TURKS ATTACK SERBIA REJECT POWERS' OFFER

Simultaneously With Assault on Frontier Garrisons of Serbia Representatives of Powers Are Told That Turkey Will Not Tolerate Interference Over Macedonia.

[Canadian Press.] Constantinople, Oct. 14.—The Turkish Government declines to allow the powers to intervene in the question of Macedonian reforms. Its reply to the representatives of the powers was handed to the Austro-Hungarian ambassador here this morning. While thanking the European powers for their friendly interest in the Balkan situation, which the Ottoman Government recognizes they have exercised in behalf of, the reply says that Turkey is determined to carry out the promised reforms, but cannot tolerate any foreign interference.

Turkey Attacks. Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 14.—A body of Turkish troops crossed the Serbian frontier at Ristovatz near Vranja, at 5 o'clock this morning and attacked the Serbian garrison there, according to an official dispatch from the Serbian general in command. Fighting was still in progress when the message was dispatched.

State of War. Paris, Oct. 14.—A state of war between Turkey and Serbia can be considered as already existing, according to a news agency dispatch from Belgrade, which says that the declaration of war is now only a question of form.

Podgoritz, Montenegro, Oct. 14.—The Montenegrin troops occupied another position still closer to the town of Gusinje yesterday, according to the official report of General Vukotich, the commander of that division of the Montenegrin army.

London, Oct. 14.—The Montenegrin troops lost 100 killed and wounded in their attack on the town of Byelopole in the Sanjak of Novipazar, according to the official report of the battle re-

CONTROL BOARD TO BE ELECTED BY DIRECT VOTE

Committee to Discuss Proposed Change Will Recommend That Method.

CABINET AND COMMONS FOR CITY'S BUSINESS

Proposed That Board of Control Consist of First Four Aldermen Elected.

The committee to be named by the council at the next meeting to discuss the advisability of substituting a board of control for the present aldermanic system will recommend the method of the board's operation. In Toronto, Hamilton and other cities, the board is elected directly by the people.

Another Ultimatum. London, Oct. 14.—The Greek note to Turkey, demanding the release of the confiscated Greek vessels, is in the nature of an ultimatum which official circles here think it is certain Turkey will promptly comply with. It therefore means immediate war.

There is no doubt that Turkey knows the seizure of ships before the breaking out of hostilities was an act of war, and according to the most reliable information from Constantinople the Ottoman Government intended this action to be provocative.

WORLD'S EXCHANGE PANICKY WITH WAR SITUATION TENSE

Wild Fluctuations at Opening of the Chicago Wheat Market—Banks Check Flurry on Berlin Bourse—British Consols Drop.

[Canadian Press.] Chicago, Oct. 14.—Excitement over rumors that the Dardanelles would be closed led to wild fluctuations today in the wheat market. The opening was 1 1/2c to 1 3/4c to 2 1/4c higher. Heavy sales to realize profits carried the market quickly back 1 1/2c from the top.

December wheat, which closed Friday at 93 1/2c to 93 3/4c, started today at 95 1/4c to 95 3/4c, touched 95 1/2c, and reacted to 94 1/2c to 94 3/4c.

May went up nearly 3c to above the dollar mark, and then dropped to 90c.

Berlin Panic Checked. Berlin, Oct. 14.—The panic on the Berlin bourse was checked today by the energetic action of the leading banks which, after a meeting, announced their intention of taking over as far as possible, everything thrown on the market. This step even led to slight recoveries. The announcement was effective even in the face of the news of the Turkish invasion of Serbian territory, which it is thought is to be interpreted perhaps as the Ottoman Government's answer to the notes from the Balkan states, and a bold attempt to interfere with co-operation of the Serbian and Bulgarian armies. Optimistic reports were also in circulation in connection with the Turco-Italian peace negotiations.

"COSSACK GOVERNMENT TYRANNIZES MANITOBA"

Winnipeg Free Press Says Roblin Forces Had No Consideration of Fair Fighting.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 14.—Commenting on the result of the Macdonald election, the Free Press says: "Agencies and influences, neither by law nor by any considerations of fair fighting on the part of the Government forces, were displayed. The Free Press adds that Macdonald is not only the strongest Conservative district in Manitoba, but includes a large number of polls which lend themselves readily and joyously to methods upon which Roblin and Rogers primarily rely to secure victory and declares that the result should not discourage those responsible for forcing the fight, and that Manitoba Liberalism is "steadily hardening into a militant and disciplined force that will yet overthrow the Cossack government which tyrannizes over this province."

PROSPECTIVE BRIDES. Montreal, Oct. 14.—It is estimated in shipping circles that the number of prospective brides, who have come to Canada this year is up in the thousands. The latest complement to arrive was brought by the Lake Manitoba, which docked yesterday, and numbers 42. Most of the girls have gone to the Northwest.

Summary: Stolen bases—Speaker 1, Doyle, Herzog, Meyers. Two-base hits—Merkle, Herzog, Engle. Three-base hits—Meyers. First on balls—Off Marquard 1. Struck out—By Marquard 3, by O'Brien 1.

[Canadian Press.] Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 14.—The Giants made their last stand today. Before a crowd numbering 25,000 or more, the New Yorks struggled to check the onward march of the Boston Americans, who, with three contests captured, need only another victory to earn them the title of world's champions of 1912.

The crowd came late, and the players were already on the field warming up before the bulk of the day's attendance was on hand. There was plenty of room for everyone, and vacant tiers of seats yawned in the outfield bleachers and lower stands before the game began. The day was cheerful and cold, dull gray clouds screening the sun, and there was a threat of rain in the air.

Field practice by the two clubs was sharp and brilliant, and dazzling pick-ups and snappy throws by the two infielders kept the stands applauding continuously.

It was reported before the game that John T. Brush, president of the New York Baseball Club, was in a serious condition at his home here. Mr. Brush has been ill for a long time. Marquard and Meyers were announced for New York, and O'Brien and Cady for Boston.

Klem went behind the bat, Evans took the bases, Rigler went to right, and O'Loughlin went to left field.

FIRST INNING. Boston—Hooper got a single over second, on which Doyle made a fine stop, but could not throw the runner out at first. Hooper was caught napping at first and thrown out. Marquard to Merkle. Yerkes flied to Snodgrass. Speaker walked to first, after having two strikes called on him. Speaker stole second. Lewis flied out to Devore. No runs, one hit, no errors.

New York—Devore got a hit to center. New York—Devore got a hit to center. Doyle flied out to Wagner. Snodgrass flied to Hooper, who threw to Stahl, doubling Devore. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SECOND INNING. Boston—Gardner scratched an infield hit. The official scorer, however, gave Marquard an out on the play. Stahl singled center. Gardner taking second. Wagner struck out. Cady sent up a high foul to Summary: Stolen bases—Speaker 1, Doyle, Herzog, Meyers. Two-base hits—Merkle, Herzog, Engle. Three-base hits—Meyers. First on balls—Off Marquard 1. Struck out—By Marquard 3, by O'Brien 1.

THIRD INNING. Boston—Yerkes singled to center. Speaker flied to Snodgrass. Lewis sent a long foul to left, which Devore captured. Gardner flied out to Murray, who took the ball up against the fence. No runs, one hit, no errors.

New York—Snodgrass flied to Yerkes. Merkle singled to right, but was thrown out stretching his hit on a throw by Hooper to Yerkes. Merkle got an infield hit along the third-base line. Merkle was out stealing. Cady to Wagner. No runs, two hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING. Boston—Stahl scratched an infield hit toward third base. Snodgrass took Wagner's long fly. It cut off a three-base hit and possibly a home run. Cady got a single to right field, Stahl taking third. Fletcher took Collins' grounder and tossed to Doyle, forcing Cady at second. Doyle completed a double play by throwing out Collins at first. No runs, two hits, no errors.

New York—Herzog flied to Speaker. Meyers drove a long hit to the center. Doyle completed a double play by throwing to Speaker. Meyers started for home, but when he saw Speaker's throw he hurried back to third. Yerkes threw out Marquard. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FIFTH INNING. Boston—Hooper flied out to Murray, who made another nice catch. Murray took Yerkes' fly. Speaker flied to Herzog. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Devore got a hit to center. Doyle flied out to Wagner. Snodgrass flied to Hooper, who threw to Stahl, doubling Devore. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SIXTH INNING. Boston—Lewis fouled out to Meyers. Gardner struck out. Stahl struck out. Marquard's speed was bewildering and his curves broke sharply. No runs, no hits, no errors.

New York—Murray flied to Hooper. Merkle popped out to Stahl. Merkle tried to get out of the way of the ball, but it hit his bat and flew high enough for Stahl to reach it. Cady dropped Herzog's high foul. This gave Herzog a life. Herzog flied to Yerkes. No runs, no hits, one error.

BRIDGIE WEBBER TAKES THE STAND AGAINST BECKER

Says Police Officer Told Him That Rosenthal Must Be Killed.

AND THAT MURDERERS WOULD BE ALL RIGHT

More Sensational Evidence Produced at New York Murder Trial.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Oct. 14.—Winfield R. Sheehan, secretary to Police Commissioner Waldo, was the first witness called when the trial of Becker was resumed today. His appearance was a distinct surprise. Sheehan, who is a former newspaperman, was asked to identify his signature of a document handed to him by Assistant District Attorney Moss. The document was a communication, addressed to Becker, and attached thereto were letters identified by the witness as having been written by Becker. Sheehan said that he had signed the document at the direction of Commissioner Waldo.

"Did you ever talk to Becker about the matters mentioned in these communications?" asked Mr. Moss. "No, sir," Sheehan answered. On the ground that the commissioner's secretary had given only his "opinion" as to the authenticity of Becker's signature, John W. Hart, of counsel for the defence, objected to the introduction of the papers in evidence. Justice Goff said he would sustain the objection unless the witnesses could make his identification more positive.

"Didn't you have a conversation with Commissioner Waldo on this very letter?" asked Mr. Moss, showing the witness one of the alleged Becker communications. Witness said, "It might be" the signature, but said he could not remember all the letters that had come through his hands. Finally, after some sparring, Sheehan said: "I recognized that signature as the signature of all papers handed me by Charles Becker. To the best of my belief, that is Becker's signature."

Justice Goff, refused, however, to allow the papers to be admitted and Sheehan was dismissed. Webber Called.

"Bridgie" Webber was then called to the stand. "Bridgie" said that his real name was "Louis," and admitted that he was a gambler. He had known Herms Rosenthal for 15 years, he said, and Jack Rose for the same time. Becker he had known for two years. "Where did you first meet Becker?" asked Mr. Moss. "In Jack Rose's place," said Webber. "Where did you next meet him?" "In front of my poker room."

"Yes, He used to come to my place often," said Webber. (Continued on Page Eleven.)

CORONER ORDERS POST MORTEM FOLLOWING MYSTERIOUS ILLNESS

Poisonous Meat May Have Caused the Death of Leo Bartell.

Leo Bartell, a cigarmaker, age 32 years, died suddenly at St. Joseph's Hospital last night shortly after being removed from his home, 75 Wilson avenue, West London, suffering from a rather mysterious illness. It is possible that death was due to pomaine poisoning. Dr. U. E. Bateson, who was in attendance, having arrived at that conclusion. Fried pork sausage, manufactured by a local butcher, are thought to have been responsible for Mr. Bartell's family. The matter was investigated by Coroner Dr. R. Ferguson of South London, who after consultation with Crown Attorney J. B. McKillop ordered Dr. Bateson to make a postmortem examination. Whether or not an inquest will be held will be determined later. Mr. Bartell came from Detroit with his family about a year ago, and had since been employed at the Jose Gaste Cigar Factory. He resided with his wife and family at 75 Wilson avenue, West London. He had been in fair health Saturday, day, although his friends state that for the past few weeks Mr. Bartell had suffered from spells of weakness.

The sausages were purchased at a local store Saturday, and were served on Sunday in the Bartell home. Mrs. Bartell stated to the Advertiser this morning that her husband was practically the only person to partake of the meat, although his eldest daughter, Rosezofa, aged 11, had eaten a little. Shortly afterward Rosezofa complained of feeling ill, and lay down for a time. Nothing was thought of her sickness at the moment, but a little later Mr. Bartell complained of illness. His condition became rapidly worse, and Dr. Bateson was summoned. Mr. Bartell was ordered to St. Joseph's Hospital, but his death occurred there half an hour after he was admitted. It is said that the trouble was chiefly in the case of the brain, and from this it appears that death may have been due to some other ailment. Sausages from the same production were sold throughout the district, and no other complaints were received. Mr. Bartell was born and raised in Detroit, where two brothers, Frank and Otto, and several sisters reside. Mr. Frank Bartell was commencing with last night and arrived in London this morning. Interment will be made at Detroit.

Miss Wylie Finds That Queen City Suffragettes Are Nervous.

IS RATHER SURPRISED

Will Not Waste Time Seeing Provincial Premiers, But Will Focus Upon Mr. Borden.

Toronto, Oct. 12. —When it comes down to a question of rough house tactics to secure the vote the Toronto suffragettes are nervous.

"Why are they nervous?" Miss Wylie was asked. "Oh, dear, I don't know," she replied with a gesture of impatience.

"No friction at all," she replied. "I have not discussed militancy much. Militancy is not to be all and end of our movement. It is far more desirable that conventional methods should be followed as far as they are effective.

"How are you getting along with the Toronto suffragettes? Is there any friction?" she was asked. "No friction at all," she replied.

Doing Missionary Work. As evidence that all is lovely between herself and the ladies here, regardless of her advocacy of strenuous action, Miss Wylie pointed out that her meeting in the Guild Hall next Friday night is under the auspices of the Toronto Suffrage Association.

Notwithstanding the explanation of Mr. Hon. H. Borden that it is plainly the business of the Provincial Government to deal with the demands of the suffragettes, Miss Wylie is not going to bother with Sir James Whitney.

"Our policy is not to waste time," she argued, in response to a suggestion that it would do no harm to see the Ontario Premier. "Mr. Borden has told us that it would be a Federal issue but for the act of 1867.

Rev. I. B. Wallwin, Toronto, Greeted by Large Congregations on Sunday.

Rev. I. B. Wallwin, of Toronto, a former pastor, preached anniversary services at Empress Avenue Methodist Church on Sunday.

His morning subject was "Treasures Laid Up in Heaven." "Treasures on earth," said the speaker, "are gold, possessions, honor, fame, etc., and we are warned in regard to their use, and the folly of setting our hearts upon them.

"The student does not work hard at his college course simply to get his diploma, but for the larger, better and more useful life which his knowledge will bring to him.

CONTRIBUTE TO MITES URGES REV. DR. GRANT

In Strong Sermon Places the Foreign Problem of Canada Before Hearers.

"If all the members of the Presbyterian Church in Canada were washerwomen and each contributed ten cents, the charge for washing one shirt, every Sunday of the year, there would be more than enough to make up the $1,000,000 sum which the Presbyterian Church is asking to carry on its share of mission work for the year of 1912."

So spoke Dr. Grant at a mass meeting of the Presbyterian congregation in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday evening.

The speaker contended that though London, as a whole, was doing its share towards contributing to the mission cause, there are many who are not even contributing at all.

Dr. Grant also spoke of the success which had been theirs during the past 25 years in the Canadian west. The success had given them a new vision, and with each vision they received fresh hope and were encouraged to go on with their work.

First Mothers' Pensions Are Paid in Illinois. Poverty-Stricken Women Receive Stipend From State to Care for Little Ones.

Chicago, Oct. 12. —Today was mothers' pension day. Three hundred women of all ages and all nationalities who with motherly concern have battled against starvation and suffering for the sake of their children participated in the new state charity.

Among these 300 women, who are the mothers of 1,633 children, $10,922 was distributed. It was like Christmastide to the mothers of the poor.

Frank Vanacek, county agent, was the distributor. He declared it was the happiest and most consoling work he had ever done.

The state pension law provides the sum given dependent mothers shall be less than $15 and not more than $25 a month. The amount is regulated by the size of the family dependent on the woman.

LONDON, MONDAY, OCT. 14. THE MACDONALD ELECTION.

The Conservative party had everything to lose in Macdonald, and every precaution against loss was taken by the two most devious and dexterous party manipulators in Canada.

A defeat would have been a mortal blow at Mr. Rogers' prestige in the west. It would have heralded the overthrow of the Roblin administration.

In the circumstances, it is not strange that the normal Conservative majority was somewhat increased. The riding has been a live of that party for many years.

Macdonald came high but Mr. Rogers had to have it. The heavenly twins of Canadian politics, Rogers and Roblin, are still powerful in conjunction—in Manitoba.

This is what an October day ought to be. Is there anything finer in the way of weather in any month or any country?

According to Premier Roblin, everyone who voted for Richardson in Macdonald voted for the American flag.

Dreadnought to her program. Great Britain responds again, and so the deadly game goes on, each country heaping up a Frankenstein monster which devours its substance.

These mutual suspicions are fed by jingoes who live on panic and sensation, or have axes to grind. We have our share of them in Canada.

Another war between Canada and the United States is unlikely in the future. In that of 1812 Canadians were at least defending their country with conspicuous courage.

Whatever is going to become of the peanut and fruit industry, if the outbreak of war in the east draws thousands of our alien population away?

come in daily contact with these thousands. There is no form of vice in any part of the world that is not known and carried on in this city of Toronto.

THE HARVESTER WEATHER. [Branford Expositor.] The caption of a telegraphic article appearing in a morning newspaper...

THE MAIN QUESTION. [Guelph Mercury.] The pertinent question is whether the Dominion is today developing men of the strength of character, firmness of conviction and high character of Sir Richard Cartwright's type.

THE CLIMBERS. [Judge.] Most of us try to win a name, though doomed to wiser glow or sadder.

NOT A HIGH FLYER. [Pittsburgh Post.] "Mr. Wombat, you ought to go in for aviation. Many of our prominent people are taking it up."

TOO MUCH COMPETITION. [Washington Post.] "I have decided to quit smoking," said Mr. Bliggins, seriously.

CONTRASTS. [E. Nesbit.] How soft the lamplight falls On pictures, books, And pleasant-covered walls.

Here Age and Wisdom sit, Calm and discreet, Life and the fruit of it.

But once new wine was sweet, Wisdom and Age! well-met! Yet neither can forget Polly and youth!

DICKENS AND DEFOE AS EDITORS. [Collier's Weekly.] Writing about the kind of literary talent that would be most valuable in editorial work today, we mentioned Voltaire, MacLay and Swift.

THE CURSE OF CAST. [S. E. Kiser.] "Willie, come right into the house. I got you a new hat."

A COMMON TALK. [Woman's Home Companion.] "Twixt years and men is surely seen A parallel full pat; The years seem long when they are lean, And short when they are fat."

SAPPHO UP TO DATE. [Life.] Encouraged by success in the small towns, a building manager decided to take out a Sappho company for a tour of the second-class cities.

MORMONS IN ALBERTA TO ERECT A TEMPLE. Announcement By President Smith the Cause of Great Excitement.

PLAYFUL PUNSTERS. [Ottawa Journal.] "Coincident with the reopening of the public schools, Canada reports a good whaling season," says the Wall Street Journal.

VERILY SO. [Punch.] The Chilian admiralty is inviting tenders in Britain for an immense battle practice target over 100 feet in length.

ONE INDUSTRY RUINED. [Guelph Herald.] Whatever is going to become of the peanut and fruit industry, if the outbreak of war in the east draws thousands of our alien population away?

OVERCROWDING IN TORONTO. [Toronto Globe.] To the south of College street there are 50,000 who live in boarding-houses and these are not reached by any de-dominations. The clergy cannot reach them.

THIS BOOK TIRE'S VANHOE

[By Special Arrangement With the Winnipeg Telegram.]

Fine Address at St. Andrew's on the Advantages of Reading.

INTELLECTUAL WANTS Are Best Supplied Through the Use of the Medium of Good Books.

Mr. W. O. Carson, librarian of the public library, occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's Church on Sunday evening, and gave an address on the subject, "Self-Culture Through Reading."

Needs of the Spirit. The spirit hungers for spiritual food, its need is constant and universal, a denial of its need, is a most deplorable blunder.

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN ENDS INDIGESTION

Time It No Sour, Gassy Stomach or Dyspepsia in Five Minutes.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large 50-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lies like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and indigestion food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes.

Reading, but novels of the better sort belong strictly to the literature of power. He thought that when one reads with a plan that not more than one-third of one's time should be given to the reading of fiction.

THE MACKINAW IS WARM AND COMFY FOR ROUGH, STORMY WEATHER.

This new outing and winter garment is styled the Mackinaw and as its name indicates, is particularly suited to windy or stormy weather. It may be just the right fashion for the fun-loving girl who has no intention of spending any large part of her days indoors, in spite of the occasional dark day.

Its material is a rich, soft worsted with plain back which shows in the collar and cuffs. The particular feature of the coat is the shawl fringe at the lower edge which seems to add to the length without increasing the weight.

A loose belt and four handy pockets, with a big collar, which turns up comfortably around the ears, add to its favor.

The Food Value of Cheese

Some Seasonable Recipes.

Many of our country people eat new cheese raw, not cheese made from sour milk—the fresh or cottage cheese—but cheese made from sweet milk; this is sweet and palatable, but solid and difficult to digest.

The cottage cheese—being prepared from milk allowed to stand until a thick bonnyclabber is formed, then slightly heated by the addition of hot water or over a vessel of boiling water, the curd strained out and mixed with cream or butter and seasonings—is a very nutritious and digestible food, very high in protein, which gives it a flesh food value.

The ordinary sweet curd cheese is made from sweet milk, the curd separated by the action of rennet, then strained and pressed. This cheese is a valuable and digestible food when properly cooked; but if eaten raw should only be taken in small quantities, and with bread, crackers, etc.

Cheese, because it is nitrogenous (or proteid) matter is a muscle and tissue building food, and is digested in the stomach; because it is also a condensed food it requires the addition of a certain amount of the starches found in potatoes, rice, macaroni and cereal products to make it a well balanced ration.

Cheese has nearly twice as much protein, weight for weight, as beef of average consumption, and its fuel value is more than twice as great. It has a larger per cent of both protein and fat than steak, eggs, potatoes, milk, or bread, and therefore is one of the very best foods that you can have on your table.

Cheese does not cause constipation or other physiological disturbances that have been erroneously charged to it. When cheese takes the place of meat as the central dish of a meal, the housewife should have fresh vegetables or fruits as a contrast to the concentrated and fatty cheese. Harder kinds of bread should be used, such as crusty rolls, toast, rye bread, the harder brown bread or crackers.

Cheese Sauce.

One cupful of milk, two tablespoonfuls of flour, one ounce of cheese (¾ cupful of grated cheese), salt and pepper.

Thicken the milk with the flour and just before serving add the cheese, stirring until it is melted. This sauce is suitable to use in preparing creamed eggs, or to pour over toast, making a dish corresponding to ordinary milk toast, except for the presence of cheese. It may be seasoned with a little curry powder and poured over hard-boiled eggs.

Corn and Cheese Soufflé.

One tablespoonful of butter, one tablespoonful of chopped green pepper, ¼ cupful of flour, 2 cupfuls of milk, 1 cupful of chopped corn, 1 cupful of grated cheese, 3 eggs, ½ teaspoonful of salt.

Melt the butter and cook the pepper thoroughly in it. Make a sauce out of the flour, milk and cheese; add the corn, cheese, yolks and seasoning; cut and fold in the whites beaten stiffly; turn into a buttered baking dish and bake in a moderate oven for 30 minutes.

Mix with skimmed milk and without butter this dish has a food value slightly in excess of a pound of beef and a pound of potatoes.

Scrambled Eggs With Cheese.

One-half pound cheese grated or cut into small pieces, 8 eggs, 1 tablespoonful of chopped parsley, a pinch of nutmeg, ½ teaspoonful of salt.

Beat the eggs slightly, mix them with the other ingredients, and cook over a very slow fire, stirring constantly, so that the cheese may be melted by the time the eggs are cooked. In food value the dish is equal to nearly two pounds of average beef.

Cheese and Macaroni Loaf.

One-half cupful of macaroni broken into small pieces, one cupful of milk, one cupful of soft bread crumbs, one tablespoonful of butter, one tablespoonful of chopped green pepper, one teaspoonful each of chopped onion and parsley, three eggs, one teaspoonful of salt, half-cupful of grated cheese.

Cook the macaroni in boiling salted water until tender, and rinse in cold water. Cook the parsley, onion and pepper in a little water, with the butter. Pour off the water or allow it to boil away. Beat the egg white and yolk separately. Mix all the ingredients, cutting and folding in the stiffly beaten whites at the last. Line a quart baking dish with buttered paper; turn the mixture into it; set the baking dish in a pan of hot water, and bake in a moderate oven from one-half to three-quarters of an hour. Serve with tomato sauce.

Cheese Omelet.

Cheese may be introduced into omelets in several ways. An ordinary omelet may be served with thin cheese sauce made in the following proportions: One and a half tablespoonfuls of flour, quarter-cupful of grated cheese, one cupful of milk.

This sauce may also be added to omelets in which boiled rice, the meat or some other nutritious material has been included.

Nut and Cheese Roast.

One cupful of grated cheese, one cupful of chopped English walnuts, one cupful of bread crumbs, two tablespoonfuls of butter, juice of half a lemon, salt and pepper.

Cook the onion in the butter and a little water until it is tender. Mix the other ingredients and moisten with water, using the water in which the onion has been cooked. Pour into a shallow baking dish and brown in the oven.

CARROT PRESERVE.

Carrots will make delicious preserves. Take three-quarters of a pound of sugar to a pound of carrots. Add sufficient water to make a syrup and boil until the preserves are thick. A little ginger or lemon should be added to flavor.

The Garden

Winter-Flowering Carnations.

A flower which has made a very rapid advance in popularity during the last few years is the perpetual flowering carnation, which is known also as the American tree and winter-flowering carnation. It is prized for the wealth of bloom it gives in the autumn. In lesser degree throughout the winter, and in abundance again during the spring, under proper cultivation. Its vigor of growth, the large size of its flowers, and also their long stems, and many beautiful colors, render it to all who can afford to give it plenty of space under glass. For this carnation must not be cramped. It does best in a high-roofed house, in which there is a free circulation of air. It does not require much heat during the winter; the ideal house is one in which the temperature never falls below 50 degrees, or rises above 55. Many people plant out their perpetual flowering carnations for the summer, or stand them out in their pots. When this is done it should be remembered that some time during this month the plants must be brought in and re-potted. The best compost consists of two parts of sand loam and one part of decayed manure, sand and wood ashes in equal proportions, with the addition of a little meal. Seven or eight inch pots should be used, and the potting should be done firmly.

Begin Now.

If a collection of carnations be acquired now (and the autumn is not a bad time to begin with their culture), the plants should be stood in the greenhouse for a week or so in small pots, and then transferred to their flowering pots. After potting some care will have to be exercised for a time in the matter of watering. The soil must be kept only just moist until it is seen that the plants are moving strongly; then they may be watered more freely, given a little liquid manure now and again, or an occasional sprinkling of some good fertilizer. With attention to staking the question of maintaining an equable temperature in the house, with all the ventilation possible in fine weather, there should be no lack of flowers to cut during the winter and spring.

An English Hat

From England comes the fashion of wearing the broad drooping hats with flowers and the lighter millinery materials. This hat, recently imported, is typical of the class. A leghorn shape is used to start with and around the brim are three graduated circles of chiffon, cleverly cut to give a slight rippled effect. These are bound with white satin and slightly wired at the edge. A huge white satin bow and pink roses complete the trimming.

Problems of the Fair Sex Solved by Cynthia Grey

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn as they are received.]

Copies of Poem Sent.

By request, copies of the poem, "The Face Upon the Floor," have been forwarded to Blue Eyes, Clara S., Roxie, Ethel B. and Harold B. No more can be supplied as the original copy has now passed out of Miss Grey's hands.

Mince-meat Recipes.

Dear Miss Grey: I please give me a recipe for making mince-meat without using any meat.

2. Also give a recipe for making mince-meat with green tomatoes.

MRS. M. E. H.

A.—1. Here is Mrs. Rorer's recipe for mock mince pie: One cup raisins chopped fine, 1 egg, 1 tablespoonful vinegar, ½ cup washed currants, ½ cup fruit juice, 2 crackers, ½ cup of sugar, ½ cup of citron, juice and rind of 1 lemon. Roll the crackers and mix them with the fruit, add salt, beaten eggs, molasses and other ingredients, with spice to taste. Mix all well together and bake between two crusts. Will make two pies.

2. This recipe is surely a new invention. I have had several inquiries amongst housekeepers and none of them appear to have heard of it. Can any reader supply the desired formula?

Leave Tresses Alone.

Dear Miss Grey: Please answer the following questions for me:

1. Which will be more fashionable this winter, long coats or suits for girls of 17?

2. Are earrings still worn by fashionable people?

3. My hair is brown. Will sage tea darken it? I long for black hair, and this was recommended to me.

4. What do you think of my writing? BRIDGET.

A.—1. The long coats.

2. Sage tea is supposed to have a darkening effect on the hair. But why try to change the color? Be satisfied to leave your tresses as nature made them.

3. It is fairly neat, but rather cramped, Bridget.

Who Wrote "Everyman"?

Dear Miss Grey: Will you kindly answer the following in your column: 1. What is the birthday calendar for for June 6, 1912?

2. Who is the author of "Everyman"?

3. Will bathing the face in hot water night and morning cause enlarged pores of the skin?

4. What will be the dress shoe for the winter?

5. Will peroxide harm the skin?

6. Will soft pills felt hats be worn this winter by women?

7. What do you think of my writing? A TRIPPER.

A.—1. "You may expect some from people of little judgment, it should not cause deep feeling. Your attention should be directed towards things more important to you.

of cold water. In the morning use cold water only.

4. Patent kid, with suede tops, will be in the lead.

5. If used too freely it dries the skin and causes it to become rough.

6. Yes.

7. I think it is very nice.

Going to Business College.

Dear Miss Grey—1. I would like your kind advice here, please. I have a favorite story, which I would like printed, by Holmes. Do correspondents have the privilege to ask for stories to be printed? To whom would I apply?

2. Would you advise me to start to business college after Easter holidays?

3. Do five-leaf clovers mean bad luck?

4. What do you think of my writing, grammar, etc.?

Thanking you for favorable answers, I remain, IOLA.

A.—The editor informs me that readers are privileged to make known their preference in regard to stories, so you might write him stating the name of the book you would like to have appear in serial form. Please remember, though, that a newspaper aims to please many thousands of people, and that if your story is not deemed suitable, you will understand, won't you?

2. If you desire to enter the commercial field as stenographer or book-keeper, a business college course would certainly be necessary. But why not commence with the opening of the January term, rather than to wait until Easter, as most of the schools close for two months in summer, and your course would probably be broken up if you did not start until, say April 1?

3. Really, I never heard of one being kept, a business college course would certainly be necessary. But why not commence with the opening of the January term, rather than to wait until Easter, as most of the schools close for two months in summer, and your course would probably be broken up if you did not start until, say April 1?

4. Your writing is fairly legible and would be neat but for too many "fourishes." As far as I can judge by a short letter, your grammar is passable.

"First Aid" For Burns

[By a Physician.] There have been cases where persons were burned to death, or were fatally burned before a physician could reach them to give aid, because no one knew what to do. It is wise for every person to know the "first aid" in case clothing catches fire.

First throw the person on the ground or floor so that the flames will not rise toward the mouth or nostrils. Next roll the person on the carpet or in a hearth rug or a blanket to stifle the flames. Use a coat if nothing else is near at hand.

Keep the flames as much as possible from the face, so as to prevent the entrance of the hot air into the lungs. This can be done by beginning at the neck and shoulders with the wrapping.

If the burn or scald covers considerable area there may be shock or complete prostration. In that case a few drops of aromatic spirits of ammonia in water should be given at once and repeated until the strength returns.

If a blister has been formed, the skin over it should not be cut, but be sponged at the edges, and the water gently squeezed out. This allows the skin to remain as a protection. If the blister forms again this may have to be repeated.

There are various methods of treating a burn. A very good application is carbol oil, which is a mixture of equal parts of linseed oil and lime water. Sweet oil alone is very good.

Hard and baking soda, mixed, will relieve the pain. Wheat flour is often dusted over the burn, but this hardens with the discharge and becomes rough.

After the blister has been cut, it is wise to sprinkle talcum powder or filler's earth on the skin to dry it.

A simple, superficial burn may be healed by the application of the white of an egg. As soon as the first layer dries another should be applied. The philosophy of this remedy is that it keeps out the air and protects the nerves.

Alcohol For Veils

In these months, when automobiles are almost as thick as flies and automobilists are covered with one another's dust, veils are in constant use, and unless they are well cared for a few days' wear of one veil reduces it to a dirty rag, fit only for the rubbish heap.

Many people prefer to throw a veil away rather than wear it with the smell of gasoline clinging to it. Every one knows that few chiffon veils survive washing more than twice, and gasoline seems to be the only cleanser.

This is not so, however. There is a cleansing fluid which will not only restore the veil to its former softness, but it is also antiseptic and destroys the thousands of germs caught in the chiffon from the dust of the road. This is alcohol.

The fact that alcohol is even more powerful than gasoline as a cleanser is a welcome bit of news to the woman who finds the odor of the gasoline fumes so unpleasant.

The cleaning is simplicity itself. Fill a bowl with alcohol, then put the veil in and let it soak a short while. Then lift the veil gently and sop it up and down in the liquid. Never rub the chiffon, nor should it be wrung out. Lifting it up and down will take all the dirt and dust from its folds.

When it is quite clean shake it out as you would shake a handkerchief. Rubbing and wringing only pull apart the close weave of the veil and spoil its after appearance. The alcohol evaporates very quickly, leaving a fresh, clean odor to the article, which will prove a welcome substitute to the fumes of gasoline.

Never bear more than one kind of trouble at a time. Some people bear three: All they have had, all they have now, all they expect to have.—Edward Everett Hale.

Nearly all of the children in the neighborhood had been ill with chickenpox, and one morning when they were able to play about again, Julia, aged 4, came running into her mother and burst out excitedly: "Oh, mother, the Smith children have got something else, but brother says we can't catch it."

"Well, what is it they have?" the mother asked.

"Haven't you got toes," she replied.—St. Paul Dispatch.

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR

Simple Toys Best

Baby's first toys are his toes and his fingers, and the beauty of these is the things he can do with them. By toys one usually means those more or less expensive manufactured playthings which have been worked out by some older person's fingers, rather than by the baby's own. But these are by no means the most joy-giving and they are the least educative, de-

October Mother's Magazine.

A mother's first thought in visiting a toyshop is that she would like to carry home most of its contents for her darling's nursery. Her instinctive comment on reading about modern methods of kindergarten training or playground education is that to carry them out one would need a deep pocket. But a very little study of these methods shows that this is a mistake. Toys are often complex and costly, but almost all kinds of play apparatus, of simple and inexpensive. Many of the materials are to be found in any house or dooryard, as blocks, sticks, spoons, paper, sand, pebbles, tin cans, boxes, boards, twigs, scissors, paste, beads, pencils, etc.

For many other things mentioned in the books as necessary, a clever mother will find substitutes and make-shifts, as good or better than those suggested. For instance, odd bits of bright paper, cut in strips two or three inches long by one inch or half an inch wide, are just as good as strips bought in packages from the kindergarten supply stores. Pictures and letters cut from magazines and pasted on cardboard make nice picture-puzzles when cut in pieces. Clay for modeling need not be bought, when newspapers soaked in boiling water for a few hours and the pulp then mixed with flour and the pulp then mixed with flour and shells, acorns, moss and seaweeds have a hundred uses in this connection, and so do many other simple objects that can be picked up around the house or out of doors. There is also a moral value in learning to work with simple equipment.

The Child's Pets

The child deprived of pets misses much. To love a dog, cat, a bird, or any live thing has a humanizing influence on the character. The care of a pet teaches a child to be responsible for something. The love of the pet brings out the tender feelings of his heart, makes a child less inclined to cruelty, more thoughtful, of quicker sympathy. A pet gives him something to enjoy at home and so makes home life richer. It is one means of keeping him from undesirable companions. It helps to form habits of industry. In providing food and shelter for a living creature he is learning responsibility. While teaching a dog how to perform a trick, the child is enlarging his own intelligence and his patience. If he is learning to ride a horse, he is gaining in courage, and in self-reliance. A wide field of interest is opened to the child with a pet. In learning about one animal he learns about many. His love of his pet fills his mind with useful and good thoughts and there is less room for the idle or vicious. He should have this happiness if it can be given him.—Milwaukee Journal.

The Birthday Calendar

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Be on guard against accident and losses through dishonest persons. In general you will have a prosperous and happy year. If you are trusted with the affairs of others, do not allow yourself to slight them. Those born today will have strong, energetic personalities, and by their courage and power will succeed in life. If untrained in youth, these admirable qualities will sink to stupid obstinacy and hasty uncontrolled temper.

HIGH BEDIENT HOLDS GIANTS TO THREE HITS AND BEATS MATHEWSON

Youthful Red Sox Pitcher Jumps Into Glare of Limelight By Winning Fifth Game of World Series for Boston on Saturday.

TWO THREE-BAGGERS IN SUCCESSION AND DOYLE'S ERROR BEATS GIANTS

Not a Boston Player Reached First Base After Third Inning—Giants Scored in Seventh on a Double and an Error—Stahl's Men Look Like Winners.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 12.—Boston had to drag a man out of obscurity today to make a hero of him, all the regular, licensed heroes being otherwise engaged.

High Bedient is the name of this person suddenly thrust into the Temple of Fame, and he certainly ought to feel right at home there. This was a case of having greatness thrust upon one, but the man on whom so much honor suddenly descended is not a hero of the type which the public usually admires.

A few hours ago very few of the good people of this United States could have told off-hand whether Bedient was the name of a ball player or a classmate of some one who had been in the Intercollegiate Union at Varsity Oval on Saturday afternoon.

Before Josh could get the pellet back in play again, Hooper was on third. Then up came that sterling pinch-hitter, Yerkes, and smote the first ball pitched him on a line over Fletcher's head.

Hooper had scored, of course, on Steve's larpup and the terrible 'Tris Speaker came along with a runner on third and nobody out. Like a star sometimes will do in a pinch, 'Spoke' made a rather weak effort, rolling a little grounder at Doyle who was playing in the chance looked so soft that Yerkes didn't even start home, but Doyle let the ball percolate, through him and roll out to right field.

Without wishing to detract anything from the fine performance of Joe Wood and 'Rube' Marquard, fair-minded fans who saw today's game were willing to admit that Bedient's performance was the best that any slinger has given in the series.

MEDS DEMONSTRATE CLASS BY BEATING SARNIA 7-0

Rugby Season Gets Off to a Good Start in This City Saturday Afternoon—London Is Represented by a Good Team This Season.

The rugby season was officially opened in London on Saturday when the Meds defeated Sarnia by the score of 7 to 0 in the first game of this junior O. R. U. district.

The second quarter was even faster than the first, and the play was more open than it had been in the first fifteen minutes. Sarnia was pushed hard in the early stages of the quarter, and for a time it looked as though the Meds would score.

The third quarter ended with the score of the Meds 7 to 0. The London team played a great game, and it is no doubt that the best London team has seen in years on the field this season.

OTTAWA COLLEGE LOST TO VARSITY

Toronto University Easily Out-classed Father Stanton's Team on Muddy Field.

OTTAWA WILL DROP OUT Father Stanton Announces That College Will Enter Ontario Rugby Union.

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—The Toronto University football team easily defeated that of Ottawa College in the Intercollegiate Union at Varsity Oval on Saturday afternoon.

In the first quarter, Phil Cornellier, the sensational full back of Father Stanton's team, was injured by the action of Maynard and then carried off. Jack Sullivan was also hurt, and later Jerry Harrington and Bert Gilliam were forced to retire.

No scoring was done in the first quarter, although the ball was kept in Sarnia territory most of the time. Some fast work by McGurk and Loomis, and the strong formation of the Sarnia line prevented the Meds from scoring.

The second half, condition began to tell, and there was a noticeable slowing up of both teams for a time. Sarnia was playing a defensive game, and had dropped all aggressive tactics.

The game was a good one, and it should be the best yet seen in this city. The Meds were free from scrapping or wrangling, and the play was a friendly one of feelings existed among the players of both teams.

The lineup of the teams was as follows: LONDON. SARNIA. Full back, ... Left half, ... Right half, ... Quarter, ... Scrimmage, ...

Tesreau Gets More Stage Door Adulation Than a Chorus Girl Says Mrs. Gibson

[By Idah McGlone Gibson.] [Written for The Advertiser.] All New York is wild over "harles" ("Jeff") Tesreau, the coming pitcher of the National League, and who New Yorkers say is a second Ed Walsh.

Tesreau is a big, raw-boned, southern farm boy, who was born near Louisville, and, notwithstanding the adulation he receives there are more men and boys outside the Polo grounds watching him come out and go in than there are at the door of the Winter Garden on watch for the chorus girls, he is keeping his head much better than might be expected.

I presume he has taken a peep into Marquard's book, which would show him how short-lived is popularity. Marquard, after being held aloft on a bed of roses after his 19 straight games, has been dropped with a cold since he has been unable to foot the crack hitters of the National League, and the bleachers shout "Take him out" the first time the umpire calls "Four balls."

Tesreau is saving his money. He lives at a little near the Polo grounds, about which there is a tradition that it once housed George Washington for the night. He wears moderately good clothes (Tesreau, not Washington), and has not adopted the silk hose fad. His only extravagance seems to be a splendid interlocking mark in diamonds on his tie and a three-carat diamond on his left hand.

"I see you are wearing diamonds," I said to him. He blushed and answered, "I guess they are a good investment. If you go broke, you can raise money on them, you know." "Do ball players ever get broke?" I inquired.

"Most of them are always broke," he answered, with a laugh. I will wager, however, that this farmer's boy will please boys and girls tucked away somewhere in his jeans. He tells me he has already saved enough money to buy a farm near the Iron Mountain Railroad in Tennessee, upon which his mother and sister live, and to which he goes immediately after the baseball season is over.

Tesreau has been likened to Ed Walsh in his prowess with the spit ball. He lacks Walsh's experience and clever headwork, however, but the ones who seem to know say that he will keep them guessing in the National League next year, although Tesreau tells me he has not signed as yet.

BORTEN STRUCK OUT WITH BASES LOADED

Cubs Win From White Sox in Chicago City Series By Score of Five to Four.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—The Chicago Nationals defeated the American Leaguers, 5 to 4, in the first decisive game of the series to decide the baseball championship of Chicago today. The White Sox threatened to tie up the score in the ninth inning, but Borten struck out with the bases loaded and two out.

The Americans outthrew their opponents, but Lavender was given better support than White. The game was witnessed by a crowd estimated at 30,000. It was "Casey at the bat" with Borten. He waited until Lavender threw two balls, and then struck at one. The fourth ball pitched was wide, Borten fanned at the next, and, with three balls and two strikes on him, he swung at the next ball and missed it by a foot.

Shortstop Weaver, of the White Sox, who was knocked unconscious in yesterday's game, left the hospital tonight. It is probable, however, that he will not play in the remaining games of the series.

NEXT GAME WILL BE PLAYED IN BOSTON

Tie Game Will Not Interfere if Giants Win Today.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Oct. 14.—If the Giants win today the next game will be played in Boston. This announcement was made today by Garry Herrmann, chairman of the national commission, who explained that the tie game in Boston was not rated as a "decision" game, and that, therefore, tomorrow's game, if there is one, will go to Boston under the rules.

MATT M'GRATH MAKES ANOTHER NEW RECORD

Threw the Sixteen-Pound Hammer 181 Feet 4 Inches.

New York, Oct. 12.—Throwing the 16-lb. hammer from a nine-foot circle at Celtic Park today, Matt McGrath, of the Irish-American A. C., made a new world's record of 181 feet 4 inches. The former mark was 179 feet 6 1/2 inches, made by John Flanagan at the same grounds four years ago.

Among the other events decided today was a two-mile match race between Hannes Kolehmainen, of Finland, and Abel Kiviat, of the Irish-American Club, which resulted in a dead heat in 9:24 3/5. The Finnish champion led for seven eighths of the distance by a few feet. In the final quarter Kiviat drew out and led by the yard to the stretch, but Kolehmainen, after a sensational spurt, just caught him as they breasted the finish line. The American record for two miles, 9:17 4/5, was made by Tel. Berna, of Cornell, at Ithaca, last May.

BOWERMAN'S TEAM BEAT MOUNT CLEMENS

Gurney, Former St. Thomas Player, Got Two Doubles — Ed Killian Pitched Good Ball.

Mount Clemens, Mich., Oct. 13.—Ed Killian enjoyed a new lease of life today and had everything that was hard to hit. His curve ball had a fast break and his fast one had a big jump on it. He completely fooled the Mount Clemens bunch.

If they did not fan it generally was a weak grounder easily handled. Gurney's hitting was a feature, also the catching of Bowerman, who seems to have perpetual youth. Bowerman played at Ann Arbor Tuesday; Romeo, Wednesday, and closes the season at Ypsilanti Thursday. Score: Mount Clemens 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 3 Two-base hits—Gurney 2, Taylor. First base on balls—By Ceaser 2. Hit by pitcher—R. Moore. First base on errors—Lurchen, Miller, E. Moore. Left on bases—Osago 5, Mount Clemens 5. Struck out—By Killian 12, by Ceaser 7. Time—1:45. Umpire—York. Attendance—700.

GIANTS ARE CONFIDENT OF WINNING GAME TODAY

Marquard and Collins Will Be Probable Pitchers—McGraw's Men Must Win Three Straight to Cop Series—Red Sox Fans Confident of Deciding Victory Today.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Oct. 14.—Gray skies and unsettled weather greeted the crowds this morning journeying to the Polo Grounds for the sixth game of the world's championship baseball series. No rain had fallen, however, and the weather bureau prediction is "generally fair."

New York, Oct. 14.—The first crisis in the struggle for the world's series baseball championship was reached today, when the New York Giants and the Boston Red Sox prepared for the sixth game of the series. A victory today would send the championship to Boston, and the participants of the National League pennant-winner went to the Polo Grounds to see their favorites fight in the last ditch.

Of the five games played thus far Boston has won three and needs but one more victory. New York had a single victory and the critical satisfaction of one tie game. To win the series McGraw's men must capture—barring ties—every remaining game.

Although the sky was overcast this morning, the prospect was for fair weather.

Giant Fans Enthusiastic. There were plenty among the Giants' supporters who expected confidently to see the team embrace the one chance left.

"We'll be up here again Wednesday and beat you fellows out in the deciding game," was the cry from Boston fans. The reputation of McGraw's men for taking an unexpected break when it looked as if they were just about down was pointed to as a reason why Boston's hopes of ending the series today stood a good chance of being shattered. Boston's own "come-back" of 1903, when with three games gone the team found itself and took four straight from Pittsburgh, was cited as a precedent and a basis for Giant hopes.

The attitude of the big delegation of Boston fans who came was entirely different. On the basis of results accomplished they believed that this day would see the struggle ended.

What the Managers Say. Sentiments similar to those of the fans were voiced by the rival managers. "The club has been playing far below its form," said Manager McGraw. "To win three straight or lose the series looks like a hard contest, but believe me, as do the men of the team, that we can do it." Manager Jake Stahl, of the Red Sox, was naturally in a cheerful mood. "Everything is apparently in our favor, and of course we expect to win," he said. "The men believe they have the Giants on the run, but even a defeat for us today would leave us still two more chances to clinch the championship."

Giants' Errors Costly. If, as their friends, their manager and they themselves hope, the Giants were to take a brace today, there was general agreement that they were due to start with the fielding act of the game. Errors they say, have, however, at least two of the games for the local men. Even with the poor showing which the Giants made with the attack on Saturday in Boston, it was an error that let in what proved to be the winning run. The few mistakes by the Boston fielders have, with an exception of two, not been costly.

Marquard May Pitch. "Rube" Marquard was McGraw's indicated choice for the box today, although the manager made his usual reservation in favor of another boxman should the Boston situation, in his opinion, warrant a switch. The big left-hander has not won the only game won by the Giants, and he has had a good rest. Marquard, at the top of his form, as he showed last Boston last Thursday, would be a selection that Boston, in the manager's opinion, would find it hard to match.

But it was not at all certain during the season that Wood would pitch. It looked as if either Ed Collins or "Buck" O'Brien might be Stahl's box selection, from a purely sporting standpoint many fans hoped it would be Collins, and Marquard a left-handed pitching duel that promised a treat.

Probable Pitching Order. The probable pitching order was: Boston—Marquard, E. F. Verbeke, Ed Speiser, E. J. Lewis, L. J. Christy, Ed Stahl, Ed Collins, E. Collins, P. J. Davis, New York—Stalder, E. J. Davis, Ed Becker, E. J. Moran, L. J. Moran, Ed Her-

LYNCH ALLOWS PIRATE'S PROTEST

Game in Which Cotter Batted Out of Turn Was Thrown Out of Record.

New York, Oct. 13.—Pittsburg's protest against Chicago's victory in the game of Oct. 2, was upheld by President Lynch, of the National League, in a decision made public tonight, and the game was thrown out of the record, thus changing slightly the league's standing.

The protest was based on the fact that Catcher Cotter, of Chicago, was batting out of his turn when he hit a single which won the game in the ninth inning.

President Lynch gave out tonight the official standing of the league as follows:

FROGLEGS PROVED AN EASY WINNER

Sprito Was Favorite, But Was Beaten Out in Stretch.

Laurel, Ind., Oct. 12.—Froglegs, the champion of his age on the Canadian circuit, proved an easy winner in the third race this afternoon. Sprito was made favorite and flattered her backers by going to the front at the start, and leading until well inside the final furlong, where McTaggart brought Froglegs up with a rush and drew away into an easy lead.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON MAY CHALLENGE AGAIN

Will Ask New York Club to Modify Rules.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Oct. 14.—Sir Thomas Lipton, who arrived by the steamship Caronia, Sunday, said he proposed to discuss with the New York Yacht Club officials terms under which he might challenge for the International yachting trophy, which he has three times vainly tried to lift. "I am always ready to challenge," said the baronet, "and if the New York Yacht Club would modify the rule requiring the challenging boat to cross the Atlantic on its own bottom, I believe I could build a boat to hold her own with any American-built boat of the same type, size and weight. If I build a freak boat and sail her across, they will build a lighter one here to beat me. There is no sport in that."

Sir Thomas said that if he built another challenger he would name her the Shamrock IV. He said he had won 23 out of 29 races in which he had competed in European waters. "Yachting as a pastime in England is falling off," he said, "but in Germany it is becoming more and more popular. At Kiel this year I saw the most yacht races I ever witnessed, with as many as 120 boats in one race."

BULGARIA'S REPLY

Sofia, Oct. 13.—The Bulgarian and Serbian Governments presented notes to the Turkish, Austrian and Russian envoys this evening. The note to Turkey is stated to declare the necessity of centralizing the administration of the vilayets, the appointment of Christian governors, the establishment of an elective council, and proportional representation of the various nationalities in the Parliament of Constantinople.

The reply to Russia and Austria in regard to the peace suggestions of the powers and the proposals about reforms by Turkey courteously remarks that one of the most important clauses in their note is obscure, and asks for an explanation within a short time. It is understood that the absence of any precise mention of the guarantee for the carrying out of the reforms is the point in question. The reply is moderately worded and explains the delay in answering by the necessity of an exchange of views by the allies.

GENERAL BALKAN STRUGGLE EXPECTED BY TOMORROW

Turkey Will Be Unable to Accept Ultimatum Which Bulgaria and Serbia Have Sent to Constantinople—Great Peril of Austro-Russ Clash.

London, Oct. 13.—The feeling regarding the Balkan situation is decidedly pessimistic. It was shown on the Stock Exchange yesterday, where there were sharp declines which amounted almost to a panic. British consols reached the lowest point in history.

"practice" mobilization of Russian troops, the situation is not one to be regarded as reassuring. With Swords on Table. "When the powers meet to review the Balkan situation," declares J. L. Garvin, the editor of the Pall Mall Gazette, "shrewd prophets are convinced that it will be with their swords on the table. Trains of gunpowder connect the Balkan theatre of war with distant magazines, the explosion of which would crack the map of Europe with yawning fissures."

At the same time notes practically in the shape of an ultimatum will be sent to Turkey demanding autonomy for the Macedonian provinces. The demand will be one which it will be impossible for the Porte to accept, namely, that the reforms be executed under the control of the European powers and the Balkan States, and, as a pledge, that the Porte assent to the immediate demobilization of the Turkish forces. It is understood that the Porte will be given until Tuesday to reply; therefore, there is every probability that general hostilities will be opened before the week is ended.

Mr. Garvin's metaphors do not exaggerate the gravity of the European situation as viewed by the best-informed observers in London. This week-end was the most anxious the cabinets and chancelleries of Europe have passed in many years. The Moroccan crisis at its height excited far less misgivings. The central source of alarm is the military preparations being made by Austria and the ominous words of Count Berchtold, foreign minister of that country. It is felt in Downing street, and elsewhere in London, that Austria at any moment may embark on a forward movement in connection with the Sanjak of Novi-Bazar, thus rousing the Russians to greater fury than they are displaying, and making a European war almost certain.

The Bulgarian army, according to dispatches from Sofia, will be fully mobilized by Oct. 15, and the Serbian army, Belgrade advices say, by Oct. 19.

It was ascertained today that if Austria and Russia become involved in a war over the Balkan peninsula, England would do nothing beyond the limits of diplomacy. A prominent member of Parliament said: "Austria might occupy Saloniki and Russia Constantinople, thus smashing England's Mediterranean policy into bits, without England's dreaming of going to war."

The first week of the war has not been alarming in itself, for the flights have been small, although dignified with the title of battles, and doubt is expressed here whether the Montenegrin troops have cleared the way for an advance on Scutari from Montenegrin sources as the dispatches indicate. But with the continuing of the Italo-Turkish war, and the mobilization of the Austrian army, with area of conflagration will be limited, and that, whatever may be the issue of the conflict between the combatants, one result will ensue, that the boundaries of freedom and good government will be extended."

It is officially announced that all Montenegrins living in Turkey will be expelled from the country within 24 hours from today.

It is learned on good authority that the allies in the Balkans, as well as the Turks, are equipped with aeroplanes. It is known that Bulgaria has 20 of these machines. The exact figures in regard to Turkey are unobtainable, but it is believed that she has more air machines than Bulgaria. Numerous Turkish and Bulgarian officers have been graduated from the French aviation schools.

The British Red Cross Society is preparing to send large contingents to the front.

STRUCK BY MOTOR AND BADLY HURT

Roy Ridler, Aged 11 Years, Crushed By Dr. Moffat's Car on Dundas Street.

WILL LIKELY RECOVER

Severe Abdominal Injuries Cause Much Worry—Also Suffering From Concussion of Brain.

Roy Ridler, aged 11 years, son of Mrs. S. Anderson, of 144 Horton street, was run over by a touring car driven by Dr. Lloyd Moffat, on Dundas street, in front of the Majestic Theatre, Saturday evening, and as a result is suffering from severe injuries at Victoria Hospital, to which he was taken immediately after the accident. The car crossed the boy's abdomen, and while the force of the fall to the pavement resulted in a slight concussion of the brain, it is thought, however, that he will recover.

STILL CRITICAL

Victims of Tillsonburg Accident May Die at Any Time.

Tillsonburg, Oct. 12.—The condition of the two men, who fell through a trapdoor in the upper floor of the storehouse at the G. T. R. depot on Tuesday, is still very serious. William Elptuck, the younger of the unfortunate pair, is supposed to be suffering from congestion of the brain, and seldom rallies from his unconscious state, while Joseph Scott, who fell across a piano, is in a more serious condition, and very little hope is held for his recovery.

An eminent specialist has been sent for, and everything possible will be done to save his life. Mrs. Wm. Stone, of 100 St. George street, London, spent a few days recently as the guests of her aunt, Mrs. Levi Haines.

Aubrey Smith, a former resident of this vicinity, and recently leader of a Buffalo orchestra, has taken the position of pianist at the Bijou Theatre. Mr. A. Barrett, of Port Burwell, spent a few days with friends here recently.

Mr. R. Williams, of Ingersoll, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jackson. Miss Erie Fletcher, of Brownsville, was here recently.

T. C. Winder, of Ingersoll, was a Tillsonburg visitor recently. Mrs. R. J. Hawthorne, of Hagersville, is spending a few days here with friends.

Mrs. (Dr.) Neely, of Brookville, Ont., is the guest of Mrs. P. J. Barber, of Niagara Falls, where they expect to reside in the future. J. M. Clark, of Toronto, spent the past week at his home here. J. Van Loon has returned from a business trip to Toronto.

WRECK ON THE NEW HAVEN. New Haven, Conn., Oct. 14.—Several persons were injured, one at least very seriously, when a passenger train bound from Ansonia to New Haven, over the Derby branch of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, ran into some freight cars near Allington this morning.

WELLINGTON TEACHERS MET AT PALMERSTON

J. E. Robertson Was Chosen President—Next Meeting To Be Held in Harriston.

(Special to The Advertiser.) Palmerston, Oct. 12.—The thirty-sixth annual meeting of the North Wellington Teachers' Association, held here, was well attended by the teachers of both rural and urban schools.

Mr. A. J. Painter, of the Hamilton Normal School staff, was sent by the educational department to address the convention. Mr. Painter is an enthusiastic inquirer, especially along the lines of manual training, constructive work and clay moulding.

At the request of the teachers Mr. Painter demonstrated his methods of work in these subjects. He also gave an address on the use of the sand table in school work. It was especially useful, he said, in primary grades, for teaching elementary geography.

The practical class work of the schoolroom was also given a place on the program. Mr. J. N. McDowell taught a geography lesson on the rivers of Europe to an entrance class. In his lesson Mr. McDowell demonstrated to the best advantage the use of the outline blackboard map in the teaching of geography.

A literature lesson on that interesting poem in the Fourth reader, "Bernardo De Carlo," was taught by Mr. P. S. Shaw. The pupils to think, and his questions were such as would draw forth the opinions in the subjects under discussion.

Mr. Harper, as delegate to the O. E. S. conference, gave a comprehensive report of the work of that association. His talk dealt mainly with the address of the deputy minister of education, Dr. A. H. W. Coughlin, regarding teachers' salaries in the province.

Mr. H. Pruever, a teacher of Maryborough Township, gave a talk on "Art Work in the Public School." That Mr. Pruever was an enthusiastic teacher of this subject was evident from his address, and that he acquired splendid results was shown from specimens of the art work done in his school. He suggested going to nature to furnish subjects for this work.

Mr. Pruever suggested cultivating the love for the beautiful in children, by surrounding them in the school room with the best of art in the way of small reproductions of famous paintings, which are easily available at a small expense.

President's Remarks. The president of the association, Mr. D. Mackenzie, gave a very helpful address on "How to Increase Success in Teaching." Mr. Mackenzie recommended cheerfulness, patience and industry on the part of the teacher. He also urged the teachers to endeavor to make the school room pleasing to children, so that they may delight to go there to study.

School Gardens and Nature Work was the subject of another address given by Mr. E. Ferguson. Mr. Ferguson had tested school gardening and found it successful in many ways. He said that interesting children in agriculture was a step toward the solution of the problem of keeping young men on the farm.

THE MASON & RISCH PIANO

SCORES ANOTHER GRAND SUCCESS

The London branch of that WORLD-FAMED PIANO, the Mason & Risch, were today favored with a communication from

FREIDHEIM

THE WORLD'S GREATEST, PIANIST, requesting that he be furnished with a

MASON & RISCH PIANO

For his London concert in the Auditorium.

No greater compliment could be tendered the Mason & Risch, "The Piano With a Soul," than the above by Freidheim, who is only following the precedent of Liszt, the great composer, who chose a Mason & Risch Piano some years ago, and whose works Freidheim plays so artistically.

A full stock of Grands, Player-Pianos and Uprights are now on exhibition in our New Factory Branch.

INSPECTION SOLICITED.

MASON & RISCH, LIMITED

Pianos. 248 DUNDAS STREET. Victrolas.

PARKHILL.

Parkhill, Oct. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Brewer have returned after a three months' tour through the Northwest.

Mrs. A. Buckingham and Mrs. A. Armstrong, of concession 14, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Lightfoot, of the town line east, recently.

Mr. Fred Rehner, who recently came home from St. Joseph's Hospital, is improving rapidly.

Mrs. Nell Matheson and daughter, Miss Mary, have left for their new home in Vancouver, B. C. Mr. Matheson will not leave at present.

Miss Bertha Hall returned today after a two months' visit in Michigan.

DNFIELD.

Denfield, Oct. 14.—Miss Vera Bowman attended the thanksgiving services in the German Church in Crediton, recently.

The annual thanksgiving meeting of the Mission Circle was a great success financially. Mr. Boyd's address was excellent. The singing of the Ailsa Craig lullaby was good and was much appreciated.

Mr. James Matthews has returned from the west. He took charge of Mr. L. Shipley's car of stock when going out.

Mr. Thomas Rosser visited with his sister, Mrs. E. McKenzie, of Clarendon, recently.

Mrs. W. Tedder visited recently with her daughter, Mrs. Milton Matthews, of Ailsa Craig.

ROYALTY VALUE SPADES

They Are Relics of Tree Plantings While on Visits.

London, Oct. 12.—At this time of the year, when royal personages generally visit among their friends, a perfect forest of royally-planted trees is springing up, this being the customary memento of such visits.

It is usual on these occasions to offer the distinguished tree planter a new spade with which to perform the operation, a suitable inscription being afterward placed on the implement which is preserved as a relic.

Quite the most interesting collection of these tokens is to be found at Sandringham, where a whole avenue of trees has been planted by one or another member of the royal family, from the late Queen downward, or by some hardly less well known persons. Each tree bears a label giving the date and the name of the distinguished visitor who planted it.

One wonders where the costly but useless gifts, silver trowels and the like, which royalty perforce accumulates, are kept and what becomes of them. Tradition has it that there are cellars full of presentation albums, addresses inscribed on vellum and other trinkets of the sort at Sandringham and at Buckingham Palace.

MANY GREEKS ARE HASTENING HOME

Expect to Take Part in Big Fight Against Hated Turks.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, Oct. 14.—The patriotism that animated the Greeks at Thermopylae centuries ago still burns as bright in their descendants of today, and nearly every train passing through the Sarnia tunnel contains one or more, and often more, who are leaving their fortunes and businesses, however great or small, in this great continent of opportunity, to hurry back to the defence of the sunny little homeland thousands of miles away.

On Saturday between fifteen and twenty-five Greeks passed through Sarnia on one train alone bound for New York by way of the Falls and thence over the seas to repel the Turkish invader. Not only in the cities are these men answering the call to arms, but every little country town seems to be also contributing its share and a walk through any of the east-bound trains passing here will give you the Anglo-Saxon a lesson in patriotism.

ILL IN JAIL

Prisoners Who Supplied Liquor to Indian Has Tuberculosis.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, Oct. 14.—Dr. Logie has brought to the attention of the Sarnia council the case of a man named Brown, serving a sentence in the jail here for supplying liquor to Indians. Brown has contracted tuberculosis, and his condition is liable to be endangered by confinement. The council inquired about the position, it is stated, although no applications have been received, so far. The aldermen, it is expected, will take their time in making a selection, it being the intention to get a good man as can be secured.

BOY HIT BY AUTO STILL UNCONSCIOUS

Roy Rider, the newsboy who was struck by a motor car owned and driven by Dr. Lloyd Moffatt on Saturday evening, is still in an unconscious condition at Victoria Hospital.

Miss McConnell Better.

Miss Estelle McConnell, who was struck by a C. P. R. freight train while endeavoring to frighten a number of turkeys off the tracks on the road crossing between the fourth and fifth concessions of West Nissouri on Saturday afternoon, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to her home. It was at first thought that Miss McConnell was badly injured, but it develops later that she was merely suffering from a severe shaking up.

Summers—Brown.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening at the parsonage on Talbot Street, Baptist Church, by Rev. H. H. Bingham, when Miss Annie Brown, daughter of Mr. Arthur Brown, of this city, was married to Mr. George William Summers, formerly of England. Mr. and Mrs. Summers were unattended. They left on Sunday evening for Montreal, and will sail from that port to England, where they intend to remain for several months.

TEMPERANCE PEOPLE TO DISCUSS SITUATION

Meeting This Afternoon To Talk Over Local Option Campaign in London Tp.

NO THIRD CANDIDATE

Practically Decided That Two Men in the Field Are Sufficient—One To Be Indorsed by Ministers.

All clergymen of the Township of London have been called together in a special session at the Y. M. C. A. building here this afternoon to complete the organization for the local option campaign to be conducted in that municipality for the January elections. The election to fill the vacancy in East Middlesex, caused by the death of Mr. Robert Sutherland, is to be discussed and while some of the temperance workers are opposed to entering into the campaign officially, it is possible that one of the candidates in the present Sutherland-Neely contest will be given indorsement.

While an effort was made in certain quarters to have the temperance people name a third candidate, it is comparatively certain that the field will be left to the two men who have already been announced.

"We have not yet arrived at any conclusion," a prominent temperance man told The Advertiser before this afternoon's meeting, "but we do not expect to do anything further than to discuss the situation in East Middlesex."

The chief object of the gathering is to prepare for the local option campaign in London Township, and the greatest confidence is expressed by the temperance workers. Numerous meetings will be held, and every voter in the municipality will be personally canvassed. Since being attracted to local option occurrences at certain hotels in London Township, that attracted attention in police court cases. Murder, attempted murder, and all sorts of depravity are alleged to have resulted from the existence of certain of these roadhouses.

THREE DROWN WHEN STAGE WENT IN RIVER

Driver Backed Vehicle Over the End of Ferry at Nicolet, Quebec.

Nicolet, Que., Oct. 14.—Three men were drowned in the River Godfroid, last night, when a driver of a stage backed his rig over the end of a ferry. The dead are Joseph Gouin, G. Vigneul and Ernest Landry, all of this town. The ferry was crossing the river in a critical moment when the driver, Joseph Caron, was unable to see the end of the boat. When he backed up the vehicle overbalanced and its occupants, with the exception of the driver, were drowned like rats in a trap.

FINAL HONOR PAID TO LATE CHIEF JUSTICE

Body Followed to Cemetery By Many Members of Bench and Bar.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, Oct. 14.—The remains of the late Chief Justice Charles Mowbray were laid to rest this afternoon in the family plot in St. James' Cemetery. There was a choral service at St. James' Cathedral at 3 o'clock, with the full supplied choir under the direction of Dr. Albert Hall, and Ven. Archdeacon Cody and Rev. Canon Plumptre were the officiating clergymen. There was a large representation of members of the bench and bar in attendance, as well as many of those prominent in financial and political circles in the Province of Ontario. The pall-bearers were Mr. Justice Garrow, Mr. Justice MacLaren, Mr. Justice Meredith and Mr. Justice Magee, associates of the late Chief Justice and Chancellor Bosc, Sir Wm. Mulock, Mr. Justice Osler, Sir Alan Aylesworth, Mr. W. Hoyle, principal of the law school, and Mr. Z. A. Lash.

LOSES MEMORY AFTER BEING STRUCK BY AXE

Port Stanley Girl Recovered Consciousness, But Her Mind Is a Blank.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Port Stanley, Oct. 14.—After being unconscious since she was struck on the head with an axe about 4:30 on Saturday afternoon Lena Palmer, aged 27, came to this afternoon, and finds herself entirely unable to remember anything that happened in the past. Pending the recovery of her memory, no warrant has been issued against Samuel Dunn, a neighbor, who is alleged to have struck the girl, following an altercation over some railway ties. Both the Dunn and the Palmer are employed on the Port Stanley wharves. The Palmer only came here recently, and when a load of ties were being brought to Dunn's on Saturday, Mrs. Palmer objected to the wagon going through her premises. She was about to nail the fence, when Dunn came over with an axe over his shoulder. An altercation followed, in which it is alleged that Lena Palmer was struck on the side of the head. Mr. Palmer, the girl's father, made application to Squire Price for a summons, but as no one saw the blow struck, the squire did not think there was sufficient evidence on which he could issue the warrant. The girl's mother is unable to add any facts to the case, as she is resting pending the assault victim recovering her memory. When questioned today she was quite unable to give any definite statement, declaring that she was unable to remember anything about the matter.

ENGINEER'S RESIGNATION MAY START HOT DEBATE

Some Members of Council Will Oppose Acceptance of Resignation.

The resignation of City Engineer Wright will be considered, not at the special meeting of the council tomorrow at noon, but at the next regular meeting in a week's time.

At the session on Tuesday, Mr. H. Brazier will be named Acting City Engineer in order to permit the board of works to go ahead with the sidewalks investigation.

The business will be discussed, and the session will not be long, from present indications.

However, when the resignation does come up for consideration, it is probable that a debate will follow. Mr. Wright will return from the north in time for the meeting, and will be at hand to give any explanations considered necessary.

Ald. Johnston does not favor the acceptance of Mr. Wright's resignation, and will say so.

"I do not think it wise to accept his resignation," he stated. "He is a young man of ability, and has done good work. It is a mistake to dispose of his services at the time, when he is being fitted to do the very best work for us. It will be hard to find a good man, the city's reputation along this line not being very good."

AIDA QUARTETTE PLEASES

Talented Musicians at Auditorium—Pol Plancon III and Has to Curtail Program.

A large audience attended the opening concert of the Y. M. C. A. series on Saturday night, and were more than pleased with the selections given by the different artists on the program. The only regrettable feature of the evening was that the great number of people was unable to give more than one number on account of a very severe cold. Mr. Plancon III, who was exceptionally well rendered, considering his illness, and the audience were disappointed that he was unable to appear again.

The Aida Quartette, composed of Misses Sauter, White, C. Sauter and C. Haven, gave several instrumental numbers that were very popular. Miss Marietta La gave a very entertaining recitation of a humorous nature.

JUMP IN FUR PRICES

London Feels Increase, Which Have Been Great in Ten Years.

London, Oct. 14.—It is an undoubted fact that furs are becoming more expensive every season, and the present one is no exception, as may be seen by a few instances given here.

A seal jacket which eighteen years ago cost $200, today will fetch almost $750, while chinchilla has risen 200 per cent during the last ten years. Ermine, astrakhan, musquash and mink have risen about 100 per cent in the same period.

With the great increase in price of the best furs, imitations have come greatly into vogue, and certainly of all imitations musquash—which nowadays can stand alone on its own merits—is easily first favorite.

It is closely does "seal" musquash resemble genuine seal that not even an expert can tell the difference without a fairly close examination, and there is little doubt that many a lady who treasures her seal coat is really taking pride in a musquash.

Coneykins, practically rabbit skins, are also extensively used as seal substitutes, and they are as good an imitation today as musquash was ten years ago.

RICHIELEU ELECTION

Both Parties Complete Organization and Have Man in Field.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, Oct. 14.—The political pot in the Richelieu election has begun to boil. Both parties have completed their organization and have their men in the field.

E. D. Morgan will be the Conservative candidate and Mr. Cardin, the Liberal standard-bearer.

A schedule of meetings has been mapped out for Mr. Cardin, and he expects to receive the active support of prominent Liberals in both provincial and federal politics.

"THE SPRING MAID" AN ATTRACTIVE PLAY

Although Caste Is Not as Strong as Last Spring, Nevertheless It Delights Audience.

"The Spring Maid," with practically the same cast as presented this fine musical offering in April last, was the attraction at the Grand Opera House on Saturday evening, drawing a fair house. It pleased, although it did not appear quite as attractive as earlier in the year. It has lost much of the spontaneity which characterized it then.

The theme is well known to theatre-goers, and needs no relating. Miss Gene Lanaska, as Princess Estena, is a very attractive young lady, who sings well, and in other ways lives up to the role. Mr. J. H. Goldsworthy, the English tenor, enacts the role of Prince Adair with distinction. He is handsome fellow, one who sings well, and who has dramatic ability as well.

Miss Hattie Fox, as Anamir, the spring girl, has plenty of animation, a fair voice, and the other roles are ordinarily filled.

The pretty musical numbers, "Two Little Love Birds" and "Day Dreams," proved as attractive as ever.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IS NOW 75 YEARS OLD

Local Members Heard Special Sermons by Rev. H. D. Whitmore.

The 75th anniversary of the first Congregational Church in London, celebrated on Sunday, was marked with large attendance and splendid discourses by the pastor, Rev. H. D. Whitmore.

The minister took his text for his morning sermon from Joshua iv. 6. He described the children of Israel passing over the Jordan River, and Joshua taking twelve from the stream, placing them on the bank as a memorial to the church of Israel forever. He illustrated this act by means of statistics in the large audience, showing what the Congregational Church had done for the uplift of humanity. Among the things mentioned was the originating of the referendum and starting the first foreign missionary society in the States. The Congregationalist body, he said, was responsible for the greatest Young People's movement ever known to exist in the world.

The evening subject was based on the text, "Thy Faithfulness Reaches Even to the Clouds," and was listened to by a large congregation.

CHOIR MEMBERS ANGRY AND RIGHTFULLY SO

Object to Wording of Sign Placed Before the First Methodist Church.

Some of the members of the First Methodist Church choir are demanding apologies, threatening to resign, to sing out of tune for a month, and other dire things, today.

The reason is that their friends have been having a good joke at their expense for a couple of days.

Rev. Richard Whiting has been preaching a series of sermons on the undurable future state, and has announced the topics on a large bulletin board in front.

Saturday and Sunday the bulletin board had the following motto on it: "HELL AND THOSE WHO GO THERE."

EMBRO.

Embroid, Oct. 14.—Mr. D. C. McCawley has moved into Mr. John Gardner's store and house.

Misses Ada and May Fairbairn visited friends in Ingersoll recently.

Mrs. A. McNeil and Miss M. Munro were in Woodstock recently.

Mr. W. J. Ross, who has been here adding the township books for the past few months, has returned to his home in Barrie.

Mr. E. L. Sutherland visited recently with friends in Woodstock.

Mrs. D. C. McCawley, while calling at the home of Mrs. Nash, was struck with a weak spell, and, falling from the chair, broke the cap of her shoulder. At present she is as well as could be expected.

Mr. Finkle, of Woodstock, was in Embro recently.

THE PLUMBER BY BERTON DRALEY

I telephoned the plumber, And right on time he came, And should be known to fame; He spent no time in gazing, But found out what was wrong; And what is most amazing, HE HAD HIS TOOLS ALONG.

He did not con the matter, For half an hour or more, No solder did he spatter Upon the kitchen floor; With zeal still undiminished, He worked away for us, And when the job was finished, HE CLEARED UP ALL THE MUSS.

With beating heart I waited, His memo. of expense, Until he lightly stated, His bill was 50 cents! My face grew pale and haggard, I gave a muffled scream, Into a chair I staggered, And woke—it was a dream!

PICKING A JURY.

Salem, Mass., Oct. 14.—Eight seats in the jury box remained to be filled when the joint trial of Joseph J. Eitor, Arturo Giovannitti and Joseph Curran, members of the Industrial Workers of the World, was resumed in the Essex County superior court. The men are charged with being responsible for the death of Anna Lepizo during a strike riot at Lawrence last January. Curran is a principal and Eitor and Giovannitti as accessories before the fact. The hundred and fifty-talented "jurymen" were hoped to complete the jury, had been ordered to report to Judge Quinn when court convened.

expected that each would be filled with love of country and principle.
Mr. Whiting made a strong plea for peace at home. Canada was very cosmopolitan, and there was a danger here.
"If there is anything that has given me concern in my thoughts about Canada it is the disaffection of French and English in Quebec and Ontario," he stated. "Their ideals are different—one is Anglo-Saxon, the other Norman. The assimilation that has gone on during the past 100 years has been wonderful, which shows the overpowering love of God. It takes more than a few hundred years to change national characteristics. There is a difference. I am thinking now of the temperance decrees and the war of 1812. But I think you will agree with me when I say that any person who says or does anything to accentuate these differences is a criminal enemy of the Dominion."
The choir, under the direction of Choirmaster A. D. Jordan, rendered special music. The band also played during the offertory.

The annual rally of the Young People's Societies of the various Protestant churches of the city will be held tonight in the Talbot Street Baptist Church, when it is expected that large delegations from every church in the city will be present. After the business of the organization has been disposed of, an address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Fikes, of the Woodward Avenue Baptist Church, Detroit. He is one of the leading divines in Michigan and his address is certain to be instructive.

BROCK CENTENARY FITTINGLY MARKED
Seventh Regiment Conducts Impressive Exercises in Front of Soldiers' Monument.
ATTEND DIVINE SERVICE

Twenty-five ratepayers of the village of Chelsea Green have already signified their willingness to transfer their municipal allegiance from the Township of Westminster to the city of London, by signing the annexation petitions. These were presented for signatures for the first time Saturday night, at the meeting called at the instigation of the committee, which had been previously appointed to interview the city council and arrange terms for the coming union. The report prepared by the committee was entirely satisfactory to the majority of the ratepayers present, and they signed the papers accordingly, but a few assented themselves and agreed to "think the matter over" before finally committing themselves. Another 25 names are secured on the petition, and the majority of the ratepayers will have signed.
Mr. Percy St. Clair Aldrich, the chairman of the committee, spoke at some length, explaining the terms stated in the agreement. The majority of the terms were very satisfactory, but at times some knotty clause would arise and disturb the peace of the meeting. Then the ripple of speech would be turned into a whirlpool, and after the chairman's table had received the command for "Order!" several times soothing oil would be poured on the troubled waters by Lieutenant-Col. Gantshore or by Mr. Aldrich himself.
Mr. Aldrich began his speech by strenuously denying the rumors which he heard had been circulated to the effect that the council of 1913 could quash the terms of the agreement if they so desired, and place the assessment and tax rate of property belonging to ratepayers in "The Green" at the city level. This agreement was made out with the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province, and the talk of changing the terms in the agreement was folly and foolishness.
Later in the evening, for the benefit of the late-comers, he again laid considerable emphasis on this point. Mr. Harry Clarke, one of the ratepayers, who had previously taken considerable notice of the matter, said Mr. Clarke, ready for an argument, "But I know when South London was annexed the assessment of that district varied annually, and why won't the same thing happen in Chelsea Green?"
"In reply to Brother Clarke, I might say that the assessment of South London was not fixed," said Mr. John Cummings. Mr. Clarke strenuously denied any brotherhood relation to Mr. Cummings, and after telling him so, pandemonium broke loose.
After peace was restored the chairman then explained the bridge problem. If the vitality of the present bridge is destroyed within fifteen years, requiring the building of a new structure, an additional half-million will be added on to the fixed rate, making the new bridge necessary. The engineer's report testified that a new bridge would cost $30,000, but that at the present time he could see no cause for alarm with the present one. If the new bridge was necessary the additional expense would only be 50 cents for every $1,000 of assessment. Chelsea Green's share would then amount to $48.46. The city would bear the rest of the expense.
The agreement also stated that the city promised to erect water mains and sufficient street lights to meet the requirements of the district.
The present two-roomed school would have to be enlarged and graded to city qualifications. Two new rooms would be necessary, but the city would meet this expense.
After explaining minor portions of the agreement Chairman Aldrich laid the petitions on the table ready for signatures. About 25 signed, including several of those who at first were the most outspoken against the union. The petition was also made for circulating the petitions among the ratepayers who were not present.

NEW CATALOGUE OF SMALLMAN & INGRAM
For Fall and Winter Shopping Now Ready for Distribution.

In this day of rural route delivery the orders received by mail have become a great factor to all well organized and successfully managed stores. Of all stores possibly the departmental ones have had to cope hardest with the problem.
The city of London has the distinction of being surrounded by more Government rural routes than any other city in Canada. Its largest department store, Smallman & Ingram, has the distinction of being the nearest store to inaugurate "world-wide free delivery." In order to facilitate the purchasing of the thousands of "mail orders" they receive they have just issued the "Smallman & Ingram Fall and Winter Catalogue for 1912-1913." The book is one such as should be prized in any home, and is so profusely illustrated that the "imaginary troubles" of buying by mail are reduced to a minimum. The catalogue is well printed, on good quality paper, and contains thousands of suggestions to shoppers, within its beautiful colored cover.
The satisfaction that has always been possible to residents of London has now, by the issuing of this catalogue, been made possible to shoppers in no matter what their postoffice may be, for the Smallman & Ingram guarantee goes with every article sold.
If you have not secured a copy send a postal and a catalogue will be mailed you. In this way you will learn one of the reasons why the mail order department of the Smallman & Ingram store is one of its big features.
The catalogues were printed by The Advertiser Job Department.

"MY STOMACH IS FINE
Since Taking Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets"
Mrs. J. Mierckbuger, Waterloo, Ont., enthusiastically recommends Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets. Her experience with them, as she outlines it, explains why.
"I was greatly troubled with my stomach," she writes. "I had taken so much medicine that I might say to take any more would only be making it worse. My stomach just felt raw. I read of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, and a lady friend told me they were very easy to take, so I thought I would give them a trial and really they worked wonders. After having been suffering wrong with my stomach should give Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets a trial, they will do the rest. My stomach is fine now and I can eat any food."
One of the many good features of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets is that they are so pleasant and easy to take. The relief they give from heartburn, flatulence, biliousness and dyspepsia is prompt and permanent. Try one after each meal—they'll make you feel like a new person.

A short but impressive ceremony was held on Sunday at noon by the Seventh Regiment, after the regiment had attended divine service at the First Methodist Church, in front of the soldiers' monument in Victoria Park, to mark the centenary of the death of Gen. Sir Isaac Brock. The men were drawn up in line in front of the monument, the officers stood at attention, while the band played "O Canada" and the "National Anthem." This concluded the regimental parade to the armories. The church parade was one of the best yet held by the regiment. It was practically up to full strength, and nearly all the officers were in attendance. In addition to the regiment and its staff, Lieut.-Col. J. W. Little, honorary colonel of the Seventh, paraded together with Lieut.-Col. A. H. Macdonell, D. S. O.; Lieut.-Col. C. W. Bellon, P. A. M.; Major Gordon-Hall, C. S. O.; Major E. C. Dean, C. P. A., and Major Wood Leonard, Sixth Field Battery.

Rev. Richard Whiting, pastor of the First Methodist Church, was the preacher of the occasion, and delivered an excellent discourse. His subject was taken from Ecclesiastes, I, 8: "To everything there is a season—a time for peace, and a time for war."
There would be no gaining the statement that the militia belonged to the government of force, he said. The government must be maintained, by force, if necessary.
When War Shall Cease.
Men dream of the time when soldiers and war shall be no more, but that time has not yet come. Perhaps no persons would be better pleased if that were the case, than the soldiers themselves. The militia formed international police, to preserve order among the nations of the earth. Contingencies from without or within might send soldiers to war, and they must be ready at all times to go to battle. They were unnecessary, as were police, to a large number of people, but there were others for whom police and soldiers were both needed.
"My own personal opinion, and I try to be an optimist, is that we are a long way from the era of universal peace," said Mr. Whiting. "What is the church doing to bring about universal peace? Religion, philosophic and dogmatic, is not doing much. Religion, spiritual, is doing a great deal. The spirit of religion is the spirit of love and righteousness and truth and justice, and of a sound mind. The polemics of the church have always made fighting glorious. You are not a circumstance to the fighting of sects among themselves. In the recent war in the United States the church did not dominate war, but war dominated it. As a result, all the churches were split, and the Methodist Church has Methodists Church South and Methodist Church North. The Presbyterians and the Episcopalians are the same way. The church did not stop, but aided the war. The spirit of the church will yet prevent it."
Brock's Glory.
Rev. Mr. Whiting referred to the Brock centenary. One hundred years ago, Gen. Brock, aided by a few English, some native-born Canadians, and some Indians, drove back the enemy. Canada was a very tiny factor in the world's history at that time. By the immigration freshets, Canada was gaining sons from all the world. She was becoming rich, richer than any country in the world in an equal length of time, and was becoming envied of the nations of the world. There was a danger in that. Some time Canada may have to say to some nation, "Thus far shalt thou go and no farther." The soldiers may be called upon to defend the country. He hoped and

ELDER LONGHURST IS NEW PRESIDENT
Elected on Saturday as Head of Latter Day Saint's District Conference.

ELDER EVANS PREACHES
Former London Divine in Eloquent Sermon—Conference To Be Held in Stratford Next Year.

The Latter Day Saints' conference which has been meeting in this city since Friday last, was concluded on Sunday evening, when a service was held in the church on Maitland street.
The officers for the year were elected on Saturday afternoon as follows: President, Elder R. C. Longhurst, Vassara; vice-president, Elder Yerex, Waterford; secretary, F. H. Phillipin, London; bishop's agent and treasurer, Elder Burger, T. Thomas. The conference next year will be held in Stratford.
At 7:30 on Saturday Elder William Davis, missionary, preached to a large congregation. Sunday morning Bishop R. C. Evans conducted a prayer service at 8:30. The services at 11 o'clock were conducted by Elder Tomlinson, of St. Marys, and were for the benefit of the young men. The speaker made an appeal to them to forsake the evil and pleasures of the world and to endeavor to do that which is right and acceptable to God. Elder Tomlinson showed many advantages gained by following the straight and narrow path.
Bishop R. C. Evans preached at 2:30, using as his text, "When he came to himself," referring to the prodigal son. In the evening Elder Smith, of Lamont, conducted the services before a large audience.
Special services will be held in the local church every night. This week, Bishop Evans, of Toronto, will preach this evening; Elder Smith on Tuesday and Elder Davis on Wednesday, Friday and Sunday evenings and on Sunday morning.

CANON CRAIG ON BROCK
Rector of St. John's Church Pays His Tribute to the Worth of Great Canadian.

On Sunday morning at the Church of St. John the Evangelist, the rector, Rev. Canon Craig, made special reference to the centenary of the battle of Queenston Heights. He said:
"The battle of Queenston Heights, fought one hundred years ago, is being commemorated today, and associated with it is the death of Gen. Sir Isaac Brock. The particular lesson for us today is not the victory, for the battle was really won by Gen. Sheaffe; not the death of Gen. Brock, for that was one hundred years ago. But this: Gen. Brock was a large-minded man, a man of wise judgment, prompt in energetic action. These were displayed at the taking of Detroit and at Queenston. These are the qualities of the handful of people in Upper Canada that they were inspired with the idea of maintaining the position of Canada as part of the British Empire. Being composed entirely of huculose figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful. Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.
Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna" prepared by the California Fig Syrup Company. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered."

KEEP THE CHILDREN'S BOWELS CLEAN NOW
If Tongue Is Coated, Stomach Sour, Breath Fervish, Bowels Clogged Give "Syrup of Figs."

Children dearly love to take delicious "Syrup of Figs" and nothing else cleans and regulates their tender little stomachs, liver and 30 feet of bowels so promptly and thoroughly. Children get bilious and constipated just like grown-ups. Then they get sick, the tongue is coated, stomach sour, breath bad; they don't eat or rest well; they become feverish, cross, irritable and don't want to play. Listen Mothers—for your child's sake don't force the little one to swallow nauseating castor oil, violent calomel or harsh irritants like Cathartic pills. A teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs will have your child smiling and happy again in just a few hours. Syrup of Figs will gently clean, sweeten and regulate the stomach, make the liver active and move on and out of the bowels all the constipated matter, the sour bile, the foul, clogged-up waste and poisons, without causing cramps or griping.
With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging or injuring your children. Being composed entirely of huculose figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful. Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.
Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna" prepared by the California Fig Syrup Company. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered."

Anthem" was sung, and in the evening the choir, in a most acceptable manner, rendered a setting of "O Happy Band of Pilgrims," composed by the organist of the church, Mr. F. Linforth Willgoose.
*Thanksgiving services will be held in the church on Sunday, Oct. 27, and in the afternoon a children's service will be held.
