When this road is finished the Onoway townsite (on the C.N.R.) and Carvel townsite (on the G.T.P.) will only be 11 miles apart. It is the intention of the councillors, also, to put a good deal of work on the township line, between township 54, range 2, W. 5 and township 55, range 2, W. 5, northward, March 31.

The accident is one of the most weird in the history of Minneapolis police annals. Penned in a narrow here last night, filled with gas and seething from a crowd of men and women screamed and fought and trod on the man's body that was blown from the bathroom where his life had been taken.

He found Patrolman Eklund preparing to enter the house. Mr. and Mrs. Otten, the latter a sister of the deceased, and some neighbors were waiting to follow the officers. The body was in the bath room at the rear of the hall on the second floor.

The policemen had their electric flashlights and were in advance of the crowd. As they reached the bathroom door some one struck a match though no one will admit doing it. The explosion followed instantly and the room followed by the screams and terrified yells brought the neighbors to the scene.

People Were Stunned.

ANOTHER FIND.

The Toronto News has found a Saskatchewan man who is opposed to reciprocity. It proclaims the find in this way:

Mr. W. A. Shepard, president of the Borden, Sask., Board of Trade, and a well-known advertiser, told the Toronto News some of his views on the question of reciprocity this morning.

He said the people here had the idea that Saskatchewan was in favor of the pact, but this idea is quite erroneous. Mr. Shepard has been in the West over 40 years, and in the course of his business has visited nearly every town and village in Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan, and he says he is prepared to state emphatically that in each of the three provinces the general feeling is against reciprocity.

SECESSION TALK.

Mr. Fielding at Montreal gave an optimistic account of the situation. He had once been an annexationist and a challenge to anyone to establish the contrary.

DEPARTING TRAFFIC.

From Bemidji, Minnesota, comes a report that the C.P.R. is to divert transcontinental traffic from the main line north of the international boundary, to the roads it has been building and buying in the States of Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota.

THE GROUND SHIFTED.

Toronto Globe: The arguments against reciprocity have a habit of reading and tearing each other.

It was at first argued that the agreement would be so good a thing for the Dominion that it would increase the bulk of the surplus products of the Dominion.

"Canada has no use for consumptives, epileptic, feeble-minded, or workshy," said Mr. Scott.

"No," said Mr. Scott, "the figures are the best refutation of the criticism which we were quite unjustly subjected last year. Quite unjustly, because the figures are better than those which were put forward by the opponents of reciprocity."

"Well," said Mr. Scott, "last year we only received 222,000 immigrants out of 116,000, and those for very good reasons, while we rejected 93,800 who were not wanted in the United States."

"What is the policy behind your demand that every British immigrant must have $25 upon his arrival? Does not that tend to keep back the large number of unemployable who are not wanted in the United States?"

"I sincerely hope that our opponents will occupy this ground long enough to check up on the matter. All we know is that the ground is suddenly shifted. The change is startling, and it is to be regretted that it is not offering us any kind of access to the American market."

"The growth of western influence at Ottawa, the News and its friends do not explain, or explainable, if that influence is, and will be, undoubtedly in the direction of reciprocity."

"The Toronto correspondent of the London Times called that Journal on March 17: 'It may be taken for granted that the opponents of the agreement are engaged in no temporary movement—that they are determined to prevent ratification if that is humanly possible, to carry the appeal to the country, and, if successful at the next general election, summarily to terminate the arrangement.'"

CHANGING TACTICS.

The Toronto News has just discovered that if the western provinces are entitled to increased representation in Parliament, so are Toronto and other large cities in the eastern provinces.

The success of the way in which the Dominion has carried out the high responsibilities of its office is best attested by the figures of immigration to Canada since 1903.

"Canada has no use for consumptives, epileptic, feeble-minded, or workshy," said Mr. Scott.

THE CHOICE.

The Montreal Star objects to the farmer selling hay in the United States. It thinks he should sell the hay and sell the stock.

Supposing Parliament and the farmer took the farmer's advice, the farmer turned down the agreement, and the latter fed his hay to stock.

"Satisfied, yes, in the sense that satisfaction makes one want more. Canada will have nothing to do with 'satisfied' in the take-your-own-sense, for many years to come."

"The Dominion's farming lands are so vast that for many years ahead it will be impossible adequately to till them. But we see that day as certain as if it was to be tomorrow."

GREATEST RUSH AT LAND OFFICE SEEN IN THE LAST THREE YEARS

Up to Two o'Clock on Monday, Sixty Entries for Land had been Taken by Officials at Land Office—City is Crowded with New Settlers for the Edmonton District—Nothing Abnormal About the Rush—Is Expected to Be a Daily Occurrence From Now On.

From Monday's Dolly. A high-water mark was reached yesterday at the Dominion land office since the Indian reserve, near St. Paul, was thrown open, on September 1st, 1908, when 100 entries were recorded in one day, but there has been such a rush for land, up till now, to press sixty entries have been recorded since 9 o'clock in the morning. Even so, it is quite possible that it will be surpassed by Monday's rush which closed at five o'clock yesterday afternoon.

EMPIRE WANTS A MILLION MEN

LORD ROBERTS ATTACKS THE MILITARY ARRANGEMENTS OF GREAT BRITAIN.

Canadian Associated Press. London, April 5.—In the House of Lords today Lord Roberts presented a motion which set forth that in view of the altered strategic conditions of Europe the House viewed with grave and growing concern the inadequate military arrangements for the defence of the country and the overseas dominions.

If the Empire had to trust to untrained troops in time of war the disasters then inflicted would probably be irreparable and might cause the loss of the empire, and the nation's downfall.

It would be impossible to keep a small expeditionary force on six months service if serious trouble arose in any of the overseas dominions. The Empire required a million men over and above the regular army.

Viscount Haldane defended his system, claiming that England was the centre of an empire which was separated by great stretches of sea and the command of the sea was the first requisite.

At this point the debate adjourned. King George VI. was viewed with grave concern by the House of Lords. In a message sent to the Upper Chamber today, in reply to an address from the lords his majesty said:

"Relying upon the wisdom of my parliament, I desire that my prerogatives and powers in so far as they relate to the creation of peers and to the issue of writs of summons to the Lords, spiritual and temporal, to attend, to sit and vote in the House of Lords should not stand in the way of the consideration by parliament of any measure that may be introduced at the present session, on the subject of the constitution of the House of Lords."

Cape Haitien, Hayti, March 31.—The military tribunal which has been sitting here for three days, hearing the cases of political prisoners charged with connection with the recent trouble today condemned to death 22 of the accused. Foreign consuls are protesting against the execution of the prisoners, but the families of the men are in despair.

THE FAVORED NATION CLAUSE DOES NOT APPLY

This is Attitude of President Roosevelt on the Reciprocity Agreement Between Canada and the United States—Other Nations Cannot Profit.

Washington, D.C., April 4.—The favored nation clause of the treaties between the United States and other nations does not apply to the reciprocity agreement between this country and Canada.

This is the attitude of the president and it was explained today that it is merely carrying out a consistent policy of the United States in interpreting the favored nation clause of its treaties. The pact between America and Canada is a contract by which each country makes tariff concessions.

Other nations it is pointed out cannot obtain the advantages accorded by similar agreements. This principle, it is stated in official quarters, was laid down by the United States nearly a century ago when Germany claimed favored nation treatment on sugar in connection with the reciprocity treaty with Hawaii before that territory was annexed to the United States.

LETHBRIDGE STRIKE WAS SHORT LIVED

Trades Union Men Who Went Out on Saturday Returned on Monday—No New Developments in Local Situation of Coal Strike.

Lethbridge, April 5.—The builders strike is over. All the trades union men, even the plumbers who threatened to stay out, returned to work this morning on wages offered by the contractors. No agreements were signed, as the contractors adhere to open shop.

There are no local developments in the coal strike situation, all the men paid off.

A street mail delivery system was inaugurated this morning with five carriers. The first special delivery P.P.F. to Mayor Adams, was delivered in four minutes.

Show has been falling since Friday and is still falling. Fully six inches of good wet snow has fallen.

Lethbridge, April 1.—The mines are all idle in Districts 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16. A and six thousand men along the Crow's Nest line are out of work at the mines.

A large number of railway crews will be moved or laid off.

The only mine in the Western Canadian Coal Operators' Association working is the McGillivray Creek Coal and Coke Co. at Carbonate, near Coleman.

The mine was idle all winter and both men and the company want to work. A special arrangement has been made by which the company will operate the whole output contracted for in its contract to the C.P.R. in two shifts, so that it cannot supply the shortage for other companies.

Should it do so, or should the C.P.R. exercise the privilege of taking coal en route, the men will be called out immediately. The miners blame the C.P.R. and Lewis Stockert more than the mine managers for the whole trouble.

NEW STRENGTH IN THE SPRING

Nature Needs Aid in Making New Health Giving Blood

In the spring the system needs toning up. To be healthy and strong you must have new blood, just as the trees must have new sap to renew their vitality. Nature demands it, and without this new blood you will feel weak and languid—you may have twinges of rheumatism or the sharp stabbing pains of neuralgia. Often there are discharging pimples or eruptions on the skin, in other cases there is merely a feeling of tiredness and a variable appetite. Any of these are signs that the blood is out of order—that the indoor life of winter has lessened your vitality. What is needed to put you right is a tonic and in all the world of medicine there is no tonic so equal to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills actually make new, rich, red blood—your greatest need in the spring. This new blood drives out disease, clears the skin and makes weak, easily tired men, women and children bright, active and strong. You can prove this by your neighbors for there is not a nook or corner in this great land where some weak, ailing man or woman has not been made well and strong by this great medicine.

Mr. H. Wilson, Stonewall, Minn. says: "Some years ago I was troubled with rheumatism and depression and felt as though I was only fit for life's scrap heap. A friend who had great faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills gave me a box. Before they were all used I felt some better, and thus encouraged got a further supply, and it was not many weeks until I was again enjoying my former good health. I thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a boon to every weak person."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail, post paid, at six a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Even if He is Sentenced in Pittsburgh He Will Be Brought Back After His Sentence Expires—Witnesses Will Remain.

Montreal, March 21.—Chief McCaskill wired the provincial detective office from Pittsburgh this afternoon as follows: "Sheldon willing to come back, must wait until local charge is heard, looks good. (Sgd.) K. P. McCaskill."

Even if Sheldon is held to serve sentence in Pittsburgh, Crown Prosecutor Walsh says that the authorities here will not give up the fight, but that Sheldon will "ultimately be brought back to face the charges against him here."

Your complainant here has formally laid against him in Pittsburgh," says Mr. Walsh, "and from the nature of the charges there, I do not think he would be given more than two years even if the grand jury decides to indict him. At the end of his sentence he would be handed over to the Canadian authorities."

The body is held for relatives to claim.

EXTEND THE BOUNDS.

Express Companies Must Deliver their Goods Within the Boundaries of Cities.

Ottawa, Ont., April 3.—Dominion railway commission has just issued an order in regard to the much complained of "delivery limits" of express companies. In past companies have set up areas in cities and towns in which they will collect or deliver parcels. People outside those areas, but within the boundaries of the municipalities, have for years given voice to their grievances.

The commission in its judgment after hearing both sides, makes collection and delivery within municipal boundaries compulsory starting on June 1st next, but gives an opportunity to ask for relief in special cases.

SEVERE CHARGES. Prominent Toronto Lawyer and His Clerk Accused of Perjury and Forgery. Toronto, March 21.—W. D. Eggar, Esq., a prominent young barrister, and his clerk, Charles Black, were arrested to night, the former charged with perjury and forgery, and the latter with forging. Eggar, the young lawyer who disappeared after issuing numerous affidavits, was secretary of the company.

The arrest of Eggar follows complaints that he had secured $1,000 and $1,200 from two brothers named Baltimore by forging mortgages. The police found that the name of J. C. Scott, registrar of titles at Osgoode Hall, had also been forged.

Canadian Medical Association May Convene in This City Next Year

The prospect of the 45th annual meeting of the Canadian Medical Association being held in Edmonton in 1912 is held out by Dr. George E. Dr. Armstrong asks what the feeling of the profession would be about having a meeting in Alberta next year.

Dr. Whitehead says he will attend the convention himself, if he can possibly arrange to do so. The letter addressed to Dr. Whitehead by President George E. Armstrong is as follows: Dear Dr. T. Whitehead, Have you thought of entertaining the Canadian Medical Association in the near future? A few of us were talking the matter over the other evening and so thought that it would be better to go east or to the lower provinces. Some favored meeting in Edmonton. I hope a good many of you are arranging to be present. With very kind regards, believe me Yours very truly, G. E. ARMSTRONG.

OPPOSE RECIPROCITY

Head of the National Farm Writers Open Letter to President Taft. Object to Canadian Farm Products Being Given Free Entry.

Concord, N.H., March 31.—In an open letter to President Taft made public here tonight, former Governor Naham P. Farr, of New Hampshire, the National Farm Writers Association practically threaten to withdraw the support of the Tariff Commission because he considers the proposed reciprocity unfair to the farmers of this country. He points out that the grant of a tariff commission and took an active part in bringing it into existence. He says that a tariff favor of legislation for that purpose. "Copies of this letter will be sent to the members of the Tariff Commission in favor of work and it is probable that a tariff commission will be in session in the near future, the farmers of the country are amazed to find that their industries are excluded from consideration. Without any hearings before the tariff board, a bill has been prepared and Congress called in special session to enact it, that abolishes entirely the tariff protection given to farm products and subjects our farmers to the free competition of the farm products of Canada."

NATIONAL MOVEMENT.

New York People Have Taken Action to Arouse Public Sentiment in Favor of Peace Treaty. New York, March 31.—A meeting which its sponsors hope will result in the inauguration of a national wide movement to arouse public sentiment in favor of the ratification of the proposed arbitration treaty between this country and Great Britain was held this evening at the National Press Club. It was attended by representatives of commercial, financial, religious and other bodies interested. Resolutions were adopted endorsing President Taft's peace plan and providing for the appointment of a committee of 50 to further the movement. The resolutions provide for a request to the mayor of every city and the sheriff of each county in the country to call public meetings to adopt resolutions in support of the arbitration plans. The resolutions are to be forwarded to Congress. It is intended to fix a date for the public meetings in the near future, identical with one selected by the leaders of the peace movement in England, so that the meetings in advance of the Anglo-American treaty here and in Great Britain will be held simultaneously.

LETBRIDGE.

LETBRIDGE, March 31.—It snowed here all night, and the farmers are cheerful being now assured of moisture to start the winter wheat crop. Building permits for March totaled $83,350, a decrease of about 30 per cent from the corresponding month of last year. The custom house returns for the month ending March 31, 1911, show a marked increase over last year. For the month ending March 31, 1910, the total customs duties received at the Letbridge office totaled $389,841.72, while for the fiscal year ending today the returns show $315,814.09, an increase of $74,027.63, or twenty per cent. Last year the monthly returns for March were $287,743.45, while this year they were $315,814.09. This shows an increase over March, 1910 of $28,070.64, or twenty per cent. It is reported that all the building trades will go out on strike tomorrow as a protest against the proposed change, but there is a likelihood they will return to work on Monday.

NO MORE MAPLE SUGAR

At the present rate of demolition of the remaining maple orchards in this country, maple sugar is destined to be very long to disappear entirely from the market, or to appear only as among the most expensive luxuries of the wealthy few. There are no more sugar orchards in Massachusetts, while those in Vermont are smaller and fewer than they used to be. The maple sugar industry is disappearing, and it is almost an inevitable question of time.

MAY CALL OUT CORBIN MINERS

Because Management Has Been Supplying Coal To C.P.R. Since Strike Was Declared

Ferrie, B.C., April 3.—The meeting of the executive board of District No. 1 which has been held today did not materialize, owing to the lack of a quorum. Mr. MacDonald, M.P., of C.P.R., will be here in the morning when an official session will be held to deal with the present situation. Vice-President Stubbs and International Board Member Gardner are in Indianapolis conferring with the head officials of the order, and it is expected that some information, which will influence the future course of the strike, will be received from them in the morning. Denies the Rumor. Rumors being rife that it was the intention of the district officers to call out the men working at the Corbin camp, because that company was selling coal to the C.P.R., Mr. Corbin, manager of the Corbin Coal and Coke company, which is also a union company, was asked about the matter, and he stated to a representative of the press that he did not anticipate any trouble of that kind, because the agreement in force between his company and the United Mine Workers contained a clause which specifically stated that the company should not be restricted in any way in marketing coal or coke. This clause, as printed in the agreement, reads as follows: "The Clause in Question. It is agreed that the United Mine Workers of America will not in any way restrict or interfere with the marketing of coal or coke to any person, firm or corporation."

The Corbin miners are turning out about five hundred tons daily, and the contract has a month to run, providing nothing is attempted to bring the men out. Peculiar Coincidence in Settler Murder Mystery—Husband's Wife is Allowed to See Him—Clever R. N. W. M. P. Trailing Footprints of the Horror.

Settler, April 2.—W. C. Robinson, of Settler, has been retained as counsel for Alex. Soderberg, who is under guard in the hospital here since his arrest in connection with the murder of William Lennox. This lawyer, carefully enough, acted for Lennox before he died and drew up his will, and he has also been in communication with Mrs. Lennox regarding the property. When the police refused Mrs. Soderberg, the six week wife of the arrested man, the privilege of seeing her husband in jail, she appealed to Mr. Robinson and he secured an order from the justice of the peace granting the wife the right to see and talk with her husband at any time provided an officer was present. An early hearing was set against the prisoner was secured by Mr. Robinson after a strong fight. The police wanted it postponed for eight days. Soderberg's physicians were allowed to attend to him by the police and Dr. Donovan, medical health officer, was placed in charge of the man. Detective Sergeant Ashe, of Lethbridge, is a R.N.W.M.P. officer, who is skillful in following the trail of a man or horse. It is said to have been the horse's hoof marks to Soderberg's place. Whitford and Gardiner-green left for the scene of the murder yesterday. The breed was overjoyed at his release and is something of a hero among the men. He would not talk about the matter with friends or with anybody, though. There are diverse opinions as to Soderberg's movements on the night of the murder and one rumor says he was neither at his home or at the Oddfellows lodge meeting.

McCORMICK

A Simple Knotter. THE McCormick knotter is a revelation of simplicity in construction, accuracy in tying, and ease of adjustment. Only two moving parts constitute the working mechanism. There is no straining or pulling of the twine, and perfect knotting is assured. The cutter-bar makes short grain fall from the knife to the platform canvas without accumulating between the guards and platform. The McCormick reel is one of the strongest and most effective ever placed on a blinder. It offers a wide range of adjustment and successfully meets the conditions encountered in any field, whether the grain is tall or short—standing, down, or tangled. On 7 and 8-foot McCormick binders the reel support is on the outer end. It effectively prevents the reel from striking the end of the guards while the machine is being operated on rough ground. There are many other features and advantages of McCormick binders. The McCormick agent will tell you about them. He will tell you about the wonderful strength of each individual part and of the strength of the binder as a whole—of the skilled workmanship backed by many years of experience, and of the responsibility of the manufacturers, insuring you the most perfect binder it is possible to produce. Why not see him today? Ask him how McCormick's mowing machines and tools compare. If you prefer, write to nearest branch house below for catalogue and any special information you desire.

SCHOOL PROBLEMS.

Minister of Education Deals With Some Problems in Educational Work and Forethinks Certain Changes.

Following is an extended report of the speech delivered by Hon. C. E. Mitchell at the opening of the Oliver School.

Mr. Mitchell congratulated the city on the acquisition of a school building of so magnificent and distinguished character and expressed in unmeasured terms his high appreciation of the excellent standard of the school buildings in the city and towns generally throughout the province. Alberta, he was sure are proud of the fact that in this matter they are ahead of the Dominion. His Honor then proceeded to speak of some of the more important problems that confront educationalists at the present time.

Great Scope of Studies.
 A much greater variety of studies, he said, is required than was the case 15 or 20 years ago, and a great problem is how to compress the various courses of study demanded of the pupils into the brief space of the five years of school life, or which of these two courses or which of these varieties of subjects you are going to eliminate from the curriculum, or which you are going to add upon. "That is, it seems to me, one of the main questions which is agitating educationalists today. There is a growing tendency to press for vocational studies and second vocational studies, which are being pressed upon the part of the public to insist that the boy or girl who is not able to take the higher courses of study in universities and colleges should be afforded a vocational secondary education which will fit them for the specific objects they have in life, and qualify them as well as possible for whatever trade or profession they may afterwards wish to adopt or follow. That feature of educational work is being very largely and more constantly emphasized to the attention of educationalists today than ever before, and it would not surprise me if in the future it should become an important part of the programme of studies in the public schools of all provinces. It will be a difficult matter, possibly, for the smaller towns and villages and the rural districts of the province to adopt a system of specialising, but it is to be expected that the chief cities and towns will be able to supplement what is now being done in the public schools, and more largely commercialize and industrialize the work now carried on.

Instruction in Agriculture.
 "Closely related to that is the problem of how best to carry on in the public schools a satisfactory and profitable course of instruction in agriculture. There is some feeling that this is now being considered. It will no doubt be carefully gone into by an important committee which has been at work for some time in connection with the revision of the courses of studies for public schools. I am in great hopes that the committee will go into the matter of agriculture studies as carefully as possible, with the intention that some definite system may be evolved whereby agriculture can be successfully and in a practical manner taught in the public schools; and I may say that any recommendation the committee makes in this matter will receive the most hearty and sympathetic consideration of the Department of Education. (Applause.)

Consolidated Schools.
 "In addition to those problems which I have just mentioned as being matters which are interesting not only to those engaged in educational work, but to the public generally, there is also the question of consolidation of the schools. We heard about the subject at the last trustees' convention at Westwood, and resolutions to the same effect have been passed in other years. I presume that very soon we may be able to put on the statute books some better and more detailed provision than we have at present for consolidated schools. To some it may seem an easy thing to make this provision, but it is not such an easy matter, I assure you. Once you introduce a system of that kind into the school work of the province, if it is not a good thing it may work a good deal of harm, and it will not be an easy thing to undo it. Therefore, I think the department can very properly excuse itself for any apparent delay which the school trustees or the public generally may think has existed on the part of the department. It may very easily shield itself behind this, and urge that it is the wisest policy to make progress slowly. However, we are going to do something, and if we find it is in the best interests of the province, if we find that the people in the districts are content to bear the additional baby cries of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. T. B. Kennis, Rasmussen, who has recently come to the market for coughs, colds and croup. For sale by Dealers everywhere.

ed expense, the consolidated schools will put upon them, and that they are satisfied that it is a preferable system, then I think they may be assured something will be done in that direction." (Hear, hear.)

Tribute to Mr. Oliver.
 Continuing, the Minister referred to Lord Strathcona's endowment in aid of physical training, and then pleaded for a continual and active interest on the part of the public in the great work of educating the young people of the community.

"This school," said Mr. Mitchell, "is named in honor of Mr. Oliver School. I presume that name has been given to it in recognition of the pioneer work of Mr. Oliver, who, the earlier history of the province and of the city, devoted a great deal of time and attention to furthering the interests of education, and, being an old and respected pioneer of this city, and a man occupying a very high place at the present time in the political world. (Hear, hear.) I presume you feel it would be proper and right to recognize his services to the cause of education, and I am sure if this is the case, the Hon. Mr. Oliver will take it as a compliment to his past services, and I am satisfied that he is a disappointed man that he is not here to enjoy this magnificent school building and formally opened. (Applause.) It gives me the greatest possible pleasure to declare this fine school open, and I trust that the children who attend the school, and the young men and women, are fortunate to have so close at hand their 'hearth'—will give you a manhood and to womanhood having derived all the benefits which institutions of this kind can give. They will be benefited intellectually and morally and physically that they may carry on the duties of life in this city as a 'Benjamin.' (Applause.)

PEACE RIVER

J. K. Cornwall, M. P. F., Addressed a Large Gathering at the Reservoir of the North Lead.

J. K. Cornwall, M. P. F., addressed a large gathering at the reservoir of the Peace River. The Toronto Daily Star says the four-day address was... It is the last vest of the region of America last great trek... Mr. Cornwall of the Peace River country, who was present at the meeting at the King Edward Hotel, addressed the Canadian Club members at their noon luncheon... The human race has been tracking ever since the dawn of time... Last winter we had a spectacular trek from the Peace River valley to the Mackenzie River watershed, a territory larger than the country we know as the Canadian West at the present time.

There are one hundred million acres of agricultural land in the Mackenzie basin, of which 20 million are capable of bearing No. 1 hard wheat. The farmer will be subject to frost, snow, and other hazards, but at Vermilion they average three crops over the winter, and they get 100 bushels per acre, and the Peace River valley is only one day's ride from the Mackenzie district. This great area contains gold, iron, gypsum, salt, asphaltum, oil, and coal. The greatest unfished fresh water lake in the world is situated in the Peace River valley, and it is one of the largest in the world. The Peace River valley is one of the richest in the world. The Peace River valley is one of the richest in the world. The Peace River valley is one of the richest in the world. The Peace River valley is one of the richest in the world.

Speaking of the class of settlers preferred in the far North, Mr. Cornwall said he was glad to emphasize on the Western-American, and Canadian, the fact that the country is open to all. "They were born in it," he said. "They were born in it," he said. "They were born in it," he said.
