A Match for Blake.

The Toronto Leader, the third paper in influence and position in Ontario, edited by Mr. Beatiy, M. P., has a leading article on the leading men of the present Parliament, in which Mr. Blake and his tactics are fully discussed. After dwelling on the way in which the great chancery lawyer used to ride roughshod over John Sandfield Macdonald and other opponents, the Leader says:

We are pleased to find that Mr. Palmer, a young member,—young in the Parliament of Canada we mean—from St. John, New Brunswick, has been returned to the House of Commans of Canada, who, if not more than a match, is fully the equal of Mr. Blake, either as a lawyer or a debater. Of commanding appearance, good address and an orator, who is choice in his language, he transcends Mr. Blake, either as a lawyer or a debater. The Speech from the Throne.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Legislative Council:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

It affords me great pleasure to be able to congratulate you upon the termination of your labors, and to thank you for the unremitting diligence with which you have applied yourselves during the session.

The act relating to Common Law proceededings will no doubt prove highly beneficial, as it must tend to simplify and expedite the trial of causes, and thereby promote the speedy administration of justice, a result most devoutly wished for by the Judiciary of the province, as well as you suitors themselves.

I heartily approve of your liberal action in reference to Immigration. With a prudent and judicious expenditure of a similar appropriation from year to year, the result cannot fail to justify your liberality in the rapid conversion of our present unproductive wilderness into fertile farms and thriving homesteads. I sincerely hope that the encouragement you wave offered to the young men of the Province to settle upon the ungranted lands will induce a large number of them at an early date to avail themselves of your liberality.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House is cach man's name is called he has to name the member and each man's name is called he has to name the member whom he wishes to sit on the committee. New York, April 12th—Berth rates to Great Britain continue very strots, room still being searce, but to the Continent room is abundant, and rates barely supported. The chartering demand has been moderate, the Petroleum trade being restricted by the difficulty of 'r Jouring cargoes, but with the tonnage supply reduced to moderate proportions, there has been little or no variation in rates. There is some inquiry for Grain tonnage, but the demand is not likely to become urgen for some weeks, or until after the resumption of navigation. The West India trade romains dull, but for South America good demand for tonnage still prevails, especially for lumber to the River Plate. Long voyage business continues dull. The charters include an Am ship, 838 tons, hence to Shanghae, general cargo, lump sum; an Am bark, 720 tons (bound to River Plate), from ports in Java to Cork or Falmouth for orders to the United Kingdom or Continent. 71s 61: an Am iron bark, 679 tons, hence to Valparaiso, general cargo, lump sum; an Am ship, 1169 tons, from Cardiff to Hong Kong, coal, understood 35s; an Am bark, 512 tons, hence to Gijon, part cargo tobacco 47s 63. remainder staves for Cardis current rates and back from the latier port to New York, lump s.m; an Am brig, 485 tons, now loading for Aspinwall, from Fensacola to Rio, lumber, $29 and primage; an Am ship, 485 tons, hone to Rosario, lumber, $23 and primage; an Am brig, 485 tons, hence te Rosario, lumber, $23 and primage; an Am brig, 3490 bbis refined petroleun, now here, frum Philadelphia to the German Baltic, 7:; an Am brig, 175 tons, from St Mary's to Trinidad, PS, lumber, $15 and port charges; one, 373 tons, from St Jago to New York, sugar, 40c.

New Orleans, April 8—Market steady. Supply of tonnage small. We still quote cotton to Liverpool, $26d; to Havre, 19c;
