

The Weekly Monitor,

ISSUED ON WEDNESDAY, AT BRIDGETOWN, ANNEPOLIS CO., N. S.

TERMS—1.50 per year in advance.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1903.

As we near the close of 1903 we may note a few of the most important of the occurrences and changes of the twelvemonth.

Perhaps the most marked of the latter is the change in the condition of the world of finance.

A year ago speculation was on the flood tide of prosperity. Schemes without the remotest chance of ever becoming paying enterprises were promoted, and the ruin of many solid business enterprises was being created by an unhealthy inflation of their securities.

The turn of the tide shortly came and it is really a matter of congratulation that the commercial institutions of Canada have stood up so well against the rush of the ebb.

Every one is invited to the public mass meeting at the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Jas. Imrie, formerly manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Bridgetown, after a three months' absence in Great Britain, is now in charge of the Dartmouth branch of the Bank of N. S.

Mr. A. H. Kent, of Truro, will occupy the pulpit of the Gordon Memorial Presbyterian church on Sunday next.

Rev. Benj. Hill, pastor of the Methodist Church, was presented with a handsome fur coat at the Christmas tree held in the vestry of the church on the evening of the 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reed and Miss Gladys and Miss Marie Lloyd spent Christmas with relatives at Nicotax.

Miss Nellie Cochran, of Wolfville, is the guest of Miss Gladys Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kinney, of Yarmouth, is visiting her husband at Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reed's.

Mr. J. L. Peters was summoned to St. John Monday by news of the illness of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lewis left last week for North Carolina, where they will take up their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reed and Miss Gladys and Miss Marie Lloyd spent Christmas with friends in Middleton.

Mr. Chas. Chelley, after spending a couple of years in the North West, has returned to his home in Upper Grandville.

Mr. Charles Palfrey, of the Union Bank staff of Berwick, spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Palfrey.

Dr. Anderson and wife left on Thursday for Bonchester, N. B., to spend the Christmas holidays. They returned yesterday.

Miss Ethel Whitman, of Enonon, Mansfield, who is a student at Acadia Seminary, is spending the holidays at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Healy.

Miss Leta Brown leaves on Monday next on a visit to her friend Mrs. Macdonald, formerly Miss Alice Young, at Sydney, where she will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby Anthony, who are spending the winter in Kentville, where Mr. Anthony is at work upon the Court House and manse, spent a few days of the past week in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Hoyt intend leaving on Monday next for Newcastle, N. B.; Mrs. Benson to visit her former home, and Miss Hoyt to spend a few weeks with her brother, Mr. Frank Hoyt.

Mr. Jack Deane spent his Christmas holidays at home after a absence of two years. He is connected with the Hood Creamery Co., of Bonchester, an immense milk-distributing centre, New Hampshire. He had the misfortune to receive a burn in the face from sulphuric acid, which, however, has not proved serious.

The final meeting of the Annapolis and Kings Co. exhibition committee took place at the town hall here, yesterday p. m., and it proved to be one of the most satisfactory of its sessions.

After some discussion the resolution was adopted, it was moved and passed in agriculture, it is illustrated with over fifty finely printed half-tones of Maritime farm homes, Maritime live stock and Maritime farms. Sample copies may be had from the publishers at Sussex, N. B., for 25 cents each.

It was found expedient to postpone the Christmas tree and entertainment arranged to take place last night in connection with St. John's Sunday School, until next Saturday evening. The entertainment begins at 7 o'clock and the parents will oblige by sending the children punctually. There will be room for a limited number of adults, admission for these being 10c. Proceeds towards the S. S. funds.

Capt. E. Hall is planning on going to the West Indies soon. David Sabean is home from sea for the winter. Mr. Louis Boardley, of the schooner Eliza, is home for the winter. Mrs. Chas. Hudson, of Hampton, visited her daughter, Mrs. A. Neaves, recently.

Mr. Thomas Sabean is very ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Guest at Parker's Cove. James F. Neaves, steward of the ship, F. & E. Given, is spending the holidays at home. Harry Maculey has returned from sea and is at present visiting his sister, Mrs. F. Neaves.

Mr. Louis Sabean is improving the appearance of his attractive residence by building a piazza around the front. Miss Grace Farnsworth, of Bayville, is spending the Xmas holidays with friends, Mrs. Chas. Neaves, of this place.

James Burpee Hudson and Moody Port Lorne recently, spending a very merry Xmas with Mrs. Arthur Neaves, of this place. A very enjoyable Christmas Eve was spent at the hall, where the ladies of the sewing circle held a Christmas tree. A large number were present, including several from Hampton and adjoining sections. The sum of $14.00 was realized from the sale of fancy goods. Proceeds to be used for church purposes.

The grim messenger has again entered our quiet village, claiming as his victim Mrs. Albert Wilkins. The deceased had been ill for six days of pneumonia, during which time she was a great sufferer, until death released her. Her son, Kenneth, had just arrived from the day previous to her demise, intending spending a merry Xmas at home. The funeral will take place on Tuesday, with interment at this place. A husband, seven sons and two daughters are left to mourn their sad loss. We extend our deepest sympathies to the relatives and friends of the deceased.

A very interesting event took place on Tuesday evening at the home of our popular miller, Mr. Thos. Sabean, when his daughter, Mrs. Jane Neaves, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Guest, ship carpenter, of Parker's Cove. The bride looked charming, dressed in a becoming suit of brown tulle, trimmed with brown watered silk and rare old lace, and carried a bouquet of roses. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. B. Kinley. The "boys" of the village turned out en masse and saluted the happy couple, and in return were generously treated to refreshments by the parents of the bride. After wishing the happy pair a long and prosperous wedded life all departed to their respective homes. Mr. and Mrs. Guest will reside in Parker's Cove.

(From another correspondent.) Mr. and Mrs. E. Sanford and Patterson Foster are at home. The remains of the late Mrs. Allen Miller were interred here on Saturday afternoon.

Christmas at the Charitable Institutions at Bridgetown.

Doubtless comparatively few of our people in this grand and good old county of Annapolis understand or realize what Christmas means to the seventy-five unfortunates who are so comfortably housed and cared for in our charitable institutions at Bridgetown.

Contrast the condition of these people to-day with the days of the "Town Meeting," when the poor were auctioned in some public place, and their comfort and welfare for the next twelve months entrusted to the tender mercies of the lowest bidder, and their condition to-day in such homes as are provided by the municipality. Poor and helpless inmates are cared for and their every want supplied by painstaking and careful and competent people.

The dinner on Christmas Day in the Alma House consisted of roast goose, roast beef, pork, roast chicken, vegetable table of all kinds, and a dessert of plum pudding. She is the guest of Mrs. Al. Phispa Marshall. Kenneth Wilson, of Dartington, spent of home last week with his grandparents. He was on his way home from Horton Academy for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop, of Kentville, and Mr. S. Cann are holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Phinney. Mr. Cann arrived on Wednesday from Hans, where he is taking a course in the Theological College at Newton, and Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop arrived yesterday.

Mrs. J. Donkin, with her children, is spending a few days with her sister at North Kingston. Miss Gertrude stopped at Kingston on her way home from Mount Allison, and has since been joined by the other members of the family.

INGLISVILLE. West Inglewille school closed for Xmas holidays on Friday, Dec. 18th, under the care of Miss Myrtle Starart, of Paradise. CARDS OF THANKS.

I am very pleased to say that the public of Clarence have been very kind to me all through my mail business. They have all used "The King" and I have them. They gave me a lot of nice things for Christmas that I need to keep my business going. I will say I am pleased with all the things they gave me. They are just the right things for a mail driver to have. I had also a nice gift from Mr. John Lowe.

MR. W. M. CARLIN. Clarence, N. S., Dec. 26th, 1903.

I wish to thank the members of the "Maple Leaf" Mission Band for the pretty gift of china ware. Being the second expression of esteem for their humble leader, it is highly appreciated. Presented by Miss Nellie Elliott, Friday afternoon, 18th inst., at Clarence Hall, after interesting Christmas exercises by school and Mission Band. Mr. Alfred Wilson, a veritable Santa Claus, and our worthy teacher, Miss Fenerty, gave a treat of candied and oranges, etc., which were falls of appreciation.

MRS. S. N. JACKSON. Clarence, Dec. 26th, 1903.

I thank very much the members of Gordon Memorial Presbyterian church for the very pretty gift of china ware. A similar state of things existed at the same time in the asylum, with the exception that the treat was handed around in the evening of 1901, and also for the gift of a mail driver to have. The keeper and matron provided a Christmas tree and set it up in the large sitting room occupied by the male inmates, and both the room and tree looked very nice.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis have only been in charge a short time, but a look through the institution is proof that they understand the care and management of the inmates. The keeper and matron of the almshouse, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, are well known in the county, having been in charge now over seven years, and have proven themselves equal to any and every emergency, and I think I am well within the bounds of truth when I say that to them is due in a large measure the fact that the county of Annapolis can boast of one of the best kept almshouses in the maritime provinces. In conclusion I would suggest to the trustees of this county that they take a look into our charitable institutions at Bridgetown.

HYMENEAL. CONNELL-FRAZER. Our Clementsvale correspondent writes: A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fraser, of Prince Edward, on Tuesday morning, Dec. 22nd, when their only daughter, Flora Blanche, was united in marriage to E. Forrest Connell, of Bridgetown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Hadden Belmont, in the presence of a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. The happy bride looked charming in a gown of white tulle. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, and later they left to take the train for Bridgetown, their future home, followed by the best wishes of their many friends. Note Mr. and Mrs. Connell have settled in the house recently purchased from Mr. Charles Lewis.

CLARENCE-STEVENS. Wednesday, Dec. 23rd, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Edward Goodwin, 186 King street east, Rev. G. N. Stevenson, formerly in charge of the Coburg street Christian church, was united in marriage to Miss Louisa Clark. The wedding was a very quiet family affair, only a few relatives and friends being present. Rev. Ralph Gibbs performed the ceremony. The bride, who was unattended, was attired in a pruned colored broadcloth dress, with a milk travelling hat. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson left on the night train for Halifax, where they will spend a few days before going to their winter home in L'Etiet, where the returned gentleman will have charge of the local church. St. John Telegraph. Note: The bride spent some weeks here this autumn as milliner at Miss Chute's, and has many friends, who will be glad to extend congratulations and best wishes.

Basket Ball. The opening of the Annapolis County Basket Ball League, at Lawrenceport on Christmas night, was very satisfactory. A large party of basket ball enthusiasts went up from Bridgetown in spite of the muddy roads. A number of the Middleton boys were also present. A large number of the Lawrenceport enthusiasts were present and enjoyed the games very much, being well assisted with the showing their teams made in the first games.

The first game of the evening was an exhibition one, by two selected teams, one from Bridgetown, captained by Jas. Young, the other, from Lawrenceport, captained by C. Longley. This game, though rough at times, was an interesting one. The result was a victory for the Bridgetown boys by a score of 20-13. The second, which was the league game, was by far the best of the two. It was between the "Tartars," of the Lawrenceport factory, and Horton Phinney's team. The Lawrenceport boys were attired in scarlet shirts and black pants, while the Tartars wore the Y. M. C. uniform suit of black trousers and gray trousers. During the first half of the game the Lawrenceport boys easily had the best of the passing and shooting for goals but could not seem to edge the ball. In the last half the "Tartars" took a brace and did better work. The game resulted in a victory for the Tartars, by a score of 19-12. Frank Wheelock, of Acadia, and Mrs. Young, of Middleton, acted as officials, and gave good satisfaction.

The next league game will be played in Bridgetown on New Year's Eve, when two teams from Lawrenceport will meet the "Clarks" and "Bankers" teams of Bridgetown.

Mission Band Entertainment. The literary entertainment given by the Clarence Mission Band on Friday afternoon, the 18th inst., was profitable and entertaining. After this part of the program was carried out, the Band was treated to confectionery and cakes by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilson. Next came a pleasant surprise when Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were presented with a handsome parlor lamp, and the president, Mrs. S. N. Jackson, a down fancy plates. The recipients wish to express their sincere thanks to all who helped to make this happy occasion one long to be remembered.

Hay Making at Port Hood. The "Mining Record," reports that the output of coal at Port Hood is keeping up and the management expect a large output for November. The Record says "that the Port Hood Coal Co. might be induced to sell if they were offered a high enough price for their property. It is doubtful, however, whether any ordinary figure would sufficiently impress the stockholders at present. Port Hood seems to be making hay this fall."

MINAR'S Liniment cure distemper. DIED. GATES—At Annapolis, Dec. 26th, at 10 o'clock, of pneumonia, Geo. H. Gates, aged 52 years, Henry Gates, only son of Edwin Gates, Sheriff of Annapolis County.

The British House of Lords has not had a reputation during the last years as a debating chamber, but Mr. Chamberlain's proposition for "international professions in trade, has stirred its members to the depths, and the House of Commons, in danger of having to look to its laurels, imperial profanity is a big subject and almost well within the bounds of truth. In the matter of "mas" it would be difficult, for there could be only one opinion, viz. that MOISE'S TEARS are the best.
