A Song of Hope.

When the frost blinds the streamlet's flow,
And the whistling wind is low,
When white is the plain,
And the surges of the main,
There is green grass under the snow.
O winter of sadness and woe!
Though art come, but thou yet shalt go,
There art buds for the flowers,
And blossoms for the bowers,
And green grass under the snow.
Do the storm winds wildly blow?
The hours are they dreary and slow?
O sad heart, wait,
Thou shalt see it soon or late,
When green grass under the snow,
And the alms have a bright and glow,
There is joy for the sorrow,
There is blessing for the sorrow,
There is green grass under the snow.

A Moratorium

The Nova Scotia Legislature which is now in session should give some thought and attention to the financial condition of the people of the province. The fact that the province had a deficit last year itself, totalling the very respectable amount of $200,000, should make the legislature sympathetic with individuals who in some action is not taken by the Murray government are in danger of losing the savings of a life time. We could cite a number of examples that have gone under our notice but one will suffice to illustrate our point. Eight years ago one of our industrial mechanics borrowed several thousand dollars from a loan company and gave as security a mortgage on a parcel of real estate.

$1,000 REWARD!

To any person who cannot be cured of Constipation by Dr. Hamilton's Pills, the above reward will be paid. ### The Admiral's Ghost.

I tell you a tale tonight
Which a seaman told to me
With eyes that gleamed in the lantern light.
And a voice that was as the sea,
Which could make the stars
Sink up in the sky,
And the old wind poke and moan in the spar,
And the same old waves went by,
Singing the same old song.
As ages and ages ago,
While he from his blood in that deep sea night
With the things he seemed to know.
A bare foot pattered on deck;
Ropes creaked;—then all grew still,
And he pointed his finger straight in my face,
And growled, as a sea dog will:
"Dee'st know who Nelson was?
That pore little shrivelling form,
With the patch on his eye and the pinned up sleeve,
And a soul like a North Sea storm?
'Ask of the Devonshire men!
They know and they'll tell you true;
He wasn't the pore little chawed-up chap
That Hardy thought he knew."
"He wasn't the man you think!
His patch was a darn disgraceful!
For he knew that they'd find him out,
If you see,
If they looked him in both his eyes.
He was twice as big as he seemed;
But his clothes were cunningly made,
He'd both of his hairy hands all right!
The sleeve was a trick of the trade.
You've heard of sparrows, no doubt;
Well, there's more in the matter than that!
But he wasn't the patch and he wasn't
And he wasn't the Laced cooked hat."
"Nelson was just a Ghost!
You may laugh! but the Devonshire men,
They know that he'd come when England called,
And they know he'll come again.
I'll tell you the way it was
(For none of the landmen know),
And tell if you right, you must go astern
Two hundred years or so.

Uric Acid Suffering.

Uric acid is an accumulation of poison which finds lodgment in the system when the kidneys fail to remove it from the blood. In the kidneys and bladder it forms uric acid, which irritates the mucous membrane and causes uric acid colic. In any case the uric acid and suffering is almost beyond human endurance. Uric acid is promptly removed from the system when the kidneys are kept healthy and active by using Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills.

March.

Through the trees the asp is flowing;
Everywhere the wind is blowing!
Roaring like a blustering rover,
Or whispering softly,
"Winter's over."

She Gained 36 Pounds.

Mrs. George Bradshaw, Halifax, N. S., writes: "I was troubled for many years with weak, watery blood and dropsy. I had nervous headaches, dizziness and sinking spells, and was, in fact, a semi-invalid. Doctors told me my heart and kidneys were diseased and gave me up. By using 10 boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills I have been cured of many of my old complaints and gained 36 pounds in weight."

All Made Clear.

A woman missionary in China was taking tea with a mandarin's eight wives. The Chinese ladies examined her clothing, her hair, her teeth, and so on, but her best especially amazed them.
"Why," cried one, "you can walk and run as well as a man."
"Yes, to be sure," said the missionary.
"Can you ride a horse and swim, too?"
"Yes."
"Then you must be as strong as a man!"
"I am."
"And you wouldn't let a man beat you—not even if he was your husband—would you?"
Indeed, I wouldn't, said the missionary.
The mandarin's eight wives looked at one another, nodding their heads. Then the oldest said softly:
"Now I understand why the foreign devil never has more than one wife. He is afraid."
"How many kinds of flowers are there?" asked the teacher in botany lesson.
"Three pupils held up their hands."
"Well, lairdie, how many kinds of flowers are there?"
"Three, teacher; wild, tame and collicie."

Tourist Tide Is Turning to Nova Scotia.

Nova Scotia has never had a better opportunity to attract the tourist than she will have this coming summer. Travel will not be safe in any of the European countries or, at least, it will not be pleasant for some time to come, and notwithstanding the Panama Pacific Exposition, a small effort on the part of the people in Nova Scotia will secure all the tourists the province can well take care of. Here in Florida tourists are a great help to all the people of the state in various ways. Some invest in land others in business others who are not financially able to invest in enterprises, usually go home spending good words for the state and its people; they encourage others to make the trip, some of whom always make investments of some kind. From the average tourist spends lots of money, buying any and everything that catches his eye, for a luxury, and really they are the life of most of the hotels. It matters not what the tourist spends his money for. It means that there is that much money in circulation within the state from outside sources and it benefits all the people more or less.

Replenish Your Blood in the Spring.

Just now you are feeling 'out of sorts'—not your self. Quite exhausted at times and cannot devote real energy to your work. Sleep does not rest you and you wake up feeling 'all tired out.' Perhaps rheumatism is flitting through your muscles and joints, or may be your skin is disfigured by rashes, boils or pimples. Headaches, twinges of neuralgia, fits of nervousness, irritability of temper and are disfigured by rashes, boils, pimples, headaches, twinges of neuralgia, fits of nervousness, irritability of temper and a disordered stomach often increase your discomfort in the spring.

Editorial Brevities.

The rumor that the wet canteen would be restored in Canada has been killed by Maj. Gen. Sam Hughes, who says he favors more strongly than ever the dry canteen, as he has yet to see the position that either a civilian or a soldier addicted to liquor can fill.

No men find tax-paying a pleasant or easy task, but no man should seek to evade payment of a fair and reasonable proportion of his citizen's obligations. Every citizen gets the benefit of the facilities and conveniences that community life provides in the way of streets, sidewalks, water, light, sewerage, police, fire protection, etc.

Each new German restriction with regard to the food supply means growing anxiety as to the future. No doubt Germany took precautions early and still has enough for months, but the tightening of the sea grip makes the outlook one of dark despair. Germany is as powerless to get in food as to make headway against the walls of steel rapidly asserting their superiority over the greatest military machine the world has ever known.

All Germans are not as bad as some of those we read about. Those of Waterloo, Ontario, for instance, gave the members of the third contingent a great send off in the Town Hall, which was crowded to the doors and Mayor Kaufman presented each volunteer with a ten dollar gold piece. The ladies of the town also presented them with many useful articles. Waterloo is practically all German, but they are good, loyal Canadians, just the same.

The Ottawa Women's Canadian Club, which has done such effective work for the Belgian relief, has planned to make some special appeals on April 8th which is the birthday of King Albert, of Belgium. The club is working to have all the other women's organizations in Canada make some special effort to honor the Belgian King and his people on that day. The Ottawa Women's Canadian Club is sending one horse to the front under the auspices of the Ottawa branch of the Red Cross Society. The Club is contributing $500 to keep the nurse for a year.

The net earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company for January showed an increase of $140,059. This is described as a very remarkable showing because there was a decrease of over $2,000,000 for each month in December, November and October. The change was brought about by a reduction of nearly $2,000,000 in operating expense, as compared with the figures for January, 1914. The showing is the more remarkable because the gross earnings for the month were nearly $2,000,000 less than in January, 1914. With operating expenses so very greatly reduced it is expected the showing for February will be even more satisfactory than that of January. The showing of the Canadian Northern Railway for January is not so satisfactory, as its net earnings for the month showed a decline of nearly 50 per cent.

A Noble Memorial.

Visitors to Boston will be able to see a memorial building erected in honor of a man whose great contribution to human progress was along the line of humane education. Mr. George T. Angell was the founder of the Massachusetts Society for the prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and the American Humane Educational Society. He was the founder of our Dumb Animals, the first magazine devoted to animal protection that has ever been published, and which is still in existence doing a splendid educational work. On Logwood avenue, Boston, the two societies with which Mr. Angell's name is associated have erected the 'George T. Angell Animal Hospital,' and it was formally dedicated last month in presence of four hundred guests representing Massachusetts and adjoining states. The hospital has every provision for the care of injured animals. The April number of our 'Dumb Animals' gives a full account of many of its rooms. There is a room for operations on small animals, a surgical ward for horses and a horse operating room; a ward for dogs, a ward for cats, a department for small pets, an irrigating and dental room, exercise yards on the roof for small animals, an electric ambulance for use in connection with the hospital, and every provision for the care of horses, dogs, cats and birds. The new memorial building cost $200,000 and its appointments are of the best. The Boston Herald pays this tribute to Mr. Angell:

"When George T. Angell took up the cause of the dumb animals he was laughed at, but he could not be laughed down. His memory will survive as a public benefactor, for the societies which he founded and in this noble memorial, the complete and agency in the world for the work to which he devoted his life."

J. D. CHAMBERS has opened this week two cases of English Cotton and Silks, imported direct from Manchester. You too would be able to get a special discount of ten per cent off regular prices. See the display in ## Experimental Farms Report.

The work and scope of the Experimental Farms and Stations has developed to such an extent that it has been found necessary for the sake of convenience to devote two volumes of nearly five hundred pages each to the main or aggregate report for the year ending March 31st, 1914. In the first volume is presented the reports of the Director of the Divisions of Chemistry, Field Husbandry and Animal Husbandry. It is by a study of these chronicles that an idea can be obtained of the vast amount of work that is being done and an appreciation arrived at of a resultant good.

In the first few pages are given the usual comparative tables of grain yields and prices and of live stock for the five years extending from 1909 to 1913, each of which, excepting horses and swine, show a decrease in the Eastern Provinces, since 1910. In the Western Provinces there was a deficiency of upwards of 300,000 cattle between the same year and 1913, but an increase of nearly half a million horses and only a slight disparity in sheep, which, however, are showing a tendency to improvement. Swine increased by upwards of 500,000. In British Columbia the numerical changes were comparatively light. Naturally much space is given to reports of experiments at the different farms or stations. These experiments, it is hardly necessary to state, cover every variety of grain, fruit and vegetable production, as well as soil development, crop management, cultivation of forage plants and grasses, live stock, breeding and dairying. It would be impossible to over estimate the importance of the information thus furnished.

Of course at this time when the value of increase by improvement of production is being strenuously urged the reports are of special interest. It is not alone with what may be termed activities of the farm proper that they deal but also with buildings, with clearing with road making, with ornamental gardening. In short, the reports constitute virtually an encyclopedia of farming and its branches brought up to date.

While, as has been said, volume one is devoted to the review by the Director and reports of the Divisions of Chemistry, Field Husbandry and Animal Husbandry, volume two presents the reports of the Divisions of Cereals, Botany, Entomology, Horticulture, Poultry and Ology, Forage Plants, Poultry and Tobacco. All that has been said of the completeness in its contents of the first volume can be repeated of the second. It, too, is a useful compilation and a sample in detail of the benefits to be derived from scientific and painstaking research.

As in the preceding years, the matters dealt with in this volume are divided into sections, giving precise information of the work at the Experimental Farms in the Divisions referred to, and (b) treating of the various lines of experimental work under way throughout the system. It is explained that the latter section is devised and designed with a view to aiding the farmer more directly in the details of his vocation. It is worthy of wide distribution. One thing certain is that the nature of the reports makes them deserving of the closest attention. Copies may be obtained by making application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Hymeneal.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Myrtle Matheson, formerly of Pleasantfield, Nova Scotia, to Mr. John Morrison, formerly of Halifax, took place at 3:30 yesterday in St. Stephen's church. Rev. Dr. C. W. Gorden performing the ceremony. The bride was given away by Mrs. R. O. Sailer. She wore her travelling suit of tete de negre broadcloth buttoned up to the neck in snug military fashion, and finished at the throat and wrists with beaver fur, and with it she carried a beaver muff. Her hat in a prettily blended shade of velvet was faced with gold lace, the brim caught up at one side with a pink satin rose. Her bouquet was of bridal roses and valley lilies. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ivy Matheson, who wore a tailored suit of navy serge, and black velvet hat trimmed with bird of paradise plumes. Mr. P. C. Bill acted as groomsmen. The wedding music was played by the organist of St. Stephen's church. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison left in the afternoon for Minneapolis and Chicago, expecting to return toward the end of March to their residence in suite 13, Guelph apartments, McMillan avenue.—Winnipeg paper.

Death of Mrs. Borden.

The death of Mrs. Eunice Laird Borden, relict of the late Andrew Borden and mother of Sir Robert Laird Borden, premier of Canada, took place at her home at Grand Pre on Monday morning last at 3:30 o'clock. The venerable lady was ninety years of age. For two years past she had been in failing health, suffering from spinal paralysis, and for the three days preceding her death had been much more seriously ill and had lost consciousness. Premier Borden arrived from Ottawa by special train on Sunday afternoon and was with his mother when she passed away as was also her other children.

Mrs. Borden was a daughter of the late John Leard, of Grand Pre, a man who left his mark for good on his generation. He was a farmer, teacher, classical scholar, mathematician, and his daughter inherited in a marked degree his strong mental qualities, sterling character and courteous disposition. She was born at Grand Pre as her father also was and has gone to her rest mourned by the whole countryside. She lived to see one of her sons become the prime minister of Canada, and his devotion to her has been one of the finest traits in his character.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock when a very large gathering paid their last tokens of respect to the honored dead. A special train from Halifax brought a large number of sympathizing friends. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. Among them was a handsome offering from the Halifax Conservative Association and another from the members of the House of Assembly. The interment was at the old Presbyterian cemetery beside her husband who died exactly fifteen years ago—on Sunday.

Music Festival.

This week has provided for the music loving public three rare treats. On Monday evening the program rendered by the orchestral club was pronounced to be the best ever given by that ambitious and deservedly popular organization. The orchestral numbers were exceptionally fine. Mrs. Maude Allen, who possesses a mezzo-soprano voice of wide range, was heard to advantage in her group of songs. Her rendering of 'Elizabeth's Prayer' from Tannhauser was particularly well done and much appreciated. Mr. McElhiney, baritone, sang himself into favor by his rendering of 'Pagliacci' and added to his reputation by his second number, 'Where'er You Walk,' from Handel. Certainly Miss Langley, the conductor, and the orchestra which she has brought to such a high degree of efficiency, deserve every word of commendation which has been heard so frequently. Miss Frost and Miss MacKenzie did excellent work as accompanists.

The Cantata, 'The Rose Maiden,' with music by Cowan, was given by the Acadia Choral Club on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Richmond conducted her singers to success and won well deserved plaudits for her work. Scarcely second in importance was the fine support given by Mr. McKee at the pianoforte. Mrs. Maude Allen, soprano, sang the soprano parts with strength, fitness, and great musical appreciation. Her work increased in interest and value throughout the evening. Miss Sands, contralto, was at her best in her rendering of 'Ask of You Rained Cantata.' Yet 'Chime they so Sadly.' Her sympathetic rendering was much appreciated. Mr. Rasey, tenor, in the solo, duet and quartette parts, sang as he always does, superbly. Mr. McElhiney added to the laurels he gained on Monday evening. All in all the concert was a great success. Next year it is expected that something more ambitious will be attempted.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Richmond and Mr. Rasey gave a fine program of sacred music as a vesper service in the Baptist church. Wolfville is truly indebted to those who have so lavishly given of their time and talent.

Disastrous Fire.

On an early hour last Sunday morning our town was visited by a disastrous fire which destroyed a number of fine buildings containing a total loss estimated at $25,000. When the firemen responded to the call of Miss Grace Shaw, who promptly rang in an alarm when awakened by the noise and glare of the fire, they found the large three-story building of Mr. T. L. Harvey, at the corner of Main street and Gasperau avenue, a mass of flames and Mr. H. B. Shaw's residence and shop along side already on fire. Fanned by a fierce west wind the fire made rapid progress and so far as these two buildings were concerned was beyond control. The store of Messrs. R. E. Harris & Sons was in great danger and it looked as though the whole eastern part of the town would be consumed. Under most unfavorable conditions the firemen put up a gallant fight with the result that two hours later the fire was under control and the danger past. The fire spread, however, before it was got under control, to the fire residence of Mr. L. W. Sleep, which was destroyed as was also the old Sleep residence, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Arnold. Mr. Sleep's store was saved in a damaged condition, after the stock had been removed. The Presbyterian manse was on fire a number of times as well as the residence of Messrs. E. L. Gould, David Thompson, H. E. Calkins and others. Mr. Harvey's building and stock was totally destroyed, with an insurance of $6500. Mr. Peters, who lost all his stock, had $1,000 insurance. Mr. Shaw lost all his stock and tools, household furniture, horse, cow and other property, and had his hands badly burned. His property was insured for $1400. Mrs. Legge and little daughter, who occupied rooms in Mr. Shaw's building, lost everything, barely escaping with their lives. Mr. Sleep had $1,500 insurance on his fine home and contents. A portion of the furniture was saved. Mr. Arnold's furniture was removed and there was $1000 insurance on the building. During the fire, Mr. J. D. Chambers, who was watching the new Presbyterian church, fell from a ladder and fractured a rib.

Joint Stock Companies.

A bill before the Prince Edward Island Legislature in connection with the incorporation of joint stock companies makes some provisions which should be in the companies incorporation act of every province. One of the main purposes of this new measure is to prevent over capitalization and watering of stock by requiring a statement of the actual cost of all goods and property owned by the company, together with a truthful statement of any amounts paid for promotion. The act gives shareholders the right to sue and recover damages for misrepresentation of these facts. The development of the fox industry has resulted in the organization of many companies in Prince Edward Island and to considerable over capitalization by some of those who sought to get rich out of the stock selling rather than in the legitimate business of fox breeding. No doubt the necessity of the proposed law was forced on the provincial rulers by the schemes and proposals of these fox company promoters of this type, whose proposals must have done a legitimate business irreparable injury. The new law will create a public confidence in Prince Edward Island company proposals, and may lead to similar legislation in other provinces.

WORLD'S GREATEST KIDNEY REMEDY

"Fruit-a-tives" Have Proved Their Value In Thousands of Cases

WONDERFUL RECORD OF A WONDERFUL CURE

Only Remedy That Acts On All Three Of The Organs Responsible For The Formation Of Uric Acid In The Blood.

Many people do not realize that the skin is one of the three great eliminators of waste matter from the body. As a matter of fact, the skin rids the system of more Urea (or waste matter) than the kidneys. When there is kidney trouble, pain in the back and aching uric acid, it may not be the fault of the kidneys at all, but be due to faulty skin action, or constipation of the bowels.

"Fruit-a-tives" cures weak, aching kidneys, not only because it strengthens these organs but also because "Fruit-a-tives" opens the bowels, sweetens the stomach and stimulates the action of the skin.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, by mail, 25c or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

The Menace of Cocaine.

With the month of May comes the opening of the six months' harvest of the soda fountain, writes Cleveland Moffett, in Hampton's Magazine. "What will you have?" asks the amiable clerk, and points to a list of syrups, a row of gaily colored bottles, and some large bowls on the counter containing crushed strawberries, sliced pineapple, and other tempting fruits. If you stick to the fruit syrups, and the fruit is really good, no harm is done. On the contrary, if you turn to the bottled attractions or listen to the promise of their much advertised qualities, then beware.

According to a government chemist scores of soft drinks, dangerously medicated, are sold at soda water fountains as stimulating and refreshing summer drinks without the slightest intimation to purchaser that their stimulating and refreshing qualities come from cocaine, a drug that produces one of the worst habits known to the medical profession. There is no doubt but that the presence of cocaine in soft drinks tends to

WOMAN WEAK AND NERVOUS

Finds Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Creston, Iowa.—"I suffered with female troubles from the time I came into womanhood until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I would have paid for it overworked or lifted anything heavy, and I would be so weak and nervous and in so much misery that I would be prostrated. A friend told me what your medicine had done for her and I tried it. It made me strong and healthy and our home is now happy with a baby boy. I am very glad that I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and do all I can to recommend it."—Mrs. A. B. BORGAMP, 304 E. Howard Street, Creston, Iowa.

Tons of Roots and Herbs are used annually in the manufacture of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is known from coast to coast as the standard remedy for female ills.

For forty years this famous root and herb medicine has been successfully successful in controlling the diseases of women. Most cases could have stood this test of time.

create in the consumer, whether child or adult, a predisposition towards the cocaine habit. It is evident that the manufacturers of these soft drinks put cocaine into them, that is to make them popular, to make the taste good, to make them sell better. And this popularity, this pleasant taste and better sale come simply and solely because there is enough cocaine in these soft drinks to give something of the stimulating and exhilarating effect that cocaine always gives.

The Little Gentleman.

I knew him for a gentleman By signs that never fail. His coat was rough, and rather worn. His cheeks were thin and pale. A lad who had his way to make, With little time for play, I knew him for a gentleman By certain signs today.

Oil came his little cap: My door was shut, he waited there Until I heard his rap. He took the bundle from my hand, And when I dropped the pen He sprang to pick it up for me— This gentleman of ten He does not push or crowd along. His voice is gently pitched; He does not fling his books about As if he were bewitched. He stands aside to let you pass, He runs on errands willingly To lorge or mill or store.

He thinks of you before himself; He serves you if he can. For in whatever company The manners make the man At ten or forty 'tis the same, The manner tells the tale; And I discern the gentleman By signs that never fail.

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that I have used MERRILL'S LINIMENT myself as well as presented it in my practice where a liniment was required and have never failed to get the desired effect. C. A. KING, M. D.

Suasion and Surgery.

Business prudence is joining the crusade of moral reform against drink. A railway signal man found drunk on a lorry in Montreal got a six months' sentence last week.—The liberals of Ontario have recognized the right of prohibition in politics by adopting the slogan, "Abolish the Bar." That cuts out the cancer spots of society, and it is well that the surgeon's knife be sharp and promptly used before the virus fill the blood and the disease becomes incurable. May Providence prevent the doctors dividing on pathologies. There is room for every preacher should be standing by with prayerful hearts and ready hands for action.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

"A fathom," explained a school teacher to her class in mathematics, "is a nautical word used in defining distance. It means six feet. Now I want some little girl to give me a sentence using the word fathom." Instantly a hand shot up. "Well, Mary, you may give your sentence." Mary stood up proudly. "The reason flies can walk on the ceiling," said the observant child, "is because they have a fathom!"

At Swedish weddings among the middle classes the bridegroom usually carries a whip. This is an emblem of his authority in the domestic circle.

She had a vast amount of money but it had come to her quite recently. One day an acquaintance asked her if she were fond of art.

"Fond of art!" she exclaimed. "Well I should say I was! If I am ever in a city where there's an art gallery I never fail to visit it."

Schmidt used Jones for slender, alleging that Jones had called him a hippopotamus six months before. Of this time Jones' attorney made capital, saying scornfully: "Why, you haven't got any case, Mr. Schmidt. If you were so hurt why didn't you take action six months ago?" "Yes, I know," answered Schmidt easily, "but I never saw a hippopotamus until two weeks ago."

SAVED BY GOOD FISTS

Two Members of Small Command Survived Dish Through Barricade

A series of thrilling adventures was related by an officer of Lancers who returned to London from the front and was waiting to rejoin his regiment.

I was, with my squadron, cut off from my regiment at the battle of the Aisne, he said. I had succeeded in extricating my men from a very difficult position, when we were espied by a large body of Uhlans, who immediately pursued us. We were, of course, quite outnumbered.

My command was too small to warrant my endangering the lives of my men in an engagement which could only have but one ending, so we endeavored to escape. We were, at the time, near a small village, through which our road led. We were galloping madly down the road when a sudden bend revealed to us a large barricade manned by Germans. We had no alternative but to ride straight at the obstacle, which we accordingly did.

All our horses were shot. But I and another man had the good fortune to fall right over the barricade. My companion proved to be a prize-fighter, and having lost his weapons, he lay about him with his fists. Together we managed to break through, and, dashing down a side street, at length contrived to hide in a wood. Although pursued by the Germans we were not discovered, and the next day luckily for us, they left the neighborhood.

We were now in the enemy's country and were only able to travel by night, having to remain in hiding during the day. We were greatly helped by the peasants, who gave us food and French peasants' dress to wear. On one occasion the Germans entered a village where we were hiding, and we were only saved by being hid under a bed until they departed. They had heard there were some soldiers in hiding in that village, and we had a very close shave, as they searched the very house in which we were.

At length, after eight nights' weary marching, hiding by day and journeying by night, we covered the 120 odd miles which separates Boulogne from London. Here we were able to take ship for England, where, in due course, we reported ourselves at headquarters.

LABOR AND THE WAR

International Unions Had No Time to Work Against Armed Conflict

"If the declaration of war could have been delayed a month there would have been no war. There would have been a general international industrial revolution on the part of the forces of labor, which would have made a war impossible."

This statement was made by Mr. J. A. Sedd, President of the British Trade Union Congress, and an ex-labor member of the British House of Commons from Newton-lee-Willows, Lancashire. Mr. Sedd was chairman of the Trades Union Congress Parliamentary Committee which conferred with the British Government and issued a manifesto to the trade unionists of Great Britain urging active enlistment in the army and a participation in the defence of the Empire.

Speaking of the war Mr. Sedd said that the rapidly with which hostilities were declared swept every body, including the labor organizations, off their feet. The impetus came from Germany, where attempts to hold peace demonstrations were crushed with severity by the Kaiser's military strength. "If we had had a month," he said, "we should have made war impossible. In Germany it will be found when the war is over, and if the historian deals with it correctly, that this terrible conflict was due to the bidding of the younger class, the controlling, ruling military class, whose power was becoming speedily undermined by the Socialist-Democratic movement.

"The ulterior motive of the war in the mind of the German ruler was to check that rising tide of democratic sentiment which was fostered and encouraged by the labor unions."

Officers Must be Competent Every young British officer on joining the service is put through precisely the same course (if training is the raw recruit in the ranks. He drills with him, shoots with him, does physical training and gymnastics with him, learns how to lay down a kit, how to keep his rifle and accoutrements clean.

NERVOUS PEOPLE

are usually thin and easily worried, sleep does not refresh and the system gets weaker and weaker.

Scott's Emulsion corrects nervousness by force of nourishment—it feeds the nerve centres by distributing energy and power all over the body. Don't resort to alcoholic mixtures or drug concoctions.

STRENGTH OF INSECTS

Prodigious Muscular Development of Tiny Creatures

The insects are provided with muscles of enormous power as compared with men. If a fly be held by the wings it can pick up and carry a match, and this is as if a man were able to pick up a beam 25 feet long by 15 1/2 inches square.

An ordinary little ant can pull eight matches on rollers, which would equal a load of 230 beams the size of a man when its weight is compared with that of a horse.

The flea jumps 200 times its own height, which is about the same as if a man were to jump over the nearly thousand-foot high Eiffel tower.

An oyster forces being opened by exerting a force of over 30 pounds, and for a man to show the same power he would have to take up 80 large locomotives and bear them Atlas-like upon his shoulders.

From a purely physical point of view man is the weakest of animals. It is only by the use of his mind and the application of the laws of mechanics in the machinery he has invented that he has been able to dominate the world.

Its average depth is six feet.
