When the war started his business suffered greatly, and he abandoned it, so that he might devote himself to the service of his Fatherland.

Russians Fight The Germans to Standstill

Still Have Difficult Task Ahead After Crossing Bzura—Another Attempt on Warsaw—Women Fight in Trenches

London, Feb. 9.—The Daily Mail's correspondent in Petrograd telegraphs:— "The Russians have fought the Germans to a standstill but their force, which crossed the Bzura has a difficult task before it. The German second line defenses in this quarter are of immense strength. The Kaiser's arrival in Poland suggests that the Germans intend to make a final attempt to capture Warsaw in his honor."

The Times' correspondent in Petrograd says:— "It is thought in authoritative circles that the fresh fall on the Bzura may be due to the withdrawal of a part of the German troops from the Bzura and the Rawka in order to reinforce the Carpathians. The retirement of Russian sections in Bukovina is not regarded here as an indication of failure, but rather as a manoeuvre directed by a desire to occupy a more advantageous position—for instance to fall back to the plains in order to facilitate the deployment of the Russians. During the operations in the mountain regions it often happens that positions adapted for artillery are unsuitable for the assumption of an active movement."

WOMEN FIGHT IN GERMAN TRENCHES. Petrograd, Feb. 9.—The engagements are growing in intensity at the two extremities of the eastern battlefield in East Prussia as well as in the Carpathians, according to information reaching Petrograd today.

The fighting line from the province of Plock in Russian Poland, as far north as Tilsit, in East Prussia, is virtually continuous. The Germans today apparently are taking the offensive from Gumbinnen and the Masurian Lakes, as far south as Lippa, in Poland, on the right bank of the Vistula.

Petrograd, Feb. 9.—German losses in the battle of Borzhom are estimated at 27,000 men. Of these at least 15,000 were killed. The Germans attempted to cut their way through the Russian lines to approach Warsaw.

Appointments. Major Markham today received from Halifax officers notification of the appointment of the officers who will compose the staff of his squadron from the 26th Battalion of the Royal Canadian Mounted Rifles.

Today's Drill. The old burial ground and King street east were the scene of military activity today when several detachments from the 26th Battalion of the Royal Canadian Mounted Rifles, instructions also came in attack and other manoeuvres.

For the Infantry. While orders were received today to proceed with the recruiting of the 6th Mounted Rifles, instructions also came to recruit for the infantry battalion to be raised under Lieut. Col. Kirkpatrick of Woodstock as a part of the third expeditionary force.

WANT OUR WOOD-ASH
Springfield, Mass., Feb. 5, 1915.
Editor Times-Star, St. John, New Brunswick.
Sir—There is a great demand in the New England and Middle States for wood-ash from Canada—both unbleached and bleached ashes. This demand is unprecedentedly great at the present time owing to the embargo just placed by Germany upon her exports of potash salts. This means that the United States will have to use every ton of wood-ashes that Canada can spare. In former years, New England and York State imported vast quantities of wood-ash from Canada. If any of your people have that commodity to spare

WANT OUR WOOD-ASH
Springfield, Mass., Feb. 5, 1915.
Editor Times-Star, St. John, New Brunswick.
Sir—There is a great demand in the New England and Middle States for wood-ash from Canada—both unbleached and bleached ashes. This demand is unprecedentedly great at the present time owing to the embargo just placed by Germany upon her exports of potash salts. This means that the United States will have to use every ton of wood-ashes that Canada can spare. In former years, New England and York State imported vast quantities of wood-ash from Canada. If any of your people have that commodity to spare

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL
Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.
Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors but they could not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARRIE HENLVIG, Plover, Iowa.
Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.
If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.
If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THE WAR NEWS

A despatch from the colonial secretary to the prime minister of Canada gives the following summary of the situation:

"On the western frontier the line has remained stationary for several months. In the eastern theatre of war Germany has met with no greater success, and the Russians everywhere more than hold their own. The great effort essential to the success of Germany has failed, and except for one success in East Prussia, has gained no ground, not a single victory. She has lost two and one-quarter million of her best and bravest soldiers and any fresh effort will now have to be made with greatly inferior and disheartened troops."

The colonial secretary added that Austria could no longer be counted on as a really powerful ally of Germany, and Turkey is of even less account, while the position of the Allies grows steadily stronger on land, and at sea the British navy is supreme. This is a very encouraging summary of the situation, but it must be taken in connection with Sir Wilfrid Laurier's reminder that the Germans are still in Belgium and France, and the statement of the parliamentary secretary of the war office in the British parliament yesterday that "every man will be needed in this great life and death struggle."

Today's reports tell us that the Russians have fought the Germans to a standstill, while in the western area the situation shows no material change. In the region of the Suez Canal the Turks are said to be in retreat.

PARLIAMENT.

A fine spirit of patriotism marked yesterday's proceedings in the parliament of Canada. On behalf of the Liberals Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Dr. Michael Clark declared that the successful prosecution of the war is the one great issue, in the face of which partisanship should be for the time forgotten. Mr. Weichel, who moved the address, told the house that he was of German origin, and that all German-Canadians are proud of their race and of German progress in science, art, music, literature and philosophy.

It is again reported that the relations between Austria and Roumania are severely strained. The new sugar refinery is a large employer of labor, and a very substantial addition to the industries of St. John. Turkish newspapers are telling their readers of the conversion of the Kaiser to the Moslem faith. Even the Turks should be ashamed of him.

Canada has contributed nearly 9 million and three-quarters dollars to the relief of Belgium. This is a splendid showing, but more is required.

Hon. Dr. Beland is unable to take his place in the parliament of Canada at this session, as he is still in Belgium and the German authorities refuse him passports.

The export of lumber from St. John for the month of January to the United Kingdom, Australia and South Africa was more than twice as large as that of January, 1914.

Cables from France show that some more of the Canadian soldiers have arrived there, and it is clear from the despatch from the colonial secretary read in parliament yesterday that all of them will soon be at the front.

The Cologne Gazette says that if there is to be any starvation in Germany the 600,000 prisoners and the people of those parts of Belgium and France occupied by the Germans will be the first to starve. There speaks the spirit of the Hun.

A leading Italian newspaper warns Germany that if any Italian ships are sunk before being boarded and examined there will be trouble. Italy is keeping her soldiers in a state of readiness, and is also taking measures to conserve her food supply.

The president of the Ontario Ploughmen's Association says: "It is nonsense for the farmers of Ontario to increase the area of cultivation, but I claim that most of them would get better results by tilling less land to a more productive end."

The St. John school board has decided to take legal action to compel the city council to pay in full the amount of the board's estimates for this year. The city council took the liberty of reducing the school board's estimates by $10,000, and the latter body claims that such action is illegal and not to be tolerated. The board claims that the only way it could lessen its expenditures would be by cutting the salaries of teachers. The action it has now taken creates a very interesting situation.

ALMOST FAINTED IN THE STREET

In Daily Fear of Death—Until "Fruit-a-lives" Brought Relief

Chatham, Ont., April 8rd, 1913. "Some two years ago I was a great sufferer from indigestion. One day my eye caught a billboard of "Fruit-a-lives" and I said to myself "If Fruit-a-lives will build me up like that, it is good enough for me." I bought some. After taking these wonderful tablets for only three weeks, I found myself wonderfully improved. In a short time longer I cured myself entirely. My case was no light one, either. Gas would often form in my stomach and I was in daily fear that it would get around my heart and kill me. "Fruit-a-lives" is the only remedy for indigestion."

LIGHTER VEIN.

The waiter was correct. A customer, after waiting several minutes for an oxtail soup, called the waiter to him and asked the reason why it was behind.

"The waiter, who was Irish, gently answered:—"Oxtails are always behind, sir."

The soldiers were dining and orders were hastening back and forth with pails of steaming soup. Wolsley stopped one of them and ordered him to restore the list of his pail. The man obeyed promptly and the general said:—"Let me taste it."

"But—" began the orderly. "Let me taste it, I say," exclaimed the general testily.

"Disgraceful!" he exclaimed "for all the world like dishwater!" "That's what it is, sir," replied the orderly, saluting gravely.—Buffalo Commercial.

Mayor Mitchell of New York, at the conference of mayors in Philadelphia, said:—"A city should be conducted as a Scotch household. You know, of course, the kind of Scotch household I mean—the kind where the father, setting off on a fortnight's business trip, says, 'Good-bye, boys, all, and, Kathleen, dinna forget to make kettie Dugald take her glasses off when he's na lookin' at naething.'—Buffalo Commercial.

A correspondent of the London Kelt relates:—"As might be expected, recruiting is not without its humor. A sturdy young recruit was asked by one of the clerks filling in the papers what denomination he belonged to. The question elicited the startling information that he was a grasshopper. 'Good gracious!' exclaimed the clerk, 'what sect is that?' Those who sit in the park on Sundays," replied the recruit."

The moving picture director was having trouble in getting one of the scenes right. The girl was supposed to resist the attempt to kiss her, but the rehearsal was far from satisfactory.

"Think, now," said the director, coaching her, "haven't you ever tried to stop a young man from kissing you?" "No," was the girl's frank reply.

Representative Walter M. Chandler, of New York, tells a story which he heard the other day about a fellow-member, a married man. This gentleman was one night awakened about two o'clock by a nervous wife who shook him vigorously. "Get up, John!" she whispered in a quaking voice. "Get up and get your pistol. There are burglars in the house!"

The member, half awake, caught only the last part of the sentence. "Not much," he grunted indifferently, as he turned over for another beauty sleep. "There may be thieves in the senate, but there are none in the house!"—Washington Star.

THE TRUE POLICY

Sir Douglas Mawson, distinguished Australian scientist and explorer, who is now touring Canada, made a declaration in an address to the members of the Empire Club of Toronto the other day, which is of very timely interest. Speaking with reference to the part being played in the present war by the overseas dominions, he declared that for motherland is proud of her sons, in this hour of need, and that the sons are proud of their opportunity of rendering service to the Empire.

"Regarding sea forces," said Sir Douglas Mawson, "we are proud of our navy. According to the Toronto Globe's report, a member of the Empire Club at this point, interposed with the inquiry, which no doubt was intended to be a jibe, 'What about the Canadian navy?' Sir Douglas Mawson's reply, we imagine was not altogether relished by his interrupter. He said: 'We are one with you in regard to the Imperial confederation, in which all the overseas dominions should have representation, and we believe that the Imperial navy should be augmented by colonial navies, when danger is threatened.'"

"But," he added, "the Empire is composed of autonomous states, complete in themselves, and the control of their own armies and navies develops a greater sense of responsibility and engenders a true national spirit. "Recent events have proved the righteousness of Australia's position," Sir Douglas continued. "Her own navy, including the dreadnought Australia, forced the late Admiral Von Spee to keep his hands off Australian ports. If we had relief or assistance from the Imperial navy we could have only been spared third-rate ships under present or past circumstances, which would have meant that the formidable German navy which was stationed at Kiao-Chiao could have dealt us some serious blows."

"New Zealand's position during the presence of the German fleet in those waters," he went on to say, "was very different from Australia's. That country had made contributions to the Imperial navy and therefore could not protect itself for the time being, and was in a 'blue funk' all the time, because the British ships in those waters were not of the first class. But the Japanese navy rendered very valuable assistance," Sir Douglas Mawson, at a reception tendered to him in the city council chamber of Toronto, also made reference to the navy question. "The Australian fleet has kept the coast of Australia clear of German raiders," said Sir Douglas. "Our navy—for I have lived in Australia most of my life—is a rather new idea, and we are proud of it. We thought at first of sending our money to England, but we decided to build our own navy and have it in our own waters."

LARGE AUDIENCE ENJOYS

ISHMAEL AT OPERA HOUSE

Approbation of Young-Adams Company's Presentation Shown in Hearty Applause and Curtain Calls

The presentation of "Ishmael," a popular story from the pen of Mrs. Southworth, at the Opera House last evening by the Young-Adams Company was witnessed by a large audience, and pleasure was evidenced in hearty applause and frequent curtain calls. The play is in four acts and deals with a novel love theme, the ambitions of a young American girl to ascend the social ladder as opposed to the love she holds for a young collector, who, while in a satisfactory station in life, is unable to fulfll her social aspirations for visions of an aristocratic title fill her mind. H. Wilmut Young played the part of Ishmael and did so in his usual masterly manner, carrying himself gracefully through the part and giving a most pleasing enactment. The part of Claudia was taken by Miss Adams, who, wearing a variety of handsome gowns, was popular throughout, even when the sympathies of the audience might have been directed against her for coquettish behavior. Her father, Mr. Merdin, Mr. Lyon was seen to advantage although he had but little to do. Wm. Loker evoked much laughter through the playing of Walsh, while Mr. Cole, as Vincent, and Miss Stevenson, as his accomplice in a scheme to secure money through marriage, carried the heavier parts well. Mr. Gregory and Miss LeClair also won favor.

PATHÉ WEEKLY NOW WEEKLY

FEATURE AT GEM THEATRE

First Showing Yesterday Received Hearty Approval of Patrons—"The Red Scar of Courage," a War Romance

One of the features in yesterday's program at the Gem Theatre, "The Budget of Weekly Pictorial News," gave immense pleasure to all who saw it, as undoubtedly it is in the highest ranks of the films issued as "news weeklies." The announcement was made that this distinctive feature is to be shown every Monday and Tuesday at the Gem. In the first showing here yesterday was an animated war map, giving scenes right from the heart of the fighting in Europe, and also views of interest elsewhere in connection with the war and with other current events. This picture will be repeated with the other show this evening.

There were two pictures on the other part of the show, a delightful romance of war "The Red Scar of Courage" with its scenes laid in far off Tripoli and based on events surrounding the war in that vicinity. This picture was in two parts and gave hearty satisfaction, while for comedy it would have been difficult to have excelled the work of Billie Hitchcock in a laugh provoker, which provided much amusement. The Gem orchestra added to the attractive programme.

Anyone can make bread with the UNIVERSAL—any flour and yeast, any recipe that will make good bread by the time-worn bread-board way will make much Better Bread with the Universal Bread Maker.

Careful measuring, thorough kneading and good mixing ensure good home-made bread. The UNIVERSAL is simply an easier, quicker, cleaner way of doing the work.

You can make Better Bread in three minutes with the UNIVERSAL than you can in thirty minutes by hand-kneading, and you don't touch the dough with the hand.

MUSICAL ACT AT IMPERIAL IS NOVEL AND ENTICING

"Three Girls" Captivated All—More Than Ordinarily Good Picture Programme

In the ladies of St. John like to see smart evening apparel and the gentlemen of St. John like to see pretty girls and the general public as a whole enjoy good music, all hands should see and hear "Three Girls," who opened their engagement at Imperial Theatre yesterday. It is a pretty, bright and all-together artistic offering. The Imperial's stage staff rose to the occasion with a sumptuous setting of drawing-room style and the lighting effects enhanced the enjoyment of each number. "Three Girls" are talented performers upon the piano, flute, trombone and violin and played solos, duets, rendered vocal numbers and obligations in delightful succession. Their piano trio, concluding with "Tipperary," was a novelty that brought down the house.

In pictures, the Imperial has a number of good things this change, especially Biograph's two-part story of high society, entitled "The Iron Master," an adaptation of Geo. Ohnet's well-known novel. There is the Hearst-Selig Weekly, the "Haards of Helen" and two Latin comedies, the latter introducing an acrobatic comedienne, who elicited much laughter.

"Tomorrow's Famous Players" feature is a novelty, inasmuch as it is a comedy-drama of the sea, entitled "The Spitfire." There are laughs and there are thrills, and when Edward Peple wrote this story, he made the hero the culprit in the theft of a yacht, a heart and a case of jewels. The excitement that is mixed up with fun in this picture, will make it a hit.

Commencing tomorrow morning—Thomas' half price fur sale.

How Many Women Can Remove Hairy Growth

(Beauty Culture)
It is no longer necessary for a woman to visit a beauty specialist to have superfluous hairs removed, for with the aid of a plain delatone paste, she can, in the privacy of her own home, remove even a stubborn growth in a very few minutes. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. This is applied to the hairs and after 2 or 3 minutes removed and the skin washed, when it will be left clear and hairless. Be sure you buy real delatone.

The Last of the Monmouth - German Nine Days Dying on Field, His Own Men Firing on British When They Tried to Save Him - The Little-haired Mother

Last Signal of the Monmouth. A new incident in the last fight of H. M. S. Monmouth, sunk by the German cruisers in the action of Coronel, is related by one of the crew of the Glasgow in a letter received at Newport, Isle of Wight. That was the end of the Good Hope and it did not make things very cheerful for our two remaining ships. After about one and a half hours fighting the Monmouth caught fire, too, but fortunately got it under. She was badly damaged. We also had several holes below the water line, one funnel smashed and several men wounded. Shortly after the Monmouth hailed off and we followed. The Monmouth then reported: "Am making water badly forward. Engines disabled and a sinking condition, but am making toward the enemy to try and torpedo her."

Once More From New Brunswick

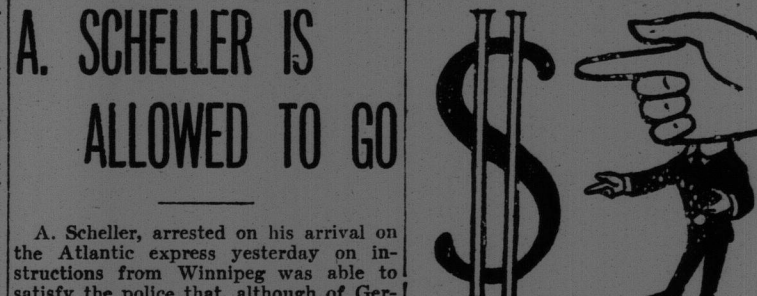

COMES A TRIBUTE TO DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS. William Nash, Well-known Farmer, Tells How They Cured Him After Two Years' Suffering. Marchbank, Kings Co., N. B., Feb. 8 (Special). -After two years' suffering from kidney disease, William Nash, a well-known farmer here, is a well man, and like many another in this neighborhood, he is shouting the praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills. "My trouble started from a strain," Mr. Nash says, "and for two years it gradually grew worse. My appetite was ruined, I had dark circles around my eyes and my skin had a harsh, dry feeling and itched and burned at night. I was troubled with headaches, cramps in the muscles and stiffness of the joints. Rheumatism finally developed and I was a sick man generally. When I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, they helped me almost from the start, and two boxes cured me." Dodd's Kidney Pills simply cure sick kidneys. They cured Mr. Nash because every one of his ailments is a symptom of kidney disease. Anybody who has any two of these symptoms needs a kidney remedy, and the greatest of all kidney remedies is Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Little Gray-haired Mother

There, right in the middle of the hotel vestibule, the little gray-haired, dark-eyed woman sat. Another cart took her to the trench ten miles away to sea. And she had escaped from Brussels to come to them. "I learned how. She had walked on foot to Vilvorde, half-way to Malines, and thence had ridden in a farmer's cart to Antwerp. Another cart took her from Antwerp to Eschen on the Dutch frontier, and a handful of cigars (sublime resource for a woman) got her past the German sentry on the frontier: "And once I was past and within reach of the Dutch sentry a woman got her past that could not help it" (she says). "I had to shout 'Vive la Belgique' I was so pleased." From Hinder to Entsch, from England to Dieppe, this sturdy little mother travelled and thence on to the town near where her sons are fighting. "What prompted the journey?" I asked. "Were the Germans rough to you in Brussels?" "Oh, no, nothing of that at all. They were on their best behavior. But I felt I had to come. You see, one of my sons is so liable to rheumatism!" A Drama of the Trenches. Thrilling experiences are related by Corporal Bain of the 2nd Scots Guards, who has returned with a shrapnel wound in his right leg and a bayonet wound in his neck, which he received at Ypres. Bain says the shelling there took her before the Prussian Guards made their final effort was something damnable. It was then he got hit on the leg. A chum took out a bit of metal, cleaned the wound with a bandage, and then bound it up. The whole operation was completed in three or four minutes. There was need for haste. Hoarse shouts about three hundred yards ahead told them "the Kaiser's last hope" were coming on again, and coming fast. They were met by a storm of bullets, but so numerous and determined were they that it was only at the trench itself the wave was broken. They roared and shot and stabbed like demons, our men roared and shot and stabbed in reply. In and out of the trench the bloody work went on. Men fell fast, and in the darkness it was difficult - in fact, almost impossible - to distinguish friend from foe. Bain expected death, and wondered if he would be as pained as his leg, which did not hurt at all. It was then he found himself out of the trench and face to face with two of the enemy. Even he went and about twenty minutes later he came back with the coat. He said: "I am glad I found it. I've got a packet of woodbines in the pocket, so now I can have a smoke. Give me a light, will you?" He sat there enjoying his smoke just as if it was an every day occurrence. He sent a packet of cigarettes under such heavy firing as was going on at the time. A Hard Nut to Crack. Robert Lorraine, a famous airman-actor, is lying, still very weak, in a London nursing home, slowly recovering from the wound he received when making an air reconnaissance over the German lines in Belgium last month. "I had been working daily over the enemy's line," he told a friend, "but they bogged me last on November 22. "An anti-craft battery with which I had had previous dealings interrupted the flight by sending a shrapnel ball into my back between the liver and the spine. It came out near my neck in front after traversing the right lung from bottom to top on route. "I was not expected to recover, but under a soft and velvet exterior I am something of a hard nut to crack, and here I am recovering rapidly. "Directly I am fit I go back to the front." The Touch of a Child. Private E. S. Knell, 4th Signal Company, Royal Engineers, writes home: "Somewhere near the firing line are billeted certain troops. It is very early morning. All are sound asleep, when suddenly a child's piping voice is heard. "Come on, cafe." Up springs the nearest man to a sitting position, and says: "Good morning, Madeline" (that is her name - she is a pretty child, nine years of age). Then she leaves her coffee jug and soon is waking everyone up with her childish prattle. Back to her jug she goes, and is pouring out coffee as fast as she can, all the while keeping everyone laughing with her chatter. She is more delicate than any alarm clock and is able to do more than any non-commissioned officer could do - to turn a man out of a comfortable sleep on a bitterly cold morning to stable duty with a smile on his face. This child is a refugee. Her father is a soldier. She carries her jug of coffee across rough ground in all sorts of weather alone, with the sound of the guns quite close enough to put fear in to an adult, and then she brings happiness to those who know how to appreciate a good turn. Dropped in Time. A remarkable adventure befell Sergeant J. Harris, a Liverpool man, in a heavy bomber brigade during the great battle of Ypres. Sergeant Harris had gone forward to make observation and to watch the effect of British gun-fire when he walked unsuspectingly into the hands of German cavalry. They led the captive through a wood towards their trenches. Passing through the wood Harris was surprised to hear a mysterious voice: "Lie down, man," the command in confident tones. Harris put down his rifle and lay flat on the ground. He realized that the request came to him, Harris fell on his face. Immediately a volley rang out and the German saddles were all emptied, Harris rose and rejoined his rescuers, who proved to be a company of well-known regiment whose presence was unsuspected by the enemy's scouts. That Much Ahead. Paddy has a great power of enjoyment after all. One day as he was walking he saw a bull attack a man, and he had to hold his sides with both hands, the scene was so funny. After a time the animal turned his attention to him, and poor Paddy, after exploring the upper regions, came down with a bump on the other side of the fence. He rubbed his wound as he said to himself: "Faith, I'm glad I had my laugh when I did or I wouldn't have had it at all!"

Judgment Against Soldier. In the city court yesterday afternoon Magistrate Ritchie refused the application of J. King Kelley, K. C., acting for a client, to set aside or vacate a judgment against J. A. Marcus, a member of the divisional ammunition column at Fredericton, on the grounds that the defendant in the action had been a soldier when placed under arrest. The magistrate held while the Imperial Army Act of 1914 provided that a soldier of his majesty's forces could not be taken for debt, yet when the arrest had been made, bail given, and judgment awarded in a case of default, he ruled that the judgment stand. "I've been reading an article on electricity, John," said the wife as she laid down a copy of a technical magazine which she had been perusing. "And it appears before long we'll be able to get pretty nearly everything we want by just touching a button." "It will never pay here," growled the husband. "You would never be able to get anything in that way." "Why not, John?" "Because nothing on earth would ever make you touch a button. Look at my shirt!" - National Food Magazine.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders, come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

All For The State Is Note In The Speeches

Sir Wilfrid Offers to Lay Aside All Political Differences Till War is Over—Sir Robert Borden Meets Him on High Plane

Ottawa, Feb. 8—Canada's political truce stands, if the note given by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the commons this afternoon is to be taken up by the government. The war and its efficient and patriotic prosecution is the supreme issue. None are for party and all for state. This was the dominant note in the great speech with which Sir Wilfrid Laurier opened the parliamentary session this afternoon. Differences as to prospective imperial questions stand over, as do domestic differences, till the conflict has been won by Britain and her allies. With his patriotic undertaking the Liberal leader pressed for the keeping unscathed of Canada's good name. He drew attention to the serious allegations of fraud and mismanagement which had resulted in Canada's young manhood being sent to serve in boots which had caused them discomfort, suffering and loss. He urged upon the government the necessity for prompt, thorough and public investigation, in order that responsibility might be placed and future offences guarded against. Sir Robert Borden met the Liberal leader on the high plane taken. He expressed appreciation of the patriotism of the opposition's position, and had no exception to take to Sir Wilfrid's comments concerning expenditures. He agreed that the country was entitled to all possible information and suggested, in explanation of the boot scandal, that the goods were prepared on old specifications, and had to be turned out in a hurry. Whether his followers will continue the same attitude, and agree to deferring a general election until next year, is not yet known. In concluding his speech, the premier read an important communication just received from Right Honourable Louis Harcourt, dealing with the efficiency of the Canadian troops, and stating that their training was now completed, and they were ready to join the Patriotes at the front. At the evening sitting, Dr. Michael Clark, of Red Deer, followed the premier in a spirited speech, in which he emphasized the oneness of purpose in the minds of all Canadians, and their united determination, free from party considerations, to give their best in service and sacrifice to the empire. "Our task," declared the eloquent Britisher, "is to get behind the men in the trenches and stay behind them till their task is accomplished." Mr. MacDonald called the attention of the premier to the fact that reductions of wages had been made in certain industries in Canada, engaged in the manufacture of shells and other munitions of war. He pointed out that not only did the law passed in 1900 provide for a fair wage schedule in all Canadian government contracts, but that in 1891 a British statute required that a fair wage schedule should be inserted in all imperial contracts. He asked the premier to take steps to see that in all contracts let for the imperial government in connection with imperial supplies, a fair wage schedule should be imposed to maintain current wages. The premier assured Mr. MacDonald the government would take steps to see this was done. This is of great importance to all workmen engaged in manufacturing articles for imperial purposes.

RECEIVED $34,607 MORE THAN ENTITLED TO FOR THE SOUTHAMPTON RAILWAY. Royal Commissioner's Report Submitted to Parliament—Now to Get it Back. Ottawa, Feb. 8—The report of R. A. Pringle, K. C., royal commissioner, appointed by the government last May to investigate charges made by Frank B. Carvell, M. P., in the commons as to graft in connection with the subsidy paid to the Southampton Railway for the construction of thirteen miles, built in 1912 and 1913, was tabled in the commons this afternoon by Hon. Frank Cochrane. The commissioner's report practically substantiates Mr. Carvell's charges. Mr. Pringle finds that the road received a double subsidy amounting to $31,280, when as a matter of fact it was only entitled to $46,672. The company which constructed the road and which was headed by James K. Pinder, M. P. P., of York, was thus overpaid $84,607, and the minister of railways has asked the minister of justice to take all necessary legal steps to recover for the federal treasury the amount overpaid.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion. A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion is nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash, or nausea. He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Bad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effervescing, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Bad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

TRUSTEES WILL NOT AGREE TO CUTTING OF ESTIMATES

Demand Whole Sum From City and There May Be Legal Action. The board of school trustees locked horns with the city commissioners last night when they passed a resolution that an order be asked for through the proper authorities to force the common council to pay in monthly installments the $2000 which the commissioners cut from the school estimates. Further action in the matter was left to a committee including the chairman of the board, R. B. Emerson, the chairman of the finance committee and the chairman of the trustees. T. H. Bullock, suggested that an injunction might be placed on any further expenditures by the council until this amount had been paid. The matter be left to the finance committee to report back to a special meeting of the board. This amendment was defeated.

VANCEBORO ATTEMPT MAKES THEM WARY IN PORTLAND

Much Grain in Elevators and Guards Are on Duty Since Hon's Dynamiting Effort. The Portland correspondent of the Bangor Commercial writes:—The Vanceboro incident is of local interest here because of the great amount of wheat stored in the elevators and in the more than 1,000 loaded cars in the Grand Trunk yards. The elevators are well guarded and yet all admit that there would be great danger if a German were to attempt to dynamite either of both of the elevators. There is nearly if not quite 8,000,000 bushels of wheat here and the destruction would mean a break in the bread supply of Great Britain. Of the kind made, but at the same time there will be a strict watch kept and at least a strong effort made to prevent anything of the sort. No particular stock is taken in railroad circles in Hon's contention that he would not have dynamited a bridge in Maine because it was known weeks ago that strangers were along the Grand Trunk line and there is no doubt that the Germans must be perfectly familiar with the bridges between here and the west. Then all told during the season there will be at least 20,000 horses sent from here to serve as re-mounts for the French army, and hundreds have already been forwarded. Portland elevators where children could not attend because they had not enough clothing. He reported that he had found the means to

These Chips and the Old Block, Himself Make Scrappingest Family In Whole U. S. A.

(By Hugh S. Fullerton) Here are six Chips and the old block off which they came.

No one yet has been able to knock the block off the old Chip either, or many chips off the block. They are the fightingest, scrappingest family in America—and if anyone of the six Chips thinks he can lick the old man he'll take them on at catch weights out back of the woodshed and take all their titles away from them.

The six sons of George Chip, all are boxers and they challenge any family in the world to a battle royal. Any family aspiring to clean up the family would better see close to the line, for the Chips will fly in more different directions than the compass possesses.

They can fight and it is probable that there are one or two future champions in that family. George Chip, Jr., the oldest of the boys has been one of the best middleweights and is regarded as a top-notch in spite of the fact that he was outpointed by Eddie McGovery in their recent meeting on the coast.

Joe, the second boy, is considered one of the best of the lightweights and probably will reach his best in the middleweight division. Billy is the fastest of the tribe now and the boys think he will be the best boxer of them all in a short time. Charlie, Paul and Ignatius all are boxers.

Jimmy Dime, impresario of the prize ring has adopted the entire Chip family and is their official manager. All six of the boys are in active training under the management of Dime and he can arrange one of the loveliest little boxing shows in the country without leaving the dinner table.

The father is an active athlete and was a boxer in his youth and still loves to don the gloves for a friendly bout with the boys. One might imagine that a real family now in the Chip family would be great—$50 worth of fighting free—but as a matter of fact they are one of the happiest and most peaceable of families, and devoted to each other. If anyone swung on Ignatius there would be an air full of chips in a minute—and probably a dime or two mixed in for Jimmy, as he has fallen in love with all and considers himself a member of the family.

OH, SEE THE FIFTY MEN FIGHTING. WHY DO THEY BEAT AND KICK EACH OTHER AND CHEW EACH OTHER'S EARS? THEY ARE BOXING FANS. BUT I THOUGHT PRIZE-FIGHTING WAS FORBIDDEN. IT IS. THE LAW FORBIDS BOXERS TO FIGHT TO A DECISION SO THESE FIFTY MEN ARE FIGHTING TO DECIDE WHICH BOXER WON A SIX ROUND BOUT WITH SOFT GLOVES.

Nervous Prostration and Heart Troubles.

Nervous Prostration, or Neurasthenia, is one of the worst forms of nerve trouble and brings about a general weakness of the whole nervous system. The symptoms presenting themselves are headache, a feeling of depression, disturbed and restless, unrefreshing sleep, often troubled with dreams, fright when in crowded places, dread of being alone, horror of society, irritability at travelling, muscular weakness, sense of fatigue upon effort, etc.

JESS WILLARD NEXT CHAMPION?

Jack Curley Sure of it and Tells How it is Going to Happen

The following article makes it clear that Jess Willard's manager, intends to boost him so that he will be a good drawing card when he meets Jack Johnson for the heavyweight championship of the world next month. Jack Curley, Willard's manager says: "I know Jess Willard will be crowned for not taking on a lot of big fellows before the fight. They say he is afraid of getting whipped. Ain't that right? Afraid of getting whipped! Hasn't the big fellow whipped every man he has ever met? Didn't he hit Dan Delo so hard that he didn't come back until the following morning? The same happened to Rodeo, Kearns and Bull Young. Poor Young never did come back. Just suppose that something would happen to that fellow's hands just before a fight of this importance. A man who hits the terrific blow that he does might injure his hands for all time.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS "CURE ALL KIDNEY DISEASES"

LESTER PATRICK HAS FAITH IN HOCKEY

Big Coast Player Uses Brains on Ice and in Executive Capacity—Boomed Game in West.

As hockey promoters and players the Patrick brothers, Lester and Frank, are known to hockey followers right across Canada. Frank Patrick's position as president of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, his three seasons as coach of the eastern clubs and his innovations in the playing rules have kept his name up, but none the less Lester, the younger brother, who plays and captains the Victorias is a big figure in the winter game.

Lester has been at it for fifteen seasons and is still a great player. Last year he had a record for long that the stories of his prowess which came out of British Columbia before the Stanley Cup series last winter were seldom taken at par. Toronto found him a great stick-handler, a good shot, and an effective check.

His rushing was the peculiar good point in his work. He usually went from end to end. He might seem to lose the puck in a mix-up as he went along, but his quickness, strength and length of arm usually scooped the disc back to his stick. He would follow, follow, follow the puck even when an opponent had stolen it and was circling around for a start back. Before the crowd would realize it he was under way for the Toronto goal again. Cameron and Marshall could not bodycheck him away from the puck, for he carried about 180 pounds of bone and muscle. Jack Walker, with his famous poke and square checks, had a real hard proposition in the smooth sneaky veteran.

Victor's first became known as a player with the Westmont Club in Montreal fifteen seasons ago. He must have been quite a youngster then for he is about thirty now. He started as a cover-point and has stayed there. Soon he was with the Wanderers of the years before the famous "Little Men of Iron" won the Stanley Cup. He was with the Brandon team ten years ago when Joe Hall was with the home town. Then Lester got into the lumbering business with his brother Frank in British Columbia. The two boomed hockey around Nelson, B. C., and three seasons ago were ready to put the Pacific Coast on a big half of the hockey map.

The Patricks got law and a decision about exempting the class AA clubs from draft, the adoption of a playing schedule for next season and a discussion as to the probable dissolution of the national commission, which is being advocated now. There seems little doubt that the player limit rule recently adopted by the league will be rescinded; also the restriction on training will probably be lifted as the American league refused to place any ban on this expense. John K. Tener, president of the league, probably will be given the right to act with President Johnson of the American league in the question of exempting from draft all class AA leagues. Adopting the schedule will be only a matter of form as the dates already have been arranged.

Donovan Passes Up Rehg New York, Feb. 8.—Manager Donovan of the Yankees has decided to pass up Outfielder Rehg of the Red Sox, believing that his services would not be needed. Donovan, however, has opened negotiations with Owner Lamm of the Providence club for the release of Third Baseman Bauman, who batted .282 in the International League last year and was a member of the Detroit Tigers in 1913. Bauman can play second base or shortstop, and Donovan wants him for utility purposes. If the Yankees' new owners want Ar-

RING.

Wells and Moran Matched. Bombardier Wells, champion English heavyweight pugilist, and Frank Moran, an American fighter, yesterday signed articles for a twenty-round bout to be fought in London on March 29.

Outpoints Jack (Twin). Jack (Twin) Sullivan and Jack Taylor, a Williamsport negro, fought six rounds in Pittsburgh the other night. Sullivan having a little the better of the argument, Sullivan was declared the winner, jabbing his left into the negro's face repeatedly without return for two rounds. Then Taylor seemed to get over his stage fright. From the third round, Taylor was more aggressive, overcame Sullivan's early lead and took a slight advantage. Sullivan did not appear to be in the best of shape, and when Taylor assumed the aggressive showed an intention to clinch and hold.

CHECKERS.

Won Maine Tournament. Portland, Feb. 8.—Albert Dingley of Portland retains the title of checker champion of Maine which he won last year at the first annual tournament of the state players, getting forty-two points in the second tournament, which was concluded last evening. Melville B. Fishman of Lewiston, whose score was 40, won the third prize of $6, John McGrath of Bangor, with 38, won $3.

The men played the all-round system each playing two games with the others, and at the conclusion of the championship contest, there was a simultaneous play on Saturday evening by Samuel Eason of Oxford, who went up against as many as cared to oppose him.

Shekard May Manage Newark. New York, Feb. 8.—James Shekard, once the Cubs' left fielder, who managed the Cleveland American Association club last year, probably will be appointed manager of the Newark to succeed Harry Smith, just released. Shekard arrived here yesterday and had a talk with C. H. Ebbets. As Shekard has not given up active work on the field, it is believed that he would make an ideal playing manager for the Newark team.

As a Guide to the Soldier. How does the British soldier come to be known by the nickname of Tommy Atkins? The name which we have come to use as a term of affection and honor was first given in 1815, the time of the battle of Waterloo, when the army forms bore the signature "Thomas Atkins, his mark" as a guide to the soldier in filling up the particulars required. At that time there were many soldiers who could neither read or write.

Mr. McGovern, a heavyweight gentleman of London's East End, who had never been known to work, suddenly became heroic, and enlisted, says Judge. The following dialogue took place between Mrs. McGovern and a lady, Mrs. McGovern being happy and complacent in the receipt of the 27.6 from the war office. Mrs. McGovern—Good morning miss. Lady—Good morning, Mrs. McGovern. I hear Mr. McGovern has gone to the war. Mrs. McGovern (cheerfully)—Yes, miss. Lady—Well, Mrs. McGovern, what do you think of this terrible war? Mrs. McGovern—Lord, lady! I hope it will last forever!

ST. JOHN MAN PROBABLY IS NOW AT FRONT

Letter From Private Ernest McCollum to Mother Gives Indication of This
 Private Ernest McCollum, who went across with the first contingent, and who was a member of the 22nd battalion here, has written to his mother from the camp of the 12th Canadian battalion at Tidworth, Wilts, England, acknowledging the receipt of a Christmas box from home (which had evidently been broken open en route), and saying that he and some other St. John men expected to join the Princess Patricia light infantry at the front in a few days.

Projects For Benefit of the Funds—Personal Notes
 Last fall when a committee was organized in Lancaster to collect for the Patriotic Fund, it will be remembered that there was a contribution of 100 small Canadian flags, which were to be used in some way that would add to the amount from this section. The original committee had their own ground to cover and evidently deemed their object and for quite a while nothing was done toward exploiting a flag day or putting to good use the flags offered. Still later a new committee was formed who hoped to circulate the flags through the school children, but that plan also fell through. For several months nothing has been heard of the flags or their ultimate mission on behalf of the patriotic cause, but it is now learned that the Royal Standard Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, have taken up the idea and the flag proposition will be handled by them in connection with a general scheme which will include Lancaster.

Meanwhile the Citizens' Committee are getting a concert well under way. Arrangements have been made with Manager McCleary of the Gaiety Theatre and the performance will take place there. It has been decided that the net results will be turned over in equal amounts to the Belgian and patriotic funds.
 In the Methodist church for the last two Sundays special collections have been taken for the Belgian fund, which is being raised by the Methodist denomination throughout Canada.
 Two more recruits from this district joined the colors last week, and that has stimulated interest again in the fund campaign.
 Several of the Lancaster committee, when making their reports, said that citizens expressed themselves as willing to help further when occasion arose and gave that as a reason for not making their original contributions more generous.
 Miss Edith Sims, who has been in training as a nurse in a Boston hospital, arrived home Saturday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sims, Manawagonish Road.
 In the absence of Mr. Tait, principal of the school, through illness, his place was filled by Miss Marry, of St. John.
 In the Knights of King Arthur's last Ball League game played in the Baptist gymnasium yesterday afternoon, the Eagles defeated the Bears 29 to 9. The feathered men were there every time when necessary. In the second game, the Lions played the Beavers in a more evenly matched contest. The Lions won 5 to 0.

CITIZEN COMMENTS ON MUCH SUNDAY DRINKING

Says He Never Saw so Many Signs of it as in Mill Street and Vicinity on Last Sunday
 Whether or not there was a "kitchen bar" in operation in the vicinity of Mill street or Long Wharf on last Sunday was a question being asked by residents of that district yesterday and by those whose business demanded their being in the neighborhood. "Not for a long time," said one citizen, "I have seen so much drunkenness as was noticeable along Mill street on Sunday afternoon and particularly for a Sunday, and as regards the regulations prohibiting soldiers to be served in saloons it seemed that these were farcical for it was at once apparent that they must have some source from which to get supplies. "It may have been pocket peddling—it may be a kitchen bar—but whatever was liquor was available in generous quantities. Along the lower end of Main street and in part of Mill street men in uniform and others could be seen very much under the influence, and I can not remember when I have seen more drunken men than that afternoon and evening.—Sunday though it was."

POLICE COURT

Magistrate Ritchie quickly disposed of the prisoners who faced him in the police court this morning. Two men arrested for drunkenness were fined $8 or two months in jail. One was a sailor, who was to have sailed on the Corcoran, but owing to the arrest he missed his ship. George Gillespie, for using profane language in Brussels street was fined $8 or two months in jail.
 William Lacy, a soldier, was remanded on a charge of drunkenness and violently resisting the police. He protested that Policeman Belyea jumped on his back and then nearly choked him.
 Ernest Kelly, who was charged with assaulting Gate Watchman Durley on the ferry boats, was fined $20 or two months in jail.
 John McLean, arrested on charge of stealing an oil skin coat from Jacobson's clothing store in Main street, was remanded to jail. He acknowledged that he had been drinking but could not recall taking the coat.
 William Brothers arrested on charge of carrying concealed weapons was remanded to jail.

 Private Ernest McCollum, who went across with the first contingent, and who was a member of the 22nd battalion here, has written to his mother from the camp of the 12th Canadian battalion at Tidworth, Wilts, England, acknowledging the receipt of a Christmas box from home (which had evidently been broken open en route), and saying that he and some other St. John men expected to join the Princess Patricia light infantry at the front in a few days.

Private Ernest McCollum is probably now at the front. He was one of seventeen St. John men selected from his company to reinforce the Princess Patricia light infantry, and he expressed great satisfaction that he was to get into action so soon. "I was lucky, wasn't I, to get in the first bunch?"
 He says the first contingent has been greatly smartened up since they crossed the Atlantic, and that while discipline is strict, the command is now in excellent shape. He says the camp where he is has been a dry and comfortable one, that they have had large brick quarters to live in, and that the battalion has been becoming more efficient day by day. They had had one fall of snow, only about two inches, and which made them think of home, but it remained on the ground only a few hours. He tells his mother not to worry about him. "I'll be all right, but the Germans won't when I get my bayonet going."
 The letter indicates that Private McCollum is well and hearty, is enjoying the military life, and is greatly pleased with the prospect of getting into action at once. He sent cheery messages to relatives and friends here.

CITIZEN COMMENTS ON MUCH SUNDAY DRINKING
 Says He Never Saw so Many Signs of it as in Mill Street and Vicinity on Last Sunday
 Whether or not there was a "kitchen bar" in operation in the vicinity of Mill street or Long Wharf on last Sunday was a question being asked by residents of that district yesterday and by those whose business demanded their being in the neighborhood. "Not for a long time," said one citizen, "I have seen so much drunkenness as was noticeable along Mill street on Sunday afternoon and particularly for a Sunday, and as regards the regulations prohibiting soldiers to be served in saloons it seemed that these were farcical for it was at once apparent that they must have some source from which to get supplies. "It may have been pocket peddling—it may be a kitchen bar—but whatever was liquor was available in generous quantities. Along the lower end of Main street and in part of Mill street men in uniform and others could be seen very much under the influence, and I can not remember when I have seen more drunken men than that afternoon and evening.—Sunday though it was."

POLICE COURT
 Magistrate Ritchie quickly disposed of the prisoners who faced him in the police court this morning. Two men arrested for drunkenness were fined $8 or two months in jail. One was a sailor, who was to have sailed on the Corcoran, but owing to the arrest he missed his ship. George Gillespie, for using profane language in Brussels street was fined $8 or two months in jail.
 William Lacy, a soldier, was remanded on a charge of drunkenness and violently resisting the police. He protested that Policeman Belyea jumped on his back and then nearly choked him.
 Ernest Kelly, who was charged with assaulting Gate Watchman Durley on the ferry boats, was fined $20 or two months in jail.
 John McLean, arrested on charge of stealing an oil skin coat from Jacobson's clothing store in Main street, was remanded to jail. He acknowledged that he had been drinking but could not recall taking the coat.
 William Brothers arrested on charge of carrying concealed weapons was remanded to jail.

MISS KATHLEEN WALKER A RELATIVE OF NOTED AUTHORESS
 There was local interest in the death of Mary Elizabeth Braddon, reported from England last week, at her home, Richmond-on-Thames, in the fact that she was a great great aunt of Miss Kathleen Walker, daughter of the late Rupert E. Walker of this city. The family name of Miss Walker's mother was Braddon, and Miss Braddon, whose death is referred to, was her aunt. Miss Braddon was famous as an authoress and besides gaining fame thereby, she also acquired wealth.
