

CANNOT GET HANDS TO PUT DOWN FRUIT.

Cold Storage Houses Overcrowded at Canneries in Fruit District,

But the City People Are Not Buying Much Because of High Prices.

Beamsville, Sept. 16.—(Special).—It would be well, perhaps, to have nipped near the bud the wandering speculations and wild fancies of those who are prophesying slow starvation for the farmers of the Niagara district and Ontario at large this coming winter.

Peaches, white flesh, 50 to 60c. Peaches, yellow flesh, $1.25 to $1.50. Plums, Lombard, 40c. Plums, Reine Claude, 65 to 75c. Plums, Bradshaw, 40c.

WILFRID LAURIER, PREMIER OF CANADA, AND THE VANCOUVER RACE RIOTS.

The Man In Overalls

When John Patterson's road is built the Guelph people can come down and buy their weekly groceries.

Seeing that Whitney favors the ward system, why does the Con. Club oppose it?

Now that flour is up, bread may also go up. But when flour goes down, does the price of the loaf go down? Hardly.

The latest Barton murder clue has the distinction of being as probable as any of its predecessors. The murderer must be quite amused at them all.

The yellow peril seems to be largely made up of yellow stories from the coast.

The Herkimer street win is either a hollow or a moral victory.

Under the ward system men will be elected on their merits, and not because they belong to a certain lodge or party.

Expense be blowed. See next year's School Board appropriation.

Perhaps Mr. Starr could find out a few things about the license business in Hamilton were he to turn on the search light.

Mr. Borden should go and get a reputation before he hurls challenges at the Minister of Justice.

No doubt it is just as well to be sober and sorry as to be maudlin and merry.

Come around and see our new $25,000 press eating up miles of paper.

There is no excuse for staying away from church this fine, cool weather.

You don't need a high-priced captain around the basin when Myles Hunting can do the work just as well, if not better.

What the chauffeurs should strive after is an odorless gasoline.

Borden's one-ringed circus would hardly make a sideshow to the Laurier combination that will soon be on the road.

Is Davie Hastings training to be Haldimand's peerless son?

The City Engineer's railway route is still lying up in the west end. Couldn't it be sold to help to cut down the overdrift?

But will John Patterson's road be built by white or yellow labor? Anything in the by-law about that?

If you are a school teacher and want your salary increased, all you have to do is send in your resignation, and up goes the wages.

No, Maudie, I don't object to girls having their fling, as you call it. But I think they should be guided a little bit by what their mother says.

At last active operations are underway for the removal of Sir John's monument. No swearing now.

This must be the good old summer time come back again.

MR. CLEVELAND.

And Will Likely Have to Answer in Court.

Harley Maddocks, 231 Barton street east, and a boy named Whiteman, 28 Euclid avenue, are likely to appear at the Police Court as the result of an escapade at St. Andrew's Church last night.

The sermon was barely started when the two lads mentioned, it is alleged, stole into the shed, and taking the horse out, drove it around town till near 8 o'clock.

Mr. Bull was waiting in the shed when his horse walked in, looking as if it had been driven very hard, and he immediately drove to No. 3 Police Station and reported the matter. He has not yet decided whether or not to prosecute.

After having investigated the circumstances connected with the death of Mrs. Smith, nee Julia Vodska, as she was known before leaving the Sherman avenue house where she lived, the local police authorities have concluded that there is no ground for the belief of the woman's relatives here that her death was caused by kicks which she is alleged to have received about the time she expected to be confined.

her last illness, has assured Chief Smith that there were no marks of violence upon her body, and that her death was not due to ill-treatment, as her relatives believed when they asked that the body be exhumed, and an inquest held. His report is that the deceased woman was taken ill at 42 Dundas street, Brantford, and removed to the hospital there suffering from convulsions. She had a still-born baby, and did not live long after being admitted to the hospital.

OLD SWEETHEARTS

Married in Windsor After a Lapse of Many Years.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 16.—There is a touch of romance in the wedding at Point Edward of James D. Wilkie, of Windsor, and Mrs. Annie Marrs, of Beamsville, formerly Miss Annie Atherton, of Windsor. They were sweethearts in youth and pledged their troth, but a misunderstanding separated them. Each took a life partner, and each survived the union.

Important Encyclical Issued by Pope Pius.

Rome, Sept. 16.—The Osservatore Romano, the organ of the Vatican, to-day issued an important encyclical of Pope Pius X. on "Modernism," which really is a completion of his recent syllabus. The document sets forth that modernism is a serious danger to the church, refers in detail to the various features of modernism, condemns it as dangerous to philosophy, faith, theology, history, criticism and reforms, and arrives at the conclusion that modernism is a synthesis of all heresy and must logically lead to heism.

THROWN ON FLY WHEEL AND WHIRLED TO INSTANT DEATH

Collapse of Platform Over Engines at Union Furnace Company's Plant in Buffalo.

Buffalo, Sept. 16.—Hurled into a rapidly revolving fly wheel by the collapse of a platform over the engines, John Fitzpatrick, an engineer at the Buffalo Union Furnace Company's plant at the foot of Hamburg street, was whirled to instant death yesterday afternoon. His neck was snapped and his skull was battered in several places. In the twinkling of an eye his mangled body was cast aside by the powerful wheel.

Clark was standing in the middle of the platform, and it is due to this fact that he escaped with his life. Fitzpatrick was directly over the flywheel of one of the engines. He was dashed headfirst into the wheel, which was turning so fast that the spokes were not discernible. The big wheel caught the unfortunate man's head and twisted it as a giant would turn a doorknob. As it flung the lifeless body away the blood splashed all over the engine room. The body was caught against the base of a sister engine beside which Clark was lying.

Returning From Dominion Fair.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 15.—A fearful head-on collision between the southbound Quebec express and a northbound freight train of the Concord division of the Boston & Maine Railroad occurred four miles north of Canada station early to-day, due to a mistake in train despatcher's orders, and from a demolished passenger coach there were taken 24 dead and dying and 27 other passengers more or less wounded. Nearly all those who were in the fatal car were returning from the Dominion Exhibition at Sherbrooke, Quebec, 160 miles north. The conductor of the freight train was given to understand that he had plenty of time to reach a siding by the night operator at Canada station, receiving, according to the superintendent of the division, a copy of a telegraph order from the train despatcher at Concord, which confused the train numbers 30 and 34.

The wreck occurred just after the express had rounded into a straight stretch of track, but owing to the early morning mist neither engineer saw the other's headlight until it was too late.

Mistake in Train Numbers.

The southbound train originated at Sherbrooke last evening, where it picked up two sleepers from Quebec and two more on the way down. It consisted of the baggage car, passenger coach, smoking car, in that order, with the sleepers in the rear. The train left White River Junction at 3:45 a. m. and arrived at Concord, where it followed twenty minutes later by the Montreal express over the Central Vermont Railroad. The Quebec train is known as No. 30, and the Montreal train as No. 34.

In the meantime a northbound freight train had arrived at Canada, eighteen miles down the road, at 4:20 a. m., on time.

According to Superintendent W. R. Ray, J. R. Crowley, the night train despatcher at Concord, sent a despatch to John Greeley, the night operator at Canada, that No. 34 was one hour and ten minutes late. The order which Conductor Lawrence, of the freight train, showed after the accident distinctly states that No. 30, instead of 34, was an hour and ten minutes late. Conductor Lawrence, believing that he had sufficient time in the hour and ten minutes to reach the siding track at West Canada, four miles beyond, before No. 30 reached it, ordered his train ahead. The superintendent declared that the accident was due to the mistake in placing a cipher after the three in the number of the train instead of a four.

Crashed in the Fog.

The morning was a dull, misty one, and the long freight train, with a score of heavily loaded cars, lumbered up the long grade towards West Canada at the usual speed. On the other side of the curve was the Quebec express, sliding down the single track with her heavy load of passengers and the four heavy sleepers in the rear. The freight train was on a straight piece of track about a mile in length, and the Quebec express had rounded a curve into this stretch when each engineer saw the headlight of the opposite train burst out of the fog.

Both engineers set their brakes and then jumped, while the two great locomotives crashed into each other, and rolled into the ditch. The baggage car in the rear was hurled back into the passenger coach like a great ram and tore it asunder from end to end.

The Work of Rescue.

The ill-fated passenger coach was filled with more than fifty people. One of those who escaped said that as the train was rounding a curve someone in the front of the car began to sing, so that nearly everyone was awake when the crash came.

When those who were in the other cars recovered their dazed senses they hurried to the demolished passenger coach, where groans, cries and shrieks were rending the air.

Fortunately, with the engines off to one side, the wreckage did not take fire. The train hands, ably seconded by the passengers from the sleeping cars, groped their way among the ruins and began their work of rescue. The bodies of the dead were laid beside the track quickly but tenderly, while the rescuers turned their attention to those who needed aid. Great beams were lifted, pieces of joists were thrown aside, and the bleeding and mangled forms were dragged out and laid on the backs of broken seats or upon blankets from the sleeping cars. Wounds were hastily bound up, and deep cuts patched with strips torn from the bedding of the sleepers. The little band worked diligently and faithfully in the dawn of day before the doctors came.

The neighborhood is sparsely settled, but the few farmers who were nearby awoke and lent every aid to the work of rescue.

Montreal Express Saved. The accident was not without a happy ending. A Montreal express, which was en route to New York, was stopped at West Canada by the wreck. The train was delayed for several hours, but was finally allowed to proceed on its way without further incident.

A YOUNG RAFFLES.

Amos Morrow Captured by the Police With Four Hundred Dollars' Worth of Jewelry on His Person—Suspected of Other Thefts.

Toronto, Sept. 16.—A boy of seventeen named Amos Morrow, who promises to develop into a rival of the mythical Raffles if not diverted from the path of evil, was caught red-handed on Saturday morning in Toronto whilst in the act of robbing the home of Mr. David Weismuller, 35 Springhurst avenue. When captured Morrow had in his pockets about $400 worth of jewellery, which has been identified as the property of three robberies committed in Toronto during the past week, and the police are hoping to find as a result about $700 worth more, which are still missing and which have been taken from eight other houses in Toronto during the past month under similar circumstances to the other three robberies.

The boy is an escaped prisoner, having broken from custody four weeks ago from the Children's Shelter, where he was lodged over night while awaiting trial on another charge in the Police Court. On the day following his escape the first of the eleven robberies took place, and the others have been reported at intervals since. All were daylight robberies. Mr. Weismuller capturing the boy in his drawing-room at 11 o'clock in the morning.

Morrow since his escape from the Shelter had been rooming at a house on Beverley street, the address of which had no idea that the boy was earning his livelihood in a dishonest manner.

Many Doctors Failed

Dr. Hamilton Again Figures in a Case That Puzzled Other Physicians.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 16.—When the statement of Mrs. Stanley, of 148 Argyle street, was first given it caused no small comment, and again it caused such a physician who understands his profession none excel Dr. Hamilton. "For years," says Mrs. Stanley, "I have suffered greatly from a peculiar dragging weakness that resulted from pleurisy and asthma. Doctors prescribed, but failed to advise anything of real benefit. A friend urged me to try Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut and I bought five boxes. They gave me renewed strength and energy, toned my stomach, enriched my blood, and supplied just what my system needed. No medicine could have benefited more than Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and I believe every one would be helped enormously by using these pills regularly. They did me more lasting good than all the prescriptions I took in five years."

No man or woman in poor health ever used Dr. Hamilton's Pills without benefit, the depressed, ailing and weak try uplift and strengthen as a trial always proves.

SOAP WAR AGAIN.

PRICES ARE BEING CUT IN ALL DIRECTIONS IN BRITAIN.

The Railways Are Being Sued—One Company Claims That Their Rivals Are Securing Priority or Rebates.

London, Sept. 15.—England's soap war has begun again. Prices which were raised a year ago at the time of the formation of the combine on the ground of the increased costliness of the raw materials are now being cut in all directions, and the break up of the combine will be followed by a bitter struggle between the leading manufacturers.

The largest company in the country, the Levers, of Port Sunlight, is taking action on American lines. They have entered lawsuits against most of the railway companies for giving their rivals, the Watsons, of Leeds, preferential treatment in the form of priority or rebates in carrying their goods. Each of these manufacturers got £50,000 damages from the Daily Mail combination of newspapers for libels in connection with articles on the soap trade at the time of the formation of the combine.

It is notorious that the system of rebates and secret commissions is widely prevalent among English railroads, and though it is admittedly illegal, practically nothing has been done to stop it. The late Lord Chief Justice Russell, of Killowen, got a bill through Parliament, making the giving or receiving of secret commissions a crime, punishable with imprisonment, but the practice was immediately masked in various guises and is probably more rife than ever.

ADMITTS THE ROBBERY.

E. J. Zeaman Arrested at Glencoe for Thomastown Holdup.

St. Thomas, Sept. 15.—Donald J. Ross, Woodstock, arrested here on suspicion of being connected with the E. J. Zeaman robbery at Thomastown, was freed in the charge. It being learned that Edwin Joseph Zeaman of Atwood had been arrested at Glencoe and confessed to the crime. Zeaman did not leave Thomastown till Friday night, hanging around the depot for two hours and giving Operator Millen a second scare. He boarded a freight and at Glencoe was met by the night operator and a constable. Millen identified Zeaman as the thief.

Body Found at Weston.

Weston, Sept. 15.—Last evening about 9 o'clock as the C. P. R. train going east passed the Church street crossing the crew noticed something lying across the Great Trunk track, and notified the officials at the station. They discovered it to be the body of a man about forty years of age terribly mangled, supposed to have fallen from a passing train.

Ten Thousand Witnesses.

New York, Sept. 15.—Ten thousand witnesses will be summoned before the Attorney-General in his investigations into the alleged frauds of the last Mayoralty election. Twelve process servers will begin the service of subpoenas to-morrow and the investigation will be carried on in the Attorney-General's branch office in New York City.

A FATAL SHOCK.

WIFE AND CHILDREN SAW HARVEY HILL KILLED.

He Took Them for a Drive When He Went to Turn Off Electric Light Switches—Probably Grasped Wrong Part—Fatality at the Falls.

Niagara Falls, Sept. 15.—Harvey Hill, Ferry street, met a horrible death last evening. He was an employee of the city works department, and one of his duties was to go round the streets early in the evening and close the switches controlling electric street lights. Last evening he started on this round with a horse and carriage, taking his wife and children with him. At the corner of Ferry and Clark streets he got out of the rig, went to a switch box, opened it and stood there.

After a minute or two one of the children went over and touched him, whereupon the father's body dropped to the ground. It is supposed that when he put his hand into the dark box he got hold of a copper part of the switch instead of the insulated handle. The current started through his body, killing him instantly. Doctors could do nothing for him, and his body was taken to the morgue.

COMPASS FAILED.

WHY WELLMAN ABANDONED EXPEDITION TO POLE.

The America Remained in Air for Over Three Hours and Proved Her Power and Capability of Being Steered.

Berlin, Sept. 15.—Walter Wellman, head of the Wellman-Chicago Record-Herald polar expedition, has sent the following cablegram to the Lokal Anzeiger from Tromsøe:

"After the steamer Express cast off the cable the balloon America did excellently, but an increasing wind soon gave us a hard struggle, and the storm drove us toward some high, jagged mountains near the coast, where the airship would have been destroyed if she struck. There then ensued a hard fight between the storm and the motor. The latter triumphed, and we slowly rounded the north end of Foul Island in the teeth of the wind. Our confidence in the America had so increased in the meanwhile that I gave the order to start for the north pole.

The wind, however, increased to twelve miles an hour, and snow fell so thickly that we could not see a quarter of a mile. Just then the compass failed to act owing to defective construction. We were completely lost in a snow-storm above the polar sea, and threatened with destruction. After a brief deliberation we decided to try and get back to the Express to rectify our compass and start again. It was impossible, however, to keep in one direction, and we were again carried into dangerous proximity to the mountains. Vaniman, the engineer, then made the motor run at top speed, and the America moved a second time against the wind, which probably was blowing fifteen miles an hour. She circled three times in the teeth of the wind. We saw the Express for a moment, but immediately lost her again. Under the circumstances the only thing possible was to try to land. With this idea we stopped the motor and let the America drift over the glacier.

"After crossing the glacier we opened the valve and landed on the upper glacier, half a mile in shore. The landing was effected successfully. The numerous delicate instruments were not injured. The America was in the air for three hours and fifteen minutes, and covered about fifteen miles with her own machinery. She made three loops against the wind, proving her power and capability of being steered. The ascent was successful in every respect. After this successful attempt we are all convinced the America, in normal summer weather, can make her way to the pole."

INSANITY IN BRITAIN.

The Lunacy Commissioners' Report Shows an Increase.

London, Sept. 15.—The annual report of the Lunacy Commissioners, published this week, shows a disquieting increase in the population of Great Britain's asylums.

At the beginning of this year one out of every 232 persons in England and Wales was reported to be insane. Ten years ago the ratio of insane persons was only one to 314. From 1869 to 1906 the population of England and Wales increased 55.12 per cent, while the insane increased 133 per cent.

A significant fact brought to light by the report is the spread of senile dementia, which alone accounted for over 38 per cent of last year's fresh lunacy cases. Discussing this phase of the situation, one medical authority expressed the belief that we live too long for the kind of work most of us do.

"The advanced medical knowledge of to-day," said the authority referred to, "keeps a multitude of persons alive whose minds are practically worn out. The present age demands more brain work and nerve strain from every one than was demanded only a few years ago. There is less and less demand for people who can use only their hands. The physical wear and tear has decreased, while the brain work and the strain on the nervous system have increased.

"The result is that the mind dies first, and the body is kept alive by medical science, which thus adds to the growing list of senile dementia cases in our asylums."

FIRST HUNTING ACCIDENT.

A Glancing Bullet Entered Alvan S. Clay's Brain.

Owen Sound, Sept. 15.—The remains were brought here on Friday night of Alvan Stanley Clay, from Byng Inlet, near which place he was accidentally killed as a result of a gun accident on Wednesday. In company with another young man, Herbert Hoey, Clay was hunting some miles up the Still River, and a glancing shot from Hoey's gun, which had struck a tree, hit Clay fair on the cheek, entering the brain. Death followed in a few minutes. As they were some distance inland from the river, Hoey was compelled to carry the body of his companion to the canoe and bring it down the river to Byng Inlet.

The deceased was in his twenty-eighth year, unmarried, and at the time of his death was a partner with Hoey in the coast trading business in the small schooner Mermaid.

UNION WITHIN FIVE YEARS.

Dr. Williamson of Emerald Church Makes That Prediction.

New Pastor Begins Ministry at Herkimer Baptist.

Epworth League Anniversary in Charlton Avenue Church.

The Methodists, Presbyterians and Congregationalists would be united within five years, if not sooner, was the belief expressed by Rev. Dr. Williamson, whose theme in the Emerald Street Methodist Church last evening was "Church Union." His views were presented in a clear, concise manner in a discourse that bristled with optimism.

"One of the greatest movements of this century or of any century of this land or any land," he said, "is this marvellous movement on foot at the present time for the union of these three denominations. Fifty years ago it would have been hooted and rejected. Twenty-five years ago it would have caused a smile. But the days are changing, and sentiment is changing rapidly."

Dr. Williamson explained that the committee meeting in Toronto during the past week would probably conclude on Tuesday evening, but the conference would go on until union was an accomplished fact, or it was demonstrated an impossibility.

"As for my personal feeling on this," he said, "my heart is not in favor of it, but my hand is. I would personally prefer the Methodist Church should go on as it is, but my judgment tells me that union would be one of the great steps towards the advancement of the evangelization of the world the Christian churches ever knew. It may be asked why other churches are not in it. We have delayed the conference nearly a year to receive the reply of the Baptist and Church of England churches. The Baptist Church has been very candid. Its views on infant baptism, close communion and other lines make it look as if it was positively out of the question. The Church of England cannot give an answer until there is a full meeting of the Synod. Personally I do not believe it will ever come in. I feel sure it would not be willing to yield its distinctive views on apostolic succession for the sake of union, and I am personally sure the other churches would not adopt it under any consideration."

"As to the union of the other churches I firmly believe it will come. It may not be within the next year, but I do not think it will take any longer."

Dr. Williamson declared that God was behind the movement, and it was bound to succeed. The indications of this were apparent in the wonderful way that points threatening to block the move faded away, but he urged the New York Christian Advocate had said, the basis of unionism for the Canadian churches was a marvel of the age. In the men who were agitating for the union the speaker found another strong argument in its favor. Were it the young men, he might regard it with suspicion, but those who were pleading for it were the old fathers, whose hairs were whiten for the tomb, presidents of the colleges, whose positions would be endangered and sacrificed by the merger that must necessarily follow union. Dr. Williamson said prejudice might be one disadvantage, but he urged the saving of men and money, which could be better used in expanding and furthering Christianity at home and abroad, as important reasons for the union. He explained briefly many of the concessions made on both sides, and emphasized that the spirit dominating the conference was not one of defeat, but one of hope, and that how much can we get for our church, but how much can we surrender. The proposed church courts, where laymen would be equally represented, corresponded with the quarterly boards, the district meeting, annual meeting and general conference.

"The idea," he emphasized, "is to establish a church on the broadest basis and widest liberty."

Wherever a church was self-sustaining and desired to support its own minister without merging with another, it could do so. Each church would have the greatest freedom. Everyone before anything definite was done would have a chance to voice their opinion through their accredited representatives. Dr. Williamson, after commenting on the spirit of love and union that seemed to be abroad in the land, prophesied that the eyes of the world were on the proposed union of Canadian churches, and its result, one way or the other, would have the greatest effect on this continent and the old land.

Epworth League Anniversary.
Charlton Avenue Church was packed to overflowing yesterday morning, the event being the anniversary of the Epworth League of the church, and an appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. A. J. Johnston, of Woodstock. The line upon which the sermon ran was indicated in the three words, "Come, abide, go," and on these three words Mr. Johnston delivered an able and eloquent address. They were the words that led the Saviour on in His work of salvation, and they also were the words of the disciples and all teachers of Christ. The teachers of the present day cannot do better than accept them, he said, and they should be adopted by all persons who want to tread in the path of righteousness.

They should be the by-words and motto of Epworth Leagues, and no man or body of men who study the biblical interpretation of the words and follow it will go astray.

Special music of an excellent nature was contributed. Mr. Johnston also preached the Woodstock pulpit.

Rev. McDiarmid Here.
Large congregations attended both services of Herkimer Baptist Church yesterday, the occasion being the induction of Rev. Hugh McDiarmid, the new pastor. He is a young man, but has an enthusiastic way that carries his hearers with him. His style is plain, forceful, and always to the point, and his success is assured.

At the morning service, Mr. McDiarmid told his text, Exodus 13, 21, "And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead the way; and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light: to go by day and night."

He said he had been crying for the past few days to see upon a word that might be taken as a motto for the pastor and congregation. He thought he had found the right word. It was "Progress." He believed that word was necessary to inspire the church to victory.

The Daily Fashion Hint.

House Gown of Blue Cashmere.

Blue cashmere and blue and white spotted foulard are used for this charming house gown. The chemise is separate from the rest of the gown, which goes on over the head. The front is cut down half way to the belt, and ties at the neck with silk the same shade as the cashmere. The same silk is used to trim the foulard portions of the gown. The cashmere is trimmed with Roman ribbon outlined by fine black soutache. The belt slips through the openings in the edge of the front and back, and holds the folds of silk, which otherwise hang loose from the sleeve to the hem, to admit the arms when the gown is put on.

Progress was being made in every branch of nature, and it was natural, and it should be applied to the church of God. Progress should always be its aim, in winning people for Jesus Christ. But to make progress one must be right with God, and unless that is the condition nothing can be accomplished for the welfare of the people.

Mr. McDiarmid went on to show that progress in the church demanded at least three things, knowledge, obedience and zeal. One could not know of the great fundamental truths of God except through knowledge. Obedience to God's will is necessary and zeal is also necessary to keep one interested.

At Erskine Church.
Despite the extreme heat of yesterday the congregations were large at both services in the Erskine Presbyterian Church. In the morning, Rev. S. Burnside Russell discoursed on the subject of "Influence," the text was Romans 14th chapter and the 7th verse. "For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself." The nature of a man's influence is decided by the kind of life he lives. Paul says by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one many shall be made righteous. This is true not only in the one supreme example of goodness, but in the lives of all who have responded to the sweet voice of Jesus Christ. We are not only the heirs of past ages, we are the central point for ages to come because our lives are going out, and touching other lives, and repeating themselves upon them. Men can only exert on their fellows the influence of their true self. Parents need not hope to influence their families for good if they conceal impurity in the life and do not show the fountain for cleansing. Let us grow in likeness to Christ and every step of inward progress will make us worth more to every cause with which we are identified. The most terrible sin possible is to propagate a destructive influence.

In the evening Rev. Mr. Russell delivered an earnest and able discourse from 2nd Timothy, 1st chapter, and the 5th verse. "The unfeigned faith which is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois and thy mother Eunice." The influence of godly ancestry in the life of Timothy was brought out in an able way.

Robert Symmers, during the evening, sang the "Prodigal's Return," which was well rendered.

Rev. Dr. Moffatt Here.
Rev. Dr. Moffatt, of Erskine Church, Montreal, occupied the pulpit of St. Paul's Church yesterday morning and evening. In the evening, to a large congregation, he preached a thoughtful sermon on "Faith and Persistence," his text being St. Luke 18: 1-8. "Nevertheless, when the Son of Man cometh, shall He find faith on earth?" In the course of his sermon the preacher said that while it is good to pray—necessary to pray, prayer in itself is not enough. We must have a definite object in view and keep at it till the object is attained.

But for faith life on earth would not be much. It is faith in other men that cause capitalists to build shops and railroads. Faith was never more in evidence than it is to-day, notwithstanding the attacks of a certain kind of higher critics. Some of these attacks are blasphemous.

Becoming Autumn millinery

Authoritative new styles of distinction

THE public enthusiasm that has greeted our Autumn millinery opening display is practical evidence of the beauty and distinctive style of Right House creations. Now that critical Hamilton women are stirred to enthusiasm over the individuality and artistic beauty of the hats we have turned our attention to value-giving.

The new hats are at once stunning and becoming. One notes first the soft colorings—Paris told us weeks ago to expect them—then the graceful new shapes, the plumes, the new wings and breasts combined with velvets and silks—silk shirred, tucked, plaited, folded, looped and crushed. Many models are exquisitely trimmed with large flowers.

The new shapes are a radical change from last season, but they are becoming to every face and lend an individual air to the Autumn costume.

Here you will find hundreds of smart ready-to-wear hats and scores of trimmed hats. There are the new off-the-face styles, the new cloche effects and the exquisite plume laden picture hats.

Every hat is practical, tasteful and becoming—becoming, that and good values are the keynotes of the display.

Asiatic Exclusion League Meeting Discusses Boycotting of Chinese Restaurants Where Chinese Help Is Employed—Government Agent Leaves for Vancouver—Jap Envoy at Ottawa.

Vancouver, Sept. 15.—The Asiatic Exclusion League held a meeting last evening to elect officers. The recent disturbances were discussed in so far as they related to the employment of Chinese in restaurants. Mention was made of the fact that patronizing restaurants where Chinese were engaged as cooks was assisting the oriental. Nothing was done by the meeting regarding this. Telegrams were read from Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. R. G. Macpherson, M.P. for Vancouver, who is in the east, pointing out that law and order must be preserved. All is quiet in the city and all apprehension has subsided. Chinese and Japanese appear on the street without evidence of molestation. The Japanese, however, will resent any appearance of intrusion on the part of white men, showing they will not be caught unawares if any further violence is attempted. None, however, is anticipated. The investigation of the Asiatic Exclusion League has been reported in American papers, realizing that they have been gullied by some Vancouver correspondents, and are now seeking the correct version. Very distorted fiction has appeared in the papers both on the other side and in eastern Canada.

Japanese Attitude is Friendly to Canada.
Ottawa, Sept. 15.—A cable has been received by Hon. T. Nossé, Japanese Consul-General, from Tokyo, giving him information of the attitude of the public in regard to the Vancouver disturbance. It says: "The feeling, in spite of the character of the disturbance being very much greater than that of San Francisco, is, throughout, most friendly. While greatly regretting the incident, the people are not in the least averse to a dominion of the British Empire, whose ally Japan is, the tone of the press is very calm and the public shows no excitement, all depending upon the friendship, justice and fair play of the Government and people of Canada, and also fully expecting that the very best means will be taken by the authorities for the protection of Japanese lives and property and the reaching of an amicable settlement of the trouble."

Going to Vancouver.
At midnight on Saturday Mr. W. D. Scott, Superintendent of Immigration, left Ottawa for Vancouver, where he will make a thorough investigation of the present immigration problem. After investigation he will report to the Government, and may suggest further amendments to the immigration laws to apply principally to British Columbia's problem. Before leaving for the west he had a long conference with Hon. Mr. Oliver and Mr. Cory relative to the whole subject.

The Japanese Envoy.
Mr. K. Ishii, the special envoy of the Japanese Government, sent to America to investigate Japanese immigration to Canada and the United States, arrived in Ottawa this afternoon from Vancouver. He was received at the depot by Consul-General Nossé and Mr. F. C. T. O'Hara, of the Trade and Commerce Department, on behalf of the Government. Tomorrow Mr. Ishii will have an interview with the Premier and other Ministers of the Crown, and the Canadian view point will be fully set forth to him. The Government will insist on some arrangement to limit the number of immigrants each year, and it is confidently expected that the Japanese Government will agree to this. All the Ministers have been invited to meet Mr. Ishii at dinner at the residence of Mr. Nossé on Tuesday evening next.

Nineteen Go to Trial.
Vancouver, Sept. 14.—The last of the 19 rioters were committed for trial. The Crown was successful with all but two of those arrested on that charge, one being dismissed, the other fined. Bail will be granted on all committed till October 1.

For Carrying a Knife, Kadara, a Japanese, was fined $10 and costs. Some cases of assault still remain.

Victoria School Board has decided that Chinese students unable to read the English language will not be admitted to public schools of the capital city. A test case will be made.

System of Passports.
London, Sept. 14.—The weekly reviews give the chief place in their issues today to the Vancouver riots. All admit the seriousness of the question and deprecate the violence used, but suggest no remedy. The Saturday Review states that there is no ignoring the fact that Imperial obligations and the sentiment of large masses of British subjects are divergent on a vital point. It suggests a conference between Britain and the self-governing colonies to decide on a policy which must be unflinchingly adhered to.

The Outlook admits the correctness of popular instinct in British Columbia, but says that in thinking this question is to be considered on merely utilitarian grounds the people of British Columbia are pursuing an irreproachable object by methods at once impolitic and disgraceful.

The Nation suggests compromise on the question of yellow immigration, adding that it would be folly to ignore the contingency which our peculiar Asiatic relations may force on our consideration if the more headstrong colonists refuse to listen to counsels of moderation.

The Spectator says the Imperial Government must treat openly and frankly with the Chinese and Japanese Governments and induce them to prohibit the migration of laborers except under strict regulations regarding number and character, and, if possible, return, and Spectator looks for a solution in a system of passports.

HOME-MADE RECIPE.

TO RELIEVE ALL CATARRH SUFFERERS HERE IN HAMILTON.

The coming months will be a harvest for the doctors and patent medicine manufacturers unless great care is taken to keep the feet dry, also dress warmly. This is the advice of a well-known authority and should be heeded by all who are subject to rheumatism, kidney and other troubles, and especially catarrh. While the latter is considered by most sufferers an incurable disease, there are men or women who will fail to experience great relief from the following simple home prescription, and if taken in time it will prevent an attack of catarrh during the entire season.

Here is the prescription, which any one can mix: Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

These are mostly vegetable ingredients and can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost. The Compound Kargon in this prescription acts directly upon the eliminatory tissues of the kidneys to make them filter and strain from the blood, the poisons that produce all forms of catarrhal affections. Relief is often felt after the first few doses and it is seldom that the sufferer ever experiences a return attack within the year.

This prescription makes a splendid remedy for all forms of blood disorders and such troubles as lumbago, bladder weakness and rheumatism pains are entirely dispelled. As this valuable, though simple, recipe comes from a thoroughly reliable source, it should be heeded by every afflicted reader.

MET THE BISHOP.

HUNDREDS ATTENDED AT TRINITY COLLEGE GROUNDS.

His Lordship Urged Churchmen to Uphold Traditions of Church and Make Her an Aggressive Missionary Force—Movements of His Lordship.

Toronto, Sept. 16.—Hundreds of people attended the reception and garden party held in the Trinity College grounds on Saturday afternoon by His Grace the Archbishop of Toronto and Mrs. Sweeney. In his address to the guests His Lordship of London visited the school of the Sisters of the Church, 109 Beverley street, yesterday afternoon and addressed the children.

Today he will address the Canadian Club at luncheon at McConkey's at one o'clock.

At the conclusion of his Canadian tour His Lordship will go to Jamestown, Va., where he will participate in the celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the English colony on this continent, and at the same time represent His Majesty the King at the gathering.

The following message to British immigrants was received last night by the British Welcome League from the Bishop of London: "Be sober and industrious. Do not forget the motherland that gave and preserve her good name unsullied. Have a firm faith in Almighty God and obey His laws. Adapt yourselves to your new environments. Become good citizens. Obey the laws of the country, and the blessing of heaven will rest upon all your undertakings. Then have every reason to thank God that you came to this beautiful country."

FELL A THOUSAND FEET.

Woman Balloonist Dashed to Death at Olean, N. Y.

Olean, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Mrs. Carrie Myers, 32 years of age, of Spring Hill, Mass., a professional balloonist, fell from a parachute 1,000 feet above the fair grounds here to-day, and was dashed to death in plain view of 8,000 people.

Mrs. Myers made her first ascension here on Wednesday, when she sprained her left wrist. On Friday she made another successful ascent, using a life belt attached to the parachute trapeze as a precaution.

Mrs. Myers was asked to use the life belt again to-day, but refused, saying her wrist felt well and strong. When about two thousand feet above the fair grounds this afternoon Mrs. Myers cut loose from the balloon with a double parachute. The web of the parachute sprang out and Mrs. Myers was seen to rise her right hand to release the second, and smaller parachute, holding on to the trapeze rope with her lame hand.

Just as the canvas spread out and the rapid downward flight of the parachute was suddenly checked Mrs. Myers fell over backward. It is believed the sudden jar hurt her lame wrist. Her body struck just outside the fair grounds fence. Every bone in her body was broken.

IN THE WORLD OF AMUSEMENT

The author of the new musical comedy girls' play, "Cupid at Vassar," knows his girl at college as well as he does his society charmer and his hero of the West. The pranks played by the heroine, Kate Newton, and her classmates are by no means confined to the locality of Poughkeepsie. Every girl at boarding school has experienced the same trials as did the fair Kate. There is more fun bottled up in the rehearsal scene of the Vassar College Club than in the average dozen so-called funny plays on the road.

Totten Smith's lyrics, and A. Baldwin Sloan's music are hard to beat. It is in the author's best vein. The keen wit of the real man of the play are enough to thwart the machinations of the bungler at crime and bring happiness to the beloved of his heart. Incidentally there are shown some of the finest character studies exhibited on the road this season. Florence Gear plays the part of Kate. The play comes to the Grand to-night.

At the Savoy.
One of "advanced vaudeville's" prettiest attractions is said to be the act of the Jupter Cowboys, from Oklahoma, a headline attraction on the Savoy's big bill this week. It is certainly one of the most unique illusions on the variety stage. From nowhere, apparently, flowers constantly appear throughout the act until at the close the stage resembles a flower garden. Woodward's Seals, the chief attraction, are said to be justly entitled to the claim of the greatest act of its kind before the public.

The juggling work, playing of the seal and other tricks impress one with the idea of what it is possible to teach these animals. The four Bards, if the advance notices are to be believed, have an acrobatic act in a class by itself. The work is sensational throughout and reputed to be entirely new.

A pleasing feature will be the appearance of Mary Belfort, the English comedienne, a favorite of the music halls, across the foam, and a big hit wherever she has appeared at the Klaw-Erlering houses in this country. Her humorous French songs and coster impersonations, are said to be remarkably clever, while in a recital of "The Rak's Progress," she gives evidence of strong dramatic power. "An Operatic Rehearsal" is the name of a snappy little bit by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hiatt. Adams and Gull, German comedians; Francis Wood, hoop roller; Gardiner and Robinson, clever comedians, and the pictures complete a bill that the dances play to big business throughout the week. It is not the intention of the Savoy management to advertise any act that will not appear, and Robert Fitzsimmons, who was billed to appear here next week, will be seen here later.

Big Show To-morrow.

"The Top of the World" will be seen at the Grand to-morrow night. The ensemble and musical numbers have been staged under the personal direction of Frank Smithson and the authors, Mark E. Swan and James O'Dea, and the composers, Manuel Klein and Anna Caldwell. The dances were all arranged by William Rose, who staged the dances for "The Orchid," and thereby became the talk of Broadway.

There are numerous song hits, among others "Cupid, You and I," sung by Kathleen Clifford and Harry Fairleigh; "How Would You Like to Be My Boy-Boy" by the Collins Ballet; "The Jolly Little Eskimo," "My Shaggy Polar Bear" and "The Doll Song."

At Bennett's.

The prospects are that Bennett's will have the biggest run of business this week of their short but brilliant career. The advance booking is very brisk, the publication of the strong bill being sufficient to stimulate interest and make everyone anxious to see it.

The following press notices about some of the acts at Bennett's will be found interesting: "Mlle. Carliotta has the reputation for being the only woman who loops the loop on a bicycle. Judging by the daredevil way she does it there is no likelihood of her position being challenged for some time. The act is a hair-raiser."—New York Herald.

"Rose Coghlan has made a hit here in her delicate one act play, 'The Higher Law.' The vehicle gives Miss Coghlan plenty of opportunity to display her well known emotional talents and it is exciting and entertaining in a way that could not help but make it popular."—Philadelphia Record.

"Patsy Doyle is a wonder. The way he peels off his funny stuff and keeps the house in roars makes him a fit subject for headline honors on any bill."—Boston Journal.

"The Chadwick trio have it on all that have been seen here for lightning quick dancers, and their absurdity, 'Sals of Mrs. Wiggins' Farm,' is a ten-minute laugh."—Buffalo Courier.

In addition to these there will be the Duo Voie trio, Roman ring experts; Bernier and Steele, singers of rare charm; Foster, dog, a most intelligent animal; the American quartette and the Bennett-graph, with two new films.

Marie Cahill Coming.
That the stage exercises a powerful influence on fashions, and the dresses worn by favorite actresses are copied in private life, few will deny. But it is not only in the matters of dress that the stage draws the attention of women who love pretty things, but also in matters of personal adornment, such as methods of dressing the hair, as well as designs in jewel setting. And often perfumes have been known to have their popularity started by use in some dramatic production. For these reasons much interest is centered in the engagement of Marie Cahill at the Grand to-morrow, September 30, in her smart musical play, "Marrying Mary." In addition to many new suggestions in the matter of gowns and hats, this play has the peculiar record of having popularized in New York city two distinct methods of dressing the hair.

Grace Cameron Pleased.

To say that Grace Cameron delighted Saturday's audiences at the Grand would be putting it very mildly. She made a big hit in the engagement of Marie Cahill at the Grand to-morrow, September 30, in her smart musical play, "Marrying Mary." In addition to many new suggestions in the matter of gowns and hats, this play has the peculiar record of having popularized in New York city two distinct methods of dressing the hair.

Other Shows at Grand.

The title of the play in which Miss Isabel Irving will appear at the Grand on Wednesday night is called "The Girl Who Has Everything," and is from the pen of Clyde Fitch. Mr. Fitch has put into this play a good deal of the human quality which quickly claims attention and wins sympathy, and presents in oral situations which have emotional strength and the force of good dramatic climax. Seats are now on sale.

"Jessie Left the Village," a melodrama with more excitement and thrills crowded into it than any play of the kind written in years, will be the attraction at the Grand on Thursday and Friday nights and Friday matinee. It will be presented by a large company, and something unusual in the way of mechanical and scenic effects. Seats will be on sale on Tuesday morning.

"A Desperate Chance," a melodrama founded on incidents in the life of the notorious Elisha Smith, the attraction at the Grand on Saturday afternoon and evening. This play when presented here last drew a record crowd to the Grand and hundreds were turned away. Seats will be on sale on Thursday.

A TINY WAIST CRAZE.

Revival of the Tight-Lacing Fad in London.
London, Sept. 15.—The Delsarte girl is threatened with an eclipse, for tight-lacing is fashionable again. One of the most exclusive co-resorters in Oxford street, who is the authority for the statement, said to-day: "We are on the verge of another tiny-waist craze. The demand for the smaller sizes in corsets has doubled in the last six months. Eighteen are now in common demand, and orders for seven-inch and sixteen-inch corsets have greatly increased in the last few weeks. Not a few of my clients are systematic dressers for the fashionable means.

"When the eventual size is decided upon three pairs of corsets are made, one for ordinary wear, one for special occasions, and another for night wear."

This same informant said the smallest waist in London was probably possessed by a certain well-known actress, who regularly wore twelve-inch corsets, and felt comfortable in them.

Premier Would Write a Book.
Sir Wilfrid Said to Have Great Literary Ambitions.
Montreal, Que., Sept. 15.—According to Senator David, who is one of the most intimate friends of the Canadian Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, has a great desire to write a history of Canada, that is to say, a history embracing the period from the Confederation of the provinces to the present time. He has often told the Senator that he would like to retire from public life and devote his time to writing such a work, and contributing articles to the great English reviews.

LEGLESS BODY IN NIAGARA.

Tattoo Marks May Lead to Identification.
Niagara Falls, Sept. 15.—The legless body of a man was taken from the Niagara River yesterday at the Canadian Maid of the Mist landing. The body was removed to the Morse undertaking morgue on the Canadian side of the river, and shortly after a leg was taken out of the water, which undoubtedly belonged to the trunk. The leg was also removed to the morgue on the Canadian side.

The body was evidently that of a young man, but it was in a bad state of decomposition. The teeth were short and far apart, and the face was smooth shaven. It should be an easy matter to prove identification, for on the left arm below the elbow is tattooed an anchor. On one side of the anchor are the initials "J. M.," and on the other side "E. N." The initials could stand for the name of John M. McTerney or John M. McNulty. On the back of the right hand is tattooed a heart pierced by a dagger, and on the back of the left hand is tattooed a star. It will be remembered that a couple of weeks ago a leg was found floating in the river at the Canadian Maid of the Mist landing, which, it is believed, belonged to the body.

CHURCH UNIONS.

HAPPY SOLUTION FOUND OF THE SPERRANNUATION QUESTION.

Church Union Nearer—All the Difficulties Are Being Safely Gotten Over—Orthodoxy Will Be Reasonably Guaranteed.

Toronto, Sept. 16.—Light has been let in on the perplexing problem of sperrannuation, which has formed the most serious difficulty confronting the Church Union Committee. The sub-committee of the Committee on Administration, which has been dealing with it, has, it is understood, arrived at a satisfactory solution of the matter and a resolution was adopted on Saturday afternoon unanimously approved, safeguarding the interests of all those concerned as beneficiaries of such funds and establishing a new fund in which all shall stand on an equitable footing. This resolution will be presented in the report of the committee which will come before the General Committee this morning.

The subdivisions of the sub-committee on administration, which had to consider the publishing interests, the missions, and the colleges, have all been able to prepare their reports without meeting any insuperable or even serious difficulties. Unanimous conclusions have been reached. All the subdivisions of this committee's report were considered on Saturday night, and will be presented to the joint committee in general session to-day.

The relation of the minister to the standards of the Church was the chief subject of discussion before the joint committee on Saturday morning. The report of the minister on the ministry was adopted as presented with almost unanimous agreement.

The chief item in the report is that candidates for the ministry in the united church shall satisfy the examining body as to their essential agreement with the standards of the Church, in the personal language rather than by answering written questions.

The questions on which the candidates are to be tested to ascertain their essential agreement with the statement of doctrine are the following: "Do you believe yourself to be now a child of God, through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ? Do you believe yourself to be truly called to the office of the Christian ministry and that your motives are zeal for the glory of God, love for the Lord Jesus Christ, and desire for the salvation of men?"

The other questions are: "Are you on the verge of another tiny-waist craze. The demand for the smaller sizes in corsets has doubled in the last six months. Eighteen are now in common demand, and orders for seven-inch and sixteen-inch corsets have greatly increased in the last few weeks. Not a few of my clients are systematic dressers for the fashionable means."

"When the eventual size is decided upon three pairs of corsets are made, one for ordinary wear, one for special occasions, and another for night wear."

This same informant said the smallest waist in London was probably possessed by a certain well-known actress, who regularly wore twelve-inch corsets, and felt comfortable in them.

"Premier Would Write a Book. Sir Wilfrid Said to Have Great Literary Ambitions. Montreal, Que., Sept. 15.—According to Senator David, who is one of the most intimate friends of the Canadian Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, has a great desire to write a history of Canada, that is to say, a history embracing the period from the Confederation of the provinces to the present time."

He has often told the Senator that he would like to retire from public life and devote his time to writing such a work, and contributing articles to the great English reviews.

Toronto, Sept. 16.—The party of British newspaper men who crossed the Atlantic on board the Lusitania on her maiden trip and kept the world in touch with her progress by wiregrams, telegrams and cables, is now in Ontario, having been invited by the Government to study the mineral resources of the province, particularly from a financial and commercial point of view, and to enable them to do this Hon. J. H. Macpherson, Minister of Mines, who will accompany them, has arranged on behalf of the Government an itinerary which will take in about five days the most important mining districts, the Copper and Nickel fields, Cobalt, Bancroft, and the Ottawa Valley.

BROCKVILLE ELECTION.

Conservatives Will Not Oppose Hon. G. P. Graham.

Brockville, Sept. 15.—At the Conservative convention here to-day no candidates were nominated to contest the Dominion by-election against Hon. G. P. Graham on the 25th, but Mr. A. E. Donovan of Athens, whose headquarters are now in Toronto, was nominated to contest the seat in the Legislature vacated by Hon. Mr. Graham's resignation.

At the meeting the question of patronage from the Legislature created quite a wrangle, the discussion being started by Thos. Morrison, a dealer in stoves and tinware. The Chairman of the License Board is in the same business, and his competitors claim he has much to do with the distribution of patronage and gets more than his share. Mr. Morrison demanded that a patronage committee be appointed, as justice was not being done and the candidate, Mr. Donovan, said he had asked for such a committee, but could not get it. Order was restored by the President vigorously championing the table with his cane, and a promise being made that the distribution of patronage would be discussed at a future meeting.

A FORTUNE TELLER'S FAKE.

Italian Woman Uses Typewriter as Her Chief Auxiliary.

Rome, Sept. 15.—A leading Italian fortune teller, Ernesto Ciotta, is probably the first of the craft to use a typewriter as a machine to "write" his predictions. Clients who desire to know their fate are placed blindfolded in front of the machine and told to tap the keys at random. The result is a tangled mass of characters and figures which the clairvoyant proceeds, as she says, to decipher and interpret. She now theogue.

HIS MAJESTY SAID SALT.

And the Horse Dealer Pulled Table Cloth and Dishes on Floor.

Copenhagen, Sept. 16.—M. Hanson, a well-known Danish horse dealer, who sold King Haakon of Norway, several horses, was invited to take lunch with the members of the royal family at Christiania. He had never been at court before. He believed that the King toasted him, although His Majesty only wanted to salt and pepper his chair, he had been thus honored. Unfortunately, in his confusion, he pulled the table-cloth and all the dishes fell to the floor. Hanson says the King and Queen felt unhappy on his behalf than he did.

STRANGE DEATH OF GIRL.

Mystery Surrounds End of Gloucester Township Maiden.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—On Thursday, Louise DeLude, a girl of 15, who resides in Gloucester Township, was in Ottawa with her mother and Joseph Pelletier, the hired man. Late that night, after returning home, she died. The coroner heard of the affair and visited her home. The mother's story was to the effect that her daughter was playing a lamp from one room to another when she suddenly fell dead. But neighbors had different stories to tell, and the matter is now in the hands of the Attorney-General. The coroner discovered marks, as from heavy blows, on the girl's body. She had sustained a particularly savage blow on the stomach.

NEWFOUNDLAND SATISFIED.

Sir Spearman Winter Takes Issue With Sir Robert Bond.

London, Sept. 15.—Sir Spearman Winter interviewed by the Morning Post, took a strong line against the policy of Sir Robert Bond. He declared that public opinion in Newfoundland on the whole was indifferent to the problems centering round the mode of raising money. That the whole agitation was being used as a counter in the game Mr. Bond was playing for reciprocity with America. He added that Newfoundlanders would withhold support from any policy calculated to bring the colony into unpleasant relations with the Mother Country.

DOUKS ON PILGRIMAGE.

Second Contingent From Swan River Reaches Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Sept. 14.—The second contingent of Doukhobors from the Swan River country arrived in the city this afternoon. There were about two dozen in the band, dressed in their blue snooks and singing their weird religious songs. They marched up Logan avenue, drawing their children in wagons.

The police are in a quandary—hat to do with them. They camped near the C. P. R. depot, surrounded by hundreds of sightseers.

Water in His Mill.

London, Sept. 15.—Geo. Budder, a North Dorchester farmer, was fined $5 and costs on Saturday by Squire Chittick, for having water in the mill which he sent to Dorchester Union Cheese Factory. "Either the string on the mill broke or some one deliberately poured water into my milk when they were left outside over night," was his explanation.

KERR WON TWO CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Annual Meet of the C. A. A. U. on Saturday Afternoon.

Big Crowd at the Opening of the Fall Meeting of the O. J. C.—Angus Pointer Won at Syracuse and Made a New Mark for This Season.

Toronto, Sept. 16.—While track and weather conditions were not conducive to record-breaking at the C. A. A. U. fall championship meet Saturday, the very large crowd which gathered at Varsity field saw some of the best track events held on a local field in many a day.

shot-putting contests were added to the card, and Rose won every one of them. In order to make the record clear, Hogan and Edgren, of the New York Athletic Club, and Gilmore, of San Francisco, also competed.

Tommy Longboat got back into colors, and wore the maple leaf and harp of the Irish-Canadians in his 100-yard race. This event was looked forward to as the feature of the programme, but the aborigine disposed of his field right at the start, and went away with the race in time which was but one second slower than the Canadian record.

Forrest Smithson, of the Muttonhugh Athletic Club of Oregon, won the high hurdle race, but was beaten over the low hurdles by O. E. Langman of the Irish low hurdles by A. C. of New York, to whom he conceded ten yards. Harry L. Hillman fell over a hurdle in this event.

The best race of the day was the mile, in which Tom Coley was beaten by Tait. The race developed a hair-raising finish, in which the West-ender beat the Englishman by inches only.

John J. Flanagan, the world's champion hammer thrower, did not compete. C. A. A. U. ANNUAL MEETING.
