NEWCASTLE WILL HAVE HOCKEY TEAM

At a meeting of Hockey enthusiasts held in the Fink last Wednesday evening, it was decided to form a Hockey Club and the following officers were elected.

President—Dr. J. A. M. Bell
Vice-Pres.—C. P. McCabe
Secretary—Leo Mitchell
Treasurer—A. B. Williston
Manager—A. E. McInerney
Executive—James Fallon, Lester Jeffrey and Gordon McKeznie.

Ways and Means Com.—A. E. McInerney, A. L. Barry and D. S. Creaghan.

It was also decided to form a three club league for practice purposes and the following Captains were appointed viz:—Cecil Locke, Lester Jeffrey, and Chas. McCullam.

The schedule of play is to be arranged at a later meeting. A cup for the local league has been donated by Messrs. J. D. Creaghan Co. Ltd. A move is on foot to have a Ladies Hockey team formed as well. Newcastle should now expect to witness some real good hockey playing this season and it is hoped the present enthusiasm will be kept up by the members of the different teams.

CANADIAN MAPLE ON HEROES GRAVE

Hamilton, Dec. 14—The Herald says:

"An incident in connection with that memorable event, the 'unknown warrior,' has been revealed, which, while it will stir Hamiltonians in particular, should, and undoubtedly will touch all Canadian hearts. It is the story of the last tribute to be laid on that cenotaph in England's Valhalla where the unknown hero, representative of all that glorious host, was laid to rest. That that final tribute was Canada's emblem, a maple leaf, red and gold, as it had fallen from a tree, and that it was (as he) on the road from Burlington to Wabasco park during the recent fall by Adam Brown, few are aware. To rest on that grave was the beautiful specimen among the year's collection of the aged postmaster of Hamilton.

"During the lifetime of that gallant gentleman and officer, the late Sir Anthony Home, V. C., the last survivor of the Lucknow V. C's, Mr. Brown, who was his close friend, kept up a correspondence with him, which was only broken when Sir Anthony died in the first year of the war. Since that time, however, Mr. Brown has been in correspondence with one of his late friend's daughters, Miss Alice Home, who occupies an important position on the staff of the London Daily Mirror. As in his yearly custom, Mr. Brown in his letters abroad this October sent many specimens of maple leaves which he had gathered, and into a letter to Miss Home he enclosed the very beautiful specimen gathered by him during a drive to Wabasco park. This letter was received by Miss Home on the morning of November 13, and immediately the beautiful thought struck her that this emblem of Canada might serve a great purpose. She hurried into a taxi and drove to the deanery of the abbey. There she presented the maple leaf, with the brief explanation that it had been sent by a gentleman of 95 years of age, from Hamilton, Canada, at the same time mentioning that she was the daughter of the last of the Lucknow V. C's. Union calling the following day at the deanery Miss Home was informed that the very last thing that was placed on the unknown warrior's grave was the maple, beautiful tribute sent by Mr. Adam Brown.

"Who was that unknown hero who was laid in his last resting place where the kings and princes and the great of England sleep? Who was he, who is to lie forever in the pathway of England's future kings when they go to receive the crown, or, having served, and brought to sleep with their fathers? Who has a memorial for all time to England's sons wherever they may be, representing that heroic unknown host? A Canadian? Perhaps.

"If it be that one of Canada's sons lies there, his last tribute from his native land. If not, the grave of an unknown occurred in arms to Canada's own heroic legion has been appropriately honored.

H. A. FRANK WAS FALSELY ARRESTED

Word has been received that there is no truth in the report concerning Mr. H. A. Frank of Millerton, in connection with the fire in the shipbuilding plant in Liverpool, N. S., and the court has apologized to Mr. Frank for false arrest.

JOSEPH HUBBARD MET HIS DEATH IN A SAD MANNER

A sad fatality occurred on Tuesday, Dec. 7th, at noon, when Joseph Hubbard, aged 22, was killed by a falling tree. The accident occurred in George Eurchill and Son's lumber woods on the north branch of the Seveque River, Miramichi, near the Kingston Camp. He is survived by his parents, Mrs. John Hubbard, of Nelson, N. B., two sisters, Flossie, at home, and Mrs. John Digman, Napan; four brothers, Clifford and Robert and two younger brothers. The unfortunate young man was a returned collier, having served in France.

TRAVELLERS REPORT BUSINESS DULL

Commercial Travellers are returning home from visits to their trade thoroughly discouraged over business results. Many of them report business at a low ebb they can hardly make a guess, and there appears to be little evidence of any trade boom for several weeks, at least.

Merchants Well Stocked

Merchants, so they report, especially in the coast towns and smaller business centres, found themselves well stocked with goods when the depletion process set in, and many have been forced to sell at a very small profit and, in some instances, at loss in order to keep stocks moving at all.

Day By Day Buying

One prominent knight of the grip says: "Wherever I have been the last six weeks my trade has been ordering very sparingly. They are simply purchasing from day to day enough to keep things moving, and are taking no chances in loading up stores where I have usually found well stocked shelves and a big surplus in the storage rooms, I now find shelves not so crowded and but little in reserve. The smaller merchants are extremely cautious about placing orders, and we are the fellows who have to suffer."

WANT BATHURST HERO HONORED

Steps are being taken to bring to the attention of the proper authorities the heroism of Fred Case, foreman of the Bathurst Lumber Co's pulp mill who recently at his own peril saved the life of Aurel Normandeau of Bathurst, aged fifteen, who had broken through the ice of the Neptisquit river. A companion of Normandeau also broke through the ice, but was able to save himself. Case plunged into icy water and after a terrible struggle for life was able to save himself and the boy.

The ceremony took place at 10.30 o'clock at Holy Trinity Church and was attended by many of the delegates.

Drury Says Combination Cannot Last

Chatham, Ont., Dec. 4.—In a speech delivered here Friday night, Hon. E. C. Drury, Premier of Ontario, made the plain admission that the Farmers and the members of the Independent Labor party cannot continue as a U. F. O. Labor Government in this province. The perpetuation of the union, he said, is not in line with public opinion. The Farmer of Ontario, he declared, did not want class legislation or administration, but they did want a fair and honest administration of the affairs of the country in the interests of all of the people of the province.

"I am going to say something," he declared, "which I know will not be approved of by all of the members of the United Farmers of Ontario, but if we are to continue in office and fulfill our greatest mission as a government, the U. F. O. has got to branch out and broaden out. The old name of the party, if it continues in office will disappear of necessity and if I were choosing the name to be adopted I would not have it not the Farmer's Party, but the People's Progressive Party, and take in everyone. Before long we will have to develop into a real people's party. The Farmers will still have representation in that party and they will stand for the ideals which they started out with when they went out to get power, but others will be represented as well, and the platform of that party will have to be one which the party desires to see carried out and not one to be used merely for the purpose of obtaining office."

PRELIMINARY HEARING IN THE BURNT CHURCH TRAGEDY

Newcastle, N. B., Dec. 6.—Preliminary hearing in the John M. Dedham case came up before His Honor Police Magistrate, J. R. Lawlor, this afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Mr. T. H. Whalen, of Newcastle, is attorney for the Crown and George McDade, of Chatham, has been appointed attorney for the defence. After opening of court Mr. Lawlor asked to be assured that the witnesses and prisoners understand English sufficiently well to enable proceedings to be carried on in English, without an interpreter as the prisoners and many of the witnesses are Indian. After some discussion it was decided to proceed without an interpreter as most of the witnesses speak and understand English fairly well.

Peter Dedham, first witness called, and examined to see if he understood English sufficiently well to be sworn and examined in that language. He was found to be satisfactory. He said he lived in Burnt Church, knew Peter and Frank Mitchell. First of the row started at the house of the Chas. Martin between witness and Mitchell, Mitchell striking first. At this point witness declined to answer saying he could not speak much English. After some talk on the matter he was taken down stairs by Chief of Police Ashford until his memory returned.

Mitchell Dominique was then called and sworn gave straight forward evidence. He said, I know Peter and Frank Mitchell. Sunday night, Nov. 25th I started home quietly and did not hear anything outside the house after 9 o'clock. Shortly after, about fifteen minutes, I went outside the house and saw a man lying near the woodpile on the other side of the path. I thought perhaps asleep, perhaps drunk? Went over to see and found he was not breathing. He was lying on his back with his head on one side. I think I saw blood.

He then proceeded to tell of running to the house of one Noel Dedham and getting him to bring a lantern to see the man in the yard. He found it to be John M. Dedham. We saw blood on the shirt but did not move the body.

When asked if there was any reason why Peter Dedham should leave his brother in the yard and go further for help, witness said no.

Stanley Swanson was called and sworn but such difficulty was experienced in obtaining answers that he was sent to jail down stairs.

Peter Dedham was recalled. Questioned by His Honor and counsel for crown he said in answer to questions that the quarrel started between he and one Charles Mitchell in the house of Charles Martin. John M. Dedham struck and kicked Charles Mitchell. They then left the house of Martin and went home. Later they returned for John M. Dedham's hat and coat. We got the coat and hat and started to go to his aunts across the bridge when they met two men Frank and Peter Mitchell, Peter struck my brother with something in his hand. Frank Mitchell then threw a rock at me and drew a revolver with the oath, 'I am going to kill you.' We ran away and in the yard of Mitchell Dominique my brother fell and I ran on to Noel Dedham's. Did not stop when my brother fell as I was afraid. I went from Noel Dedham's to Jim Tennas's house. I came back to the yard where my brother was. I met John N. Dedham's son, Noel Dedham. He said John is killed. I then went to my brother's body. Many people were by this time. Court adjourned until Tuesday at 3 p. m.

Newcastle, Dec. 7.—Preliminary hearing of witnesses in the John Dedham murder case was continued this afternoon before Police Magistrate Lawlor. Peter Dedham, witness for the Crown, was cross examined by Mr. McDade, counsel for the defence. In answer to questions witness gave his estimate as to the distance between the two Mitchell brothers and John Dedham and witness at various points of events of the night of Nov. 25th, also words used by Peter and Frank Dedham just before the slaying was said to have occurred.

Considerable emphasis was laid upon the fact that witness on oath said that it was a bright moonlight night, yet at a distance of three feet he could not distinguish the nature of the weapon in the hand of Peter Mitchell.

Much difficulty was experienced in answers to questions, nevertheless he was subjected to severe and thorough examination during which he grew at times quite irritable.

When asked why he did not go to Mitchell Dominique's for help, instead of continuing on to Noel Dedham's, he said he heard the men coming up the road swearing and making a noise and he was frightened.

Further questioned he said he could not see any one. It was about ten minutes after nine when he arrived at the house of Noel Dedham. He told Noel Dedham that John was killed. He could not tell if his brother was killed when he fell. He showed how he saw him fall face foremost to the ground.

Again asked why he could not tell what weapon was used, he did not answer.

The Crown resumed examination with questions relative to the fight between the Mitchells and Dedhams at the house of Charles Martin. Nothing new was brought forward and witness was allowed to leave the stand.

Stanley Swanson was called. As he could neither speak nor understand English, an interpreter was asked for. One Peter Sewell (or Suel) had been sent for by one of the members of the Indian council but owing to the fact that the person sending for the interpreter was a relative of the Dedhams, it was considered advisable to have William Barnaby act as interpreter. He was accordingly sworn as such and oath administered to witness who said in part:

I saw Peter Mitchell at Charles Mitchell's house the night John Dedham was killed. I saw him about nine o'clock. I slept at Peter Mitchell's. I went to Charles Mitchell's to see how he was after the beating. I am no relative of the Mitchell's; I had some talk with Peter and Frank Mitchell that night. Peter said he struck John Dedham with a butcher knife and touched him on the shoulder. Nothing more was said. We went to sleep. I saw nothing of the row at Martin's house.

He gave evidence as to location of houses at Charles and Peter Mitchell in relation to the bridge.

Who got up first?

Objected to by Counsel for Defence.

Answer: "When I got up all the others were up. I stayed for a while." Peter Mitchell said "The first time I see the Dedhams I am going to fight them." Frank Mitchell said "You couldn't stand John." I did not stay to breakfast. I work on the bridge. The Mitchell's were working on the bridge before John Dedham was killed.

Questions by Crown: "Did the Mitchell's go to work that morning?" Objected to by counsel for defence. Question sustained by His Honor. Answer: "They did not go to work on the bridge; they worked some place else. I did not see them working. I live at home with my brother, Anthony and his wife, near Peter Dedham's."

Court here adjourned until Wednesday at 10 a. m.

Newcastle, Dec. 8.—The preliminary hearing in the case of Peter Mitchell and Frank Mitchell, charged with the murder of John Dedham was concluded here today before Judge R. A. Lawlor. Both the accused were sent up for trial before the higher court at the next session to be held January 4th.

Newcastle, Dec. 8.—The preliminary hearing was continued on Wednesday morning before Justice Lawlor. Evidence given by Mitchell Dominique and Peter Dedham was read to them and signed.

Evidence given by Stanley Swanson to counsel for crown read by interpreter and asserted to by witness.

Cross-examination of witness by Mr. McDade gave in substance the following:—I am nineteen years of age; do not know what an oath is; have sworn on Bible before. Was never in Court before yesterday. No one told me to come to Court. A man told me to come up to be witness. All the fellows who came up told me to come. They were Peter Dedham, John N. Dedham and Mitchell Dominique. They said they going up no more. First man who asked me to come up was policeman from up here.

I heard of Peter Dedham's remarks when I was working. I told no one of these remarks at Charles Mitchell's. I told William Dedham what Peter

Liberals Lead In British Columbia

Vancouver, Dec. 2.—There have been few election changes during the day, and tonight the standing of the parties as the result of yesterday's voting was:

Liberals, 24; Conservatives, 15; Labor, 3; Independents, 4. Allin doubtful. The Liberals, however are claiming the seat.

Returns so far received from the northern riding give Kernigan, Liberal, a lead over his opponents. Major R. B. Burde, Independent, has been elected in Alberne over Brig-General Money, Conservative, by 123. Until late today it was thought that Money would be elected. Thomas Keen, late speaker of the legislature, reported elected in Kaslo, has been defeated by Colonel Lister, Conservative, by 36. Prince George is placed in the Liberal column, Perry, Liberal, having a good lead over Cocker, Conservative, but with a number of polls still to report. In Omineca, the election of Manson, Liberal, is conceded.

There are a number of absentee votes in many of the ridings which may change the result in some cases. In Vancouver alone there are more than 2,000 of these to be counted. A minister elected to legislature is Rev. J. Menzies in Comox, nominee of the Peoples' party. Another clergyman elected is Rev. Canon Hinchinbush, Conservative, in Victoria.

Hon. John Oliver, premier and Liberal leader, in a statement today on the result of the election declared that he "believed the election would go down in history as the cleanest that ever was held in British Columbia, in so far as the operation of the election is concerned." He expressed the opinion that the government's majority would be sufficient to carry on without bargaining for support in the legislature.

Hon. W. J. Bowser, leader of the Conservatives, declared that had it been a straight fight between the two major parties, the Conservatives would have won.

Latest figures are as follows: Grand Forks—Final: McKie, Conservative, 334; Hennigar, Liberal, 330. McKie's majority, four.

Slocan—Final: Hunter, Conservative, 522; Nelson, Independent-Liberal, 423; Smith, Liberal, 268. Hunter's majority, 94.

Trail—Final: Schofield, Conservative, 1,156; Deschamps, Liberal, 754. Schofield's majority, 402.

said. William asked the questions. I don't know what he told me. I don't know if he told me to say it. I talked to William Dedham about an hour. Peter and Frank Mitchell and Charlie Mitchell and Charles's wife were in the house when Peter said words about the knife. An India from Restigouche was there outside saw the wood. My stepmother, Ellaabeth Clement, and my sister, Delosia Swanson were there all in one room. The first I heard of Peter Mitchell's story I first told Wm. N. Dedham in his story; he is a councillor. I do not know if he is a big man among Indians or not. I work in gravel pits; on the main bridge from pit; Peter and Frank Mitchell work on new bridge; gravel pit is at the core. I can't say who was working on bridge; I don't know who was working there; I don't know how many men. I don't know if Peter and Frank worked there on Nov. 23rd. I spoke to no one else; but William N. Dedham; I paid my own way up on today; the boss where I work gave me the money; O'Brien the boss; time keeper is LeComble; gave me money pay night, last Saturday; all others in Charlie Mitchell's house could hear Peter talking; I did not see Peter with a knife nor Frank with revolver; I did not see Peter nor John Dedham that night. Peter Mitchell said at Charlie Mitchell's he had been fighting with Dedham; he did not say anything about a knife; there was not much talk at Charlie Mitchell's; this finished the cross-examination.

Questioned by Mr. Whalen for the Crown—We were at Peter Mitchell's when he spoke of the knife; gravel pit is on the east side of the river, on the same side that witness lives. It is about 200 yards from the end of the bridge to the gravel pit.

Court adjourned until one-thirty p. m.

Afternoon Session

After the noon recess hearing was continued. William Martin was called by the Crown. Said he knew the nature of an oath; had been in court before as witness. I know Frank and Peter Mitchell; I saw Peter Dedham and Charlie Mitchell fighting at Burnt Church between six and seven o'clock Sunday before last outside of my door; someone called me by name; I went; it was Charlie Mitchell; he was asking me who was all there; while he was talking Peter Dedham came and grabbed Charlie by the shoulder; they were laughing both of them; they were going to fight in fun; before we got to the door they were starting to fight, so I tried to stop them, but couldn't; John M. Dedham was in my house; he ran out and first thing he did he hit Charlie and knocked him down and kicked him many times; Peter Dedham kicked Charlie too; I took Peter away; then Charlie escaped and got away; at an hour and half or two hours after Peter and John Dedham came in my house after John Dedham's coat; this is all I know.

In answer to questions witness said—I was about 50 yards from my door when they started to fight; they started to go into the house; I do not know how the row started; I was a ead; I do not know who hit first; just after the row I found the coat inside the porch of my house; someone else found the cap; I left then in the house; my boy brought the cap in the house; I grabbed Peter Dedham and took him away out. John was too strong, I couldn't stop him; I went in the house and left them outside. I was in the house about two minutes there was no body outside, all gone away, when I came out; I don't know where they went; it was about an hour and a half or two hours until I saw the two Dedhams; they just stayed long enough to get cap and coat; it was about eight o'clock; after that I saw Peter Mitchell; it was about ten minutes after John and Peter Dedham left my house; second time that I saw Peter Mitchell alone he came in alone and we talked alone; we did not have any conversation while he was in, I did not see any of the Mitchell's earlier that day.

Cross examined by Mr. McDade—This is all I remember; I know nothing in regards to the murder, but I do know that John Dedham gave Charlie Mitchell a bad beating; I did not see any knife or revolver on Frank or Peter; I saw Peter Dedham grab Charlie Mitchell first by the shoulder with his hand and swing him around; I considered them fooling; John rushed out and hit Charlie right away, no words were spoken; John then kicked him in the face and head; he kicked him many times eight or ten; I saw it was bad trouble; Peter Dedham booted Charlie Mitchell four or five times; John Glinch was not there then; I went in the house because I was afraid of the Dedhams; John Glinch and Peter Mitchell were in my house before the row started; I could tell John Dedham had been drinking; I did not see him drink; but he acted as if he had been; I know nothing against the Mitchell's, Frank and Peter; I was afraid of the Dedhams at the road; I stayed two or three minutes in the house after the row.

Next witness called by the Crown was Charles Mitchell. (Sworn)—I live in Burnt Church, Parish of Anwick, County of Northumberland. I know Peter and Frank Mitchell, the

Dr. Bell was then called by the Crown, but was out of town for two hours. It was asked by Mr. McDade if there was any other evidence to bring forward. Mr. Whalen as clerk of Peace, decided there was nothing more to be brought forward for the Crown.

Court adjourned until 7 p. m. for evidence of Dr. Bell.

The Doctor's Evidence

Dr. J. A. M. Bell described the wound on the dead man. There was a bad wound in the upper part of the chest, between the second and third ribs. All of the organs of the heart were normal and the wound was inflicted before death by a knife or sharp instrument, a least in length and three quarters of an inch wide. The wound was sufficient to cause death.

Both men pleaded not guilty. George M. McDade then asked for dismissal of the accused on the ground that there were not sufficient evidence submitted to send the men for trial. After hearing the argument Judge Lawlor committed the accused for trial at the next sitting of the Supreme Court which opens here in January 4th next.

R. R. CALL WAS BURNED

The steam ferry R. R. Call, owned by Capt. Frank J. Allard, which plies between Dalhousie, Carleton and Miguasha with Saturday trips to Campbellton was completely destroyed by fire at Carleton Saturday, Nov. 27th.

The crew were on board and made a heroic effort to save the boat but without avail, losing all their personal belongings and some having a very narrow escape.

The wreck sunk in nine fathoms of water. The loss is a heavy one.

The R. R. Call was built at Chatham and formerly ran to Newcastle.

THE RAISING OF SHEEP

Canada has made big strides in sheep raising during the past few years and we cannot afford to leave any impediment in the way of greater sheep production. The gratifying pronouncement of the Chief of the Sheep and Goat Division in the Live Stock Branch at Ottawa. This gentleman (Mr. A. A. MacMillan) in an article in The Agricultural Gazette of Canada for November gives an outline of the laws that have been passed for the protection of sheep from dogs and in tabulated form gives a summary of the provisions in the Acts of all the provinces, by which can at once be seen the differences in the various enactments.

CANDY PRICES COMING DOWN

Amherst News: A local confectioner informed us yesterday that candy prices had dropped all the way from 8 to 15 cents per pound during the past few weeks, and this was only the beginning. The reason of course is that sugar has fallen almost half its original price and sugar is the main constituent of most candies. It takes some time however for the candy manufacturers to get their high priced sugar used up, and until this is gone, the cost to the consumer will not be reduced very much more. Another factor which is naturally influencing the makers to keep the price steady is that the Christmas season is about here with its usual heavy demand for sweets, and it would hardly be human nature to make a cut before advantage is taken of this abnormal seasonal demand. After New Year's, however, a substantial drop in the price of all confectionery is looked for.

A Series of Talks On Music

By Prof. C.C. Laugher, Mus. Bac. Sarnia, Ont.

III.—EARLY TRAINING IN MUSIC

All teachers are aware of the need of the best possible drill in life. The idea one so often hears expressed is: since my child is only beginning his studies, any teacher will do. If such a man is about to build a house, shall we hear him say: since I am only laying a foundation, any kind of trashy material will do, but when I get to the roof I will engage the finest roof makers in the world.

Then we will agree that just as the husbandman carefully prepares the ground before he puts in the seed so does the teacher, for the teacher will confine himself to one thing at a time.

A true teacher will think more of his pupils' musical development than of the class he is likely to obtain, it is certainly up to the teacher to make it interesting not amusing.

The child who is destined for a musical instruction in early life is a compatible with the child's health and receptivity.

Children learn far more rapidly than adults, the child's power of absorption in music study between the ages of eight and twelve is simply enormous, between twelve and twenty it is less and still less between twenty and thirty and lamentably small between thirty and forty.

There are yet exceptional cases of astonishing development late in life to the enormous ambition and industry.

Someone separates a child's musical education thus: 20 per cent. teacher, 60 per cent. mother controls the majority, if the mother exerts her majority, lucky will be the child.

It is plainly observed that to obtain dexterity of the hands and the mechanical side of the instrumental performance, one should start young and should certainly make the study of technique the most important.

Technic is like money in the bank, a good thing to draw on when you need it but it is unlike money in the bank in this respect, that you cannot exhaust it by drawing upon it freely and frequently.

During the period of practice the major and minor forms will be dealt with and it does seem strange that one should feel that the major and minor are opposite for they both present the same face, now more joyous, now more serious and a mere touch of the pen suffice to turn the one into the other.

An examiner once said to a candidate, you play very nicely, but why did you omit the two measures in the second line, also the middle section of the second page? Oh, said she, Pa cannot bear the minor parts and I always leave out those bits in order not to distress him when he is tired.

It is needless to add that this is wrong, for the major and minor must be heard in contrast. Major and minor—continent and discontent—joy and sorrow—light and shade. These things make variety in music and by them you may remember some one piece that stands out from all others.

Often some incident which happened in your young student life will have a lasting influence on you.

I remember reading of a little boy who's first attempt at instrumental music was with the bass drum, for when as a boy Haydn was studying in Hamburg it happened that his boy friends were invited to church in a grand procession, but the drummer was missing; one boy suggested Haydn, so he was lined up and we can assume that he acquitted himself finely.

In after years he often recalled that he never recalled a prouder moment than when scantily clad and half starved, he marched proudly among his boyish friends beating the bass drum.

Acquiring musical knowledge should be a pleasure, because it comes naturally and should help to cultivate and improve our attention.

TAKING THE EX-KAISER

Holland has a new trouble. Like other countries, it has adopted heavy income taxes, and the problem is to make the ex-Kaiser pay his share. It is reported that his income has been assessed at 1,000,000 guilders, which at normal exchange would equal $600,000. But the ex-Kaiser apparently protested that his income varies on account of the fluctuations of exchange, and was allowed a delay, and promised a reassessment. If the ex-Kaiser saved $6,000,000 a year from the wreck of the war, he did not do so badly, and the thrifty Dutch doubtless hope he will live many years to pay income taxes. Meantime many ex-soldiers have no incomes to pay taxes on, and are facing the winter with misgivings.

REVISION UP TO DATE

Courtland Bleeker, at a dinner in Bar Harbor, deplored the tendency toward the immodesty that persists in women's fashions.

“However,” he said, “and as he spoke he pointed to his own shirt, which was open at the neck, and so, ladies and gentlemen, I offer you the toast—

“There's to the low neck and the short skirts—may they never meet.”

Concrete in Bridge and Road Building

Some of the Concrete Work on the Toronto-Hamilton Highway.

The Toronto-Hamilton Highway linking Toronto with a population of about 600,000 and Hamilton with about 110,000, skirts the shores of Lake Ontario for half of its length and passes through a section of Ontario rich in historic association as well as scenic beauty.

It was begun in 1914 to relieve a very serious condition of unemployment in the urban centres which followed the entering of Canada into the Great War. The work was placed in the hands of a special Commission consisting of Mr. Geo. H. Gooderham, Chairman, Mr. G. Frank Beer, Mr. W. S. Davis, Mr. R. H. Lush, Mr. M. C. Smith, Mr. T. W. Jutten and Mr. H. Ferriman. On account of the relief features the Commission decided to carry the work on by day labor. Original plans called for a cement concrete roadway sixteen feet in width but the minimum width was increased to 14 feet before laying of concrete was begun and later increased to 24 feet on the five miles nearest Toronto. The minimum width of sub-grade is 36 feet and earth shoulders have been provided except in special instances where broken stone has been added. More than fifty bridges and culverts have been replaced by modern reinforced concrete structures designed to carry a 20-ton road roller and having a minimum clear width of roadway of 28 feet. Four of the larger reinforced concrete structures are of the so called truss type. The largest clear span is 120 feet, probably the maximum span for bridges of this type on this Continent.

The route followed was not probably the one most travelled between Toronto and Hamilton. Part of it was sandy and for that reason used in bad weather but much of it was better than a trail, the surface portion being only ten or twelve feet in width. Maximum grades of eleven per cent have been reduced to four per cent.

A traffic census taken just before construction was begun showed a total of 526 vehicles per day on the most heavily travelled portion, including three motor trucks. On the busiest days now the traffic exceeds 3,000 vehicles, the average being about 2,000 and the average motor truck traffic about 400 per day. The road is kept open throughout the year in spite of rather severe snow storms. It was not closed for a single day during last winter.

Farmers living fifteen miles from the Toronto market who formerly made three trips by team per week by being up early and late now leave home at eight in the morning as home for dinner and supper and make 12 trips per week by motor trucks in comfort. Many of the farmers sell all of their market produce at their own gates to the motorist and some of them six miles off the highway, haul it to the wayside and community markets which have been encouraged by the Commission.

A conservative estimate based on a partial investigation shows an increase in land values of 4 million dollars since the highway was first projected. Excellent houses are being built all along the road as districts 20 miles out are nearer in point of time than those 5 miles out were before the improvement.

The use of comparatively high priced surfacing, cement concrete, has been justified by very low maintenance figures. Regardless of the great increase in traffic and in the cost of materials and labor, the cost per mile of maintenance on the concrete roadway was less in 1919 than in any previous year since construction was completed.

An interesting case of the use of concrete in bridge building occurred in the double tracking of the Canadian Pacific Railway between Leaside and North Toronto, which involved the replacement of bridges known as 0.9 and 1.8.

The bridges were constructed of reinforced concrete, and are a triumph of railway construction work. No. 0.9 being 286 feet long and 90 feet high, carrying two tracks and No. 1.8 of similar dimensions but a three-track structure. The length of the individual spans and the details of their construction are unprecedented in the engineering world. Previous to this no reinforced concrete beam with a length of more than 25 feet had been attempted; the spans of these two C. P. R. structures are each from 35 to 37 feet long.

The method employed in the erection of the reinforced concrete spans is a specially interesting feature of the structures. Each slab as a unit weighed 55 tons, which was the limit that could be handled by the C. P. R. 100-ton standard-wrecking cranes. The cranes engaged handled no less than 110 slabs, each 55 tons in weight, or in all something like 6,000 tons, and all this was done without a single mishap to either man or material. Another remarkable feature is that both structures were built without interruption from June, 1917, to July, 1919, which was a shorter period than would have been required to manufacture and erect similar structures in steel. Passenger and freight traffic on the C. P. R. main lines were continued without interruption during the progress of these interesting works.

GUN COTTON BASIS OF SILK

French Inventor, After Long Study, Has Evolved a Truly Wonderful Artificial Product.

According to Count Hilaire, inventor of artificial silk, which is now produced by vast factories in Switzerland, Belgium, France, England and the United States, it has for its basis nothing less than gun cotton. One of the greatest problems he had to solve in perfecting it for everyday use was to render it nonexplosive.

The gun cotton under the chardonnet process is first dissolved in a mixture of alcohol and ether and then spun through fine capillary tubes by means of hydraulic presses.

Other chemical processes give it incombustible and nonexplosive qualities, together with the consistency and transparency of the finest silk from Japan or China.

It took just 30 years of the 80 which Count Hilaire has completed to perfect his discovery and render it of actual and practical commercial value.

The illustrious chemist and scientist has just been elected to the supreme honor of membership in the French Academy of Sciences for his discovery of how to put one over on the silk-worms. During the war he had been decorated by the French minister of war with the Cross of a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor for discoveries relative to the manufacture of high explosives growing out of his researches made primarily to render artificial silk stockings nonexplosive.

READING OF NEWS-PAPERS IN SCHOOLS

That pupils in the public schools should be taught to read the newspapers and to read them intelligently, was the statement made in Chicago last week by James F. Hosc, noted Chicagoan, speaking before the National Council of Teachers in English.

"The newspaper is the most powerful factor in forming opinion in a country that is governed by public opinion," said Mr. Hosc, "and to have good newspapers we must have, however, an educated clientele.

"Like everything else, newspapers are just as good as their readers. All journalists look forward to the possibility of improvement in the quality of their papers as their reading public responds to better and more dignified treatment of current events."

Were Married After Death

Atami Ja'an, Nov. 8—(A. P. Correspondence)—A marriage ceremony has just been performed here over the ashes of two bodies in the belief that a single young man and a unmarried woman who committed suicide would have a happy married life in the next world.

The couple committed shinju, or double suicide for love, by throwing themselves into the sea from a cliff. Both bodies were later recovered and cremated with the Buddhist ceremonies. The ashes were then brought to the home of the girl's father and he performed a marriage ceremony over them.

According to the Buddhist faith, marriage contracted in this world will carry over to the next.

LOOK!

If you were told of a new discovery for the treatment of coughs, colds and bronchitis, as certain in its action on all chest troubles as anti-toxin is on diphtheria, or vaccination on small-pox, wouldn't you feel like giving it a trial?

Peps is the discovery!

Peps are little tablets, containing certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapor, and are absorbed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.

In a word, while no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and at once commence their work of healing.

FREE TRIAL Cut out this article, write across it the name and date of this paper, and mail it (with 1c stamp to pay return postage) to Peps Co., Toronto. A free trial packet will then be sent you. All druggists and stores sell Peps, 50c box.

Advertising A Public Necessity.

WHEN goods are scarce and prices high, people are more appreciative than ever of the right kind of advertising.

They are seeking information. They want to know how to buy to the best advantage.

They want to know how to fill their needs and avoid waste. They welcome news of desirable substitutes for the things the country needs to conserve.

They read the newspapers carefully.

The dry goods merchant, grocer, jeweller, or manufacturer who does not advertise is not only missing the purely selfish opportunity, but he is failing in the service he owes to his customers.

When Mother's Advice is Most Needed

A GIRL'S future health and happiness depends to a large extent on conditions during the adolescent period.

At about fourteen years of age important mental and physical changes are taking place, which every girl should understand. Then it is that she needs the care and advice of her mother.

Unfortunately this is about the time when school work and examinations are likely to prove an excessive strain on the nervous system.

Anaemia, chlorosis or nervous breakdown in the form of St. Vitus' dance are not uncommon at this age.

There is a failure of the blood to supply the nourishment required by the nervous system. Excessive mental effort consumes the nervous energy required to insure good digestion and the proper functioning of the vital organs.

It is surprising to find how quickly the nervous system responds to the restorative influence of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. There is no longer any question that this treatment is admirably suited to help girls through this most critical period of their lives.

In almost every community are many cases to prove the exceptional restorative influence of this well-known treatment.

The use of the nerve food stimulates the appetite, improves digestion, and builds up the system in every way.

Miss Rena B. Crossland, Kempt, Queen's Co., N.S., writes: "I feel it a duty, as well as a privilege, to tell of the wonderful benefit I derived from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. In March, 1917, I had anaemia of the brain, and the mental and physical suffering I endured is indescribable. I had treatment from three doctors, and for twelve days was unconscious; while for three months I was fed and cared for like an infant. My mother was so anxious for me to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food that she crushed it and baked it in my food. After using two boxes I could feed myself, and after using it for two months, my health improved so rapidly that doctors and friends said my recovery was a miracle.

"I cannot recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food too highly, even to those who seem to be facing death. We keep it in the house now, and I use it occasionally to 'keep fit.' I shall always regret that I did not follow my mother's advice and use it while I was away teaching, whenever I felt nervous or tired. But as I had no serious illness and did not realize the value of it, I neglected heeding mother's advice until it was too late and I had a complete breakdown. But, thanks to Providence and Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I have been enjoying my former health and strength for the past two years."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmansson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. On every box of the genuine you will find the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author.

Future of Pulp Paper and Timber

"No one should be deceived by the present lull in business in so far as pulp and paper are concerned, as this particular line is in a class by itself and any decline in price will be very transitory, as this industry differs from any other, owing to the short supply of wood, its raw material, which will be the price controlling factor for the future," says Frank J. D. Barnjum, who is well known to the timber interests of the East and Canada, in a letter to The Fourth Estate.

"There are so many paper companies who own either no lands at all or very small holdings who will be forced out of business on that account that there will be a continuous shortage of pulp and paper from the time business once takes on its normal stride which in all probability will be not later than next March.

"The foregoing statements apply with equal force to the lumber situation, and as soon as building begins next spring prices for lumber will be higher than have yet obtained.

"Within two years timber lands will be selling in the state of Maine for instance, for $50 per acre. I am willing to stake my reputation on this, and I shall leave it to my friends to state whether or not my predictions in the past in connection with timber lands have been correct.

"When one considers that land in Maine has already sold for $30 and more per acre, and stumpage contracts have already been made at prices running up to $9.50 per cord, it is not a very far cry to $0 land and $13 stumpage.

"Within two years there will be little, if any, wood going out of Canada, and I shall leave the reader to imagine what will happen when this annual supply of a million and a half cords is no longer available to the American mills.

"This will be simply a case of self-preservation on the part of Canada, as her own mills have absolutely no wood to spare. The province of Quebec has already been forced to notify her large mill holders that they must reduce the cut on their crown lands one-half.

"This will necessitate the purchasing by the Canadian mills of all free land wood which has been going across the line; otherwise they will be prematurely forced out of business themselves.

"The facts above stated are all indicative of our only too short timber supply, and emphasize the necessity of practicing greater conservation.

"A word further to the paper mills. Don't be deceived by a present supply of wood in the mill yard and at the railroad sidings, as every cord of extra wood cut this year means a cord less at a later date.

"In the wood we are now cutting we are simply robbing our children.

Cause of Conditions
"The present accumulation of cut pulp wood has been brought about by four following causes:

"1. A temporary recession in business during the readjustment period, which was bound to come.

"2. The increase in price of wood, which helped to pay for the longer haul, as much of the wood that has been cut recently is from the very back end of many of our timber lots.

"3. An attempt on the part of land owners in the bud worm killed area to salvage at least a small portion of the bug killed timber.

"4. The fact that lumber has temporarily dropped in price, owing to the delay in building, causing a diversion of logs from lumber to pulpwood.

"The great trouble with the paper companies is that they are always living in the present, forgetting the past when at times they have hardly known where the next cord of wood was to come from, and disregarding the larger and more permanent shortage of the future.

"The latest reports which I have just received from cruisers in New Brunswick now rate the amount of loss in the standing wood supply of that province from the recent attack of the bud worm to approximately 50 per cent. when you look at the present wood pile don't lose sight of any of the above facts.

"It is far better to look this situation squarely in the face and endeavor by every means at our command to prepare for the future.

"There are, anything that can be said or done which will tend to arouse the public to a realization of the danger that is confronting us with regard to our future timber supply is a public work of the first importance."

Harcourt Man Struck By Train

Moncton, N. B., Dec. 6.—Clarence Wry, aged about 65 years, of Harcourt was struck by a C. N. R. train at Harcourt about 1.30 today. He died at 1.45 o'clock while being taken to Moncton. Mr. Wry was just getting on the train No. 25 bound from Moncton to Campbellton and stepped in front of train No. 28 running from Campbellton to Moncton. It is said to procure a newspaper.

He was immediately placed on a train and rushed to Moncton, but succumbed to his injuries about an hour and a quarter after the accident. He was a retired farmer and lumberman. No. 26 was in charge of Conductor Hughwood McDougall and Driver John McLean of Newcastle.

SCHOOLS CREATE INCENTIVE

If Canada ever becomes a musical nation the public schools are going to be the means of making it such, because the public schools do not, as a rule, inspire the musical tendencies of a child and bring the paper up to a certain degree of musical appreciation, the degree depending upon the teacher. The public schools create an incentive for the boy or girl to study. The average boy or girl does not know whether he or she cares for music or not—not having had an opportunity to know as their only opportunity is in the public school. Every pupil under private tuition, regardless of what branch of art he is studying, should take the extra public school course. It broadens his specialty—it is the connecting link between his line and the other musical activities. So many private teachers really do not realize this and do not insist upon their students taking up the public school course which is to be regretted, as the student misses a great deal of music.

ALL THE YEAR ROUND MOTORING IS ONE OF VANCOUVER ISLAND'S CHARMS

TYES CAUGHT ON VANCOUVER ISLAND

The motorist's idea of paradise is a beautiful country where roads and weather permit continuous traveling. The nearest approach to that ideal in the north-western part of this continent is Vancouver Island. Nature has provided beauty and the right sort of climate; man has built fine roads. The temperature of Victoria, the hub of Island life, is so modified by the Japan current that its average mean temperature is 45 degrees F. There is a range of only 22 degrees F. between the mid-winter and mid-summer averages.

Sunshine is the rule, averaging nearly six hours for each day in the year. Of course, the summer days have longer hours, but there is enough sunshine all winter to keep vegetation green and gardens in bloom. While Victoria has few rainy days, the annual precipitation being 27.46 inches, which is less than that of any other Pacific coast point north of San Francisco, the city has abundance of water caught by neighboring mountains.

MALAHAT DRIVE

Although situated on the southernmost tip of an island, Victoria is quite free from fog. Because of its low range of variances in temperature and clearness of atmosphere, this city was chosen by the Canadian Government as the site for its two great observatories. The motor roads of the Island are worthy of their setting. Victoria with its miles of residential streets and more miles of marine drives and beautiful views, is the starting point for many delightful trips. Among them are the 40 miles of Saanich Peninsula, skirting Cadboro and Cordova Bays; winding, thrilling roads that climb up to the Pharoahe and a further mile run to the famous Butchart Estate with its sunken gardens, metamorphosed rock garden and exquisite Japanese gardens. The Island Highway is the pride of the Island. It is a 170 mile stretch of well-made road running from Victoria to Campbell Falls along the Gulf of Georgia. It is strung with picturesque towns and branch roads lead to such delightful resorts as Shawanigan Lake, Cowichan Lake, Cameron Lake, Great Central Lake, and many a trout stream. The southern portion of the Highway is known as the Malahat Drive, pronounced by the knowing ones as a perfect motorway.

Thought She'd Have To Give Up

Mrs. Kenny Had Suffered Eight Years Before Taking Tanlac—Is now Well and Happy

"I'll never stop praising Tanlac since it helped me so much and I just feel like going out and telling everybody about it," said Mrs. O. R. Kenny of 75 Dresden Row, Halifax, N. S.

"For the past eight years I suffered dreadfully with stomach trouble and chronic indigestion. My appetite was poor, and for years I didn't think I ate a good hearty meal. The little I ate soured on my stomach and caused gas to press up into my chest and throat until I could hardly breathe. I had awful headaches that kept me confined to my bed for days at a time and left me in a terrible weakened condition. At night I was so nervous and restless I could scarcely sleep. I had no energy to do my housework, and I thought I would have to give up altogether, as I was getting worse all the time.

"I got a bottle of Tanlac one day and it gave me so much relief I kept on taking it until I had finished my seventh bottle and all my troubles had disappeared. My appetite is just splendid and I no longer suffer from indigestion or gas in my stomach. My breathing is free and easy and I never have a sign of a headache. I sleep like a child and have regained all my strength and energy so that my housework is a real pleasure. I've also gained ten pounds in weight, and am feeling just fine in every way."

Tanlac is sold in Newcastle by E. J. Morris, in Redbank by Wm. M. Sullivan and in Doaktown by O. Hildebrand.

BE SANE IN POLITICS

An exceedingly strong reason why we should maintain a stable government in Canada is that the burden of taxation is too heavy for a young nation to bear and should be minimized as quickly as possible. One of the best ways to bring about a reduction is to increase the population and thereby minimize the per head load of taxes. Enlarged population of course means necessity for increased capital to assimilate it. If sensible policies are continued there is little difficulty about getting population. Every ship leaving the Old Country for months has been loaded with people from the Mother Country anxious to make new homes for themselves in the new country, and there has been a great influx of people from the United States into our Western country. The biggest difficulty is to get additional capital from outside. And the quest on then is—how best can we attract outside capital? Can we do it if we have a country distracted politically, with class striving against class? No, assuredly not! Capital always shies away from conditions of that kind; always steers clear of countries where political conditions are unstable. It requires as an essential a sane, sensible government, representative of all classes under which reasonable security of fair and decent treatment is assured.

No country ever had a greater opportunity than Canada to make wonderful progress. The cards are all in our hands if we only play them right. If we only keep our heads we will have a large flow of population and capital from other countries. The war has changed the life outlook and perspective of millions of peoples of the Old Lands, and nowhere better than in Canada can they find scope for their energies and activities. The United States is rapidly filling up, and we are also doing wonderfully well and should do so in increasing measure each year. Moreover, our cheap Western lands, which are rendered still more cheap by the premium in Canada on United States money, are proving a great attraction to the western and mid-western United States farmers.

The financiers of the world are just beginning to realize the tremendous extent of our natural resources, and the splendid advantages we have for manufacturing development by reason of our magnificent water power; and, unless checked by immature statesmanship—we should see a great development of Canada, which will be of untold benefit to the whole people. All we have to do is to keep steady, and to be sane in our politics. We should not let the extremists and class agitators carry us away with their half-baked, half-digested theories. In these troublesome times, with such a splendid prospect ahead of us, we should cling fast to that which we know, cling fast to sane, orderly, stable government for all classes, a government based upon the best Anglo-Saxon practice, and not allow ourselves to get tangled up in class movements based upon class consciousness, with selfishness as their motive, which can only lead to chaos, if not disaster.

Guide Attacked By Bull Moose

Mr. George Hinton of Doaktown Attacked by Bull Moose and Badly Beaten

Fredericton Gleaner: George Hinton, of Doaktown one of the best known hunters guides on the Miramichi, had a remarkable experience with an infuriated bull moose on the closing day of the hunting season, news of the thrilling incident being recorded here only today.

Mr. Hinton, it appears, had shot a very large bull moose, a veritable monarch of the forest, and, believing it was about dead, turned away to look at six other moose a short distance away when suddenly the huge animal, wounded and helpless as he believed sprang to its feet and charged the lone hunter.

The infuriated bull tried every way to lay him with his horns, at the same time kicking at him with both his forward and hind feet. However, with wonderful presence of mind, Mr. Hinton grabbed the antlers and thereby held himself close to the animal's head that it could not get him with its horns nor kick him with its feet. In that position Mr. Hinton was rushed through the thicket until the woods became so thick that the moose because of the great size of its antlers, could penetrate no further.

Then free'n; its assailant, who was only too pleased to part company with it, the animal turned and fled leaving Mr. Hinton much bruised and with two ribs broken, but able to make his camp that night, thankful for his miraculous escape from death.

A CHILDREN'S CHOIR
An unusual feature of the services of the First Baptist Church in Moncton last Sunday morning was the singing of several sections by a children's choir of 70 voices. The little ones have been under the instruction of Prof. Ball for several weeks and gave four pieces in the morning and four in the evening. In addition to the children there was the regular choir of thirty voices, making 100 voices in all. The soloists were Master Washburn, Mrs. R. L. Steeves and Mrs. Ball.

Will Newcastle ever be in a position to have a similar choir? There is no reason, why we should not, if the people generally, would manifest a keener interest in music. The material is here in abundance and only requires development. Is it not the duty of every good citizen to make it his or her business to see that the material is developed?
