

SOME WORK IN KINGS ALBERT

What Dr. McAlister Has Done for His Constituency

BIG EXPENDITURES

Detailed Statement of Benefits Provided is Interesting in View of Some of the Arguments Being Used in Favor of the Conservative Candidate.

One of the most unfair and audacious arguments being used in Kings-Albert against the return of Dr. D. H. McAlister, in view of the paucity of the public money expended in the constituency during the time it was represented by Geo. W. Fowler is that Dr. McAlister failed to secure a fair share of the grants made to the province during the last three years. Reference to the estimates shows that money has been very liberally expended in every portion of the large constituency, whereas built at river points, dredging done, public buildings erected, and largely through the instrumentality of Dr. McAlister, a grant will be made to take over the branch lines of the county, involving the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars. Money has been expended for a station at Sussex, work has been done at a public building at Hillsboro and at Hampton the building is well advanced. A very large number of new post offices have been established for the convenience of people living in remote districts and the mail service improved in many ways.

Some Expenditures.

A detailed statement of the public money expended for dredging wharf building and repairs and a list of new offices established will be of interest.

RECIPROCITY WAVE SWEEPING KINGS

Farmers Are Alive to Their Interests

Rousing Meeting at Corn Hill Shows a Great Liberal Gain

Campaign in Sussex Going With a Swing That Indicates Great Victory for Dr. McAlister; Telling Speeches of Dr. Pearson, Frank Freeze and A. E. Pearson.

Sussex, N. B., Aug. 23.—The tidal wave in favor of reciprocity is fast gaining momentum in Sussex. Tonight the Liberal headquarters were filled to overflowing with workers.

Frank Freeze delivered an inspiring address on accomplishments of the Laurier government, since it came into power, and contrasted the prosperous condition of all classes today with the condition of the masses during the period of depression that followed in the wake of the loss of reciprocity agreement in 1893, the advent of the reign of the Conservative party.

The Liberal party had instituted a progressive agricultural policy with Hon. Sidney Fisher as minister of agriculture. The farmers of Canada have since prospered, and the world is ready today to take off their hats to the farmer knowing that his is a noble calling, and that when he prospers all other vocations prosper with him.

He briefly outlined the history of the reciprocity movement and lauded the opposition's humbug that should the Canadian people give their assent they would be voting against the majority of the people. There never was a time when Canadians were better satisfied with their King than they are today.

Dr. Pearson, the next speaker, said Dr. McAlister had sacrificed his practice for the electors of Kings and it would be very unbecomingly of each and every citizen to do his part in his own best way to give him an overwhelming majority. His parting word was for each and every one present to vote for the Liberal party and to stand firm for the good fight with might and main, leaving no stone unturned that would in any way hinder Liberal progress on the 27th they could say: "We have fought a good fight and we have kept the faith."

The singing of the National Anthem concluded a most enthusiastic meeting.

Corn Hill in Line.

As a fitting sequel to the enthusiastic and largely attended Liberal organization meeting, which was held at Corn Hill on Saturday night, a convention at which over half a hundred sturdy backbones of the Liberal party showed by their presence and good words, which gave an air of confidence to the cause, and a good win the fight which they are so manfully putting forth for home and country—the large and enthusiastic meeting held in that place on Tuesday night comes as a good omen of the fate which George W. Fowler and his anti-reciprocity sentiments will meet on Sept. 27.

The farmers of Corn Hill are out to give the reciprocity candidate, Dr. D. H. McAlister, an overwhelming majority. The organization campaign was assisted by H. A. McArthur and J. H. McArthur, and on Tuesday night, when the meeting was called to order, the hall was pretty well filled and before the first speaker, Frank Freeze, had commenced his remarks the hall was filled to overflowing, and cheer after cheer rang out for the Liberal candidate.

Mr. Freeze gave an interesting account of the progressive work of the Liberal party, and showed conclusively what it had done for the promotion of agriculture. He pointed out the development that had taken place in the western and Canadian trade. He explained how the preferential tariff granted by the Liberal party to Great Britain had redounded to the advantage of Canada, although the Tories had bitterly opposed it.

He said both Conservatives and Liberals had sought better trade relations with the United States, but in vain, but now the opportunity had come whereby their wishes could be realized.

The speaker asked the people of Corn Hill to carry out the work they had nobly begun, and to vote for the Liberal party, and to stand firm for the good fight with might and main for Dr. McAlister and reciprocity.

To illustrate that Dr. McAlister was the poor man's friend, Mr. Freeze related an incident which occurred some time ago. A certain poor man was taken dangerously ill. He sent pathetic appeals to various doctors to come to his assistance, but knowing that the man did not have the wherewithal to give them for their trouble, one after another of the doctors refused to attend the ailing man. Dr. McAlister was finally sent for, but being engaged in attending a critical case, he could not respond to the call, but on learning the facts of the case, he put his hand in his pocket and drawing forth a $10 bill he said to the messenger: "Here, take this and get one of the other doctors to go with you." (Cheers for McAlister, the poor man's friend.)

A. E. Pearson followed with a convincing address on reciprocity, which he declared was essential to the future development of Canada. He said he would not change his views at the bidding of the Conservative party leaders, although he had been a life-long adherent of the party. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem and a rousing cheer for the reciprocity candidate.

LOWELL WILL SWEEP ST. MARTINS

Enthusiastic Organization Meeting Last Night Largely Attended

MANY CONVERTS

Prominent Conservatives Will Cast Their Ballots For the Reciprocity Candidate—Chairmen for the Different Districts Chosen.

St. Martins, Aug. 23.—(Special)—With an enthusiasm which forecasts an overwhelming majority for James Lowell at the polls of St. Martins parish on Sept. 27, an organization meeting was held in the Mason's hall at the village this evening.

A pleasing feature of the meeting was the participation of a number of prominent Conservatives, who owing to the reciprocity issue will cast their ballots for Mr. Lowell in the coming election.

With an attendance of over 200 the meeting was very harmonious and the desire to work was indicated by the business like manner in which the organization was undertaken.

The election resulted as follows: F. M. Cochrane, president; T. H. Nugent, first vice-president; Robert Connolly, second vice-president; Arthur Gillen, secretary; William J. Welch, treasurer.

The parish was divided into small districts, and a chairman was appointed for each. A committee was also selected to act with the chairman in the various districts. The chairmen are as follows: Fairfield, No. 1—James McParland; Shamokin Settlement, No. 2—Robert Shanklin; Old Onco, No. 3—John J. Howard; Village of St. Martins, No. 4—Thomas H. Long and others; The speakers were given an appreciative hearing.

Committee rooms will be open every evening till the campaign closes, and headquarters will be at the Masonic hall. The meeting closed with three cheers for the king, the candidate and Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

NEW GAME IN EFFORT TO BEAT RECIPROCITY

St. Stephen, Aug. 21.—He was well put up, a bright talkative fellow, one who made friends wherever he was. I saw him first at West Junction in the smoking car, he gave a rousing match, passed a daily paper to a commercial man and worked the conversation round so that every man present had a word to say.

"With everybody attentive he launched into the subject of reciprocity and no man ever heard a better presentation of the question, or a better presentation of the great benefits that would follow its acceptance by the Canadian people."

Incidentally, he remarked that he was from Buffalo, (N. Y.) that he was intimate with several of the men close to President Taft and would put an argument overhanging with pictures of Canada's great progress when she reaped the full benefit of reciprocity and became part of the greatest republic on earth.

I heard him again in a crowded hotel in the same way, the same talk and the same talk and the same ultimate result—annexation.

Let the public look out for him. He travels on money furnished by the Tory machine, he dresses well, he talks well and he is expected to undermine the faith of the people in the leader of the Liberal party.

AROUND WORLD IN 16 MINUTES

Wonderful Speed Made by Commercial Cable Message Sent Out by New York Times

New York, Aug. 21.—In order to ascertain the speed at which a commercial message could be sent around the world by cable, the New York Times filed a dispatch in the telegraph room on the seventh floor of the Times building exactly at 7 o'clock last night, and the reply was received by the same operator at 7:16:30 p. m. The message read: "Times, New York." This message sent around world.

The time occupied in the journey of 25,433 hand miles was 16 minutes and 30 seconds, including 10 delays, which gave an average speed of 89 miles a second. The message passed through Manila at 8:01 a. m. Monday, Aug. 21, following for the 18 hours added in the difference of time, having been flashed from the Times building to that point 2,160 miles away, in 60 seconds at a speed of 130 miles a second, including relayings at the stations at San Francisco, Honolulu and Midway Island in the North Pacific.

On its return journey, coming from the east, the message was relayed at Fajal in the Azores, at 7:16 p. m., and 30 seconds later it was in the Times office.

An official of the Commercial Cable Company said tonight that the same made by the Times message around the world was the fastest ever achieved by a commercial cablegram since the opening of the Pacific cable by President Roosevelt and Clarence H. Mackay, president of the company, eleven years ago, when a record was made of 30 days. When these official messages were sent over the newly opened Pacific cable, every one had been warned to stand by his post to give the despatch a royal right of way. The operators along the route were fully aware what it meant to them if there was any delay. The time was between 11 p. m. and midnight, when the land lines and cables are handling but little business as a rule.

The Times despatch was handled as a purely commercial message in the ordinary way, just as if it had been handed in at the cable office at 20 Broad street, with a "rush" request attached to it. During its entire journey around the world the Times despatch traveled north of the equator. The nearest point to that imaginary circle which is passed was Singapore, which is 77 miles north of the line; and New York City, the starting point, was the farthest away from it.

CITY SUCCESSFUL IN APPEAL IN KERR VS. SEELY

The city has been successful in its appeal in the case of Francis Kerr vs. Seely, which has engaged the attention of the courts for some time and in which two justices had already been given against the city. The last appeal was to the Supreme Court of Canada, and the decision of that august body is given as follows:

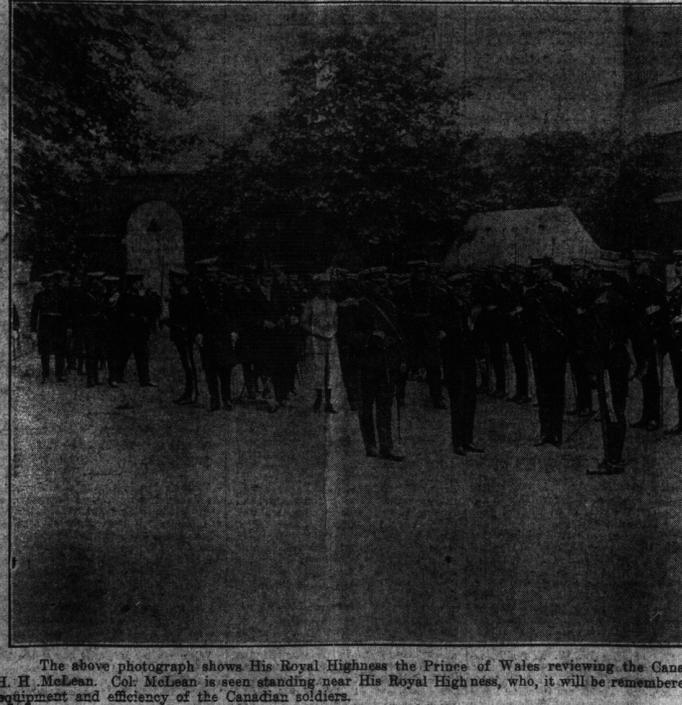

Francis Kerr vs. Seely, last June, 1911.

Lease—Water lots—Status of lease—Injunction.

S. is a lease under lease from the City of St. John of a water lot in the harbor and the F. K. Co. are lessees of the next lot to the south, and there are other lots to the south between that of S. and the foreshore of the harbor. By his lease S. has a right of access to and from his lot on the east and west sides.

Held: reversing the judgment appealed against (40 N. B. Rep. 3) Kingston J. dissenting, that S. was not a riparian owner and had no rights in respect of his lot other than those given him by his lease.

NO DOUBT ABOUT WESTMORLAND

LAURIER'S TOUR A GREAT TRIUMPH

Sir Wilfrid Enthusiastically Greeted by Thousands at Sorel

THE "HYBRID ALLIANCE"

Premier Scores the Tory-Nationalist Combination, and Shows Farmers How Reciprocity Will Benefit Them; Minister of Marine Announces Plan to Build Georgian Bay Canal.

Sorel, Que., Aug. 23.—Three thousand people heard Sir Wilfrid Laurier discuss reciprocity, the navy bill, and the Nationalists at the mass meeting of Liberals here this afternoon. Sir Wilfrid was given a good reception and seemed to have suffered little from the last few stormy days, speaking with fire and force, especially when he felt called upon to refer to Messrs. Bourassa and Monk.

The premier heartily endorsed the candidature of Arthur Cardin, who was chosen by the Liberal convention here in place of Adolphe Laurier, the late M. P. Sir Wilfrid in calling upon his hearers to vote for Mr. Cardin, said that he was aware that there had been differences of opinion as to the best candidate, but that now all true Liberals should sink their differences, for Mr. Cardin was a representative of the cause of Liberalism, a cause so sacred that petty differences must be forgotten in order to secure the victory.

In discussing reciprocity, the premier laid much stress on the market which would be opened to the farmers, quoting prices for hay and vegetables in Montreal and in American cities to show that with the duty removed the farmers would profit by selling in the latter.

Referring to the opposition, he ridiculed the "Hybrid alliance," which he said had but one thought, that being to "beat Laurier."

On the navy question, he spoke at length, emphasizing the fact that the service would be entirely voluntary and had always been intended to be so. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux outlined his plan as minister of marine and fisheries. The completion of the Georgian Bay Canal and the deepening of the St. Lawrence to a minimum depth of 33 feet, were among the public works which he promised to carry out with all possible speed.

Other speakers were Oscar Claudi and E. B. Devin.

Liberal Campaign Opened Last Night

Crowded Meeting Greets Hon. Mr. Emerson and Others

Candidate Makes a Fighting Speech for Reciprocity—Tory Obstruction Delayed Acquisition of the Branch Lines—Hon. Mr. Sweeney and J. T. Hawke Deliver Telling Addresses.

Moncton, N. B., Aug. 23.—Hon. H. R. Emerson, Liberal candidate in Westmorland, opened his campaign in Moncton tonight in the Grand Opera House. The house was packed and quite a number remained standing till the close of the meeting.

W. O. Schwartz presided, and the speakers were Hon. F. J. Sweeney, J. T. Hawke and Hon. H. R. Emerson. Among those on the platform were Senator McSweeney, C. M. Lezer, M. P.; A. H. Jones, Captain R. C. Bacon, James Doyle, B. A. Lutz, M. B. Jones, Hon. Kobach, Aid. Charter, Aid. Proc. M. McLeod, M. S. Keith, Dr. Coleman, F. A. McNeil, Judge Emmerson, John Brown, D. A. Frechette, William Watson, R. N. Jones, and others, including a number of ladies.

Pictures of the king, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and Hon. Mr. Emerson were displayed on the platform.

Hon. Mr. Sweeney.

Hon. F. J. Sweeney was the first speaker, and he held the attention of the house for an hour. Mr. Sweeney said this question of reciprocity was not new to the people of this country, because it was before the people when he was a boy. He said that he had seen the benefits of reciprocity had been to this country. Opponents of this bill said it meant annexation. They might as well say that because one traded with his neighbor he was liable to be annexed.

It was both to say that adoption of reciprocity meant severance from the British Empire. Why did Mother England become the peer of nations? It was because she opened up every part of the known world for her trade. Her blood and treasure have been laid down copiously to open every port to her trade.

"What about our own country?" he asked. "What about the harvest time that existed in this country in 1895?"

It was said by the Conservatives that the Liberals were not fit to govern this country; but when the Liberals came in they looked around and asked, what was the cause of this stagnation. Liberals looked to Great Britain for trade and would benefit more from a number of our products.

Canada today stands stilted in the matter of trade in the history of the world. Tory obstruction has prevented the Liberal party said Canada must have more trade. It was time the lumbermen, farmers and fishermen had a look in. The manufacturers had grown fat and did not want to change conditions. He predicted that the answer of the people would be to trust Sir Wilfrid Laurier in this contest.

J. T. Hawke.

J. T. Hawke was next introduced, and a British born and member of the Sons of England, declared there was nothing in the reciprocity pact that was not consistent with the aims and objects of the Sons of England, which was an organization to foster British connections.

Dealing with reciprocity, the speaker said there was no part of Canada that would benefit more by reciprocity than this section of the country.

Hon. Mr. Emerson.

Hon. Mr. Emerson, who closed the speechmaking, spoke about an hour and a quarter. He said the people of Moncton, particularly, and of the province at large had been so kind to him that he would ever owe them a debt of gratitude. He plunged at once into the question of reciprocity. He said he had supposed at the last election that he had had a right to expect that he should again be elected at this time, but circumstances arose which seemed to make it necessary that he should again ask for the confidence of the people of Westmorland. It was made apparent to him that he should again buckle on the armor and appeal to the people.

If this parliament had lived out its life he would have accomplished the dearest wish of his life, namely, the extension of the I. C. R. and the absorption of the branch lines. He spoke of his course with respect to including the government to adopt the branch line policy.

He said the branch lines bill was brought down in the last parliament but was paralyzed because of Tory obstruction last session. In consequence of this obstruction he had not finished his work, and he like Sir Wilfrid in the last election, felt like asking the people to let Emerson finish his work.

He felt that this was not an ordinary vanced that because Canada granted this bounty the reciprocity bill should be rejected or amended. But the president of the United States and those who were co-operating with him were properly not the ground that the agreement must stand as it had been made with the Canadian ministers.

The agreement, as so made, was approved by both houses of the United States congress without any change. There is not a line of word in it touching the abolition of the bounty, the tariff on wool, or the ground that the agreement must stand as it had been made with the Canadian ministers.

I have given several samples of the manner in which this agreement is misrepresented in important papers. To all who wish to intelligently consider the question I would say—carefully examine the agreement itself. The agreement is to be found in the letters exchanged between Mr. Pearson and myself, on the part of the Canadian government, and Mr. Secretary of State Knox, on the part of the United States government. These letters, have been widely published, and are easily accessible to those who wish to see them.

There is no other agreement or understanding of any kind in this matter. The whole transaction is to be found in these letters. They speak for themselves. A perusal of them will show how unfounded are the opposition statements to which I have referred.

Yours faithfully,
W. S. FIELDING,

of Canada; therefore, if they were loyal to their country, they would not have opposed it in such a reckless manner as they have done.

Now, Mr. Editor, it is not hard to see that party and power are what Borden is after, not at all the welfare of Canada. And further, it is not difficult to see Mr. Borden's reason for obstructing reciprocity. He knows very well that Canada had reciprocity with the United States that the people of Canada would be delighted with the result and the benefits they would receive through free trade, and that the government that obtained reciprocity for Canada would gain the applause of the people; and as the proper time for the federal election is not due for a year hence, Mr. Borden must have thought it best to nip, so far as he was able, the bud before it matured, so that the people of Canada would not have the benefit of free trade a year previous to the election. Now it is up to the people, and it is in their hands to hold on to what the government has obtained for them, namely, reciprocity.

TORY APPEAL TO SIR WILFRID

Garbled Report Was Circulated

Toronto Mail and Empire
Says It Did Premier
an Injustice

Canadian Press Telegraphed
the False Report to All Parts of Canada, and Now
Regrets it Was Imposed Upon.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—The Canadian Press sent out to its members last Tuesday night extracts from the Mail and Empire's report of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech at Simcoe. That report had been used as the basis for a good deal of criticism of the prime minister's position in regard to reciprocity. The Mail and Empire in its issue of Aug. 17, says editorially, heading the matter "Apologies to Sir Wilfrid."

"Our report of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Simcoe speech was somewhat condensed towards the close. A part of the reference to the arbitration treaty between Great Britain and the United States was presented in such a way as to appear to relate to the Knox-Fielding agreement. Hence his remark that the arbitration pact will lead to another agreement was so connected with what followed in the report as to leave the impression that it referred to another reciprocity agreement between the United States and Canada.

"One paragraph of our editorial comment on this perhaps was based on this confusion. We very much regret to have attributed to Sir Wilfrid Laurier a statement he did not make.

The attention of editors is directed to this apology. The Canadian Press is a non-partisan organization, and, as such, is desirous of doing no injustice to anyone in its reports.

QUEENS-SUNBURY STRONGER THAN EVER FOR McLEAN

Meetings Largely Attended by Liberals and Conservatives
Rev. J. J. McCaskill Assists in Campaign.

Jenness, Aug. 23.—The Liberal meetings being held this week are proving the most successful that have ever been held in Sunbury and Queens.

Large and enthusiastic gatherings greeted Col. McLean at Newcastle on Monday, Young's Cove on Tuesday, and at Jenness yesterday.

One feature of Col. McLean's meetings is that the Liberal and Conservative ladies combine to make them pleasant and enjoyable by providing refreshments and bringing baskets of delicious eatables. After the speeches, tables were spread about the grounds and everyone present was invited to partake of the generous hospitality. The ladies of Newcastle served cake with ice cream, and a novel feature of this political meeting was the active interest taken by ladies belonging to Conservative families.

There is one thing an outsider is struck with and that is the particular attention that is given to the people of the district. They are provided with flags and ice cream and delicious lemonade.

It must be remarked that Col. McLean has not provided these treats at election time only because last year he got through the counties of Sunbury and Queens a series of tea socials. At that time no election was expected for three years to come.

Rev. Mr. McCaskill addressed the meeting at Young's Cove on Tuesday, this being the first political speech ever made by him.

At Jenness Dr. Judson Hetherington spoke on reciprocity. He referred particularly to the non-sense put up by Tory speakers that the enlarged trade would mean that the people would turn their backs on their own country.

Mr. McCaskill spoke at Jenness on the importance of a reciprocity agreement in the interest of peace and intercourse between the United States and Canada. The agreement he defined as simply a proposal by two governments looking to the removal of the taxes upon the people. That agreement, could be so seriously opposed by the special interests of Toronto and Montreal is an indication that they believe that they should not be called upon to pay the taxes. They insist that this tax be continued upon the people and at the same time plan how they can add to the burden.

The issue is one between the people and the special interests. The argument which has been advanced by Mr. Borden against it that the free list proposed by the Democrats would give Canada the advantages that we would enjoy under reciprocity. This argument has been rendered void by the veto of President Taft.

Instead of attacking the agreement on a commercial side he expresses the fear that if the people are allowed a larger freedom of trade they will lose their nationality. Mr. McCaskill considered that reciprocity would be of special importance to the agricultural sections of the maritime provinces and would remove any of the disabilities under which these provinces have since Confederation. His address, at both Young's Cove and Jenness were listened to with great interest and attention and were devoted to a careful study of the economic question. The people of both sections are greatly interested in the discussion and ask many questions. Col. McLean is greatly encouraged and satisfied by the reception he has received.

Bridgetown, N. S., Aug. 21.—At the session of the United Baptist convention this afternoon, Deacon Soley, of Bass River, urged that something be done to remove the stigma of small salaries. Deacon W. The nominating committee reported as follows: Preacher, of convention sermon, Rev. David Hutchinson, alternate, Rev. E. E. Daley.

The various standing committees for the year were named by the nominating committee.

Rev. P. W. Patterson, of Edmonton, representing the Baptist convention of Western Canada, was introduced.

I. B. Oakes reported the attendance at the schools at Wolfville as the largest yet. The college registration was 230, with 35 graduates. The $200,000 to be raised, all of which is now pledged, known as the 75th anniversary fund, $100,000 is to be added to the endowment fund; $50,000 are to be used in erecting a new library, building, a college woman's residence and a manual training building.

Mrs. N. A. Rhodes undertakes to build the manual training building as a memorial to her late husband.

Aodid's Financial Statement.
The treasurer's report was read by Rev. A. Colborn. The trust funds amount to $388,540. The capital of the G. Y. Payzant fund for theology is now $105,000; the residence for college men shows a deficit of $105; Acadia seminary shows a deficit of $5,089, caused by the partial closing of the seminary on account of typhoid outbreak. During the year $9,077 has been received on the 75th anniversary fund. The residence for college women shows a surplus of $289. Horton Collegiate Academy shows a surplus of $17,422 on a year's business exceeding $18,000. The assets of the board amount to $209,450, in land, buildings, furnishing, etc., and trust funds amounting to $885,540.

The liabilities are: Note of campus improvement, $1,000; bank overdraft, $1,752. The Rev. A. Colborn moved a committee on pastoral supply, registration and oversight, whose duties shall be to examine credentials of incoming ministers and assist churches in settling pastors. Churches seeking pastors are urged to consult this committee.

The committee on temperance and moral reform reported through Rev. W. R. Robinson. The report noted the portions of the constitution provinces under some form of legislation and stated that fully 750,000 of the inhabitants of these provinces live and flourish without a single dollar of revenue from the licensed saloon.

Better Salaries Advocated.
At this morning's session, Rev. Edwin Cowell, D.D., reported for the committee on union with the Disciples of Christ. This committee advised that the policy of co-operation on home mission fields and through the interchange of fraternal delegates be continued.

Rev. I. W. Porter explained that this co-operation on home mission fields looks to the providing of pastoral care for small churches of both bodies which might not otherwise be carried on.

Rev. W. E. McIntyre, D.D., urged that no arrangements be entered into which may in any way hamper the work of the Baptists.

The committee on minimum pastors' salaries reported through E. M. Sippell of St. John. The committee, composed of Rev. Mr. McCaskill, addressed the meeting at Young's Cove on Tuesday, this being the first political speech ever made by him.

At Jenness Dr. Judson Hetherington spoke on reciprocity. He referred particularly to the non-sense put up by Tory speakers that the enlarged trade would mean that the people would turn their backs on their own country.

Mr. McCaskill spoke at Jenness on the importance of a reciprocity agreement in the interest of peace and intercourse between the United States and Canada. The agreement he defined as simply a proposal by two governments looking to the removal of the taxes upon the people. That agreement, could be so seriously opposed by the special interests of Toronto and Montreal is an indication that they believe that they should not be called upon to pay the taxes. They insist that this tax be continued upon the people and at the same time plan how they can add to the burden.

The issue is one between the people and the special interests. The argument which has been advanced by Mr. Borden against it that the free list proposed by the Democrats would give Canada the advantages that we would enjoy under reciprocity. This argument has been rendered void by the veto of President Taft.

Instead of attacking the agreement on a commercial side he expresses the fear that if the people are allowed a larger freedom of trade they will lose their nationality. Mr. McCaskill considered that reciprocity would be of special importance to the agricultural sections of the maritime provinces and would remove any of the disabilities under which these provinces have since Confederation. His address, at both Young's Cove and Jenness were listened to with great interest and attention and were devoted to a careful study of the economic question. The people of both sections are greatly interested in the discussion and ask many questions. Col. McLean is greatly encouraged and satisfied by the reception he has received.

morrow Night—Four Men Heavily
Fined for Stealing Ride on
I. C. R. Train.

Moncton, N. B., Aug. 21.—At a conference between the city council and G. T. P. engineers tonight matters in connection with the G. T. P. terminals here were dealt with and terms agreed upon.

District Engineer A. M. Bouillon and Resident Engineer L. H. Wheaton were present on behalf of G. T. P. The council agreed to supply water to the railway for fifteen years for ten cents, nine cents, seven and a half cents per thousand gallons for five-year periods respectively.

The G. T. P. requires twenty acres of the city's land for yard and shops and the council agreed to accept $125 per acre, the engineers agreeing to reconnoiter this amount.

The G. T. P. asked for a fixed valuation and it was decided to make the price paid for the land on the basis of taxation.

District Engineer Bouillon stated that the G. T. P. intended having trains running over this section of the line this fall, while Resident Engineer Wheaton stated that plans were now being prepared for a ferry service to carry cars to complete the connecting link at Lévis until the Quebec bridge is built.

District Engineer Bouillon stated it was the intention of the G. T. P. to advertise Moncton as a manufacturing centre with a view of creating traffic for the road.

The city council accepted the proposals of G. E. Fish, Newcastle, for the construction of a pipe line in connection with the new water reservoir. Fish's figures were $124,250. There were three other bids, ranging as high as $35,000.

Four men, George and Fred Bellfontaine, John G. Manning and John Pettipas, arrested Saturday night at Jones' siding by I. C. R. Officers Jones and Dumphy, were fined $50 each or three months in jail by Police Magistrate Kaye today on a charge of stealing a ride on a train.

Hon. H. R. Emmerson will open his campaign Wednesday night with a public meeting in the Grand Opera House. The speakers will include Mr. Emmerson, Hon. F. J. Sweeney, A. B. Copp and others. Mr. Emmerson held an organization meeting in his committee rooms here this afternoon.

Providence Automobile Owner

Him.

Thursday, Aug. 24.
That the road from Fredericton to Fredericton Junction was positively the worst worst over which they had ever traveled was the opinion freely expressed by a party of motorists who arrived in the city yesterday afternoon after a ride which they would not care to repeat.

The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. J. Briggs, Miss Dorothy Briggs, Dr. and Mrs. James Perkins and the chauffeur. They came from their home in Providence (R. I.) via Houlton (Me.), Woodstock and Fredericton, in a big seven passenger touring car, and on their arrival registered at the Victoria hotel.

During the journey over the Hazen roads Mr. Briggs was seriously concerned for the safety of his car and stated that he would not risk an automobile over that stretch of highway again for $100.

TO BALANCE CANADA'S TRADE

The business men of Canada should vigorously support the effort now being put forth to make the conditions of trade between the United States and Canada more equitable. In the year ending March 31, 1911, we imported goods to the value of $294,934,739 from the United States. Over a hundred and thirty-one million dollars' worth of this total was duty-free goods, such as raw cotton, rubber, wool, coal, and many other things needed by our manufacturers.

Because of the huge tariff wall standing in the way of any return trade we were able to export only $103,922,223 of Canadian goods to the United States.

These figures do not indicate a healthy condition of business. The disparity in volume between what we buy from the States and what we sell is too great. One of two things must be happening: either a large part of the United States' imports represents new American investments in Canada, or the exports of Canada to other countries must be used to pay our debts in the United States.

It has been Mr. Fielding's constant aim to balance Canada's trade with the United States. He sees that we must continue to draw from that country vast quantities of raw materials and of manufactured goods that it is not convenient or profitable, even be hinder the shelter of the tariff, to make in the Dominion because our consumption is still relatively small. He wants to pay for these importations by a greatly increased export of Canada's natural products. The removal of the United States tariff on the chief products of the farm, the forest, the fisheries, and the mine gives an opportunity to do what the Finance Minister has long regarded as essential to the continued prosperity of the country.

A trade so one-sided as to permit us to send only $103,000,000 worth of Canadian goods to a country whose goods we buy to the extent of $294,000,000 in twelve months needs to be placed on a sounder basis. The business men of Canada should do everything possible to enable the farmer, the lumberman, the fisherman and the miner to meet the balance. Five years after reciprocity goes into force Canada will export two hundred million dollars' worth of her products every year to the United States, and will still have all the surplus foodstuffs that Britain now takes to ship across the Atlantic.

To those who fear that the increase of our exports to the United States will predispose Canadians to annexation let us put this question: Is Canada less devoted to the Empire now than she was in 1897 when Fielding's first tariff was brought in?

Every honest man will admit that the ties of affection and loyalty are far stronger now than they were in 1897. Fourteen years ago Canada's total trade—imports, exports and re-exports—within the Empire was $113,909,000. Last year it was $283,767,000. Fourteen years ago Canada's total trade with the United States in imports, exports and re-exports was $111,023,000. Last year it was $404,137,000.

We see here a far greater expansion of Canada's trade with the United States than within the Empire. Yet that expansion was coincident with the drawing closer of the Imperial tie. Why should a still further increase of our export trade to the United States make us disloyal?

Business men dealing daily with business men and business houses in the United States should ask themselves that question. It is so honestly and give an honest answer the annexation bogey will have no terror for them.—Toronto Globe.

THE DAIRY INTERESTS

Kings county for many years was the banner dairy county of this province, and is yet for that matter. Naturally Kings and Albert are splendidly adapted for dairying and mixed farming generally.

But what these counties need more than anything else is Reciprocity, which will provide the biggest market possible for the products of the dairy, for butter and cream and cheese, and all the other products of the farm.

Reciprocity will give us free entry into the United States market for all these things, and instead of the local market being clogged by local products the farmer will enjoy a steady demand at all times for all that he has to sell, and so can plan ahead and enlarge his operations with the assurance that he can always dispose of his products at good prices.

Nothing would so stimulate dairy farming as reciprocity. Nothing would build up New Brunswick's agricultural counties like the larger market. Vote for reciprocity and prosperity. The Conservatives know well enough that Sir John Macdonald strove to obtain reciprocity and that Borden is now an ally of Bourassa. They merely talk about disloyalty to cover up the weakness of their own case. They know reciprocity is going to beat them.

BRITAIN ANSWERS BORDEN

The Times quotes today on its first page an article from the London Spectator which disposes most effectively of the disloyalty cry of the Canadian Conservatives. The Spectator bluntly tells Mr. Borden and his party that "it is childish to say to Canadians that, if they and Americans both become richer through new opportunities of trading with each other, Canada will be guilty of a disloyal act to Great Britain."

GREAT LIBERAL
MEETING AT SUSSEX

CUMBERLAND CO.
WILL BE IN LINE

H. J. Logan, the Candidate,
Meeting With Splendid Reception

RECIPROCITY POPULAR

Rousing Meeting at Amherst Last Night—Saturday Night's Rally at River Hebert Very Enthusiastic—Hon. Mr. Emmerson Made a Convincing Speech.

Amherst, N. S., Aug. 21.—The campaign in Cumberland is getting hot. The Liberal party is thoroughly organized and in splendid fighting shape. Last week Mr. Logan made a tour of the Parrsboro shores and wound up his trip at River Hebert on Saturday night, where in conjunction with R. S. Carter, M. P. P., and Hon. H. R. Emmerson, he addressed a mass meeting in the drill shed. The meeting was of the most enthusiastic character, all the speakers receiving magnificent receptions.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson referred to the fact that he had spent his boyhood days in River Hebert, and drew a vivid word picture of the prosperity that existed under the old reciprocity treaty, when hundreds of vessels ploughed the head waters of Cumberland Basin, carrying the products of the farm, the forest, the mine and the quarries to the American market.

Mr. Logan dealt forcibly with the reciprocity issue. He showed that the people of River Hebert, and that particular section, had three things to export, hay, lumber and its by-products and coal. The reciprocity pact had settled the coal question inasmuch, as it had defined what slack coal was, and which under the old regulations had frequently to pay the maximum rate of duty.

The reciprocity pact removed that duty on laths and boards and a decided advantage to all lumber operators as the American market and the American market alone took such products of the mill.

He pointed to the fact that hundreds of tons of last year's hay was stored in the barns on account of the excessive duty charged by the United States.

He drove his argument home with telling force and received a splendid reception, when he closed with an eloquent appeal for support.

Tonight he addressed the Liberal Club in Amherst. The meeting was called for the Liberal headquarters, but the room proved altogether too small and an adjournment was made to the parish hall. Mr. Logan spoke for nearly two hours and held the close attention of the audience throughout his address. It is a safe statement to make that every man in the hall left the building an earnest advocate of this great business proposition.

The hearts of the Cumberland Liberals were further cheered by the announcement that Sir Wilfrid Laurier would, in place of Amherst, be in the city and would speak in Amherst on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 2, going to Moncton from this town. He will cross from Charlottetown to Pugwash, then to Amherst and then to Moncton.

JAMES LOWELL
LIBERAL VICTORY

Tuesday, Aug. 22.
James Lowell, who was in the city yesterday, returned confident of the Liberal outlook in St. John city and county. The people are not at all deceived by the disloyalty cry, and are considering reciprocity as a purely business proposition, which will benefit the farmers, fishermen and lumbermen, and thereby bring benefit to the city as well.

ST. JOHN STATISTICS IN BUILDING OPERATIONS

The building statistics for the principal cities of Canada as published by the Financial Post of Canada show an increase of 10 per cent for the corresponding period of last year, which is equal to about 28 per cent. Among the twenty-eight cities from which the statistics were prepared only eight show a decrease, and but for this the increase would have been about $3,600,000 greater or a percentage in excess of 33 1/3.

The city of St. John shows a decrease of $30,100, or 19 1/2 per cent, the figures for this year (January to July) being $240,000 and for the same month last year $270,100. Of the eight cities showing a decrease St. John shows the least, the next in order being Fort William, with a decrease of $120,230.

THE PRICE OF HAY

Thursday, Aug. 24.
The average price the farmer received for his hay in Montreal from January to June, 1911, was $11.75 per ton. The highest price was $13.50.

The average in New York for the same period was $23.75—the highest $30.00.

The average in Chicago was $18.00—the highest $23.50.

Speech

J. D. O'Connell's "Eight Cents-a-Dozen Eggs"
Were Ancient

Speaker Condemns False and Despicable Canvasses of Tories in Order to De-lude the Voters—Hon. Mr.
Sweeney Makes Strong Plea for Reciprocity.

Sussex, N. B., Aug. 21.—There was an enthusiastic meeting of the Liberal workers of Sussex town and parish in the party's headquarters tonight and splendid addresses were made by Dr. G. N. Pearson, Hon. Frank Sweeney and others.

There was no doubt of the favor in which reciprocity was held by those present. The speech of Dr. Pearson was remarkable for its practical common sense flavor, and he was cheered again and again as he showed how false the arguments of J. D. O'Connell were, and how much he attempted to deceive the electors by his protestations that he was speaking as a Liberal against reciprocity.

One of O'Connell's favorite arguments was of eggs in the American market as against the favorable prices in Canada. O'Connell had told the people that he had bought hundreds of thousands of eggs in the United States for six and eight cents per dozen, but what he did not tell them was that the eggs were intended for the manufacture of his shoe polish, which required rotten eggs for that purpose.

Dr. Pearson showed this up amid the cheers and laughter of the audience, and he said that O'Connell had been alive to his business interests he could have bought thousands of adobeens of condemned cold storage eggs that had been condemned by the Montreal health authorities.

Once a Conservative and Sorry for It.
He reminded them that up to three and a half years ago he had been a life-long Conservative, and with others of his party staunch supporters of reciprocity. He was inclined in view of the present dishonest and inconsistent attitude of the present Conservative leaders to be ashamed of the fact that he had been erstwhile one of that party.

He ridiculed the cry of disloyalty which sounded ill from the lips of those who had striven against a Canadian navy, built and manned by Canadians.

He reminded the audience that Borden had allied himself with Monk and Bourassa, who had opposed the sending of troops to South Africa, and who had been assisting in the defence of her own trade and her own coast. As a contrast he read the utterances of loyalty at Three Rivers made by Dr. Borden, the new minister, as reported by the Tory Montreal Star.

Hon. Mr. Sweeney.
Hon. Frank Sweeney, in his striking speech of half an hour, held the audience for every minute clinching argument after argument in favor of reciprocity. He asked the people if they wanted to go forward losing representation every decade, as at present, or whether they would return to the good old days of reciprocity when trade was splendid and money plentiful.

Mr. Sweeney's speech was of too comprehensive a character to be condensed in a few paragraphs, but he aroused his hearers to a pitch of enthusiasm seldom equaled.

Sussex Liberals are out in force every night doing splendid work for the cause of reciprocity and for the victory of Dr. McAlister on election day.

Tonight at Norton there was a splendid audience to hear A. B. Copp, M. P. P. The hall was locally decorated with flags and bunting and there was all the enthusiasm that is usual in this stronghold of Liberalism.

Dr. McAlister, Frank Freese and others are speaking tonight at Hatfield's Point, and E. H. McAlpine and A. E. Pearson at Mechanics Settlement. In this latter place a Tory meeting had been advertised but when the speakers learned that McAlpine and Pearson would be on hand they changed their base of action.

The Tories of Kings-Albert are striving to make it appear that Fowler's chances of victory are good. They lose sight of the fact that Dr. McAlister has looked after the public works and public services of the county better than any representative Kings-Albert ever had, and that he has been winning friends every since the day he defeated Geo. W. Fowler in 1908.

ONONETTE HOUSE
DESTROYED BY FIRE

Thursday, Aug. 24.
Ononette, an suburban resort along the line of the C. P. R., near this city, was the scene of a serious fire about 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the fine two-story summer residence owned and occupied by W. V. Hatfield, was completely destroyed by fire. The origin of the blaze is unknown as there was no one in the house at the time the fire started. At noon Mr. Hatfield's family left the house to spend the afternoon at the store and they were enjoying themselves when they noticed the bright reflection cast by the flames.

Attempts to check the fire proved futile for the flames spread so rapidly that those who gathered had scarcely a chance to save any of the furniture. It is expected that the loss will be nearly covered by insurance, as Mr. Hatfield carried $1,000 on the house and $500 on the furniture. The fire was very spectacular, the reflection cast by the flames being seen several miles away.

ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 26, 1911. PROTECTION AND LOYALTY

Mr. Borden advances the proposition that reciprocity "interlocks our fiscal system with that of the United States and fetters the power of our Parliament to alter our tariff according to the just requirements of our people."

He points out that in the long run it is much less profitable to deceive the consumer. The sensible manufacturer tries to give his constituency what is best for their health and gastronomic enjoyment, and thus make them eager to buy the same article again.

THE ANNEXATION "CRY" In the course of a calmly reasoned letter to the Montreal Star which has been screaming about disloyalty and annexation, Mr. E. G. O'Connor, of Montreal, says:

Mr. Lowell's Campaign The Liberal organization meeting in Fairville Tuesday night and the fine spirit of enthusiasm shown there from a sort of official start for Mr. Lowell's campaign, but as a matter of fact Mr. Lowell's campaign in the county, in Fairville and in all the parishes, started years ago—and from the time he appeared in the field no Conservative could hope to beat him.

LOYALTY AND RECIPROCITY Liberals who write to The Telegraph from several quarters say that the Conservatives cannot present any tangible argument against reciprocity and are very much afraid of its political effect in this campaign, but that they keep prating about loyalty and the danger to our national life which they say will follow the ratification of the Fielding-Paterson agreement.

indications of heaven-bestowed genius for statesmanship on the part of the author. The inexplicable thing is that a party leader in such a country as Canada could be found to make himself responsible for it.

THE ADULTERATION OF FOODS The Pure Food law which the United States passed a few years ago, placed her in the front rank of the nations in regard to legislation of this nature. Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, contributed more toward its passage than any other individual, and for his activity he has never been forgiven by those who, to save trouble or expense, seek to supply the market with unpalatable and injurious foodstuffs.

The epure will find in it much scientific justification for his fads and notions. Dr. Wiley emphasizes the fact, which is often kept in the background, that even when certain methods of cold storage or of preserving foods with chemical germicides are not directly injurious, they are so indirectly by destroying the flavor of the food, making it unpalatable. This, he shows to be a matter of extreme importance, not merely because it mars the pleasures of the table, but because unpalatable food does not stimulate the digestive glands to proper activity.

He gives much information about all kinds of meat and meat products—fresh, canned, refrigerated, or otherwise preserved; about poultry, eggs and game birds; fish foods, oysters, clams and terrapin; milk and butter; cereals, vegetables and fruits; oils, fats and nuts; sugar, syrup, honey and confectionery. One reform he has succeeded in instituting is in getting the public generally to refuse to buy fish, meats and canned fruits preserved with benzole of soda. It was very commonly used before he denounced it as harmful, but now manufacturers find its use unprofitable.

Forty-eight hours after the Liberal victory has been announced, will the Star be able to discover any one crazy enough to say that Liberals are disloyal or that annexation tendencies have been encouraged? Of course not. The Star is merely feigning insanity for election purposes. It is the mouthpiece of the "interests" which want a tariff "as high as Haman's mallow." After September 21 it will have a long lucid interval.

THE NEW POST OFFICE The Telegraph's Ottawa despatches this morning contain the interesting news that a site for the new St. John post office has been selected by the Department of Public Works, and approved of by an expert employed by that branch of the government, and that when this has been confirmed by Hon. Mr. Pugsley the purchase will be completed. The lot in question consists of 180 feet on Prince William street, immediately south of the Bank of Nova Scotia building, and extending back to Canterbury street. This fine parcel of land is at the disposal of the government for $40,000, and as it includes the Bayard building, it will be agreed that the price is a most reasonable one.

Either country can cancel the agreement, a day, or a month, or six months, or a year, or ten years, or any time, after it has been passed, if it is found desirable to do so. And if Canadians should find that reciprocity did not turn out as they expected, the government of the day, which ever party it represented (but in this instance it is going to be a Liberal government any way) would not hesitate to abrogate the agreement, or if it did hesitate, that would be the last of the government. The electors of this country make the tariff laws through their representatives in Parliament, and those representatives are quickly responsive to public opinion. So much for that.

"You Pays Your Money and You Takes Your Choice."

The Montreal "Star" publishes in big, fat type on or about its first page a daily exposure of the shockingly depressed condition of the United States industry. That is, of course, political dope, the same kind of stuff as that contributed to "The Star" and other anti-reciprocity organs by Mr. Whidden Graham, of New York, who, by his own forced admission under oath, is the hired agent of the United States trusts in their fight against reciprocity.

THE ANNEXATION "CRY" In the course of a calmly reasoned letter to the Montreal Star which has been screaming about disloyalty and annexation, Mr. E. G. O'Connor, of Montreal, says:

Hard Work Should Be Proper Care and C...

It is well to remember that horse as well as the farmer's summer busy season, should now be treated with attention so as to enable them to stand up to the work of the year.

In working my horse, I am some principle as in working myself. A man can do more hours of work in a better condition than a horse.

When not working or at night and when not wet, the feet and the fresh air in the stall should not be regarded as a luxury, but as a necessity.

At noon hour we aim to such conditions as will give the horse the greatest amount of rest. It is good practice to take the horse out at noon, but to be in too much of a hurry, however, are always unduly back on the saddle and the horse is never given a small, if warm, as soon as all they will drink before the field.

Paris, Aug. 21.—Foot-and-mouth disease which broke out three weeks ago in Haute-Savoie, Normandy, Brittany and other parts of France, is extending to other parts of the country.

The treatment consists in making with certain sea-bulbs, which are dried and subjected beneath the animals' feet, varying from 75 to 100 metres, according to the extent of the disease.

A Good Advice (Charleston, Gu.) The Guardian learns that the very good authorities from Prince Edward Island States have about a year past. And our list seems to be still more average.

THERE IS NO OTHER WAY

(Toronto Globe.)

President Taft has vetoed the farmers' free list bill sent up to him by congress for his assent. The members of congress have failed to pass the bill over his veto. These two moves on the chess board of United States politics end all possibility of radical reform for two years at least.

Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher

It is really rather funny how the man who's burning money finds a legion of admirers any place that he may stray. Everything he says is witty; all the johnnies in the city gather round BEFORE him to adore him while there's wealth to throw AND AFTER away. When he grows exceeding frisky in the gilded home of whisky, even the barkeepers make confession that he has a wealth of charms; and the peakers, evidently, love him, for they treat him gently, when his feet become entangled and he falls into their arms.

TORY MEETING IN CARLETON COUNTY A FROST

Messrs. Smith, Munro and Squires Failed to Convince Richmond Corner Voters That Reciprocity Was a Bad Thing.

Richmond Corner, Aug. 25.—What was to be a rousing meeting against reciprocity turned out to be a very quiet affair, when B. F. Smith, Donald Munro and F. C. Squires appeared in the Orange hall last evening.

The addresses were characteristic of Conservative tactics, and were very inconsistent. Mr. Squires, that "mighty bulwark of empire," with attempts at eloquence, but in a frenzied voice, cried "Annexation, annexation, annexation!"

Mr. Munro next appeared upon the scene, and after reading a jumble of figures from some old trade journal—for certain the meeting was not for a certain set of statistics available, and gave no true conception of our trade relations with the United States—concluded by producing a tag and, waving it around awhile, sat down.

By this time the hour was growing late, and Mr. Squires and Mr. Munro—doubtless intentionally—having taken up most of the time, Mr. Smith had little to say, so he too, after accusing Mr. Carvell of being no true friend or representative of the farmer, and telling us what a terrible thing the American tariff was, for getting that we know what the matter is six miles away—sat down.

The chairman was then proceeding to give anyone an opportunity to ask questions, but Mr. Munro interrupted him by announcing: "We will sing God Save the King." Was he afraid of being asked questions? The audience thought so.

The meeting leaves no room for a doubt that the farmers of this community desire reciprocity and are determined that neither Mr. Squires' attempts at flowery eloquence and fervent spirit, or Mr. Munro's jumbling of figures, or Smith's cry of ruin will turn them from voting for the agreement.

Conservatives were heard to say after the meeting that they would vote for reciprocity.

ROUSING LIBERAL MEETING AT PLASTER ROCK

Plaster Rock, Aug. 25.—A large and enthusiastic gathering attended a Liberal meeting here on Friday evening and listened to an address on the benefits of reciprocity given by F. B. Carvell and Pius Michaud.

The meeting was crowded to the doors with both Liberals and Conservatives and both speakers received the closest attention from start to finish.

Mr. Michaud pointed out the benefits to be derived from reciprocity in this district and F. B. Carvell showed the great benefit it would be to the country at large.

At the close of the meeting God Save the King was sung and three rousing cheers given for the speakers.

Last fall the exigencies of the political situation compelled Joe to nominate a colored brother for the Pennsylvania legislature, who duly ran and was elected.

There is a strong opinion here, which Mr. Fowler may learn, that the British flag is good enough for all, and that its glory is not likely to be dimmed or its permanency endangered by bigger markets and extended commerce.

Arrangements are being made for platform meetings in the interests of the government candidate, and Hon. H. B. Emerson and Dr. McAlister will open at Albert next week.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE STANDARD AND THE LIBERAL MEETING AT NORTON

To the Editor of The Telegraph:
Sir—As the meeting held here on August 21 was in no way unlike the usual enthusiastic and successful meetings that are being held throughout King-Albert in the interests of Dr. MacLaurin and reciprocity, it was thought unnecessary to take up the columns of your valuable paper with a report of the same, but since the Standard correspondent has so pervaded the truth and so willfully misrepresented what did take place, we take pleasure in sending you a few facts.

A Conservative in the audience suggested sending them to England. Mr. Copp quickly showed that there was no demand for these in the British market, and that they had been going to the United States in spite of the duty, and now that the duty was reduced we would have a doubly profitable market there.

A CONSERVATIVE VIEW OF IT

To the Editor of The Telegraph:
Sir—With regard to the statements made in yesterday's issue of the Standard, I, as a member of the audience in the hall when Mr. Copp spoke, believe it my duty to correct, in a measure, the version given by the Standard writer, who evidently either was not present, or his intelligence was dulled by the gross attempts by some Conservatives who were in the audience. The speaker was not insulted as the Standard alleges, and as a Conservative myself should be very much ashamed to have the public believing that an audience here in Norton would be guilty of such a breach of politeness. It is untrue that the decorations of the hall were of American origin, and the Standard's statement respecting the botanical knowledge of the writer. The flowers were "Golden Glows." It is to be hoped that the Standard reporter at the next meeting will show more judgment than was manifested by him in the article in yesterday's Standard.

TORY MISREPRESENTATION

A subscriber sends to The Telegraph a clipping from the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, in which an attack is made upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding on account of reciprocity. The article from the Star, which purports to be fair, contains a great deal of sheer Conservative nonsense. The subscriber writes as follows:

THE POTATO ARGUMENT

To the Editor of The Telegraph:
Sir: I notice by one of the opposition organs the statement that the United States potato crop for 1910 amounts to 240,000,000 bushels and if our markets were open to them we would be flooded by cheap American potatoes and our market ruined.

DOUBTERS OR COWARDS?

(Evening Times).
Any Canadian who talks or writes about the possibility of annexation to the United States in his mind a doubt concerning his own loyalty—or is he a coward.

KINGS CO. AND LOYALTY

(Evening Times).
The fact that Dr. G. N. Pearson and his brother, A. E. Pearson, are speaking in Kings county in favor of reciprocity will make it more difficult for the Conservatives to persuade the people that reciprocity means disloyalty.

While walking towards the bank of the river for the purpose of boarding his motor boat he was surprised to see a twenty pound salmon jump over the river into another motor boat owned by Harry Woods. Robert Connelly, of Great Salmon River, in company with J. A. Robinson, a member of the local fire department, came to the city by motor boat from Martin Head Wednesday. The company has made arrangements for extensive lumber operations at the head of the river, and when questioned about the location, he declared that the victory of James Lowell was assured. His popularity throughout the county would be sufficient to elect him Mayor of the great advantage of the reciprocity issue.

Owing to the protests from the people living along the Central Railway and the approach of the election, the provincial government is at last providing for the repair of the Washademoak bridge, near Cady's. The bridge was wrecked nearly two months ago by the burning of an army of gnats, spreading apple trees. The guests amused themselves by playing old-fashioned games. The one which proved the most amusing was "Come to Supper," in which Simon Fanoj and Mrs. Hanford entered with such spirit that they were completely exhausted. Music was supplied by the Bagdad Glee Club. Mr. Carvell performed many acrobatic feats much to the amusement of the guests.

An inquest into the death of William Taylor, who remains found in Lily Lake, took place on Wednesday afternoon. The jury expressed the belief that the death was not accidental. In its verdict the jury expressed the belief that the policeman McCleod, when first attacked by Taylor, should have dismounted and called upon a man named Dryden, who was on duty at the time, to make an arrest. The verdict followed: "That the jury ampenalled to enquire into the death of William Taylor, whose body was found in Lily Lake, Rockwood Park, in the city of St. John, on the 18th inst., find that he came to his death by drowning, being of unsound mind at the time of his death. From the evidence adduced we also believe that Mounted Policeman McCleod should have dismounted and called upon Mr. Dryden to assist in making the arrest, which he failed to do."

Wholesale Grocer Explains How Reciprocity Will Reopen Valuable Market for Eggs and Potatoes—It is Worth Thinking About.

Speaking Tuesday of the profitable trade which was established a few years ago in St. John between this city and the province and the United States in eggs and potatoes, but which was severed when the duty on these articles was imposed, Timothy Collins, the well known wholesale grocer of North Market street, said he was looking forward to the re-opening of the American market in this regard, and felt that this would be one of the many beneficial results to follow the ratification of the reciprocity agreement in so far as St. John and New Brunswick were concerned.

"I think Mr. Borden made a big blunder when he played into Laurier's hands and decided to stake his all on the question of reciprocity."
"Mr. Bourassa asked that the people should consider what was to come after this issue of reciprocity had been disposed of. Were the people going to give the Laurier administration a blank mandate for three or four years?"

The foregoing are from the Gazette's report of Mr. Bourassa's speech at Lachine on Friday night. Is there any other deduction possible than that he expects Laurier to win and Borden to be beaten?—Montreal Herald.
