BANK MANAGER UNDER ARREST

Acting Head of Commerce Branch at Ayr Accused of Raising Cheque for $17 to $13,017 and of Falsifying Books.

A report reached Toronto last night that Chief McFarlane of the Paris police had arrested John A. Duncan, acting manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Ayr on a charge of falsifying books and documents of the bank.

It is alleged that on Feb. 2, 1907, he raised a voucher for $17.90 to $13,017.90 and wrongfully made entry in the book of the bank to cover the amount.

BANK OF ENGLAND CLERK CAPTURED IN MANITOBA

Winnipeg, March 10.—Chased through sands of miles and having escaped pursuit for nearly seven months, Henry Douglas Anderson, former clerk in the bank of England at Manchester, Eng., was captured last night near Dominion City by Provincial Constable Waddell.

Anderson has been working three weeks for a farmer about twelve miles from the town. When arrested he made no attempt to deny that he was the man wanted. He does refuse to admit the charge of theft on which he will be arraigned when he is taken back to stand trial.

34 LOST IN SHIPWRECKS

Bellin, March 10.—A despatch from Cuxhaven reports the loss of thirty-four lives by the foundering of two vessels—a German cargo steamer, the George Watten, and a trawler—during a heavy gale in the North Sea.

IS CHARLES M. HAYS PARLIAMENT'S ALL-ROUND BOSS?

W. F. Maclean, M.P. for South York, is fighting a single-handed battle in the house of commons. On Friday he continued his demand that the government be held responsible for the enforcement of all federal law and in this instance he gave two specific cases of the non-compliance of the Grand Trunk Railway with the law of the land.

Mr. Maclean first pointed out that by its original charter the Grand Trunk was bound to give to the people between Toronto and Montreal a third-class penny-a-mile passenger service, and he also pointed out that under the Canadian Railway Act the Grand Trunk was bound not to discriminate either as between persons or between localities similarly situated.

Mr. Maclean was entitled to an answer from the minister of justice. Instead, however, of Mr. Aylesworth trying to meet the argument, the member for South York was abusively assailed by a gentleman from British Columbia, to be followed a few moments later by another from that province in the same strain, and then two gentlemen representing farming constituencies on the Grand Trunk east.

Mr. Derbyshire and Mr. Schell, also made similar abusive speeches on behalf of the government. Mr. Schell in his wrath declared that the people of Eastern Ontario did not want the penny-a-mile service, because it meant that they would have to travel in third-class cars like cattle. Mr. Schell, however, loses sight of the fact that the words of the law in England, which gives its people the magnificent third-class system they have to-day are exactly the same as the words in the Grand Trunk law, and the Grand Trunk would be compelled by a judgment of the railway commission (if Mr. Aylesworth enforced it) to give the same class of cars in this country.

THE WORLD'S COMMISSIONERS ARE GOING OUT TO VISIT THESE CONSTITUENCIES TO FIND OUT THE REASON IF THEY CAN.

"GENERAL" STIRS SHINERS TO REPENT

Gives to Three Overflowing Audiences at Massey Hall the Religion Which Has Made the Army a Success.

"GONE OUT INTO THE CROWD"

Why Salvationists Are Winning Where the Church Fails—Premier Whitney Promises Government Assistance.

This is the secret of the success of the Salvation Army. First, a straightforward, honest avowal of our object. We seek the people who are outside the pale of the church. We do not poach on other people's property. We give them our material and our spiritual help. We are after the "chaps" who don't belong to nobody and they know it.

In the second place the success is largely owing to the brave, beautiful and self-sacrificing men and women who are with us. I am assisted by a question if any religious leader in so short a time ever gathered so capable a staff of helpers as I have been blessed with.

General William Booth—the greatest general in the world, Lord Roberts called him—held three great meetings at Massey Hall yesterday. Crowds besieged the doors on each occasion, and the thousands who were unable to obtain admission to the services congregated outside to listen to the singing or to join in with the open air overboard meetings held outside.

Clearly, the secret of the success of the Salvation Army, which the general did not mention in his address, is the general's personality. His wonderful activity—for the general is now in his 78th year. His narrow, slender frame, seemed cut of place with the aged face and patriarchal beard.

ON THE PLATFORM.

At one moment his voice seems piped with age. At the next moment it is leaning at the peak of his voice, with outstretched arms, away out over the pulpit rail, and huris invective or pleads fervently with the intensity of an ancient Hebrew prophet, but while you look the prophet fades away, the glowing eyes commence to blink, the bending body grows erect, and it is a young general with a smiling, boyish face, who is speaking, while the audience laugh, loudly at his playful humor. A personality—a strangely complex, engaging, fascinating, yet always representative to call.

BRITAIN AND RUSSIA MAKE A DEAL TO PROTECT PERSIA

Present Negotiations Expected to Settle All the Differences Between Powers.

London, March 10.—The internal affairs of Persia, according to official information, are far from satisfactory, are being closely watched by the officials of the foreign office.

Great Britain and Russia have already agreed on the steps to be taken by them. Great Britain anticipates that, should the condition of the country reach a critical stage, the shah, who frequently called on Russia, before he ascended the throne for financial assistance and sought the advice of the representatives of that country in other emergencies, will ask for Russia's help to restore order.

The Russian government could comply with the request with the full knowledge that no obligation would be made by Great Britain. Russia may even offer assistance without the invitation of the shah, or offer which Great Britain would advise the Persian ruler to accept.

Great Britain would do her part in sending warships to the Persian coast, but she would not go further unless the landing of a force became necessary to protect foreigners in Persia, which by agreement would be recognized as Great Britain's sphere of influence.

This condition is a result of negotiations that have been going on for twelve months for the settlement of all outstanding differences between the two powers, which continue to progress satisfactorily, and which shortly may be brought to a successful close.

This better understanding between Russia and Great Britain has made smoother the negotiations between Russia and Japan.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS HAMILTON DENOUNCED BY PREACHERS FOR GAMBLING

Nearly All the Ministers of the City Place the Blame and Offer Remedies for Evil.

Hamilton, March 10.—(Special.)—A sensation was started Saturday night by the finding of a skull behind a woman's arm in a parcel containing a store on East King-street. The authorities think they were discarded by some doctor.

Nearly all the ministers in the city preached about gambling to-day. The Rev. Beverley Kechee, pastor of the Macdonald-street Presbyterian Church, said gambling, from the stock exchange to the church bazaar, was pernicious. It was an abnormal taste for excitement and achievement of conscience and it was stigmatized at its prevalence in Hamilton.

He had been told repeatedly that Hamilton bore the worst reputation of any city in Eastern Canada. The man who stole money by gambling was not much worse than a felon. A man who stole a car or a diamond ring was not sent to jail, but to the senate.

Centenary Church, the Rev. Richard Whiting, preached against the worship of luck. He said there was such a thing as luck or chance, but there was such a small element of it that it could not be counted.

The Rev. C. M. Marshall, pastor of the Simcoe-street Methodist Church, divided the responsibility for the prevalence of gambling among the parents, police commissioners and the city government.

S. M. Russell Dies Suddenly. Stephen M. Russell, an employe of the Meridian Britannia Co. for over a quarter of a century, died suddenly to-day. He worked until yesterday at noon, and was around the city all Saturday afternoon, Saturday evening, he was taken ill. He was 44 years of age.

Mrs. Sarah Wark, wife of David Wark, police constable, died yesterday, at the age of 74 years.

The lid was on tight again to-day. Except by round-robin methods, no drink or cigars could be bought. American papers were completely shut out.

The close of a week's mission at St. Joseph's Church to-day, Bishop Dowling preached against secret societies and mixed marriages. He said the Roman Catholic who joined a secret society was a renegade and a rebel.

The Rev. T. C. Russell, Allegheny, Pa., preached on "To Hell and Back" in the Grand Opera House this afternoon. The building was not half large enough to hold those who sought admission.

The following officers were elected by the Royal Hamilton Yacht Club, Saturday night: Guy R. Judd, commodore; John Lennox, vice-commodore; George Tuck, head commodore; C. Marston, secretary; S. V. H. treasurer; management committee, G. O. Dexter, R. A. Milne, George W. Raw, R. A. Turner and Thomas Dpton.

Grenadiers Lose Ball Game. The officers of the 13th Regiment Grenadiers, Toronto, played a game of indoor baseball Saturday night, the locals winning by 43 to 5. The officers of the 48th Highlanders were also present.

Ninety-first Officers: Evesl p, Millen c, Colquhoun lb, Bruce 3b, R. McLeod 2b, Price rs, R. Moodie 3b, J. Moodie ss, Morrison lf, Bell rf.

James McParlane, chief engineer at the Beach pump house, and James Bain, his assistant, have had a spat and the fire and water committee will have to straighten it out.

John Smith and Archie McIntyre, two members of the local fire department, are applying for the post of chief of the Woodstock fire department. The Brantford and Hamilton Railway, which is bound under its agreement with the city to be in operation by July 1, has asked the city council to pass a bylaw allowing it to start work laying tracks on Main and Hess-streets on May 1.

The Wentworth Conservatives of Wentworth County held a successful convention Saturday afternoon in the Hamilton Conservatory Club. George Fowler, M.P., who was advertised as one of the speakers, did not turn up.

Those who spoke were: Joseph Downey, M.L.A.; R. R. Gagey, M.L.A.; Hon. J. S. Hendrie, E. D. Smith and W. Cockshaw, M.P., Brantford. John Miller was elected president, and R. L. Lewis, secretary-treasurer, of the association.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

SERIAL STORY.

Among the various books that have gained a widespread popularity during the present season, "Buchanan's Wife" ranks among the first. The author, Justus Miles Forman, has contributed much to the better class of fiction, but in this latest work he has given the public his best effort. The World has secured the serial rights, and on Wednesday will print the first instalment of this striking novel. "Buchanan's Wife" is the story of a woman who, despite all obstacles, dared to win for herself the love and happiness that were denied her by cruel and relentless circumstances. It is a story that fills the reader with an all-absorbing interest from the first page to the unexpected and dramatic climax. Admired of fiction can hardly conceive of a more dramatic tale.

idealized and so sacred that we cringe in fear and trembling before any threatened danger to this most important of all social institutions. Statesmen and philosophers continually lay stress upon the intimate relationship of the family and the state, until to emphasize any tendency in the family ideal is to raise a whole force of militant defenders in behalf of the state. Let divorce or suicide be discussed, and a great and cry is heard, in the name and for the sake of the broader institution, the state.

THE INTERDEPENDENCE OF THE FAMILY AND THE STATE.

Behold! the family has become so

Some of the prettiest of the new jackets are simple enough to be made at home, and one which will please the particular woman is shown. The back is quite plain without seam or fulness, while the front has a few plaits at the belt. A trim little vest of another fabric gives a smart touch and renders it more becoming. The neck is finished with a strap instead of the troublesome collar, and the waist shows a narrow belt and peplum. The trimming straps may be of velvet, or the material stitched, and besides these no elaboration is needed. For the medium size 2 1/2 yards of 44-inch goods are necessary.

ate the atmosphere of the state, with a result as beneficial as in the case of the family. Nature first pointed out the way for the preservation of the family, and that this is largely due to the efforts of woman is generally admitted.

It is also granted that this success arises not more from her natural, physical position than from exceptional moral and mental fitness in dealing with humanity as associated in the family. Nature first pointed out the way, and history (that branch which deals with the oldest human institution—the family) corroborates the fact that, in the two sexes, woman is best fitted to control human affairs.

That she has always acted so successfully as mentor for all men and women, from babyhood to adolescence, is an illogical reason why her influence should be suddenly curtailed in the world of civil law, that is to say, with the control of these same human beings. Her law is supreme for a short time, but it is formative and most difficult to change. It is the law of the state, and she has grown thru her efforts, to the level where, with fair responsibility, she is best fitted to control the state, then he perceptibly discards this feminine influence that heretofore has stood him in such good stead. Heretofore is in vain.

Even those of diametrically opposed views as to woman's position agree as to her pre-eminence in the family. It is conceded that, in regard to domestic life, the woman is the most important individual member.

Now if the family is the prototype of the state, wherein is the consistency in the state's dispensing with woman control, when it is so indispensable in the family? The state is a whole, and grows large; the family is but a miniature state. All the human needs, desires and aspirations of the family, every phase of human nature is in process of development in the family. The state continually looks back to the family for guidance as to how best to control its citizens for their own good.

Good to Eat and Healthful

Some food is good to eat but not healthful. Other food is healthful but not good to eat. Malta-Vita, the perfect malted whole-wheat food, is both healthful and good to eat. It contains every food element necessary to the sustenance and good health of the human body.

"For many years my husband suffered from indigestion and extreme nervousness. Recently I bought our first package of Malta-Vita. My husband is now in perfect health. He eats but little meat and pastry and says Malta-Vita takes the place of both."—Mrs. Helen E. Kock, 1111 Valley C. Road, Hill.

JOHN CATTO & SON CONTINUE THEIR Spring Opening Display OF CHOICE DRY GOODS

Millinery The importations of famous models along with our own productions in headwear this season combine to form a very smart display. Our arrangements insure our customers against the over-production of any one model.

Dress Fabrics Every dress is adding to our stock of select fabrics. In many instances we import only one or two costume lengths of a kind, and in that way we confine the duplication of costume, protecting our patrons against the commonplace. The season's fashionable fabrics comprise silk velvets, chiffon velvets, black and white stripes and check volleys, voilettes, fine woads, fancy serges, fine tweeds and many mixtures of silk and wool, all well represented in our stock.

Black, Black and White and Grey Fabrics Of these we have an unparalleled assortment, as we anticipated the present rush for these shades. Never had we a more splendid stock, and we feel perfectly certain we can suit you, whatever your fancy.

Cloaks, Ready Costumes, &c. Our stock of Cloaks, Costumes, etc., is this season in fine keeping with the established reputation we have for this class of goods. Our advice to all who want a cloak or suit is to come early, while the selection is still so good.

Washable Dress Fabrics The season's novelty in this department is COTTON WOLLE. This is particularly adaptable for summer dresses. The patterns and colorings in these are wonderfully artistic and pretty. The prices range: 12-1/2, 20c, 35c, 50c, 55c per yard.

"LAURIER SHOULD GO TO COLONIAL CONFERENCE"

La Presse Doesn't Think Canada Has Interest at Stake and Wants Premier at Home.

Montreal, March 10.—(Special.)—Discussing the conference La Presse says: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier has made arrangements to sail from Canada about April 15 to attend the inter-colonial deliberations, which should commence on the 15th of the month. It is not certain that the session of the federal parliament can be terminated before the date fixed by the prime minister for his departure, and that of his colleagues, who will accompany him to London."

"Some of the opinion seem disposed to level their batteries at the moment when the head of the government is to leave our shores. From the party point of view the tactics are not to be blamed, but from the point of view of the interests of the country, it is not necessary that Sir Wilfrid Laurier should go to England. He is setting out for this inter-colonial conference on the invitation of the British government, Australia, Cape Colony, Natal and other English colonies have not only granted the invitation of His Majesty to take part in the conference, but they have also suggested certain questions which should be discussed among the representatives of all the British possessions. "Canada, alone, has not manifested its intention to bring up any proposition, but to maintain a statu quo position as far as Canada's relations with Great Britain are concerned. The policy of the Canadian government may be summed up in this phrase: 'Let well alone.' Canada has no immediate interest in the conference which meets next month. "In this case, why should Sir Wilfrid Laurier be asked to attend the inter-colonial deliberations in a street railway accident in this city about a year ago and never fully recovered from the shock. She was a young lady of brilliant attainments and at Markham High School and Toronto University had won marked honors. Mr. and Mrs. Tuckett, together with a son and daughter, are absent in Jamaica, while they are on their trip shortly before the earthquake. Cable had been sent the parents, notifying them of the serious illness of their daughter, and the funeral arrangements will not be completed until their arrival, which is expected within a day or two.

Glass Factory Gutted By Fire Loss Estimated at $185,000

Spectacular Blaze in Down-Town Dis'ric Saturday Gives Fire Department a Dangerous Battle—Day in Sending Alarm Doomed Building—Captain Crawford Seriously Injured.

The most destructive fire in a long time totally wrecked the premises of the Toronto Plate Glass Importing Company, 135 to 143 Victoria-street, early Saturday afternoon. The building was of four storeys, going back 117 feet to a lane. The loss is estimated at $185,000, with insurance of $145,000. Falling walls and flying glass were a menace to the firemen and several were more or less hurt. Capt. Wm. Crawford of Hose 4, Berkeley-street, had his collar-bone broken. He was struck by a ladder, which was thrown over by the collapse of a wall. Delay in sending in an alarm doomed the building before the firemen arrived. It is stated that when a boy, an employee of the building, ran to the corner of Queen and Yonge-streets to send in an alarm, a policeman refused to credit that there was a fire and would not let him pull the box. One many says he stood in the lane in rear of the building for over 10 minutes watching the fire spread. He took it for granted that somebody else was calling the fire department.

Any way, when the alarm did arrive on a telephone alarm about 2.15, the building was full of fire and when 5 minutes later the alarm box at St. Michael's Hospital, across the street, was struck, Deputy Chief Noble says that the flames were distinctly visible from Queen and Portland-streets, a mile and a half away, the flames having gotten thru the roof.

Thousands of people out for Saturday afternoon amusement were attracted by the pall of smoke and the billows of flame and seemed to enjoy the two hours of excitement that was furnished. The conflagration was one of the most spectacular for the general public in a long while, for the firemen were within plain view while the full fighting force of the fire department labored heroically with their ladders, aerial trucks and throwing engines. The tumbling walls added the necessary evidence of the danger to satisfy the most fastidious taste. Tenants in nearby buildings had to vacate, and St. Michael's Hospital, at the new six-storey building at Queen and Victoria-streets were for a time in danger of being gutted, but the blaze was promptly quenched.

The loss, as estimated by S. J. Rutherford, manager of the company, is $185,000, divided $40,000 on building, $20,000 on plant and $125,000 on stock. There is an insurance of $145,000 on the company. Mr. Rutherford had not completed an inspection to see whether there would be any salvage in the basement, where a great amount of broken glass was kept, but firemen who made their way thru the ruins said that a large part of it was at least unbroken. Mr. Rutherford, who arrived at the fire about an hour after it started, says the firemen much credit. "They were working heroically," he said. "He could not account for the great headway the fire had got before it was discovered. He said the firm would be able to take care of its customers' orders as usual."

Other Fires. While the big fire was in progress an alarm was received at 140 D'House-street. Three sections responded, one of them from Brock-avenue, a run of over four miles. The loss was $115 to the building and $25 to contents. At 1 o'clock Sunday morning an alarm was turned in from box 318, Arthur and Montrose, but it was only a plasterer's salamander in a new house.

Plumbers Want 45 Cents. The Plumbers', Steam and Gas Fitters' Association have notified the employer, that they will demand an increase in wages this season. At the present time the wages are $7 1/2 an hour, and the demand is for $8 an hour, an increase of 7 1/2 cents.

The communication to the bosses gives them until May 1 to consider the request.

SATURDAY'S BIG FIRE—The Aerial Truck in Action.

Fighting the Flames. Ladders were raised on the front and rear walls, and the firemen did what they could to stem the progress of the flames. Hose was hauled up to the top of the six storey Crown Life Building, which adjoined to the south, and the stand-pipe system in that building was also utilized. Aerial 1 was effectively used as a water tower. The side walls were the first to go. To the north, the portion which enclosed the residences still stands, but out of plumb and dangerous. To the south the bricks, when they collapsed, crashed thru the roof of a two-storey unoccupied building, just after three firemen had gotten out, after clearing down their line. The front wall fell in with the top flat fell in. The rear wall, which was only nine inches thick, gave way about 4.15. It was then that Capt. Crawford got hurt. He was standing in a yard across the street, and was watching the fire. He was struck on the head by a falling brick, and was carried into St. Michael's Hospital, where Dr. King is attending to him. But there are many who will prefer to accompany the slender, old, grey-haired general, who poured out his heart and soul in the strength that "labors more abundant" have left him. As he stood behind the railing, towards his great head, with his hoary mane, dauntless and majestic, crowning a spare and shrunken frame, the masses front and back of the lion were suggested, and the thought was not far off that here was a lion of the tribe of Judah.

Dr. John Noble, in a letter to Mayor Coatsworth, which his worship will receive this morning, draws attention to a subject which is worthy of deep consideration. The letter says: "I have spent to-day (Sunday) nearly three hours telephoning the different city hospitals to see if I could get a consumptive patient in any of them. "St. Michael's acknowledged they have accommodations for four patients but try not to take in any, if possible; are full up now. "Western Hospital have quit taking in any; have none. "What are we physicians to do with our consumptive patients? Have we to leave them at home if they have a home, to cough their lives away and spread disease among relatives, or shall we advise that they be isolated? "This is an awful condition of affairs. And whose fault is it? Certainly not the citizens' fault. They voted $30,000 for the purpose of giving relief to the consumptives of Toronto, but when we went before the municipal committee of the legislature to secure the necessary legislation to enable us to have a consumptive hospital of our own, what happened? Those interested in the Weston Consumptive Hospital appeared before the committee and spoke, they were ashamed to do that—but they hired an able lawyer for them and he made such gross misrepresentations to the committee that our bill was thrown out."

A Sale of Brussels Rugs That Will Interest You

Our Carpet Department did an enormous business last season in high-class Carpets and Rugs, and with good reason, too, as the stock was composed of only the best grade. Naturally at the end of the season there were remnants left over from the different and various qualities. These were collected together and made into rugs, which we will put on sale to-morrow at extremely low prices.

WHAT SIN IS. Anything Contrary to Christ's Laws of Righteousness.

About a year ago the famous Dr. Torrey and his partner of multifarious note, Mr. Alexander, were crowding the Massey Hall. Less has been heard about the results in the interval than at the time. Last night Massey Hall was packed again as a year ago. The floor, the galleries, the orchestra, the boxes, all were overflowing. But there was a vast difference in the people who were present. The difference could be measured to the standard of personality of the two leaders.

Dr. Torrey was a big, portly man, familiar with most men, fond of telling about his country houses and his real estate deals, forceful and urgent in the manner of blind intellectual, laying down the law with parrot-precise formulations of dogma. He did the work he set forth to do and sowed what seed was in him. If he broke of his audience much of it, so much the worse for the birds. There are diversities of gifts, we are comfortingly assured, but the same spirit. There is no need to exclude Dr. Torrey from the company of the faithful.

CANADIAN LUMBERMEN RECEIVED BY ROOSEVELT. Deputy Speaker Marcell Tells Americans There is No Probability of Annexation. Washington, March 10.—(Special.)—Canadian visitors who attended the annual meeting of the National Lumbermen's Association in this city, were received at the White House yesterday by President Roosevelt. They were met by Ambassador Bryce of the British embassy. Referring to the relations between the United States and Canada, Chas. Marcell, Deputy Speaker of the Canadian house of commons, spoke of the cordial relations existing between the United States and Canada, and then proceeded to discuss the annexation movement. "The best of feeling," he said, "will always prevail between the two countries, but I see no probability of annexation in the near future, or, indeed, at all." He regarded tariff relations on the trust, as asserted in a part of the whole as satisfactory to both people, and denied the existence of a lumber press on this side of the line.

MINING ISSUES WEAK WITH OTHER MARKETS

Cobalt Stocks Reflect to a Greater Degree the Decline in General Securities.

The mining market has more seriously reflected the conditions existing in the regular stock exchanges this week than it has done at any time since the beginning of the year. Considering the enormous reactions which have occurred in ordinary securities, the mining shares have held exceptionally well and the liquidation during the week is generally believed to have come from those who have taken their mining stocks as a last resort to protect their speculative transactions which have occurred. They have bought in prices there has come the usual falling off in transactions. There is very little new buying, and the offerings come, therefore, on a very weak market. That prices have not shown a greater reduction than they have is somewhat of a surprise to many of those who are close to the market. Many of the current week's buyers may be classed as investment hunters. They have bought on the expectation that when things have steadied and a more sane opinion is expressed regarding investment in mining stocks, a good recovery will be forthcoming for Cobalt stocks. The only issue during the week which has shown any determination to work against the trend of the market has been Peterson Lake. This stock has advanced considerably over the price of a week ago and has maintained a strong position against the general weakness. The reason assigned for this is that the controlling interest in the property has been passed to American interests at a much higher figure than that which is now ruling for the stock. The shipment of a most buoyant nature, the market being more cheerful than any weakness in other matters is reached in financial matters it is impossible to express any optimism in mining securities generally.

GOOD GOLD VALUES.

Obtained From Country Rock at Larder Lake Mine.

New evidence is being added almost daily to substantiate the belief that Larder Lake will prove to be as valuable a gold deposit as Cobalt is in silver. Considerable mistrust of the statements emanating from the Larder Lake district evidently exist, but this is no greater proof that the "goode" are not going to be uncertain there, than the same kind of mistrust proved correct in regard to the Cobalt camp.

The World on Saturday was shown good bullion of the value of about $10,000 received from the Kingston School of Mining, which had been recovered from 1500 lbs. of ore from the Harris-Maxwell claim at Larder Lake. W. H. Wakefield of Toronto Junction, who is interested in this property, secured the ore a few weeks ago, and has since then been working it. Mr. Wakefield, "and our dynamite was not able to be used, so we just gathered up pieces of the rock and tested them. It is biased and which was by no means an example of the vein ore, but mostly country rock which forms the bulk of the property. We are surprised with the assay return and are now convinced that our property is a highly valuable one and will show up richer than most of the mines of the South African field."

The assay, as returned on the basis of one of 2000 pounds, was as follows:

Gold, 420 oz. at $200	$84,000
Silver, 588 oz. at 70c	$41,160
	$125,160

The average of ten check assays of the same ore is returned:

Gold, 440 oz. at $200	$88,000
Silver, 50, at 70c	$35,000
	$123,000

Appended to the assay is the following communication: "From an enclosed report you can see that you are in a fine mining nature, that is the gold can be readily recovered by amalgamation. The small amount of concentrates might be shipped to a smelter or treated at the mill for the recovery of the copper by some process, such as cyaniding. We are forwarding you by registered letter the bullion recovered from the 1500 lbs. of rock, and the treasurer of the property."

Says the New President of the Nipissing Co.

Boston, March 9.—Samuel Newhouse says for Europe today. He made the following statement to the Boston News Bureau: "When I assumed charge of operations on the Nipissing property I found that the methods employed were different from those on any other mine that I had ever seen, and entirely untried. The engineers had yielded to the temptation of following the vein downward from the surface, an expensive and unproductive method, whereas now shafts are being sunk which are the prospects appear good and the vein is being followed upward. By this system time and money are saved and the vein can be obtained as to the amount of the new shaft. Operations are now being conducted along the proper lines and I may say that practically all of the properties in the Cobalt district are sadly in need of thorough, systematic and miner-like development."

"Up to the present time only about 30 or 40 acres have been explored, but as soon as the snow melts we will thoroughly examine about 400 or 500 acres and good results are sure to follow. Prospects for the Nipissing are better than ever before."

"As to the next dividend, that depends upon the directors and I cannot say what will be done. But I think that while it was proper to declare a 3 per cent. quarterly dividend, and probably occasioned by over-enthusiasm."

Mr. Newhouse says the company now has $150,000 cash on hand and about $400,000 of ore in transit.

On the Gillies Limit.

Twenty-five men are at work on the government mines on the Gillies limit near the shore of the lake. A new plant, with the necessary compressors and machinery, has been installed. While the ore is sitting up no shipments will be made until the branch line of the T. & N. O. Railway is built. The spur will run within 25 yards of the main shaft.

BRITAIN NOT TO REDUCE NAVY

First Lord of Admiralty Denies Peace Conference Rumors.

London, March 10.—The first lord of the admiralty, Baron Tweedmouth, in a speech at Oxford last night, referred to the fact that the government was receiving considerable obloquy from untruthful statements regarding its action in the matter of The Hague peace conference.

The government, he said, did not intend to weaken its naval power, believing the British fleet must be kept sufficient for its purposes, whatever the cost.

"We should go to The Hague," he said, "fully desirous of reduction, and if the other powers do not meet us, they must take the responsibility."

Guard Killed and Russian Treasurer Robbed in Streets.

Kutais, Transcaucasus, March 10.—Three bombs were thrown at the treasurer of the local revenue, two policemen and several local officers, while they were driving through the streets with 1500 on Friday.

This attack was followed by a volley of revolver shots. The policemen, the driver of the carriage and one of the officials were killed and the treasurer and four other officials wounded.

The robbers seized the money and escaped.

GREAT FUTURE FOR IT.

There is apparently every prospect of a rosy future for the Canadian Pottery and Glass Gazette, a new monthly publication, which has just issued its first issue. Six thousand copies of the Gazette have been sent out during the past week, and if the expressions of appreciation from the publishers claim to have received are to be taken as a criterion, success of the new venture is assured. The Gazette is very nicely clothed in a most artistic cover, and the fifty pages inside it are a credit to the mechanical experts who have put it together, while the advertisements are well displayed and the reading matter and illustrations lack any element of dullness. The managing director is Sir Thomas Pottery and Glass Gazette, a well-known name in the pottery and glass industry in Canada. It is the only journal covering the field that needs it, and the promise is made that each succeeding number will be better and brighter than its predecessor.

WORKERS MAY NOT STRIKE.

The brewery workers' difficulty will probably be settled by the committee of the union met with the association Saturday with a promise that the employees be allowed an increase of $1 a week for the first year and $1.50 for the next two years. They were offered an increase of $1 a week to hold good for three years, and given from Saturday until after meeting Tuesday night to accept or reject the proposition.

The Brewers' Association gave out the opinion Saturday night that this proposal would meet with the approval of the union.

Monitors Meet To-Night.

The Iron Monitors' Union will meet to-night to arrange a new agreement with the employers. It is understood they will demand $3.50 per day.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

NEW SCHOOL SECTION MAY BE ESTABLISHED

Meeting Will Be Held to Decide Presbyterians Get Room for Mission.

Toronto Junction, March 10.—The property committee of the school board held a meeting on Saturday night. They recommended that a telephone be installed in the superintendent's office in Ametie street school and also one in the house of the secretary. Of the latter one they expect the high school board to pay half the expense. There were also a number of small accounts recommended to be paid.

Sunday night, between 9 and 9:30, two young men were noticed appropriating goods that are displayed by merchants outside of their places. The attention of the police was called to the matter, but the men escaped.

The Mill of the Artesian Water Company will come up before a private bills committee on Tuesday morning next. The passage of this bill will be of great importance to the citizens of Toronto Junction, as it will mean a plentiful supply of fine-class water. The town council and the board of health and a large deputation of citizens are to wait on the committee and urge the necessity to the town of having the bill passed.

Mr. Atledge led the choir in the Victoria Presbyterian Church for the last time tonight. J. Hill, former leader of the choir of the Ametie street Methodist Church, will be his successor.

There are three municipal meetings to be held on Monday evening in the town hall, the executive committee of the town council, the collegiate institute board and the management committee of the high school board.

A meeting was held in the school house on the corner of Elizabeth and London streets in S.S. 22 for the purpose of considering the advisability of a new section of the school for the purpose of holding division services on Sundays. About 35 ratepayers were present. It was decided by a unanimous vote that the request of the mission be granted, they will be held in the school house on the corner of Elizabeth and London streets on the second Sunday of each month. A. Gilchrist occupied the chair and explained that a meeting would be held on the evening of March 20 for the purpose of considering separating that part of the school section bounded by Elizabeth street, Clair-avenue on the north and Ametie street on the south, and a portion of the east side of the school section, to take in part of the Humber River and Jane street, which is now situated in the district of Etobicoke for school purposes.

A still alarm was given in S.S. 22 Saturday from 28 Robin-avenue, occupied by A. Harcourt, but the services of the department were not required. A spark from the stove dropped into a dust pan, which was smoldering until it caused a lot of smoke. No damage.

Andrew Irvine of Dundas street is selling his property with some furniture. Trustee Hall has been closed at home for some days past with acute indigestion. The Selkirk Street Railway have been for the past two days working clearing up the buried tracks with a view of running cars on the line to save their franchise.

North Toronto.—The public school board have issued printed rules and regulations governing hours of study and recess. Fourteen clauses are devoted to the duties of teachers and five to pupils. The latter clauses stipulate that no pupil shall be kept at school for punishment, study, or any other school purpose, during the recess, that all pupils shall be allowed the full time for recess, namely, 12 noon to 1:30 p.m., and that no pupil shall be kept in school later than 4 p.m. The full time for recess shall be 15 minutes.

Miss Cowling, teacher of senior second class of the Eglington Public School has declined the request of the trustees to teach the junior fourth grade and substitute classes, rendered vacant by the resignation of Miss Trench, and a teacher for the latter room is being advertised in the Standard. Some of the side streets are in an impassable condition since the snow is melting. The Corporation has sent out men working opening up the ditches on Yonge street, draining them into the street, without any consideration whether the water will run off or not. Some side streets are veritable lakes. There are many of these streets in unparliamentary language in describing the board of works and the staff of officials.

Arthur Bentle, who has been caretaker for many years of the Eglington school, feels that his age is telling on his physical condition, and at his request he will be relieved of his duties at the end of this month.

Mimico.—On Thursday evening, the 7th, a number of the Young People's Society of Bonar Presbyterian Church spent their annual winter outing at the residence of Mrs. Crammond, Ingleton-avenue. The evening was spent in various games and amusements, enlivened by patriotic and other songs, till the wee hours of the morning. When a flashlight "hour of the party" and they returned to the city, a happy, joyous, and successful party.

diastrial School, is recovering from a serious illness.

ARCHIE ROOSEVELT RECOVERING

"GENERAL" STIRS SINNERS

Continued From Page 1. autocratic personality, is that of General Booth. "The general is at his best among his own people," said the speaker. "It is a stimulus to his spirit to hear plenty of brass band and to have every prayer punctuated at each breathing spot by a loud chorus of 'Amens' and 'Hallelujahs.' " "Bless the general!" shouted out Lt. Col. Fagnino, three times over in his prayer at the morning service. The general Booth said, after the speaker had ceased, that he had never had to complain of a cold reception from a Toronto audience, nor of a death of converts after his previous services.

Then he settled down to business. Taking his text from the passage in Isaiah, "He shall see of the travail of his soul, and be satisfied," he said there was no question but that it referred to the satisfaction Christ had when He sees the result of His tortures, and agony, and torment, and passion, which He endured in order to save mankind when he was on earth. "Christ shall say to His Father, 'The price was heavy, but the result was worth the awful cost.' Other great heroes and martyrs have felt like that. I have felt like that myself in my 60 odd years of battle for my Lord, but to-day I would say, I would not have suffered one sorrow less, or have shed one tear less, or had to fight one difficulty less in my life's warfare. "In the first place, the season of Jesus Christ is intended to bring satisfaction to the hearts of those who practice it. It must be calculated to give satisfaction. "Jesus, 2000 years ago, stood looking humanity in the face, saying 'Come unto Me, all ye that are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest.' This satisfaction of soul is a very common experience among the people of God. It seems to me that instead of satisfaction most people carry a very heavy burden that it doesn't come up to what they had expected. They often find the remedy does not equal the disease. "The People's Religion. "The general told of the old traveling penny shows he used to see as a boy, with the wonderful outside canvases depicting the wonders to be seen within, but after they had paid their pennies to go inside, he said, they would come out saying, 'Well, it looks a lot better from the outside than from within.' He brought more power to them, if it brought more satisfaction to them, they wouldn't want to go in and go in for backsliding. Why was this? Simply because they didn't get the real thing. They only had an imitation of it. "If you only become wise men and women, you won't let the devil fool you any longer," said the speaker. "In the first place people look for a religion of knowledge. A man who I met dying of a disease doesn't care about his disease, he wants to have a remedy applied. "If I'm not enough to know about your Bible, and Jesus, and God and the Spirit, and the Atonement, you want to apply your knowledge. Many people content themselves with the things they go to church. They give to missions. They call themselves Christians. They study lots of things about religion, but all they can say is they hope they are saved. They don't have any assurance of satisfaction. That seems to me like fishing and catching no fish, eating and getting no nourishment, going everywhere yet finding no amusement. They're preaching of hell, not of heaven. "If a man has the religion of God in his heart, it will be a fire in his bones and he can't conceal it. It will break out and burst into flame. "The general went on to say that after-meetings, people say when they are asked if they are saved: 'I am a member of this or that church.' Why don't they answer 'Yes' or 'No'?" "Where am I? That is what we want to know. If death strikes me before I leave the Massey Hall, will the angels carry me on their white wings to the realms of glory, or will the fiends drag me down to hell?" "Atheism and Uncertainty. "The old atheism which was alive in my boyhood was not so dangerous as the uncertainty of the people of to-day. "People are not sure whether there is a God, or a heaven, or whether they are in a clean heart, or not. They have from first to last a religion of wobble, wobble and lack of satisfaction. Others don't have a religion at all. They say of this and that, 'I ought, I ought, I ought,' but they often fail to do the things they ought to do. "There is more satisfaction in the heart of the penitent soul that comes to the mercy seat than in all the shambles boys the earth can give. "They told me of a woman who came to the penitent form for the forty-fifth time, and I said, 'I'd welcome her if I were the three hundred and forty-fifth time.' "The Religion That Satisfies. "We have a religion that can satisfy that can give joy, that can give certainty, right within and right without, right in the time. "Right with God. He is reconciled to me thru Jesus Christ. "God has made me good. Have you that assurance? Can you say: 'I'm sure I'm sure, I'm sure, I have a satisfying religion?' "You'll have to embrace His services. That is the sort of contract I made with God sixty-two years ago and piece ago. You'll have to proclaim your religion. That's what you have to do if you want a satisfactory religion. My strength and time will not permit me to go further. You can do the rest. "Come down to the penitent form and get the religion of satisfaction, fulness and glory. "Now, you backsliders, now you runners, now you renegades, here's your chance to run back into the service of King Jesus. I'm expecting a harvest of souls this morning! Who'll be the first?" "After a period of silent prayer, during which the general exhorted the

Dr. Kilpatrick offered prayer and asked the blessing of the Almighty on the work of the Army throughout the world. Lieutenant Governor Clark briefly introduced the general. He believed there were thousands who to-day gave God thanks that they had heard the sound of the Salvation Army drum. The work of the Army had been an unparalleled success, its officers and members were now received everywhere with open arms, which was a great contrast to the way they were treated only a few years ago. The general was proud to be present to honor General Booth, and he considered it the greatest honor of his life to be permitted to stand side by side with a man who had done such noble and unselfish work for the benefit of fallen humanity. "The Army's Success. "The general received a tremendous ovation every time he spoke. He said he deeply appreciated the cordiality of his reception, and hoped to make clear the secret of the success of the Army.
