The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Harold Campbell Vaughan Memorial Library

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc. peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

Loving Brother,

Boston, Feb. 2. 169^c.

AS for News, here is very little, only about our De-featment at Canada; and least some ill Tongues should abuse any with you, this will give you a brief Narrative of it. We went from Boston Thirty two Ships, and other Vessels, with about 2000 Men, with four Months Provision, and Ammunition, little enough, but had not One Man for a Pilot. When we came to the River, (which we had a hundred Leagues to go up, before we came into the River, which was the occasion of our having a long Passage, but at length we got up to it;) a Council was call'd, to think what was best to be done. It was agreed, That the Soldiers should be put ashore upon a Beach about two Miles from the Town, and to get as near the Town as we could, and to Encamp that night, for there was a River between us and the Town, that was Knee deep at low Water, which we were to go over to the Town: and in the night they were to send in some small Vessels that had Guns, with Ammunition and Provision for us, and to bring our Fieldpieces ashore with them, to secure our Passage over the River; and when we were over the River, then the four great Ships should fall upon the Town to Batter it. Accordingly we landed, I being the first Field-Officer ashore.
 We landed about 1200 Men, and as soon as we came ashore, at the side of the Beach, was a Swamp, where lay an Ambuscade of about 600 French, who gall'd us at our landing, but our Men running very briskly on them, beat up their Ambuscade, and followed them a great way; all our Men in their landing, waded some up to their middle, none less than to their Knees. By that we had Rallied the Sun was near set; so we marched about half a Mile from the River, and so encamped. Our Men had spent the greatest part of our Ammunition in this Skirmish, having taken ashore with them, about three quarters of a Pound of Powder a Man, and about fifteen or eighteen Shot, and but two Biskets a Man; and the reason why they carried no more was, because the small Vessels were to carry it into the River that night. We had in this Skirmish about five Men killed outright, and about twenty Men wounded. About midnight they sent us ashore six Field-pieces, about 800 Pound apiece, which we could not tell what to do with, it being a Marshy place, and several small Gullies to go over. We sent aboard for Ammunition and Provision, but they sent us half a Barrel of Powder, which what that was you may judge, amongst near 1200 Men, and sent no Provision. We were no sooner engaged at our coming ashore, but contrary to Orders, those four Ships of War, as they called them, wayed their Anchors, and fell to Battering the Town, and there spent the greatest part of their Ammunition by that time they got back: the Admiral being, as they say, forced to leave their best Cable and Anchor behind him and get back again. We met with several Skirmishes from the Enemy while we were ashore, but we received little Hurt. We had some that we took informed us, that if we had come but four days sooner, they had not above 600 Men in Town, but being so long in the River before we got up, they had notice of us, and had sent for all their Strength thither, so that there was now in the Town 3000 Men, and eight hundred that were near us in Swamps and Woods, to keep us continually alarmed. But sending aboard often to see to get some Victuals, for we could meet with little ashore, the Enemy having drove their Cattle into the Woods, they at length sent us word that they had no more Ammunition to spare, but sent us about a Bisket Cake a Man, and ordered that we should come aboard again, (for they understood that was not a good place to let upon the Town, being a very strong place, Walled all round, and a Battery of Guns at our coming over the River.) and did send fifty Seamen to look after the six Field-pieces. At night we began to go on board, and I with my Regiment was to go aboard first, by the Lieutenant General's Order, because we were atore first. We did so, and got well aboard, and by twelve of the Clock were all aboard. But how it came to pass I know not, but some say it was the Lieutenant General's Fault, but I rather think the Seamens, that was to look after the Guns; but there was five of the Field-pieces left on shore. And then when all was on board, because Provisions was Scarce, we thought good to make the best of our way back again. So that we are all well arrived, only two Vessels cast away, nine of the Men lost, one Ship burnt, but saved all the Men, and four Vessels not yet come in, who we believe are beat off the Coast. You will without doubt hear many Reflections upon Lieutenant General Walley: but he is not guilty of what they charge him with; but there are some, who to make themselves Faultless, lay the Fault upon him, which might be easily evinced to a Rational Man. We killed of the French at our coming ashore above Thirty, as some who have made a Computation of what they saw in several places lay dead, say. We lay not far from the shore, and the General sent his Boat ashore* to Treat about Change of Prisoners, which we did, and changed 17 we had taken^x, for 17 English Prisoners that had been with them a pretty while. Our Prisoners informed us of the Truth of the Quantity of Men in the Town, as is above; and that if we had gone over the River, we had certainly been destroyed; So that I look there was a Providence of God in it; yet if they had sent Ammunition and Provision we had certainly been with them.

By other Letters from New-England are these farther Particulars, That the Fleet, for want of Pilots, was nine Weeks getting to Quebeck, and that they Landed about 1200 Men, many aboard being Sick of the Small Pox and Measles: That at the time they Landed, the French had not above five or six Hundred Men in the Town; but when they beat up their Ambush, and forced the French to retreat towards the Town, had our Men pursued them, they might have entered the Town with them, and made themselves Masters thereof; which Miscarriage is attributed to the Unskilfulness, if not Cowardise, of their Officers: The Men that were Landed endured great Hardships ashore, it being very Cold Weather, and they had nothing but the Ground for their Lodging, without any Shelter or Covering. Sir William kept firing against the Town, or, as some write, the Rocks of Quebeck, till he had spent almost all his Ammunition, and then split his Cable and fell down, and the other Vessels followed; they Anchored below the Island Orleans, and were by Stress of Weather forced out of the River to Sea and dispersed. Some Vessels by Sickness were very much disabled, and those that arrived lost some half, and others more, of their Men: In their return one of their Fire-ships was burnt by Accident, and Twelve Men lost; two other Vessels cast away, but the Men saved; and the last Vessels that sailed in February past from New-England say, that four of the Fleet was not then Arrived, nor any News of them, in which were about three hundred Men, supposed to be cast away, having been about three Months missing. After the Return of the Vessels, many Men died of the Distemper, which has infected the Inhabitants, Spreads and proves very Mortal amongst them.
