The Aberdeens at Calgary.

They visit at Sacred Heart Convent and the Holy Cross Hospital and were pleased with their reception.

On Friday, the 12th October, Calgary was favored with the first official visit of their Excellencies, Lord and Lady Aberdeen. The weather was delightful and every preparation that loyalty could suggest and love and devotion to the representative of our most gracious queen prompt, was done to make the Noble Visitors' reception a success. The Catholics, as usual, were not behind their fellow citizens in manifesting their loyalty and devotion to the queen's representation and his noble wife.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen were received at their convent, by the Religious faithful Companions of Jesus and their pupils at 12.15 p. m.

The large study hall which is the length of the entire building, was thrown open for the occasion, and presented an elegant appearance, with its tastefully arranged draperies, hanging baskets of choice plants, appropriate scrolls and the mottoes of the Aberdeen and Tweedmouth families. Around the walls were hung some drawings, paintings, and work done by the pupils, which attracted the attention of Lady Aberdeen, who examined them with great condescension and expressed her admiration.

As their Excellencies entered the hall the "National Anthem" was rendered in feeling tones, after which a group of small boys, under seven, sang to the air of a well-known Scotch melody, a simple welcome, which drew especial praise, from his Lordship, on account of their modest and polite behaviour. Then Master Roulean presented her Ladyship with a bouquet of choice flowers, reciting at the same time the following simple lines

Recevez noble Dame, ce simble bouquet Au nom de l'institution Si ma main vous l'offre c'est l'amour Qui l'a fait.
Les fleurs sont l'emblème de l'affection Je voudrais bien y joindre un tendre Compliment.
Mais je ne sais que dire Lue le signeur supplie a ce manque De talent.
Et vous accorde tout ce que votre coeur Desire.

His Excellency selected a beautiful geranium from the bouquet and placed it in his button hole, remarking to the children that he wished to look smart.
During three quarters of an hour the attention of the audience was divided between vocal and musical selections all demonstrating the sincerity and affection of the welcome offered to the illustrious visitors.

The final Ode sung by the whole school, expressed the heartiest wishes and prayers for the welfare of the newly appointed Governor General and his family, after which the following address was read by Miss A. McNamara.

LORD ABERDEEN,
Governor General of Canada.

My Lord,
The opening of this month was hailed by us with joyful hearts for we hoped that one of its days would bring us the rare privilege, which we esteem so highly of laying at your feet the tribute of our affectionate loyalty.

The names of Lord and Lady Aberdeen are household words in our Convent home and the many sweet and touching incidents which have been related to us concerning your Excellencies, have especially endeared to us. Therefore, whilst we welcome you, in our midst, my Lord, as the representative of our Gracious Sovereign, and tender to you, in her person, those sentiments of respectful homage, which are due to her, allow us to say, that it is a subject of particular joy to us, that Lord and Lady Aberdeen should be the recipients of those loyal feelings which you have shown, in visiting us, will be a pleasing souvenir in after years.—We thank your Excellencies for this kindness and it will be an agreeable duty for us, to pray, that the years of your office in Canada may be as happy for you, as they invariably have been for all, who at different periods were placed under your control.

The pupils of the Faithful Companions of Jesus.

Sacred Heart Convent, CALGARY.

At the conclusion of the Address, His Excellency shook hands with the young lady reader, congratulated her on the graceful manner in which she had performed her task and presented her to Lady Aberdeen, who likewise shook hands, and spoke in the kindest manner to this young lady.

His Excellency then addressed the Religious and their pupils. He thanked them for the sincere and affectionate manner in which he had been received, saying that from the moment he had entered the building until that in which he spoke, the welcome offered to him had been continuous and sustained. He showed himself particularly pleased with the polite and reserved manner of the boys, which he pronounced to be the characteristic of all those educated in similar institutions and he bade his young auditors to remember that a forward rough offhandedness were not signs of manliness; but that, gentleness and courtesy of manner were alike suitable to the citizen and the democrat.

Alluding to the words of the Aberdeen family motto "Fortuna Sequatur" His Excellency said that it was his heartiest wish that all good fortune and every blessing from an All-powerful and loving God might fall on this establishment and on every one connected with it, and speaking of Lady Aberdeen's family motto "Advance with courage" he hoped that all would take it to heart and work energetically for the glory of God and the good of their beloved country of Canada.

His Excellency expressed the wish that these mottoes might often be seen on the walls of this institution, not only when he comes to visit the Convent, as he hoped to do again, but on every occasion. "In fact," to use his Excellency's own words, "I desire that they be adopted as the mottoes of this institution."

His Excellency then said that he did not wish to detain the pupils as he feared they were hungry for their dinner.
He quoted the Aberdeennshire proverb, "A hungry Gordon is an angry Gordon" saying at the same time that such was not the case with him. Then he gave the children a holiday and was about to retire, when Lady Aberdeen with that delicacy of feeling so peculiarly her own called his Lordship's attention to the portrait of their two sons, the honorable Archie and Dudley Gordon framed artistically in lather work. His Excellency again returned to thank the good religious for this thoughtful attention on their part.

After many kind words addressed to each of the Nuns their Excellencies retired.

Whilst the pupils were grouped in the front of the main entrance, to have a last look at their illustrious visitors, Lady Aberdeen very quietly photographed the scene and the carriages drove off amidst the deafening cheers of the boy pupils.

After leaving the convent, their Excellencies next drove to the Holy Cross Hospital, a beautiful and excellently fitted up hospital under the care of these most devoted angels of charity, the Grey Nuns. They were most respectfully and cordially welcomed by the Sister superior and shown over the institution. Their Excellencies had a kind and sympathic greeting for all the patients in the various wards and private rooms. They visited all the wards except the fever ward where a young girl was very ill with typhoid fever. At the entrance to this ward the Sister Superior interposed and advised the party of the patients there suffering from the fever. His Excellency with that delicate and noble sympathy which characterizes all his acts, took the flower from his button-hole and handing it to a sister said "Present this flower to your young patient and tell her that the Governor-General of Canada sent it to her as a mark of his sympathy in her sufferings." Both Lord and Lady Aberdeen expressed the pleasure they felt at finding such a thoroughly equipped hospital in Calgary and wished the Grey Nuns every success in their noble works of charity.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

Mr. Laurier Now Has Seen for Himself How the Catholics Support Their Schools.

It had been arranged some time since that the third Sunday of each month would be the day on which subscriptions could be received for the maintenance of Catholic schools. Last Sunday happened to be the third Sunday of October, and accordingly Rev. Father McCarthy announced from the pulpit of St. Mary's church that the collection taken up at High Mass would be for the schools. He, earnestly appealed to the congregation, at the same time assuring them that they had the sympathy of their priests in the struggle which they were making under such financial stringency. There happened to be present at the mass, a very distinguished gentleman, whom not long since a denotation of representative Catholics waited upon, for the purpose of obtaining his aid in the redress of their grievances in the matter of their Catholic schools. At the time, that gentleman expressed himself as astonished at the fact communicated to him, and he said that were he to learn that the statements then made to him by those Catholics, were correct, he would take an occasion to lend an assisting hand to the gentleman who had ample time to investigate the case since then, but whether or not he has learned the true situation, he has not told the public.
But surely after what he saw on Sunday last in St. Mary's church he cannot imagine that the Catholics of Manitoba are so "flush" with money, as to be ever ready and willing to meet the demands of their schools, if they could for one instant satisfy their consciences on the question of the Protestant schools of the city. He saw for himself how the Catholics month after month contribute of their hard earnings, so that their children may receive that education, which as Catholics, they are entitled to. He saw a well filled plate of money—the contributions of the Catholics, and he was told very plainly for what purpose the money was given. Will it be an object lesson to the gentleman? Possibly so, for not even a Mr. Laurier can close his eyes to such a state of affairs.

THEY LOSE THEIR LIVES.

Two Sisters are Burned to Death in St.
Joseph's Catholic Seminary.

Houston, Tex. Oct. 16.—Early this morning fire was discovered in the San Jacinto boarding house on Franklin and Jacinto streets, and before the flames were gotten under control two lives and probably four were lost and $500,000 worth of property was destroyed. The flames quickly spread to St. Joseph's Catholic infirmary, on Franklin avenue, and despite the efforts of the firemen the building was totally destroyed. Two sisters of the institution, Sister Dolores and Jennie Ellis, perished in the burning building. Two patients lying in an upper story of the dormitory are missing and it is feared that they are burned to death. Another sister named Clothild, a narrow escape. She was frightfully burned about the head and shoulders, but it is believed she will recover.

From St. Joseph's infirmary, the flames spread to Alexander's boarding house, then to adjoining stores. The flames lasted from 2.45 a. m. until 4.30 o'clock, and in that time destroyed over a dozen buildings. The losses will aggregate half a million dollars. The origin of the fire is supposed to be due to an explosion of an oil lamp. The family name of Sister Dolores was Elizabeth Boyle.
Jennie Ellis was a novitiate and removed to San Antonio from Montreal two weeks ago. It is supposed that they perished while trying to save the lives of others. The remains of those found were horribly burned and unrecognizable.

DOOMED AND DESTROYED.

An Inconceivable Supposed to Have Sent 20,000 Bushels of Wheat Up in Smoke.

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Oct. 19.—The fire bell rang at 9 o'clock to-night, when dense clouds of smoke rolling over the northern part of the town were seen to come from the Martin, Mitchell & Co.'s elevator, 100 yards east of the Northern Pacific depot. When people got there it was found that the office against the north side of the elevator and the drive way were filled with flames, which were beginning to creep up into the elevator. It was soon seen that the building was doomed. The fire brigade arrived and the engine was placed at Ashdown's east end tank, and it was necessary to lay 1,500 feet of hose. The elevator was soon in full blaze and it was a grand sight when the flames got vent from the roof. The ironclad walls and bins resisted the flames long after the centre was burned out, but were gradually eaten through. The bins burst one by one at the spouts or sides, letting 20,000 bushels of wheat down. The frame stood splendidly and gradually crumbled from the top for two hours.

John Watson entered the engine room and opened the safety valve, and the boiler slowly blew off. Mr. Wm. McKay manager and his engineer left the elevator about 7 o'clock. There had been no fire in the office. The fire originated under the driveway and must have been incendiary. The loss is set down at between $25,000 and $30,000

A WORTHY TRIBUTE.

Mr. W. F. Luxton's Retirement Will Be a Loss to Manitoba.

Morden Monitor.
The honored name of W. F. Luxton disappeared from the first editorial column of the Northwest Review last week.
We don't know the reason for this, but we can only say that we believe we voice the feelings of the majority of Manitobans when we assert that the news will be received with deep regret. "With all his faults we love him still," will be echoed far and wide. That he has stood manfully and fearlessly to the front while all others have hung back timorous and afraid is well known to all. Had he been the man of iniquity he has been painted by his enemies, he would be in the editorial chair of the Free Press today. He could have become a wealthy man, endowed with great power, if he had only fallen down and worshipped the Van Horne and Greenway gang of leeches and Vampires. But because he has had the pluck and independence to prefer the good of his country in preference to obtaining fortune by cringing and sycophantic obedience to the wisties of the monopoly king of Canada, he is evidently not a financial success in journalism at the present time. As a journalist and incisive writer he is without a peer in Manitoba, and from his vast and long-time experience in this profession it is safe to say that his loss will be a positive misfortune to the country.
The Northwest Review still lives, the champion of the people, and will no doubt, in Col.
Scobell's hands, prove a thorn in the side of the C. P. R. Free Press and the Greenway Tribune. May it never die or cease to battle against the organs of fraud and corruption, and may the name of W. F. Luxton be soon inscribed on another banner in the service of his country.

The Canadian Magazine.

The Canadian Magazine for October is one of the very best numbers yet issued the contributions being bright, lively, of a high order of literary merit, and of rich variety of subject, while the illustrations leave little to be desired. From the graceful pen of Mr. J. M. Le Moine, President of the Royal Society of Canada comes a contribution of much interest to the biography of Francis Parkman, the famous historian, who, under tremendous difficulties, has clothed the facts of French history in America with the charm of the greatest romance. Hon. J.
W. Longley, Attorney-General of Nova Scotia, contributes the first of a series of papers on Joseph Howe, a series, which, judged by the literary charm and the interest of the present paper, will be warmly received. Hon. James Young gives, in an illustrated article, many valuable hints as to how to beautify the surroundings of Canadian Homes. W.
A. Sherwood urges with the importance of attention to the effects of "A National Spirit in Art." A beautifully illustrated article by Thos. W. Gibson, on "Algonquin National Park," tells in a charming style much that is not commonly known about the great provincial preserve.
More novel still is the illustrated article by A. H. D. Ross, on his "Canoe Trip to Lake Mistassini and James Bay." J. C.
Hamilton, Al. A., writes in a very interesting way about "Indian Treaties in Ontario and Manitoba." By Thos. E.
Chamption; "Nature's Outlet to the North-West," by Hugh Sutherland; and "Going Out of Town," by Mary Temple Bayard. Two beautiful poems, are D.
McCraig's "In the Shadow of the Church," and James L. Kenway's "Queenston Heights." Wm. Wilfred Campbell's sketch of "General' Bain of Sandy Beach," is intensely amusing. The Canadian Magazine is published by the Ontario Publishing Co., (Ltd.) Toronto.

The Canadian Pilgrimage.

The present Canadian pilgrimage, the second which this country has sent to Rome, after partaking in the National French Pilgrimage to Lourdes, more than half the pilgrims (originally numbering as many as seventy) went to visit the holy places of Rome. Some had already been there before going to Lourdes, others were deterred by fear of the Roman heat and fever and other reasons. A few of the pilgrims stayed at the Canadian College, thanks to the hospitality of the Rector M. Pallin d'Abonville, P. S. S., and the remainder at the Pensions Champan and Lavigne. They spent the whole week in visiting the city, and were then received by the Holy Father. His Holiness was remarkably well, walking about quickly and without assistance, and reciting with a strong voice the prayers which were said aloud. He knelt during a Mass of thanksgiving without any fatigue, and then imparted the Papal blessing in solemn form from the predella of the altar. After this, seated in an armchair, he received each of the pilgrims, thir names and occupations being explained by Canon Racciot, of Montreal, the zealous organizer of the pilgrimage.
When it was explained to the Pope that the attendance would have been more numerous except for the exaggerated opinion of the Roman summer felt by some of the pilgrims, the Holy Father laughed outright. He also spoke with great pleasure of the miracles at Lourdes which supply M. Zola with his latest and most partial refutation. The Canadians were all most gratified with their reception, and expressed their satisfaction in the liveliest terms. The majority were from French Canada, but there was also a considerable number from the English-speaking provinces.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Margaret Shepherd now appears in a new role. She has taken to the stage. This is what the Port Hope Times says of herself and her troupe:

The Margaret L. Shepherd Company appeared before a slim audience in the Opera House here Thursday evening, in "Tried as Fire," the story of Mrs. Shepherd's life.

Some Catholic paper are proposing a Catholic Protective Association, a C. P. A., in opposition to the P. P. A. There is no necessity for such an organization.

It is only the reprobate class that have to resort to such methods of self-protection. They know their deeds are evil, and dread the consequence.

There seem to be on foot many movements towards the establishing and furthering of charitable institutions in Winnipeg.

THE McGEE STATUE.

Our contemporary the Catholic Register, made a suggestion in a recent issue, in favor of a statue in Toronto to the memory of the Hon. Thomas D'Arcy McGege.

That style of argument is dishonest and stupid enough to have been written, for the Tribune, by Dr. Bryce. In fact, there is a "breezy impudence" in it that is only found in the self-satisfied mind of such men.

MR. GOLDWIN SMITH AND THE SCHOOL TAX.

The Winnipeg Tribune had, in its issue of the 4th inst, a long and labored article, in which it tried to explain away the crushing force of the following quotation from a recent letter addressed to it, by Mr. Goldwin Smith, on the school question in Manitoba:

"You may say," he writes, "let the man who conscientiously dissents from our system set up a voluntary school for himself. But then you could hardly justify yourself in compelling him also to pay the school tax."

How does the Tribune meet this manifestly just argument of Goldwin Smith? The quotation is rather long, but the manifest dishonesty of the Tribune justifies us in giving it to our readers. It says:

"The two assertions of fact made in the passage we have quoted are not at all free from question. It is not at all clear that the Roman Catholic disapproves non-sectarian public schools for non-Roman Catholic children, except in the same way that he disapproves our whole fabric of state as not being sanctified by union with 'the church'."

only be the case when, after obtaining food, clothing, etc., they all had the same margin left for education, and that margin the same in amount as the school tax.

That style of argument is dishonest and stupid enough to have been written, for the Tribune, by Dr. Bryce. In fact, there is a "breezy impudence" in it that is only found in the self-satisfied mind of such men.

"It is not at all clear that the Roman Catholic disapproves non-sectarian public schools for non-Roman Catholic children." Pray, what has that to do with the question of taxing Catholics for the support of "non-sectarian (Protestant) schools?"

Religious Panaticism. The Tribune of yesterday publishes a telegram dated from Richmond, Quebec, which we would fain suppose to be a figment of a diseased imagination.

We feel strongly that this is a fitting time to remonstrate with the unreasoning and senseless prejudices that have unhappily divided this province since 1890. Previously to that year, Manitoba was a model to all the other Provinces of the Dominion in its broad and liberal interpretation of the doctrine of Christian charity.

MR. DEVLIN, OR MR. LAURIER, WHICH?

Our esteemed contemporary, the Canadian Freeman, of the 26th September, contains, on its front page, a report of a speech made by the able and eloquent young member for Ottawa county, Mr. C. R. Devlin, on the Manitoba school question, which is somewhat bewildering to us in Manitoba, and leads us to ask which is Mr. Devlin or Mr. Laurier speaking the policy of the Liberals on the school question, or have they one policy for use in Quebec and another for use in Manitoba and Ontario?

"Mr. Laurier if premier to-morrow would have to correct the fatal error of those false Liberals of Manitoba—and if he did not the Province of Quebec which he loves so well would repudiate him. If he did not, we, the Catholic Liberals of Quebec, who follow him and admire him, would desert and repudiate him. And Mr. Laurier knows this."

That is the position of Mr. Laurier. He has nothing to add, nothing to suppress. Gentlemen, I am proud of our great leader, whom Canada acclaims as Canada's future premier.

We do not pretend to say what Mr. Laurier would do to-morrow, should he be premier, "to correct the fatal error of those false Liberals of Manitoba."

would repudiate not only the fatal errors of these false Liberals but that he would repudiate them as well. He came to this province recently and what did he do in the way of repudiation? With regard to the fatal errors of the false Liberals of Manitoba, he was interviewed by a number of Catholic representatives, some of them warm supporters and ardent admirers of the eloquent and able leader of the Liberal party.

Neither did we notice anything which would justify us in saying that he repudiated the false Liberals of Manitoba. In fact we believe that he neither repudiated them nor their errors.

Religious Panaticism. The Tribune of yesterday publishes a telegram dated from Richmond, Quebec, which we would fain suppose to be a figment of a diseased imagination.

We feel strongly that this is a fitting time to remonstrate with the unreasoning and senseless prejudices that have unhappily divided this province since 1890. Previously to that year, Manitoba was a model to all the other Provinces of the Dominion in its broad and liberal interpretation of the doctrine of Christian charity.

The Kamloops Wawa.

The "Kamloops Wawa" is the title of a neat little pamphlet got up in good style. Its purpose is to teach shorthand through the medium of the Chinook language. Its price is but $1 a year, surely very little if it is capable of doing all which is predicted of it.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following is a copy of a letter sent to the Editor of the Calgary Tribune by the Rev. Father Fouquet, O. M. I. and which has been sent us for publication. (Ed. Review.)

Mr. Editor:—While thanking you for your report of the visit of the regality party to the convent here, I beg you would allow me to draw your attention to the visit their Excellencies paid to the Holy Cross Hospital.

In their former visit to this thriving city Lord and Lady Aberdeen had contributed to the erecting of the hospital by the gracious hands of her Ladyship. Their charity for suffering humanity is known in the old and new world, and I would not like it to be thought that Calgary has been an exception to their noble and kind feelings towards suffering humanity.

I have the honor to be, Your obedient servant, L. FOUQUET, O. M. I.

Prayer to St. Joseph.

By Pope Leo XIII. to be Offered During the Month of October.

To thee, O Blessed Joseph, do we fly in our tribulation, and after imploring the help of thy Most Holy Spouse, we ask confidently for thy protection.

Protect, O Most Provident Guardian of the Divine Family, the elect race of Jesus Christ; banish from us, O Most Loving Father, all plague of error and corruption; do thou, our strongest support assist us from the height of Heaven with thy efficacious help in this struggle with the powers of darkness; and, as formerly thou didst rescue the Child Jesus from the greatest danger to his life; so do now defend the Holy Church of God from the treachery of her enemies and from all adversity, and cover each one of us with thy lasting protection, so that, following thy example and supported by thy help, we may be able to live holily, die piously, and obtain eternal happiness in Heaven. Amen.

Clandeboye Bay.

Before writing my notes I must give your readers some idea as to the geographical situation of the place. Have you ever heard of Clandeboye Bay, or have you ever been there? If not let me hasten to say that you will find it on the map of Manitoba.

This particular spot, about which I write, is quite a Catholic settlement and although not yet possessing a church or resident priest, the congregation increases so rapidly that they hope before very long to have both.

Father Chaumont said mass also on Monday morning and then accompanied by the brother—he is taking back to assist him in his labors, resumed his journey. Our first snow fell on the second of this month. Nature spread her white mantle over the earth for the whole day and then removed it to give her sister rain another chance before winter sets in.

THE PREACHER'S TRIAL.

An Interesting Chat With Rev. W. J. Chapin.

In the Strain of Pulpit Labor He has Overdrawn his Health Account—How he met the Crisis and Returned to his Duties With Renewed Health.

From the Springfield Journal. In the pretty village of Chatham, Ill., there lives a Baptist divine whose snow white hair is the one outward sign that he has encroached upon the days beyond the allotted three score years and ten.

"As my present appearance testifies, I was fortunate in the possession of a very vigorous constitution. But as is too often the case, I overestimated my physical resources, and when it was too late learned that I had overdrawn my health account. The crisis came about eighteen years ago. At the time I was preaching the gospel from the pulpit, and I became suddenly so ill that I was compelled to stop before my sermon was finished. It was a bad case of nervous prostration, and for a time my friends and family were greatly exercised over my condition. Complete rest was imperative, and Mrs. Chapin and I planned and took a long trip. My health was sufficiently restored to resume work, but I was not the same man. I felt absolutely worthless physically and mentally. I had so lost control of my muscles that my fingers would involuntarily release their grip upon a pen, and my hand would turn over with absolutely no volition on my part. About two years ago, to intensify matters, I was seized with a severe attack of la grippe. I recovered only partially from it and had frequent returns of that indescribable feeling which accompanies and follows that strange malady. I looked in vain for something to bring relief and finally I read an account of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Something seemed to tell me that they would do me good, and I commenced using them. They gave me additional strength from the start and toned up my system from a condition of almost absolute prostration so that I was able again to resume my duties as a minister. The improvement was simply marvellous, and the credit is due Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mrs. Chapin was present during the conversation and said: 'I don't think Mr. Chapin could ever have resumed his preaching after he had the attack of la grippe had it not been for Pink Pills. They did him so much good that I decided to try their efficacy on myself. I have been troubled for years with what our physician, Dr. Hewitt, called rheumatic paralysis, and since taking the Pink Pills I have been stronger and the pain in my right arm and hand is less acute. We keep the pills in the house all the time, and they do me a great deal of good in the way of toning up my system and strengthening me.'"

Things We Owe to Catholics. Our cathedrals, and the knowledge how to restore those buildings to their pristine splendor when not architecture only, but sculpture and painting also, lavished their wondrous skill upon the houses of God; we may also owe to them, if we will, the devoted hosts of worshippers, who ought to be constantly seen in them, rich and poor, nobles and laborers, indiscriminately mingled together, all touchingly acknowledge a common origin and end.

Our cathedrals, and the knowledge how to restore those buildings to their pristine splendor when not architecture only, but sculpture and painting also, lavished their wondrous skill upon the houses of God; we may also owe to them, if we will, the devoted hosts of worshippers, who ought to be constantly seen in them, rich and poor, nobles and laborers, indiscriminately mingled together, all touchingly acknowledge a common origin and end.

The revival of learning, and in a great degree our grammar schools, and to them we may owe the multitudes of students that ought to be able to flock to them as of old, when Oxford University alone is said to have had its thirty thousand scholars.

Many a noble work of charity that still here and there stud the country over the relics merely of a scheme of benevolence, unrivaled for magnificence and completeness, and to them, again, we may owe the right principles of dealing with the poor—principles which can make a bad system to some extent good, but the absence of which must leave the best system worthless; in a word, we owe or may owe to them, a sympathy with the poor that must exhibit itself in practical efforts for them.

Local Market Report.

We hail with delight our predictions that Manitoba would prove to the world a that she can produce the finest. The produce this year has been unequalled, but for quality is unsurpassed. Following may be taken as average prices for farmers' products:

Vegetables.—Potatoes have sold mostly at 30c per bushel for loads on the market, though a few loads have sold at 25c.

Eggs.—Dealers are now offering 12c for receipts, and selling in case lots at 14 to 15c as to quality.

Butter.—The market is taking on an improved feeling as is usual at this season of the year, though there has not been any important change.

Wood.—Tamarac is held at 4.50 to 4.75 per cord or track here in car lots as to quality. Oak about $3.75 to $4; mixed pine, spruce, etc., can be had at 3.50 to 3.75. Poplar has sold at from $2.50 to $3 on track as to quality; green cut poplar brings the best price, though green cut poplar has been offered at $3.75 per cord. Ash has been offered at $3.75 per cord on track.

Seneca Root.—The market is firm and at about 28 to 30c for round lots to ship.

Hay.—Not much doing, and baled offering at $4.00 to $4.50 per ton at point of shipment.

Do You Advertise?

If not, why don't you? Your competitor does and it pays him. The Review reaches the best people in Winnipeg and vicinity, and reaches more of them than any other publication of its kind. When the body is ill, the physician is sought and restorative tonics administered. The only tonic of a feeble and failing business is advertising. Prescribe it, administer it, and observe the result!

LETTER FROM RUBLEE, RIDDELL & Co'S (BISCUIT MANUFACTURERS) HEAD BAKER.

Winnipeg, Sept. 10th, 1894

Messrs. David J. Dyson & Co. Winnipeg.

Dear Sirs.

I had the pleasure of using your famous White Star Baking Powder while baking those delicious dough-nuts of mine in the Exhibition grounds this year, and state that it gave universal satisfaction, as a large number of ladies enquired how they were made. I attribute the success of them to your powder and would heartily recommend it to those who want to make a success of their baking.

Yours truly,

A CITY paper recently published a semi-sensational column on supposed gambling dens in Winnipeg. It did not give names or definite localities, therefore the public are at liberty to take the whole affair as a hoax—a trick of the highly imaginative reporter.

To the credit of the women of Chicago it should be recorded that they have taken a decided stand against the so-called living pictures. Their sisters in other cities should imitate their example and frown down upon such exhibitions which almost invariably shock the sense of decency.

The crowds that flock to the churches to participate in the October devotions of the Rosary attest how dear to the Catholic heart is this particular piety. It must gladden the Holy Father to observe how loyally his frequent recommendations in his regard are being observed throughout the entire Catholic world.

The daily press is again giving evidence that it takes delight in printing sensational matter concerning the Church and the hierarchy. Of course, no effort is made to ascertain the truth of the statements it publishes; hence, we are constantly furnished with the most ridiculous and absurd paragraphs, which misrepresent the Bishops and the Church. As many of these are paid for by the line, we need not be surprised that they are furnished so frequently.

For the past few weeks there have been on an average seventy-five loads of hay offered for sale on the city market, the number of loads some days amounting to over 100. The large supply has had the effect of reducing the price from $8 a ton, which was paid when the roads were bad, to $4. The price would be still lower were it not for the great quantity purchased by the C. P. R. stock yards to be fed to cattle in transit to Great Britain from the west. The stock yards consume between twenty-five and thirty loads a day.

After Many Days.

Holmfild, Man., Feb. 14, 1890. W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR—For 12 years my wife was a martyr to that dread disease, dyspepsia. Nothing relieved her; physicians were consulted and medical skill tried, without avail. One doctor advised a change of climate, suggesting Manitoba as a desirable place. We acted upon this advice, coming here two years ago. The change of climate wrought a change indeed, but for the worse, as she was soon confined to bed, and under the care of two doctors, who asserted she could live but a month longer. A neighbor came to see her one day who had been reading your almanac. She told her of the testimonials she read in it, of the great amount of good they were doing, and advised her to try a box of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. She did so, was relieved, kept improving, and is now able to do housework, and continues the use of Morse's Pills.

Yours gratefully, GEO. DUNN.

Why Is It.

It is a long time since Margaret L. Shepherd visited Brantford, and sought to arouse the Protestants of this city to the "duty of the hour"—which was mainly that of contributing fifteen cents to hear the precious humber, or to invest a still larger amount in her lying book.

It is a long time since ex-Monk Sullivan or any others of the precious coterie of "converted Romanists" catered to a Brantford audience.

It is a long time since any Brantford preacher, with a Union Jack for a background, sought to awaken the five-sixths of our population to the terrible danger awaiting them from the aggressions of the one-sixth?

It is a long time since we heard any of those blood curdling stories about troops drilling in St. Basil's church, or about another St. Bartholomew's massacre being plotted.

It is a long time since we heard anything about papal denomination in the Province of Ontario, or in the city of Brantford?

It is a long time since we heard anything of Culp, Griffin et al.

Is Protestantism no longer in danger if not, why not?

WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. Keep the Works in good order. W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont. DEAR SIR—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works and what is the result?—at first, only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you a the obstruction grows, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, have been cured with little trouble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve vigor and vitality. Yours faithfully, M. R. McINWIR. The Travellers' Safe-Guard. AMAGANUS FOND, N.S., Jan. 27, '90. W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont. DEAR SIR—For many years, I have been a firm believer in your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills." Not with a blind faith, but a confidence wrought by an actual personal experience of their value and merit. My business is such that I spend much of my time away from home, and I would not consider my travelling outfit complete without a box of Morse's Pills. Yours, &c., M. R. McINWIR. A valuable Article sells well. BRACKENBURY HARBOR, N.S., Jan. 13, '90. W. H. COMSTOCK, Brockville, Ont. DEAR SIR—This is to certify that I deal in Patent Medicines, including various kinds of Pills. I sell these the Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills than all the others combined. Their sales I find are still increasing. Yours, &c., N. L. NICHOLSON.
