

AFTER SEVENTEEN YEARS

A WIFE HAS HER HUSBAND ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

Other News From the United States—Detroit Times Burned Out—Eloquence of a Minister.

MORGANTOWN, April 11.—In a quarrel yesterday between Alona Bird and his wife, the latter blurted out a statement which caused her husband's arrest for the murder of Captain Raphael Livingston, an ex-federal soldier seventeen years ago.

Livingston was confined in a confederate prison at Salisbury. While there, Rose Austin, daughter of one of the officers of the guard fell in love with him and effected his escape. Bird in the meantime had become a suitor for Miss Austin's hand. Livingston and his wife were married in Washington and he was made to believe he had deserted her. A year afterward she had married Bird. Yesterday she gave information to the effect that Bird and two companions murdered Livingston, and with the aid of a colored boy buried the body. The negro was arrested and corroborated the story. All parties have been jailed. The affair causes intense excitement. Livingston belonged to New York.

The citizens tried to fight the fire, but the wind was too strong. Twenty houses were then burning furiously, and the town threatened. The entire population was on the spot fighting the fire. The loss is over $100,000. Some 200 workmen are thrown out of employment.

SUFFERING FROM TRICHINOSIS.

The Case in a New York Hospital that All the Doctors are Watching.

New York, April 11.—Antonio Pisano of 110 Mulberry street, who was taken to Bellevue hospital Monday night suffering from trichinosis, was doing well yesterday. When he was admitted to the hospital he appeared to be suffering from inflammatory rheumatism, but on Tuesday morning none of the indications of inflammatory rheumatism were manifest. There was, however, a muscular soreness and twitching which could not be accounted for.

Dr. Sayre suggested the presence of trichinosis, and a piece of muscular tissue about the size of a pea was taken from his arm. It was found to be swarming with trichinae. Dr. Sayre said yesterday that the case is not necessarily fatal. "The idea," said he, "that the disease is fatal is erroneous. The germs of the disease are taken into the system by pork or any other flesh which does not undergo the trichinosis process. The germs are generally admitted to the stomach the trichinae are admitted in astonishing numbers, and at once begin their attack upon the muscular system by boring through the intestines, and by means of the circulation establishing a foothold throughout the muscular system. "When they have at last buried themselves in the muscular tissue, they remain dormant for an indefinite period. "The treatment of incipient trichinosis is to purge the stomach of the worms. But this can only result in arresting the further propagation of the trichinae. The vigor of the patient must be maintained, and medicine is in all such cases impotent. Pisano rested quietly yesterday under the influence of narcotics. The slightest movement of the muscles provokes agony. Therefore it is the object of his physicians to keep him quiet with opiates. He was very much emaciated when brought to the hospital, and the physicians learned that he had been eating any food that he could pick up. The medical profession generally is watching the case with great interest.

TENDER SLAVES TO VICE.

Lying Infants Confirmed Patrons of the Deadly Wine-Cup. NEW YORK, April 11.—The temperance societies are about to undertake the task of reclaiming habitual inebriates of the age of 12 years from their slavery to the wine-cup. The astonishing number of "rounders" of 10 and 12 years old who have passed the period of indulgence in mild drinks, and are now confirmed in their appetite for brandy and absinthe is shown by the daily records of the police courts. Yesterday a boy in corduroys, short jacket and a banged hat, with a red nose and hair unkempt, who gave his age as 12 years, though he looked four years younger, was committed by Judge Patterson at Jefferson market for drunkenness. Hope was expressed by a police captain in several patrolmen that long residence on the island would cure him of his craving for alcohol.

Fatal Result of an Old Habit.

LEAVITT, Col., April 11.—A prospector in the vicinity of Glenwood Springs met his death in the bath in the most extraordinary manner at that time reported, but the particulars as they come to knowledge are of thrilling interest. The victim of the name of Leiter, had had two attacks of epilepsy, or fits, of that nature. He requested his fellow miners not to mention it to anybody, as he was proud but not like his neighborhood. He patronized the baths very frequently, as they did him much good, but he was not to be trusted. He was known to the matter with him he was allowed to attend to himself alone. This false pride proved his destruction. On that fatal day he entered the bath room in apparently good health. His prolonged stay therein caused astonishment. The room was entered and Leiter found dead, while the water was running all over the floor. He had turned on the hot water, and the water had run out. He undoubtedly intended to turn the water off when the tub had run full. Unfortunately the fit came on him as suddenly that he was unable to do so. He passed his life in the tub, in which position he was found by the attendant. He was unable to get out of the tub, and he died in that position. The body was found by the attendant, and he was taken to the mortuary. The body had been boiled soft, and it was found to be in a state of decomposition. Prominent Persons.

Pere Hyacinthe's audiences in the west are very large. Fred Douglas is in favor of Logan, and believes Tilden will be nominated by the democrats. S. J. Tilden has bought a $42,000 house for one of his nieces. He is a dear, good old uncle. John Ruskin is now making himself solid with the fair sex by paying sweet things in the favor of females. Secretary Folger caught cold by conversing with a newspaper correspondent after midnight through an open window. Judge Field has written to ex-Gov. Johnson of California, that he is not and does not wish to be considered a presidential candidate. Less than 20,000 copies of the queen's book having been sold, some one intimates that her loving subjects are not breaking their necks in their eagerness to read about the late Mr. Brown. Thomas Harrison, the old "boy" preacher, claims to have converted 1500 white persons in ten weeks in St. Louis, but compiled colored sinners to occupy the back seats. The facility with which New York editors secure rich views is something noticeable. It is now announced that the editorial staff of the New York Herald, will be married to Miss Edith Jeffrey, who will receive her dowry as a wedding gift. Gen. C. H. Grosvenor, a well-known politician, refuses to accept his arrears of pension, amounting to $6000, as one who thinks that he is not entitled to it. This is believed to be the first case on record of an Ohio man refusing anything. Hon. J. H. Pope, minister of agriculture, has arrived at Montreal on route from the south, where he has been for the benefit of his health. He will spend a few days at Sherbrooke previous to resuming his departmental duties. Mr. Pope's health is much improved by his trip to the south. The Shah of Persia is described as a tall, handsome man, over fifty years old, having a finely formed forehead and piercing black eyes, with a look of intellect and force. His lips are hidden by a large and fierce-looking mustache. The features of his chin give a slightly senescent look to the lower part of his face. His expression, in public at least, is stern but not cruel, and he looks as one accustomed to very much obeyed.

The State of Trade.

We cannot yet report any general stir in wholesale trade departments, although in some lines of staple goods there is a fair seasonable movement. The paper falling due on the fourth of the month has been fairly well met, and some of our large dry goods houses reporting renewals ranging from 25 to 50 per cent only of the total amount maturing. Importations are being showing a reduction of $630,000 in dutiable goods as compared with the corresponding month last year, the decrease on all other goods being $118,000.

MEXICO'S ODDIOUS STAMP TAX.

A Popular Resistance Which May End in Revolution.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 11.—The greatest of excitement still prevails here, and the soldiers are under arms at the army. Inflammatory circulars are being urged on the people not to pay the odious stamp tax. Yesterday afternoon the merchants met in session and prepared to receive a writ from the government for an abatement of the stamp tax. On Saturday a similar meeting was held and a compromise proposition was being considered, when a fire broke out in a drug store filled with explosives, and the meeting scattered, supposing a revolution had begun. 20,000 or 30,000 people rushed into the street.

The president told Minister Morgan that he would not back down, but he would do anything to relieve the people from their burdens. However, he declines the proposition of the merchants to increase the tariff at Vera Cruz, considering an offer to pay a license of $100 a year, one-half in advance. This would give the president a revenue of $1,000,000 a year. The improbable report is current that the president has said that he will open the stores forcibly to-day at 1 o'clock. A cabinet meeting is expected to be held before they had taken a step. On the other side of the hill, about three hundred yards away, and coming directly from the spot where they had taken a step, a man named Herbet started back to get back after their fishing tackle and bottles, but changed their minds before they had taken a step. A SHE BEAR ON A SPREE.

SHE ABANDONS HER CUBS AND TAKES TO HIM.

Not that the Loved Her Offspring Less nor that she Loved the Liquor More—The Adventure of Two Hunters. NOVICH, N. Y., April 11.—From all accounts the larger portion of the population of the Pine Mountain region, in Delaware county, is at present in earnest pursuit of the mother of two bear cubs about the size of small puppies, which fell into the hands of two trappers on Saturday last. The fishermen had seated themselves in the shelter of a rock to smoke their pipes and take a drink. One of them, Jack Trumbell, in sighting over the bottle, which was aimed at an angle of forty-five degrees toward a hill opposite him, discovered that it had "drawn bear" on two baby bears. They were rolling and tumbling over one another in play on the upper side of an old log. Trumbell raised the bottle at once, and the bears, who were startled, started up the hill toward the cubs. His companion, a man by the name of Herbet, followed him. The little cub, who had just taken a step, and the men each took one up in his arms. The fishermen turned to go back after their fishing tackle and bottles, but changed their minds before they had taken a step. On the other side of the hill, about three hundred yards away, and coming directly from the spot where they had taken a step, a man named Herbet started back to get back after their fishing tackle and bottles, but changed their minds before they had taken a step.

According to De Brassa, Stanley has been massacring and fighting in every direction. At Bolobo is a woman whose jaw was shot away by Stanley's big gun. At another place he has burned villages, by slaves for personal use or not, I do not know, says the explorer, and dealt extensively in ivory, which they send away, not by the Congo, but by a land route to the sea. HIGH CLASS LITERATURE DEPOT.

Opening of Messrs. Williamson & Co's Bookselling Establishment.

The new firm of Williamson & Co., which has risen—Phoenix-like—from the ashes of the old firm of Willing & Williamson, has opened its new establishment on King street west, in the premises lately occupied by the firm of Ure & Co., and are making vigorous efforts to retain for themselves the patronage formerly divided between the two above-named extinct firms. Their new premises are commodious and convenient, and the lower of the three flats of which the establishment consists is excellently adapted for displaying to the best advantage the extensive and admirably varied assortment of goods which compose Messrs. Williamson's stock-in-trade. High-class literature is, as in the case of the old firm, made a specialty, and is under the charge of Mr. G. Mercer Adam, a gentleman of well-known literary ability, who will be continually increasing. The growing popularity of editions de luxe has occasioned a new departure in this direction, and there are already in stock several rare and costly works of this character, including Gilbert Staunton's Shakespeare, Hamerton's Graphic Arts, Estlin's American Fauna, an illustrated edition of Moliere, etc. Lighter literature will not be neglected; the works of Scott, Thackeray, Dickens, George Eliot, and other standard novelists will be kept in abundance and in various editions. The new firm will also deal largely in stationery, this department being entrusted to the care of Mr. George Marshall.

Queen's Own Band Concert.

The Queen's Own Band still stands high in the estimation of the citizens generally was evidenced by the immense audience present at the St. Andrew's hall last night on the occasion of the annual concert of the band. The hall was full to overflowing and the audience was very enthusiastic. The band played three selections. Mr. Bayley has his music under his hand, and they have seldom if ever been heard to better advantage than they were last night. Of course the audience applauded them unreservedly. The singing was done by local talent, viz. Miss Alice Scott, Miss Berryman, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Taylor and Mr. Bright. Each sang a solo and there were two duets and two quartets. The efforts of all the vocalists were highly appreciated. Another feature of the program was the violin solo of Miss Nora Cleitch. This young lady more than charmed her hearers with the beautiful music she produced by the clever and artistic manipulation of the bow, and was rewarded with quite an ovation. The band is to be congratulated on the success of its concert.

Lizzie Evans Next Week.

The stage of the Grand theatre will be occupied by a new dramatic work, Miss Lizzie Evans, who appears in Fogg's Ferry. An exchange says of her: "Pretty Lizzie Evans made last week in Columbus her debut as a star, and to say that her success has been an emphatic and phenomenal one is putting it mild. Petite, pretty, graceful, with a voice like a bell, a charming smile, and eyes like stars, she has drawn to Comstock's in midsummer weather splendid houses, and we do not wonder that she is in the country would have done so well. She sings delightfully and dances gracefully. She is fortunate in having in Fogg's Ferry and Dewdrop two capital plays, and it is easy to forecast for her a future equal in popularity to Lotta, Pinyon or Maggie Mitchell. Differing from all these popular actresses, with a style quite her own, we do not hesitate in pronouncing her unquestionably their equal. We are glad to note that she has been engaged to reappear during the regular season."

Sucker Fishing in the Don.

A World reporter saw a number of men walking in mid-stream in the Don yesterday. On closer examination he learned that they were fishing for suckers. Their method was this: they had two six-foot poles between which was stretched a net about ten feet long; a man had hold of each pole and every now and then they would place the net under water, while a third man with a long pole beat the water and drove the fish toward the net. Each time they took two or more large suckers. Several of these parties were out, and they were more or less successful. One of them had nearly 100 pounds of fish at the time the reporter was watching them.

Worthless Bank Bills.

Quite a number of worthless $10 bills are now being circulated through the city. These bills are those of the old Confederate bank of the southern states and the public should be on their guard against accepting them. A piece of bone has been found in a pound of Philadelphia butter. The man who can sell bone at the price of butter has a bonanza.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1884.

An Inaugural Refusal.

In the house, a few days ago, Sir John Macdonald said he saw that the British government had given an unfavorable answer to a question whether they would assist in the Hudson's bay survey, grounding their refusal on old reports that the route was navigable for only a very short season.

This seems to us rather ungracious on the part of the imperial authorities. Vessels belonging to "the queen's navy" are now sailing about on many a sea, from the channel far away Australia; not a few of them being on missions perhaps more ornamental than useful. It would have been a mere trifle for their lordships of the admiralty to have ordered a vessel to be sent to the Hudson's bay, and there are officers by the score who would promptly have offered their services for such an expedition.

The occasion is appropriate for referring to another more important matter, in which the home government fell far short of doing justice to Canada. It has been shown by high military authority, that a railway by which troops and supplies could quickly be passed across British territory to the North Pacific coast would be of an immense importance to Britain in case of a war with Russia.

The Globe thinks Sir John Macdonald very much to blame because there is as yet "nothing done" towards renewing the fishery clauses of the treaty of Washington, or making other arrangements in the premises.

The Catholic statistics. To the Editor of The World. Sir: A paragraph in your paper of April 9, speaking of Roman Catholic statistics, leads me to ask you to publish the following facts.

It is stated that the Roman Catholics have nearly trebled themselves in England and increased ten-fold in America. This as a matter of fact is not true. In England Romanism has within the last forty years decreased, and from the Romaniacs being a third of the population they are now but a seventh.

In view of the expected early completion of the Canadian Pacific railway, also of the Great Northern and Callender link, which is to connect it with the railway system of the Ontario peninsula, we copy from the pamphlet some paragraphs relating to the same.

"It requires no prophetic eye to see that the construction of the Canadian Pacific railway will change the face of the country, and develop its resources steadily in view of the commissioner of crown lands along the route from Callender to Sudbury Junction, and from Sudbury to the Michigan valley.

"The fact of the railway company consists of the Algoma, Alberta and Athabasca, and the value of Vancouver island as a coaling depot is great at all times, but it would be simply incalculable were British and Russia at war.

From all of which it would appear that the province of Ontario is destined to have a larger direct benefit from the Canadian Pacific railway than has generally been thought of.

There has been an unusual number of bank failures in the United States during the present week, and of these at least two are directly traceable to the speculative propensities of its cashier or other prominent officer.

The Pennsylvania democratic state convention has by unanimous vote decided to support Randall for the party nomination for president at Chicago.

THE PEOPLE'S PASTIMES.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN SPORTING CIRCLES THE WORLD OVER.

Plated is practicing on the Harlem river. Fred is very fast, says Turf, Field and Farm—with his tongue it might have added.

Bealin high school and Preston had a football match at the latter place on Saturday, and the former club was defeated by 2 to 1.

E. A. Trickett and Wm. Beach are to row a match at St. Mary's N. S. W. on the 12th inst., the winner of which will be pitted against Hanlan on his arrival in Australia.

The seasons for manacalage or mask-making fishing are as follows: Michigan, no close season; New York, June 1 to January 1; Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, May 15 to April 15.

The spring campaign of the Western football association was opened at Salt on Saturday by a match between Woodstock college and Galt collegiate institute, which was won by the latter by 4 goals to 1.

Maud L., the property of Mr. Richard Lemon, Clyde hotel, of this city, has returned to her regular winter season. She will be immediately placed in training for the summer races.

Sam Day, an English pedestrian has arrived at New York to take part in the six days go-as-you-please contest which commences Monday, April 23. His expenses are borne by the Moseley Harriers whose trainer he is.

An exciting game of lacrosse was played on the exhibition grounds yesterday between the Maple Leafs of Parkdale and the Active of Toronto, which resulted in a victory for the former in three straight games: time, 7, 45 and 15 minutes respectively.

The Meaford Turf club race meeting will be held May 24. The Union football and independent lacrosse clubs of Bowmanville have united under the title of the Union athletic club with the following officers for the current year: Hon. president, R. B. Atkinson, vice-president, H. C. Blair, field captain; A. C. McCully, vice do.; D. H. Muir, M. D., G. H. Hill, secretary; S. E. Gourley, executive committee; Jas. N. Odel, secretary and treasurer. Resolutions were passed favoring the formation of a maritime cricket association and a committee appointed to take the matter in hand.

The annual meeting of the Galt cricket club was held Tuesday evening. The following officers for the years were appointed: President, T. Peck, vice-presidents J. Young, M. P. P., R. S. Strong, J. G. Dykes, R. Jeffrey, F. G. Allanby, treasurer, C. Blake, secretary, G. V. J. Greenhill, committee of management, B. R. McConkey, G. P. Simpson, C. J. Logan, R. S. Strong Jr., Alex. Davidson. The first match will be played at Galt on the Queen's birthday against the Guelph club. G. P. Simpson was the last presented by the club for a player having the highest batting average during the season of 1883, his average being 19.50 for 18 innings. He also had the best bowling average, viz. 3.41 runs per wicket. The club played last season thirteen matches of which four were lost, two drawn and seven won.

The Secret of Successful Fly Fishing. The accomplished author and angler Francis Francis very pertinently remarks: "The first and last object of the fly fisher is to show as much of the fly to the fish as possible, and as little of anything else."

Sweepstakes Rifle Match. Canadian Amateur Athletic Association. The delegates appointed to represent the different athletic associations of Ontario and Quebec met yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Toronto Yensing club and after hearing the report of the committee appointed some months ago to draft a constitution and by-laws proceeded to adopt them formally. First Meet of the Season. The Toronto Hunt club inaugurated the season yesterday with a royal run. U-wards of forty members attended the meet at Slattery's, and quite a number of ladies and gentlemen drove out from the city to witness the start. Among the turnout were Mr. H. D. Mason's neat English dog cart with his Wassy mare, Nettle; Mr. Joseph Walker's T. cart and Mr. W. B. Hamilton's carriage. Five ladies—Miss Gooderham, Miss Hamilton, Miss Sheppard, Miss Burns and Miss Clafie—started with the party, and kept well up throughout. The hounds were thrown off on the old Carleton track by the worthy master, Dr. Smith, who kept them well in hand and was finely mounted on a new piece of harness, with the aristocratic name of Viscount. The master was attended by John Halligan, the veteran kennelman who rode a fine charger which a member with a classical turn of mind christened Bucephalus. The course lay across the Credit Valley track towards Lambton and back over Kennedy's farm, where the fox was run down. A. W. Gibson secured the brush, and H. S. Mara was in second. Two old members, Mr. Turner of Goddardville and John Leys, turned out for the first time in several years and enjoyed the run immensely. Among other gentlemen mounted were Mr. Akers, Mr. Sears, Mr. Hastings on a fine new horse, R. Myles on Blackcloud, M. A. Thomas, ex-huntsman, on Liberty, Mr. Sharp on Colonus, Dr. Campbell on his new horse Reveller, and Mr. Donaldson on Mrs. Langtry. Such well known hunters as Charley Weir, Millidge and Brown Prince were also in the field.

Another Life saved. About two years ago a prominent citizen of Chicago was told by his physicians that he must die. They said his system was so debilitated that there was nothing left to build on. He made up his mind to try a "new departure." He got some of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" and took it according to directions. He began to improve at once. He kept up the treatment for some months, and is to-day a well man. He says the "Discovery" saved his life.

Hall's Hair Renewer. Hall's Hair Renewer, cleanses, brightens, and invigorates the hair, and restores faded or gray hair to its youthful color and lustre. People with gray hair prefer to use the Renewer, rather than proclaim to the world through their bleached locks that they are becoming aged, and passing on to decay.

"They say love laughs at locksmiths" and we all know that a million combination locks won't keep the average small boy in the house if there happens to be a circus in town or a favorable opportunity open for fixing a tin pot attachment to an orphan dog's tail, but only give him one of the Li-Quor Tea company's attractive little books and the enthusiastic way in which he will whistle "Home sweet home"—and stay there too, is surprising.

What It Has Done. Mrs. George Simpson, Toronto, says: "I have suffered severely with corns, and was unable to get any relief from treatment of any kind until I was recommended to try Holloway's Corn Cure. After applying for a few days it was enabled to remove the corn, root and branch—no pain what ever, and no inconvenience in using it. I can heartily recommend it to all suffering from corns."

Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant to take; sure and effectual in destroying worms. See that you take no other and you will be satisfied.

An Unprotected Family. Is one that has not that valuable remedy, Hagar's Yellow Oil in the house for accidents and emergencies. It cures colds, croup, sore throat, deafness, rheumatism, neuralgia, chilblains, burns, bruises, and all painful injuries.

A Case Much Talked Of. The case of Mr. John Morrison, of St. Ann's, N.S., who was afflicted with a serious dropsical disease of the kidneys. The best medical aid having failed, his life was despaired of. Two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him. His statement is vouched for by J. D. McLeod, J.P., who knew of his condition. The cure is considered marvellous in his town.

Sanitary Inspection. If you would avoid sickness clear away the filth and rubbish about your premises, establish proper drainage and admit pure air. The skin, kidneys and bowels are the sluiceways of the human body. Regulate these channels of health with Burdock Blood Bitters which act directly to purify the blood and regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys.

Much in a Little. Many proprietary medicines, if they cure at all, require such a large quantity to produce effect that it makes them very uncertain and expensive remedies. Not so with Burdock Blood Bitters. It is highly concentrated, and for all diseases of blood, liver and kidneys, one or two bottles will cure more than gallons of the weak mixtures usually sold. Sent for facts and figures.

The False Prophet. He who prophesies falsely of the weather, leaves off his flannels and over-shoes, and catches cold, is indeed unwise. If you follow this false prophet your remedies in taking Hagar's Pectoral Balsam. It is the best cough cure and the safest throat and lung remedy known to medical science.

Note Taken. This common and painful affection may be readily cured by the prompt application of Hagar's Yellow Oil, taking it internally at the same time according to directions. In croup, asthma, colds, swollen glands, rheumatism and other painful diseases it is equally efficacious.

A Pertinent Question. From the New York Graphic. "This is the kind of day," remarked Mr. Brown, "that a Frenchman commits suicide and an American takes a drink."

Mr. C. E. Riggs, Beamsville, writes: "A customer who tried a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery says it is the best thing he ever used; to quote his own words, 'It just seems to touch the spot affected.' About a year ago he had an attack of bilious fever, and was afraid he was in for another, when I recommended this valuable medicine with such happy results."
