The social event of the season took lace in the Court House at St. corge's, when the beautiful Festival of Welcome gotten up by Mrs. Comnander Carter, and Miss Margaret White, of the White House, was celebrated. All the elite of St. George's and the nearby towns attended, and or harmony and good feeling, and for eautiful costumes and excellently ordered arrangements, the occasion is at St. George's.

Welcome Home

ong to be remembered. The Court House was beautifully lecorated in white and green and a proud display was made of patriotic bunting. The refreshments served showed the acquaintance of the ladies who served them, with the most delieste artistry in culinary masterpieces.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. McIsaac and Pte. Ralph Nardini, from Nardini's Crossing, Mr. and Mrs. Story, of Whiteholm, Mr. Edward Haliburton, of the Royal Naval Reserve, and other members of the Haliburton family from Port au Port. All the leading citizens of Sandy Point were present. It would be a much easier task to montion those who were not present. All went indeed as "merry as a marriage bell." and soon "music arose with its voluptuous swell." and the word went round, "on with the dance-let joy be unconfined."

At midnight the soldiers and sailors formed ranks, and an address of greeting delivered, at the request of the ladies, by A. J. O'Reilly J. P. who at the end of the Grand March read to Sergeant Major and Mrs. Alfred White the appended Address. The presentation, a set of napkin rings of the precious metal, beautifully engraved was made by Mrs. Commander Carter. The address pays a well merited tribute to the Scotch people for their kindness and hospitality to our boys while in their beautiful country. Following is the address.

ADDRESS.

Many of our boys have returned covered with glory, returned with spoils of the enemy. Many of them were renowned for their prowess in capturing prisoners,-but of all the trophies of war the fairest and sweet-
