Severe Weather Affects Local Supply of More Expensive Kinds of Fish and Advice is Given to Try Cheaper Grades.

Fishes as an article of diet has grown to be fairly expensive. The supply of fish at the principal distributing centres for fish has of late been dwindling and the already high prices have increased. In Boston, so says the Boston Globe, the prices of cod, haddock, halibut, pollock and hake are high just now because of the recent spell of bad weather. The fishing fleet has been tied up lately and Tuesday no fish at all was landed at the Fish Pier in Boston and before that the supply had been steadily dwindling. In the local fish market the weather has also had a great effect and no fish has been shipped out of St. John since the cold weather began. However, enough fish has been landed to supply the demand here, and if not enough there is little difficulty in getting it from Nova Scotia. The larger centres have been most affected by the weather which has prevailed lately. A local fish dealer said yesterday that the high prices that meat is demanding has an effect in the fish market.

CHEAPER GRADES OF FISH.

The Globe comes to the rescue by suggesting the use of the cheaper grades of fish. The Globe says: "To continue to aid the food administration we must continue to replace meat with fish, but to do this we must be able to purchase sea foods within our means. A liberal use of the following varieties affords us the means of doing this:
"Whiting (dogfish) at 8 cents a pound, instead of haddock or bluefish.
"Herring at 8 or 10 cents a pound, instead of smelts at 30 cents.
"Shark at 10 cents a pound, instead of swordfish, codfish or halibut at from 20 to 50 cents.
"Squid at 8 cents a pound, instead of scallops.
"Ray or skate at 8 or 10 cents a pound, instead of mackerel, salmon or other fancy fishes."
"While these fish are just now the cheapest in our markets, they are all regarded as delicacies in other parts of the world.
"Whiting, for example, is in great favor in England and Italy, readily commanding 50 cents a pound in the Italian markets. It is selling at three pounds for a quarter in the Italian stores in the North End. Its flesh is white, of fine texture, and of excellent flavor. Quantities of it are on hand both fresh and frozen. It may be cooked in any manner in which a haddock may be cooked—that is to say it may be fried, broiled, boiled or baked.
"Shark, used largely in Japan and other countries, is now selling here at 10 cents a pound retail. Its flesh in texture and taste is very similar to that of swordfish.
"Herring, much esteemed in France, may be bought at the rate of three pounds for a quarter in Italian retail stores. While quantities of it eaten here in the form of sardines, its cheapness and the fact that it is rather bony seem to keep the average American family from eating the fresh article. By opening the cooked fish, as one would a smelt, the backbone may be removed and the smaller bones will be removed leaving only the tasty fish.
"Squid, which retails in Italy at 40 cents a pound, is bringing only 10 cents a pound here now at retail, and may be bought in many places three pounds for a quarter.
"Government authorities state that within a few years the fish named will become familiar to the table of the average American family."—The Daily Telegraph, St. John, Jan. 10.

Annual Hockey Meeting

The annual meeting of the Hockey League was held Saturday night at the office of the President, Mr. W. J. Higgins, the delegates of the different teams attending Messrs. W. J. Higgins and J. M. Tobin were re-elected President and Secretary-Treasurer respectively. The report and financial statement submitted by the latter were very satisfactory and were adopted. In consequence of the relations we have had with Halifax, two teams from that city having played here, as well as seven from under Nova Scotia towns, it was decided to donate the sum of $60 to the Halifax Disaster Fund. Secretary Tobin reported having received a communication from Mr. Thomas Winter, captain of the King's College team, Windsor, N.S., stating they are desirous of coming down here to play a series of games. The matter will be further considered, and if possible the seven will be brought here. These are the same lads who played a series of interesting games against the Windsor draft team last year, and should they come here some fine exhibitions may be looked for. It was announced that St. Bon's are dropping out this season, it having been found impossible to arrange a team. They will, however, have the privilege of entering again if they desire to do so in later years. Another meeting will be held on Wednesday at 8 p.m. when the fixtures will be drawn up.

Wedding Bells.

GARRETT-NICHOLS.
A quiet but pretty wedding took place in Montreal, Can., on Oct. 16, 1917, when Mr. Ernest Garrett led to the altar Miss Alice Nichols, daughter of the late James H. and Mary Nichols of this city. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon Horsey, D.D., at St. Alban's Church. The bride was prettily attired in a tailor-made electric blue serge costume with hat and fox fur to match. Miss Ethel Nichols, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid while the groom was ably supported by Mr. James Bridgeman. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bridgeman where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Garrett received many useful and valuable presents, including a large marble clock from the employees of the Montreal Power and Light Company, where the groom is at present employed. The groom's present to the bride was a gold pendant and to the bridesmaid a gold brooch. The Telegram wishes Mr. and Mrs. Garrett many happy years of wedded life.

MULLOWNEY-DAVIS.

William Bay was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, 12th inst., when Mr. Maurice Mullowney was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Miss Philomena Davis, both of that place. The wedding took place at 8 o'clock a.m. in St. Joseph's Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. O'Brien, P.P. The bride looked charming in a traveling costume of dark blue with hat to match and was attended by Miss Winifred Cleary, of Bay Roberts, who also was attired in blue, whilst the groom was supported by Mr. William Burke. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the groom's parents where breakfast was partaken of, after which they entrained for Brennock's, Petty Harbor, where the honeymoon was spent. The bride received many useful and valuable presents including a gold piece from the groom's father. We join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Mullowney a long and a happy life of wedded bliss.—Com.

Our Medical Service.

With our troops to France will go the largest, best organized, best equipped medical branch in the world's history. In the formation of this department we have the benefit of the united experience of the English and French surgeons-general. Few are aware to what extent the doctors and surgeons of the country have responded. From no other profession or occupation has the percentage of volunteers been so large. Ten months ago in the office of the surgeon-general, in Washington, there were only six assistants; and the total enlisted medical men in both army and navy numbered 420, including our territorial possessions. When the call came, there were 143,000 physicians and surgeons in the United States. Immediately 25,000 of them volunteered for service. Of these, over 14,000 have already been commissioned. The executive force in the surgeon-general's office has grown from six to over 200, and here are gathered each day and far into the night, and often all night, scores of the ablest surgeons in the land. Experts and professors from the largest medical schools and hospitals; doctors whose books are studied at home and abroad; surgeons who were earning a princely fortune each year, to whom patients traveled thousands of miles; others with more moderate incomes who could less well afford to do so, gave up their practice and have joined the medical branch. And these earnest men are rapidly forging into shape the largest and most efficient surgical organization the world has ever known.—H. H. Windsor, in the January Popular Mechanics Magazine.

No Complaints from Soldiers Says Bishop.

London, Jan. 11.—The Bishop of Fredericton, after visiting the troops on behalf of the Canadian Church, says he was most vividly impressed with the care taken for the men's welfare. He has been through many hospitals, and complaints and growing are absolutely unknown. He speaks highly of the organization of the chaplain service. He visited the discharged depot at Buxton, and accompanied a thousand men to Liverpool en route to Canada, permanently unfit. He praises also, the discharge depot organization and arrangements. The Bishop will return in five weeks, after a visit to the front.

When you want something in a hurry for tea, go to ELLIS'—Head Cheese, Ox Tongue, Botted Ham, Cooker Corned Beef, Bologna Sausage.

MUSICAL.—We are informed that a grand musicale will be given in the Masonic Temple next week, for which a very special programme is in course of preparation. Choice vocal and instrumental selections will be rendered, and the magnificent organ will be heard with 'cello and piano.

Living With Their Parents.

By RUTH CAMERON.

RUTH CAMERON

Have you noticed how seldom it is nowadays that young people get married and go to live with their parents? For six couples that did that thirty or forty years ago I doubt if there is more than one now. Why is it? Well, for one thing the modern home hasn't the capacity to shelter two families that the old time houses did. In those days the new family usually had a wing or an ell for its own, and thus gained greater measure of privacy and individuality than would ever be possible in the compact modern house.

Apartments Cut To Your Measure. Then again, there are so much greater facilities nowadays for going to housekeeping on a tiny scale. There are apartments cut to fit the tiniest families, where in the old days there were only houses and most of them white elephants of unneeded rooms.

Perhaps I am mixing cause and effect. Perhaps that very unwillingness to pool their housekeeping with the older folks has been one of the seeds from which apartments in assorted sizes have sprung. Nevertheless, I think the effect has turned about and become in its turn the cause for still more restlessness. When such cosy, appropriate little nests stand ready to be occupied, how much harder to be content with a corner of someone else's old fashioned, perhaps a little bit shabby nest?

"No Roof Big Enough For Two Families." I suspect the independence and intense individuality of the age has been the chief factor. "No roof is big enough for to cover two families" is a favorite proverb nowadays. And very true it is. Such an arrangement is always a compromise, and a compromise to which, to make it effective, one must bring infinite tact and forbearance and willingness to live and let live. However, I do think there are times when the compromise should be made for a time at least. But there is one point on which I stand firm (and I don't think it's because I'm a woman either. It's because of the essential justice of it.) I think it should be her parents rather than his with whom the young people live.

Women Are The Natural Shock Absorbers. In such arrangements woman folks have the harder position because somehow they are always the smoother—the shock absorbers. Besides, the man goes away to his business for the day. The woman's business is right there in the home. She has to carry it along in partnership with the other woman and it is far easier for her if that woman is her own mother.

Of course there are cases when the wife must live with her mother-in-law (or better the mother-in-law with the wife). I hope no woman will unfairly regard this talk as a justification for shirking such a duty when it plainly exists.

THE CABBAGE.

The cabbage is a humble, unobtrusive vegetable which is modeled closely after the human head, the resemblance at times becoming painfully distinct. If the common garden cabbage had been provided with a nose and a pair of eyebrows we would all hesitate to uproot one for fear of decapitating some loved friend.

The chief mission of the cabbage on earth is to make sauerkraut. In fact, if it were not for the lowly cabbage this delicacy, which rests with such unstudied grace upon the stomach, would be as scarce as the marriage ceremony in Mexico. Every year countless thousands of cabbages with sloping foreheads are plucked rudely from the bosom of Mother Earth and worked up into sauerkraut, being offered for sale in large, open barrels which exhale a dainty but far-reaching perfume. Most people can tell sauerkraut by its perfume, without having to partake of the same and pass a restless and remorseful night.

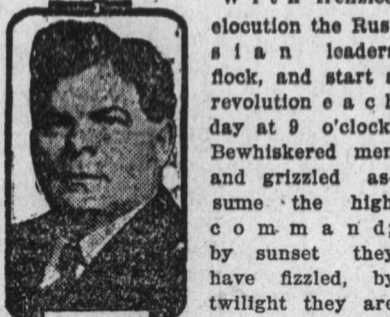

Unlike the orange and banana and the domestic science biscuit, the cabbage is very seldom eaten raw. It tastes better and digests with greater fluency when cooked for a couple of days in company with a carton of corned beef. Few people ever attempt to negotiate a plate of corned beef on high without washing it down with an arduous of leaf cabbage which is harder to spear with a fork than spaghetti. When we reflect that it is considered a boorish act to eat boiled cabbage with a spoon, we see how badly some of our local edicts need revising.

Clever housewives are able to make splendid use of the cabbage by converting it into unsteady forms of salad and serving it between courses, so that the guests will have time to regain their breath. It is a trying thing for a dinner guest who does not care for cabbage in its most seductive form to be confronted by one of these salads, dressed in cute pink and green booties, and to have to frame up some polite excuse about being troubled with dyspepsia.

Cabbages are very easily grown in the proper climate. All that is necessary to do is to preserve the legs of the cabbage and plant them in soft, pillable earth, which will cause the head to protrude rapidly, where it can be reached by the warm sun and the sharp-nosed cabbage worm. It can be set down as a fact that it is easier to grow five hundred cabbages than to raise one boy with piano wire in his legs and a bump of curiosity as large as a corn crib.

RUSSIA'S HIMPUS.

WALT MASON

With frenzied elocution the Russian leaders start a revolution each day at 9 o'clock. Bewhiskered men and grizzled assume the high command; by sunset they have fizzled, by twilight they are canned. A government is started that holds out promise rich; in half a day it's carted out to the dump-itch. One liberator chases another to his lair; no mortal can keep cases on all that's doing there. We read the stories hazy, of what is going on, and say, "Those boobies are crazy, they're nuts, so help us John!" But let us not be hurried in handing out rebukes, for criticisms hurled are often worse than flukes. The Russians, widely screeching, from despot's rule set free, are reaching, blindly reaching, for all the boons there be. Like men who have been hidden for black years underground, and who at last are bidden into the light, unbound, they're startled and they're frightened by such a stunt as that; of age-long burdens lightened, they know not where they're at. The despot long had bossed her, and Russia must obey; now faker and impostor must have their little day; but some day they'll be stranded, and nations will declare, "See where old Russia landed—she's right side up with care!"

Household Notes.

Celery is a flavor too little used when cooking fish.
There is no salt shortage, and no prospect of one.
Whiting and ammonia are best for cleaning nickel.
Mock cherries can be made of large red cranberries.
As a rule meats containing much fat are not wholesome.

Cornbreads made with eggs and milk are very nutritious.
Pancakes may be piled on a plate with sugar or jelly between.
Buy local and seasonable foods for your table as far as possible.
A blooming plant needs more water than when not in bloom.
Hand-to-mouth buying at the grocery means expensive buying.
Never limit the plain food of growing children—that is waste.
Sweet peppers may be fried with onions and served with beefsteak.

Orzo, farina, hominy and cornmeal should be bought in bulk.
Dried lima beans are delicious—baked under a piece of fresh pork.
Newspapers will give as brilliant a finish to window glass as chamolais.
A simple milk-and-potato soup may be given relish with celery salt.
A little milk in the buckwheat cakes makes them brown more readily.
A few chopped dates added to apple sauce make a very tasty dish.

Fire at Friday's Bay.

A shop and store owned and occupied by Alex. Sansom, of Seal Cove, Friday's Bay, was totally destroyed by fire during the early hours of the 22nd ult. There was about five thousand dollars worth of goods, in addition between seventeen hundred and two thousand in cash, in the building at the time, and nothing was saved. The fire occurred about two a.m. and when discovered the building was in flames. Mr. Sansom had recently arrived from St. John's with his winter's stock of goods, and his loss is estimated at between seven and eight thousand dollars with no insurance, thus in a few minutes his lifelong savings have been swept away. Jonathan Sansom, of Friday's Bay, writes that any donations sent him towards the unfortunate man, will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged—Western Star, Jan. 15.

Fads and Fashions.

Flit lace continues in high favor. White solid hats are being worn in the south.
Chemises of pin-striped flannellette are the latest.
Two material combinations are all the vogue.
Crepe Georgette and wool are used together.
Spring fashions have a strong military trend.
Short boleros are seen on three-piece costumes.
Gray English tweeds are used for smart sports suits.

PARIS, Jan. 20.
In a naval action between British and Turkish forces at the entrance to the Dardanelles, the Turkish cruiser Midulla, formerly the German Breslau, was sunk, and the Sultan Yavriz Selim, formerly the cruiser Goeben, was beached. This report was made public by the Admiralty.

STREET FIGHTING IN PETROGRAD.
LONDON, Jan. 20.
Petrograd despatches which reached London to-day describe street fighting between the factions.

DECLINE TRIP TO THE FRONT.
LONDON, Jan. 20.
The Executive Committee of the Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen has declined the Government's invitation that thirty-five of the members of the various labor bodies have recently visited the battlefields, and this is the first refusal. A resolution adopted by the committee says that owing to the long hours of duty in force and the absence of so many men from work it is unfair to others to accept invitations.

GERMAN TROOPS TRANSFERRED.
LONDON, Jan. 20.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—Reuter's learns from statements of German deserters regarding the movements of German troops from the east to the west fronts, that it was clear that both the 31st and 42nd divisions of the German army were transferred from the east front after the armistice had been signed between the Bolshevik Government and the Germans.

AUSTRALIA'S POLITICAL SITUATION.
MELBOURNE, Aus., Jan. 16.
Delay. (Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—The keenest interest is being manifested in the House of Representatives on the motion of censure against the Government. Sir William Irvine, one of the most prominent of the opposition members, said that the question of maintaining reinforcements was infinitely more important than the question who should occupy the Government benches. He suggested a conference of three or four members from each side of the House to discuss means of getting reinforcements. The Laborite speakers in the debate declared that though opposed to conscription, the attitude of the laborites towards the war was the same as in 1914, namely, to help Great Britain attain the declared objects for which she had entered the war. A later despatch says that the censure debate respected in the Laborite motion of non-confidence in the Hughes Government being negatived by 43 to 19.

MALBY BEFORE THE SENATE.
PARIS, Jan. 20.
The Senate will hold its first session to-morrow as a High Court of Justice, in the case of Louis J. Malvy, former Minister of the Interior, accused of treasonable intercourse with this morning. Apart from this there is nothing to report of interest.

ACCEPTS GOVERNMENT RATES.
LONDON, Jan. 20.
Lloyd's underwriters yesterday accepted war insurance on trans-Atlantic cargoes at rates of the British Government, according to the Times. This action probably is connected with the proposal to extend the Government's scheme which in effect, the Times says, would make such insurance on cargoes in British ships a Government monopoly.

CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY DISSOLVED.
LONDON, Jan. 20.
A despatch from Petrograd to Reuter's Ltd., says that the Constituent Assembly has been dissolved.

IN PALESTINE.
LONDON, Jan. 20.
The war office to-night issued the following report in regard to operations in Palestine: Yesterday our line was advanced to a maximum depth of a mile on a four mile front in the neighborhood of Douras, 12 miles north of Jerusalem. Some prisoners were captured.

SUGGESTS CONFERENCE.
PETROGRAD, Jan. 20.
M. Tchernoff who was elected chairman of the Constituent Assembly by the social revolutionists, declared to-day the constituent assembly should immediately call a conference of all the Entente Allies to consider their war aims.

MAY BECOME HIGH COMMISSIONER.
MELBOURNE, Australia, Jan. 20.

CAPE TOWN, South Africa, Jan. 20.
(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—In the speech from the Throne at the opening of the South African Parliament, Rt. Hon. Viscount Buxton, Governor General, expressed his gratification at the success of the campaign in German East Africa. His Excellency thanked the people of South Africa and the officers and men who had displayed the utmost devotion to duty in the face of exceptional difficulties.

Holy-Name Society Annual Meeting.
The Annual Tridium of the Holy Name Society was closed yesterday by the members receiving Holy Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass. The Tridium was remarkably well attended; the first evening after the Spiritual Director, Rev. Dr. Greene, making the announcements and reading the prayers, Fr. Conway gave the opening lecture—a spiritual message of Hope, and in a flowery, learned and appealing discourse convinced all of the necessity of the quiet and stillness of the heart from time to time to meditate the eternal truth. On the second evening Fr. Sheehan gave a classic and eloquent lecture on the Holy Name, quoting the Fathers and Doctors of the Church; he exhorted "all to devotion and reverence for the Holy Name of Jesus. The third evening was devoted to the Holy Hour in honor of the Blessed Sacrament, conducted by the Rev. Director, who in his earnest and fervent appeals made all more intimately realize the practical meaning of the Blessed Eucharist to the Catholic heart.

On Sunday evening the usual annual report was read and adopted. A letter from the Administrator, Mr. McDermott, was read thanking the members for their help in several ways at church work and wishing them every success the coming year. A vote of condolence was passed to the enemy, and whose impeachment has been demanded by the Chamber of Deputies.

GENERAL DUFF DEAD.
LONDON, Jan. 20.
General Sir Beauchamp Duff, Commander in Chief of the British forces in India from 1913 to 1916, was found dead in bed in a west end club to-day. He was in his 63rd year.

FRENCH OFFICIAL.
PARIS, Jan. 21.
The official issued to-night reads: Northwest of Rheims and on the right bank of the Meuse there was quite active artillery fighting. An enemy raid on our small posts in the neighborhood of Louve failed. South of St. Mihiel our patrols brought back prisoners. On Saturday our aerial crews were engaged in combat with six German machines and destroyed two, which, seriously damaged, fell within our lines.

ITALIAN OFFICIAL.
ROME, Jan. 20.
Lively artillery fighting in Monte Aselone sector, on the Italian northern front is reported in to-day's war office statement which follows: Patrol engagements took place in the Duone Valley. One of our storming parties carried out a successful raid into the enemy line taking prisoners an officer and ten men. There were brief but intense artillery duels in Monte Aselone region. British batteries caused a large fire within the lines south of Serangila. Along the Piave our artillery effectively replied.

Naval Reservist Reported Missing.
H.M.S. Briton, St. John's, N.F., 19th January, 1918.
Editor Evening Telegram.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DIPH- THERIA.

Indian Braves Fighting With "Ours"
It is not generally known that in the ranks of the Royal Nfld. Regiment and in the Naval Reserve are a number of Indians from the West Coast and Esquimaux from the Labrador. Yet a scan of the official records will show the names and addresses of many a Redskin warrior who has gone forth to battle for the "Pale Faced Chief," the romance associated with the hair-raising deeds of his early days on the warpath may have passed away yet the Redskin of to-day is doing his "bit" at the front or on the deck of the storm-tossed trawler with as much valour and daring as ever his ancestors did in bygone days in the forest and along the coast of Newfoundland. Those young braves have been on active service for many moons now. Their fighting qualities have been recognized as equal to that of their pale faced comrades and in bravery and endurance they have stood the test well. Several have been wounded while others have paid the Supreme Sacrifice.
