The Situation at Ottawa

It is no easy task for the ordinary citizen to appreciate the situation at Ottawa. The House of Commons is a very peculiar institution...

Another thing to be remembered is that the House of Commons has two forms: first when it sits as a House with the Speaker in the Chair...

Having the above circumstances in view, the probability at this moment is that the house will continue in committee until 12 o'clock Saturday night...

But a very different situation will be reached next Monday afternoon at 8 o'clock when the Speaker of the House will be in the Chair...

If the House should take up the question on Monday, it will have to approach it with all the dignity and decorum that the House can command...

The great point of the situation is: notwithstanding boisterousness and tactics of obstruction, the House can assume under the eye of the Speaker a most dominant and overriding position...

By some means the House of Commons of Canada is up to finding a way of curbing itself. At present it can run wild if it takes it in mind to do so...

And even if this be so, the House must curb itself. Liberty is not quite synonymous with House of Commons.

There is still another course open: the government may take the opposition at its word and go to the country. But in that case the game of obstruction can be continued in the new house.

GERRARD BRIDGE IS UNSAFE FOR TWO CARS

City Issues Orders to Street Railway Company That Only One Car Can Cross Bridge—Serious Rush Hour Blockade—Will Have to Close Street.

"Gerrard street bridge has been condemned by the city" was a report circulated in street railway circles yesterday...

Commissioner Harris was seen by The World last night and asked whether the structure had been condemned. "We have simply notified the company to only run one car over it at a time," he said...

"We are preparing the specifications for the new bridge, which will take its place as soon as possible. While the new bridge is being built the old bridge will be done away with and Gerrard street be closed for a time."

Mr. Harris said he could not give any date for the erection and completion of the new bridge.

MAKE OVERTURES TO PROGRESSIVES

Republicans Hopeful of Healing Breach in Ranks as Result of Conference.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—(Special.)—Many Republicans believe tonight that great headway has been made in the direction of restoring harmony among the disgruntled factions of their party.

There was all the enthusiasm that usually follows the holding of a Republican conference. Senators Clapp, LaRolette, Works and other Progressive attendees. Senator Poindexter was not present.

The net result of the meeting was the selection of Senator Gallinger as a rampant stand-patter, as chairman of the caucus.

Following the conference today, many Republican leaders expressed the belief that much real headway had been made in the direction of reuniting the warring factions.

STILL NO SIGNS OF SURRENDER ON EITHER SIDE AT OTTAWA AIR CHARGED WITH RUMORS

Some Uncertainty Exists as to Whether Liberals Really Want Speedy Election, Hugh Guthrie Denying Intent to That End—Will Government Force Issue?

OTTAWA, March 5.—So far as this week is concerned it seems to be generally understood that the Liberal members of the house will continue talking, and that no vote will be reached upon the second clause of the naval bill.

It is said that the government may permit tactics of the opposition to be continued for some days, in the hope that by that time the temper of the country will prompt and sustain some drastic measure in the direction of

CONGO EXPLORED BY TORONTO MAN

J. St. Clair Hamilton at New York With Fine Assortment of Travelers' Tales.

NEW YORK, March 5.—(Special.)—From the wilds of the upper reaches of the Congo there came into New York today J. St. Clair Hamilton, a young Englishman tanned to a oak finish, who brought with him, besides skins of snakes and wild beasts, a cargo of rare tales—on which he had to pay no duty—of the wild land through which he has tracked his way for the last year.

Mr. Hamilton, whose home is in Toronto, went to the Congo and climbed up some details connected with rubber concessions in the interests of Canadian and English firms.

"Deadly Sleeping Sickness." "I thought it was a good idea to get out before they woke up. The sleeping sickness is very common in that country. We passed through whole villages where everyone was wrapped in lethargy. When the disease reaches a crisis the well ones carry out the sick to die in the jungle. Wild beasts soon end their suffering."

"One day we came upon a tiny village in which the natives were in terrible distress. "Possibly the most remarkable thing that occurred," said Mr. Hamilton, "was the discovery of a white hermit in the jungle. He was an Englishman, but long exposure and his manner of life had made him appear almost like a chimpanzee and his locks were matted and hung to his waist. He took up into a village, in which he resided as a sort of ruler. Imagine my surprise to find that inside the poor fellow had pinched the picture of Queen Victoria, taken from an English illustrated paper of many years before."

"He had lived the same sort of life for forty years and had lost ambition for any other. He happened to become a hermit in his companion (they were both ivory hunters) died of fever. He had a rusty rifle, but no ammunition had not had for many years. He hunted with spears and bow and arrow, like the natives. He would not tell his name nor anything about himself."

Mr. Hamilton said he had heard of an immense "elephant cemetery," where there were millions of dollars' worth of ivory, but which the natives feared to approach because it was guarded by a herd of vicious elephants.

BORDEN ADVISED TO APPEAL TO COUNTRY

Ottawa Journal Is of Opinion That Wave of Patriotic Response Would "Sweep Liberal Party Out of Sight"—Conservatives Could Ask No Better Issue.

OTTAWA, March 5.—(Special.)—The Evening Journal of this city, the Conservative newspaper owned and edited by Mr. P. D. Ross, editorially urges the government to go to the country on the naval issue.

"The Liberal leaders," The Journal says, "have apparently determined to attempt to force a general election at an early date. The obstruction in parliament is the signal. A general election so forced must turn on one issue, namely, the gift of three dreadnoughts to the imperial navy."

"The Conservative party could ask no better issue. This gift has had, beyond doubt, a part in the likely tremendous gain of a truce between Germany and Great Britain. Germany seems at last, after refusals for many years, to intimate a willingness to enter into an understanding with Great Britain regarding limitation of naval construction on the basis of Great Britain's right to maintain supremacy at sea."

Forced Germany's Hand. After commenting upon the fact that Germany had consented to the 16 to 10 standard, thus rendering any war between England and Germany impossible, The Journal says that a great share of credit for this result is due to the uprising of the British colonies culminating in the proposed gift of three dreadnoughts by Canada, and concludes as follows:

"If an election comes now, turning upon this issue, as it must turn, under present circumstances, we mistake Canada if an uprising does not occur which will sweep the Liberal party out of sight."

LIBERALS' ABOLISH THE BAR MOTION WILL BE VOTED DOWN BY THE WHITNEY GOVERNMENT

N. W. Rowell's Policy Will Meet Similar Fate to Last Year—Hon. W. J. Hanna Introduced Amendment to Effect That Government's Administration of Liquor License Act and Local Option Have Met With Approval of the People in Three Elections—Evils Would Be Increased if Bars Were Banished and Shops Allowed to Exist.

"Banish the Bar," the great moral drama in many acts put on by N. W. Rowell and Company, which has become almost as famous as "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," was performed in the legislature yesterday afternoon and continued well on into the night.

The galleries were crowded and many were denied admission. It was against the rules of the speakers, other than the members, to applaud, and consequently the great temperance play was not received with any great degree of enthusiasm. The topplers in the east were Leader Rowell and Provincial Secretary Hanna. The former's role was principally a temperance lecture, and owing to a severe cold, he was not able to treat his subject justly.

Mr. Rowell spoke on his "abolish the bar" motion for an hour and a half, and was followed by Mr. Hanna, who introduced a "stand pat" amendment, expressing satisfaction in the government actions with respect to handling the liquor traffic. T. H. Lennox, Conservative for North York, introduced another amendment expressing appreciation of the non-partisan, earnest and faithful administration of the Liquor License Act and deprecation at the attempt of the opposition to bring the temperance question into the arena of party politics.

Government Amendment. Mr. Hanna's amendment was: "This house fully recognizes the duty cast upon it to minimize as far as possible the evil effects of the drink habit by wise restrictions upon the traffic in intoxicating liquors."

"This house also recognizes that, having regard to the decisions of the judicial committee of the privy council as to the respective jurisdictions

The announcement was made at a suffragette meeting at 10, St. James's square, where Mrs. Pankhurst was scheduled to speak. "Gentlemen," Mrs. Flora Drummond took her place. Mrs. Drummond no sooner began talking than a group of students let loose quantities of snuff, starting everybody to sneezing. A lively scuffle ensued between the attendants and the disturbers. Chairs were broken, blows were exchanged and black eyes and bruises were plentiful. During a lull in the disorder, Mrs. Drummond advised all the municipal

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., March 5.—(Can. Press.)—With a view to participating in the naval defence of the British Empire, the Newfoundland Government has opened negotiations with the imperial cabinet. An announcement to that effect was made today by the new governor, Walter Davidson, C.M.G., in the speech from the throne at the opening of the colonial legislature. Governor Davidson also gave notice of the government's intention to remove the duty from tea, sugar and salted meats. This, it was declared, would represent the abrogation of $400,000 in duties annually, the largest reduction in taxation at one time in the colony's history.

The will of George T. Baulley, who left an estate valued at over $23,000, is being disputed by his widow in the surrogate court at the city hall.

Mrs. Charles Baulley, the dead man's widow, said that her brother-in-law had told her just before he was killed in a motor accident that "he knew he would lose his life in an accident and that, therefore, he had taken out an accident policy for $23,000. Two sisters of the deceased, who benefited by the will, are the defendants. The widow's claim is that the will and the signatures thereto are all in the same handwriting. The handwriting experts think so, too.

of the Dominion and the provinces, it is impossible for the people of the province thru the legislature to abolish or control the manufacture within, or the importation into, the province of intoxicating liquors; that great good has resulted from the adoption and operation of local option under the provisions of provincial legislation in that behalf by which, in the localities where the sale of intoxicating liquors both in bars and shops is abolished; that to forbid the sale of such liquors in bars while permitting such sales in shops, would be disastrous in the extreme and would increase the evils resulting from the traffic and the habit; that this house reaffirms its belief as to the evil effects of the "treating habit," which should be put an end to, if possible, by means of legislation or by other satisfactory action.

Under Difficulties. Before Mr. Rowell rose to speak Sir James warned the visitors in the gallery that they must observe the rules of the house and refrain from any applause or remarks of members from either side.

The leader of the opposition certainly talked with difficulty, he having contracted a cold and hoarseness which made his remarks scarcely audible at the beginning, but after a time, however, his delivery became clearer. He said it was a second time that the Liberal party had put forth this policy since he had assumed the leadership of the party in 1905. "The abolition of the liquor traffic was the most important question that should engage the attention of the legislature. All civilized countries were seeking to find a solution of the problem. Legislation had been passed in various countries, from allowing unlimited sale of liquor, to enforcing complete prohibition. The members of the house, as practical men, should approach the question in a practical way.

There were three arguments against the liquor traffic—the demand for efficiency, the fight against social degeneracy and the battle for the promotion and conservation of public health. He referred to the premier's statement a year ago the effect that there was no rising tide against the evils of the traffic.

"This statement was like a great many more from the prime minister on questions which which he does not keep in touch," said Mr. Rowell.

He then put forth his old argument against liquor, which caused ill-health and lowered the resisting power of men and women, who, by their conduct, not only held off the ravages of infectious diseases, but also brought recent years much progress has been made by the local option law, which has limited the sale of liquor to 85 municipal places, 333 places only were now wet and 502 dry. And 123 of the former had voted for abolition by a simple majority, but the three-fifths clause was an obstacle to its enforcement. Where local option was not enforced, there were the great centres of population. There were 1,461,360 people in the province at the end of 1911, 1,251,312 in favor of the bars, giving a majority of 252,000 in favor of the wiping out of the traffic.

Bar the Root of Evil. "The bar is the strength and stronghold of the liquor evil and our method of abolishing it, continued Mr. Rowell, "and the government method is to abolish the treating in the bar. It looks as though the government has adorned its colors to the mast and then run away, deserting the mast. I was in hopes that the Liberal party would have a situation, which to say the least would be the subject of discussion.

"Bans and Shops United. We banished them for, for instance, 'Folly' he asked, looking towards Sir James, a Liberal hotelkeeper, who looked him in the eyes.

"Don't attempt to introduce into the statute book laws that cannot be enforced in the community," thundered the provincial secretary as he pounded the desk with his fist. "How would it be possible to have all the bars and shops in this province which have not been abolished without abolishing the shops?"

Mr. Hanna then referred to the provincial secretary's remark that he would give the Scott Act a new birth, and the provincial secretary, who had a pretty mess would be the result. "Local option," said he, "is the only representative of the people who today."

He Opposed it. Turning to clause two of the resolution—the restriction on the residue of local option—the provincial secretary said that during the last eight years had been on the residue of the traffic. The three-fifths clause, he said, had in the past been continuously attacked by the Liberals, but today he was absolutely sure to know whether or not the leader of the opposition supported or opposed the clause. "May I ask him now?" he asked.

Mr. Rowell: "I oppose it."

Mr. Hanna: "No matter the three-fifths clause needs no defence. The people by actual experience, that we learn when we brought in that legislation, which the last few years the government had given enforcement which the province had never before seen."

Making a Mistake. In 1904 the Liberals had not spent a dollar in enforcing the law, whereas the present government had spent $25,000 in 1911 and $28,000 in 1912. The strong part of the administration, and which appeared in a manner which the leader of the opposition could not deny, was the government's honor. "We have exactly the same situation for in that resolution," he said. In concluding his address, Mr. Hanna opposed the abolition of the local option in his humble judgment, policy, honorable, leader of the Liberal party, is making a great mistake if he thinks public sentiment is with him. I might say that we are going as fast and as far as public sentiment will warrant. The moment we cannot enforce regulations which have been passed, that moment we are going back to the way we were. We are advancing, step by step with public sentiment as it expresses itself at the polls.

Sidestepping Premier. Dr. McQueen, North Westworth, called on Sir James to interpret his anti-treating bill of the last session, and to account for the fact that that extraordinary proposal.

The prime minister has referred to the member for Sturgeon Falls (Mr. Mageau) as a break in the party. The Liberal leader said he "wishes to tell him he has a number of his own members of the house who are in a similar position; men who wish to see even more advanced legislation in favor of their interests."

Sir James Whitney quickly denied that he had used any such words in referring to the member for Sturgeon Falls.

"I am glad, however," said he, "to hear you make the admission."

"The prime minister is an adept at sidestepping," retorted the member for North Westworth. "Proceeding," he challenged the provincial secretary, "state for me the license commission members in the province who were efficient in their work in 1911. In one county in the election of 1911 a license commissioner had made himself especially active in soliciting doubtful voters. In Dr. McQueen's own constituency the license commissioner had attempted to speak on the platform in the Conservative interest."

"If this is not political interference, what do you call it?" he asked.

Total Abolition. The speech of C. R. McKeown, which followed showed the member for Dufferin to be an extremist in the temperance ranks. He said Mr. Rowell was not going far enough, or, at least, was not going far enough in the way of abolishing licensed saloons, on the ground that there was no one in his power to overcome the traffic; he would not hesitate to do so. Furthermore, he said, he represented a constituency that felt very glad to pay a tax in lieu of the revenue cut off by prohibition.

"I know the time is coming when no liquor will be sold in Ontario," he claimed, amid opposition applause, "and I know also that it would come now if it were possible for this government to bring that about."

Mr. McKeown said he was proud of the fact that he had spoken on a local option platform with Rev. Ben Spence last December, when he learned that the gentleman had opposed the idea of the Dominion Alliance passing the resolution it did a few days ago, committing itself to the Liberal leader's policy.

"But the resolution passed unanimously," came a voice from the opposition.

"Did it?" challenged the speaker. "If I am informed correctly, it was brought down to the convention as the result of a division in committee."

Knocks Mr. Spence. The member for Dufferin then indulged in a little criticism of Dr. McKeown, not mentioning his name, but drawing attention to his unusual display at the recent convention in an endeavor to get the alliance hitched up to the Liberal party. The speaker intimated as much as that Mr. Spence might have been under agreement with the Liberal party to pilot the scheme.

Touching upon the subject of license commissioners' conduct, Mr. McKeown related how he had accompanied a deputee to the Town of Orangeville, to have the inspector in Dufferin dismissed, he said, who had been appointed by the government, but who had been found to be not a proper person for the position. Immediately upon hearing the facts of the case, the speaker stated as much as that the Liberal party and "out he has to go."

Wipe Out Whole Traffic. Allan Studholme, Labor (West Ham) took part in the debate "just for a social chat," as he said, when he had finished speaking at 10 o'clock. He stated that any human interest in the debate or sympathy towards the cause of the liquor traffic, he said, was a thing of the past. "I have read the stories of 'starving babies,' 'drunken criminals,' 'drunkards,' and 'drunken beggars,'" he said, "and I am convinced that the government, men could be made sober by legislation. All the laws upon the statute books were for the purpose of uplifting society, and the prohibition could not be enforced without the aid of a superior force. It is the province's duty to go to a step further, and wipe out the whole traffic."

Mr. Studholme's position with reference to the resolution and the amendment was unique. When the amendment to the resolution, he said, was brought forward, he would have voted for the wiping out of the traffic and for Mr. Rowell's resolution.

CITY FINDS READY MARKET FOR SECURITIES ENGLAND COULD NOT TAKE

American Financiers, Illustrating Money Plentiful, Were Able to Aid England—and France in Crisis.

From last midsummer up to the end of November Toronto endeavored to market in London $13,000,000 of city securities. Market conditions there were found most unsatisfactory; money was truly scarce.

What arrangements Toronto was able to make in London were so temporary that a search in other directions for relief of the strain on the city's finances became imperative by the end of November.

Through personal friendship with financiers in New York and Chicago it became possible to open negotiations in those cities for marketing Toronto securities. At the outset there developed the fact that money is plentiful in the United States.

How plentiful is money across the southern border may be better understood by recalling the recent sale in France of $60,000,000. And there is a story in that loan hitherto unpublished. It is that while the then Mayor Geary and City Treasurer Goady were in London trying to market Toronto securities, there were in the city of New York $100,000,000 worth of bills of naval vessels, ready for armament, and no money available to pay for the necessary armament.

Great Britain decided to offer the hulls to France, her best ally. France attempting to bring on an election, but declared that they were willing to submit the naval issue to the people and challenged the government to dissolve immediately. [Not ten Conservative votes would come back to parliament from Western Ontario were an election to be held tomorrow upon the naval issue, Mr. Guthrie declared and applause from his colleagues of the opposition and derisive jeers from the government benches.

The debate, which continued all last night and has been proceeding throughout the day, was participated in excitedly by members of the opposition, including Hon. William Pugsley, Mr. Devin (Wright), Mr. Lapointe (Kasparuk), Mr. Borden (Three Rivers), Mr. Cardin (Richelleu), Mr. Thomson (Qu'Appelle), Mr. Guthrie (South Wellington) and others.

There was some crossfiring at times when government supporters interrupted Messrs. Borden and Guthrie, but otherwise the day was dull.

During the greater part of the time Mr. Claude Macdonald (South Toronto) presided over the committee.

Bureau Brighton Debate.

Hon. Jacques Bureau, who took the laboring part shortly after noon, brightened up with some flashes of wit, and succeeded in drawing into more or less pointed controversy some of the members of the government. In this way he consumed perhaps an hour's time before entering into the rather elaborate argument which he had prepared. Dr. Edwards (Frontenac), for example, asked Mr. Borden to favor Canada becoming an independent nation. This enquiry endeavored the former secretary-general to deflect the question of Canada's relation with the empire.

"I favor," he said, "self-government and autonomy for Canada as a nation within the empire. Any person who favors Canada's independence is a traitor to the King or the empire. Wherefore, the hon. member for Frontenac, Mr. Borden, who is a member of the government, should not be allowed to speak in favor of independence, he either imputes to me lack of intelligence or lack of loyalty. I would like to see what he has in the back of his head; what he means by the question."

Dr. Edwards: "If the gentleman will answer my question, yes or no, I will tell him what I have in the back of my head."

Mr. Bureau: "I am not in favor of independence, and I am not in favor of attaching to the British connection."

Dr. Edwards: "Then you are disloyal to your country."

This cryptic remark from the member for Frontenac elicited loud cries of dissent from the opposition benches, and considerable confusion. Dr. Edwards, to maintain his point, read a speech delivered by Sir Wilfrid Laurier 27 years ago, which contained the oft-quoted sentence: "I hold out to you my countrymen the good of independence."

Mr. MacDonald (Etouffe): "Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the greatest Canadian living, and has done more for the empire than any man in Canada, and he had no more devoted followers than the present Premier, Mr. Borden, who was formerly a staunch Liberal."

Mr. Bureau then pressed Mr. Borden to say whether the proposed grant was a gift, a loan or a contribution, and when the prime minister remained silent, suggested that perhaps Mr. Borden regarded the matter before the house as too unimportant for his attention.

Premier's Neat Retort.

Mr. Borden: "I regard the question before the house as of supreme importance, but at the same time I regard many comments upon it from the other side of the house as entirely unimportant." (Laughter.)

From this time on Mr. Bureau was quite successful in getting a rise out of government members. While he was attacking their speeches he denoted the venerable member for Hallow, Mr. David Henderson, who had been doing at his desk, sneezed loudly.

"You see if it can't come out of his mouth, it has come through his nose," commented Mr. Bureau, amid loud laughter. "It is not that they are not laughing. They are loaded for bear, but they are muzzled."

Mr. Bureau yielded the floor at 3 o'clock to Mr. Wilson, Liberal member for Laval, who spoke for two hours, being succeeded by Mr. Levi Thomson of Qu'Appelle.

Mr. Thomson prefaced his remarks by reading a newspaper article, or at least he attempted to read it. Again and again the government members interrupted him by cries of "Loudspeaker." He finally spoke only a part of the item, whereupon the Conservatives urged him to finish it.

"I will read the whole paper, articles and all," he replied, a trifle indignantly. He read the article, however, with merely pointed remarks.

Mr. Thomson finished up the article, and in support of his contention said that in policing a city the authorities protected the whole city, not one part of it. He thought the same should be the case in protecting an empire. There was more danger of attack from

HIS ANTI-BILL FOR SIFFRAGE UP

Allan Studholme Introduces "Votes For Women" — Neither Side Will Give It Support.

Allan Studholme, labor member for East Hamilton, has again come to the front as a martyr to the cause of "votes for women." Mr. Studholme introduced a bill to amend the Ontario Election Act yesterday. His proposed legislation, which virtually means the adoption of universal woman suffrage, was presented last year and years before that, but nothing came of it, which is generally the rule with most things from the one-party party in the legislature.

The second to the woman suffrage bill is W. R. Ferguson, Liberal member for East Kent.

The fact that a Liberal is supporting the laborite does not necessarily mean that the opposition will back him up. Already this session both government and opposition have stated their views on woman suffrage, and universal woman suffrage, or to give women the same power as men in elections, is too large an order for either side.

The Hon. McLaughlin, or government bill, to allow married women owning property the right to vote and an opposition bill somewhat similar, but aimed at allowing married women tenants as well as the use of the franchise, are still to come before the house for their second reading.

Bill got a Raise

How did Bill get the raise? He made himself worth it. Ninety-nine times out of a hundred that is the answer. Fill your job so full that you bulge out a little over the top and if your own employer is too blind to see you some other employer will search you out. Progressive houses are always on the lookout for good men. Education counts more than anything else in getting ahead. You must know how. The man digging the street would be digging up customers if he knew how. The foundation training for every avenue of success is business training. These are fundamental lessons which are just as necessary as a knowledge of reading and writing. You can learn these lessons at home. You don't need to spend money upon a college course. Few workers have the money to spend and fewer still have the time.

More Education: More Pay

If you climb at all you must climb as you work. Mr. Seymour Eaton knows young men. He spent twelve years in the classroom as a teacher. He knows what young men and young women need in the way of business training and he has prepared one hundred self-help lessons; lessons in arithmetic; lessons in bookkeeping; lessons in letter-writing; lessons in banking and business papers—lessons to be studied at home evenings. Mr. Eaton's publishers have put these lessons out in very attractive book form, and they have asked one newspaper in each city to distribute the first edition (just from press) at a popular price among their readers. THE WORLD is the newspaper selected for Toronto. The book is entitled "One Hundred Lessons in Business," and the publishers' price is to be $1.50. # NO OBSTACLE TO BRITAIN NEEDS TEST OF SERUM

Dr. Friedmann Is Given Permission to Treat Patients in New York Hospitals.

NEW YORK, March 5.—(Canadian Press)—The city health authorities today gave Dr. F. Friedmann of Berlin permission to test the treatment which he claims is a cure for tuberculosis. Dr. Friedmann decided to make a test the board of health will allow it to be undertaken in a city institution. The Otisville Tuberculosis Hospital, Otisville, N. Y., or the Riverside Hospital on North Brother Island, in the East River, will probably be selected, it is said.

The board of health's sanction, hitherto withheld, was granted after the visiting Berlin physician submitted to the board a tube containing a culture of the bacilli. Dr. E. J. Lederer, chief of the health department, has his department will test the culture on animals.

Dr. Friedmann has been barred from making general use of his discovery because he holds no state license as a practicing physician. The sanction of the health authorities now gives any city hospital the privilege of making the test.

Dr. Friedmann is a resident physician on staff of the New York County Medical Society, which protested against tests because Dr. Friedmann held no license and did not stand in the way of any hospital appointments. The Berlin doctor, a resident physician, who under the law does not need a state license.

Dr. Friedmann today left the fashionable hotel he has made his headquarters in this city. The manager notified him that he could continue as a guest, but must establish medical office elsewhere. He explained to Dr. Friedmann that the hotel has been overrun with sufferers from tuberculosis, and published reports that he was to make general tests of his serum. Dr. Friedmann gave up his apartments without making known where he was going.

DOMINION BATTLESHIPS, SUBMARINE AND AERIAL SERVICE MAKE UNUSUAL STEPS NECESSARY.

LONDON, March 5.—(C. A. P.)—In order to cope with the fresh demands made upon it by the new requirements of the submarine and aerial service, the admiralty makes announcements that a limited number of cadets will in future be taken from the public schools. The official estimates of the number of lieutenants and sub-lieutenants to be required show that, after allowing for existing supplementary sources of supply there will still be a deficiency.

The first competitive examination will take place in June and the successful candidates will be sent to a special establishment for a course of professional training and instruction in the fleet. Their services as midshipmen will be somewhat shortened in comparison with that of other midshipmen, in view of their greater maturity. The same subsequent course will be open to them as officers who have entered through Osborne. They will be free to volunteer for service in any special branch.

NEW SUGGESTIONS FOR POOR RELIEF

R. S. Hudson, chairman of the Social Service Commission, appointed by the city council some time ago, spoke before a number of members of the Toronto Board of Trade yesterday, and outlined the work proposed to be undertaken by the commission, in connection with the relief of the poor in the city.

One of the proposals is the establishment of a "confidential exchange," where information resulting from investigations of their workers would be kept and to which societies, churches and other organizations could apply for or give information concerning applications for charitable aid. This would lessen the work of the various societies and would be away with the imposture of unworthy parties to a great extent, and prevent overlapping of aid given.

Another good idea was brought forward, that is the giving of a collector an endorsement card, stating the cause for which he was asking citizens to subscribe was a worthy one. This would put out of business the fakers who seem to be numerous in the city. Other suggestions brought forward were, the establishment of a training school for social workers, the removal of children's homes, and possibly other homes to the country, the employment of some better means of placing children in foster homes, the better working of day nurseries, and the establishment of an employment bureau.

SEVEN COMPANIES IN CASKET MERGER

National Casket Co. of Toronto in Big Consolidation Scheme.

The company is capitalized at $1,000,000 preferred stock, $2,000,000 common stock, with an issue of $500,000 bonds. The constituent companies have received preferred and common shares of the new company in payment of their individual businesses.

LOOK YEARS YOUNGER! GRAY HAIR DARKENED BEAUTIFULLY WITH SAGE

Says Sage and Sulphur Will Stop Falling Hair and Cure Dandruff.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol, added, then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Just a few spoonfuls will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggy and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome, an easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug

ETERNAL TRIANGLE REVEALED IN COURT.

An interesting type of the Slavic race, ornamented with the fierce mustache of a Hun, was Franchio Milosky, who was tried yesterday afternoon in the sessions of the city hall with having stolen a trunk from Joseph Dimas. The evidence did not show that Milosky had stolen the trunk, but it did show that he had stolen Dimas' wife. There was abundant human interest in the case, and it was the case of two men and one woman. Milosky is a strong man, Dimas was the woman left the weak man and went with the strong one. A letter which the primitive Milosky wrote to the woman Dimas what happened and why. "I told your husband that I had nothing to do with you, and he believed me. The poor fool!" wrote the wife-stearer to the girl. "I made a regular fool of him."

Judge Morgan dismissed the case.

CASE OF MOST SQUALID MISERY

Inquest Into Baby's Death Revealed Most Pitiful Circumstances—Mother Died in Hospital.

"We find that the infant Ginson came to its death at 37 Duggan avenue on Monday evening, Feb. 11, after birth thru suffocation and neglect."

This was the verdict of the jury in the inquest conducted by Coroner Siger last night at the morgue to enquire into the death of the child, whose unfortunate mother, Cassie Ginson, a 23-year-old domestic, died in Grace Hospital soon after the birth of her baby in circumstances of the most squalid wretchedness and misery, while the girl was alone in the house, 37 Duggan avenue.

There were only three witnesses, Dr. Edith Beatty, superintendent, Miss Rowan, head nurse, and Dr. Barrett, house surgeon, Grace Hospital. Their evidence convinced the jury that the girl had been quite unable to help herself, to say nothing of aiding the child.

Orillia With Three-Goal Lead Should Trim Woodstock Handily.

Tonight's game at Orillia will decide the Junior O.H.A. championship and unless the unexpected really happens, the northerners should keep the silverware. For the last three years they have been in the finals and already the finals would be an awful blow to lose out.

PRO. HOCKEY SEASON ENDS NOT IN A BLAZE OF GLORY. The N. H. A. season wound up last night, but not in a blaze of glory. A hand saw the three crows attempt of Manager Nicholson to stop the ten goals, and a derisive snarl at him. The victory came to the Lichtenheim team at the top of the exhibition game, the Tecumseh side at the bottom.

In this Pinero play she makes her star in "Love Watches," the very next season, the charm and success that she has had in her first role. # Stock Markets Are Awaiting Developments---C.P.R. Lower

SECURITY LIST IS JUST MARKING TIME

Speculation at Low Ebb in Toronto Market—Nothing New in Situation.

THE MONEY STRINGENCY Is the Leading Factor—Traders Are Still Holding Aloof.

There was nothing in the dealings in the Toronto Stock Exchange yesterday to indicate that anything new had developed in connection with the financial situation. Traders were inclined to adopt a stand-off attitude regarding the market, the general idea being that, until some idea was obtainable concerning the disposition of Wall Street regarding the change in the administration across the border, stocks were neither attractive enough to buy nor in a position to justify sales. On the whole, the list manifested no changes, and sentiment was in a variable mood.

Another down turn in Brazilian in London served to check any enthusiasm which might have been engendered, and the shares held within an extremely narrow range. The trading was not nearly as active as lately in evidence, the demand for the shares having apparently been satisfied. However, there were buying orders in sufficient volume to take care of the liquidation, and the closing price of 96 7-8 was exactly on a par with that at the end of the previous day.

Narrow Changes in Prices.
The general list maintained pretty much on an even keel, with narrow dealings again in evidence. There was some call for certain of the preferred issues, and this was accepted as an indication of investment buying, but the demand was not sustained. Meanwhile the common stocks practically held their own. A small advance in Twin City was the only sign of strength, but, on the other hand, such issues as Dominion Canners, Winnipeg Electric and B. C. Packers sold lower. The latter was off 3 points to 147. Toronto Ralls at 140. General Electric at 114, and Mackay at 83 3-4, were unchanged.

DOMINION CANNERS HAD RECORD YEAR

Profits Increased Over a Hundred Thousand Dollars—Directors Were Re-Elected.

The report of the Dominion Canners, Ltd., presented at the annual meeting held in Hamilton yesterday, made a surprisingly good showing of profits for the year evidencing a gain of $140,398 over the previous year. The profits were $202,400, from which a 7 per cent. dividend of $141,680, or $1.4168 per share, was added to the common stock of $128,915, or $1.28915 per share, and $172,593.30 added to profit and loss account. The amount carried forward in 1911 was $1,148,37, and in 1912 this was increased to $551,148.37, or equal to $30 a share on the outstanding stock. The former board of directors was re-elected and at a subsequent meeting the following officers were elected: P. R. Lalor, M.P., president; H. W. Richardson, vice-president; J. J. Neim, 2nd vice-president and general manager; R. L. Lumsden, secretary-treasurer; W. R. Drynan, assistant secretary-treasurer. The company paid a stock on Feb. 1, 1912. The regular dividends were declared, 7 per cent. on the preferred and 6 per cent. on the common.

BIG DEPRECIATION IN PARIS BOURSE

Paper Losses in French Stocks Run Into Billions—Prices Lowest in Years.

Stock prices have tumbled to a considerable degree in the Paris bourse since the first of the year, so that market values on the average have worked off to their lowest figures in a long time. Taken in conjunction with the material declines of both 1911 and 1912, the setback must be accepted as extremely serious. Paper losses run into the millions of francs, and many bankers heretofore accounted wealthy have been partially, if not wholly, ruined thereby.

The year 1912 proved a particularly bad one for the bourse. The many troubles in Europe played havoc with the continental markets, and the net decline in prices for the year was the greatest since 1908. The depreciation in the French national securities of a par value of 57,661,000 francs, listed on the bourse, amounted to 1,505,000,000 francs, or 2 1/2 per cent. Renten suffered most—they lost 1,199,000,000; Foncier Estate and Communal bonds depreciated—259,000,000; State Guaranteed Railway bonds 225,000,000; and Town of Paris bonds 118,000,000. Credit Society and railway stocks, on the other hand, improved their position.

In 1911 the national securities depreciated 1,257,000,000, or 2.07 per cent., so that in the two years the loss has amounted to 3,083,000,000. The following table shows the course of prices in the bourse over a term of years. It will be noted that the aggregate value at the close of 1912 is the lowest for any year given:

Year	National Par Value	Open	Close
1912	57,661	57,927	56,121
1911	57,952	58,340	58,113
1910	57,731	60,131	59,237
1909	57,277	58,185	58,777
1908	57,267	57,284	58,527
1907	56,891	57,593	57,007
1906	56,670	59,274	57,272
1905	56,322	58,005	58,190
1904	55,861	57,944	57,635
1903	55,560	58,204	56,928
1902	54,794	57,536	57,510

GLUT OF OFFERINGS IN LONDON MARKET

Big Increase in Volume of Loans Floated—About Fifty Per Cent. Failed.

LONDON, March 5.—The outstanding feature of the financial situation, and one which unquestionably largely accounts for the setback to securities, is the extent of the new capital issues which have been made, and, with few exceptions, the comparative poor response which has been given by the public.

The usual statistics published show that the capital creations for the first six weeks amounted to over £26,000,000, as compared with about £18,500,000 for the corresponding period of last year, and it would probably be well within the mark to estimate that fully 50 per cent. of these issues have had to be taken up by underwriters.

It is scarcely surprising, therefore, that with something like £16,000,000 of new stocks thrown on the hands of financial groups within a period of a few weeks, some effect should have been produced upon existing securities. It must be remembered that in addition to the £26,000,000 actually issued, which of course does not include the New Zealand loan of £23,000,000—the market has had the international Chinese loan of £25,000,000 might be issued, of which a portion is expected to be offered on the London market.

BRAZILIAN IN LONDON.
Bonard, Ryerson & Co. received cables from London regarding Brazilian Traction bonds as follows: (Canadian equivalent about three points below these):

Opening	Bid.	Ask.	Mar. 5
100 1/4	101 1/4	100 1/2	100 1/2
100 1/4	101 1/4	100 1/2	100 1/2

NEW MEMBER OF TORONTO EXCHANGE

Mr. Avern Pardoe, Jr., was elected a member of the Toronto Stock Exchange yesterday, having acquired the seat belonging to the late R. A. Smith. Mr. Pardoe is one of the financial men of the younger set in Toronto, and was for years connected with Baillie, Wood & Co. The firm will have offices in the new C.P.R. Building.

SHORTS IN PEARL LAKE STRUNG UP AGAIN

It is common gossip on "the street" that the shorts have once again "burnt their fingers," this time in Pearl Lake, which has scored such a remarkable advance during the last few days. According to the report several traders had put out short lines on the movement up to around 50 cents, one broker having been caught on the wrong side of the market to the extent of about 25,000 shares, which at the present prices would stand him a loss in the neighborhood of $10,000.

BEARS ARE UNABLE TO MAKE HEADWAY

After Fluctuating Unevenly, Wall Street Prices Move Definitely Upward.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS FAVORITE ISSUES BOUGHT AGGRESSIVELY, WHILE SPECIALTIES SHOW IRREGULAR TENDENCY.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Altogether trading was not on a large scale, there was aggressive buying at times today of the favorite stocks, especially Reading, Steel and Amalgamated Copper. There was no sign of the bearishness which developed late yesterday. Bear strikers attempted to bring about a further decline in the early session but encountered buying orders of a scale down and were unable to make headway. Prices fluctuated unevenly for a time and then tapered off. There was a scarcity of stocks around the early range, and it was necessary to raise bids in all quarters of the list, standard issues being marked up one to two points. Profit-taking in spots during the afternoon cut into the earlier gains.

Some of the specialties moved irregularly. This was particularly true of the tobacco stocks. Pump issues were weak.

Conditions Not Changed.
There were no developments on which the day's movements could be based, speculative conditions remaining unchanged. Although London cables were more cheerful, there was no foreign demand for American stocks, and London was reported to have sold in this market. Money rates were easier and exchange rates showed a change strengthened the belief of exports of gold to Berlin were not unlikely.

Copper stocks were benefited by reports of an active European demand for the metal. It was said that sales of substantial amounts were made at 15 cents for electrolytic. Domestic consumers, however, showed a disposition to enter the market freely. The February report of the copper was fractionally improved this week, is expected to show no marked changes.

DULL TRADING IN MONTREAL STOCKS

Little Change Shown in Quotations—Small Reaction in Canners.

MONTREAL, March 5.—Local stock trading today almost completely dull, with business being an unusually small scale and price movements narrow and insignificant. Despite lower prices, the list in London and the immediate interest of the street in the run on the City and District Savings Bank, the undertone of the market remained very steady, and after a quiet day, closing quotations showed little change from the previous day. Prices eased off here and there, but the list of losses among the leaders were confined to the fractions. Canadian Pacific's rally in Montreal Power, which sold at 227 as compared with 226 1/2 and 228 3-8 in the morning. Final quotations, C.P.R. however, were up 1-4 from Tuesday at 231 bid, 231 1/4 asked.

The largest rebuffs of the day was in Dominion Canners, which after a recovery extending over nearly a week, reacted slightly, apparently on profit taking, and closed at 79 with a net loss of 1 1-8. Bell Telephone advanced a new low level for the year at 148, a loss of about one point. Other changes shown were Dominion Steel Corporation down 1-4, Brazilian 1-4 lower, and Textile 1-2 lower.

Total business 2050 shares, 2034 rights and 1820 mining shares and $38,200 bonds.

IRREGULAR TONE IN LONDON MARKET

LONDON, March 5.—Money was in strong demand and discount rates were steady today. The stock market was dull and irregular. Heavy rains recovered on better labor news and foreign rails were supported owing to better traffic reports. The rest of the market sagged. The continent offered its favorites on the continental monetary and political situation. Turkish bonds closed firmer.

BIDS WERE RAISED AFTER THE CLOSE

The usual accompaniment of an active mining market, namely, the raising of bids after the close, was in evidence again yesterday. At 5 o'clock Pearl Lake was wanted at $5, a full three points above the best bid at the final gong, while McIntyre was bid for at $3.85, which was three

INTEREST CENTRED IN THE SPECIALTIES

Meanwhile the General Mining List Is Suffering From Neglect.

PEARL LAKE MOVES UP

Speculative interest in the mining exchanges has become so concentrated in the specialties which have been hitting the high spots of late that little attention is being paid to the general list, and some of the erstwhile favorites are being allowed to sag to lower levels in consequence. The enthusiasm which characterized sentiment a week or so ago has been somewhat dissipated, traders being inclined to hold off from the market until the spectacular movements have ceased for the time being at least. Meanwhile the withdrawal of the aggressive demand has permitted many stocks to react considerably below their recent records.

The daily movement of Pearl Lake carried the shares up another 13 1-2 points to 92 yesterday, but a reaction later in the day brought the stock back to 85, leaving a net gain for the session of about five points. Last week's close on this issue was 59, and the advance of 33 points of considerably over 50 per cent. since that time is the most sensational price swing witnessed in a long time. The late setback yesterday was viewed as a healthy change.

McIntyre's Sharp Advance.
The general list did little more than mark time, despite the fact that the trading movement was well sustained. A sharp upturn in McIntyre was the leading feature, those shares rising a full 15 points to $3.85. This company has its stamp mill running to full capacity, and it is understood that the results will be highly gratifying. Jupiter sold up to 49 1-2, but was off a point later. Porcupine Gold held firm around 29, and Porcupine Imperial was fractionally improved at four.

A 5 1-2 point drop in City of Cobalt was viewed as significant in view of the report given out at the meeting last week that an offer of 53 1-2 a share, payable half in cash and the balance in sixty days, had been accepted by the shareholders. It would seem that the action of the market thru since that time. Certainly there must be some explanation for the fact that the stock which had fallen in the exchange, Peterson Lake's drop, had another point to its lowest since January at 22. Trethewey rose to 45, its highest since last July, and Beaver was also higher, recovering over a point of its recent loss. McIntyre-Darragh sold at $2.11.

AEROPLANE RECORD OF PEARL LAKE

When the stock market history of the year 1912 is written considerable attention will have to be paid to the spectacular upward movement of Pearl Lake Porcupine. The stock opened the year at 29, by the first of February it had advanced over a point to 32. This was the first advance since January 2 of 220 per cent. The year's progress has been a record. The property is a second hand roller, are taking two dollars a share for the near future. The extent of the advance is evident from the following table:

Date	Price
April 1912	8
Jan. 1913	29
Feb. 1	50
Feb. 28	59
March 1	59
March 4	68
March 5	92 1/2
March 4	62

MINERAL OUTPUT MAKES BIG STRIDES

INCREASE OF NEARLY THIRTY PER CENT. IN CANADA'S RECORD LAST YEAR.

OTTAWA, March 5.—An increase of $29,906,485, or 28 per cent., is shown by the preliminary report of the mineral production of Canada during 1912. The total value of the year's production was $133,127,485, or a per capita production of $18, the highest on record. Nearly every important mineral in Canada shows an increased production in 1912, so far as value is concerned. In the case of silver only is there a decrease in quantity, and this only two per cent. The increase in total value of the silver mined being due to higher prices. Increases in output are as follows:

Pig iron, 1912: 28; copper, 40; and lead 50 per cent. Increases in total value are: Silver, 12; nickel, 21; copper, 85; and lead only 93 per cent. Coal shows an increase of 30 per cent. in tonnage, gypsum 11 and cement 26.

Ontario is still the premier producer, being credited with 23 per cent. of the total production, or $41,023,134 worth. British Columbia, Nova Scotia, Alberta, and Quebec range in the order named.

The usual accompaniment of an active mining market, namely, the raising of bids after the close, was in evidence again yesterday. At 5 o'clock Pearl Lake was wanted at $5, a full three points above the best bid at the final gong, while McIntyre was bid for at $3.85, which was three
