Sensational Robbery in Paris Leads to Wild Chase Through Crowded Streets.

BANDIT SCATTERS RINGS IN FLIGHT

Battered Girl on Head With Lead Pipe in Order to Secure the Plunder.

Paris, Feb. 2.—A spectacular, single-handed attempt to rob a jewelry store in broad daylight was made here today by a man who gave the name of Charles Russell, 24 years of age, of New Haven, Conn.

The man entered the shop, struck a saleswoman on the head with a piece of lead pipe, seized a tray of diamonds, ran out and continued his flight for several blocks with the afternoon crowds in hot pursuit.

As he ran, the fugitive scattered diamond rings in an attempt to divert the attention of the pursuers. He was finally cornered and arrested by citizens who turned him over to the police. He is now held at headquarters.

The saleswoman, who was struck by the robber, is reported to be in a serious condition. The shop which was entered is located on Rue St. Honoré, near Rue Royale, in the heart of the city.

WILL DISMISSED TRIO GET BACK JOBS ON C.N.R.?

That is the Question Arising Since Announcement of the Conciliation Finding.

HANNA MAY NOT ACT ON REPORT

Findings of the Board Are Permissive—Not Compulsory—is His View.

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—President D. B. Hanna of the Canadian National Railway, returned from Pembroke today. When interviewed regarding the finding of the board of arbitration on the participation of congresses of the system as candidates in political contests, he said he had not read the report of the board of conciliation.

When it was pointed out that the majority report recommends the withdrawal of the order commanding no politics and the reinstatement of Palmer, Moore and Higgins, the men dismissed, President Hanna said with a laugh: "I cannot understand that. I was under the impression that the men themselves were opposed to politics on the roster."

Paris Opera Wants More State Help

Expects Demand at Least 1,500,000 Francs in Order to Continue Work.

Paris, Feb. 2.—Badly hit by the H. O. L., the Paris Opera demands more support from the Government, and the French Chamber of Deputies has been asked to increase the annual subsidy by 100,000 francs. For the last fifty years a subsidy of 800,000 francs has been granted, so that the total would therefore amount to 1,500,000 francs hereafter. The Deputy Monsieur Kourou, who introduced the bill, states that yearly expenses amount to six million francs without authors' royalties, pensions and taxes.

Performance are costly. Each performance costs 33,100 francs; the average receipts being 27,000 francs there is a daily deficiency of over 6,000 francs. The general rise in prices is accountable for this adverse result. The ballet-girls show, for which 325 francs were spent every month before the war, now cost 6775 francs. Costumes and properties required a pre-war expenditure of 7400 francs against the present 25,000. Prices of admission have been increased, but there is a limit. Political reasons forbid high prices for the cheap seats and exorbitant prices for the better seats mean an empty house.

NO POLITICAL STRINGS. Moose Jaw, Sask., Feb. 2.—Governor of the Saskatchewan provincial government as a body from any affiliation with a federal political party was favored by the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association at the annual convention in session here today.

Accuse Railwaymen Of Neglecting Fires

Sufferers from Great Northern Ontario Outbreak Say Warnings of Danger Were Ignored

Matheson, Ont., Feb. 2.—Allegations that one employee of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway Commission disregarded warnings that fires burning on the railway right of way were menacing the town of Matheson and that another official refused to send a telegram to Commissioner Geo. Lee, warning him of the danger, were made by H. A. Douglas in giving evidence before the Matheson Fire Arbitration Board today.

The proceedings arose out of the destruction of this town by fire on July 29, 1914, the day this section of the province was swept by bush fires with heavy loss of life. Sixty-one claimants, all represented by Arthur G. Slaght, Toronto, are suing the T. and N. O. for damages that may approximate $150,000, alleging that the flames which swept out Matheson, came from a fire other than the general conflagration which left such a trail of disaster and sorrow in its wake.

SEEK NO FIGHT BUT BE READY SAYS PERSHING

War With British Not Conceivable and Germany Has Had Sufficient.

Washington, Feb. 2.—A warning against pacifism and unpreparedness was given the House Naval Committee today by General Pershing, who appeared to discuss world disarmament. Writing in support of the proposal for a world disarmament conference, he said the United States should go ahead with the present navy and army programmes until a definite agreement had been reached by at least the five great world powers.

"We should steer from drifting into a pacifist state of mind simply because we are discussing this subject," General Pershing asserted. "None of us wants war, but we do not want to be caught unprepared if war comes."

American Position Known. The nations of the world know, the general added, that the economic position of the United States would enable it to outstrip the world in military preparation if so desired and that therefore they would realize the sincerity of a movement for disarmament if initiated by this country and would subscribe to it gladly.

"A war between Great Britain and the United States is not conceivable," said General Pershing. "I don't believe Germany wants another war," the general said, at another point, with a smile.

Depends on States. General Pershing gave it as his opinion that the nations now in the League of Nations would not go ahead with any disarmament steps unless assured that the United States would take similar action.

The date set for the execution was February 5. At general headquarters it was said today that although there was convincing evidence of the guilt of Murphy, it was considered an act of mercy to commute the sentence in view of the anxiety through which the prisoner had passed by the repeated postponements of his execution. Altogether four dates had been set for the execution of Murphy.

HIGHER CHARGES PERMITTED ALL EXPRESS FIRMS

Average Rate of Increase Allowed by Railway Board About 28 Per Cent.

Liquors Advanced to First Class. All Districts Get Same Rates and Must be Treated Alike.

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—The judgment of the board of railway commissioners in the express rates case was issued this afternoon. The companies applied for a flat increase of forty per cent. on all rates. The judgment grants an increase of 35 per cent. on first class rates and charges, 25 per cent. on second class, and 20 per cent. on commodities, including principally cream, fish and fruit.

Liquors Up To First. The rates on all spirituous liquors in the future is to be increased to first class. The cartage differential at non-cartage points as established by the last judgment has been eliminated, which in other words, means that express charges shall be the same in all points whether city, town or country. It was found that the concession granted by the last judgment worked to a much greater extent in the interests of the small order houses, and shippers in cities and towns than in those living in rural districts who were expected to profit thereby.

The express companies are directed to treat all commodities the same in their method of carrying fruit, that is, if they continue the distribution privilege heretofore enjoyed by the Niagara Peninsula producers, then the same privilege must be granted to all other localities.

The Average Increase. The average rate of increase would amount to 28.3 per cent., but, on account of the greater percentage being carried at first class rates, it will produce slightly more than that average increase to the express companies.

The express companies are instructed that in the future, profits from investments and money order business shall be accounted for as revenue, and, taking these into consideration, the increases are expected to produce only sufficient revenue to take care of operation and depreciation and provide a sufficient sum with to pay interest on investments at seven per cent.

POLICE FIRE BUCKSHOT TO CLEAR TRACK

THOUSAND LAY DOWN ON RAILROAD LINE

When persuasion failed, the police were ordered to clear the track. The crowd then made an attack with stones, whereupon the police opened fire with buckshot.

BLACK AND TANS NOT AS BLACK AS ARE PAINTED

Prattling Child Gives Away Secret But Police Become Deaf.

KINDNESS OF THE HOSTESS SAVED HER. Trip on Destroyers Kills All Desire for Navy in Party of Sinn Feiners.

(Copyright 1921, by Public Ledger.) Dublin, Feb. 2.—A visitor from the west of Ireland guarantees the following story which goes to show that even the auxiliary police are not always "Black and Tan" as they are painted. A lorryload of these desperate fellows stopped at a lonely farm house in the west and asked the young woman who came to the door if she would boil some water for them to make tea with. The farmer's wife smiled pleasantly and asked them to come in and take their tea in the house.

Greatly surprised at this pleasant reception which contrasted strongly with the black looks and surly replies that usually greeted them, they accepted the invitation and sat down to tea in the parlor.

After a little while a girl of five or six came and proceeded to climb on to the knees of the men, prattling cheerfully as children do. Suddenly she announced in a shrill treble and pointed to the sergeant's holster, "My daddy's got a gun like that."

Not Black, Not Even Tan. The child's mother went white, but the sergeant who seemed unaccountably hard of hearing continued to glower at her. "Yes," remarked the young conversationalist in a still shriller voice, evidently feeling that it was up to her to make good, "Daddy's got a gun just like yours. It's under the bed!"

Special to The Standard

Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 2. On the day of the United Farmers convention here today containing optimism for those who hope to look upon the farmer's union as the savior of the day. On the day set aside for the discussion of the so-called political ideal struggle, something was taken by the public in consideration for the farmer's union. The discussion was held in the afternoon and was presided over by the speaker, Mr. Burnaby. The speaker took a polemic position, claiming that a few got together their platform and chose their names. The farmers' platform was approved by the people, approved by them into effect as an expression of political principles. He was interrupted by one of the remarks in the Farmer's union. Mr. Burnaby said that he so, but he thought the farmer's union, as a class.

Discussion Was Quoted

The discussion of the various political aspirations of the platform for consideration was not thought such an important matter. The farmers who elected to the legislature were in attendance today. They were in front for the speaker. There were six of the speakers, the leader of the little something to say once in a while. The formation of the platform others were silent. The plan relating to the key got a little notoriety. Cover, of Victoria, argued a hardening of roads.

To Ride into Office

He declared that roadways by various members of the had been roads to ride because of. In his opinion the members of the roadways they, after being in office time, might pursue the roads, he said, and that the members of the roadways be removed from their positions. Divides a credit. The contention was divided a question of rural credits. He was running along favorably rural credit when Mr. A. L. Sully, and Mr. Alward, pledged the wheel for a healthy state of affairs, arguing that such would be placing a premium travestice. He said the C. P. R. had the convention on co-shipment of live-stock. He said the convention on co-shipment of live-stock. He said the convention on co-shipment of live-stock.

Likes Agricultural Council

He desired the making of a Canadian Council of Agriculture as a federal body comprising various provincial farmers' unions. The council, he declared, formulated as a medium to be used by the farmers of the province to fix the price of wheat. The vote was in the hands of the majority, and the resolution was passed by a large majority. The council, he pictured a body of the farmers, and organizations, such as railroads, companies and other similar. Before the Board of Railway Commissioners the council appeared for the farmers of the province. His Federal Powers. A PAGE OF NEWS ABOUT THE MARITIME

BURNABY RESENTS CHARGE FARMERS ONLY ANXIOUS TO ADVANCE OWN INTERESTS

President of the Ontario Farmers Can See Only Blue Ruin for Canada Unless the Tillers of the Soil Sweep the Profiteers, Tariff Tinkers and Crafters Away! Few New Brunswick Farmers Discuss the Platform Prepared by the Provincial Party.

Special to The Standard
Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 2.—The second day of the United Farmers' convention here today contained little in the way of news for those who have begun to look upon the farmers' organization as the saviour of the country.

On the day set aside for the discussion of the so-called platform for political struggle, something was expected and more than ordinary interest was taken by the public in what consideration might be given to the platform. Out of the two hundred delegates present, five men, those who have political aspirations, took part in the discussion.

Discussion Was Quiet

The discussion of the various planks was mediocre. For organization with political aspirations the platform put up for consideration was not given the thought such an important subject demands. The farmers who have been elected to the legislature were in attendance today. They were lined up in front of the administration of all. There were six of them. Mr. Fawcett, the leader of the little band, had something to say once in a while on the formation of the platform; the others were silent.

The plank relating to the road policy got a little notoriety. Delegates Covey, of Victoria, argued for a standardization of roads.

To Ride into Office

He declared that road-work done by various members of the legislature had been run to ride back into office. In his opinion their own numbers—about 100—were not enough to elect them in a short time, might pursue the same policy, he said, and temptation will be removed from their vision.

Divides a Nod

The convention was divided on the question of rural credits. Byrington was running along favorably. Mr. Fawcett, the leader of the little band, had something to say once in a while on the formation of the platform; the others were silent.

Burnaby at Night

R. W. E. Burnaby, president of the U. F. O., president of the Dominion Agriculture Council, was the headliner at the evening session. Burnaby is a red-hot advocate of everything that bears the stamp of the U. F. O. or co-operative buying and selling. He also argued as the choice of the farmers in opposition to the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King at the next federal election.

Likes Agricultural Council

He desired the make-up of the Canadian Council of Agriculture, regarded as a federal body composed of various provincial farmers' organizations. The council, he declared, was not formulated as a medium to boost and boom the farmers of the west, or to fix the price of wheat. The majority vote was in the hands of the east, and, moreover, no resolution can go through except on a unanimous vote.

His Federal Powers

The speaker took a poke at the present Federal Government. He claimed that a few got together, made their platform and chose their own names. The farmers' platform, adopted by the council, was the work of the people, approved by them before put into effect as an expression of their political principles.

Government should be run, and they intended to do so in the future.

Blue Ruin Orator

The polished orator from Ontario proved himself to be a shrewd politician, and very deftly pictured the political principles of the United Farmers as embodied in their platform as the only safe and sane planks on which to conduct the Government of Canada. He deprecated all the fuss and fury being made over a high tariff. He can see nothing but ruin in it, and that could only be headed off by giving the Farmer party the control of affairs. All other parties were grafters and had their hands in the treasury box for bribery and corruption purposes. Purification is needed in public affairs, he said, and there was no one in sight to do the job but the Farmers' party.

The plan of the King's County Milk Producers to inaugurate a central distributing place in St. John for milk and milk products was again brought to the attention of the convention today. It was set forth that the distribution of milk in the city today was carried on in a haphazard and unbusinesslike way. By the new system proposed the city is assured a clean, wholesome milk supply under Government inspection. Purer milk is assured and a cheaper rate promised.

The scheme of the central plant also provides for the handling of other farm produce. Meats, poultry and eggs will be handled and, also, small fruits. The storage plant to care for the move will cost, according to estimates, $25,000 and from the site. The total capital necessary will be in the vicinity of $100,000. The promoters of the scheme expect to secure the funds from a sale of stock to the farmers of New Brunswick.

The whole plan, working on the co-operative plan if carried out as set forth is destined to set more for the producer and place farm products into the hands of the consumer at a minimum cost.

Consider Platform

Farmer candidates elected to the Legislature were present today when the platform was under consideration. The tentative planks were gone over section by section. President Caldwell made a plea for the abolition of the patronage system. He said he knew of defeated Government candidates who had at their disposal the patronage of the country, which he regarded as a pernicious custom. He thought appointment to Government positions should be on the basis of competency.

Judson Currey endeavored to stir the convention on road policy. He allowed that roads now built were only political roads to ride into office on. A standardized road was what should be insisted upon by the farmers. The convention was willing to rely upon the road plank in the Farmer Platform. Judson Currey made an attack upon the conduct of experimental farms. He said he had noticed they showed a profit each year on everything they grew. He was inclined to the belief the bookkeeping was twisted and thought better statistics of agriculture of things should be secured and a more sensible picture of results given to the public.

Platform Starts Talk

The section in the tentative platform relating to forests was the subject for much discussion. Many of the farmer orators regarded the Crown Lands as the greatest asset of the Province. A greater attention should be given to "Tree cutting was going on and was an injury to timber." The price was also considered and it was thought in this connection the Government was playing too many favorites. Men were getting rich at the expense of the Crown Lands and the public was being deprived of revenues it ought to have. The Hydro-Electric policy started renewed eloquence and oratory on the grafting going on in the work. Covey again pictured out how water power was being held up for speculative purposes. He thought water powers should revert back to the province and be developed for the benefit of all the people. He said there were others besides St. John people who needed power and such people should have some consideration.

Rural Credits

President Caldwell addressed the meeting on the question of credits and his workings in other provinces. Credit societies are formed in each community where blocks of land are being worked. These societies endorse the notes of borrowers at the banks and needed aid, he said, was forthcoming. Governments and municipalities join in furnishing these societies and agree to finance each society to the extent of $60,000. The seldom if ever more than $5,000. It was explained that in Manitoba the banks, after a time, lightened up on their loans, making it hard for the borrowers. To overcome this handicap the government opened up the Provincial Savings Bank for the purpose of carrying on the work of the credit societies. These societies keep all their funds at the bank for the use of the province and receiving 5 per cent. for same.

Are Banks Harsh?

The speaker thought the banks in methods employed now, were harsh on the farmers and didn't give them the show they are entitled to. If the rural credit system was in force the farmer, he thought, would be more independent of the banks and able to carry on much more profitably and with less sacrifice.

A. E. Trives thought there was altogether too much business done on credit. He believed the establishment of a credit system would not be for the best interests of the farming community. Too much credit, he said, was not good. Credit was a breeder of extravagance and the popular thing now was the swing to economy. The running of a credit system.

AVOID THE WASTE

And the wear and tear caused by undigested food that exhausts your digestive organs, does not nourish your blood, and weakens instead of giving strength.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a splendid tonic for the blood, stomach, kidneys and liver. It creates an appetite, perfects digestion and assimilation, secures 100 per cent. nourishment from your food.

he said, was a step in the wrong direction.

A. B. Fawcett, M.P.A., said the idea of instituting the system was to enable the farmer to grow larger crops without being hampered. Now the farmer, he said, had to depend to a large extent on the good graces of the fertilizer dealer and machinery merchant. Many farmers have little credit at the banks and they are shown at a disadvantage. The rural credit system would obviate all those annoyances and add to the prosperity of the country.

Suggests Mixed Farming.
Mr. Alward, of Kings, argued for diversified farming and this get rid of the necessity of credit system. Go into stock raising and the stock will provide the fertility and the farmer will not have any occasion to buy fertilizers and seek credit. The crying shame of the province today, he said, was the lack of interest shown in the stock raising. Get into it, he said, and you can live without credit.

The Platform

The platform as tentatively accepted, in brief, is as follows:
That election laws be made and administered to eliminate bribery and patronage.
That patronage system be abolished and competency count in appointments.
That provincial road policy be developed of country roads in connection with trunk roads to transportation centres to ensure facilities for marketing products.
That manufacturer, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors in province be entirely abolished.
That complete and reliable system of crop statistics be established, and prompt report given to assist farmers in securing best markets.
That well equipped abattoir be established in maritime province as essential factor in development of live stock.

That systematic system for thorough protection of forests from fire and too close cutting be maintained; that stampage on crown lands be based on market price for finished products, and stumpage rates be not less than $5 per thousand.

Pleas For Organ.

G. G. Archibald made a plea for the official organ of the United Farmers. He charged that the regular press were not playing up the farmers fairly and even said that reports of the convention had been twisted out of their real meaning to bring discredit to the organization and its aims. The newspapers were using insidious propaganda and the only real truth for the farmer could be found in the official newspaper. It needs the support

Almost everyone knows that Sage and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and trouble some. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Hillsboro, N. B., Feb. 2.—A reception for Rev. A. S. Bishop and his wife was held at the First Hillsboro Baptist church on Saturday evening last. They have just come from St. John to take up the work there. The church was prepared and impressive for the occasion. The Sunday school room was opened into the large auditorium, and set with tables and encircling chairs for the later period of arrangements, and a social good time. The programme commenced with an address of welcome to the new pastor, and the striking coincidence between the coming and the present one, Rev. Mr. Horwood, pastor of the Surrey Baptist church, gave the address of welcome to the Christian work of the community. He defined "responsibility" as "the burden holding up a pair of trousers," a great deal depended upon it. Rev. Mr. Cann, now of Maribouhead, Misses, gave an address from the point of view of a former pastor. He expressed himself as extremely happy over the two-fold meaning of his visit, the burning of the new pastor, and the reception of the new pastor, and the present one, Rev. Mr. Horwood, member of the Provincial Legislature for Albert county, read and presented to the pastor a letter, extending to him the welcome and the freedom of the village. Rev. Mr. Tilley brought the welcome of the Methodist church. He declared he had become acquainted with the incoming pastor while in the capacity of an "Indian" in the "Taxis Boys" camp on the Salmon River near Chipman.

In conclusion, the new pastor responded in a few words to the addresses of welcome. The efficient chairman of the meeting was Mr. W. H. Duffy, clerk of the church. It was regretted that Rev. Mr. Laughlin of the Episcopal church, was not present. The choir rendered an anthem. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop stood and secured the welcome of the entire congregation, as they passed in turn. They then moved over into the vestry end of the large and beautiful church and enjoyed a social hour.

Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Co. Mexico City, Feb. 2.—Eight jail deliveries in various parts of Mexico in the last ten days; in the same period two trains were wrecked by rebels, one near Puebla and the other near Torreon, and bands of rebels are growing more daring and audacious.

President Obregon's friends in the government are greatly exercised by the activity of rebel bands, especially of the Arrieta brothers who are reported within twelve miles of the important city of Durango, with a considerable force.

General Calles plans to leave the capital city this week with a considerable force of troops on a tour of inspection, Campeche, Yucatan and Chiapas, which states are hotbeds of bolshevism.

Well-informed observers are doubtful whether it would be safe for President Obregon to keep these two ministers known to be hostile to him in the cabinet or permit them to retire.

The government is keeping a close watch on Francisco Villa, who has 4,000 trained men on a ranch in northern Durango, where the Arrieta brothers are reported to be operating.

Rebuked for Telling Truth About Sinn Fein Activities During the War.

Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Co. Washington, Feb. 2.—Secretary Daniels rebuked Admiral Sims today for telling the truth about the anti-American activities of Sinn Fein officers in Ireland during the war, in a report to the cabinet last Wednesday.

Secretary Daniels said today: "As for naval officers who want to get into the limelight, there are two courses. One course is to muzzle them and thus enable them to get themselves more in the limelight by shouting that they are muzzled. The other is to give them rope enough to hang themselves. Of the two evils I don't know which is the worse."

England And U. S. Should Get Together

Time to Discuss Principles Rather Than Few Contentious Questions.

London, Feb. 2.—The time for maudlin sentiment between the American and English people has ended. There is a great difference between real sentiment and the burlesque of sentimentality which degenerates into sentimentalism.

Mr. Malone held to his previously announced views that the Irish question was one of the most serious arising between the two countries and asked: "If the British think 4,000,000 Irish in Ireland a great problem what do they think of the problems of 18,000,000 of them in the United States?"

PILES Are Generally Caused By CONSTIPATION

These are few, if any, complaints more common than hemorrhoids, or piles, as they are commonly called, and scarcely any child can be more troubled, annoyed and miserably.

Ninety per cent. are troubled with them at some time or other, owing to allowing the bowels to become in a constipated condition.

Piles are caused under three headings, i. e., itching, bleeding and protruding, and the excruciating pain which accompany them, cause misery which is beyond description.

Outments and suppositories may help and relieve for a while, but to get rid of them, it is necessary to have a free, easy and natural motion of the bowels, at least once or twice a day, and by doing this the cause will be quickly removed.

Hockey Game Has Been Annulled

Chatham - Fredericton. Game January 26 Has Been Ordered Replayed on Neutral Ice.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, Feb. 2.—The New Brunswick Hockey League game which was played at Chatham on January 26th, between Chatham and Fredericton and won by the former by a score of 3 to 1, has been annulled by order issued today by J. B. Black, president of the N.B.H.L., because Stanley (Shorty) Veno, who was played by the Chatham club on that occasion had been declared ineligible by the ruling of the Amateur Athletic Association of Canada.

Ineligible Player.
As soon as President A. W. Covey of the Maritime provinces branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada issued his ruling that Chatham had played an ineligible player it at once became apparent that the game would be annulled and the only question has been as to whether the result of the game should be reversed and the same awarded to Fredericton because of the Chatham Club's violation, or whether the game should be ordered played on neutral ice.

Will Be Replayed
It had been made evident that the Chatham Club, deliberately and in defiance of instructions sent out by the president of the A.A.U. of C. in this district and regardless of the general rules of that body, used a player they knew to be ineligible the game would have to be forfeited by the Chatham Club and credited to Fredericton. Chatham is therefore being given the benefit of the doubt and for that reason the game is being ordered replayed on neutral ice.

Played With Moncton.
The fact that Veno was one of the players on the Chatham roster at the opening of the season is regarded as sufficient evidence to warrant the belief that the Chatham Club may have felt that they still had some rights to the service of the player, despite the fact that he had meanwhile been playing for the Moncton team in the Eastern Amateur League and thereby had forfeited his right to return to the Chatham Club again for one year under the regulations of the A.A.U. of C.
Under these circumstances it has evidently been felt that the most prudent view possible should be taken and thus the game is ordered replayed on neutral ice.

Arrangements for replaying the game have not yet been completed. The present suggestion is that the teams should play off at the new rink at Bathurst, the finest arena east of Montreal.
The selection of Bathurst is probably an advantage to Chatham, as playing there will make much shorter travelling distances for the Miramichi team than for the Fredericton club, but it seems the logical selection in the N.B.H.L. circuit.

Dempsey-Willard Fight Postponed

Champion and a-Champion Will Take Labor Day Instead of March 17.

New York, Feb. 2.—Tex Rickard, boxing promoter, announced tonight that Dempsey-Willard fight should be postponed to March 17, which Dempsey announced in Los Angeles today was "has been postponed by the consent of both participants until Labor Day, September 5."
Rickard said he would stage a bout on that date between Willard and the winner of the Dempsey-Carpenter bout contract.
"In various reasons, I have decided to postpone the Dempsey-Willard match until Labor Day," said Rickard. "We both Dempsey and Willard are anxious and eager to observe the original contract and meet in Madison Square Garden on March 17. I have decided that the contest had better be staged in the open following the Dempsey-Carpenter match of July 2."

Demand for Tickets.
The surprising demand for tickets for the Dempsey-Willard bout makes it clear that the Garden would accommodate but a fraction of those who desire to see the bout. Willard has absolute confidence in his ability to regain the championship and has impressed many followers of boxing. A demand has been created that he be matched with the winner of the Dempsey-Carpenter bout.
"I shall therefore, erect a large open air arena for the international contest and stage a match between Willard and the winner of the Dempsey-Carpenter bout, under the existing contract, on September 5. This change of date is made with the consent and approval of both Willard and Dempsey."

Rickard said he intends to erect an open air arena in the vicinity of this city early this spring, and transfer his boxing organization to that site during the summer months. During the open air period he will stage a series of championship bouts in all weight classes bringing together the title holder and the most formidable contender in each of the recognized divisions.
The arena will seat at least 50,000 spectators, and will permit the offering of large purses on a percentage of the gate receipts without handicap even under the recent ruling of the New York State Boxing Commission fixing a maximum charge of $15 a seat. While definite plans have not been completed for the proposed bouts it is expected that in addition to Carpenter, Dempsey and Willard, such champions as Leonard, Kilbane, Jackson, Wilson and others will take part in contests.

Regarded As Hockey Tourist

President Covey of A. A. U. of C. Says No Hope for Veno Brothers Playing.

Fredericton, Feb. 2.—Suggestion have been made for a conference of representatives of the A.A.U. of C., the New Brunswick Hockey League and the Eastern Hockey League at St. John on Thursday to settle the case of the Veno brothers, the Chatham Club desiring to have an arrangement whereby the Venos would be declared eligible to play with their team for the balance of the season.
This morning, however, President Covey, of the maritime branch of the A.A.U. of C., advised the N. B. H. L. that there was no hope for the Venos being allowed to play amateur hockey again this winter, and said a bulletin would be issued to that effect. They are regarded as "hockey tourists."

Baseball Scandal Trial In Month

Case Involves Eight Former White Sox Players and Several Alleged Gamblers.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—The baseball scandal case, involving eight former White Sox players and several alleged gamblers, under indictment in connection with the alleged throwing of the world's series of 1919 between Chicago and Cincinnati will be ready for trial in about a month, George Gorman, assistant State's attorney said today.

Boston Schooner Bared From Race

Gloucester, Mass., Feb. 2.—The eligibility of the schooner Mayflower, which was to have been built in Boston as a contender for the privilege of representing the United States in this year's International Fishermen's race, was challenged in a telegram received here today from the Canadian race committee in Halifax.

The telegram said the committee would adhere to rule five of the conditions laid down for the fishermen's cup competition, which says, an entry must have been engaged in commercial deep sea fishery for at least one season before a race.
As the Mayflower would not be ready for sea before June, the Halifax committee feel that she should be barred from this year's contest.

Gloucester fishermen who learned of the telegram were inclined to question whether the Canadian schooner now building at Lunenburg as an avowed contender should not be barred for the same reason in keeping with the spirit of the deed of gift, although it is understood the Lunenburg boat is to be launched in the early spring.
At least three vessel owners here aside from the Gorton-Few Fisheries Co., which won last year's race, by entering the old schooner Esperanto, have declared their intention of entering fishing craft in an elimination race for the honor of defending the cup next fall. These owners are J. M. Marshall, the Fred L. Davis Co., and Wm. H. Jordan & Co.

HOME VS. FOREIGN TRADE.

From time to time, the Canadian people are urged by public speakers and the press to buy only Canadian-made goods, as by so doing they not only keep their money in this country, but they stimulate home industries. There can be no doubt but that a popular demand for articles made in Canada would help conditions very considerably. Such a demand would be especially effective here, where a great many articles not made in this country are used when there is no particular necessity for doing so. This provides a leeway where the demand for manufactured articles could be greatly increased even where the general demand and buying power had not been increased.

Buying Canadian-made goods would not improve conditions in the United States, or France, or Great Britain, but it would improve them in Canada, and it would improve them in the immediate and special concern of all of us. There is a tax public opinion on the subject in the country. People do not sufficiently realize the dependence of their own prosperity upon the prosperity of those about them in their own country.

When we buy things made abroad, we get what we paid for no doubt, but the money we pay for them goes out of the country. It is undoubtedly a fact that home-made articles are frequently more costly than articles of a similar kind imported from abroad, and the temptation to buy in the cheapest market is great. Some of our own manufacturers are largely to blame for this condition of affairs, because they have the habit of bringing up the price of their productions to the same that imported articles, plus the duty, must be sold for. So that even if the home-made article can profitably be sold for less than the imported article, plus the duty, can, it won't be. People therefore have no particular inducement to buy home-made goods when they have to pay the same price for them as they do for imported ones.

It is undoubtedly desirable to buy Canadian-made goods wherever possible, but it is very discouraging to those who are willing to do so to find themselves "stuck" over their purchase. A great many people are unable to understand why they should pay $10 for an article made in Canada when the same thing can be bought in the United States for $7 or so. True, by the time they have paid the duty on the latter on its entry into this country the article would have cost them $10 too. The Canadian manufacturer has added the duty to the price of his product, to keep the foreign-made article out. That however is not protection, it is extortion; the purchaser must pay the same price for either article and he has no inducement to buy the home-made one. If the home-made article was procurable at say $8.50, as against $10 for the foreign-made, people would always buy home-made goods, and the latter would have real protection, which they do not have when the cost of home-made and foreign-made goods are alike, because as far as cost is concerned, it does not matter to the purchaser which he buys.

THE GERMAN INDEMNITY.

That Germany would protest against the impost laid upon her by the Reparations Committee naturally goes without saying. She would have protested just as loudly if the amount demanded from her had been only one-half of the amount decided on. The amount is large of course, but she is to have 42 years in which to pay. In the meanwhile she must go to work and make the money. Many people are wondering how she is going to do it, under the restrictions which have been put upon her by the Allies. France would show her no mercy at all, but would exact the uttermost farthing; but Britain is inclined to be more lenient, because she understands that if the Germans are ever to pay what is demanded of her they must be given a reasonable chance to develop their trade.

There can be no doubt that industrial Germany is becoming aggressive, and many Canadian firms have recently received circulars from the Netherlands wanting to resume business relations. Already European competitors are seriously concerned at the situation. In Sweden there has been such a resumption of trade with Germany that there is a general demand among Swedish manufacturers for higher tariffs. The American consul at Göteborg has notified his Government that it seems certain that this agitation will result in increased protection for home manufacturers.

In Great Britain the attention of the President of the Board of Trade has been called to the dumping of German magnets on the British market at low figures, and he has been asked whether he will prohibit such imports until trade and exchanges are normal, thus protecting a key industry. The British Government has undertaken to introduce legislation dealing with key industries at the beginning of the next session of Parliament. Germany is also reported to be offering silk, silk embozzeries, etc., for sale in Nottingham at lower prices than the cost of manufacture in the centre of the British lace industry. Hosiery, fabric gloves and cheap cutlery of German origin are being offered in foreign markets at very low figures. If she is allowed a free hand Germany will in a few years be flooding the markets of the entire world with her goods.

MORE PROGRESS.

Even if the Government of Ontario is in the hands of the Farmers' Group, they do not appear to be any more possessed of that much to be desired zeal for economy than does the Government of another province much nearer the Atlantic. We gather from a Toronto contemporary that a bonus of $500 in addition to the usual $1,400 sessional indemnity appears likely to fall into the eager hands of the members of the Legislature this session. While it is stated that the matter has not received "official" attention, there is ground for believing that when the matter comes to an issue the Government will be found disposed to grant not an indemnity increase, but a bonus for this session only "to tide the poor members over the present period of high living costs."

It will be remembered that last session Hon. Mr. Drury won something of a reputation for courage by standing out against a demand for an indemnity increase in which a majority of the members, including many from each group, farmers included, joined in making. But the members who accepted defeat last session because the Premier's stand made it impossible for his supporters to join the other groups in forcing their will upon him without provoking a crisis, declared then that they would return to the fight. They have gathered this session ready for another tussle with the members in the van, keen on the extra cash and it appears that the Government will see the wisdom of finding reasons for complying.

EMPLOYERS' AND WORKERS' RIGHTS.

Addressing 15,000 garment workers, or thereabout, in Madison Square Garden a few evenings ago, Joseph Schlossberg, general secretary of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, proclaimed: "The clothing industry is ours." This is characterized by the New York Herald as a gross misstatement; a sample of the truth that underlies all the trouble in labor disputes, the exaggerated claim of right.

The large concern of the workers, says the Herald, in any industry is undeniable, but ownership of the machinery and the organization which make the industry possible and of the money which is its motive power constitute at the least an equal interest. In a certain sense both are subordinate to the right of the community to continuous and sufficient production for its needs at reasonable rates. The assumptions both of employers and workers are, in the long run, subordinate to that right.

But Mr. Schlossberg went on to say: "We are not going to permit the employer to determine where his factory is to be or how many hours we shall work." This is a crude and inaccurate manner of stating the indisputable principle that nobody can compel these operatives to work in any place or for any hours that they do not accept. They have the undoubted right to refuse to accept the locations, hours or any other conditions fixed by the employers.

If, however, there are other workers now or in the future, willing to work in the employers' factories, wherever situated, and for the employers' hours, such workers have an indefensible right to do so and a right to protection in doing so, regardless of the outrivings of Mr. Schlossberg and the will of his following, however numerous. No right of dictation in such matters exists. They are merely subjects for bargaining and for reasonable agreement.

The Boston Transcript comments: "A Quincey man, 108 years old, never drank, smoked, danced or wore a wrist watch, and doesn't know which to attribute his long life to." Well, take your choice!

Nowhere in this issue we publish balance sheet (capital account) of province for the last fiscal year. We are unable to guarantee the correctness of all the figures, as the copy of the Royal Gazette we received is so full of errors that we could not be almost infallible. But we have no our best.

The two businesses who have been sent by Oscar Glen Voliva of the Christian Catholic Apostolic Church of Zion (Ill.) missionaries to "Christians" in the city of New York have certainly found some job in front of them. Mr. Voliva however is very optimistic, for days when they get through "New York" will not be such a wicked city.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Get Home
Buy your goods in the home market, the president of the leading banks says: "Every dollar we buy abroad means that a dollar's worth of work has been lost from a Canadian workman. Make your money support home industries."

"Real People"
"Go! It looks good to see many smiling faces of real people and me," remarked Lieut. Kloof, during his Rockaway reception. "You say that at Moose Factory there was one but seven or eight Scotch Canadian and a lot of Indians could not talk English," he continued. "Of course they could not be expected to come within the category of 'real people,' even though they ministered to the safety and comfort of the speaker and his companions.—Hamilton Spectator."

The Doom of An Unpopular Tax.
Unless the Government exercise a prerogative shared with women and change their determined mind, the excess profits duty will disappear in April. None will mourn a tax which has played so large a part in damaging trade, injuring credit, and adding to unemployment. During the war, when vast profits were made, the tax was reasonable and timely. With peace it became an unjust burden. The press has shown so consistently a clog to the machinery of reconstruction.—London Daily Express.

British Ministers' Salaries.
It has long been felt to be an absurdity that the Prime Minister of Great Britain should be paid only £3,000 a year, an income less than that made by some of his subordinate colleagues. The committee which has been enquiring into the scale of Ministerial salaries has now reported. It suggests that the Prime Minister should receive £8,000, senior Cabinet Ministers £5,000, and junior Ministers £3,000 or £2,000. Under-Secretaries will receive £1,500 or £1,000. Sinecure offices, such as those of the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, the Lord President, and the Lord Privy Seal, will continue to exist, but will be unpaid. This arrangement will enable higher salaries to be paid to the Prime Minister and to certain other Cabinet Ministers whose posts have increased in importance of late years without any greater total cost. The reform has long been due.—Westminster Gazette.

They Can't Help It.
President Edward L. Doherty of the Mexican Petroleum Company was talking in New York about a man named Tom. He said:
"Like all mean men, he can't help his meanness. Sometimes he tries to be generous, to loosen up; but it's no use."
"They tell a story about him. It seems that once, in the bad old days before the blessing of prohibition descended on us, he invited two men into a saloon. He lined them up at the bar, gave them each a jovial slap on the back, and said heartily:
"Now, then, which of you fellows is going to have a drink on me?"

A BIT OF VERSE

TEMPLES.
A great cathedral arched and dim of light,
A chanting choir in raiment angel white.
A band of scolytes in vestments red,
A smoke of incense floating overhead.
A rich robed priest, hand raised in gesture quaint,
To bless alike the sinner and the saint.
A city temple—lowly bend thy knee,
Perchance the blessing may descend on thee.

THE LAUGH LINE
The New Way.
"Where's the office boy?"
"Where's the football game?"
"Gone to the football game!" He didn't ask me if he could go.
"No. That custom has come out of style. He just said he was going and would be back in the morning, and if you didn't like it he wouldn't be back at all."

Professing Approved.
"Oh, sorry, young man," said the druggist, "he eyed the small boy over the counter, 'but I can only give you half as much castor-oil for a dime as I used to."
"This boy," blithely handed him the coin. "I'm not kidding," he remarked. "This stuff's for me."

ken charge of the parish was tried by a kindly lady that he was using a mistake in assuming in his sermons that the people of Saint John's were sinners.

When you have been here longer you will learn what good people are.
"There are any sinners among them, ma," he asked gravely.
The reply was unflinching: "At least among the pewholders."
"How you come to write this tale?" asked the magazine editor.
"Oh, I troubled with insomnia one night, I got up and dashed it off," replied the author, frankly.
And the editor had to remark as he returned the manuscript: "Did you go to sleep, or did you try to read it half rough?"

WAR SECRET OUT
The German Intelligence Department were mystified as to how the Allies were able to transport hundreds of thousands of HORSES and MULES from America to the war zone with practically no loss, even during the stormy winter months. It was noticed that a lump of ENGLISH ROCK SALT was placed in the feeding trough at the head of each animal and the information is now forthcoming that the wonderful tonic properties of this salt mined in its natural state kept the Horses in the best of health notwithstanding the hardships which they were subjected to.

OBITUARY.

Col J. C. Carter.

The death is announced in England of Col. James Colebrooke Carter, aged 78, eldest son of the late Sir James Carter, for many years Chief Justice of New Brunswick. He had led a life of varied activities, his chief interests being associated with the old Volunteer and the Territorial Force. From 1887 to 1918 he was agent of the Berkshire properties of Lord Wansage. During the late war he took a most active part in helping recruiting for the Territorial Army. He was a county councillor and magistrate for Berks, Eng., and leaves a widow, a daughter and four sons.

A. L. Starratt.

The death took place at Winchester, Mass., on Monday, January 31, of A. L. Starratt, a former resident of this city, who carried on a fur and hat business on the Market Square many years ago. Mr. Starratt, who was 85 years of age, resided with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Lane. Other daughters are Mrs. W. H. Woodman, Wakefield, Mass., and Miss Margaret Starratt, at home. A son, A. Wilbur Starratt, lives in Boston. The wife of the deceased, who died some years ago, was a daughter of W. K. Reynolds, builder of the suspension bridge. The body arrived on yesterday's Boston train and interment was made at Fernhill, Rev. Canon Kuhring officiating.

Wendell Hutchinson.

Bath, Feb. 2.—The community was shocked to hear that on Monday, 24th ult., Wendell Hutchinson, a well known and respected citizen of Wiclow, had suddenly expired of cardiac hemorrhage. He had driven to Florenceville on business and on his return, called at a neighbor's. Sitting by the fire to warm, he suddenly sprang upright and taking a few uncast-steel steps, fell to the floor, dying instantly, not more than a minute having elapsed since he had entered the house till he breathed his last.

His death was the more unexpected as on the day he had said to acquaintances whom he met in Bath and Florenceville that he had not felt as well for several winters. He was the youngest son of the late Matthew and Mary Hutchinson, and was born Jan. 2, 1875. His life was lived in Wiclow with the exception of eight years from 1900 to 1908, which he spent in Bath, Montana. He is survived by two brothers, Charles, of Bath, and Rupert, at home, and three sisters, Mrs. Eva Milbury at home and Mrs. Helen Stevens, Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. Sarah Hutchinson, Whitman, Mass.

The funeral was held on the 27th of January. The pall-bearers were six cousins, Charles and Helen Estey, Frank and Harry O'Brien, Chas. Gibson and Perry Barker. A short service was held at the home, after which the remains were taken to the U. B. Church, where the large concourse assembled testified to the place he held in the hearts of his friends and associates. The services at the church were continued under the auspices of the Knight of Pythias of Bath, of which lodge he was a charter member. Rev. O. I. Howlett, B. A., R. D., spoke comforting words from John 14th chapter: "Let not your heart be troubled." The choir sang, "Nearer, Still Nearer," and "Sion." Miss Alvareta Estabrook sang, "Dose Jesus Came" most feelingly. A male quartette composed of boyhood friends with whom he had sung at many a funeral service, sang, "Sweet Be Thy Rest," and "Lay Him Low."

Two Pythian brothers rendered the duet, "There'll Be No Disappointments in Heaven." The floral tributes were unusually fine.

His untimely death has cast a gloom over a large circle of his friends and associates, for his genial face and generous heart will long be missed by the many with whom he was in association. The following lines are appropriate of his life:

"Let me live in a house by the side of the road
Where the race of the men go by—
The men that are good, the men that are bad,
As good and as bad as I."

"I would not sit in the scorners seat,
Nor after the cynic's ban,
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man."

Samuel Ball died at his home, 35 Federal street, Beverly, Mass., on Sunday morning, after a short illness. Mr. Ball was 70 years of age and was born in St. John's son of Hannah and Joseph Ball. He went to Salem 40 years ago and resided there until 1904. He was an engineer by occupation and for several years was connected with the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Co. He was a member of the John Endicott lodge, A. O. U. W., of Salem. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Margaret A. Ball and one son, Chester B. Ball, of Beverly; also three sisters, Mrs. James Lyman of Everett, Mrs. Hugh Toner and Mrs. Thomas Toner of St. John, N. B.

"IT HAS THE WORLD BEAT," HE STATES

Dartmouth Man Overcame Troubles of Seven Years' Standing by Taking Tanlac.

"Tanlac has got the world beat when it comes to ridding a man of a stubborn case of stomach trouble," said C. H. Russell, a well known painter and paper hanger living at 97 Portland street, Dartmouth, N. B. "I had had indigestion nearly seven years and at times actually went without eating rather than suffer the misery I know would follow. My appetite was so near gone that when I did venture to eat a little something I couldn't relish it and would blot all up with gas until I felt miserable. I was badly constipated and was all the time taking something for that as well as my other troubles. My sleep was all broken up and many a day I felt so weak and no account I could hardly stay at work."

"That was my condition when I started taking Tanlac, but now I don't feel like I was ever in bad health in my life. I haven't a sign of stomach trouble and it makes no difference what I eat. I never hurt me. I am not constipated and I sleep good and sound. I can put in as big a day's work as I ever could, and I can't recommend a medicine too strong that will fix a man up like this."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., E. W. Munro and by T. H. Wilson, Fairville, N. B., and R. D. Wetmore, Perry's Point, N. B., under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

GRAND DUCHESS TO HAVE GRAVE IN HOLY LAND

Murdered by Bolshevists Requested Burial in Palestine.

WAS GRANDDAUGHTER OF QUEEN VICTORIA

British and Russians Are Cooperating to Carry Out Her Last Wishes.

(Copyright 1921, By Public Ledger.)
Shanghai, Feb. 2.—With the soil of her homeland in a heap of dust, an alien to all she held dear, the dying wish of the Grand Duchess Elizabeth of the once imperial house of the Romanoffs was that her body might find its final resting place in the earth of the Holy Land. The steamship Devanah has sailed from Shanghai for Joppa, the port of Jerusalem, carrying in plain wooden casket in which are the ashes of the grand duchess, who for many years was the abbess of a Greek Catholic convent. An abbess and two novices are accompanying the body on its long journey.

When the Red tide surged up from the soil of Russia, the grand duchess, with five relatives and a number of sisters and servants of the convent, were killed by the Bolsheviki at Alapaevsk, in the province of Perm. Her cousin, the Grand Duke Serge, and the Princes Constantine, Ivan, Igor and Vladimir perished with her.

Bodies in Coal Mine.

Their bodies were thrown into an abandoned coal mine and it was only through information given by a peasant who had witnessed the tragedy that they were recovered. When the Kolchak government arose in eastern Russia the bodies were removed and laid at rest in Siberia until the request came for their removal from the country.

The caskets containing the imperial ashes were brought across the border to Peking. There the bodies of the grand duke and the four princesses are buried, but the bodies of Grand Duchess Elizabeth and that of one of the sisters of the convent were taken last August from Peking to Pien-tai, and thence to Shanghai by steamer. Here they rested briefly. Russian exiles resident here assembled and held a simple service before the sailing of the Devanah.

The Grand Duchess Elizabeth was a princess of Hesse, and a granddaughter of Queen Victoria of England. She was married to the Grand Duke Serge, an uncle of the late Tsar Nicholas II. Her husband was assassinated about twenty years ago when he was military governor of Moscow. The grand duchess then entered a convent of the Greek Catholic Church and for many years had been an abbess.

Will Rest in Holy Land.

Through the efforts of her sister, the present Marchioness of Milford-Haven, the wish of the Abess Elizabeth that she might be buried in Palestine rather than in Russia is being carried out. The request was made through the British Government, which arranged the matter, and soon the ashes of one who had known the splendor of the imperial court of Peter and the austere, self-sacrificing life of a daughter of the church, will rest in the soil of the land for whose redemption the crusaders of the middle ages fought and which has now been wrested from the Turks by the British.

Confesses Robbery And Two Murders

Bay City, Mich., Feb. 2.—Eddie Wolkowick, held in connection with the robbery of the Bay County Savings Bank and the killing of Martin L. Debus and L. M. Peters, prominent citizens, January 15, has confessed and implicated three others under arrest. The police announced today. The four men were spirited out of town early today when threats of violence were heard from a crowd surrounding the jail.

Four Admit Guilt

Montreal, Feb. 1.—Rock Labelle, Eugene Chastelle, Alphonse Dubois and P. Lafore appeared in the court of sessions this morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing $45,000 worth of goods from the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's yards at Sortin, and were remanded by Chief Justice Decarie for sentence. Over fifty witnesses were heard.

After The "Flu" Four Children Had Whooping Cough

Whooping Cough, although especially a disease of childhood, is by no means confined to that period, but may occur at any time of life. It is one of the most dangerous diseases of infancy, and nearly causes more deaths than scarlet fever, typhoid or diphtheria, and is more common in female than male children.

Whooping Cough starts with sneezing, watering of the eyes, irritation of the throat, feverishness and cough.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble, as it helps to clear the clogged-up air passages of the mucous and phlegm that has collected, and in this way brings on the "whoop" which brings the so-much-sought-for relief and heals and soothes the lungs.

Mrs. J. M. Rouse, Imperial, Sask., writes: "After the 'flu' last fall, my four children took whooping cough, and one of them developed bronchitis. After using two or three bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, they were greatly relieved of their nasty coughs. It is an especially good remedy for children, and is so nice they take it readily, and as for 'more.'"

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is 50c and 60c a bottle at all dealers. Put up only by The F. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WEDDINGS.

Doherty-Connolly.

A wedding of interest was solemnized in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at half-past nine o'clock yesterday morning, when Miss May E. Connolly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Connolly, became the bride of John P. Doherty, of Montreal, export freight agent of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Simon Oram, who was celebrant at nuptial mass, in the presence of relatives and immediate friends.

Arthur Godsoe presided at the organ and when the bride entered the church, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. At the offertory Miss Florence Kiernan sang, "Ave Marie." Harold and Donald Kane officiated as ushers.

Following the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, 68 Mill street. Mr. and Mrs. Doherty left on a honeymoon trip to Toronto via Quebec, after which they will go to Montreal, where they will reside.

O'Neil-Killackey.

A wedding of interest to many friends in St. John took place yesterday morning in the Church of Our Lady of Victory, New York, when L. Gerald O'Neil of this city, was married to Miss Mary Genovese, daughter of Thomas Henry Killackey, of New York.

Royal Arms Chapter Had Successful Year

Reports at Annual Meeting Were Most Gratifying — Mrs. T. H. Carter Regent.

The Royal Arms Chapter, I. O. D. R. held its annual meeting last evening at the G. W. V. A. Rooms. Much credit is due members for the fine accomplishments of the past year as shown in their reports. Mrs. T. H. Carter, regent, presided and the attendance of 110 members was large.

Secretary's Report
In her secretary's report Mrs. F. Z. Fowler told of dances held in February and March, a tea and sale, donations made to the Children's treat at Christmas, to the War Memorial Fund, to the I. O. D. R. prize for a Returned man at the University of New Brunswick, a prize given to Grade VIII. The Chapter has paid a share of the salary of a Victorian Order Child Welfare Nurse and of the kindergarten teacher at East St. John Hospital. Each member gave $1.00 on Empire Day, as a personal donation to the War Memorial scholarships. The secretary drew special attention to the duty which devolves upon all members to work for and give to the War Memorial Fund and thus keep the promise made.

Treasurer Shows Balance
The treasurer's report shows a balance on hand of $37.88. Receipts were $184.73, including $37.00 from the sale of a ring donated by Mrs. R. J. Hooper. Expenditures, including donations, were $144.05.

The Officers
The following officers were elected: Mrs. T. H. Carter—Regent; Mrs. G. G. Corbett—Vice Regent; Mrs. R. W. Wigmore—Sec. Vice Regent; Mrs. Fred Z. Fowler—Secretary; Mrs. W. H. Turner—Treasurer; Mrs. E. J. Terry—Echoes Secretary; Mrs. W. H. Wheaton—Educational secretary; Mrs. W. H. Anderson—Standard Bearer; Councillors—Mrs. E. S. Stevenson, Mrs. John McConnell, Mrs. William Taylor, Mrs. T. Dean, Mrs. W. E. McVey; Auditors—Mrs. Neve, Mrs. L. M. Curran.

Grocers Taking Less Profit On Many Lines

Red Rose Tea People Make a Further Statement.

Some of our friends among the grocers, in speaking of our letter to the press on grocers' profits, have indicated that apparently it has been construed by some readers to mean that Red Rose Tea was the only article on which the grocer takes a smaller profit in order to give his customers a higher quality. It was not our intention to convey such an impression, as we know that most grocers sell well known brands of other goods at less profit than they could make on some brands equally well known, and for the same reason that they recommend Red Rose Tea, simply to give their customers the best possible value. In our letter we mentioned Red Rose Tea because it naturally came first to our mind and because we knew that grocers were selling it at a less profit than they make on other teas.—T. H. Estabrooks Co., Limited, St. John, N. B.

And They All Turned Out.
Instructor at the women's training camp—Reville will sound each morning at 5.30. Every lady must turn out at that time. The only exceptions will be in favor of those who have had complications and need their beauty sleep.—Boston Globe.

The Chinese authorities have got out thirty-nine symbols which are able, like our own twenty-six letters, to express the whole of the language in all the Government schools they are working out the new thirty-nine characters, and people formerly illiterate were learning in a very short time to read and write. There were formerly 40,000 writing characters in Chinese.

CUTICURA HEALS ECZEMA

All over baby's face. Came in water-blisters and then formed a solid scale. Began to itch and burn so bad he had to be held as he wanted to scratch. Face was badly disfigured. Trouble lasted 4 months. Began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Used one cake Soap and one box Ointment when he was healed. From signed statement of Mrs. Albert Ellis, Wettersburg, N. B. For every purpose of the toilet Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Tablets are supreme.

"TAKING THE CURE"

The author, who recently took the "cure" at the noted Sanitarium, New Brunswick, gives his experience in the following humorous verses. The lines faithfully follow the initial physical examination:

Prologue
"You're in a bad way, you must go to a San!"
So sayeth your own family medical man
You pack up your grip, with a half-hearted mind,
And if you are wise, leave your troubles behind.
You arrive at the San; you are home-sick already,
But a nice cup of tea puts your nerves on the steady;
And you feel much relieved when the doctor, so gay—
Arranges to see you at tea the next day.

Next Day:
You go to his office; you're nervous,
He cheerily greets you!—no need for remorse.
He jots down your history, your age, weight and height,
You feel you are in a most terrible plight.
He takes your expansion and then as you pose,
He feels all your muscles right down to your toes;
He harnesses your joints—reflexes to find—
And just for a moment you think he's unkind.

He asks you some questions. You say "Yes" then "No!"
You ask him some also, he only says "Oh!"
And then, if you please, just as if you are balking,
He covers your mouth and prevents you from talking.
He taps you just here, he taps you just there;
He's got you mapped out like a skeleton bare.
He taps at your "wish bones" to get the right key;
I should say he was "cussing"—per-cussing, 'cuse me.

You repeat in a whisper just "1, 2 and 3,"
While he phones through your chest, of course, wirelessly,
You breathe deep and long; then hold it—let go!
The gas is removed and you pour out your woes.
You finally move to a corner seclude;
No, no, I'm not going to say anything rude.
The blind is pulled down to keep out the daylight,
And you feel that the end of you now is in sight.

He fixes his mirror and lights the oil lamp;
"Takes hold of your head, in his hands, like a clamp,
And then for an instant you do feel some goat.
When he calmly but steadily looks right down your throat.

He looks up your nose, in your ears, by reflection
Throws the light at your eyes—this is known as refraction.
And altho' he reflects quite a lot, at his whim
The reflection is always on you—not on him.
When he speaks of your tonsils, your teeth and such things,
The thoroughness of his research, to you clings.
You feel quite at home, by the time he is through
And that Mr. Bug cannot exist long in you.
He also makes pictures, X-Ray ones, I mean,
He can count all the whiskers you've got on your spleen.
Don't keep anything back, if you do see your ribs,
For whatever you've got he can see right clean through.

Moral:
"The very exacting, this examination,
But of course, you're not here to spend a vacation.
If you do as you're told and keep quiet, to be sure,
You'll soon be quite well again—taking the cure."
—H. W.

Three Papers On Vital Subjects

Mrs. Millican, Mrs. Hooper, Mrs. Cotes and Miss Barnett Speakers Last Evening.

Three papers on vital subjects were given last evening in the series of lectures arranged by the Vocational School Board at Oddfellows' Hall. Mrs. Millican presided and gave an excellent talk on diet and its importance in the formation of health.

Child Welfare
Mrs. Richard Hooper in a carefully prepared paper gave a number of striking facts relating to Child Welfare pointing out the necessity of conserving the life of children. Thirty thousand children die in Canada every year most of them from preventable causes. Two hundred die of every thousand babies born. It is possible to get this number down to fifty, in the city of Fort William the death rate was reduced by good health methods to forty-seven in every thousand, but in the poorer quarters of the town the rate was as high as 185.

Mothers' Allowances
Mrs. H. N. Cotes told of the plan for Mothers' Allowances whereby the Government will pay widowed mothers to look after their children, so that the boys and girls may have the advantage of home care and of the watchfulness of a parent, rather than be institutional charges. This plan is being adopted in many Provinces of the Dominion and is in force in other nations.

Provincial Supervisor
Miss Barnett, Provincial supervisor, who was present was asked to speak and voiced her sympathy with any movement for the education of parents regarding proper feeding of children, especially for those of school age. A vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. James W. Young seconded by Miss Grace Leavitt, and tendered the speakers by Mrs. Millican.

Exmouth St. Church Makes Alterations

More Room for Choir and Sunday School Provided—New Lighting System.

Next Sunday Exmouth street Methodist Church will celebrate the 64th anniversary of its founding by reopening after extensive alterations to the auditorium and Sunday school room, which will add greatly to the choir and Sunday school accommodation. The entire month of January the church was in the hands of the builders, who have now completed their work. The pulpit platform has been moved out into the body of the church several feet and this has given room for extending the depth of the choir loft, which for some years has been too small for the proper accommodation of the choir. In the Sunday school room an entire new lighting system has been installed and a couple of class rooms added, and these improvements will greatly facilitate the work in this important branch of church work. The preacher at both services on Sunday will be Rev. W. G. Lane, of Yarmouth, a former pastor of the church, and his many friends in the city will give him a warm welcome. Mr. Lane will be remembered by many for his excellent work during the intensive recruiting campaign carried on here in the early years of the war.

Trouble Over Sunday Show

Claims New York Church Banned Actors So Chinese Famine Fund Suffers

New York, Feb. 2.—If the Methodist Episcopal Church of New York regards the theatres as "places of iniquity" and feels that it cannot accept actors as members of the congregation, why should the Methodist Episcopal Church expect actors to participate in benefit performances for the starving Chinese held under its auspices?

This is what Hal Furde wants to know. He is the leading player of the "Honeydew" company, one of the theatrical organizations booked for a special Sunday evening performance which was to have augmented the Chinese Famine Fund. Noboddy has said that the Methodist Church is participating actively in organizing Sunday theatrical performances, but Mr. Furde hints that it is loitering around behind the scenes. He states he "understands" the Methodist Church is back of the movement and therefore he will have none of it. He cannot support any campaign supported by the church which has given the written to the men and women of his profession. Therefore the Chinese will have to go hungry if they are depending upon him.

Actors Felled.
That is Mr. Furde's point of view and evidently it is shared by other members of the theatrical profession, for something went wrong with the scheme for the Sunday benefits, and the very pretensions had to be pared down. Various managers and actors who had been expected to participate backed out unexpectedly giving various excuses for doing so. It is not that these members of the theatrical profession have joined the "blue law" forces, for the "Honeydew" company is giving a Sunday benefit for another charity and several other performers who have declined to perform for the benefit of the Chinese Fund are appearing in other philanthropic Sunday shows.

The Association for the Higher Education of Women, after more than forty years' good and valuable service, has been disbanded. It has been the pioneer force in the whole movement for the University recognition of women in England.

Veterans Speak Against Film

Toronto People Aroused Over Introduction of German Picture.

There is a strong movement on foot in the United States to introduce German films. A Toronto paper has the following article on this subject in a recent issue:

"Eight million German-Americans who have passed through the melting pot and remained German in sympathies may look with favor on the introduction of German photo films. There is no great reason why eight million Canadians should fear the popularity in this country of German-made movies," said an exercise man today. Toronto representatives of veteran organizations yesterday viewed a preliminary display of "Passion," the first attempt to introduce the drama of the Hun in this British possession. The verdict of one critic—Serg. W. E. Turley, secretary of the Great War Veterans' Association—is as follows: "The 'Passion' film is well named. It portrays nothing else but the soul-destroying, body-murdering passions of individuals and mobs. There is not one clean, wholesome character or episode in the entire story. It is a morbid, unhealthy production, re-

BEARS AND TIGHT MONEY HIT WALL STREET TRADING

Call Money Starts at Eight Per Cent. and Advances to Nine in Day.

PRICE CUTTING IS DISTURBING MARKET

Foreign Exchange Conditions Continue to Improve Based on Short Covering.

New York, Feb. 2.—Sentiment in the stock market circles today was unmistakably bearish, that feeling finding frequent expression in the pressure directed against almost every important division of the list.

The money market was a powerful factor, call loans opening at eight per cent., the highest initial rate since the middle of last November and advancing to 9 per cent in the final hour.

Quotations for time funds and commercial paper were unexcused, and offerings were in small supply.

Price cutting continues in the commodity markets, indicated by a testation of price reductions for crude and refined oils and the sharp competition in the sugar trade were among the significant side lights thrown upon prevailing industrial conditions.

These developments coincide with additional announcements of wage reductions, more retrenchments of operations by the railroads and a budget of railroad earnings which were not calculated to stimulate a demand for transportation securities.

Exchange is better in the foreign exchange market a radical change for the better according to reports on short covering. The London rate made up more than yesterday's loss and substantial strength was evidenced by quotations from France, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland and Sweden, also to Chile.

Liberty issues featured the narrow dealings in the bond market, recovering the greater part of their decline, but rails, industrial and equipment were disposed to ease moderately. Total sales, par value, aggregated, $13,300,000. Old United States 2's rose half cent and the 4's 3/4 per cent on N. Y. QUOTATIONS

Prices To Decline As Output Gains

So Declares Mr. F. A. Dykeman in Comprehensive Review of Trade Conditions.

In the return of retail merchants to buy goods at the prices now quoted by the large Canadian wholesalers and manufacturers the root of the abnormal conditions now being experienced, stated F. A. Dykeman last evening.

Retailers Shoulder Burden
The situation is being faced by the retailer shouldering the burden of the loss and selling out his stock at considerably below the replacement values.

This applies especially to cotton goods. There is a strong feeling now over that a reaction is not far off; the retailers tired of waiting will book orders, and as they have been long deferred they will come in a bunch, thus boosting the market for higher prices.

The change has already been felt in the silk market and notices have been issued of a from 15 to 20 per cent advance in prices.

Clothing Manufacturers
Manufacturers of clothing have shown the most marked tendency to meet the popular demand for new styles and to sell their goods this year on a practically cost basis.

Boot and Shoe Trade
In the boot and shoe trade the manufacturers have not reduced their prices to any marked extent, but the retailers, heavily overstocked, are disposing of their wares at less than replacement values.

Canada Prosperous
One thing is certain, if lower prices are to prevail, Labor must follow raw material, wages must come down. Shorter hours and a minimum output must be replaced by it not longer hours, at least a decided increase in output.

Women Who Are Wise Will Buy a New Coat Now.

The season is late and rather than carry stock over into another year some stores are willing to accept considerable loss today. A remarkable sample of this is found at F. A. Dykeman's, where heavy cloth coats worth up to $30.00 are selling for $14.95.

Work of Methodist Church in Japan

Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown, General Superintendent, Delivered Inspiring Address.

In the Centenary church yesterday evening, Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada, delivered a most inspiring and illuminating address on the work of that church in Japan.

Japan Methodist Church
After thanking the large audience for the reception which had been accorded to him earlier in the day, the speaker referred to the organization of the Japan Methodist Church in the year 1907, which consisted in bringing together the missionary workers of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States, both north and south, and the Methodist Church in Canada.

Forward Movement
The Forward Movement in Japan had done noble work, and up to Nov. 26 last had secured over 615,400 yen, or over $300,000. In addition, one of the Japanese laymen, a Mr. Kobayashi, gave voluntarily a sum of $20,000 recently. This gift was to the mission, and he also contributed a most up-to-date library valued at approximately two thousand dollars; and he further has promised to supply periodicals for five years for the Central Tabernacle in Tokyo and will pay a man to take care of it.

New Discovery
Another Japanese, a Mr. Furuhashi, member of a firm that is manufacturing a new discovery called Iovirite, which will be made into all colors of beads, pens and other goods, has taken a great interest in the work of the missionaries. This firm has formally dedicated in its instrument of co-partnership ten per cent. of its profits for the Methodist church in Japan.

The Enthusiasm
The enthusiasm of the missionaries in Japan was undaunted and unbounded, and this applied to both men and women. On Dr. Chown's recent trip to Japan, many missionaries gathered at Yokohama to meet him, and they took him to every point of vantage, where they could show the great amount of work that was being accomplished and point out the urgent needs for extensive and further efforts, and the necessity for broadening out the work in many directions.

Native Pastors
At several of the meetings attended with his visit recently to Japan, native pastors had led in prayer and poured out their heartfelt thanks for the work by the Canadian Methodist church in Japan.

He also particularly mentioned the contribution of Mount Allison University to the missionary work of the church in the Orient. The university's financial aid was most generous, and he expressed the sincere hope that the campaign which is now being conducted for an increased endowment will be successful one.

Japan Mission Council
The speaker also testified to the great capabilities of the members of the Mission Council of Japan, and declared that he was never in any missionary house wherein the missionary tea had not worked from 6.30 in the morning until 11 at night for seven days each week. They did this because of their great faith in the doctrine of Christ and their large expectations concerning the history of Japan, which they believed to be the greatest nation in the Orient, and that it will eventually be a world power throughout that part of the world.

Expert Engineer To Study Power

H. E. M. Kensit Will be Secured to Investigate Cost of Producing Energy.

At a conference held yesterday afternoon at the City Hall, between the members of the council, C. O. Foss, engineer for the New Brunswick Hydro-electric Commission, and G. S. Hare, city engineer, it was decided to secure the services of H. E. M. Kensit to make the proposed investigation into the cost of developing power by the New Brunswick Power Co. under present conditions.

During the conference Mr. Foss rather startled the commissioners by stating his belief that if the city would take the entire output of the Musquash development it could be sold to them for one cent per thousand kilowatts.

Securing An Expert
Mayor Schofield said it had been left with Mr. Foss and the city engineer to propose the name of a man to make the investigation and report on the cost of producing power, and Power Company had agreed, if the distribution of this hydro-power was placed in their hands, to give the users the benefit of any saving over the cost of developing from coal.

Mr. Foss reported that he had taken the matter up with K. H. Smith, chief engineer for the Maritime District of the Water Power branch of the Department of the Interior, and Mr. Smith had recommended the name of H. E. M. Kensit, the steam expert of the department, and who could be secured under the agreement in force between the department and the Maritime Provinces Premier. The cost of bringing Mr. Kensit would be his salary and expenses while here, and to Japan, many estimates amount to over $300.

Mr. Smith had also given him a form of letter to write Hon. J. A. Calder, minister of interior, asking for the services of Mr. Kensit, and it was decided to engage him he was ready to send the application at once.

Satisfied With Mr. Kensit.
He had taken the matter up with L. R. Ross, president of the Power Co., and Mr. Ross was satisfied with Mr. Kensit, and had also expressed a willingness to pay the cost of the investigation, but in his opinion it would be better for the city to bear the cost themselves.

Commissioner Thornton suggested that a letter be obtained from Mr. Ross stating his willingness to accept the report of Mr. Kensit, and with this understanding it was left with the mayor to bring the matter before the committee meeting of the council today.

Answering a question as to the cost of the work at Musquash, Mr. Foss said when the work was completed the books would be laid on the table and all would be invited to come and examine them. He also stated that if the city would take the entire output they could get the power at one cent per thousand kilowatts, and also expressed the opinion that if the city wanted the whole output the province would sell the entire works to them at cost.

Important Matters At Hospital Board

Two Additional Interns Engaged in Compliance With Request of Staff.

At a meeting of the Board of Hospital Commissioners held yesterday afternoon a number of important matters came up for discussion and were thoroughly talked over with the result that action will be taken in several instances.

The changing of the number at the Hospital four, is a step towards standardization of the hospital, and is in compliance with one of the requests of the staff. Time did not permit of hearing all reports at the meeting adjourned till February 11th.

Change Authorized
F. Nell Brodie appeared before the Board asking if one set of book shelves could be eliminated from the library at the Nurses' Home to make the room larger. The contract calls for both sides of the room to be shelved, but one set of shelves will hold one thousand books. On motion the architect was authorized to make the change.

New Sterilizer
It was reported that the new sterilizer had been ordered and will have shortly. There has been no necessity to remove patients from the Epidemic Isolation Hospital as the cleaning is going on steadily at the Epidemic and it was thought best not to move patients unless it was absolutely necessary.

Examination of Throats
It was stated that a weekly examination of throats is being arranged for at the hospital. In discussion it was brought out that if the wards are full, a ward patient would have a right to a private room if such were available. There never is a private room available so taxed is the accommodation. In answer to a question, Dr. Hodges said that no discrimination is used with regard to the admission of doctors' patients and absolutely no favoritism shown.

The physician notified to appear before the board in regard to a matter of irregular practice was unable to be present yesterday. As the complaint from the staff did not name the doctor,

C.P.O.S. Liner Arrives Today

Metagama Reaches Port This Afternoon — Empress of Britain Here Tomorrow.

Wireless messages were received last evening from two incoming C. P. O. S. liners, the Metagama from Liverpool and Havre and the Empress of Britain from Liverpool. The captain of the former said that he expected to arrive at Partridge Island at noon today and would dock during the afternoon, according to the tide. The Empress is expected to dock at Sand Point at 7 P. M. Friday which will be one day ahead of her schedule. Both boats have large passenger lists.

for, the matter was laid on the table until next month.

On motion the superintendent was asked to engage two interns at a salary of $50 and maintenance. This brings the number of interns up to four.

Miss Belding, the anaesthetist has gone to Montreal to take a course of instruction, and it was reported that, while no one had been appointed to take her place an intern was giving satisfaction. Dr. Roberts and Mrs. McLellan spoke of the importance of this department, saying that every case should be exercised, motion was passed that the superintendent be asked to engage the best man possible for the position.
