FREDERICTON, N. B., July 5, 1882.

Local Government.

The leader of the Opposition has returned from his tour in the North, in search of a new government, and from his anxious consultations with the two gentlemen in St. John, who were to be Provincial Secretary and Solicitor General in his administration, a sadder and, it is to be hoped, a wiser man. His much travel, and travail, were of no avail. But here we are wrong, as we are told that Mr. Blair did obtain the signature to his document and promise of support of a Vail. But the King's doctor, in committing himself, in hope of a prospective Speakership, has met the proverbial fate of those who try to sit on two stools at once. It is said besides that Mr. Blair obtained the signatures of seven more of the newly elected. But how far does eight fall short of the twenty-six he is organ! There is no wonder that he is deeply chagrined at the result of his mission, and that the pleasure of his confidence is down to zero. The fact that the Government as re-constructed stands well with the people of the Province must now be painfully apparent to him.

It is nonsense to say that the candidate's holding an important office under government, recommends him to the support of the electors of a County, irrespective of the merits of the government of which he is a member. Had the government been unpopular, had he fallen in estimation throughout the Province, as its enemies pretend, would all its chief members be returned at the head of the polls there respective Counties by great majorities? Surely Mr. Blair does not believe that Mr. Colter was returned in York over himself by so enormous a majority, solely because he held the office of Chief Commissioner of Board of Works! Nobody really believes that. Had the Province really more confidence in him as leader of its administration he could form than Messrs. Hamilton, Landry, Adams and Colter, and had half as eagerly desired to see him in power as he is to see himself, the electors would have made the members of the government unmistakably feel that they had lost favor; if they had thought of them as the opposition press has pictured them, they would not have given them a place at all. Instead of having been punished for joining the Hon. Mr. Fraser in 1878, Messrs. Hamilton, Landry and Adams, stand higher than ever in the estimation of their constituents and in the confidence of the Province.

Ridiculous speculations have been indulged in, as to the weakness of the Government by the opposition, but they have a well founded confidence that they will be sustained by a good working majority. Ill-natured rumors have been set afloat that there was dissatisfaction in their midst, and that some further reconstruction was to be done. But the only reconstruction in their ranks has been the appointment of Dr. Lewis, Albert, who has taken the place of Hon. Mr. Marshall, who has retired, and who was sworn in on Tuesday evening. Constituted as they now are, the Government will face Mr. Blair and his opposition with the greatest confidence.

Irish.

The Lord Lieutenant, Earl Spencer, on Wednesday last, in answer to an address from Irish Presbyterians said that, hopeful signs of restraining confidence were showing themselves among those connected with the material interests of Ireland. Such confidence we imagine could only have come from a belief that the country is becoming more quiet. It can never be restored while whiteboyism and terrorism are rampant.

On Thursday an incident occurred which was calculated to shake confidence. As Mr. Blaha a Justice of the Peace and agent (a marriage connection) of Earl Clarendon and his servant Teddy Keene were driving from Rothville, Killala, County Galway, on the public road, and when within two miles of Loughrea, they were fired at by a party behind a looped wall, and riddled with bullets. The incident was reported to the scene of this dreadful double murder was not far from the place where Mr. Burke and the dragon were killed three weeks ago.

It is stated in private telegrams to New York, that in the event of England being plunged in war on account of the Egyptian difficulty, there will be revolutionary risings in Ireland, and that the places for such risings were connected after the dinner given in Mr. Parnell's honor last Wednesday in London. Much credence should not be given to this report. "England's difficulty is Ireland's opportunity," is an old saying, but the hope of the success of a revolutionary movement would be as small in England were it at war with an external foe, as it will at war while she is at peace. It might be that were England immersed in a great war and she was compelled to withdraw a large portion of regular troops now in Ireland, that the extreme party might venture upon a rising. But the necessary and men enough to maintain her authority there.

Mr. Parnell, we suppose, can have no sympathy with those who talk of revolution in any case. He has become, as the dinner in his honor testified, completely reconciled to those members of the advanced party, namely, Dillon, Donohoe and others who showed a disposition to separate from him after the Kilmichael compact, and he became reconciled on terms with the British Government. He will not encourage under any circumstances, any movement that would make the state of Ireland ten times worse than it is now, and would for his life time and long postpone the satisfactory settlement of the land question, and the concession of a local legislature to Ireland to which events are, of slowly, moving.

DeLong's Last Entries.

Lieutenant Millville, who was last heard from at Yakutat, forward to Washington, the note book of DeLong, Captain of the ill-fated "Jeannette," polar expedition. De Long's party endured terrible sufferings from intense cold and want of food. The concluding entries are as follows:—

"Monday, Oct. 10.—Last half ounce of alcohol at 6.30. At 6.30 set Alexy to look for ptarmigan; ate deer skin food. Yesterday morning ate his deer skin food. Yesterday at 8 A. M. he created the great three spit well, built a fire and dried out ahead again till 11. Used up built a fire and made a hole in the ice. He had laid down the alcohol bottle. On again at noon; very hard going; ptarmigan tracks plentiful. At 3 halted; used up crawled into a hole in the bank. Alexy went in quest of food; nothing for supper except a spoonful of glycerine. All hands weak and feeble, but cheerful. God help us!

"Tuesday—South west gale with snow; unable to move. No game. One spoonful of glycerine and water for food. No more wood in our vicinity.

"Wednesday—For breakfast took the last spoonful of glycerine and water; for dinner a couple of handfuls of Arctic wild rice in hot water, and drank the infusion. Every body getting weaker and weaker. Hardly able to get forward. South-west gale with snow.

"Thursday—Willow tea. No news from Niamah. Oct. 11.—Last half ounce of alcohol at 6.30. At 6.30 set Alexy to look for ptarmigan; ate deer skin food. Yesterday morning ate his deer skin food. Vancouver's Doom.

Vancouver was executed at Kingston on the 28th June, for the murder of Richardson, at Duck Lake. A noticeable circumstance of the trial was, that, the prisoner did not hear the evidence or the sentences upon him pronounced, on account of deafness. He confessed that he shot the old man. The correspondent of the Toronto Globe gives the following particulars of the execution:—

The evening previous he was placed under guard and confined to his cell and apparently slept. In the morning he awoke at daylight and dressed, but refused to go to the gallows. He was held up by a party of soldiers, and he was taken to the gallows. About 7.30 Rev. Mr. Jolliffe, Vancouver's spiritual adviser, entered the cell and for a considerable time the two confided in devotion. At 7.45 o'clock the black flag was hoisted on the gallows above the place of execution.

John Manuel, an old and respected resident of Bear Island, Queensbury, passed to his rest on Monday, and his remains were interred to-day. He was for over fifteen years an Assessor in Queensbury, and did his duty faithfully.

Mr. W. H. Robinson, and Mr. A. Reineford Wetmore, of this city, have recently graduated from the Kingsbury College with high honors. Mr. Robinson has also obtained a commission in the Royal Engineers of the British Army.

Life is full of disappointments. We recently offered to care for the case of Ebenezer Botsford for a year's subscription in advance, but just as we were on the point of lifting the shield, a sympathetic gentleman suggested the Rev. John's Assurance, and the money and the patient vanished instantly.

As we go to press we learn that Mr. Wallace, the Conservative candidate in Albert Co., by a recount of the votes before Judge Botsford, has been declared elected by a majority of 51. This is another Conservative gain in New York. The representative now standing Government O, Opposition 7.

Dr. Young, who lectures in the Methodist Church this evening at the Wesleyan Hall, at the time when Kiel was lorded it at Fort Gerry. He attended during his last moments the unfortunate Scott, who died by the explosion of the Rebel Collier. The Rev. gentleman is an eloquent speaker, and is certain to deliver a very interesting lecture.

Louisa Dunn, daughter of the late Richard Dunn, committed suicide sometime last Thursday night by drowning in the river near Morrison's Mill. It is believed during a state of temporary insanity. The body was found by the coroner's men, and an inquest held by Coroner Brown, M. D. The jury returned a verdict before the coroner that a state of mental depression."

Monday forenoon a barn in rear of the "Hayloft House" was destroyed by fire, and two or three adjoining sheds were damaged. Much fear was felt that the wind would spread in the locality which is quite inflammable, and confined to its original limits. The barn destroyed, was insured in the Commercial Union, J. L. Inches, Agent, for $300.

Wm. McNeill, Esq., the respected Secretary of the Central Insurance Company, died at his residence, Brock Street, on Friday afternoon, at the advanced age of 82 years. He was a gentleman universally esteemed, and his demise is regretted by a large circle of relatives and friends. His remains were interred Monday afternoon, and a large concourse of citizens followed him to the grave.

The St. Ann's Rowing Club Monday night excursion on the "Dixie" to the river, on Friday night, came off Monday night, and was well attended. The Frederickton Brass Band accompanied the excursion, and played a programme for dancing, which was very popular. In the evening was very pleasant, although a little cold. Another excursion is proposed for the season, and we understand also propose to have one in a few weeks.

The St. John cricketers were very disastrously defeated on Monday night by the Moncton Club, the score standing, St. John, 45, Moncton, 106. In the second innings, St. John scored only 14, which was the score of the bat. Nine of the eleven contributed nothing to the score, an extraordinary record. The St. John Club seem to be pretty well demoralized, when they can be really beaten by the Moncton team, who don't appear to be very clever cricketers. With some practice the Frederickton cricketers would be able to beat Moncton and St. John combined.

In May last, while steam driving for Messrs. Gilman & Co. on the river, a young man named Jones, son of David Jones of Woodlands, Stanley, was drowned, and though different causes were assigned, the body it was unsuccessful. On Friday morning last, however, the remains of the unfortunate young man were found six miles above Botsford, where they had been on the bank of the stream by the receding waters. Little remained except the clothes of the victim and a few bones, the body having been almost entirely devoured by bears, the tracks of which were still visible in the sand.

The "Park Hotel," St. John, under the management of Messrs. Edwards & Phillips, is one of the most popular institutions in the city. This season it is crowded to its utmost capacity, but the obliging proprietors succeed in making their guests thoroughly comfortable and at home. The table is all that could be desired, the attendants especially agreeable, and in fact the entire management is first class. Mr. Edwards who is a son of our City Treasurer, has already become a great favorite with the travelling public, and his partner, Mr. Phillips, also second Mr. Edwards' efforts to make the "Park" a first class hotel. The proprietors will always receive the most courteous treatment from Mr. Edwards.

We congratulate Mr. J. D. Hazen, on his appointment to the position of Registrar of the University, made vacant by the resignation of E. H. Wilson, Esq. There were a large number of applicants, but it is conceded that the Senate made a wise selection in Mr. Hazen, who will bring to the discharge of his duties an amount of energy and intelligence which will insure their satisfactory fulfilment. Mr. Hazen last winter was also sworn in an Attorney of the Supreme Court, and will immediately open an office in Coy's Block, which will be in the hands of Mr. Hazen, who will be in the discharge of his duties as Registrar of the University.

THE UNIVERSITY ENCEMIA.

His Honor the Lieut. Governor announced the following as the list of the gold medal next year. "What is culture, and how is it best attained?"

THE DINNER.

In the evening, graduates, undergraduates, and other guests, gathered in the success of the University attended a dinner in the large hall of the University, given by the Alumni Society, on Friday night.

The dinner was a most successful one, and a similar reunion is proposed for future years, and the influence of such gatherings on the University cannot be over estimated.

THE ALUMNI SOCIETY.

At the annual meeting of the Associated Alumni of the University, held Wednesday evening, the following were elected officers: President—G. R. Parkin; Vice-President—W. Allen; Secretary—Prof. L. V. Bailey, Geo. W. Allen, Walter Bond.

The Society, besides some informal business, passed a resolution recommending the Senate to extend the University course to four years. Several new members were admitted to the Society.

Extracts from a letter from G. H. S. Cronkite, Esq.

Canterbury Station, York Co., N. B., October 10th, 1870.

Mr. J. H. R. Allison.

Dear Sir—In reply to your letter of enquiry, I would say that your Phosphorized Emulsion is the best preparation of the kind I have ever seen or taken.

I commenced about the last of August, and since that time I have felt a different man, and also look differently, and all for the better, as the doctor can testify.

I was unable, in the summer to walk an distance without my crutches. I can now walk as well as any man, and I feel that my health is as good as any man's.

My wife and I feel that my health is as good as any man's, and I feel that my health is as good as any man's.

I am, dear sir, yours truly, (Signed) G. H. S. CRONKITE.

We, the undersigned, hereby consent to have our names published as witnesses to the effects of Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion on the person of Mr. Cronkite, and do so in the belief that the foregoing statement is correct in every particular.
