STATE OF WAR EXISTS IN PETROGRAD--KORNILOFF DEPRIVED OF OFFICE

Overtures Expected by Britain Before Winter

CRUSH DISLOYALTY TO ALLIED CAUSE

Appeal Issued to U. S. For Effective Service Against Germany

New York, Sept. 10.—A call to all citizens, irrespective of race or creed, to join in a movement to crush disloyalty within the United States, and to labor for the assimilation of aliens, was issued here last night by the Commission of Native and Foreign Born Americans, headed by Theodore Roosevelt.

CONSOLIDATE ALL GAINS ON WEST FRONT

Franco-British Were Successful Last Night in Several Operations.

ARTILLERY VIOLENT British Gain on Somme, French in Champagne and Argonne.

London, Sept. 10.—Field Marshal Haig, in his official report of today, says that British troops last night consolidated the positions captured during the day southeast of Hargicourt, were successfully consolidated in spite of heavy fighting on our new front. An enemy raiding party was driven away last night east of Loos. Other raiding parties three times attacked our positions east of Arras, but were successfully beaten off in every case.

French Official Paris, Sept. 10.—Successful raids were made by the French last night on the German positions in the Champagne and Argonne regions, the French war department announced today. On both banks of the River Meuse, the artillery fighting continued all night with violence.

Additional information confirms the importance of the repulse which the Germans yesterday sustained. Their fierce counter attacks succeeded each other despite the extremely heavy losses inflicted upon the enemy by our fire. At several points our troops repulsed as many as five successive attacks and partly decimated the German units advancing. "Elsewhere the night was calm."

CANADIAN CASUALTIES

Ottawa, Sept. 10.—One hundred and fifty-four Canadians appear in today's casualty list, 35 of whom have lost their lives. Twenty-one are shown as missing.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Toronto, Sept. 10.—An area of high pressure which first appeared in the far northwest on Friday accompanied by unseasonably low temperature has spread eastward over Ontario and Quebec. Sharp frosts have occurred in Saskatchewan and Manitoba and the northern parts of Ontario.

Fresh northwest winds, fine and very cool to-day and Tuesday. Frost to-night in most localities.

Germany to Seek Settlement on Terms of Ante-War Standing, London Expects

London, Aug. 27.—Though official London the belief is held that a very definite peace offer will come from Germany before winter, and the offer will suggest immediate cessation of hostilities on a status quo basis.

Entente statesmen have fully indicated that they will refuse such terms, and no doubt Germany is aware of this. But German leaders regard a status quo offer from the German side as an indispensable step in the preparation of German public opinion for further concessions.

Anxious for Peace A high official authority gave the Associated Press to-day the following statement of the situation in Germany as regards peace: "There is no doubt that the German government is anxious to get out of the war at the earliest possible moment on any terms which will insure them against revolution at home and national collapse."

Great numbers of people in Germany to-day would welcome a peace on a status quo basis, this meaning practically a draw in which no belligerent would occupy any territory beyond that which it possessed in July, 1914, and moreover, in which each side would bear its own burden in regard to the material losses incurred during the course of the war.

Secondly, I declare a state of war in the town and district of Petrograd. "I appeal to all citizens to remain calm, maintain the order necessary for the welfare of the fatherland and the navy and army, and tranquilly and faithfully fulfill their duty in the defense of the fatherland against the common enemy."

Petrograd, Sept. 10.—Premier Kerensky has declared that a state of war exists in the town and district of Petrograd. Petrograd, Sept. 10.—Premier Kerensky has ordered General Korniloff commander-in-chief of the Russian armies to resign in consequence of General Korniloff's demand for supreme power. General Klembowski has been appointed commander-in-chief.

Premier Kerensky has issued the following proclamation: "On September 8 a member of the Duma, M. Lvoff, arrived in Petrograd and called upon me in the name of General Korniloff to hand over all civil and military powers to the Generalissimo, who would form a new government at his pleasure. The authenticity of this summons was afterwards confirmed by General Korniloff himself, who had a conversation with me over the direct telegraphic wire between Petrograd and main headquarters.

ITALY'S VICTORIOUS OFFENSIVE HAS BEEN IN FACE OF MANY OBSTACLES

Almost Insuperable Difficulties Successfully Overcome in Prosecution of the War For Entente Cause—Minister of War Speaks on Subject

Rome, Sept. 10.—Difficulties, some of them almost insuperable, which have been successfully overcome by Italy in her prosecution of the war, were outlined by the Minister of War, in a statement to the Associated Press.

"In order to appreciate fully the importance of Italy's military efforts," he said, "it must be borne in mind that she entered the war at a moment when the position of the Central Powers was so strong that intervention against them could no longer be deferred. That moment was inopportune for Italy, however, as she lacked officers, artillery and supplementary services, so that greater efforts were required to bring the efficiency of the army up to the standard necessary to triumph over a formidable enemy's resistance."

KORNILOFF OUSTED; WAR IN PETROGRAD

Clouds Again Loom Heavily Over Russian Situation; Kerensky Orders Resignation of Commander-in-Chief of Army

Petrograd, Sept. 10.—Premier Kerensky has declared that a state of war exists in the town and district of Petrograd.

Petrograd, Sept. 10.—Premier Kerensky has ordered General Korniloff commander-in-chief of the Russian armies to resign in consequence of General Korniloff's demand for supreme power. General Klembowski has been appointed commander-in-chief.

Premier Kerensky has issued the following proclamation: "On September 8 a member of the Duma, M. Lvoff, arrived in Petrograd and called upon me in the name of General Korniloff to hand over all civil and military powers to the Generalissimo, who would form a new government at his pleasure. The authenticity of this summons was afterwards confirmed by General Korniloff himself, who had a conversation with me over the direct telegraphic wire between Petrograd and main headquarters.

"Considering this summons addressed through me to the provisional government as an attempt by certain quarters to profit by the difficult situation of the country and establish a state of things contrary to the conquests of the revolution, the provisional government has recognized the necessity of charging me for the safety of the republican regime, to take urgent, indispensable measures necessary to cut at the roots all attempts against the supreme power and rights of the citizens won by revolution."

"I therefore, for maintenance in the country of liberty and public order, am taking all measures which I shall announce at the proper moment to the people. At the same time, I order General Korniloff to hand over his functions to General Klembowski, commander-in-chief of the armies on the northern front, which bear the way to Petrograd, and I order General Klembowski to assume provisionally the functions of generalissimo, while remaining at Pskov.

"I appeal to all citizens to remain calm, maintain the order necessary for the welfare of the fatherland and the navy and army, and tranquilly and faithfully fulfill their duty in the defense of the fatherland against the common enemy."

Petrograd, Sunday, Sept. 9.—Defeated Eleven cabinet ministers have been in continuous session in the Winter Palace to-day considering measures to face General Korniloff's revolt, which in conversation with the Associated Press, the ministers admit is the gravest event since the revolution. So far, except for the disposition of General Korniloff, which the General is apparently determined to defy, no measures have been decided upon, but the discussion is proceeding on a plan to constitute a directory of five men vested with full power. The names so far submitted for membership in this body are Premier Kerensky, Vice-Premier Nekrasoff, M. Skobloff, the minister of labor, M. Terestchenko, minister of foreign affairs, and M. Savonoff, the assistant minister of war.

In a talk with the correspondent, former minister Testchenko, said: "The plan for the directory is under discussion, and it may be decided to-night. So far, the government is unable to make any statement. At 12 o'clock, we expect the arrival of General Alexioff, with whom we will confer. My personal opinion is that General Korniloff's revolt is not dangerous, and is partly due to a misunderstanding which will be cleared up. Regarding the rumors of widespread arrests in Petrograd to-day in connection with the revolt, the Associated Press correspondent is authorized to declare that no arrests have yet been made by order of the government, although three may have been some by the judicial authorities under the ordinary process of law."

London, Sept. 10.—Photographs of the King and the royal family, which represent the Centrist solution of the situation, but which the Tid further assertion that the proposal has been accepted in principle by the "double seven" commission in Germany is premature.

A statement in the South German Catholic organ, The Augsburg Post, declaring that the time had come for a frank declaration that the Germans have not thought of oppressing Belgium economically, politically, or militarily, also is attracting attention. The meeting of the "double seven" commission in Berlin, which will show the above represents the Centrist conception of a fulfillment of the Post's wishes.

Dr. George Michaelis, the imperial German chancellor, says: "The paper says in an editorial: "We cannot view without infinite regret the position into which Sweden has been dragged by active sympathy of certain of her rulers towards Germany. The disclosures, which were made from Washington shed a brilliant light upon dark places of Hun diplomacy. Let us thank the United States for penetrating the plot."

The Graphic says: "What do Denmark and Norway, parties with Sweden to the Malmo meeting, think of it?" The Telegraph says: "It is exactly seven months since the publication of the Swedish reply to President Wilson's message to other neutral states in which he expressed the hope that they would find it possible to take similar action to that of the United States in breaking off diplomatic relations with the German Empire. In that reply it was declared that the Swedish royal government followed the path of neutrality and impartiality which path it was undisturbed to abandon if the vital interests of the country and the dignity of the nation did not force it to change its policy."

Today we have before us a highly practical illustration of what that government regards as coming within the limits of neutrality, which is expressly declared to be without any leaning to either group of combatants. Continued on page six.

Europe Astounded at Revelation of Swedish Duplicity; Argentine Roused and May Take Action

Buenos Aires, Sept. 10.—Argentine officials, according to newspaper accounts to-day are still unable to believe that the despatches sent to Berlin through the Swedish legation here were accurately translated. The foreign office early to-day said it was without official despatches from Ambassador Naon or United States Ambassador Stimson. Newspapers generally believe that the government will demand the recall of Count Larberg, German charge at Buenos Aires, but a rupture in diplomatic relations with Germany is not anticipated at present, the Argentine Government preferring, it is said, to consider the affair a personal one between the German and Swedish representatives here.

La Epoca, the recognized mouthpiece of President Argonon's party, says: "These documents show discourtesy and duplicity so great that we were unable at first to believe such practices possible by such men. We must confess, despite the unimpeachable source of information that we did not believe possible such monstrous conduct which is so exceptional in these times when diplomatic customs have acquired a spirit of sincerity and frankness. Before such stupendous duplicity only perplexity is possible and it is impossible to believe that a nation calling itself our friend (We refer principally to Sweden, German methods being almost downward) could observe conduct without cause for a grudge against us at the present moment with its terrible re-awakening the worst instincts we thought forever dead."

"Although unable to foretell what action the government will take it is certain that it will take energetic measures to assure the dignity of the nation's highest officials who are thus insulted in an unprecedented manner despite their best efforts to treat Germany with dignity during the delicate situations arising through the trampling under foot of the Argentine flag."

La Navion in its issue to-day declares that it is absolutely necessary that both the German and Swedish ministers leave the country immediately. British Comment.

FRESH INTRIGUES TO BE REVEALED?

Capture of Teuton Raiders in Somaliland May Bring Results

London, Sept. 10.—A dispatch to The Daily Mail from Jibuti, Africa, says that a German named Holts, and an Austrian named Karmelich, who with forty Arabs, have been wandering in the interior of French Somaliland about two months have been captured after a strong resistance in which several of the Arabs were killed. The capture of Holts and Karmelich is expected to result in important revelations of intrigue in Abyssinia.

BELGIUM FREE BUT UNDER HUN DOMINATION

Complete Autonomy Suggested, Subject to Certain German Limitations.

PEACE PROPOSALS References To Belgium, Poland and Alsace-Lorraine are Made.

Copenhagen, Sept. 10.—The week-end brought a number of references in the German press of official declaration to Belgium, Alsace-Lorraine and Poland which may fore-shadow progress, or lack of progress in Germany toward solutions of these questions for insertion in the reply of Germany to Pope Benedict's peace proposal.

Respecting Belgium statement by Berlin correspondents of the Austrian Catholic organ, The Reichpost, on the proposal to give Belgium "complete autonomy" subject to limitations to prevent it entering into special treaty relations with the Entente Powers of maintaining a military force beyond that required for interior police, or to upset the German division of the country into Wallonian and Flemish halves, have attracted the attention of the German press.

The Lokal Anzeiger assumes that this represents the Centrist solution of the situation, but which the Tid further assertion that the proposal has been accepted in principle by the "double seven" commission in Germany is premature.

 Words of Encouragement to Childless Women.

Motherhood is woman's natural destiny, but many women are denied the happiness of children simply because of some curable derangement.

Among the many triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is its marvelous power to overcome such derangements, as evidenced by the following letter:

Worcester, Mass.—"I suffered from female ill, and was advised to have an operation, but a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and who has six children, told me to try it. It has helped me so much that I am now well and have a baby boy who is the picture of health, and I thank the Vegetable Compound for my restoration to health."

Mrs. BERT GARVEY, 20 Hacker St., Worcester, Mass.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice—it will be confidential.

Interesting Grist of News Notes From Norfolk's Port Town.

Simcoe, Sept. 10.—(From our own correspondent.) Lance Corporal Gordon W. Thompson, Pte. Guy Winter and Pte. L. B. Hiron reached home Saturday night. Their home-coming was announced and the Simcoese seized the opportunity to turn out and bid the boys a royal welcome. A long procession of decorated autos awaited them at the west side of the depot, and the procession led by the car bearing the heroes of the hour, His Worship Mayor Williamson, and Alderman Cropp, made a tour about town, while the bells rang and the thousand who had assembled at the depot made their way to the Armoury. The hussar that went up as the train pulled in was repeated when the boys entered the Armoury, and again when they stood at the Mayor's request, to receive the following address:

Corporal Thompson, Private Winter and Private Hiron, your reception from the people of Simcoe a letter expressing our hope and expectation that you would do honour to yourselves, the 29th Battalion, and your native town. We were then, as ever since, deeply concerned in your welfare. We have carefully followed your movements from that day to the day and we are proud to know that our hopes and expectations have been fully realized.

We have met here, in behalf of the people of Simcoe, to express to you our great pleasure in having you safely home again, and to assure you of our appreciation of the manner in which you have discharged your duties as soldiers, in defence of our flag and country.

As a small token of our appreciation, we ask you each to accept from the people of Simcoe, this purse, and our sincere hope now is that you may be long spared to live prosperous and happy lives.

Signed on behalf of the Council,
 GEO. WILLIAMSON, Mayor.

The boys were also greeted by Lt. Col. Allen, who spoke briefly, words of welcome on behalf of the Great War Veterans.

The men, when called, to speak, saluted in turn. The Mayor remarked that all men were not constituted alike. Some were good talkers and others good shooters. He reminded the great audience that the boys had just returned from no "holiday" at the country's expense, as was the common rejoinder to the two weeks in camp of the old 29th, and impressed the point that these men and their service should be remembered. The crowd sang God Save the King and dispersed.

Bad Accident at L. E. & N. Depot

As several autos awaiting the 6:30 car from Brantford on Saturday night, moved away, a woman, driven by Mrs. Davidson, of Simcoe, seriously injured James Elmer Sovereign, who lusted behind others making way for the auto traffic on the roadway, leading from the depot. Mrs. Davidson, who has driven a car for four years, and is an efficient operator, brought the car to a standstill at a grade in less than its own length. The man escaped the wheels but was pinned under the car. It was quickly lifted up bodily at the front and the unfortunate man was taken out and hurried to Dr. Richardson's surgery. No fractures were discovered, but Sovereign is in a bad shaking up. He was taken home in the physician's car later on.

As several autos awaiting the 6:30 car from Brantford on Saturday night, moved away, a woman, driven by Mrs. Davidson, of Simcoe, seriously injured James Elmer Sovereign, who lusted behind others making way for the auto traffic on the roadway, leading from the depot. Mrs. Davidson, who has driven a car for four years, and is an efficient operator, brought the car to a standstill at a grade in less than its own length. The man escaped the wheels but was pinned under the car. It was quickly lifted up bodily at the front and the unfortunate man was taken out and hurried to Dr. Richardson's surgery. No fractures were discovered, but Sovereign is in a bad shaking up. He was taken home in the physician's car later on.

Dana Wilson, of Delhi, fell in a faint on King street near the Lyric picture show, on Saturday evening. Dr. Grassett's aid, revived, he had been in the Lyric, crowded more than usual, just after the reception to the soldiers was over, and the scene of excitement was too much for him.

Lady Missionary Preaches at St. Paul's

We leave it for another to tell when, before the sermon from the pulpit of St. Paul's Presbyterian church was preached by a woman. Last night there were many others than the members of the congregation. We have carefully followed your movements from that day to the day and we are proud to know that our hopes and expectations have been fully realized.

The speaker had little to say for her work in this Orient. The burden of her address was the lack of a living faith among professing western Christians, and the speaker affirmed that the Chinese, in this regard, far led us in power.

Professor Jackson's choir sang splendidly, both in the anthems and the hymns of the evening.

Odd Facts of News.

There was too long a trip for the third day of inspection of the county good roads and the committee left some of the western roads still unvisited.

Only at the H. S. Falls corner did those on the street greet the returned soldiers with the deserving cheer and hand clapping. Fire Chief Kendall saluted with an auto horn at Boyd's store. Simcoians have yet to learn to cheer. Perhaps it was unjust to expect any to cheer when

The TRAIL BLAZER to greater Motor Car Value

From the standpoint of dollar for dollar value there's not a car made which offers more for your money than the famous Chevrolet Four-Ninety A.

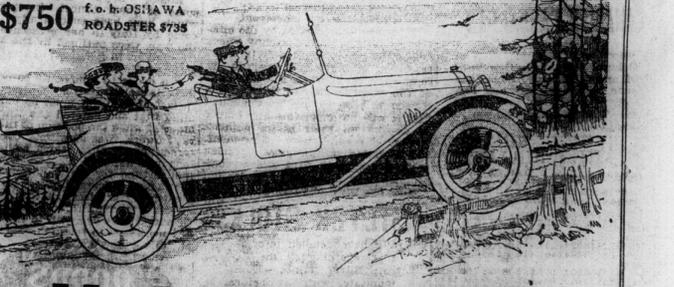

Before the Chevrolet was made in Canada, good cars were all high in price.

But our mammoth production and manufacturing efficiency enables us to sell the Chevrolet Four-Ninety A at a price much lower than its value when compared with other makes of cars.

With the surplus power developed by the famous valve-in-head motor the owner of a Four-Ninety A invariably is the "trail blazer."

Standard equipment includes speedometer, electric starting and lighting, ammeter, oil indicator light equipment, one man top, demountable rims, non-skid tires on rear wheels and many features usually looked for in cars much higher in price.

NEWS OF NORFOLK

Continued from page 2 The stone was made according to plans sent from his family. The scrolls facing west is in German. That facing east reads as follows: Max Julius Kelm, born in Dresden, Saxony, Dec. 2, 1877, died at Port Dover, May 23rd, 1916. The Dover Cemetery is well kept. No vehicles are allowed to follow the hearse into the grounds. By courtesy of the L. E. & N. railway the cars stopped the crossing south of the cemetery to accommodate the traffic of the day to the cemetery. Ft. La. Curtis Falls Flight Lieutenant Geo. S. Curtis cables to his father, Major Geo. E. Curtis, stating tersely: "Slight crash, broken jaw." Curtis served in France till incapacitated, and after leave of absence home, was transferred to the flying corps. Since School Children's Vegetable Show.

The civic vegetable garden club's exhibition, held in the armories gratification to a school children's competition. This condition explains why competition was open to parties outside the corporation who go to school here, and explains why prize winners are all children. The children competed strongly in potatoes, beets, carrots and tomatoes, and in a few other vegetables less prominently. There were some splendid exhibits. The show closed at 4 o'clock. About six-hundred visitors paid the ten cent entrance fee.

The Winners Early Potatoes—Alice Skinner, Annie Bridgewater, Bessie Skinner, Gladys Wardell, Arthur Paulin. Late Potatoes—Irene Evans, Thornley Chadwick, Muriel Niedrauer, Daisy Hillis. Beets, long—Alice K. Skinner, James Ryckman, Bessie Skinner. Beets, short—Alex. Stewart, Louis Stewart, Janet Owen, Evelyn Pielt, Carrots, long—Annie Imrie, Jas. Ryckman, Arthur Pantin, Charles Price.

Carrots, short—Billie Tomlinson, Lela Armstrong, Bertha Moyer, Alice K. Skinner. Onions from Dutch Setts—Earl Post, Evelyn Pielt, Effie Hillis, Frank Handy. Onions from Seed—Audrey Widener, Earl Post, Effie Hillis, Bruce Marr. Cabbage—B. Wallace, A. Jeffrey, Ross Buck, Alice Dornig.

Peppers, hot—Edna Wardell, Gladys Wardell, Lela Armstrong, J. Wallace Lever. Farnships—Evelyn Pielt, J. W. Love, Effie Hillis, Charles Price. Messrs Arthur Ryerse and Arthur West were judges. Mr. Ryerse gave the exhibitors an instructive lecture over the show tables, pointing out good points and defects where they were found. The teachers of the public school and Principal McPherson in particular, did much to facilitate the work. The prizes were all cashed at the close of the show. The success of the children's efforts may be followed next year by a real citizen's exhibit, as the promoters set out for last spring.

Silver Production—Cobalt, Ont., Sept. 10.—The Mining Corporation of Canada is now producing silver at the rate of approximately three hundred and fifty thousand ounces per month, or upwards of four million ounces annually. It is expected that this company will make a strong bid for first place in point of production in the Cobalt Camp, perhaps for the time being outstripping the famous "Vipising. However, when the question of longevity is taken into consideration, Vipising, with its large acreage, probably has no equal in the Silver Camp.

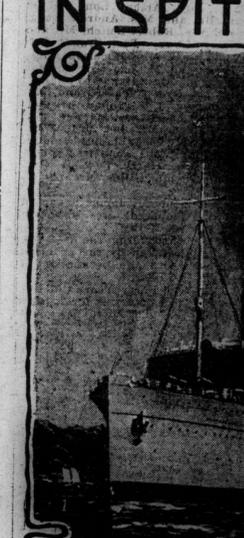

Michigan Central—Michigan Central reports July operating revenue $4,300,695, increase $442,724; net income $400,533; decrease $210,000 from Jan. 1st operating revenue $29,246,320; increase $3,483,367; net income $1,761,731; decrease $3,205,817.

More Stamps at Teck—Kirkland Lake, Ont., Sept. 10.—Arrangements are being made for the installation of additional crushing equipment at the Teck-Hughes which will increase the capacity of the mill from the present run of 50 or 60 tons to something like 100 tons a day.

Spanish River Meeting—The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Spanish River Pulp and Paper Mills, Limited, will be held in the Traders' Bank Building, Toronto, on Tuesday, Sept. 27th, at 2 o'clock. Boston Creek Write—Boston Creek, Ont., Sept. 10.—There would appear to be some promise of the affairs of the Boston Creek Mining Company coming into more or less prominence. It is stated that E. M. Pichardson and others have issued a writ against John Pappasniakas and others for a declaration. Details are lacking.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

IN SPITE OF THE KAISEI

(1) C. P. O. S. Pacific Liner which made a speed record a few weeks ago. (2) C. P. O. S. Atlantic liner.

The claim made by Kaiser Wilhelm and his satellites that the British merchant fleet is disappearing from the ocean seems particularly ludicrous in the case of the fleet most closely associated with Canada, namely that of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, which so far from diminishing has actually increased its tonnage since the beginning of the war by nearly 30%. No fewer than 15,000 men are employed with approximately 50,000 dependents, and the numbers are steadily increasing. Taking the Atlantic fleet first. At the outbreak of the war the steamships of the Allan Line and Canadian Pacific Ocean Services numbered 35, with a gross tonnage of 313,000 tons. The value of these fleets to the British Empire in war-transport work has been incalculable, and it is by the British Government. Almost from the moment of declaration of war on the 4th August, 1914, a large proportion of the joint fleet was requisitioned, including the larger and newer vessels then in service. Two of the newest and largest of the Allan Line steamers were immediately put into commission as armed merchant cruisers. The "Empress of Russia," "Empress of Asia," "Empress of India" and "Empress of Japan" were immediately fitted out as armed cruisers. Many of the other vessels of the joint companies previously engaged on the passenger trade between Europe and Canada were brought into Trooping Service or employed in transporting supplies and ammunition, not only across the Atlantic but all over the oceans of the world from the Far West to the Far East. Notwithstanding this great call on the Canadian Pacific and Allan Lines' resources, these companies have been able to carry on their trade between Europe and Canada, not only across the Atlantic but all over the oceans of the world from the Far West to the Far East. THE SITUATION.
Over The Courier leased wire today there comes the story of a break between Krensky and Gen. Korniloff. The latter apparently wanted too much power to suit the Premier, and he has accordingly been given his walking ticket while a state of war is said to exist in Petrograd. Manifestly matters are going from very bad to even worse in the new Republic.

Rumors are persistent that another peace offer is to come from Germany on the basis of the restoration of matters as before the war. That of course will not suit the Allies. The French forces have made another notable advance of the Verdun front, striking on the right bank of the Meuse for a width of over two miles.

Violent storms are interfering somewhat with operations on the Italian front.

German engineers have bridged the lower Aa river in Lavonia and are concentrating on the north bank of that stream.

Sweden has been looked upon with suspicion as standing in with the Huns ever since the war started, and the recent disclosures from Washington with reference to news transmitted to Berlin, via the Swedish legation at Buenos Aires lends further color to that impression. It looks as if she will have to be brought to book.

THE DEATH OF MR. MANN
Brantford loses a most sterling citizen in the summons home of Mr. John Mann. He was a true son of the Empire, and in all the relations of life exemplified those qualities of mind and heart which prove so much to any community. His activities were many and widely diffused, and throughout them all he ever held to the idea of stewardship. His career was one of high ideals and accomplishment and constituted an inspiration to all who knew him. The Courier begs leave to join with countless others in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

SETTLEMENT AT FORD PARISH IS NOW EXPECTED
Vicar, General O'Connor Hopeful that Disturbances are at End.

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Ont., Sept. 10.—Vicar-General O'Connor stated today that he is hopeful that the disturbances at the French Roman Catholic Church at Ford City, Ontario, when the people get acquainted with Father Laurendeau, the new pastor. Bishop Fallon is in Baltimore, and will not return until October 1st.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 10.—Without further trouble, Father Laurendeau, the new priest, conducted mass twice yesterday, and although the congregations were not large, there was no hint of disturbance anywhere.

Major Osborne of London arrived this morning to take charge of the 50 soldiers who have been detailed from the camp at Windsor to maintain order around the church.

At high mass yesterday Father Laurendeau took occasion to speak briefly to the congregation concerning his connection with Our Lady of the Lake Church. He had been appointed, he said, by the bishop to assume charge of the parish and he would do so. He had no connection with any of the warring factions and his presence in Ford was at the request and desire of the head of the diocese.

A fire broke out in the wholesale liquor store of Steadman and Lockhart at Natal, B.C. The entire building and most of the contents were destroyed. The Venasia Hotel was also burned and the gents' furnishing store of Mr. Gaultie.

PROMINENT CITIZEN CALLED HOME

The Demise of Mr. John Mann Removes a Foremost and Worthy Resident.

In the death of John Mann, Brantford loses one of her most honored and esteemed citizens. For more than half a century Mr. Mann has taken an active interest in the welfare of the city. He was born in Yorkshire, England, Sept. 29th, 1837 and was therefore nearly eighty years of age. He taught school for three years in the village of Henshaw, England, and came to Canada in the summer of 1866 (year of the Fenian raid) with his wife and three children, and for a few months lived in London. Early in 1867 he moved to Brantford, which he has seen grow from a small town to its present importance.

Shortly after coming to Brantford, Mr. Mann was appointed manager of the Brantford Gas Co., and a little later he leased the plant for a period of ten years, this terminating May 31, 1877, the day Brantford became a city. During the winter of 1867, and for some years afterwards, he took charge of a contract to supply the Grand Trunk Railway Company with all the wood required for fuel from Goderich to Buffalo, (this was before the days of coal-burning locomotives) and in the year 1868 he commenced the retail coal and wood business. During 1869 Mr. Mann took the contract to lay water mains and hydrants for Brantford's first waterworks system, and shortly afterward he took a similar contract for the town of Mitchell, and for several years he laid practically all the water and gas mains in Brantford.

Mr. Mann served as a trustee on the Board of Education for four years, one year as Alderman, and many years he was a member of the Board of Trade, and was recently made a life member. He was a director of the Royal Loan and Savings Company almost since its inception, also of the Brantford Trust Co. Limited.

Mr. Mann's deepest interests have always been in his home, and in his church work. On coming to Brantford, he joined the Wellington Street Methodist Church, and was very soon appointed as a Class Leader, and for nearly fifty years he has continued in this capacity, he was Sunday School Superintendent for over thirty-five years. He was one of the founders of Colborne Street Methodist Church, and when this church was built he had his connection with Wellington Street Church. The Church Boards have honored Mr. Mann by electing him to the Annual and General Conferences of the Church and for several years he was a member of the General Board of Missions and on the Executive Committee.

Mr. Mann was married April 14, 1860 to Harriet Elliott, who died in March, 1915, their golden wedding having been celebrated seven years ago. The five remaining sons and two daughters were at the bedside before their father passed away—the eldest son and three daughters predeceased him.

The surviving members of the family are George T., of London, John R., of Dayton, O., Fred of Brantford, Walter of Toronto, Dr. Albert E., of Taunton, Mass., Mrs. Edmund Harley, of Toronto and Mrs. E. Blake Terryberry of Woodstock, also twelve grandsons and six granddaughters and two great grandsons.

Four grandsons of military age have joined the colors. Mr. Mann was taken ill while visiting his daughter, Mrs. Edmund Harley, in Toronto, and passed away on Sunday Sept. 9, 1917. The funeral service will be held at the family residence, 65 Alfred St., Brantford, on Tuesday 11th, inst.

Information to this effect has been received in St. Thomas his home town. "Dad" Stewart overseas as a private with the 2nd Canadian Pioneer and has been in France for nearly two years.

VETERANS TO PLAY.

The hungry baseball fans will not have to wait until the Toronto Internationals make their visit to the city to witness another nine innings of the national pastime. The diamond journey to Agricultural Park next Saturday will see some of their old favorites in action. The heroes of other years, Freddie Minnes, Peanuckle Cancellia and an aggregation of players who were at the height of their glory a few years ago are of the opinion that they can still gracefully cavort around the diamond to better advantage than the Dominion Steel Products, the city champions for 1917. A side bet of $50 has been put up that will ensure a brisk and well contested contest.

LETTER FROM FRONT.

An interesting letter was this morning received by Lieut. Fred Howarth of the Central Fire Department from his nephew, Private Hebron Davis of the 125th battalion at Bramshott, Eng.

OFFICERS NAMED

The officers for the G. W. V. A. platoon in the Dufferin Rifles have been selected. Capt. A. H. Boddy will be in command of the unit, and Sergeant W. H. Blues will be platoon sergeant. He will appoint the other N. C. O's.

ON DUTY.

A. W. Geddes, the new assistant general secretary and boy's secretary of the Y. M. C. A. took over his duties this morning and is busily engaged in mapping out an attractive autumn programme.

IN HOSPITAL.

There are two cases of sickness among the returned men of the city. Private Tom McLeod is in the hospital suffering from an attack of nerves, and is not in a very satisfactory condition. The passage of the airplane over the city on Saturday evening reminded him of his experiences at the front, with the result that he suffered another relapse. Private Charles Dawson is also in hospital.

FOR ALL PURPOSES

Unknown possibly to a large number of citizens, Brantford has a valuable plot of land surrounding the venerable pile known as the city hall. The uses to which the square are adapted are not confined to the buying and selling of produce, but are equally well adapted to the racing of horses or the husking of corn. On Friday last, a horse dealer endeavoring to dispose of an animal was demonstrating its merits to a prospective purchaser. He was trotting the equine up and down the square at a 2 or 1-4 pace that would do credit to any of the kings of the track in the last stretch. Saturday several farmers were seen husking their corn and scattering the refuse unconcernedly in a heap behind their stalls until requested by the market clerk to stop littering up the market.

MISSED THE MILLION

Falling short of the million mark, but with a better exhibition than of the Canadian National closed on Saturday night with a total attendance of 917,000 or seven thousand more than the attendance of 1916. The million mark was seen to be impossible on Friday night, 109,000 people of all ages went to the grounds, on Saturday, with a spirit that closed the Exhibition with success. Poor weather, Mr. J. G. Kent says kept the attendance down, but he and his directors refer in glowing terms to the loyal support from the people of Toronto and outside points.

A GOOD RECORD

Handyman T. W. Clark, of the 125th, writing home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Ontario street, says: "We had our brigade competitions on Friday, and I'm glad to say the good old 125th came home with the silver cup, winning 9 firsts, 3 seconds and 4 thirds, out of 20 events and in the evening we won 7 of the boxing events out of 8. So you see we're still alive and kicking, although most of them had seen Vimy, Fresnoy, Lillebache woods and other engagements."

The furnaces and boiler at the Court House being repaired in preparation for the winter. The masonry around the boilers is being replaced and will be completed in a week or ten days. The Underwriters' Association inspector paid a visit to the city recently, and commented favorably upon the heating apparatus of the county buildings.

CHRISTMAS COMING.
A Christmas entertainment for the wives and children of the men who are serving the colors overseas is being arranged for by the G. W. V. A. A strong committee was appointed at the meeting of the Association on Saturday night to supervise the undertaking. Messrs. A. H. Boddy and J. R. Cornelius were appointed a committee with power to add to their numbers with the purpose of drafting house rules for the clubhouse. The committee in charge of furnishing the headquarters was authorized to secure a large sign for the front of the building to read: "Returned Soldiers' Home G. W. V. A."

WELLINGTON CHURCH
Regular services were resumed at Wellington Street Methodist Church yesterday, and good-sized audiences were in attendance. Dr. Henderson, the popular preacher, presided at the evening service began a series of sermons on "The Acts of the Apostles," which should prove both profitable and interesting to the congregation. The musical part of the services was well up to the usual high standard. Mrs. Leeming contributing appropriate solos morning and evening, and Mrs. J. McWebb assisting ably in the evening anthem. A short organ recital was given by Mr. Thomas Darwin, on the fine organ of the church, after evening service, to which a large number remained and evidently enjoyed.

SEVEN YEARS TORTURE

Nothing Helped Him Until He Took "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

ALBERT VARNER Buckingham, Que., May 3rd, 1915.

For seven years, I suffered terribly from severe headaches and indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. Tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-lives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-lives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take "Fruit-a-lives", and you will get well.

COAL and FENNIMORE COOPER

"The Split," on Lake Champlain, is Canada's old frontier. The great industrial wealth and the wonderful historic interest of the country served by the Delaware & Hudson Company give special interest to the linking up of this company with the Canadian Pacific Railway. It is the country of anthracite coal, and it is the country of Fennimore Cooper, whose tales of the French and Indian wars are known to every schoolboy. In spite of Mark Twain's joke, that the Indians of Fennimore Cooper were an ancient tribe that never existed, the country round Glen Falls, Lake George, Otsego Lake, and Fort William Henry is dotted with localities identified with the Last of the Mohicans and Leather Stocking. The hunting and fishing grounds of the Five Nations and the Algonquians are now famous hunting and fishing grounds for tourists, who find in this rugged lake and mountain scenery of the Adirondacks the scene of many a happy holiday. Coal is the industry of the region. The demand for coal in Canada today makes the value of the connection between this railway and the P. R. all the more apparent. It was to carry coal that the canal from Rondout on the Hudson to Honesdale, Pennsylvania, and the connecting gravity railroad from Carbonate to Honesdale were constructed. The Champlain, Ticonderoga, Lake George, Saratoga Springs, Troy, Albany that ever turned a wheel on any railway in North America was inaugurated by the Delaware & Hudson Company for use on its railroad road. To Montrealers this important railway is particularly well known as an exceptionally picturesque and comfortable route to the city. The New York Central, so that Montrealers arrive at the Grand Central Depot in the heart of the great city.

FRENCH ADVANCE EAST OF MEUSE AND REPULSE HEAVY ATTACKS

General Petain's Troops Take Strong Positions Around Hill 344 and Beat Back Desperate Efforts of Crown Prince to Retake Ground

Paris, Sept. 10.—Strong German forces attacked the French positions on the right bank of the Meuse over an extent of nearly two miles, and succeeded in gaining a foothold temporarily on one section of the line, according to the statement issued by the War Office last night. French counter-attacks eventually regained all the positions. The Germans also made an attempt against the new French positions north of the Chateau Wood, but without success.

German Losses Heavy The text of the night statement reads:

"This morning, after intense artillery preparation, a German attack in force was made against our positions on the right bank of the Meuse, a long front of about three kilometers, on both sides of Hill 344. Under our violent fire the enemy attack was broken, and was not able to reach our lines on the greater part of the front. Enemy detachments which had succeeded in gaining a foothold east and west of Hill 344, were driven back by the vigorous counter-attack of our troops, who completely re-established their lines, taking about fifty prisoners.

"In the course of the afternoon the Germans renewed their attempt against our new positions north of Bois Le Chateau four times. Our fire drove them back to the trenches they had left. Prisoners remained in our hands.

"German columns north of Wavrin Wood, taken under the fire of our artillery, suffered heavy losses. The afternoon report reads:

"During the night our detachments effected several surprise attacks on the German lines, notably near La Royere Farm, east of Rheims, and in the region of Maisons de Champagne. We captured some material and a certain number of prisoners.

"On the right bank of the Meuse (northeast of Verdun) the Germans launched violent counter-attacks upon the positions we conquered yesterday in the sector of the Bois des Fosses and the Bois des Charrieres. The enemy attacks were broken by our fire which inflicted heavy losses upon the assailants. At some points on the front of the attack fierce fighting took place. Our troops repulsed energetically, and after exhausting advances and retirements, maintained their positions.

GAINS AT ST. JULIEN Strong Attacks by Crown Prince Smashed by Petain's Armies

London, Sept. 10.—Again the French and Germans are engaged in extremely heavy fighting in the Verdun sector with the Germans trying to recoup their losses at the end of last week on the right bank of the Meuse, but with General Petain's forces holding them back almost everywhere and covering the ground with their dead.

Over a front of nearly two miles the Germans Sunday morning, following unsuccessful attacks Saturday night in the sector of the Bois des Charrieres, returned to the fray with renewed vigor, especially around Hill 344. At some points French trenches were captured by the Germans, but from these later they were driven out and the French lines were entirely re-established. In the fighting around the Bois des Fosses Saturday night the Germans left nearly 1,000 dead on the ground before the French positions.

At various points on the front held by Field Marshal Haig a British troops have delivered successful attacks, especially north-west of St. Quentin, where German positions on a front of several hundred yards were captured and prisoners taken. North-east of St. Julien the British lines were pushed slightly advanced. In Flanders the British have been in the midst of the mighty bombardment that has been in progress for more than a fortnight, but as yet the infantry has not been loosed for the impending dash into the enemy territory.

batants in the war, and also what it considers to be consistent with the dignity of the Swedish nation."

The Times declares that the Swedish attitude is a most remarkable example of the elementary obligation of neutrality, and adds:

"The offense is more grave because Sweden had been warned both in London and Stockholm that it had been detected."

Continuing, The Times says: "Sweden cannot expect the Entente Allies and the neutral nations in which the Swiss legations were used as German information stations, to acquiesce in the continued abuse of her rights and privileges as a neutral."

The Times says that President Wilson has told how Germany has dared to apply a policy of intrigue towards the United States during her retreat, and mentions how a member of the Swiss national council and a Swiss minister was mobilized to make a German peace offer to Russia, and how later high explosives specially prepared to destroy ships were discovered in the baggage of Baron von Rantzenfels in Christiania.

"The foundation of the whole system," says the Times, "is found in the German emperor's personal messages to the Czar in 1904 and 1905, particularly in the message which describes his plan to seize and occupy Denmark in the event of war."

In conclusion, the Times declares that neither the allies nor the Swedish people can remain indifferent to the latest example.

"The conduct of the Swedish ministers in this case is unpardonable."

ITALY'S VICTORIOUS

Continued from page one during good and bad weather. The continuous contest seems to the observer to be animated by superhuman force, the Italian and British Austrians almost constantly engaging in hand-to-hand encounters. A strange situation is brought about by the two forces, practically equal in numbers, strength and determination, struggling for supremacy in a circumstances where it is impossible for either side to employ more men or artillery. Gaps in the ranks are instantly filled and thus the contending forces remain so balanced that victory apparently is impossible for either side. The fierceness of the struggle is proved by the fact that in 12 hours the Italians attacked the enemy five times.

SWEDEN ARRAIGNED BY U. S. AS HAVING VIOLATED NEUTRALITY

Acted as Enemy's News Channel According to Despatches Made Public by American Government

Washington, Sept. 10.—An international sensation was furnished by Secretary Lansing on Saturday when he gave to the press copies of despatches containing unneutral information for the German Government, sent in the Swedish code through the Swedish Legation in Buenos Aires by the German Charge d'Affaires at that Capital. These despatches, with a brief introductory note by Secretary Lansing, amount not only to a direct charge of unneutral conduct against the Swedish diplomatic representative to Argentina, but a virtual accusation of double dealing against the Swedish Government itself.

The Secretary of State's disclosure makes the Swedish Government, already suspected of pro-German tendencies, stand accused before the world of having acted as a go-between for the despatch of military and other unneutral information valuable to Germany, otherwise cut off from obtaining advice concerning the operations of enemies. Whether the United States Government and the Governments of the other allies will break relations with Sweden remains for the future to develop.

Ask Sweden to Explain
An opportunity to explain will be given the Swedish Government before further steps are taken by the United States. It is inevitable that the German Charge d'Affaires at Buenos Aires will be dismissed by the Argentine Government, and not unlikely that relations between Germany and Argentina, already strained, will be severed. It is also inevitable that the Swedish diplomatic representative at Buenos Aires will be recalled unless the Argentine Government hands him his passports without waiting to hear the disposition of the Stockholm Government. No other course would satisfy the United States and the nations engaged in war against Germany.

Part of the information sent by Buenos Aires through the Swedish Legation under cover of the Swedish diplomatic cipher code, guaranteed by the good faith of Sweden against use for unneutral purposes, was notice to the German Government that Argentinian steamers were nearing the port of Bordeaux, France. With a true respect for the policy of "rightfulness," the German diplomat recommended to his chiefs in Berlin that these vessels "be spared if possible, or sunk without a trace being left."

GAME FORFEITED TO THE WHITE SOX

Score Was Tie in Tenth When Umpire Owens Helped Chicago

THREW BALL AWAY
Decision Came After White Sox Batter Struck Out in the Tenth.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—With the score tied at 3 to 3, Umpire Owens forfeited yesterday's game to Chicago 9 to 0, in the tenth inning because of the dilatory tactics of the Cleveland players. As a result Chicago is now seven games ahead of Boston in the pennant race.

The Cleveland players protested Owens' ruling in the tenth when two men on bases and no one out, he called Crane out in a close play at third base. The game was delayed for ten minutes because of arguments. When the Cleveland players finally resumed play they hurled their gloves in the air and two or three of them rolled into the dirt to express their displeasure.

After Pitcher Danforth, the first man up in Chicago's half of the tenth, struck out, Catcher O'Neill of Cleveland deliberately threw the ball into centerfield, whereupon Owens forfeited the game. Score:—

At St. Louis, Mitchell held St. Louis to five hits in the first game yesterday, while his team-mate drove both Sothern and Koob from the box in the third inning, making five runs, and Detroit shut out the locals 7 to 0. St. Louis turned the tables on Detroit in the second game when they drove Ehmske from the mound in the third inning, scored five runs on Burf's error, a single, doubles by Pratt and Severoid and Johnson's home run, and won 6 to 2.

As St. Louis went to bat in the ninth of the first game the players were called to the plate and presented with the $500 cheque offered by the American League to the club winning the army drill competition.

LEAFS BROKE EVEN WITH THE BISONS

Lost First Game After They Looked to Have It Tucked Away

BY THE SCORE OF 5-3
Thompson Shut Out Herd in Second Contest By Score 5 to 0

In their farewell engagement of the season the Bisons and Leafs broke even in a double-header Saturday at the Stadium. There was a sting, though, to the victory of the visitors, which came in the initial clash, as the locals were leading 3 to 0 at the end of the fourth. This looked good enough to land the bacon, but in the next inning, with two on and as many out, Schultz, by a very bad piece of fielding, allowed Jackson's fly to fall safe, and over-scrampered two runs. After this the Bisons had much the best of the contest, scoring three runs in the seventh inning on a single, a double, a triple and a single. This made the score 5 to 3, and so it remained, as both Tyson and Gould were air-tight for the balance of the contest. On a couple of occasions the locals started what looked like rallies, but two of them were cut off by double plays. Incidentally, it was a mild game to what used to happen in the olden days in the fight for the pennant. In those days the Toronto club, if they were behind, would have schemed to quickly have all the old balls out of the game and some new ones thrown out in order to give them a better show. Saturday they were content to keep slamming at dead ones.

Thompson had much the best of the second game, only allowing five scattered hits, and two of these were scratchy. Ring was Canada's fruit crop must be utilized to the fullest extent this year to relieve the pressure upon other sources of food supply. Government authorities, the transportation companies and the growers are co-operating with this end in view. University and high school girls are taking the piece of men who have gone to the front in the work of gathering in the crop, giving up their vacations to toil from morn till eve in the orchards. In order to bring the fruit to the consumer in the best of condition the Canadian Express Company is operating over the Grand Trunk lines each day a special train from the Niagara Peninsula carrying fruit only. This train which begins its run in the early afternoon at St. Catharines, Ont., is made up of the most modern type of express cars specially adapted for carrying fruit, having the maximum of ventilation. There is an average of twelve of these cars on the fruit special each day. The fruit is picked in the early part of the day and is carried from the orchards to special sheds erected at each of the fruit shipping points. These sheds being kept scrupulously clean and free from dust. His special train service makes it possible to place the fruit on the consumers table within twenty-four hours of its being picked.

TO WAR'S CREDIT.
The war has done some good, at least, for it has nudged the fondest beast that ever fed on man; Boozie is the hungry monster's name, and the government's have kicked its frame again and yet again. The divers governments arose and said, "If we swat the foes, and knock them galle east; our soldiers must be sober guys, without bad tastes or blood-shot eyes, and so we'll curb the Beast. No man is fit to bleed and die who tanked himself with old red eye, no soldier should be stowed; and so if we would hope to win we'll have to put the lid on gin, and all of Boozie's brood." We read about the millions slain, of dead men lying in the rain, and of war's horrors yawp; but all the dead o'er whom we weep make but a trifling little heap compared with Boozie's crop. The governments are kicking Boozie with large steel spikes upon their shoes, they slug him with a brick;

SIDELIGHTS ON THE STAGE AND SCREEN

See These Reasons
Some reasons for the remarkable success of "Womanhood, The Glory of a Nation," are listed below:
New York is shown bombed from the sky.
Theodore Roosevelt makes a rousing patriotic speech.
Submarines are shown discharging torpedoes under water.
The capital at Washington is the background for a scene containing thousands of people.
Two high blooded European gallants fight a duel with rapiers.
Navy yards and munitions factories are seen in full blast.
Zeppelins are witnessed manoeuvring in action.
A new invention, the "aerial torpedo," is demonstrated.
A clever secret wireless telephone is employed to send dispatches from a daring girl in the enemy headquarters to the American lines.
The legendary Columbia is brought to life with an invincible sword and shield.
A pacifist meeting turns into a riot that is anything but pacific.
A human military machine plays his own son to enforce discipline and to gain time for a battle.
A Civil War battlefield strewn with hero dead is transformed into terraced people with restored armies.
A heroine of the nation is kidnapped in an aeroplane by foreign agents.

A whole navy is destroyed in a sea of burning oil.
The stoke room of a battleship is seen engulfed as the vessel founders.
Gas attacks are conducted on the battlefield and reproduced with fidelity to actual conditions.
President Wilson is presented delivering an oration to a victorious nation.
"Redemption," the powerful photo drama in which Evelyn Nesbit and her son Russel Thaw, appear, will be seen at the Grand Opera House to-night and two following nights. The New York Star of recent date, says: Evelyn Nesbit and her five-year-old son, Russel Thaw, in the magnificent picture production, "Redemption," is proving the hit of the season at the Geo. M. Cohan Theatre, 43rd St. and Broadway, New York. Hundreds have been turned away, and the prospects are the film will remain there all season, instead of two weeks, as originally intended. The picture, which is acclaimed by critics and film experts as one of the finest of the season, shows the marvellous and unexpected ability of Miss Nesbit as a picture player. Without previous experience, she wins all the honors in the production. What she has suffered, and the fact that she is asked to live again actual scenes in her life, aid her in her work, and enable her to show a depth of feeling and a strength of emotion, which no artificial means could arouse.

A LAST CHANCE FOR HARVESTERS

Owing to the unprecedented need of Farm Laborers in Western Canada and the lateness of the Harvest, arrangements have been made by the Canadian Northern Railway for an additional Excursion on Sept. 10th and Sept. 12th from all points west of and including Ottawa, Ont. at the rate of $12 to Winnipeg, plus half a cent a mile beyond. This will be positively the last opportunity of taking advantage of a reduced fare to the West where high wages and every prospect of three months work prevail. #### Good Night Stories

FAIRY SIGHT
Polly's mamma thought washing dishes nicely was the first step toward learning to be a neat housekeeper and she tried to teach Polly to take pride in her work.
But Polly didn't like this part of the housework and would hurry through the dishes, often falling to wipe them dry. Mamma often found them weeping when she set the table and when she complained to Polly, Polly laughed.
"How can dishes weep, I'd like to know!" said Polly.
"But they do, dear! Just look at that plate!"
Now it happened that Good Fairy heard Polly's mamma and just as Polly looked towards the plate Good Fairy touched her shoulder with a magic wand which gave Polly the power of fairy sight, and as Polly reached for the plate it stilled back and two great big tears rolled down its cheeks; Polly opened her eyes in wonder.
"Oh dear, oh dear!" wailed the blue plate, "I'm dripping wet and all my beauty. Blue flowers are sure to fade before long. Boo hoo!"
"That's nothing," sobbed a silver knife. "Your face is only wet, while I haven't been scoured for a week—end ugly brown streaks are running down my blade. Folks don't seem to care whether we look nice or not."
The kitchen door flew open and all the pans gathered around the blue plate. They didn't seem to notice Polly and they were all crying.
"I used to pride myself on my beautiful shiny face. But look at me now; all rusty!" wailed the draining pans.
"Me too. But now I'm so black you'll never believe it," cried the skillet.
"I'll tell you," whispered the dish pan, who was all rusty from not being dried properly, "we'll borrow some sashes from the kitchen stove and take turns scouring each other off. I think when Polly sees us looking nice and clean once more she will take better care of us then."
This seemed to strike the pots and pans as a very good idea, so they all filed out to the kitchen and before many seconds they were dancing around the room, all looking like new again.
"I'm sure if Polly knew how good it seems to be clean she would never neglect us again," laughed the dishpan, and the pots and pans hopped back to their places on the wall.
Then Good Fairy touched Polly's head and Polly blinked her eyes—her fairy sight was gone and Polly saw the kitchen things just as they were, all rusty.
Polly filled the dishpan with hot suds and taking some ashes from the hearth she scoured the pots and pans until they shone. Mamma's silver polish came down from the shelf and the knives and forks as well as the spoons were polished until they sparkled. The dishes were rinsed in hot water and wiped carefully.
When Polly's mother came into the kitchen she looked around.
"You certainly are going to make a beautiful housekeeper, dear," said mamma and she kissed Polly's happy face.
From that day on Polly had the prettiest kitchen in the neighborhood, for she grew to love her work. She imagined every time she washed the dishes that she could hear and

THREE KILLED AT CROSSING

Westbound Buffalo Express Crushed into Motor on the Dixie Road
TWO ARE INJURED
Automobile Was Smashed Beyond Recognition and Hurl'd Fifty Yards

Toronto, Sept. 10.—Three persons were killed shortly after 8 p.m. yesterday when the west bound Buffalo express crashed into an automobile at the crossing at the Lakeshore Golf Club station, where the third line road, Toronto Township, traverses the railway.
The Dead
Mrs. Agnes Boyd, wife of Isaac C. Boyd, blacksmith, of 124 Cooper Avenue.
John Woods, mining engineer, of Cobalt, Ont.
Mrs. Woods, wife of John Woods and daughter of Mrs. Boyd.
Two occupants of the car, Roy Boyd, the driver, and a son of one of the victims, and Joseph Milroy, a brother of Mrs. Boyd, miraculously escaped without injury.

Boyd was unable to give any explanation of the collision. He stated that after the east-bound train had passed, he no longer heard the warning crossing bell and presumed that he would be safe in passing. He did not see the oncoming train and a sudden recollection of a suddenly precipitated engine and of finding himself stretched on the ground, absolutely uninjured.
Milroy saw the approaching train and attempted to get Mrs. Boyd out of the car before the train struck them, but the woman had only risen to her feet when the crash came. Both Boyd and Milroy are of the opinion that an explosion in the rascant tank of the car threw them clear of the train, but there is nothing to substantiate this.
The first person to arrive on the scene after the accident was a soldier who, finding Mrs. Boyd alive, rendered first aid. He bound a wound in her head, which was bleeding profusely, but by the time a train reached the scene for the purpose of removing her to a hospital, she had succumbed to her injuries.
Mr. and Mrs. Woods had been visiting the Boyds for some days past and were to have returned to their home in Cobalt shortly.

Pay Your Debt To Your Defenders

Turn Your Luxuries Into Comforts For Those Who Have Sacrificed Most.

"Self-sacrifice, self-denial and service lie at the basis of the highest personal and national development."
—St. Thomas White, Minister of Finance.

Is it nothing to you that men from all round you have sacrificed home and salary, safety and life, to defend your home as well as their own?
Is it nothing to you that their wives and families tremblingly scan each casualty list, and pale at the step of the postman or telegraph messenger?
Can you see others giving their dearest, without feeling that you must do something yourself? Do you wonder what to do?
You can at least save—and lend your savings to the nation. Canada needs every dollar her loyal sons and daughters can spare, to meet the growing expenses of the struggle.
Every dollar you invest in Canadian War Savings Certificates helps the nation to deal generously with those who are defending you.
Certificates in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, repayable in three years, may be purchased at any Bank or Money Order Post Office at $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively. This means over 5% interest—making them a profitable as well as a patriotic investment.

WOULD WALK THE FLOOR FOR HOURS

Nerves Were So Shattered Harold Roy Couldn't Sleep at Night
"Tanlac has given me a new lease of life said Harold Roy, a well known mechanic, residing at Vineland, Ont. In a conversation with the Tanlac representative at Parke and Parke Drug Store, Hamilton, the other day. "My system had gotten into such a badly rundown condition, he continued, and my appetite was so poor I couldn't eat much of anything. Heartily foods of all kinds disagreed with me so that I could live on nothing but a little milk and toast and cereals. My liver was sluggish and I was very bilious all the time. My nerves were so frayed I couldn't sleep well, and many a time I got up in the middle of the night and walked the floor for two or three hours, trying to quiet my nerves so I could get a rest. Every bit of energy and ambition seemed to be knocked clean out of me and I was so tired and worn out in the mornings it was all I could do to get out of bed and put on my clothes.
"One day a friend of my wife's told her that she had derived much benefit from using Tanlac, so she got me a bottle to try and, really by the time I had used up half my first bottle I was feeling better in every way than I had for a long time. I am now on my second bottle of Tanlac and if it continues to benefit me like it is at present, it won't be long before I will be as well and strong as ever. My liver is now acting all right, and I don't feel bilious at all, my digestion is so much improved I can now eat ham and eggs and prepared for breakfast, and anything else I want without their giving me trouble. I am getting on so well now I don't hesitate to speak a good word for Tanlac whenever I can.

Wear This Uniform: It Is Becoming Inexpensive and a Sign of Patriotism

Official Uniform of the Food Conservation Section of the Food Administration. Pattern may be obtained by mailing 10 cents to Food Administration, Washington, D. C. Food Administration, Photo Service.

Three views of the official uniform, restricted to the use of the women signing the conservation pledge as an overall apron. It is both practical and pretty, and can be worn either as a dress or as an overall apron. It is made of washable material—fast colors. The material is inexpensive, and cuffs prettily pointed.
It can be easily ironed as the dress opens out like a coat, and cap unbuttoned, leaving two flat pieces of cloth. It has a double front, so that when one front panel becomes soiled, the other can be placed outside.
The sleeves of the dress reach just below elbow and button into removable cuffs which can be replaced when soiled. There are large pockets on each side of the skirt to accommodate work gloves, one large button.
The dress is fastened by two straps from the front panels, which meet in the back and button, with Colors—red, white and blue, dress blue, collar, cap and cuffs white, insignia red.
Insignia is an embroidered shield bearing stars and stripes surrounded by yellow heads of wheat. This insignia on sleeve and cap is a constant reminder of the patriotic duty of food conservation. The heads of wheat represent all food, while emphasizing the particular necessity for saving wheat.
Patterns for uniforms for immediate use may be obtained in standard sizes from the Food Administration in Washington. Price ten cents. Can be purchased from the pattern department of any mamma's magazine.

smile. "Please! I wish you wouldn't make me tell you."
"I wish you wouldn't put me in such an uncomfortable position. I don't like to refuse you anything you've set your heart on, but my notion of playing the game is to lose like a loser and—win like a winner."
"That's just it. I can't win like a winner because—because I didn't win fairly."
"You never cheated."
"It was less a question than an assertion."
"How do you know?"
"I'd have known quick enough if you'd tried. Anyway, you're not that kind."
"How do you know I'm not?"
"There was a pause. Then Trego smiled oddly. "Better not ask me.
You don't know me very well yet."
She colored faintly. "Then I must tell you you are wrong. I did cheat.
I did, I tell you! I played for money without a cent to pay my losses if I lost. You don't call that fair play, do you?"
"Depends. Of course, it's hard to believe."
"I'm penniless. You don't understand my position here, I'm—nobody. Mrs. Standish took pity on me because I was out of work and brought me here to act as secretary to Mrs. Gosnold." Trego nodded heavily. "I guessed it. I mean I felt pretty sure you were—well, of another world. He jerked a disrespectful head toward the smiling facade of Gosnold House.

MISS' DRESS.
By Anabel Worthington.

An unusually smart jumper dress is shown in design No. 8400. It is very girlish and yet it has the touches which make it chic. The front of the waist is in one piece and is cut in points at the sides. The points lap over and button onto corresponding points at the back. The neck is cut in a very deep V shape at the front; and the guimpe which is worn underneath shows through. A large collar has the new deep points over the shoulders. The dress is to be slipped on over the head.
The skirt is a straight one-piece model, gathered to the slightly raised waist line and forming graceful draperies at the sides. The guimpe closes at the centre front, and it may be made with either long or short sleeves.
The dress pattern, No. 8400, is cut in 3 sizes—16, 18 and 20 years. Width at lower edge is 24 yards. The 18 year size requires 4 1/2 yards 36 inch material for the dress and 2 1/2 yards 27 inch for the guimpe.

SIDE TALKS
By RUTH CAMERON

"Kamerad! Mercy!" Photo made from French Trench Surprised by an attack before dawn by dismounted French Cuirassiers at Laifaux, these Germans rushed out with their hands over their shoulders shouting "Kamerad! Mercy!" This striking photograph was taken at four o'clock in the morning and the figure of the Boches are strongly silhouetted against the weak light of the early dawn. The attack was made by the 9th Cuirassiers on foot.

CHAPTER VIII
A Thief in the Night
She sat beside the wide window of her bedchamber, on that third night at Gosnold House, in a state of lawless exaltation not less physical than spiritual and mental, a temper that proscribed sleep hopelessly.
The window was open, the night air still and warm, her sole protection a filmy negligee over a night-dress of sheerest silk and lace. And in that hour Sarah Manners was as nearly a beautiful woman as ever she was—her face fairly flushed in the stark moonlight faintly shadowed from within by the rich darkness of her blood, her dreaming eyes twin pools of limpid shadow, her dark lips shadowed by a little elusive smile.
She was relishing the sensation of life intensely, almost painfully; she was intensely alive for the first time in all her life. It seemed, in throat and wrists and temples pulses sang, now soft, now loud; and all her body glowed, from crown of head to tips of toes nestling in silken mules, with the warmth and the language of life.
She was deeply and desperately in love.
The genius of her curious destiny, not content with making her free of all the good material things of life, had granted her as well this last and dearest boon. And though her years were twenty-seven, she had not loved before. She had dreamed of love, had been in love with love and with being loved, had believed she loved, but nothing in her experience compared with such rapture as to-night obsessed her being, wholly and without respite.
Life, indeed, grants no compensation for this insatiable necessity of love than this, that no other love was ever real but to-day's alone.
And so the beauty of that moonlight midnight seemed supernatural.
The island lay, steeped in floods of ethereal silver, its sky an iridescent dome, its sea a shimmering shield of opalescence, its lawns and terraces argentine shadowed with deepest violet. There was never a definite sound, only the sibilance of a stillness made of many interwoven sounds, soft lip of wavelets on the sands a hundred feet below, hum of nocturnal insect life, in thickets and plantations, sobbing of a tiny, vagrant breeze lost and homeless in that vast serenity, walling off a far, violin rumor of a distant motor-car. A night of potent withery, a woman willingly bewitched.
In fancy she still could feel the pulsing of his heart against her bosom, the caressing touch of his hands, the warm flutter of his breath in her hair and upon her cheek, as in that last dance; and with an inexpressible hunger and scent of flesh and soul she yearned to feel them all again; to be once more within the magic circle of his arms, to live once more in the light of his contentance.
It mattered nothing that she loved hopelessly a graceless rascal, and knew it well. She had not heeded the indirect warnings of Adele Standish and Mercedes. Pride that the man was nothing better than an engaging scoundrel who was she to demand worthier object for her love?
She was precisely nobody, and might waste her passion as she would, and none but herself the worse for it.
Nor did it matter that her love

LABOR PARTY CANDIDATES

Independents To Seek Nominee For Country Federal Election

Three men have been requested by the local Independent Labor Party to allow their names to be submitted to a general meeting of the party to be held in the Labor Temple to-morrow evening when a candidate will be selected for the coming federal election.
The Rev. W. E. Gilroy pastor of the First Congregational Church of Hamilton, who was pastor of the Congregational Church here for four years is one of those who have been approached, and prominent members of party are of the opinion that he will accept although as yet he has not given a definite answer. Mr. Gilroy has never been formally associated with the I. L. P. but he is in general agreement with the principles of their platform.
George Keen, 126 Rawdon street, of this city, who has long been actively connected with the labor and co-operative movements has also been requested to stand for election. Mr.
Keen is honorary secretary and editor of the "Canadian Co-operator" and is also an official of the Brant County Farmers' Co-operative Society. He is an honorary delegate to the Local Trades and Labor Council.
Although pressed to allow his name to go before the meeting, he has declined.

Of course, you can buy cheaper teas, but

"SALADA"

is undoubtedly the most economical and what appears to be 'cheap' in price will prove to be extravagant in use. The fresh young leaves of "Salada" will yield you generous value for your money.

MRS. CLEVELAND'S BROWN BREAD

One bowl Indian meal; 1 bowl of rye flour; 1 bowl of sour milk; 1 large cup of molasses; 1 teaspoon soda; 1 teaspoon salt.
The whole to be mixed and steamed 2 1-2 hours and baked from 20 minutes to 1-2 hour, according to heat of oven.
was desperate of return. She knew that he recognized and was a little amused and a little flattered by her unspoken admiration, but more deeply than that affected not at all.
But that was his imperial prerogative; she did not mind, temporarily she believed herself quite content, and that she would continue so as long as permitted to hug to her aging heart the unutterable sweetness of being in love with him. Again, she was nobody, and didn't count, while he was precisely all that she had longed for ever since she was an age to dream of love. He was not only of an admiring period, he wore the habit of distinction like a garment made for him alone. In short the man was irresistible, and but woman didn't even want to resist, but only desisted of opportunity ever to capitulate.
