Ladies' High Grade Footwear

HERE'S AN ART in Footwear, although few stores give any evidence of that fact. It requires great skill to produce an artistic boot, one that combines comfort and graceful appearance. We know of two American makers who excel in that respect. They are Krohn Fehcheimer & Co., of Cincinnati, and Hathway, Soule & Harrington, Boston, Mas. They produce the finest and most artistic of Ladies' Boots. Their styles are models of elegance and grace in Footwear. Their boots fit perfectly and possess an attractiveness of style that win the favor with careful dressers.

We are the recognized headquarters for American Footwear in Chatham.

AN INNOVATION

Marvelous Musical Results Attained by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall in Teaching the Little Ones

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall on Park street was the scene of a most interesting occasion yesterday afternoon, when some forty children between the ages of five and thirteen, accompanied by their parents and a large number of interested visitors, assembled to enjoy a grand musical recital by the children who are pupils of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, choir master and organist of St. Andrew's church.

The parents and visitors were simply astonished and delighted at and with the wonderful possibilities of this new method of teaching music; a method that has entirely revolutionized the science. Miss Fletcher is a talented Toronto lady, and her system of teaching music is firmly established in the United States and Canada, and in England as well. It is claimed that a child will make more rapid and solid progress under this method in three months than under the old system in a whole year; and the fundamental basis of this method is such that, it is greatly its own teacher as the pupils progress. The visitors were amazed and amused to see one bright little girl, as we rendered, such as trios, duets and piano solos by children who received no other training than the Fletcher system. The special aims of the new method are: 1st, to train the ear; 2nd, to teach children to read music easily and rapidly; 3rd, to teach rhythm and time; 4th, to teach a thorough knowledge of the keyboard; 5th, to teach the major and minor scales; 6th, to create an interest in the celebrated composers and in musical instruments.

The Darwinian theory has no more revolutionized physical science than the Fletcher system has music. To hear the little ladies of six and seven sing and play in a manner that would entertain a company at their own homes was something that pleased their parents. The visitors and parents warmly congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Marshall upon their success under this new, popular method.

BOOM PAUL KNOWS NOTHING OF PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

Van Rensburg and his Commando Surrender—Tired of War—Operations in Cape Colony—Invaders Contenting Themselves With Sniping.

London, June 12.—A despatch from The Hague, dated yesterday, says:—Mr. Kruger has issued a statement to the effect that he knows nothing of the peace negotiations alleged to be proceeding with the Boer leaders. He says that if there are any negotiations on foot it is not through any action of his.

TRANSVAAL CONCESSIONS.

A blue book just issued contains the report of the Transvaal concessions commission. It is clear, the commission avers, that a state which has annexed another is not legally bound by any contracts made by the state which has ceased to exist, and that no court of law has jurisdiction to enforce such contracts if the annexing state refuses to recognize them. The commission recommends that the government decline to recognize the dynamite and other concessions, and adds that it is satisfied Dr. Leyds and others have received from certain directors shares or financial considerations. Regarding the Netherlands-South African Railroad, the report, while admitting that the concession was legally granted, considers it injurious that the trunk railway lines should be the monopoly of a single company. The concession should be terminated, even if the company's contract is not open to complaint. But its extraordinary action in the war precludes the possibility of its continuation under British administration. Discussing the position of the shareholders, the report says the belligerent acts, for which the shareholders were legally responsible, caused immense damage to Great Britain, Cape Colony and Natal. The British government, as an act of grace, may show some consideration to the shareholders, but the commission considers this should be postponed till the shareholders have exhausted the remedies open to them against the directors, and until the damage done by the company is made good. The commission recommends the debenture holders to full recognition.

IMPORTANT SURRENDER.

London, June 11.—Lord Kitchener reports to the war office, under date of Pretoria, June 11, as follows:—"Commandant Van Rensburg and his commando have surrendered at Pietersburg. One hundred men have come in, and others are following."

IN CAPE COLONY.

Cape Town, June 11.—Sir Gordon Sprigg, the Prime Minister of the colony, reports that the Boers in the northwestern districts resolutely avoid coming in contact with the British troops, and content themselves with sniping. Marauding bands of burghers occasionally appear in the Midlands, but they appear to be bent only on looting.

CAPTURED AT JAMESTOWN.

The Boers captured 30,000 cartridges and 75 rifles when they compelled the surrender of Jamestown a few days ago.

DISTRIBUTION OF FOOD RESTRICTED.

Cape Town, June 11.—The military authorities are enforcing stringent restrictions in the distribution of food stuffs northward from De Aar and southward from Bulawayo. Only essentials are permitted to be distributed, and these only in limited quantities, so as to deprive the Boers of this source of supply.

INVADED BY REBELS.

Cape Town, June 10.—It is reported that a force of Boers have occupied Labaschagans Nek, near Dordrecht. A majority of the invaders consist of rebels, many of whom are of a very low type.

FIGHTING AT CLOSE QUARTERS.

The Constabulary have had very severe work in the neighborhood of Petrusburg, attempting to clear out the Brand and Hertzig commandoes. In one affair eleven out of the fifty British engaged were either killed or wounded. The fighting was at such close quarters that revolvers were used.

DEWET LOCATED.

Cape Town, June 11.—It is reported that Gen. Dewet, with about 1,000 men, has occupied a position in the Gastrand hills, south of the Krugersdorp-Potchefstroom railway.

NEARLY 20,000 PRISONERS.

The Boer prisoners now number 19,042.

A PROJECT TO ERECT A $12,000 SCHOOL BUILDING

Chatham Public School Board Propose to Submit the Scheme to the Electors—Desire to be in the Van of Progress and Development.

"New school or nothing," was the war cry of Trustees Paxton, at the special meeting of the School Board held last evening to consider the repairs to the Queen St. school and the outlook is promising. It all rests with the electors, who will be appealed to at the municipal elections next year.

Trustees Robertson, Paxton, Wilson, Dr. McKeough, W. N. Morley, J. E. Johnston and John McCorvie were present at the meeting. In the absence of the chairman, J. A. Wilson, was selected.

Trustee Paxton said that the managers, in conjunction with Mr. Robertson, had considered the matter of repairing the old Queen St. school, and that they would advise the building of a new school. After expending $5,000 upon the old school—and it would take this sum for the repairs contemplated—the city would still have an old school. Mr. Paxton said that the managers advocated going slowly and looking into the matter of the cost of a new school and that the six months to the beginning of the year be spent in preparing some proposition to submit to the people at the elections on January 1st.

Dr. McKeough thought that probably it would be best not to push the matter through and it would be well to take time and consider what Mr. Paxton had said. There was no doubt that an injustice was being done to a certain number of pupils and parents of this city. While there were two magnificent schools, up-to-date in all their equipments they were not large enough to accommodate all the pupils of the city, and until all had the same accommodation, there was bound to be dissatisfaction among the pupils not attending the two good schools, and the parents of these pupils.

The committee who had been appointed on ways and means could not see their way clear to dispose of the school properties suggested and raise the required funds to go on with the repairs. It would be a wise course to pursue to appoint a permanent committee to dispose of the properties suggested but not before such disposal had been discussed at the Board. Mr. Robertson said that, if the school were repaired, the material wouldn't be modern and a new building was the best. As regards the school properties to be disposed of, perhaps it would be wise to put them in the hands of land agents to dispose of.

Mr. Paxton favored advertising in the newspapers. Mr. McCorvie moved that the matter be left in the hands of the Ways and Means committee, and that the committee be made a permanent one. Mr. Morley seconded and the motion carried.

J. E. Johnston, W. E. Campbell and Dr. McKeough compose this committee.

Mr. Wilson agreed that it was best to build a new school. If the old structure were to be raised and the roof replaced, a new school might better be built.

Mr. Morley said the old brick could be used in the new school.

Mr. McCorvie thought a new school would prove cheapest in the end.

Mr. Paxton said a new school would cost $12,000 for an eight room school.

Dr. McKeough said Blenheim had just built one that had cost all of that.

Mr. Robertson said that the Separate School had considered repairs but had given up the idea.

Mr. Paxton said that the amount need not bother them just now. There was no danger of too much money being raised.

Mr. Wilson suggested the new school idea should be widely advertised and discussed.

Mr. Robertson suggested that a good way to do this would be for the Board to quarrel and that the North and South Chatham trustees might come together for this purpose.

Dr. McKeough—The "men from the North" are loyally supporting you all they can.

J. E. Johnston—Those quarrels are done away with; they are things of the past.

Mr. Johnston moved that the managers of the various schools investigate the necessary repairs required in the various schools and report at the special meeting to be held at the end of June.

Dr. McKeough asked that the use of the Central School be granted, R. Victor Carter, of the Krause Conservatory, on Saturday afternoon that he might hold his examinations in music.

All the trustees thought this a branch of education to be encouraged and the request was granted.

The secretary was instructed to address for tenders for scavenger work at the schools.

BAND CONCERT

Very Enjoyable Promenade Function under the Auspices of the Regimental Band.

The Promenade Concert given by the 24th Regimental Band in the Drill Shed last evening was a grand success.

Ever since the formation of the regiment the band has been one of the chief features, and the music furnished last evening was very much appreciated. Bandmaster Philip is to be highly complimented upon the efficiency of his band. The concert last evening lasted from 8 to 11, and the shed was well filled during the whole program. Dancing was the chief feature of the evening.

Another concert will be given on Friday, 21st, when refreshments will be served and a very choice program will be rendered.

The receipts last night amounted to over $40.

AN ULTIMATUM.

Montreal, June 12.—The Trackmen's Union of America on Monday sent an ultimatum to President Shaughnessy demanding an answer to their requests by noon yesterday. Shortly before that time the C. P. R. President made an appointment with the committee for a meeting to-day.

H. MACAULAY, "THE ARK"

"The proper sphere for usefulness for woman is the House of Commons," he says, "for the art of aimless disconnected talk comes to her naturally, and has not to be acquired as it has by man. Moreover, a special feature of Parliamentary oratory is to wrap the most offensive tattle in the most polite phrases, and women can do that better than men. It is a little less than ridiculous of men."

THE MARKETS.

The weekly financial letter of Henry Clews & Co. under date of June 8th, speaks as follows of the cheerful state of affairs on Wall street after the recent collapse:

New York, June 8, 1901.
 The speedy recovery in the stock market since the panic is an exhibit that is unique. The upward impulse received the support of leading local operators and outsiders are again in the speculative arena. Orders from the interior centres have been on a large scale, but not in proportion to the city operations. In some of the more active stocks, prices are approximating the highest figures touched before the anti-crisis stage of the boom; and the expectation has apparently taken hold of the market that values are designed to a still higher level.

THE WORLD'S WHEAT MARKET.

In Liverpool, July wheat is 1-8 d. lower, while corn is 3-8 d. higher.

In Paris wheat figures five centimes higher and flour unchanged.

Receipts of wheat at Minneapolis and Duluth to-day, 554 cars, as against 603 cars last Monday, and 776 cars a year ago.

The weather for wheat, corn and oats is splendid, and all that could be desired.

A year ago to-day July wheat was 71-8c, in Chicago, and July corn, at 39c. July cotton 8.80 in New York.

OFFICIAL CROP REPORT.

Washington, June 10.—Preliminary reports of the spring wheat acreage indicate a reduction of about 1,200,000 acres, or 6.4 per cent. Of the 20 States reporting 10,000 acres or upwards in spring wheat, eight report an increase aggregating about 31,000 acres, and twelve a decrease amounting to about 1,235,000. There is an increase in acreage of 10 per cent in New Mexico, 7 in Nevada, 4 in Arizona, 3 in Michigan, 2 in Montana and Utah, and 1 per cent in Wyoming and Washington, while in Iowa there is a decrease of 10 per cent. Oregon 8, Kansas 7, Wisconsin and Minnesota 6, Illinois, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota and California 5, Idaho 4, Colorado 2 per cent.

The average condition of spring wheat on June 1st was 92.0, as compared with 87.3 at the corresponding date last year.

The average condition of winter wheat declined about 6.3 points, the condition on June 1st being 87.8 as against 94.1 on May 1. On June 1st, 1900, the condition was 82.7.

The total reported acreage in oats is smaller than the acreage harvested last year by 3.8 per cent.

The average condition of oats is 85.3 against 91.7 on June 1st, 1900. The acreage reported as on barley in 1.2 per cent smaller than the area harvested last year.

The average condition of barley is 91.0, as against 86.2 on June 1st, 1900. The acreage under rye shows a reduction of 1.9 per cent from that harvested last year. In Pennsylvania the area is reported the same as last year, while in New York there is a shrinkage of 4 per cent.

The average condition of rye is 93.9 as compared with 87.6 on June 1st, of 1900.

Don't Marry.

Almost everybody remembers the celebrated advice of the London Punch, "Don't marry." There is in that advice the expression of the feeling of many a mother who says, "I hope my daughter will never marry and suffer as I have."

Do not allow an unscrupulous dealer to sell you something in place of "Favorite Prescription," claimed to be "just as good." There is nothing just as good for women as "Favorite Prescription."

"I am so pleased with your instructions, I hardly know what to say to you for your kind favors," writes Mrs. Milo Bryant, of St. Thomas, Co., Ga. "You can publish my few statements to the world, hoping all suffering women will know and be healed. I suffered so lower part of my stomach and palpitation of the heart, that at times I could hardly lie down, and could hardly get up in the morning, but after using three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, I feel like a new woman."

ter houses, and never have been given a chance to reproduce the species. Everybody knows the kind—miserable pot-bellied, stunted brutes of non-descript breeding. What hope is there for our boasted bacon industry if this course is persisted in? Surely it requires no prophet to predict the result of such a suicidal policy. It is a melancholy fact that a wave of prosperity never strikes a strain of live stock, but the men most interested, at once set to work to destroy its course. Of course, up-to-date, shrewd breeders do not follow this plan, but they are only a drop in the bucket compared with the throng of short-sighted pig owners who are not worthy of the name of breeders. Imagine any large manufacturing establishment striving for years to gain a reputation, and as soon as attained, foisting upon the public the veriest trash they could put together. How long would their business last? Would that some surgical operation could be performed to admit some ray of light into the brain of these pig-headed pig owners, who willfully and industriously go about ruining their own business.

The local live hog market has an upward tendency, and the local dealers quote the prices at $6 to $6.65 per cwt.

CANVAS-BOUND BOOKS

A CONSIDERATION WORTH WHILE FOR LOVERS OF NEAT VOLUMES.

A Problem Solved by One Who Could Not Afford Expensively Bound Books—Standard Works in Paper Covers Put Up in Binding at Home Worthy of Their Contents.

"I've solved the problem at last of having my book shelves present a really neat appearance, and prove convenient as well, without depending upon expensive bound books for this effect." It was the book lover of the "circle" who made this triumphant announcement, and we were soon interested in her explanation.

"There are many places where really valuable and standard works, in clear print, on good paper, may be obtained in paper covers at very low rates. Now, it is an extremely difficult thing to keep these books in any kind of good condition, and although Charles Lamb has invested a much bethumbed, dog-eared, ill-smelling public library book with a halo of romance, I privately prefer to have my own stock clean and whole."

"To this end I make covers for the larger ones of the canvases used for stiffening skirts. This is not an original idea, but my method may prove suggestive, and therefore helpful. The covers are cut with a margin of an inch at top and bottom, and long enough at each side to fold under, nearly back to the inside of the cover. The canvases are laid over the books and creased, and the edges are then over-laid together. A narrow ribbon is sewed at top and bottom of the back, and when the cover is adjusted, it is tied inside of the middle pages. I prefer this to tying in a fancy bow on the outside. It leaves a free space for lettering the title, and gives a better booklike appearance on the shelves."

"I letter each one, and when they are on the shelves or in use they are easily preserved as though bound in the orthodox way, and the expense is from one-third to one-fourth less. To book lovers whose hunger for real food is insatiable, but who invariably find the bottom of their purses inconveniently near the top, this is a consideration. The canvases may be obtained in black, dark brown, ecru and grey, so the book shelves need not look like those of a circulating library."

"Pamphlets, when not in use, I tie in sets with a tape, or ribbon, and then place inside a similar cover. This may be lettered on the back, and take its place on the shelves with the books. To a busy worker who often needs to refer to a passage here or a passage there, it is an inestimable benefit to have every book within easy reach. Time is too precious to tumble over a pile of worn books or pamphlets minus covers or title pages in search of a stray volume. The answer is near the top. But properly covered and titled it is as easily found as a bound book."

The Colony of Grenada.

The last official report from Grenada gives a satisfactory account of the condition of the colony. The revenue of 1899 was larger than that of any previous year and there was a proportionately large surplus. The export of cocoa, the main staple, was very large, and this was one of the main causes of the prosperity of the island, the other two being the high price of cocoa in the foreign markets and the consequent large importations of foodstuffs. Indeed, the price of cocoa is the chief element in the prosperity of Grenada. The revenue for the year in question was £22,874, and the expenditure £27,611; the total imports amounted to £210,783 and the exports to £257,274. Of the exports cocoa was valued at £234,616, while imports to the value of £191,921 were from the United Kingdom, and to that of £46,603 from other British colonies. The import trade from foreign countries is almost wholly confined to the United States, the trade with which is rapidly increasing. The chief imports are flour, fish, meal, sugar, timber, and clothing. The total population at the end of the year was 64,098.

Subsoiling.

Subsoiling, which consists in stirring the soil below the depth usually plowed, acts differently in different soils and different seasons. It makes more room for development and enables the plants to extract food and moisture from a greater area. By loosening up more of the soil, its capacity for absorbing and retaining moisture is increased. By absorbing greater amounts of moisture in winter and spring, provision is made against summer drought. The effects of subsoiling last from two to three years and are more marked on the growth of root crops, such as turnips, beets, carrots, potatoes, and parsnips than upon others. The best test as to profit in subsoiling is to try it upon an acre and note carefully the yield and result as compared with a given area not subsoiled.

Solid Sporting Truth.

Jake Gaudaur appears to be perfectly justified in his refusal to make any more concessions to either Towns or his brother Sullivan. If the latter were looking for a race they would have little fault to find with the terms offered them. If they don't want a race, it is time they quit bothering the champion and others. The professional rowing game is too near dead now to be able to stand any cheap talk. A good race in good earnest might help to revive it. Talk and no race will kill it sure, says the Toronto Telegram.

Useful to a Statesman.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits a rosy sediment will often be found, and sometimes particles of albumen, and color of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark, torpid appearance. There are men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of renal weakness. WISDOM OF THE SCOFFER.

He scoffed at men who still believed There was a God supreme; He called their doctrines tommy rot, Their faith an idle dream. One day another came along And talked awhile about His plan for taking dollars in And giving fortunes out.

The scoffer wisely wagged his head, He called men fools who thought God made the land and sea; he said Their faith was tommy rot; But standing there, he heard a scamp, And readily believed; To-day he sadly stands among The cheated and deceived.

Some fools believe that other fools Are wonderful and wise Because they scoff at men whose faith Goes soaring to the skies.

KITCHENER'S SENSE OF JUSTICE.

How He Righted a Wrong Done by Doctor to a Private.

A sergeant of the Royal engineers who has just returned from the front tells the following story of Lord Kitchener's stern sense of justice. In the sergeant's company there happened to be a private who always did his duty in a quiet, unobtrusive manner, which gained for him a certain respect from his immediate superiors and companions. One morning this man presented himself at the office and reported that he was ill and unfit for duty. He was ordered to appear before Dr. X., the medical officer of the corps, who pronounced him in good health and ordered him back to duty.

Against this verdict there was no appeal, and the soldier returned to his work, which was preparing planks for a temporary bridge. He found it impossible to work, and mentioned the fact to the sergeant, with whom he was on most friendly terms.

"Why not lay the case before Lord Kitchener?" said the sergeant. "He is in the office now," replied the man. "Oh, I dare not," replied the man. "He is too stand off and cold."

"Well, if you're afraid I'll do it myself," and he did. "Order the man home at once," said Kitchener without looking up, "and also Drs. Y. and Z."

Each of these he made examine the patient in his presence. Dr. Y. reported "typhoid in a marked stage." Dr. Z. made the same diagnosis. "Send for Dr. X. immediately," slowly muttered Lord Kitchener. "Please Dr. X. examine this man carefully. He is either ill or malingering."

Dr. X. performed the "commanded task and nervously said: "Sir, I fear that I have made a mistake. This man is in the early stages of typhoid."

"Have the man at once removed to his quarters in cold, passionless tones. "And you, sir, apply to the adjutant for your papers and at your earliest convenience return to England!"

THE "IMPERIAL" OPAL.

Romance of the Gem to Be Presented to King Edward.

The "Imperial Opal," which a wealthy Australian is anxious to present to the King, but which the latter is unable to accept, owing to the Royal etiquette forbidding the Sovereign to receive a present from a subject, has quite a romantic history.

The miner who discovered the gem had only a miner's proverbial brief possession. It fell into the hands of a siren, a camp follower, who appears to have recognized its value, as she obtained $5,000 from the next purchaser. Upon the death of the latter his affairs were badly tangled, whereupon the gem was transferred to one of the attorneys for costs, and the gem, and then presented to the King in the name of the people.

The jewel is, from all accounts, of exceptional color and size. A London firm of jewelers said it was valued at £101,921, and prices for it would not sell it for double that amount.

Report of Scotch Railways.

The reports of the Scotch railways for the winter half-year show that they have been heavily hit on account of the high price of coal. Fortunately a reduction in the price of this fuel has been intimated, and already prospects for the current half-year are distinctly brighter. Half-year managers are hopeful, but at the same time it is impossible to say what is going to happen in the Scotch coal trade in the near future. It is in a very satisfactory position, and if a ten days' or fortnight's policy is followed out by the men, or if a strike takes place in consequence of the masters resisting this proposal, the output of coal will be maintained to the great detriment of legitimate trade. In view, however, of what is taking place in England, where in the Midlands there is a heavy decline in prices, it is hoped that the Scotch miners will do nothing to bring about a dislocation of trade.

Poking Fun at J. Zangwill.

Mr. Zangwill has already said, has no Christian name—only another name. It appears that he is also unprovided with a birthday and is therefore in danger of escaping our daily compliment to famous men. Mr. Zangwill assures us that he has no idea of the day or the month of his birth. He is quite willing, however, that we should choose a nice roomy day, when he is in no danger of being jostled by bigger men, and that the day selected will therefore be duly observed by him to the end of his natural life. We are faced by a serious responsibility. But we hope to face it bravely. Mr. Zangwill must certainly have a birthday. That he should not be born is intolerable.—London Chronicle.

NOVEL FIRE FIGHTING.

Flames Extinguished With Rare Old Wine in California.

A great fire was put out with wine in Southern California recently. It happened that the water had given out, but there was plenty of the fluid usually held in higher esteem. Strange to say, the wine proved a very effective fire extinguisher.

This incident is described and illustrated in an interesting article in the Scientific American.

The fire recently occurred near the town of Wright, in the Santa Cruz mountains, south of San Francisco. Here the fire was started, as in many other instances, by an irresponsible rancher who was burning brush. The wind sprang up suddenly, swept the flames into the forest, and in a very short time a fierce wall of flame was rushing up the west slopes of the Coast Range, carrying destruction before it. The mountains here were covered with a fine growth of old oaks, mauls and mandrills—landmarks in the country which fell like straw before the destroyer. The walls of flame swept to the summit and descended into the canyons, following these rivers of verdure in and out, rushing on in an ever-increasing volume.

In the pathway of the fire were the ranch and Mara Vista winery of E. R. Meyer, one of the largest wine-making establishments and vineyards in Santa Clara county. To protect it and the homes in the vicinity, the people of the surrounding country assembled en masse, organized themselves into an efficient body of fire fighters, and began a campaign in which striking acts of valor were performed. It was impossible to stay the flames, and as they went rushing down the canyon toward the winery, destruction of the valuable property seemed inevitable. Trees in advance were cut down, ditches of earth dug, and every expedient known to fire fighting of today was tried; but so fierce were the flames that they seemed to leap hundreds of feet into the air, bounding in lurid sheets over the breaks, and in an incredibly short time swept down to the winery, and surrounded it. Under ordinary circumstances it would have seemed impossible to save the building, but the intelligent lead of the Meyers, and men were posted on the roof who poured streams of water upon every portion. Young Mr. Meyer was held by ropes from a window while he used the hose upon the flames which were licking up the timbers at the base of the building, the heat being so intense that a stream had to be played upon his body.

It was believed that the winery could be saved, when, without warning, the water gave out. Some large four thousand gallons of the wine were thrown upon the flames in this way before the building was safe, probably one of the most remarkable and successful methods of fighting fire known. The method was somewhat expensive, as the wine retailed at 50 cents per quart when bottled, and $8,000 in wine was used, yet it saved buildings and machinery worth many thousands of dollars, and demonstrated that a winery has a protective against fire in its vat if the owner has the courage to use it.

A New Departure in Nursing.

In the line of trained nursing a new departure has been taken which will appeal to the housekeeper who has struggled with the question of home nursing, or its alternative. Convalescent nurses are trained to take care of the patient during the last weeks of a fever, or after lingering sickness, before he is well enough to go out and yet demands companionship. The duties are light, consisting merely of reading aloud, giving tonic, keeping the depressed spirits up, seeing that the invalid does not overdo, himself and all the hundred and one things which the occasion demands.

Of course, the salary is not so great as it would be if more detailed attention were required, but by means of this change many a nurse who could not spend the time and money necessary to take the full course at a training school and hospital is enabled to begin her duties in this way, while the boom of the average income is a great one. While a nurse is to be retained during the trying weeks which succeed a dangerous illness, when otherwise the family would be obliged often to do the hunt and one little thing which a quondam patient demands, and which are so galling. While the salary of the expert nurse is from $25 a week up, that of the convalescent nurse is about $8 or $10, and yet her work may be as satisfactory as that of the other.

As an example of the progress of medicine during the last century the medical record cites the case of Washington's last illness. He died of laryngeal diphtheria and he treatment was. It would seem, for an old man sick with a disease, very exhausting to the vitality. It consisted in the abstraction of between two and three quarts of blood, the administration of about twenty grains of calomel and six grains of tartar emetic and an injection, with external application of blister. And yet so strong was Washington's constitution that he survived this treatment for twenty-four hours.

A SEVERE TEST. Suffered Very Little Damage By The Hull Fire.

From the Evening Journal, Ottawa, under date June 7th, 1900.

Since many years "The Wrought Iron Range Co., Limited," manufactures the "Home Comfort" Stove, which they guarantee to be as resistant and durable as it is possible for the art and labor of men to make them. Their qualities have been fully proven on the occasion of the terrible Hull fire, the 28th of April last. There were eight of these stoves in that part of the city which was devastated by the conflagration in spite of crumbling walls and chimneys, in spite of the water which flooded them, they were found perfectly preserved in the middle of the ruins. In one case, however, a cast iron pot which happened to be on one of these stoves, melted all over it; the bronze reservoirs were necessarily melted by the terrible heat of the fire and the fancy work was twisted by the fall of roofs and walls; but not a single piece of the main body was deformed, not a lid nor a single dish was broken nor cracked. The company has generously repaired these damages and returned these stoves to their owner in as good a condition as if they were new. The malleable iron and amiantus which enters into, as well as the method used in their manufacture, is what gives these stoves, the "Home Comfort Ranges," their admirable force of resistance. The chemical analysis and the mechanical experiences have proved that the malleable iron has against the heat, a force of resistance twelve times and a half greater than cast iron has. The frame of these stoves, the doors and all of which is exposed to the danger of being broken, are made of that metal. The interior pipe and all the principal parts are carefully lined with amiantus, thus making them as durable, as strong and as perfect as possible.

The following certificate received from the proprietors of these stoves, confirm the above:

We the undersigned citizens of Hull, have bought before the last fire, Home Comfort Stoves from the Wrought Iron Co., Limited, of Toronto. These stoves were, during the terrible conflagration, exposed to the most ardent heat and we thought them entirely destroyed. After examining them, however, we found them well preserved without any bump or displacing of any kind. A vase of cast iron left on one of them, we found all melted on the malleable iron lid on which it had been placed. The company most generously repaired them free of any charge and returned them to us in perfect condition. We do not know of any other style of stove which could have resisted this terrible disaster. Since our experience, we have no doubt whatever that the "Home Comfort Range" stove is without a rival.

WEAKNESS OF MEN AND WOMEN

Could we read the hearts of every man we meet, what a load of sorrow and despair would be disclosed. Indications and blood diseases have caused more physical and mental weakness than all other causes combined. They strike at the foundation of manhood; they sap the vital forces; they undermine the system, and not only do they often disrupt the family circle, but they may even extend their poisonous fangs to the next generation. If you have been a victim of early sexual habits, remember the seed is sown, and sooner or later you will reap a harvest. If your blood has been diseased from any cause do not risk a return later on. Our New Method Treatment will positively cure you and you need never fear any return of the disease. We will give you a guarantee bond to that effect. We would warn you sincerely against the promiscuous use of mercury, which does not cure blood poisons but simply suppresses the symptoms.

WE CURE OR NO PAY. Don't let your life be drained away, which weakens the intellect as well as the body. There is no room in this world for mental, physical or sexual dwarfs. Our New Method Treatment will stop all Unnatural Losses, Purify the Blood, Strengthen the Nerves, Restore Vitality, and make a man of you. If you are in trouble, call and consult us. Consultation is Free. We treat and cure Drains, Blood Diseases, Venereal, Stricture, Urinary Discharges, Gleet, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, No cutting or operations. Exciting confidential. THE ARIZONA KICKER

A BUNCH OF INTERESTING ITEMS FROM THE FAR WEST.

As Usual, the Hurling Editor is Leading the Procession and Laughing at the Efforts of His Enemies to Down Him.

(Copyright, 1901, by C. R. Lewis.)
A road agent stopped and robbed the mail carrier on the Lone Jack route the other day and got 11 cents for his pains. This seems to be running an honored profession into the ground.

During the bustle of going to press last week a little item about Noah and his ark slipped in unperceived, and we hereby apologize to our subscribers. The item spoke of him as "Old Noah" and his ark as a catamaran. We have always spoken in the most respectful terms of the gentleman referred to, and we regard it as pretty late in the day to criticize his shipbuilding.

On leaving the common council room last Tuesday evening, where we had presided as mayor, Alderman Finne-gan attempted to pull our official nose. The alderman is now in bed with a broken leg and his neck twisted around over his right shoulder. It may be an odd notion on our part, but we object to other people handling our nose.

The Lone Jack Recorder says that we hold seven political offices and are wire pulling for the eighth and asks if such things can be and Arizona remain right side up. The Recorder man is in error. We hold five political offices and are after the sixth, and Arizona was never more solid on her pins.

Did our esteemed contemporary shoot at us on the street last Monday afternoon? He declares that he fired six shots at us, and we declare that we never knew anything about it, and we'll give anybody 15 cents to straighten the kinks out of the mystery and settle the question one way or another. We like to know when we are shot at, even by a man who shuts his eyes when he pulls the trigger.

Major Desbro of the 333 Rancho says he can identify the dead man found hanging to the limb of a tree at the crossing of Wolf creek the other day. It was a person named Tinker, who started to leave Arizona on one of the major's blooded horses, but didn't get a fast enough gait on him to keep ahead of the procession.

When we claim 10,000,000 weekly circulation for The Kicker, we lie about it, of course, and that's the difference between a New York and an Arizona editor. It's all in the profession, however, and all meant to encourage the reader to lead a life of integrity.

We always thought there was something wrong in the head with Joe Hathaway, and his death by suicide the other day proves it. There are at least four towns within a radius of 30 miles which are fairly aching for a lynching bee, and if Joe wanted to die why not give some vigilance committee a shock? Let other critics in despondent mood try to improve on his shape.

We may take the lecture platform next month for a few weeks in this territory, but we desire to warn all audiences in advance that we shall have our dignity and our guns along, and the first frozen rabbit that comes whizzing past our head will be the signal for return action on our part. We hate to shoot our lecture on the life of Shakespeare into an audience, but we have got through jumping out of back windows or hiding in the woods.

A Proper Treatment for Catarrh, reaches every affected part. Such a remedy is Catarrhine, which is inhaled into all portions of the throat, lungs and nasal passages, where it kills the germs, and cures the disease. Catarrhine is pleasant, safe and absolutely sure to cure. It relieves the distressed feeling in the head, clears the throat and nostrils in one breath. Positive proof of cure is found in the words of Mr. Kirk, of Kingston, Ont., who says:—"I suffer from Catarrh of the nose and throat, used hundreds of remedies, consulted specialists, but was not permanently benefited. Having personally witnessed a cure of thirty years' standing, effected by Catarrhine, I bought an outfit and used it for a month. It cured me and I am now no more liable to catarrh than if I never had it." This is most convincing testimony from one of Kingston's best known and most highly respected business men. It proves beyond question that Catarrhine absolutely cures Catarrh. It never fails; never harms; guaranteed to cure. Price $1.00; small size 25 cents. Druggists or Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. Valuable Advice to Rheumatics
Eat meat sparingly, and take very little sugar. Avoid damp feet, drink water abundantly, and always rely on Polson's Nerviline as an absolute reliever of rheumatic pains. Being five times stronger than other remedies, its power over pain is simply beyond belief. Buy a large 25 cent bottle to test it, and see if this is not so. Heart Disease

Some Facts Regarding the Rapid Increase of Heart Trouble.

Heart trouble, at least among the Americans, is certainly increasing, and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, or poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable; but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way, also, the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action; hence arises palpitation and short breath.

GONE TO HIS REST

Demise of David Wanless at the General Hospital This Morning.

Deceased was an Esteemed Member of the Community and will be Buried with Masonic Honors.

This morning there passed away, at the Public General Hospital, David Wanless, for many years an esteemed citizen of Chatham, at the age of 65 years.

Mr. Wanless has been in failing health for some time, but his condition was not considered alarming until last Sunday morning when he was overcome by a fainting spell while in his accustomed pew at the First Presbyterian Church. He was removed to the hospital on Monday, and his strength rapidly failed until the end came.

The deceased was born in Dundee, Scotland, in 1835, and came to this country with his parents when a lad of seven years. They settled in Varna, in the county of Huron, and, on reaching manhood, Mr. Wanless took control of the saw and grist mill there, which he managed successfully for some time. He then accepted the management of the Excelsior woolen mills and conducted them until his removal to Chatham about fourteen years ago, when he entered the employ of the T. H. Taylor Co., with whom he has been identified ever since.

Mr. Wanless was a Liberal in politics and a consistent member and staunch supporter of the Presbyterian Church. He was highly esteemed by the entire community.

The deceased leaves two sons, James, John and Mrs. Gilchrist, of Duluth, and Miss Aggie, of Buffalo. The funeral will be held with Masonic honors from the Masonic Hall, Fifth St., at 2.30 on Friday afternoon.

MYSTIC MELODY

Euterpe Presides at Delightful Complimentary Function Presented to Patrons by Mrs. John Cooper and Pupils.

There is no better criterion of the steady progress and rapid development of musical accomplishment in the Maple City than the many admirable recitals, which, from time to time, contribute so much to the aesthetic enjoyment of this cultured and critical community.

And it is no disparagement of its many brilliant predecessors to note that the delightful complimentary recital, presented last evening in the Auditorium by Mrs. John Cooper and pupils, has had few peers in the local annals of artistic achievement.

The presentation was a versatile and yet complete one. It was alike a tribute to the genius and earnest effort of the lady director, a eulogy to the talent who assisted and a demonstration of the aptitude, energy and proficiency of the pupils. It was characterized by skill in conception and exceeding taste in execution. Even in the selection and assignment of the scores a discernment and an adaptability to varying sentiment and mood was evidenced.

The result was more than pleasing. It introduced the realities of expression—the soul of music—while the fine arts of finished technique, tone production, natural conception and excellent execution, never appealed in vain.

Such was the musicale and as such it well merited the large and delighted complimentary patronage extended. Of the individuality of the program comment would be superfluous. There was music—the most alluring conception of the art—in each number. The mystic music was personified, faire sans dire.

The program:—

CHATS AGAIN

Pertinent Jottings Picked Up by The Planet in the City Engineer's Office.

A long required and much needed crossing has been built at the corner of Duke and Colborne streets.

Through the delicate construction of the nasal organ of a lady another offensive sewer outlet has been discovered and a catch basin is being put in the same.

It was suggested last evening by a member of the sports committee that prizes to the amount of $100, divided into five parts, be given for the best illuminated and dressed window on King street on the night of July 1st.

The Board of Works staff of workmen are engaged extending the entrance of the Adelaide street sewer into the river. It is the intention to continue this work until the unsightly sewer outlets, pointing into the river and exposed to the public gaze, are covered and placed in a sanitary condition.

"Mayor Sulman, J. M. Pike, J. A. Thompson, Tom Watt and myself went out last evening and called on all the hotels and restaurants on King street," said the city engineer this morning. "We were not out for a time but were collecting for the 1st of July celebration. The men all came up liberally and we collected $25 in short order. The Celebration committee meet to-morrow night to appoint a Finance committee."

MET WITH GHASTLY END

Michigan Central Brakeman Mangled on the Line Last Evening.

Inquest in Progress at Charing Cross—How He Came to His Death Yet a Mystery.

A ghastly find confronted Detective James R. McGregor this morning when he arrived upon the scene to investigate the death of G. F. Beavely, an M. C. R. brakeman, on the road near Charing Cross.

One and a half miles west of the little depot the trunk of the body of the dead man was found lying in the ditch. It was a shocking sight, horribly mutilated. Proceeding fully half a mile further down the track the deputy humane officer discovered the head and an arm of the deceased. The body was gathered gently together and taken to Charing Cross for inquest thereupon.

How the brakeman met his death is a mystery. When the M. C. R. train pulled into Fargo last evening at 11 o'clock he was missing. The conductor at once went back over the line with caboose and engine and the body was found west of Charing Cross. The authorities were notified immediately.

Detective McGregor arrived on the scene at 6.30 this morning and had the remains removed.

Dr. R. V. Bray, the railroad physician, was summoned by the company and Coroner Dr. Hanks placed in charge of the inquest. Undertaker Carr, of St. Thomas, is in charge of the remains, which will be removed to the dead man's late home in Oakville.

The inquest opened this morning and adjourned to meet again at Charing Cross on Friday evening.

The jury is composed as follows:—L. C. Shepley, Geo. Easley, Jas. Easley, J. N. Shepley, Alf. Walker, Wm. Walker, T. Holdaway, Frank Broadbent, Geo. Drury, Fred. Adams, Sydney White and B. West.

COVERED WITH SNOW.

London, June 11. — The abnormally warm weather in Scotland was suddenly ended with a snow storm this morning. The Grampian Mountains are covered with snow.

Summer Underwear

You can depend on the undertogs we sell. They're almost as carefully chosen as if they were watch springs.

It's a strong testimonial for an undergarment when it gets into our show cases. Makers know this even better than customers do. We go to the mills with a clear-cut notion of what we want, and never hesitate to reject an article that falls short of our standard. If all fell short we should just study out how to make the wanted thing ourselves. That's how this business grows. But these are all good enough.

First a word of the Deime Linen Mesh goods. We think well of them or they would not be here. The price is stiff, but the makers may be forgiven for that, as it has cost years of patient experiment to produce a stretchy linen fabric, suitable for underwear. The Deime people claim that wearers of these goods practically never take cold. They supply a book that fairly drips with interesting arguments. Ask us for one. Each garment costs $3.00

Balbriggan stands high as a cool and lasting summer wear fabric, and we've prepared largely in this line. Can sell you single or double thread balbriggans, plain or fancy knit, solid colors or stripes. Prices per garment range from 25c to 75c

The stock of merinos, cashmeres and natural wools is just about what a particular man likes to choose from, whether his purse be large or small. Medium and light weights, well shaped, made and trimmed, with trouser finish drawers, ribbed cuffs and ankles, at 50c, 75c and $1.00

The Maccabee Memorial Day, Sunday, June 16th, will be observed by Chatham Tent No. 8, in a manner befitting the Order of which we have the honor to be members.

The Tent has arranged the following program for the day:

The Sir Knights will assemble at the Lodge room at 1.30 p. m., and welcome the visitors from a distance who are going to join with us.

At two o'clock the procession will form, headed by the 24th Regiment Band, and march to the cemetery, where the beautiful Ritualistic work for the occasion will be carried out by the officers.

After the services are through the lines will reform and march back to the lodge room and disband till 6 p. m., when the Sir Knights will again form and march to the Baptist church, where Rev. J. J. Ross will deliver our annual sermon.

Let every Sir Knight be in line and show the citizens what a good turnout the K. O. T. M. can make.
