

CHURCHES AND MEN.

BY REV. CHARLES A. RATCH.

The great, gray Tabernacle still keeps sentry about the august multitude of Newington, and twice each Lord's Day hosts of grave, mediocre people...

When a great preacher dies it is not seldom happy in a large measure neutralized by consequent reaction and disintegration.

When his son Thomas took his place there was much waste and otherwise headbanging and logorrhoic prophesying.

Last year I spent a Sunday attending the High Churches of the Establishment in London.

Dr. Moore is a splendid specimen physically—over six feet tall, straight and lithe, with a broad forehead, flowing, patriarchal beard, frank, blue eyes...

Thomas Spurgeon, nor any other man, is not able to take the vast multiplier work of which his great father was the soul, and carry it in all its parts to full and complete success.

In the waste which must mark the future of many of Spurgeon's past interests in England, it is a fact that the greatest of his Baptist preachers has been the weakness of the denomination.

Spurgeon, by the strength of his personality, by his unshakable energy, his nobility, his tireless energy, his ability to inspire and hold the confidence of the public, and his passionate desire to do good, was able to become the centre of a complex system of schools, refuges, orphanages and other evangelistic and philanthropic agencies.

One of the most powerful and picturesque figures in English religious life today is W. T. Moore, D. D., editor and proprietor of the Christian Commonwealth, London.

and left the main support of a family by the death of his father. It is a tradition that he reached the age of seven years before being able to master the rudiments of learning...

He is not a genuine worshiper of the great, good God without the meditation of millinery. Through the deepening shadows I went over to the Tabernacle.

list of the varied activities and organizations of the church would take too much space at present, but one is surprised at the vigor and wisdom shown in their reports of the work done.

HOW IS THE TIME.

A week or two ago we called attention to the importance of our churches being at work throughout the whole year in aid of our denominational interests.

We hope that our readers will kindly suffer a word further of exhortation in this matter, for this appears to be a case in which line upon line and precept upon precept is necessary.

Mr. Desjardins Explains. Mr. Editor, I read this morning in the columns of your valuable paper an article by Mr. Davis concerning my imprisonment in Quebec, Canada.

Dr. Talmage's formal acceptance of the call tendered by the First Presbyterian church, Washington, has been received.

THE ST. JOHN EXHIBITION.

The exhibition as a matter of course has been the grand attraction in St. John during the past week and large numbers of visitors have been in the city for the purpose of attending the fair.

The first floor and balconies of the spacious main building are very fully occupied with exhibits of articles representing the necessities, comforts and luxuries of life.

Some of the party, ten in all, went in search of ducks, while the rest made a fire and cooked the supper.

PROPOSED CHANGES.

Certain changes said to be contemplated by the Board of Trustees in connection with the St. John public schools are being discussed and appear to be far from obtaining the unanimous approval of the citizens.

It is objected to the proposed changes that on account of the unenviable reputation, as to discipline, attaching to the introduction of the principle of co-education.

Mr. Desjardins Explains.

Mr. Editor, I read this morning in the columns of your valuable paper an article by Mr. Davis concerning my imprisonment in Quebec, Canada.

News was received at Yarmouth, N. S., on Monday of the death at Montreal of Capt. John Murphy, a wealthy merchant of that place.

A Missionary Tour Among the Indians.

Some of the party, ten in all, went in search of ducks, while the rest made a fire and cooked the supper.

This is the most desirable place for an Indian Reservation we saw in our travels. The land is fairly good and a fine quality of fish—coledeys, whitefish, sturgeon, etc.—abound in the bay at the mouth of the river.

Another ride over boiling seas, in furious squalls. Were you scared? Yes. Two soldiers were once riding to a charge; one remarked to the other, "You look scared, you are pale as death."

Sunday morning Mr. Prince invited him to service at our tent. He gathered all his people and attended both morning and evening service.

On Saturday we went over the bay 15 miles to visit the chief who accompanied us down. He belongs to Jack Head but wants to settle where he now is.

Next day we saw two ranges of poles other boat within 50 miles of our course. We called nearly forty miles before we rounded the dangerous "Cat Head."

DEAR FELLOW WORKERS. I desire to call your attention to a fact pertaining to our work. We are entering a year of active effort.

Beloved fellow pastors, something of the difficulty you are now facing is upon you for aid.

Two months of our lives have come and gone and you not give us your work your most earnest efforts.

Foreign Missions.

DEAR FELLOW WORKERS, I desire to call your attention to a few facts pertaining to our Foreign Mission work. We are entering upon another year of active labor for the Master...

An appeal of moving force is ever coming to the followers of our Lord in these provinces. We have undertaken to give the gospel to 1,700,000 of our fellow-men...

From the work and workers and the needs of our mission field there is a most important cry for help coming to the Foreign Mission Board, and so to every member of our Baptist brotherhood...

Beloved fellow pastors I know something of your cares and perplexities, something of the difficulties confronting you in your work, and the many calls upon you for aid to different objects...

Two months of our Convention year have come and gone already. Oh will you not give to our Foreign Mission work your most earnest thought...

When here a few days a hearty and unanimous call to the pastorate was extended. After preaching in all points of the field and visiting in 120 homes, I concluded that the Lord sent me here to stay for more than a few weeks...

Such in brief, my dear brethren on P. E. I. and elsewhere, are my reasons for leaving the mission field on which I would have gladly remained if the Board could have continued my support...

Will the reader kindly give us an interest in his and her prayers that our highest hopes—which are very high—may be realized here. Congregations are large and growing larger. Interest is deep and deepening...

What are we doing for a population twice as large as is contained in the provinces? We have six mission stations, five mission families, three single ladies, a few native preachers and teachers...

In the Pastorate Again! Why?

BY D. G. MACDONALD. In the early part of last winter I yielded to a pressure from my brethren—my own mind favoring such a course—to give myself to Home Mission work rather than remain in the pastorate...

At the solicitation of my brethren from P. E. I., and with the concurrence of the Board, I began work there on the last day of June, accompanied by my nephew, Bro. Hugh A. McLean...

My desire and purpose were to aid weak churches by helping overworked pastors in scattered fields, and where possible, to open up new ground. With the present needs of my family this could not be done without the support of the Board...

On the resignation of the late pastor of this church I was asked to come, if possible, on the 1st of September, the date of his leaving, and do some mission work here. When informed in St. John that the Board could not continue my support I telegraphed an appointment...

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

All money from Nova Scotia contributors, denominational work, or any part of it, should be sent to the Home Mission Office, 100 College Street, Montreal, P. Q.

COACHMEN.—Sunday, the 15th inst., it was my happy privilege to bury in the likeness of Christ's death my first candidate, Mrs. Bowen Smith, a sister of devoted christian character...

WOOD'S HARBOR, SERRAVALLO Co.—Lord's day, the 22nd inst., sister Lillie Locker, of Lockport, was baptized and united with the church. Our sister has been a christian for some time and is taking an active interest in the Saviour's work...

UPPER LOCH LOMOND.—Lakewview Baptist church, of this place, has seen some of the outpouring of God's Spirit upon the earth in the past week, and the blessing of God has been upon the labors of our former pastor, Rev. T. W. Keirstead...

ABERDEEN, N. B.—The work reported by Bro. Young Sept. 10 still goes on. There have been baptisms and additions added to the church. The interest is unabated. We hope for many more. The names of the baptized are: Murdoch McKinnis, Herbert Stockford, Blanch Glenn, Mrs. Hartley Carle, Advardus Shaw, Howard Jacques, Mand McKinnis, Leverett McKinnis, Ernest McIntosh, Asahel Swin, Bertie Corey, Lavera Corey.

LIVERPOOL.—Since our last report we have received Mr. James Kempton by baptism. Greatly stirred when he heard the preaching of the late Rev. N. Videto, our brother did not feel the burden fully removed until last spring. Then he joyfully obeyed. Last Sunday morning I baptized Mrs. Gilbert Gardin in the beautiful river baptistry at Shipyard Point, where so many have been buried and raised with Christ in baptism.

CLEMENTSVILLE, N. S.—A wonderful work of grace has been going on during the summer months in the Clements church. Rev. S. Langille came to the pastorate the first of May; soon the service was characterized by an increase in numbers and spirituality. Special services were commenced the last week in June. On July the seventh in answer to prayer ten were baptized, and nearly every Sabbath since the ordinance has been administered to willing converts...

LOWER ECONOMY.—We are now among the number of pastorless churches, and on account of finances will have to content ourselves to remain so for a time, until the church can meet the balance due on pastor's salary. Bro. Davis spent his last Sabbath with us Sept. 1st. The church as well as the pastor felt very tenderly in parting after a successful separate of more than two years since his ordination with us, spent in perfect mutual agreement between pastor and people. A goodly number, from very young to very old, was welcomed to membership with us during his pastorate. Now he has gone to Newton, Mass., to give diligence to further study. Our first duty now is to give diligence to the payment of balance of arrears we owe on pastor's salary, and betake ourselves to prayer and the study of God's Holy Word and not lose sight of Him that has seen by a goodly number and of Paul also, 1 Cor. 15:3-8, though some had fallen asleep, but let us who profess to be alive continue steadfast in the doctrine, standing in our contributions and meetings for prayer until the day shall be opened by God through us in the near future for the preaching of the glorious gospel again among us.

THE KINGS COUNTY quarterly meeting will convene with the church at Central Norton on Friday, 18th, at 3 p.m. Delegates coming by rail will find it but a short distance from Bloomfield Station to the place of meeting.

The next regular meeting of the P. E. I. Baptist Conference will be held on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 7 and 8, at the Fairview church, Fairview Road. The first session will be on Monday evening at 7.30. Delegates are requested to send their names to Robert Andrews, Ebenezer post office, Glasgow Road. Delegates will be met at Milton Station, M. C. HIGGINS, Sec'y.

The Colchester Co. District Meeting convenes with the New Annan church, Oct. 7th, at 2 p.m. A denominational rally in that section of the county is a very rare occurrence. Every Baptist church in Col. Co. should be represented in the meetings at New Annan. Each pastor is requested to bring with him the shortest, simplest, most pointed, and most Holy-Spirit-honored gospel sermon he ever preached. Ho! For New Annan Oct. 7th and 8th. Pa. cxxi: 1, 2 will give you a good start. CHAIRMAN.

Rev. A. C. CHUTE, Halifax, N. S. The Lunenburg Co. Sunday School Convention will (D. V.) hold its next annual session in the Baptist church at Foster's Settlement on Tuesday, Oct. 3. Afternoon session—20 minutes for social service; 40 minutes for report of delegates and appointment of officers for ensuing year; 20 minutes for reading and discussing paper on suggestions to S. S. workers, by Pastor Raymond; 20 minutes for teaching Model Lesson. Evening session—15 minutes for devotional service; 15 minutes for address on "The relation of parents to the S. S." by Pastor Archibald; 15 minutes for address on "The relation of the S. S. to temperance work," by Pastor Farley; 15 minutes for address on "The relation of the S. S. to missions," Pastor Farley. On behalf of ex-committees, J. W. DIMOCK, Sec'y.

Rev. J. H. Hughes supplied the German St. pulpit last Lord's Day morning, preaching with his customary ability. Rev. F. D. Davison gave us a call last week on his way to P. E. Island to spend a short vacation among old friends who, we make sure, have given him a warm welcome. Rev. G. A. Lawson is spending a few days in St. John. We are pleased to know that his health is improving and that he hopes to be able to take up his work with the West End Church, Halifax, in the course of a few weeks.

Pastor W. F. Parker, of Truro, spent a few days in St. John lately, visiting his father, Deacon Parker of German St. church, whose health is very feeble. Bro. Parker preached for pastor Daley, of Leinster Street, Sunday morning and supplied the German St. pulpit in the evening. Rev. Chas. Henderson has removed to Thornetown, Queens Co., N. B., and desires his correspondents to note the change in his address. Mr. Henderson writes: I feel quite at home among this people and trust that the Lord will use me for His glory in the interests of our Redeemer's Kingdom. Rev. Josiah Webb, of Springfield, Annapolis Co., has been spending a few days in the city, and supplied for Rev. J. A. Gordon of Main St., on Sabbath morning, with much acceptance. He reports encouraging progress in his work at Springfield and other parts of his field. For Spasmodic Coughs—Minard's Honey Balsam.

Here is a Letter, just one out of hundreds that are coming in every day. We publish it for the benefit of the women who read about Pearline, but who still keep on washing without it, in that needlessly hard and wearing way. We omit name and address, as requested: "Now I will tell you how I came to use your PEARLINE. We have taken the 'Ladies' Home Journal' for several years. Three and a half years ago, every time I picked up my 'Journal' to read, the first thing I would see was your advertisement and picture of PEARLINE. I got so tired of looking at it, that I said I would get a package and try it. The result was, when the package was gone I bought another package, and so I have done ever since. I never think of going to wash clothes since, without my PEARLINE. I have recommended it to quite a number of people, who are now using it, just from my recommendation. I have just written this to you to let you know how highly I prize it. I don't want my name and address to go before the public."

Why Don't You Use Surprise Soap? It does away with hard work, —dirt, boil or scald the clothes nor give them the usual hard rubbing. (See the directions on the wrapper). It gives the whitest, sweetest, cleanest clothes after the wash. It prevents wearing and tearing by harsh soaps and hard rubs. Rub lightly with Surprise Soap,—the dirt drops out. Harmless to hands and finest fabrics.

A HARD LESSON.

BY HARRIET C. COOPER. A north-bound train was just ready to start for a vacation city, when a party of young girls appeared, breathless with efforts to make five minutes do for ten. Tickets were bought, trunks checked, and three of the party said good by, with a haste which allowed to each only one of the many fervent kisses usually given on such occasions. Then the trio settled themselves, with looks of blissful anticipation.

would have been perfect had not the girls been all the while anticipating the grand good times. Aunt Milled always gave to Maude's friends. But time passed, and no invitations came. Maude went to see her aunt, returning with a lovely and curious necklace, which she called a treasure. Yet the quiet girl seemed more quiet than ever, and flushed painfully when Maude asked if her aunt had set the time for those picnics and parties.

WHAT WILFRED WON.

BY RUTH M. MORRIS. "Aha! aha! At last here's the very thing I've been wishing for—the invitation to visit Aunt Alicia," and Wilfred waved a letter triumphantly above his head. "You read the letter carefully, Wilfred," said a young lady who sat by the window embroidering, "you will see that the invitation is for one of the children; and, according to your own arrangement, the next invitation belongs to Lillian."

THE RESCUE FROM THE WRACK.

A thrilling story of German heroism at sea, which goes far to offset some of the reports regarding the loss of the "Elbe," comes from Schleswig-Holstein. One stormy morning a fishing village was awakened by a gunshot on the coast. Hearing the report, the people saw a ship wrecked on a reef a mile away. The crew were in the rigging. A life-boat was run out, but Harro, the leader of the crew, was absent.

SEN WAS DYING TO KNOW.

"A Maine correspondent sends to the Companion a dialogue between a little girl and her mother. It occurred in church at the morning service. The pastor had just read, 'On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.' 'Mamma, mamma,' said little Efy, in a loud whisper, 'how many—' 'Sh!' said her mother. 'But, mamma, just one question, only one.' 'Well, softly,' answered the mother, seeing that the question must come. 'How many prophets were there?' 'I don't know.' 'Can't you guess?' 'No. Now keep quiet.' 'Were there three?' 'Oh, yes, Sh!' 'Ten?' 'Yes. Don't ask another question?' 'Twenty?' continued Efy, her eyes distending. The mother was in despair, and answered, 'Yes.' 'Then, mamma, tell me this.' 'Just this,' and by this time the little girl's voice was quite audible, 'how could twenty prophets all hang on two commandments?'—Youth's Companion.

THE GREAT LIGHT. Scott's Emulsion is as much easier to digest than the plain oil as butter. Besides, the fishy taste is taken out of the oil, and it is almost palatable. The way sickly children, emaciated, anemic and consumptive adults, gain flesh on Scott's Emulsion is very remarkable. Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute! It is wonderful what progress has been made in the way of machinery. It has a complete pair of shoes in sixteen minutes. It is even faster than Tommy can wear them out.

THE PUBLIC GOOD

The public should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deleterious class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or burns, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

Walter Baker's Cocoa

Walter Baker's Cocoa is superior to all other brands. It is made from the finest cocoa beans, and is of a rich, creamy texture. It is perfect for drinking with milk or water, and is also excellent for use in baking and cooking.

Attorney Eugene McLaughlin, in his opening address, made the sensational charge that Rev. John George Gibson, pastor of the church in which the tragedy occurred, was the murderer of Blanche Lamoni. On Thursday the defence failed to prove that the alleged murderer was present at lectures in Cooper Medical College at the hour when Blanche Lamoni was killed. The only point gained was the admission of the roll call book which showed the names of the attendees on the fatal day, but the prosecution can produce evidence to show that he frequently asked his classmate to answer to his name when absent. Dr. Schurman, aged 42 years, having faithfully served her Lord in the relations of daughter, wife, mother, and church member, peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. Her only child, a son, is now the guest of the following Tuesday in the hope of a glorious resurrection. Her memory is precious.

She was always ready to engage in church work, and was also the light of the home circle. Old and young were alike won to the religion of Christ was a prominent theme. The friends have departed and the old home has passed into other hands, but hallowed memories still linger about the familiar spot, in the light of which we read the sublime eulogy, "Their works do follow them."

CALHOUN.—At St. Martins, Sept. 25, after a lingering illness, born in Christiana, Md., Mrs. Mary B. Calhoun, relict of the late Capt. Wm. C. Calhoun, aged 71 years, fell asleep in Jesus. Mrs. Calhoun has for many years been a most worthy member of the First St. Martins Baptist church. Her hand and purse were ever open to the needy and her hospitable home was ever open to the Christian minister visiting St. Martins. A most faithful mother, her children may well "rise up and call her blessed", and there are many outside her family circle who will honestly and gratefully testify to her worth. Upon her death bed she was comforted and assured with our Lord's words in John 10, 1-3. A large concourse of people followed our sister's remains to the grave on Friday, Sept. 27, after telegraphic services had been held in her late home.

UHAN.—Mary Ann, eldest daughter of the late David C. and Charlotte Upham, of Otter Brook, Upper Stewiacke, N. B., died on the 14th inst. at her late home, in the city of New Brunswick, after a long and painful illness. She was 77 years of age. Her husband was killed in the rebellion at Gettysburg, Pa. on July 1st, 1863. She was a devoted mother and a faithful wife. Her children were all well and thriving. Her funeral services were held in the late home on Sunday, Sept. 27, at 10 o'clock. Her remains were buried in the cemetery at Otter Brook. Her death was a great loss to the family and to the church.
