TURKS BOMBARD SMYRNA, CLAIM GREEK AIRMEN

State City Being Evacuated Amidst Scenes of Great Disorder.

GREEK TROOPS RIOTING

Believe Allies Will Occupy Smyrna as Greek Navy Leaves.

Athens, Sept. 9.—Smyrna is being bombarded by the Turkish Nationalists.

Nine airplanes from the Greek naval base there arrived here this morning, the airmen telling of their departure from the city under artillery fire. As they left the Smyrna airdrome an enemy shell damaged a tenth plane, which was just leaving the ground. The machine was unable to continue, and the aviators were ignorant of the fate of their comrades.

The city is being evacuated amidst scenes of great disorder, according to refugees, 2,000 of whom have arrived here. Panic reigns as the Turks approach the town. It is declared, and Greek soldiers are contending with the civilians for places on the outgoing ships.

Rioting is reported among the troops in the Bursa sector, in the north, where the Greeks are embarking at Mubania, on the Sea of Marmora.

M. Kalogeropoulos, the premier designate, is expected to present the names of his ministers to King Constantine tonight.

"The only program we have is to try to extricate the country from the present critical situation," he declares.

General Hadjiafentis, former commander-in-chief in Asia Minor, who was succeeded by General Trikoupi, has arrived in Athens incognito. He is quoted as declaring: "The defeat of our army was inevitable and fatal. I will speak when the moment arrives and show that I was not responsible for the defeat. My advice and suggestions were not acted upon."

GREEK NAVY LEAVES.

Smyrna, Sept. 9.—The Greek fleet left Smyrna harbor this afternoon.

The Greek commissioner of police planned to embark tonight.

The allies will probably occupy the town tomorrow. Allied detachments were landed at noon today from the warships for the protection of the foreign population.

Turkish Nationalist vanguards have been reported fifteen miles from the city.

Isaac Boom Gets Case Adjudged in Order to Obtain Witnesses.

In order that the defendant might be allowed time to obtain witnesses, Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon in police court this morning adjourned the case of Isaac Boom, charged with having in his possession apparatus suitable for distilling spirits, contrary to section 180 of the inland revenue act. The case was laid over until September 15. If friends give two sureties of $500 each, Boom will be freed until his trial.

Cecil Webb, inland revenue officer, Police Inspector Thomas Lucas and Sgt. William Middaugh and Elmer Walsh conducted the raid on Boom's farm, near Putnam, about sixteen miles east of the city, yesterday afternoon when seized apparatus and a quantity of alcohol.

According to Boom, another man has been working his farm. Boom purchased the farm about four months ago. He has been a resident of London for thirteen years. Albert M. Judd is his counsel in the case.

JUDGE WILKERSON.

JAMES A. WILKERSON, judge of the federal district court at Chicago, who, on petition of Attorney-General Daugherty, granted a sweeping injunction against the striking railroad shopcraft unions. RUM-RUNNERS CHANGE ROUTE County Constable Says Fourth Concession Not Conducive to Speed and Safety.

Bootleggers Choose Fifth Concession, Westminster, as Alternative Road.

There is a perfectly good reason why members of the rum-running fraternity, during recent weeks, have discontinued their flights through London Township, according to Arthur Corsaut, county constable.

A bad stretch of road on concession 4, just west of the Proof Line road, is a decided menace, the latter contents for any who might be on their way west with a cargo of a questionable nature.

The hill would be a most unfavorable place to be stalled in, he points out, as the road is not in the best shape to insure speed and safety.

As a direct consequence, it is believed, the wholesale "bootlegging" gentry have selected a more suitable route, and concession 5, of Westminster, is more than often the choice.

Up until a few weeks ago the illicit liquor caravans were noted time and again on concession 3, of London, until Adelaide street was reached, when the cars were switched to concession 4, and the trip was continued to a certain point west of Richmond street, where conditions were favorable, if occasion demanded, for a change of trucks and drivers.

In due time, of course, certain police authorities were apprised of this latter procedure, and a sudden visit was staged, but the prey had flown and nothing now remains but what was formerly one of the principal transfer stations on the Kitchener-Windsor liquor route, but a collection of weather-beaten cases.

IRISH PARLIAMENT MEETS AMID CALM

Only One Anti-Treaty Member Present as Provisional Government Assembles.

Dublin, Sept. 9.—The provisional parliament for Southern Ireland, provided for under the Anglo-Irish treaty, met this morning in the new semi-circular parliamentary chamber in Leinster House.

The crowd which gathered to watch the arrivals was very small, and general calm prevailed. Few of the members were widely known by appearance in Dublin, which accounts in some measure for the absence of a popular demonstration such as formerly marked the assembling of the Dail Eireann. The day's program called for formal organization, with the election of a speaker and other officers.

The only anti-treaty member present when the session began was Lawrence Ginnell. The various military chiefs, including Richard Mulcahy and Owen O'Duffy, were in civilian clothes, the only uniform seen being worn by Capt. Sean McGarry.

The roll call showed that nearly every pro-treaty, independent and labor member was present.

London's Fair Officially Opened Monday

CHILDREN WILL SET PACE FOR WONDER WEEK

Young Citizens of District To Be Admitted Free First Day.

EXHIBITS TO BE IN PLACE

Attractions and Show Entries Promise to Set New Record.

Monday, Children's Day, marks the official opening of Fair Week.

The gates were opened to the public Saturday morning, but the entire program of exhibits and attractions will not be complete until Monday morning.

No conditions will be attached to the admission on that day. Any child, irrespective of place of residence, the color or nationality, may enter the grounds free and revel to his heart's content.

The Wortham Shows, which form the Midway, are constantly arriving and all the acts for the grandstand, which will be free to children Monday, will be there ready for the afternoon and evening performances.

Exhibitors were busy Saturday in the Crystal Palace and Machinery Building, and the last shipment of pictures for the Art Gallery came by express from Detroit Saturday morning.

In the Horticultural Building there are nearly 600 exhibits of flowers, and in the amateur class alone there is an advance of 66 shown over last year. It will be completely arranged by Monday afternoon.

Butter-making commences Monday afternoon, and will continue until the next morning.

Rotary, Kiwanis, Shriners, Lions, the Motor Club and the Advertising Clubs have arranged conveyance to and from the Fair Grounds for all the children in homes and institutions in the city. A committee of men from each Fair Grounds all day to undertake the somewhat gigantic task of looking after the youngsters.

Will Watch Children. For the benefit of those who stray, or get into tangles of any sort, there will be an information bureau set up where the kiddies may go to have their troubles cleared away and to get further help, the Child Welfare Association is setting up a tent at the grounds.

Boys Scouts are tenting at the Fair Grounds all week and are giving exhibitions before the grand stand, Monday and Tuesday. On Wednesday and Thursday Girl Guides will give an exhibition of their work and training.

Secretary A. M. Hunt and an augmented staff are at the general offices, making extensive preparations in anticipation that Monday will be a record day in Western Fair history.

URGE RETENTION OF TARIFF AS PROPOSED BY SENATE

Farm Bloc Wants U. S. House To Accept Rates On Agricultural Products.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Farmers of the United States want the tariff rates proposed by the senate for agricultural products retained in the administration bill, the executive committee of the house farm bloc was told yesterday by a delegation representing 30 national farm, live stock, dairy, wool and poultry organizations. The house farm bloc leaders were urged to insist that the house accept the senate rates which are now in conference.

The delegation, headed by T. C. Atkeson, representing the National Grange, have found 75 per cent of the house members willing to approve the senate rates, according to a statement issued last night. The statement also announced that the farm organization leaders would request a conference with house farm bloc members as soon as the bill was out of conference, if the rates were not favorable to agriculture.

ROBS COUNTESS IN HOTEL ROOM

London, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to the Express from Berlin says the Countess Von Bluecher, formerly Alma, Loebe, of New York, has been robbed at a hotel in Kreuznach, Rhineland Prussia. The thieves broke into her room and chloroformed her.

A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Berlin says the countess was in bed unconscious from chloroform, and that her jewels had been stolen from beneath her pillow.

Vandals Destroy Subway Lights

At Western Fair Grounds Friday

THE first incident of a disagreeable nature in connection with the new subway had been completely stripped of electric lights.

"They not only took the bulbs," Secretary Hunt said, "but tore down the fixtures, and the wiring is so damaged that it will require an extensive amount of repairing in order to put up new lights."

City Police were on the job Saturday morning, but Secretary Hunt said: "To cope with people who would do a trick like that, we should need a policeman every six feet."

DUBLIN, Sept. 9.—William T. Cosgrave, minister of local government, was elected president of the Dail Eireann by the new parliament at its inaugural session today. He succeeds the martyred Michael Collins.

W. O. INCOME TAX 5 MILLION

65,000 Returns Filed at London Branch of Taxation Department.

Inspector Reports Receipts for 1921 Lower Than Those of 1920.

People of Western Ontario have contributed approximately $5,000,000 to the Dominion government in income taxes during 1921. This announcement was made at the London branch of the department of taxation Saturday morning, and as the fourth installment is not due until October 31, this amount will be considerably increased by the end of the year.

George Tambling, inspector of taxation for the London district, which stretches as far west as Amherstburg, north to Georgian Bay, and east to, but not including Hamilton, pointed out that although the population of this district is about 1,000,000 people only 65,000 filed returns this year, whereas in 1919, nearly 100,000 returns were received by the London office.

"Of course, that was the peak of high wages," Mr. Tambling pointed out, "and this year the amount received is considerably lower than that collected in 1920."

Although comparatively few have taken advantage of the four installment plan of paying their income taxes, the local office has to wait until the last of October before any idea may be obtained of the amounts received, or of the number of persons who have paid taxes in the London district in 1921.

Up to the present 10,000 returns have been dispatched to Ottawa, subject to the approval of the department, and 10,000 more will be sent in a short time.

WOMAN DIES AS STOVE EXPLODES

Sherbrooke, Sept. 9.—Mrs. Ranger, wife of a ferryman at Carleton Place, yesterday attempted to kindle her kitchen fire with what she thought was coal oil. It proved to be gasoline, and an explosion followed. She was enveloped in flames and so badly burned that she died in a hospital in Hawkesbury, to which she had been hurried. Her husband, who had run to her aid, is in the hospital badly burned. Two dwellings and a butcher shop were destroyed in a fire which followed the explosion, rendering three families homeless.

NATIONAL LABOR MEETING OPENS

Shopcrafts Strike to Lead Discussions at Atlantic City Conference.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 9.—The eyes of organized labor throughout the United States were today focused upon Atlantic City, in which the executive council of the American Federation of Labor went into conference to lay down the organization program for the coming year. Samuel Gompers, head of the federation, is to preside over the executive council sessions, which are expected to continue well into next week. Sitting with him are Frank Morrison, secretary; Daniel J. Tobin, treasurer, and eight vice-presidents of the organization.

Also in attendance, but without voice in the official proceedings of the council, are a score of the heads of national labor organizations, who will remain in touch with their American Federation of Labor officers and report developments to their constituents.

The shopcrafts strike and the Daugherty injunction, together with discussion of the American Federation of Labor political program were expected to lead discussions today.

Chelsea Green Residents Complain That Children Are Denied Entrance to Central Collegiate.

CLAIM SOUTH LONDON HIGH SCHOOL IS INACCESSIBLE

School Trustees A. N. Udy has reported that after a mass meeting a dozen or more Chelsea Green residents complained to him that their children had been denied entrance at the Central Collegiate Institute, and were compelled to attend by circuitous routes the South London High School.

School trustees believe, however, that suitable arrangements can be made with the principals of the two institutions whereby all difficulties can be satisfactorily overcome. The chief reason advanced was poor street car service, and the members of the board are more than inclined to sympathize with the students.

SEEK TEACHERS FOR COLLEGIATE

Trustees Find Four Additions to Staff and More Room Needed.

Two New High Schools Fail to House Many Students.

Permission to use once again the old Commercial school and the authorization of an increase of four teachers, granted by the school trustees Friday, is another sharp reminder that the problem of classroom accommodation for city students is a real live issue.

With the opening of the central collegiate institute and the South London high school, W. H. T. Mooney and E. A. Miller, respective principals, have discovered to their dismay that they cannot adequately handle the situation as at first anticipated.

A report, submitted by Principal Mooney, reveals the startling fact that while the inauguration of a branch collegiate in South London is accommodating about 300 students, there are at this moment 64 more pupils attending the central collegiate institute than there were at this period last year and more are expected after fair week.

Principal Miller reports the presence of 281 children at his school, including the Technicals, also expected once the exhibition at the fair is concluded. He is compelled to open another classroom, creating the necessity of another specialist in teaching.

The trustees have approved also of the recommendation from Principal Mooney that at least three additional teachers be secured at once, and contrary to earlier expectations, the old Commercial school, saved from the fire, must again be utilized.

One class will be added for first year pupils, at the old Princess avenue public school, the collegiate annex, while it has become imperative to add another second year class as well.

The average per class-room is now far in excess of the department ruling, the principal declares, and cannot be countenanced if efficient work is to be noted. He reports the attendance at 951, as against 887 in 1921.

Brought face to face with the situation the trustees have discerned no other alternative and have granted approval to all recommendations except the immediate addition of another story to the central collegiate institute, as suggested seriously by Trustee Edwin Smith.

OPPOSES BUYING COAL ORDERED BY TRUSTEES

A. E. Silverwood Believes 'Smooth' Salesman 'Put One Over' Mayor.

SAYS COAL INFERIOR

Holds All Members of Board Should Have Been Consulted.

"It was a smooth salesman who slipped it over Mayor Cameron Wilson and his associates when he sold them 50 cars of coal."

This was the frank opinion emanating at Thursday's session of the Collegiate Institute committee from School Trustee A. E. Silverwood, following the declaration by Trustee Rev. A. A. Rice, that he (Rice) had, upon his own initiative, directed the authorities to "go ahead and dump off a few tons, and if there was any loud complaint from the other trustees he would tell them to stop."

While the committee, after a lengthy discussion by and large, sanctioned the purchase of five cars, the motion was passed only after the most vigorous objection had been registered by Trustee Silverwood, who likened the coal operators to "a set of pirates who were simply forcing the market up with a quantity of coal inferior to that already purchased by the trustees."

In Different Position. "The school board is in a different position from the other civic bodies," he declared. "We have purchased our coal from Buchanan, a man who guarantees that he will deliver it to us. Why, then, should we purchase it elsewhere?"

"You have tied Buchanan to a $4,000 bond to insure prompt delivery and the required quality, and his coal has been analyzed at your direction. Now you propose to go into the market and purchase without a guarantee from pirates who are doing nothing less than forcing the market up."

"If the city aldermen find that they are stuck in a bad hole, why should we buy their coal just to help them out. Let them worry, when they attempt to slip it over on the board of education."

"I have consulted Buchanan, and he states that he understands that the coal is of good quality, and he is not stampeding the trustees into the idea that he will fall down on his contract. He has 80 tons on hand at this moment, and states that there is no cause for alarm."

Coal May Be Raised. "Further than that, it informs me that he has been notified by the operators that the coal might be boosted another dollar. If so, the price would only be $9.45, as against the city's at $12.60."

"But there are seven schools, including the Technicals, that have not an ounce of coal," objected Trustee Smith. "We should safeguard ourselves. We should have at least five cars of this coal. People who have used it say that it is good coal. Ask the hospital authorities."

As the motion passed for the purchase, Trustee Silverwood placed himself on record as unfavorable, holding that all the members should have been first consulted.

WARNS OTTAWA WALK-OUT SURE TO BE ORDERED

Union Officials Inform Labor Minister Instructions To Be Issued.

MEN RECEIVE NOTICE

Fear Tie-Up of Grain Movement From Shortage of Cars.

Montreal, Sept. 9.—"Prepare for a strike on short notice."

This terse warning was dispatched this morning in a circular letter to every local union of Canadian Railway Shopmen from Halifax to Vancouver. Between 40,000 and 45,000 men are involved, and the situation is most serious, union executives admit.

In a letter addressed to Hon. James Murdock, minister of labor, and signed by James Dickie, secretary-treasurer of Division No. 4 Railway Employees Department, American Federation of Labor, the Dominion government is told:

"We have no hesitation in saying that instructions will be issued within a few days for a cessation of work Tuesday of all railway shopmen in the Dominion."

"The effect of the strike on the eve of the great grain movement from Western Canada is purely conjectural. Should the railway running trades—engineers, conductors, brakemen, etc.—follow the same course as has been adopted in the United States, and refuse to operate any cars which are not in perfect repair, a grave tie-up in the crop movement is inevitable."

May Refuse Cars.

"In the United States the rule of the running trades has been to refuse to operate any cars not turned out as fully repaired by the shopmen. The decision of the shopmen's executive follows the announcement of the majority award of a conciliation board favoring tentative wage cuts of from 12 to 20 per cent pending a settlement of the shopmen's strike in the United States."

The text of the letter dated yesterday to Mr. Murdock is as follows: "The committee representing Division No. 4, comprising the shopcraft employees of the Canadian railways, have had under consideration the report and findings of the board of conciliation and investigation appointed to deal with the dispute between the shop employees and the various railways, together with your reply to night lettergram sent 5, 1922."

"I have been instructed by the committee to inform you that after due deliberation we are convinced that the board of conciliation did not deal with the issue upon which the application for a board was made, therefore it is unreasonable and unjust to expect that we could accept a proposal which had been previously offered us as a compromise by the railways' executives."

Refusals Act. "It seems to us that the majority report of the board holds up the industrial disputes act to ridicule. Instead of investigating as to the justness or otherwise of the railways' attempt to reduce wages, they recommended that a tentative agreement be entered into, and that we accept the reduction in wages desired by the railways, pending a definite settlement in the United States, than at a later date, failing to reach an agreement, a new dispute would be created to again deal with the question, clearly indicating that they did not measure up to their responsibilities or ignored the nature of the dispute, and in doing so has placed the industrial disputes act in the category of a piece of legal machinery that cannot function."

"In your night lettergram of the 6th instant you state that it is unfortunate that all of the essential to smoothly running railways in fact in connection with the proposed wage reductions were not brought out by our committee. In reply to this would say that in the presentation of our case before the board, both oral and written evidence was submitted together with a number of exhibits in an effort to prove that any reduction in wages at this time was unwarranted. It was also pointed out to the board before adjournment to Page 2, Column 2.

FEELS RECEIPT IS SUFFICIENT

C. Myers, in Division Court, Claims Account Was Paid in Full.

G. G. McCabe Must Take Goods Ordered From Wine Company.

There were few cases of importance brought up for judgment in the first divisional court in session Friday afternoon.

Out of the twenty-seven cases which were before Judge Judd, the majority were held over for further testimony.

In the case of Archie McLaughlin vs. C. Myers, for the settlement of an account, the latter had with him a receipt marked paid, to prove it. The witness, speaking for the plaintiff, said that the signature on the receipt was not that of anyone in his firm.

"You are trying to infer that it is mine, then," Myers went on to say, addressing the accuser. "You can't deny that the stamp on it is that of your firm, although you deny the initials are yours or those of anyone connected with McLaughlin's firm. I have paid that bill for the whole of it. I thought when I brought the receipt into court that there would be no argument about the matter at all."

Another case was that of the Ontario Wine Company vs. G. G. McCabe. The latter had purchased goods from the wine company, and when he had gone out of business and accordingly returned them without a written order of having done so. The Ontario Wine Company refused to take back the goods, and the Grand Trunk seized the shipment as payment of the freight charges. They had in the lock-up of that railroad. The Toronto firm is now asking payment for the goods.

McCabe, addressing the judge, said: "I returned those goods; why should I have to pay for them? If I had kept them and not paid the purchase price, it would have been a clear case against me."

The case closed with McCabe having to pay for the goods, and if he pays the freight the goods, which are now of no use to him, will be his.

WANTS TO SEE OLD BOYS' REUNIONS REVIVED HERE

Robert J. Bower, Visiting City, Says Chicago Association Would Take London By Storm.

Robert J. Bower of Chicago, a London Old Boy, who numbers a host of friends here, is visiting relatives in the Forest City Saturday. Mr. Bower was a visitor at the city hall Saturday morning, where he renewed old acquaintances, declares that London should get busy in the near future and make plans for another Old Boys' reunion.

He regretted the fact that the war compelled suspension of such reunions, declaring that they are the only means possessed by Londoners spread across the continent to meet their boyhood chums and old friends. High railway rates were blamed by Mr. Bower for preventing a reunion, the increased cost of transportation preventing many Londoners in distant places from returning to their native city for a visit.

However, he is confident that if a reunion were planned for 1923, London would be overwhelmed by the return of her native sons, and he states that Chicago London Old Boys are willing to organize and take the Forest City by storm.

Mr. Bower is an inspector for a large insurance company, with offices in Chicago. When resident in London he was engaged in boiler manufacturing.

Magistrate Remands Boisterous Prisoner on Window Peeping Charge

So boisterous was Joseph Woolley of Chatham during his hearing in police court this morning on a charge of acting in a disorderly manner in a public place, that Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon decided to remand him for a week in order to allow him to calm down.

Residents of Kennon Place complained he was peeping in their windows. When this accusation was made, Woolley protested so loudly that the court told him that he would be held guilty of disorderly conduct in court if he was not careful. One Kennon Place resident stated his wife heard a noise on the veranda and went out to investigate. She saw a man rush across the road and disappear behind some bushes, he testified. He went out and called to the stranger, and Woolley came out of the bushes. Neighbors had called an officer. Constable Leach took the prisoner to the station.

ADMIT THERE MAY BE TRUTH IN CHARGE SENDS 2 FOR TRIAL ON THEFT CHARGE

County Constables Say Question Has Never Had Real Test.

Following the announcement Friday that a doubt had been raised in the minds of certain individuals respecting remuneration for the Midsex constabulary, members of that body have admitted that the question has never been subject to a real test.

They entertain the opinion that there may be a substance of truth in the claim that they are entitled to but one fee for several cases at one sitting of a court, with the provision, of course, that the cases are all of a criminal nature.

While not positive in their declaration, a member of the force reasons that this may be the procedure, in view of the fact that in such cases there are no costs to be collected.

Upon the other hand, however, the constables ridicule the suggestion that they may be compelled to hand back anything that they have already been paid.

CANADIAN RAIL MEN TO STRIKE TUESDAY

ment that the railways had not submitted any evidence to justify them in reducing wages, but evidently the board has not considered our evidence or exhibits of sufficient importance to even make a passing reference to them in their report.

"We would take it from your night telegram that nothing more can be expected of this board. This, I presume, will leave us free to determine our own course of action since we have complied with the law."

"We would remind you that, at the time we made application for a board of conciliation, we informed you that we had taken a strike vote of our membership, which was overwhelmingly in favor of a strike to resist the wage reduction. We, however, hesitated to put this into effect at that time, in view of the near approach of winter and the coal shortage, together with the grain situation in the west, and the demoralizing effect a cessation of work would have on the country at large. "We have earnestly and consistently availed ourselves of every channel open to us to avoid a cessation of work, and at the same time protect the men whom we represent. Even the invocation of the industrial disputes act proved futile.

"Our committee are still in conference deliberating as to what our next step will be, but have no hesitation in saying that instructions will be issued within the next few days for a cessation of work by all railway shompen in the Dominion. However, I will deem it my duty to advise you more fully on this as soon as the strike call has been issued."

The circular letter which has been sent out to the shompen, after formally setting forth the findings of the board of conciliation, says: "Your committee is in personal communication with the railway employees' department and will be in a position to advise our membership within the next few days. In the meantime, all local men are to prepare for a strike on short notice. If a strike is called full instructions will be forwarded with strike call."

"The situation is serious. Your committee will do everything possible to protect your interests, but if fight we must, we will show that we know how."

LONDON MEN CONCERNED.

Following an order from the union chiefs of the Federated Shop Trades to be ready for a strike at a moment's notice, the maintenance-of-way situation as far as the Canadian railroads are concerned is fast taking on a serious aspect.

If the shop employees walk out it is almost certain, London men are concerned, that the maintenance-of-way men will follow suit, unless the railroads give in to their demands. A general meeting of all maintenance-of-way men in London district is called for Saturday night and it is highly probable that revelations of a startling nature concerning the strike situation will follow the conference.

It is a well known fact that both the shop and the maintenance-of-way employees in this district do not take any too kindly to the reduction in wages, even though it is temporary, and it is said in well informed circles that both branches of labor are ready to strike if the word is given.

Joseph Corbett, general chairman of the Grand Trunk shompen in Canada, left a few days ago for Montreal, where an urgent meeting of the union chiefs was called to decide whether or not a strike would be resorted to. Work is expected from Mr. Corbett at any hour, and until that time the situation in this city is unusually tense.

The fact that the shompen in St. Thomas employed on the Michigan Central Railway threaten to strike on Saturday night, following the posting of a notice by the railway officials that a cut of 7 cents an hour would go into effect at once, will have a direct effect on the attitude of the local men, and if a walk-out occurs in St. Thomas, officials declare that immediate action will have to be taken by the railway heads or the chances are great that strike orders will flash from union headquarters.

ESTABLISH NEW FACTORY IN CITY

Coca-Cola Company Assumes Control of Tune Manufacturing Plant.

New and Sanitary Machines to Grace Soft Drink Establishment.

London is now identified with a manufacturing concern whose product is consumed in every community of any size from coast to coast, and from New Orleans to New Ontario, namely, the Coca-Cola Company of international fame, and affiliated with the American concern of the same name.

Assuming control of one of London's oldest soft drink establishments, the Tune & Co. plant at the corner of Colborne street and the Canadian Pacific tracks, the Coca-Cola executives have already commenced their activities locally and will maintain, they stated Saturday, the policy first adopted by the Tune company 40 years ago and continued by their successors, the Eckert Company—"quality and service."

New machinery of the latest type is now under course of manufacture, and will be installed upon completion. In this undertaking special and close attention has been given to sanitary features. New motor equipment will also be added to the plant to facilitate and improve the operation of the same.

This is one of the many new plants opened by the Coca-Cola people in Eastern Canada since the first of the year, making a total of 25 live branches throughout the Dominion, from Vancouver to Halifax.

A new sales and advertising scheme is now under course of preparation, and will be submitted in the near future.

Local men are being engaged wherever possible. Hubert Edson has been retained as office manager, while John Dods, also of this city, has been named as superintendent. The latter attained an enviable reputation in past years by reason of his supervision in connection with the manufacture of that famous drink, "London Dry Ginger Ale." The Coca-Cola executive announced that he will continue with this undertaking with even greater success.

From Edmonton, Alta., has come D. S. Hawkes, who for the past three years has been in control of the company's plant in that community.

Mr. Hawkes, while in the west, created quite a favorable impression by his activities as a lacrosse and hockey player of no mean ability, and was a member of no less an aggregation as the Edmonton Eskimos.

MAYOR WILSON DENIES HE BOUGHT INFERIOR COAL

Answers Charges of A. E. Silverwood That He Bought From "Coal Pirates."

Replying to the criticism of Trustee A. E. Silverwood at the meeting of No. 3 committee of the board of education Friday afternoon in which he alleged that Mayor Wilson was buying inferior coal from "coal pirates" who were keeping the prices up, Mayor Wilson Saturday morning declared that the coal ordered by the city to avert a fuel crisis next winter is of superior grade.

"I would refer Trustee Silverwood to any of the coal dealers of London," said his Worship. "They tell me that the civic purchased coal is of the best grade, and the price paid was the best that could be obtained on the market from our standpoint. We have two or three cars of coal that we can let the board of education have for schools, but we do not want to sell it to them if they assume that attitude. We are not anxious to dispose of it as the citizens of London are seizing the opportunity and will take it. There should be no controversy over this thing because everybody did their best and the results are most satisfactory."

$20,000 TO OPEN HOSPITAL

Members of War Memorial Committee Appeal For Further Funds.

and Crippled Children of Western Ontario To Benefit.

The Children's War Memorial open at once," stated Dr. A. Ramsey, who is on the committee in charge of the exhibit at Western Ontario Fair this year. The $20,000, which will, as the committee states, open its doors to the maimed children of Western Ontario.

The following phrase which is on the posters of the exhibit, "What more could any few contain to show the immediate need of the opening of this institution."

Commemorates Heroes. The hospital was built in memory of war heroes who fell in France. These men sacrificed their lives for betterment of the world as a whole. It is the last drive to obtain money to put the key in the door of this well-founded memorial.

Let us get down to facts for all that is wanted from each in Western Ontario is the small sum of two cents. Will one contribute that amount? If larger contributions will have to be made from the remainder that the people will miss a treat if they do not see this week. We are to put on as good a program as possible to do," Mr. John Ford said in an interview. "We are expecting that everyone will work with us for our objective."

Art Display Splendid. The display in art is really commendable itself. The posters and drawings are the work of "The Youth." The display is attractive and impressive throughout.

The program will be presented at the fair in Western Ontario. It is to be hoped that when the day of the objective comes, all sick or crippled children in Western Ontario will be able to find within the walls of this memorial institution.

TOMORROW'S DOINGS. MONDAY. E. A. Miller, principal of the new South London high school, just established in the old Victoria public school, commends those who were responsible for the work of renovation. Practically everything was in readiness for the initial opening on Tuesday last, and what little work has yet to be accomplished is being hastened as speedily as possible.

When the grading of the Collegiate Institute grounds has been completed, the terrace will be sodded and the remainder left until next year. It is proposed to allow a certain portion of the grounds for the purposes of sport and recreation, and a report as to what portion should be allotted will be submitted to the school board in the near future.

GRANT CHILDREN ONE DAY FOR FAIR. Board Will Not Declare Half-Holiday Friday as Contemplated.

As no special concessions have been granted to school children for Friday next, the Western Fair directors' members of the committee of the board of education in regular session Monday will not grant another school holiday or half-holiday, as they had already contemplated.

W. A. Tanner, secretary of the board, has received a communication from the Fair directors, advising him of this decision, adding, however, that a special admission fee of 10 cents for children, including the grandstand, will be the order for Saturday, the last day of the exhibition.

When the school trustees several weeks ago considered the problem of holidays for Fair week they favored strongly the adoption of Friday, or even Thursday and Friday, as holidays for the children. All calculations were upset, however, by the announcement from the fair board that Monday had been set aside as children's day, and the trustees had no alternative but to accept the decision as good grace as possible.

Strong opposition was registered at the time by the school inspector, as well as several members of the school board, who pointed out that a school holiday on Monday tended to disrupt the entire week. Invariably, they asserted, the students attended the Fair that day and again with their parents later in the week.

STATES UNION OF CHURCHES NEAR

Rev. R. R. Ball Predicts Difficulties Before Colored Branches Are Admitted.

Says "Race Prejudice Is Spreading Cancer and Found Everywhere."

While union of Protestant churches on the continent was not far off, possible difficulty was almost certain to arise before the colored branches of the church would be admitted, was the opinion of the Rev. R. R. Ball, D.D., pastor of the American Methodist Episcopal Zion Church at Hartford, Conn., in his address at the 16th annual convention of the British Methodist Episcopal Church Friday evening.

Rev. Mr. Ball stated that difficulties were already noted in the United States that might mean the exclusion of three branches of the colored church, totalling a membership over 200,000 people. "Race prejudice is a spreading cancer," said Mr. Ball, "and is found everywhere."

"The policy best to their good would be to discuss a union of their own, and later, when the right time presented itself, be ready to join in general and universal church union."

Rev. Mr. Ball is a former Londoner, and was for some time pastor of the church in which he spoke Friday.

Recalls Past. Beginning with a brief resume of his own younger life and the pleasant recollections of the different bishops with whom he worked, Rev. Ball stated that no duty could be more pleasant than the one before him. Many old faces, to which were attached many pleasant personal experiences, made his short return to his native land a happy one.

"The A. M. E. Zion Church," stated Rev. Mr. Ball, "dated back to the troubled times when the negro race were persecuted on all sides. It was born in 1796," said the speaker, "and grew out of a sense of responsibility and as a result of the iniquitous slavery to which the negro was subjected."

There are now nearly 600,000 members, but mission work would be carried on that should raise the membership to nearly the two million mark, he said. On that day, commented the speaker, union with white Methodists would be possible.

President at Meeting. Rev. Mr. Drake presided over the meeting and in a few brief remarks pointed with pride to the fact that the present convention was the best general conference in the history of the church. He paid tribute to the guest and speaker of the evening, Rev. R. R. Ball, pointing especially to the vigor and aggressiveness with which he did his work. "He is one of our boys," said Mr. Drake, "and he has won for himself a distinct place in the hearts of his people."

Only Fifty Dollars. "Oh, but this is only a matter of $50," objected Principal Mooney. "It's a matter of principle, not money altogether," replied Trustee Campbell, while Principal Mooney admitted that it would be possible to divide the work among the several teachers, but questioned the effectiveness of such an arrangement.

"Viewing the question from Trustee Smith's angle," he continued, "we cannot compel the teachers, either, to remain after 4 p.m."

Trustee Smith, on this point and Principal Miller volunteered the opinion that the efficiency of the work would be reduced 50 per cent.

"Oh, come, come," Trustee Smith exclaimed. "Just go around the schools after 4 o'clock any night and you will notice the teachers coming out as rapidly as the pupils."

"Yes, but look at the work they do at home," countered Principal Miller, assuming the offensive for his associate, who lay back for a spell.

"But look at the work businessmen do at home," suggested Trustee Smith.

"We are not viewing the question from a businessman's angle today," cautioned Trustee Udy, entering the arena for the first time, just as Trustee Campbell reiterated that "it was not a question of graft, but an example of what is being done by reason of custom."

"What are the detention classes for?" queried Trustee Rev. A. A. Bice, turning the conversation into newer channels.

Suggests Flogging. "A good flogging would correct that practice," declared the ministerial trustee, when acquainted of the fact that the class was usually composed of late arrivals, talkative students, and the like. "I have two. Just send one of them home with a late report, and I venture to say that it won't occur again."

"Well, we are not dealing with that phase of the question, either," remarked Trustee Campbell, in an obvious effort to keep the struggle confined to one field.

"But this has been passed in two schools already. What are we to do?" was the opportune question from Trustee Silverwood, hitherto a silent participant.

"Yes. What about the others?" queried Principal Mooney, grasping at this opportunity to score a point.

"Well, if they come again, we'll vote it down," promised Trustee Campbell. "That's the trouble with a big board. A lot of these little things get by."

Trustees Smith, Udy and Campbell voted against the proposal, "as a matter of principle," while the minority consisted of Trustees Casselman and Bice.

As the concluding feature of the event, Principal Mooney explained that he would not request the $50 grant for the South London Collegiate, as he had a scheme in mind.

Trustees Battle One Hour Over Fifty Dollars

REFUSE MOONEY'S REQUEST. MEMBERS of the collegiate institute committee of the board of education Friday with one stroke of the pen, as it were, upset one of the traditions of the department and indulged in a free-for-all discussion, that only terminated when Principal Mooney, of the central collegiate institute, bet Trustee Edwin Smith a mess of stewed oysters for all hands that he was somewhat amiss in his calculations.

The impromptu debate, sandwiched in between the coal dispute and the Kingston Construction Company controversy, continued for a tolerable spell, and was precipitated by the suggestion from Principal Mooney that the committee sanction a grant of $50 toward the Princess avenue school, such monies to be employed as remuneration for the demagogue whose duty it now is to preside at the detention class of high school pupils—a permanent feature there each day after 4 p.m.

Principal Mooney essayed the explanation that similar appropriations have been made to the collegiate for a period of time that baffles the memory of the oldest resident of the city.

Proposal Lost. The proposal was lost after a lengthy but illuminating discussion, and a precedent was established in local educational circles that has yet, however, to "run the gauntlet" at a regular session of the board.

"It strikes me offhand," commented Trustee Bryden Campbell, as a preliminary hint of opposition, "that there are more of these little extras that one would suspect before becoming a member of the board."

"No. According to the department rules and regulations, you can't pay to keep children in after 4 o'clock," announced Trustee Edwin Smith.

"But we can," retorted Principal Mooney. "The regulation provides that they must remain a certain number of hours. We can keep them until 4:30 p.m. in any event."

Concurs With Collegiate. As Mr. Miller, principal of the South London high school, threw his weight into the fight, concurring with his colleague from the central school, Trustee Smith advanced the information that "such could not be legally accomplished to his knowledge."

There is no law in the land that states we cannot keep the children in," persisted Principal Mooney, still on the offensive.

"I'll show you that there is," challenged Trustee Smith.

"Good enough. I'll pay for the oysters," shot back the principal, picking up the gauntlet, readily enough.

"And I'll eat them," rejoined the trustee, while exclamations of protest sounded about the board as other members of the committee invited themselves to the impending spread, regardless of who the winner might be.

Free switching on the trunk line between the Byron Telephone Association switchboard and Caradoc-Ekfrid Telephone Association switchboard was granted the Byron Association by the Ontario Municipal and Railway Board at the courthouse yesterday afternoon. The two companies were unable to come to an agreement on the matter, and asked the board to settle it.

W. R. Wadsworth of the Caradoc-Ekfrid concern was refused the right to occupy space on the poles of the Byron company, being instructed to build a parallel line to Line 36 of the Byron Association. Byron officials claimed he had taken a number of subscribers from this particular line, and had placed them on the trunk line as subscribers of the Caradoc-Ekfrid Association.

It has been ruled that the trunk line must be clear for each other. The Byron Association will be required to pay for pin space on the trunk line.

OFFERS SECOND SITE FOR SOUTH END COLLEGIATE. Trustees To Send Board Secretary and Principal Miller To View Property.

Some people have evidently assimilated the impression that the school board had offered a substantial sum for a veritable site-purchasing orgy.

Extending it as a likely locality for another South London collegiate institute, a resident of Wharfedale road south had offered a substantial tract of land for sale to School Trustee A. E. Silverwood and his associates.

Trustee Silverwood has suggested that Secretary Tanner and E. A. Miller, principal of the South London High School, drive out to the site some morning before breakfast and bring back a report.

As the property is said to be out near the city limits, Trustee Rev. A. Bice suggests this committee do not scrap its plan to segregate Chinese from white pupils, the board has no intention of abandoning its policy, which, school trustees believe, has the overwhelming support of the electors.

This was made clear by school board members today, and it was declared that the strike of Chinese students, who refused to attend their classes early this week, was falling.

REPORT COAL SECURED FOR FORD MOTOR PLANTS. CINCINNATI, Sept. 8.—According to a telegram given out today by Ernest F. Hensley, president of the American Export and Inland Coal Company, with offices in this city, an agreement has been entered into with representatives of Henry Ford, of Detroit, by which a sufficient amount of coal will be forwarded to the manufacturing plants of the Ford Motor Company to obviate the shutdown that was scheduled for September 15.

COMPLETE ROAD BY SATURDAY

Superintendent Will Open One Side of Dundas Street Sunday.

Concrete Base Must Set Before Street Cars Can Be Operated.

Provided that there is no weather interference Saturday, the new asphalt pavement on Dundas street, from Ashland avenue to the city limits, will be completed on one side Saturday night, and traffic will be opened on this thoroughfare Sunday morning. This announcement was made by William Hunter, paving superintendent, Saturday morning.

Asphalt surfacing of the new pavement, north of the street car tracks, is practically completed, and it is upon this section that traffic will be permitted to operate. As this area is 24 feet in width, the street will be room for autos to travel east and west, and to pass one another. One small section of the pavement near Hale street has not been completed, owing to the fact that new tracks on the London Street Railway loop must be laid, but no delay will be necessary at this point Sunday. City Engineer Brazier permitting motor cars to traverse the concrete base which has been laid.

The announcement that traffic will be opened Sunday morning comes as a welcome one to motorists of London and district, as it eliminates a detour on this popular highway and saves inconvenience. Superintendent Hunter would not venture an opinion Saturday as to when the entire pavement on both sides of the car tracks will be opened, but pointed out that the completed section will be open to traffic during Fair week.

New tracks of the London Street Railway Company have been laid on this section, but cars will not operate for several days, pending setting of the concrete base.

Progress is also reported on the new pavement on Hamilton road, from Egerton to St. Julien streets. The tracks at present laid on this thoroughfare will be utilized in the new pavement, but Oxford south cars stop at Egerton street, as the rails further east are being elevated. Small cars, however, will be permitted to operate on one side of the tracks, and is being done on the other side.

CLAIM CHINESE PUPILS' STRIKE LOSING GROUND. VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 8.—While Chinese have retained W. J. Taylor, K.C., to force the school board to scrap its plan to segregate Chinese from white pupils, the board has no intention of abandoning its policy, which, school trustees believe, has the overwhelming support of the electors.

This was made clear by school board members today, and it was declared that the strike of Chinese students, who refused to attend their classes early this week, was falling.

No Coal Orders Would Have Brought Further Condemnation

Ald. John Ashton Has Come to the Defense of Mayor Cameron Wilson in Regard to Comment of Members of the Board of Education Friday, who alleged that his workshop authorized the purchase of 2,000 tons of inferior coal for use in city homes next winter, and was the victim of "pirates."

"If Mayor Wilson had not ordered this coal he would have been much more vigorously condemned," declared Ald. Ashton Saturday morning. "He did his best under the circumstances, regardless of what any school trustees say. You cannot please everybody, and Mayor Wilson did his duty. I am sure that he has pleased the majority of citizens when he ordered this coal to prevent a shortage next winter."

Adopting the policy of "watchful waiting," members of No. 3 committee of the board of education in special session Friday afternoon reviewed at great length the situation to date relative to the Central Collegiate Institute and the Kingston Construction Company, agreed among themselves that "they were all right so far" and deferred action indefinitely.

This demeanor was by no means the unanimous feeling of all in attendance, as School Trustee Edwin Smith, chairman of the board, suggested that the Kingston Construction Company should be notified that liens for varying amounts, aggregating a sum of approximately $8,000, had been placed against the new structure by local and outside firms who seek this money as due them for services rendered to the former concern.

Will Delay Action. While the chairman of the board voiced the desire that the company should be acquainted of the fact that the trustees were about to settle with the sub-contractors, his colleagues entertained contrary views, holding that nothing drastic should be attempted until a final report had been submitted by the Kingston firm, the building formally inspected and the city solicitor consulted. The latter procedure will be the order.

A report, purporting to reveal what the school board actually owed the contractors, and prepared by school officials, was considered. Figures are being withheld from the public in the meanwhile at the instigation of Trustee A. E. Silverwood, chairman, who elucidated "this is our report. This business may end up in the court yet and we have not their figures as yet."

As the school architect, L. E. Carrothers, reported that all work was completed at the collegiate, it was proposed by Chairman Silverwood that a complete survey of the building be conducted before the same is finally accepted. This suggestion met with general approval and the committee, after four weeks, will visit the school and grounds on a tour of inspection.

Architect To Report. As suggested by Trustee A. N. Udy, chairman of No. 1 committee, the architect will also furnish a written report upon the work.

Trustee Edwin Smith, inquired from the architect, "where is Mr. Wright, the superintendent of the Kingston company?"

None could shed light upon his probable location at that moment, and the trustee opined that "it was a peculiar thing that after asking for publicity to the fact that the company owed nothing, that the same should come upon the building."

One of the members evinced a desire to know whether there was any assurance that no further liens would be forthcoming. Architect Carrothers volunteered the information that it would now be legally impossible for anyone to secure a lien on the collegiate as the time limit had expired. "mistake which relief was required on the faces of all present at this news."

"We're all right then," assented Trustee Bryden Campbell, while Trustee Smith urged that some immediate action be taken, such as a notification to the company. Trustee Campbell thought that the city solicitor would be the person to consult.

The committee considered several reports respecting the central and South London High Schools.

LISTOWEL H. S. ATHLETIC OFFICIALS ARE CHOSEN. LISTOWEL, Sept. 8.—The annual election of officers of the local High School Athletic Association was held this afternoon, with the following results: Honorary president, Mayor A. E. Malcolm; president, G. MacDonald; secretary-treasurer, K. Chamney; L. Godfrey, S. MacQuarrie, G. Walter and J. MacDonagh were appointed on the executive. A vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring officers.

The Northern Counties field day will be staged here some time this month, with Harrison, Mount Forest, Wingham and Listowel high schools competing. The local high school captured the honors last year at Mount Forest.

FIND ENTOMBED MINERS DID NOT GIVE SIGNALS. JACKSON, Cal., Sept. 8.—A most thorough investigation indicates that no signals have been heard from the 47 entombed miners in the Argonaut mine, who were trapped there by a fire on Aug. 27, mine officials announced today. Sounds believed to have been signals must have been either imagination of the rescue crews or else noises in the Kennedy mine, from which the rescue work is being attempted.

EMBARGO WILL BE LIFTED SOON

Hon. Manning Doherty Declares "It Is Only Matter of Months."

Reserves Statement Concerning His Own Course During Proceedings.

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—Hon. Manning Doherty, minister of agriculture for Ontario, discussed the British embargo on Canadian cattle in the course of his speech at the C. N. E. directors' luncheon today, and asserted that the only way in which the lifting of the British ban could now be messed up was by some Canadian blundering. He would reserve anything he had to say in defense of his own course in the embargo battle until it was lifted. "It is only a matter of months now

Conceived Idea of Insulin Treatment While On Staff of Western University

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—"I never would have been able to do anything had it not been for him."

This was the tribute paid today by Dr. F. G. Banting to Charles Best, M.A., his partner in the work of developing the new insulin extract for the treatment of diabetes.

"It would appear from the articles that have appeared in some papers," said Dr. Banting, "that Best was not associated with me in my research work until after some progress had been made. I would like to correct that impression. Mr. Best was with me from the first. The idea first came to me in November, 1920, while I was on the staff of Western University, London, Ontario. In May, 1921, Mr. Best and I made the first experiments, and we have been working together ever since.

"While the idea undoubtedly is mine, Mr. Best must have equal credit for the success we have attained."

Mr. Best is a young Canadian, 23 years of age, holding his M. A. from the University of Toronto, and with three years more study before him in medicine.

As a means of investment, he emphasized especially the need for the right kind of Englishman to come to Canada. Britain had 10,000,000 people too many.

"We have people in England who can be of agricultural, domestic and mechanical help to Canada. This is the type that should be encouraged," he concluded.

A happy incident of the luncheon was the toasting of President Robert Fleming on the 41st anniversary of his marriage, and the luncheoners lustily sang, "For he's a jolly good fellow."

RACING AVIATORS REACH GLASGOW

CROYDON, England, Sept. 8.—

Thirteen of twenty-two aviators who today started a race around the British Isles have reached Glasgow, Scotland, where they will rest for the night. Three other starters were forced to make landings at various points, owing to engine or other troubles, or did not proceed beyond Newcastle, the landing stage before Glasgow. Among the latter was a machine entered by Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary of state for the colonies.

Princess Loewenstein-Wertheim, who, although 68 years old, entered a machine and accompanied its pilot during the flight, was among those reaching Glasgow.

The loss is estimated at $22,000 with some insurance on the elevators.

Husband and Wife Nearly Dead With CHOLERA

The chief symptoms of cholera are vomiting and purgings occur either simultaneously or alternately, and are usually sudden and very violent, and the matter ejected from the stomach has a bilious appearance and a nasty bitter taste.

On the first symptoms appearing, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be taken, and the trouble checked before it becomes serious.

Mrs. Isaac Smith, Campbellton, N. B., writes: "We have been using Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for cholera. My husband and I were pretty nearly dead with it until we started to use your medicine, and thanks to it, we have found great relief, and are recommending it to all our friends."

77 years reputation stands behind "Dr. Fowler's," therefore you are not experimenting with some new and untried remedy when you get it.

CLAIM PANACEA IN IMMIGRATION FOR BAD TIMES

Associated Boards of Trade Urge Importing of Farm Laborers.

PLAN ACTIVE PROPAGANDA

Look To Northern Europe To Secure More Agricultural Workers.

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—That for business a sane immigration policy would be a panacea for many of its ills was indicated today when representatives of boards of trade in all parts of Ontario met in conference in the Toronto board of trade rooms and endorsed the principle of importing into this country all the farm labor that could be secured, and of encouraging the supply by advertising and by representatives abroad.

By this policy, it was reasoned, the country's unemployment problem could be solved, the increased population causing a brisker demand for the manufactured goods produced by Canadian industries.

The beliefs of the boards of trade will, as a result of a decision of the conference, be elaborated by a committee into a series of resolutions which will be considered at the meeting of the Ontario Associated Boards of Trade to be held on September 21 in Owen Sound.

If approved there, they will be forwarded to the federal and provincial governments, and active propaganda to insure that they be acted upon will be instituted.

Today's meeting was undertaken at the instance of the Hamilton chamber of commerce, with the assistance of the Toronto board of trade, to arouse interest throughout the province and the country generally in the subject of immigration.

The provincial minister of agriculture, Hon. Manning Doherty, and W. C. Noxon, agent-general for Ontario in London, were present and outlined

Members of Former Kaiser's Family Strongly Opposed To His Marriage

DOORN, HOLLAND, Sept. 8.—Members of the family of former Emperor William and of his entourage strongly oppose his marriage to Princess Hermine of Reuss, widow of Prince Johan of Schoenaich-Carolath, and are hopeful of being successful in preventing the union. It is understood that the presence here of former Crown Prince William is connected with this opposition.

The correspondent saw the former emperor today walking near his chateau accompanied by the princess. They were in animated conversation. The princess is a tall handsome woman. She is a blonde with an abundant head of hair.

LONDONER DROWNS NEAR WROXETER

Mrs. J. D. Miller Takes Her Own Life Following Attack of Despondency.

Special to London Advertiser.

WROXETER, Sept. 8.—Mrs. J. D. Miller of London committed suicide by drowning at the home of her brother-in-law, David Hicks of Howick Township Thursday morning. Deceased, who was the elder daughter of the late Charles and Mrs. Wilson of Howick, was of a particularly bright and cheerful disposition and had always taken an active part in church and institute work and in the welfare of the community of Morris Township, where she lived from the time of her marriage until her removal to Listowel and later to London two years ago.

It is believed the shock of the death of her only daughter ten months ago and the continued serious illness of her husband caused her mind to become unbalanced.

She is survived by her husband, who is critically ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. Snell, one son, Andrew, two brothers, Samuel of Godrich, Dr. Wilson, Guelph, and a sister, Mrs. D. Hicks, who have sincere sympathy in their sorrow. The funeral will take place to the Wroxeter Cemetery Saturday afternoon.

WILL CONDUCT GOSPEL TENT AT WESTERN FAIR

An interdenominational gospel tent at the fair will be conducted by Evangelist Billy Matheson. All ministers are welcome to come and assist and speak. Good singing and sermons will be held from 2 to 9 p. m.

The tent is also used for a rest room and all may feel welcome to come in and go out at any time during the day or evening. The tent last year was a wonderful success. Ministers from the different churches kindly came and helped and the Salvation Army came and gave a very fine meeting, bringing their band. Evangelists and missionaries from other cities were present and these meetings were enjoyed and appreciated by the lovers of the truth. Thousands of tracts were given out by the workers at the door of the tent.

The Best Guide To Piano Purchasers

Knowledge that comes to you through other people's experience should be your guide. In purchasing something to last a lifetime, you cannot afford to cast aside the information, advice and experience of those who are enlightened through THE TEST OF TIME.

In selecting a Piano for your home, profit by the knowledge of those who have tested the Mason & Risch Piano during many years. You will find the Mason & Risch owners enthusiastic concerning their pianos—you'll find them pleased, proud and satisfied. The longer they have had their pianos the greater their satisfaction. It differs from other makes—excels them in point of tonal excellence and durability.

Visit us at the Exhibition or at our store, and be guided by what you see and hear.

When you visit the Exhibition, come, see and listen to the musical performance of the Mason & Risch Grand Pianos, Upright Pianos and Player-Pianos.

You will then come to the conclusion that the Mason & Risch Instruments are all you can demand of a Piano—that it is perfectly logical and natural that music lovers show unmistakable favor for the Mason & Risch. BECAUSE: Delving straight to the heart of GOOD music, it is logical that you should demand piano quality, which spells the difference between the ORDINARY and the EXCEPTIONAL.

The Mason & Risch Phonograph

Another instrument that will yield royal returns in pure joy and delight. The Mason & Risch Phonograph offers a priceless privilege, the privilege of hearing at will, in one's own home, the music of the world's great masters, the voices of its best singers, and listening to the immortal performances of music's own immortals! Due to its advanced scientific construction, it produces rich, deep, natural tones, and will play your favorite music with all the swing you could desire, sympathetically and brilliantly.

If you do not possess such Phonograph, come and get one. There is no better way of hearing in your own home the world's best music as with a Mason & Risch Phonograph and a collection of Records such as we keep in stock in great abundance.

Canada's Finest Player-Piano

People do not buy the Mason & Risch Player-Piano nowadays simply as a matter of course, nor yet merely because it is the proper thing to have a Piano in the home; but for the important reason that the possession of one of these glorious instruments makes it possible for everyone to play, and render music in the manner and style of a finished artist in piano-playing.

Just think what this means in the hitherto musicless or semi-musicless home—being able to render all the works of the classics, and in a masterly manner.

One of the most unique features of the Mason & Risch Player-Piano is that it has overcome all the mechanical and automatic tendencies so predominant in other and poorer player-pianos, and there is NOTHING left but what is thoroughly human, thoroughly satisfying.

Small Monthly Payments Will Soon Make You the Owner of Any Instrument You May Wish To Possess

You can own a Mason & Risch Piano, Player-Piano or Phonograph for a partial payment at the time you select the instrument. There is no set rule as to payments—some buy for Cash, while others who can well afford to pay cash take the partial payment plan, feeling that the accommodation is a worthwhile privilege. Some dispose of the cost with a few large payments, while others make the payments small and spread them over a period of time. Our idea is that a man's CHARACTER is worth MORE to us than his Cash on hand.

When you desire to purchase Sheet Music, Music Books, a Guitar or a Banjo, a Violin, a Mouthorgan, a Drum, a Clarinet, Flute or Piccolo, do not go shopping to find it. Come to our store, 248 Dundas Street. We have it.

Professor Kalani

(A Native Hawaiian), a Teacher of Violin, Guitar and Ukelele, will give FIVE free lessons to any of our customers buying String Instruments.

DID we hear any person have anything to say about the visitors to the Fair that they are expecting in their home next week? Now, don't go ahead and try to look gloomy because some person is going to stay a bit with you next week. And for our part we're not going to crack any of the old jokes about the city man sleeping out on the road to the garage because the house is full to the gables of exhibition visitors.

Be fair about the thing. Haven't we sent our youngsters off to the farm for the holidays? Of course, we assured the folks out there that the dear little things wouldn't be any trouble at all, and that the oldest of them would be able to help around a little with the chores. Yes, we promised all these things, knowing all the time full well that none of the young crew ever turned a hand at work, nor would they when turned out on a 10-acre farm.

And then a couple of times during the season you dropped in when driving out that way, and you stayed for a meal or two when the season was the busiest, and the last time you were out you filled the back of the car with harvest apples.

So now don't you dare try and make a martyr of yourself because some folks from the district are going to make headquarters at your home while they take in the sights at the greatest fair in Western Ontario.

So come on, folks, visit your friends and relatives in London. You're welcome.

After We're Gone.

THE young king of Siam, Maha Vajiravudh, marries his cousin, Princess Lakshi Lavan. One wife is enough, says he, abolishing the custom of maintaining a royal harem.

This is a big sensation in the orient. For the old king, Maha's father, had 300 wives.

Human nature being about the same all over the world, the Siamese taxpayers probably are glad to see the harem expire.

"This new king," you reflect, "must be a progressive chap with modern ideas. He is enlightened."

King Maha's abolishment of the royal harem illustrates vividly the great changes that come as one generation goes to the graveyard and a new generation takes its place.

What with the world war and all, the present generation has made a frightful botch of its job.

Men have walled themselves into a bad situation. They run about, like caged animals, seeking an exit. Every day some quack steps forth in the field of economics and sociology with a new "cure-all." He claims he has the magic medicine that will bring rest and peace out of unrest and war.

All this attempt to stabilize conditions is commendable. But the probability is that the big problems will be solved by the rising generation. The man who falls into a well is not usually pulled out by himself.

The world's hope is in the youngsters who are marching through school days to take up where we leave off. They are going to inherit big problems. And they are going to solve them, for they will get on the job with fresh energy and a new viewpoint.

Naturally, it would be foolish for us to lie down and quit cold, letting problems grow worse until youngsters grow up. But the hope of civilization is unquestionably in the boys and girls returning to school. The best way to solve our problems is to make those boys and girls as efficient, sensible and straight-thinking as lies within our power.

The Prison Preacher.

THERE were plenty of applicants when it became known that the position of chaplain of Kingston Penitentiary was likely to become vacant.

The Brookville Recorder believes that there would be a certain amount of comfort in preaching to a congregation that is regular in attendance, never goes to sleep, comes in and goes out quietly, and no collection or list of announcements to make after the sermon.

Apart from these features, why should a preacher not like to tackle such a proposition?

Here are some hundreds of men, some of them fair, others better, others worse, some positively bad. They have all of them blundered along until they got into the hands of the law. Going their own stride they have mused things up.

Locked up, they can do one of two things: (1) resolve to make a try for something better, or (2) spend their time planning how they can perfect past blunders, so they can break the law without getting caught.

He probably has in church some who are not on speaking terms with other members of the same church. Don't look shocked, because this very thing happens time and again. In a prison most of the men would at least be friends. The same key locks them all in, so there is the fellowship of bondage.

Then in prison when the men sing, they do so because they want to. You may say they don't realize the beauty of the gospel songs, but we reply that it's as good as a person singing in a church because there's five or ten dollars a Sunday in it.

Then the prison congregation is not composed of sermon tasters and theological hair-splitters. They would probably prefer their preacher to talk straight from the shoulder, and go easy on time killing.

Nor would the prison preacher be in danger of driving the rich people from his congregation if he happened to boil over some day in speaking of the inequalities that attend the distribution of wealth.

Chances are when the jail congregation heard such words, they would break the silence of the room by a hearty "Amen," for, no doubt, many of them are there by reason of their ill-advised attempts to equalize the possession of this world's goods.

Also the matter of taking up the collection has been mentioned. The prison parson would not be called upon to explain that contributions were needed, nor would he have to sit and look wise while the plates were being passed. It must be a bit embarrassing at times for him to know what to do while this is going on.

So all said and done, why shouldn't preachers want a chance to take on a jail position? The man who is burning up with a real message in his heart might look a long time and find a poorer place to work.

Uncertainty.

RESCUE parties have been working for almost two weeks at the Argonaut mine at Jackson, Cal., in relentless and desperate efforts to force a way through to the place where 47 miners are entombed.

For that length of time families and friends of the miners have lived on suspense. There has been nothing to indicate that the men are still alive.

At times some of the workers have reported distant tappings, and urged on by these faint beckonings, efforts have been doubled. But these tappings may be only the trick of an expectant imagination, as the most delicate little instrument known, the geophone, capable of registering the slightest sound at 2,000 feet, remains silent, and its continued silence only piles more evidence against the long-held hopes of loved ones that rescuers may still break through before gas, starvation or physical injury has completed the victory of death, so surely started on the day of the explosion.

Those who live well removed from mining districts can sympathize with these people, but we cannot fathom the darkness that enshrouds their souls, nor can we pierce the unspoken fear that grips the heart. Men working at these callings know they face hazards. The wife and mother knows that the husband and son are in danger of some sort every day. Careful management and good engineering have minimized the danger, and it comes to be all taken as part of the day's work.

But when word comes from the pit mouth that something is wrong below—when gas-masked men can make descent only with great difficulty—when rescuers can stand it for just a quarter or a half hour at a time—then it is that those who crowd around the spot where the men are accustomed to come from the bowels of the earth at quitting time start to suffer the anguish of uncertainty and live through the horrors of hope pitted against fear.

A mine disaster is, perhaps, the worst of all mishaps. Passages known to the men become clogged, or the breaking down of ventilation systems makes them deadly to travel. In cases of fire, fed by dust, the life-giving qualities are burned out of the air, leaving only the rank poison to creep on through the passages and pick up its victims one by one.

It is quite easy to recall a scene at the entrance to a shaft in Western Canada, where a blow-out had occurred a day or so previously. Some of the women of the community had been at the pit mouth ever since, refusing to leave. They were not hysterical—simply determined to stay to get the first word. Time and time again would the phrase be used, "Oh, if we only knew." And that is the same experience and the same desire that the women and children at the mine in California have been living through for the last two weeks. To them it has been well-nigh an eternity of time.

They may take those 47 miners out of the ground alive, but weak and limp—and again, they may take 47 dead men from the pit.

God pity and comfort the folks who watch at the pit mouth for the outcome of the battle against time and adverse circumstances.

Business.

SOMEONE has likened running a business to riding a bicycle—must keep going in both cases.

Some few tricksters can stand still on a wheel, but then they have these chaps dressed in pink tights and charge money to see them.

And after a while folks get tired looking at them, and they have to turn to something else.

Same way with business. Some stores have good stocks and right prices, but they have no wind in their tires.

Another has a good assortment, but he forgets to put his feet on the

SATURDAY NIGHT! Saturday Night!

All over the country the lights twinkle bright, And down in the village or up in the city The girls look uncommonly charming and pretty; Their escorts are manicured, shaved and arrayed In quite the best clothes they can buy ready-made. They're living each moment with fervor intense, They're out for a frolic—and darn the expense. On Monday their pockets will surely be light, But then they can plan for next Saturday Night!

SATURDAY NIGHT! Saturday Night!

Throughout all our week-days we keep it in sight. The night we can play with no thought of the morning (On Sunday no strident alarm rings a warning); The night that the family piles in the parlour; And goes to the place where the frivolous are; The night after payday—the night when we dance, And blow in our surplus—and next week's perchance; Oh, night of all nights to the hardworking wight, Saturday Night! Saturday Night!

Advertising, Mr. Merchant, is the wind in your tires and the feet on the pedals.

It helps get the thing under way, gets the motion and momentum you need to make the business move.

It's safer to run your business that way than try to be a trick rider standing still.

LITTLE 'TISERS

The seven-year itch has broken out in a Russian town. 1929 is a long way off.

Travel does seem to broaden some people, while others come home as skinny as ever.

Skirts may grow long, but as long as there's mice in the country they may often get shorter.

Now that school is on again, London small boys' necks imagine every day is Saturday night.

Alfred Sze, Chinese minister to the U. S., has returned from Europe. If we knew him well we'd rather call him Alf.

Some places seem to get all the lucky breaks. Here was a landlord in Detroit who owns 36 houses missing at the end of the month.

Love makes the world go round. But the office boy holds that the same effect can be produced by hitting a man on the head with a hammer.

Chap dropped in today and gave us the name and address of a place where a bit of liquor can be had. We're not mentioning the address, because it would spoil Saturday trade for the stores in town.

A new habit in France causes girls to wear green ribbons when they want to marry. Likewise in this land a young man with such a notion gets his pants creased and puts perfume on his handkerchief.

JAMES N. Dobb, governor of the county jail at Sarnia, is 64 years old, yet he was able, single handed, to handle a man in his prime who was about to escape from jail. That's the kind of stuff governors and officials of jails should be made of.

Doctors say a good breakfast is good for you. Quite right. In the well-regulated house the man comes down early and puts on the water for the mush, pulls in the milk bottles from the back steps, then dresses, thus getting his mind on his stomach before he is thoroughly awake.

A financial statement presented at the meeting of Stratford Council the other night showed an overdraft of $13,884. It is a good idea to have such a statement presented at intervals, so that the public in general, whose money is being handled, may know where the finances really stand. If there is an overdraft, and the people know it, they may be a little more lenient in the demands they make calling for an expenditure of public money.

A good many Western Ontario people who visited Toronto exhibition felt a glow of pride when they came across the well-arranged "Made in Stratford" exhibit. Stratford certainly did itself proud in carrying its "Made in Stratford" idea into the larger area of national exhibitions. No doubt the idea will be followed up by other places, but it must be handed to Stratford that it was the pioneer in an enterprising and successful innovation.

The businessmen of Grimsby have united in sending out a suggestion to other towns of the province that a combined effort be made by the chambers of commerce and boards of trade to petition the government to have some modification made in the act which prevents municipalities from granting money bonuses to industries locating within their borders. Some towns may possibly fall in with the suggestion, says the St. Marys Journal, but most Ontario towns, owing to very unfortunate experiences in the granting of money bonuses, will be inclined to thank the Dnrvy government for the passing of the act referred to.

The police commissioners met in Magistrate Parke's room at the police station this morning. Those present were E. Jones Parke, Q.C., Judge William Elliot and Mayor Little. The mayor brought up the patrol wagons and ambulances, and advanced the opinion that the hospital ambulance might be kept with advantage at the police station. Chief Williams, when asked his opinion, said the scheme was impracticable for obvious reasons. Nothing was done in the matter.

DR. BISHOP'S ADVICE

DUST AND DISEASE

BY DR. R. H. BISHOP.

If you have ever looked at dust through a microscope you undoubtedly realize its danger as a disease carrier.

In addition to germs, it may contain tiny solids that stretch and tear the lungs and respiratory tract, as well as other substances that may poison and produce disease in the system.

The analysis of dust discloses such things as bits of hair, parts of dead flies, grains of sand, fragments of wood and paper, pieces of string and of finger nails, shreds of leather and rags, horsehair, straw and tufts of fur.

Imagine breathing all this into your lungs! Dust is held responsible for many cases of tuberculosis. Drying kills many germs, but not those of tuberculosis. Sunlight is a cure for some germs but it cannot be depended upon always.

The shaking of carpets is a great menace to health. The rug is gradually replacing the tacked-down carpet but some people still stick to the latter. In such cases the carpet is taken up and shaken once or twice a year at housecleaning time. Nevertheless, they retain quantities of dirt and, incidentally, many germs. Even in homes where the most cleanly habits prevail, sneezing and coughing may infect the carpets, or dirt from the street or back yard may be tracked into the house on shoes.

Bacteria in the air are not necessarily harmful, yet great accumulations of them on fruit or foods are liable to prove a serious menace to health, and it is here the danger lies. Care should be taken to guard foods from dust and street filth.

Told the Truth.

IT is not pleasant and profitable to always speak the plain truth in the columns of the newspaper. Men who have tried this heretofore have always come to grief. Only a few days ago the editor of a paper in Indiana grew tired of being called a liar, and announced that he would tell the truth in the future, and the next issue contained the following news notes:

"John Banin, the laziest merchant in town, made a trip to Belleville yesterday."

"John Coyle, our grocery man, is doing a poor business. His store is dirty and dusty; how can he do much?"

"Rev. Styx preached last Sunday night on 'Charity.' The sermon was puny."

"Dave Sonkey died at his home in this place. The doctor gave it out as heart failure. Whiskey killed him."

"Married—Miss Sylvan Rhodes and James Conlin, last Saturday at the Baptist parsonage. The bride is a very ordinary girl, who doesn't know any more about cooking than a jack-rabbit does, and never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means, and has a gait like a duck. The groom is an up-to-date loafer. He's been living off the old folks all his life and is not worth shucks. It will be a hard life."

"The governor of our state, a very ordinary man, and who was elected by accident, was here yesterday. He has very few friends here now. He promised some of the voters of this precinct 'a piece of the pie' in event of his election, but had forgotten all about it when the time to hand over the little office rolled around."

The paper had no sooner reached the public than a committee was sent to the editor bearing a petition asking him to continue in the good old way, and stating that they believed him to be a truthful, honest man.

READ YOUR CHARACTER

By Digby Phillips.

NO. 318—WHEN TO TALK MECHANICS.

It is the motive type of man or woman (mostly man) who is most interested in mechanical subjects.

You readily recognize him as of the active, muscular type, not only by his build and movements, but by the shape of his face, which is the sort that most people would describe as "square."

As was mentioned in a previous article, characterology won't tell you whether he is more interested in football or golf, carpentry or structural steel problems, but you only need to glance at such a man to know that he will not listen very sympathetically to any discussion of literature, art, lectures, sociology, language and the like. He may not be materialistic in his ideals, but he certainly is in his ordinary habits of thought.

That one glance tells you that he is inevitably the type of man who likes to see the wheels go around, who has action, who has the mechanical turn of mind, and the best way to interest him is to give him practical demonstrations. Show him models, pictures, diagrams. If you can't do anything better take out your pencil and draw a diagram for him.

Or talk golf, boxing, baseball or any popular sport. You'll find him more than normally interested in manufacturing problems—the mechanical side of them.

LEARN A WORD EVERY DAY

TODAY'S word is—INCOMMUNICABLE.

It's pronounced—een-co-moon-i-kah-do, with accent on the fifth syllable.

It means—cut off from communication, and, as adopted recently into newspaper English, invariably applies to police detention of a prisoner who is denied the privilege of communication with friends, counsel or others except those interested in the case against him.

It was "lifted" bodily from the Spanish "incomunicado," meaning "isolated," or "without communication."

It's used like this—"The holding by the police of unconvicted prisoners incommunicado (often incorrectly spelled 'incommunicado') while long practiced in Latin countries, is in gross violation of the captive's rights in all lands where Anglo-Saxon law prevails."

EATING AT FAIR BECOMES LIKE GOING TO PARTY

Eight Churches Enter Business With Festive Dining Halls.

Women's Societies Help To Make Exhibition Real Social Event.

The Western Fair has developed into a real social institution for the citizens of London and Western Ontario. No longer is it just a "show" or grand spectacle, made by the few for the many to gaze at. It's "of the people, for the people, by the people." The people have stepped in to do their part in making it a popular and a grand success. Even in certain cases, they expect to reap returns, they are none the less public benefactors.

Secretary A. M. Hunt, the busiest man in London these days, says so, anyway.

In no place is the socializing of the Western Fair more manifest than in the eating concessions. Remember the dining halls, the refreshment tents, the booths where the man pulled the taffy over a hook to a wondrous whiteness, were all mysterious unknowns, who came out of the nowhere once a year to feed the multitudes at the Western Fair?

Because there are so many hungry mortals to be supplied with food, of necessity there are still many of these capable birds of passage, but a new and growingly powerful factor is involved in the "feeding the fair" problem. The churches, the patriotic societies, various social organizations have stepped in to do their bit and augment their treasures.

Pioneers Stand Pat.

A dozen or so years ago the Women's Christian Temperance Union dauntlessly stood alone in the field in competition with the purely commercial enterprises. The W. C. T. U. dining hall has been an institution.

FRESH MUSHROOMS AND FROGS' LEGS ARE DELICIOUS

tion so many years that even prominent officers of long connection with it cannot remember when and how the idea first started. Certain church organizations, or congregations as a whole, looked upon the enterprise of the W. C. T. U. to emulate it. The war needs gave a big impetus to such ventures on the part of Red Cross, I. O. D. E. chapters and other patriotic service organizations. This year no less than eight churches or church societies will have dining halls or refreshment booths, while the Campbell Becher Chapter, I. O. D. E., is preparing for a mammoth campaign in serving ice cream foundation "coolers," from the vantage ground of a big section of the second floor of the main building.

The Overseas Chapter, I. O. D. E., is taking charge of the directors' luncheons, and, as everybody has been expecting, the W. C. T. U. will be doing business in the same old corner, a large dining hall under the grandstand.

Ranking in size with the W. C. T. U. hall are the dining-rooms of Hamilton Road Presbyterian Church, Hyatt Avenue Methodist and the Latter Day Saints. Chalmers Presbyterian Church, Knox Church Women's Association, Ridout Street Methodist, St. David's and All Saints are also serving meals, if on a less extensive scale.

So far as denominations are concerned, the Presbyterian apparently leads in business enterprises, with three local congregations represented. The Church of England and the Methodist body each have two churches on the right side of the broad line.

Run "Human Repair Shop."

But the socializing of the Western Fair by no means ends with establishing clean, inviting luncheons and dining halls that have a "being at a party" atmosphere. A "touch of the sun," a stubbing of the toe, which brings to grief an accident, great or small, no longer involves being rushed away from the fascinating grounds to doctor, home or hospital. If the casualty is something to talk about afterwards, a stretcher is liable to arrive in short order, on which the victim is whisked away to receive deft first aid or necessary medical attention at the emergency hospital, next-door neighbor to the executive offices. A substantial fence even has been erected, with a generous lawn inside, much more effective than all the "please" signs in the world to keep back curious humanity from smothering the sufferer.

Staffing the hospital is No. 25, Lord Kitchener Nursing Division, St. John Ambulance Association, with Miss Georgina Hoffman officer in command throughout the exhibition. Miss Ella Davis, the lady superintendent of the nursing division, and Mrs. J. B. McKillop, her superior officer, lady superintendent for Western Ontario, were out to inspect and give assistance both Thursday and Friday. The local men's brigades assist in the evening.

Monday Mrs. R. Waugh, Mrs. George Stark, Mrs. F. Day and Mrs. Cecily will take charge, with Mrs. Dunlevy directing. Tuesday the assistant conveners will be Mesdames Albert Webb, R. Brown, T. MacDonald, F. Dowell and Wentworth Dowell, when it is expected the usual mid-week mammoth crowds will be enlisted to assist with checking wraps, etc. On Thursday Mrs. W. DISCUSS PROGRAMS FOR ENSUING YEAR

Union Mothers' Club Executive Favor Definite Help For Child Welfare.

Many familiar faces were missing and many new ones seen at the meeting Thursday evening in the Technical School, which marked the launching of activities for the coming year by the London Union Mothers' Club executive. This condition of affairs was due to the elections held at the last meetings before school closed by the individual clubs. Business of the evening included the consideration of suggestions sent in for programs for the year by the various clubs, the appointment of committees, discussion regarding aid for child welfare work, and an instructive feature, made most amusing, a sketch of a model meeting, presented by Mrs. W. A. Tanner and Mrs. C. K. Buett, the sketch showing how things should not be done. The point emphasized was the importance of a knowledge of parliamentary procedure in conducting meetings. The courtesy as well as desirability of giving proper consideration to the speaker of the evening was brought out by introducing Mrs. J. A. Cole as speaker after everything else possible had been done. Laughter greeted Mrs. Cole's statement that, owing to the lateness of the hour, she would speak on some later occasion.

The question of each club having its own constitution patterned, however, not to conflict with the constitution of the Union Club, was recommended. The subject was also introduced of revising the Union Mothers' Club constitution, and, with Mrs. John Gemmell as convener, a committee to look into this was appointed, consisting of Mesdames J. A. Cole, W. J. Carson and W. A. Tanner. Concerning definite work in connection with the Child Welfare Association, the view was voiced that possibly the purchase of a car to facilitate the work of the nurses would be the most valuable service that could be rendered.

The following committees were named:

Social hygiene, Mrs. E. Fellow and Mrs. B. F. Bright; citizenship, Mrs. John A. Rose, president, and the two secretaries, Mrs. H. W. Paddell and Mrs. T. C. Benson; representatives to social service council, Mesdames J. A. Rose, E. Fellow, B. F. Bright, J. J. Goodman and H. Winnett.

The following were the subjects suggested for monthly programs to be adopted or rejected as the individual clubs desire:

1. Self-respect and respect for others, elders and other people's property, submitted from Ryerson Club by Mrs. W. A. Tanner.
2. Adolescent act.
3. New high school curriculum, to give parents a better insight into the opportunities of courses, submitted by Mrs. Irwin of Broughdale Club.
4. Our duty to our community.
5. Value of time.
6. Canadian citizens of the future.
7. Value of music to the child, supervisor of music, E. W. G. Quantz, to introduce the subject in each school.
8. Special classes for special children, suggested by Mrs. William Hignam, St. George's Mothers' Club.
9. Use and misuse of the holiday period.
10. Club spirit.
11. How to get all mothers of the districts interested in their clubs.
12. My child's idea, suggested by Mrs. McKay, Tecumseh Mothers' Club.
13. What books our children should read, Victoria Mothers' Club, on suggestion of Principal E. H. McKone.

Mrs. John A. Rose, president, outlined the summer work of the Union Club, including visit of inspection to playgrounds, and drawing of prizes for the closing exercises of these. The first quarterly meeting will be held Oct. 16. The executive will meet every two months, the next meeting to take place Nov. 4.

Premier King Unable To Come Now.

HON. WILLIAM LYON MACKENZIE KING will in all probability speak to the London Women's Canadian Club during the coming season, some time after the end of October. Following the meeting of the executive, held Thursday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. F. W. Hughes, to discuss the program for the season, a wire was sent to Mr. Mackenzie King to invite him to give the opening address of the season. He expressed his regret that he could not do so, owing to the fact it would be impossible for him to make any more engagements until after the end of October. Should he be in the vicinity of London any time subsequent to that, he stated, he would let the club know, and be pleased to arrange for a meeting.

Amongst the practical certainties, so far as the speakers are concerned, is Walter McRaye, the brilliant orator and literary interpreter, who delighted the club last year. He is making a coast to coast tour, giving a mixed program of Canadian authors, and will be available for the end of September.

Mrs. F. W. Hughes, the president, was appointed a delegate to attend the conference of Associated Canadian Clubs in Hamilton next week, with Mrs. W. G. R. Bartram as alternate.

WITH BRIDES

ALEXANDER-SEYMOUR.
A pretty September wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 339 Dundas street, when Muriel Seymour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cunningham, was united in marriage to Mr. Chester James Alexander of Brantford, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Alexander of Ailsa Craig. Rev. J. E. Holmes of Stratford, uncle of the bride, officiated.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white charmeuse satin. Her embroidered veil fell from a bandeau of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of sunset roses and wore a rope of pearls with diamond clasp, the gift of the groom.

During the wedding luncheon some very happy and pleasant responses to toasts were enjoyed.

The bride went away in a blue canton crepe dress, sand crepe and water velvet hat. On return from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Alexander will reside in Brantford.

RESURRECTION ROCK

by Edwin Palmer
Little, Brown and Company

So alarming was the consequence of this that Bennet could not at once realize it was simply a consequence. He jumped up in fright, imagining that his grandfather suddenly had suffered from a cramp or other physical seizure.

"Why, grandfather, you want some whiskey? I'll get you—"

Lucas controlled himself and stood up. "Indigestion," he mumbled. "Caviar here tonight. Go on, what else happened?"

When Bennet informed him that nothing else had happened at the scene, he thought for a while that his grandson was concealing something, but at last he satisfied himself that he knew all, and he went to his room.

For Lucas never did anything at all at Galilee except meet James Quinn there and there direct J. Q. to the dead that was to be done. It was marvelous how, throughout the 45 years which had passed since that meeting, Lucas had carried consciousness of his own guilt always associated with the place of meeting.

"Natural enough," Lucas muttered to himself. "Galilee? He had not known that Quinn had done so, too. He had supposed that Quinn had lived out his life with a different association. And yet this was natural enough."

"Natural enough," Lucas muttered to himself. "Galilee? He had not known that Quinn had done so, too. He had supposed that Quinn had lived out his life with a different association. And yet this was natural enough."

That was a staggerer for Lucas, who had acted upon the simple and effective formula that dead men tell no tales. "Galilee and a flaming torch," Lucas winced and swung back to his window. So old J. Q., though dead, had told? How could Lucas shut up a ghost?

An idea, half formed, seized him; and he stood staring at it, progressed in his mind, and he laughed. In a reaction, it revolted himself; he discarded it; but it came back to him, more convincingly, more complete, and it promised him triumph.

It was after nine the next morning before Ethel awoke, and then it was so delightful to lie in bed, dreaming over the hours of the evening, that she made no stir, and it was ten when a maid knocked at her door. She answered joyously, "Someone for me?"

"Yes, Miss Carew. Mr. Lucas Cullen, your grandfather."

Ethel hastened down and found her grandfather, with his overcoat on and holding his hat in his gloved hand, standing in the center of the drawing-room and gazing critically about.

"You little fool!" he accused her, commiseratingly. "Can't you feel even when your own flesh and blood tries to protect you?"

"From what, grandfather?"

"Had it ever occurred to you that the reason your father never came to his house was that he couldn't?"

"No," Ethel said.

"Think over it a minute."

"Why?"

"Why wouldn't I have him there? He couldn't tell you, I wouldn't. I thought I'd never have to; but you've forced me. This fellow you call Loutrelle. "You believe that your father—so Bennet's been telling me—got in touch with this fellow called Loutrelle after your father died? That started your interest in him?"

"Yes."

"Why do you suppose your father did that? Why did he pick him, I mean?"

"Why—why, grandfather; he was going to meet me. Father knew that, some way—"

"Tomfoolery! Look here, your father was killed, and after he was dead—so you think—he tried to talk to this Loutrelle. So let's just take your own information; your father's spirit, the first thing after he was dead, goes about looking for a fellow named Barney Loutrelle. Now, spirits for those closest to 'em, don't they?"

"Why, usually, grandfather."

"Well, what makes you think this is an exception?"

Ethel shrank back, comprehending less his words than the ugliness of his question.

"What do you mean?" she demanded.

"Well, who more natural for a father to seek than his son?"

"My father!" Ethel said. "You're talking about my father?"

"Before he was your father. I knew him. He was about St. Florian quite a little in the old days—quite a little! You may remember I would not have him marry my daughter. So they ran off. I knew—there was a girl to go to Resurrection Rock."

Ethel flung herself at him and with her little fists clenched tight she pummeled him on the chest. "You lie—you lie—you lie! My father, you lie—you lie—"

He caught her fists and held her brutally before him. He saw that he had not at all convinced her; but he had not expected simply by this statement of the false before combining it with what was true. He was too old and shrewd in experience to fail to know how a truth told may carry with it a lie.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES

HURRY, SAID THE MAN, LET'S GET STARTED. THE SHERIFF REPLIED THAT HE FELT PRETTY STIFF FROM BEING TIED UP SO LONG, BUT I'LL BE ALL RIGHT IN A MINUTE, HE SAID, THEN THEY JOINED THE OTHERS.

THE ROAD THEY FOLLOWED LED THEM OVER HILLY MOUNTAINOUS RANGES. JACK FORGOT THE CHASE FOR A MOMENT TO ADMIRE THE WONDERFUL SCENERY. THE CHASE CONTINUES IN THE NEXT CHAPTER.

JACK LED THE MEN BACK TOWARDS WHERE THE SHERIFF WAS TIED AT A RAPID CLIP HE KNEW THE POSTER WAS OUTNUMBERED BY THE BANDIT'S MEN, AND HE WONDERED WHAT THE OUTCOME WOULD BE.

THE SHERIFF WAS SURPRISED AT JACK'S QUICK WORK, AND PRIZED THE LITTLE ADVENTURER HIGHLY TO HIS MEN. THEN ONE OF THE POSTER CUT THE ROPES THAT BOUND THE OLD FELLOW TO THE TREE.

shoulder. "What was he telling to you? Oh, you must tell me; he said Mrs. Cullen—"

"Nothing about her now!" Ethel cried. "I mean, he was talking about her long ago. But—but—suddenly she collapsed in the housekeeper's arms. 'I'm going away,' home to Wyoming, Mrs. Wain. You must help me off. And if Mr. Loutrelle calls for me or telephones, I cannot appear to him. I can't see him! Perhaps—perhaps I can write. I must never meet him again!"

CHAPTER XVI.

Radio Radiations

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 9.

The world's greatest radio business is being conducted by the United States navy.

Facts and figures given out by naval officials here show an increased volume of messages among the department's radio stations, which they say surpasses the business of any other country or corporation on earth.

A world-wide Imperial Radio Chain is being contemplated by Great Britain and will be a competitor.

The immensity of the naval radio service may be imagined from the fact that the department has more than $25,000,000 invested in this undertaking. More than 8,000,000 words are transmitted monthly. Besides its own official business, the navy does $10,000,000 worth of commercial radio business annually.

Covers Globe.

This naval radio business extends to all parts of the earth, over land and sea—and into the air. For each naval airplane also has a complete transmitting and receiving set by which it can communicate with its ship or land station or with other airplanes.

Along both our coasts and at points on our island possessions are naval radio compass stations which from a chain of safety for ships at sea. There are more than 50 of these stations, all built up within the last three years.

By furnishing bearings to ships approaching the coast, these stations have helped considerably in saving lives, time and property. It is during foggy weather, or stormy seas, that a vessel seeking port finds the aid of the naval compass station most beneficial. For lying off port until the fog lifts or the storm calms means an expense of at least $500 to the ship owner.

Fleet Link.

For the fleet, radio is an essential link. Emergencies, manoeuvres and all sorts of utility work come under the direct orders of the naval department—by means of radio. There are some 650 naval ship stations, 102 naval airplane stations and 180 shore stations—all of which are joined together by radio. These stations are all over the globe.

Powerful stations they are, too. The station at The Presidio, near San Francisco, is one of the finest in the world. The first high-power continuous wave station was built by the U. S. navy in the Canal Zone in 1914. During the war naval engineers put up what is one of the world's most powerful stations at Bordeaux, France. This station has since been turned over to France.

Cloth Coats So Alluring They Rival Furs

TWO STUNNING WINTER OUTFITS. AT THE LEFT, ONE OF THE NEW COATS OF BROWN WOOL, BANDED WITH BEAVER, AND A WINTER SUIT, ALSO OF BROWN, EMBROIDERED AND FUR TRIMMED.

BY MARIAN HALE.

NOW that you have done your fur coat shopping early and probably spent your dress income for several months ahead, along come the alluring cloth coats and suits.

They are so very attractive, they are sure to give you anxious moments and make you wonder if, after all, you bought wisely.

You will find much to delight you in the new suits and wraps. They have a suppleness of texture, richness of coloring and a variety of treatment that is amazing and appealing.

They achieve a general effect of grace and softness that makes them universally becoming.

Short Model Coats.

In coats there are many new short models of the sport variety, as well as the long straight-line coat and the flaring model.

Much has been predicted for the flaring coat, and since it presents a new silhouette many women will favor it for its novelty.

But the straight coat has been given so many decidedly novel features it will undoubtedly hold its own. We find it embroidered, stitched and combined with contrasting silks and velvets.

Frequently it is belted and slightly bloused and has the one-sided cabochon fastening, the newest feature.

Very wide fur collars and cuffs are used on these wraps, and frequently fancy and unusual sleeves add an odd touch.

The flaring coat is usually banded at the bottom with fur and cut with a narrow shoulder line.

Few Gay Linings.

One sees few gay linings this season. Usually they are of crepe de chine, matching the color of the coat. Plain rather than figured material is chosen.

Kolinsky, beaver, mole, caracul and Persian lamb, as well as the various foxes, are the pelts most frequently used in combination with cloth.

Suits are to be more popular this year than they have been since the reign of the one-piece frock.

One reason for the revival of interest in the suit is the new blouses. They are made of the most gorgeous materials, embroidered and beaded, and are so elaborate that they form a costume when worn with a suit skirt.

Silk sweaters and Russian over-blouses, plain and beaded, will be extensively shown for winter.

On the whole, you are facing one of the most decorative seasons of history.

SEEKS TO IMPROVE GARAGE WORKERS

There is an agitation on the part of some few garagemen, and perhaps a larger few than we know, towards improving the mechanical ability of the garage employee. The car owning public today is becoming somewhat sore at the class of service that it is getting from the average garage. A man takes his car into the garage to have it looked after, and in a great many cases the car comes out of the garage worse than when it went in. The trouble is due to the fact that a great many men are posing as auto mechanics who perhaps ought to be between the handles of a wheelbarrow. They know very little about a car, and their skill is only a bluff, so the car owner suffers.

Every Tom, Dick and Harry cannot fix a car. It requires a reasonable amount of skill. A car is a finely adjusted machine. Its construction represents the highest engineering skill in the world today, and when it is put in the hands of an inexperienced operator it is subjected to a considerable amount of abuse. It requires mechanical skill to put a car back in shape again, and the skill is not, in a great many cases, available.

It might not be a bad policy to have every auto mechanic, or at least a certain portion of the men, in a system of examination. We will admit make skilled people. Men may read in books sufficient to enable them to do the work required in a thorough manner. Examinations, however, would be a step toward bringing about a better class of garage mechanics who would give to the public the service to which the public is entitled. This better service would mean a better feeling in the business as a whole; it would make the car owner more satisfied, and there would be more cars purchased, and consequently more tires and accessories sold.

The Motor

Enjoyable Motoring

—that is absolutely free from care

THE Willys-Knight motor, highest development of the Knight sleeve-valve principle, delivers a smooth, ceaseless, silent flow of power, greater than the power of any other engine of its size and weight. Free from the troubles common to poppet valves, it turns carbon, that deadly enemy of most motors, into a friend and ally which builds up its power, so that it improves with use.

The car is especially designed to match the motor in long life and distinction. Its sturdy steel chassis beats off jolts and jars and holds the body permanently free from rattles and squeaks.

The Willys-Knight is fleet, comfortable, responsible—and a sound investment.

At no time have we had such a variety of models to choose from as we have at this season. Five different passenger models in the 490 line and the standard and special models of F. B.'s.

With the new improvements, the 490 models are really the ideal car. Owners' records have proved that Chevrolet models are giving from 29 to 39 miles per gallon, and the balance of their upkeep cost is comparatively small.

Little need be said for F. B. models. All who have seen the new Special Roadster and Touring car are delighted not only with the appearance, but the wonderful performance of these cars.

There is a closed model to meet any requirement. The five-passenger Sedan is ample for a family car. The four-passenger Coupe is convenient in case of company.

The Utility Two-Passenger Coupe is ideal for the salesman, doctor, or nurse. There is ample room for three passengers and a luggage compartment with a total space of fourteen cubic feet, ample to accommodate a steamer trunk and other baggage.

The closed models are all equipped with Fisher bodies, the same as supplied for cars costing two and three times the price of the Chevrolet.

LARGES CARE USING BRAKES OF AUTO

Excessive Pressure Sure To Waste Gasoline, Expert Drivers Find.

Many an automobile driver who seeks economy of operation and waits at his side because it is a "gas hog," has only himself to blame for the heavy consumption of fuel and oil.

A common fault which cuts down gasoline mileage is the excessive use of the brakes, which only serves to make the motor use more energy in fighting against this contracting force.

The brake should be used to slow the car down when it is necessary, and the driver should watch his road, so that the car will slow down of its own momentum, which in the great majority of cases can be done without the use of the brakes. When the brakes are applied the motor is going at a certain speed, and that was obtained by the speed of the motor, which was dependent on the amount of gasoline consumed.

Now, if the driver had been watching the road when he must have slowed down at the place, and could have eased out his clutch, allowing the car to coast the short distance, slowing itself down as it did so, and thus the driver would get the benefit of the gasoline already consumed.

Just a little foresight and thoughtfulness are all that are required to eliminate a great deal of the pressure at the car pulls from the brakes, and every bit that is cut down, the gasoline mileage is increased in proportion.

The new 1923 line of McLaughlin-Buick models have already created a large amount of interest in London by their beauty of design, superb riding qualities and new prices. Mr. Lecky feels these are the three essentials demanded today by the buying public, and in merchandising McLaughlin-Buick cars in London he is offering that which is a pleasure to drive, a pride to own, and a privilege to sell.

MOVES TO LARGER AUTO SHOWROOMS

J. W. McLaughlin, Overland Agent, To Have Fine Display Fair Week.

Owing to the increased demands for larger display rooms, J. W. McLaughlin, agent for Overland and Willys-Knight cars, has been forced to move from his old quarters opposite the city hall to 245-249 Dundas street, where a new building has been erected for this purpose. The building is of excellent design, and is one of the best in London. It has a capacity for showing eight cars of the latest model, and also has ample space for up-to-date office facilities.

Show Latest Designs. Commencing Monday and continuing through Fair Week, there will be one of the largest and most important showings of cars in London, when all the latest designs of both the Overland and Willys-Knight cars will be on display.

Mr. McLaughlin has been connected with the Reliance Garage for the last few years, and until a few months ago with the Ford agency. He then took over the agency for the Overland and Willys-Knight cars. Since that time business has so increased that he has been forced to change his quarters. However, all service, parts and accessories will still be sold at the Reliance Garage.

Has Novel Slogan. Mr. McLaughlin is credited with having one of the most novel selling slogans in the city, "Ask the man with the white hat," a phrase that has made Mr. McLaughlin one of the best-known automobile dealers in this part of Ontario, and which has enabled him to be one of the most successful dealers in the city.

At all times Mr. McLaughlin has maintained a sales staff that has been a credit to him and to the car that he sells. Each of his men, besides being a first-class salesman, is also a mechanic of no mean ability, placing at the head of his selling creed that word with a world of meaning, "Courtesy."

AUTO NOTES

Keep spring clips tight. Tire wear increases with speed. An automatic shaft lock prevents the automobile from rolling backward on grades. Tighten up the steering gear regularly. Advance the spark as the speed increases. If the car steers hard the front tires may be soft. Wash mud off body before it dries on.

Black smoke from the exhaust means too much gasoline. If the brakes do not hold use the engine as a brake. Total of 12,754 miles of federal-aid highway is completed. Forty per cent of the automobiles stolen in 1921 were not recovered. Because of its narrow streets, Spain uses very few trailers. Large chain cigar store company has begun the sale of inner tubes. General Motors is planning production of an air-cooled car. Estimates of fuel consumption for each motor vehicle range from 350 to 450 gallons annually. Light smoke from the exhaust means too much oil in the cylinders. Worn bearings may be detected by a persistent drop in oil gauge pressure.

It is not necessary to spend a dollar more than the low purchase price of this car to make it complete—no "extras" to buy to make your car modern and capable of giving satisfactory service. FINDS OUT ABOUT MAKING OVER OLD CARPETS AT FAIR

"Bob" Visits "Canada Rug Company"
Booth, to His Own Advantage.

It was the second day of the Western Fair and everything was in full swing at the Fair grounds; having ideal weather, everyone was having a splendid time.

Edith and Bob, with their four children, lived in a small house near the Fair grounds, and this particular day they had a telegram from their Aunt Mary saying that Aunt Mary, Uncle Jim and two cousins were coming to stay with them for two days and they would arrive early the next morning. Edith was in a fix as to how she could make room for her visitors, as they only had enough rooms for themselves, being a small house. So they decided to fix the attic up for the children.

When cleaning the attic, Bob came across a large bundle of old carpets which had been given to them by Edith's mother and were now practically useless, so he bundled them downstairs into the back yard. Everything was ready now for Aunt Mary and her family. Edith was up early in the morning and going into the yard saw this large bundle of carpet. So when Bob came down for breakfast, the first thing that he was greeted with was: "Why did you make the yard in that muddle with all that old carpet, Bob?" So Bob replied: "I had to bring it out of the attic to fix up room for the four children and had no where else to put it; and Edith, I was wondering if we could have it made into a hall runner for the upstairs hall and a rug for the den." "Why, Bob, who ever heard of making new rugs out of old carpets?" So Bob said: "When I was at the Fair with your father last night I had this booklet given to me," and he pulled out of his pocket a booklet from the Canada Rug Company, London, Ont., and handed it to Edith to look over.

"I suppose you will go down to meet Aunt Mary at the station?" Bob said just as he was leaving the house. "Oh, yes, Bob, I will go down, as they will be tired traveling from Peterborough." When they all arrived home from the station and were rested a while, Edith took them out to look at her flower garden, and said: "What, throw all those good old carpets away! Why don't you have them made into 'Velvetex' rugs by the Canada Rug Company. They make lovely rugs that last for years. We shipped our old carpet from Peterborough to this firm and our church had some rugs made for their bazaar, which were just lovely."

"Well, Aunt Mary, after that recommendation I guess we will have them made into rugs, as Bob had this booklet given to him at the Fair last night," and hands the Canada Rug booklet to her aunt. "Yes, Edith, that is where I sent my old carpets." "We will see their exhibit while at the Fair today and ask them to have their drive call for our old carpets," Edith said. "Bob was saying their exhibit is in the annex of the main building, opposite the hydro exhibit. That will be quite easy to find." "Moral—When coming to the Western Fair, bring all your odds and ends and all kinds of old carpets and leave with the Canada Rug Company to be made into 'Velvetex' rugs."

Succeed In London

THAT business conditions are improving in London is evidenced by the fact that there are less employees out of work than there has been for some time, due to the fact that things are slowly, but surely, returning to normal, and which when once regained will run as smoothly as they did before the war.

The American dollar is for the first time in seven years below par, because of the fact that Canadians are buying Canadian goods manufactured by Canadians. And when once the people as a whole begin to realize that in order to bring about a bigger and better success in London, they must trade in home manufactured products, is the belief of many of the local businessmen.

Statistics show that the city of London has at present a larger percentage of its population owning their own homes than any other city on the continent, which is indeed a striking example of the success that has already been attained by the citizens here in the past.

And much lies in store for the future of the city, with the erection of several new educational institutions and plans in progress for yet others, it argues that the city will not only be noted for its industry, but as an educational center as well. And when industry and education go hand in hand, the highest type of community will be had.

FINDS FAVORITE CIGAR IN HUSTLE OF N. Y. STATION

David Harum Makes Lasting Hit
With Sportsman of International Fame.

Amid the bustling, the shriek of train whistles and the calling of guards when the Chicago flier pulled into the Grand Central Station, New York City, George Burroughs, a sportsman of international repute, making his way as best he could among the jostling crowds to the Buffalo train on track 5, uttered a sharp exclamation of surprise as he felt a hearty slap on the shoulder.

"Fred Creighton! You're the last person I ever expected to see. Why, it's eight years since we've met. Remember, at the association banquet in Regina, just before you sailed for Europe?"

"Yes, George, old scout, it's eight long years. Where have you been all this time? I thought sure I'd see you sometime at the club in Algonquin."

"No, Fred, I've been down south for the last few years, although I did intend running up there this fall if this Buffalo business hadn't interfered. I'm leaving for Buffalo now. Come on in and sit down for a few minutes."

"Well, this is luck," burst out Fred enthusiastically. "I'm going there myself."

Seated in the smoker the conversation drifted from business conditions to old times.

"Say, have a cigar," said Fred as he proffered his companion a smoke. "Thanks awfully. I'm just dying for a smoke. I don't seem to be able to get a cigar to satisfy me lately. I don't know which is wrong, me or the cigars."

As the train pulled out both lit up and sat back comfortably in the soft cushions of the chair car.

"By jove, this is a good cigar, Fred, and just the right flavor, too. No wonder I haven't been satisfied. This is the same make of cigar we smoked at the banquet, and unconsciously I guess I have been searching for it ever since."

"You're right, George," his companion answered, thoughtfully watching the bluish gray smoke curl up towards the ceiling. "Yes, I guess you're right, it's a David Harum, the best 10-cent smoke made in the country today."

"I don't care what it costs, but it's a wonderful smoke. I must remember that name, David Harum, eh?"

"Yes, the McLeod-Nolan & Co. of London, Ontario, make it. They've been making it for 25 years. I first smoked a David Harum up in Dawson City, Alaska. A Canadian trapper I met in the hotel there gave me one and I've been smoking them ever since."

"One of the principal reasons I like it," he went on, "is that McLeod-Nolan have always maintained the quality of their cigar even though at times prices of tobaccos have advanced. The fact is, it seems to me, that it is getting better every year."

"I notice that McLeod-Nolan put the finest Sumatra wrapper on their cigars, and that's certainly a point in their favor," commented George, eyeing critically his half smoked cigar.

"Yes," Fred continued, "it is manufactured from the finest Havana grown on the island of Cuba. No wonder it is considered by smokers of good cigars the best that can be procured for the money, and despite the fact that at the present time tobaccos are higher than they ever were, the company has announced that David Harums will still sell at 10 cents. In all my travels from Halifax to Vancouver I have heard in many a cigar store, 'A good 10-cent cigar?' Try a David Harum. I know you'll find it all right."

"Say, Fred," began George heartily, "would you mind giving me another of your David Harums. I can't resist the temptation of asking you for another, but I know you won't mind my going to get some myself at the first opportunity."

SAYS GENERAL PROSPERITY IS RETURNING TO DOMINION
T. H. Yull, of Federal Advertising Agency, Reports More Business This Year.

That general prosperity is returning to Canada with a rush is evidenced in many lines, and perhaps in none more strongly than the advertising agency business.

Mr. T. H. Yull, president of Federal Advertising Agency, Limited, of this city and Hamilton, Ont., reports that his organization in the last four months has done more business than during the whole of 1921.

The near future is to show a marked change in newspaper and magazine advertising, in the opinion of Mr. Yull.

The old bombardment advertisement and its direct opposite, the inane advertisement, are to die a natural death. Advertisers, especially national advertisers, who spend large sums of money each year on advertising campaigns, have realized that the public looks for common sense in advertising and for good sales talk attractively presented. They know that such advertising can be created only after concentrated study of the product and its merchandising by advertising experts.

"The advertising of the future—and by future I mean not very far away—will find all advertisements of the better class well thought out and well planned," says Mr. Yull. "The day of monopoly, when an advertising agency with accounts numbering into the hundreds could turn out the advertising of their clients at the rate of so many disposed of each day, is going fast. The agency that is advancing today is the one that keeps experts who are commissioned to handle only a certain number of accounts. Their quota is never more than one man can intelligently handle, so that each client is given the necessary attention to make his advertising dollars return utmost value."

This revolution in advertising—for such it can be termed—is due, Mr. Yull believes, to the breaking away of certain men in the Canadian advertising field from the old regime, establishing new ideals and living up to them.

MODERN METHODS USED AT BANNER BARBER SHOP

Best of Service Guaranteed to Busy
Man—Electrical Devices Used.

When a particular man makes arrangements for his annual vacation, he does not neglect to visit his barber shop before leaving the city for that hair cut, shave, massage, shampoo, or any other little thing which is absolutely indispensable—if he is to look and feel at his best.

Every man has his own taste regarding the manner in which his tonsorial needs must be attended to, and Londoners in general are no exceptions, taking no chances on the unknown barber.

Those citizens who patronize Banner's Barber Shop at 417 Talbot street, where five chairs are continuously in operation during business hours, are assured of the satisfactory service which can only be provided by the most modern methods and first-class application of them.

Studies Patrons.
Banner has made a study of his patrons. Courteous treatment is the criterion by which his business is operated, and the ever-growing clientele which he enjoys is ample evidence that he has succeeded in his aim to please.

Electrical devices which have been installed in the favorite Talbot street establishment facilitate the work and make a visit to this shop a pleasure.

The busy person who must rush off to the picnic at Port Stanley or Springbank does not need to worry over the appearance of his hair, or his need of a shave, because he knows that a last-minute visit to Banner's Barber Shop will suffice to eliminate this distraction from his appearance.

Wants to be Cool.
During the hot weather Mr. Londoner desires to be as cool as possible, and on warm afternoons, when shaving becomes a labor, the enticement to recline in the barber's chair is too great to resist.

Banner solicits those Londoners who desire top-notch service at moderate prices to visit his shop for a trial. His invitation is being accepted by citizens every day. By this means he is making new friends, building up his business, and succeeding with London.

No apprentices are employed at this shop—only barbers with years of experience as an asset to perfection are on the job to maintain the Banner policy of service and satisfaction.

advertising and for good sales talk attractively presented. They know that such advertising can be created only after concentrated study of the product and its merchandising by advertising experts.

"The advertising of the future—and by future I mean not very far away—will find all advertisements of the better class well thought out and well planned," says Mr. Yull. "The day of monopoly, when an advertising agency with accounts numbering into the hundreds could turn out the advertising of their clients at the rate of so many disposed of each day, is going fast. The agency that is advancing today is the one that keeps experts who are commissioned to handle only a certain number of accounts. Their quota is never more than one man can intelligently handle, so that each client is given the necessary attention to make his advertising dollars return utmost value."

London Must Win Protest and Twice Today To Stay In Running

WETZEL'S MEN FORCED TO DIVIDE WITH HAMS

Reis Loses Tough Duel To Hughes 2-1 In First—Hains Wins Second After Carmen and Weinicke Are Derricked.

THE Hams creamed final all over London's chances of grabbing the second half unless the Mint League directors decide in favor of London's protest of the use of two hurlers from the Syracuse International League Club, by forcing Wetzels' cohorts to divide yesterday's double-header. Four thousand fans, a good portion of them in cars which banked every open space in the park, saw the old men led by Calbert throw away their crutches and jump into the first affair, which they took by a score of 2-1. They lost the second in which both Carmen and Weinicke, southpaws, had been derrickd in the middle of the abbreviated pastime, by a score of 7-6.

Between games, City Clerk Baker, acting for Mayor Wilson and President T. J. Halligan of the Mint League, essayed the task of hoisting the two pennants, one of them the new one won in 1920 by the Tecs. Finally, with help from able seamen in the crowd's nest, the pennant finally flew to the breeze.

Decisions Not Hits. Decisions for which the umpires couldn't be blamed practically decided the duel between Reis and Hughes in the first game, and breaks, such as Rabbit Oakes getting a two-bagger and Carlin a single, were against the visitors. London had started bidding for the game in the third frame, when with one going Carlin's bat threw, which drew Kuhn up into the air. Butler's sacrifice and Maimquet's walk put two on, and in the fourth inning, when Schaefer grounded out, though, and the jammed mass of fans let go a lot of accumulated steam, London was still in the lead. Power was the wrong foot. There was a decided slump, and a rift in the harmonious haze, when Schaefer opened the fifth with a triple through a gap in the cars near home-run corner. Calbert became radiator any. Acting on a hit-and-run signal, Mackey, with the first ball pitched, started for the plate, but whether by accident or design, Hughes crossed the plate up badly by throwing his left arm, which went just over his head. Hughes was also a double, at first. Fans back of center field said afterwards Gray failed to touch base, and his support took on a new supply of courage.

Buck Boye made a sensational leap, as Kuhn opened the next frame, which started the third out. The crowd was a smash through the infield scored him with the first run. In the eighth, though, he never was at the plate, though five times, with three walks and two sacrifices, was heading for home. Hughes' perfect peg killed him off.

Two were gone in the eighth when Calbert doubled to right. He rounded the bases and dashed for home on Carlin's long single to left. The crowd was a smash through the infield scored him with the first run. In the eighth, though, he never was at the plate, though five times, with three walks and two sacrifices, was heading for home. Hughes' perfect peg killed him off.

NEXT WEEK SEES REVIVAL OF CITY TENNIS MATCHES

Championship Shelved For Years Starts Wednesday On Two Courts.

The city tennis champions, which have been on the shelf for some years, will be revived, starting Wednesday afternoon at the Thames Park and the C. S. Hyman's courts. Every effort is being made to gather all the tennis players of the city into the four events which will make up the program. These are as follows:

Men's open singles.
Men's open doubles.
Men's handicap doubles.
Mixed doubles.

Three trophies are already offered, and there will be others. Hon. C. S. Hyman, Wm. Gurd & Co. and J. Barron have already donated handsome trophies for the events.

The game has needed the revival of the city championships to bring it to the fore again, and it is anticipated that a big entry list will be forthcoming. All the well-known players of the city will be entered, but provision has been made for looking after the newer players in the handicap doubles which gives the novice tournament experience under conditions which give him a fair chance with the more experienced.

Entries close on Tuesday night and may be sent to J. G. Boucher, Sun Life, Bank of Toronto Building. The program will be published on Monday with details of courts and other arrangements.

It is expected that the events will carry through to Friday night, and it would not be surprising if the competitors were greeted with large galleries, despite the somewhat lax state into which the game has fallen from the organization standpoint.

N. W. B. A. SUSPENDS TWO MORE TEAMS.
Goderich and Wingham Nines Both Draw Penalty.

LISTOWEL, Sept. 8.—At a meeting of the N. W. B. A. sub-committee here last night four hours discussion regarding the Goderich-Wingham protest resulted in favor of Wingham, but both teams were suspended for offences against the constitution. The matter has been referred to the O. A. B. A. and all the papers containing evidence will be handed over to that body for administration. Goderich's contention was that N. Farrar, who played last field for Wingham, could not qualify under the residence ruling. The meeting closed at 3 o'clock in the morning.

Several other matters of importance were brought up, and the following resolutions and regulations passed upon:

Clinton Juniors have been matched with Exeter in the semi-finals, and the first game must be played at Exeter. Both games must be played on or before Sept. 16.

Fullerton contention that Lucan Senior Club was out of order, according to an O. A. B. A. ruling, was ruled out, since the N. W. B. A. rules had in no way been fractured.

Stratford Senior Club's application for privilege of playing off with N. W. B. A. winners on account of Zurich being professionalized, was sent up to the executive of the club sub-committee with a recommendation that the application be not considered.

Palmerston's contention on Owen Sound player, Ambrose Windfeld, was thrown out, as it was proven that said player was eligible to engage in the junior series.

Durham's application for reinstatement of their junior club was not sustained. The league secretary was advised and instructed to write Durham in this connection. Steven Dand, who automatically went under suspension with the Crediton Club, was recommended for reinstatement, as he was not a member of Crediton Club in 1920.

K. L. Wurm's application for information re Zurich being professionalized was tabled until Secretary Horning received full information from the A. A. U. of C.

Strathroy Club proved to have been using George Bouchert.

Player Bradley of Lucan was cleared of any charge of professionalism.

Hindmarsh and Crawley charged with playing in a tournament at Park Hill Club without a permit handled, and since cases proved exceptional, the players were upheld.

Players Weir and O'Neill's suspension was brought up. Suspension was raised. Crediton and Morlock are to carry out previous ruling of N. W. B. A., and appeal their case if they so desire.

Immediate settlement was ordered to be made to Umpires Savage and Know regarding the Kincardine and Lucknow game.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

A constant unremitting process of betterment has been Dodge Brothers policy from the first.

Consistent with that policy, the body lines of the car have recently undergone a new and distinctive revision in design.

The new radiator is singularly smart and graceful. The cowl is higher, and more vividly expressive of the car's roominess and abundant power.

Further improvements in the vital mechanism have notably increased the excess margin of strength which has always characterized the car in every rugged detail of its structure.

The PLAYHOUSE and the MOVIE THEATRE

Dumbbells Will Make Farewell Appearance At Grand Next Week

Charlie Chaplin in War Comedy Film, "Shoulder Arms," and Elaine Hammerstein in "Why Announce Your Marriage?" Scores Hit.

CAPTAIN M. W. PLUNKETT'S world-famous "Dumbbells" will play a farewell engagement at the Grand Opera House commencing next Monday evening, Sept. 11, continuing throughout the entire week of the Fair, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

For the engagement they will offer their newest and most elaborate show, "The Dumbbells Revue of 1922," a sparkling mélange of songs, satire and sketches.

Captain Plunkett is now in England and arranging for the "Dumbbells" to winter season in London. It will be remembered that just three years ago this month this now famous organization of soldier boys came here direct from London, England, and opened their Canadian tour here at the Grand Opera House.

Their slogan then was "London to London," and they had it painted in large red letters on a banner which they fastened to the sleeping car which was furnished them at Halifax for their journey to this city. This same banner might well be used again next week, as London is the extreme western point this season. Another month in Ontario and a final week in Montreal will end their farewell tour. Then to St. John for a voyage over the pond and a West End theatre in London waiting for them.

Bon voyage, "Dumbbells." And don't forget to come back home some day.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN STARS.

Today's vaudeville and picture program at the Grand Opera House offers excellent entertainment for the many patrons of that theatre. Charlie Chaplin's great comedy film, "Shoulder Arms," which has been specially held in for the week, has grown in popularity with every showing, while Elaine Hammerstein in "Why Announce Your Marriage?" presents a

ROSS HAMILTON singing in "The Dumbbells Revue of 1922," coming to the Grand Theatre all next week.

Great Arden, equilibrist, and the Les Valdon Trio, comedy slack and tight wire walkers. Both have made pronounced hits. The musical acts are furnished by Barton and Hall and the Lennox sisters, who have most successfully entertained, the first-named team using saxophones in their number with good effect. Gwen and Clark, that "kitty-kitty-koupele" complete the vaudeville with an act that provides nothing but laughter and has been received with much pleasure. Altogether the program for the week closing today may be classified as remarkably good show value. Patronage has been good, and with the Chaplin contest at the matinee today the attendance is certain to be big.

LOWER YIELD OF WHEAT EXPECTED

World's Output, However, Will Exceed Average For Pre-War Years.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The world's wheat production this year was less than it was last year, but considerably greater than the pre-war average according to estimates made public today by the United States Department of Agriculture. Actual estimates and continued reports from foreign countries indicate a yield this year of 3,019,526,000 bushels compared with the production last year of 3,059,596,000 and the 1909-1913 average of 2,890,553,000 bushels.

Reports from all sources regarding Russia, said crop conditions were favorable and would feed the nation this year, eliminating the need of imported wheat. Nearly all the European countries, however, reported decreases, the total European production being estimated at 1,100,991,000 compared with 1,239,256,000 in 1921 and pre-war average of 1,275,157,000. British India and Japan are expected to produce 392,847,000 bushels compared with 282,094,000 last year and the pre-war average of 375,827,000.

Increase wheat production in both the United States and Canada was indicated, the combined estimate being 1,125,968,000 bushels this year compared with 1,095,751,000 in 1921 and the pre-war average of 883,810,000.

SPARTA

Special to London Advertiser.

SPARTA, Sept. 8.—The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church held their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Banghart, with quite a number present. Mrs. W. Henderson, the president, had charge. Instead of the authorized study book, the society will study the life of Mary Elessor, who devoted her life to mission work in Calabar, Africa. Mrs. (Dr.) Husser gave a synopsis of the first four chapters, after which she asked a series of questions which proved of great interest. Mrs. (Dr.) Kilgour will continue these studies at the next meeting.

The Sorosis Society held their monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dan McKenzie. The afternoon was devoted to quilt-making.

Richard Yelland, who has been in poor health for the past three months, was stricken with a severe paralytic stroke Sunday last, and his life is despaired of.

The public school opened Tuesday morning with Miss Fletcher in charge of the senior room and Miss Lockwood that of the junior room. A fifth class has been formed.

Ethel Sprague, who spent a number of years in Northern Ontario in the fur and fishery business, gave the Courtesy Club at Dexter a most interesting account of mission work among the Indians in that region Tuesday night last.

Gordon Armstrong has returned from his visit to his brother at Greenhurst, whom he reports to be making splendid progress toward recovery from the effects of the late war.

Bagnell & Henderson are pushing their fine new cement block apple evaporator toward completion. The men are now putting the finishing touches on the roof.

Harley and Morley Gorvett, who are shingling the roof of the Methodist Church, have the north side almost completed.

Rev. Dr. Husser will preach in Port Stanley Sunday morning, next for Rev. J. N. Gould, who is away on vacation.

The Methodist Sunday school will hold their rally day Sunday, Sept. 17.

The Baptist Church will hold their anniversary services Sunday, Sept. 24, with morning and evening services. The evening service in the Methodist Church will be withdrawn.

If Everybody Gave A Three-Cent Stamp

"A three-cent stamp, one little three-cent stamp from every person in Western Ontario would raise the amount of money which will be required before the doors of the Sick Children's Hospital can be opened to begin the work of healing children."

The foregoing was an arresting statement made to The Advertiser by a member of the publicity committee conducting the drive for the last $20,000 necessary for the finishing of the hospital.

Citizens of Western Ontario attending the Western Fair will be able to get a very adequate idea of what the hospital will do for the child life of this end of the province through the demonstrations given in a publicity booth occupying a large section in the center of the west end of the main building upstairs. Dr. Neelands of the provincial department of education is assisting there.

Soon the Constipation and Indigestion were relieved, and the Rheumatism began to go away, and in a few months entirely disappeared. How to Have Pretty Natural Looking Curls

Straight, lank hair is becoming to but few women and there's no excuse now for anyone looking homely and unkempt on that account. Those who have forsaken the curling iron because of the damage it does by drying and breaking the hair, will be glad to hear that the simple silmerine method will produce a far better and prettier effect, without any injurious result whatever. If just a small quantity of liquid silmerine be applied with a clean tooth brush before doing up the hair, the loveliest natural looking curls and waves will be in evidence in three hours, and there will be nothing streaky, sticky or greasy about it.

A few ounces of liquid silmerine, obtainable at any drug store, will prove a welcome addition to many a dressing table. It is best applied by dividing the hair into strands and moistening each of them separately from root to tip. The beautiful wavy effect will last for a considerable time, whether the hair be long or bobbed.

Bilious Attacks

Are Usually Due to Constipation

When you are constipated, not enough of Nature's lubricating liquid is produced in the bowel to keep the food waste soft and moving. Doctors prescribe Nujol because it acts like this natural lubricant and thus replaces it.

Nujol is a lubricant—not a medicine or laxative—so cannot gripe. Try it today.

H. G. WELLS'

"OUTLINE OF HISTORY"

WHICH MR. WELLS DESCRIBES AS

"The Common Adventure of All Mankind"

Fiction has given us nothing half as enthralling as this great romance of Mother Earth—the story of live men since the beginning of time told by a living man.

Wells does not resurrect dead bones, ancient mummies and ruined buildings saying "These were Greece and Rome and Athens." He takes his readers back to throbbing cities, breathing men and women, combats, struggles and jealousies, making all history as vital as that which we ourselves are making day by day.

Starts In The Advertiser, Monday, Sept. 11

IT IS a HUMAN STORY, vibrant with the personality, knowledge, literary genius, humor and sympathetic understanding that have made the name of H. G. Wells the most distinguished and outstanding among living writers in the civilized world today.

It is the record of OURSELVES, from the first evidence of life up to the present day.

It brings within the grasp and comprehension of any man, woman or child who can read, an amount of information that he would otherwise have to spend a lifetime accumulating from many libraries and thousands of books.

It presents that information in readable, understandable, entertaining form, so that those who are not college graduates, and who have forgotten much that they learned in high school, may have a clear, concise working knowledge of the history of the world in which they live.

As presented in daily installments of about a thousand words, it makes possible a liberal education in history for the average newspaper reader, who has neither the time nor the inclination to attack a large volume of many chapters. He can digest each daily installment, and complete it with a mind eager and keen for what is to follow next day.

"The Outline of History" was first published in two volumes at the price of $10.50; later in one volume at $5.00, which is the lowest price at which it can be bought. TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND COPIES OF BOTH EDITIONS HAVE BEEN SOLD.

"The Outline" has been the most widely discussed book of a decade. Heywood Broun says: "Among the most exciting books ever written."

Mr. Wells has dared to write of Alexander the Great as if he were as present with us as Premier King, and of Nero as if he were as modern a criminal as Landru. In other words, "The Outline," instead of removing its hat and lowering its voice in the presence of the dead, insists that all the world was, is and ever shall be ALIVE. The natural result is the most popular, entertaining and instructive history that has ever been written.

The criticisms, the arguments, the exceeding appreciation and praise have all combined to advertise "The Outline" until there is everywhere a big demand, and it is to meet this demand that The Advertiser is co-operating with other leading newspapers the world over in giving its readers this great book in daily installments at no additional cost.

Dr. Frank Crane speaks of "The Outline" as "the smashing literary event of the year. Wells, to my mind, is king of modern writers."

G. K. Chesterton, in a long, appreciative review in the New York Evening Post, says: "No praise could be too high for a diction and description which catch all their colors of Indian red or Tyrian purple, of the gold of Carthage or the granite of Rome."

Many children are planning to clip the daily installments of "The Outline of History" from The Advertiser and paste them in neat order in a scrap book for ready reference.

REPORT HEAVY NAVAL 'CUTS' TO GENEVA PARLEY

Many Nations Also Reduce Land Forces by Large Figures.

HAITI MAKES PROTEST

Delegate Bellegarde Asks
Probe of South African Killing of Hottentots.

GENEVA, Sept. 8.—Reports presented by the council of the League of Nations on reduction of armaments at this afternoon's session of the third assembly of the league show that in more than a score of countries which furnished figures restriction of military outlay has begun.

Great Britain reported a reduction of 55 per cent in naval tonnage; France 36 per cent; Italy 49 per cent and Japan 59 per cent.

In land armaments Great Britain reported a reduction of 200,000 men under arms and shortening of the term of military service by one-half. Sweden also reported cutting her military service in two. Italy reduced the period of service and suppressed 25 battalions of infantry. Poland reduced her army of a million men to about 260,000. Japan made reductions but failed to give figures, while Switzerland reduced from 70 per cent to 55 per cent the proportion of her men eligible for military service.

Delegate Bellegarde of Haiti took the floor today and made the most eloquent speech of the session. He reviewed the work of the council and demanded an investigation of the operations of a punitive expedition by the South African government some time ago against the natives of southwest African territory, for which South Africa has the mandate.

According to an official report received by the league of nations, the punitive expedition killed 49 natives, several of whom were women or children. The report did not mention any South African losses.

HEAD OF C. N. R. TO BE NAMED SOON

Ottawa Reports Support
Rumor That Government
Has Chosen Railway
President.

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—An announcement of the appointment of a new head for the Canadian National Railway is expected within the next few days. The government, it is understood, has a man in view and is fairly well assured that he will accept the post.

It is not the intention of the minister, however, to make an announcement of the entire board for some time to come. It is proposed that the president shall have a say in the choice of the executive, thus dissipating the impression that the appointments would be political in character.

While undoubtedly knowledge and experience in conditions throughout the various parts of the country will be taken into account when making the choice it is not regarded as at all likely that provincial considerations will weigh in the selection. It is proposed to secure the best men irrespective of where they hail from.

Not until the main executive has been appointed will the task of dividing the national system into "grand divisions" and of appointing managers and officials be proceeded with. The executive will make a careful canvass of the whole situation and his recommendations will prevail.

So far as the government is concerned its "interference" may be said to pretty well cease as soon as a new head has been appointed.

FRUIT FESTA AFFORDED MEN FROM WESTMINSTER

Soldiers Guests of Kiwanis Club at Springbank Farm.

Soldiers from the Westminster Hospital were the guests of the Kiwanis Club Friday night, in a motor ride, which wound up with a visit to Kiwanian John Moore's fruit farm near Springbank.

Thirty cars, manned by Kiwanians, accommodated the crowd on a drive which circled the city, and found its way to Mr. Moore's farm, by way of a tour of Springbank and Byron district.

The melon season was on, fruit in plenty for everybody was provided by the hour, an impromptu concert by soldiers and Kiwanians formed the evening's program.

Kiwanian Morris Abbot convened the committee in charge of the outing.

CREDITMEN FIND STEADY BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT

WINNIPEG, Sept. 8.—(By Canadian Press.)—This week's trade report of the Creditmen's Trust Association is in substance as follows:

Manufacturers and wholesalers in the east are finding a steady improvement in business and there has been more activity in the retail than for some little time past, owing, no doubt, to the end of the holiday season.

There is quite a lot of building going on in both Montreal and Toronto, perhaps more pronounced in Toronto, and the unemployment question is getting to be much less serious, the larger centers reporting little unemployment.

Conditions west of the lakes have been somewhat interfered with by rain which has delayed the threshing operations. Wholesale business is keeping steady, retail business leaves a good deal to be desired, though in certain lines more business is being done.

Collections are somewhat on the slow side which, however, is to be expected just at this period.

PRESTON-GALT ROAD STARTED

Continuous Pavement Will Soon Be Available To Hamilton Highway.

Suburban Roads Commission
Takes Over Short Strip As Connecting Link.

Special to London Advertiser.
GALT, Sept. 7.—Things have moved rapidly in roadway projects here this week. The Preston-Galt highway was undertaken yesterday, and the local suburban roads commission has been advised of the transfer of a strip of road running from East Main street to the Galt-Hamilton highway to its control, and that body lost no time in having this last connecting link between Galt and the highway built to suit the highways, work having been started to regrade it prior to being paved.

When this link and a short strip on Dundas street for which the city council will have a bylaw presented to it, are completed, there will be continuous pavement from the old Delmonte Hotel in Preston through Galt to the Hamilton highway, work on which is being rushed, with only a short strip below Galt to be completed.

The first carload of the wood purchased by the civic fuel committee arrived today.

Galt's schools are well supplied with coal, the board having made its annual purchase early in the year.

In a building fund campaign conducted during the past three months, the Ladies' Aid of the Preston Methodist Church raised the substantial sum of $1,500.35 by a series of social evenings and unique undertakings. The money is to be used in paying for the new church Sunday school building, which is about completed.

The Hespeler Horticultural Society's annual exhibition was held Thursday and today, and proved a very successful event, with large exhibits of fruit, vegetables and flowers, and large attendances.

Special to London Advertiser.

The magistrate ordered the dog destroyed as dangerous to the public.

Mr. Lee also asked that he be allowed to send the dog to a farmer friend who would keep it as a pet. This Magistrate Maxwell refused to consider.

of the Chamber of Commerce, in forwarding to the press an explanation why industries have not come to London in abundance. Ald. John Ashton, who asked for the explanation in city council Tuesday night, stated Saturday morning that he is now satisfied "That was very good of Mr. Philip," declared Ald. Ashton. "It was a fair enough explanation. All I wanted to know was what was the matter that we were not getting new industries in London, and who was to blame. He told me in a nice way, and I thank Mr. Philip for the information."

New Fall Styles

In Ladies' Apparel For Season

are now confirmed by the latest models just issued, and which our designing and tailoring staffs are busy producing daily in our factories.

New distinguishing features in Suits are longer lengths, straighter lines and self strappings; also embroiderings and braidings of novelty design are much in evidence. Buttoned and linked cuffs are also a new feature. Tailored collars and lapels, also fancy pockets, with embroidered tappings, have come as part of the latest correct features of good style. Modest colors of black, blue and brown predominate.

DRESSES

The same distinguishing features obtain in Gowns as in Suits. Longer lengths are seen in all authentic models.

Flowing side-pointed panels dropping below skirt lengths are intended to give the new unevenness necessary for good style. Novel embroideries, self pipings and many minor artistic finishing touches having the appealing influence of newness and art contribute to the fascinating pleasure of the latest vogue.

Good taste accords with the sombre shades of black, brown and navy, which in the popular new fabrics of Satin, Canton, Crepe Charmeuse, Crepe Back Satin and Crepe de Chine along with the still popular Canton Crepes, Taffetas, Roshanara, etc., make most handsome costumes.

In Woolen Fabrics, Tricotines, Gabardines, Poirer Twills and Serges, hold undisputed sway.
