RUSSIANS WIN AFTER THREE-DAY BATTLE IN DRIVE ON LEMBURG

Are Now Encircling Brezany—Austro-German Forces Continue Retreat Before the Victorious Roumanians in Transylvania—Gen. Haig Complets Capture of Eaucourt l'Abbaye—French Capture Another Line of German Defences

BRITISH COMPLETE CAPTURE OF EAUCOURT L'ABBAYE.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—General Haig reports the British have completed the capture of Eaucourt l'Abbaye by driving the Germans from some houses to which they had clung for several days.

FRENCH TAKE STRONGLY FORTIFIED GERMAN LINE.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—The French War Office announcement says that a strongly fortified line of the German defences between Morval and St. Vaas Wood, northeast of Combes has been captured by French.

RUSSIANS GAIN BIG ADVANTAGE IN LEMBERG DRIVE.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 4.—After three days' furious fighting the Russians have won a considerable advantage in their drive on Lemberg and are encircling the important railway town of Brezany which is now under Russian fire. The Austro-German forces have been driven from the heights south of the town.

TEUTON FORCES STILL RETREATING IN TRANSYLVANIA.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 4.—Austro-German forces continue their retreat in Transylvania before the steady advance of the re-organized Roumanian army.

TERRIFIC SPEED OF BRITISH PLANE WITH THE BRITISH.

Oct. 4.—Never were such number of planes employed, and never before did they play such an important part as in the battle of the Somme. The wastage of British planes at the front has been supplied by new planes flown across the Channel from England, where after coming from the factory they are tested out at the home aerodrome. The record time in crossing the Channel at the narrowest point, where the distance is twenty-two miles, is eight minutes.

When the Associated Press correspondent, who was in London for a day's leave from the front, asked a certain General at the War Office for permission to fly back instead of going by steamer, train and automobile, the answer was: "Perfectly easy." And to prove it he called up the Commander of the flying corps and in five minutes all was arranged over the telephone.

"What about my baggage?" asked the correspondent. "Oh take it along and strap it on," replied the General. "A plane that carries 150 pounds of bombs will not be bothered with a dress-suit case."

A dozen machines, one after another, were due to go to France that day as soon as the wire said a storm on the other side of the Channel had passed. The correspondent slipped into a wadded jacket for protection against the wind, which would also act as a lifebuoy if he happened to fall into the Channel, and took his place, a position usually occupied by the observer, who also mans the machine gun. "She's a good and steady 'bus'," said the pilot. "They flew her down from the factory three days ago and she was tuned up and ready for her part in the big show on the other side. You must not expect any fancy stunts. My business is to fly her to France and deliver her in good condition, ready for work."

"Our object is not to take any unnecessary risks," said the pilot, "but to get the plane to the front, where it is needed, and will have risks in plenty over the battlefield."

On account of thick weather he took the Channel this trip at a height of 4,000 feet. As the white lacework of surf beat against the chalk just under foot the correspondent looked at his watch. As the machine crossed the white edging of the surf at the foot of the chalk cliffs of France the correspondent looked again at his watch, and say that the time elapsed was seventeen minutes. The flight had not been made over the narrow part of the Channel. The fastest steamer would have required an hour and a quarter, and, travelling that way, the passage would have been rough, as a heavy sea was running.

Now over the broad spaces of the hedgeless land of France, with the fields so many patchwork squares stretching between soft green clumps of woods, and on toward the section of the front and the battle line, so well known to the correspondent. Then finally, over a cathedral tower and down on the green floor of the aerodrome, where a score of other new planes fresh from England had been marshalled in ranks upon their arrival. When storms have prevented migration for a period, fifty have come in from England in one day.

"Good night," said the pilot, after he had reported his arrival to the aerodrome official and before getting into an automobile. "I am off to catch the steamer and bring back another 'bus' tomorrow."

VENIZELOS MEN IN NEW CABINET.

ATHENS, Oct. 4.—The resignations of all the Cabinet Ministers, except the Premier, and the Minister of Foreign Affairs, are now in the hands of the King. The Cabinet will be arranged probably so that several supporters of M. Venizelos, the former Premier will hold portfolios, thus giving the new Ministry a national character.

Orders have been issued to the Royalist newspapers to cease attacking M. Venizelos, in view of the co-operation of his adherents with the new government.

A GENEROUS SUBSCRIPTION

Senator Corby Agrees to Contribute $100 a week to Patriotic Fund Till Close of War.

Belleville, Ont., Sept. 25, 1916. H. F. Ketcheson, Esq., Chairman of the Patriotic Committee, Belleville, Ont.

My Dear Ketcheson—Allow me to congratulate you and the gentlemen of your committee on the good work you have done since this fund was started for the purpose of protecting the wives and families of our dear boys who are sacrificing their health, and possibly their lives in fighting to sustain Canada and the British Empire.

We are all proud, as Canadians of the loyalty of our boys throughout the whole of the Dominion who have responded so nobly to the call of duty.

I, also, wish to congratulate you as Mayor of the City and the gentlemen who have the honor of presiding as Aldermen with you for applying the handsome amount of the people's money this year to the fund which I am sure will meet with the approval of all our citizens.

I understand that with the amount voted by the city your committee will still require almost as much more by private subscription to meet the requirements and calls for the year, and I was informed that a meeting will be called in the near future for the purpose of raising the amount, and as I am leaving for the North in a few days and will be away for a month I will be pleased to subscribe $100 per week until the end of the war; 30 per cent. to go to the Patriotic Fund, and the balance, 20 per cent. to be paid to the Belleville Red Cross Patriotic Society, Argyle, Quinte and St. Julien Chapters, I.O.G.E., one quarter each, to assist the good work being done by our ladies of this city which I am sure we all, as citizens, appreciate.

I remain, Yours sincerely, (Sgd.) H. Corby.

P.S.—We are informed that it is the intention of the city to put on a campaign in the near future in order to supplement the grant made by the City Council as well as what patriotic citizens are doing by way of regular, stipulated contributions.

WILSON FOUNDRY FOR BELLEVILLE

Glenora Company Lets Contract For Buildings

AT HOLTON'S MILL SITE Foundry Will Employ Eighty Hands—Significance of This Industry

After fifty years of manufacturing at Glenora, or Lake on the Mountain, Messrs. J. C. Wilson and Company, have decided to come to Belleville to locate their new works. For some time this company which is engaged in the foundry and machine business has been looking for a place to locate in order to be near railway facilities and to secure better accommodation for their employees. A number of Bay of Quinte towns were hopeful of securing this industry but Belleville was chosen as the most favorably situated.

The Holton Lumber Company's site has been acquired and the new foundry will be built there. This furnishes access to the Canadian Northern and Canadian Pacific railway tracks in southwest Belleville. The products of the Wilson foundry are in times of peace, machinery for manufacturing such as water-wheels, gearing and so forth. At present the company has a large munition order.

The plant will employ about eighty hands and the outlook is bright for an increase. Yesterday Mr. Lucius E. Allen was awarded the contract for the construction of the foundry buildings. They will be up to date in every respect. It is intended to use the old lumber mill as a pattern storage.

Already employees of the company are in Belleville looking for houses and a scarcity of dwellings to rent is the result.

This is the second industry Belleville has secured from the outside since the Holting mills were brought here from the United States. There have been industries started here since then but none have removed to Belleville. This proves that while citizens are and have been confident of Belleville's future, outsiders have now come to look upon this city as the most attractive for manufacturing purposes.

The new Wilson building is to be built of solid brick, with concrete floors, electric crane, steel roof, 50 x 150, and to be completed by November 15.

Wages Suit in Division Court—Judgment Reversed on Second Trial

The case of Nick Gavas against Bill Coros, both Greeks, living in Belleville, was tried in division court yesterday. It was a suit for $100 for wages. The case first came to trial on July 25th last and the trial judge favored the defendant. A new trial which was ordered on the production of new material evidence opened yesterday and resulted in a reversal of the decision, the judgment being given by Judge Derohs for the plaintiff Gavas for $100 with costs.

Gavas claimed that the $100 was due him as wages earned at the Ideal Candy Store, Front Street, which he claimed was owned and operated by Bill Coros. The latter denied any interest in the cafe business and repudiated ever engaging Gavas to work there. At the trial the plaintiff established by three witnesses that Coros had instructed another by the name of Maropoulos, to see Gavas who was working in Peterborough and tell him to come to Belleville. After being here a couple of weeks in 1915, Gavas according to his testimony had a conversation with Coros in the candy store, Coros agreeing to pay him. The business was apparently run in the name of Nick Rousos until one month before Gavas quit work. He commenced in May, 1915 and ended in November and for the last month he was paid by one Dourós who was then agent for Coros.

DEATH OF MRS. FRADETTE

WILLS ARE MADE BY SOLDIERS

Special Forms Now Being Issued to Overseas Soldiers.

An order dealing with wills for soldiers who are going overseas appears in orders of the 155th battalion. The making of a will is a very important matter and the military authorities are making every effort to get all the soldiers to discharge this duty before going out of Canada. The work thus done greatly assists in the rapid discharge of red tape incurred in properly disposing of a soldier's estate after he has been killed in action. To avoid any possible trouble the order as given below shows some of the precautions being taken:

"A special form has been drawn up to facilitate the making of a will, by officers, N.C.O.'s and men embarking for overseas service.

"The soldier's active service pay book which is issued to the men immediately on arrival in England contains a short form of military will which is sufficient for the purpose of leaving personal estates, but is not valid for the passing of real estate as a short military will is merely a photograph will, made without witnesses, and, to give legal effect to a will outside of personal estate it is essential that it should be a form of will duly signed and witnessed by two witnesses.

"Very great difficulties occur in dealing with the estates and effects of officers and men, who unfortunately become casualties on active service and it is considered in the best interests of all concerned that everybody proceeding on active service should execute a will as protection to his relatives and friends.

"The will must be witnessed by two persons, and forms may be obtained at company orderly rooms. Company commanders will see that these forms are properly completed and handed in to the battalion orderly room."

HEN CAME BACK

Inspector and Police Officer Have Story to Tell of a Silver Campine.

The cat that came back has nothing on a silver campine fowl which was formerly owned by Police Constable D. J. Corrigan and now by Inspector R. C. Arnott. A few days ago Mr. Corrigan exchanged some silver campines for some partridge rooks with Mr. Arnott. The exchanged poultry were duly locked up in their new pens. A couple of days later Mr. Corrigan noticed an extra campine in his pen. Later he found Mr. Arnott had missed one. Inquiry showed the campine belonged to Mr. Arnott, being one of the traded ones. Mr. Arnott last night got the fowl and locked it up. Question—How did the campine get from Albert St. to Church St.? The sense of direction and home, is given as the explanation.

BOOZE BLOTTED OUT ALL RECOLLECTION.

Pte. Larue Could Not Remember Where he Collected His Heavy Cargo.

Pte. Larue, of the 154th battalion, collected a cargo of enlightening spirits on Saturday night and was arrested by the police. This morning his memory was smeared with cob webs and he could not remember where he got his booze, only that an unknown soldier had presented it to him. He was sent to jail for a week and in the meantime if his memory returns he will be given a chance to divulge the name of his life-saver and if he still fails to remember a three months' sentence awaits him.—Kingston Standard.

REQUEST FOR MAGAZINES.

The 155th Batt. stationed at Barrieheld has sent out a request for magazines, papers, books, small games such as checkers, dominoes, etc., these to be used by the men on the trains and transport en route overseas. This request was made to the Mayor, Mr. H. F. Ketcheson, and also to the Y.M.C.A. secretary. If friends of the 155th Batt. would send their donations of magazines, books, games, etc., to the Y.M.C.A. sometime before Oct. 11th, they will be shipped to Barrieheld.

ALLIED TROOPS ADVANCE ON THE MACEDONIAN FRONT

Four Villages Guarding the Monastir Lines Are Occupied—British, French, Serbian and Russian Soldiers All Score Successes Against Bulgarians—War Office at Sofia Admits Reverses—Royal Flying Corps Does Good Against Troop Transport and on a Railroad Train—King Peter's Army Fights With Gallantry.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Allies advanced along the whole Macedonian front today. A joint assault by French, Serbian and Russian troops north of Florina won for them four villages guarding the Cerna Valley lines before Monastir. King Peter's troops pushed ahead on their own soil, west of the Kaimakalan ridge, while a British bayonet attack on the east bank of the Struma completely routed the enemy. Admission of most of these reverses is made in today's official statement from Sofia.

An official statement on the operations of the eastern army issued in Paris last night reads:

"As a result of the vigorous actions fought by the Serbians in the region of Kaimaklan, the Bulgarians have abandoned their positions on Satrkov-Grob and the River Brod, and appear to be retreating toward the north.

"The Serbians have occupied Hovio and the French Petorak and Verbinj. On the right wing the British have captured Janikov, east of the Struma."

Following is the British statement:

"Yesterday the Bulgarians counter-attacked with three battalions against our new positions on the east bank of the Struma. The attack was broken by our fire. One of our battalions then charged with the bayonet and completely routed the enemy, taking forty prisoners.

"The Royal Flying Corps carried out successful bombing attacks on troops in transport in Prosenik and on a railroad train travelling from there to Seresae."

The Bulgarian report follows:

"In the Lake Presha region there was considerable artillery activity, without infantry action, at Hill 1944, south of Kaimakalan. As a consequence of violent artillery fire on the summit, and in order to avoid unnecessary loss, our troops were ordered to withdraw to their main position in the Moglenica Valley. There was violent reciprocal artillery fire west and east of the Vardar."

"An artillery fire took place at the foot of the Belaschita Mountain. A patrol engagement resulted in our favor near the Poroj station.

"On the Struma front enemy battalions which advanced under the protection of a hurricane of fire succeeded in occupying the villages of Karadjakoi, Jenkoi, and Revolyen. By counter-attacks we drove the enemy from the two last-named villages to their former positions. Fighting near Karadjakoi continues.

"On the Aegena coast the enemy fleet bombarded without result, a height north of Oragno."

GRADUAL WITHDRAWAL MASKED BY GERMANS

ON THE BRITISH FRONT, Oct. 4.—The character of the present fighting is weird and full of queer surprises. It is not easy to find any definite plan in the enemy's mind or to establish a line upon which he is ready to give battle.

Here and there, north of Courcellette, our men push forward patrols that find only a thin wall of men which crumbles before them. "At other places not far away, as at the German trenches as far as Eaucourt l'Abbaye, the ground is strongly held, as though the Germans were determined to defend this line at all costs.

I was inclined to believe until this morning that the Germans were withdrawing to a new line, leaving behind only a thin screen of men with machine-gun outposts to fight rear-guard actions. But suddenly they came back, counter-attacking much more boldly than at any recent time. The prisoners I saw this morning had orders to hold their ground at all hazards and denied any idea of falling back willingly.

Doubtless the riddle has been read by the British experts. It is possible that a gradual withdrawal is being masked by sharp counter-blows to check the quickness of the British advance.

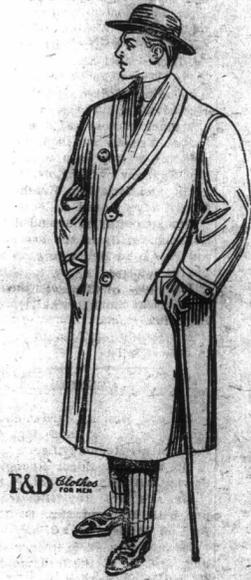

NEW BIG BLOW STRUCK AT ENEMY

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Russians without lessening their heavy pressure on Lemberg, have launched a terrific new offensive on the key front of the east—that in Volhynia, west of Lutsk.

While the German War Office claims that Russian attacks in the Zlota Lipa region, southeast of Lemberg, were repulsed, Petrograd announces the capture of 1,000 additional prisoners, making a total of about 5,000 since Saturday. The Teutons have brought up heavy reinforcements in this district and have attempted counter attacks. These failed with severe losses, the General Staff report given out in Petrograd says.

THE BARON AT HIS BEST.

Baron Shaughnessy never shows to better advantage than when he delivers an impromptu address. That which he gave to the combined Board of Trade and Canadian Club yesterday was an example. The baron rarely has a set speech. He depends on the nature of the gathering he faces and the spirit of the moment to furnish inspiration, and his unusually broad knowledge of men and things, and his habit of expressing his thoughts with mastery and precision. He is a charming public speaker. The head of the C.P.R. is not a keen disciple of formalism. He likes plain human nature, and he likes his surroundings and his friends to be alive and not artificial. In a gathering where big things are discussed he is at his best, and the pity is that he is not heard more often in public. When the time comes that he wishes to relinquish the multitudinous cares of the responsible position he now occupies, Canadians would be pleased were he to take a seat in parliament, where his ripe wisdom and his cool, sane but quick judgment would be of inestimable value to the nation.

Or, if not that, the baron would be an admirable high commissioner in London.

Baron Shaughnessy is catholic in his tastes and recreations. He reads widely, but can turn from the printed page to discuss painting or politics with equal facility and charm, and he gave those Canadians who were privileged to hear him yesterday a pleasant taste of his quality. May he live long and return often, will be the wish of his admirers here. —Calgary News-Telegram.

MOTHER GOOSE FAIR OPENED

Pleasing Entertainment Provided by St. Julien Chapter A Visit to the Booths

"Mother Goose Fair," which is being held under the auspices of the members of St. Julien Chapter, I.O. D.E. at the Y.M.C.A. attracted a large crowd of citizens on Tuesday afternoon and evening. The entrance of the association building was most pleasing in the decorative effects at the booths where all manner of articles could be bought. The visiting of these booths, and attendance at the operetta "A Day in Flowerdom," occupied the time of the guests.

One of the most attractive spots in the entire fair was the fortune-telling booths. Mrs. Wheatley and Miss Dolan read the fates of ladies and gentlemen by the cup, by the card and by the hand. The entertainment provided by these young ladies was the occasion of much mirth and wholesome advice was given those who applied for readings of the destinies.

The fish pond always had a large crowd around it. Five cents alone was the bait that attracted the fisherfolk and unlike the most of fishing expeditions, every fisher secured some reward. Father Neptune's daughters seeing that no fisherman was forgotten.

The candy counter decked in a gay manner with streamers of ribbon, was not the least busy place in Mother Goose's establishment. Sweetmeats were dispensed in a liberal manner in artistic packages.

Young ladies in another booth disposed of articles, such as teddy bears and finely wrought specimens of ladies' work.

In the reception room of the Y.M.C.A., tea was served to the guests. In this crowded scene moved about to and fro ladies in characteristic Mother Goose costumes and emblematic and allegorical garb, directing the visitors from booth to booth and assisting in their entertainment.

Mrs. (Dr.) A. E. MacColl, regent of St. Julien Chapter, who was assisted by the young ladies in arrangements had also prepared an operetta—"A Day in Flowerdom," which was presented to a crowded gymnasium. Mrs. MacColl presided at the piano and Mrs. A. Johnstone directed the intricate dancing which the young ladies of the cast performed. Beautiful costumes, showing imagination in every one of them with a complicated effect of richness and variety of colors were worn by the performers. The music was light and airy, suiting the realm of flowers in which the scene was laid. Besides the choruses were several fine solos and duets, taken by Miss L. Wesse, Miss Grace Foxton, Miss M. McCrodon, Miss Maud Foxton and others.

Miss May Wallace recited a capital darkey story "The One Legged Goose." The choruses were well taken and the dancing was attractive. The second part of the program marked the crowning of the queen which was carried out with fine effect. Those taking part in the operetta were:

Papa Jacques Rose—Miss M. Burke
Mamma Jacques Rose—Miss Ruth Snell
White Rose—Miss Grace Foxton

THANKFUL MOTHERS.

Thousands of thankful mothers throughout Canada—many of them your own neighbors—speak with the greatest praise of that splendid medicine for their little ones. Among these is Mrs. Albert Nio, St. Brieux, Sask., who says: "I have been using Baby's Own Tablets for the past seven years and they have done my four children a world of good. I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Ministerial Association of Belleville held its first meeting of the autumn at the parlor of the Y.M.C.A. on Monday at 10 a.m. In the absence of the President, Rev. S. C. Moore, the chair was occupied by the Vice President and the new Secretary Rev. J. N. Clarry, who has had much experience in such office, did duty as scribe. Being the first meeting, the attendance was not as representative as usual, but some of the brethren from the greatest distance were present. A good deal of business was done and the first subject on the program was dealt with by the Rev. M. E. Wilson of Caniffon. The subject: "The greatest menace to the Church today," was well suited to Mr. Wilson's intellectual ability, and was dealt with in a clear, concise manner. Three things very much pleased all present, viz., the historical setting, the breadth of vision and the facile and comprehensive presentation.

Plans were made for the reorganization of the Lord's Day Alliance and for systematic hospital visitation, which will be resumed Thursday afternoon of this week.

The acting president and the secretary were appointed a committee to draft a resolution expressive of the association's thanks to the Premier, the leader of the opposition and the local Parliament for granting the new temperance legislation to the Province. A copy of the resolution will appear in the local press.

COURSES FOR THE WINTER

Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, G. S. O., Plans for Instruction.

Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, General Staff Officer, has decided that the troops in this district for the winter will be thoroughly trained in all the specialties that were so valuable at the camp. As soon as Lieut. Sherman Young returns from the School of Musketry and machine gun course at Ottawa he will organize a Kings-ton School of Machine Gunnery, at which there will be a constant attendance of about twenty. Each course at the school will be for three weeks' duration.

There will be a bayonet fighting and physical training course of twenty-one days for each course. In addition to these two schools there will also be the School of Cookery, Infantry School (as conducted last year by Lieut.-Col. D. Barragar), School of Signalling, and a course in wireless. In fact there will be all of the instruction which has made the reputation of Barrisfield Camp so very high. The arrangements for the winter are already being made.

Mrs. Barley's mother had gone to London to visit friends and while there the accident happened. She was not struck by fragments of the shell but the shock has rendered her unconscious and as she is a woman of 84 years of age, little hope is held for her recovery.

The many friends of Earl Henderson, Dundas street, will be shocked to hear of the serious accident which befell him last evening. While in the vicinity of the C.N.R. yards he was struck on the arm by a falling timber. The unfortunate man was taken to the Belleville hospital Tuesday morning where every means of saving his arm will be put into execution. Trenton High School Field Day

The Trenton H. S. held its 3rd annual field day on Friday, Sept. 29, forenoon and afternoon. Nature was not as kind as she might have been. The day was cloudy and threatening throughout with an occasional shower. The temperature was too low for the comfort of the competitors and onlookers. But in spite of these obstacles and threatening the field day was a marked success and all who took the trouble to visit the Firemen's Park on that occasion must have been thoroughly satisfied. The regrettable feature was that there were not three times as many present to see the boys and girls take part in the games. We think that the mothers and fathers and younger men and women might try to encourage such healthy sport by their presence even if they were not enthusiastic to see the contests—just for the sake of the boys and girls. But we feel sure that one visit would ensure a return visit annually. All the games were well contested and most interesting—the races creating high excitement. The basketball in itself was worthy to attract a large crowd. One of the finest things seen in Trenton for years is this group of girls most enthusiastically taking part in this game which requires daily practice, for in this way they are strengthening body, mind and spirit and fitting themselves for the larger life to which they will be shortly called with the coming years of womanhood. The enthusiasm and clear sportsmanship of these young ladies cries "shame" to the boys and young men of Trenton.

Teams from Belleville, Brighton and Trenton competed in the basketball tournament. Belleville and Trenton played first and finished the best and most interesting contest yet seen here. Belleville took advantage of an apparent nervousness of the Trenton girls to get a lead of 5 or 6 points. Then the home girls began to play and evened the score and throughout the game never were the contestants separated by more than 1 point. Trenton most of the time keeping that lead until 3 minutes to play, Belleville evened up from a free throw and just at the close added 4 more points. The final score was Belleville 17, Trenton 13.

The second game was not so close. Brighton has had little practice and were unable to hold Belleville. However the team is a likely one and with more practice will compel Trenton and Belleville to take note of it. At 6 o'clock the Trenton girls treated the basketball teams of Brighton and Belleville to an excellent supper in the Parish Hall. At the close of the repeat Mayor Ireland on behalf of Mrs. Ireland presented a 5lb box of chocolates to the captain of the winning team. The H. S. is most grateful to Mayor and Mrs. Ireland for their interest and liberality.

When the supper was over, the tables quickly disappeared as if by magic and dancing became the order of the evening. Before 10 o'clock all had set for their homes.

154th BATT. GETS THE KILTS

Rejoicing over Authority for 154th to Wear Kilts.

At last the 154th battalion is to have kilts. That will be glory for every one from Lieut.-Col. A. G. F. MacDonald down to the cooks. As mentioned in Friday's issue the necessary authority which has been held up for so many months, was granted by the acting Minister of Militia. The boys of the 154th are more than pleased. They have started to plague the quartermaster already for the issue and until those kilts come into the stores there will be little leisure in life for Capt. Crookers.

It will be remembered that many months ago Lieut.-Col. MacDonald stated that he had made application for the authority to make the 154th a killed unit. His hand was the pipes and the only thing necessary to make the 154th a credit to the historic name of MacDonald was the kilts. There was delay after delay until at times the boys almost gave up hope. Now all is changed, and their faces are wreathed in smiles. There are some 200 French-Canadians in the battalion but they want the good old Scotch tartan to wear too.

Col. MacDonald will have every man of the battalion outfitted in kilts before leaving for overseas.—Whig.

A Thorough Pill—To clear the stomach and bowels of impurities and irritants is necessary when their action is irregular. The pills that do this work thoroughly are Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are mild in action but mighty in results. They purge painlessly and effectively, and work a permanent cure. They can be used without fear by the most delicately constituted, as there are no painful effects preceding the gentle operation.

Heroic Serbians Capture Heights Near Monastir

And Drive the Bulgars From Their First Line--British Also Defeat Bulgarians--Violent Fighting at Bancourt--British Renew Activ- ity at Loos--Kaiser Reported to Have Appealed to President Wil- son to End the War.

Comparative Quiet On the Somme

RUSSIANS CONTINUE LEMBERG DRIVE

Maintain Their Gains and Capture 2,000 More Prisoners—Turk Troops Beaten—Fighting Beside the Teutons They Are Unable to Stand Before Czar's Soldiers—Lemberg Threatened From Two Important Directions.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The armies of Prince Leopold and the Archduke Karl are hitting back furiously at the Russians who have resumed their drive on Lemberg. Despite heavy attacks, however, the Russian armies have been able to maintain their gains in all but one sector, and have captured nearly 2,000 additional prisoners.

The heaviest fighting occurred on the front southeast of Lemberg, on the heights that rise up from the right bank of the Zlota Lipa River. Here Turkish troops are fighting side by side with Austrians and Germans, and it was against these forces that the Russians registered a gain which Vienna admits as "some metres."

On Prince Leopold's front, northeast of Lemberg, the Austrian War Office reports the repulse of Russian attacks, three being broken up in one sector and seven in another. Here the Austrians have launched a counter-attack, for which progress is claimed. South of the Brody-Lemberg railway in this region Berlin claims that a position was recaptured from the Russians and 1,500 prisoners taken.

A despatch from Petrograd says: The fighting along the southwest frontier has reached another of its periodic climaxes, which has turned in favor of the Russians, yielding them a large number of prisoners, and has again threatened Lemberg from two important directions—along the main railway from Brody to Lemberg and from Brezany.

Thus along a sixty-mile front the Russians again appear to be closing in on the Galician capital, but the vagueness of the official communications and the absence of supplementary details leave the extent of the Russian advance in doubt.

RUSSIA'S PERMANENT RESERVE 1,500,000.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 3.—Interviewed by the representative of a Paris newspaper, General Polivanoff, Russian Minister of War, declared Russia now has a permanent reserve of a million and a half of young recruits, which permits the army authorities to fill the various units without sending to the front men with insufficient military training.

BULGARS RETREAT BEFORE THE SERBS.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A retreat by the Bulgarians under heavy Serbian artillery fire is reported in an official statement issued by the War Office referring to the Macedonian front.

ROMANIAN INVASION IS FORMIDABLE.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Roumanian force which invaded Bulgaria Sunday is believed to be moving southward against the important Ruspuk-Varna railway. The army that crossed the Danube is believed to comprise at least 20,000 men.

NEARLY ALL IN UNIFORM.

Belleville Cadet Corps Had Forty Boys When Started

Lieut. Col. D. Barragar, commandant of the School of Infantry, has received several letters from boys at the front who had their first military experience in the Queen Mary School in Belleville of which he was the principal.

When the cadet corps for schools were first authorized, some eight years ago, Col. Barragar, immediately applied for permission to organize one for his school. Proving that the application was one of the first was the fact that the corps was given the number eight. There were forty boys in the corps and though no uniform was allowed the enthusiasm was at a high pitch. Today with one or two exceptions every one of those boys is in uniform in units commencing even with the first contingent.

The fact that such a large percentage of boys have enlisted is one of the greatest tributes to the cadet corps movement and in years to come with the present system of government assistance the corps should flourish even more than ever.

ROUMANIAN ARMY INVADES BULGARIA AND ALSO PUSHES OFFENSIVE IN TRANSYLVANIA

Strong Forces Cross the Danube River South of Bucharest—Advance With Russians in the Dobrudja—Aim to Nullify Much-Heralded Offensive of Von Hindenburg.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A new phase of the great battle in the Balkans has been opened. Strong Roumanian forces crossed the Danube River south of Bucharest today, won a firm footing on the southern bank and began preparing to sweep forward into Bulgaria.

In the movement the Roumanian and Russian troops in the Dobrudja co-operated by thrusting forward against the whole Bulgarian front and pressing the enemy's lines back in the centre and on the right flank along the Danube.

At the same time King Ferdinand's troops in Transylvania carried out a successful offensive movement north of Fegares, near the scene of their recent defeat at the hands of von Falkenhayn, advancing on both sides of the great Kukul River.

Thus, stirred to desperate action by the growing menace of Hindenburg's much heralded offensive against their country, the Roumanian troops have sprung to the attack on every front and have begun in earnest a counterblow against Bulgaria that may soon bring the collapse of the enemy's campaign in Transylvania.

The success of the new attempt to crush Bulgaria depends to a large extent on the strength of the forces Roumania can put into the field in the border region while still threatened by Falkenhayn's drive on the west. Powerful forces, well equipped with guns and ammunition, might strike a vital blow at Bulgaria in a short time.

From the tip of the angle formed by the Danube and the Dobrudja-Bulgarian border, where the Roumanian army of invasion has won a firm grip, King Ferdinand's troops may strike forward in any one of three directions and be rewarded with important successes against the enemy.

The most probable move would be toward the southwest, with Rustchuk the goal. This city, of some 33,000 inhabitants, lies on the Danube at the influx of the River Lem. Its importance lies in the fact that it is the northern terminus of a railroad running almost in a straight line to Varna, 139 miles to the southeast. It was an important fortress under the Turks, and would serve as an excellent base for Roumanian operations against Bulgaria.

Control of the Rutchuk-Varna Railway would assure the success of any invasion of Bulgaria from the northeast, forming a barrier from the Danube to the Black Sea. The greatest prize beyond this lien is Shumla, on a branch of this same railway, and only fifty miles west of Varna.

While the Roumanians are advancing at some points in Transylvania, they have been checked and driven back in other sectors. Near Orsova the Teutons have seized several heights, and west of Petroseny, in the Strein Valley region, Mount Oberca has fallen into their hands. News from the front indicates however, that the Roumanians have completely recovered from the effects of their reverse in the Hermannstadt sector, and are once more conducting a successful offensive. Observers here already express the belief that Hindenburg's attack against Roumania has slowed down, and in a brief time will be given up entirely.

FLUSHING OF PAVEMENT.

Paving Company's Representative Advises Council—Ald. Duckworth's Statement.

Mr. A. E. Driscoll of the Paving Company which put down Front St. and Bridge St. pavements, last evening at the Civic Committee meetings stated in answer to a question by Ald. Duckworth that the pavements did not need to be flushed more than two or three times per week at hours when the rays of the sun would not strike the wet surface. Watering once per day would not interfere with the guarantee of the pavement but "you don't want your pavement to go to pieces just as soon as the guarantee runs out."

Ald. Duckworth put himself on record as opposed to any surplus watering, when pumping water is expensive, the cost is $2 per day to flush the street and damage wrought to the pavement.

IMPROVEMENTS

The Ontario is busy this week installing a large new Miehle newspaper press. This is undoubtedly one of the finest and fastest presses that has been installed in Eastern Ontario. While the press is being put in position the paper is being run off on the large jobbing press and that accounts for its somewhat reduced size. This week also an addition is being built to The Ontario job rooms to make additional room for machinery and equipment.

THREE WEEKS TILL CLOSE

The Call for Overseas Halted With Delight by Men of Battalion.

"It means the end of the camp," was the statement of an officer after reading that the three overseas battalions at Barriefield had been warned for overseas. The order shows the local application of the Militia Department's decision to use Canada as a training ground in the summer and England during the winter. The three battalions at the camp, however, have passed the various stages of training and are practically ready for overseas work. They will go overseas in the immediate future and carry forward the reputation of Barriefield as a training ground. Their leaving will mean the end of the camp. Probably by October 20th there will be no soldiers there. The troops remaining after the departure of the three battalions will be only Queen's Field Ambulance Corps and the various departmental corps. The Q.F.A. will be wanted overseas as well, but no word as to the disposal of these units was with the original order about the battalions. The order was hailed with delight. These boys have been drilling constantly and earnestly all summer, and now comes the official word that their dream of crossing the ocean is nearing realization.

JOS. CHAPPELL DIES OF WOUNDS

Thomasburg Boy, Member of 39th Batt., in Today's Casualties.

The Ontario regrets to report that Joseph E. Chappell, a gallant Thomasburg boy, has died of wounds as a result of the recent fighting in France. Joseph Chappell was an English boy who came to Canada over twenty years ago. After his arrival here he went to Thomasburg and made his home with Mr. Walter Embury. Here he remained until his enlistment with the 39th battalion. He was about 30 years of age. A surviving sister resides in Toronto.

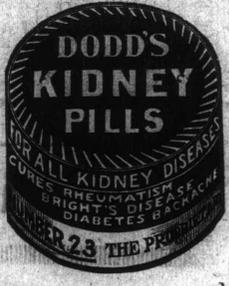

Pte. Chappell was greatly respected and very popular among the young people about Thomasburg. He was vivacious and companionable and made friends wherever he went. To his employer he gave devoted service and has now given the highest possible service to King and Country. He was a member of the Methodist church and of the I.O.O.F. at Thomasburg.

For more than a year prior to enlistment he acted as correspondent for The Ontario for Thomasburg and in that capacity did splendid work that we gratefully acknowledge. He was a life of usefulness. But happily it is not the nature of our soldiers to give in.

When a man "bucks up and buckles down" to it, he may have lost even a couple of limbs, he may have lost his nerve, and that is worse, but he finds himself able to conquer his deprivation, to get his body and mind into fine trim again. He bothers no more about the things he can't do, he has discovered so many things he can. "My dear friend" as Dr. Johnson said to Bozzy, "dear your mind of cant and he might have added, "by knocking off the 't'."

THE FIRST SUBMARINE MENTIONED IN THE BIBLE.

A very interesting theme was presented on Wednesday evening by Evangelist Johnston in his new hall on Campbell St., east of the Y.M.C.A. The subject was a unique one being entitled "The first submarine that is mentioned in the Bible." Mr. Johnston declared that although the record of Jonah and the whale was declared absurd and impossible by modern critics, yet the story was true nevertheless. Many say that a whale is unable to swallow a man because his gullet is too small. That being true, even then it would not disprove the record; for in chap. 1:17, it says

"The Lord prepared a fish to swallow Jonah." If the Lord prepared a fish for the purpose there isn't any doubt about its fulfillment. Men today build all kinds of submarines and yet no one questions the fact. Let us, he said give the Lord the same credit and believe His word for even the Saviour sanctioned this experience when he mentioned it in Matt. 12: 40. If we deny the whole story we then deny the word of Christ, and if we deny His word we deny Him. This is the logical outcome of rejecting any part of inspiration.

The hall is nicely fitted up and is generally attractive and comfortable and during the winter the lectures will be held on Sundays, Wednesdays and Friday nights.

TRIBUTE TO PROF. DENYS

From Former Principal of Provincial Institution at Belleville.

Prof. Denys, who resigned his post at St. Mary's on account of his state of health, has just received a letter from R. Matheson, formerly principal of the Ontario Institution for the Deaf, who says in part: "We feel sure the many friends you have made in Kingston, together with the hosts of your well-wishers in Belleville, will regret your going, and wish you restored health, so that you may enjoy life's pleasures for many years to come. In every phase of your life you have done your duty sincerely and nobly and earned the respect and esteem of those you were associated with. The members of my family join me in wishing you every blessing vouchsafed to mortals here below."

Prof. Denys leaves Kingston today for Montreal, where he will in future reside. Professor Denys was taken very agreeably by surprise on Wednesday evening when he was invited to St. Mary's School by the boys of St. Mary's Sanctuary choir and presented with a handsome gold-headed umbrella, suitably engraved.

155TH NEEDS 100 MORE MEN

Dr. Evans Appealed For Recruits at Griffin's Theatre Last Night.

The 155th battalion wants one hundred recruits to fill up their ranks to enable them to go overseas. "A" company of Belleville requires 25 men. Majors Allen, Cook and McPee and Captains Geen and Hyman are in the city and vicinity to aid in securing the men required. It is an opportunity to get overseas within a few weeks. Dr. Evans, a military editor at Barriefield Camp was in Belleville last evening and appeared at Griffin's theatre on behalf of the 155th. He was introduced by Mayor Ketcheson, who paid a compliment to his work at the training camp of the Third Division. Dr. Evans is himself the hero of two campaigns and declared that would the authorities allow he would go to France. Yesterday he said he had witnessed the review of the 4,000 men at Barriefield by Hon. F. B. McCurdy, acting Minister of Militia. Of these the 155th made the finest showing and he was proud of his association with them. He knew the unit from its commanding officer down to almost the latest recruit and could speak of the high quality of the men. He had seen 40,000 men trained at Barriefield and none had he seen which gave better evidence of efficiency than those of the 155th. They need one hundred men to fill up the ranks so as to go overseas shortly. Dr. Evans pointed out the privilege of service in a righteous cause and told a story of a man, the hero of four campaigns, now 76 years of age, who had got to France and was now in the trenches. The speaker appealed to the young men to enlist and put on the khaki.

The Belleville recruiting office enlisted this week two men for the Queen's Field Ambulance and one for the Cobourg Hoavy Battery. While it is difficult to secure recruits for the 155th as they are a-bent to go overseas, it is said there are many who are ready to join a new battalion.

TEACHINGS OF TOR RUSSELL

Editor Ontario.

Dear Sir,—As a reader of the Ontario, I was deeply interested in your able editorial on "The Millennium". Too few of our journalists break away from the beaten paths and discuss such questions, but I have noticed on numerous subjects that you have risen to the occasion in the most impartial manner which gives your editorials both force and power. The statement advanced that the doctrine of the Millennium did not originate with Pastor C. T. Russell, but was one of the oldest views in the Church, is fully substantiated by history. The Messianic kingdom, so earnestly coveted by the Jews dates the beginning of this ancient tradition, which comes to us with such force is almost completely lost sight of only to reappear again. The tap root of Millenarianism is therefore based on the Messianic expectation of the Jewish prophets as set forth in the old testament, which affirmed that a period of peace and the triumph of Israel would follow the establishment of the Messianic Kingdom and these ideas have been embraced by numerous sects of Christians—particularly the Adventists, Christadelphians and International Bible Students. According to the prophecies of the Old Testament, the consummation of the plan of salvation was, on the one hand to be brought about by the personal advent of Jehovah in his glory. He appears amid the Jubilation of the whole creation to establish his kingdom on the earth; to break the power of the oppression and to inaugurate an era of inexpressible happiness. In this connection note the exultant prophetic utterance of David (1 Chron. 16: 31-34). He says: "Let the heavens be glad and let the earth rejoice; And let men say among the nations, Jehovah Reigneth. Let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof; Let the fields rejoice and all that are therein. At the presence of Jehovah Because he cometh To judge the earth. O give thanks unto Jehovah, for he is good; For his mercy endureth forever." Jehovah himself takes up his dwelling on Zion, rulling all nations as they ring (Zech. XIII, 27), shines as the eternal light over the divine city (Isa. LX, 2, 19). While on the one hand the representations are thus made distinct that Jehovah will dwell among his people in the era of salvation, there are on the other, equally distinct that the Kingdom of God will be restored by the house of David. Both of these representations are put side by side in Ezek. 34, where Jehovah himself is portrayed as the shepherd (Ver. 11), and as at the same time, raising up a shepherd even his servant David (Ver. 28). In Verse 24 both delineations are merged in the description, "The Lord will be their God and My servant David a prince among them." This member of the house of David is the promised Messiah.

The first characteristic of the Old Testament prophecies is that Messiah kingdom was to rise from a humble beginning to a glorious consummation (Isa. XL, 1; Mic. V, 2). Like the first David, he was to come forth as a stem out of Jesse and be born in Bethlehem. The Messiah was to come not in pomp, but in humble circumstances (Zech. IX, 9). His royal power was to finally extend over all nations (Isa. XL, 10). The second characteristic of the Messiah of the Old Testament, is that he suffers and that his suffering and death atones for the sins of the people. The destruction of sin He will accomplish by the exercise of His righteous judgments (Isa. XL, 9) and the spread of the knowledge of Jehovah through the land, when all shall know Him from the least to the greatest. The expectations of the Messiah culminated in the Herodian period, and the vital power of these Messianic expectations is attested by the frequent outbreaks of the Jews against the Romans and Josephus explains this inveterate hostility by a prophecy in their sacred books according to which one should obtain dominion over the whole world from Judaea. The passage to which Josephus referred was in all probability Dan. ix, 24-27.

THE latest news of the town and surrounding neighborhood given in an interesting manner. OUR Daily News Letter from this thriving Town furnished by The Ontario's Special Correspondent. BUSHY TRENTON

TRNTON, Sept. 27.—The annual Financial District Meeting of the Brighton District was held yesterday in Grace Methodist Church, of Trenton with a splendid representation of both laymen and ministers from all parts of the district. During the forenoon the regular routine of business occupied the attention of the delegates, while the chairman of the district, Rev. Wesley Elliott of Brighton presided and Rev. Mr. Eaststone of Salem Circuit, financial secretary, took the record of the proceedings. The afternoon session was devoted to a discussion of Missionary problems and three strong addresses were delivered by Rev. Knox of Frankford, Dr. Harris, of China, returned missionary, and Rev. F. L. Brown, secretary of Home Missions of the Methodist Church of Canada. The meeting was a success in every sense of the term. Many very pleasing compliments were paid to the board, people and pastor of Grace Church for the magnificent new church which has risen on the foundation of the old one and for the splendid work which this church is now doing in the town and community. The delegates also expressed themselves as delighted with the courtesy and entertainment afforded them by the congregation of the Grace church. Campbell—Jones. St. George's Church, Trenton was again the scene of a pretty wedding on September 27th, 1916, at 11.45 a.m. when the Rev. Canon Armstrong united in marriage Olive M. eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones, Spring and Lorne Aves. and Dr. S. N. A. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Campbell, of Trail, B.C. The bride who was given away by her father, entered the church to the strains of music beautifully rendered by a full choir, gowned in a suit of Navy French serge, patterned hat of black and rose velvet trimmed with fur, shoes and gloves of grey kid and a corsage bouquet of lily of the valley and carrying a white prayer book. Miss Myrtle Kerr made a handsome bridesmaid, with navy suit and hat and carrying a large bouquet of pink roses. The groom was ably assisted by Mr. E. Graham. During the signing of the register, the choir excellently rendered "The voice that breathed o'er Eden." Amid showers of rice, confetti and heartfelt congratulations the happy couple left by C. P. R. for Montreal, New York and Atlantic City. The groom's gift to the bride was a Gerhard Heintzman piano, to the bridesmaid a cameo brooch and to the groomsmen a pearl tie pin. Among other gifts to the bride was a set of elite china dishes by her father, a forty-nine set of silver from Mr. Campbell's parents, a rosewood clock by the second best, a mission card table by St. George's choir, besides a chair, many pieces of silver, china, and linen. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside in their already furnished home on Spring street. — Toronto papers please copy. Miss Adeline Jorcan of Toronto, is spending a few days in town.

The destruction of Jerusalem by no means the grave of the Messianic hopes. Only the manner and time of that coming were in the dispute and the burden of the argument of the Apostles who reasoned in the Jewish Synagogues was to the effect that Christ fulfilled the predictions of the prophets and that He must first suffer before He could exultingly powers. As a further development in the Messianic chain, the church of the New Testament, who suffer with Him are to be associated with Him in His Messianic kingdom, for the purpose of enlightening and uplifting the world, for He must reign until all enemies are subdued. History records the fact that Millenarianism took precedence in the early church and that the doctrine was powerfully influenced by the blood-baptism of the persecutions. The doctrines spread from Asia Minor to other parts of the Church, primarily among the Jewish Christians. It is found in Cerinthus (Eusebius, H. E., III, 28, VII, 25) in the Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs (Jud. c. 25; Ben. Jan., c. 10) and amongst the Ebionites (Jerome, in Jes., IX, I, LXVI, 20), Irenaeus and Papias based their expectations of the Kingdom of a 1000 years on the assertion of those who had seen the Apostles. Even Jerome (in Isa., I, 18), did not dare to condemn the traditional opinion. The Church was the Kingdom of God on earth. The new relations of the state to the church, had powerfully contributed to the downfall of Millenarianism. The protection that the Church won for itself from the State deprived the doctrine of its vitality. In the middle ages, neither catastrophes in nature, nor degeneracy within the Church, excited Millenarian expectations. The glory possessed the kingdom in the glory of a Church triumphant over Emperor and Prince.

The second period in history begins with the Reformation, when many, influenced by the doctrine of the invisible church, became prophets of the Millennial Kingdom, the growing decline of the Church-State prominence. An able work in favor of Millenarianism entitled "Opus ecclesiae" was written by Bishop Berthold of Chiemsee in the year 1524. There is no name of importance among the Millenarians of the 16th century, but the doctrine was made prominent again in the 17th century. This was due to the religious wars in Germany, the persecutions of the Huguenots and the Revolution in England. The third period begins with the Son of David Carlaw, and Inspector for Electric Power Co. Pays the Price of Freedom.

Mr. Davidson Carlaw, Alexander street, received a message from Ottawa this morning conveying the sad intelligence that his son, Pte. Three days previously Mr. Carlaw received a cable from his other son, Mr. Raymond Carlaw of the Bank of Commerce, London, Eng., that his brother was dangerously wounded, and that bad news might be expected.

This was probably to soften down the worse news that was to follow. Pte. Carlaw had been in the trenches less than two months. After three months' preliminary training in Canada and two months in England he went with his draft to France.

WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK

IN BED MOST OF TIME

Her Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Indianapolis, Indiana.—"My health was so poor and my constitution so run down that I could not work. I was thin, pale and weak, weighed but 109 pounds and was in bed most of the time. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and five months later I weighed 133 pounds. I do all the housework and washing for eleven and I can truthfully say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a godsend to me for I would have been in my grave today but for it. I would tell all women suffering as I was to try your valuable remedy."

There is hardly a neighborhood in this country, wherein some woman has not found health by using this good old-fashioned root and herb remedy. If there is anything about which you would like special advice, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Deprived of her own children through their untimely death she became a mother to the entire community. Wherever there was sickness or suffering she was always on hand to comfort and to alleviate. Her gentle ministrations knew no denominational bounds. It was sufficient for her to ascertain that help or sympathy were needed and she was on hand with her benign gifts of loving service. The ending of this life, so modest, so unselfish, so devoted, will indeed be felt as a personal loss by every member of the community.

TWO FAMILIES MOURN FALLEN

Pte. J. Faux and Pte. McMichael Have Paid the Price.

The casualty lists have struck Belleville very heavily during the past week and today's toll of deaths is felt in two families. Pte. Joseph B. Faux and Pte. William A. McMichael have made the supreme sacrifice by giving up their lives in humanity's cause.

Pte. Joseph B. Faux, was on September 20th admitted to New Zealand Hospital, Amiens, suffering from shrapnel in the hip and shoulder. His condition was very serious and it was feared he would not recover. Mrs. Faux who was a Miss Cornell, received the tragic intimation today that her husband had died of wounds. Pte. Faux was a giant in stature. He was at one time an employee of the Steel Company at the Rolling Mills and was considered a faithful workman. He enlisted in Belleville in 1915 and went overseas with the 59th. Since June last he had been in the trenches. He likely fell in the great Somme drive. He leaves a large family of six children to mourn his death. All are of tender years as Pte. Faux was still a young man.

Pte. William A. McMichael, who has been killed in action went overseas with the 39th battalion. He was a young married man with a family of three children. He was about thirty years of age and was employed at the Rolling Mills.

A ROLL OF HONOR TO BE PREPARED

Movement to Perpetuate the Memory of Those Who Have Served in the Great Cause.

Editor Ontario.—The Council of the City of Belleville being desirous of perpetuating the patriotism and devotion to duty which has characterized the Sons of Belleville in the great struggle in which the British Empire has been so deeply engaged since August, 1914 has arranged to have a ROLL OF HONOR prepared, to be hung in the City Building, so that in future years the names of those sons of Belleville who whether at home or throughout the Empire have volunteered and served in the Forces of the British Empire or her Allies overseas will be properly preserved. In accordance with this the Council of 1916 have appointed a committee composed of His Worship, the Mayor, H. F. Ketcheson, Esq., Alderman W. B. Deacon and Mr. A. R. Walker, Librarian of the Public Library to prepare such list, and they earnestly request the co-operation of the citizens in gathering the information required. It will also contain the number of the regiment or other military unit in which they enlisted and the number of the body to which they were transferred, if any. For the purpose of identification it will be necessary to have the rank and regimental number of the soldier, the place of enlistment, and if possible, the date of the same. A special list will be made of those who have made the great sacrifice and another of those who have been returned in the casualty lists as having been wounded. Any citizen having any information which will help the committee in its efforts, is requested to send the same to Mr. A. R. Walker, Corby Public Library, Belleville, who has been appointed secretary of the committee.

EVERY WOMAN'S AMBITION FOR ROSY CHEEKS NOW EASILY SATISFIED.

Hollow cheeks with dark lines under the eyes, how a woman hates them! But rosy cheeks, clear skin, and bright eyes, give them to a woman and she is happy. The woman who attracts, whose fresh, dainty complexion compels admiration, is always careful of her condition, particularly of her blood condition. Bad complexion always means bad blood. Girls, don't let your blood grow thin or watery. To do so brings on haggard looks and declining strength. Many a woman who has allowed herself to run-down, to develop that tired, worried look has built up again in this simple way. Why don't you try it? At the close of every meal, just take two small chocolate-coated Ferreroze Tablets—any person can do this in a minute. The action of Ferreroze is apparent at once. It sets you up, makes you feel good, starts up your appetite, aids digestion, brings that old-time feeling of youth into the system again. Ferreroze puts you on the right road—the one leading to health. Not a man, woman or child need blood, vigor, endurance—not a person who is weak, nervous or sickly, not a person in ill-health who won't receive immediate help from Ferreroze. As a tonic and restorative, as a health-bringer and body-builder, Ferreroze is unrivalled. It cures because it feeds and nourishes, because it contains the elements that build up and strengthen. For better looks and better health try Ferreroze yourself, old everywhere, 50c per box, 6 boxes for $2.50, or by mail from The Cattarrhose Co., Kingston, Ont.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. 87, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulty by day or night.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED WHEN DOCTORS FAILED

Mr. M. A. Morrison Suffered from Kidney Disease for Five Years—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Tarbot Victoria Co., C.B., Oct. 2nd 1916.—(Special).—Cured of Kidney trouble of five years' standing and of which three doctors failed to cure him, Mr. M. A. Morrison, a well known resident of this place has no hesitation in stating that he owes his health to Dodd's Kidney Pills. "I was so weak I could not walk a quarter of a mile and today I am able to attend to my work as well as I was twenty years ago," Mr. Morrison says. "For five years I suffered from Kidney Disease. I was treated by three skillful doctors but got no benefit. Then a friend advised me to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. I went to the druggist and got five boxes. Before I had used four boxes I was completely cured. I advise anyone suffering from kidney disease to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Anyone who wants to know more about my cure has only to write to me and I will tell them all about it." Dodd's Kidney Pills are no experiment. They have been curing kidney disease in all parts of Canada for a quarter of a century. Ask your neighbors about them.

Some citizens are wondering why the flag on the city hall has not been lowered to half-mast recently on receipt of news of the death of Belleville soldiers. HARVEST HOME AT ST. THOMAS

Beautiful Harvest Thanksgiving Service with Appropriate Sermon by Archdeacon Beamish.

A most beautiful and inspiring service was held last night at St. Thomas' church, in thanksgiving for the harvest home. The auditorium was lavishly decorated with fruits of the season, and wreaths, festoons and sprays of ripened grain. Cut flowers and climbing vines also were effectively arranged or distributed, giving to the interior a most appropriate and seasonable appearance for the occasion.

The sermon by Rev. Canon Beamish was an eloquent and scholarly exposition of the idea behind the Harvest Festival celebration and its religious significance. He said in part,—

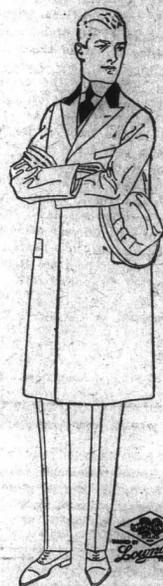

"Tonight the text for the sermon is taken from Deut. 16-18 'Thou shalt observe the feast of the tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in the corn and thy wine.' We observe that the Harvest Festival service is not put down in our prayer book. It is an individual service—When our prayer book is revised the harvest service will be in order with the number of other special services. The harvest services' special purpose is to direct our thoughts to the source of all things from above, every good thing cometh. In the autumn time the Jewish people kept the Feast of the Tabernacle to give God thanks for the promises made unto them to see that Heaven had not failed. We give our Heavenly Father thanks to-night for all material things and for our mental equipment and grace that He has given us. Mental equipment and spiritual welfare are more to us than our physical welfare and grace. Do we realize what grace is. Grace is that supernatural power which comes to us through a higher law. So then we thank God for that supernatural strength and grace and aid, for our souls. To Him we render thanks for all our blessings, but above all in His intercession for us in His redemption for the world. I want you to think this day that the festival we are celebrating is a corresponding event to a great festival under the Jewish church, Jewish religion, not all dark and rigid. Not all cold formalism prevailed at that time. Every season had its glorious festival and passover. The feast of Pentecost in common with God's great mercy to His people unto a peculiar people with that high and moral law. Duty towards God and duty towards our people. AA he services have their special meaning and teaching. It is a natural thing to rest from our labors. Through storm and tempest, etc., God's promise is fulfilled. What is more fitting than to turn to God who hath given to us so completely. So in the prosperity every year they were received in the feast of the Tabernacle. It was to bring back to them a chapter of the national life God and His Father Jehovah who had led them through all these years to a land flowing with milk and honey. God's commands are not of an arbitrary nature. He commands us because it is right and forbids us a thing because it is sinful. His commands are to protect us from harm and to teach us strict morality. We thank Him then not alone for material gifts but for that intimate communion with Him in the Holy Communion service. So we offer up our gifts and offer ourselves afresh. I am His child. Help me to realize the great gift God has given me. Here I am, help me to dedicate my soul afresh, my gifts and powers, so that when this life is ended it may not be to us going as strangers into a strange and far-off country, but our Heavenly Father's home and that we have so loved God that when we come to His presence, we may not be unfitting for His presence. Suitable hymns were sung and an anthem by the choir, and a solo was sung by Miss Waldron during the offertory. Prof. Wheatley presided at the organ in his usual capable manner. The church was beautifully and artistically decorated with wheat, fruit and flowers, reflecting great credit to those who were responsible for the same.

"THE BOHEMIAN GIRL" A SUCCESS

Aborn Opera Company's Presentation Last Night Delighted Critical Audience.

The program of unusually good things that the Griffin Amusement Company is presenting us with the present season was continued last night with no diminution in the quality, Balfe's masterpiece, and the most popular and most tuneful of all the grand operas, "The Bohemian Girl" did not suffer in reputation from the capable hands of last night's company of artists. Several striking novelties served to enhance the attractiveness of the presentation without seeming to make it bizarre or ridiculous.

For instance in the third scene of the second act where the Hungarian street fair is in progress a group of acrobats was introduced. Their performance was probably the liveliest exhibition of the kind ever shown on the local stage and aroused a great outburst of enthusiasm. The interpolation of "The Dance of the Hours" from "La Gioconda" was also a happy thought which also wonderfully heightened the interest and afforded a pleasing variety towards the end.

While the traditional "Anvil Chorus" was missing yet a greater touch of realism was given to the Gypsy Camp by the introduction of a real live goose, a pig and a dog and an adequate outfit of camp paraphernalia. The dramatic idea was made much more vivid by the actual carrying out of an abduction of the child in the first act by the Gypsy Chief and his pursuit up the mountains.

Miss Jeanette Wells, who interpreted the part of "The Bohemian Girl" was most unaffected, natural and pleasing. Added to the charm of an unusually beautiful face and figure, she had a superb singing voice, silvery clear in the higher notes and expressive in the lower register.

To Harold Blake fell the onerous duty of representing "Thaddeus, the exiled Polish nobleman. He had a strong personality and excellent dramatic power in his singing. His voice was quite equal to the severe demands made upon it.

Albert Wallersted was not less effective as "Count Arnsheim." He is gifted with a magnificent figure and his renditions both of solo and choral parts were superb.

Francis Tyler with his deep powerful bass voice and expressive countenance was a happy choice for "Devilhoof," the Gypsy Chief.

Miss Phyllis Davies was somewhat different from the regulation "Queen of the Gypsies" being younger and more prepossessing in appearance. Her contralto was deep in volume and her enunciation was perfect. The entire cast and the chorus were remarkably clever and sustained the high character of the presentation in every particular.

The attendance was satisfactory, though the house was not crowded. The big business done on Friday evening last had its effect as did also an interior presentation of "The Bohemian Girl" at this city three seasons ago.

NOT ONE DRUNK YET.

Record of Prohibition in Belleville—Business Better. Seventeen days of prohibition have passed and not one drunk has been arrested by the police. The officers have not come across a single drunk in all that time and they believe they would have to hunt the byways and highways at all hours to find a man however slightly under the influence. The improvement in the streets is favorably commented upon.

Business has picked up in many cases. Butchers sell more meat, and debts are being paid by men after only two weeks of sobriety, who formerly scarcely ever drew a sober breath. A case is cited of a man who after one week paid half a debt of years' standing.

SEATS AT BOYLE'S FRIDAY

OUR HIGH SCHOOL MAKES SHOWING

Local Athletes Demonstrate Their Prowess on Field Day at Trenton.

Field day at Trenton was well patronized Friday by the H. School teachers and students of Belleville. About seventy went up on the C.N.R. at 1.10 while those who had autos packed them full and started out for Trenton.

The H. S. girls' senior basketball team defeated the Trenton players, and showed themselves decidedly superior to the Brighton team. The girls' team is as follows:
Forwards — Stella Collins, Kate Sinclair.
Centres — Mary Yeomans, Beatie Savers.
Guards — Margaret Collins, Harold Mackintosh.
Referee — Miss Yeomans.

The Belleville contestants in the boys' events made a very creditable showing by capturing more than two thirds of the events. This, in spite of the fact that many of the older boys who excelled in sports are now at the front, while others have left school, shows that sportsmanship in the high school is no wise decadent.
The following is the list of events entered and the places taken by the Belleville students:
Senior hop, step and jump, Max Herity.
Intermediate hop, step and jump, Max Herity, Fred Woodley.
Junior 100 yards dash, Vernon Weir.
Intermediate 100 yds dash, Fred Woodley, Manley Brant.
Senior 100 yards dash, Max Herity 4th place.
Thread and needle race, Fay Ketcheson, 2nd place, Manley Brant.
Junior 200 yards, Harold Atkins, Vernon Weir, Asa Yeomans, Percy Hart.
Intermediate, 220 yards, Herbert Hektor, Manley Brant, Fred Woodley Senior, 220 yards, Max Herity Junior High Jump, Vernon Weir, 1st, Asa Yeomans 3rd, Percy Hart, 4th.
Intermediate High Jump, Albert Desberry and Herbert Hektor tied for 1st place.
Senior high jump, Albert Desberry, 3rd place.
½ mile relay race, teams from neighboring schools, Trenton 1st Belleville 2nd.
Senior hurdle race, Max Herity, 2nd place.
Intermediate hurdle race, Fred Woodley, Harry Hurley, Albert Desberry.
Junior Hurdle race, Vernon Weir, 2nd, Percy Hart, 4th.

Three legged race, Herity and Woodley, 1st; Brant and Hektor, 3rd. The visiting teams were the guests of the Trenton students at a very short but friendly dance until the nine o'clock train arrived to carry them home safely.

COUNCIL TOOK UP PETITION

For Paving of Bridge Street and Referred It for Checking

COLEMAN SEWER SYSTEM

Pinnacle Street Pavement Proposition Deferred—Council to Defend Action.

A petition for paving Bridge St. East was received by the city council last evening at their adjourned meeting and it is believed to be fully signed. It was referred to the clerk and assessor to report upon.

The matter of paving Pinnacle St. was laid over until petitions for the whole street from Mill to Dundas are presented. Some discussion took place over the question of paving or the initiative plan, the council members dividing pretty well on the problem.

Ald. Parks' notice was taken up as a motion to introduce a bylaw to pave Bridge street from Pinnacle to Bleecker Ave. with Trinidad Lake Asphaltic concrete.

Ald. Deacon did not think it wise to tie the hands of the council to any one kind of pavement.

Ald. Parks said Trinidad Lake was the only kind worthy of putting down it is open to any firm of contractors.

"Where are we on the petition if this motion carries?" asked Ald. Woodley. "We should simply be ignoring the petition."

Ald. Parks' motion lost on the taking of the vote.

Mr. J. S. Henderson, street foreman said he would find it difficult to do a system of street building unless it would be very expensive. It would take about twenty men to do the work. The walks petitioned for last year will be built. Few or no new ones will be built.

Church Street hill sidewalk will be repaired under the direction of the chairman of public works.

A drain will be put in the passage north of the Crystal Hotel to take care of water from a spring. This will cost about $200.

Belleville firemen need overcoats and winter caps. Ald. St. Charles was authorized to get samples and prices. The annual grant of $400 was voted to the Children's Aid Society.

A grant of $400 was voted to the 155th regimental fund now that they are going overseas. The money will be paid to Col. Adams.

The city decided to become a member of the Midland Ontario Municipal Association, on the payment of a ten dollar fee.

No action was taken in the matter of extension of the C.N.R. tracks across Wharf street until the inter-switching proposition is settled satisfactory to the City of Belleville.

A letter from the Organization of Resources Committee was read. It dealt with the formation of a local committee to aid the British Red Cross. Another letter was read from Dr. A. H. Abbott, Toronto, regarding a British Red Cross collection on October 19. Belleville last year contributed $5,587.14 including a municipal grant of $300 and a grant of the Women's Societies of $200.

Council left the matter in the hands of the Mayor and Ald. Woodley. Ald. Deacon to select a citizens' committee to carry on the canvass.

Ald. Earle drew attention to the condition of the board walk on McDonald Avenue.

The suggestion was made that it be torn up as it serves very few people.

Ald. Woodley asked council if it was wise to change the names of Front, Mill and Station streets to Main street. The triple division of the street is confusing.

Mayor Ketcheson said it was customary in large cities to find different names for the same thoroughfare every little distance "and Belleville is a large city."

Aldermen—"Think it over." Ald. Woodley—"I will."

Ald. Duckworth drew council's attention to the annual heavy flow of water across Coleman's Flats down through the land south of Moira St. to the vicinity of Deacon's Factory, where it empties into the river.

Ald. Parks suggested diverting the water into the river in Thurlow, but Ald. Whelan thought there was enough melting snow in spring south of the place suggested to cause the flood in Belleville.

It was recommended by the Public Works committee and the recommendation was adopted that a system of sewage be undertaken as per plans and specifications of the city engineer on the following streets:

A 15 inch extension of the main sewer on Coleman street be continued from the end of the present sewer along Moira street to North Front street at an estimated cost of $3,086.21.

Also a 15 inch main sewer on N. Front street from Moira to Ridley street at an estimated cost of $5,411.80.

Also a 10 inch branch sewer on Grove street from North Front St. to Strachan street at an estimated cost of $4,531.67.

That the construction of these sewers be undertaken as a local improvement on the initiative plan under section 13, Chap. 193, R.S.O., 1914.

That notice of the intention of the council to construct these sewers be given by two insertions in the Intelligencer and Ontario newspapers of the city and also by notices mailed or delivered to the owners of property to be affected by construction of said sewers in said section set forth.

That application be made to the Provincial Board of Health for their approval of the plans and specifications for the construction of said sewers.

That a bylaw be prepared authorizing the construction of said sewers and that tenders be called for.

That a proper portion of the Moira street and North Front street sewer be charged against all property benefited or will be benefited in the future.

Ald. Deacon moved, seconded by Ald. Platt, "That this council request the city solicitor to draw up a bylaw appointing the chief of police and the entire force of police inspectors under the new Ontario Temperance Act." The motion carried. By this means the city will get a share of the fines.

Ald. Duckworth moved, seconded by Ald. Smith that the mover, seconded, Ald. Platt and Ald. Parks be a committee to provide a public laboratory in the north west corner in the basement of the city building and that the engineer prepare plans and specifications for the same and tenders be asked for as early as possible.—carried.

Council decided to assume the defence of the action of Benjamin Simpson, administrator of the estate of Martha Simpson, deceased and Benj. Simpson personally and Elizabeth Simpson against the local board of health and the medical officer claiming damages for the death of M. Simpson on the alleged grounds that the defendants neglected to provide proper medical attendance and other necessities while she was as alleged isolated for diphtheria.

RECRUITING PARTY RETURNS. Major Allen, Major McFee, Major Cook, Captain Hyman of the 155th battalion, and Dr. J. G. Evans returned from a recruiting trip to Belleville and Stirling on Saturday night. Some results were secured from the effort, but the party are convinced that the big strapping fellows who grin in the face of a recruiting officer when asked to defend their own homes and their Canadian liberty, ought to be made to fight. Hundreds of eligibles were approached throughout the county of Hastings especially at the Stirling Fair, but with cheese selling at 21 cents, butter at 42 cents, and eggs at 50 cents a dozen, the farm looked a better paying proposition than the trenches.—Kingston Standard.

BUSY TRENTON

OUR Daily News Letter from this thriving town furnished by The Ontario's Special Correspondent.

TRENTON, Oct. 2nd—Mrs. Herb. Mitchell and baby of Belleville and Mrs. Mitchell of Toronto spent Friday in town the guests of Chief and Mrs. Morden, Front street.

The tea held in the King Street church on Friday night was a complete success. A large crowd was in attendance. Something over $56 was realized which was pleasing to those who undertook the trouble.

Mrs. Jack Orrell and Miss Smith received the news that their father in Adolphustown had been seriously hurt by being kicked in the head by a horse, causing a wound requiring several stitches. No further news had been received so it is taken for granted he is improving. The two ladies will be going home the first of the week.

Two weeks under prohibition have passed and in Trenton has proved above the imagination. A few figures showing the number of court cases during the same two weeks since 1909 will bear out the above statement. These are all either drunk and disorderly or caused by liquor:—

1909—13 cases
1910—11 cases
1911—10 cases
1912—11 cases
1913—18 cases
1914—12 cases
1915—11 cases
1916—1 case vagrancy and deserted.

Ever to impress the fact that the pennies you drop in the Red Cross Penny Bags from time to time—and never miss—when added together make a considerable sum for providing comforts and necessities for our boys in the trenches.

For the month of September we are very pleased to acknowledge an increase of nearly fifteen dollars over the collections for the month of August, though we still fall short of our two hundred dollar mark.

Cannot the children help more? This month one little boy was very happy because his bag contained a whole dollar saved from money earned and given him for treats.

This is the season of greater demands on our purses, increased expenses, but we must not forget that it is also the season that brings great or hardships and suffering to those who are fighting for us, and we can surely deny ourselves in some way, to evidence our sympathy and desire to help.

We congratulate Ketcheson Ward in having once more risen to the first place in its givings. Keep it up Ketcheson Ward.

Following are the amounts according to wards:—

Ketcheson Ward	$40.52
Murphy Ward	$39.96
Samsen Ward	$35.71
Baldwin Ward	$19.15
Bleecker Ward	$19.10
Coleman Ward	$16.91
Foster Ward	$13.60
Total	$198.95

Mr. Bert McCoy has gone to the city hospital owing to an attack of bronchial trouble.

MARKING TIME.

The failure of the Borden Government in the matter of recruiting and enlistment has now become such a commonplace that it has ceased almost to be a matter for special comment. But at the same time, the situation in some districts, particularly in Ontario, is far more unsatisfactory than is generally understood. Startling figures were recently made public with respect to the state of recruiting in the Second Toronto Military Division, by Lieut.-Col. Williams, Chief Recruiting Officer. Colonel Williams gave the figures showing the present strength of the twenty-eight battalions still at Camp Borden. It is shown that not one of all these battalions is up to its strength of 1,118 men. There is a total shortage of 8,639 men, or an average of 380 men to a battalion.

That military division has already raised 2,500 men over its estimated quota of the 500,000 that the Prime Minister declared Canada would raise in all. Yet these twenty-eight battalions were authorized, they were organized, and a vast deal of labor and expense has been devoted by those belonging to them (and all their friends) to the work of recruiting. The personal efforts of the soldiers and their friends have not availed, evidently, because nearly all those who voluntarily step forward, and all those open to the persuasion and argument of recruiting agents are already enrolled. The present strength of the eight Toronto battalions at Camp Borden is given as follows:

Batt. No.	Strength.	Required.
166th	947	171
170th	792	326
180th	957	161
198th	868	250
201st	518	600
204th	973	145
208th	851	267
216th	739	379

There is here a shortage of 2,299 men in these Toronto battalions. The twenty outside battalions stand as follows:

Batt. No.	Officers.	Strength.	Required.
110th Perth	30	713	405
114th Haldimand	33	874	244
118th Kitchener	34	618	500
122nd Muskoka	31	747	371
133rd Norfolk	31	789	329
142nd London	33	786	382
147th Grey	33	970	148
149th	32	837	281
157th Simcoe	32	1,056	62
159th Sudbury	33	1,083	35
161st Huron	31	832	295
162nd Dufferin	35	952	166
168th Oxford	31	835	283
173rd Hamilton	40	837	231
176th Niagara	33	801	317
177th Simcoe	30	778	340
186th Kent	31	688	430
205th Hamilton	32	585	533
213th American	27	383	725
228th Sudbury	35	875	243

That is to say, there is a shortage of 8,639 men in the twenty-eight battalions, or the strength of them all is but that of twenty-one battalions. There are more than enough officers, the number for each battalion having been reduced to 32. There are more than enough although nearly 150 have been sent overseas in special drafts to there complete their training.

The Toronto Star which reproduces these figures, states that many of these battalions have been at a standstill for as long as five months, in the middle of the war—five months during which a battalion is not a battalion, and cannot train as one, during which a brigade is not a brigade and cannot train as a brigade.

"And during those five months," says the Star, "the Government has done nothing to improve recruiting and has even said nothing to encourage enlistment. All deputations urging the Government to take action have found the Prime Minister easy of access, open to conviction, ready to promise almost anything that was asked of him. But that is about all that has ever come of it. Sir Robert Borden has been deeply and earnestly considering the situation for five months, during which time throughout Canada scores of half-built battalions have been marking time and waiting to see what will turn up."

Over two months ago the Borden Government announced that it would put into effect new recruiting methods. All this time these twenty-eight battalions at Camp Borden, as doubtless many others in a similar position throughout the Dominion, have been waiting for some sign of the "new methods" which would bring their battalions up to strength, and enable them to proceed overseas. But, up to the present nothing so far as the public know, has been done! The Government is unwilling or lacks the courage or capacity to remedy this deplorable state of affairs. Is it any wonder that from the Atlantic to the Pacific Canadians are disgusted and sore at heart over all the muddling and incapacity of the men who compose what is miscalled a Government!

GERMAN PRISONERS.

The number of prisoners captured on the Somme and Verdun areas by the Allied forces is now well over 60,000. Mr. Warner Allen, the official British press representative with the French forces, who has access to the official figures, has given the total up to the end of August as 43,000. Since then the Allies have taken about 18,000 men, and more are coming in, so that the sum is now over 60,000. This is at least double the number captured in the Champagne-Loos offensive.

Prisoners are, in a military sense, the same as dead men, for they cannot possibly be combatants again in the present war, so the result in prisoners gives even more satisfaction than our capture of territory. Mr. Forster stated in the House of Commons in July that the number of British prisoners of war in German hands on June 20 was 25,350, and the number of German prisoners in British hands was 25,467. Since then the Germans have gained about a thousand and Britain has added about 20,000, so the balance is now heavily on the British side.

NEMESIS PURSUES.

The consistent, tireless push of the British troops in France must seem, as an American writer says, to the enemy, the most amazing thing in the war! The German home papers, voicing reports of their correspondents at the front have each week since the Allied drive began on July 1, announced that it had been finally checked or had worn itself out against Germany's invincibility. The Kaiser told his soldiers and the Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria repeated it that the troops facing the English had the honored position in being able to beat Germany's real enemy—England. The Kaiser set the fashion in August, 1914, with his reference to "General French's contemptible little army"—Prince Rupprecht responded with his first echo in the following November: "Soldiers! You must not now lose your energy in the fight with our most hated foe (England). You must finally break his pride. He is already tired out."

Naturally Prince Rupprecht and the Kaiser are too busy to recall such utterances—indulged in not only by themselves but by countless prophets, priests and kings. Nemesis has not overlooked it. The cause, of course, is in the fact that these leaders, living in Hate Street, believe they can stimulate effort in their troops by fooling them as to the strength of their enemies—a policy and purpose which has lost Germany every trick of the war and which now weakens her arm in the hour of her greatest necessity.

CLEARING SKIES.

Have we come to the grand, cross-roads in Canadian history? Have we at last set ourselves on the straight path of clean politics and decent public life? The signs have been very hopeful of late. The United States turned over a new leaf a full generation ago. Canada, which was first led astray by the American example, long stuck to the old course. Is she at last on the turn? It looks like it. The indications are that our people have found themselves politically, and are determined to extricate their country from the hands of corrupt partisanship, to be no longer the tools of self-seeking schemers, no matter by what catch-name they may call themselves.

Within a comparatively few months Manitoba has freed herself from the shackles of as corrupt a gang of political freebooters as has ever manifested its activities elsewhere than in the United States in the old days, or in British Columbia in the most recent. The people of Quebec and Nova Scotia have in turn, during the past summer, set the seal of their electoral approval upon Local Administrations which, after long searching trial, had proved their probity and worth. Prince Edward Island has all but freed itself from the governance of highly doubtful administrators. Notwithstanding the outcome of the Carleton bye-election, New Brunswick bids fair to fall into line with Manitoba and British Columbia at the earliest opportunity.

Gangrenous political spots have been disclosed, not directly in the Government but in the representative life of Saskatchewan. They are being dealt vigorously with by the Local Administration by means of a Commission and the law.

It matters not whether proved corruptionists—either for personal or alleged "political" purposes—call themselves Grits or Tories, every patriotic Canadian should rejoice at their exposure and due punishment. It is to the interest of none but the political thieves and blackmailers themselves that any of them escape the full consequences of their misdeeds.

In Federal politics Canada has had, on the whole, bad luck. It inherited the bad traditions of the old Provinces of Quebec and Ontario. Neither New Brunswick nor Nova Scotia came regularly into the Union. "Conscience" had to be salvaged with money and position, from the start. And there were men in power who had no objections to adopting such means of gaining their ends. When known corruption at last developed into open scandal Parliament and the electorate at once revealed their innate wholesomeness. But they were unfortunate both in the time and in leaders. So it came to pass that after a few years they restored to power the very unrepentant party and leaders who had not only been condemned but convicted. The inevitable followed. Corruption immediately revived and became more brazen than ever. It enjoyed full freedom, year after year, until at last, in 1896, it sealed its own doom. Those years from 1878 to 1896 were the darkest in all its history.

When a change came in 1896 traditions of political crookedness were almost universal. But it must be admitted by even his opponents that Sir Wilfrid Laurier set himself most resolutely to stem the set of the tide. No one can or will claim that his Administration was immaculate. No one but an unreasoning partisan would assert that it was not above intentional wrongdoing. It kept itself free from serious scandal of any kind. It restrained its camp-followers to the utmost possible limit. It did its best for the good of the country. When it left office it did so with clean administrative hands.

Of what followed, it is not at present for us to speak. We are admittedly not impartial enough to expect to have our opinions accepted by the people at large without direct proof. We believe that such proof will be forthcoming in due time, in addition to what has already been presented. We believe that that proof will be so convincing that the electorate of the Dominion will range itself in line with the electorates of those Provinces which have already pronounced for clean politics and wholesome public life.

Should we be mistaken in this opinion, much for the near future of Canada will depend on the use which the Liberal Party may make of the next term of power accorded it by the electorate. Should that party suffer itself to fall into the hands of reckless, self-seeking politicians, or into those of any but men of the best character, and firmest rectitude, Canada would indeed be in a dangerous way, and its future might well be despaired of. If to turn one set of wrong-doers out of public office should come to be only to have them replaced by another set, almost or quite as bad, the people might naturally fall into despondency.

At present, however, there is far from any need for despair. On the contrary, there is the firmest ground for hope and confidence. The most happy electoral discrimination has of late been generally shown in Provincial politics. The people at last seem to be rising above unreasoning partisanship, and attaining a solid patriotic position. They are allowing themselves to be guided directly by history and experience. They have only to submit themselves to similar guidance in Federal affairs to free Canada, from the muddy days of the past, and set her feet upon the broad highway of honor and cleanliness towards the accomplishment of her high destiny.

HUMANITY'S LEADER.

In a recent article on Mr. Lloyd George in the Greek paper Patris, M. Ventiris gives an account of a conversation he had with M. Venizelos.

"I ventured the remark that Europe had not produced statesmen of sufficient ability to conduct this world-struggle. The leader of the Liberals (M. Venizelos) assured me that I was mistaken, and he mentioned to me the name of Lloyd George. He defined him as the type of 'contemporary political prophet.' He had made his acquaintance. He was certain that the Welsh lawyer, with passionate southern eloquence, had in his blood the stuff out of which statesmen are made. His was a prophetic physiognomy, combining the special virtues of the prophets of religions and the prophets of poetry with those of the superior statesmen. 'Do not worry, dear friend,' said M. Venizelos with an enigmatic twinkle of his blue eyes, 'in Lloyd George England has what she requires. Perhaps even humanity will find in him what it needs.'"

The funniest of recent German utterances is the protest in Berlin against the new British "tank" car on the ground that it is contrary to the usages of civilized warfare.

Writing of the Somme battle, Philip Gibbs, says: "The Canadians have gained great glory by their attack. The finely-organized French-Canadians went away like wolves. Though swept by machine guns, and meeting stubborn defence, they carried a stronghold and captured hundreds of prisoners. The full story of the Canadian victory will thrill the great Dominion like a heroic song. They were careless of death, so that they might win."

Mr. Philip Gibbs, of the London Daily Chronicle, who stands without a peer among present day war correspondents, has already given us a story of the brilliant achievement of the Canadian troops in the attack on the Fleurs line, which will stir every Canadian heart, and now he sends an account of the heroic charge of the Guards which will fill every Briton with pride. Proud indeed we may be that the sons of Canada have again proved themselves worthy comrades of Britain's famous Guardsmen.

APPEARANCES.

You mustn't judge a person by the clothes that he may wear. You might have done so years ago, but now it isn't fair.

A man may be responsible and serious of mind, yet wear a little overcoat that's belted in behind.

He may be all profound of thought and yet display with joy.

A hat that looks as if intended for his youngest boy.

That the apparel oft proclaims the man has been believed.

But now the statement with a share of doubt must be received.

You mustn't trust appearances. At present you will see

A general effort to appear like twenty-two or three;

And those who put on glasses and look solemn, as a rule,

Are principally youngsters who are not yet out of school.

As has been wisely said, this world is but a fleeting show;

We are optical illusions, as upon parade we go, and perhaps it's just as well for us to do the best we can,

And help improve the scenery upon the modern plan.

—Washington Star.

THE DESERTED PASTURE.

I love the stony pasture That no one else will have, The old grey rocks, so friendly seem, So durable and brave.

In tranquil contemplation It watches through the year, Seeing the frosty stars arise, The slender moon appear.

Its music is the rain-wind, Its choristers the birds, And there are secrets in its heart Too wonderful for words.

It keeps the bright-eyed creatures That play about its walls, Though long ago its milking herds Were banished from their stalls.

Only the children come there, For butter cups in May, Or nuts in the autumn, where it lies Dreaming the hours away.

Long since its strength was given To making good increase, And now its soul is turned again To beauty and to peace.

There in the early springtime The violets are blue, And adder-tongues in coats of gold Are garmented anew.

There bayberry and aster Are crowded on its floors, When marching summer halts to praise The Lord of Out-of-doors.

And there October passes In gorgeous livery,— In purple ash, and crimson oak, And golden tulip tree.

And when the winds of winter Their bugle blasts begin, The snowy hosts of heaven arrive To pitch their tents therein.

—Bliss Carman.

WHERE "DUTY" FAILS.

A life constrained by duty is a life of bondage. It is not a life lived in the glorious liberty of sons of God. When the love of Christ constrains, duty is always done,—in full, abounding measure,—but it is never done as a "duty." For another spelling of duty is "law," and it is holding many an earnest Christian in daily bondage. "A day of faith unflinching, trust complete Of love unfeigned and perfect charity, Of hope undimmed, of courage past dismay, Of heavenly peace, patient humility— No hint of duty to constrain my feet, No dream of ease to lull to listlessness. . ."

—The Orange Sentinel.

WHEN A JOKE IS NOT A JOKE.

Everybody condemns the angry man or woman who shoots at boys and girls caught in the act of stealing fruit from the trees, and these same people would highly commend the sending to jail of the same lawless children if they were caught stealing identically the same fruit after it had been put on sale in a store. Many people take to horticulture in the later period of life. It takes a year for a crop of apples, pears or grapes or any other popular fruit to ripen, it takes several years to start the trees. A bunch of little thieves can in one day destroy the efforts of a whole year made by some one who has very few years left. To the grower of the trees it is an immeasurable disappointment. To the public it's a joke on the old man. The question is why in the world the joke doesn't extend to the grocer? Why let lawless children help themselves from the baskets in his store? It's the same peaches.—Hartford Courant.

A DEVIL WAGON OF WAR.

In the steel-clad car which the British have launched against the German militarism gives birth to a new monster. General Haig terms it a "super-dreadnought of the land," and perhaps it is best visualized by conceiving of a rude battleship such as the old Confederate ram Merrimac cruising over a battle-field, smashing trees, crushing everything before it and belching forth death into the enemy trenches. Or again, it is a steel-ribbed armadillo or a mammoth mechanical caterpillar, according to the bent of the imagination. Yet from any point of view it is a very devil wagon of war, well exemplifying the Chinese military principle of terrifying the enemy. No doubt the Germans in the trenches when this devastating monster descended upon them may have felt as the Trojans felt when the wooden horse disgorged the mail-clad Greeks. Here was something worthy of Essen, an enemy war-device matching their own great guns and poisonous gas in novelty and deadliness.

And in fact, in the matter of making a business of war, the Allies appear to have fully caught up with their foe. The lessons of Prussian preparedness with war machinery have been learned and applied, and there is no longer the old inequality of munitions and artillery. In the creation of this deadly and grotesque fighting monster, British inventive genius must be said to have outdone even Krupp resourcefulness.—New York Herald.

A TAX ON CATS.

The idea of taxing of house cats seems never to have occurred to local ministers of finance and makers of revenue, yet the dog has long been a subject for municipal revenue. There are many people who would vote that the cat is a legitimate subject for taxation. In addition to the unearthly noise they are capable of when "civilized" animals are asleep, they are chicken thieves and do damage to plants in gardens. Also they are purveyors of disease germs. Just at present New York State is in the midst of a campaign against felines. In Syracuse alone over 1,000 cats were destroyed in 2 weeks. The infantile paralysis epidemic is believed to be transmitted by the house cat.—Bowmanville Statesman.

ECONOMY.

These be economical times! From the high places in Ottawa the cry has gone forth to "save, save, save," and the people proceed to conduct themselves accordingly. But each man does it in his own peculiar way. A Dominion Minister figured that living is cheaper in England, so he crosses the ocean and does his saving by touring Scotland and Ireland. And that his economy may be more far-reaching in its effects, he takes along a couple of secretaries and an aide. A provincial Premier and an Opposition leader also discover that economy is bettered by the absent treatment, and proceed to spend their time and money amidst the enlightening influences of the British Isles.

The spirit of economy as propagated by the leaders is evidenced by their followers. A Canadian parliamentary delegation recently viewed London, the trenches and other points of interest in the Old World, while a similar party from Australia is at present doing Canada.

Corporations, not having souls, act differently. The coal man decides that economy is such a good thing that it should not be confined to the few, so he does his bit towards spreading it broadcast by raising the price of coal. The meat baron helps along the good work by boosting the price of meat. Even nature furnishes a little aid by curtailing crop production. The net result is that the ordinary wage-earning individual must economize or starve. He economizes. All of which goes to show that calls from high places do not fall upon deaf ears.—Toronto Telegram.

FIRE INQUIRY HAS BEEN CONCLUDED

Johnson Brothers Gave Testimony at Resumption of Inquest.

The inquiry into the fire which destroyed the Johnson Bros' livery on the night of August 14 was concluded yesterday afternoon when all the available evidence was put in.

Mayor H. F. Ketcheson testified that he was an insurance agent. In the burned building and contents three companies were interested.

The policy on the contents was for $2,500. Percy Johnson wanted more insurance but the request was not granted as the insurance was thought sufficient.

"How long after you saw Percy go down the street, was it before you noticed the fire?"

"I don't think it was over three minutes."

To Mr. Mikel, he said after he saw Percy Johnson drive away, he heard Mr. LaFerty speak of the noise as of horses tramping.

Sergeant F. J. Naphin told of a talk a month before the fire with Mayor Ketcheson who told of a report that Percy Johnson had made as to attempted firing of the building.

The sergeant interviewed Percy who pointed out a stall where three separate fires he said had been started. Percy did not point to anything that would lead to a clue.

Percy thought there were about eleven horses burned. On August 16 he said the destroyed contents included six horses, one outside horse, eleven buggies, one surrey, one hack, fifteen cutters, three hack slighs, two express wagons, two baggage sleighs, one racing sulky, one jugging cart, 22 sets of harness, fifteen strings of bells, twenty robes, two dozen whips, twenty or twenty-five rubber robes, $50 worth of paints, oils and varnish and other articles.

Joseph Losee, employed by the C.N.O.R. was called but could give little testimony as he was out of town on the night of the fire.

Mr. A. S. Large, market lessee, said that for three months prior to August 14th, five loads of hay for Johnson Bros. passed over the market scales, none of it in August.

The last load in July might have been new cut hay.

Frank Johnson, one of the partners of Johnson Bros, testified that he returned to the premises at 9.30 and went away to Deseronto with his auto. He was not near the barn that evening. Witness knew nothing of the small fires nor of the application for an increase in insurance, until told later.

Witness knew of no one making any threats, or having designs on the building.

On the 14th of August, he owed between $800 and $850. Of this they owed the Standard bank $700 and the others about $100 or $150. About one hundred dollars of rent was also owed.

The barn contained ten or fifteen loads of hay and one hundred and fifty bushels of oats. Some of the hay was green.

He could give no reason for the fire.

Edward Bolyea, who acts as city scavenger, testified that on August 15th he found six carcasses of animals in the burned buildings and removed them to the city scavenging lot.

Percy Johnson swore that before the fire he had driven back from Foxboro, arriving at the barn at twenty-five to ten in the evening.

George Taylor was in the barn when Percy went in. He fixed up the horse and then all went out. Percy stood at the front and the grey horse drove in at about 9.45. Between that time and 9.50 he drove out with the grey mare on private matters up to Ann street. The trip round by Dundas, Ann, Victoria and Front took about fifteen minutes.

He was not smoking in the barn that evening.

He had previously stopped two fires himself in the hay stall. One was at 3 a.m. and the other at 2.30 and they were within a week or two of one another. No one was supposed to be there. Both occurrences were reported to the police and the insurance agent.

He had applied for $2,500 extra insurance as he valued the contents at between six and seven thousand dollars. No policy was issued for the extra $2,500. He thought he was insured for $5000. To his surprise he was not insured for over $2500. The loss was adjusted at $2,250 and the money paid.

Questioned as to the varied statements of the fire how many horses were burned.

His engagement on Ann street was for eight o'clock. So he was good and late.

He was not back in the barn after George Taylor went out, witness testified when asked why it was that he did not find some signs of fire. There was nothing to make him aware of the blaze.

The only idea he could give of the cause, was spontaneous combustion of the hay or defective electric wires.

He had never been in the hay-mow since Taylor came to work at the barn.

BILLIARD ROOM CASE IN COURT

Magistrate Masson Warns City Young Men Against Gambling.

An interesting pool room case came before Magistrate Masson's police court this morning which will be a lesson to the youth of Belleville who frequent these places of entertainment.

Peter Freeman who operates a billiard and pool parlor on Front Street was today charged with permitting playing for money on his premises.

Crown Attorney Carnew explained that Freeman knew absolutely nothing of the alleged gambling by the young men who were there at the time.

Magistrate Masson told the three youths that they had no right to gamble, for under the bylaw and the criminal code they would be liable. Anyone in future convicted of gambling may not expect any leniency. The bylaw provides for a maximum fine of $50 for gambling or six months in jail and the criminal code is severe.

The proprietor, Peter Freeman, must know what is going on in his parlors. The law presumes that he does. However, the court took the view that there was in this case a lack of knowledge.

That plea however would not likely go another time. Accordingly the charge was dismissed.

THREE BATTALIONS WARNED FOR OVERSEAS

The three battalions now in Barriefield camp have been warned to be ready for overseas, and there is delight among officers and men at the prospects of an early move.

The battalions ordered are the 154th, of Cornwall, commanded by Lieut-Col. Macdonald; the 155th battalion, of Belleville, commanded by Lieut-Col. Adams and the 156th battalion of Brockville, commanded by Lieut-Col. Bedell.

This will mean over three thousand men taken out of the camp which is all of the overseas forces now in training at this camp.

MILITARY NOTES

Capt. Kenny, chaplain 139th Battalion, has arrived back from Valcartier to go on the recruiting staff at Kingston. He was unable to accompany his three-company battalion overseas because it was not up to strength. Rev. Mr. Sillery, formerly of Queen Street church in Kingston, is in charge at Cobourg, vacated by Capt. Kenny.

Because he is an American citizen and under the age limit, Pte. Harold Joseph Doney has been struck off the strength of the 156th and because he is a reservist of the Italian army, Pte. Frank Pulitano has also been granted his discharge. He will return to Italy and join the Italian army.

Captain Cameron, A.M.C., a cousin of Lt.-Col. and Major J. M. Wilson, was in camp yesterday. He recently returned from France, and after a brief stay in Canada will go back overseas. Captain Cameron spoke highly of the work being done by Canadian doctors in the various hospitals in France and England, and everywhere he found a warm spot in French and English hearts for Canadians.

CHINA'S FUNERAL

MEMORABLE MEETING HELD

At Massey Hall, Toronto—Mr. Rowell's Stirring Message From the Battle-Front.

(Special to The Ontario)

TORONTO, Sept. 27th — How hungry the relative of men at the front are for a message from the trenches has been illustrated in a remarkable way in Toronto this week by the meetings at which Mr. Rowell, just back from Europe, has told of his visit to the front. At the Massey Hall meeting, which was arranged by the Women's Emergency Corps especially for the relatives of Canadian soldiers, the audience was most inspiring, made up very largely of women, many of whom had brought their children with them.

At six o'clock in the evening, two hours before the meeting began, there was a long line of women on the street in front of the hall and a group of mothers with their babies sitting on the steps and on the curb of the roadside. And during the meeting, which crowded the huge Massey Hall beyond its capacity, the sound of babies' voices was continuous; but no one minded it the least bit for these babies were most welcome guests,—children as they were of Canadian fathers at the front. The way that huge crowd of soldiers' relatives eagerly drank in every word of Mr. Rowell's speech and the messages of cheer brought to them from their men was a memorable sight.

At the other meeting under the auspices of the Canadian Club, the leading business men of the city showed that they too wanted to hear every word Mr. Rowell had to tell them about the trenches in Flanders and in France.

Mr. Rowell has brought back a number of messages but the one that the public seems to have laid hold on most is this—that more and still more men are urgently needed to support the Canadians now in the trenches and to carry on the work of the noble Canadian dead who have fallen in the fight.

GREAT FOREST FIRES OF HISTORY.

The Northern Ontario forest fire of July 29th last takes rank as the third most serious fire catastrophe in the history of this continent. The Hinckley fire in Minnesota, 1894, was responsible for 418 lives and the burning over of 160,000 acres. The famous Peshtigo fire in Wisconsin, 1871, killed 1500 and devastated $1,200,000 acres of timber. In 1825 occurred the Miramichi fire of New Brunswick and Maine, with a loss of 160 lives, six towns, 1000 head of cattle, and damage of 2,000,000 acres of forest. The Clay Belt fire in Ontario, with 262 lives lost and 800,000 acres of fire-swept takes its place with the great disasters of history. The Porcupine fire in 1911 killed 84 persons.

It is noteworthy that Wisconsin, Minnesota, Maine and New Brunswick have taken comprehensive measures to prevent further disasters by organizing their forest patrol systems on modern lines, building trails, lookout towers, telephones, etc., as well as carefully supervising settlers' clearing fires, one of the worst sources of danger. Ontario, which has given the continent its two most recent fire catastrophes, has made no such move to modernize her forest guarding system.

ONLY A BOY

Dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. T. Eggleton.

Only a boy,— but he's my boy—

Goes forth to school so neat, His playmates close beside him, As they prattle down the street; My heart is sad, while he is glad, For his steps all day I greet. Still he marches forth my little mas—

With slate and book in hand. Only a boy,— but he's my boy—

With his curly head and glee, Comes in with his bat and ball, To tell of his victory; How his side won in the ball-game, You can bet, we made them run; Oh say! it was jolly fun.

Only a boy,— but he's my boy—

Goes forth in the world one day, As the years go swiftly— We miss him sadly—but, The world needs brave ones, To shape out its destiny, He stoops to conquer all hardships As the bravest of Canada's Sons.

Only a boy,— but he's my boy—

Goes forth at his country's call, As others who leave their stronghold, When the summons comes to all; He is not one whit behind, With his strength and manhood bold, He marches off and leaves behind, The world of Auld Lang Syne.

Only a boy,— but he's my boy—

Who crosses the ocean wide, He scorns to think of his own safety But, the loved ones he leaves behind;

As he braces his back to the Union Jack, He whistles a tune sublime— He sits on the beam of the tossing ship, And laughs in the teeth of the brine.

Only a boy,— but he's my boy—

In Flanders takes his place, In the rank and file at Ypres, When his country is at stake; With his comrades close beside him, Mid shot and shell and glare, And the ramparts bursting in thunder,

With a hell that the Huns must share. Only a boy,— but he's my boy—

As he stands at "call to arms," With scarcely a hope for a living soul, Who will rescue the wing to the right?

"Here is one; I'll go!" is his answer, As a hero, he meets his fate, He fell, with the boys of the Salient, But victory crowned their wake.

Only a boy,— but he's my boy—

Borne on the morning breeze, By the escort of an Angel, Adown the river of death; And up to the throne of glory, Because he did his best.

Think not that he has lost all—

Ah, no; but has gained much more, A noble place in the Honor Roll, By God and the Angels born— A place in the alcove of Glory—for All the ages to come, When Justice shall reign supreme.

And when the boys come marching home, Think you their comrades remain? Bethink you of the Angels of Mons, And remember they march before; And think you where is Kitchener's place, And as of yore his spirit lead, E'en now he leads much more.

A Friend.

FOURTEEN CENT BREAD TODAY

Local Bakers Advanced This Morning From Twelve Cents.

Bread was advanced by the Belleville bakers this morning to fourteen cents for a three pound loaf. The change has been expected in some quarters for some time, but about a week ago it was not considered likely. The latest rise in flour is accountable for the increase.

TRENCH LIFE IS NOT SO BAD

Jack Phelan Writes That He Finds Life in the Trenches Better Than He Expected.

Lieut. J. M. Phelan, of the 80th Batt., and formerly the office staff of the Grand Trunk railway in this city sent the following very interesting letter to his friend Mr. Arthur Jones manager of the local branch of the Molson's bank.—

47th Bln., -Canadians B.E.F., France 10.9.16.

Dear Mr. Jones,

Just a line to say I'm alive and kicking and still in the game and hope to stay right with it. Had a couple of sharp strafing encounters with Huns and we came off lucky. So far we have been fortunate enough not to lose a man in my company and I do hope the same good luck will continue, as they are such a fine bunch of fellows, I would hate to see any of them bowled over. Am in France now nearly five weeks and should have written you before this, but time and opportunity is the main thing, particularly for a new guy at the game. I have not found trench life as bad as it is painted by the outside world, but one has to become accustomed to the surroundings. I am doing things now that if anyone suggested to me before I came over I'd lick 'em. Can now sleep comfortably well on a mud floor or hardwood plank under the canopy of heaven, but of course it is not near so nice as rolling around on a sofa. Hope you are well. Regards to Leonard and Johnson.

Jack Phelan.

A BIG CORN ROAST FOR THE 155th BATTALION

Lt.-Col. Adams is always wondering how he can make things brighter, better, and in every way more pleasant for the boys of his battalion. His latest thought has been to provide a big corn roast for the 155th battalion. It will take a lot of corn to supply the thousand men in this unit, but the commanding officer rarely ever turns aside for little things, and will certainly secure the corn for the roast. This will have to be done at an early date now, and the boys are all delighted with the prospects of the promised roast.

SERGT. BUSH WOUNDED

Sergt. H. J. Bush, of Havelock, was officially reported wounded yesterday. Previous to enlisting in the 39th battalion, of Belleville, he was employed as railway conductor on the G.T.R., C.P.R. and C.N.R. He was a crack rifle shot, winning many prizes in Canada and England, and was well known as a hunter and trapper. While in England he was transferred to the 13th battalion, 2nd division, on special service work. He has been at the front for about seventeen months. His wife and two children reside in Havelock.

ANGLO SALE SUCCESSFUL

Good Prices Realized by Mr. John L. Palmer at Hotel Auction

The auction sale of the Anglo-American Hotel furnishings which began on Tuesday and closed yesterday, proved to be very successful, everything was disposed of, some of the furniture being bought by out of town dealers. The prices realized are considered very satisfactory. Mr. John L. Palmer wielded the hammer at the sale.

The exit of the Anglo from business removes the last hotel below Victoria Avenue on Front street. This famous hostelry will be missed by the rural public particularly for on Saturdays it was the center of large crowds.

NOT ONE DRUNK YET.

Twelve days have elapsed since prohibition was put into force and yet not one drunk has been arrested in that time. It is said one fellow went up street at seven o'clock yesterday morning, but he did not come under the gaze of the authorities.

MEMORIAL FOR PTE. J. D. CARLAW

John Street Congregation Pays Tribute to Fallen Soldier

An impressive service in memory of the late Private James Douglas Carlaw, who fell in action while serving with the Princess Patricia's Light Infantry, was held Sunday evening in John St. Presbyterian church, where in times of peace the young man worshipped. Appropriate music, including the anthem, "The Homeland," and hymns "Peace, Perfect Peace," and "Abide with Me," was rendered by choir and congregation.

Rev. E. C. Currie, the pastor, spoke with deep feeling of the death of the young soldier, which came as the first break in the honor roll of the congregation. "We have not as many men as some congregations but we boast of thirty honored names."

"Private Carlaw was a member of this congregation, a young man of promise, of business ability, and of distinctly upright Christian character. "Ours is the sense of loss and interrupted friendship when he lay down his life for our sake. Ours is to deplore the sacrifice of a young and promising young man. But my duty is not so much to dilate upon the loss as it is to comfort and try to strengthen. This was the method of Jesus."

"Reflect upon the honor which attends upon the life, the service, and the death of this young man. He heard the call of King and Country. His ear was not heavy and he responded. He allied himself with the company that won distinction by way of sacrifice. The Princess Patricia's rank with the Black Watch and the Gordons, old names in Britain's history. Remember he was willing to fill the humble place of a private for the sake of the cause. He esteemed the cause a worthy and righteous one. He believed it was for justice and righteousness and the establishment of an international peace. The motive in the initiative determines the right or wrong."

"Pte. James Douglas Carlaw had enlisted in the service of Jesus Christ years before his enlistment for foreign service. Because of this we are confident he was not lonely in death's hour. The Christian has hope in this death. A man who is not linked up with Jesus Christ is not competent to give his best service. The Christian is freed from panic at death. To find men trembling at the brink is pathetic. In contrast we have Paul. How much of comfort for the bereaved lies in this. The Christian has something to live for that the worldling has not. Then there is rest at eventide. What quiet amid the noise and confusion of battle! So in the cause of Jesus Douglas Carlaw may we say with the poet:

"He died for the land which welcomed him; The land that is proud of him. Thank God for the men with souls like his For we need them much May angels watch by his grave And comfort those that grieve."

SUNDAY SCHOOL. Lesson II.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 8, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xxiv, 10-21. Memory Verses, 14, 15—Golden Text, Acts xxiv, 16—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

This chapter gives us Paul's testimony before the high priest and the elders from Jerusalem, at Caesarea, in the presence of the governor Felix; and also some account of one of Paul's talks with Felix and his wife, Priscilla. The persecutors from Jerusalem brought with them an orator who with flattery for Felix did a large amount of lying against Paul, which the Jews indorsed, saying that these things were so (verses 1-9). Paul denied their accusations and defied them to prove what they said and then stated the case truthfully (verses 10-13). His confession that he believed all things which are written in the law and in the prophets (verse 14) reminds us that our Lord said that the two with whom He walked to Emmaus were foolish in not doing so, and also that He expounded from Moses and the prophets and the psalms the things concerning Himself, saying that all that is fulfilled (Luke xxiv, 27-29, 44). It is counted hereby even now by many supposedly orthodox preachers to look for a literal Israel to be the land given to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and a literal kingdom of God on earth with Israel as a center, who shall, as a nation made righteous by receiving Jesus Christ as their Messiah when He shall come in His glory, bring blessing to all nations.

It has been told to my face by a teacher of large Bible classes that the Jews were no more to God than the Indians of our country, but I am still believing God and standing with our Lord and with Paul and expect so to continue by His grace. As to the resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust, when understood in the light of Scripture, that is also most simple and helpful.

All the dead shall rise; that is clear not only from lesson verse 15, but also from our Lord's own words in John v, 28, 29, and Dan. xii, 2. That the hour of John v, 28, may, will, and cover a thousand years is easy from the fact that the hour of John v, 28, has already covered nearly 1,900 years. In Luke xiv, 14, the resurrection of the just is spoken of as a time of reward for the righteous, and 1 Cor. xv, 23, says "They that are Christ's at His coming." In Rev. xx, 5, 6, it is written that those who do not take part in the first resurrection will not rise till the end of the thousand years. There is no foundation in the Scriptures for the thought that our resurrection takes place when we die or for the use of the words at a funeral "he is not here, he is risen," for those words were used of our Lord. There is no foundation for the thought of a general resurrection of all, good and bad, at what is called the last day.

If this sounds strange to any who read, please do not turn away from it, as I once did, but look into it humbly and prayerfully, with a real desire to know the mind of the Lord, and He will surely teach you. Let us cut into a conscience void of offense toward God first and then toward men (verse 19). Felix, having heard both sides and seeing through some things that the matter be deferred until Lysias, the chief captain, could come and advise him more fully. Meantime he treated Paul well as a prisoner, giving him liberty and allowing his acquaintances to see him and minister to him (verses 22, 23). As we think of Philip and his household and all who heard the word in the home of Cornelius, it is possible that Paul was made as comfortable as a prisoner could be, and, no doubt, he used every opportunity to preach Christ crucified, risen and returning to set up His kingdom.

We may infer from verse 27 that the case was deferred for at least two years so that Paul must have had much rest and many opportunities. We cannot think as well of Felix as we would like to, for he was evidently an up to date grafter and a man pleaser, often sending for Paul to hear him talk, trembling a little sometimes under his searching words, but always hoping that Paul would offer him money to set him free, and keeping Paul a prisoner to please the Jews (verses 24-27). What we call graft, or, as in the Bible, taking bribes, is a very old story, and was forbidden by the law of Moses. Samuel was free from it, but not so his sons (Deut. xvi, 19; 1 Sam. viii, 3; xii, 8).

We must not confuse this with the saying of our Lord, as some do, that the Spirit will convince the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment (John xvi, 7, 8). Our first need as sinners is to appear unshamed before God, and this we cannot obtain by any good works of our own. Yet there are many going about seeking to establish their own righteousness, not knowing that in God's sight all is as filthy rags, and apart from Jesus Christ there is no righteousness—no, not time (Isa. lvi, 1; Rom. iii, 10, 19-24; x, 3, 4; 1 Cor. v, 21). Temperance is the denial or control of self in every form that God may be glorified in our daily life, not in order to be saved, but because of the righteousness freely given to us in Christ. All shall in due time and in due order come to judgment either for sin or service.

THE CALL OF THE NEW NATION

Their Future Work for the Race of Adam.

God's Great Plan Purposed From the Beginning—Its Gradual Run: Sure Outworking—Natural Seed of Abraham First Sent With—Call of the Spiritual Seed of Abraham—Their Preparation, Covering 1,900 Years—How This Class Was Predestinated—Their Completion and Final Deliverance Now About Due.

New York City Oct. 1.—Pastor Russell occupied his pulpit in the New York City Temple, 63rd St., near Broadway, this evening. His discourse was based upon Revelation 2: 26, 27: "He that overcometh, and keepeth My works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations; and he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers, even I received of My Father." He said:

The Bible tells us that from before the foundation of the world our Heavenly Father purposed in Himself the great Plan of Salvation which He has since been carrying out. He will make no changes in that Plan; for He knew the end from the beginning. (Isaiah 46: 9, 10; 55: 8-11.) Such wise, gracious Almighty God ours. Although He had this Plan from before the foundation of the world, the Scriptures show that He did not make it known, except very vaguely, until the time of Abraham. This you remember, St. Paul points out to us, saying that God first made declaration of His Purpose, first preached the Gospel, to Abraham. (Galatians 3: 8; Genesis 12: 3.) To faithful, loyal, obedient Abraham, God said, "It is My Purpose to bless all mankind, and that great blessing shall come through your posterity."

Then God seemed to ignore His own Promise; for century after century passed without anything apparently being done. In the meantime, Abraham's natural seed through Isaac have come into the world. The Israelites were still in bondage, with that Covenant still unfulfilled. Then God sent a message through Moses to this effect: "You ready to have fulfilled to you the Promise which I made to your Ancestor Abraham?" You can imagine how the Israelites felt. They quickly indicated that they were ready. Then God purposed that Moses should lead them out of Egypt and onward into the land of Canaan, where they supposed that they would become so mighty that they could conquer the whole world and rule mankind in righteousness.

When God had brought Israel as far as Mount Sinai, He indicated to them that before they could have Abraham's seed, bless the world, they must demonstrate their fitness. Then He gave them His Law in a great Covenant, and told them that if they would keep that Law, the blessing, they would have both the right and the opportunity to become the blessers of the remainder of mankind. You remember that God gave Israel the Ten Commandments at Mount Sinai, through Moses; and that Israel said, "All these things will we do."—Exodus 19: 1-9; 24: 1-8.

Natural Israel's Failure. The Israelites appreciated God's great offer; they wished to be the blessers of all mankind. It could not be a great people who could conquer and bless the whole world. They could see no other way to bless humanity except by first conquering the world, although they were only a little nation amongst others older and stronger than themselves.

But Israel could not keep the Law of God, for no man can do so; for it is the measure of a perfect man's ability. None but a perfect man could love the Lord his God with all his mind, heart, soul, and strength; and his neighbor as himself. (Matthew 22: 37-40; Luke 10: 26-28.) The Israelites did not realize how imperfect they were. But as the years passed by they gradually learned that they were not able to bless the world.

You remember that God gave them an annual Atonement Day. On that day He said, so to speak, "I will wipe off the slate again; and you may try on a clean slate for the coming year." Year after year they tried in this way. But those annual sacrifices of bulls and goats which were arranged for them could never take away sin. They merely represented in a typical manner that Israel was given another opportunity for life through keeping the law. (Hebrews 10: 1-4.) Finally the Israelites became very much discouraged; for they saw that they were accomplishing nothing along this line. They did not have everlasting life any more than had other peoples of that time. They themselves had before they entered into the Law Covenant. They were in no condition to bless the world.

God's Promise of a New Covenant. Then God sent His word through His Prophet, saying, "The day is coming when I will make a New Covenant with the House of Israel and the House of Judah. . . . I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more." (Jeremiah 31: 34.) Under that New Covenant God will take away the stony heart out of their flesh and will give them a heart of flesh. (Ezekiel 11: 14-21; 37: 26-28.) This wonderful promise has not yet been fulfilled to the Jewish nation, it will be. In the light of St. Paul's testimony we see that God has an arrangement for an antitypical Moses and for the offering of "better sacrifices" than those of bulls and goats by reason of which He will effectually take away sin forever.—Hebrews 9: 11-23.

The point we have in mind is not the difference between the Law Covenant and the New Covenant, but between the Covenant made with the Jews in the remote past and that to be made with them in the near future. The fact that God has made certain promises to that nation, and that while they had hoped to have those promises fulfilled in them, yet they have failed to get what they had hoped for. They had hoped to be a nation of overcomers, a victorious nation that God would bless and exalt in order that they might bring all the world into subjection to Jehovah and might impress upon all the world the great Plan of Salvation. They had hoped to be judges, rulers, to accomplish the work which God has purposed for the world. This they failed to do.

How God's Purpose Will Be Accomplished. We have a God who knows what He is about. His Plan was completed from the beginning; and it has met with no reverses at any time. When there was any seeming failure, it was something that God had foreknown and had foretold through the Prophets. He was not surprised that Israel failed to become the blessers of the world.

Then in due time God sent His own Son into the world to fulfill the great Plan of the Ages, which was already purposed by the Father from before the foundation of the world—that His Son, the Logos, should be a ransom for the sins of all mankind. Our Lord came as the natural seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Judah, born under the Law Covenant, but not under the terms of that Law. (Hebrews 2: 16, 17; Galatians 4: 4, 5.) But unless He could keep the Law, even He could not become the promised Seed of Blessing, to bless all the families of the earth.

Our Lord Jesus Christ was found wholly obedient to the Divine Law, and fulfilled the requirements of the Law Covenant to the uttermost. Thus He attained the rights which that Covenant held out. The Law Covenant promises earthly life, earthly blessings and earthly dominion, that which Adam had lost. But the Man who did not gain these blessings to mankind. He might, indeed, have set up a kingdom, established upon wise principles. He might have been recognized as a great benefactor of our race. The whole world might have bowed down to Him, acknowledging their willingness to serve Him as their King. He might have taught them to do all things more wisely. But all this would not have brought them the blessing of everlasting life which God designed that man should attain.

Jesus would have had everlasting life on the human plane for Himself as a result of His keeping the Law Covenant. (Leviticus 18: 5; Galatians 3: 12.) But He could not have given everlasting life to even one individual. He might have awakened some out of death by the use of His power; but He could not have raised them awake; for He had not this right. He had the right of sentence against Adam and his posterity was, "Dying, thou shalt die." (Genesis 2: 17, margin.) Hence it was necessary that Jesus first attain the relationship to God as the Spiritual Seed of Abraham before He could be the One to save and bless the world.

"A Ransom for All." To accomplish this great work, our Lord gave His life as the ransom-price for Father Adam, in whom all the world were condemned to death. Inasmuch as all mankind died in Adam, the sacrifice of the one perfect Man, Christ Jesus, was sufficient to accomplish the redemption of the whole human race, which was Adam's loss when he sinned. What beautiful harmony Bible students find in all of God's arrangements!—1 Timothy 2: 5, 6; 1 Corinthians 15: 21, 22; John 1: 14.

The great ransom, as used in the Bible when speaking of the Spirit of the Lord, which signifies a corresponding price. It was the perfect man Adam who sinned; and it was the perfect Man Jesus who gave His life as man's Redemptory price. It was not enough, however, that Jesus lay down His human life. He must receive a spirit life; for if in His resurrection He took back the earthly life which He had laid down, He would need it for Himself, and consequently would have no life to appropriate for Adam and his race. Had our Lord merely died and been resurrected to human life again, His death would have been of no avail.

Here we see the beauty of God's Plan of Salvation. In permitting Jesus' life to be taken away unjustly, God has given us the gift of our Lord a new life, on a new plane of being, as a New Creature. Then, having received life as a Divine being as a reward for His faithfulness, He needed life for Himself; and the human life He had to give for Adam and his race. He needed the two; for nothing less would accomplish the Divine Purpose.

God's Wonderful New Creation. God's Plan having carried out thus far, the spirit was given to the Jews. Jesus should start a new nation; for when Jehovah spoke to Abraham, He had intimated that the Seed of Blessing would be a new nation, not merely an inheritance. (Genesis 22:

17—"the stars.") The natural seed of Abraham as a nation had bright hopes. When the suggestion was made to the Jews of our Lord's day that they might not be fit to be God's special people, they were amazed; for they supposed that since they were Abraham's seed, and since God's Word cannot be broken, He must take them. (Matthew 3: 9; John 8: 33.) But God would not have them unless they were in the right heart condition, so would fulfil His Promise, but not through Israel as a nation.

We might not have understood the matter had it not been that God's providence revealed it through the Apostles. St. Peter, writing to the Church, says, "Ye are a Royal Priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people (Isaiah 61: 6 for a purpose), that ye should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light." (1 Peter 2: 9.) This is God's arrangement, that for nearly 1,900 years He has been selecting the members of this nation individually—not taking a whole nation, as He did with the Jews. It is to be a new creation as well as a new nation—"created" as the Hebrews use good works.—Ephesians 2: 10; 2 Corinthians 5: 17.

The one Church of Christ is to be the New Creation, according to the teaching of Scripture. We do not know who the members are, but St. Paul declares, "The Lord knoweth them that are His." (2 Timothy 2: 19.) It was this class to which God referred us back in Abraham's day, when He declared that the Seed of Abraham should bless all the families of the earth. Whoever is in Christ is of that Seed.—Galatians 3: 16, 29.

For many centuries God gave the nation of Israel an opportunity to try to accomplish the desired end through their Law Covenant. But they failed. Therefore there would be no use in attempting to bless the world under that Covenant. Only One kept the Law Covenant; and He therefore has all the rights accruing from the keeping of it. That One is showing us a select nation, to be His joint-heir in all of His possessions and honors—as His Bride. It is God's proposition. No matter how poor a maiden may be, if a rich king accepts her as his wife, she becomes his joint-heir. This is exactly the picture which God gives us of Jesus and the Church.—Revelation 21: 9, 10; Ephesians 5: 25-32. The Jews who were living in Jesus' day would become united to Him as members of The Christ—heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ Jesus. The Gentiles, who were never in covenant relationship with God, and who therefore had no rights as Jews, have been invited to become fellow-heirs with the faithful Jews, to share with them all that they will receive through Christ. (Ephesians 3: 1-7.) Thank God that the door was opened to the Gentiles also! So for nearly 1,900 years our Lord has been selecting this Bride class to inherit with Himself the Kingdom made to Abraham.—Isaiah 55: 1-3.

Church of Christ Under God's Law. God is still of the same mind as in the beginning. No one will be fit to bless others unless he himself is in harmony with Jehovah through His Law. But the Church is not under the Law Covenant. According to the Law, we could not keep the Divine Law, but we can keep it according to the spirit. Covered with the merit of Christ's sacrificial death, we can keep the just requirements of the Law of God. The righteousness of the Law is fulfilled in us, "who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." (Romans 8: 1-4.) God tells us that He has reckoned us dead to ourselves, to our fallen human nature, and that He will judge us according to the spirit, the intention. If our hearts are loyal, if our endeavors are the best that we can put forward, God keeps us clean by continually applying to us the stripes of Jesus' blood as we ask for it. (1 John 1: 7-10.) Having willingly given ourselves over entirely to God, and using all our strength in seeking to live according to His will, we have been accepted through Christ Jesus as members of this wonderful new nation which, when developed in the School of Christ, will be fully qualified to bring in the great blessings long ago promised to all the kindreds of the earth—both the living and the dead.

Many and varied are their besetments from the world, the flesh and the Adversary. All about them is the spirit of the world, which is in together different from the Spirit of the Lord. The worldly spirit is sometimes more noble and some times less noble than at other times; but it is always a selfish spirit. It is also an ambitious spirit, desirous of having the good things of this life, the approval of the world, and everything of a worldly kind. Then the flesh has certain tendencies which have come down to us through 6,000 years of sin and selfishness—tendencies toward pride, show, vanity, etc. Then there are many contrivances of the Devil with which to contend. Many of these have come through the teachings of the various religious systems of this world. All these things must be overcome, if we would be granted to sit with our Lord in His Throne.

In seeking to do the will of God, the very first step is to learn to be just. The Golden Rule which our Lord has set forth as a standard for His followers to observe, is based on justice. God is looking to see to what extent His people observe the Golden Rule—to what extent it enters into their daily life. After we have reached justice, we have kept the Golden Rule, then we may heap up love, but we must never render less than justice. The new nation which God is selecting must have hearts that are just, they must be able to discern of doing His will. Not only will justice reign in their hearts, but they will possess a sacrificing love. The Love of God is manifest in all who have it—manifest in gentleness, patience, long-suffering, brotherly kindness, love.
