CADDIES OF TEA ARE WASHED ASHORE AT MACLAREN'S BEACH On awakening fairly early this morning and looking out towards the sea, a resident summering at MacLaren's Beach observed several large boxes cast up by the waves, apparently part of the cargo of some wrecked vessel. Hastening down, he found they were good-sized caddies of tea, and after much labor succeeded in getting one to his house some little distance away. There he opened it, but to his disappointment found that the water had soaked through portions of the vicious "wallop" he had thought of taking at the H. C. of L. Allusion, Ltd. stores. They are well worth a try.

FUNERAL OF REV. F. J. McMURRAY

Many Attend Pontifical Requiem—Eloquent Tribute by Rev. F. L. Carney

With the body of Rev. Francis J. McMurray lying in state before the altar in St. John the Baptist church, where he had so faithfully served as pastor, this morning at 9:30 o'clock, old time, pontifical high mass of requiem was celebrated by His Lordship Bishop Laflamme and a glowing tribute to his memory delivered by Rev. F. L. Carney of Fredericton.

The body was removed from the rectory to the church last evening and borne through two lines of parishioners to a place before the altar, where throughout the night members of the Holy Name Society maintained guard. Many of the congregation remained in the church until late in the evening as well. The vigil was finished this morning and pontifical mass of requiem for the repose of his soul began at 8 o'clock.

Members of the congregation carried the pall—D. B. Griffith, J. McCarthy, Thomas Killen, John Sullivan, D. Hunt and J. M. Elmore. The cortege was particularly lengthy and representatives of all walks of life. Miss Nellie Colohan presided at the organ. The solemnity of the funeral procession was passing the Cathedral the organist there, Arthur S. Goddard, played "Lead Kindly Light," "Adeste Fideles," and the "Dead March" from Saul. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetery.

Rev. Father Carney many eyes in the congregation were dimmed as he spoke so intimately of the life of their late pastor, so feelingly of his memory, tracing his career from boyhood. When he had finished Bishop LeBlanc also spoke, paying a tribute to the worth of Father McMurray as priest.

"Your late pastor was blessed in having a good, pious Irish mother," said Father Carney, "whose ever watchful eye looked over his welfare and who guided and encouraged him upon the path of his inclinations to enter the church." He spoke of his studies at St. Joseph's and at Quebec Seminary and of his return for ordination on January 25, 1889 by the late Bishop Sweeney. "I am the only one of the priests here today who was present at his ordination—our priestly friendship began on that day and was severed on his death."

Father Carney then went on to speak of his fourteen years' "working for God" at the Cathedral, part of the time as rector until promotion came and he was sent to Woodstock. He continued there in works of zeal till he was appointed here in 1914." On the day of his ordination, the speaker said, the bishop had addressed the young levite upon the dignity, importance and duties of the priesthood, offering the holy sacrifice of the mass, to lead his people in faith, to preach to them, to bless and instruct them by word and example. With these words fresh upon him, having received his mission from the living representative of God, he went forth to do his duty as His priest. He did it well and was especially successful and careful in instructing the young, for in them he recognized the men and women of the future.

He administered his duties faithfully and was most exact with all the sacraments. He was at his best in the confessional and loved it, not because of hearing of sins, but because he knew that the angels in God were rejoicing at the repentant. He followed the words of God, going "into the by-ways and the highways teaching and spreading His blessing," going around doing good like his Divine Master. He was consecrated to the service of God and could not enter a home without bringing with him a blessing.

He was a great worker in the interests of his church and his people. It was always an edifying sight to see him about his duties, because knowing the power vested in him as God's representative, he did all well and carefully. He was an ideal pastor, a model to all priests of the diocese, who looked up to him with love and respect. His friends were legion, and not only was he loved in St. John, but in Woodstock, his own people and the non-Catholics as well revered him. He died as he had lived, a life of love and reverence for God.

The day he was stricken he had offered mass, then performed a work of charity for Father McMurray, saying he possessed all the qualities of a good priest, zeal, sympathy, good example and piety. He was zealous for the house of God and wherever he went he tried to beautify it and the grounds about it. "He was zealous for the salvation of souls and worried over those who strayed away, doing everything possible to bring them back. He was sympathetic to a high degree. When your sons died on the battlefield of France you had no better friend than Father McMurray. When some of your family were sick or died there was none better to console with you. He led a saintly life and gave an influence for good. Even on the day of the picnic he was not well but he showed his power of example on account of the good cause. You have had many priests in your church and will have many more but none you will find more saintly than Father McMurray. I ask you to remember him in your prayers that he may rest in peace and that God may reward him for the good he has done."

MR. MOORE IS BADLY INJURED

Latest Report From Hospital More Encouraging—Auto Accident Last Night

John Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Moore, was seriously injured last evening in an automobile accident and was reported in a critical condition in the hospital this morning. Balfour Paterson, who was driving the automobile and who was also injured, was able to leave the hospital this afternoon and return to his home.

The two men were proceeding along Rothesay Avenue last evening, and while turning the bend near Torryburn station, the car in some manner turned turtle, throwing Mr. Paterson into the road and pinning Mr. Moore under the car. Both were unconscious when picked up, and were hurried to the hospital. It was soon apparent that Mr. Moore's condition was serious, as his chest had been quite badly crushed, and he was injured internally. Mr. Paterson sustained slight concussion, in addition to a bad shaking up, and some minor cuts and bruises.

It is thought that the accident was caused by a chain catching in the gear and thus causing the car to skid and overturn.

A later report from the hospital is that there is a slight improvement in Mr. Moore's condition, although he had not yet regained consciousness.

What's the Value of Your Life?

Every man's life has a certain definite commercial value based upon the income he is able to earn.

What is the value of your life? Let us assume it to be $15,000. This amount at 6% will produce a yearly income of $900. So you see $15,000 is not an excessive valuation.

Now, if you owned a building worth $15,000, would you insure it to indemnify yourself against its loss by fire? Of course, you would. And yet the building may never burn.

But have you taken the same precaution to protect your dependents against the loss they would suffer in the cutting off of your life by death? And sooner or later that is sure to happen.

If your life is not insured for the value you place upon it, write to-day for our free booklet "The Creation of an Estate." Tomorrow you will be uninsurable.

Washington, Aug. 13—A hold-up man entering the banking rooms of the Munsey Trust Company, in the heart of the Pennsylvania avenue section, today pointed two pistols at a teller, demanding $150,000 and then, after firing one shot at a clerk, turned the pistol on himself. He shot himself in the jaw and was taken to a hospital, where the physician says he would probably recover.

Two money orders issued at DeLancey and Toledo, Ohio, were found in his clothing. When he demanded the money the teller first made a show of counting bills, then dropped behind his counter as the robber fired a bullet that pierced the coat of a clerk nearby.

SEVENTY DAY TRIP OF 8,800 MILES

Itinerary of Prince of Wales From Quebec to Pacific Coast

Train His Headquarters—C.P.R. Train Will Comprise Coaches of New Type Shortly to be Adopted Throughout System

(Montreal Gazette) The Prince of Wales during his forthcoming visit to Canada will live on a train more or less for two months. There will, of course, be frequent social events, when His Royal Highness will be absent from that train, but because his visit will be principally an educational one, undertaken that he may acquire a first-hand knowledge of all parts of the dominion, most of his time will be spent in traveling, so that for practical purposes a train will be his permanent headquarters.

This special train is now being assembled at the Angus Shops by the Canadian Pacific Railway, to whom has fallen the honor of providing the rolling stock to carry His Royal Highness from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific and back again. In deference to the implied wish of the king that there should be no undue elaborateness or ostentation during any part of the trip, this rolling stock, with the exception of two cars, will consist of ordinary Canadian Pacific cars. Some of them will be brand new types which will shortly be adopted throughout the system. But outside of a few minor interior changes, and after the completion of the journey will be drafted into regular service, so that some time soon somebody is going to travel in what was till then part of a Royal train. The exceptions mentioned consist of a long and a short sleeping car, the "Cromarty," belonging to Commander J. K. L. Ross. Each of these has been loaned by its owner. His Royal Highness will personally occupy the "Kilmerney." All the cars are of steel construction, equipped with all the most recent devices to secure comfortable travel. The train consists of the "Kilmerney," the "Cromarty," the compartment car "Empire," the dining car "Carnarvon," two sleeping cars, the "Carnarvon" and the "Chester," the tourist car "Chinook," and the two baggage cars. Projected Itinerary The itinerary of His Royal Highness, so far as it can be definitely announced, is as follows: The prince will arrive in Quebec August 21st, and will stay there until the 24th, when he will go direct to Toronto. On August 27th he will proceed to Ottawa, leaving there on September 1st, visiting in succession North Bay, Cobalt (September 2nd) and Timmins (September 3rd). Returning to North Bay he will travel over the Soo branch of the Canadian Pacific to Sault Ste. Marie, thence northward to Ojibwa, and westward from that point to Nipigon, where His Royal Highness will fish that famous trout stream.

BIG CROWD AT VETERANS' FAIR

BLUE LAWS OF WIFE WIN MAN DIVORCE

Seventeen hundred people passed through the doors of St. Andrew's rink last night to enjoy the G. W. V. A. fair. The different booths, the wheels of fortune and the spindles were very popular and many returned home with bags of flour and sugar under their arms. The band made a great hit and when they played the music to the "Maid of the Mountains" a fine English musical comedy they brought down the house. They were requested to play more English music and will render "Chu Chin Chow" this evening.

Adrian, Mich., Aug. 18—The peculiar beliefs of Mrs. Martha Hertler destroyed the happiness of her husband, Clayton Hertler, he told Judge Hart in asking for a divorce. The Hertlers lived in Pennsylvania, and had married nine years when Mrs. Hertler, he said, joined a sect that was opposed to smoking, Sunday newspapers, neckties and barber shops. "I was perfectly happy until she joined," he said, "I was even willing to let her join and gave her a horse and buggy every Sunday so she could go to church. But she nagged. She didn't want me to buy newspapers on Sunday for she said it was a sin to do anything but to church on Sunday. She wanted me to let my hair grow long and she didn't want me to wear neckties. "What happened then?" his attorney asked. "I packed a suitcase and took $100 and left her." He said that he left real estate worth nearly $7,000 and personal property valued at $2,000, and that he has never been back to claim any of it. He was given a decree.

VETERANS' PART IN CELEBRATION

Challenge Cleanable Collar A New One "THE CANADA"

There have been many questions asked by returned men during the last few days as to what they are expected to do during the celebrations on Thursday and Friday. It was officially stated, yesterday afternoon, that on Thursday the returned men are required to do nothing but enjoy themselves. They are asked to wear uniforms but as veterans in a body they are to take no part in the parade although quite a number will probably be in the parade, as members of the different organizations taking part, and those doing this may wear their uniforms if they wish.

ITINERARY OF PRINCE OF WALES OVERLOOKS KITCHENER. Kitchener, Aug. 13—Considerable disappointment is expressed in this city that Kitchener has not been included in the itinerary of the Prince of Wales' tour through Ontario in October. According to the programme the prince will visit Guelph and Stratford on the 21st, and Galt on the 24th, while Kitchener, one of the largest industrial centres of western Ontario, will not be honored by a visit. Mayor Gross, on the authority of the city council, forwarded an invitation several weeks ago to the proper authorities in Ottawa, but it was apparently too late to have Kitchener included among the stopping places. Steps will be taken to have the imperial train stop at Kitchener for a brief period to extend a welcome to the young prince in the same manner as was tendered to his father, King George V., in 1901.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13—There is some balm in Gilead after all. Here every one was warned that shoes were going to be $15 and $20 a pair as soon as cold weather made them really necessary. Now comes A. H. Geuting, president of the National Shoe Retailers' Association, to declare the members of his association are anything but profiteers and that this autumn's shoes will be sold at from $8 to $12 a pair. At the monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society which was held last night in the children's home, 68 Garden street, Mrs. David McLellan, vice-president, in the chair, a considerable amount of routine business was transacted. The report of the agent, Rev. George Scott, showed that since last meeting the pressure of the work had not been as great.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1919

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 13, 1919.

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

PREPARATION.

There is a busy and inspiring note in the air as this community makes ready to give New Brunswick's veterans and His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales a welcome which in depth and heartiness and in outward demonstration will exceed all records of the sort since Champlain discovered the River St. John.

occasion is no proof of lack of genius. The present Poet Laureate may do something great before long. Attempts to hurry him will only make the situation worse.

One of the smartest replies ever made by a parliamentary candidate was that credited to Lord Palmerston. A heckler at one of his meetings had demanded of the statesman—"Will you, if returned, support such and such a measure?"

It is a fitting and fitting, therefore, that the events for which our preparations are now almost complete should give to us all a deep sense of moving and personal interest, connected as they are with national and individual experiences which have touched closely the very centres of our being.

There's nothing too much that St. John and her people can do to show appreciation of the great work of our soldiers in the war. Let everybody show the boys tomorrow that we realize this.

The Chief of Police asks all drivers of vehicles to keep them off the parade streets tomorrow during the procession hours. There should be general acquiescence.

The Times publishes in a prominent place today the programme for Soldiers' Joy Day tomorrow. Do something more than enjoy yourself; help the soldiers to realize that it is all for them.

The city decorations promise to be exceptionally good. The display should be general. That's where everybody can do something.

Well, done, Weather Man. Keep it up for two more days anyway.

THE ROYAL VISIT.

15th August, 1919.

Gone are the nights of grief, Gone are the days of gloom; Today the Maple Leaf Salutes the Cambrian Plume.

Its wearers, by the side Of Canada's brave sons, Beheld Teutonic pride Bow low to British guns.

Love follows wher he goes, A love that's empire wide; Where broad St. Lawrence flows, By Liffey, Thames, and Clyde.

United if we stand, We'll stem misfortune's gales; So now, with heart and hand We greet the Prince of Wales.

HOPE A. THOMSON. 819 Princess Street.

LONDON, ONT., GIRL DIES OF SLEEPING SICKNESS.

Miss Belle McLachlan First Victim in the City of Sleeping Sickness.

London, Ont., Aug. 11—Miss Belle McLachlan, aged thirty-one, daughter of Mrs. Isabelle McLachlan of 4 Kenneth Avenue, succumbed at her home here, the first London victim of the sleeping sickness.

Miss McLachlan, who was private secretary to Lieut.-Col. A. A. Campbell of the People's Building and Loan Co., was affected by the heat while at Fort Stanley. She continued at the office for a few days, but her condition forced her to remain at home.

She had been a resident of London practically all her life.

OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT AT BERLIN IS. PLAN. Evidence of Spartacan Plot to Disrupt World Revolution is Disclosed.

LIGHTER VEIN.

The case was going for the defendant and his counsel was getting upset. "Has my client a reputation for being abnormally lazy?" he asked an opposing witness sarcastically.

"Well, it's this way." "Will you kindly answer the question?" struck in the irascible lawyer.

"Well, I was going to say it's this way. I don't want to do the gentleman in question an injustice. And I don't go so far as to say that he's lazy exactly; but if it required any voluntary work on his part to digest his food—why, he'd die from lack of nutrition!"

After he had kissed her and pressed her rosy cheek against his and patted her soft round chin, she drew back and asked him—"George do you shave yourself?"

"Yes," he replied. "I thought so," she said, "your face is the roughest I ever—" Then she stopped, but it was too late, and he went away with a lump in his throat.

A Literary Leak. (Baltimore American.) On the platform of a rural station stood a box consigned to a prominent citizen. The station master eyed it ever and anon. It was labeled as a package of books. He scrutinized the box. Then he sent a message to the owner.

"There is a box of books here at the station consigned to you. But it is leaking badly, and if you don't send for it soon there will be no books left."

Falkenhayn Accepts Responsibility for Some Acts of War But Does Not Mean to Give Himself Up.

Berlin, Aug. 12—While assuming responsibility for the decision and commands of former Emperor William from September, 1914, to August, 1918, General Von Falkenhayn, former German chief of staff, declares he has no intention whatever of voluntarily placing himself at the disposal of the Allies.

Paris newspapers on Aug. 7 announced that the German delegation at Versailles had transmitted to the supreme council of the peace conference a letter from General Falkenhayn. The letter said the former German chief of staff assumed responsibility for all military acts of Germany while he was in power.

Returned Soldiers. Sergeant Herthick Good, V. C., and Miss Martha Moore were married at Bathurst on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. J. A. Cooper.

Anthony Furlotte of Jacques River was married at Nelson yesterday to Miss Matilda Dupuy, of Chatham Head. The groom recently returned from overseas.

Charles V. Barchard, a returned man, was married at Elgin to Miss Beatrice E. Stiles, of Mapleton, last Saturday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. A. Burrows.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

J. B. Shaffer of Lawrence, N. S., was badly injured yesterday by a fall from the running board of his car. It is feared his injuries may prove fatal.

The Yorkshire Miners' Council voted yesterday that work be resumed. Some 200,000 miners have been on strike for some weeks.

The new Austrian government must change its country's name to "Republic of Austria," the supreme council of the peace conference has ordered. It has been called "German-Austria."

The embargo on hides and leather from Canada has already proved a decline in the price of hides and may mean cheaper shoes.

J. D. Shanahan of the U. S. Grain Corporation, arrived at New York yesterday after a tour of Europe, said that 90 per cent. of the tillable acreage there was planted and the crop this year would do much to relieve distress abroad.

From a conference of heads of Canadian Universities held in Ottawa a resolution has reached Premier Borden asking assistance for returned soldiers attending college. The sum required they say would total about $1,600,000. The applicants under the scheme would give personal security for the repayment of certain amounts granted.

The English house of commons last night passed the second reading of the bill against profiteering.

URGES GOVERNMENT TO ORDER CAPE BRETON COAL TO HELP MINERS KEEP AT WORK
Sydney, N. S., Aug. 13-Strong letters have been sent by D. D. McKenzie, M. P., to Sir Robert Borden and D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railways, urging immediate action to place increased government orders for coal with Cape Breton mining companies to relieve the situation in the coal fields. Mr. McKenzie's letter says the conditions existing among the miners of the counties of Cape Breton and Inverness are really very serious.

CANADIAN RECORD FOR SWIMMING

George Vernot of the Montreal Establishes New Mark

Montreal, Aug. 12-By winning the bridge-to-bridge swim, the feature of the annual championships of the St. Rose Swimming Club, on Saturday afternoon, George Vernot, representing the Montreal Swimming Club, carried the title of long-distance outdoor swimming champion, and at the same time established a new Canadian record for the distance of a mile and a quarter.
The feat accomplished by Vernot in winning this event for the third successive year, according to swimming authorities, has never been equaled in Canadian waters. Vernot, previous to winning the bridge-to-bridge events won the 440 yards open Canadian championship, and repeated in the longer event.
The race was one of the most spectacular ever witnessed in Canadian waters. Vernot was the first to take the water when the word to start was given, and he hurried into a lead that he maintained to the finish. The races were given international importance by the entry of Leo Giebel of the New York Athletic Club, long distance outdoor champion of the United States. In both the mile and the quarter and the 440 yards race Giebel finished second to Vernot.
The races were held on the river at St. Rose, which was crowded with small craft, making it difficult for the swimmers in the long race to get through, as many of those in the canoes and boats were ahead of the competitors in their effort to get to the finish line first, and in this way the swimmers had to work their way in and out among the boats on the course. There was no interference to any of the competitors, which is shown by the record of 29 minutes and 38.2-5 seconds made by Vernot. The previous mark of 32 minutes and 45 seconds was also held by Vernot.
The National Geographic Society has been asked to investigate the claim of John Shell, a mountaineer of Leslie county, Ky., that he is 130 years old. Shell has nine children. Lieut. Colonels and Majors Drop Rank-Verses Show Regret Coblenz, Aug. 1-(New York Times correspondence)-In these days when the breaking up of the American Army of Occupation brings many paraded officers of fighting men, one hears a dignified official say often to other dignified officers, "Well, good-bye, fellows, I'm going back home to be a sergeant." This means the speaker was one of the thousands of N. C. O.'s who gained commissions and did so well they rose to high rank.

There are lieutenant colonels and majors galore in the A. E. F. who were sergeants before the United States got into the war, and who, when they get home, lose their temporary rank.
As an instance, I mention Lieut. Col. Haverfield, adjutant of the Army of Occupation. He is a regular sergeant. Then there's Major Cockriel, the provost marshal, who made good as chief of police in Coblenz. There's Major J. Leland Bass, who was admiral of the fleet the Americans maintained on the Rhine. There are scores of other who lose the glory of the silver or gold leaf.
Stating their case, Captain Madden has written a string of verse, I quote here:-
(Dedicated to the army sergeants who were made second lieutenants during the war.)
They took me out of the ranks I loved,
And they gave me a golden bar,
I, who had sailed the seven seas,
From Maine out to Sanzarbar;
My education was none too good,
I had never worn evening dress,
And of balls and teas in society,
I knew nothing I confess.
It lifted me up on a higher plane
Than I'd ever known before,
For I knew what a commission meant
In the days before the war;
I was awfully proud when they gave it to me,
And I wrote a letter that night
Back home to a girl I used to know,
And somehow the world seemed bright.
Then came a night that was black as ink,
And the blinding cold rain fell,
We were holding a line just east of the Meuse,
Not far from old Canel;
The zero hour was 4 o'clock, my old,
And our chances of life were slim,
But I thought of the words her letter brought,
"Im awfully proud of you, Jim."
They sent me back, and for two long months,
I lay in a dreary ward;
When I returned to the colors again,
The Huns had sheathed the sword;
For the war had ceased, and peace had come,
And now they are through with me,
I'll be wearing the chevrons again,
Just as I used to be.

THE EIGHT SENT UP FOR TRIAL

Seditious Conspiracy Case Proceedings in Winnipeg

Appeal For Renewal of Bail-Three Others Committed for Trial on Sedition Charge-Two Men to be Deported

Winnipeg, Aug. 13-The crown yesterday completed its case in the preliminary hearing of eight labor leaders charged with seditious conspiracy-William Irens, W. A. Pritchard, R. B. Russell, R. J. Johns, R. E. Bray, George Armstrong, John Queen and A. A. Heaps. Stating their case, Captain Madden held on Saturday, without pending appeal for renewal of bail.
Winnipeg Aug. 13-James Grant, John Farnell and A. W. Martin were committed for trial in the police court today on charges of sedition. Each is at liberty on $8,000 bail. They were alleged to have been active in planning the silent parade which precipitated the Winnipeg riots of June 21.
Oscar Schoppeier, branded as an undesirable alien and ordered deported by the immigration board of inquiry, must leave Canada. The Manitoba court of appeals refused to grant an application made by counsel in his behalf that the deportation order be annulled and all proceedings quashed.
The following was given out by the acting immigration commissioner:-"At a meeting of the immigration board held on Saturday, August 9, an order was made for the deportation of Samuel lead'rs arrested during the recent labor disturbances. The Manitoba court of appeals, upon his admission that he had made statements in connection with his entry into Canada which were contrary to the facts within the provisions of the immigration act."
"Did you grasp the significance of that lecturer's remarks?"
"Not altogether."
"Then why did you applaud so much?"
"Well, I admire brains, and I thought that man must be awful smart to understand what he was talking about."

BRITISH "WHITE PAPER" ON THE PARAL PEACE PROPOSAL OF 1917

London, Aug. 13.—(By the Ass'd Press)—A "white paper" issued by the government last night deals with the Papal peace proposal to the belligerents in August, 1917. The Pope in his note said that before everything, the fundamental point must be that the moral force of right should be substituted for the material force of arms and pointed out that this would entail a general agreement for the simultaneous and reciprocal reduction of armaments and the institution of the principle of arbitration.

The Pontiff stipulated for complete evacuation of Belgium and French territory, with the complete political, military and economic independence of Belgium, restitution of the German colonies and complete freedom of the seas.

Foreign Secretary Balfour, the "white paper" continues, in acknowledging the Pope's note intimated that until the Central Empires and their Allies stated officially how far they were willing to go in the matter of reparations and restoration, and announced their aims and offered effective guarantees against a repetition of the horrors of war, the British government considered it unlikely any progress toward peace could be made. The French government intimated that its views coincided with those expressed by Mr. Balfour. Dr. George Michaelis, then German chancellor, replying for Germany, subscribed to the ideas of enforced arbitration, the limitation of armaments and freedom of the seas, but said no word on the subject of evacuation of Belgium and France or Belgian independence. He merely expressed readiness for peace on "conditions compatible with justice and corresponding to the European situation."

DECORUM OF U. S. SENATE UPSET OVER LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Washington, Aug. 13.—The traditional decorum of senate procedure was upset yesterday by an unusual demonstration of approval from the galleries following the address by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the foreign relations committee, assailing provisions of the League of Nations covenant.

For more than a minute the gallery spectators applauded and cheered in violation of senate rules and then, when Senator Williams bitterly assailed the covenant with howls and hisses a speech by Senator Williams (Democrat), Mississippi, in reply to Mr. Lodge.

In spite of Senator Sharp's admonition from the chair there were more hisses mingled with applause when Senator Hitchcock (Democrat), Nebraska, seconded Senator Williams' speech.

Vice-President Marshall made no attempt to check the first demonstration until it had begun to die out, but later he twice threatened to clear the galleries unless order was preserved. Senator Williams bitterly assailed the foreign relations chairman, declaring that in the three months of preparation he had worked his address to serve Reichsbank (Democrat), Nebraska, seconded Senator Williams' speech. He publicized his ends and to play to the galleries.

USE The Want Ad Way

EVERYTHING IS READY FOR THE TWO BIG DAYS

Elaborate Preparations Have Been Completed for Welcome to the Soldiers and the Prince of Wales on a Lavish Scale—Shelter Provided for All Visitors

St. John will start tomorrow to carry out their programme of celebration in honor of their soldier boys and soldier prince and from present indications it looks like two banner days. The city is being transformed and will never have been in gay garb. The various committees have their work well done and tomorrow's dawn will see the start of St. John's greatest celebration.

It is announced there will be upwards of forty floats in the parade on Thursday besides those coming from the various fire departments. It is earnestly requested that all those taking part in the procession will not go up King street east from Sydney street, but will go in by the side streets allotted, also they are requested to assemble not later than 9 a.m.

The former military hospital in St. James street, recently conducted by the Salvation Army, will be used as a hotel for the visiting firemen, whom there will be over 100. There are forty coming from Yarmouth, twenty-five from Old Town (Me.), and the same number from Hamilton, Chic Actman, of Moncton, will be here with twenty-five of his fire-fighters, and a brass band of thirty-five instruments. This is a very excellent band and beside playing in the parade will give a concert on the Barrack Square from 7 to 9 p.m. The City Cornet Band will continue the concert until the finish of the fireworks display.

Lady Judges for Parade. The ladies to act as judges with a number of gentlemen in the Thursday morning parade review in King Square are Mrs. M. B. Edwards of the Navy League and Miss Nan Brock, president of the Young Women's Patriotic Association. They are the nominees of Mrs. G. A. Kuhnig of the central executive.

It has been the case in many cities and towns when a large influx of visitors arrived that public and private accommodations have been taxed to the utmost and many have been forced at a late moment to scurry about for a place to sleep. While it is sincerely hoped no such condition will arise in this city during the two days of the celebration this week, yet the public wants to be prepared for such a possibility. So as a means of overcoming any over-crowding accommodations here the Y.M.C.A. building will be available as a shelter for women and the Y.M.C.I. quarters, Cliff street, for men. In both cases this refers to civilian public, people who by some chance may be crowded out of the usual housing places. Furthermore, the Imperial Theatre people will hold their large building in readiness at all hours of the night for women and children who might be glad to take a nap there. Military blankets will be supplied and a guard will be in charge. In fact in all the places mentioned military stores will be forthcoming, but the accommodations offered will be of an emergency character and not the regulation bed sheets as one would get in a hotel or at a home.

Commodore John C. Chesley of the St. John Power Boat Club, has named the judges for the speed boat race in connection with Thursday's regatta and they are as follows: Sir John D. Hazen, Hon. W. E. Foster, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Mayor Hayes, S. E. Elkin, M.P., R. W. Wigmore, M.P., Hon. W. F. Roberts, Dr. J. Roy Campbell, L. P. D. Tilley and Frank L. Potts. The flagship Thomas Mason will take the judges aboard at 1 p.m. at the South wharf. Commodore Chesley and J. Fred Belyea of the rowing section of the regatta committee, have arranged for clerks of the course and other officials. There will be police patrol boats to keep the course clear and at 12:15 o'clock the power boats will proceed through the Falls decorated, accompanied by a large tugboat.

A wire to J. Fred Belyea, last night, from J. A. Ryan of Lynn (Mass.) states that owing to impossibility of obtaining suitable contestants there will be no Boston scullers here for the regatta on Thursday. There is a good list of entries, however, and the rowing fans will see races that will well recall "the good old days."

With scrupulous attention to detail and on a scale quite befitting the regal occasion, the spacious grounds of Government House, Rothesay, and the house itself have been made ready for the coming of the Prince of Wales and his formal reception by Lieutenant-Governor Pugsley and Mrs. Pugsley. Rothesay village never looked prettier in its career as a fashionable resort and the grounds of the Government House are at the height of summer beauty. Many St. John people are perhaps unfamiliar with the layout of His Honor's Rothesay premises and it will be an added pleasure to some attending his function on Friday to stroll through the shaded walks or on the expansive sward, veritably a little park in themselves.

It is understood that His Royal Highness will reach Government House in the vicinity of 4 o'clock or perhaps not later than 4:30. He will proceed from the city in his motor car suite as will also the Duke of Devonshire and party and other distinguished visitors. Along the newly-laid roadway the royal visitor will pass under arches of identical design, ornate in greening, patriotic colors and insignia. Welcoming legends will express the loyalty of the residents of Glen Falls, Brookville, Ferryburn, Renforth, Riverside and Rothesay. In between these stretches cottagers are planning to make lavish showings of bunting, a notable display having been set up by Superintendent Clayton in connection with the iron gateway at the entrance to Fernhill cemetery. On the lawn, at Government House, marquees of sparkling white with red trimmings have been set up and under which will be served afternoon tea, cool drinks and other light refreshments. At the south-eastern corner of the residence a circular dancing pavilion has been erected and is being very tastefully decked in appropriate colors relieved with green. Upon this dancing floor it is expected the younger set will disport themselves to the music of a military band. Already speculation is rife as to who will be the fortunate partners of the gallant young prince whose notoriety in the matter of dancing parties has gone before him. Acceptances of Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pugsley's invitation are still pouring in, to the official secretary and it is quite well assured the grounds of the Government House will contain the

MODERN EQUIPMENT WILL RELEASE MEN

London, Aug. 12—Much criticism was heard in the house of commons today on matters of economy and expenditure for the upkeep of the army but Winston Churchill, secretary for war, defended the policy of the government and said that modern and scientific methods were helping greatly to reduce the cost of the permanent army. Major General Seely, under secretary for air, said that millions of money and thousands of lives had been saved by the campaign in Egypt and Afghanistan owing to having the air force. Mr. Churchill, defending the government, said that through its policy it was beginning to regain control over expenditures. The latter, however, was still dependent upon military commitments abroad. The minister continued, but already it had been arranged with France that by the end of October the British force on the Rhine may be reduced to a single strong brigade, including an air force of a single squadron. The delayed peace with Turkey and Bulgaria and the position in Mesopotamia prevented immediate reduction of the large forces, while the Irish executive was strongly opposed to reducing the Irish garrison. "The government is making earnest inquiries, whether it is not possible by free employment of the armored cars and swift tanks and a judicious arrangement of railways and airplanes to greatly reduce our armies in these regions," Mr. Churchill declared. He was hopeful that it might thus be possible to reduce the cost of the British forces by half. Mr. Churchill argued, however, against abolishing the framework of the anti-aircraft organization on the ground that no form of attack could more easily or secretly be prepared than an air attack. The lumber surveyors of the city organized last night as a local branch of the International Longshoremen's Association. Organizer J. E. Tighe, international vice-president, said afterwards that about ninety per cent of the surveyors of the city were present at last night's meeting. H. J. McLoon was elected president and Charles Sullivan secretary-treasurer.

THE RED SOX

Joe Page Writes of Some Things That Have Militated Against Interest of Team

(By Joe Page.)

The Boston Red Sox are "one thing after another" this season. They have failed to live up to their former standard form of playing standpoint and should at the present time stand well at the top and fighting it out with the other teams.

Edward Grant Barrow, conceded to be one of the brainiest baseball men in a playing managerial or executive capacity, was in reality the first one to pull a bone, and in this manner it will be conceded all round that had it not been for Barrow's wonderful executive baseball ability not only would the International League have been a thing of the past before the late Federal League had been in existence six months, but the blow dealt them at that time and later by the war would have undoubtedly put the league down and out for good.

But back to the bone of E. G. B. When he resigned as president of the International League, owing to the meagre salary he offered him, $2,500, the holding of their league together—a cut from the previous season of more than $5,000—was in the position of being one of three who were entitled to the holding of their league together.

Navy League of London Backs up Protest of St. John Branch to Admiralty

At a meeting of the executive of the Navy League of London a few months ago several resolutions were passed on the neglect of the admiralty to send H. M. ships here occasionally. The matter was taken up by the dominion president who sent on this resolution to the admiralty and the Navy League, London, the latter passed the following resolution and is also taking up the matter:—
"That a letter should be written by the general secretary to the First Lord of the Admiralty, endorsing the resolution passed by the New Brunswick Division of the Navy League of Canada with respect to the visit of some of H. M. ships to the Port of St. John, Canada, in order to further stimulate the interest of the citizens of New Brunswick in naval matters."
Colonel Sturdee, S.S.D., president of the Navy League here, has been officially invited to Halifax for the laying of the keel stone of the new Navy League Institute by H. R. H. The Prince of Wales on next Monday. The invitation is from the president and council of the Navy League of Scotland Division of the Navy League.

Man In The Street

Tomorrow starts the big time—"Let joy be unconfined."

Don't be afraid to do a little cheering during the next couple of days—Let's show those who say St. John is dead that it is not yet laid out, anyhow.

Fellow wanted to know this morning who this "like Dean" was who was painting the "Princes" and "Wales" feathers in the local decorations. He was afraid "Ich Dien" was an alien doing business here.

A whole week has gone by without the King street fountain work being mentioned.

"The embargo on leather if followed far enough," says cost of living commissioner, "should cause an actual decline in prices on boots and shoes in Canada." If it does we'll be strong for embargoes on a lot of other things as well.

With local houses advertising "autumn millinery" and "furs for the winter season" s'pose we'll soon have to lay aside the old straw hat.

But we'd like to know just for curiosity, of course, if these "furs for the winter season" are much different from the ones we've seen them sweltering with in the summer season.

Cleanliness Preached Also
The Chautauqua, while showing in provincial towns has displayed little banners showing the names of the places in which they have stopped on tour. A child who recently visited the performance describing what she saw on her return home said "and there were a lot of little flags hanging round the tent and on one it said, 'Bath Me.'"

Something should be done to that "vicious combine" if there is one which is said to be boosting the price of sugar. As the cause is, also should the revenge be—sweet.

Winston Churchill says that "modern and scientific methods greatly reduce permanent army cost." Quite so, and the same sort of methods also greatly reduced the enemy army!

Often wonder what a barber thinks when he's shaving that nervous individual who worries all the time lest he gets cut; he twitches and quakes until he receives the nick he was expecting and then the war on barbers should be given the privilege of administering gas. —that is the anesthetic variety.

Of course Riverside arch will be a nicely decorated one. And it will have a motto. This last fact gave opportunity to a wagging resident as a council on the matter was being held the other evening. He suggested "Come again and bring the missus" and at that the prince would probably have enjoyed the welcome scroll.

It's a good job they noticed that the children's grand stand at Reid's Point was the way before the time of the prince's arrival. He might have changed his mind about coming.

There is said to be a war waging in the house of the absent-minded man whose wife intimated that a "light electric" would be most acceptable and to whom was delivered the next day an electric light.

The number of liquor inspectors has been increased for the celebration period, their motto will be "Bottle, Bottle, who's got the Bottle?"

Some bright citizen has suggested that if it rains on Thursday the rowing races may be held in Prince William street.

When the Prince has departed and the festivities are over some one may have time to look up that harbor commission scheme which seems to have been lost during the rush.

The Prince's arrival at St. John's yesterday and at St. John on Friday will make some U. S. news editors wonder if they are getting the same story twice.

Winston Churchill announces that modern inventions have made it possible to reduce the number of soldiers required. If the league of nations can reduce the number of wars required more people will be satisfied.

Every pupil in the province must produce evidence of vaccination before returning to school for the next term, which strikes some lads as another good reason for longer vacations.

THOUSANDS OF POLISH JEWS WANT TO GO TO UNITED STATES

The Living Room You Idealize

Love for home is perhaps influenced more by the living room than by any other room in the home. The most costly furnishings may fail to create that magnetism which is the measure of home enjoyment if the scheme of furnishing is not correctly carried out. On the other hand a very inviting living room may be created, at nominal cost, where proper judgment and taste are employed.

The right furniture, the right floor coverings, the right draperies and curtains and wall paper are all essential but they are no more important than the ability to effectively assemble them.

Your advantage in relying on this store to create the living room you idealize is that you have here not only the newest and the unusual living room furnishings to choose from but you have the sincere and competent helpfulness of men who are qualified to assume the responsibility of working out most effective results at least cost.

We shall be glad to have you come here and compare values. We realize that our only reasonable claim to your patronage must be on our ability to give you as good as or better values than you can get elsewhere, and to supplement real values with service that is beyond competition.

We have made an interesting display of living room pieces in our windows which we hope you will make it a point to see.
