

THE HERALD

JAMES MCISAAC, Editor & Proprietor.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1894.

We should be most happy to hear from any of our subscribers who have a consciousness of being in arrears for subscription.

No doubt a large number of our subscribers will come to the city during the visit of the Governor-General. It would afford us much pleasure to have a call from any of them who might be disposed to leave us a dollar or two.

Toronto advises say that a Conservative convention will be held in Cardwell County next month, to nominate a candidate for the House of Commons in place of R. S. White, the sitting member, who is to be appointed Collector of Customs at Montreal.

Up to Saturday last twenty-three protests were entered at the Court of Appeals, Toronto, against members of the Legislature, returned at the late Ontario elections. The protests stand against Liberals, 11; against Conservatives, 9; against Patrons, 2; against P. P. A., 1.

Advices received at the department of Marine show that the Canadian sealing fleet has had wonderful luck in Japanese waters this spring, the catch numbering 44,669, which is an average of 1,276 skins per schooner. Before proceeding north of the Japanese Archipelago the vessels took the precaution of shipping their catch direct to Victoria.

The fifth and last session of the present Northwest legislature, met at Regina on Thursday last. The revising officers of the voter's lists for Dominion elections in this Province, for King's County, John S. McDonald, barrister, Charlottetown; for the East Riding of Queen's County, A. A. McLean, and for the West Riding, W. S. Stewart, barristers, Charlottetown; for the East Riding of Prince County, Judge McLeod, of the Prince County Court, and for the West Riding, Neil McQuarrie, barrister, Summerside.

Our excellent and usually well-informed contemporary the Philadelphia Catholic Times, had a note in its last issue relative to the two gentlemen from Fredericton, N. B., recently received into the Catholic Church by Archbishop Faber, of Montreal. It called them "Rev. Messrs. Strickland and Johnson." The names of the gentlemen in question are Rev. Mr. Alexander and Mr. Stockley, Professor in the University of New Brunswick, who was not a clergyman.

A few days ago a smooth-tongued, faultlessly adorned Boston man approached the chief of the St. John, N. B. police, and offered him, as the price of police protection, twenty per cent. of the profits of a gambling den he proposed to establish. The villain was greatly surprised when he was ordered to be locked up on a charge of attempted bribery and corruption. No doubt he has since had sufficient time to reflect on the Governor-General and the other speakers announced for the occasion.

London Free Press: "Sir Robert Gillespie, chairman of the Bank of British Columbia, at the general meeting of the proprietors in London lately, remarking upon the disastrous business depression, and labor troubles in the United States said: 'The depression has affected Canada most seriously, but, while I see that, I can also express my pride and my pleasure that Canada has gone through this trial so triumphantly, that her banks have stood firm, and that her securities at the present moment stand, I believe, at their highest in the market.'

A minute of the proceedings of the Colonial conference recently held at Ottawa has been published. From it can be seen that the Pacific cable service and preferential trade within the Empire were the principal subjects discussed. Hon. Mr. Foster, Canada's Finance Minister, delivered a powerful speech on the trade question. It carried great weight with the whole council and was pronounced by those present as eloquent, far-reaching and practical. It is quite natural that there should not be unanimity among the delegates on every point, but the report shows there was a majority in favor of Mr. Foster's views.

A telegram from Professor Robertson reports that ex-Governor Hoard, of Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, D. M. McPherson, of Lancaster, Ontario, Professor Fletcher, Entomologist of the Experimental Farm, and himself, will reach Charlottetown this evening via Summerside. Mr. Hoard is editor and proprietor of the dairy paper known as Hoard's Dairyman—recognized as the leading dairy authority of the United States. Mr. McPherson owns and operates about seventy factories in Eastern Ontario and Western Quebec. He is an expert and practical dairyman, and is now President of the Dominion Dairy-makers' Association. Professors Fletcher and Robertson require no introduction to the people of this Province. All these will speak at the Agricultural Conference on Friday.

Judging from the newspaper reports, the Nova Scotia coal trade is quite active. The Dominion coal company has entered into a contract to supply coal to the Intercolonial Railway, from River du Loup to Quebec. It is also shown that the port of Parrsboro has shipped 21,936 tons of Springhill coal to the United States in four months. The shipments in July were 9,604 tons. The total quantity of coal shipped in 1892 to the United States from all the mines in Nova Scotia was less than 14,000 tons. In addition to these statements, Montreal advices announce a boom in the Nova Scotia coal trade to the St. Lawrence. During the month of May there arrived at the port of Montreal 50,600 tons, and during the month of June 92,140 tons, while in July no less than 135,345 tons reached there, double the amount received during the month of May. It must, however, be taken into account that during May there were only twenty-five trips made, while last month there were fifty-six trips, and included several vessels of the regular lines which, coming from the old country in ballast as far as Sydney, loaded there large cargoes.

The visit to our Province of their Excellencies the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen, is most enthusiastically anticipated by our citizens, and we feel sure the people of P. E. Island will extend to them a loyal and hearty welcome.

According to Ottawa advices of the 3rd inst., the following are the revising officers of the voter's lists for Dominion elections in this Province. For King's County, John S. McDonald, barrister, Charlottetown; for the East Riding of Queen's County, A. A. McLean, and for the West Riding, W. S. Stewart, barristers, Charlottetown; for the East Riding of Prince County, Judge McLeod, of the Prince County Court, and for the West Riding, Neil McQuarrie, barrister, Summerside.

From a despatch received in London from Shanghai on the 1st, announcing an attack on the Chinese warship Chien Yuen, it would appear that they had no engagement July 30th, and that none of the Chinese warships had been captured. The Chinese legation is in a state of great excitement. The Japanese government in an official account of the sinking of the Chinese transport Kow Shing by the Japanese warship Naniwa, July 25th, states that the Chinese cruiser Chien Yuen discharged a torpedo at the Naniwa, but missed her. The Naniwa and Yoshino then opened fire on the Chien Yuen, but the latter fled and escaped. The captain of the transport Kow Shing refused to do so and resisted on Board Street, but the soldiers eventually sank her. The captain and others were rescued by boats of the Naniwa and afterwards discovered that the transport was a British steamer.

The Russian press unanimously declares that the attack on the Chinese warship Chien Yuen, no matter what the result of the war between China and Japan, nor will it permit any interference on the part of Great Britain. It is urged by the newspapers that the Pacific and upon the frontier, which will maintain the interests of Russia ought to be kept as quiet as possible. The damage to the Chien Yuen is so great that some time must elapse before she can be repaired. The Chinese transport carried with troops sailed on Monday from Cheo Foo. They were conveyed by the steamer Chien Yuen. China News confirms the report of fighting at Beahan. It says the Japanese fleet, consisting of six cruisers and two torpedo boats, almost doubling Seoul of available man, almost doubling Seoul of available man. The successful defence by the Chinese was a surprise to the Japanese officers. A letter from Han Noy says outbreaks of hostilities have revived all the national fanaticism of the Far East. Nine heavy guns have been added to the fleet of the star between three days and submarine mines have been laid, in expectation of an attack on the Japanese fleet. The people there believe that any day may bring several Japanese war vessels and bombardment steam launches of the war which Japan is securing whether or not the Japanese are approaching the coast to land. Several Japanese cruisers have been seen in the Gulf of Pechili. The British Yellow Sea and Sea of Japan, between the 35th and 45th degree of north latitude. Its area is about 90,000 square miles and has a population variously estimated at from 8,000,000 to 20,000,000. Away back some centuries ago, it appears to have been incorporated into the kingdom of China. Later the claimant to the Korean throne was recognized as a feudatory king. Towards the close of the 16th century the Koreans were conquered by Japanese, who, in turn, were expelled a few years afterwards. Later the independence of the country was recognized, the King being absolute ruler, so far as the internal affairs of the kingdom were concerned, but China exercised a kind of suzerainty regarding the country's foreign relations. And just here the trouble seemed to have commenced. Japan claimed the right, equal with China, to regulate Korea's foreign affairs. The rule of the King seems to have been most arbitrary and tyrannical, and the subjects reduced to the condition of serfs, frequently rebelled. By apparent agreement, both China and Japan had the right to land troops to quell these insurrections. Just lately, one of these periodic uprisings had taken place, and when the rebels were suppressed neither China or Japan seemed willing to withdraw, one before the other, the consequence was that they turned their arms against one another, and thus it happened that fighting was going on long before war was declared. What the result may be it is difficult to conjecture, but certainly, there is nothing in the forces of numbers, China should be able to crush her rival; for she has a population of 400,000,000, while the population of Japan seems to be somewhere in the vicinity of 30,000,000.

At the request of the Chinese and Japanese governments, through their representatives at Washington, the state department on the 2nd inst. instructed U. S. Consul Dunn at Tokio, and Mr. Denny, British minister at Tokio, to take under the protection of the United States citizens of China in Japan, and to direct the reforms that have been determined upon. Several of the King's ministers have been appointed to the Japanese government to the foreign control of the administration in Korea on the Korean question. His Dyspepsia Cured. I write you to say that for some time I had been suffering from acute indigestion or dyspepsia, and of course felt very great inconvenience from same in my general business. I thereupon decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after taking two bottles I found I was quite another man. B. B. B. CURED ME. I have also used it for my wife and family and have found it the best thing they can take, and from past experience I have every pleasure in strongly recommending B. B. B. to all my friends. I write you because I think that it should be generally known what B. B. B. can accomplish in cases of indigestion. GEORGE READ, Sherbrooke, Que.

THE ABBOT'S BREAD It happened all so very long ago— This sweet old legend of an ancient time— I fain would pluck it from forgotten dust, And let its bloom anew within my rhyme.

Death has been busy in the Abbey too: Day after day came forth the mournful train, And chanting brothers, bearing to the tomb Some dear companion which the plague had slain.

Yet once again the Abbey bell clanged loud, And a hungry beggar stood once more. To the lay brother then the Abbot said: "My boy, for Christ's sake feed this hungry poor."

Next morning, when the poor lay brother woke, He saw, close anchored by the Abbey side, A stately barge laden with wine and bread, Which rose and fell on the incoming tide.

"God hath provided!" then the Abbot cried, "With trembling hands he blessed the precious store; "And God be thanked, no wayfarer need yet be turned in hunger from our Abbey's door."

The winter passed, spring time and summer came, With sun and sunshine, till one happy day The whole wide valley brimmed with light and joy.

Long years the Abbot dwined in that fair vale, Loved by the people, by all strangers blessed, For still he turned no weary soul away, Who to the Abbey came for food and rest.

At last God took him, for one summer's span His brethren found him on his pallet dead; But in that valley still they tell the tale Of the good Abbot and his Blessed Bread.

Some Books of To-day. If one may judge from private letters and an occasional article in the papers, there is a demand for small libraries of Catholic books.

but wander through the first volume with the usual flow of language, and the usual sprig of heather in the hand. The emperor had not yet found her dangerous. De Meneval tells us that Napoleon thought his life never lost the habit of crossing himself in times of danger.
