FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE

WHAT IS WORSHIP By Robert G. Ingersoll

To do justice; to defend the right; to be strength for the weak—a shield for the defenceless; to raise the fallen; to keep the peace between neighbors and nations. This is worship.

To build a home, to keep a fire on the hearth, to fill with joy the heart of her who rocks the cradle of your child. This is worship.

The sad and weeping wife stays with and bears the insults of a brutal husband for the sake of the little ones. This is worship.

The husband, when his wife is prematurely old with grief and pain, sits by her bed and holds her thin, wan hands as rapturously and kisses them passionately as when they were dimpled. This is worship.

The wife clings to the husband fallen, lifts him from the gutter of degradation, holds him to her heart until her love makes him once more a man. This is worship.

The industrious father, the toiling, patient mother, practice every self-denial to educate their children—to lift them with loving pride above themselves. This is worship.

The boy with his mother's kiss warm on his lips fights for his native land—fights to free his fellow men—dies by the guns. This is worship.

He who loves, worships.

THE ALBERT GATE MYSTERY

BY LOUIS TRACY Copyright 1910 by R. F. Fenno & Co.

CHAPTER XIII.—(Continued.) "I accompanied him without hesitation, secure in the knowledge that a strong force of police guarded the entrance to Albert Gate, both inside and outside the house.

"Here are the documents I promised you, Mr. Talbot," he said; but to my amazement he whipped out a revolver and held it within two feet of my breast.

"If you move, or attempt to cry out, you are a dead man!" he cried.

"At the same instant a door behind me opened and some three or four persons entered. I was so furious at the trick that had been played upon me that I disregarded his threat and sprang at him, but he did not fire.

"I was a most ghastly experience. I would sooner die than go through it again."

"I ever get within measurable distance of Monsieur Henri Dubois I promise to look after the Canadian end of the work, but it is expected by special request that he will be accompanied to Montreal by John Redmond.

"At last we reached the Carlton. We got out and he paid the cabman, who drove off round the corner; then my new acquaintance explained to me that he placed no greater trust in his fellow countrymen than did their ruler.

"I was awakened by someone shaking upon me. I tried to get up, but I found myself unable to do so, owing to the fact that I was almost unable to move, owing to the constrained position of my limbs.

ALARMING INCREASE OF DRUNKENNESS

Arrests in Montreal Have More Than Doubled in Last Two Years—Court Officials Give Comparisons

(Montreal Herald) Is drunkenness on the increase in Montreal? It is not only on the increase, but it is doubling its influence every twelve months?

The average Montrealer, asked such a question, would probably say: "I don't think it is increasing much."

"No ordinary observer would imagine that drunkenness had doubled its grip on the city between 1908 and 1909, and that it had a gain of fifty per cent since last year.

Yet the figures showing the number of convictions for drunkenness show an increasing ratio in those proportions.

With the increase of population and also with the arrival of the summer floating population, the number of "drunks" goes on increasing steadily in the Recorder's Court.

This number does not include the "delirium tremens" cases, the insanity cases, all but the acute cases, all, or nearly all, having their origin in the drinking habit.

The above numbers are made up as follows: Men. Women

Monday 11 6 Tuesday 17 6 Wednesday 7 2 Thursday 17 0 Friday 17 0 Saturday 21 1

Total 83 11 Corresponding week last year: Men. Women

Monday 12 1 Tuesday 8 1 Wednesday 13 3 Thursday 6 0 Friday 5 0 Saturday 24 2

Total 71 7 Same week in 1908: Men. Women

Monday 9 0 Tuesday 9 1 Wednesday 2 0 Thursday 1 1 Friday 3 1 Saturday 10 0

Total 26 3 These figures show an increase of 100 per cent between 1908 and 1909, while the increase between last year and the present one has been of over 45 per cent.

In the meantime a large number of our establishments in the city have sumptuous for the liquor laws hanging over their heads as the result of the campaign of the Dominion Alliance.

Look out for the little women. Dynamite usually comes in small sticks.

"Really," he said, with a sneer, "I thought that you Mr. Talbot, were endowed with a little more intelligence than the average. Pardon, Mignon, pour un moment."

No Craft No Deal 'The Shamrock, Thistle, Rose entwine The Maple Leaf forever.'

KEEP TO THE POINT When the tumult and the shouting on Main street dies and traffic is resumed, the fact will remain that in the foundation of the granite pavement the city is paying for one thing and getting another, which Mr. James Carleton says is 50 per cent cheaper. The city does not get the 50 per cent.

TARIFF MATTERS The Winnipeg Free Press takes a broad view of the attitude of the grain growers. 'They believe that the policies they advocate are the best for the west; and they hold that it is open to the people in the east who object to them, to demonstrate that in the general interests of the whole country they should be enforced. If that can be done, we have no doubt that national feeling in the west will provide territorial desires must be subordinated to the national well-being; but we think that the parties who undertake to convince the west, for instance, that a moderate tariff is not for the benefit of the whole Dominion, will have a large contract on their hands. Experience has shown that a happy, prosperous and progressive west implies prosperity and progress throughout the whole Dominion, and in their policy of enlightened selfishness the people of the west hold that they are serving the cause of the whole nation.'

EASTERN FARMING There is a lesson for New Brunswick in the report of a commission that has made an investigation into farming conditions in the southern and eastern parts of New York state. The commission's findings are thus stated by Bradstreet: 'It finds, as a result of a year's investigation that the hill lands have been impoverished by old-style agricultural methods. Backward and lagging have been grown on these lands and removed from the soil and practically nothing has been returned. As a result, the soil has become unproductive. Crops are small and in many cases insufficient to support the persons living on the farm. There are many unoccupied houses and some abandoned fields, and land has depreciated in value from 25 to 75 per cent. Several causes have contributed to this state of affairs. The movement westward to new lands and the rapid development of our cities drew off both men and money from the older communities of the east and naturally drew the heaviest on the cheapest and least accessible areas.'

APPLAUSE FOR SIR WILFRID LAURIER IN METHODIST CONFERENCE There was a lively debate in the Methodist General Conference in Victoria (B. C.) yesterday on the footnote in the book of rules. It was finally decided to eliminate the footnote and the following was substituted on motion of Dr. Andrews, of Sackville: 'For as much as these rules are to be interpreted by enlightenment Christian liberty earnestly in God's word, our members are earnestly admonished that they guard with great care their reputation as servants of Christ and in the case of these amendments and practices which are of doubtful or questionable tendency they engage in none injurious to their spiritual or incompatible alliances to Jesus Christ, the Master.'

FINED FOR SUNDAY TOWING ON RIVER The Loret's Day Alliance won its case against Andrew B. Rudlick, before Commissioner Fensley yesterday, and a fine of $10 was imposed on Mr. Rudlick on the charge of having the Sunday law by carrying on business on the Sabbath day. A. A. Wilson, K.C., appeared for the plaintiffs. Counsel for the defendant did not appear and the case was forfeited. The case was in connection with the towing of saws by the tug Joseph.

CHACUN A SON GOUT 'Oh, wilderness were Paradise now!' So sang old Omar, specifying how He'd like some food and friendly company. Had Omar tried it? Well, I wonder now! I'll tell you, Omar, how the thing would be. You settle down beneath your shady tree. Open your Book of Verses and begin—'But, oh, the chiggers! Ah, what misery! Time for your lunch; ants on the Loaf. And, floating in the Jug of Wine, instead Of foam and bubbles sparkling in the light. The grisly corpses of the insect dead. Your love begins to sing, and, sitting there Beside her, now, at last, does life seem there. Alas! The song breaks off with dismal shriek— There is a caterpillar in her hair! At length, with thankful heart, at day's decline, You hasten home to bathe, and dress, and dine. And, seated in the candle's golden gleam Swear stoutly 'No More Wilderness for Mine.'—Elizabeth McIntosh, in Smart Set.

IN LIGHTER VEIN HIS FATAL ERROR. Fred 'I made the mistake of my life two years ago. I turned down a leap-year proposal because the girl couldn't cook.' 'Joe—'Where did the mistake come in?' 'Fred—'Later I discovered that she had money enough to enable us to board.'

UNOBSERVING. 'John, did you take the note to Mr. Jones?' 'Yes, but I don't think he can read it.' 'Why so, John?' 'Because he is blind, sir. While I was in the room he axes me twice where my hat was and I war on my head all the time.'—Housekeeper.

HE WOULDN'T STAY BOUGHT. A guest was expected for dinner and Bobby had received five cents as the price of his silence during the meal. He was as quiet as a mouse until, when his favorite dessert was being served, he could no longer curb his enthusiasm. He drew the coin from his pocket and held it up to the table. 'Here's your money for staying in the room.'—Success Magazine.

AN OLD SONG REJUVENATED I cannot wear the old hair. I wore some months ago when I've laid it on the topmost shelf. With many a wistful sigh No longer are they wearing puffs. And rats are quite de trop I cannot wear the old hair— Oh, what a cruel blow! I cannot wear the old hair. For which good gold I paid, Red hair is so expensive when One gets the proper shade. I felt so dressed when it was coiffed. All little puffs and curls. But I can't wear the old hair— Also for Fashion's whirl! I cannot wear the old hair. Four wretches I must buy, And wind them round and round my head. As flat as they will lie. My nose is much too long; I can't wear the old hair. It's altogether wrong. —Appinette's Magazine.

DYING, ALEXANDRE TRIED TO SEE DAUGHTER WED
Sudden Death of Millionaire Society Man at Lenox Necessitates Recall of 2,000 Invitations
Lenox, Mass., Aug. 25.—Only the absence of the town clerk from this place prevented Miss Helen L. Alexandre and Bayard C. Hopkin from being married at the house of John E. Alexandre, millionaire society man, and father of the young woman. Mr. Alexandre had expressed a wish that she be married before he died, and while the search was being made for the town clerk to obtain a license the New Yorker became unconscious and passed away.
Miss Alexandre and Mr. Hopkin had arranged to be married on September 10, and 2,000 invitations had been issued for the wedding. Mr. Alexandre had been ailing, but it was not thought his condition was serious. But he grew rapidly worse, and expressed the wish that the marriage take place. Mr. Hopkin was spending the week end at the house here, and a search was at once made for the town clerk. It was while trying to find him that the word was conveyed to the young couple that the sick man had become unconscious.
The invitations for the wedding will be recalled, and it is understood there will be a quiet ceremony some time during the week end at the house here.
Mr. Alexandre was in his 69th year. He was a member of the Union, Metropolitan, Riding and Tuxedo clubs.

FASCINATING HAIR
Women Who Use Parisian Sage Have It and Keep It
You never saw a beautiful woman who didn't have beautiful hair. The charm of a beautiful woman lies in her hair. Many women do not realize the importance they possess because they do not give proper attention to the hair.
The women of Paris are famed for their beauty, not because their facial features are superior to those of other women, but because they know how to keep young by supplying vigor and strength to the hair.
Up to three years ago Parisian Sage could hardly be obtained in Canada. But now this delightful hair restorer can be had in every town in Canada for 50 cents a large bottle, and it is guaranteed to grow beautiful, luxuriant hair; to turn dull, lifeless hair into lustrous hair; to stop falling hair; to stop itching of the scalp. Made only in Canada by Giroux Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont.
The girl with the Auburn hair is an envied beauty.

MAYOR FITZGERALD FOR GOVERNOR IF PARTY WANTS HIM
Mayor Fitzgerald will be a candidate for Governor if he is the choice of the convention. He made this admission in a statement issued from his summer home at Falmouth, at the same time allowing it to be understood that he was not engaged in any campaign to secure the nomination.
"I am in the hands of my friends," was the way he put it. "The question of the Democratic candidate for Governor will be decided on convention day rather than now. I believe in nominating the strongest man, and if the choice of the convention should fall on me, I would not decline."
Though the mayor's position in the gubernatorial situation has been pretty well known in political circles for several days, this is the first definite statement on the subject coming directly from him. The report that he would be an aggressive candidate for the nomination against James H. Vahey, coupled with favorable news from his friends in different sections of the state, moved him to break the silence which he has hitherto maintained.
Don't go without a hat in the broiling sun.

Fashion Hints for Times Readers

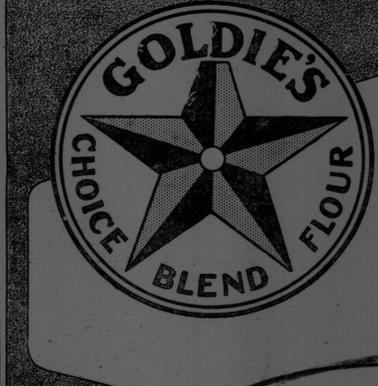

AT NARRAGANSETT ELABORATE BATHING SUITS ARE THE RULE
Such a bathing suit as the one illustrated would scarcely stand a daily dip in the salt sea and keep its festive appearance all summer, but every woman likes to own one attractive suit, keeping a simpler model of mohair for ordinary occasions. This pretty suit is made of moiré silk in a rich shade of blue, and the tucked bodice gives length to the waist, while the sleeves protect the upper arm from tan and freckles. The yoke is made of Dresden silk in a rose pattern. Shoes, cap, handkerchief bag and parasol all match the material of the suit.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON
HAVE you your living to earn?
Are you earning it in the most congenial and lucrative way possible? If you can answer "Yes" to the first question and "No" to the second, you will find it worth your while to continue reading tonight.
Otherwise perhaps not.
For this is my night to tell you of some of the less usual ways in which women are earning their bread and butter and, in some cases, cake and preserves to go with it.
I have several times asked those among my readers who were earning their livelihoods, in some unusual way, to write and tell me about it, that I might pass the interesting word along to their sisters; but I have received surprisingly few responses.
What's the matter?
Are you too busy doing, to tell me about it? If you are, please don't be. Your sisters need the stimulation and suggestion of your experience. And don't you think, in gratitude for your success, you are indebted to tell them about it? Do it now.
Raising canaries is a way in which a good many women are either supporting themselves or adding pin money to their husband's income.
A pair of birds will give from two to seven nests a year with from one to five birds, and the birds sell from $2 and $3 to $20. For prize winning birds, in England, where there is much more interest taken in them, $20 is a common price for a bird, and as high as $250 is sometimes given for exceptional birds, but in America such prices are practically unheard of.
Great care in preparing the food and cleaning the cage and, especial care at moulting time, with a knowledge of the birds' habits and needs are required for success.
A woman who learned the bird-raising business in England came to this country three years ago with six pairs of birds.
"I now have four times that number besides having sold enough to pay all my expenses and my house rent," she says. "Though I haven't sold my birds here for anything like the prices we get in England, the demand has been brisk and the profit decidedly worth all the labor I gave them."
At many of the summer resorts this summer women who are tired of doing embroidery have found a new way to employ their time—learning the jewelry craft.
Most of them do it for amusement, of course. But for any one who will take it up in earnest, there is money in this craft, and much more than in fancy work. Delft fingers, good taste and, of course, some artistic sense are the chief qualities a woman needs to fit her for this sort of work.
At Pratt Institute in New York, and in New York Art School a jewelry class is held and is largely attended. Graduates of these and other schools would probably be willing to give lessons, or the craft might be learned from a good jewelry house.
Many students during their first three months make enough to pay for their materials. The outfit consists of the jeweler's tools, a blowpipe, a sheetiron soldering bench, a vice bench, a work table, and an electric polishing lathe.

Daily Hints for the Cook

- NOVELTY POTATOES
Chop very fine one quart cold boiled potatoes, put them into a saucepan with one cup cream, two tablespoons butter, salt and pepper, set on fire, stir until hot then turn into a baking dish. Cover with bread or cracker crumbs and bake brown in a hot oven.
- NEW WAY TO STUFF FOWL
When roasting a turkey, duck or chicken, instead of sewing it up after stuffing run wooden toothpicks across the opening and lace up with string like a shoe. When the fowl is done, just pull the toothpicks out and the string will fall off.

Retail Ordinaries are a gentle, effective, dependable and safe bowel regulator, strengthening and tonic. They re-establish nature's functions in a quiet, easy way. They do not cause any indigestion, griping or nausea. They are pleasant to take and work so easily and sure.
- A Cologne Bath
When tired and warm, a scented bath of warm water is one of the most invigorating. It proves particularly refreshing in summer when taken before dressing for the evening. The simplest of these baths is made by adding cologne, toilet water or violet ammonia to a quarter of a tubful of water. A good aromatic mixture to keep on hand is made from two ounces of tincture of camphor, four ounces of cologne and an ounce of tincture of benzoin. Enough of this should be added to the water to give it sort of a milky quality.
If one has cologne or toilet waters that are not especially fragrant, use them in the bath. The scent is so faint as not to be disagreeable, and the refreshing qualities are as great as from more expensive colognes. Another refreshing bath is made by adding the filtered juice of four lemons into a quarter of a tub of water. Where the aromatic bath seems expensive, or there is no time for it put a solution of the mixture given above in to a spray and spray it over the face, neck and arms.

ALD. HOLDER SAYS CITY IS NOT GETTING WHAT IT PAYS FOR
Main Street Paving Further Inspected and Member of Committee Makes This Statement—Important Matter Overlooked
"I do not contend that the street will not wear. What I say is that the specifications call for six inches of concrete and that the city is not getting what it is paying for."
This is the statement made by Ald. Holder, member of the investigating committee, after examining all the pieces of the Hiram paving foundation dug up in Main street yesterday. There were five of these altogether. Three were near where Inspector Carleton dug the specimen on August 16 and the other two were at the upper end. Mr. Carleton was not there, as he had not been notified. The portions dug up yesterday showed up fairly well, so far as thickness was concerned, but the pieces were decidedly crumbly, which Mr. Low said was because they were green.
Low yesterday received notification from the city engineer that the only piece of machinery they would be allowed to use in Stone's street was the roller for use on the sub-grade, and that the concrete would have to be hand mixed and hand tamped.
Mr. Low was asked:
"Do you intend to follow out this order?"
"Well, I don't know, we have it under consideration."
"You have engaged counsel, have you not?"
"Yes."
"Who is he?"
"H. A. Powell, K. C. As I say, we have the order of the city engineer under consideration and I can't say what we may decide to do. They have been so arbitrary here that we may decide to give them a dose of their own medicine."
Ald. Holder and Ald. Wigmore spent some little time in Main street yesterday afternoon examining the samples of the paving foundation which had been taken up. Neither seemed to be greatly impressed with what they saw. A little breeze was stirred up between Ald. Holder and Contractor Low, when the latter remarked that it looked like a piece of malicious persecution. Ald. Holder contended that the whole question revolved on the fact that the city was not getting what it was paying for.
Many citizens are pointing out that the aldermen have overlooked what is after all the most important question in connection with the Main street contract. The city apparently intended to lay a concrete foundation, and so far as can be discovered, it is paying for concrete, but is getting something quite different. As one man expressed it yesterday, the city, let us say, set out to buy a pair of trousers for $10 but it has received a $3 pair. It is all very well to say that the $3 pair is just as good as the pair the city ordered, but that is not the argument. If the city ordered the $10 kind that is the kind it ought to get.
If the city had called for grous in the first place, and everybody had bid on that basis, the question would be entirely different. Many are now asking why the city is allowing other contractors to proceed in view of the discovery made in Main street. The paving question is still the leading topic of conversation throughout the city, and there is an increasing demand for a real investigation of the board of works and other civic departments.

A. O. H. RESOLUTIONS AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 26.—The A. O. H. convention concluded its sessions here yesterday and the majority of the delegates left for their homes this morning. The evening a ball was given by Sydney Division. The convention passed a number of resolutions, one of the most important being the following:
Resolved, That this convention highly approves and commends the action of His Most Gracious Majesty George V. in his effective endeavors for the modification of the obnoxious coronation oath; further Resolved, That we endorse the policy of John Redmond and the Irish parliamentary party who are laboring for the cause of Home Rule and the advancement of the Irish people in the motherland.
Resolved, That we fervently join in prayerful supplication to the Most High for the success of the approaching eucharistic congress.
At the closing session this afternoon the delegates decided that the next convention of the provincial A. O. H. will be held at Milltown (N. B.).
The following officers were elected: Prov. Pres., F. J. McManus, Halifax; Prov. Vice-Pres., A. D. Francis, Sydney Mines (C. B.); Prov. Chap., Rev. E. P. Walker, Campbellton; Prov. Secy., J. R. McClosky, St. John; Prov. Treas., J. Hemmery, Newcastle (N. B.). The officers were installed by J. G. Ferguson, St. John, and Rev. Father Wallace of Campbellton.
The officers of the ladies' auxiliary were: Prov. Pres., Miss Elizabeth McCartin, Woodstock (N. B.); Prov. Vice-Pres., Miss Sadie Lynch, Sydney; Prov. Secy., Miss Rita Fogarty, Moncton; Prov. Treasurer, Miss M. Donworth, Milltown (N. B.).
In connection with the scholarship it was decided that every 200 members educate one student. Eight members will be educated at each college each year. The fund will be administered by a board of governors, of which Rev. Father Wallace is chairman.
The governors elected representing each district were: Messrs. C. Morrey, Chatham; G. L. Murphy, Sydney; F. J. McManus, Halifax; John A. Doherty, St. John.
Announcement is made that the Royal Bank of Canada will open on September 1 in London (Eng.), a branch under the management of James Mackie. It will be in 2 Bank Buildings, Princes street.

MR. BOURASSA'S NEW BOGEY

Mr. Bourassa is professing much alarm at the prospect of annexation to the United States, which he affects to regard as rather imminent. Many Canadians would share his alarm if they shared his avowed expectations, but the latter task is somewhat difficult. It is extremely useful to have something even more unpleasant than Bourassa's Nationalism to offer to the alarmed gaze of Canadians, with the hope of persuading them to accept his Nationalism as the lesser of two evils.
The able editor of Le Devoir is perfectly right in reminding us that French Quebec is an invaluable barricade upon the path toward possible annexation; but it is a far cry from that to the assumption that a Nationalist policy devised by a few Quebec politicians and not generally accepted even in that province is the only alternative road. It is true that Toronto and Winnipeg are a great deal more "American" than Montreal or Quebec; but we cannot conclude from that fact that if left to themselves those cities would hurry Canada into statehood. Even if we are to leave out of all account the loyalist sentiment of Ontario and the West—which we must firmly decline to do—we have still the enormous industrial commitments of our great cities and the overwhelming East and West trend of our trade routes as some slight assurance against the abolition of the difference between north and south.
It is strange that at a moment when Canadians are taking a more sympathetic interest than ever before in the business and burdens of the sister British nations, and developing ideals more than ever remote from those of the United States, they should be newly accused of leaning towards their republican neighbors.

Prince a Good Shot

Ex-Crown Prince George, of Servia, once shot a pair of pearl pendants from a woman's ears at a distance of ten paces. His aim was so true that the bullets merely severed the wire on which the pearls were suspended and the gems dropped on the woman's shoulders and then to the floor unharmed. The two shots were fired in quick succession, without a tremor on the part of the wearer of the gems, at whose request the Prince had consented to exhibit his skill. Prince George is one of the most famous hunters of Europe, and has often shown examples of his skill with a rifle before crowned heads of other countries.

AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

THE NICKEL

The Nickel manager says he has been saving one of his very best programmes for the school children who have been away in the country all summer basking in the sunshine and this is what it is. A fine western story with plenty of life and action in it, entitled "A Cowboy's Good Deed"; a very interesting travel picture, "Vacation in Havana"; an educational industrial film, "The Shrimp Industry in the South"; and a screwally funny get-up, "How Mr. Bumptious Papered the Parlor." In addition to all this will be the Seattle Callers Stock Co.—whom many of the children have not yet seen—in their latest and best little comedy, "Cinders." Mr. Cairns will sing and there will be plenty of good music. Bumper matinee on Saturday. Saturday night, after the show, the Nickel will close its doors until the following Wednesday, Aug. 31, at 6.30 o'clock, when fresh from the hands of designers, decorators, drapery people and floor coverers it will emerge practically brand new.

THE STAR

The Star Theatre in north and announces a magnificent bill for the last two days of the week including Saturday matinee at which hundreds of returned school children are expected to attend. The Biograph feature "Unexpected Help" will be the first of the film-stories, a tale of the oil regions of Pennsylvania and a fable of Quaker cleverness. Then there will be "A Trip Through China," a French army story "The Little Drummer," and a most remarkable picture "The Wildest of Romances," by the Edison Co. Miss Vivian King will sing an Irish song in costume "My Prairie Songbird," assisted by Harry Newcomb.

THE GEM

The gold mines of the far west have formed the basis of many a popular and interesting story. They have been the theme of numerous books, and plays, but will a good, breezy western yarn, told in a clever manner, will prove of interest to great numbers of people. To those who admire this kind of a story, the management announces they can do no better than to attend the Gem theatre tonight or tomorrow, and witness in moving pictures the Kalem production of "Pure Gold," one of the prettiest frontier romances, with

How we dislike a man who asks questions merely for the sake of getting a chance to answer them!

White Sox Valued at $1981 By 'Comiskey'

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Bill players under the present system of organized baseball can rightfully be classed as "merchandise." Under this ruling the board of review has decided that the Chicago American league team is worth $1981 and the Chicago Nationals were estimated at a trifle less than $1900.

Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Americans, filed a personality schedule with assessors this year declaring that the American team was worth $2507. He itemized it as follows: $1981 merchandise, $103 furniture and $401 that he figured was coming to him from various persons. Both assessments were confirmed by the board of review.

Forty Miles an Hour

Duke of Westminster's Boat Makes That Speed on Thames

(London Daily Mail)

Thousands of Londoners on the bridges and Embankment enjoyed the spectacle of a motorboat tearing through Blackfriars and Westminster bridges at the speed of 30 to 35 knots. At her top speed she was running at 40 miles an hour.

The boat was the Miranda IV, invented and built by Sir John Thornycroft, the famous engineer and builder of the fast torpedo boat destroyers. It is a mistake to call Miranda IV, a hydroplane. She is more properly a skimmer, a boat which practically touches the water in only one place, amidships, when she is going at full speed, and at lower speed travels comfortably through the water like an ordinary fast motor craft.

To ride in the Miranda IV is an exhilarating experience. With the movement of the lever she leaps forward like a living thing. Sir John Thornycroft, with a tread cap planted upon his curly white hair, steers her. His son, T. Thornycroft, controls the engine. Shooting Waterloo bridge at 17 seconds past the minute, she is under the Hungerford bridge at Charing Cross in 34 seconds. In less than 60 seconds she has passed under Westminster bridge. A runaway car at Westminster had time to express their astonishment with a cheer.

Running home after trials, the Miranda IV passed Waterloo bridge at 5.02 p. m. and arrived at Chiswick church at 5.19 p. m. in thus covering at least nine miles in seventeen minutes, in spite of all obstructions incidental to a busy river traffic.

To owners of racing motor-boats the dimensions of the Miranda IV will be remarkable. She is only 20 feet long, with a 100-horse power, eight-cylinder Thornycroft engine and weighs less than 1 1/2 tons. With all her speed she is a good beam boat, suited for work in the sea, and can carry five passengers.

The Miranda IV will probably be selected to run against an aeroplane in the motor-boat versus aeroplane race at Bournemouth. She is in all probability the fastest boat afloat.

To Detect Counterfeit

Here are a few simple rules that may be followed to detect counterfeit money:

Examine the form and features of all bank notes. If graceful and features distinct, examine the drapery. Notice whether the folds lie naturally and observe whether the fine strands of the hair are plain and distinct.

Examine the lettering. In a genuine bill it is absolutely perfect. There has never been a counterfeit but what there was some defect in the lettering.

Counterfeits rarely, if ever, get the imprint or engraver's name perfect. The shading in the background of the vignette and over and around the letters forming the name of the bank on a good bill is even and perfect, on a counterfeit it is uneven and imperfect.

At the close of 1909 there were 420 of the $200.00 certificates in force; 41 members held $1,500,000 certificates; 3,500 members held $1,000.00 certificates; 330 members held $500.00 certificates, and 28 members held $200.00 certificates.

LOCAL NEWS

A gold locket found in the market building may be had at the central police station by the owner.

Robert A. Corbett has been reported by Sgt. Staples for encumbering the sidewalk in Carmarthen street with a pile of brick without having a light on them.

Trains will leave St. John on Saturday, the 27th inst., for the big blueberry picnic and Foresters' excursion at Wolford at 9:15 a. m., 1:10 and 5:45 p. m. Excursion tickets will be on sale for each train. The City Cornet Band will be with the excursion.—2678-8-29

George Porter, Stephen Burns and Chas. and James O'Dell have been reported by the police for driving vehicles for hire without a license. James O'Dell has also been reported for driving his team on the sidewalk at the corner of Orange and Carmarthen streets.

A fine of $2 was allowed to stand this morning against John McEwan, a teamster, for driving beneath the I. C. R. gates when a train was approaching. Chas. Bell, his employer, appeared for him, and said that he was hard of hearing and had not heard the warning shouted by P. Sheehy, the watchman.

SCHOOLS TO RE-OPEN ON MONDAY NEXT

Four Hundred and Fifty Permits Issued—Large Attendance Looked for

After the summer vacation, the city schools will re-open on Monday next, Aug. 29. Supt. H. S. Bridges requests that the girls from St. Peter's and St. Joseph's schools who have passed the High School entrance examinations, assemble at St. Ynez's school, and the pupils from the other city schools who have passed successfully the entrance examinations, assemble at the High School, Union street.
 The opening attendance is expected to be quite large, one reason being that the exhibition will bring to town subscribers who otherwise would probably remain in the country until later. Nearly 400 permits have been issued for primary entrance, a number which compares quite favorably with that of other years. The greater number of permits were given for Dufferin and Winter street schools.

NEGROES BEING DEPORTED FROM ST. JOHN TODAY

When the schooner Lilla B. Hirtle sails today she will take away with her to Barbados, seven negroes who are being deported by the Canadian immigration authorities. They are the men who, it will be remembered, were landed at St. Stephen by the schooner some weeks ago, resulting in action against Captain Archie Geldert. They were passengers on the schooner and are returning as they had not sufficient money to meet the requirements of the immigration laws. It was found that Captain Geldert had made no effort to smuggle the men into the country and was merely following a practice not uncommon among vessels sailing from the West Indies to Canadian ports. Captain Geldert is not going back in the Hirtle this trip as he is taking a vacation at his home in Lunenburg (N. S.). Captain Edwin Loye is in command.

L. G. LAWSON AND MISS HELEN L. MITCHELL WED

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell, 87 Millidgeville avenue, was the scene of a pretty nuptial event this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Helen L., was given by her father in marriage to L. G. Lawson, an employe of Manchester Robertson Allison, Ltd. Rev. B. H. Nobles was the officiating clergyman, assisted by Rev. David Long of Vancouver, uncle of the groom.

Miss Mitchell was becomingly gowned in a pretty costume of white silk and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. Her travelling suit was of grey chiffon, broadcloth, with a hat of corresponding color. The young couple were unattended.

Following the ceremony, luncheon was served at the bride's home, and later Mr. and Mrs. Lawson left for a honeymoon trip to Toronto, and other Upper Canadian cities. The presents received were numerous and valuable, and included a handsome cut glass water set from the employees of the M. R. A., Ltd., wholesale department.

INJURIES TO MARTIN SPEARS PROVE FATAL

Fell Over Wharf Last Evening—A Long and Good Record as Pilot at This Port

Martin Spears, pilot, aged 54, died in the General Public Hospital this morning as the result of injuries received by falling from a wharf at the end of Charlotte street last evening. The tide was out at the time. When found he was totally unconscious. A man named Earle discovered him and telephoned No. 1 ladder company and he was taken by them to the wharf and Dr. Brynmor had him taken to the General Public Hospital. It was found there that he had sustained serious internal injuries.

Himself a pilot for thirty years, he came of a family of pilots and seafaring people, of old Loyalist stock. His father, William Spears, was a pilot many years ago and Pilot John Scott and W. A. Scott, were under his command. His grandparents were fishermen who came originally from Holland, landing in New York from where they came here with the Loyalists, settling at Anthony's Cove.

The vocation of pilot has been in the family from generation to generation and Mr. Spears has a son, William, now a pilot at this port, and also a brother Henry who was a pilot. He had an excellent record in his work never having had a disaster during his long career. It is told that when a boy he was on a number of occasions brought a pilot boat from Little River to this port after putting a net aboard a vessel, he being the only one aboard the little craft.

Besides his wife, he leaves three sons, Pilot William Spears, Stanley and Roy Spears. He also leaves one brother Henry Spears, pilot, and one sister, Miss Mary, of East Cambridge, Mass.

FIRST EXHIBITION IN ST. JOHN NEARLY SIXTY YEARS AGO

Mechanics Institute the Site and There Was Large Glass-Roofed Building
 It is interesting to recall, in connection with the opening of the Dominion Exhibition here in a few days, by far the greatest ever held here, that the first industrial exhibition in St. John was opened on Sept. 9, 1851, nearly sixty years ago. Some of the old-time residents will remember that on that occasion the exhibits were housed in the old Mechanics' Institute, now the Nickel Theatre, and under a glass roof that extended over Capleton street from Wellington Row to Peel street.

The idea of a glass roof was doubtless suggested by the exhibition which had been held in the Crystal Palace, London, in the year previous. Speaking of the fair held at that time, Clarence Ward, the mayor's clerk, yesterday that he remembered it very well and it was a great show, a big undertaking for the city at that time. The exhibits were not so big as the present structures in the South End, but they were very imposing and representative of goods manufactured in St. John as well as from other places.

The exhibition was held under the auspices of the St. John Mechanics' Institute. The large building erected for the occasion was 120 feet in length, 65 feet in breadth and 36 feet in height. Inside the architect was Mr. Stead and the builder, Mr. Cochran. As already stated the structure had a glass roof and was looked upon as a great piece of work, which no doubt it was.

It is interesting also to recall that on the day following the opening of the exhibition, the introduction of the water works into St. John was publicly recognized by the holding of a procession nearly a mile long, with the various trades, societies, etc., and three bands. The water was turned on at the abutment and at the fountain in King Square, which was then used for the first time, by the lieutenant governor.

TRAMPS CAUSE TROUBLE FOR PEOPLE ON POKIOK ROAD

For the last few weeks the residents of Pokioke have been considerably annoyed by the presence of tramps in the neighborhood, and the dark, lonely road leading to the place from Indiantown has been traversed with much trepidation, especially by young girls and women folk. The presence of the men has become so noticeable, now, that the female residents do not care to trust themselves on the road without protection.

ALDERMEN ARE INVITED TO INSPECT UNION STREET WORK

A new surface is being put upon a portion of Union street, near Oddfellows Hall. The worst kind of material appears to have been chosen. It is a mixture of poor earth and stones. There are flat stones of considerable size, as well as stones of all other shapes. It would be impossible to make an enduring surface of this material, or one that would remain in smooth condition for any length of time.

GLENWOOD RANGES Have Won Their Place By Giving Satisfaction From Actual Use

That the Glenwood Ranges have become so popular throughout the city is from their construction, their appearance, and entire satisfaction that they give. The patent spring that holds the nickel firmly in place is one of the features that has made the Glenwood popular. Then the pull-out grate, the divided oven bottom, direct draft with short damper handle, the divided centres, etc., all have made the Glenwood Range famous, and the people have come to the final decision that they can get a Glenwood Range they not only get entire satisfaction, but they are booming St. John.
