UNITED FRUIT COMPANIES

Hold Annual Meeting at Kentville Largest Attendance in History of Organization

The eleventh annual meeting of the United Fruit Companies of Nova Scotia, Ltd., opened at Kentville on Tuesday with a record attendance—the largest in the history of the organization. A spirit of enthusiasm was manifest in the meeting, as shown by the discussions which were taken part in generally.

President F. W. Bishop presided, and after the reading of the minutes, his address was presented. This was a comprehensive review of operations during the past year, and contained practical suggestions for the future which were fully discussed by the delegates. The work of the Dominion Atlantic Railway Company in meeting the wishes of the shippers in supplying refrigerator cars for the movement of practically all the apples during the cold weather was favorably commented upon. The task of moving these apples was the most difficult and expensive ever experienced and the efforts of the D. A. R. officials was fully appreciated. Had conditions been normal, he was sure that the service would have been much better than that of former years. The excellence of the apple crop was commented upon, the handling of apples, supplies, etc., and thanks and commendation given to the managers and directors of subsidiary companies for their support of the central office.

The apple report was then read. This is always an interesting subject, and this time proved no exception, as it was very generally discussed. It dealt with the marketing of fruit, the quality and condition of arrival and transportation.

G. Herbert Taylor, of the firm of J. & H. Goodwin, Manchester, England, was present and was called upon to give his ideas concerning the quality of our fruit as compared with other fruit-growing countries, also the much-discussed question of boxes and barrels. Mr. Taylor maintained that Nova Scotia principally was a "barrel country", and while he thought a certain quantity of boxes necessary to maintain proper connections, the bulk of the business should be confined to barrels.

Various questions were asked and a very interesting discussion ensued. Mr. Taylor is familiar with all conditions in different countries and gave very satisfactory information.

At the opening of the afternoon session the important subject discussed was the apple pack. The discussion centered around the bad advertising Nova Scotia apples had received owing to bad packing. The United Fruit Companies, Ltd., have determined that if they cannot meet competition in the open markets of England, realising as they do the special flavor and high quality of our fruit, they would prefer annihilation, therefore, a most determined campaign was inaugurated whereby Nova Scotia producers in the United Fruit Companies place themselves on record to organize themselves to meet competition with competitive producers. That a notable improvement would be visible, whereby the United Fruit Companies will be prominent in this respect.

Pride was also expressed by the membership on account of the fact that Nova Scotia is in a fair position to produce a fifth successive large crop, and is distinguished not only by producing a clean crop, but by a pack that will become individual in merit.

The chief feature in connection with the discussion was a fair criticism of the weaknesses and strong support of anything which tended to the betterment of conditions and the advertising of the quality of Nova Scotia fruit.

The financial statement showed the organization in good standing. The future prospects, with possible changes in the matter of averages, placing the different companies on the merit of their pack, has enthused the various companies to enter into a competitive spirit, whereby premium will be placed on the best results. The slogan with which the meeting closed was: "Satisfaction to the Purchaser; the producer through his organization standing behind his product."

The management was returned practically unchanged. The general manager, A. E. McMahon, who has given such service to the organization, and with his officers and executive carrying on so successfully from year to year, with no doubt be unanimously placed in the same position.

The list of officers follows:—

WOLFVILLE MAN MARRIED AT DARTMOUTH

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Smallman, Dartmouth, was the scene of a particularly pretty wedding on Wednesday evening of last week, when Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson, pastor of St. James Presbyterian church, united in marriage Miss Catherine Goodwin, sister of Mrs. Smallman, and Mr. Ralph B. Smallman, of Wolfville. The ceremony took place in the flower-banked drawing room and in the presence of a number of the relatives and friends of the happy young couple. Apple blossoms in profusion were arranged around the room, while tall vases of carnations lent a dainty touch. The ceremony took place under an arch of apple blossoms arranged in the corner of the long room.

Mrs. J. A. Rutledge, of Halifax, presided at the piano and rendered the wedding marches. The bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her brother, Ray Goodwin, by whom she was given in marriage. She was attired in a beautiful gown of white Canton crepe simply but beautifully designed. Her veil was of tulle with clusters of orange blossoms and she carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Betty Goodwin, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore pale yellow Canton crepe with hat in keeping and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Little Miss Geraldine Clarke, the three-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Clarke, of Port Williams, was a most entrancing flower girl. She wore a dainty frock of pale pink organdie with hat to correspond and carried a shower basket of pink carnations and sweet peas. Mr. Ralph Bagleigh, of Bridgewater, was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held and luncheon was served, a group of the girl friends of the bride assisting in dispensing hospitality. They were Miss Grace Bolong, Miss D. Coughlan, Miss Smallman and Miss Smith. Among the out-of-town guests present for the ceremony were Mrs. L. J. Smallman and Miss Smallman, of Wolfville, mother and sister of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. James P. Smallman, of Prince Edward Island, who came to Dartmouth to be present at the ceremony.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Smallman left on a honeymoon trip through the Province. After spending the summer at Evangeline Beach they will reside in Montreal, where the groom will complete his medical studies next May. He is a brilliant and capable young man and a graduate of Acadia. Mrs. Smallman is a very charming and popular young lady and their many friends will join in wishing them happiness in their new life. The bride travelled in navy blue with neck piece of grey squirrel and accessories of grey.

The beautiful assortment of gifts testified to the popularity of the young couple and included a costly array of silver, cut glass and finens. Two showers were held during the past few weeks for the bride.

BOYS' WORK NOTES

On Sunday morning next the Girl Guides, Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs will attend Church Parades at the Baptist church. They will meet at the Club-room at 10.30 and fall in at 10.45 sharp.

The regular Scout meeting will be held at the Club-room this evening, Roll Call at 8.15.

The Wolf Cubs were greatly disappointed at the non-appearance of their Windsor rivals on Saturday last. They were unable to come on account of the illness of some of the team. The game is called for 1.30 tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon on the School Grounds.

All young people and perhaps some of the older ones will be pleased to hear that plans are underway for the big Union Sunday School Picnic this year. The first meeting of the general committee will be held in the Baptist Church at 9 o'clock this evening.

The question of cheaper school books was taken up by the Women's Institutes convention at Truro. The following were appointed a committee to secure information to bring before the next convention: Miss Dora M. Baker, Truro; Mrs. D. C. Hilton, Carleton, and Mrs. A. H. Patterson, Horton Landing.

THREE CORNERED TIE

In Town Baseball League—East End Comes from Behind and Wins Two Games

A week ago the West End and The Hill were tied for first place in the Town Baseball League while the boys team of East End had not won a game. Now things are changed and all three teams are tied. After losing two games the East Enders got busy and strengthened their team with the result that last Friday evening they defeated The Hill by the score of 7 to 3. Encouraged by this win they again put up a strong team on Monday evening and defeated the West End by the score of 11 to 8. With only three more games to play in this section the tie is increasing. One of the teams has got to win two games in order to win the series.

Last Friday's game was very closely contested until the last innings. Gould scored for the East End in the first innings and this was the only tally until the fourth when Dr. Ross scored for The Hill. In the last innings the East End scored six and The Hill two, the large score being due to the fact that it was getting so dark. Munro pitched a fine game striking out fourteen. Farris pitched his first game for The Hill and struck out eight. The teams were as follows:

East End—Gould, ss; D. Munro, p; West and Ruffee, rf; Eagles, lb; C. Munro, c; Patriquin, cf; Harrington, cf; Burgess, 3b; Leslie, lf.

The Hill—Baird, c; Russell, lb; Parsons, 2b; Ross, ss; Taylor and Rogers, lf; Farris, p; Walsh, 3b; Burgher, cf; Ruffee, rf.

Monday night's game was conspicuous for its errors and the score was so large that there was only time for five innings. There were very few strike-outs, Elderkin getting eight and Munro five. Each team scored two runs in the first innings. In the second, the East End scored five and their opponents were not able to overcome the lead. The teams were as follows:

East End—Gould, ss; D. Munro, p; West, 2b; Eagles, lb; C. Munro, c; J. Burgess, lf; Evans, 3b; Harrington, cf; Patriquin, rf.

West End—J. Elderkin, c; G. Rand, 3b; Ritchie, 2b; B. Elderkin, p; M. Burgess, cf; V. Rand and Boates, rf; Dick, ss; Johnson, lf; Bentley, lb.

Monday's game took the form of a bet for Elmer Kenzie, who sprained his ankle while playing two weeks ago. A collection was taken which amounted to over seven dollars. Mr. Kenzie wishes to thank all those who so kindly contributed.

The West End and The Hill will play tonight and a good game is expected. There will be no game on Monday night on account of it being a holiday when most of the players will probably be out of town. A week from tonight the East End and The Hill will play and the following Monday will be the final game of the series, unless there is another tie.

HANTSPORT ITEMS

Mrs. Sarah Robbins

News of the death of Mrs. Sarah Robbins, who passed away at Toronto on Thursday, June 21st, was received by Capt. Geo. Holmes and will be much regretted by her friends in Hantsport. Mrs. Robbins was a daughter of the late Capt. and Mrs. Whitman Holmes, of Hantsport, and resided here a number of years both before and after her marriage to James Robbins, of Yarmouth, who predeceased her by several years. She is survived by one daughter Blanche, of the staff of the "Toronto Globe", and one son, Rev. Clyde W. Robbins, who recently graduated from Newton Theological Seminary and who has held successful pastorates in different parts of the Province. Mrs. Robbins was a member of the Hantsport Baptist church and was very zealous in assisting in any work in connection with the church. Interment took place at Yarmouth.

A capacity house greeted the performers in the School Concert which took place in the Empire Theatre on Thursday evening. The concert was an unqualified success from every standpoint, each number on the programme eliciting enthusiastic applause. Much of the success of the concert is attributed to Mrs. Geo. Holmes who conducted the musical part of the programme and was also the pianist for the evening. At the close Mrs. Holmes was the recipient of a beautiful bouquet of carnations and snapdragons. The proceeds of the concert will be devoted to school purposes.

Many and sincere will be the good wishes from the citizens here, both Mr. Bigney and bride being very popular in Hantsport.

A very impressive Forrester's service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Besides the Hantsport Order there were representatives from Avoport and Windsor, the latter being accompanied by the Citizens Band. The Rev. Dr. Dickie, pastor of the church, addressed the Order in a very able manner. The choir rendered special music for the occasion.

INDUCTION AT CANNING

Rev. H. T. Wright Enters Upon His Pastorate of United Baptist Congregation

One of the largest and most representative gatherings ever held in the United Baptist church, Canning, was that of Friday evening, the occasion being the induction of the pastor-elect, Rev. H. T. Wright. In the absence of L. M. Ward, Clerk, Warren Eaton presided. Rev. Charles Riseborough, Rev. G. D. Hudson, Rev. T. W. Hodgson, pastors of sister churches, occupied seats on the platform. The service opened with prayer and song followed by the reading of Scripture, Cor. 12.

Rev. G. D. Hudson next delivered his charge to the congregation, conveying the sisterly wishes of the First Cornwallis Baptist Church and expressing his pleasure at any opportunity that brought the churches together in the work of the Lord. His words to the church in connection with the new union formed were, first, the Duty of the Congregation to bear their minister to the throne of God in prayer. He feels the need of this to help him in his daily responsibilities where he is filling an extraordinary place and needs the strength which comes through intercession. The knowledge that his flock is bearing him to the Throne of Grace, will enable him to preach well. It will make him set a high standard unto which in his life and preaching he will aspire. Second, support the efforts of your pastor and defend his good name thus making him a greater power. Third, care for his physical wants that he may give his life to the work of the Master, without worrying distraction. Be not censorious of his preaching but looking for the good, co-operate with your Pastor and God will bless his efforts, and make him a power for good in the community.

Rev. Charles Riseborough conveyed the greetings of Pereaux Baptist church and chose for his theme, "The Godward Side of the ministry". May we like Paul never forget we are Ambassadors of God. As His minister, you are God's representative and have your sphere in God's Kingdom. Your first duty is to please Him. If any lack wisdom let Him ask of God. Your King is believed you if you preach the right Christ. Some things will be bright and you will feel God to be very near. Remember in darker days that he is still there and that you are here on "Business for the King". May God bless you and your wife and make you a power for Him.

Rev. T. W. Hodgson then conveyed the good wishes of the Methodist church and expressed the hope that the same friendly co-operation that had continued during the pastorate of Rev. H. Barber might prevail. We preach the same gospel, with a Crucified Risen, Living Christ. May we through co-operation extend the Kingdom of God and be the instruments of bringing men and women to the feet of the Master. Touching tributes were paid to the work of Rev. H. Barber, and the Methodist pastor congratulated the congregation on their choice of a successor.

Rev. H. T. Wright thanked all for their kind messages and advice, to congregation and pastor and expressed his desire to be the faithful ambassador of Jesus Christ. I realize the great responsibility that is mine and shall by the Grace of God do my best to measure up, but shall need the whole hearted support and co-operation of my congregation. Working together may we use all our God given power to extend the spirit of Christ in the community, and point it upward. Prayer meeting is the spiritual thermometer of the church. Without prayer we cannot live. May we wait upon God and joining hands may His richest blessing rest upon us all as we do His work.

Vocal duets by Miss Isabel Meek and Mr. Everett Lyons, Miss Messenger and Miss Kennedy, and special music by the choir added much to the beautiful service. At the close of the meeting more than 300 gathered to welcome Rev. H. T. Wright and Mrs. Wright, the reception committee being Mrs. L. M. Ward, Mrs. Reid Pelton, Mrs. Payzant Cox, Miss Marion Eaton. Supper was then served in the vestry, bringing to a close an evening long to be remembered.

Regret was felt that Dr. Patterson, of Acadia, Rev. G. A. Logan and Rev. Gordon C. Brown were unable to be present, all of whom expressed their regret.

day, where he was operated on for appendicitis. He is doing as well as can be expected.

Messrs. R. and N. Forsythe and M. Gertride, visited Halifax last week.

Miss Annie Reid, of Halifax, is enjoying a holiday at her home here.

Tennis seems to be the order of the day, the courts being in excellent condition and well patronized.

The Barge "Daniel Munroe" is undergoing minor repairs on the blocks. Capt. McDonald and Engineer Flemming are at their homes here.

Editorial

Our pulpits are our work clothes. Each of us live some kind of a sermon every day.

CONFEDERATION

With the union of four provinces—Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Ontario and Quebec—under the terms of the British North America Act, Canada as a nation came into existence fifty-six years ago. The passing of the years has served to mellow the circumstances surrounding this momentous step until the political strife and suspicion of that day has been obscured. While no good purpose will be gained by reciting such details, it is well for us as Canadians to remember at this time that it was only as a result of the sincerity, persistency and singleness of purpose on the part of those true patriots who conceived the idea of union that their plans were ever brought to fruition. They saw a vision of a great North American nation, owing allegiance always to the British Crown, in the place of the group of colonies which at that time seemed to be gradually losing contact and sympathy with each other and with the Motherland.

Sir John A. Macdonald, in concluding his great speech in which he introduced the resolution to the Crown seeking confederation, had a glimpse of the Canada of to-day and the Canada that will be, when he declared that as a united nation the time would come when the counsels of the Dominion would be sought by the other nations of the earth, and when Canada would be a subscribing but powerful people in its relation to the Empire, ready to stand by it in peace and in war. Sir John might readily be credited with prevision of Canada's part in the Great War, at the Peace Conference and at the Washington Conference on Armaments.

Our forefathers toiled to bring about confederation, although they knew that the full fruits of their labors would not be realized until after they had passed from active life. They left to us no uncertain guidepost to our duty in fostering the elements of the greater nation which Canada must be if given proper guidance at this juncture.

BUS SERVICE TOO HEAVILY TAXED

The recent finding of the Commission of Public Utilities respecting the bus line lately provided to connect the different sections in this vicinity furnishes a reasonable suspicion that an attempt is being made to put this most convenient service out of business. At any rate this is the view taken by many of our people as it does not seem possible that it can be profitably continued under the heavy burden of taxation which has been imposed. THE ACADIAN understands that in the vicinity of three thousand dollars per annum will be required to provide for all the requirements along this line that are demanded of the service, which surely is a heavy handicap for an undertaking the financial success of which was from the first problematical.

When the Commission met here a few weeks ago it was fully pointed out by representatives of the sections particularly interested that the bus service was a real need and furnished most satisfactory accommodation, and it was urged that no unnecessary burden be laid upon the enterprising proprietor. The Commission promised to take all the facts presented to them into careful consideration before making their decision. It really seems too bad that the continuance of what has already become a very decided convenience to our people should be jeopardized by what most people consider unnecessary and exorbitant demands made upon it.

HIGHWAY BOARD SHOULD PAY

Wolfville's main thoroughfare has been subjected to much unusual and heavy traffic during the past year or more in consequence of the road construction going on under the direction of the Provincial Highway Board. All of the gravel used on the new roadway between this town and Avonport is carried by motor trucks from the gravel pit near the old Horton Poor Farm, and must of necessity go over our permanent street constructed wholly at the expense of Wolfville ratepayers and towards the maintenance of which the Highway Board contributes nothing.

It would be difficult to estimate just how much injury to the life of the street has been occasioned by this traffic, but we were told a short time ago by the chairman of the Commission of Public Utilities that it was a careful estimate of the ordinary wear on the roads that furnished the basis on which such services as bus lines were taxed. This being the case it seems only fair that the Highway Board should be asked to contribute to the town towards the upkeep of our permanent street a sum commensurate with the damage that it has suffered. In our opinion this is a matter which demands the immediate attention of our civic rulers, and steps should be taken to secure an equitable adjustment without further delay.

FLY YOUR FLAG ON DOMINION DAY

It is devoutly to be hoped that the Flag will be more in evidence in Wolfville on Dominion Day than it was on the occasion of the last two or three national holidays. Empty flag poles on the birthday of our beloved Dominion would bear testimony to a lack of that spirit which makes for worthy and patriotic citizenship, and a proper pride in the great heritage that is ours.

On Victoria Day the very limited number of flags visible was very freely commented upon, especially by visitors. Let there be no cause for such complaint on Dominion Day, when from every pole erected for this purpose at least, the flag we love so dearly should flutter in the breeze. This is one way in which we can teach the lesson of patriotism to the rising generation, and every school ground should make its contribution of bunting in honor of the day. This is a very slight service and is the least that we can be expected to do. In addition—where possible—there should be public exercises of an appropriate character with addresses suitable to the occasion.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MOTOR DRIVERS

The present method by which the government grants licenses to drivers of motor vehicles, without requiring any specified qualifications, provides a menace to public safety that should no longer be allowed to exist. The provincial treasury may be replenished as a result of such procedure but the public safety is in no way guarded. In view of the rapidly increased number of motor vehicles which now use our streets every driver should be obliged to satisfy some competent official or board that he is a safe person to be entrusted with such a responsibility. It is no wonder that under the existing conditions, which make no provision for public safety, that frequent accidents should occur, and this number is bound to increase unless some change is soon made. In too many cases car-drivers acknowledge an alarming ignorance of the ordinary rules of the road, while a few of those who are today operating motor-driven vehicles are physically unqualified for the task. The careful and qualified driver on our highways is now taking chances that he should not be obliged to risk.

OVER-GOLFING

That there is danger to the citizen of middle-age in over-golfing is the dictum of Dr. Matthias Nicoll, Jr., deputy State Commissioner of Health of New York. Dr. Nicoll, himself an enthusiastic golfer and a physician of long experience, stated that there is no question that golf may be and often is overdone, and that it is not infrequently indulged in by those who on account of their physical condition should not play at all. Accordingly he recommended what he described as "a few rules for aged golfers which all of them will resent" as follows:

If your physician advises against golf, don't play.

Don't rush between holes. You won't hold up anyone if you walk steadily at a moderate pace, and your game will not suffer thereby.

Choose fairly level courses if possible, and take hills very slowly.

Take time to digest a light lunch. Heavy eating has nothing to recommend it except sociability.

Don't continue the game if you feel dizzy, weak, or otherwise unfit.

Don't lose your temper. It won't help your game, your health, or the work of your caddy.

After your game and shower, protect yourself from draughts and cold winds.

If you must play in the rain, change into dry clothes after a shower and get a hard rub-down immediately after you come in.

During the off-season a moderate amount of indoor golf is a valuable form of exercise and will keep you hopeful for an early spring.

We had always been led to believe that golf was the best game in the world for the old-timers. And probably it is. But the "aged" must bear in mind that they are not as young as they used to be, and that even the royal game has its hazards. Even so, will the older players of the game agree to the regimen laid down by this authority? Probably not.

A bedspread 101 years old and still in use is the unique possession of Mrs. W. N. Taggart, Chattanooga, Tenn. This interesting relic of the past is the product of a once famous colonial home industry—the making of hand-tufted bedspreads.

On the banks of the Skomish River near Bremerton, Wash., is a cherry tree said to be in its 91st season of fruition. The cherry tree is more than six feet through at the base and the branches are estimated to cover 5,000 square feet.

Most of us dislike the exhibition of too much nerve, but somehow can't help but admire it sometimes.

THE CANADIAN FLAG

There appears to be some doubt in the minds of many people on the subject of what flag may be used in Canada, on occasions of rejoicing. Following is the opinion of the late Sir John Bourinot, formerly Clerk of the Canadian House of Commons, with reference to Dominion flags:

"The famous British flag commonly known as the Union Jack, is flown from all the fortresses and garrisons of Canada, whether under the charge of Imperial military authorities or Colonial militia forces. The Union Jack is a combination of three flags. The red cross on the white ground is for England, the white cross with the arms placed diagonally on a blue ground for Scotland, and the red cross with the arms placed diagonally on a white ground for Ireland.

"The Dominion of Canada has also authority to use a national flag, viz.: The red or blue ensign, a flag of plain red or blue, having the Union Jack in the upper canton, or corner, next the mast, and the Dominion coat-of-arms in the fly or field of the flag.

"The blue ensign is a distinguishing flag of the Government vessels of Canada; the mercantile marine of the Dominion has a right to use the red ensign.

"The Governor-General has authority to use a plain Union Jack in the centre of which are the Dominion arms, surrounded by a garland of maple leaves and surmounted by a crown."

Every British subject has a right to fly the Union Jack in a British country.

The Telephone Can Shorten The Saleman's Trip

Summer time puts an additional fret into the travelling salesman's life.

When he is putting up at stodgy hotels, or waiting dilatory train connections at dusty railway stations, he thinks of the glorious time "the missus and the kids" are having at the breezy sea shore or 'up' among the scented woods, and he wishes he could join them.

The wise one can realize the wish.

By using the Long Distance Telephone to interview his customers off the main route, instead of visiting them personally, he can do just as effective work and save days in the length of his trip.

Of these days he can make holiday with his wife and youngsters.

A Page Full of Interest to the Owner or Prospective Owner of an Automobile.

THE CLUTCH A VITAL PART

The proper use of the clutch has much to do with the life and satisfactory service which a car should give. Probably every automobile driver knows that a gasoline engine will not pull unless it is running; that is, it will deliver no power at all as long as it is standing still. The engine must be free from the car until it is running under its own power and then connected with the driving wheels.

In order to make this connection between the engine and the driving wheels without a sudden jerk a friction device known as a clutch is used. The clutch, whether it is of the cone type or of the more popular multiple disc type is operated by the left foot pedal. The clutch is released by pushing down this pedal and is, on the other hand, engaged to connect the engine with transmission when the foot pedal is allowed to come up.

The life of the car in general and the transmission in particular, depends very much on the proper handling of the clutch pedal. If this is raised quickly it means that the clutch will take hold with a jerk and thus put an unnecessary load on the transmission and driving axle. The breaking of any one of these parts is fairly common and is practically always traceable to improper handling of the clutch.

In starting the car regardless of whether it is on the reverse, first, second or third speed gears, allow the clutch pedal to rise until there is a slight drag on the engine. This means that the clutch is just beginning to take hold. At this point, hold the pedal until the engine is slightly speeded up and then allow the pedal to rise very slowly as the car picks up speed. In changing from one speed to another, push down the clutch pedal while the gear change is being made in order to relieve the load from the transmission and thus prevent stripping or breaking off the gear teeth.

It is not good practice to drive with the weight of the foot continuously on the clutch pedal, one reason being that if the pressure is too great, there will be a slight slipping of the clutch, thus causing excessive wear. The other reason is that the thrust bearing is put to unnecessary wear, giving out in a much shorter time than it should. This perhaps explains why some clutches wear out much sooner than others even in the same make of car. It is the abuse of the clutch and not the use of it which causes the trouble.

When Wear Affects Use

In case your clutch becomes worn or is out of adjustment so that when trying to make the car pull up, the engine begins to speed up and the car at the same time begins to slow down, it means that the clutch is slipping. This can sometimes be remedied by washing the plates with gasoline, sometimes by an adjustment which is provided to prevent this slipping and if neither will remedy the trouble, then the solution usually lies in replacing the plates or relining the old ones, depending on the type of clutch used.

There is another trouble which is directly the opposite of the slipping clutch and this is known as the dragging clutch. This is caused by the plates becoming gummed up with oil which has partially congealed or by the plates sticking together when your clutch is released, or by the failure of the clutch brake to keep the clutch from spinning. If, when the car is standing, the clutch cannot be pushed into any speed without a grinding of the gear teeth, it means that the clutch does not stop spinning. This can often be helped by washing the clutch thoroughly with kerosene or by readjusting the clutch brake. If neither of these remedies stop the dragging, it may be necessary to pull down the clutch and increase the tension on the separating springs which hold the clutch discs apart.

MARRIED

CLARK-MACDONALD—At the Congregational church, Atkinson, New Hampshire, by the Rev. J. Tutthill, Brenda, daughter of Mrs. Roderick Macdonald, Oakland Road, Halifax, N. S., and Mr. Eugene George Clark, of Hampstead, N. H. Present at the wedding were Miss Moya Macdonald, sister of the bride, now in training at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence, R. I.; Miss Ruth Walker and Mr. Sydney Mills, of Connecticut, friends of the bride.

PROPER USE OF GREASE CUPS

A great many farm machines are provided with force-fed grease cups in which the grease is placed in the threaded cap and the cap then turned down so as to force the grease through a hole in the centre of the base into the bearing.

The purpose of these cups should be obvious to anyone who gives them even a casual glance. Screwing down the cap creates a pressure on the grease which will force it into a bearing even though the latter is a very close fit. Some men have the idea, however, that the cap is simply a retainer for the grease and that the grease will run into the bearing through the influence of gravity when the bearings get hot. They do not realize that the purpose of grease is to keep the bearing from getting hot and not to lubricate it after it has become hot.

Wherever grease cups are provided, there is a bearing which needs grease and the lubrication chart or instruction book which accompanies most machines usually gives instructions as to how often the grease cups should be turned down and the number of turns each time.

It is foolish to attempt to economize by using grease sparingly. Grease is not very expensive and an excess will seldom do any harm and will add very little to the expense. On the other hand running with insufficient grease for only a few minutes may damage a bearing as badly as to require the replacement of some parts at a cost for time and material which would buy more grease than the machine would use in its lifetime.

Use the grease cups on your machines as the manufacturer directs. Keep them filled and turn them down frequently. It is a good plan to keep grease working out from the ends of bearings. The excess can be easily wiped off and so long as grease is working out, dirt and grit cannot easily get in.

PICKED UP ON THE ROAD

Corroded terminals should be first scraped and then cleaned with a strong solution of washing soda. After the corrosion has been removed and the terminals dried, grease the parts well with cup grease or vaseline.

When the hole in a gear case is so small that it makes the feeding of grease through a gun extremely difficult, screw into the hole temporarily an ordinary compression grease cup of large size, by which means a full charge may be inserted.

Even baby may go motoring. The recent London show had on display a motor-driven baby carriage. It is operated by the nurse who stands on a platform at the rear.

Three thousand automobiles were struck by trains at grade crossings in the United States last year, killing 2,000 persons and maiming 3,000 others.

If the bearings in the running gear are too tight, they will burn out; if too loose, the wheels will wobble.

Auto Topics

Short Circuits

A short circuit not only means diminished power but is a probable cause of fire. Ferret out a "short" as soon as you have any reason to suspect one. It pays in lower battery upkeep, increased power, and may save your car from total loss by fire.

There are other common causes of fire, some of which cannot be easily detected. Even a minor blaze in your car or garage means an outlay of cash for repairs. It is wise to insure your car against such loss.

FEED MOLASSES TO YOUR AUTO TIRES

Bicycle tires and inner tubes of automobile tires may be made quite safe from small puncture by using a liberal amount of the following mixture: Procure 1 pound of sheet glue and dissolve it in warm water—enough to dissolve the glue only. After the glue has been dissolved add 1 qt. of molasses.

Remove the valve and inject of this mixture—about one cupful—into a bicycle tire and a correspondingly greater amount in auto tubes, depending on their size. Replace the valve and blow up the tire. This mixture semi-hardens into an elastic jelly.

This treatment will stop all small leaks in a tire.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE HERE NEXT MONTH

Its object is to inspire a larger and more effective service, to discuss the best methods for promoting missions in the various church organizations, to deepen the prayer life and to lead all to relate their lives definitely to the plan and purpose of God. The spacious accommodation afforded by Acadia Ladies' Seminary, with its wide and beautiful grounds is again placed at the disposal of the conference and leading speakers and thinkers of the different branches of the church will be among the leaders of the conference. It is expected that the attendance this year will equal if not exceed that of previous gatherings and that a most profitable and enjoyable time may be spent by all.

Speed is the by-word for "The Fast Mail", and the action in this picture rival's the speed records for world's record events. All critics agree that the steamboat race, the race in the automobile and the steeplechase race are the fastest and most thrilling ever attempted for the camera.

Lightning-like camera work was necessary to show the speed with which this picture moves. It will be seen at the Wolfville Opera House Friday and Saturday, June 29-30.

The Studebaker Light-Six Sedan $2225

—But You Can't Ride on the Paint!

Imitation diamonds can be made to look so real and sparkle so brightly that it is difficult to tell them from the genuine. But try to sell one and you will find out its real worth in a flash.

Same with automobiles. Weaknesses of construction in a closed car can be hidden, for a time, with paint and varnish and fancy fittings. But all is not quality that glitters.

You can't ride on the paint. And when you place such a car in the second hand market, you suffer a heavy depreciation, because it lacked real intrinsic value at the outset. Use will never improve a mediocre product.

Motor car owners tell us that the trade-in value of any Studebaker car at the end of three or four or five years of useful life is greater than on any other car built today—the percentage of depreciation is the lowest.

No wonder the Studebaker Light-Six Sedan is the fastest selling quality Sedan in the world!

The name Studebaker stands for quality, durability, comfort and integrity.

POLITICAL CONVENTION AT KENTVILLE

Two Capable Young Men Selected as Standard Bearer of the Liberal-Conservative Party

The convention held by the Liberal-Conservatives of Kings county on Saturday afternoon last was one of the largest ever held in this constituency. Held at a busy time of the year and on a fine day the attendance indicated an awakened interest in the political affairs of the province.

The meeting was held in the Old Nickel Theatre at Kentville, which at the appointed hour was filled to capacity. Delegates from practically every section of the county were present. In the absence of Mr. H. W. Phinney, the president of the county organization, vice-president H. G. Harris was in the chair. The notice calling the convention was read by the secretary, Mr. G. H. Oakes and the chairman made a brief address. It was stated that the names of two prospective candidates had been already submitted and other nominations were asked for. A number of persons were proposed but declined for various reasons from having their names go to the convention, and a motion was finally passed that Reginald G. Caldwell, merchant, of Kentville, and George C. Nowlan, barrister, of Wolfville, be the candidates to contest the county in the Liberal-Conservative interests at the next ensuing elections for the provincial legislature.

The candidates were introduced and spoke briefly, thanking the convention for the honor and promising if elected to do their utmost to merit the same and seek to advance in every way in their power the best interests of the county and province. Both are young men of good ability and presence and should make good representatives.

President Phinney, who in the meantime had arrived in the hall and taken charge of the meeting, introduced in turn Messrs. A. L. Davidson, of Middleton, and W. L. Hall, the provincial leader of the Liberal-Conservative party. Excellent addresses were given by the gentlemen, in which the actions of the present government were reviewed and criticized and arguments presented for change in the administration of the affairs of the province. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

The first electrical storm of the season occurred on Tuesday night. It was of brief duration but the lightning was quite vivid and was accompanied by a downfall of rain that was very beneficial to growing crops. This storm was apparently the fringe of the great storm which caused such havoc in New York and other parts of the continent.

REV. DR. MACDONALD RESIGNS

The resignation of Rev. J. H. MacDonald, D. D., the popular pastor of the Wolfville Baptist Church, was read at the morning service on Sunday last. Dr. MacDonald finds the demands made upon him too heavy for his physical strength, and much to the regret of his people finds this step necessary. His resignation takes effect, we believe, at the end of August. Wolfville people will be glad to learn, however, that it is not Dr. MacDonald's intention to remove from this town, having accepted the chair of church history and homiletics in the enlarged theological department at Acadia University. Since his return to Wolfville Dr. MacDonald has proved himself a most useful citizen whom the town is naturally very glad to retain.

A—The recent removal of the cattle embargo in Great Britain against Canada will it is thought lead to the export of 30,000 head during the summer.

CANADA'S WHEAT CROP

Q—How best could Canada's wheat crop of 1922 be visualized?

A—Canada's wheat crop of 1922 of nearly 400,000,000 bushels would require 257,250 freight cars loaded to capacity. Placed in a line they would make a train 1,946 miles long extending from Montreal to Swift Current. It would need 7,359 locomotives to haul these trains.

Q—What American tribute to Canada's wealth was recently given?

A—The Bankers Trust Company of New York: "If to other evidences of prosperity we add the fact that the people of Canada loaned their home government $2,207,900,000 during the war, we cannot escape the conclusion that the wealth of the Canadian people has markedly increased since 1914. This increase in wealth would have come anyhow, but was undoubtedly stimulated by the unusual demand for Canadian products caused by the war. It is true that the two billions which the war cost Canada represents capital destroyed but the demands for her products from abroad for war and reconstruction has brought about a great development which must have largely made good this loss."

DULUTH

THE POETICAL WORKS OF WILFRED CAMPBELL

"The most important work we have published in years," is the word from Hodder & Stoughton in a note accompanying my review copy. This estimate is doubtless a just one. Canada's attitude has been tentative towards her poets, and though many volumes of verse are constantly coming from the press the general mind is rather inert concerning them. But here is Wilfred Campbell, a man who lived confidently in the belief that God had made him a poet and who wrote in the inspiration of that belief. There is scarcely a doubt that his was the strongest voice yet heard in Canadian poetry. Will his name and fame endure? Certainly the recent publication of his collected poems is an event of good omen. It would be surely a joy to loyal Canadians if they could know they had a poet whose works they might safely place beside the standard English masters. Perhaps Wilfred Campbell is that one. The critics and reviewers cannot elect him to that place: the power of his verse alone can put him there. The weird force in "The Mother" has already taken strong hold upon readers on both sides of the Atlantic, such hold, indeed, that centuries will scarcely permit that poem to fall into oblivion. But there is much in the volume that perhaps has equal power. The range of Campbell's thought is not wide, but that is not what one cares about in poetry. No one has ever yet clearly defined what it is that makes one poem great, while another, equally clear in its purpose, true in its emotion, beautiful in its direction and sound in its technique, remains a pretty piece of verse and no more. The power that makes the world distinguish genius from talent is an occult one, but its decisions are absolute. I believe it will soon set its irrevocable seal upon the work of Wilfred Campbell. The new volume is attractive in its appearance, and contains a portrait of the author. Its price is $3.50.

FASHION SHOW AT KENTVILLE

KENTVILLE, June 23—The Fashion Show on Friday, under the auspices of the Olympic Chapter of the I. O. D. E., was an innovation for the Town of Kentville, and proved a decided success. The Old Nicklet Hall looked very attractive with the decorations of lattice work and spruce, while the stage with its settings formed a fitting background for the models to exhibit the various gowns from "The Little Shop". Specialties "The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers", was well acted, while the duet "Mrs. Gallagher and Mrs. Shean", sung by Misses Amy Prescott and Mona Parsons told of the wares of "The Little Shop" at Wolfville, and proved a decided "hit". The gowns for sport, afternoon and evening wear, all charming, were on sale after the show. Afternoon tea was served by the members of the I. O. D. E., and the music by the Middleton Orchestra was especially good.

The evening was given over to dancing, with specialties under the direction of "The Little Shop". A bridal shower, with girls of Kentville and Wolfville showering the "bride-to-be" with gifts, displayed many articles made at "The Little Shop". Then, the wedding party, with bride and groom, flower girls, bridesmaids and guests showed correct and beautiful wedding apparel. The afternoon specialties were repeated, also a song by Mrs. Eugene Eaton, and a duet "In Kentville", by Miss Hemmeon and Mrs. Owen Porter.

The music by the Middleton Orchestra was enjoyed by the crowd of dancers, and the whole affair was a great success.

netting a substantial sum for the I. O. D. E.

The chaperones for the evening were Mrs. J. D. Clark, Regent; Mrs. J. P. McGrath, and Mrs. T. A. Lydiard.

CANADA

Canada our Canada, thy name is music rare,
All thy children singing it from sea to sea;

Fearsome are thy mountain tops, thy valleys kind and fair,
All thy children laughing 'neath thy sky so free.

Canada, our Canada, be thoughtful of tomorrow,
'Mid the joyful singing hear the cry of pain!

Shall the world-old tragedy be writ once more in sorrow?
Shall the name of freedom be empty once again?

Professor—"But, Janet, they are the only feet I have."

"Oh, Wife, these look like the biscuits my mother baked twenty years ago."

Mr. Bellows (biting one)—"And, by George, I believe they are the same biscuits."

1. Winthrop Asphalt Tapered Slates are the big butt Asphalt Slates. They are the only Asphalt Slates that give a shadow line, which so improves the appearance of a roof—something architects have long wanted in Asphalt Slates.

2. They are scientifically constructed. They are tapered. Being thicker at one end, the butt of the overlapping slate lies flat on the upper part of the slate in the row below. No rain or snow can accumulate underneath—wind cannot get under them and blow them off.

3. A glance at the illustration will show another very decided advantage of the taper—great wear resistance. Being tapered, extra thickness and weight are distributed where extra thickness and weight are needed—in the butt, the part exposed to the weather.

We have obtained a special license to manufacture these slates under the brand

THE CALL OF THE BOY

(By Charles Keith.)
 We have heard about tariff and taxes.
 And problems of ruling and state;
 We know all about parties and platforms,
 And politics little and great.
 But 'midst all the din and confusion
 Of struggles for riches and joy,
 Have you heard the new note that is sounding?
 Have you heard the call of the boy?
 Louder and louder we hear it,
 A cry from the homes that we view,
 A call from the men in the making,
 Commanding attention from you.
 It tells of the training of leaders,
 And this is the call we enjoy;
 It tells of defeat at the outset;
 'Tis a pretty grim call from the boy.
 The scene of our story has shifted;
 It is night and a boy has left home;
 He meets the gang down at the corner,
 Where evils unspeakable roam.
 Then actions take place that are tragic
 For wild, reckless pleasure decoys,
 And souls that were white have been darkened;
 'Tis a pitiful call from our boys.
 And we who are grown must remember,
 When tempted to watch them aslake,
 That most boys who go wrong are not vicious,
 And a'll that they ask is a chance—
 Just a chance to make good in the battle,

 They are pleading for this. Will you grant it?
 Will you answer the call of the boys?

HOW "LEAD KINDLY LIGHT" WAS WRITTEN
 In his book, "Apologia pro Vita Sua", Cardinal Newman tells the story of his famous hymn's composition while on a trip on the Continent.
 "Before starting for my inn I sat down on my bed and began to sob-bitterly. My servant asked what ailed me. I could only answer: "I have work to do in England". I was aching to get home, yet, for want of a vessel, I was kept at Palermo for three weeks.
 "I began to visit the churches, and they calmed my impatience, though I did not attend any services. At last I got off in an orange boat bound for Marseilles. We were becalmed for a whole week in the Straits of Bonifacio, and it was there that I wrote "Lead, Kindly Light".

DR. PATTERSON ADDRESSES NORMAL GRADUATES

The closing exercises of the Provincial Normal College, Truro, were held on Thursday of last week. The chief speaker was Dr. F. W. Patterson, president of Acadia University, whose excellent address was listened to with great interest and pleasure.

He likened the year's work of the students to a long heavy grade which they had overcome, and found that now it had slipped out behind them. "No individual achieves more," he said, "than his thought of his achievement. It is how we think of our work that brings success. Teaching the subjects of the curriculum is merely incidental. A teacher must not teach a subject, but a student. A teacher must, of course, know the subject, but far more important is it to know the student. No two students are alike, and education will mean as different things as there are number of students. Emphasis should be placed on people, rather than matter, but a good teacher must know them both. Children should be taught subjects to certain definite ends. The great problem of education is to teach people how to live with their fellows harmoniously.

"When we see all the trouble between different classes, capital and labor, etc.", Dr. Patterson went on, "it would seem as though education had failed in this respect. The ethical and moral contact in the curriculum could be taught in two ways. It could be injected from without, or the morals in the curriculum exploited. Morals are not taught, but caught, just as good English can never be successfully taught, but must be caught. The great trouble is, the pupil has already caught the wrong thing before the teacher has a chance to let him catch the right. All the subjects of the curriculum exploit morals. History is the story of people who have tried to live with others successfully and failed in most cases. Geography is the description of the habitat of those trying to live with their fellows. Literature is the thoughts of seers of other ages who wrote on this great problem of living. Mathematics is the calculation of time and space under which men solve this same problem. Each of us should live for the good of all, and all for the good of each. We learn by incarnation, not exposition. Boys and girls should be taught to be efficient members of society."

The following students from this county were awarded Superior First Rank Diplomas:

Kathleen Elberta Bowby, B. A., Aylesford.

Eather Crichton, B. A., Berwick.

Josephine Harris, B. A., Canning.

Norma Eloise Webster, B. A., Kentville.

Eileen Kirk Willey, B. A., Upper Canard.

Hilda Johnson, B. A., Greenwich, and Ruth Sheffield, Upper Canard, will be eligible for Superior First Rank on full.

PREMIER DRURY DEFEATED

The United Farmers elected 17 candidates, the Liberals 14, Labor 4, Independent 1. The new government's majority will be greater than the total combined opposition.

filling conditions of teaching, etc. Emma Bigelow, Canning, was awarded First Rank Diploma, and Margaret Burbridge, Lower Canard, and Muriel Butler, Berwick, second Rank Diplomas.
