BRITAIN SENDS FEET TO THE DARDANELLES

Will Be Ready if Concert of Europe Should Be Broken Up

The Balkan States Scout Idea of Intervention With Their Armies Almost at Gates of Constantinople—The Position of Russia and Austria Causing Anxiety—Will The Turk be Driven Out of Europe?

(Special to Times)

London, Nov. 4.—Do you believe in the concert of Europe? It was a question put on Sunday by Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, First-Lord of the Admiralty. "I believe in the British fleet," is the answer attributed to the naval minister. Today's news shows that the British fleet is intended to play a large part in the concert of Europe. The third battle squadron, consisting of King Edward VII, Hibernia, Africa, Britannia, Commonwealth and New Zealand, the most powerful battleships next to the Dreadnoughts in the navy, together with the protected cruisers Dartmouth, Barnham, Medina and Weymouth, are now steaming from Gibraltar and Malta towards the Dardanelles, under French escort, ostensibly to protect British subjects in constant contact with the Turkish fleet. It is not likely that this will be given in view of England's attitude, so the perilous task of trying to force the Dardanelles may have to be attempted. Doubtless with a view to reinforcing this formidable fleet if necessary, urgent telegrams have been sent by the admiralty to officers and men to ready their ships forthwith, and the fifth, sixth and seventh flotillas of torpedo boat destroyers, which cross the British southern seas from Kars Burn on the Black Sea through the Bosphorus to the Sea of Marmora.

ALMOST AT GATES OF CONSTANTINOPLE

A Sofia message says the Bulgarians were pushing operations today against the last line of Constantinople's defenses, which cross the Balkan southern seas from Kars Burn on the Black Sea through the Bosphorus to the Sea of Marmora. News of renewed fighting along the railway length of the thirty mile front was hourly expected. Constantinople's capture was looked for before the Turks have time to reorganize their forces. The Turkish capital's outer suburbs are directly behind the Chalofortifications. The capital itself is distant from a chain of forts less than thirty miles.

B., Nov. 4.—(Special)—A big deal in lumber lands was put through here today when the Fraser Lumber Company, of which Donald Fraser is president, became owners of the British Lumber Company's lands, 22,000 acres in York, Sunbury, Queens and Carleton. The Victoria mill property of this city is also included. The Ormoco Lumber Company's property has also been purchased by Messrs. Fraser.

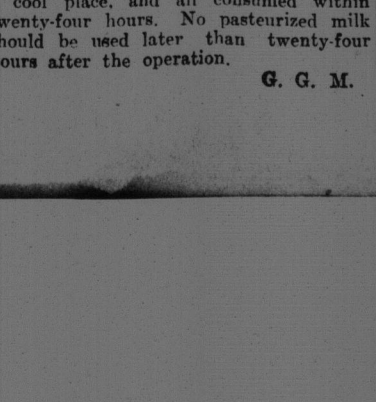

FELLOW POLICEMAN SAID TO HAVE MADE CHARGE

Suspension of Patrolman McCallum Who Has Been Regarded as Excellent Official

Although there are six vacant places now on the police force, still another policeman has been suspended. Patrolman John H. McCallum, who has been a member of the force for about ten years, and who has borne an excellent reputation. It is understood that he has been suspended for three days by Chief Clark on the complaint of one of his fellow policemen. It is alleged that he left his beat for ten or fifteen minutes after three o'clock in the morning. The other policeman, who was on the King Square beat, also left his beat, it is said, and kept watch on McCallum, and a complaint to the chief. Patrolman McCallum has been considered one of the most efficient policemen on the force, which he joined after serving his conscription with permanent militia forces. Since joining he has received one stripe for efficiency and for some months was acting sergeant.

WILL BE INQUEST

Coroner Berryman's inquest decided that he would hold an inquest into the death of Bernard Cribbs, who was killed by falling down the elevator shaft in the Opera House building on Saturday night. No date has been set for the holding of the inquest but it will probably be held this week. There is also talk of legal action by relatives of Mr. Cribbs.

WHERE BULGARIANS WON GREAT VICTORY OVER TURKS

BLACK SEA

Lale Burgaz, the town captured by the Bulgarians in the three-day battle of last week, will be found near the centre of the map. The lines between the various towns are the roads used by the opposing armies, but the battle stretched across the country to Saray. The Turkish losses have not yet been officially estimated, but it is probable at least thirty or forty thousand men fell. It will be noticed that the fighting is getting closer to Constantinople, which is only seventy miles from Thoria.

The Evening Times and Star

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act, 1885.

It is profitable for a community as well as a business establishment to take stock from time to time and sum up its accomplishments during a given period. Such a stock taking in St. John, for the year 1912, shows much that justifies a feeling of satisfaction.

The confident feeling that a steel plant will be established at East St. John has increased the interest in real estate in that quarter. The outlook for an active movement everywhere in the city and its outskirts during the next year is bright.

The movement to provide houses for people of moderate income should not be allowed to get ahead of the proposed town-planning commission. Next spring will undoubtedly see the beginning of a much more active building campaign than that of the present year.

The good news comes that the call for tenders for the new bridge at the falls has at last been issued, and that the tenders will close within a month. The erection of this bridge means rapid growth for West St. John and greater development in the parish of Lancaster generally.

The Times has before remarked that one of the cheering signs of the period is the steadily widening interest in St. John manifested by influential journals in other parts of Canada. The country is waking up to the fact that something of far more than local interest is transpiring at this national port.

The Canadian Club has heard with appreciation some very valuable addresses on the conservation of natural resources. Mr. John Bradford at the luncheon tomorrow evening will discuss a still more important subject, the conservation of the coast. He has had very valuable experience in community work, and what he may have to say will be of great interest.

In a number of the city churches yesterday afternoon serious-minded men gave an hour's attention to the study of social problems, and this study will be continued. As the Times has before suggested, the various groups should co-ordinate their forces later on, in order if possible to get more definite and valuable results than the mere partial diffusion of information on questions which call for aggressive work.

The Associated Charities of Winnipeg presents its articles of faith in the following sentences, which make clear the difference between the old charity and the new: "We believe pauperism can be eliminated. Poverty is curable. Both poverty and pauperism can be prevented. In order to eliminate the one, cure the other and prevent both, individual sentimentality must make way for enlightened sympathy and co-operative social effort. Attempts to cure a poverty-stricken man without finding out the cause of his poverty are like efforts to cure a fever-stricken patient without diagnosis. Careful attention to the condition of the children of the poor is absolutely necessary in the effort to reduce the volume of future poverty. Winnipeg can have just as much beggary, poverty and pauperism as she is willing to pay for; and can have just as much freedom from beggary, poverty and pauperism as she is willing to work for."

This is a terse and striking statement, which gives much food for thought in other cities as well as in Winnipeg.

The remarkable success which has attended the movements of the allied forces at every point of attack against the Turk points to a speedy termination of the war, with the victors at the gates of Constantinople. Any sympathy which might have been felt for the Turks has been alienated by the atrocities perpetrated by their soldiers, not only upon fighting men who fell into their hands, but upon helpless women and children. The story of these outrages has given rise to the fear that greater may be perpetrated in Constantinople. There now seems every probability that the terms of peace will be dictated at the Turkish capital, and that the victors will demand ample compensation and the assurance that there will be an end of Turkish power in the Balkans for all time to come.

The people of the United States will busy themselves tomorrow in choosing the men who will elect the next president. The campaign has been carried on with great spirit by the Republicans, the Democrats and the Progressives. The Socialists and Prohibitionists do not really count, and little attention is paid to their efforts. The attempt of a crazed man to assassinate Colonel Roosevelt very nearly gave a tragic significance to the campaign, but happily the doughty colonel is still in good fighting form. It is quite unlikely that the attempt upon his life, since it had no political significance, will have any effect upon the vote. The New York Nation, discussing the various prophecies on the result of tomorrow's election, says every man of sense knows that unless there is a marked democratic defection this year, the sharp division on the other side will make Wilson's triumph easy and certain. It adds that no one has produced any evidence to show that any large body of Democrats will cease voting for their own party, and even if ten per cent of the Democrats voted for Roosevelt the remainder would give a comfortable plurality over any division of the Republican vote between Roosevelt and Taft that is at all conceivable. It is this view of the situation which has made the betting in Wall street four or five to one.

THE FOUNDING OF THE BANKS NOW TO MERGE

Some History in Connection With The Banks of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia

An interesting feature in banking circles is the proposed amalgamation of the two prominent monetary institutions: the Bank of New Brunswick and the Bank of Nova Scotia. For ninety years the former bank has, uninterrupted, been doing business in St. John, and the latter bank has nearly eighty years to its credit as an institution in Halifax that has largely shared, through the very dark days, and during the brighter times in the trade activities of the province.

The Bank of New Brunswick was the pioneer bank of the maritime provinces. It was the shrewd amalgamation of the two banks, the Bank of New Brunswick and the Bank of Nova Scotia, which, in 1822, placed behind them the prejudices that existed among the masses against banking institutions, and the shrewdly established a bank in their midst, more or less, enterprising town. Halifax capitalists hesitated to embark in a venture of the kind; paying deference to the general public's view that a bank was simply a great monster which trampled the people under its feet.

The bank of our sister town, once it had opened its doors, was watched with no ordinary interest by outsiders. It succeeded in the acquisition of all parties in New Brunswick, why should it not succeed in Halifax? The argument from the actual fact—that appeal to experience, was of more value than a hundred speculative, frivolous objections; the sober thought of the town prevailed, and in 1822 proposals for the establishment of a public bank in Halifax were set afloat, and the plan was handed about for subscriptions, previous to an application to the legislature on the subject.

One of the leading inhabitants in Halifax—a member of a house of high respectability in the town who had more than one full barrel of Spanish dollars concealed in a dark corner of his cellar, laid up so securely that they were safe from moth and rust, and in a similar place where thieves could not break through and steal—withheld his name from the subscription list until he had had a private communication with a director of the New Brunswick bank. Then being assured that a bank, properly managed, would yield a profit to pay, at least, ten per cent., he unhesitatingly subscribed, and, inspired with the belief that they would return like "bread thrown upon the waters" before many days.

The testimony which the St. John capitalists afforded to the utility and expediency of a bank was of the more value in that it was disinterested, and was expressed with caution. His opinion was the result of a calm, deliberate conviction; and it confirmed most amply the deductions which general reasoning, the universal experience of mankind, and the strict maxims of political economy authorized. It was laid down as a principle that the circulating paper of a bank did not exceed three times its capital the public were safe. The capital of the New Brunswick bank was too large. The director stated that the paper afloat did not much exceed the

Thousands With Poor Teeth Have Good Digestion by Using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets After Meals

Whether or not we eat too much, is a matter of individual judgment. Benjamin Franklin tried the experiment of living on a handful of raisins. But he discovered that the question wasn't what he ate nor the quantity thereof, but one of digestion and assimilation. The normal person eats heartily, and with keen enjoyment. That is because his mind doesn't anticipate stomach trouble. And if he does have an attack of sour stomach or indigestion he knows that the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give quick relief.

A Gentleman of the "Old School" Who Keeps up With The Times

Many people have poor teeth, weak gums, sore teeth and other bothersome troubles that prevent a vigorous mastication of food. And instead of eating soft, mushy food that falls on the appetite they go in for those savory dishes, the very odor of which starts the saliva and makes the stomach fairly reel with anticipation. This is but a natural condition. Anything else borders upon the indigestion which fosters indigestion and chronic dyspepsia.

It may be safely said that it should not be a question of diet or kind of food, or teeth or even any of the reflexes which are supposed to have their influence in dragging the stomach. It is simply a matter of supplying the stomach and digestive organs with those known secretants such as pepsin, and hydrochloric acid, both of which have a direct and powerful action upon the contents of the stomach.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN. WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

IT'S UP TO THE PUBLIC NOW For nearly a month, hundreds of little children, youths, maidens and adults, have been giving their time, labor, and closest attention to the preparation of the fair musical spectacle, Alice in Wonderland. They have done this in order that more children may enjoy the public playgrounds next vacation time—that is, stay-at-home children, whose parents cannot afford to send them to the country. Therefore, when the curtain goes up on the fair extravaganza at the Opera House tonight, every chair should be filled, not only in appreciation of the entertainment itself, and the noble little participants, but in support of the children who have been laboring so hard for the worthy object in view. The performance will start sharply at eight o'clock, so that the curtain may drop on the grand finale at a reasonable hour. The next sale is large for tonight, but much larger for Tuesday night and throughout the week the place are prettily badly marked up.

HAS SHOT III DUCKS. Gleazer—James Cowie, of Nashwaak, has returned from a successful hunting trip at Grand Lake with Noel Scobbin, the well known Indian, as guide. Mr. Cowie was successful in shooting ninety-five ducks, making the total number of ducks that he has shot this season 111.

WALTER CAMP, JR., IN RACE FOR YALE BACK FIELD BERTH

WALTER CAMP, JR. PHOTO BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

Walter Camp, Jr., is suffering from nervous prostration, and football enthusiasts are watching the four cornered race of Camp, Philbin, Pumphrey and Marble for the remaining berth. Camp's punting ability, coupled with his accurate use of the stick, Philbin's speed and the plugging of Pumphrey and Marble make the race one of the closest in years.

Golf and Good Temper

The game of kings is rapidly becoming the game of dimes. Each season finds women advancing further along the green so to say, and displaying greater skill. The play at Furness has been discussed in every golf club. I am sure throughout the kingdom, and it has to be admitted, I believe, that in some respects women have the decided advantage over men; I will not venture to say in what direction. But I may go so far as to express the opinion that the equality of the sexes is apparently a question that is to be settled on the golf course.

ROUGH ON THE PROFESSOR

The mild-mannered old gentleman who was dining with Mrs. Gidkins was a geologist, and when, one morning, his landlady's little son informed him that there was a queer old stone in a neighboring field, he was in high place. "Come along and show it to me," he said. "I'll see you in a minute," said the boy and he began a hasty retreat. There were cattle in the field, but the professor took no heed of them until a terrible roar attracted his attention, and he saw a fierce bull advancing to greet him. It was a near thing, but the professor got safely out of the field. On the other side of the hedge he was surprised to see his landlady's son.

Football Matches in States. In the football games in the United States on Saturday Harvard defeated Princeton 18 to 6. Dartmouth beat Amherst 60 to 0, Brown defeated the University of Vermont 12 to 7, Pennsylvania State College defeated the University of Pennsylvania 14 to 0, and Cornell was defeated by Williams 24 to 10.

St. John High Wins. The St. John High School football squad defeated the Rothery College team 6 to 0 in their game on the Marathon grounds on Saturday afternoon. Donnelly and Millidge scored for the winners. The game was well contested. In the last few minutes of play, Millidge, one of the half backs of the High School team, had one of the bones in the right forearm broken and was taken to the hospital for treatment.

Bresnahan Not After Job. St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 31.—Roger Bresnahan, it was announced today, received last Tuesday his notice of unconditional release as manager from the St. Louis National League Baseball Club. Unless one of the other seven National League clubs puts in a claim for his services by November 7, Bresnahan will be a free agent. Bresnahan, according to his friends, will not try to negotiate at present with any team as he intends to fight for the fulfillment of his contract. He is ill with a severe cold.

They Separate. Blossom Seelye, who appears with "Rube" Marston in a sketch at Hammerstein's theatre, and who on Tuesday secured a summons commanding her husband Joseph Kane, to appear yesterday in the Jefferson Market Court to answer her complaint that he had threatened her with violence, was not in court when the case was called. She had written a letter instead.

When Kane came forward, as his name was called, Magistrate O'Connor told him he had received a letter from his wife and read aloud the communication. It told of an agreement by husband and wife to separate. The case was dismissed.

Shan to Marry. D. Capul, who is a pennant winner as a ball player, has knocked a home run over the fence and right into "Dave" Shan's heart, friends of the crack short-stop of the Providence baseball team learn. As a result of Cupul's hitting, Shan is to marry Mrs. Helen Toomey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Toomey, of East Boston. The marriage is to take place on November 10.

The bride-to-be is an expert swimmer, and is one of the most charming girls in East Boston. She has taken a leading part in the annual shows of the East Boston Catholic Literary Association, and for the last four years she has been prominent in the social events conducted by that organization.

Pres. McAlister and Secretary McRoy have returned to Chicago and both denied any knowledge of a transaction by which Brock O'Brien of the world's champions was to be a White Sox possibility. The story came out in a roundabout way. Ed Walsh attended the wedding of John Collins at Pittsfield, Mass., on Wednesday, and remarked to some friends that a deal for O'Brien had been closed during the stay at Comiskey's hunting camp. President McAlister and Manager Stahl being present as well as Manager Callahan.

Walsh named a couple of players who might figure in a deal for O'Brien, but Callahan said that he would gladly take O'Brien by purchase, but did not want any names mentioned, as a player is always dissatisfied if he is involved in a deal that never materializes.

Diamond Sparkles. John McGraw and Hugh Jennings are on the same vaudeville team. The reason why the club owners get the major portion of the world's series money is that they make the world's series rules. It seems as though a child could answer that.

George Simmons has been turned over by the Highlanders to Rochester. Four players are still in the major league who took part in the 1903 series. The only one who is making much noise is Wagner.

John Eves, recently made manager of the Chicago National Baseball Club, was tendered a banquet at Troy, N. Y., by a large number of his friends. Add Diamond Sparkles' daughter, George M. Colver, actress, is desirous of becoming a baseball manager. Through Jack Gleason he is attempting to purchase the Philadelphia National League baseball club.

English Athletic Records. At the meeting of the Amateur Athletic Association of England in Birmingham recently, the following records were accepted: One hundred yards in 9.45 seconds; 200 yards in 19.25 seconds and 220 yards in 21.45 seconds; by W. R. Appleby; and one mile midget relay race (880, 220, 220 and mile) by St. John's.

NEW HALF BACK WONDER IS DISCOVERED IN FITZPATRICK

FITZPATRICK

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Coach Alonzo Stagg of the Chicago University football team has his eleven in fine fettle for the big games on the schedule. The Maroons' adviser was dissatisfied with the showing the team made against Purdue recently and has made many changes. Fitzpatrick, a second string man, has been placed at half back and is expected to shine. He has been doing exceptionally good work in practice. He is a hard runner and an aggressive tackler. Minnesota will meet the Maroon team here on Nov. 23.

A MOVING PICTURE STORY

With our daily press and magazines filled with recitals of shortcomings of trusted individuals, of obligations forgotten in the mad rush for money, it is positively refreshing to flash upon the curtain of events even an occasional incident where gratitude stands supreme. Really the world is not nearly so bad as represented, for it seems to be a perverse element of human nature to magnify the wrong and minimize the good. Here is a true story which came to me unknown to the principal; in fact, I took no chances on asking his permission to print it, fearing he might refuse.

Some years ago a young man with more ambition than money went west in search of fortune. Through no fault of his he finally found himself far out on the plains without friends or money. He was fighting his way across the Rocky Mountains, walking by day and catching what free rides he could on the night freight trains. At last he found himself at a water tank, miles from any habitation, thinly clad, penniless, weak from hunger and exhaustion. Life seemed a failure and not worth the battle.

A freight stopped for water, and the engineer seeing his pitiable condition told him to climb into the cab. The dinner had been brought out and one of the two had a hearty meal. At the end of the run the young man was awakened and found himself literally over the mountain.

The work has been somewhat delayed, however, by unfavorable weather conditions. Another outfit is to be put to work tomorrow and it is expected that the borings will be completed in a couple of weeks.

FIRST TOUCH OF COLD A real cold wave, a gentle reminder of the near approach of winter, struck the city last night, and winter clothing was in order. The official thermometer recorded 20 1/2 degrees above zero, which is by far the lowest temperature on record this season. Some glasses showed a drop of about one degree below zero during the night. The wind during the night blew at the rate of from sixteen to twenty miles an hour. The probabilities for today are for somewhat milder weather. At their first meeting, which was held at noon on the 1st, the members of the new organization met and made the air a little warmer.

THE LATE FATHER CARSON The body of Rev. John F. Carson was brought to St. George today and will be interred in the Catholic church there tonight to give the members of his old parish an opportunity to pay their last respects. Services will be conducted there tomorrow morning and the body will then be conveyed over the Shore Line to this city where it will be interred in St. Peter's church tomorrow night. Services will be held at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Mrs. C. B. Dever, of North End, a sister of the deceased priest, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Kiffin of Douglas avenue, left this morning for St. George and will accompany the body there tomorrow. Interment will be made in the new Catholic cemetery.

TABLES TURNED A couple of young men of Indiantown on Thursday night last, wore a knowing smile over a "little joke" which they had perpetrated upon a well-known youth of northern end, in celebrating the occasion of Hallow'e'en. But the smile was changed today, it became known that they were due to receive notice that he would give them until Wednesday next to make good the damage to the boat or apologize. They had dashed his boat with letters in paint spelling "T.I.A.N.C.I.E." and they will either have to have these erased or take the alternative and should neither be done it is probable that they will have the recipients of a bill for painters' services. The yachtman in question was not "sorry" at what transpired, but certain circumstances led him today to cause the tables to be turned on the jokers.

FIRST VOTE AT NEXT SESSION FOR THE WORK IN HALIFAX

Hon. Mr. Cochrane Makes Statement in Montreal—Nelson The Hudson Bay Port

Montreal, Nov. 4.—Work on the big terminals at Halifax announced last week by Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways, will be started as soon as a vote for the purpose is secured in parliament, declared the minister here yesterday. The enterprise he added, would be carried out on the lines as stated at the luncheon in the Halifax Hotel, and the first vote would be asked for at the coming session. The minister practically confirmed the report that Nelson had been decided upon as the Hudson Bay port and if this is the fact, the railway now being built to that inland sea by J. D. McArthur will be taken to Nelson instead of Churchill. The minister said he was glad that an announcement at Halifax had given so much satisfaction to railway and shipping people.

ONE WITNESS TO WILL HAS PASSED AWAY; OTHER HAS LEFT PROVINCE

In the probate court today the will of John Butler, laborer, was proved. He gives to his daughter Bridget, wife of Patrick McCollough, his leasehold lot of land and premises in Erin street and all his other estate and nominates her husband as executor. By a codicil executed the next day the testator divides his property between his daughter Bridget and his daughter Lizzie, wife of John McCollough. John F. Ashe, barrister-at-law, one of the witnesses to the will is dead. Nicholas Murphy the other witness, has since moved outside of the province and his residence is unknown. On proof of these facts and of the signature and death of the testator the will was admitted to probate. The estate consists of the leasehold mentioned, valued at $750. T. P. Regan is proctor.

ST. DAVID'S BOYS TO BE KNIGHTS OF KING ARTHUR

Chapter to Be Organized—There Will Also Be Junior Church Choir

There are prospects for some interesting sessions for the boys of St. David's Presbyterial Church during the coming winter. The boys got together on Friday evening for a preliminary meeting and decided to have their own chapter of the Knights of King Arthur. The first gathering was in the form of a Hallow'e'en social, organized by the pastor, Rev. J. A. McHugh, and was the most enjoyable and successful in every way. The social games appropriate for the occasion were played, and at the close of the evening refreshments were served by the young ladies of the church. At their next meeting, which will be held on the coming Friday, the boys will organize a chapter of the well known order of the Knights of King Arthur under which various forms of amusements and other activities will be carried on during the winter and spring arranged for the summer. J. Stewart Henry of the teaching staff of High School has consented to occupy the office of Merlin in the organization.

The help of the boys of the church is also being enlisted in the formation of a junior choir, under the leadership of Mrs. J. McHarnes, which will assist with the music in the regular church services. "Indian Life in Canada," will be the subject of an address before the members of the Y. P. A. this evening by Rev. C. S. Reddick of British Columbia. Mr. Reddick, who is in the east pursuing a course of advanced study, is an authority on the subject which he will discuss this evening.

THE POLICE COURT

Some Comment on Street Actions of The Youth of the Day

Four prisoners were arraigned in the police court this morning. All four were charged with drunkenness. Two were fined $8 or two months in jail, and the other two were remanded. Wilbur Graham who was before the court last week on the charge of being drunk and assaulting May Wright in her home on the Marsa road, was arraigned this morning. He was fined $8 or thirty days in jail for the first offence and $20 or two months in jail for the assault. H. A. Porter appeared for the prosecution. In the juvenile court five young boys reported for being members of a disorderly crowd in Brunswick street pleaded guilty and after being detained in the guard room for a while, were allowed to go with a caution. Two little Syrian girls and a Syrian lad were before the court charged with taking coal from a car at the foot of Brunswick street. They pleaded guilty and were given a severe reprimanding. They were allowed to go. In commenting on the first case His Honor said that it was simply a shame the way that young boys and girls carried on in the streets nowadays. "It is not only the youngsters, said His Honor," but grown up boys and girls, in fact High School students, who are old enough to know better. Walk along Union street after the High School is dismissed and you will hear the students shouting and calling at the top of their voices. It is simply disgraceful." Isaac Williams was fined $2 for obstructing the sidewalk in Dock street with several old barrels of rubbish.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride, Havelock, the parties being very prettily decorated with evergreens and flowers. The ceremony was performed under a beautiful arch of evergreens and pink and white carnations by the Rev. Mr. Gagnone, pastor of the Havelock Baptist church.
