

VETERANS' FUND IS MOUNTING UP FOR KIDDIES' TREAT

Further Generous Donations Reported.

GOOD TIME IS ASSURED

Children of Men in Khaki Will Be Given Real Christmas Treat.

Collections for the Great War Veterans' Association fund to provide a Christmas entertainment for all soldiers' children in London are continuing most favorably. The citizens generally are responding to insure for the kiddies whose fathers are in knaki a most joyous Christmas.

Subscriptions will be received at The Advertiser office.

The patriotic nature of the request has impressed itself on Londoners generally, and there is every indication that the Christmas tree, the big feature of the entertainment, will be well laden with gifts for the children who can proudly say, "My daddy's in the army."

Donations already acknowledged through The Advertiser total £175.75. Further new subscriptions are:

A hand-drawn sign with the text "ROWLAND HILL" in large, bold, serif capital letters, followed by "RELIABLE FOOTWEAR" in smaller, sans-serif capital letters. Below this, in a smaller font, is the address "100 Dundas St. W. and 450 Pimlico Road." A stick figure with a single arm is holding the left side of the sign. The sign is tilted slightly to the right. There are some scribbles and lines around the sign, suggesting it's part of a larger drawing or advertisement.

WIN THE WAR IS IMMEDIATE TASK DECLARES PRESIDENT; AND THEN A MERCIFUL PEACE

Mr. Wilson, in Message to Congress, Assures World and the Allies That Teutons Will First Be Conquered, Followed by Square Deal for All—War To Be Declared Against Austria-Hungary at Once.

MOTION TO DECLARE WAR ON FRIDAY.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The Senate will be ready to pass a resolution next Friday declaring war against Austria, Senator Martin, majority leader, announced today. The resolution, probably will be drafted at the state department. Some debate but no considerable opposition is expected. Chairman Flood plans to call the House foreign affairs committee together tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—A definite statement to the world of America's war aims and of the basis upon which peace will be considered was made today by President Wilson in an address to Congress, in which he urged immediate declaration of a state of war between the United States and Austria-Hungary—Germany's vassal and tool. As to Turkey and Bulgaria—also tools of the enemy—he counselled delay because "they do not yet stand in the direct path of our necessary action."

To win the war, the president declared in emphatic and ringing tones, "is the immediate and unalterable task ahead." He urged Congress, just beginning its second war session, to concentrate itself upon it. The president sharply dismissed the possibility of premature action, brought by German intrigue, and debated here by men who understand neither its nature nor the way it may be attained. With victory an accomplished fact, he said, the world will evolve, based upon "mercy and justice"—to enemy and friend—with hope of a partnership of nations to guarantee future world-peace.

His Terms of Peace.
The war will be deemed won," he declared, "when the German people say to us, through properly accredited representatives, that they are ready to agree to a settlement based upon justice and reparation of the wrongs their rulers have done." Terms of peace, he added, would include disarmament, robbery or punishment of the enemy, but would be based on justice, defined briefly as follows:

Freedom of nations and their peoples from autocratic domination, reparation to Belgium, relinquishment of power over the people of Austria, Turkey, the free Balkan states, as well as evacuation of Prussian territorial conquests in Belgium and Northern France. Emphasizing the purpose of the internal affairs of any nation, the president asserted that no interference by Germany was intended, and that there was no desire to rearrange the map of Europe. He said that when he spoke eight months ago of the right of nations to free access to the seas, he had Austria, as well as the smaller and weaker nations, in mind.

Appearing before Congress in joint session for the first time since he asked for the war declaration against Germany last April, the president was more than usually warmly greeted, and his speech was received with enthusiastic applause, which grew tumultuous when he reached the recommendation to Austria. Diplomats, members of the supreme court of the United States and other high officials assembled on the floor joined in the demonstration. The definition of war aims and peace terms was accepted as the more significant, because, since his reply to the peace note the president has come to be regarded as a spokesman for all the nations fighting Germany.

By advance arrangements, the address was made available for publication to the press in every corner of the globe. It probably will not appear in the Teutonic press, but the papers of neutral countries and the work of Allied aviators will get it to many Germans in unimpaired form.

The request for a declaration of war with Austria met with virtually unanimous approval, and Congress tonight was prepared to give its approval. Passage by the House of Representatives followed on Thursday and by the Senate on Friday of the necessary resolutions. The president's formal document soon after the president finished speaking.

The president spoke as follows: "Eight months have elapsed since I last had the honor of addressing you. They have been months crowded with events of immense and grave significance for us. I shall discuss only our present outlook, and the immediate means of accomplishing the objects we shall hold always in view."

"I shall not go back to debate the causes of the war. The intolerable wrongs done and planned against us by the sinister masters of Germany have long since become too grossly obvious and odious to every true American to need to be rehearsed. But I shall ask you to consider again, and with a very grave scrutiny, our objectives and the measures by which we mean to attain them. For the purpose of discussion here in this war of action, and our action must move straight towards definite ends. Our object is, of course, to win the war, and we shall not slacken or suffer ourselves to be diverted until it is won. But it is worth while asking and answering the question, when shall we consider the war won?"

"From our point of view it is not necessary to broach this fundamental matter. I do not doubt that the American people know what the war is about, and what sort of an outcome they will regard as a realization of their purpose in it. As a nation we are united in spirit and intention. I pay little heed to those who tell me otherwise. I hear the voices of dissent—who doesn't?"

One for Pacifists.
"I hear the criticism and the clamor of the noisy, thoughtless and trouble-all selfish claims to advantage, even on the part of the victors.

"Let there be no misunderstanding. Our present and immediate task is to win the war, and nothing shall turn us aside from it until it is accomplished. Every power and resource we possess, whether of men, of money, of materials, is being devoted to that purpose until it is accomplished. Those who desire to bring peace about before that purpose is accomplished, I counsel to carry their advice elsewhere."

"I do not entertain it. WE SHALL REGARD THE WAR ONLY AS WON WHEN THE GERMAN PEOPLE SAY TO US, THROUGH PROPERLY ACCREDITED REPRESENTATIVES, THAT THEY ARE READY TO AGREE TO A SETTLEMENT BASED UPON JUSTICE AND REPARATION OF THE WRONGS THEIR RULERS HAVE DONE. They have done a wrong to Belgium which must be repaired. They have established a power over other lands and peoples than their own—over the great empire of Austria-Hungary, over hitherto free Balkan states, over Turkey, and within Asia, which must be relinquished."

"Germany's success by skill, by industry, by knowledge, by enterprise, we did not grudge or oppose, but admired, rather, she had built up for herself a real empire of trade and influence, secured by the peace of the world. We were content to abide the rivals of manufacture, science and commerce that were involved for us in her success, and stand or fall, as we had or did not have the brains and the initiative to surpass her. But at the moment when she had conspicuously won her triumph of peace, she threw them away, to establish in their stead what the world will no longer permit to be established, military political domination by arms, by which to crush where she could not excel the rivals she must feared."

The peace we make must remedy that wrong. It must deliver the once fair lands and happy peoples of Belgium and Northern France from the Prussian conquest and the Prussian menace, but it must also deliver the peoples of Austria-Hungary, the peoples of the Balkans, and the peoples of Turkey, alike in Europe and in Asia, from the impudent and alien domination of the Prussian military and commercial autocracy."

Give Freedom to Enemies.
"We owe it, however, to ourselves to say that we do not wish in any way to impair or to rearrange the Austro-Hungarian empire. It is no affair of ours what they do with their own life, either industrially or politically. We don't purpose or desire to dictate to them in any way. We only desire to see that their affairs are left in their own hands. In all matters, great or small, we shall hope to secure for the peoples of the Balkan peninsula and for the people of the Turkish empire the right and opportunity to make their own lives safe, their own fortunes secure against oppression or injustice, and from the dictation of foreign courts or parties, and our attitude and purpose with regard to Germany herself are of a like kind. We intend no wrong against the German empire, no interference with her internal affairs. We should deem either the one or the other absolutely unjustifiable, absolutely contrary to the principles we have professed to live by, and to hold most sacred throughout our life as a nation."

"The people of Germany are being told by the men whom they now permit to deceive them and to act as their masters that they are fighting for a war of desperate self-defence against deliberate aggression. Nothing could be more grossly or wantonly untrue. We must seek by the utmost openness and candor as to our real aims to convince them of its falseness. We are, in fact, fighting for their emancipation from fear, along with our own, from fear as well as from the fact of unjust attack from neighbors or rivals, and from the domination of the empire of the peaceful enterprise of the German empire."

May Be Ostracized.
"The worst that can happen to the detriment of the German people is that if they should still, after the war, continue to be obliged to live under ambitions and intrigues masters interested to disturb the peace of the world, men or classes of men whom the other peoples of the world could not trust. It might be impossible to admit them to the partnership of governments. It might be impossible, also, to admit them to the free economic intercourse with many of the nations of the world which must inevitably spring out of the other partnerships of a real peace."

But there would be no aggression in that; and such a situation, inevitable because of distrust, would in the very nature of things sooner or later cure itself by processes which would assuredly set in.

The wrongs, the very deep wrongs, committed in this war will have to be righted. That, of course, they cannot and must not be righted by the commission of similar wrongs against Germany and her allies. The world will not permit the commission of similar wrongs as a means of reparation and settlement. Statesmen must by this time have learned the opinion of the world is everywhere wide-awake and fully comprehends the issues involved. No representative of any self-governed nation will dare disregard it by attempting any such covenants of selfishness and compromise as were entered into at the congress of Vienna. The thought of the plain people here and everywhere throughout the world, the people who enjoy no privileges, and who have simple and unsophisticated standards of right and wrong, is the air all governments must henceforth breathe if they would live.

Germany Not Freeman.
"It is in the full disclosure of light that thought that all policies must be conceived and executed in this midday hour of the world's life. German rulers have been able to upset the peace of the world only because the German people were not suffered under their tutelage to hear the comradeship of the other peoples of the world, either in thought or in purpose. They were allowed to have no opinion of their own which might be set up as a rule of conduct for those who exercised authority over them. But the congress that concludes this war will feel the full strength of the tides that run now in the hearts and consciences of free men everywhere. Its conclusions will run with those tides."

All these things have been true from the very beginning of this stupendous war, and I cannot help thinking that if they had been made plain at the very outset, the sympathy and enthusiasm of the Russian people might have been once and for all enlisted on the side of the Allies, suspicion and distrust swept away and a real and lasting union of purpose effected. Had they believed these things at the very moment of their revolution, and had they been confirmed in that belief since, the sad reverses which have recently marked the progress of their affairs towards an ordered and stable government of freedom might have been avoided. The Russian people have been poisoned by the very same falsehoods that have kept the German people in the dark, and the poison has been administered by the very same hands. The only antidote is the truth. It cannot be uttered too plainly or too often."

Freedom of Seas.
"From every point of view, therefore, it has seemed to me my duty to add these specific interpretations to what I took the liberty of saying into the war has not altered our attitude towards the settlement that must come when it is over. When I said in January that the nations of the world were entitled not only to free paths ways upon the sea, but also to assured weaker nations alone, which need our countenance and support, but also of our present enemies, as well as of our associates in the war. I was, I am thinking now, not of the smaller and weaker nations alone, which need our permanent, not temporary, foundations for the peace of the world, and must seek them candidly and fearlessly. As always, the right will prove to be the expedient."

"What shall we do, then, to push this great war of freedom and justice to its righteous conclusion? We must continue on Page Eleven."

JIMMY COON STORIES

By Dr. Warren G. Partridge.

JIMMY COON SEES THE LAST CHAPTER.
Well, Jimmy Coon had a reserved seat at the Great Show. And he had the line of his life to see the fun. He was up in that tree, so that he could look out the window of the farmhouse, while Jimmy Muskrat and Teddy Possum were on top of the bookcase, trying to tell Bobby Skunk up.

Teddy Possum and Sammy Muskrat were over and gave their hands to Bobby Skunk. And Jimmy Coon almost norted out loud with a laugh as he saw Bobby Skunk, who was as fat as a butter-ball, trying to climb up on top of that bookcase.

"Bang!" went that bookcase on the floor.
And Teddy and Sammy tugged and pulled, and Bobby Skunk grunted and shook his heels. But just as Bobby Skunk got near the top, "Bang!" went that bookcase on the floor. And the three rascals were hurled heels over head. And Jimmy Coon, who was as fat as a butter-ball, tried to climb up on top of that bookcase.

Whenever you sprain your ankle or twist your wrist, think of

Women Who Never Make Mistakes

I am sometimes quite alarmed at the prophecies I hear about women after the war. Are we really going to change so much as sundry members of our sex declare? So many views are now being put forward on all sides as to the marvelous forthcoming transformation in our habits, pursuits and views that it is seen after the declaration of peace that it is to be "evolved."

"No more butterfly women," say some prophets. "Nothing but busy bees, hard-working, never flitting, storing up honey for the dark days, never frolicking in fact, models of industry and efficiency."

We learn that from the happy day when the era of peace begins, women will be perfect housekeepers, marvelous cooks, prize organizers, disciplined and fit for any emergency.

They are even beginning to fear that the coming woman will be much too good for human nature's daily food, and will have to inhabit a sphere more worthy of her wonderful talents than this imperfect world.

Model daughters, like this perfect woman, so nobly planned?

Surely he will stand in a little awe of such a creature who will be able easily to beat him at all points.

Does he not love an efficient, business-like wife and housekeeper?

Imagine what a blank there will be in the life of a man married to a wife who never makes mistakes in house-keeping.

There will be no more of the old virtues—everything they do will have the hall-mark of perfection.

Does he not love an efficient, business-like wife and housekeeper?

Imagine what a blank there will be in the life of a man married to a wife who never makes mistakes in house-keeping.

There will be no more of the old virtues—everything they do will have the hall-mark of perfection.

Model daughters, like this perfect woman, so nobly planned?

Surely he will stand in a little awe of such a creature who will be able easily to beat him at all points.

Does he not love an efficient, business-like wife and housekeeper?

Imagine what a blank there will be in the life of a man married to a wife who never makes mistakes in house-keeping.

ADVERTISER PATTERNS

A SIMPLE, BECOMING MODEL.

1914—Girl's One-Piece Dress, with Sleeve in Either of Two Lengths.

Garment, schinam, percale, serge, gabardine, velvet, corduroy and taffeta, linen, flannel and lawn are fine for this design. It is easy to develop, comfortable and in good style. The belt is held in place by shirred made through the underfold of the plait. The sleeve may be finished in wrist or elbow length. The pattern is cut in four sizes: 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. Size 8 will require 2 1/2 yards of fabric. Material for a pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

ADVERTISER PATTERN DEPT.

Please send above-mentioned pattern, as per directions given below:

My Best Friend

Is a mother who has once used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, for she makes a point of telling other mothers about it, and they pass the news around. This has made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a household favorite through the world.

Just ask some mother who has used it what she thinks of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy—She will tell you that it enables her to get her children through the winter without serious illness from coughs, colds or croup.

"Crazy" Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

She will tell you that it is as thoroughly reliable for the youngest child as for the oldest members of the family. You can give it to the baby, the children going to school, or take it yourself, always with the same result—a quick relief.

Yours for Health—Gamm Chamberlain

SUFFERING CATS!

GIVE THIS MAN

THE GOLD MEDAL

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called Freezone, applied directly upon the tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug is a sticky, ever compound, but dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue.

It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of Freezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callous from one's feet. Out this out, especially if you are a woman reader who wears high heels.

DAILY BIBLE QUESTION CLUB

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

By J. C. ENO, LIMITED, "Fruit Salt Works," LONDON, ENGLAND.

Nehemiah Rebuilds the Wall of Jerusalem. Nehemiah 4.

Nehemiah 4. Nehemiah Teach the Law. Nehemiah 8.

Golden Text: "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." Ps. 119: 105.

1. Verses 6, 7.—Which is the more heeding and natural in public worship and why, the hushed silence which generally prevails, or the hearty and glad responses as in this case?

2. If our public prayers were more of the "and Ezra bowed the head" type, of jubilation hearts; how long would it take to get the people to respond as they did here?

3. Ezra had at least fourteen helpers, besides the Levites, to assist him in explaining the law, each no doubt having a class to himself; what resemblance is this to modern Bible classes?

SCORES OF AUSTRO-HUNGARIANS
WILL BE ARRESTED IMMEDIATELY DECLARATION OF WAR IS MADE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Scores of Austro-Hungarian subjects suspected of being enemy agents in this country will be arrested within a few hours after the declaration of war against Austria. Many of these men have been under surveillance by government agents for months, but have not been taken into custody because of lack of definite evidence against them.

When Congress adopts President Wilson's recommendation that a state of war against Austria-Hungary be declared, many of the subjects of the dual monarchy automatically will become enemy aliens and be subject to summary arrest and internment.

WIN THE WAR

clear away with a thorough hand all impediments to success, and we must make every adjustment of law that will facilitate the full and free use of our whole capacity and force as a fighting unit.

ONE VERY EMBARRASSING

OBSTACLE THAT STANDS IN OUR WAY IS THAT WE ARE AT WAR WITH GERMANY, BUT NOT WITH AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.

VERY EARNESTLY RECOM-MEND THAT THE CONGRESS
IMMEDIATELY DECLARE AUSTRIA-HUNGARY
TO BE AN ENEMY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Does it seem to you that this should be the conclusion of the war? It is not, it is not, it is not.

It is not, it is not, it is not. It is not her own mistake, but simply the result of the German Government's policy.

FACTS AS THEY ARE, AND ACT
UPON THEM WITHOUT SENTI-MENTALITY. The Government of Austria-Hungary is not acting upon its own initiative, but as the instrument of another.

"We must meet this force with our own, and regard the central powers as one. The war must be successfully conducted in no other way. The same logic would lead also to a declaration of war against Turkey and Bulgaria.

They also are the tools of Germany.
They are mere tools, and do not stand in the way of our success. We must stand in the way of our success.

STERNER WAR MEASURES.
"The financial and military measures which must be adopted to successfully conduct the war, I will take the responsibility of recommending to you. I will take the responsibility of recommending to you the adoption of certain other acts of legislation, which seem to me to be needed for the successful conduct of the war.

FINANCIAL, MARKET AND COMMERCIAL SECTION

$1.00 DECLINE IN HOG PRICES HERE

Live Porkers Sell for $16.00
Per Cwt.

Brisk trading again characterized the local square this morning. A decline of $1 in the price of live hogs was the big feature of the day. Practically every porker went for $16 per cwt.

Some days ago it was predicted that during the week, and that a figure as low as $15 would eventually be reached. A few months ago the efforts of hogs would have been sold at $15.

It is anticipated that the value attained through the efforts of hog men will be of a more permanent character than that of the last drop. According to the market, the price of hogs will ascend with the new year.

When the demand for porkers will have ceased, the price of hogs will be set by a local representative of the market, who will be set.

It is also recorded a slight advance when four loads sold for $1.25 per day. Over thirty loads of fodder were sold at $1.25 per bushel.

The market for hogs was very active,
but the price of hogs was not as high as the demand, and the previously mentioned price was not reached.

War Message.

Will Hearten Entente

Proposal to Declare War on Austria-Hungary Heartily Indorsed.

New York, Dec. 5.—The newspapers throughout the United States unstintingly praise President Wilson's reiteration of his message to Congress.

The Tribune says: "We have linked together for elimination the two medical and political machines which have plunged the world into war and just stand as the worst obstacles to a just peace."

The Sun: "We regard the president's address as powerful aid in the effort to bring about a just peace. It is a statement of the principles which should be the basis of our foreign policy."

The New York Herald: "The president's address is a statement of the principles which should be the basis of our foreign policy. It is a statement of the principles which should be the basis of our foreign policy."

The New York Tribune: "The president's

INCREASE REQUEST SENT ON TO 1918 SCHOOL TRUSTEES

Women Teachers Must Look to New Board.

WINDING UP OF YEAR

Last Regular Session Was Held on Tuesday Afternoon.

The board of education held its final regular meeting of 1917 Tuesday afternoon. One more special meeting will be called towards the end of the month when minor unfinished business will be transacted. Nothing of special interest marked the final meeting.

A communication was received from the Women Teachers' Guild asking for increased pay with $600 a year as a minimum and $1,200 as a maximum. The request, on the motion of Trustee Black, seconded by Trustee Langford, was referred to next year's board.

The resignation of I. B. Penney, manual training teacher, was received and accepted. The appointment of A. R. White to the position was announced.

Limit Club Meetings. A request from the Church of the Redeemer for the use of the Ryerson gymnasium for a Christmas entertainment, was referred to No. 2 committee. A request from the length of Mothers' Club meetings was received, the men pointing out that the school hours are from 8:30 to 4:30 and had to arise at 4:30 to attend to the school business.

Several reports were presented. That of G. F. Rogers, principal of the college, showed that there are 500 students on the roll of the lower school, 157 on the roll of the middle school, and 58 on the roll of the upper school. The average attendance in the lower school was 535; in the middle school 177, and in the upper school 56.

The commercial department 163 pupils were enrolled, the average attendance being 160. The total enrollment was 974, with an average attendance of 929. Seventy-four pupils were enrolled in the commercial evening classes, the average attendance being 14.

The principal recommended the purchase of an Edison Rotary Mimeograph for making out examination papers and other office work, at a cost of $205.—Carried.

That certain repairs and improvements such as painting, kalsomining, etc., be made in the lunch room.—Granted.

That Friday afternoon, December 7th, be set apart for the annual presentation of diplomas, scholarships, prizes, and that the Music Hall be secured for that purpose.—Granted.

The report was adopted. H. B. Bond, principal of the technical school, reported 55 day students enrolled, an aggregate attendance of 1,433 and an average attendance of 75. The attendance in 1917 was 7,915, the average 7,182, an increase of 243 in the enrollment and 312 in the average.

The dental inspector reports for November: Total number of operations, 245; number of new cases, 25; number of completed cases, 23.

The slides loaned to the board by the forestry branch of the Dominion Conservation Commission were shown during the week of November 19th to 22nd, to the senior classes of ten schools. This was rendered possible through the courtesy of Principal Bond, who lent a lantern and sending one of his pupils to work it. The exhibit was instructive in showing the pupils the forest resources of Canada, and the need of preserving them.

CARD OF THANKS. Mr. and Mrs. Hill, of 613 Grey street, wish to thank their many friends and the daughters of England, for their many kindnesses and kind letters of sympathy, in their recent sad bereavement.

LEAVES FOR OVERSEAS. Lieut.-Col. Somerville Will Aid in Taking Soldiers' Vote.

Lieut.-Col. A. E. Somerville left last night for overseas to act as one of the Liberal agents in the counting of the soldiers' vote.

Lieut.-Col. Somerville is honorary lieutenant-colonel of the 26th Middlesex Light Infantry. He went overseas as a major and company commander of the 15th (Middlesex) Battalion.

NEW WINNIPEG TRAINS. Travel between Eastern and Western Canada is always heavy in the winter months, particularly during December, with its holiday season. To meet the requirements of the public, therefore, a special daily service between Toronto and Winnipeg is announced by the Canadian Northern Railway, westbound, December 2, 1918, only.

Thereafter, regular tri-weekly service will be resumed through tourist sleeping car will be operated between Toronto and Calgary as part of the above special service, and connection will be made with regular daily trains between Winnipeg and Edmonton. Service between Toronto and Vancouver remains tri-weekly, leaving Toronto Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, as at present. For further particulars apply to F. B. Clarke, 416 Richmond street, agent, or write to General Passenger Department, Canadian Northern Railway, Toronto.

DECEASED. The famous, or infamous, poster, asking "Who would the Kaiser vote for?" got short shrift in the west, and a poster was returned Tuesday from Regina.

These posters were placed on billboards all through the west, but such an outcry was raised that they were pasted over with blank sheets.

Such well-known posters as the Regina Leader, while supporting the Union Government, demanded that the posters be taken down in Regina, and the Bordenites quickly took the hint.

As a result the insulting campaign has had a halt, and the "Union" forces are at a loss to know what other "literature" to post up.

PRO-GERMAN TARRIED. Hugo, Co., Dec. 5.—Henry W. Dutsch was seized by a mob last night because of alleged pro-German utterances by him, stripped to the waist, and a coat of tar and feathers applied. His clothing was put over the tar and he was placed on a 100-lb. bound train in charge of an armed squad named Kaiser, with instructions that he be turned over to the federal authorities at Denver.

DENFIELD BOY WINS MILITARY MEDAL AT BATTLE OF HILL 70

CORP. J. H. TEDDER, M.M., Denfield, Corp. Tedder enlisted with the 13th Middlesex Battalion, and went overseas in 1916. After some time in training in the old land he was sent to France, and after ten months' service in the trenches was given his corporal's stripes for bravery and efficient service at the battle of Vimy Ridge. He came out of this engagement without a scratch.

At Hill 70, where he won his military medal, he was in continuous action for 72 hours. He escaped with only a sprained ankle. He was sent to a hospital at Edinburgh. In his last letter home he said that he was doing well and expected to be returned to France shortly.

The young soldier is only 20 years of age. He will celebrate his twenty-first birthday in February next.

23 MEN SENT UP BY TRIBUNALS GO BEFORE DOCTORS

Monday's List About Normal at Armories.

SIX SERVICE REPORTS

Battery and W. O. E. Depot Split Nearly Even On These Men.

Twenty-three men were examined by medical boards at the Armories Monday, after being sent there by the exemption tribunals. Only one man surrendered. He proved to be in a category lower than A-2 and was given leave until December 10. No men were apprehended and none examined by order of the deputy registrar.

There were six reports for service: Harold H. Pringle, London, Western Ontario Regiment; Ira Karm, Thompson, 64th Battery; George A. Kerslake, Staffa, Western Ontario Regiment; John Schramm, Atterville, Western Ontario Regiment; Alfred W. Field, London, Western Ontario Regiment; Harry Jarvis Smith, Kerwood, 64th Battery.

No recruits from the British and Canadian Mission in the United States arrived on Monday, but three local recruits were examined: E. J. Clark, England; W. Howick, Canada; and Joseph Outram, England. The first two signed up with the Western Ontario Regiment, and Outram with the Royal Naval Canadian Volunteer Reserve.

The men examined by order of the tribunals were categorized as follows: Category A, combatant service overseas..... 6

Category B, non-combatant service overseas..... 2

Category C, service in Canada..... 4

Category D, doubtful..... 2

Category E, unfit..... 6

Total..... 23

Ontario Chairman Thanks Sir George and the Local Staff

Splendid Work Was Done for the Victory Loan.

Sir George Gibbons last evening received the following letter from G. H. Wood, chairman of the Ontario Victory Loan Committee:

Thanks for telegram, which was much appreciated. Please accept yourself and all associated with you, the warmest thanks of our provincial executive for your untiring efforts in the Victory Loan campaign, so successfully completed, and this includes especially your secretary and organizer. We tender sincere congratulations to you and your fellow citizens for your magnificent response in Canada's time of need. We are justly proud of Ontario's grand total of over two hundred millions, and sending one in eight of population. This is our message of cheer to our Ontario sons overseas, and an evidence of our determination to see this fight through to the finish, no matter what it costs.

ITALY EXISTED BY NAVAL PROTECTION OF GREAT BRITAIN

Whole Economic Control, However, Passed to Germany.

VILLAGE IDEA PASSES

"U" Professor Gives Interesting Lecture to Ryerson Civic League.

The Triple Alliance was really a quadruple alliance in which England was the silent partner, said Dr. Livingston of the Western University, speaking before the members of the Ryerson Civic League in the Ryerson School Tuesday evening.

"The Triple Alliance," he continued, "was an agreement between Germany, Italy, and Austria to attack France and to hold France in check if it was agreed to by England. Unfortunately the traditional enemies, Italy and Austria, and the traditional friends of Italy were Germany and England.

In 1856 Bismarck betrayed Italy and made the Italians evacuate Isteria and Trentino, thinking that south of Austria could break through into the Venetian plains, and knowing that if Italy did not hold the mountains she could not defend herself.

Bismarck controlled everything in Europe and the policy of Europe was dominated by him in the nineteenth century. He built up Italy in order to have an ally on the south of Austria. Italy has been allowed to live through the protection of the British navy. Italy's safety depended on it, and when England decided that Italy should not remain in the Triple Alliance, Italy could not remain in it any longer. That was one of the things that the Germans forgot.

"What was the price Italy paid to Germany for keeping Austria off?" he asked. "She passed to Germany the control of her whole economic system. Germany owned Italy up to the time of the present war.

"Italy had endured forty years of peace during which to build up her army and navy, pay her debts and build up her industry.

In this industrial age, the speaker said, Italy had no coal or metal deposits with which to compete with other nations in industry. To overcome this the Italians were exploiting the rapid mountain streams to develop power as a substitute for coal.

Italy was quite young among the nations, he stated, as it was formed about six years after the civil war took place in the United States. It had taken many years to develop in the minds of the people the idea that Italy was a nation, rather than a collection of independent parishes and villages. The village idea was prevalent in Italy, and even in New York City at the present time it was possible to find a number of Italian villages entirely transplanted to this side of the ocean. These people had brought their own butchers, bakers, doctors and priests, and apparently the village had "picked up bag and baggage" and crossed the ocean.

Previous to the address, pleasing vocal selections were rendered by Misses MacDougall and Hudson. Dr. N. Campbell was chairman.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the ladies of the league.

QUERIES REGARDING MILITARY SERVICE

Send In Your Problems and They Will Be Answered From Our Official Information by The Advertiser.

Question.—My father, who is unable to do any farm work except a few of the highest chores, owns 50 acres of land and I, the only son, am working it. My local tribunal refused to exempt me, and gave me six months to go, say, that anyone else could easily absorb our 50 acres with their own.

1. Have I lost grounds for an appeal? It would mean the breaking up of the home if I were taken. I have one sister, but she is not in a position to come home with my father.

2. Who is the final appeal judge?

3. Can a man appeal to the minister of justice if none of the tribunals exempt him? A. P. W.

Answer.—1. You appear to have some grounds for an appeal.

2. The Honorable Mr. Justice Duff of the supreme court.

3. You could lay your case before him, but you had better go to the appeal tribunal before you do anything further. If you are refused exemption by the appeal tribunal in your district, you must then lay it before the final appeal judge.

Question.—1. My mother is a widow, and my only brother, who lives in New York City, will in all probability be drafted in the next draft of the United States. If he is drafted, or enlisted, would I be granted exemption?

2. Would his enlistment in the Canadian forces alter the situation any?

3. A person who has lived nearly Question.—My father was Canadian-born. His parents were born in an enemy country. After taking out naturalization papers after I became 21 years of age, would he be considered a Canadian male?

2. How about my brother and sister, who were below the age of 21 when he took out his papers?

3. If I took out papers for myself, would that make me a Canadian subject, with all privileges except casting a vote?

4. Notify the local tribunal where you were refused, or the registrar. You will be notified when to submit your evidence.

5. No announcement has been made yet.
