BIRTHDAY CAKE DECORATION.

For the small boy's or girl's birthday celebration the latest wrinkle is to cover the cake entirely with white icing and inscribe the name and date in pink icing in the center. Around the base of the cake—which usually constitutes the principal ornament of the table—big pink roses, corresponding in number to the years that the youthful host or hostess has attained, are arranged and in the center of each rose is placed a tiny pink candle or an electric light bulb.

THE KIND OF A JUDGE HE WANTED.

The story is told of an Irish woman who tried to console her husband with the remark that he would have a fair trial and an upright judge. "Yerra woman," replied her spouse, "what'd I want wid an upright judge? What I want is a judge that'll lean a little."

BOSTON SHOCKED.

Electric Current Astry—It Got Into the Iron Posts and Letter Boxes on Bay State Road.

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—An electric current which got astray charged the iron posts and letter boxes in Bay State road last evening, and two persons who thoughtlessly leaned against a post received shocks which nearly threw them off their feet.

The police of division 16 were notified and they sent word to the electric light company, and some electricians came around to try to discover the leak and stop it. Up to midnight they hadn't found where the leak was.

Patrolmen were sent out from division 16 to keep people away from the posts and letter boxes, and no mail could be collected because the current passing into the poles and through them to the letter boxes kept growing in volume. At 11 o'clock, as a measure of safety, the current was shut off from the electric lamps on the Bay State road circuit, and that exclusive neighborhood was left in comparative darkness.

RULED OFF THE TURF

For Administering Stimulating Drugs to a Horse.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 4.—Former Alderman F. F. Gazzolo has been warned off the turf by Judge Hamilton and his associates of the Harlem Jockey Club. In their ruling the track officials charge Gazzolo and Tally with having "administered stimulating drugs" to Emma A. M., in the last race of Wednesday. B. Butler, the owner of the animal, is exonerated.

THE COAL SITUATION.

Retailing at Rate of $37.50 per Ton in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Coal dealers in this city were dismayed by the news that President Roosevelt's efforts to effect a settlement of the differences between the anthracite operators and the miners had come to naught. Coal retailing in the tenement districts is now selling at 30 cents a pall, which makes a ton cost $37.50. For a number of years the Salvation Army has bought large quantities of coal to sell to the poor at the rate of three cents a pall. One of the officers has announced, however, that the army is unable to obtain a supply for the coming winter. A firm of miners and dealers, which shipped a year ago, 2,500 tons of anthracite to Rouen, France, as an experiment, has found that the coal was not used, and has brought it back, and sold it here for delivery on its way to Europe. Although the cost of shipment to this country is calculated at $4 a ton, even at this rate the deal will be a profitable one. A steamer will sail early next month for this port with 6,000 tons Scotch anthracite. This will be the first importation of Scotch coal. The total tonnage of foreign anthracite has been brought to this port since the strike reached an acute stage. The great bulk of this was purchased by the Gas and Elevated Railroad Companies.

MRS. ROOSEVELT'S KITCHEN.

Since Mrs. Lincoln's regime the kitchens of the White House have remained in the northwest corner of the basement. There are two in them—the smaller, or family, kitchen, and the larger one, where the state dinners are prepared. When Mrs. Harrison came in as mistress of the White House these rooms were in a deplorable condition—the walls were dark, the floors were sunken and the place was simply in the possession of the rats and mice. She tried every known expedient to get rid of the pests, but without avail. Then she had all the flooring in both kitchens and laundries taken out, the walls scraped and even the space above the ceilings cleaned. The floors were replaced with white brick tiling and the remainder newly plastered. This heroic treatment did away with the rodents and left the rooms delightfully light and airy, as they are today.

On the east side of the large kitchen, in place of the mammoth fireplace of the original one, there is now an up-to-date hooded range, extending almost the width of the room. Across from it are the dish washing sinks, connected with the hot and cold water pipes. From the centre of the ceiling hangs a great circular hoop-bristling with brass, which are placed with shining brass pots and kettles. On the west side of the apartment are the tall cupboard resting on the floor and meal bins, while in its centre is the long kitchen table.—Woman's Home Companion.

IN A TIGHT PLACE.

Colonel Lee is remembered by hundreds of Americans for his bright manner and happy, apt remarks, says a contributor to an English periodical in reference to the former British military attaché who followed our army to Cuba. When the project of erecting an equestrian statue to General Washington in New York was proposed Colonel Lee was entrusted with one of the subscription papers for circulation. Shortly after receiving it he approached a well known citizen and asked for a subscription. But the citizen declined to subscribe, stating in a rather pompous manner: "I do not consider, sir, that there is any necessity for a monument to Mr. Washington. His fame is undying, sir; he is enshrined in the hearts of his countrymen." "Is he enshrined in your heart?" softly inquired the colonel. "He is, sir." "Well, all I have to say," retorted Colonel Lee, "is that he is in a tight place."

THIS SEEMS TO BE THE SAME JEST.

"And so he's married to an actress?" "Yes, for the present."—Chicago Record Herald.

HALIFAX TAKES ACTION.

Merchants Meet at Board of Trade Rooms to Discuss Shipments to South Africa.

Pursuant to notice given, a meeting of merchants was held yesterday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms in regard to supplying freights for the first steamer leaving Halifax for the South African market. Geo. S. Campbell, president of the Board of Trade, presided, and among others present were Frank Simson, Wm. Roche, M. P., Geo. J. Troop, M. L. C., I. C. Stewart, A. E. Jones, Edw. G. Kenny, H. Hart, J. E. DeWolf, A. M. Payne, Jas. Hall, Howard Smith, W. A. Black and Fred Hart.

The first steamer sailing from Halifax and St. John will be the Oriana of the Furness Line. She will leave on Dec. 18 for Cape Town, Port Elizabeth and Durban. The ports of call are subject to change and other ports may be substituted or added if convenient in accordance with the views of the Board of Trade. Mr. Campbell, after stating the object for which the meeting had been called, read a letter from Hon. W. S. Fielding, in which the minister of finance referred to the inauguration of the new service, and stated that though his efforts Halifax had been made one of the ports of call, and that the success of the movement depended very largely upon the shipments made.

Wm. Roche, M. P., said that the goods sent should be of the very best kind. The best specimens of articles should be produced. No inferior article in food stuffs should be sent, and that a good trade in butter and cheese could be worked up. The secretary was instructed to write the manufacturers in Nova Scotia and P. E. Island, and also the exporters of butter, cheese and hog products with the view of having them send samples by the first steamer from this port.

CAREFUL OF HIS TRAINING.

On the occasion of a visit of a travelling circus to a small town the boys of the surrounding country were all agog with excitement, raised by the flaming posters and gorgeous procession.

The young son of a notoriously close-fisted old farmer rushed in to his father and eagerly implored him for sixpence to "see the circus."

"What!" exclaimed the old skinflint, "sixpence to see the circus, and here only last week I let you go up to Farm-er Jones's field to see the eclipse of the moon. Young man, do you want your life to be one perpetual round of galleys?"

SHOT THREE MOOSE.

(Bridgetown Monitor.)

Messrs. F. H. Willett and Alfred Ingalls, of Tupperville, had rare luck last week while hunting in the woods back of Perotte, with James Ramsey as caller and guide. Their week's outing had come to an end and they were about to proceed homeward when they came upon a group of three moose, and their shots brought down the three. The largest, a fine bull moose was shot by Mr. Willett, and weighed when dressed 810 lbs. Its head was magnificent, the horns measuring fifty inches across. Messrs. Willett and Ingalls speak very highly of the abilities of their guide, who is considered one of the best in the country.

SOME QUEER CLUBS

In Which Both Sexes Figure as Members.

"Courtship Without Matrimony" is the motto of a club just formed in New York. Members are sworn to make love only to members who are content with platonic affection, and who will understand that the offer of marriage will ever come from the members of the club are to take their chosen friends of the other sex to theatres and places of amusement, and to be present, and act in every way an enamored suitor would who intends to marry the girl of his choice in due time, but no marriage is to follow.

Should the couple decide that only by marriage can the pinnacle of human happiness be attained a fine of fifty dollars is to be paid before the wedding can take place. With this money the member of the club who has remained true to their vows dine together as spontaneously as the money will permit.

Chicago has an even more curious club. It is composed of young men whose Christian name is John, and every John is pledged to marry no girl other than one whose first name is Mary. The way the club originated is this: One day a number of young couples who were on a jaunt in the country compared notes concerning their Christian names of those present, and it turned out that all the males were Johns and all the girls Marys. The club was started then and there.

At Trools, Ill., the young men of the town have formed a club for the protection of the girls from the attentions of outsiders. Several brutal outrages have been credited to the members of this queer organization, who have assaulted young men who came poaching on their preserves, and in some instances sent back to their native villages more dead than alive.

"I notice," said the president to the bank cashier, "that on your outgoing you wear a striped sweater." "Yes, sir," admitted the cashier. "Are you trying to get used to stripes?"—Chicago Evening Post.

"Gladys—'If she doesn't love him, why does she encourage him?'" "Edith—'Well, hoping her father will suspect she loves him, and send her on a trip to Europe to overcome her infatuation!'"—Puck.

"What do you think of the signal service?" repeated Uncle Billy Barlow, in reply to a query. "Well, I think that a weather prediction well stuck to, is as good as the truth."—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph.

"Did you ever hear about that Connecticut couple who got married in a balloon?" "Here," said Mr. Snuggs, as he laid a volume on the table, "here is a book that I ain't very anxious 'Lucy shall read.'" "Very well," replied Mrs. Snuggs, "I'll forbid her to touch it."—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph.

FATAL TRIP.

Clarence Lamberton Dies of Shock—Grandmother Drops Dead When Told News at Suffield, Conn.

SUFFIELD, Conn., Oct. 2.—Ten-year-old Clarence Lamberton died today from injuries received while hunting yesterday, and his aged grandmother fell dead when told the news.

It was the first day of the open season and also the first gunning experience of young Lamberton, who started out yesterday afternoon with John Barrett, who is 25 years old. Barrett fell and the accidental discharge of his gun resulted in a frightful wound in Lamberton's left thigh.

Lamberton was carried to his home on a stretcher. As a last resort the surgeons decided today to amputate the thigh near the body.

Lamberton was unable to survive the shock and died soon after the operation was performed. Barrett is nearly frantic with grief.

ANTHRACITE COAL.

Deposits in Massachusetts Likely to be Developed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Deposits of anthracite coal in Massachusetts, which were once operated on a large scale, may be again utilized if the present situation continues, says a Boston dispatch to the Times. In 1835 a bed of anthracite was discovered in Mansfield, which has since been explored and with others in that place proved to be of considerable importance. It was thought at the time that they would develop into extensive and valuable coal fields.

Three companies opened pits in different places, but times were hard and operations were suspended in 1838, in the hope of obtaining aid from the state to resume them on a larger scale.

UNION MEN WIN

In the Great Tug Boat Strike on the Lakes.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 4.—The tug strike is not only now settled but all details of the settlement have been adjusted. Every tug in the Union Towing and Wrecking Company's fleet is now manned by union men. The last boats to be equipped thus were the Zenith and the Excelsior, and this was done yesterday. The real situation proved to be that there was danger of another tie up unless all the boats were promptly unionized. The result of the strike is regarded by the tug employes as a complete victory for them.

The independent tug line, which was an outcome of the strike, expects to continue the towing business as usual. The company has increased its capital from $25,000 to $50,000.

GENESIS A BOOK OF MYTHS.

Jewish Rabbi Makes a Startling Statement to His People.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Dr. Emile G. Hirsch, preaching to the congregation of Temple Israel declared that the book of Genesis was a book of myths. "The book of Genesis," said Dr. Hirsch, "is not a record of science or fact. It is a book of myths, the myths reflecting the spirit of all humanity. The story of the first man in the book is merely the fate of that man's family, illustrating the whole race at that time. One family was saved from the deluge. That, too, is a myth."

In his argument Dr. Hirsch attempted to show that all races came from one stock. "The unity of the races is thus emphasized," he said. He declared the idea that the Jews are an exclusive race or that it is the ambition of the race to regain a state in Jerusalem. The Jewish race is a part of all humanity working for the good of humanity, he declared.

Under the caption "The Art of Putting Things," an English author has given some very amusing examples of saying things in a queer way. One of the most unfortunate recorded attempts to escape from a conversational difficulty was made by an east end curate who cultivated the friendship of mechanics.

One day a carpenter came to him and said, "I have brought my boy's likeness, as you said you'd like to have it."

"How good of you to remember it!" said the curate. "What a capital likeness! How is he?"

"Why, sir, don't you remember?" said the carpenter. "He's dead."

"Oh, yes, of course I know that," replied the curate. "I mean how's the man that took the photograph?"

A COAL JOKE.

(Baltimore American.)

"And," said the good fairy, "for your noble deeds I will grant you any wish you may desire."

"I will choose," said the lucky person, "a ton of coal."

Hereupon there arose great consternation in the ranks of the fairies, which terminated in a proposition to arbitrate the matter in order, if possible, to compromise on a ton of diamonds.

ELECTRIC LIGHT ON THE EYES.

A Russian specialist has decided that, contrary to the general opinion, electric light plays less havoc with the eyes than other forms of artificial light. He bases his deductions on the fact that disease and damage to the eye are proportioned to the frequency of the closure of the lids. He found that the lids close in a minute 63 times with candle light, 2.8 times with gas light, 2.2 times with sun light and 1.8 times with electric light.—Medical Record.

FOR YOUNG MEN.

The Young Men's Christian Association is an organization of St. John's young men, the object of which is to develop all that will be helpful to them through a strong body, trained mind, social ties and religious life.

These sentences are found in an attractive little booklet just issued by the Y. M. C. A. of this city. It appears to the Star that they convey a message worthy of the attention of a far larger number of young men than have ever yet sought membership in the institution.

MR. TARTE.

A number of liberal papers in this province continue to express surprise that conservative papers do not denounce Hon. Mr. Tarte, seeing that he has been in the past a notable subject of attack.

There is nothing surprising about it. Mr. Tarte is giving utterance to sound doctrine on the trade and transportation question. The conservative press and public men have always maintained the views now expressed by Mr. Tarte, and do not feel called upon to renounce them because Mr. Tarte has been re-converted.

The minister of public works has the people with him. He receives more invitations to deliver speeches in Ontario towns than he is able to accept. A section of the liberal press approves of his utterances. Another section bitterly declaims against him and them.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—The great coal conference between the president and representatives of the operators and miners came to an end at the temporary White House at 4.55 this afternoon with a failure to reach an agreement. Apparently the rock upon which the conference split was recognition of the miners' union.

VIGOROUS PROTEST

Made by Eben Perkins About Liquor Selling Near Rolling Mills.

During the past couple of days two cases have been heard before Magistrate Ritchie which have created no little interest in temperance circles.

There had been an impression that a man could not be arrested for a debt for liquor, but this law was repealed by the license act and the case was fought on other grounds.

In the city court, Mr. Perkins spoke very strongly concerning liquor selling near the mills and made the statement that it is not by any means unusual for a man to be earning twenty dollars a week and his wife have to take in washing in order to provide food.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

SOUTH END BAD BOYS. To the Editor of the Star:

Sir,—While the police are kept busy in suppressing the ubiquitous bad boys in the east end, the bold boy and the bad man of certain portions of the south end are also in evidence.

It is no reflection on the south end proper to say that such a state of affairs exists. There is one corner in particular that calls for an immediate attention—the corner of Brittain and Charlotte streets.

A few evenings since some young ladies had occasion to pass that corner. The crowd gathered there did not make way for them, but transgressed all rules of good breeding and from pipes and cigarettes blew clouds of smoke into the ladies' faces.

Next in line comes the big loafer. There are many of this ilk in the south end, who ply their trade between Sydney street and Reed's Point, on Brittain street. Their sole object in life seems to be to keep in a continual state of inebriation.

The evolution of the bad boys into the street corner loafers, the members of the "Lawn Gang" is easy. Their paths lie along the same groove. They both insult ladies and passing citizens; the one is not afraid of the policeman, the other solicits or begs alms for drinks right in view of the policeman.

CALGARY, N. W. T., Oct. 3.—There is at present a building blockade on here, for this year about 150 new houses and building premises have gone up or are in progress of construction.

THE FOOLPRINT AGITATED. The Telegraph this morning referred in no less than five different articles to this ambitious young journal, whose growing circulation and influence is a source of great worry to the five editors of the Telegraph.

SORRY SHE SPOKE. She—"Oh, how do you do, dear Mr. Smith? Have you forgiven me for cutting you at Mrs. Leo Hunter's last night? I was stupid enough to take you for that horrid bore, Mr. Titterby Thompson, whom you're said to be so like. It's a horrid libel. You're not like him a bit."
