The University of Toronto.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

The movement which ended in the establishment of the University of Toronto as the centre of the educational system of the Province of Ontario, originated with General Simcoe, the first Governor of Upper Canada, who was himself an old student of Merton, the most ancient of Oxford Colleges. He repeatedly expressed his conviction, both before his departure from England, and also during his term of office, that the best interests alike of the Government and of the inhabitants demanded the establishment of a University in Upper Canada. It was not, however, during his administration that the project took practical shape.

In the year 1797 the initial step was taken, when the home Government gave authority to the acting Lieutenant-Governor, the Hon. Peter Russell, to set apart for educational purposes five hundred thousand acres of Crown lands, one-half of which was to be applied to the establishment of a University. The actual foundation of the University was not rendered possible until nearly thirty years later, when permission was obtained to exchange a portion of these unproductive lands for other lands still vested in the Crown, which had begun to acquire value from settlement under lease. In consequence of this exchange, a revenue was created, and in 1827 a Royal Charter was granted by King George IV. for establishing at or near the town of York—as Toronto was then called—a college, “with the style and privilege of a University,” to be called King’s College.

Further delay ensued, owing to the attitude towards educational matters of the next Lieutenant-Governor, Sir John Colborne. Through his influence the Royal Grammar School, then in existence at the capital, was transformed into Upper Canada College, in the belief that the educational necessities of the Province would be sufficiently provided for by such an institution. For twelve years, accordingly, a portion of university work proper was carried on, in conjunction with ordinary school training, by the Upper Canada College. After several changes in the administration of the Province, a Lieutenant-Governor of more advanced ideas in the matter of higher education, Sir Charles Bagot, concurred in the view that the long expected University should be organized, and on the 23rd of April, 1842, the foundation stone of King’s College was laid by Sir Charles Bagot himself, in the Queen’s Park, on the site now occupied by the Parliament Buildings.

Until the new buildings should be ready for occupation, the old Parliament Buildings, vacated by the removal of the seat of government to Quebec under the Union Act of 1840, were utilized for university purposes. Faculties of Arts, Medicine, and Divinity, were established. In 1843, the first matriculation of students took place, and inaugural addresses and lectures were delivered on June 8th and 9th of that year. A portion of the projected University buildings in the Queen’s Park, was soon ready for occupation—the only portion ever completed on that site, and thither the professors and students were transferred. A separate school for the Medical Faculty was erected further to the west. This building, known in recent times as “Moss Hall,” has, in its turn, been removed and the site appro-riated for the building of the Biological Department and Museum.

In 1849 important modifications in the constitution of King's College were effected by an Act of the Legislature of Canada. In accordance with this Act, the Faculty of Divinity was abolished, and the name of the University changed from King's College to that of the University of Toronto.

The University underwent a further transformation in 1853 through the abolition of its Faculties of Law and Medicine, and the division of its functions between the two newly organized corporations of the University of Toronto and University College. To the Senate of the University of Toronto were assigned the duties of framing the curriculum, holding examinations and admitting to degrees in Arts, Law, and Medicine, while to the President and Professors of University College, as a distinct and independent corporation with special powers, were assigned the teaching in Arts and the entire discipline and control of students.

The model of the thus re-organized University was stated to be the University of London. The characteristic features of that University, which had then only recently been established, were its limitation to the function of examination and its freedom from denominational restrictions. The University of Toronto, while retaining the latter characteristic unimpaired, has since been enabled to resume the function of teaching.

During the early years of the University it experienced repeated changes in its local habitation. As already noted, the faculty and students of King's College were at first temporarily accommodated in the Parliament Buildings until the erection of the east wing of King's College admitted of the occupation of their own building. From this they were anew transferred to the old Parliament Buildings in 1853, when, by a special Act, the site of King's College was appropriated for the proposed new buildings for the use of the Parliament of Upper and Lower Canada. On the return of the Legislature to Toronto, in 1856, the faculty resumed the occupation of the old King's College Building, while one formerly in use by the Medical Faculty was being adapted for their occupation. There accordingly the work of the College was carried on, pending the erection of the new University buildings. These buildings were begun in 1856, and on October 4th, 1858, the top stone of the main tower was placed in position by Sir Edmund Head, the Governor-General, an old Oxford professor, the value of whose sympathy and support at this critical period in the history of the University cannot be over-estimated.

For more than thirty years the constitution of the University of Toronto and of University College remained unchanged. Other collegiate bodies, principally denominational schools of theology, entered into affiliation with the University, and, in deference to their especial requirements, the course of study in Oriental Languages was augmented, but the Faculty of University College continued to do the work of instruction for nearly all the students in Arts who presented themselves for examination. The candidates for examinations and degrees in Medicine were trained in medical schools in affiliation with the University, and in the Faculty of Law the examinations were based upon text-books prescribed by the Senate without teaching.

In 1887, both the University of Toronto and University College, were remodelled by the University Federation Act. The main object of renewed legislation was to secure a more uniform standard of higher education by the union of the various denominational universities of Ontario with the Provincial University. Since the proclamation of the Act, Victoria University at Cobourg, representing the Methodist body, has entered into federation with the University of Toronto. The governing body of this institution is now represented on the Senate of the University of Toronto, its graduates elect representatives to the same body, and by the removal of the faculty and students of Victoria University to Toronto, where college buildings have been erected to the north of the Queen's Park, the union of the two Universities has been effected. Under the Federation Act, the theological colleges also, formally in affiliation with the University of Toronto, have become federating colleges, and enjoy increased representation on the Senate.

The Faculty of University Collège, by the Act of 1887, consists of professors and lecturers in Classical Languages and Literature (including lecturers in Ancient History), in Oriental Languages, in English, French and German, and in Moral Philosophy. All other portions of the Arts course are assigned to the Faculty of the University of Toronto, of which the lectures are made equally available to the students of University College, and those of all federating universities and colleges. For the maintenance of certain of the departments of science on a scale demanded by modern methods of research, special provision has been made by the erection of new and the enlargement of old buildings. In the new Biological building every facility is now provided for practical training in Biology and Physiology; whilst further extensions are contemplated, or are already in progress, for other departments of science.

A Faculty of Medicine in the University of Toronto was established immediately upon the passing of the Act in 1887, and teaching is imparted in all branches of medical science. All the advantages of the Faculty of Arts are available for the students in Medicine, and the laboratories of the scientific departments are utilized equally by students in both departments.

Since the passing of the Federation Act, also, a teaching Faculty of Law has been created in the University, consisting of three professors and several honorary lecturers. Courses are given in connection with the Arts Faculty, which serve in part as a training for the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

The expansion of the University has not been limited to the time-honored Faculties of Arts, Medicine and Law. In 1888 a stimulus was given to the study of scientific methods of farming by the affiliation of the Ontario Agricultural College, and the adoption of a curriculum of study for the degree of Bachelor of the Science of Agriculture. Similarly an examination for the degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery has been instituted, as a consequence of the affiliation of the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario. The College of Pharmacy has subsequently been admitted to affiliation, and, with the extension of the same privileges to the Toronto College of Music, a curriculum of study has been prepared for the degree of Bachelor of Music.

The School of Practical Science was affiliated in 1889. Graduates of the School are specially eligible on certain conditions for the degrees of Bachelor of Applied Science and of Civil Engineer in the University.

On February 14th, 1890, the main University building was partly destroyed by fire. In the reconstruction thereby rendered necessary, opportunity has been afforded for important improvements in lighting, heating, and ventilation. Considerable extension has been effected in the numbers, capacity and equipment of the lecture-rooms and laboratories. A new library building has been completed on plans embracing the most recent improvements suggested by the experience of leading Universities in the United States and elsewhere.

PRESENT ORGANIZATION.

In treating of the constitution of the University of Toronto and University College under the Act of 1887, the latest of the legislative enactments which have modified the original Royal Charter, it will be convenient to indicate separately the functions of the various bodies entrusted with the management of the finances and the academical administration. These are the Crown, the Board of Trustees, the Senate, Convocation, the University Council, and the Council of University College.

1. THE CROWN.

The supreme authority in all matters continues to be the Crown. Section 4 of the University Federation Act (R. S. O. 1887, c. 230), defines this authority in general as follows:

"The Lieutenant-Governor shall be the Visitor of the University on behalf of the Crown, and his visitatorial powers may be exercised by commission under the Great Seal; and the proceedings of any commission, having been first confirmed by the Lieutenant-Governor, shall be binding on the University and its members, and on all persons whomsoever." A similar section (69) applies to University College.

The following are, in detail, some of the principal matters in which the powers of the Crown are exercised:

All the property of the University is vested in the Crown in trust for the purposes of the University of Toronto and University College, and is managed and administered under the orders of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council by an officer appointed by commission, called the Bursar (R. S. O. 1887, c. 231, s. 7). The annual appropriations for the current expenses of the University and College are also made on authorization of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council (R. S. O. c. 231, s. 19), and all expenditures of endowment for permanent improvements, such as buildings, etc., are similarly authorized, subject, however, in this latter instance to ratification by the Legislative Assembly (R. S. O. c. 231, s. 25).

The Crown exercises also a veto power as regards the statutes of the Senate and the enactments and regulations of the Council of University College, which are required to be submitted, within ten days to the Visitor for approval, and are valid only when so approved (R. S. O. 1887, c. 230, ss. 41, 75.)

The powers of the Crown in respect to appointments are thus stated in the Act (sec. 5): "The president, professors, lecturers, teachers, officers and servants of the University shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor, after such examination, inquiry and report as he considers necessary, and shall hold office during his pleasure." A similar section (78) makes like provision in the case of University College.

II.—THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Board of Trustees, as constituted in its present form by an Order-in-Council of 1884, consists of ten members, viz., the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, and the President of University College, ex-officio; five members elected by, but not necessarily members of, the Senate of the University of Toronto; and two members elected by, but not members of, the Council of University College. This board has general advisory powers with regard to the management and disposition of the endowments and income of the University and College, subject to the control of the Crown. In the discharge of its functions the Board makes recommendations regarding the investment of the funds, the leasing of University properties, the letting of contracts, and exercises a general superintendence over the University property as to insurance of buildings, etc.

III. THE SENATE.

The Senate consists of three classes of members : (1) Ex-officio members ; (2) Appointed members ; and (3) Elected members. The ex-officio members are the Minister of Education ; the President of University College, and the president or head of each federating university or college ; the present Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor, and all past Chancellors and Vice-Chancellors. The appointed members consist of three representatives from the Council of the University of Toronto ; one from the Council of University College ; one from the Law Society of Upper Canada ; one from each federated or affiliated institution (subject, however, in the latter case to certain restrictions), and nine members appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council. The elected members at present number twenty-five, and represent the graduates in Arts (twelve members), Medicine (four members), and Law (two members), of the University of Toronto, the graduates of the federating University of Victoria (five members), and the High School teachers of the Province (two members) ; the graduates in Medicine and Law of Victoria University voting along with the graduates of the University of Toronto in the same faculties.

The body thus composed, is renewed once in three years, when all except the ex-officio members must retire, being eligible, however, for re-appointment or re-election. The chairman or president of the Senate is the Chancellor, who is the elected representative of the whole body of graduates, or in his absence the Vice-Chancellor elected by the Senate from among its members at its inaugural meeting after the triennial dissolution.

The functions of the Senate may best be understood from the general statement of them in the Act. (R. S. O. c. 230, s. 39).

The Senate may from time to time make and alter any statutes not being repugnant to the laws of Ontario, or to the general objects and provisions of this Act :

1. Touching the examination for degrees, or for scholarships, prizes, or certificates of honour ; and

2. The granting of such degrees, scholarships, or certificates ; and .

3. The fees to be paid by candidates for examination or upon taking any degree ; and

4. The application of such fees :

5. Touching the periods of the regular meetings of the Senate and the mode of convening special meetings thereof ; and

6. In general for promoting the purposes of the said University, and touching all other matters whatsoever regarding the same or the business thereof, or for any purpose for which provision may be required for carrying out this Act according to its intent and spirit in any case not herein provided for.

The Senate is also required to report annually to the Lieutenant-Governor on the general condition and progress of the University ; and it has also powers to inquire and report concerning the conduct, teaching, and efficiency of members of the Faculties of the University of Toronto and of University College. (R. S. O. c. 230, s. 45).

IV. CONVOCATION.

Convocation consists of the whole body of graduates of the University, in all faculties. Except indirectly through its elected representatives, no part of the management of the University can be exercised by it as a whole. It elects the Chancellor, and, in divisions according to faculty, it elects members of Senate as its representatives in Arts, Medicine and Law. Any question relating to University affairs may be discussed by it and a vote taken, and the result of such discussion is communicated to the Senate, which must consider the representation made and return to Convocation its conclusion thereon. (R. S. O. c. 230, s. 59.)

V. THE UNIVERSITY COUNCIL.

This body is composed of a President, who shall also be President of University College, and the professors in the University in the Faculties of Arts, Medicine, and Law. Its functions are defined as follows (R. S. O. c. 230, ss. 56-58):

“Such council shall have full authority and entire responsibility of discipline over all students in relation to the lectures and other instruction by the professors, lecturers and other teachers of the University; and no lecturing or teaching of any kind shall be carried on in the University or in the School of Science, by any others except the duly appointed professors and teachers, without the authority of the University Council.

“The University Council shall have entire authority and responsibility for all work carried on by the societies and associations of students of the University, provided always that all such authority and responsibility shall be limited to the conduct of the students in relation to such societies and associations as are organized in connection with the University.

“The University Council shall have authority over all officers and servants of the University, whose services are required in connection with the work of instruction ; and all curators, assistants or servants, engaged in the lecture-rooms, laboratories or otherwise, in any department of instruction, shall be under the sole authority of the University Council.

“The laboratory fees to be paid by students or other persons for attending the University, or receiving instruction therein, shall be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council on the report of the University Council.”

VI. THE COUNCIL OF UNIVERSITY COLLEGE.

This body is composed of a President, the professors in University College, and the Dean of Residence in University College for the time being. Like the University Council, the Council of University College has control of the students of University College and authority over the servants ; but its functions are more extensive than those of the corresponding governing body of the University of Toronto, notably as to its constitution as a corporation with a common seal, with power to hold property. These functions are defined in the Act as follows :

“The collegiate institution heretofore constituted at the city of Toronto by the name of ‘University College’ is hereby continued, and the body corporate called ‘The Council of University College, and the President, Professors, officers, servants, and all other existing appointments, and all statutes, by-laws, rules and regulations of such Council, are hereby continued, subject to the provisions of this Act.

“The said College shall be under the direction, management and administration of the said body corporate called the Council of University College, and such body corporate shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to hold real and personal property, subject to the provisions hereinafter made, and shall be capable of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded by the name aforesaid, and shall have the usual powers of corporate bodies, according to The Interpretation Act, subject to the said provisions.

“The said Council may make regulations for the management of the property and business thereof, and for any purpose necessary for carrying this Act into effect according to its intent and spirit in cases for which no provision is made, so that such regulations be not inconsistent with this Act or the laws of this Province; and the Council may from time to time amend or repeal the same.

“The fees to be paid by students or persons attending lectures or receiving instruction in University College shall be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council on the report of the Council of University College.

“All students, except in cases specially provided for by Statute of the Senate, shall be enrolled in University College, or in an affiliated college, or in a federating university.”

DAILY PRAYERS.

[Morning Prayer daily at 10 a.m., at which all, who have no conscientious objections are expected to be present.]

ALMIGHTY GOD, our Heavenly Father, regard us, we humbly pray Thee, with Thy favor, as we now unite in asking Thy guidance and over-ruling care in all the work of this day. We implore Thy Divine blessing on our country, its schools, colleges, and universities. We especially beseech Thee on behalf of this University and all connected with it. Grant to its professors, teachers, and students a sense of their responsibility to Thee in the use of the talents committed to their charge. Make of it a fountain of learning, virtue, and piety, continually enriched with Thy heavenly benediction. May all who go forth from it be enabled by Thy grace to use wisely and rightly the knowledge here acquired, and ever to employ their talents in the cause of righteousness, justice, and truth. Preserve us under every temptation; and let a sense of Thy undeserved mercies inspire us with zeal in Thy service. We ask it for the sake of Thy Son our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

OUR FATHER, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GRACE of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

O LORD GOD, the Fountain of Light and Truth : our Creator, Preserver, and continual Benefactor ; to whom we have to render an account for every talent committed to our charge ; bless, we beseech Thee, our labours and studies in this University. Let Thy Divine guidance and special favour rest on its professors, teachers and students. Animate all with a spirit of reverence, a love of truth, and a humble dependence on Thee. Teach us so to estimate rightly Thy manifold mercies, that whilst engaged in the discharge of the duties of time, we may ever be mindful of the more important interests of eternity, and that through Thy grace we may so order our thoughts, words, and actions, as to aim not merely at the welfare of ourselves and others, but also at rendering unto Thee a willing and grateful service. Grant this, we humbly pray Thee, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

OUR FATHER, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us ; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GRACE of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Father of all mercies, to whose providential goodness we owe the manifold blessings of this life, look down, we pray Thee, with Thy special favor on the professors, teachers, and students of this University. Guide us throughout this day, and in all the coming years. Bless us in the work in which we are now engaged, and aid us by Thy grace, that whilst diligently prosecuting the studies that here claim our attention, we may realize in Thee the fountain of all knowledge, goodness, and truth. Preserve us from error, delusion, and every presumptuous snare; take away all doubt and unbelief; and reveal Thyself to us as the Father of lights, in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge for time and for eternity. We ask it in the name, and for the sake of Thy Son our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

OUR FATHER, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GRACE of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Faculty of Arts.

ENTRANCE.

Candidates may enter this Faculty by passing the Junior Matriculation examination or the Senior Matriculation examination (First year), or at the examination of the Second year (see pp. 43-44). This last privilege will be possible only until and including the May examination of 1894.

Candidates for Junior Matriculation must have completed the fifteenth year of their age.

All candidates entering at the Junior Matriculation examination must take the pass subjects in Latin, Mathematics, English, History and Geography, and in one of the following groups: (a) Greek; (b) French and German; (c) French, and either Physics or Chemistry; (d) German, and either Physics or Chemistry.

Candidates intending to take, during their University course, any one of the following honor departments, viz.: Political Science, Mathematics and Physics, Chemistry and Mineralogy, Natural Sciences, are advised to take French and German at Matriculation, since these languages must be taken in connection with the above-named honor departments. For a similar reason candidates intending to take, during their University course, either the honor department of Philosophy or that of Oriental Languages are advised to take Greek, French and German at Junior Matriculation.

All candidates entering at the Senior Matriculation examination must take the pass subjects in Latin, English, History, Mathematics, either Greek or French and German,* and either Biology or Physics, specified below under the title of First year. Candidates who purpose taking the honor course in Philosophy are advised to take French and German as well as Greek, in view of the course for Second year prescribed on page 49; and candidates who intend taking the honor course in Political Science are advised to take French and German, either instead of or along with Greek, in view of the course for Second year prescribed on page 48. Candidates for Senior Matriculation may present themselves either in May—and compete with the undergraduates for honors and scholarships—or at a special examination in September, at which no honors or scholarships are awarded.

An undergraduate in the Faculty of Arts, in any University in Her Majesty's dominions, may enter by being admitted "ad eundem statum," on special application to the Senate.

If such application be for admission to the standing of the Third or Fourth year in this University the Senate will, if it sees fit to grant the same, prescribe the subjects of examination in which such applicant shall be required to pass before proceeding to the Degree, having regard to the subjects in which he has already passed satisfactory examinations in his own University.

If such applicant be admitted to a lower standing in this University than he held in his own University, he may not compete for scholarships at the next ensuing examination; but if he obtain honors he shall, at the next succeeding examination, enjoy the same rights and privileges with respect to obligatory subjects, as an original undergraduate of this University who has passed an examination of the same merit.

The ordinary annual examinations for Matriculation (both pass and honor) will commence in the beginning of July, and applications therefor must be sent to the Education Department before June 1st.

Supplemental examinations for Matriculation will be held in the University about the middle of September, at which those who are rejected at the July examination, as well as new candidates, may present themselves; but no honors or scholarships will be awarded at such examinations.

The fee for Matriculation is five dollars, and must be paid when the application for the examination is made.

* Hebrew may be substituted for French or German.

The special examination for Senior Matriculation, previously referred to, will be held at the same time as these supplemental examinations.

Candidates for entrance must produce satisfactory certificates of age and of good conduct.

The fee for admission "ad eundem statum" is six dollars, and must be paid to the Registrar at the time of application.

Until the Senate by resolution otherwise determines, the standing of candidates who have passed, or who may hereafter pass, the examination of the Department of Education for First or Second Class Teachers' Certificates, is accepted pro tanto at any Junior Matriculation examination.

First Class Teachers' Certificates, or Senior Leaving Certificates, or certificates of having passed portions of the examination for such certificates, may be accepted pro tanto at the Senior Matriculation and First year examinations. Teachers holding Grades A and B are allowed the options granted to honor men in the subjects in which these certificates have been granted; thus those having these grades in Mathematics will be recognized as in the honor department of Mathematics; those having Grade A in Natural Science will be recognized as in the honor department of Natural Sciences of the Second year, on passing the necessary additional subjects in the First and Second examinations; and those having these grades in English will be recognized as in the honor department of Modern Languages on passing in pass and honor French and German in addition to other necessary subjects.

The Examinations in Mathematics and Chemistry are not required of those who hold certificates of having passed the First examination in the School of Practical Science.

Candidates who desire to compete at the First year examinations for scholarships or relative standing cannot exercise the privilege referred to in the preceding two paragraphs.

Candidates entering at the examination of the Second year, and Undergraduates of First year standing who desire to take the Second year's examination, which will be possible only until July 1st, 1894, must, in addition to the subjects required for it, pass examinations on the subjects of the First year, according to the following scheme:—

For all who intend to pursue the pass course:—Mathematics, History, English, and Biology or Physics.

For those who intend to enter any of the honor departments, as follows:—

- I. CLASSICS—Mathematics ; English ; History.

All applications for such dispensation must be lodged with the Registrar before January 15th.

Every undergraduate who has not received such dispensation from the Senate for any particular year, must, before being admitted to examination, produce to the Registrar from the Head of the federated College which he has attended during the year, a certificate of attendance and of compliance with the requirements of that College.

Notice of the time of commencement of the undergraduate examinations will be given annually in January.

Candidates in all the years are required to send to the Registrar of the University, at least six weeks before the commencement of each examination, an application for examination according to a printed form to be obtained from the Registrar, and such application must be accompanied by the fee of five dollars.

The minimum for passing at such examinations must not be less than the minimum required at the University examinations of the same year.

Undergraduates of any year, who have been rejected, or who have by sickness, domestic affliction, or other causes beyond their control been prevented from attending the Annual examinations in May may present themselves for examination in September, at the time of the Senior Matriculation examination; but candidates who have failed to attend at the May examinations, must prove to the satisfaction of the Vice-Chancellor, before presenting themselves in September, the existence and sufficiency of the alleged cause of absence, and all such cases shall be subsequently reported to the Senate.

The name of a Pass candidate in Arts may be allowed to appear in the Class Lists of his year, provided there are not more than two subjects in which he has failed. These subjects may be among the obligatory subjects of the year, or they may be subjects attempted at a previous examination or examinations.

An Honor candidate in Arts may be starred in one, but not more than one, of his Pass subjects on like conditions.

Candidates who have failed in one or two subjects must present themselves in those subjects at the September Supplemental examination.

Candidates who were rejected must pay a fee of ten dollars before offering themselves for the Supplemental examination.

A student who has been pursuing the pass course, but who has also succeeded in taking honors in some department in any year of his course, may apply to the Senate to be permitted to take such honor course, as if he had originally entered thereon; and such application may be granted, the Senate having due regard to the subjects on which he has already been examined.

Candidates in pass subjects in the Faculty of Arts shall be arranged in the annual class lists in three grades, A, B, and C; the minimum for Grade A shall be 75 per cent. of the marks, and for Grade B, 50 per cent.; all who pass with less than 50 per cent. shall be placed in Grade C.

Candidates in the honor subjects of Physics, Chemistry, Biology, and Mineralogy and Geology, will be ranked in the class lists on practical work done in the laboratories of the respective departments during the session; and no candidate will be allowed to proceed to examination in any of these honor subjects unless he presents to the Registrar a certificate from the Professor that he has attained honor standing in the practical work of that subject.

The statute provides that "The Fellows shall be appointed from among the graduates of the University of Toronto, on the recommendation of the College Council, and shall be selected with a special view to their aptitude for teaching, along with their acquirements in the work of the department to which each Fellowship is attached." And also that "Every Fellow on accepting his appointment shall come under an obligation to fulfil the duties of his Fellowship during the College Terms of the Academic Year in which he is appointed, unless specially exempted by resolution of the College Council."

University College

As your son (or ward) purposes coming into Residence in this College, I beg to inform you that it is the desire of the Council that, where there are no conscientious objections, all the students under their charge should be present in the hall at daily morning and evening prayers, with reading of the Scriptures. It is also their wish that they should regularly attend on Sundays their respective places of worship, and receive such other religious instruction as their parents or guardians may desire. I have to request that you will be so good as to let me know whether you desire your son (or ward) to attend such daily prayers in the College, and that you will also mention the Minister under whose charge you wish to place him.

The Council will afford every facility for the carrying out of your intentions, and with this view, will exercise such control over your son (or ward) during his residence, as may be best calculated to effect your wishes. In the event of your not informing me of your desire on the subject, the Council will assume that you have no objection to his being required to attend the daily prayers of the College, and will exercise an oversight as to his attendance on the ministrations of a clergyman of the denomination to which he belongs.

Victoria University.

Victoria University was founded by resolution of the Conference of the Methodist Church in Canada, held in Kingston, in August, 1830. The institution was opened for students on the 18th of June, 1836, with the Rev. Matthew Ritchie, M.A., as Principal. On the 12th of October, 1836, letters patent were issued incorporating the institution as a Seminary of Learning, for the Province of Upper Canada, under the name of "The Upper Canada Academy."

In 1841, the Parliament of the united Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, being now first constituted by Act of the Imperial Parliament with authority to grant such a Charter, at its first Session held in the city of Kingston, passed an Act to incorporate the Upper Canada Academy under the name and style of "Victoria College, with power and authority to confer the degrees of Bachelor, Master, and Doctor of the various Arts and Faculties;" which Act was assented to by the Governor-General, on the twenty-seventh of August, 1841.

On the twenty-first of October, 1841, the Rev. Egerton Ryerson, having been appointed Principal, opened the first College session under the enlarged charter.

In the year 1844, the Rev. A. McNab, D.D., succeeded the Rev. Dr. Ryerson, as Principal, and occupied the office till 1849. At the close of his term the number of students in the College was 140.

In 1850, the Rev. S. S. Nelles, M.A., was appointed Principal and addressed himself to the task of organizing and enlarging the college to the status and work of a University. In the years 1854-55, the Faculty of Medicine was added and established in Toronto. In 1860, the Faculty of Law was added, and in 1871, the Faculty of Theology.

In the years 1883-84, a commission appointed by the General Conference of the Methodist Church arranged for the consolidation of Albert College, Belleville, with Victoria College, Cobourg, and legal effect was given to this consolidation by Act of the Legislature of Ontario, 47 Victoria, chap. 93.

The corporate name was, by this Act, changed to "Victoria University." The Government of the University was vested in a Board of Regents, Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor and Senate. To these bodies was given power to affiliate outlying colleges, and full University powers in all Faculties were continued. Rev. S. S. Nelles, D.D., LL.D., as President was ex officio first Chancellor, and William Kerr Q.C., LL.D., was elected Vice-Chancellor.

In 1887, the Rev. S. S. Nelles, D.D., LL.D., died, and the Rev. N. Burwash, S.T.D., was appointed President and Chancellor.

Under the provisions of the present charter the following colleges are affiliated in Arts with Victoria University: Albert College, Belleville; the Wesleyan Ladies' College, Hamilton; the Ontario Ladies College, Whitby; Alma College, St. Thomas.

On the twelfth of November, A.D. 1890, under the provisions of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, chap. 230, and the Acts amending the same, Victoria University was by proclamation of the Lieutenant-Governor federated with the University of Toronto.

By the provisions of the Federation Act, the President of Victoria University, a representative of the Senate of Victoria University, and five representatives of the graduates in Arts become members of the Senate of the University of Toronto.

Five hundred and seventy-six graduates of Victoria University have been admitted to the standing and privileges of the degree of B.A., two hundred and twenty-five to those of M.A.; nine hundred and seventeen to those of M.D., eighty-six to those of LL.B., and twenty-nine to those of LL.D.

On the first of October, 1892, the Faculty of Victoria University occupied their new buildings in the Queen's Park, Toronto, and the federation of the Universities was practically consummated. The curriculum in Arts for all students of Victoria University is that prescribed by the Senate of the University of Toronto. The Faculty of Arts in Victoria University provides instruction in all subjects assigned by the Federation Act to University College. In other subjects the students of Victoria University will attend the lectures and laboratory practice of the University of Toronto.

F. W. CANE, F. WINNETT, B. E. MCKENZIE.

Lectures:—A course of lectures will be given in the Biological Department for students of the First and Second years ; in this course the structure of the human body will be described in a systematic manner ; the various organs of the body will be examined with their more important relations and connections. In order that the course may be more comprehensive certain principles in general morphology and development will be elucidated. The lectures will be illustrated by recent dissections, by wet and dry preparations and by drawings and diagrams.

Tutorial instruction will be given to limited classes for the purpose of studying osteology, and for demonstration of the central nervous system and special sense organs.

A course of lectures will be given at the University Medical building, on Gerrard street, for students of the Third and Fourth years. This course will consist of a systematic study of the regional anatomy of the human body as applied in the practice of medicine and surgery. The lectures will be illustrated by suitable preparations and a series of demonstrations of landmarks will be conducted on the living subject.

Demonstrations:—A series of demonstrations will be conducted daily for students of the Second year. In this class the main facts in gross human anatomy will be demonstrated from recent dissections.

Dissection:—The dissecting-room will be open daily from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday. Students will be required to conduct their work in a systematic fashion and to conform to the regulations in force in the dissecting-room. One or more of the Assistant-Demonstrators will be in attendance at all times for the purpose of superintending the work of the students, and for giving instruction. Examinations will be conducted from time to time on the parts dissected and marks allotted for the work done.

Museum:—In connection with the dissecting-room a series of preparations have been mounted for the purposes of study. The disarticulated bones of the skeleton are included in this collection, together with frozen sections of the human body; wet preparations, illustrating regional anatomy, are also provided. Arrangements are such that a student may obtain bones from the osteological store-room, which he may take home for a limited period, if desired.

A pamphlet will be issued containing directions for the guidance of students of the class of anatomy, with the regulations for the dissecting-room. This should be procured by all students enrolled in the anatomical department.

SURGERY.

Professor of Surgery : W. T. AIKINS.

Professors of Clinical Surgery : { L. MCFARLANE.
I. H. CAMERON.

Associate-Professor of Surgery and Clinical Surgery G. A. PETERS.

A course of lectures will be devoted to a consideration of the principles involved in the practice of surgery, and the commoner forms of surgical injuries and diseases will be discussed in all their aspects. The lectures will be illustrated by plates and specimens from the museum, and by operations on the cadaver.

There will be classes formed to receive personal instruction in bandaging, the proper application of surgical appliances, and the use of instruments.

A course of clinical instruction will be conducted at the Toronto General Hospital, and will include : I. A series of clinical lectures delivered in the large theatre ; and II. Bedside instruction in the wards. Special attention will be paid to the consideration of surgical diseases and injuries at the bedside of the patients ; the symptoms and diagnosis will be discussed, and appropriate treatment suggested and, as far as possible, carried out in the presence of the students. The surgical dressers are required to do a large share of the work in applying suitable dressings, reducing fractures, etc.

In conducting the clinical teaching, the students of the Third and Fourth years will be divided into small classes, in order that as much personal and individual instruction as possible may be imparted. In this way an opportunity is afforded each student of making a thorough personal examination of all cases that come before the class.

PATHOLOGY.

Professor : J. CAVEN.

Demonstrator : J. AMYOT.

The course will embrace lectures on general and special pathology, together with demonstrations in both gross morbid anatomy and pathological histology. The lectures to the Third year will be mainly upon general pathology, and those to the Fourth year upon special pathology. Post mortem examinations are performed by the Professor of Pathology at the General Hospital, and the students of the Fourth year will be expected to take part in these. Gross demonstrations in addition to those in the Hospital Mortuary are given in the College class-rooms every week, and will be so arranged that students of both Third and Fourth years may take advantage of them. The University having equipped a pathological laboratory in the school building, and a clinical laboratory in the General Hospital, every facility for microscopic work in tissues and fluids is afforded. At least seventy-five slides of morbid tissues are mounted by each senior student, and four hours demonstration in microscopic work per week given in each year. Clinical clerks receive regular instruction in analysis of urine, examination of blood, sputum, etc., in the Hospital Clinical Laboratory.

MEDICINE.

Professor of Medicine and Clinical Medicine : J. E. GRAHAM.

Associate-Professor of Medicine and Clinical

Medicine A. MCPHEDRAN.

Lecturer in Clinical Medicine : W. P. CAVEN.

The subjects of medicine and clinical medicine being under the same teachers, every possible effort will be made to combine the work of the lecture-room with the clinical work in the wards of the hospital, so as to illustrate, as far as possible, the lectures by observations and discussions of cases at the bedside.

In the lectures, all the internal diseases met with in this country will be discussed, and every opportunity taken to demonstrate them in the wards. Their pathological anatomy will be demonstrated by morbid specimens from the University museum, as well as by fresh material furnished by the pathologist from the post-mortem room.

In the hospital work, both Third and Fourth year students will be taken daily into the wards, where instruction will be given to classes at the bedside, and each student required to take part in the examination of the patients.

Students will act as clinical clerks, and will be required to keep accurate and complete histories, which will from time to time be criticised before the class. Fourth year students will be called upon to examine all new patients before the class, and to interpret the significance of the conditions found.

Small classes will be formed of the junior students for the study of the methods of examination and the interpretation of symptoms, the utmost care being taken to develop accuracy of observation and of interpretation.

II. Instructions in the Wards:

(a) Medicine and Surgery.—A systematic course of bedside instruction is given to limited classes of students. Arrangements are such that each physician and surgeon or his assistant is in daily attendance for the purpose of imparting instruction at the bedside; by this means provision is made for continuous daily work in the ward, and students of both Third and Fourth years are required to avail themselves of it.

(b) Gynæcology.—Small classes of students receive instruction in diseases peculiar to women in the pavilion specially devoted to the treatment of such patients. These classes meet twice a week.

(c) Obstetrics.—In the Burnside Lying-in-Hospital, in which there are over 150 births a year, final students are permitted to witness and assist in the conduct of labors. Students are also allowed to make engagements with out-patients and to attend them in confinements at their own homes.

(d) Ophthalmology, otology, laryngology and rhinology.—Diseases of the eye, ear, throat and nose are studied in the wards of the Andrew Mercer Infirmary.

III. Surgical Operations.—Surgical operations are performed in the large theatre on Saturday afternoons, or in cases of emergency at any time during the day or night when required. The theatre, which has been recently altered and enlarged, is capable of seating 600 students, and in the completeness of its arrangements is not excelled. The facilities afforded the students situated in all parts of the room for witnessing operations in all their details are unusually good.

IV. Out-patient Clinics :—The new addition to the hospital for the accommodation of out-patients affords ample facilities for instruction in the important class of diseases which here pass under observation. A physician and a surgeon are in attendance daily, and instruction is given on the patients. The cases presenting themselves in the special departments of the hospital devoted to diseases of the eye, ear, etc., are available in the same manner. There will also be an out-door clinic in gynaecology.

(a) Autopsies :—These are performed at stated hours by the Professor, or the Demonstrator of Pathology. The examinations are conducted in a systematic way, and instruction on the morbid conditions found are imparted to the students. The bearings of the gross post-mortem appearances on the conditions previously found at the bedside are carefully investigated, and, when necessary, arrangements are made for further examination, microscopical and chemical.

(b) The examination and analysis of the various fluids, excreta and pathological products of patients in the wards, are conducted in the University Hospital laboratory. Students are required to keep systematic records of the results obtained by these examinations.

CLINICAL CLERKS AND SURGICAL DRESSERS.

Clinical clerks and surgical dressers are appointed to act for limited periods. They are required to take complete histories of cases allotted to them, and to receive certificates for the same, as required by the Ontario Medical Council. Post-mortem clerks are appointed, and are required to make complete reports of all autopsies made in the post-mortem room, which is situated in the hospital grounds. Clinical clerks and surgical dressers are also appointed in the departments of gynaecology, and ophthalmology, and otology.

RESIDENT ASSISTANTS IN THE HOSPITAL.

Four resident assistants are appointed annually from the graduates of medicine in the University, and hold their positions for the year. They will have full opportunities for acquiring experience in the general and special wards of the hospital, but during the sessions they will have charge under the physicians and surgeons in the general wards.

REGULATIONS RELATING

TO THE

EXAMINATIONS AND GRANTING OF DEGREES IN MEDICINE.

The Curriculum here published comes into effect for those students only who begin their undergraduate course in 1893 and subsequent years. Students who have commenced their studies as outlined in the old Curriculum (see Calendar, 1892-93) are supposed to complete the undergraduate course according to the regulations of that Curriculum.

DEGREE OF M. B.

The Degree of M. B. is given to candidates who have matriculated and who have attended during four winter sessions of at least six months each and one summer session the courses of instruction as required by this curriculum, and who have passed three examinations taken in the following order: the First at the end of the first session; the Second, at the end of the second session; and the Final, at the end of the fourth session.

ENTRANCE.

Candidates for a degree must pass the Matriculation examination, unless (1) they possess a degree in Arts not being an Honorary Degree, from any Dominion or British University; or (2) have already matriculated in the Faculty of Arts or in the Faculty of Law in this University; or (3) have been registered as Matriculates in the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

Before presenting themselves for examination, candidates must produce satisfactory certificates of good conduct, and of having completed the sixteenth year of their age.

The ordinary Annual Matriculation examinations (both Pass and Honor) will commence in the beginning of July.

Supplemental examinations for Matriculation will be held in the latter part of September, at which those who were rejected at the July examinations, as well as new candidates, may offer themselves; but no honors or scholarships will be awarded at such Supplemental examinations.

The fee for Matriculation is five dollars, and must be paid when the application for the examination is made, according to the regulations issued by the Education Department, under whose superintendence this examination is now conducted. The fee for registration of exemption from the Matriculation examination is five dollars.

Candidates may delay presenting themselves for the Matriculation examination until any time before the Second examination for the degree of M.B.; but no candidate will be allowed to compete for relative standing, prizes, or scholarships, until he has passed the Matriculation examination.

Candidates intending to compete for scholarships at Matriculation are required to notify the Registrar of the University to that effect before May 24th, in addition to the application required to be made as above stated to the Education Department.

No fee will be charged for transferring from the Faculty of Arts to that of Medicine.

For subjects of examination at Junior Matriculation, Pass and Honor, see Appendix.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO UNDERGRADUATES.

Undergraduates are required to attend lectures, and receive practical instruction during each of four years, at any of the schools of Medicine recognized for this purpose by the University.

They are required to present certificates of attendance on the various courses of lectures and practical instruction required for each examination.

The annual examinations are styled the First, Second, and Final examinations, and are to be passed at the end of the First, Second and Fourth academic years respectively.

Undergraduates below the standing of the Fourth year, who have been rejected or who have been prevented from attending the annual examinations by sickness, domestic affliction, or other causes beyond their control, may present themselves for examination in September at the Supplemental examinations. Candidates at any examination who have passed in the majority of the subjects required may present themselves at the Supplemental examinations next ensuing, in the subjects in which they failed, and upon passing at such examinations, shall be allowed their year. Candidates who failed to attend at the annual examinations, must prove to the satisfaction of the Senate before presenting themselves in September, the existence and sufficiency of the alleged cause of absence. Candidates who were rejected must pay a fee of ten dollars, and those who did not attend, a fee also of ten dollars, before offering themselves for the Supplemental examination.

Graduates in Arts of the University may enter at the Second examination, but will be required to take such subjects of the First examination as they have not taken in their Arts course, though in these subjects they shall not be required to take an Honor standing. (For list of equivalent examinations, see page 8).

The fee for each examination is five dollars, payable when the candidate notifies the Registrar of his intention to present himself.

Notice will be given annually, in January, of the days on which the examinations for the year will commence. Every undergraduate who proposes to present himself at an examination must send in to the Registrar a statement (according to a printed form which will be furnished) of the course he is taking, whether he intends to compete for Honors, and such other particulars as the printed form may indicate, together with the original certificates referred to in this statement.

THE GEORGE BROWN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP IN MEDICAL SCIENCE.

Dr. A. H. F. Barbour, of Edinburgh, having placed a sum of money at the disposal of the University of Toronto, for the purpose of founding a Scholarship in Medical Science in memory of the late Hon. George Brown, the following regulations have been adopted with regard thereto :—

This scholarship shall be called the George Brown Memorial Scholarship in Medical Science, and shall be awarded annually at the convocation for conferring degrees in medicine to the Bachelor of Medicine who shall have distinguished himself most during his undergraduate course in the subjects of Anatomy, Biology, Physiology and Pathology.

The comparative value of the several subjects is to be estimated according to the following schedule :—

1st year—Biology	200
2nd year—Anatomy	300
Physiology	300
Embryology and Histology	100
4th year—Pathology	300
Total	1200

The award shall be made by a committee composed of the Professors in these subjects, and of the Examiners for the time being therein, who shall report as to the successful candidates, after having given due attention to the results of the Annual examinations, and to the character of the work done by the candidates in the University laboratories.

The holder of the scholarship during the year of tenure is required to engage in original research in any one of the laboratories of the University, on some subject bearing on the advancement of medical science—the laboratory providing the material for the investigation.

The scholarship is to be paid in two portions, two-thirds at the time of award and one-third six months later, on the holder giving a satisfactory report (to whomsoever the University may appoint) of the work he has already done.

A report of the research, when completed, is to be given to the University.

The value of the scholarship consists in the proceeds of one thousand pounds sterling, invested at the rate of interest secured by the University for such benefactions.

The scholarship is tenable for one year.

THE STARR MEDALS.

The late Richard Noble Starr, M. D., devised certain property for the encouragement of post-graduate study in Anatomy, Physiology and Pathology, and in fulfilment of this object one gold and two silver medals, called the "Starr Medals," are awarded annually to three candidates for the degree of M. D. who have shown by the theses which they have presented for that degree that they have successfully pursued such study in any one of these subjects. The theses for which these medals are given must attain a standard approved of by the Board of Examiners, and the relative value of the theses will determine the rank of the candidates for the medals.

St. Michael's College.

St. Michael's College was established in 1852 by the Basilian Fathers from Annonay, France, at the request and under the patronage of the Most Rev. Dr. De Charbonnel, then Bishop of Toronto. For four years the College occupied the wing of St. Michael's Palace, on Church Street. In 1856, a more suitable edifice was erected on the present site, part of which was the gift of the late Hon. John Elmsley. Since that time the building has been more than doubled, and the chapel enlarged and improved.

The object of the institution is to impart a thorough Catholic training, moral and intellectual, so as to fit young men for any position in life which they may wish to occupy.

The studies advancing steadily with the educational progress of the country, it was deemed advantageous for those studying for the liberal professions to have the College affiliated with the Provincial University. In 1881 this affiliation was affected upon a basis similar to that of several of the Catholic Colleges of England and Ireland with the University of London.

The course of study comprises, besides an Elementary department three others, viz., Commercial, Classical and Philosophical. In the latter department lectures are delivered in the subjects of the department of Philosophy as prescribed by the curriculum of the University of Toronto.

Special lectures are also delivered upon the History required in the curriculum of the University.

Knox College.

Knox College was established at Toronto in 1844, as a theological seminary in connection with the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada or Free Church which had been organized in the same year. In 1858 it was incorporated by Act of Parliament. In 1861, in consequence of the Union of the Synod of the Free Church and that of the United Presbyterian Church, as the Synod of the Canada Presbyterian Church, the Theological Institute of the United Presbyterian Synod and Knox College were united.

After many changes of habitation the present buildings on Spadina Avenue were erected in 1875. It was affiliated with the University of Toronto in 1885, and upon the passage of the University Federation Act, became in accordance with the views of that Act, a federating College, with additional representation on the Senate, and in the University and University College its students receive instruction in the subjects of an Arts course prescribed for them as preliminary to the study of Theology. The majority of its students proceed to graduation in Arts: others take a more limited course, embracing English, History, Logic and Rhetoric, Chemistry, Mental and Moral Philosophy, and Hebrew. The course in Theology extends over three years. A number of scholarships and prizes are offered for competition in each year.

This federating College was founded 1877, and known at first as the Protestant Episcopal Divinity School. As that name implies, it is a Church of England Theological College, and its work and methods are based upon the position of "distinctive evangelical teaching." It was affiliated with the University in 1885; and upon the passage of the University Federation Act became, in accordance with the terms of that Act, a federating College, with additional representation on the Senate. The present building, completed in 1891, stands to the north-east of the main University building.

The School of Practical Science.

The School of Practical Science was founded by Act of the Legislative Assembly in 1877. An arrangement was entered into with the Council of University College whereby the students of the School received instruction in those University subjects which were included in the work of the School. In 1889, the School was affiliated to the University of Toronto. In 1890, very large additions were made to the original building. The latter was set apart for the work in Chemistry, Mineralogy and Assaying, while the Engineering and Architectural Departments were accommodated in the new building, a large portion of which is occupied by the Engineering Laboratory. This laboratory has been equipped with the most modern machinery and apparatus for carrying on original investigations in steam engineering, hydraulic and electrical engineering, strength of materials of construction, standards of length, etc.

The Department of Chemistry is provided with laboratories for qualitative and quantitative analysis, toxicology, etc.

In the Department of Mining Engineering there are laboratories for assaying, blowpipe analysis, microscopic lithology, etc. For instruction in Surveying and Practical Astronomy the School is supplied with a good collection of the ordinary field instruments—transits, levels, etc.—and also with a ten-inch theodolite for astronomical and geodetic work.

The Departments of instruction are:—

1. Civil Engineering, including Sanitary Engineering.
2. Mechanical and Electrical Engineering.
3. Mining Engineering.

4. Architecture.

5. Analytical and Applied Chemistry.

The instruction given in each of these departments is designed to give the students a thorough knowledge of the scientific principles underlying the practice in the several professions, and also to give them such a training as will make them immediately useful when they enter into active professional work.

Ontario Agricultural College.

The Institution known as the "Ontario Agricultural College and Experimental Farm," is situated about a mile to the south of the city of Guelph, in the centre of an extensive agricultural and noted stock-raising district, readily accessible by rail from all parts of the province. The farm consists of 550 acres, about 400 of which are cleared. It is composed of almost every variety of soil, and hence is well suited for the purpose for which it was selected.

The instruction given at the institution is embraced under two heads, a course of study and a course of apprenticeship. The latter is required of all First and Second year students in the autumn, winter, and spring terms, during which they are employed in rotation in each of six departments of practical farm labour. The regular course of study is for two years, at the end of which time an Associate Diploma is granted by the College.

Holders of the Associate Diploma who obtain a certain standing in the theoretical and practical work of the first two years may remain for a third year. In 1888 the College was affiliated with the University of Toronto, and an examination for the degree of Bachelor of the Science of Agriculture was instituted, to which only students of the Third year in the Ontario Agricultural College may be admitted.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

On the evening of February 14th, 1890, the Library of the University, together with the greater portion of the main University Building, was destroyed by fire. The Library then contained about 33,000 volumes, including many rare and valuable books and sets of scientific periodicals.

The destruction of the University was no sooner known than active measures were taken to replace what was lost. At a special meeting of Convocation a committee was formed to solicit subscriptions and donations of books from friends of the University and higher education. In England a similar movement was organized, and a committee formed, under the Marquis of Lorne as Chairman, Mr. Staveley Hill, M.P., as Honorary Treasurer, and Sir George Baden-Powell, M.P., as Honorary Secretary. In Germany, also, a committee of learned men, interested in University education, was formed for the same purpose, with Herr John Landauer, of Braunschweig, as Secretary. The appeals sent out met with a prompt and hearty response. Amongst the many donors may be mentioned Her Majesty the Queen, their Majesties the German Emperor, and the Kings of Saxony and Württemberg, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the late Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Argyle; the Governments of Great Britain, France, Italy, Sweden, of the Dominion of Canada and its provinces, of the Australian Colonies, of the United States, and many of the States of the Union; the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Edinburgh, Dublin, Strassburg, Vienna, Upsala, Harvard, Columbia, Cornell, Melbourne and Laval; the cities of London, Birmingham, Bremen, Toronto, New York, Boston and Melbourne; the leading publishers of Great Britain, the United States and Germany; learned societies and very many private persons in all parts of the world. The number of books thus presented has exceeded 30,000 volumes. Among them are several of bibliographical interest. The late Duke of Devonshire presented several sets of publications of chemical societies, with the book plates of the Hon. Henry Cavendish, the great chemist. From other friends were received valuable volumes formerly in the libraries of Gibbon, the historian, of Edmund Burke, and of Guizot, the French statesman and historian.

A manuscript of great interest was also presented, being a contemporary report of the trial of the seven Bishops in the reign of James the Second, with corrections and annotations by Sir William Williams, the Solicitor-General of the day.

For two years after the fire the books thus presented, as well as those purchased, were stored in the School of Practical Science, by the kindness of the Minister of Education and the Principal of the School, and a portion of them placed on shelves in the same building so as to be accessible to Professors and Students. During this time the erection of a fire-proof Library building, separate from the restored main building, was in progress. The reading-room of this building was opened in the second week of October, 1892, and the text books and works of reference specially useful to the students were moved at once and temporarily shelved in the new reading-room. It was not, however, until January, 1893, that the fire-proof stack-room and the departmental studies were finished and ready for occupation. All the books were then unpacked and arranged on the shelves, and most of the Departmental Studies were also in occupation for the remainder of the academic year.

At the beginning of January also the connection of the electric light fixtures with the dynamo in the main building was made and the Library was opened to readers in the evening, the total number of hours available for reading in the Library being thus extended to eleven and a-half hours daily, viz., from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and from 7 to 10.30 p.m.

On Saturday evening the Library is not open, and students are allowed to take any book away to their own homes on Saturday afternoon, returning the same on Monday morning.

The total number of volumes in the Library up to 1st July, 1892, is 45,968. The unbound pamphlets exceed 5,000.

THE UNIVERSITY BIOLOGICAL MUSEUM.

The University Biological Museum forms the central portion of the buildings belonging to the Biological Department. It is as yet unfurnished, but it is hoped that the rooms will be ready for use early in October. To the new museum will be transferred the various collections rescued from the old museum, together with the specimens and collections recently presented to the University.

In addition to the damage done by removal and by water to the mounted specimens (mammals, birds and skeletons), of the former museum, the most serious losses were in the direction of the collection contained in the gallery cases.

It is hoped that in the near future donations from friends of the institution will assist in replacing the losses. Already considerable contributions have been received, and it is intended to issue shortly a rough list of the collections with the view of indicating the gaps which exist therein.

Fortunately, the extensive and valuable series of preparations and models used for illustrating the lectures in animal and vegetable morphology and embryology had been removed to the Biological Department before the fire, so that the teaching of the department is not crippled in this respect.
