of which Mr. Geo. A. Beattie is the moving spirit will open for business this morning in the premises in the Gibson Block, formerly occupied by the Dominion Express Company.

The premises have been thoroughly renovated and fitted up with every convenience necessary to the operation of an up-to-date fish business. The company is in a position to assure its customers of a daily supply of fish, fresh from the briny ocean, at prices which should afford thrifty housewives a chance to practice real economy. With the primary object of economy to the public in mind, there will be no delivery system instituted at the outset at any rate, for no one today minds carrying a parcel home, if by so doing they can be assured of not only getting exactly what they want, when they want it, but of saving a dime or so every time they make a purchase.



Mr. Lou Booth, formerly with the Geo. S. Pearson Co., will be in active charge of the business and everything will be done to cater successfully to the needs of the purchasing public. For today a full stock of halibut, salmon, black cod and herring will be available, in addition to clams and other shell fish.

MUST REPLACE SHIPPING LOSSES

London, Sept.28—British shipping losses since the beginning of unrestricted submarine campaign last February now approximate the total losses before that period according to a statement authorized by the controller of shipping today. The statement indicated it was reasonable to expect Germany to destroy by next Spring two hundred vessels more than could be built in the meantime.

The Controller of Shipping authorized the associated Press to make a statement of the shipping situation and the urgent need for the United States to undertake merchant shipbuilding program on a broad scale.

NOTED AMERICAN VISITED VICTORIA

Hon. J. W. Gerard, Former United States Ambassador to Germany, Told Victorians of Incidents Connected with World War.

Victoria, Sept. 28.—Nearly three hundred members of the Victoria Canadian Club sat down to the luncheon given in the Empress Ballroom this afternoon in honor of the Hon. James W. Gerard, former United States Ambassador to Germany. As the distinguished visitor entered the room he was greeted in the most enthusiastic manner, demonstrating the heartiness of Victoria's welcome to a gentleman whose name has been a household word in every part of the world for more than three years.

The ex-Ambassador was met at the C. P. R. wharf at 1.30 by United States Consul R. B. Mosher, President John Cochrane and Secretary Frank Sehl of the Canadian Club, who were also accompanied by Executive Committeemen R. W. Perry and B. C. Nic[illegible] formal greetings over, the party drove at once to the Empress Hotel.

At the conclusion of the brilliant address of Mr. Gerard, His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Barnard moved in fitting terms a hearty vote of thanks to the ex-Ambassador. Attorney-General J.W. deB Farris seconded the resolution, which was accorded a most enthusiastic passing. Mr. Gerard, visibly moved, gracefully responded, expressing the pleasure the brief visit to the capital city of British Columbia had given him.

There was a large number of members of the Woman's Canadian Club and a moderate sprinkling of the returned soldiers khaki present at the address following the luncheon.

CONSPIRED AGAINST UNITED STATES

Chicago, Sept., 28.—The formal return of a blanket indictment charging a nation wide conspiracy to hamper the Government during the war is made today in the United States District Court here against 166 leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World.

Arrests speedily followed almost before court proceedings had reached the stage of discharge of the Jury. Deputy marshalls were on the way to local I. W. W. headquarters in automobiles donated and driven by [illegible] and quickly returned to the Federal building with prisoners. In the first hour thirty-five men were questioned by men of the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice. Among the first taken into custody was Wm. D. Haywood secretary of the national organization.

HURRICANE DID CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE

Havana, Sept., 28.—One steamer and several sailing vessels were sunk and great damage done to growing crops and fruits by a West Indian hurricane which struck the Isle of Pines Wednesday evening, according to dispatches received here tonight. Advices from Batabano situated on the mainland said it was believed there many persons perished in the Islands although no definite information regarding the casualties had been received here.

MEDICAL BOARD AT NANAIMO

Major Borden and Lieuts. Vigneux and Willson Are Appointed to Examine Recruits in Nanaimo Under Military Service Act.

Victoria Sept. 28.—Military headquarters for this district made public the personnel of the Medical Board [illegible] to examine recruits under the Military Service Act at Nanaimo, Major L. E. Borden, Lieut. M. J. Vigneux and Lieut. W. H. Willson.

The military authorities are now appointing military representatives to serve at the exemption tribunals to be established throughout the province. There will be one at each tribunal, but he will have no authority to make any decision relative to exemption claims, his capacity being only advisory.

LIEUTENANT IRVING IS DEAD

Victoria, Sept. 27.—Lieut. Arthur D. Irving, previously reported missing, then located at a German prison camp, and now presumed to have died, was a son of the late Justice P. A. Irving and Mrs. Irving of this city. He was a graduate of the Royal Military college at Kingston and 26 years old. He was first reported in casualties as missing during the latter part of the Somme fighting last fall.

EMPEROR AVOID AWKWARD TOPICS

Paris, Sept. 28.—Jules Cambon, general Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, in his weekly talk with the Associated Press today, spoke first of the replies of the Central Powers to the Pope's peace proposals, which he said he found "remarkable as carefully avoiding any practical question while dealing with arbitration, disarmament and liberty of the seas and philosophical questions which the Germans always have treated chemerical."

"I can recall conversation with the Kaiser," M. Cambon continued, "in which he ridiculed such questions as childish nonsense and unworthy of the attention of responsible statesmen. There is no policy, existing for the Germans which is not realistic, with conquest and domination as its aim. If Germany has thus changed it is because that country wants the expression of such evidence, which binds it to nothing, whereas precise declarations would engage it in a thing which it carefully avoids.

"As regards the verbal propositions about Belgium, the conditions are not acceptable to Belgians, as they involve the negation of any true independence. A distinction between the Walloons and Flemish would be the end of Belgium."

POLITICAL PARTIES

Without waiting too long for the government and the opposition to organize, members of the expiring parliament who desire to remain in public life are consulting their constituents and making their campaign arrangements. They can not wait long to see what the war ministry will be like. On the main issue they have already gone on record. The votes and discussion in parliament show where they stand. Those who are on the government side except in Quebec, are all committed to the Military Service Act and to the War Franchise measure. There is not the same unanimity on the opposition side. Some did not vote on compulsory service, but outside of Quebec only three voted against the measure. Most of them, but not quite all, voted against the War Election Bill. It may be necessary for them to define their position more particularly before nomination.

In this province the present members are all Conservatives. They all supported the National Service Bill and the Franchise Bill. Those who desire nomination have no explanations to make to their party on these points, if they seek a party nomination. Neither do they need to explain if they desire a nomination on a Win-the-War ticket. But if all desired to run again and were considered acceptable, there would still be six new seats, for which new candidates supporting the war ministry must be found. On the other side there are thirteen constituencies for which opposition candidates must be found, saving the four in which nominations are supposed to have been settled. Two of the proposed candidates are in favor of the Military Service Act. One has publicly condemned that measure.

These are the conditions that confront the two political parties and the Win-the-War organization, which is itself a kind of fusion of parties into one party. For a party is only a group of individuals united in common political action. Mr. Vance protests against partyism at this time, but the movement of which he is the chairman can not help being a party in the above sense. The difference between the Win-the-War party and the others is that it has only one palnk in its platform and that it is free from political traditions.—The Province.

PREMIER'S LIBEL ACTION

Premier Lloyd George is reported to be taking action against certain British newspapers for libel. The Premier, it seems, left London during a German air raid to pay a visit to France. The newspapers in question announced that he had left the metropolis for his home at Walton Heath. The implication is that the Premier had an attack of bomb fever and left London to save his skin. In other words these newspapers accused the British Premier of playing the coward. The accusation is surely as vicious as it is foolish. In the course of his career the Premier has made many enemies, but none of them has ever doubted his personal courage. In his pro-Boer days he faced hostile mobs, and since the war began he has swallowed almost every pre-war utterance he ever made. The real courage of the man shines out in both cases, and he is well advised in putting himself right with the British people. No British Premier at this crisis in the Empire's fortunes can afford to rest under an imputation of cowardice, not even Lloyd George, who owes his present position to another section of the English press. All the same it is a curious and rather disagreeable incident.

25 CENTS DESTROYS YORR DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR

Save your hair! Make it thick wavy and beautiful—try this!

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shirk, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle 'Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few week's use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

NO SETTLEMENT WITH UNREPENTANT GERMANS

London, Sept. 28.—Viscount Milner, a member of the War Cabinet, addressing the American Luncheon Club today, declared against any peace with the unrepentant German rulers. Touching on the entry of the United States into the war and the moral significance of it Lord Milner evoked a tremendous outburst from those at the luncheon when he said: "I feel that your country and mine are now united by something far stronger than any written pact or alliance, namely, by an absolute unity of motives and aims."

LEONARD WON FIGHT

Buffalo, N.Y., Sept. 28.—Benny Leonard, of New York, lightweight champion, knocked out Eddie Dorsey, negro, of Brooklyn, in the second round of their ten-round match here tonight. Dorsey weighed 138 pounds; Leonard 133.

The fighting was fast in both rounds. The knockout came when Leonard, after Dorsey had put over a stinging right to the jaw, launched rights and lefts which soon had the negro fighter down.

JINGOISTIC RESOLUTION ADOPTED IN GERMANY

Berlin, Sept. 28.—Parliamentary circles are curious as to the future of the National Liberal party, since its adoption last Sunday in a general session of a resolution outlining the attitude of the party in regard to current, foreign and domestic issues.

The new platform to which the executive of the party proposed to pledge the party stopped just short of the endorsement of the fondest pan-German dreams. Indications point to a cleavage which will show a sharp line of demarkation between the right and the left wings. The Tageblatt assumes that the new state of affairs is due to industrial members, whose influence and interests have been traditional factors in the party's history.

Inasmuch as Dr. Stresemann was a member of the committee of seven which drafted Germany's reply to the Pope's peace proposals in conjunction with the Chancellor, it is predicted that the party will have difficulty in reconciling its present face-about with Germany's answer to the Vatican. It would also seem to eliminate the party from participating further in the deliberations of the coalition, which is now made up of Social Democrats, Centrists and members of the Progressive People's party.

Cincinnati Man Tells How to Shrivel Up Corns So They Lift Out.

Ouch!?!?!?!! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain.

He says freezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or inauguration of the high heels.

Would You Like to Earn $1 or $2 Daily the Year Round at Home

The Hosiery trade is booming, and the Demand far exceeds the Supply. We gladly take all the goods you can send us.

We must have more workers at once to help us keep pace with the demand. The Auto Knitter is sent on favorable terms to reliable persons, and we furnish full instructions how to knit sox, etc., also all yarn needed. The work is simple and easily learned; the Auto Knitter is a high speed machine, and works by turning a handle. Our fixed rates of pay guarantee you a steady income the year round, no matter where you live, but our workers often largely increase this by working for private customers.

Working either whole or spare time, this pleasant employment has brought prosperity to many workers in their own homes, and should do the same for you.

Write today, enclosing 3c in stamps, for full particulars, rates of pay, etc., and see what you and your family can now earn at home.

$15.00 WILL BUY A SPENCER SUIT THAT BUSINESS MEN WILL TAKE PLEASURE WEARING

Men who think Fifteen Dollars about the price they want to pay for their suit can find here just the satisfaction they hoped to get for their money.

These suits are worthy in the very best sense of the word. The materials are soft and give you that appearance of quality that is unmistakable even to men who do not claim to be experts in woollens.

The suits are cut in conservative styles and are well tailored with good linings and interlinings.

But the dominating feature of all is the value. They represent an entirely different and superior standard of values than today's market warrants.

These same suits are actually worth $25 and will compare favorably with suits shown by other stores at the higher figure.

Ample choosing among neat brown mixtures, plain greys—mostly unfinished worsteds and tweeds.

NANAIMO TEAMS WON HONORS

First Aid Competition and Draeger Demonstration at Ladysmith Yesterday Were Keenly Contested — Local Team Won Coulson Cup.

Vancouver Island Mine Safety Association was held at Ladysmith yesterday, the honors in first aid and Draeger work being carried off by No. 4 Mine, Extension, and No. 1 and Reserve mines of the Western Fuel Company.

There was a large attendance on the Sports grounds throughout the afternoon, the Nanaimo Silver Cornet Band being present and rendering a choice program of patriotic and popular airs while the sports program comprised races for children and adults, catching the greasy pig, cutting the goose loose, and other comic events.

The several events in first aid work were keenly contested, and the judges, viz., Doctors Brydon-Jack, Wilkes, McPhee, McNaughton and Sergt. Major Corfield had no easy task in selecting the winners. The results of the several competitions were as follows:

For the Coulson Cup and gold medals.—1st, No. 1 team, Nanaimo, J. Barton (Capt.), John McGuckie, W. Neave, B. Stobbart and J. W. Jemson. 2nd, No. 3 Mine, Extension, winners of silver medals.

For the B. C. Mines Cup and gold medals—1st, No. 4 Mine, Extension; 2nd, Reserve Mine team, Nanaimo, John Fisher (Capt.), W. Blenkhorne R. Charnock, A. Challinor and Geo. Frater.

One man event—1st, Allan McDonald, of Ladysmith.

Two man event won by Messrs. R. Charnock and John Fisher of Nanaimo.

Draeger demonstration for Shield ver Island Collieries Co., won by No. 4 Mine, Extension; second place and silver medals being taken by the team representing No. 1 Mine of this city, the team being David Brown, (Capt.), T. Smith, Fred Hunter, T. Niven, J. Hodgins and T. Jackson.

Juvenile First Aid event for the Emmerson Cup, won by Ladysmith boys, second place by Ladysmith girls.

The judges in the juvenile event were Messrs. William Fulton, Geo. Carson and Charles Graham, while Messrs. George Wilkinson, Chief Inspector of Mines, and H. H. Sanderson, representative of the Draeger Mine Rescue Company, judged the senior events.

In connection with the field sports the most interesting events were the tug-of-war contests. In the event confined to teams representing the Canadian Collieries, No. 4 Mine was defeated by No. 2, which in turn was defeated by No. 3. In the open event for all comers the team representing the employees of the Western Fuel Company had an easy task in pulling the pick of Extension. Nanaimo had an exceptionally strong team on the cleats and pulled the Extension men over in less than ten minutes.

Last evening in Gould's Hall, Ladysmith, the several trophies and medals won in connection with the First Aid and Draeger demonstrations were presented by the Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, who reviewed the scope and importance of First Aid work and complimented the several teams upon the excellent showing made by them in the competition. The Minister of Mines also complimented the First Aid work done by the juveniles and expressed the conviction that First Aid work should be a compulsory subject in the public schools of the Province.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. H. N. Freeman, President of the V. I. M. S. Association.

APPEAL MADE FOR "OUR DAY"

Dear Sir:

I am transmitting to you herewith a copy of an appeal which has been issued for contributions for the great work the British Red Cross Society on "Our Day," Thursday, the 18th, of October.

This appeal, which has the aproval and support of Their Majesties the Queen Alexandra, is being made simultaneously throughout the British Empire.

The two former appeals for the same cause resulted in total collections in Canada of $1,858,008.56 and $1,705,000 in 1915 and of our casualties is so heavy that there is again urgent need of money.

This year the collection throughout Canada is in charge of the Canadian Red Cross Society through its various Provincial and local branches but the money will be kept apart from the funds for its own great regular work, and will be remitted especially to the Joint War Committee in London.

I earnestly commend to all the people of British Coumbia the Empire-wide appeal of the British Red Cross Society for help. British Columbia has responded magnificently to every demand of patriotism since the war began, and I believe can be depended upon to "carry on" until the victory is won.

This request is being mailed to all Mayors and Reeves in the Province, to Government agents or other officials in unorganized districts and to the heads of public and patrioitc associations.

Wherever there are branches of the Canadian Red Cross Society, they are being asked to make the collection, and all those whom this letter reaches are requested to assist.

At the very many places where such Red Cross branches do not exist those who have been circularized and others who can be interested are requested to take steps immediately by calling a public meeting or otherwise to assist the cause, and the following procedure is suggested:—

To appint a strong committee to take charge, with a Chairman and an Hon. Secretary-Treasurer to receive the money in the first instance:

To take all measures possible to enlist and maintain public sympathy and to publish this circular and the appeal in the local newspapers:

To organize for the collection of money on October 18th either by tag days, entertainments, the soliciting of subscripitions, or by any combination of these or other methods.

The Canadian Red Cross Society having established three district centres covering the Province, I am advsed that the committees in places north of the 53rd parallel should report progress to or ask further information from the Hon. Secretary, Canadian Red Cross Society, Prince Rupert; south of that parallel, if on the Mainland, from the Hon. Secretary of the Society at Vancouver; and if on Vancouver Island or other Islands, from the Hon. Secretary at Victoria.

Similarly, as quickly as possible after October 18th, remittances should be made to the same Red Cross officers.

Believe me,
Yours very truly,
F. S. Burnard
Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia.

The following is the appeal:—

Appeal of the Joint War Committee

It becomes necessary for the Order of St. John and the British Red Cross Society to appeal [illegible] generosity of their friends and supporters at home and overseas for funds to carry on their work of mercy for the sick and wounded of His Majesty's Force.

The Joint Committee has decided again to make such an appeal on October 18th, and we earnestly bey your assistance (in) making it known to the people of the Dominion.

Our Red Cross work is now costing eight thousand pounds a day and increases rather than diminishes.

Our help is given in every theatre of the War and to troops from every part of the Empire, and will have to be continued for some time, even when victory has been achieved.

We are deeply grateful for the munificent help received from sympathizers in all parts of the world, and we trust that with your assistance the appeal made on "Our Day" will meet with a response which will enable us to continue to do all that is humanly possible to lessen the sufferings of those on whose behalf we plead.

Their Majesties the King and Queen and Her Majesty Queen Alexandra have graciously given us their patronage and support.

(Signed) ARTHUR
Grand Prior of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem.

Chairman of the Council of the British Red Cross Society.

PROHIBITION IS NOW IN FORCE

Nanaimo's Nineteen Saloons Went out of Business Last Night as Far As the Sale of Intoxicating Drinks Was Concerned.

Tomorrow, October 1st, witnesses the advent of prohibition in B. C., and tomorrow every bar, brewery and distillery in the province will close its doors so far as the sale of liquor within the province is concerned. In fact prohibition is now in force for according to B. C. laws it is illegal to sell on Sunday, so that with the closing of the bars at 10 o'clock last night the liquor traffic as publicly dispensed, went out of existence.

A number of the premises formerly conducted as bars will open on Monday, however, for the sale of near beer, soft drinks and other non-intoxicating beverages. While several of the hotel men have not definitely made up their minds just what they intend doing at least eight of the city's nineteen barrooms will continue in business, but of a different nature than that conducted in the past. Among the hostelries which will continue to welcome old customers are the Windsor, Lotus, Commercial, Central, Nanaimo Balmoral Grand Provincial and Eagle, and as stated above probably two or three others. The main provisions of the Prohibition Act are as follows:

Breweries and distilleries may ship to points outside the province, if they can find a market.

Consumers may import.

The province, under Sections 91 and 92 of the B. N. A. Act has no power to interfere with interprovincial trade.

The vending of liquor will be carried on by Government officers, who will have no interest in its sale. They may sell under the following heads.

For mechanical or scientifical purposes, ten gallons.

To druggists, five gallons.

To physicians, two quarts.

To dentists, one pint.

To veterinary surgeons, one gallon.

To superintendents of hospitals, for hospital use, to ministers of the gospel for sacramental purposes, and to any one for medicinal purposes All these are safeguarded by limitations as to doctors' prescriptions, etc.

The administration of the Act will fall to the provincial police, assisted by a commissioner, Mr. Findlay, and the records of sales are to be constantly open for police inspection, and monthly returns are to be made to the department.

No liquor may be consumed on the premises; it must be sold for cash and only between the hours of 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., closing at 5 o'clock Saturday night. Clubs are prohibited from carrying liquor or selling it.

The vital clause of the Act is section 10. It provides:

"Except as provided by this Act, no person shall within the province, by himself, his clerk, servant, or agent, expose for sale, or directly or indirectly, or upon any pretence, or upon any device sell or barter, or offer to sell or barter or in consideration of the purchase or transfer of any property or thing, or for any other consideration, or at the time of the transfer of any property or thing give to any other person any liquor."

The penalty for infraction of this clause is imprisonment on the first offence for not less than six months or more than twelve months, with hard labor; for a second offence hard labor and imprisonment for from twelve to twenty-four months. There are lesser penalties for breaking other sections.

There are wide powers of search, and the onus of proof as to sales, prescriptions, etc., is on the accused.

The percentage of alcohol in beverages sold under the prohibitions of this act is two and a half per cent. proof. It does not apply to vinegar, cider, or denatured alcohol.

Evening service, Mrs. Brown of Calgary will sing and the anthems "Praise the Lord of Heaven" and "Sing to the Lord of Host," will be rendered.

FURTHER GAIN FOR ITALIANS

Austrians Forced to Concede Ground to Italian Troops Northeast of Gorizia—Austrian Naval Station at Pola Bombed.

At a late hour the ban on press despatches from the Franco-Belgian front apparently had not been raised and the world was left to guess the reason for it. Field Marshall Haig's report in the forenoon was of a routine character. The Berlin statement was similarly unilluminating. From the French front violent artillery activity was reported west of the Meuse in the Verdun region.

The official statement from Rome shows General Cadorna is giving his infantry rein again with the result that an important gain was effected in the Monta San Gabrielle region north east of Gorizia. A surprise attack carried out with complete success gave the Italians a line rectified to their advantage between Zella di Dol and the northern slopes of Monte San Gabriels, 224 prisoners and a few machine guns being captured in the operation. The new line was soldily maintained against several Austrian counter attacks.

Italian air operations were again of importance the airmen once more sweeping over the Austrian naval bases at Pola where the arsenal and submarine bases were bombed by a big squadron. Austrian military establishments in the Carso zone were also successfully attacked.

How heavy the fighting was on the British and Flanders front, northern France during September despite the absence of atacks on a large scale until its closing days is indicated by the figures of British casualties reported during the month showing a total of 10,498 of which killed comprised 18,938 these figures compare with total casualties of 59,811 for August and 119,549 for September a year ago, the third month of the Somme battle.

Friday night s German air raid on England was an abortive affair and costly for the Germans resulting in negligible material damage and no casualties as far as is reported. The airmen were unable to reach London the alert and effective work of British anti air-craft guns and air forces setting up a barrier which was not pierced while two of the German machines were shot down on the coast.

ARTILLERY ACTIVE ON FRENCH FRONT

German Aviation Grounds at Staden, Roulers and Coutremarck Bombed by French Aviators—Enemy Batteries Destroyed—Aeroplanes Active.

Paris, Sept. 29.—The official statement to-night says:

There was no infantry action today. Artillery action was quite intense on the Aisne front particularly in the sectors of Pantheon and Hurtebise. on the right bank of the Meuse bombardment continued violently on both sides north of Bois Le Chaume. On Sept. 27, two German airplanes were brought down by our pilots. Our Escadrilles bombarded on the same day aviation grounds at Staden Roulars and Courtemarch and cantonments in that region. The Belgian communication says:

There was the usual activity on the part of both artilleries on Sept. 28-29, a very violent bombardment occurred between Neuport and Dixmude. Numerous German patrols attempted to raid our lines but attempts were without success except at Landmark 16 on the Yser where the enemy entered one of our sapheads but were driven out immediately. Our artillery has carried out fires of destruction on several enemy batteries some of which have been engaged in heavy shelling near Vort and Knocke. Today our aeroplanes have been very active. Two Belgian aviators pursued last night enemy machines which were proceeding in the direction of Dunkirk.

Eastern theatre, Sept. 28.—In the region of the Vardar there was quite marked artillery activity on both sides. Patrol encounters took place along the Ztruma and in the Devol valley.

GERMANS ALARMED AT FINANCIAL POSITION

On all sides it is becoming clear that the Germans are alarmed about their financial position. The Deutsche Tagezeitung, in its issue of Aug. 21, although it is still so foolish as to think of an indemnity, puts the case clearly "Before the war," it wrote, "the wealth of the German people amounted to between 330 and 390 billions of marks (between 16 and 19 thousand million pounds) of which nearly half have been actually spent on war. Further cost will be involved unless Germany receives an indemnity. Have the majority which supports peace without an indemnity considered the question in all its bearings. To talk of the advantage of peace and of the desirability of reconciliation between the nations, each one foregoing annexation and indemnities, is a view of the actual economic facts of the present situation, much like the French government expatiating to the starving people of Paris in 1791 on the rights of man. There is no hope of carrying on during the first 10 years after peace, since they will entail extra taxation amounting to 12 billions. How can a country in the state of ruin in which it will find itself, and in view of the enormously increased cost of living, shoulder an added burden of that magnitude, when the sum of six billions would be the maximum effort possible, and almost beyond bearing even with the greatest effort." The comparison between Germany of today and France in its great revolution is ominous—for Germany. It was the folly of the ruling classes that brought to France the saving teeor of its great revolution.

The Frankfurter Zeitung, a newspaper which has always voiced the views of the rich financiers of Germany and which has followed the financial situation very closely knows too much to talk of indemnities. But it is now almost squealing for peace and begging England to trust Germany. On August 21 it wrote: "Even those Germans who might be inclined to annex Belgium or make it dependent on Germany must reckon with the fact that all Englishmen of whatever party, are determined to secure the independence of Belgium, some because they regard this as essential for their future security, and others because they consider it a duty imposed by honor. So long as England can fight it will struggle for the freedom of Belgium. All who are fighting for the freedom of the Belgians can, however, lay down their arms, or Germany will give Belgium absolute freedom when peace based on understanding is concluded. The Imperial government is averse to all oppression. This incontrovertible fact must be made clear to all of Germany's enemies, as it is the only mean whereby the English people can be enabled to form a right judgment concerning the relationship between the purpose of war and the exertion of the military effort." The Frankfurter Zeitung is entirely correct in saying that "England will struggle for the freedom of Belgium so long as she can fight," but if it wishes to persuade England of the peaceable intentions of Germany, it might begin by persuading the Germans themselves. It might make a beginning with Her Puttamer, a distinguished member of the Prussian house of lords, who wrote on Aug. 13 that Conservatives "hope in spite of fainthearted counsels, and by the rejection of all social democratic international attempts at understanding to impose a German peace by the help of God and the German swords." It might proceed by trying to convert the editor of that paper, who a few days later wrote: "Sympathy with the pope's Christian wish for peace must disappear when it is seen that he approves such concrete con-

JOHN CULLIGAN DIED YESTERDAY

Mr. John Culligan, Selby street, a resident of Nanaimo for the past 41 years, died suddenly yesterday morning of heart failure.

Deceased who was a native of Kilnish, County Claire, Ireland, had reached the age of 69 years and from his long residence in this neighborhood, was well and favorably known. He was an active member of the A. O. U. W.

He is survived by his widow and four children, three daughters and a son, the latter, William being a resident of this city. The daughters are Mrs. J. W. Deppiessie, Vancouver; Mrs. John O'Connell, Victoria, and Mrs. P. Cain, Nanaimo. A sister, Mrs. George Dunbar, Wellington, also survives him.

The funeral will take place from the family residence 421 Selby street on Tuesday morning at 8:40 to St. Peter's church, the Rev. Father Heynen officiating. Mr. H. McAdie is in charge of arrangements.

HUNS AGAIN RAID ENGLAND

Latest Attack on British Civilians by Murderers in Aeroplanes Creates Strong Agitation in Britain for Reprisals.

London, Sept. 29.—Tonight there was another hostile air raid over London," the official announcement says.

"Hostile airplanes crossed the coasts of Kent and Essex in groups between 8 and 9 o'clock. Several attacks were made upon London and some bombs were dropped on the northeast and southeastern districts.

Bombs were also dropped at various places in Kent and Essex. No reports of casualties have yet been received.

London's warning of an impending raid was given quickly by policemen riding through the streets with "take cover" signs on their breasts, and every one hurried to shelter as soon as the distant roar of guns was heard. Then explosions of guns and the crack of shrapnel bursting in the air came nearer, then the flash of bursting shells in the night was incessant.

From all directions defence guns boomed. Mingled with the sound of guns the whirring of Gothas was heard overhead. Bombs began to drop as could be told by their peculiar explosion. The fire of anti-aircraft guns seemed heaviert han on any previous raids and it was obvious that barrages were being thrown up to defeat the purpose of the raiders. At this time it appears that the barrage at least prevented the raiders from having their own way.

There are the best of reasons for believing German airplane attacks on England with the plain purpose of killing civilians will not pass without retaliation. The idea of killing women and children is repugnant to the British mind but just as the army was forced to use poisonous gas against the German soldiers or be in a position of fighting with one hand tied behind the back, so the British will be compelled to fight the Germans in the air by bombing German cities, according to the belief now generally held here. They have the necessary machines and better aviators, but heretofore preferred to use them solely against fighting men on the battle front.

The defenses of England against attack have proved almost as effective against airplanes as against zeppelins, which have practically retired from business since the death of their inventor. But the fact that the airplanes can scatter and present such a small target makes them more difficult to deal with. This is shown by the experience of one British squadron in France which has carried out 113 raids in five months and has only lost only four machines

A DRY PROVINCE.

From today on British Columbia is "dry" by law. With the closing of the bars last night no more liquor or intoxicating drinks may be sold in the province. There will be government depots where various brands of drink may be bought in limited quantities for medicinal purposes. Also the man who has money enough and cellar-room to spare may import booze to his heart's (or stomach's) content. But so long as the present law lasts there will be no further free sale of alcoholic drinks in British Columbia. The bars against who our temperance friends have thunder ed in such fine frenzy will be converted into tea and lunch counters, and John and his wife will lap up ice-cream sodas where formerly John lapped brandies and sodas on his own. We will now be able to watch with an impartial eye the benefits to the human system of non-indulgence in alcoholic drinks. Some of us have been slowly poisoning ourselves for twenty and fourty years, and we are all familiar with the charts showing us how our efficiency has been diminished. There should be something doing these next six months and it shouldn't be surprising to see some of the moderate soaks who brag about what they use to do twenty years ago in the hunting and athletic fields of the province getting back into the game again. It will take a little time for the more advanced cases to settle down to grape-juice and sweet soda; but this time they will be good by force and not by choice. How much better the world will be for this prohibition measure twenty years from now remains to be seen. We cannot get away from the fact ourselves that it is founded on a strong measure of injustice, and temperamentally we are suspicious of salvation by legislation. But prohibition is the law of the land; as a result of the vote of the people. There is therefore nothing to be said against it, or rather nothing can be said to alter it. We are "dry" by choice and those who voted against prohibition are as much interested as those who voted for it to see how the experiment will work out, while, of course all are agreed that it should have a fair trial.

DR. CLARK.

The Liberals of Red Deer will not have Dr. Clark for a candidate. Dr. Clark has voted with the Borden government on the Conscription and Franchise bills, and his action has not found favor with the Liberal Association of Red Deer. Dr. Clark announced that he was willing to run on a non-party basis in support of national government. The Association does not want a non-party candidate, and did not even consider the doctor's nomination. Instead, the convention chose a straight Laurier candidate, so Laurier's flag has been raised in the West. It is to be hoped that Dr. Clark may yet be nominated by a win-the-war non-party organization. The Dominion needs men of his ability, independence and loyalty. He has consistently refused to play the party game in the present national emergency, and it is men of his type who are needed at Ottawa.

A RAID THAT FAILED

The German air raid on Friday night was a failure. The raiders were unable to get past the British air defences of London, did no damage with the few bombs they succeeded in dropping, and lost two of their machines. It may be that the reason for this failure is not to be found altogether in an improved defensive system. The night, it is said, was not so favorable for raiding as on previous occasions. Still the fact remains that the attacking squadrons were attacked and forced back by British fighting machines. Lord French has obviously greatly strengthened his defences and in all probability German raiders will get a better reception from now on. At all events the raid was a blank failure on Friday night.

Master Samuel Inkster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Inkster of Ladysmith, has left for Portland, Oregon, where he will take a full course in the North Pacific College of Pharmacy. Sam has been with the Ladysmith Drug Co. for years, and has already acquired a good general knowledge of the work of the profession he had decided to follow. In addition to this he possesses an extraordinary genius for colored lettering on cardboard, which, if he followed, might bring him fame in the future. His work in this line borders very closely on the artistic and is in great demand with the big firms in the populous cities of the east.—Chronicle.

GERMANS ALARMED AT FINANCIAL POSITION

ditions as the restoration of Belgium and no indemnities.

The Deutsche Tagezeitung would afford another field for peruasive effort inside Germany for on Aug. 18 he wrote: "The real freedom on the seas can be secured for the German empire only when it is able to force it from the powers which would bar us from the freedom of the seas. The reductions of armaments would make impossible both the freedom of the seas and the security and independence of the German empire and its frontiers on land. The complete evacuation of Belgium would mean having on the empire's frontiers an irreconcilable Belgium dependent on Great Britain and France, a fact which alone would make any likelihood of freedom of the seas impossible." Or it might even try to convert the Austrian ally. Naturally, Austria, as a Catholic country even more desperately ready for peace than Germany is deferential to the pope's proposals.

But just as Germany wishes a German peace so Austria wishes an Austrian peace. The Vienna Reichspost of Aug. 19 published the following: "The pope's note, which aimed at a just and durable peace, is in absolute harmony with the aims of the monarchy. As to concrete proposals, Austria is willing to evavuate occupied territories and to renounce all claims to indemnities once the exhortations of the pope regarding gradual disarmament, establishment of international arbitration, and the full freedom of the seas, composing the guarantees necessary for the world's peace, are carried into effect, but under this last condition must be understood that the naval bases of Great Britain at Gibraltar and Malta and near the Suez canal shall diappear, as also the occupation of Valona by Italy."

President Wilson in his reply to the pope has put the position quite clearly. At present there is no government in Germany whom we can trust. If the Frankfurter Zeitung wishes to secure for its rich clients some of the property still left to them, it must begin its campaign for peace in Germany and by making it clear that it realizes that a "German peace" is not peace but a sword. a sword that the allies must break and will break.

TIGHTENING THE GRIP ON TEUTONS

More Vigorous Blockade of Germany Is to Be Enforced by the Entente Allies.

London, Sept 29.—A still more vigorous blockade of Germany is to be enforced by the Entente Allies as a result of the conference of Lord Robert Cecil, British Minister of blockade, with the French Minister of blockade today.

The King signed a proclamation prohibiting the exportation of certain articles to Sweden and Holland. The King's approval also was given to other measures to make it more difficult for the enemy to obtain such supplies through neutral countries.

HUN DEFEAT IN EAST AFRICA

British Forces Gain Further Victories Over the Germans in German East Africa—Important Base Occupied.

London, Sept. 29.—The War Office tonight announced a further success against the German forces in German East Africa in which British troops occupied an important base of the enemy. The announcement follows:

"Our troops yesterday occupied Nahumgo, an important German supply base 82 miles southwest of Kilwa, after considerable resistance. Our advances in Lukeledi Valley and forward movements of Belgians on Mahenge are continuing steadily.

BAYLEY AND NEFF IN DRAW

Victoria, Sept. 29.—The ten-round bout between Joe Bayley, self-styled lightweight champion of Canada and Chet Neff, of Seattle, here today, ended in a draw. The bout was announced for the lightweight championship of Canada. Bayley was obviously out of condition, and Neff did not appear to be working any harder than he had to, though had a decision been given he would certainly have been entitled to it on points. He had more science that Bayley, and landed more clean blows, both at long range and close quarters, and showed himself at least Bayley's equal at infighting.

WATER NOTICE

Diversion and Use.

Take notice that John Thomas Cook, whose address is Wyatt Bay, B.C., will apply for a license to take and use ten cubic feet per second of water out of stream, also known as Newcombe Creek, which flows in a westerly direction and drains into Okisollo about two and one-half miles north of Surge Narrows. The water will be diverted from the stream at a point about eighteen hundred feet easterly from the south west corner of Lot 420, and will be used for industrial purposes upon the land described as Lot four hundred and twenty. This notice was posted on the ground on the 8th day of September, 1917. A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act, 1914" will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Vancouver, B.C. Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B. C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper. The date of the first publication of this notice is September 16, 1917.

JOHN THOMAS COOK,
Applicant.

TURKS SEE THE END APPROACHING

Amsterdam, Sept., 28.—Turkey's entry into the war was justified by Talaat Bey, the Grand Vizier, in a long speech in closing the congress of the Party of Union and Progress, according to a dispatch from Constantinople. He defended the Turkish treatment of the Armenians, but admitted that the deportations could not be carried out by regular forces because the gendarmes had been drafted into the army and order could not be maintained. Irregularities in connection with the deportations had been investigated, he said, and the guilty parties had been punished severely, some with death.

Referring to the Pope's peace note Talaat Bey declared that Turkey adhered to the principle of arbitration. Regarding disarmament he said: "We shall oppose no solution which is compatible with our vital interest."

He concluded by saying that no one could say when peace would come but it was obvious that the end was approaching.

RED SOX DEFEAT SELECTED STARS

Boston, Sept. 28.—The Boston Americans defeated 2 to 0 an all-star team, recruited from leading players of the American league with Maranville, of the Boston Nationals at shortstop. The entire proceeds went to the family of the late T. H. Murnane, who was considered the dean of American baseball writers. The receipts were well over $14,000.

Cobb of Detroit, Speaker of Cleveland, and Jackson of the champion Chicago Americans played the outfield for the all-stars and contributed sensational plays. McInnes, of the Philadelphia Athletics was at first; Chapman, the Cleveland shortstop, on second and Weaver of Chicago at third.

SOUR STOMACH, SOUR THE FOOD AND CAUSE INDIGESTION.

"Pape's Diapepsin" fixes sour gassy, upset stomachs in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why it relieves sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, it that you will feel that your stomach and intestines arec lean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for billiousness or constipaton.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn. sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute. and rid yourself of stomach misery and indigesion in five minutes.

STRIKERS ORDERED BACK TO WORK

San Francisco Cala., Sept. 23—All members of all the Unions concerned in the strike of 30,000 metal trades workers here were ordered tonight by the Iron Trades council to return to work Saturday. OXMAN WAS RE-ARRESTED

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 23.—Shortly after the acquittal here tonight of Frank C. Oxman, on a charge of attempted subordination of perjury, growing out of the Thomas J. Mooney bomb murder trial, a new warrant for his arrest was issued at the instance of Mrs. Belle Hamberberg, sister of Mooney's wife. It was served on the Oregon cattleman at his hotel.

All Good Music Is a Joy

But the greatest joy comes from hearing the kind of music you like best just when you want it.

That's the kind of music-joy you can have when the Columbia Grafonola comes into your home.

The stirring music of great bands and orchestras, the wonderful voices of grand opera singers, the clever singing of popular song hits—and as for dance music—well no one can keep quiet when the Grafonola plays a dazzling "jass" tune.

Think of the merry little parties you can have at the shortest notice when your friends drop in—if you are prepared to entertain them with a Columbia Grafonola. Why let YOUR home go without this musical joy when almost every other good home you know has it?

Columbia Grafonola Price $135

DOMINION THEATRE

For the first time since her appearance in Artcraft pictures, "America's Sweetheart," Mary Pickford, will be seen at the Dominion Theatre commencing Monday and Tuesday as a modern American girl in modern gowns, Cecil B. De Mille and Jeanie Macpherson. In "Less than Dust," the famous star was seen as an East Indian,, in "The Pride of the Clan" as a Scotch lassie, in "A Poor Little Rich Girl" as a child and in "A Romance of the Redwoods" as a New England girl of the days of '49, but in "The Little American" she blossoms forth as a wealthy American girl with beautiful gowns and modern costumes by Lucile and Madame Frances. The story, staged by Cecil B. De Mille, deals with the great war and adventures of a girl from the U. S. A. caught in the terrible maelstrom in France.

Mary Pickford's new Artcraft production, "The Little American," staged under the personal direction of Cecil B. De Mille, contains many thrilling incidents, one of which is the torpedoing of the great transatlantic liner, the "Veritania" while a battle is in progress. The spectator sees the beautifully gowned dancers thrown into the water. By a strange coincidence, these big scenes were taken on the second anniversary of the sinking of the "Lusitania." "The Little American" will be shown at the Dominion Theatre on Monday and Tuesday.

Would You Like to Earn $1 or $2 Daily the Year Round at Home

The Hosiery trade is booming, and the Demand far exceeds the Supply. We gladly take all the goods you can send us.

We must have more workers at once to help us keep pace with the demand. The Auto Knitter is sent on favorable terms to reliable persons, and we furnish full instructions how to knit sox, etc., also all yarn needed. The work is simple and easily learned; the Auto Knitter is a high speed machine, and works by turning a handle. Our fixed rates of pay guarantee you a steady income the year round, no matter where you live, but our workers often largely increase this by working for private customers.

Working either whole or spare time, this pleasant employment has brought prosperity to many workers in their own homes, and should do the same for you.

Write today, enclosing 3c in stamps, for full particulars, rates of pay, etc., and see what you and your family can now earn at home.

$15.00 WILL BUY A SPENCER SUIT THAT BUSINESS MEN WILL TAKE PLEASURE WEARING

Men who think Fifteen Dollars about the price they want to pay for their suit can find here just the satisfaction they hoped to get for their money.

These suits are worthy in the very best sense of the word. The materials are soft and give you that appearance of quality that is unmistakable even to men who do not claim to be experts in woollens.

The suits are cut in conservative styles and are well tailored with good linings and interlinings.

But the dominating feature of all is the value. They represent an entirely different and superior standard of values than today's market warrants.

These same suits are actually worth $25 and will compare favorably with suits shown by other stores at the higher figure.

Ample choosing among neat brown mixtures, plain greys—mostly unfinished worsteds and tweeds.

MANY MATTERS BEFORE COUNCIL

Ald. Coburn Delegate to Good Roads Convention — Hotel Men to Receive Refund of License Money — Committee's Report.

At last night's meeting of the City Council Ald. Coburn was appointed to represent the city at a convention of the Good Roads League of Canada to be held at Dunran on Ohtober 9th.

A communication was received from Lieutenant Governor Barnard, asking the Council to take some steps toward raising some fnnds for the British Red Cross on "Our Day" October 18th.

On motion of Ald. Morton, seconded by Ald. Forrester the communication was referred to the committee which has in hand the raising of money for the British Sailors Relief Fund with instructions to co-operate with the local Red Cross Society and other committees which may be appointed in the city in support of the appeal.

The Street Committee reported it had come to the conclusion in view of unsettled weather conditions and the straitened conditions of civic finances it would be unwise to paint the Millstream bridge at the present time and recommended the matter be taken up at the first of the year by the 1918 Council

The recommendation of the Street Committee was adopted on motion of Ald. Ferguson seconded by Ald. Forrester.

Fire Chief Parkin reported four fires during the past month and Pound Keeper Graham reported he had collected $17 in dog taxes and had impounded 5 horses, 3 cows and 3 dogs during the month of September

The Council adopted a recommendation of th[illegible] that permission be g[illegible] Garage Company to instal[illegible] on gasolins tank under the [illegible]ision of the Fire Chief

A special committee appointed to investigate the claim of the Nanaimo Building and Land Company, reported as follows:

Gentlemen, — We, your Special Committee, to whom was referred the communication from the Nanaimo Building and Land Company, regarding their property on the Crescent, beg to report that we have investigated the complaints relative to our departments, and beg to recommend that an amount of $62.75 be reimbursed made up as follows: $50 refund re the sewer and $12.75 being the amount expended by the Company on proving that the water in the basement was a fault of the city's. Further, we are of the opinion that the broken light of glass in the store window was not caused through a settlement of the building but seems to have been broken from the outside by a stone; this being the case we do not propose to make any allowance for the store window at all. The latter part of the letter dealing with the taxation on Lots 1 and 2 Block 12 we beg to refer to the Finance and Legislative Committee to be straightened out.

Respectfully submitted.

W. J. FERGUSON,
A. FORRESTER,
W. H. MORTON,
Special Committee.

The report of the committee was adopted on motion of Ald. Ferguson,

The special committee appointed to arrange for a Tag Day in aid of the British Navy League recommended Oct. 20th be set aside as Tag Day, and that a communication be sent to the Local Red Cross Club and the Daughters of the Empire asking them to appoint taggers to solicit donations.

The recommendation of the committee was adopted on motion of Ald Coburn, seconded by Ald. Sharp.

The Street Foreman reported an expenditure in wages during the past week of $95.35, and the Water Works Manager reported an expenditure of $33.23.

Ald. Coburn informed the Council the documents in connection with the transfer of the Athletic Club property to the city had been received by the committee, and as it was necessary the[illegible] be signed by the Mayor and City C[illegible] before the expiration of five days, he moved a special meeting of the Council be held Tuesday night to make final disposition of the transfer documents.

The motion was seconded by Ald. Sharp and adopted.

On motion of Ald. Coburn, seconded by Ald. Harding, the City Comptroller was instructed and authorized to refund to the hotel men in the city the amount of license money overpaid by them by reason of the Prohibition Act closing their places of business.

Council then adjourned.

NO COAL FROM LAKE PORTS

U. S. Fuel Administrator Stops Shipment of Coal From American Lake Ports into Canada.

Washington, Oct. 1.—All Shipments of coal into Canada from American Lake Ports were ordered stopped to-night by Fuel Administrator Garfield to divert coal from these ports to meet the fuel stortage in the northwest.

Washington, D. C. Oct. 1.—The continued export of coal to Canada in large quantities through Lake ports has brought more protests to the Fuel Administration from Northwestern states, where consumers declare they face a coal shortage this winter. The Exports Administrative board which took up the situation at the request of Fuel Administrator Garfield thus far has taken no steps to check shipments to Canada and the northwest contends that coal diverted to Lake ports at the direction of the Government is not reaching the territory most in need of it.

RHODES—HAARER

A wedding of no little interest to Nanaimo was consummated in Washington, D. C., on Saturday Sept. 29, when Miss Helena Terrell Haarer, one of the most successful school teachers who have ever served in the public schools of this city, became the wife of Mr. F. Hall Rhodes, formerly employed in the Canadian Explosives Works at Departure Bay, but now holding a responsible position in a powder manufacturing plant at Tamaqua, Penn.

The Rev. Dr. Stevens was the officiating clergyman, and after the ceremony the happy pair left for Virginia on a visit to relatives of both the bride and groom, whose homes are in that state. Following a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes will take up their residence in Tamaqua.

QUEBEC TO VOTE ON PROHIBITION

Quebec, Oct. 1,—Quebec will vote on Prohibition on Oct. 4 and a campaign is going on that is creating as much interest as the anti-conscription movement did. Four big meetings have been held, two in favor of prohibition and two against Both parties claim victory.

Should prohibition carry on October 4 the antis claim it will have no effect as all hotel keepers and wine merchants would move their [illegible]led Quebec west that has been created by an act of legislation and has power to give as many as licenses as the council desires.

STRONG ATTACK UPON LONDON

Four Groups of German Air Machines Raided London and Coast Towns Last Night —Enemy Got Through Terrific Air Barrage.

London, Oct. 1.—The strongest attack yet attempted on London and coast towns by the Germans was carried out tonight by four groups of hostile airplanes. Some of the machines got through to London and bombed the southwestern district. A terrific barrage was sent up from defence guns and the roar of battle lasted intermittently for two hours and a half.

The Germans bombed the coast towns as they passed over and proceeded toward London. Two of the groups succeeded in getting a number of machines through the sky barrage. Numerous bombs were dropped on the southwestern district, which is thickly populated with the homes of the upper and middle classes. Fire from defending guns was longer and louder than ever before and a rain of shrapnel fell in all sections of the town and streets were virtually deserted. The weather was perfect for air operations.

The people of London expected the raid and were waiting for signals.

NO EXEMPTION AS A CLASS

Ottawa Announces There Will be No Exemption in Canada of Any Trade or Occupation as a Whole.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—No special occupations will receive exemption under the act. In Great Britain certain occupations were certified and a man so occupied received conditional exemption. But while conditional exemption, viz exemption granted so long as a man remains at a specified occupation may be granted by a local tribunal in Canada, there will be no trades or occupation granted exemption as a whole. This declaration it is understood, has been definitely reached and local tribunals will be guided by it. It is pointed out here that the Military Service Act does no provide for the listing of occupations especially calling for exemption. The plan was not found to work satisfactory in England. Further, extreme variation in conditions prevailing in different parts of Canada, render such a plan even less suitable here. In considering a claim for exemption, a Tribunal will regard the national interest as a primary factor. A man's occupation will be a factor of the first importance but each individual claim will be dealt with on its merits. A loafer will not be able to get exemption by claiming that he is employed in one of the basic industries.

AUSTRIANS LOST TWO THOUSAND

Rome, Oct. 1.—In three of the operations of the past three days General Cadorna's troops have taken 2,019 prisoners, the War Office announced today. Further Austrian attacks upon the Italian lines on the Biansizza plateau which were pushed forward in recent attacks were completely repulsed.

GREAT RECORD OF FIGHTING 29TH

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 1.—That the 29th Vancouver Battalion achieved imperishable fame in the late Summer fighting on the Western front is shown by the following letter just received in the city from a British army officer high in the staff service. It says:

"By this time you will have seen and heard of the wonderful fight the 29th Battalion made in the face of fearful odds, hellish fire and machine gun and rifle fire. How with the 27th and most of the 28th Battalions they fought nearly a whole division, repulsed counter-attacks and killed hundreds of Germans.

"It has been a glorious fight, and the whole world has rung with it. These brigades held the battlefront for a month. We were not supposed to do anything much in the attack, but, to make a long story short, at short notice we were sent in to make a further attack on only partially prepared positions and barbed wire and unbattered machine gun strong points, trenches and houses.

"Finally we went in, and it was known and admitted that our task was to shell Germans and to 'draw' the reserves behind, which included the German 1st Guards Division. The day of the fighting was agonizing, all communications cut and so difficult to run.

"The 29th finished with one officer and 65 men (out of 16 officers and 650 men who started in the battle) in the trench when it was over. They eventually were relieved, but we first—as we always do— cleared our battlefield of dead and wounded to a man.

"Yesterday Sir Douglas Haig came and reviewed us in a lovely green field outside a peaceful French village near where we are now resting. A splendid visit from a great soldier to a magnificent remnant of worn and stained fighting men. A tribute to the valor and the deeds of, I suppose, the finest unit in our armies, and therefore anywhere in the world today—I felt a lump in my throat as he returned our salute and said: 'You have done well, magnificently.'

"I do not suppose you realize out there that the Canadian Corps is easily—with the Guards—the finest fighting unit we have today. This is a fact, and not one I would state without being sure. They were not at one time, but they have become so and is an accomplished fact.

"There is no better brigade in the corps than this glorious western lot and so as they are presumed and reputed to be the best brigade in it is fair to say that they are about the best in the world—I can't tell you more now. At no time have troops fought hand-to-hand like it. We met amongst other things a regiment composed entierly of grenade throwers and bombers. With no equipment other than bombs—no rifles or anything—we killed them nearly all."

WAS DAY OF BIG GUN DEULLING

A Heavy Reciprocal Bombardment is Taking Place Along the Belgian Coast and Ypres, and a Terrific Duel Raged Near Verdun.

The almost complete silence that [illegible] days has surrounded the operations of the British armies in France and Belgium continues. Aside from an announcement in official reports and these are meager to a degree, nothing has been permitted to pass through the censorship which would indicate what Field Marshal Haig has in immediate view. Along the coast in Belgium and around Ypres an extremely heavy reciprocal bombardment is taking place. Nothing is contained in either the British or German communications to show that the troops of either side have left their trenches even for forays.

Along both sides of the Meuse river in Verdun sector the French and the Germans are engagaed in another terrific duel. Twice the Germans launched infantry attacks in an effort to capture positions but on both occasions were stopped short by the French fire. While in England demands of the people for reprisals against the Germans for air attacks on open towns continue to grow in volume French aviators have revenged themselves for a raid on Bar Le Duc by heavily bombing the German town of Stuttgart from the air. In all half a ton of explosives were dropped.

In Austro-Italian theatre the Austrians have delivered several heavy counter attacks against newly won positions of Italians on the Bainszza plateau but everywhere have met with complete repulse.

Again the Russians through an attack in the Riga region have forced the Germans to give ground this time for a depth of from 800 to a thousand yards. Russian air men to the south have dropped large quantities of explosives on enemy camps situated near Kovel. On other fronts there is little activity except in the nature of artillery duels.

HUN CAPTAIN IN THE TOILS

Former Commander of Commerce Raider Found Guilty of "White Slavery" By Philadelphia Court.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—Capt. Thierichens, former commander of the seized German commerce raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich, was today found guilty of violating the Mann Act in bringing women from Ithaca N.Y. to Philadelphia for improper purposes. Sentence was deferred pending disposition of a motion for a new trial. There are two counts in the indictment on which the German captain was convicted, and the maximum penalty on each is five years. Tomorrow Capt. Thierichens will face the court on a charge of smuggling ashore nineteen dutiable ship chronometers from the raider while interned at the Philadelphia navy yard. Thierichens is also under indictment on a charge of violating the postal laws in sending an improper letter to a school teacher in Saginaw Mich.

FRENCH REPULSED ENEMY ATTACKS

Infantry Fighting of a Stubborn Character Took Place on the Right Bank of the Meuse.

London, Oct. 1.—Several heavy attacks were delivered by the Germans today against British positions north of Ypres and east of Polygon Wood, according to an official communication from the British headquarters today. All attacks were repulsed with heavy casualties, except near the southeast corner of Polygon Wood, where the enemy entered two British advanced posts.

Paris, Oct. 1.—Heavy artillery firing was reported by the War Office tonight on the Aisne front. There also has been infantry fighting of a stubborn character on the right bank of the Meuse where the Germans attacked the French line but were eventually repulsed.

BRITISH VICTORS NEAR BAGDAD

Many Guns and Several Thousand Turkish Prisoners Fell InIto the Hands of General Maude's Troops.

London, Oct. 1.—An official report issued here concerning the operations in Mesopotamia announces the [illegible] on Friday of Mushaid Ridge, in the region of Bagdad. The British forces attacked the Turkish main position in the region of Ramadie from the south, east and west and continued the attack Saturday, the enemy everywhere surrendering. The capture by the British includes guns, ammunition and several thousand prisoners including Ahmed Bey and his staff.

The report of Major-General Frederick S. Maude, commander of the expedition, says:

"After an advance Thursday night we attacked the enemy's advanced position at Mushaid, four miles east of Ramadie, early Friday morning. Mushaid Ridge was occupied with little difficulty.

"A column, continuing to advance manoeuvred away from the river, attacking the Turks' main position about Ramadie from the southeast. A severe battle ensued lasting throughout Friday. By nightfall our troops had carried the main positions and were encircling Ramadie from the east, southeast and south at a distance under two miles from the town Our cavalry captured the land cordon, while the Euphrates runs on the north side of the town. The enemy during the night attempted to break out westward but was headed back by our cavalry.

"Our troops resumed the attack vigorously Saturday at daybreak, with the result that at 9 o'clock in the morning the enemy was surrendering everywhere.

"Included in our capture are guns, arms, ammuition, stores and equipment, and also much other booty and several thousand prisoners, including Ahmed Bey, the Turkish commander and his staff.

"The enemy was taken entirely by surprise and practically the whole garrison of Ramadie fell into our hands. Our troops displayed great gallantry, determination and endurance under the most difficult conditions.

During the night of Thursday another column moved out northeast of Bagdad after a sharp skirmish with a Turkish cavalry detachment, inflicting casualties and capturing four prisoners and 300 Turkish supply camels."

CABINET COUNCIL WAS IN SESSION

No Announcement Made as to Dissolution of Parliament But Plans Being Made For Election In December.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—Borden's first day in the capital after his brief holiday was not productive of any definite announcement in regard to the reconstruction, formal dissolution of parliament or Government appointments. The Cabinet Council was in session for a couple of hours in the late afternoon. Subsequent to the meetings Sir Robert said he had no announcement of any kind to make, but intimated that there might be something of interest to make public within a day or two.

While plans are being made for holding a general election in December impression is growing that it may be found impossible to have voting take place before January. The revision of the lists in addition to the provisions of the war times election act the printing of the same and all other necessary arrangements for the contest at the polls may consume so much time that nominations cannot take place until December with voting four weeks later.

ELECTED THIRD VICE PRESIDENT

Senator Planta Who Was Honored by Convention Reports to City Council on Proceedings of Recent Meeting of Canadian Municipalities.

Senator A.E. Planta, who represented the Nanaimo City Council at the London convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities last night submitted a report to the Council on the proceedings of the convention together with the following introductory communication:

To His Worship the Mayor, and Aldermen of the City of Nanaimo,

Gentlemen:—

In pursuance of your request of July last I attended the Convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities held in London, Ont., Aug. 27th, 28th, and 29th, and I now have much pleasure in forwarding you herewith a copy of the official report of the proceedings of the said Convention from which you will observe that a number of very important matters were dealt with.

Of the many subjects discussed, perhaps the most important and interesting were those dealing with the Hydro Electric Power and Lighting Systems of Eastern Canada where cheap electricity has brought into existence many extensive manufacturing and industrial enterprises besides giving to the Citizens light and heat at a remarkable low price.

Having in mind the water power going to waste in Nanaimo River I asked Adam Beck if he thought it would pay the City of Nanaimo to bring current thirteen miles to supply the demands of the community and he replied that undoubtedly it would.

As you are doubtless aware the Convention did Nanaimo honor of appointing its delegate Third Vice-President for the ensuing year.

May I say in passing that in my travels through Eastern cities, small and large, I was much impressed with the attention given to beautifying the vacant spaces; and I could not help thinking how much pleasure it would give our citizens if the Parks and Squares of this city were made beauty spots instead of remaining uncared for as at present. All of which could be done at very little cost.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Yours truly,

A. E. PLANTA.

On motion of Ald. Forrester seconded by Ald. Morton the communication was received and filed and the City Clerk instructed to extend to Senator Planta the thanks of the Council for his services.

A BRILLIANT VICTORY

General Maude has opened the British campaign in Mesopotamia with one of the most brilliant victories of the war. Following the capture of Bagdad the British General pushed on in the direction of Samarra, and dispatched a flying column to join forces with the Russians. Then came the summer season when the operations had to be abandoned owing to the heat. Sir Frederick, in reopening his campaign, has apparently taken the enemy by surprise. By a piece of brilliant strategy, he was able to encircle the little town of Ramadie, where the Turkish headquarters were located. The Turks were unable to break through, and the whole place was captured, with guns and stores, and a host of prisoners including the Turkish commander. There were some doubts as to whether General Maude would be able to resume his campaign owing to the instability of the Russian forces, and his brilliant victory is all the more welcome and encouraging as a consequence.

GERMAN AIR RAIDS

Following their reverse of last Friday night, the Germans made another air raid against London on Sunday night. On this occasion the raiders were able to reach London, although they lost several machines. The British newspapers are again discussing the efficiency of the air defences. They have to admit that the system is greatly improved but are doubtful if any plan can be devised which can be depended on to keep out raiding machines. Perhaps better results could be obtained by counter raids. The French people at any rate will not suffer air raids to go unavenged. The Germans recently bombed Bar-le-Duc, and the French promptly retaliated by a raid on Stuttgart. Whether it is because of these reprisals or not German air raids against French cities are few and far befween. Why should there not be British reprisals?

THE BATTLE OF FLANDERS

The battle now raging in Flanders may prove to be a big turning point in the war should Sir Douglas Haig, as now seems probable, gain a complete success and secure possession of the Passchandaele Ridge. After three years of struggle and prodigious preparations it sometimes looks as if the results obtained in recent offensives are altogether disproportionate to the efforts put forth. Artillery is employed on a scale hitherto undreamed of, and the enemy lines are sprayed with thousands of tons of high explosive shells before an infantry attack is launched. And after all this preparation the attack if it is completely successful, results in the gain of a mile or so of territory on a limited front. This freshly won territory has then to be held and consolidated against fierce counter attacks and the most intensive bombardments.

The fighting has become a test of mechanical strength and efficiency, and human pluck and endurance. The British offensive at present has for its object the possession of a line of ridges which dominate the lowlying Flanders country. With the Passchandaele Ridge in his hands, he could command the railways to the coast. In other words the success of the present offensive seriously threatens the German operation of the submarine bases at Ostend and Zeebrugge. The German commanders are fully alive to the vital issue at stake and they are striving in desperation to stem the British advance. So far, if we are to accept Sir Douglas Haig's reports, and they have always been absolutely reliable, the Germans are being steadily defeated. It was in this same sector that the Kaiser three years ago, issued his famous order to his crack troops to roll up the contemptible English army. Now the Germans themselves realise and admit that they are engaged in the first real test of the war. With armies of such vast strength and tremendous equipment the results, under modern conditions of fighting, are bound to be small and to be slow. But Sir Douglas Haig's armies are every day provng their superiority in mechanical equipment and in fighting qualities, and altogether the battle of the last two weeks in Flanders may be regarded as the most momentous and the most successful in which the British forces have yet engaged.

"One Meatless Meal a Day" is a good food slogan for war time, or any time—better make it two meatless meals a day—it would mean health and strength for the nation. But be sure and get the right substitute for meat in a digestible form. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is the ideal substitute for meat. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat prepared in a digestible form. Two or three of these little loaves of baked whole wheat make a nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of only a few cents. Delicious with milk or cream or fruits of any kind.

GERMAN PIRATES ARE SENT TO BOTTOM

London, Oct. 1.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—Among the encounters of British vessels with enemy submarines the following will serve to illustrate the diversity of methods employed to deal with the scourage of the seas:

First instance—A torpedo boat on patrol in the Atlantic observed a steamship torpedoed by a submarine. She immediately proceeded to her aid. The steamship sank, and having picked up the survivors the torpedo boat circled around searching for the submarine. A white patch was sighted on the water right ahead. The torpedo boat made for the spot. When she was within fifty yards of the spot a periscope suddenly appeared and the gunboat, whose speed was 17 knots, altered her course so that she passed directly over the submarine. The impact of the collision was felt, and when the captain judged that the U-Boat was directly under his ship, he ordered an explosive charge dropped. When this had exploded another was dropped and a seaplane which circled around the spot reported large pools of oil on the surface. A group of mine-sweepers working in this vicinity later reported an obstruction at the spot where the submarine was hit.

Second instance—In this case there is no probability whatever of the U-boat concerned having escaped. A British submarine on patrol duty sighted an enemy undersea boat. Both vessels were on the surface and a heavy sea running at the time. The British boat submerged and a quarter of an hour later succeeded in picking up the enemy by her periscope. She fired at the estimated range of 300 yards and after a pause of a minute heard the concussion of an explosion. She rose to the surface and found a patch of oil with survivors swimming in it. These were taken prisoners and they stated that the torpedo had struck their craft just below the conning tower Their submarine had reeled over and sunk, the survivors being blown up through the conning tower.

Furred Tongue, Bad Colds, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

HOTELS EXPERIENCE FIRST DAY OF PROHIBITION

The hotel men of Nanaimo had their first experience yesterday of operating under the new act which prohibited the sale of anything but non-intoxicating beverages. Of the eighteen hotels in the city ten were opened yesterday and several others contemplate re-opening in the next few days. While business was not considered "rushing" yesterday nevertheless a number of the hotels report a fair day and they predict "Near Beer" will satisfy the wants of the moderate drinker who likes a refreshing beverage. Near Beer they state, is very well named, for the article which is being manufactured by the local brewery has the good qualities of its predecessor without its attendant intoxicating effect.

The Toronto team has won the International league pennant after a remarkable fight, in which it came through in spite of injuries and other handicaps. And the manager of the champions of the Barrow circuit is no less a person than our old friend Napoleon Lajoie, who, in his first year, in strange company, has been the driving force and inspiration of the Maple Leafs. Not only has Nap been a great manager, but he is one of the leading hitters of the International circuit. And yet they told us a year ago that he was done, that he had lost his spirit as well as his physical qualfications. Give heed, therefore, to those who always believed in Lajoie. List while they rise up and tell you what he has done with Toronto he might have done with Cleveland, had he been given the co-operation and support without which no manager can make a showing. We will hear a lot from the old Lajoie boosters this winter—and a lot of us will have to admit the truth of much that will be told.

WILL PAY ADVANCE IF COAL PRICES RAISED

Washington, Oct. 1.—Central competitive field coal operators discussing with miners representatives here the readjustment of the wage scale agreed today to meet in part the miners demand on condition that the Government increase the prices fixed for coal at the mines. Their counter proposal will be submitted to the miners tomorrow. The Miners demand wage increases ranging from 25 percent upwards.

JOHNSON MAY JOIN INDIANS NEXT YEAR

Baltimore, Oct. 1.— "Johnson's contract of $18,500 expires this season, and the speed king has made up his mind not to sign unless Griffith came through with a like offer which no doubt explains why our boss is letting his star moundsman go," said a prominent member of the Washington American League team in discussing the reported transfer of pitcher Walter Johnson to Cleveland.

In a conversation with a Washington authority yesterday over the long distance phone, it leaked out that Griffith had been endeavoring for the last three weeks to have Johnson sign a 1918 contract, but that the pitcher refused to accept a cut in salary. A few days ago Griffith openly admitted that the club was a heavy loser and that every member of his team holding a high salary contract would have to accept a big cut or be shipped elsewhere, otherwise the Senators would be unable to do business.

The proposed sale of Johnson makes it look as if the owners of the Washington franchise are very desirous of getting on without the marvellous Walter, when the club would probably be an absolute tail-ender, and a sure financial failure as well. No one hesitates in admitting that the Senators would have failed even to make expenses at home this season, and the deal with Cleveland may mean the opening shot in an effort to recoup some of the lost fortune before the franchise is shifted elsewhere.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR, DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY.

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, glossy, wavy and beautiful at once.

Immediate? — Yes! Certain? that's the joy of. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few week's use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

PORT RENFREW HAS BIG LOGGING CAMPS

One million feet of spruce a month for the construction of aeroplanes to be used by the Allies against the Germans in the war is the contribution of one concern alone at Port Renfrew, according to G. G. Davis, the well known logging operator.

Mr. Davis is at present employing a gang of sixty men in the woods at Port Renfrew, and it is his camp that is producing the one million feet of spruce logs per month. In a short time Mr. Davis expects to extend his operations, and so far as he is concerned Port Renfrew will continue to do its bit in the way of supplying the much-needed material.

The logs taken out by Mr. Davis are towed to the Rat Portage Lumber Company at Vancouver. Templin's logging camp at Port Renfrew is also getting out aeroplane spruce, which is brought down to Victoria to be cut up by the Cameron Lumber Company. Mr. Davis states that, to his knowledge, his and the Templin camp are the only two concerns that are engaged exclusively in getting out material for aeroplanes.

TED LEWIS IS A BUSY FIGHTER

Ted Lewis, the welterweight champion, is being kept busy by his manager, Jimmy Johnson, as the latter, no doubt, believes in the maxim of "make money while the sun shines." During the past month, or five weeks Ted has had eight battles, two each with Jimmy O'Hagan, Mike O'Dowd, Albert Badoud and Soldier Bartfield. He must believe in repeaters, for he has sure been following Sam Langford's style of meeting the same opponents over again. These do not include the numerous bouts he had with Jack Britton the past year. Ted is now being challenged by Johnny Griffiths, the Ohio Flash, for a championship contest at New Orleans over the 20-round route and Britton is also after another bout, but Jack is getting along in years now and his chances are not so bright. There is another welterweight who is liable to give Ted a lot of trouble before long. His name is Jock Malone, a real Irish harp, and he hails from Mike Gibbon's town of St. Paul. Malone is only a youngster, a college-bred one, being about 20 years of age, but he has a bunch of boxing science and he has a kick that even Ted Lewis might be proud of. Mr. Malone will bear watching and Champion Lewis had better look to his laurels.

DOMINION THEATRE

Mary Pickford, plus Cecil B. De Mille, plus a powerful story, a wealth of action, a series of remarkably spectacular effects, a number of surprises that will positively thrill and a cast of unusual capabilities is what "The Little American," a new Artcraft picture at the Dominion Theatre has to offer. Each individual connected with the production of this pcture feels that he or she has contributed their very best talents to the cause of this stirring subject. The picture has already created a sensation among film circles and that it will prove the greatest cinema success of the year is freely predicted by many who are in a position to judge.

SUBSTITUTES FOR GASOLENE

Alfred Reeves, general manager of the Automobile Chamber of Commerce in a statement issued recently, declared "there is no cause for alarm among automobile makers and users over the fuel situation, but it is both wise and patriotic to encourage the conservation of gasolene by avoiding waste and by careful carbureter adjustments and handling of cars so as to get the greatest possible mileage from every gallon of fuel used."

Mr. Reeves says: "There is always the possibility of using other fuels in motor vehicles. Alcohol has been sucessfully used in Germany and France, and has been used with good results in traction engines in Cuba, where the cost of production from cane refuse was only 8 to 10 cents a gallon before the war. In Germany the cost of production was from 12 to 15 cents. Alcohol can be used with ordinary carbureters, but the engine compression must be raised. Coal gas is now being used in omnibuses in England. After a trial extending over four months, the Grimsby municpality has reduced the fuel cost of operating its system of motor buses from 4.3 pence (8 1-2 cents) per mile to 1 2-3 pence (3 1-3 cents). The cost of coal gas is 61 cents per 1,000 feet, and of gasolene 61 cents per gallon. The only change made in the motor is the fitting of a butterfly valve in the air in-take pipe. In Yorkshire the use of coal gas in automobiles is increasing rapidly. The gas is contained in a rubber-lined canvas bag strapped to the top of the omnibus or to the rear of the automobile. Undoubtedly the gas could be compressed and carried in a comparatively small steel cylnder that would not be so large and unsightly.

"If the manufacture of whisky is prohibited by the American Government during the period of the war, the large distilleries will probably be glad to turn to the distillation of industrial alcohol from sawdust and other waste products, which can be produced to retail with profit at prices no higher than gasolene.

"The reports of the United States Bureau of Mines show that there are enormous deposits of oil-bearing shale in Montana, Nevada and Utah that have not yet been drawn upon, although a few companies are starting the work of recovering the oil from the shale under the stimulus or high prices for gasoline.

"Under the Burton and Rittman cracking processes, it is possible to increase the percentage of gasoline obtained from crude oil from about 15 per cent. to nearly 50 per cent. Gasolene is not being recovered by these processes from waste-oil products."

$15.00 WILL BUY A SPENCER SUIT THAT BUSINESS MEN WILL TAKE PLEASURE WEARING

Men who think Fifteen Dollars about the price they want to pay for their suit can find here just the satisfaction they hoped to get for their money.

These suits are worthy in the very best sense of the word. The materials are soft and give you that appearance of quality that is unmistakable even to men who do not claim to be experts in woollens.

The suits are cut in conservative styles and are well tailored with good linings and interlinings.

But the dominating feature of all is the value. They represent an entirely different and superior standard of values than today's market warrants.

These same suits are actually worth $25 and will compare favorably with suits shown by other stores at the higher figure.

Ample choosing among neat brown mixtures, plain greys—mostly unfinished worsteds and tweeds.
The Price $15.00

British Line Intact After Fierce Hun Assaults

CROWN PRINCE ATTACKED FRENCH LINE IN VAIN

Petain's Armies Successfully Withstood Vicious Attacks by Troops of German Crown Prince—Russians are Keeping up their Offensive in the Region South of Riga—British Victory Over Turks is Complete.

That extreme nervousness over approaching events pervades the German front in Flanders is indicated by infantry attacks by forces of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria are daily throwing against Field Marshal Haig's army on the Ypres salient. These attacks are being centered upon the apex of Haig's salient in the line which is pointing dangerously toward the Ostend-Lille railway, the ultimate gaining of which by English, Scotch and Australian contingents would work havoc to the replenishing with supplies of the German line to the south from the naval bases of Ostend and Zeebrugge.

In storming waves of great strength the Germans have made valient efforts to wrest from the British positions won in the recent offensive, but everywhere except at two points they met with decisive repulse under a hurricane of fire that swept over them from guns of all calibre, strewing the ground with their dead and wounded. Numerous prisoners also have been taken by the British and to a man they have evinced gratification that they are safe from the inferno of bursting shells which the British without cessation are pouring in upon the German holdings.

The big guns of the Germans have not been idle during the fighting, but their strength is in no wise comparable to that of the great array of cannon that Haig has set up for the purpose of pounding German entrenchments, for warding off attacks and for screening his infantrymen as they surge forward on new exploits.

The French and Germans are engaged in violent artillery duels along the Aisne front and in the Verdun sector in both of which regions General Petain's armies also again have been forced to withstand successfully vicious attacks from the troops of the German Crown Prince, especially near Craonne and Beaumont and between Hill 344 and Samogneux. Near Hill 344 the Germans entered a French position whihh later was recaptured in a counter attack.

On the northern front in Russia, in the region south of Riga the Russians are keeping up their offensive against the Germans and have beaten back the enemy for a distance of one mile south of the Kronenberg-Spital-Grounduli sector. Quiet still prevails on the eastern front farther south and in Galicia and Rumania.

In Mesopotamia the British victory over the Turks at Ramadie west of Bagdad, was greater than at first reported. In addition to capturing the town nearly 4,000 Turks were made prisoners and large numbers of guns and quantities of war stores were captured, moreover heavy casualties were inflicted on the Ottomans.

ATHLETIC CLUB DEAL IS CLOSED

Special Meeting of Council Last Night Authorized Mayor and City Clerk to Sign Documents for Transfer of Property to the City.

At a special meeting of the City Council last evening the Finance Committee reported in connection with the purchase of the Athletic Club property by the city as follows:

Nanaimo, B.C., Oct, 1917.

To His Worship the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Nanaimo, B.C.

Gentlemen—

We, your Finance Committee, to whom was referred the transferring of the Athletic Club property to the City, beg to report as follows:

Accompanying this report is the deed of transfer from Geo. S. Plummer, as Mortgagee, and the Nanaimo Literary and Athletic Association to The Corporation of the City of Nanaimo, in duplicate for Lots 19 and 20, Block 54, City of Nanaimo.

Deed of Transfer from the Nanaimo Literary and Athletic Association to The Corporation of the City of Nanaimo in triplicate for Lot 58 Subdivision of part of Section One, Nanaimo District, Map 1387.

Bill of Sale Nanaimo Literary and Athletic Association to The Corporation of the City of Nanaimo for goods and chattels contained in the Athletic Building also in duplicate.

All of the above have been signed by the representatives of the Nanaimo Literary and Athletic Association.

These several documents are drawn along the lines as approved by the Council sitting in Committee of the whole, and are now all in order to the best of our knowledge.

We therefore recommend that the deeds be now approved; that they be signed by the Mayor and City Clerk, and that the Corporate Seal be attached thereto; and that our Solicitor be and is hereby instructed and authorised, to register the Bill of Sale forthwith, this being necessary owing to the fact that the Bill of Sale has to be registered within five days of its date.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN W. COBURN,
W. H. MORTON,
JOHN SHARP,
Finance Committee.

The report of the committee was received and recommendation adopted, thus completing the transfer of the valuable property held by the Club to the ratepayers of the city.

Pte. E. Degnen, son of Mr. James Degnen, Gabriola, has returned from England, being invalided home as unfit for active service. He was in hospital in England for some time.

Raymond Gold, a lad 12 years of age, residing on Haliburton street, was knocked down by an auto on Church street last night and rendered unconscious. He was carried into the Windsor where he regained consciousness and at the latest reports no serious results were anticipated.

Mr. Alex. McKinnon of Vancouver, formerly of Nanaimo who has had charge of the Logging Camp for the New Ladysmith Lumber Company for several months past at East Wellington left yesterday to accept a position in the private Police Force of P. Burns & Co., at Vancouver. Alex's many friends will be pleased to hear of his recent appointment, as it will enable him to live at home with his family.

EXPLOSION IN MUNITION PLANT

London, Oct. 2.—A serious fire and explosion has occurred in a munition factory in the north of England, according to an official report. Much damage was done to the factory but thus far there have been no deaths. A number of workmen were injured.

ORGANIZED WIN THE WAR LEAGUE

Nanaimo Branch of Dominion-Wide Movement Was Organized Last Night—Officers Elected—Pledge Cards to be Distributed Throughout the City.

At a well attended meeting held last night in the Council Chambers, a branch of the Win-the-War League was organized in Nanaimo with the following officers:

President—Fred Jepson.
Vice-Pres.—E. N. Freeman.
Secretary—T. Marshall.
Treasurer—Mrs. A. J. Randle.

The executive was instructed to draft the several sub-committees and report back to the general committee at the next meeting for ratification A general discussion took place on national issues indicating keen interest is being taken in the issues of the day, especially problems arising out of the war. Pledge cards are to be circulated by the committee throughout the city, each member of the organization taking ten cards to which he or she will get signatures, pledging the signers to support no candidate who does not endorse the platform of the Win-the-War League.

MOBILIZATION PLAN EXPLAINED

Only Infantrymen Are Needed For Canada's Army Which Will be in Uniform by December First.

Winnipeg, Oct. 2.—Brig-General R. J. Gwynne, Director-General of Mobilization at headquarters, Ottawa, left the city tonight for Regina, Calgary and Vancouver, in order to discuss general terms with the military authorities of the respective districts regarding mobilization of the first draft under the Military Service Act.

Gen. Gwynne stated that further details in addition to those announced will be given out by the civil authorities of the Department of Justice, which is administering the act. It was unofficially announced that mobilization may be expected on or about October 15.

At the conclusion of a conference today between General Gwynne, Brigadier-General Ruttan, G.O.C., M.D. 10, Lieut.-Col., Gray, Assistant Adjutant-General E. R. Chapman, Registrar for Manitoba, T. D'Arcy McGee and George U. Stiff, of the Department of Justice. Mr. Stiff announced the details as to how the act will be worked out here, which are as follows:

Twenty days after the proclamation, the exemption tribunals start to sit.

The tribunals will complete their work in twenty days, when lists will be ready to hand over to the military authorities.

Consequently, within 45 days after the proclamation, the draft men may be expected to be called to the colors.

By December 1 the new army may be expected to be in khaki.

Single men between the ages of 20 and 34 must report within 25 days after the proclamation is issued or they will be offenders under the act.

The proclamation will order all class A men to report at the postoffice and either fill in the required form or make a claim for exemption.

If an exemption form is turned in to the postmaster a receipt will be given to the signer. All forms will then be forwarded to the registrar of the province. Only class A men will be taken in the first draft of 100,000 men.

Infantrymen only are needed.

PREDICTS DAILY RAIDS LONDON

London Press is Becoming Strongly Critical of Government's Explanations That British Cannot Spare Machines for Retaliatory Raids on Germans.

London, Oct. 2.—Londoners, who while heeding official warnings to take cover show no signs of panic or even great excitement any more during air raids. The people have accommodated themselves to enforced alterations in their method of living and are hurrying at the close of their working hours to take an early dinner and prepare to spend the evening in the security of their homes or in the greater safety afforded by the protection of the subways, basements and other underground refuges. Many carry wrapps and food and make themselves as comfortable as the circumstances will permit in corridors of big hotels, which are becoming a favorite place for residents the walls affording protection against flying glass. A large proportion of people continue their usual work. Last night for example, delivery carts continued on their rounds, drivers taking cover when the bombardment became intense, only to proceed when guns at intervals creased firing.

The London press is becoming strongly critical of the Government's semi official erplanations that the British cannot spare machines for reciprocal raids and are questioned by the Northcliffe newspapers the Daily Express and others, which point out that the Germans are able to spare air-craft for raiding England and have enough along the battle lines to give the British a continuing fight for supremacy in the air. It is urgued that the Germans evidently have outbuilt the British in aircraft and may be expected to continue building on an increasing scale and improve the types of their machines while the British are trying to catch up with them. Predictions that this would be the case were made months ago by some of the newspapers and by experts like Montague of Beaulieu.

Lord Montague also predicts that the Germans will soon pass the experimental stage of operations and will be able to attack London in all kinds of weather nearly every night.

BRITISH AIRMEN BOMB ENEMY

Fire in Enemy Airdromes Caused by British Bombs Was Visible for a Distance of Thirty Miles.

London Oct. 2.—On Sunday naval aircraft dropped bombs on the St. Denis-Westrem airdrome which fell among hangars and set fire to one on the south side. The fire spread, and was visible 30 miles away. Bombs were also dropped on the Zeebrugge lock gates.

Another bombing raid on St. Denis-Westrem was made at midday on Monday, seven direct hits being observed, and also two sheds on fire in the southeast corner of the airdrome is reported as having been set on fire Sunday, the hangars being gutted. All our machines returned safely, says the official statement.

ALD HARDING APPOINTED DELEGATE TO DUNCAN

At a special meeting held last night Ald. Forrester informed the members of the Council that in all probability he would be unable to attend the convention of the Union of B.C. Municipalities to be held at Duncan on Oct. 9th, and on motion of Ald. Forrester, seconded by Ald. Sharp, Ald. Harding was appointed alternate delegate.

GRIEVOUS LOSSES ARE SUSTAINED BY TEUTONS

Counter Attacks Attempted by Germans Against the British Lines Were Smashed by Artillery and Rifle Fire—Enemy Experienced a Bitter Day Along the Ypres Battlefront Being Pounded by Heavy Guns.

British Front in France and Belgium, Oct. 2.—Two more counter attacks were attempted by the Germans against the British lines between the northwest corner of Polygon Wood and the Menin road last night, but, as in the case of three heavy assaults made during the day, the enemy was smashed by artillery and rifle fire. Hard local fighting occurred at a place known as Cameron House where the Germans yesterday forced the British back slightly but with the exception of two small posts lost in this area the British line was intact this morning.

The Germans also attacked during the night south of the Ypres-Roulers railway in the neighborhood of Zonnebeke, but were repulsed.

The last 24 hours have been bitter ones for the enemy along the Ypres battle front. Not only have the Germans suffered a stinging defeat, but this defeat has been accomplished by grievous losses in men. The tremendous fire to which they were subjected by artillery, rifles and machine guns was a revelation even to those accustomed to watching the marvelous work of the great British war machines.

North of the Ypres-Roulers railway German artillery played heavily upon the British front areas and Westhoek ridge and the region near Zonnebebke, where artillery activity is intense. British guns of all calibres were keeping up their ceaseless thunder, and for every German shell landed in this zone were hurling back scores.

There is no doubt that the punishment being dealt out to the Germans is tremendous. Every prisoner taken admits that and appears glad to be in the hands of the British.

The badly punished German troops east of Ypres today were largely resting on their arms after the reverses suffered yesterday when they attempted in a series of fierce counter attacks to drive the British back. Possibly the designation "resting" is a misnomer, for the enemy was sitting under a terrific bombardment from hundreds of big guns which were deluging his back and forward areas with high explosives and turning his fastnesses into twisted masses of debris which formed the graves of the defenders.

Any of the nerve-racked, half-stunned German prisoners who have lived through bombardments can tell of the tragedy now being enacted along the German front in this selton of Belgium. Thanks to German counter attacks, there has been hardly a moment's cessation of the intense artillery work of the British since last Wednesday, when Field Marshal Haig's troops executed their latest offensive.

Captured Germans say their forward defenses have been greatly demoralized by this ceaseless pounding.

PROHIBITION ACT IN A NUTSHELL

Stripped of its necessary legal verbage and reduced to nutshell facts the Prohibition act, which is now in effect, sets the following ironclad regulations for all of British Columbia regarding liquor, its sale, possession and consumption:

Liquor of any kind containing over 2½ per cent. proof spirit can only be obtained by:

Purchase from the government vendors, druggists or physicians and then only on the prescription of a duly qualified physician.

Importing it from outside of the province.

Liquor can only be kept by:

Occupants of private dwelling houses, on the quantity of which no limitation is set.

Government vendors, who are also unlimited as to quantity.

Druggists, who are limited to five gallons; doctors to two quarts; dentists one pint; and veterinary surgeons, one gallon.

Wholesale liquor dealers, in unlimited quantity only for export outside of the province.

For legitimate mechanical use, limited to two gallons.

A citizen may:

Serve liquor to friends and guests only within the walls of his private dwelling, or in an apartment suite if it is occupied by a bona fide family.

A citizen may not:

Serve liquor to friends anywhere outside of the walls of his own dwelling—not even on his lawn.

Carry liquor to friends anywhere outside of his own dwelling, except he can prove it was obtained in a legal manner, and that he is actually taking it home.

Carry liquor in his motor car, yacht or any vehicle on any public highway.

Serve liquor to his friends in his dwelling for consideration, barter or exchange of any kind.

AIRPLANES ALL RETURNED

London, Oct. 2.—An official statement issued today on aerial operations says: "In airplane raids of the last eight days all of our pilots have landed safely."

The addition of a lead stack would increase the business of the Greenwood smelter.

GOOD WORK DONE AT CONVENTION

Many Matters of Vital Interest To Canada Were Discussed at Meeting of Representatives of Canadian Municipalities.

The London convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities at which the Nanaimo City Council was represented by Senator A. E. Planta, was one of the most interesting sessions ever held by the Union. The convention held under the presidency of Mayor Stevenson marked a new epoch in the annals of Municipal Canada as problems arising out of the war required serious consideration.

Among the resolution passed and adopted by the convention which elected Senator Planta a vice-president of the Union, were the following:

Co-operation between the Federal and Municipal authorities to put into practise all war measures.

The appointment by the Municipal Councils of Canada of joint committees of Aldermen and Citizens to prepare for the new economic conditions that will arise after the war.

The appointment by the Federal Government of a Cost of Living Tribunal or Commission to control and regulate virtual monoplies of the necessities of life, with the authority and independence of a judicial tribunal.

The conscription of the wealth of Canada along the lines followed in Great Britain at the present time.

That the pay and the separation allowance of all Canadian soldiers be increased to an amount double that at present paid, and a furlough of three months granted to all Canadian soldiers who have served two years or over.

That the Dominion Government be asked to take steps to formulate regulations to provide loans to settlers.

The introduction of a Uniform Municipal Accounting system.

The establishment of a Canadian Bureau of Information.

The nationalization of the Grand Trunk and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railways.

That the Union petition the Provincial governments of the provinces of Canada to exact such legislation as shall make it unlawful for any municipal corporation to grant any concessions other than the usual exemption on fixed assessment water rates etc.

That the governments of the provinces be urged to take such steps as will reserve a sufficient supply of water power to meet the needs of the municipalities, and prevent any person or private corporation from diverting any such water powers without first providing for the needs of the municipalities.

That the Dominion Government provide the sum necessary for demonstrating the commercial possibility of the briquetting of Lignite, as recommended by Advisory Council for Scientific Research, and the commercial preparation of Peat be also encouraged.

U. S. BOOSTS PRICE OF COAL

Washington Operators Are Allowed $4.50 A Ton At Mouth Of The Mines, An Increase of $1.50.

Seattle, Oct. 2.—The fixing of the price of $4.50 a ton for coal at the mines for prepared sizes, as announced by Fuel Administrator Garfield in Washington, D. C., Sunday, indicates that the Seattle consumer will probably pay at least $8 a ton, according to estimates last night by local retail dealers. Several such dealers declared that the ultimate price to consumers would depend largely on the cost of transportation from the mine, cartage from the retail dealer and packing into the house. This, they said, is subject to conditions in the various districts where delivery is made, and the cost of labor, which has sustained radical changes in the recent past and cannot in any way be considered stable.

In addition to the price of $4.50 at the mine a blanket charge of 80 cents a ton for transportation to the retail dealer is estimated. Cartage varies in cost, according to the district and method of handling, from $1 to more than $2 a ton. Packing into the house is charged at a fixed rate of 50 cents a ton, which has been determined by union labor. This fixes a cost to the retailer of about $7 a ton. At present the profit per ton to retail dealers is estimated at from 50 cents to more than $1. This, according to statements made last night by dealers, also varies with the manner of handling and conditions under which delivery is made.

Washington, Oct. 2.—Fuel Administrator Garfield, after considering the protest of the King and Pierce county coal operators of Washington, concluded that the original scale of prices fixed by his office, applicable to all Washington coal, was unjust, and today fixed the price of prepared sizes at $4.50 per ton. The original price fixed for prepared sizes was $3.50. Nn change was made in the price of mine run coal, $3.25 per ton. The operators having asserted that they had no mine run coal, but were obliged to wash their entire product, the price of screenings, $3 per ton, was not changed.

HAD WHISKY IN HIS POSESSION

The first arrest in Nanaimo for a violation of the Prohibition Act was made last evening by Constable Robertson when E. Norton, an employee of the Nanoose Mill, it is charged was found with three bottles of whisky in his possession on the public highway contrary to the laws. Norton it is stated had secured the liquor legally before the act came into force and was simply carrying it in an auto to his home at Nanoose when accosted by the officer.

One section of the Prohibition Act says:—

"It shall be illegal for any person to carry liquor in his motor car, yacht or any vehicle on any public highway."

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. THOMAS HARDY

The funeral of Caroline, deceased wife of Mr. Thomas Hardy, and daughter of Mrs. H. McMillan, of this city, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of Mr. Jas. Hardy, Victoria Crescent, services being conducted at the home and graveside by the Rev. Frank Hardy, pastor of the Wallace St. Methodist Church.

The deceased was a native daughter of the district and was well and favorably known. She had a host of friends, many of whom attended the funeral yesterday to pay their last respects to a departed friend.

Funeral arrangements were in the hands of Mr. D. J. Jenkins, the pallbearers being Messrs. V. C. McKenzie, Alf. Baker, Aaron Stewart, Adam Stewart, Alf. Carter and R. H. Ormond.

THE RULE OF THE ROAD

The Herald's recent remarks as to the necessity of drivers of cars and rigs following more closely the rules of the road when driving through the streets of the city were given point by the accident which occurred on Commercial street on Monday. If there is any corner in the whole town where a driver should hug his own side of the road it is in turning from Church street into Commercial street. There is not a great distance between Bastion street and the corner of Commercial and Church streets, and there is all the more necessity for drivers turning both corners as close in on their own side as possible. The collision on Monday, though fortunately a very slight one, was entirely due to one of the drivers travelling on the wrong side of the street.

SURPRISING

The City Council at its meeting on Monday night decided that the painting of the Millstream bridge could wait until next year. Considering the criticism that has been from time to time passed on the bridge by various members of the Council, the doubts that have been expressed as to its safety and the panics that have arisen over its many and manifold flaws and defects, this decision is mighty surprising and not a little inconsistent. The painting of the bridge was not recommended entirely on decorative grounds although the city cannot afford to set an example of slovenliness with its properties. But paint is a perservative on iron and steel against corrosion and deterioration, and it was on this ground that the painting of the structure was recommended at the time it was completed. In other words the work was one of necessity, and most assuredly money has been spent by the Council during the present year on less urgent jobs.

THE COAL SUPPLY

It was reported yesterday morning that all shipments of coal from American Lake ports into Canada have been stopped by the United States Fuel Controller Mr. Garfield. The matter has been subject to a strong agitation in the North Western States for some time. Consumers in these states claim that they are facing a shortage of coal for the winter, and very naturally have demanded that their needs be attended to first. No doubt the situation will be adjusted after a full investigation into the supplies of coal available. As we know from experience on the coast it is the easiest thing imaginable to raise a famine scare where coal is the article in question. The Mayor of Vancouver was crying famine not long ago when as a matter of fact there were between five and ten thousand tons of coal in the yards of the Terminal City dealers. Something of this kind may have helped to develop the famine agitation in the North Western States. Mr Garfield, at least, is not likely to take any hasty or ill-considered action. The coal situation as it affects Canada and the United States does not end with the big Lakes. The Island mines export coal to American ports, and American ships on this coast depend a good deal on Canadian coal for their bunkers. The situation here as well as at the Great Lakes must be taken into consideration in making whatever adjustments may be necessary. There is really no coal shortage and it should not be difficult to arrange for the proper distribution of the available supplies.

PROMOTION BY MERIT

More than in any previous war in which Britain has been engaged the present war has been marked by promotion for merit. In the regular British army before the war promotion from the ranks was a rare occurrence, and rankers were often ostracised by the other officers after they had been promoted. However, in the great struggle in France brave and resourceful privates have had their chance, and many have risen rapidly to major positions: In our own district we can count a score of men, who left here as Tommies, who are now holding commissions. The Canadian commander himself, although he left Victoria in charge of a battalion, was only an amateur soldier, but he soon proved his worth, and has made a glorious reputation. In England itself, the chief of staff, Sir William Robertson, is a self-made man. He was born at Welbourne in Lincolnshire in 1860 and spent his youth in the country. When he was about eighteen he decided to enter the army and, tramping to London, was duly enlisted in the 9th Lancers. He had received but little education and in appearance was but a big, raw-boned, rural youth. But he was full of determination and pluck. He studied hard in his leisure time, and after serving nearly ten years applied for a commission. He passed a very difficult examination with flying colors and was gazetted to the 3rd Dragoon Guards. That was in 1888. In 1892 he was sent to India and served there with distinction. He has served in the intelligence department of the war office and in South Africa. In 1910 he was made commandant of the Army Staff College and when the war broke out he went to France with Sir John French in the capacity of quarter-master general. His brilliant services led to his appointment as chief of the staff of the British army.

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, clean little liver and bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all th is necessary. It should be the fi treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

MAJOR MORAHT IS PREDICTING AGAIN

Copenhagen, Oct. 2.—Major Moraht, the usually well-informed military critic of The Deutsche Tages Zeitung, of Berlin, predicts further offensive movements with limited objectives against the Russians on the lines of the recent advance in the Riga and Jacobstadt sector. Apparently he believes that the defensive warfare has not been abandoned in the west. He agrees with General von Freytag-Loringhoven, chief of supplementary general staff, that the general initiative must remain with the Entente.

Major Moraht dismisses reports of the military help of the United States for the Entente as "imaginary."

What Will I Look Like in Ten Years from Now?

What woman hasn't asked herself this question? How often have you worried about it? You have heard it said that "beauty is only skin deep". Don't believe it. The key to good looks is health, and the first essential to good health is to keep the digestive organs in perfect working order. For this purpose nothing is so helpful as Chamberlain's Tablets. An occasional dose will prevent or relieve constipation, indigestion, biliousness, sick headache, and all their train of attendant evils.

McCARTHY KNOCKED OUT

Albany, N.Y., Oct. 2.—Carl Morris, the Oklahoma heavy weight, knocked out Tex McCarthy of California in the second round of what was to have been a 10 round bout here tonight.

FOUGHT A DRAW

Boston, Oct. 2. Battling Levinsky, claimant of the light-heavyweight championship, boxed "Bill" Brennan, of Chicago, who has many knockouts to his credit, to a draw in a 12 round bout here tonight.

BILLIONS EXTRA TAXES

Washington, Oct. 2.—Congress tonight sent the Great War Tax bill to the President for signature. The bill in the making has taken four months The measure levies more than two and a half billion dollars additional taxes.

An Atlantic Port, Oct 2.—A report of the destruction of the United States consulate at Dunkirk a French seaport, by shells from German aircraft, was brought here today by officers of an American ship.

30,000,000 FEET OF LUMBER SHIPPED BY CHAMAINUS

Thirty million feet of lumber was shipped in the first seven months of this year from the Chemainus mill. One million feet of this went to the Naval Service Department for the building of submarine chasers and drifters. Thirty-two cars were shipped to the Prairies last week. There are now orders for 5,000,000 feet for the Imperial Munitions Board. Recent shipments include: 1,000,000 feet on the schooner Esquimalt for Australia; 1,534,000 feet on the Mabel Brown for Sydney; Snow and Burgess, 1,143,000 feet for Durban; 332,000 feet for Shanghai on the Bessie Dollar. The mill is planning further extensions next Spring. For these extensions, six of the nine miles of track planned have already been constructed.

RED CROSS CONFERENCE PUT OFF TWO WEEKS

Copenhagen, Oct. 2.—The conference of German, Austrian and Russian military and Red Cross representatives to be held in Copenhagen for consideration of measures for relief of war prisoners of Russia and the Central Powers, in which the United States and Great Britain have been asked to take part, has been postponed for a fortnight. The Russian delegates will not be able to reach Copenhagen at the time originally set. The question of American participation still is unsettled.

RUN UP A SCORE OF 179 POINTS IN GAME

Down in Oklahoma the University of Oklahoma lost no time in starting the football season. Playing the Kingfisher college, the state team ran up a score of 179 points against their opponents. To score 179 points the Oklahoma aggregation could have made twenty-three touch-downs, kicked all their goals and booted six drop kicks just for good measure. The contest was played in Norman, Okla., and will set a mark for high scoring which will make the rest of the teams of the country work hard to beat.

ONLY ARTILLERY ACTIONS

London, Oct. 2.—A very meagre report from Field Marshal Haig tonight on operations in France and Belgium says:

"Beyond artillery actions on both sides of the battle front there is nothing of special interest to report."

DOMINION THEATRE

"Polly of the Circus" Here as First Goldwyn Picture.

"Polly of the Circus" Margaret Mayo's world-famed classic of the "Big Tops" and now converted from the celebrated play into a tremendous photo-spectacle, comes to the Dominion Theatre today, as the first of the eagerly awaited Goldwyn Pictures. After an absence of almost an entire year from the screen, Mae Marsh, who won world-wide popularity in "The Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance," comes again to greet her huge throngs of admirers in one of the most beautiful and elaborate productions ever made on the screen. "Polly of the Circus" was directed by Charles Horan, virtually a newcomer among directors, and the magnificent settings and artistic details are the creation of Everett Shinn, the noted artist.

This production literally abounds in sentiment and thrills for people of citing horse race, the reproduction of citing horse race, the reproductiono f an entire circus performance, including all the animal and riding acts; the arrival of the circus in the village at daybreak and its departure in the night; the burning of the main tent and the stampede of the audience. And there is a love story of greater charm and beauty than you have ever before seen on the screen.

BIJOU THEATRE

The career of Marie Doro who is playing in "Heart's Desire," a Famous Players-Paramount picture, at the Bijou Theatre today and tomorrow, has been an exceptionally picturesque one. From her introduction to the screen by the Famous Players in "The Morals of Marcus" in which she had created a veritable sensation on the stage, each succeeding picture has outdone its predecessor in popularity until at present she is one of the most popular stars of screendom. There are several reasons for this phenomenal success, but chiefly the charm of her own personal charm and previous experience. There are certain "Doro mannerisms" which, try as they may no other actresses have ever been able to duplicate, and which have so endeared Miss Doro to the hearts of her audiences since her first picture. Miss Doro is at her brilliant best in this quaintest of photoplays "Heart's Desire." Don't miss it.

SEVEN WITH FRENCH; SEVEN WITH HUNS

Seattle, Oct. 2.—With fourteen first cousins with the allies in the war, all enlisting in England, Arthur Davis of the Plasterers' union, last night said he expected to join them ultimately in the trenches.

"My family record isn't unusual for England, however," he said. "I know a surveyor in Seattle whose family record is unique. He has seven brothers in the German army and seven in the French army fighting each other. They lived in Alsace Lorraine. The seven fighting for the Kaiser were sent to fight the Russians because, like all other Alsatians, they refused to fight their own people in France."

VANCOUVER AIRMAN REPORTED MISSING

Vancouver, Oct. 2.—Clifford Risteen, a Vancouver airman, is missing in France, according to a cable received today by his father, G. F. Risteen, a former C. P. R. conductor.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years renewal for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of section, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights only, rescinded by such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights are not being operated Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior

CARELESS HUNTERS REPORTED FROM FIVE ACRES

Hunters should be very careful when discharging their firearms and not shoot in the direction of a residence for serious results may follow such actions. Mr. J. S. Jones who resides near the Company's reservoir complains of hunters shooting in that vicinity, pellets of shot dropping so close to his residence that the other day one of his children was actually struck by stray shots. Mr. Jones has no desire to take any drastic action, and only asks that in future hunters be more careful of their actions.

NIGHT SCHOOL TO REOPEN

Mr. J. Walter Hughes is to Be Principal of Night Classes Which Will Commence Studies on October 15th.

The night school opens in Nanaimo on October 15th, with Mr. J. Walter Hughes as principal. Quite a variety of subjects will be taught to which reference will be made later and the young boys and girls of the town shiuld not neglect such a splendid opportunity to continue their educational studies. The following article by Mr. J. Kyle, organizer of technical education, gives some of the benefits that will be obtained from attending these classes:

Opportunity knocks once at every man's door and it is well for the man who finds himself prepared to answer and face the proposals that opportunity offers.

The trained man's chances of answering the knock are infinitely greater than those of the man without training. In which of these two great classes are you?

The expert builder calculates with the utmost facility the quantity of lumber required for floors, walls and roof; the number of square feet of surface to be plastered and painted and a multitude of minor and intricate details beyond the comprehension of the uninitiated.

Are you master of these details? Night Schools are organized in order that people may have an opportunity of gaining the maximum knowledge pertaining to the industries in which they are engaged. As a natural consequence one must expect such schools to adopt a local colour. Even such fundamental subjects as English and Arithmetic must have a distinct bias towards the main industry of the district.

The result of gaining knowledge of one's occupation means personal success. "Knowledge is the stuff that wins, the man without it soon begins to get his trade in kinks; no matter where a fellow goes, he's valued for the things he knows, not for the things he thinks."

Knowledge is essential to efficiency. Knowledge means conservation of waste. Knowledge of steam and electricity saves power. Knowledge of agriculture increases production. Knowledge of physiology saves human life. Ignorance means waste and loss.

National prosperity demands training in skill, taste, and ability to use our natural rasources to the greatest advantage.

Courses of study at Night Schools are arranged to lay foundations, in order that the work of the district may be understood and fully appreciated. The gaining of this knowledge is usually accompanied by a love of work. The successful man is rarely a round peg in a square hole, but nearly always one with an interest in his daily task. Knowledge of one's work means increased interest and succes.

The Board of School Trustees have determined to give the rising generation of Nanaimo an opportunity. They are extending their educational efforts beyond the school years.

Young men and women, here is a chance to prepare and equip yourselves for the knock of opportunity which will surely come.

Have you investigated the offers made by the School Trustees? Classes in English and Arithmetic; Commercial and Mining Courses all arranged with a view to furthering to yourselves to the Province and to Canada.

WINNIPEG MONTREAL

ADDING TO THE STATES FLEET

Work is Being Rushed on the Construction of an Immense Flotilla of American Destroyers.

Washington, Oct. 3—Such remarkable progress has been made in the quick building of the immense flotillao f American destroyers to cope with the submarine campaign that [illegible] of much quicker delivery of the ships than was contemplated at the last estimate, which in itself was far ahead of the original time. The progress on the ships now building and arrangements for the ones to follow, it was announced to-day at the Navy Department, are most satisfactory.

It is now certain that all the destroyers now building will be delivered ready for duty in European waters early next year. Many of them had not been expected until the winter of 1918. Approximately 10 months has been saved.

The full success of the project, however, depends on the extraordinary powers granted to the President in the bill now pending. The administration measure was altered in the House. The Senate committee restored the provisions naval officers consider vital to success, and the navy hopes the bill will become a law in substantially its original form. It is now in conference. Its progress is being watched anxiously, as tentative contracts are subject to change if the bill is altered.

All the new destroyers are of a new design worked out by the Naval Department, showing radical changes from many of the craft now afloat. The great majority of them will be 35-knot vessels of improved sea-keeping qualities, adding to their effectiveness as submarine hunters. The first of the new type has been tried out with results that amazed the officers who made the trial trips.

The rate of warships production in the United States has been increased to such a point that greater amount of fighting tonnage is being produced in a given time than has ever been achieved before by any power.

SWEDEN HAS NEW CABINET

Stockholm, Oct. 3.—The Swedish Cabinet resigned yesterday but King Gustav requested the Ministers to retain their portfolios for the present.

King Gustav today told the leaders of the chief parties in the Riksdag that in his opinion it would be most expedient to form a Cabinet representing the various parties which would maintain the neutral policy of the country since the beginning of the war, safeguard the interest of the nation and exercise a calming influence on the people during the present crisis. Saying that Sweden's difficulties were increasing daily, the King asserted that the greatest prudence would be necessary to maintain the position adopted. He appealed to the patriotism of the leaders, asking them to set aside personal opinions and party platforms.

FIRST CLASS OF RECRUITS

Unmarried Men, or Widowers Without Children, Between Ages of 20 and 34 Are to be Called Up for Service on October Thirteenth.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The first class of recruits under the Military Service Act will be called up on Saturday Oct. 13. A proclamation will be issued on that date notifying men in Class 1, that within a specified time they are either to report for military duty or to file a claim for exemption.

Class One comprises those who have attained the age of 20 years, and were born not earlier than the year 1883, unmarried or widowers, but with no children.

With the proclamation calling up the men will also be published regulations by which the tribunals appointed to hear applications for exemptions will be governed.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Pleasant Tuesday evenings for women. The re-opening meeting will be held on Thursday Oct 11, at 8 o'clock. It has been arranged to hold these meetings on Thursday evenings instead of Tuesdays for the future, so it will still be a P. T. E. There will be solos and a bright meeting. Mrs. F. G. West will give the opening address. All Welcome. Baptist Harvest Festival on Sunday next.

Keep in mind Nov. 10th, the day of St. Andrew's Ladies' Aid Bazaar.

TIGHTENING THE GRIP ON HUNS

Britain Places Heavy Embargo on Shipments of Practically Everything to Neutral Nations Adjacent to Germany.

London Oct. 3—The Gazette prints a proclamation prohibiting the exportation to Sweden, Norway, Denmark and The Netherlands of all articles except printed matter of all descriptions and personal effects accompanied by their owners.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Great Britain's new embargo on shipments of practically everything to Sweden, Norway, Denmark and The Netherlands is regarded here as a most important move in tightening the cordon which slowly but surely is killing the military power of Germany.

Coming close on the export embargo of the United States, which is being administered to keep out of the European neutral countries everything that might supply the Central Powers, Great Britain's action is regarded as one of the most important of the war.

As the British embargo excludes everything except printed matter, about the only thing that will be permitted to go to the German people by way of neutral countries will be expressions of world opinion that they should reorganize their system of government to do away with the military autocracy.

In a figuratice sense Great Britain holds one end of the rope and the United States holds the other. Gradually but surely as it is being drawn taut the military power of Germany is being strangled because the embargo cuts off the supplies she has been receiving through the adjacent neutral countries.

REPORT LAURIER HAS RESIGNED

Calgary. Oct. 3.—A special dispatch to The Calgary Herald from Ottawa says:

"Sir Wilfrid Laurier has resigned as Liberal leader. He has placed his resignation in the hands of his followers in the House and is insisting that it be accepted. A new leader will be appointed by a committee of Liberal members and condidates."

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—(By the Ottawa correspondent of the Associated Press.)—Sir Wilfrid Laurier has announced to leading Liberals whom he summoned to Ottawa that he proposes to retire from leadership of the Opposition and the Liberal party.

ANOTHER NANAIMO BOY WOUNDED AT THE FRONT

Official information has been received that Capt. Wm. Hamilton has been wounded on the elbow, accidently with a bomb. "Billie" left here with the 47th Batt., has been over fourteen months in the trenches, in all the big engagements also numerous bombing raids, and has come through, up to now, without a scratch He qualified in France as a first-class bomber, and was for a time instructor behind the lines. He has had a charmed life in those raids, being one of the lucky five to return out of 32 and 20 to come back out of 55. He was admitted to the Sixth Casualty Clearing Station on Sept, 25th.

SHIPPING LOSS IS DECREASING

Vessels Sent to the Bottom Last Week by U-Boats Was Smallest Aggregate During Period of Intensive Warfare

London, Oct. 3. — Eleven British merchantmen of more than 1600 tons each, and two vessels under 1600 marines last week according to the British admiralty statement made public this evening.

The foregoing statement of the British admiralty again lowers the aggregate mershantmen sunk by mines or submarines during any week since Germany began her intensified submarine warfare. As against 15 vessels sunk the previous week which was the low record since February, only 13 merchantmen are shown to have been sent to the bottom last week.

World's Shipping Losses

London, Oct. 3.—The total losses to the world's shipping since Germany's ruthless U-boat war went into effect aggregate about two thirds of those claimed by the Germans in a statement issued September, 1. At that time the Germans alleged that an average of 900,000 tons had been sunk monthly for seven months.

The actual totals of tonnage sunk compiled here show that not even during the most successful month for the U-boats April, have the figures reached any such proportions while the August losses dropped to almost half the April figure.

FRENCH PREPARE A NEW STROKE

Artillery Activity is Especially Marked North of Verdun Where French Are Apparently Preparing Attack.

London, Oct. 3.—Another very brief dispatch was all the British public had from Field Marshal Haig today as news of big developments was awaited. The commander told of vigorous artillery activity during the night east of Ypres, but said there was nothing else of interest to report.

Along the French front the artillery duels were vigorous at many points. The artillery activity was especially marked north of Verdun where the French apparently are preparing an attack.

London, Oct. 3.—"The artillery activity continued on both sides during the night in the region east of Ypres," the War Office here announced. "Otherwise there is nothing to report."

Paris, Oct. 3.—Violent artillery fighting continues on the Verdun front, according to an official announcement issued here this afternoon. No important infantry operations occurred during the night.

Berlin, Oct 3—German troops yesterday captured a section of French trenches 1,200 yards wide on the northern slope of Hill 344, to the east of the river Meuse in the Verdun region, is was reported by the German general staff today.

GIRL'S VERSE SINGS MAE MARSH'S PRAISE

Mae Marsh, star of "Polly of the Circus," the first Goldwyn Picture to be given to the public, which is to be seen at the Dominion Theatre here today, finds many gratifying letters in her mail, but it is doubtful if she has ever been more pleased than she was at the receipt of the following verse, written by a young Indiana girl:

TO MAE MARSH.

You are the dawn of beautiful things,
A rose-dawn shinning in an azure East—
You are the light that touched on purple hills.
The first soft glow that dawning never ceased.
You have the eyes of morning and of joy—
Of sunlight slanting down through mists of gold.
You smile, and in them steals some sadder thing—
A mystery of joy that's ages old!
You are the symbol of immortal things—
Of shining-golden things without alloy.
We bow to you in all humility.
For you are Joy!

TO ASSIST WORK OF Y. M. C. A.

Compaign to be Launched in Nanaimo to Raise Funds for Work Among Soldiers—Organization Effected.

Mr. D. E. Hatt, who is connected with the activities of the Y. M. C. A. in the work of that organization among the soldiers both at home and at the front, is in Nanaimo for the purpose of raising funds in aid of the work being carried on by the Y. M. C. A.

Capt. Pearson, organizing secretary of the military Y. M. C. A., will visit Nanaimo on Wednesday next, and deliver an address here on "Life at the Front."

The campaign in this city for funds will have the support of a number of prominent citizens. A meeting for the purpose of organizing for the campaign was held yesterday afternoon in the Council Chambers. Mayor McKenzie was appointed chairman of the campaign, and Mr. L. W. Smith, secretary-treasurer. The following committees were also appointed:

Canvassing: Geo. S. Hougham, chairman; and Messrs. Mayor Mckenzie, Rattray, Ferguson, Pearson, Planta, Eby, Harding, Conroy, Forrester, Unsworth, West, Hardy, Archer and Sharp.

Publicity: Geo. S. Pearson, chairman; and Messrs. Marshall, Booth, West and Hardy.

Men's Special Meeting: Ald. Harding, chairman; Dr. Unsworth, Mr. Eby and Senator Planta.

Public Meeting: Senator Planta, chairman, with power to appoint additional members.

FINE GAME PLAYED IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The only game played yesterday in the local tennis tournament was a single between Messrs. Marshall and Granger. The match was one of the best played on the courts this season. Marshall took the first set 8 to 6, and the second 7 to 5. It was a ding-dong game right through, Marshall pulling out by his superior experience and accurate placing against Granger's steady playing and fast footwork.

HAIG'S POSITIONS REMAIN INTACT

London, Oct. 3.—An attack by Germans between Tower Hamlets and Polygon Wood, following vigorous artillery fire, was repulsed either by barrage or British infantry according to a report from Field Marshal Haig tonight. All the British positions remained intact.

BIJOU THEATRE

That remnants of the old "feudal system" still exist in remote corners of the world is shown in "Heart's Desire" a Paramount Picture produced by Famous Players and starring Marie Doro at the Bijou today. A quaint little island off the coast of France is shown which is practically controlled by one family, the head of which is called the "Seigneur" or "Lord," and who can exact as much or as little rent from the peasant as he pleases. This is an example of some of the out-of-the-way places where this custom is still allowed to remain in practice, and the terrible effect of a hard master or owner is shown in the unhappiness of the peasants under the management of Henri le Roque who forces them to increase their rent—or else sacrifice their property to him. The way this was changed and peace and happiness restored to the little community by the efforts of one girl, Fluerette, as played by Marie Doro, is shown with fascinating allurement in "Heart's Desire."

DANCE AT QUALICUM

There are now on sale at Mr. C. Van Houten's drug store a number of tickets for the dance which is to be given at Qualicum on Saturday evening next, Oct 6th, in aid of the sports fund for the convalescent soldiers there. It is to be hoped that many Nanaimo people will take advantage of the opportunity afforded of spending a pleasant evening and aiding a good cause at the same time Dancing is to commence at 9 o'clock.

The beautiful brides, the cunning Dutch girls, the coy little Japanese girls, the dancing piano girls will play for you Tuesday, October 9th. Opera House.

WROUGHT HAVOC WITH GERMANS

Attacking Waves of German Troops Dispersed With Heavy Casualties by Haig's Gunners—British Preparing for Another Drive.

Since the middle of last week the German armies in Flanders daily have been [illegible] in the recent big offensive of Field Marshal Haig.

As on previous days Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria on Wednesday unleashed large numbers of troops in an attempt to recapture a terrain on the Ypres sector where the British are seriously threatening his communication line with Ostend and the submarine base at Zeebrugge. The ever watchful gunners of Haig again wrought havoc among the attacking waves and dispersed the Germans with heavy casualties and retained all their positions intact.

There still is no indication of the time set by Field Marshal Haig for a renewal of his efforts to press on toward and cut off the Ostend-Lille railway, but he is steadily keeping up his pounding of the German trenches with masses of artillery of all calibres.

Although the German War Office asserts that in Tuesday's fighting along the eastern bank of the Meuse in the Verdun sector the Germans captured a comparatively long line of French trenches the French official communication makes no mention of this, and asserts merely that violent artillery fighting and spirited patrol engagements took place.

While the British and French airmen continue their bombing operations against Germany's submarine base at Zeebrugge and points behind the lines, French aviators are keeping up their attacks on German cities and towns in reprisals for the shelling by German aircraft of the open town of Bar-le-Duc. More than 15,000 pounds of explosives are reported to have been dropped on numerous German settlements, among them the famous town of Baden, famed as a health resort.

Likewise the Italians are giving the Austrians little respite from aerial incursions, again having dropped four tons of projectiles on military objectives at Pola, the great Austrian naval base on the Adriatic and bombed other points of military advantage In addition the Italians have repulsed decisively another Austrian attack on the western slopes of Monte San Gabriele in the Gorizia sector.

MACHINE-MINED COAL INCREASING YEARLY

In his report for 1916, published about two months ago, the chief inspector of mines stated that during the year mining machines produced 279,630 tons of coal, or 11.24 per cent of the whole production of the province for the year. This is a slight increase over the quantity similarly mined in 1915, when the percentage was 10.43 per cent. of the year's total production. Of the total machine-mined coal for 1916, the Western Fuel Co. produced 229,541 tons, or 82.10 per cent.; the Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Ltd., 30,089 tons, or 10.75 per cent. and the Princeton Coal & Land Co., Princeton, Similkameen, 20,000 tons, or 7.14 per cent.

A LITTLE LEFT

It must come as a surprise to Sun readers to learn that there are fresh fields of agricultural development still left in the province. It is just about a year since the election, prior to which the Sun would have had the world believe that there was no land worth taking up to be had. The naughty men of the late government had either stolen it, or given it away to their friends. It is good to know on the word of Premier Brewster, Minister of Lands Patullo, and the Sun that there are still a few acres in the north of the province that can and ought to be brought under production.

PRINCIPLE AND LAW

The principle of prohibition has been accepted in British Columbia; but this does not bind the people to blind acceptance of the law by means of which it is to be enforced. A man was arrested the other night by the local police because he was found with three bottles of whiskey in his possession. The man arrested had come by the whiskey honestly, and, so far as we know legally. He was going from Nanaimo to his home in Nanoose, and was taking his whiskey with of the province had the common right to do this, but the Prohibition law forbids it and as a result the man was arrested. It may be all right; but just at the moment we cannot see it. There are other provisions which appear equally grotesque and mischievous which the public are due to find out. The penurious policy of the government with regard to advertising has prevented any notices or information being published. The bill was rushed through the House with amazing celerity, and that part of the public who had not made up its mind to stop drinking altogether is due to some big shocks and surprises. The results will not tend to strengthen public feeling in favor of the principle of prohibition. There was a very large minority opposed to prohibition, and we doubt yet whether it would have carried had the vote not been taken when it was and how it was. There is therefore all the more reason for a fair and sensible law to enforce it.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION

A new slant was given to the political situation in Canada by two reports from Ottawa last night. The first was positive, and announced that Mr. C. C. Ballantyne, a leading Montreal manufacturer, and a Liberal conscriptionist, had accepted the portfolio of Minister of Public Works The other report, which was not confirmed, stated that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has resigned the leadership of the Liberal party. There is nothing improbable in the report. There has been continued conferences between Sir Wilfrid and his leading lieutenants for the last few days, and it has become pretty evident that he could not retain the leadership in the coming election without causing a severe split in the party. There is no room for doubt that the majority of English-speaking Canadians are in favor of a union government, united on a common win-the-war policy. Sir Wilfrid's opposition to conscription prohibits him from joining such a government, or from carrying out the wishes of the majority of the English speaking Canadians. There are also signs that Sir Robert Borden is succeeding in his efforts to form a union government, and the announcement that Mr Ballantyne has accepted a portfolio may not be unconnected with the report that Sir Wilfrid has resigned the leadership of his party.

In addition, however, 2,450 graduates or under-graduates from 93 specified schools and colleges will be admitted.

NOMINATION OFFERED HON. ROBERT ROGERS

Winnipeg, Oct. 3.—Hon. Robert Rogers, former Minister of Public Works, has been offered the Conservative nomination for North Winnipeg, and in a statement today says he will give a reply by October 9.

MR. JOSEPH MARTIN IS STIL UNDECIDED

Political observers who assumed as a matter of course that the return of Mr. Joseph Martin K. C. to Vancouver as a Federal election drew near, meant that he would become a Federal candidate, all are wrong, according to well-informed opinion in Liberal circles in that city.

Although like the battle horse of Scripture which "scents the battle from afar," the prospect of being on deck when the fight in the Federal arena is pulled off is credited with exercising a magnetic attraction for the fighting member from East St. Pancras at this time, Mr. Martin is said to be content to wait his turn until the Vancouver Provincial bye-election comes off. Mr. Martin's friends are positive that he will be in the field in the Provincial bye-election. As for Mr. Martin himself, he would neither affirm nor deny it, when the proposal was put to him.

"I have not yet made up my mind, but the matter is under consideration. It is true I have been urged by many of my friends to run for the Provincial House," admitted Mr. Martin.

One of the difficulties which Mr. Martin is understood to be facing is in regard to his personal attitude towards the Brewster Government. He is not enamored of the administration and indeed, it is said that his chief motive is due to a feeling that the Victoria Government needs a little independent criticism . Among Mr. Martin's friends it is confidently asserted that he will be in the field when the Provincial contest is staged as an Independent Liberal candidate in opposition to any "regular" Liberal candidate who may offer.

HAS NOT YET FIXED ELECTION DATE

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—There was no important development in connection with the political situation today. The cabinet council was again in session this evening, but apart from a couple of appointments, Sir Robert Borden had no announcement to make.

Opinion is divided in official circles as to whether the proclamation formally dissolving Parliament will be issued Wednesday or later in the week. An idea has prevailed that it would be necessary for the Government to announce the fateof the general election at the time of the dissolution. It has been customary to do so in the past, but owing to the exceptional circumstances which exist and the practical impossibility of an election taking place within three months, nomination and polling dates are not likely to be decided upon for a few weeks.

The preliminary preparations for the revision of the voters' lists are being proceeded with by the clerk of the Crown in Chancery, and the general plan for the taking of the vote both in Canada and overseas is being worked out.

Rumors as to the possible retirement of Sir Wilfrid Laurier from the Liberal leadership persist in some quarters, but lack confirmation.

AMERICAN CONTROL NITRATE

NOW FEAR AIR RAIDS IN WESTERN GERMANY

Amsterdam, Oct. 3.—The German military authorites have issued orders that all lights in the governmental district of Dusseldorf and a great portion of Westphalia must be darkened by night, according to The General Anzeiger, of Essen. Similar precautions against air raids are being taken at other places in Western Germany.

GUNBOAT SMITH LOSES TO JACK DEMPSEY

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Gunboat Smith has lost his youth and he has lost what goes with it—punching power, stamina and judgment of distance. The Gunner had all three of these qualifications at one time. Last night at Recreation Park Smith was lacking in everything save the spirit to try. Jack Dempsey won his fight and won it handily. Three of the four rounds belonged to Jack by a wide margin, and in the fourth, with the crowd urging him on, Dempsey was chasing Smith all around the ring.

THIRTIETH WIN FOR ALEXANDER

Boston Americans and Washington divided their double-header in the opening game of the final series of this season yesterday at Boston. Washington won the first game in ten innings. In the second game, Ayers and Mays who are after bonus money, were the pitchers, and Boston won. The game was called in the eighth inning on account of darkness.

New York, with a team of recruits defeated Philadelphia. The two teams will close the season with a double-header today, Thursday's game being moved forward.

In the National League Philadelphia and New York broke even, New York winning first game in twelve innings, and Philadelphia getting the second. The second game marked Alexander's thirtieth victory of the season. In 1915 he won thirty-one games, while in 1916 he won thirty-three.

Boston won the first game of the final series with Brooklyn.

WANT LAFOLLETTE EXPELLED FROM SENATE

Wausau, Wis., Oct. 3.—Expulsion of Senator Lafollette from the Senate for "treasonable and seditious utterances and disloyalty to our Government," is asked in an appeal to the United States Senate in telegrams sent last night by W. B. Hennemann, chairman of the executive committee of the Wisconsin Republican State Central Committee, to the President of the United States Senate and to Senator Pomerene, chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

The telegrams state that all the members of the committee concur except two who have enlisted and are in the service of their country, their present addresses being unknown.

REPRESENTATIVE CLASSED WITH EMMA GOLDMAN

Washington, Oct. 3.—The protracted wrangle over charges by Representative Heflin, of Alabama that certain members of Congress have "acted suspiciously" in the present war, flared up again in the House today when Representative Mason of Illinois, made a speech contending that Heflin had inferentially charged Mason with treason and "linked him up with Emma Goldman."

Representative Heflin requested consent of the House for time to reply to Mason's remarks and to name the men he thought had "acted suspiciously," but objection was made by Representative Gardner, of Texas and the row for the time being was brought to an end.

EVEN MONEY BET ON WORLD SERIES

New York, Oct. 3.—It was estimated that $13,000 was bet on the curb on the world's series yesterday at even. One broker here has $100,000 to bet on the Giants. Another has $10,000 to wager on Sox even money. Still another has $10,000 to to lay against $11,000 on the Giants.

The fans here in New York, judging from the talk in hotel lobbies, subway trains, etc., think the Giants will knock 'em flat, but if one wants to bet a bit of cash it seems even money is the best to be obtained. However, there is no doubt that New York right down in its heart, which means the belief of the fan from the lowest East side to the Yonkers, is convinced that the Giants outclass Comiskey's men.

Percy Gaurd, who handles the big commissions here, is laying 6 to 5 that the White Sox win the opening game.

The Gotham sporting critics look for a tough series and a long one.

KUEHLMANN SILENT ABOUT PEACE TERMS

Amsterdam, Oct. 3.—Germany has made no proposals whatever for a separate peace either with France or Great Britain. PEACE MUST BE ON SOUND FOUNDATION

London, Oct. 2.—General Sir Louis Botha, Prime Minister of South Africa, in addressing the opening convention of the South African Party, according to a Reuter dispatch, said the war had been forced on the Allies, and the only thing to do now was to fight to the finish. He added: "Let the peace be one which will be beneficial to the world and enable every country to shape its future on a sound basis."

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of tewnty-one years renewal for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of section, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights only, rescinded by such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights are not being operated Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

WINCARNIS offers you the quickest, the surest, and the safest way to the new health you need when you are

Weak, Anaemic, Nervous, Run-down

WINCARNIS offers you new health! Think what this means to you. Instead of that out-of-sorts, nervous, run-down feeling, you can revel in the enjoyment of new and buoyant health. You feel well—eat well—work well—sleep well—and rise in the morning refreshed and vigorous, and feel your whole body pulsating with new life.

That is the new health Wincarnis offers you. Because Wincarnis is a Tonic, a Restorative, a Blood-maker and a Nerve Food—all in one. This four-fold power, acting upon the system at one time, enables Wincarnis to give new strength, new rich blood, new nerve force, and new vitality. And because Wincarnis does this, it is recommended by over 10,000 Doctors.

If you are weak, Wincarnis will give you new strength. If you are Anæmic, Wincarnis will give you new rich red blood. If you are nervous, Wincarnis will give you new nerve force. If you are run-down, Wincarnis will give you new vitality.

Knowing that, surely you will not continue to suffer needlessly. Remember, you begin to get well from the first day you commence to take Wincarnis. And each succeeding day you derive more strength, more rich blood, more nerve force, and more vitality, until soon your whole system becomes surcharged with a feeling of new life.

Then you can stop taking Wincarnis.

But you can still enjoy the new health Wincarnis has given you.

Wincarnis is not a luxury, but a positive necessity to all who are Weak, Anæmic, Nervous, Run-down—to all enfeebled by old age—to martyrs to Indigestion—to all Invalids—and to all who are depressed and "out-of-sorts."

Don't suffer needlessly. Take advantage of the new health Wincarnis offers you. But be sure you get Wincarnis—don't trust substitutes.

ANOTHER OFFENSIVE

Sir Douglas Haig has renewed his offensive for the possession of the Passchendaele Ridge and, according to the meagre reports so far received complete success has attended the efforts of the British troops. The attack was launched on a ten-mile front and in the first six hours of fighting the troops had surged forward to a depth of 2500 yards. One feature of the drive is the large number of prisoners that have been captured. This is probably chiefly due to the fact that the German commanders have never relinquished their efforts to retake the positions lost in the previous British push. Continuous counter attacks were delivered by the Germans with the double object of recapturing the lost positions if possible, and, at any rate, of holding back the threatened British blow. The German commanders failed in both objects, and it is reported that three Hun divisions which were being moved up to launch another attack, were caught in the British barrage fire and practically annihilated. The British offensive seems to have proceeded with clock-work regularity. The first two objectives were gained without a halt, and the main portion of the coveted ridge captured. There will undoubtedly be a violent German reaction, but backed by an overwhelming strength in artillery, there is little doubt of the ability of the British infantry to hold what they have gained. Terrific fighting may be expected, but it looks as if the Germans will be forced to fall back from their Flanders line.

PEACE TALK

There has been considerable peace talk of late, and the Pope has entered the field as a mediator. That anything will come of it is in the highest degree improbable. The continued horrors of the war are apt to get on the nerves and obscure the real issues of the struggle. Germany began this war with definite objects, and has hesitated at nothing to attain them. Solemn treaties were violated at the beginning, and horrors have been piled on horrors ever since. The persistent raiding of English cities and the killing of women and children cannot be expected to incline the British people to peace overtures. Another thing is that Germany was ready for the war, while France and her allies were not. The result is that Germany in itself, except in the losses of its manhood and its ruined treasury has not felt the war. Belgium has been trampled into the dust, and a large part of France ravaged and laid waste. No reparation can ever be made to Belgium, and in any talk of peace it must be remembered that Germany was the aggressor. The Kaiser's insensate ambition, and the war lust of the Junkers, are alone responsible for the appalling losses and suffering humanity has had to endure in this struggle. Germany may very well be willing to talk peace. There isn't a hope remaining that it can now attain the objects for what it began the war. But if it obtained peace on any of the terms that have yet been suggested it would only postpone not relinquish its objects. Above all things its rulers want to avoid decisive defeat and the wasting of their country which would follow upon the war being carried into their own territory. Thus we see at the same time a well-engineered movement for peace accompanied by bigger doses of frightfulness. There will be no peace until Germany has been defeated and tasted of the horrors it has visited upon other countries.

PARTY OF SOLDIERS ON THEIR WAY WEST

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—Greeted with a welcome that evoked the warm appreciation of the recipients, the largest party of returned soldiers since the outbreak of the war arrived in the city at 8:50 o'clock tonight.

Capt. A. J. Gibson, C. A. M. C., of Victoria, on leave from the front, was in charge of the train.

There were no serious shock cases on board and the few bed cases were accommodated in a hospital car, of which Sisters Steele and McCallum, of Vancouver, had charge. Both nurses had beben overseas.

The party of 238 included 88 for Winnipeg and district, 36 for Regina 50 for Calgary and 64 for Victoria.

The Westerners resumed their journey at 10:55 o'clock.

Pte. George [illegible], D. C. M. of Kamloops, was a member of the party.

NO NEARER SETTLEMENT

Portland, Oct. 4.—Complete failure to progress toward a settlement of the shipyards strike in a series of conferences which were initiated several days ago by G.Y. Harry, Federal mediator, was announced today by the committee of employers and strikers respectively who had participated.

BIJOU THEATRE

"The Soul Master," James Oliver Curwood's remarkable drama, has been filmed by the Greater Vitagraph Company as a Blue Ribbon feature with Earl Williams in the title and will be the attraction at the Bijou Theatre to-day and tomorrow. "The Soul Master" tells of a merchant a devoted husband and father, who loses his soul when his wife deserts him, taking their baby daughter with her. He succeeds in business, but earns the hatred and scorn of his fellow-men—and the poor girls who work under him. He does not regain mastery of his soul until one of the salesgirls, who turns out to be his daughter, stirs the parental love in him.

Several of the scenes in the play show a large department store during one of its busy hours. The sales girls waiting on hurrying customers, aisles crowded, floorwalkers handling the crowds like a traffic policeman—everything is faithfully recorded.

A clever comedy and interesting travel reel accompany the feature.

CANADIAN RUBBER GOES TO GERMANY

Montreal, Oct. 4.—Operation in Canada of German commercial agents who are sending rubber to Germany via Holland, was referred to by Clarence de Sola, Belgian consul in the course of a warning he issued through the local press to Canadians. Mr. De Sola said that German agents had been playing a clever game misleading Canadian exporters, especially exporters of rubber.

The plot had now been unearthed.

Mr. de Sola declined to be more specific in his statements, but reminded his hearers that they were laying themselves open to heavy penalties even though they were innocent as being a party to a scheme to send war material to Germany.

ANOTHER LOAN TO BELGIUM

Washington, Oct. 4.—The Government today advanced Belgium another $2,000,000 in addition to previous loans of $7,500,000 a month for six months and speciol loan made some time ago of $4,900,000.

WILL NOT GRANT PASSPORTS

Paris, Oct. 4.—It is announced that the French Government will not grant passports to French delegates for the Berne conference decided upon at the recent Socialist conference in London. The question of the transfer to a neutral city of the headquarters of the International Labor Union which now is in Berlin was to be discused at the Berne meeting.

UGH! ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GASS OR INDIGESTION.

The moment "Pape's Diapepsin" reaches the stomach all distress goes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down; Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow—but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress vanishes—your stomach gets, sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

LEG ULCER FOR 2 YEARS

Are you suffering from some chronic sore which nothing you have tried seems able to heal? If so, use Zam-Buk, Nature's Skin Healer, which overcomes sores that have defied all other treatments.

Mr. Isaac Phinney, of Lower Five Islands, N.S., says: "For two years I suffered with an ulcer on my leg, and although I tried no end of remedies, nothing was capable of healing the sore until I used Zam-Buk. Soon after I commenced applying Zam-Buk the ulcer showed signs of improvement, and I continued until the sore entirely disappeared."

Zam-Buk is used with equally good results for eczema, ringworm, scalp sores, ulcers, boils, piles, blood-poisoning and skin injuries. All dealers. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

TANKS ARE PUT IN FIELD BY GERMANY

French Front in France, Oct. 4.—The Germans are experimenting with a tank armed with three-inch cannon and machine guns. The forward end of the tank is fitted with a spur-like ram, while the upper part bears a superimposed cupola, and the armored plates descend sufficiently to protect the caterpillar wheels which thus are almost invisible.

WATER SERVICE OF FERNIE IS INTERRUPTED

Fernie, Oct. 4.—An explosion of dynamite at 4 o'clock this morning blew out the Fairy Creek water main putting out of commission this city's water service. A fire alarm was turned in a few minutes later from the annex, where fire had broken out in the basement of a two-storey residence owned and occupied by Wm. Cole, a miner. The house and one adjoining were totally destroyed.

The explosion occurred near the cable bridge, which carries the water main over the Elk river, and there is no doubt of its being set off with intent to shut off the city's water supply. Water from the Coal Creek main has been turned into the city system until the break can be repaired.

A CHILD'S TONGUE SHOWS IF LIVER OR BOWELS ARE ACTIVE.

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, give fruit laxative at once.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

WHITE SOX FETED ON REACHING HOME

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Bringing with them the first championship Chicago has won in the American league in eleven years the White Sox returned home to begin final practice for the first game of the world series with New York Saturday. Practice will start early tomorrow, Manager Rowlands announced. The players will be kept on the field practically all day. Rain prevented the schedule practice game today with the Cleveland Americans, and the players spent the afternoon receiving congratulations from Chas. A. Comiskey, owner of the club. Tonight they were given a banquet by the Woodland Bards, an organization made up of Mr. Comiskey's friends. Covers for 1,500 persons were laid. The National League champions will play an exhibition game with the Chicago Nationals at Weeghman Park tomorrow afternoon. The contest is designed to put the Giants on edge for the series. The New York Club will arrive from Philadelphia at 2 p.m. Waiting automobiles will rush them to the ball park.

Manager Rowland, of the Chicago Club, announced tonight that he would extend an invitation to Manager McGraw, of the Giants, to use the White Sox Field for practice Friday any time the club desires.

ADOPTED BY SENATE

Washington, Oct. 3.—Within less than three minutes the Senate adopted the conference report on the War Urgent Deficiency Appropriation bill carrying $7,757,434,410 in cash and authorized contracts. Tomorrow the House is expected to send it to President Wilson for signature.

DEPARTMENT OF WORKS NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

South Wellington School

Sealed Tenders, superscribed "Tender for South Wellington School," will be received by the Honourable the Minister of Public Works up to 12 o'clock noon of Friday, the 26th day of October, 1917, for the erection and completion of a four-room school at South Wellington, in the Newcastle Electoral District, B. C.

Plans, specifications, contract, and forms of tender may be seen on and after the 10th day of October, 1917, at the office of J. Mahony, Government Agent, Court-house, Vancouver B.C.; S. McB. Smith, Government Agent, Court-house, Nanaimo, B.C.; J. E. Parrott, Esq., Secretary of the School Board, South Wellington, B. C.; or the Department of Public Works, Victoria, B. C.

Intending tenderers can obtain one set of plans and specifications by applying to the undersigned with a deposit of ten dollars ($10) which will be refunded on their return in good order.

Each proposal must be accompanied by an accepted bank cheque on a chartered bank of Canada, made payable to the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, for a sum equal to 20 per cent. of tender, which shall be forfeited if the party tendering decline to enter into contract when called upon to do so, or if he fail to complete the work contracted for. The cheques of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them upon the execution of the contract.

Tenders will not be considered unless made out on the forms supplied signed with the actual signature of the tenderer, and enclosed in the envelopes furnished.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

A. E. FOREMAN,
Public Works Engineer.

Public Works Department,
Victoria, B.C., October 2nd, 1917.

CONVALESCENTS HAVE ST. JOHN ARMOURIES

So few active treatment cases have been returned to Canada up to the present time in comparison to the number which were expected, that the Armouries at St. John, N.B., prepared on the advice of the Imperial authorities for bed cases has been converted into a convalescent home by the Military Hospitals Commission and made a centre of activity in the new "K" Unit. One hundred convalescent men are now being cared for in the institution and every branch of work for the disabled soldiers including physical and vocational training is being carried on. The wards which were made from the old drill hall will accommodate 450 men, and all the company rooms have been made into rooms for special treatment and administration offices. The kitchen, which was added, is of the most complete type, equipped with all the steam and electric apparatus of the best hotel, and run by a skilled dietitian and her staff.

The Armouries offer splendid quarters for convalescent men during the winter season, and the men are in fine spirits.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years renewal for a further term of 21 years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of section, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights only, rescinded by such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights are not being operated Chap. 27 of 4-5 George V. assented to 12th June, 1914.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

WINCARNIS offers you the quickest, the surest, and the safest way to the new health you need when you are

Weak, Anaemic, Nervous, Run-down

WINCARNIS offers you new health! Think what this means to you. Instead of that out-of-sorts, nervous, run-down feeling, you can revel in the enjoyment of new and buoyant health. You feel well—eat well—work well—sleep well—and rise in the morning refreshed and vigorous, and feel your whole body pulsating with new life.

That is the new health Wincarnis offers you. Because Wincarnis is a Tonic, a Restorative, a Blood-maker and a Nerve Food—all in one. This four-fold power, acting upon the system at one time, enables Wincarnis to give new strength, new rich blood, new nerve force, and new vitality. And because Wincarnis does this, it is recommended by over 10,000 Doctors.

If you are weak, Wincarnis will give you new strength. If you are Anæmic, Wincarnis will give you new rich red blood. If you are nervous, Wincarnis will give you new nerve force. If you are run-down, Wincarnis will give you new vitality.

Knowing that, surely you will not continue to suffer needlessly. Remember, you begin to get well from the first day you commence to take Wincarnis. And each succeeding day you derive more strength, more rich blood, more nerve force, and more vitality, until soon your whole system becomes surcharged with a feeling of new life.

Then you can stop taking Wincarnis.

But you can still enjoy the new health Wincarnis has given you.

Wincarnis is not a luxury, but a positive necessity to all who are Weak, Anæmic, Nervous, Run-down—to all enfeebled by old age—to martyrs to Indigestion—to all Invalids—and to all who are depressed and "out-of-sorts."

Don't suffer needlessly. Take advantage of the new health Wincarnis offers you. But be sure you get Wincarnis—don't trust substitutes.

WIVES AND MOTHERS OF SOLDIERS MEET

Yesterday afternoon a well attended meeting of the wives and mothers of soldiers was held in St. Andrew's Church Hall with the result that a Soldiers' and Sailors' Next-of-Kin Association was organized. The objects of the Association were defined as those of mutual aid and social intercourse and furthering the interests of their men in khaki. A committee of fourteen was appointed covering the whole city to get word to all the women and solicit their attendance at the next meeting on Friday, Oct. 19, at the same place when officers will be elected and a constitution agreed upon.

ENEMY WORSTED ON ALL FRONTS

German Losses in Ypres Sector are Enormous—Bulgars Defeated in Region of Buzeu River — Italians Victors on Slope of Monte San Gabriele

With the British secure in all positions they won Thursday along more than eight miles of front of the Ypres sector in Flanders Field Marshal Haig's men were busy Friday consolidating their newly won positions. Nothing but the dropping of shells from German guns served to interrupt the breathing spell the British were taking except here and there small counter attacks.

In addition to the enormous casualties inflicted on the Germans the British captured 4,448 prisoners in Thursday's attack, among them 114 officers. Comparative quiet prevails on all other battle fronts.

Apparently the Teutonic allies in Rumania after several weeks of virtual inactivity, again are preparing to attempt to force back the Russo-Rumanian lines. The Russians have been forced to sustain an offensive near Radautz, while near the Buzeu river region attacks by Bulgarian troops have been defeated.

The admission is made in the latest Vienna official communication that the Italians were successful in winning trenches from the Austrians on the western slope of Monte San Gabriele.

In Russia a coalition cabinet has been formed with M. Kerensky as Premier notwithstanding the demand of the Democratic congress that no government should be constructed without the sanction of the congress.

JINGLE POT MINE ON FIRE

Mine Has Been Sealed in an Effort to Extinguish Fire—Property May Be Closed Down Two Months.

A rather serious fire has broken out in the Jingle Pot Mine and unfortunately the location is such that ordinary remedies cannot be applied. In other words, the fire which is still in an incipient stage, cannot be isolated so as to permit of the continued operation of the mine.

Chief Inspector of Mines Wilkinson came up from Victoria yesterday afternoon, and in company with Mine Inspector Newton and Manager Freeman made a thorough inspection of the affected area. Chief Inspector Wilkinson advised the sealing up of the rock tunnel leading to the district where the fire is located and Manager Freeman expects to have air-tight stoppings in this morning. It is hoped that this will extinguish the fire, and if it succeeds the mine should be ready for operation in six weeks or two months' time.

It is distinctly unfortunate that the fire should have occurred just at this time when the demand for coal is so brisk. It is however, one of the things which cannot be guarded adainst in the operation of a mine and Chief Inspector Wilkinson, Inspector Newton and Manager Freeman, acting on the principle of safety always first, have taken the only course open to them. It is to be hoped that the sealing off of the slope will be successful in extinguishing the fire and that in six weeks' time the mine will again be in operation.

The closing down of the mine will throw 200 men out of employment for the time being and the shutting off of a monthly payroll of $20,000. The output of the mine of late has been 300 tons daily.

Y. M. C. A. WORK AT AL ERSHOT

Five battalions in camp, comprising about 6,000 men.

350,000 letterheads and 200,000 envelopes distributed.

$6,000 in stamps sold.

Free lending library of 460 books.

146 bank accounts opened.

$5,765 deposited; average, daily, $82.

Fourteen barrels of apples given away through generosity of Red Cross.

Thirteen free, high-class concerts given, with average attendance of 750.

One hundred free moving pic'ure shows given, with average attendance of 1200.

Average of 75 men in hospital; 200 visits made.

Daily papers provided, writing and reading material.

Flowers personally distributed several times a week.

Gramaphone concerts given by Soldiers' Service League.

Cheques cashed; 100 razors honed free of charge.

Sing-songs held Sunday; 14 Sunday night religious meetings, average attendance, 600; Brigade Bible Class met 14 times, total membership, 140; 17 mid-week prayer meetings, average attendance 500.

One khaki Communion service held.

About 70 men decided for Christ and service, and 250 signed total abstinence pledges.

"It is impossible to convey in words the significance attached to the foregoing," writes one who was in close touch with this work to War Work.

When the Secretary went with the Brigade to the embarkation port and personally said good-bye to the men, the meaning of the Association became more evident. Capt. Martin of the 85th Battalion, said that nothing in his experience had laid such a hold on several thousand men as had the Y. M. C. A. at Aldershot.

Col. Walker of the Field Hospital, said: "We owe you people a great debt."

"The principle adopted was to work in friendly conjunction with the chaplains, and throw on them the responsibility of reaching their men. In most cases they appreciated it, and they know, as a result of the Association's work, where they may find a goodly number of men in their own battalions who may assist them in their most important work."

NANAIMO ASKED TO CONTRIBUTE

City Will Be Canvassed for Subscriptions in Aid of the Funds to Carry on Work of the Y. M. C. A. Overseas.

During the course of the next ten days a campaign is being waged in Nanaimo for funds in support of the splendid work which is being done by the Y. M. C. A. among the boys in khaki, both at home and overseas, even to the very trenches. A strong committee which includes a number of the city's best known business men, has been formed to carry on the campaign and a thorough canvass it to be made with the result that Nanaimo's contribution to the good work should be a credit to the city.

The work of the Y. M. C. A. which is appreciated by every soldier has had a marvellous growth. The United States Council of the Association, is raising $35,000,000 for overseas work in one week commencing November 1st. It has sent ninety secretaries to the front in one week and all the Allied governments and Military authorities now recognize and commend the work most highly. The "Y" as the Y.M.C.A. has been nicknamed by the boys in khaki furnishes $60,000 worth of free stationary to soldiers within the Empire each week, and furnishes the opportunity and the suggestion to the boys to write home. It officially cares for the walking wounded of the British army after every battle, and throws about the boys an atmosphere of home in camp and trench life. So close to the front is Y.M.C.A. work carried on that several secretaries have been killed while in the discharge of their duty.

Nanaimo is asked to contribute to the good work. One of the most experienced overseas secretaries, an eloquent speaker, who is most direct and pleasing in the presentation of his story comes here on Wednesday and that night will unfold a most interesting story of the soldier's life in France and Flanders. Senator Planta will occupy the chair. There will be no charge for admission and the speakers will make no appeal for funds at any of the meetings, that matter being left entirely in the hands of the canvassers.

A meeting for men only will be held in the Foresters' Hall Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Capt. Pearson will tell of some of the inside workings and doings behind the scenes in the life of the boys 'Somewhere in France."

Nanaimo's response to the appeal being made should be most generous. This is the first appeal for funds for Y. M. C. A. work that has ever been made in Nanaimo and considering the fact that Nanaimo boys have for the past three years been receiving the benefits of the splendid work of the Y.M.C.A. the donation from the citizens of Nanaimo should compare favorably with that of any other city in the Dominion.

Subscriptions will be purely voluntary and should be most cheerfully given.

ATTENTION

Remember the entire proceeds of next Tuesday's vaudeville will be given for patriotic purposes. Show the boys you appreciate what they have done and what they are doing.1t

TENNIS CLUB DANCE

The Nanaimo Tennis Club held its first flannel dance of the season last evening in the Foresters' Hall there being some twenty-five couples in attendance. A most enjoyable time was spent the music being excellent, and the floor in splendid condition.

The remains of the late William Richards whose death occurred at Medicine Hat on Wednesday, will arrive in Nanaimo on this evening's boat and will be taken to Mr. D. J. Jenkins' parlors, where it will repose until the funeral, which will take place from thence at 1.30 p. m. on Sunday to the cemetery the Rev. Frank Hardy officiating.

Will all those who so kindly promised donations for the bazaar given by St. Paul's Ladies' Guild Wednesday and Thursday, 10th and 11th, send the same before Tuesday the 9th, to the Rectory. 2t

OPENS TODAY FOR BUSINESS

Western Mercantile Company, Successor to The Geo. S. Pearson Co. Will Open For Business This Morning.

As announced in the advertising columns of the Herald, the Western Mercantile Co. Ltd., are open for business today. The Western Mercantile Co. bought out the complete interests of the Geo. S. Pearson Co. and are located in the premises occupied by the latter company.

It is the intention of the new company to cut the price of all the goods they are handling to the lowest margin possible to the carring on of the business. In order to secure the best results in this direction all business will be conducted on a strictly cash basis. The company has made all its arrangements for the most advantageous buying and it looks to its customers to co-operate with it in reducing the high cost of living by paying cash for their purchases.

It is not contemplated under the cash system that all purchases must be made at the store. Orders will be taken and filled as here-to-fore, but cash must accompany delivery. In other words men on the delivery wagons will collect for goods ordered by telephone or generally, from outside of the store.

As an aid to the operation of this system the company has on sale at the cashiers office books of coupons for five, ten, or twenty dollars. Customers can purchase these books, and then with the coupons contained in them, pay for goods as they purchase them. Every precaution has been taken against the use of these coupons by any other person but the actual purchaser. The books are redeemable in cash any time at the store or any part of them will be cashed to suit the convenience of the customer. For the rest the cash system will be readily accepted by all when it is seen to have a direct affect upon prices. With fornightly pays it will be no hardship for anyone to pay cash, and every one should be the better for its adoption. What inducements the Western Mercantile Co., has to offer customers to try the cash system will be found in their advertisements in The Herald.

SPENCE—BROWN

An interesting marriage ceremony was performed Thursday morning by the Rev. Frank Hardy at the Methodist Parsonage on Wallace Street, the contracting parties being Mr. James Oxley Spence of the Five Acre Lots and Miss Eva Margaret Brown of this city, the young couple being attended by Mr. and Mrs. W. ANUTHER HUN PLOTTER DEPARTS

Count von Luxburg Has Left Argentine—Troops and Railway Strikers Clashed at Tafiviejo—Neutrality Demonstration Forbidden.

Buenos Ayres Oct. 5—Several persons were killed or wounded today in a battle between troops and railway strikers at Tafiviejo. A demonstration in favor of neutrality, which had been arranged for tomorrow, has been forbidden by the government because of insufficient forces to maintain order. The announce ment was made that Count von Luxburg, former German Minister to Argentine, who recently was given his passports, has left Buenos Ayres on a tug boat for Colonia, Uruguay, from whence he will go by train to Monte Video. Count von Luxburg has been granted a Spanish safe conduct which guarantees his personal safety, but does not protect whatever papers he may have in his possession.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Patriotic Fund has arranged a special meeting for the wives and mothers of the men at the front to meet Capt. Pearson, Senior Y. M. C. A. Overseas secretary who will tell of his personal exeperience of 2 years Y. M. C. A. work at the front. Meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in the Wallace St. Methodist Church School room. Mrs. F. G. West will preside. 1t.

Jean Doran a clever little step-dancer will be an added attraction at the vaudeville Tuesday Oct. 9th Opera House. 1t.

Jean Patterson will sing two of her Eastern successes "Calling Me Home to You," "Just a Little Cottage in The Country" on Tuesday Oct. 9th Opera House. 1t.

MUNITIONS GIVING GERMANS WORRY

Copenhagen, Oct. 5. — Leaders of various groups of German labor were received at the main army headquarters this week, not for the purpose of congratulating Field-Marshal von Hindenburg on his birthday as at first was intimated, but in a effort to have the German workmen speed up the production of munitions. The leaders submitted to Gen. von Ludendorff, the chief quartermaster general, complaints of the laboring classes. These dealt particularly with the operation of the compulsory labor service law. A lengthy conference was devoted to discussing the possible improvement of labor and the maintenance of the output of munitions. which Gen. von Ludendorff declared was the cardinal duty of the hour.

St. Paul's Ladies' Aid Guild are holding their annual bazaar Oct. 10 and 11, in the Institute from 3 p.m. till 10 p.m. Admission free except after 7.30 Thursday when a children's performance will be given. DOMINION THEATRE

Those patrons of the Dominion who miss seeing "The Law of Compensation," shewing for the last times today, with beautiful Norma Talmadge in the leading role, will miss seeing one of the most deeply moving and finely acted stories ever screened at this house. It is far beyond the ordinary in sustained interest and is beautifully staged and presented. We cannot get too many of such films as this.

In the Herald account of "Billie" Hamilton in Thursday's issue he was described as Captain Hamilton. This was a typographical error, as "Billie" at present is wearing a Corporal's stripe.

OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUTH OF CITY

Night Classes Under Capable Instructors Will be Conducted in City Commencing October 15th.

The Night Schools of Nanaimo will open for the winter season on October 15th next under the direction of the Nanaimo Board of School Trustees and any student intending taking a course is urged to sign up at once with Mr. S. Gough, secretary of the Board.

Classes in English and arithmetic, including penmanship, letterwriting, correspondence, fractions, short method of approximations, square root, etc., will be taught on Mondays and Wednesdays with ,Mr. Hoyle as instructor.

Mr. Hughes will have charge of a Preparatory Class for Mining Course, teaching arithmetic and English on Mondays and drawing and mensuration on Wednesdays.

A Mining Course for shotlighters, overman's and mine manager's papers will be taught by Mr. Dickson and Mr. Harrison will teach magnetism and electricity on Mondays. Miss Davidson will conduct classes in cooking on Mondays, and on Mondays Mr. McGuffie will instruct in bookkeeping and shorthand.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Two more games have been played in the local tennis tournament. In the mixed doubles Miss Shepherd and Marshall defeated Miss Peto and Hanna 1-6, 6-2 and 6-3. In the men's singles A. Ford beat Hindmarch 6-4, 4-6 and 6-4.

Members who have not played their games are urged to play them as soon as possible while the good weather lasts.

Those who attend tonight's dance in the Oddfellows' Hall are reminded they will be called on to pay the amusement tax recently imposed by the Provincial government. This applies to every person entering the hall, male or female. A small fee will be charged ladies to cover the tax.

ITALIAN CRUISER IN UNEQUAL FIGHT

Washington, Oct. 5.—Details of the Italian cruiser Aquila's fight in the Adriatic with Austrian airplanes destroyers and cruisers reached here today from Rome add to yesterday's cable account a thrilling story of how the gallant Italian ship, while fighting a fire in her own hold, drove off the destroyers, was bombed by the hydro-airplanes and single-handed engaged three Austrain cruisers until help came up, and they safely got to port under her own steam.

The Italian naval commander having learned that a number of Austrian ships were moving along eastern shore of the Adriatic, ordered a squadron of Italian destroyers to attack them. The squadron was preceded by the light cruiser Aquila. The vessel sighted two Austrian destroyers headed toward Cataro, the Austrian naval base. The Aquila put on full speed and attacked the destroyers, seriously damaging both of them. Just as it appeared that the Austrian vessels would be obliged to succumb a fire broke out on board the Aquila, which compelled the vessel to suspend the engagement while efforts were being made to subdue the flames.

In the meantime the two Austrian destroyers succeeded in escaping, finding refuge in the port of Durazzo, and a large number of Austrian hydro-aeroplanes were seen advancing. They soon surrounded the Aquila and began to drop bombs on her, causing some damage and killing some of the crew.

The crew succeeded in extinguishing the fire on the Aquila, and attacked the aircraft vigorously, forcing them to withdraw. The hydro-aeroplanes, however, disappeared only to give place to three big Austrian cruisers, the Ayda, Novara and Aspern.

Without hesitation, the commander of the Aquila engaged the three ships, meanwhile calling by wireless to his assistance some Italian destroyers cruising in the direction of Durazzo. Very soon the destroyers came up, supported by some English craft of the same type, and the three Austrian cruisers withdrew, one of them, the Novara, severly damaged.

FOUR THOUSAND PRISONERS TAKEN

British Have Consolidated all Ground Captured in Thursday's Battle—French Artillery Scattered German Forces on the Meuse.

Paris, Oct. 5. The French official communication says:

"On the Aisne to the southeast of Chreveux and to the east of Berny, we repulsed two surprise attacks.

"In the Champagne to the west of Navarin farm and in the region of Monts, there was reciprocal artillery activity. On the right bank of the Meuse our artillery caught under its fire and scattered in the region of Bois des Caurieres, enemy assemblages.

"Army of the East, Oct. 4.—Calm prevails along the front, except in the Cerna bend and north of Monastir, where the cannonade has been rather spirited."

London, Oct. 5.—The British communication tonight says:

"Comparative quiet prevailed Friday in the Ypres sector. Prisoners to the number of 4,448, among them 114 officers, have been taken by the British. The communication says:

"No important infantry fighting occurred on the battle front today. Our troops have consolidated their positions. There is nothing to report from the remainder of the front

MANY CLAIMS ARE CONSIDERED

BORDEN'S SINCERITY

The Victoria Times suggests two or three things that Sir Robert Borden might do if he wishes to prove the sincerity of his professions for a national government, one of which is that he should free the administration from the influences of the "big interests." The "Times" is very much alone in its distrust of Sir Robert's sincerity, and its reasoning is difficult to follow. He is seeking and getting men of different political views to join him in the administration of the country and with these men in the Cabinet there would be an end to the influence of the "big interests." At least this is one result we all look to follow from the organization of a union government, and in itself furnishes a proof, if any were needed, of Sir Robert's sincerity.

PREMIER BREWSTER

Premier Brewster is on his way to Ottawa and there is a strong probability that he will enter the union government which Sir Robert Borden is now forming. Now that a break has been made and Messrs Ballantyne and Guthrie have accepted portfolios, it is unlikely that the Liberal machine will raise any more obstacles to the project. Some allowance must be made for the difficulties in which Liberals found themselves. Nobody can deny the failure of the Borden Government to handle the war business of the Dominion, and it has always been our opinion that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's active co-operation should have been asked long before it was. At the same time no one not warped and prejudiced by partisan politics could deny the necessity of conscription or of national government in this great national crisis. The trouble started when Sir Wilfrid Laurier found himself unable to support conscription; for it was not surprising that even among the English-speaking supporters were ready to support him right or wrong.

There ensued a deadlock, and for a few weeks political considerations reigned supreme. The convention at Winnipeg more than anything else could have done revealed to the public whither the politicians were dragging them and the country. A strong reaction set in, one of the results of which is Premier Brewster's visit to Ottawa. Mr. Brewster may not have taken as strong and open a stand on the national issue of the day as many people in the province would have liked. If he did not take an active part in the political juggling and jockeying at Winnipeg at any rate he tolerated it and gave it his tacit approval, and his attitude since on more than one occasion has been uncertain and unsatisfactory. He struck a different note in his address at Victoria last night, and, what is more, we believe he expressed more nearly his real convictions. Should he be offered and accept a portfolio in a union government he will be making a real sacrifice. He is safe in his position as Premier of this province for at least four years, and no doubt he would much rather keep it. Still if the province is to go into the Union Government Premier Brewster is its natural representative, and should he accept a portfolio it will be with the full intention of doing his utmost in the common cause of the Dominion. Premier Brewster thrives on work, and his special knowledge of conditions in the province generally, and on the coast particularly, should enable him to render invaluable assistance to the union government.

YOU CAN'T FIND ANY DANDRUFF, AND HAIR STOPS COMING OUT.

Save Your Hair! Make It Thick, Wavy, Glossy, and Beautiful at once.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and skimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has not been neglected or injured by careless treatment. A 25c bottle will double the beauty of your hair.

TWO FIREMEN KILLED

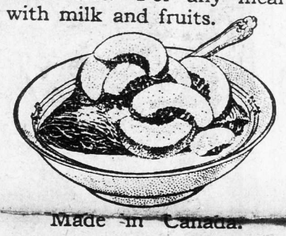
San Francisco, Oct. 5.—Two firemen, one S. J. Russell, an assistant chief, were killed, and seven others seriously injured late today in a down town district, when they were trapped under collapsed walls of a three-story frame lodging house, destroyed by fire.

ARMY'S POWER IS MUCH INCREASED

London, Oct. 4.—Winston Spencer Churchill, speaking at a luncheon in London today, said it was too early to say that the submarine campaign had been defeated, but it was not too soon to say that this vital attack on the country had been checked, or even repulsed.

The capacity of the country to wage war, declared the Minister, was unimpaired. The armies had been supplied on an ever-increasing high level of equipment and the reserves of food were greater than before the attacks began.

During the twenty-three weeks of the present offensive the tonnage of shells hurled against German positions had doubled that of the whole Somme battle, while during the last and culminating week, it had been four times that of the same period in the Somme operations. Next year, unless some extraordinary developments took place, he said the power of the British artillery would undergo a great lift.



PREPARE FOR SECOND CALL

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Forty-five governors have approved the plan to proceed at once with the physical examination of the 7,000,000 men registered under the Selective Draft Act, who were not included in the first call. The work will be done leisurely two or three examinations being held each week. The accepted men will be included in the second call, and will be used to fill gaps in the national army as they occur.

CEREAL SHORTAGE IN MEXICO GRAVE

Mexico City, Oct. 4.—A delegation from the National Chamber of Commerce called upon President Carranza last night to advise him that the shortage of cereals throughout the republic was growing very grave and to ask what remedial measures had been taken. The President replied that he was aware of the situation, and said he had authorized the Treasury Department to take steps to obtain supplies of corn and other foodstuffs.

FOOD CONTROLLER'S TASK

Vancouver, Oct. 5.—Defending Food Controller Hanna from the attacks of critics, F. M. Black, chairman of the Fruit and Vegetable committee of the Food Controller's Department, stated upon his arrival here from Edmonton, that the proper distribution of the potato crop in the Dominion from ocean to ocean was a collossal undertaking, and that what might seem a simple solution to many provinces was in fact fraught with complex problems.

"In criticizing the Food Controller," said Mr. Black, "it should be remembered that had he been appointed six months earlier, and had he been able to perfect plans and organization, the whole task would have been a simple one to handle, but as it is he has been asked to deal not only with a complicated situation but also to do so at a season when food production of Canada is at its maximum and when problems call for an immediate solution. It for abuses that have gone unchecked for years within our economic system."

Mr. Black said that until every part of the Dominon had been considered it would be impossible to state what the final policy of the Food Controller's office would be.

Pay Will Be The Same

Men selected under the Military Service Act will receive the same pay as those now on active service receive. Pay will start from the time a man reports for duty. Money from the Patriotic Fund and Separation Allowance will also be available for selected men.

Canadian soldiers are well paid. The fact that wages in Canada are generally higher than those paid in Europe is recognized in the system of remuneration for men on active service. Clothing and all equipment in addition to food is also supplied to the Canadian soldier, leaving him with no expense except personal incidentals.

The rate of pay for men in the Canadian Expeditionary Force, other than commissioned officers, is as follows:

	Pay	Field Allowance
Warrant Officers	$2.00	30 cts.
Regimental Sergt.-Major, if not a Warrant Officer	1.85	20 "
Quartermaster-Sergeants	1.80	20 "
Orderly Room Clerks	1.50	20 "
Orderly Room Sergeants	1.50	20 "
Pay Sergeants	1.50	20 "
Squad., Batt., or Co. Sergt-Major	1.60	20 "
Colour-Sergeant or Staff-Sergeant.	1.60	20 "
Squad., Batt., or Co. Q.M.S.	1.50	20 "
Sergeants	1.35	15 "
Lance-Sergeants	1.15	15 "
Corporals	1.10	10 "
Lance-Corporals	1.05	10 "
Bombardiers, or Second Corporals	1.05	10 "
Trumpeters, Buglers, and Drummers	1.00	10 "
Privates, Gunners, Drivers	1.00	10 "
Sappers, Batmen, etc.	1.00	10 "

As in the case of those already gone overseas, Separation Allowances will be available for those dependent for livelihood upon selected men. The Separation Allowance is $20.00 per month for the rank and file, $25.00 for sergeants and staff-sergeants and $30.00 for warrant officers. The experience is that many men can afford to assign half their pay to dependents, in addition.

A considerable number of men who have enlisted in the Canadian forces have found themselves better off under the army rate of pay, which is granted in addition to board, lodging, clothing, equipment, transportation, etc., than they were while in civilian positions. Their wants are provided for, and they receive a steady addition to the bank account each month.

Issued by The Military Service Council.

BIG NEW YORK STORE SHOWN ON SCREEN

A striking instance of the fidelity with which modern photoplay producer visualizes for the spectator the scenes in a story is offerd in "The Soul Master" the Greater Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature which will be presented at the Bijou Theatre today. Earle Williams the popular Vitagraph star, plays the part of a merchant, owner of a chain of department stores, and a great deal of the action takes place in a department store.

In order to get the proper atmosphere the Vitagraph officials made arrangements with one of the big New York stores to permit them to stage some of the action there.

LISTEN TO THIS! SAYS CORNS LIFT RIGHT OUT NOW

You reckless men and women who are pested with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the mbment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.

It is a sticky ether compound which dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of a ounce of freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callous.

You are futher warned that cutting at a corn is a suicidal habit.

STANFIELD'S
Unshrinkable
UNDERWEAR

Made and Worn by Two Generations

Over a quarter of a century ago the late C. E. Stanfield, Pioneer underwear manufacturer of Truro, N.S., discovered a way to prevent woollen underwear from shrinking—by the radical but sensible plan of taking the shrink out of the wool before it went to the knitting machines.

His secret process at once overcame the one fault of woollen underwear, and started a keen and steadily growing demand for the Stanfield's product.

From the very first, the sterling quality of Stanfield's Underwear, as proved by wear and washing, has been its most prominent feature. It actually DOES NOT SHRINK, "full up" nor mat—and on the basis of length of service it is the best value offered in underwear.

Not content with superior quality, Stanfield's give you the little niceties that make undergarments luxurious. Among the newer improvements are the wonderfully handy Adjustable Combinations and Adjustable Sleepers for growing children. Simply moving the buttons on the waist allows for two to three years' growth, and the detachable lower part is a great convenience.

CANADIAN Chalmers

Wins in TRAFFIC test

One more proof that the Chalmers is the sound, speedy car for every-day driving.

On March 26th a remarkable run was made in Chicago. 24 hours' driving through the crowded streets. A stock Chalmers was used. First and second gears were taken out and the trip made on high gear. There were four passengers. One of them, an official of the American Automobile Association, made the report. The driver was an amateur. The engine never stopped.

In the 24-hour run 586.8 miles were rolled-up. This beats every previous traffic test by 228 miles! Average speed 24.45 miles per hour. 14 miles to the gallon of gasoline.★

This is performance—wonderful performance. It is exactly the test a car gets under ordinary driving. Stopping. Getting away. Slowing down. Jumping into speed. You want a car that can do this. You want the reserve power, the smoothness, the flexibility of the Chalmers motor.

There is a great surprise awaiting you when you drive the Chalmers and put it to the test.

Why Should I Own a Piano?

Your home may be complete, you may be a whole man, but there's many a half man living a half life in a half home. Are you sure yours is not a one-sided existence?

Civilization has moved at the command of only one language—one universal language—music. The martial strains of "La Marseillaise" have stirred nations; the plaintive melodies of "Home Sweet Home" have brought memories surging to the breasts of countless thousands. There is no human emotion that music does not touch, no depth which it cannot sound.

For the home there is no musical instrument that is quite so sompletely satisfying as the Piano or Player Piano. With either you bring music and all its glories into your home. You bring to children an atmosphere in which the emotions are stirred and ideals are raised Fletcher's Superb Piano Service is Yours to use.

It is a service of proven reliability, a service of satisfaction. It offers six eminent makes of Pianos, all tried and tested, chosen because each, at its price, represents the utmost in piano value. Each is Doubly Guaranteed by the maker, and by us.

GERMANS DID NOT COUNTER

German Infantry Failed to Make Any Counter Attacks Against British Offensive in Flanders—Fire of Enemy's Guns Increased.

London, Oct. 6.—German infantry made no counter attacks in the field [illegible] ders front during last night, although enemy guns increased their fire, says today's War Office announcement. The British drove off a raiding party south of Hollebeke, while Welsh troops engaged in a successful foray on the German line near Gouzeaucourt.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—On the Flanders battlefront there was destructive artillery fire throughout Friday, increasing to drum-fire in the evening, but no important infantry attack was made by the British, according to an official report from the German general headquarters.

In the region of Soissons artillery activity increased and in the Verdun sector German storming troops penetrated enemy positions and took prisoners at several points.

An auto party including Miss E. Phye, Miss M. Monks, Mr. P. Allan and Mr. E. Allan, motored down from Comox last evening to meet Miss Monks' sister, Mrs. F. Lee, of Squamish, who is coming over to the Island on a visit. The party will return home today.

U BOATS HAVE PASSED ZENITH

Washington, Oct. 6.—A reduction of nearly 25 per cent in premiums for insurance of American vessels and cargoes traversing the war zone was announced today by the Government's war risk insurance bureau. The reduction is made, it is officially announced "because of the decrease in risks" which is unofficially regarded as the Government's expression of opinion that the U-boats have passed the zenith in their campaign of frightfulness.

FINNS WANT A PRESIDENT

Petrograd, Oct. 6.—The Finnish Senate has prepared a plan for the formation of a new Independent government for Finland, with the president elected by direct vote for a five year term, and with a cabinet responsible to the Diet, according to a dispatch from Helsingfors today. It is proposed to send diplomatic representatives to other nations and to ask representation in the general peace conference. The expectation is expressed that after the war Russia will withdraw her military forces vacating fortresses.

GERMANS FORCED TO WITHDRAW

Germans so Exposed to British Attacks That They Have Pulled Back Their Defences a Short Distance.

British Front in France and Belgium Oct. 6.—At points opposite the new line established by the British attack in Flanders the Germans were reported to-day to be in such exposed positions that they had pulled back their defences a short distance. British patrols found the forward shell hole defences in one section abandoned.

British Front in France and Belgium, Oct. 6.—The Germans suffered severely in the British attack Thursday. A trip along the battlefront east and northwest of Ypres shows hundreds of bodies of soldiers among the debris. At many points shell craters were filled with dead. Here and there were wounded, sometimes under a pile of corpses where the British stretcher bearers could not reach them.

Along one section of the Australian front a thousand bodies were counted A little farther south there was another lot of 700. Some of these were prisoners who were making their way bach within the British lines when they were caught in their own barrage and killed. One officer of the Prussian Guard who was captured near Polygon Wood said the British shell fire had worked terrific havoc among his men.

A British aeroplane with an Australian as its pilot had a remarkoble experience yesterday The pilot and observer kept at work despite the clouds and the rain. The Germans fired many shells at the plane but it continued in action. When the pilot finally was forced to volplane do[illegible] behind his own lines. It was found that his machine had been struck so often that it was no further useful Neither the pilot nor his observer was injured.

To-day the pilot asked that he be allowed to go up again. His superior officer, however, thought he had had enough excitement for the time being and refused permission.

London, Oct. 6.—The following report from Field-Marshal Haig was issued here today:

"The enemy's artillery has shown increased activity on the whole front but no activity has been attempted by his infantry. An attempted raid on our trenches south of Hollebeke was driven off by our rifle and machine gun fire.

"Welsh troops successfully raided the enemy's lines northeast of Gouzeaucourt, bombing dugouts and inflicting casualties upon the garrison."

NO SCARCITY OF DENTISTS IN ARMY

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—The Militia Department has issued a positive denial to the statement that Canadian forces in France are inadequately supplied with dentists and that much suffering has been caused to men because of this. On the contrary, it is said at the department that the Canadian army dental corps over seas which now consists of 250 officers and 549 warrant officers, N. C. O's and men is the most efficient organization and has done work of the greatest value especially combatting disease known as "trench mouth. The research of Canadian dentists in connection with evolving a cure for this disease has, it is said, proven most inportant, not only to the Dominion forces but the whole army.

CHICAGO TOOK OPENING GAME

New York Nationals Defeated in the First Game of Series for World's Baseball Championship by 2 to 1.

Chicago, Oct. Eddie Cicotte of Detroit, pitcher extraordinary to the Chicago Americans, piloted his team to victory today over the New York Nationals by a score of 2 to 1, in the first game of the 1917 world's series, played at Comiskey Park. At the wheel of the White Sox machine he was master of the Giants at every stage of the contest which thrilled 32,000 followers of the local American League champions and sent them away from the Comiskey Park convinced that after several years of waiting the highest honors of the baseball game were to fall to the share of Chicago.

Cicotte was ably assisted by the White Sox machine which played almost faultless baseball against the determined stand of the National letgue standard bearers who would not admit defeat until the final catch of Robertson's fly by J. Collins' ended the contest, which equalled in every way the expected battle between the rival clubs.

An even 32,000 spectators paid admission to the field of the local club with the result that $73,152 was divided among the players, clubs and the national commission. Of this amount the players received $39,502.08; each club $13,167.36, and the National Commission $7,315.20.

The game was replete with startling catches, double plays, long hits, and breaks, which marked the line dividing victory from defeat.

The Score:

	R.	H.	E.
New York	1	7	1
Chicago	2	7	1

Batteries: Sallee and McCarty; Cicotte and Schalk.

VICTORIA POLICE MADE A RAID

Victoria, Oct. 6.—The first raid under the Prohibition Act was made here today, when the police entered the cafe and bar of the Wilson Hotel, Yates street, and seized whit is purported to be a bottle of Irish whiskey, a flask containing alleged whiskey, a considerable number of empty flasks and bottles of so-called lager beer. The seized liquor will be analyzed and should it contain more than two and a half per cent of alcohol, prosecutions will be initiated. The cafe is operated by John Trantifile and Ethel Cook and the bar by Edward McAvoy.

New York, Oct. 5.—Interesting military possibilities in Palestine are forecasted in advices from Mecca, as reported in Arabia newspapers reaching New York, to the effect that the Arabs in Arabia in revolt against the Turks have effected a junction with the British army in Southern Palestine.

It is pointed out that the reported Arab junction with the British whose advance in Palestine is now in the vicinity of Gaza, is likely to prove of importance as regards to the occupation of Syria.

TRAINS COLLIDED

Colmar, Oct. 6.—Fifteen persons were injured, and several seriously, when two passenger trains on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, collided here today. The impact sent two coaches of one of the trains from the track.

LISTEN OH YE PEOPLE

Everything is Now in Readiness for the Big Vaudeville on Tuesday Evening.

"Forced to repeat."—what better success could any company, amateur or professional, wish to attain?

Owing to the fact that so many were turned away from the Cabaret performance at the recent carnival, the committee in charge are repeating the programme with several new numbers.

"One Fleeting Hour," with a beautiful Grecian chorus; also the "Rosary" with tableaux chorus, are both very pretty and effective.

What will be a screamingly funny number is the "Pussy Cat Rag" with a chorus of eight pretty little kittens.

The Japanese, Dutch, Egyptian, Chinese and Hawaiian choruses—all have pretty music and talented soloists.

The Bridal Chorus, one of the pretiest and most charming also the clever dancing piano girls, will be repeated.

These along with other numbers form the programme for Tuesday's performance. It is by far the best and most varied programme ever given in the city. Consider the cause You are helping to pay the debt you owe these boys at Qualicum. They have fought and suffered for you. Show them that the people of Nanaimo at least appreciate what they have done.

Everything has been given free to the committee in charge so that every cent taken in on Tuesday evening will be clear profit. Think of whom and what it is for.

There will be two performances, 7:30 and 9 o'clock. Admission 25 cents. Come and lend us a hand to make the account for the boys as large as possible.

CORP. BARRASS RETURNED HOME

Wounded in action, his right arm still helpless from the effects thereof, Corporal George Barrass returned to his home in Nanaimo last night, the returned hero being warmly welcomed home by the Returned Soldiers' Committee and His Worship Mayor McKenzie, the latter, on behalf of the citizens extending a welcome to Corp. Barrass, and calling for three cheers which were lustily given by a large concourse of citizens.

Corp. Barrass went overseas with the 102nd Battalion, and went through a number of engagements before receiving the wounds which necessitated his being invalided home.

The general delivery wicket of the Post Office will be open Monday, (Thanksgiving Day) from 1 to 2 p.m.

LOCAL MEDICAL BOARD IS BUSY

First Draft Men are Taking Time by the Forelock by Calling upon Medical Board for Examination.

The Medical Board for this district, consisting of Doctors (Capt.) Frost, Ingham and Drysdale, is having a busy time examining the young men of the district who will be called up in the first draft.

Although the proclamation calling up Class A men will not be made until Saturday next a large number of the men who will be caught in this draft are taking time by the forelock and getting examined before the rush begins. The Board at present meets on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m., but the applicants cannot be handled under this arrangement and the number of days the Board will hold sittings will be increased.

Up to the present some fifty applicants have been examined, the number of those found physically fit constituting a large percentage.

TENNIS FINALS ON MONDAY

A number of games were played in the tennis tournament yesterday, and it is proposed to play off all semi-finals and finals on Monday. There are games enough to play to make quite a field day, and, as in addition to the tourney finals a number of visiting players are expected all the local members should turn out. Mr. F. H. Shepherd, M.P., will present the prizes to the winners in the tournament. The following are the scores in the games played yesterday:

Mixed Doubles

Miss Thomas and Foreman beat Miss Teague and Granger, 6-1, 2-6, and 6-3.

Men's Doubles.

S. McB. Smith and Marshall beat Granger and Hanna 1-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Men's Singles

Foreman beat A. Ford 6-1, 6-3.

The following is the draw for the second round and players are asked to arrange their games:

Singles

Marshall, a bye.

Foreman vs. Hanna or Jepson.

Men's Doubles.

L. Smith and A. Ford, a bye.

S. McB. Smith and Marshall vs. Foreman and W. Ford.

Birth—On Saturday, Oct. 6th, to the wife of L. Harvey May, Newcastle Townsite, of a daughter.

The remains of the late William Richards were brought to the city last evening from Medicine Hat by deceased's daughter, Mrs. Fossum, and the funeral will take place from Jenkins' undertaking parlors this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Hardy officiating.

Light Infantry Chapter, I.O.D.E., have placed a box in Hoggan's Store, Townsite, where donations will be received for the Christmas Shower for the soldiers.

NO PAPER TUESDAY

Monday being Thanksgiving Day, and a statutory holiday, there will be no issue of The Herald Tuesday morning.

Y.M.C.A. DOING A GOOD WORK

Officials are Pledged to Care For All Round Welfare of The Boys in Khaki.

While the Red Cross mangificent as its work is, has to deal with only about 25 per cent of the fighting foce of the army, and then only when a case is officially reported as sick or wounded. the Y. M. C. A. has pledged itself to the defence authorities of the Empire to see that 100 per cent of the army is physically socially and morally cared for, was a statement made in the course of an address given by Mr. J. H. Lang, national secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Australia, at a luncheon at the Hotel Vancouver, attended by members of the city council and business men of the city.

Mr. Lang said war had made them think in terms of millions and not of thousands. Today there were 30,000,000 of the flower of humanity in the battle lines; in no previous war had more than 2,000,000 men been engaged. The United States voted $11,000,000,000 in as many hours as they would have taken days previously to discuss it. Speaking of a visit to the Grand Fleet about a month ago,h e said during one night it disappeared, it had put out to sea. He had seen a submarine base abandoned when half completed because it had become obsolete.

Two years before the war the Y. M. C. A. had gone to the war office and asked what service it could render in cas of a great war, and they had been asked to carry on the work they were then doing. Today there were 2000 salaried officers of the association on overseas service, and there were 6000 volunteer women workers of high social station. To cite one phase of the association's activities he said it supplied no less than $60,000 worth of stationary to the soldiers freee of charge every week.

It took five men behind the lines to maintain each one in the front line trenches he said. It meant something for the men when they had come from an attack, with perhaps all his companions killed, to be met by a man who understood men for specialists were always engagd when obtainable, and cared for. This man might have been brought up to look upon killing as murder, and when he had thrust his bayonet into a man he would, in the rest area, brood over the matter. He had seen the whole aspect and the countenances of a day when they came under the care of the Y. M. C. A. officers.

Theirs was not merely an association work now, it was a national work, and if it could be more efficiently done by the association going out of existance he would stand for it, and thousands of others were of the same opinion.

When the association asked if it could serve the Indian troops it was told it could do so provided no religious propaganda was carried on, and this was agreed to.

Mention was made of the good work done by the association in taking relatives to see wounded men at the front, entirely free of cost to the relatives.

He closed with a thrilling reference to Vimy Ridge and the evidences he personally saw of Canadian heroism there.

In a final reference the speaker urged upon his hearers the necessity of preparing for the return of these men, men who had earned a rest and sympathetic treatment from those in whose defence they had fought. None was so well qualified to give that manly sympathy which soldiers needed as those who had been in the fight with them, and he strongly urged that the business men of the city should complete a proper building and have it free of debt so that the Y. M. C. A could continue the work of reconstruction and rehabilitation among the returned men at the close of the war.

Nanaimo is in the midst of a campaign for funds to assist in the work of the Y.M.C.A., and during the course of the next few days citizens will be asked to respond to an appeal for subscriptions to the worthy cause.

All over Alberta ducks are plentiful.

BIG GUN ACTIONS IN PROGRESS

Germans Describe Intense Bombardment of British Guns as "Hurricane Fire" Which is Preventing German Counter Attacks from Being Made.

London, Oct. 6.—Field Marshall Haig's report tonight from head[illegible] that artillery was active all day along the whole battle front but no counter attacks developed. Additional prisoners to the number of 380 were taken in the last twenty-four hours.

Big gun actions are in progress along the Flanders front with indications that the Germans as usual in this form of combat are playing a secondary role.

Field Marshall Haig's report on Friday night's activities mentioned only increased fire from German artillery. Press reports however show that the Germans are suffering heavily from the effects of British artillery fire. Some of the advanced positions to which they were still clinging after Thursday's attack have become too hot to hold and British reconnoitering parties are finding them evacuated. The overwhelming nature of the British fire employed in the present offensive is being paid tribute to by the Germans by the invention of a new term to describe the bombardments. It is no longer "drumfire," nor even "whirlwind fire" that is spoken of but "hurricane fire". It is a fire of this sort that is preventing German counter attacks from being launched.

The Russian democratic Congress has adjourned after providing for the constitution of a parliament of 305 members which is expected to sit until a Constituent Assembly is elected. Petrograd radicals seem dissappointed and have called a session of all Russian Soldiers and Workmen's Deputies to meet in Petrograd bringing up the threat of a opposition parliament.

The Peruvian Congress passed a resolution for breaking off relations with Germany and the expectation prevails that the German minister will soon be handed his passports.

PERU TO BE THE NEXT ENEMY

Lima, Peru, Oct. 6.—The Peruvian Government probably will soon break of diplomatic relations with Germany. The first step was taken yesterday when Congress by an almost unanimous vote decided inf avor of such a course.

The Peruvian Government on September 16 instructed its Minister at Berlin to present to the German Government a demand that satisfaction be given within eight days for the sinking of the Peruvian barque Lorton. It was added that if the demand was not met diplomatic relations would be broken.

The Lorton was sunk inside Spanish territorial waters last February by a German submarine. Declaring that the sinking was unjustifiable, Peru insisted that Germany should pay an indemnity. The German Government offered to submit the case to a prize court.

A dispatch from Lima on October 4 said the Peruvian Government had discovered that A. von der Hyne, its Minister to Germany, had not delivered to the German Foreign Office the ultimatum demanding satisfaction within eight days for the sinking of the Lorton. The Minister was reprimanded by his Government and was ordered to make the protest immediately.

COMFORTS FOR THE BOYS

The Bastion Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, is at present engaged in taking up a Christmas Cheer Shower for such of the boys at the front as have no friends nor relatives.

The ladies are installed in the Free Press Block and will be pleased to receive contributions to this cause. The men at the front with friends and relatives at home will be remembered in the nature of things, and it is in order that the lonely ones may not be made to feel more lonely by comparison that this movement has been started. The ladies have already received many generous contributions, and look to receive many more this coming week. We know they will not be disappointed.

NOT BUSINESS

The Herald has on several occasions strongly criticised the business methods of the City Council as exemplified in the treatment it has itself received. It has another complaint to make along the same lines, and invite the friendly consideration of the Mayor and Aldermen for it.

The city is taking over the Athletic Club properties, and the money is to be raised by the sale of debenture. This means that debenture forms will have to be printed, and the Herald took steps to secure the job. We know from experience that among the higher officials of the city there lingers an impression that the Herald can only turn out the commonest class of printing. Accordingly we wrote Alderman Coburn, chairman of the Finance Committee, pointing out that this city printing job was to be done, and asking that we be given an opportunity of putting in a price on it. In the course of this note we mentioned that "there was an impression among the higher staff of the City Hall that we cannot print debentures," and made this our reason for writing.

Here is the sequel. Knowing that there was a meeting of the members of the Council on Friday evening we rang up and asked Alderman Coburn not to forget to bring up the printing job concerning which we had written him. His reply was that he had brought up the matter only to learn that the order had already been given out.

This is the way the city does its business. It will ask the Herald to tender on a ten dollar job but when there is an important order neither the Herald nor the Free Press gets a chance at it. How is this and why should it be so? Who gave out this order and who is running the business of the city? We were assured by Mayor McKenzie that he was going to be Mayor and that the Council would exercise its full authority. We would ask the Mayor then, if it was by his instructions, or on the authority of any committee, that this printing order was given out in this way.

If the order was placed without authority or instructions, we would ask the Mayor and Council just to think what it means. If it means anything at all it means that some salaried servant is using power and authority which belong only to the Mayor and Aldermen. And from a business point of view this action is utterly indefensible. It is not unknown for one business man to say of a competitor that he cannot do this or that, but no sensible party is going to take one competitor's statement of another as right. We have no idea why there should be the impression in the city hall staff that neither the Herald nor the Free Press can print debentures. Neither are we very much concerned to find out. What we complain of is that the Council should first of all fail to exercise its authority, and that if should accept statements of any kind without investigation. We think the Mayor and Aldermen will agree with us that it is pretty poor business and a repetition of it should be made impossible.

SEVEN YEARS TORTURE

Nothing Helped Him Until He Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

ALBERT VARNER

Buckingham, Que., May 3rd, 1915.

For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-tives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take "Fruit-a-tives", and you will get well".

ALBERT VARNER.

WATER NOTICE

Diversion and Use.

Take notice that John Thomas Cook, whose address is Wyatt Bay, B.C., will apply for a license to take and use ten cubic feet per second of water out of stream, also known as Newcombe Creek, which flows in a westerly direction and drains into Okisollo about two and one-half miles north of Surge Narrows. The water will be diverted from the stream at a point about eighteen hundred feet easterly from the south west corner of Lot 420, and will be used for industrial purposes upon the land described as Lot four hundred and twenty. This notice was posted on the ground on the 8th day of September, 1917. A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act, 1914" will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Vancouver, B.C. Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B. C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper. The date of the first publication of this notice is September 16, 1917.

To Save Beauty Avoid Dyspepsia

But Don't Starve. Take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After Meals. No Nausea, No Heartburn—Just Real Comfort

"My Beauty Secret? Just Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets for Good Digestion; Let Nature Do the Rest."

Are you in a desperate mood by the time dessert is served? Many of the good things to eat are banished altogether to those who haven't learned of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Instead of berating sardine sandwiches, salads, pastry and other rich food wise people eat a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet after each meal and one just before going to bed, then there is no harm in the rich, fancy dishes.

Your stomach lacks the proper digestive juices to make your meals easily digested. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give the stomach and other organs of the digestive apparatus the wherewithal to digest food.

Get a 50c box today from any drug store and note the absence of gas, heartburn, heaviness, or any stomach distress.

Jean Patterson will sing two of her Eastern successes, "Calling Me Home to You," "Just a Little Cottage in the Country,' on Tuesday, Oct. 9th—Opera House. 1t

OVER 1,000 VESSELS BUILDING FOR STATES

Some idea of the herculean task of the United States Shipping Board may be gained from the fact that there are to-day a total of 1,039 vessels under construction for the board and its auxiliary organization, the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

Within a few weeks five at the outside, the first of these vessels, contracts for whose construction were let early in the summer, will be ready to leave the ways.

Commencing January 1, the delivery of the composite wood and steel standardized vessels will begin.

By March 1 launching of from two to ten steel vessels of speedy construction will be taking place each week.

IN FIVE MINUTES! NO INDIGESTION, GAS OR SOUR ACID STOMACH.

The moment "Pape's Diapepsin" reaches the stomach all distress goes.

"Really does" put bad stomach in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollors' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach regulator in the world.

HOLLINGSHEAD BROS. COMING TO DOMINION

On Oct. 11, at the Dominion Theatre, the concert-going public will be given one of the rarest treats that we have ever had in our city. The mere mention of the name of "Hollingshead" guarantees the excellence of the programme. It is seldom one family produces two such artists as the Hollingshead brothers. Nature has fitted them both temperamentally and physically for their work. They are both exponents of the Italian school and have both studied under same masters. They sing that extremely difficult but yet beautiful duet "The Pearl Fishers" by Bizet, so seldom seen on any programme, besides others which are better known.

BIJOU THEATRE

Bertha Kalich, one of the greatest of actresses and the only dramatic artist in the world who can be seriously considered as the successor to Sarah Bernhardt, has signed a contract with William Fox to act before the motion picture camera, and appears in the recently released photo-drama "Slander."

This dramatic celebrity whose own personal story is as compelling and vitally interesting as the greatest role she has ever portrayed on the stage has entered whole-heartedly in to a work which if predictions may be indulged in will even increase the reputation and fame which are hers as the result of the many important achievements of her past stage career. With this feature will be shown the first one of the great Fox Film Comedies to be shown in Nanaimo. It is a two-reeler entitled "Social Pirates," and is said to be one continuous laughs.

DOMINION THEATRE

The bill as announced for Monday and Tuesday is surely an attractive one. The feature is "The Twinkler" with the favorite William Russell in the leading role. "The Twinkler" is an intensely interesting story of the underworld, and Mr. Russell has a part that suits admirably his virile personality. With this feature will also be screened Charlie Chaplin in a two-reel scream "The Immigrant."

For the purpose of stock raising, the Pacific Province Ltd., has bought $200,000 worth of land in Cariboo.

LOCAL TALENT AGAIN PLEASED

Big Houses Attended Vaudeville Entertainment Given Last Evening in Aid of Soldiers' Recreation Fund.

Success attended the efforts of the Red Cross Committee to raise funds for the winter recreation of the convalescing soldiers at Qualicum when the entertainment given by them in the Opera House last night was well patronized the first house being crowded to the doors, while a large attendance witnessed the second performance.

The program was the same as that given at the recent Cabaret with the addition of four numbers, and considering the fact that a full account was given at the time in these columns a lengthy criticism on this occasion would be but a repetition. Suffice it to say last night's entertainment passed off without a hitch and pleased the audience beyond measure. The several choruses were exceptionally well given, and the comedy number "Pussy Cat Rag," with a chorus of eight pretty little kittens, literally brought down the house with roars of laughter. Miss Jean Patterson, Miss Grace Morgan, Miss Hazel Marton and Miss Martha Walker were splendid in their solo parts while the selections from grand opera by Mrs. Kosies were exceptionally well rendered and received merited applause.

Kathleen Merryfield contributed in no small degree to the success of the entertainment in her solo "I Love a Piano," as did "Baby" Martin in her original dancing number. Miss Doran was right at home in a stepdance and displayed her ability to a marked degree, but no amount of applause could induce her to respond to a demand for an encore.

Miss Fisher presided at the piano and made an accomplished accompanist.

LOCAL FIREMEN ASKED PROTECTION

City Council Petitioned to Provide Accident Insurance for Volunteer Members of Fire Department — Accounts for September Passed for Payment.

The City Council had a brief and uninteresting session last evening, all the members present with the exception of Ald. Coburn; His Worship Mayor McKenzie presiding.

A communication was received from the volunteer members of the Nanaimo Fire Department asking the Council to provide protection against accident while in discharge of their duty, either by placing them under the provisions of the Compensation Act, or providing some kind of accident insurance

In moving the communication be referred to the Legislative Committee for investigation and report at the next meeting, Ald. Harding informed the Council a committee representing the volunteer members of the Department had met the Fire Wardens and explained they were making their request owing to the fact that in the past several of them had been injured while fighting fire and had been called on personally to pay medical attention besides loss of wages from regular employment.

Ald. Ferguson seconded the motion

Mayor McKenzie thought it only right that persons employed by the city should be protected by the city, and insured in some manner so that in case of an accident the city would be protected from any claim for damages.

The motion was adopted and the Legislative Committee will be expected to report on the matter at the next meeting of the Council.

The Street Foreman reported an expenditure in wages during the past week of $128.02 and the Water Works Manager reported an expenditure of $22.44.

The Finance Committee presented the Warrant Book for the month of September, carrying accounts totalling $7,218.78, the principal items of expenditure being as follows:

FATAL ACCIDENT AT COURTENAY

James McGregor, a Native Son of Nanaimo, Fell From Train, Death Resulting from Injuries.

James W. F. McGregor, son of Mrs. McGregor, of Brechin, was fatally injured at 1 o'clock Saturday by a train on the Comox Logging Company s railway, of which he was conductor, his death occurring some seven hours after the accident.

Though no one saw McGregor fall from the train, the injured man stated before his death that he was passing from one car to another when he missed his footing and in falling off the train was caught by the arch bar of a flat car which pierced his chest just above the heart, inflicting a terrible gaping wound, besides breaking his left arm and shoulder.

Deceased, who was 27 years of age and was born in Nanaimo, was married only six weeks ago to Miss Mackie of Chase river and he leaves, besides his widow, his mother, Mrs. McGregor, of Brechin, four sisters, three of whom live at home at Brechin while the fourth is Mrs. Salmon of Cnmberland; and two brothers, Sam who is employed by H. Mahrer, and Robert, employed by the Electric Light Co., both being residents of Nanaimo. The body was brought to the city Monday and now lies in Mr. D. J. Jenkins' undertaking parlors whence the funeral will take place today (Wednesday) at 3 o'clock the Rev. J. K. Unsworth officiating.

This tragic happening had an equal tragic sequel A simple memorial service was held for the deceased in Courtenay Monday morning before the train which was to bring his body south was due to leave. This was attended, amongst others, by James King, an engineer employed by the logging company, and his wife. It was plainly evident that the former was deeply affected by the death of his friend, as the party, in which was the recently widowed Mrs McGregor, walked to the railway station. Arrived there, Mr. King, with his wife and Mrs McGregor, sat down in the waiting room, when suddenly Mr. King, who had complained of the heat, fell sideways against his wife's shoulder. All attempts to rouse him failed, and he expired on the floor of the waiting room without regaining consciousness.

HAIG LAUNCHED ANOTHER DRIVE

German Line Badly Battered Northeast of Ypres Where British and French United in Combined Attack—Much Ground Gained.

The big fight is on again in Flanders and the Germans are being hammered hard. Field Marshal Haig is batering away on the sector east and northeast of Ypres, where French troops joined with the British left wing south of Dixmude in an effort to bring that section of the line even with the sharp wedge that had been driven into the German front by Haig east of Preodsein.

Launching their attacks simultaneously Tuesday morning, both armies made considerable gains before nightfall and in addition to inflicting heavy casualties on the Germans are taking many prisoners. Prior to the announcement of the commencement of the attack there had been no intimation that the Frenchmen were ready for an advance. In fact it had been rather expected that even the British Commander-in-chief would delay taking the aggressive again for several days owing to the terrible condition of the battlefield being a veritable marsh owing to the heavy rains of Sunday and Monday.

With apparent ease the Frenchmen crossed the flooded Broenbeck and Jansbeek rivers and captured the villages of St. Jean de Mangelare and Veldhoek, together with numerous blockhouses and took prisoners several hundred Germans. The advance of the French was over a front of more than a mile and a half and penetrated the German line to a depth of one and a quarter miles

Haig's principal offensive centred on the portions of Passchendaele-Gheluvelt ridge still held by the Germans, being directed eastward from Poelcapelle, which was captured and northwestward from Broedseinde towards Passchendaele, the ultimate object still being the Ostend-Lille road. Taken as a whole the joint operation makes more apparent the crowning desire of the Allies in this region—the forcing back of the Germans to points where their evacuation of Ostend and Zeebrugge, naval and submarine bases on the North Sea will become necessary.

Several points of Haig's advance was sharply contested by the Germans particularly north of Broedseinde, the nearest approach to the railroad line and near Pelderhoek plateau. Nowhere were the Germans able to stop the advance except near Pelderhoek chateau where the terrific fire of their machine guns momentarily forced the British to give ground. Later the attacking troops re-aligned themselves and the successful push went on again.

Aside from Flanders operations in various theatres of the war are of a minor character. Along the Aisne and Champagne front and on the left bank of the Meuse in the Verdun sector, intensive artillery duels are still in progress. In the Champagne the French have carried out successful raids near Butte of Tahure and taken prisoners.

There is still considerable infantry and artillery activity between the Russians and Germans in the Riga sector on the Russian front but neither side has made any attempt to advance.

Reciprocal bombardments are in progress between the Italians and Austrians on the Austro-Italian front and between Entente forces and Teutonic allies in Macedonia.

Another Austro-German peace offer, which is to be based on principles of no territorial aggrandizement, surrender of Belgium and French territory, reunuciation of territorial acquisitions for money payments, and no indemnity by either side is soon to be put forward, according to prominent Berlin newspapers.

TENNIS SEASON CLOSED MONDAY

Cups and Trophies Were Presented to Winners by F. H. Shepherd, M. P.—Ed. Marshall, Club President and Veteran Player Was Triple Victor.

The 1917 season of the local tennis Club was officially brought to a close on Monday afternoon with the final games in the open tournament. There was a fair crowd of spectators to see the closing games and, with bright weather, some good tennis, and a cheering cup of tea provided by the ladies of the club, the season ended in jolly style.

The scores in the various finals do not in every case indicate the quality of the play. In the men's singles, for example, the score would suggest that Marshall scored an easy victory over Foreman. Quite the reverse was the case, however. Marshall took the first set rather easily, but lost the second, and was behind half way through the third. He was palpably tiring, and with Foreman playing to the top of his form, the odds were all against the former. It was sheer pluck and experienced generalship that pulled him through and enabled him to win one of the hardest fought games of the season.

And by the way, the same "Ed." president and veteran of the club, was a triple victor. He captured the men's singles championship, and with his partners in the mixed and men's doubles, won these events too.

The occasion was rendered memorable by being the first tournament held by the club by which challenge cups were put up for competition, and the club owes a debt of gratitude to the generous donors of these and also of the other prizes, which were so kindly donated. The Hon. Wm. Sloan gave a magnificent cup as a perpetual trophy for men's open singles, while the owners of the Caledonion grounds, on which the courts are situated, presented another beautiful cup as a similar trophy for the ladies' open singles. These together with the other prizes which had been kindly donated by Messrs. Fred Jepson, A. C. Van Houten and M. L. Masters, were presented to the winners at the close of play by Mr. F.H. Shepherd, M.P., who in his happiest vein, after congratulating the winners on their success, expressed the hope that the friendships which had begun in happy rivalry on the tennis courts would be continued in other spheres throughout the winter, until with the return of summer again, and he hoped the end of the terrible strife in Europe members of the club could once more meet at a united and happy social party on the courts.

In thanking Mr. Shepherd for his kindness in consenting to present the prizes the president of the Club, Mr. E. Marshall, also took occasion to publicly thank the generous donors of the same and to express the hope that with such splendid trophies to strive for, members of the Club would be stimulated to still further individual effort during the next season.

The final results of the tournament were as follows:

Ladies' Singles.
(The Caledonia Cup)
Miss Thomas beat Miss Kitchin, 6-3, 6-1.

Ladies' Doubles
(M. L. Masters Prize)
Miss Kitchin and Miss Thomas beat Miss Teague and Miss Peto 4-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Mixed Doubles.
(F. Jepson's Prize)
Miss Shepherd and Marshall beat Miss Thomas and Foreman 6-3, 6-3.

Men's Singles.
(The Wm. Sloan Cup)
Marshall beat Foreman, 6-0, 4-6, 6-3.

Men's Doubles
S. McB. Smith and Marshall beat L. W. Smith and A. Ford 6-1, 6-2.

BRITISH AND FRENCH VICTORS

Poelcapelle Captured by British Forces While Mangelare and Veldhoek Fall Before Furious French Attacks — Thousand Prisoners Taken

London, Oct. 9.—British troops have effected the complete capture of Poelcapelle and have advanced nearly two miles to the north of that village in their drive in Flanders today. According to a report from Field Marshal Haig tonight the British operations were very successful All objectives have been gained and the number of prisoners already exceeds 1,000.

Paris, Oct. 9.—The capture of the villages of St. Jean de Mangelare and Veldhoek with numerous blockhouses, is reported in the French official communication tonight, dealing with operations Tuesday in Flanders. The total advance of the French reached to a depth of one and a quarter miles to the southern outskirts of the Houthoist wood and on a front of more than a mile and a half.

FITNESS DEMAND CAUSES SURPRISE

Many Canadians at Home Did Not Realize How Important Perfect Condition Looms at the Front.

Ottawa, Oct. 9.—The operation of the Military Service Act, as it has been explained in the press by the Military Service Council, has aroused considerable interest throughout the country. Many people, according to reports reaching official quarters here, are surprised at the importance assumed by physical fitness in the making up of armies for active service.

As a matter of fact, physical condition is all important in the case of a soldier, explains a high official of the Militia Department. You will rarely find a veteran soldier who is not possessed of an extremely strong constitution. For the onerous duties of fighting in the trenches, men must be in perfect condition and that is why a certain percentage only of many thousands of reserves is available at any time for immediate reinforcement. Men who are not in category "A1" when the call comes cannot be taken.

To many men, indeed, it is one of the attractions of military life that rugged health is demanded of those who would go to the front—where the vast majority of soldiers in training are always eager to go.

The local medical board is besieged with applicants for examination, and cannot handle within office hours these presenting themselves. The board is contemptating increasing its hours and also the number of sittings weekly.

The Light Infantry Chapter wishes it to be clearly understood that the farewell gift to Mrs. G. J. Richardson was a personal present from the members and did not come from the funds as so many people seem to think. The funds of the chapter were used entirely for the various Patriotic purposes it works for.

CARD OF THANKS

The members of the family of the late William Richards desire to record their most grateful thanks to all those who sent floral tributes or in other ways expressed sympathy with them in their deep affliction.

Mr. Frank H. Shepherd, M. P., has received official word from Ottawa of his being appointed superintendent of dredging for the province of British Columbia.

FAMILY DOCTOR'S GOOD ADVICE

To Go On Taking "Fruit-a-tives" Because They Did Her Good

ROCMON, P. Q., JAN. 14th, 1915.

"I suffered for many years with terrible Indigestion and Constipation. I had frequent dizzy spells and became greatly run down. A neighbor advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives". I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve, and he advised me to go on with "Fruit-a-tives".

I consider that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives" and I want to say to those who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation or Headaches—'try Fruit-a-tives' and you will get well". CORINE GAUDREAU.

CHANGE IN PAY DAYS

Changes are coming thick and fast these days. For the first time in the history of the city we had pay day at the mines on a Tuesday yesterday. Now changes may either be agreeable or the reverse and so far as our investigations have gone, neither employees nor business men are particularly impressed with this latest change. We were rather skeptical in the beginning about the benefits that would accrue from fortnightly pays; but there was at least a strong feeling among many of the men in favor of it. All the same it was the principle of twice-a-month "pays" that they supported. They did not think of a pay day being set for the middle of the week. The arrangement that was in force here prior to the new act coming into operation was, so far as we know, perfectly satisfactory to all parties. After all, Saturday is the natural shopping day for a mining town, or any other industrial city. The worker finishes his work on that day, and has the Sunday's rest to look forward to. The busy housekeeper also regards Saturday as the end of her week's work. Sunday to her is also a break in the ordinary routine of life. She has not to get men off to work in the early hours of the morning, nor to get the children ready for school. For this reason alone she could take more time for her shopping on the Saturday night, and she also had the advantage of being able to get the family altogether to attend to their shopping needs. The new change is a decided inconvenience for the housewives, as, at the outset, it looks to be for everybody else. And really there was no need for such a hard and fast adherence to the bi-monthly principle. We imagine that if the government was approached on the subject it would willingly legalise such an arrangement as the Western Fuel Company had entered into with its employees.

NEW CLUB ROOMS OPENED BY ELKS

The local lodge of the Benvolent Order of Elks opened their new club premises in auspicious fashion on Monday night with a very enjoyable smoker which was attended by upwards of over a hundred members and friends.

The new club rooms are both comfortable and commodious and should be greatly appreciated during the coming winter months. The premises have been very nicely renovated and, with billiards, pool and bowling, with reading and quieter games for those to whom billards and the more strenuous game of bowls do not appeal, the comfort and enjoyment of all has been attended to.

Past exalted ruler A. Davis, occupied the chair, with him on the platform being His Worship Mayor McKenzie and the Rev. D. E. Hatt. In addition to a splendid programme of vocal and instrumental music Mr. Hatt obliged with some amusing recitations and the occasion was also taken advantage of to make a presentation to past exalted ruler, H. N. Freeman. There was also a raffle the prize being a fine and very live

DANCE AT QUALICUM WAS SPLENDID SUCCESS

A very successful dance was held at the Qualicum Military Hospital on Saturday, October 6th in aid of the returned soldiers sports fund.

The dance was held in the new ward and marked the opening of that spacious building which was beautifully decorated by the patients under the supervision of some of the members of the efficient nursing staff.

At 8 p. m., Capt. B. U. Aylmer the officer commanding and Miss O'Brien Matron opened the program.

The music furnished by the Olympic Orchestra of Nanaimo, under the leadership of Mr. J. Lewis was of the highest order, while the floor was ably managed by Sergeant A. Cooper.

There was an unusually large attendance many cars coming from Nanaimo, Courtenay and Alberni everyone appeared to be out for a good time which was most easy to find, many of the returned soldiers owing to the severe nature of their wounds were not able to dance but owing to the kind thoughtfulness of the Matron they passed a very enjoyable time at whist games, while others of them passed around the refreshments of which there was a plentiful supply.

During the evening the visitors expressed their admiration of the beautiful airy wards which will hold sixty patients and could realise the striking contrast when next week the elegant dance floor will be dotted with the neat white cots for the patients.

A most successful evening was brought to a close by playing the National Anthem.

Among those present were. Capt. and Mrs. B. U. Aylmer, Dr. and Mrs. Campbell Dovidson, Capt. Craddock, Lieut. King, Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Dr. Brown, Mrs. Martindale, Mr. and Mrs. Rholers of California, Mrs. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Glaholme, Mrs. Feather, and Miss Gibson.

ALL CHILDREN LOVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give it when feverish, cross, bilious, for bad breath or sour stomach.

Look at the tongue, Motner! If coated it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrnoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful hcild again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

ly young pig whose spontaneous efforts to join in some of the choruses were the cause of no little merriment.

The winning ticket was No. 169, and the holder thereof is asked to claim the prize.

His Worship the Mayor, in a very happy little speech, congratulated the lodge on their enterprise in establishing their club rooms and predicted that it would prove a real boon to the members. The Mayor having officially declared the club open the following musical programme was rendered:

Piano Solo, Mr. Kirkham.
Song, J. R. McGill.
Recitation, Mr. Hatt.
Banjo Solo, Mr. Hart.

JUST LIKE A HOUSECLEANING

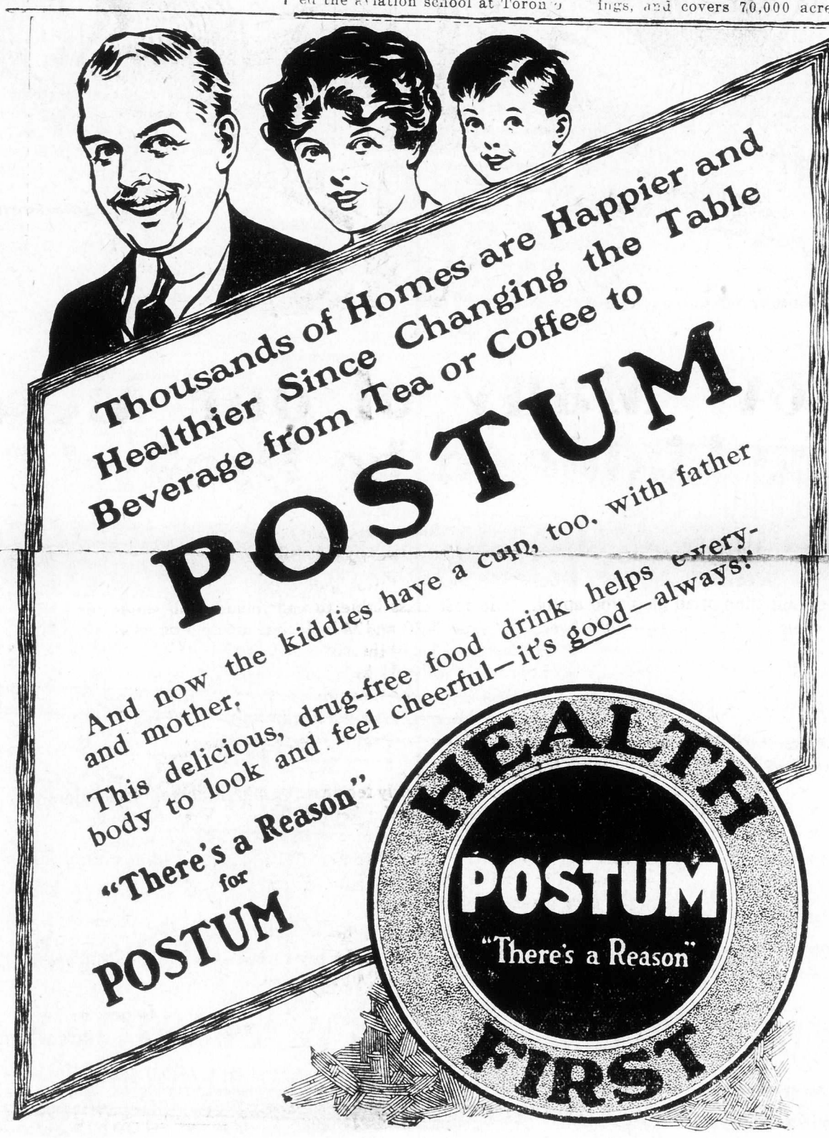
Every room needs an occasional "Cleaning up", no matter how carefully the regular sweeping and dusting is done. Especially is this true after any unusual event, a party, a wedding or a quilting bee.

So it is with your body. No matter how regular your habits or well cooked your food, there comes a time when you don't feel just right. You may recall an unusually hearty meal or two, irregular hours, or eating something that "didn't agree with you", or it may be just the "dust-gathering".

In any case a few doses of a really good carthartic is all you need to put you right. For this purpose nothing is quite so suitable as

Chamberlain's Tablets

Two or three after supper the first night, and one each night for two or three days, and your digestive apparatus is just like the well-cleaned room. Every part of your body is more vigorous, you go about your work with a new feeling and begin again to enjoy life. Are these benefits not worth getting? You know they are.



And you need have no hesitation about beginning them for fear you must "keep it up". The effect is just the opposite.

"One Whole Wheat Meal a Day"—that's the slogan for those who want to conserve food and also conserve strength and health. But be sure it is the whole wheat prepared in a digestible form. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is 100 per cent. whole wheat—nothing wasted, nothing thrown away. Fifteen years ago Shredded Wheat was eaten only as a breakfast cereal; now it is eaten for any meal as a substitute for meat, eggs, or potatoes. Two or three biscuits with milk or cream and some fresh fruits make a nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of only a few cents.

USE "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS WHEN CONSTIPATED

When bilious, headachy, sick for sour stomach, bad breath, bad colds.

Get a 10-Cent box.

Take a Cascaret tonight to cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, a bad cold, are bilious, nervous, upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and fell all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

DOMINION THEATRE

RECITAL TOMORROW NIGHT

Redferne Hollinshead and Assisting Artists at Dominion.

Redferne Hollinshead, Canada's greatest tenor who is to appear at the Dominion Theatre, in conjunction with his brother, Harold R. Hollinshead, concert baritone, elocutionist, lecturer and character delinator, and Gerald Moore, English boy pianist, is one of the outstanding voices of the present decade.

New York critics are unanimous in praise of his voice and prophesied a great career in grand opera for him but the two brothers have decided to unite their forces, and will, in future, devote their time to the concert stage, for which they are so eminently adapted.

In the near future it is their intention to make a tour of the British possessions.

There are few as promising pianists in Canada today as Gerald Moore Although only 17 years of age he has already gained phenomenal success. Music lovers are promised a rare treat with these three artists.

Reserved seats now on sale at Van Houten's drug store. There will be no pictures shown at the Dominion today and tomorrow.

BIJOU THEATRE

The eminent delineator of Italian characters George Beban is featured on the Bijou programme for today and tomorrow in his latest success "The Marcellini Millions" in which he portrays as only he can a poor Italian truck farmer suddenly turned into a millionaire.

It is an extraordinary characterization and has been universally praised wherever shown. A funny comedy and a travel reel complete the programme.

Among the passengers from Vancouver last evening on the "Pat" were J. E. McKenzie, W. W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. James Deviin, Mr. and Mrs. W. Southern Dan Stover, Mrs. Pawlett, J. Westwood, W. Hinton, C. Richards, Mrs. Black, Miss Rawlinson, Mrs. Botley, Miss Carroll and W. H. Scoville.

GIRLS! HAVE WAVY, THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair — Double Its beauty in a few moments—try this!

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

"How Many of our Men are Liable to be Drafted?"

The Canadian business man is asking this question often, now that the Military Service Act is the law of Canada. A simple means of answering it at once is being provided.

Medical Boards are in process of formation throughout the country for the free physical examination of all men who apply. The first class liable to call includes all single men and widowers without children between the ages of 20 and 34 inclusive, all men married after July 6, 1917, being classed as single for the purposes of the Act. In a very short time, the average employer may learn how many of his staff are liable for selection. Those adjudged physically unfit will be given a certificate which will secure them exemption from any Exemption Tribunal. Those found physically fit may still apply for exemption on any ground. The employer will be given a chance to decide if he should seek exemption for any employee whose physical condition renders him liable for selection.

This early medical examination, which quickly decides if a man is liable for selection or not, is a feature of the operation of the Military Service Act calculated to appeal strongly to the business community. It assists in definite planning for the future, enabling an employer of labor to learn at once what men will be left at their work and those who may be removed for military service. Haphazard withdrawals, the nightmare of business men of method and precision, are insured against by this timely arrangement.

Every employer of labor will find it to his advantage to note carefully the formation of Medical Boards in his locality and to be sure that his employees secure as early as possible this very important information as to their status under the Military Service Act.

Issued by The Military Service Council.

VICTORS ARE ORGANIZING NEWLY WON POSITIONS

Both British and French Troops Have Consolidated Gains Made in Tuesday's Fighting—Germans Made Only Weak Attempts to Recapture Lost Trenches—Austrians Worsted by Italians on the Carso Plateau.

As is customary after the attainment of the objectives of its attacks, Field Marshal Haig on Wednesday permitted British troops in Flanders to have a breathing spell while consolidating their gains of Tuesday along the Ypres front. Likewise French forces on the British left flank were busily engaged in organizing their newly won positions. A heavy rain fell during the day and no attempts at strong attacks was made by either side. Although at various points there were small forays in the nature of line straightening operations by the British and French and weak attempts at a counter offensive on the part of the Germans these latter manoeuvres were all repulsed and the Allies held the ground they won in Tuesday's offensive.

Along the right bank of the Meuse in the Verdun sector the Germans north of Bois Le Chaume following a violent bombardment attacked the French line and penetrated it at several points but were kept from proceeding further by the fire of General Petain's artillery.

In the Austro-Italian theatre the Austrians attempted to gain ground against the Italians on the Carso plateau but in furious fighting were worsted suffering heavy casualties. Along the Bainsizza plateau lively artillery duels are again in progress. Considerable activity by artillery and infantry continues on the Riga front in the north Russian fighting zone. Southeast of Spitali farm the Germans have violently bombarded the Russian positions. In the middle sector of this front duels have reacher considerable propostions to the north of Lake Miadziol.

Peace is impossible according to the statement of the Imperial German Chancellor so long as Germany's antagonists demand German soil or try to separate the people from their Emperor.

The news has leaked out that recently there was a mutiny on four battleships of the German fleet at Wilhelmshaven the captain of one of which was thrown overboard and drowned. The sailors later surrendered and a number of them are said to have been shot while others were sentenced to long terms of imprisonment.

DELEGATES HERE FOR CONFERENCE

Every member of the Board of Trade who can possibly do so is urged to attend the regular meeting tonight at 8 o'clock, at which a number of interesting questions will come up for discussion.

Among the matters to be considered is the proposed change in the pilotage system and in this connection representatives of the Victoria and Vancouver Boards of Trade will be in attendance and state the views of their organizations on a question which is of much importance to the coast cities, especially Nanaimo, Victoria and Vancouver. The Victoria Board of Trade will be represented by Messrs. James Forman, Joshua Kingham, George McGregor and J. J. Shallcross, while President B. W. Greer and Secretary W. A. Blair will represent Vancouver Board of Trade.

Upwards of 200 persons attended the Whist Drive, Supper and Dance held in the Foresters' Hall last night under the auspices of Courts Progress and Foresters' Home. Lewis' orchestra supplied the music and a most enjoyable time was spent.

The Northfield Red Cross Society are giving a Masquerade Dance on Saturday, Oct. 20th. Particulars later.

SAILING VESSELS TRANSFER CARGOES TO STEAMERS

Washington Oct. 10.—American sailing vessels today were forbidden by the shipping board to sail for the war zone. A request of the French Government representatives that several ships loaded be permitted to clear was denied and all such craft were directed to discharge their cargoes for transfer to steamers soon to be commandeered

OUTBREAK IN GERMAN NAVY

Plot Discovered to Paralyze German Fleet—One Captain Was Thrown Overboard—Mutineers Have Surrendered.

London, Oct. 10.—A revolutionary outbreak on German warships at Wilhelmshaven about six weeks ago is reported in a Central News dispatch from Copenhagen. This uprising is said to have had all the elements of a widespread and organized revolt and to have been suppressed only with the greatest difficulty.

Several mutinous outbreaks also are reported to have occurred among soldiers at the front. These were not of such a grave character the dispatch adds.

Copenhagen, Oct. 10.—In announcing to the German Reichstag yesterday that a plot had been discovered in the German navy to paralyze it, Vice-Admiral von Capelle, the Minister of Marine, is quoted in a speech as saying:

"It is unfortunately a sad fact that the Russian revolution turned the heads of some persons in our navy and introduced revolutionary ideas among them. Their insensate plan was to recruit representatives on all ships to cause the crews to refuse to obey orders, to paralyze the fleet and force peace upon the country.

"It is proven that the principal agitator conferred in this building with the independent Socialist faction in the Reichstag, explained his plans to Deputies Haase and Voghterre and obtained their approval.

"I can not make a statement here on the subsequent events which occurred in the navy. The few persons who forgot their honor and their duty suffered the penalty."

Among the crews of four battleships of the German fleet occurred at Wilhelmshaven. One of these battleships was the Westfalen, whose captain was thrown overboard and drowned. The crews landed. Marines refused to fire upon them, whereupon soldiers surrounded the sailors, who surrendered.

Amsterdam, Oct. 10.—A mutiny is reported to have occurred on the German warship Nurnberg while she was at sea. The men seized the officers and proceeded in the direction of Norway, with the intention of being interned. The Nurnberg was overtaken by destroyers and forced to surrender.

Kaiser Wilhelm went to Wilhelmshaven and ordered that he mutineers be shot. Chancellor Michaelis protested, with the result that only three were shot. Heavy sentences were imposed on the others.

Amsterdam, Oct. 10.—In a speech in the Reichstag regarding the plot discovered in the German navy, Wilhelm Dittman, a Socialist member, said the punishment inflicted on men in the navy for the mutiny at Wilhelmshaven, amounted collectively to 200 years' penal servitude, and that several men had been condemned to death.

LOCAL POLICE SEIZE LIQUOR

Three Oriental Business Houses in the City Are Found to Have Liquor on Premises Contrary to Law

Chief Neen and Constable Robertson yesterday afternoon raided the premises of Frank Wing Wah, on Fitzwilliam street, and Quan Yuen, on Bastion street. Both places carry on business as ladies' tailors, but the police found other commodities than cloth suits and feminine fripperies. In Wing Wah's premises a barrel of beer was found, as well as eight bottles containing liquor. In Quan Yuen's premises the police uncovered a case of brandy, a bottle of brandy, a two-gallon jar of rye, a small jar of rye and 20 bottles of Chinese whiskey. The rest of the story will be told in court.

On Tuesday the police raided the premises of Ueno, the Japanese fish merchant on the Crescent and seized two cases of Japanese whiskey. Ueno will come up before the Magistrate today and be asked for an explanation.

AGE LIMIT IN THE FIRST DRAFT

Ottawa, Oct. 10.—To clear up confusion with regard to the age limit of class one, to be called out by proclamation for service under the Military Service Act of October 13, the following announcement is made by the Militia Service Council.

"For convenience, class one is frequently spoken of as comprising unmarried men and widowers without children between the ages of 20 and 30. It is to be noted, however, that under the provisions of the statute the method of fixing these two limits is different. As far as concerns the age of 20, the date of the proclamation governs. Any man who on that date has reached the age of 20 years is within the class. With regard to limit of 34 years, however, this is fixed by reference to January 1, 1917. Any man who had not reached the age of 34 before that date is within the class. It is to be noted also that for the purpose of the act, any man married after July 6, 1917 is to be deemed unmarried.

SHIPPING LOSSES DURING WEEK

London, Oct. 10.—British merchant vessels over 1600 tons sunk by mine or submarine in the last week numbered 14 according to an official statement of British Admirality tonight. Two vessels under 1600 tons and three fishing vessels were also sunk.

GERMAN POWER ON DECLINE

Washington, Oct. 10.—Germany's military strength now shows a clear decrease for the first time since the war began, according to a review based on data of the French general staff made public here tonight by the French High commission. Worn down and driven by the never ending pounding of the Allies on the western front the statement says Germans have made their supreme military effort after drawing heavily upon their inactive armies in the east and calling out their 1918 and part of 1919 reserves. Thus, while the Allies have reached and are prepared to maintain their full strength while awaiting the coming of America's army, the enemys' resources are diminishing at the very moment when the military situation demands their increase.

"This shows," concludes the statement, the active character attending operations in 1918 when the three great democracies, England, France and America will unite their entire strength in attacking the enemy, in conformity with only sound principles of war."

FORSEES LOSS OF TERRITORY

Former German Secretary Declares the Great Question Prolonging the Struggle is the Future of Alsace-Lorraine.

Amsterdam, Oct. 10.—"There is but one answer to the question 'Can Germany in any form make concessions with regard to Alsace-Lorraine?'" said former Secretary Von Kuehlmann today. "That answer is "no" So long as one German hand can hold a gun the integrity of territory handed down to us as a glorious inheritance by our forefathers can never be the object of negotiations on cessions."

In the course of his speech the Foreign Secretary said: "Gentlemen a comparatively short time has elapsed since the foreign policy of the Empire was discussed in detail in the budget committee. I need, therefore, make only a kind of epilogue to the statements already made by the Imperial Chancellor and myself. The efforts of the Holy See to bring about an exchange of views between the belligerents have so far as we are informed not yet resulted in any considerable step forward since the reply by the Central Powers.

"Although the Foreign Minister of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy in a speech at Buda Pest, pointed out that the Central Powers were prepared in a sense indicated by the Papal note to collaborate not only on the termination of the present conflict but in the reconstruction of Europe nearly ruined. There are no signs of a new spirit among our opponents, who are clinging to the time worn formula of the annihilation of German militarism. The great question prolonging the struggle is not the future of Belgium, but of Alsace-Lorraine.

"Great Britain according to our information has pledged herself to France that she will continue the fight for the conquest of Alsace-Lorraine both politically and with her arms so long as France desires to adhere to the program of regaining those provinces."

HUN SOCIALISTS EXPOSE JUNKERS

Copenhagen, Oct. 10.—An uncensored report of Monday's debate in the Reichstag, shows that the Socialist speakers produced a whole series of instructions from higher military authorities concerning the "enlightenment campaign" which were in direct variance to the principle of "no politics" in the army, and which the general regulations which Lieutenant General von Stein, Prussian War Minister, said governed the campaign. It was asserted by the Socialists that the War Minister was unable to contravert this testimony. The Socialists also directed attention to the fact that the general order for enlightenment against peace was issued immediately after the adoption of the Reichstag peace resolution of July 19, showing that the campaign was directed against the Reichstag majority. They brought out also the fact that a conference was called by the War Ministry in the middle of August to discuss preventive measures against strikes and that a strike movement of Radical Socialists against war loans and labor conditions was still a menace. Members of the conference, it was stated, advocated the suspension of the right of assembly under certain circumstances and the putting of the leaders of the workmen into the army in order to cope with strikes.

Heinrich Dove, Radical Socialist, who has returned from the front, reported to the members of the Reichstag that the soldiers everywhere had expressed the desire that the war speedily be ended.

BIJOU THEATRE

The eminent delineator of Italian characters George Beban is featured on the Bijou programme for today in his latest success "The Marcellini Millons", in which the portrays as only he can a poor Italian truck farmer suddenly turned into a millionaire.

It is an extraordinary characterization and has been universally praised wherever shown. A funny comedy and a travel reel complete the programme.

FRENCH TROOPS ADD TO GAINS

Further Advance Made by French Troops in Co-operation with British Forces—Number of Prisoners Taken.

Paris, Oct. 10.—A further advance was made by the French troops which took the offensive yesterday in Belgium in co-operation with British forces. Papegoet farm has been captured, the War Office announces, and more prisoners have been taken. The text of the report follows:

"Inl Belgium we made further progress east of Draibank, occupying the Papegoet farm and taking forty prisoners. On our new front the enemy undertook only patrol operations.

"North of the Aisne river the German artillery was particularly active in the region of Laffaux. We made a successful attack northwest of the Colombe farm.

"On the right bank of the Meuse river, in the region of the Chaume Wood, there was active artillery fighting with no infantry engagemens

"There was nothing to report on the remainder of the front."

London, Oct. 10.—Several counter attacks were made by German troops last night in the neighborhood of the Ypres-Staden railway. A report from Field Marshal Haig today says these attacks were repulsed, but that south of the railway, on a front of 2,000 yards, the British advanced troops were forced back a short distance. The text of the report follows:

"Enemy troops delivered several counter attacks yesterday evening in the neighborhood of the Ypres-Staden railway. These were repulsed, but south of the railway, on a front of about 2,000 yards, our advanced troops were forced back a short distance. Other counter attacks made by the enemy northeast of Broedsende during yesterday's fighting, were repulsed with losses.

"We carried out successful raids south of the Scarpe river.

"A heavy rain is falling again today."

Berlin, Oct. 10.—The German battleline on the Flanders front from Poelecappelle to the south of Gheleveit is held firmly by the defenders, says today's German army headquarters report.

Repeated hostile attacks upon this front of approximately eight miles all broke down with the heaviest losses, it is declared.

Eleven British divisions were engaged in yesterday's battle in Flanders, in addition to the French troops who attacked, the headquarters staff announces.

FUEL OIL SUPPLY ASSURED BRITISH NAVY

Washington, Oct. 10.—An ample supply of fuel oil for British navy was assured today at a conference between Government representatives, Standard Oil officials and members of shipping board. Oil reserves in Great Britain have run so low, conference disclosed that many British warships have been forced to remain inactive.

To remedy this situation the shipping board will rush construction of 58 oil tankers recently commandeered in shipbuilding yards, and is considering building at least forty more. The problem is one of tonnage as there is an abundance of corn this side of Atlantic.

PASSED AWAY IN CUMBERLAND

The death occurred at Cumberland last night of Malcolm Morrison a former well known resident of Nanaimo.

The deceased was a native of Nova Scotia, aged 53 years, and came west some 35 years ago, making his home in this province up to the time of his death.

He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Rinman of Victoria. A son, Trooper Chas. Morrison, was recently killed in action in France.

The remains will be brought to Wellington for burial, the funeral taking place on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Unsworth officiating. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of Mr. D. J. Jenkins.

DOING SPLENDID WORK ON BATTLEFIELDS OF FRANCE

Capt. Pearson Told Nanaimo Audience Last Night of His Experience with Canadian Soldiers on Firing Line While Engaged in Y. M. C. A. Work—Nanaimoites Are Asked to Contribute to Funds Which Means so Much to Those on the Firing Line.

Today residents of Nanaimo will be canvassed by an energetic committee for subscriptions in aid of the Y. M. C. A. work among the boys in khaki, whether in Canada, England or right up to the firing line within range of the enemy's guns.

If every person in Nanaimo had heard Capt. Pearson's address in the Opera House last night there is no doubt but that the local campaign for funds would be an overwhelming success for after hearing the Captain's inspiring remarks and his experience among the boys right at the front, together with an account of the work done and at present being done by the Y. M. C. A., one could hardly refuse contributing to the fullest limit of his resources to the support of the splendid work which has done so much for the boys who have done, and are doing their bit in the mud-lined trenches of France and Flanders.

Capt. Pearson was introduced to the audience by Senator Planta who, in the absence of Mayor McKenzie, who is in attendance at the convention of the Union of B. C. Municipalities at Duncan, presided over the meeting.

Senator Planta stated it was with pleasure that he presided over the meeting which was so largely attended despite a number of counter attractions which to him was proof that Nanaimo was deeply interested in the welfare of the boys at the front. "Our boys" the speaker declared, were in our thoughts, and our hearts were with them all the time. When they left the wharf our thoughts followed them to the Old Country, to the training camps; and thence to France, and we tried to picture them on the battlefield. We eagerly looked for letters from them and from the letters received only a vague idea could be gathered of conditions as they really are. We know from their letters, declared the chairman, that the Y. M. C. A. is playing a great part and we know if it was not for the good work of the Y. M. C. A. our boys would not have been able to stand the strain as they have done. We have with us tonight, continued Senator Planta a soldier who is engaged in the noble work, one who has been in the trenches, mingled with those at the front and probably spoke to many Nanaimo boys, and who is here to tell the story of the front at first hand.

Capt. Pearson who was introduced to the audience by Senator Planta, as the first Canadian officer in France, being sent over by the Imperial Government five months in advance of the Canadian army, was given a rousing reception when he arose to deliver his message, a message which thrilled his audience and gave them an insight into conditions at the front and a thorough grasp of the splendid work the Y. M. C. A. is doing among the boys who are doing their bit on the battle scarred fields of France and Flanders.

Capt. Pearson expressed his pleasure at being privileged to address a Nanaimo audience and tell it the boys at the front were even braver than they thought. The speaker in his opening remarks took his audience back to the Battle of Ypres in April 1915, and described conditions in that locality on the day when the enemy first launched their gas attacks, resulting in the temporary demoralization of the Allied troops stationed in the gas affected area. It was in this area, the speaker declared, where the first Y. M. C. A. hut was built, located on a stoneway which the French had constructed leading to Ypres. From this hut one could look over a field and see a line of trees along the Yser Canal, see German earthworks and the enemy trenches but a few yards beyond. In this sector during the early days of April the Germans had dug themselves in not a stone's throw from the Canadian lines. Soldiers had been in the trenches for weeks without seeing one of the enemy and it seemed a queer kind of a war. But a great change came over the scene on April 22nd, when a cloud of smoke rising from a grove of poplars rolled toward the Allied lines. The men in the trenches had never heard of gas, did not know what it was, but soon confusion reigned on every hand as French troops, Colonials from Africa and units of various regiments broke out of their trenches through the gas clouds and throwing away all impedimenta ran in every direction only to get away from the poisonous fumes. In detail Capt. Pearson told of the panic which seized the troops subjected to the gas attack, of the mixture of horses and men sweeping over fields and becoming intermingled with thousands of Belgian refugees, the whole mass being constantly under fire of German shrapnel. The soldiers will never forget the sights they witnessed on that occasion, declared Captain Pearson, of women and children, young and old in the middle of the night rushing away from a bombardment which was laying Ypres in ruins. At midnight when all seemed lost, when to the soldiers in that section of the line the war seemed over sounded the tramp, tramp of men marching up the stone road and soon the 1st Brigade Canadian, appeared on the scene, hurled themselves into the breach and next day but a few hundred out of the 5,000 answered the roll call. We were proud of our boys on that occasion, continued the speaker, and prouder still of them later, but of the 22,000 who left Canada but 8,000 were left after Ypres.

Continuing his remarks, Captain Pearson related his experiences while stationed at the Y. M. C. A. hut at Ploegstraete and Hill 63, located but 1100 yards from the German front line, and which stood for 81 days before German shells put it out of commission. He told of the services and comforts provided the soldiers by these huts, the opportunity to get a much needed rest, hot coffee and a lunch and the chance to write letters home, entertainment in the way of Phonographic music, moving pictures and concerts with church services every Sunday. These were the days of mud, declared the Captain, when the army was short of ammunition with only 21 rounds a week, 3 shells a day, when the whole week's supply could have been fired in ten minutes. The boys were willing enough to die, but were so short of ammunition that at this time the very name of England was hated by the boys in the trenches. They could not understand why there should be strikes on the Clyde in Wales and among the transport workers for a penny or so a day advance when ammunition was so badly needed at the front when hundreds of them were dying because they could not cope with the artillery fire of the enemy. It looked a small thing for them that politics should interfere with the war and a thrill of joy went through the ranks when word was received that Lloyd George had been placed

SOMETHING IN A NAME

There has probably been more opposition to the word "conscription" itself than to the principle of compulsory military service for which it stands. The Seattle "Post-Intelligencer," discussing this prejudice, and the efforts that are being made to find a happier and more acceptable term, says that the word "conscript" is seldom heard on the American side of the boundary. "The men chosen for service become part of the national army, and there has been no demand for any more euphonious or more distinctive name. National army is a title in keeping with the high mission of the young soldiers, and so well settled is the policy of selecting soldiers by drawing that it is certain that they never will be chosen in any other way hereafter. It has been found unnecessary to make any important distinction between the men who volunteered with the national guard forces and the soldiers obtained from the selective draft, beyond a small insignia worn on the collar of the soldiers' coats.

"By January 1 the strength of the United States army will be more than 2,000,000 men, and it is proposed to call out two additional drafts of 500,000 each, so that early in 1918 we shall have 3,000,000 men under arms.

The men who form the larger part of this great army are not conscripts in the ordinary sense of the word. Watching the drafts depart for the cantonment convinces the spectator that the men are serving willingly and cheerfully. They have been chosen because of their fitness, and the law of the nation determines which shall go first. It is certain that Canada's new army will be imbued with the same high spirit, and it would be improper to name them conscripts. Canada might call its new soldiers the Dominion army and let it go at that."

UNION GOVERNMENT

While the Canadian people are anxiously awaiting the announcement from Sir Robert Borden on the matter of a union government, the political game is being played more feverishly than ever in Ottawa. It is really an amazing exhibition of party manoeuvering in the face of such a momentous national crisis. We cannot say just exactly what the difficulties in the way of an agreement are, and we prefer not to attach any weight to the reports emanating from Ottawa. There is one thing certain, and that is that if the politicians at Ottawa have not yet realised the overwhelming desire of the people for a union government, they will be made to realise when the election comes round. Another thing that has apparently been grasped by them is that, even if they do hold out, there will still be a union government. In the meantime the more bargaining and chaffering there are now the less chance there will be for dissatisfaction and disagreement later. We have waited on their decision so long now that a few days more (or less) can make little difference to the main result, however it may effect our opinion of the men concerned.

WINCARNIS gives New Health to all who are

Weak, Anaemic, Nervous, Run-down

THE wonderful results of Wincarnis in cases of Weakness, Anaemia, Nerve Troubles and that Run-down condition, are due to the four-fold power that Wincarnis possesses. Wincarnis is not merely a tonic—it is a Tonic, a Restorative, a Blood-maker, and Nerve Food—all in one. Therefore, when you take Wincarnis you derive new strength—and at the same time new rich blood—and at the same time new nerve force—and at the same time new vitality. Thus the whole system is invigorated, and re-vitalised, and becomes surcharged with a feeling of new life. That is why over 10,000 Doctors recommend Wincarnis.

A very important feature about Wincarnis is that you derive a definite amount of good from even the first dose. And every additional dose gives you more strength than you had before—more rich red blood than you had before—stronger nerves than you had before—and more vitality than you had before. Thus Wincarnis is not a luxury, but a positive necessity to all who are Weak, Anaemic, Nervous, Run-down—to martyrs to Indigestion—to all enfeebled by Old Age—and to invalids striving to regain strength after an exhausting illness. Remember that the health Wincarnis creates is lasting health—not a mere "flash-in-the-pan"—not a temporary "whipping-up" of the vitality—but real vigorous health that makes you feel it is good to be alive. Take advantage of the new and lasting health Wincarnis offers you. Don't suffer needlessly. Remember that Wincarnis has an unrivalled reputation of 30 years' standing. Don't accept substitutes.

DR. CLARK

The Liberal machine at Red Deer would have none of Dr. Clark. In the great crisis confronting the Dominion he had placed patriotism before party, and shown an independence of speech and action altogether creditable to his courage and convictions. But in the political game, no machine can stand for independence and so Dr. Cdark was not even nominated at the Liberal Convention. We are pleased to see, however, that he is to receive a non-party nomination, and it is sruely refreshing to read that seventy-five per cent of the signatures to a petition asking him to stand are those of Liberals. Here is proof that in spite of machines and conventions the Canadian people appreciate patriotic service, and want more of it.

SIGNIFICANT SUCCESSES

The success of the French and British forces on Tuesday is one of the most significant of the war. The attack was delivered in almost impossible weather. Heavy rainstorms had transformed the ground into a sea of mud, filled up with ditches and shell holes, so that when the attacking soldiers were not wallowing through a quagmire they were wading through a bog. The French in their sector had to construct pathways of cork and trestle, so that their venture was not over "No Man's Land," but over "No Man's Water." In addition to these conditions underfoot, the rain was still pouring down, accompanied by a fierce gale of wind. The higher command was dubious about launching the attack, but the men were anxious to go over, and so the blow was struck. And in the face of all these obstacles and difficulties the British and French troops gained all their objectives. The British gained practically the whole of the ridge they have been striking at, and many German redoubts and strongholds besides. The German hold on the Belgian coast is now seriously threatened, and if an attack could be launched under the conditions of Tuesday, the Germans cannot look for any letup in the British pressure. We have been told by the Military experts that these ridge positions were the key to the whole German system of defence in Flanders. That being so then we should soon learn of a further German retreat.
