

THAN TH

ORDINAR

A Neglected Cold May Cause Consumption. send out an alarm on my statement.

Thousands of people die every year from the effects of this dreaded which, if treated in its first stages with

GOUDRON

DHUILE DE FOIE DE MORUE De MATHIEU

Washington E.U.

MATHIEUS

Syrup of Tar

GOD LIVER OIL

J. L. MATHIEU

aternal al Wash-stan U.I.

MATHIEU'S SYRUP of Tar and Cod Liver Oil and other medicinal extracts, will cure the diseased lungs and give strength to the patient. sold everywhere.

WESTERN UNION TEL. CO. Church Point, N.S., May 9, 1908. Blacking & Mercantile Coy., Ltd., Antherst, N.S. Dear Sirs,-Rush one gross Mathieu's Syrap to Church Point Station.

LOUIS A. MELANSON. CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I. July 27, 1908. Blacking & Mercantile Co., Ltd., Dear Sirs, - Yours of the 22nd inst. received re

Dear Sirs, - Yours of the 22nd inst. received re Mathieu's Syrup. I have been using the article in my home for the last seven or eight years, and know of nothing better to use when one is subject to cough or cold. In fact, we would not be without it for twice "its value. Fhave very much pleasure in recommend-ing this article, and in selling it over the Island I have the serve reading from our customers." feel.' have the same report from our customers. CARVELL BROS., C. M. RITCHIE.

SYDNEY, C.B., July 20, 1908. Dear Sirs, -Yours of the 22nd to hand asking for testimonial for Mathieu's Syrup. I have handled Mathieu's Syrup for one year, and find it one of the best sellers in a cough me licine that I have ever handled. I am ordering one Gross from your traveler to day, as I sold the last bottle in stock ve terday. DON: I BUCK LEV. However, and Index of the but Mr. Davenport, as I told you, SYDNEY, C.B., July 20, 1908. DON. J. BUCKLEY, Druggist. isn't like that, I'll wait, anyhow, till

MATHIEU'S NERVINE POWDERS are free from opium, chloral and other dangerous drugs and they are supreme against headache, sick headache, neuralgia, overwork. 25 cts. per box of 18 powders. Prepared by

J. L. MATHIEU Co., Sherbrooke, Can THOS. MCMURDO & Co., Wholesale Chemi ts and Druggists, St. J

CHAPTER VIII. MR. LARCHER INQUIRES.

LARCHER and the landlady stood gazing at each other in silence. Larcher spoke first.

'He's always prompt to the minute. He may be coming now.' The young man went out to the had come by the knowledge of that the freedom of his room, you know.

street. But no familiar figure was in rant his ignoring it. Davenport had he met them at tea? sight. He turned back to the land- manifestly wished to keep it a secret. At two o'clock his impatience got lady. 'Perhaps he left a note for me on the table,' said Larcher. 'I have might have met with an accident.' 'I've looked through the news- He was no sooner seated in an elevat-'Go up and see, then. I'll go papers yesterday, and to-day, but ed car. and out of sight of the lodgthere's nothing about him, or any-

to make a fuss and get her house in to the papers just for fun.' 'That's true. I'm sure they'd take your report seriously. But we'd better wait a little while longer. I'll stay here an hour or two, and then, MAGIG

if he hasn't appeared, I'll begin a quiet search myself. Use your own judgment, though : it's for you to see BAKING the police if you like. Only remem-POWDER ber, if a fuss is made, and Mr. Dav-NEW STYLE LABEL KINDS enport turns up all right with his own reasons for this, how we shall all MADE IN CANADA E.W.GILLETT CO.LTD "He'd be annoyed, I guess. Well TORONTO, ONT.

I'll wait till you say. You're the only friend that calls here regular to see him. Of course I know how a good It was on Tuesday night that Larmany single men are, that live in ther had last beheld Davenport, "And so you haven't seen my friend since Monday?" he asked, insistently. "That's what I said." "When is Mr. Bud coming back, vou know?" "You can search me." was the ba you think it's time. But you'll keep keeper's subtle way of disavowing all coming here, of course?' knowledge of Mr. Bud's future inten 'Yes, indeed, several times a day. tions. Back to the elevated railway, and get home. He might turn up any moment. I'll this one o'clock engagement. Then, if he's still missing, I'll go to a place until he was again upon the steps of went off auto riding with the Bemis-

The place he had thought of was hat-stand. the room of old Mr. Bud. Daven-"Any news?" asked the landlady, port had spoken of going there often appearing from the rear.

"No. I was hoping you might hav to sketch. Such a queer, snug old place might have an attraction for the After saying he would return man. There was, indeed, a chancethe evening, he rushed off to keep his a bare chance-of his having, upon engagement for tea. He was late in whim, prolonged a stay in that place arriving at the flat. or its neighborhood. Or, at least, Mr "Here he is!" cried Edna, eagerly

'It certainly does.' Larcher's puz Bud might have later news of him Her eyes, sparkled; she was in high zled eyes alighted on the table drawer. than Mrs. Haze had. He gave an inward start, reminded That good woman went back to her work, and Larcher waited alone in great merriment and in possession of the armchair where Davenport had some cause of felicitation as yet un- I answered them when they asked me that are extended to this family. I match sat at their last meeeting. He re- known to Larcher. He stood hesitaport had surely taken that money with called Days nport's odd look at part- ting.

him on leaving the house the next ing, and wondered if it had meant morning. Larcher opened his lips, anything in connection with this

The doubt and the solitude weighed heavily on Larcher's mind. And stoop and looked up and down the money in a way that seemed to war- what should he say to the girls when

It was not yet time to tell everything. the better of him . He went down-'Of course,' said Larcher, 'he stairs, and after a few words with ing-house, than he began to imagin

.

heautiful time

W Heart-te-Heart Talk With Himself By a Grievance Lover.
Martin Characters seem to need privances as they do some indis-bensable article of food in order to maintain the attitude of anscontent with which they torture their family and friends.—Dora Melegari in Mak-ers Joys and Sorrows.)
I am v e r y happy this after-noon. I have a happy this after-noon. I have a monosyllables. -Think on the whole, know when I've had so good a one." grievance. It is a splendid griev- I'll get the most out of it if I stay.

here. ance and it is "What an absurd idea. Someon against the whole family. I tried to make me believe that I didn't am deeply hurt. say I'd get home before to-morrow. I shall sulk for Do they think I'll give up my grievhours and every- ance that easily? I guess not. "Won't I come in the library and body will come to me and try to sing with them? No, of course I placate me. I won't. I couldn't do more than that shall have a ! if I were feeling real pleasant. soon as the family "Mrs. Bemis has asked them to go autoing next Sunday, and they think it ric is voile. "Yes, they are all away. That is would be fun if I took someone's give him an hour and a half to keep ing that his friend must be now at my grievance. I said I might poswhere there's a bare chance he might the lodging-house. Then it weaken- es. Of course I haven't been gone of that. I'll go, all right, but I'll I ve only just now thought of ed somewhat. It died altogether at but three days, and of course they keep them begging me before I say sight of the questioning eyes of the don't get auto rides often, but still

yes. negro. The telegram was still on the I think they might have been at home to greet me. "It just shows how little they care about me. It shows of how little account I am in my own home-doubt f they'd care if I didn't come at all. "There, I've worked myself up have to open the front door, but I plan and go up in my room and close the door. won't say a word until they speak to

"Well, I think I did that pretty well. ing shot. They called to me not to didn't say a word of reproach, but, go upstairs, the Randalls were comby the way, I asked them how they ing, and I said very coldly, 'I don't care G. P. O. Goobie, E., retd. Gulliford, George A.

K

Hiscock, Annie, retd.

Hodder, Alexander,

Kendrick, R., retd.

Kavanagh, Julia Kelly, Miss Annie M.

SHOE POLISH od for Leather-and lasts for a week. Black or tan, at all gro-me very much." <sup>a</sup>Mother

"I think I got ins full value out, of Perf Common

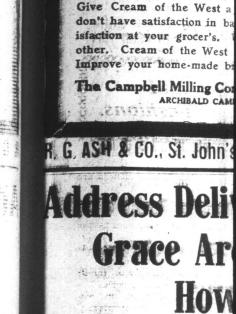

Above all others, the season's fab

Square and round neck bodices home continued strong within him sibly get home to-day and yet they I wouldn't think of that. I'll go all equally nopular. wouldn't think of that. I'll go, alt, right, but I told them I wouldn't think skirts in the fall. The bag with the long cord is the bag of the moment.

Very fashionable are royal purple parasols with white silk linings. "Oh, thunder, here's some compan, Lace bags over colored silk linings coming in the front gate. That means are carried with evening gowns. I'll have to be decent. You can't par-

-The Pshche knot is much in evi ade grievances in front of company dence in colffures for the evening. you know. They don't understand The embroidered dress is here to They simply think you are disagreestay in an assured successful place. able. I guess I'll carry out my other Sailor collars of satin or silk are now veiled with black or white chiff-seems to diminish the "Well, now, I call that a good part-Nothing popularity of the collarless bodice of gown A novel and pretty conceit from enjoyed themselves, and the short way seem to be included in the invitations Paris is colored sashes and shoes to

At the Re-Union St. Bonaventu July 14t

Satisfaction or

Your Money Ba

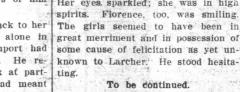

That's the condition that g every barrel Cream of the It's a fair, square guarantee vou to take it to mean just Cream the

the hard wheat flour

My Dear Companions and Erstwhile llow-Students .--- When I was asked address a few words to you on this casion, not being much skilled in e role of the autocrat of the break. ast table. I was somewhat at a loss know what form these "few words' ould take. Seeing that they were he delivered within the classic alls of this noble shrine of learn ig. I thought that something of a lit rary or scientific nature might be ex cted: vet when I was told that the ere to be delivered at "a breakfast." feared 'that anything of too heav nature might not altogether conduc the good digestion of the matutin ands, which have been offered us profusion, and with such a but something checked him. He strange absence. And the money?

Mrs. Haze, to whom he promised return about four, he hastened away

VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY

room appeared the same as ever. black mustache.' None of his belongings that were usually visible had been packed away or Davenport would have let you know he knocked louder. It was so silent lay on his table. But there was no thing addressed to Larcher or anybody else,

with you.

'It certainly looks as if he'd meant to come back soon,' remarked the landlady.

SEVEN YEARS OF

All Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-table Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own house-work, hoe my garden, and milk a cow work, hoe my garden, and mik a cow. I can entertain company and, enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl." --Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo The most successful remody in this

-Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints is Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound. It is more widely and successfully used than any other remedy. It has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, in-flammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means had failed. Why don't you try ift is friend had by that time The landledy, in climbing the stairs, body like him. There was an unknown home. This feeling remained with used a haste very creditable in a per- man knocked down by a street-car, him all the way down-town. When son of her amplitude. Dave nport's but he was middle-aged, and had a he left the train, he hurried to the house on the water-front He dashed 'And you're positively sure Mr. up the narrow starrs, and Mr. Bud's door. No answer coming.

BALLAN TO SIMONY SON STREET BR VORHAFL L

of the money in Davenport's posses sion at their last meeting. Davencovered up. Books and manuscript if he'd meant to stay away so long?' in the ill-lighted passage where he stood, that he fancied he could hear 'Yes, sir, I am. Especially that the thump of his heart. At last he morning he'd have spoke of, for he tried the door; it was locked.

met me in the hall and paid me the "Evidently nobody at home." said next four weeks' room rent in ad- Larcher, and made his way downvance." stairs again. He went into the saloon

"But that very fact looks as if he where he found the same barkeeper thought he mightn't see you for some he had seen on his first visit to the place.

time.' "I thought I might find a friend o 'No, because he's often done that. | mine here," he said, after ordering He'll come and say, 'l've got a lit- a drink. "Perhaps you remembertle money ahead, Mrs. Haze, and J we were here together five or six might as well make sure of a roof weeks ago."

over me for another month.' He "I remember all right enough." said the barkeeper. "He ain't here now." knew I generally-had use for money "He's been here lately, though, whenever it happened along. He hasn't he?"

was a kind-hearted-I mean he is a "Depends on what yuh call lately. kind hearted man. Hear me speak- He was in here the other day with old man Bud." in' of him as if-What's that?'

"What day was that?" It was a man's step on the stairs. "Let's see, I guess it was-naw, it With a sudden gladness, Larcher was Monday, because it was the day turned to the door of the room. The before Mr. Bud went back to his two waited, with smiles ready. The chickens. He went home Toosdy, Bud at a time every month, and so weak step came along the passage, and did."

> mounted the flight above. 'It's Mr. Wigfall ; he rooms higher up,' said Mrs. Haze, in a dejected Salt Rheum | whisper. • On the Hand

The young man's heart sank; for some reason, at this disappointment, the hope of Davenport's return fled.

Yielded only to the soothing, heal influence of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT. the posibility of his disappearance be-In addition to the suffering and came certain. The dying footsteps ani.oyance caused by eczema and salt rheum there is always danger of the trouble spreading and becoming left Larcher with a sense of chil and spreading and becoming For this reason the use of desertion; and he could see this desertion; and he could see this feeling reflected in the face of the landlady. 'Do you think the matter had better be reported to the police? said she, still in a lowered voice. 'I don't think so just yet. I can t say whether they'd send out a gener-al alarm on my report. The request

denifens tare

" " TT'S BUT ICAN 1 a a cost mi "prente

ctions accompanying it, will the shatter THE EXPIRING LAMP OF LIFE

LIGHTED UP AFRESH, wnarted in place of what and a new existence imparted in place of ad so lately seemed worn-out, "used up," alueless. This wonderful medicament is p aluciess. This wonderful medicament is purely exerciable and innocnous, is agreeable to the taste -surtable ior all constitutions and conditions, m ifter set; and it is d ficult to imagine a case of usease or depangement, whose main features are hose of debility, that will not be specifily and ermanently benefied by this never-failing recu-ertative essence, which is destined to cast into b vion essence, which is destined to cast into it vion essence and numerous class of human ailments.

THERAPION is sold by 9 and 4/6 Partic ars should see that the work THERAFTON and ars on Britist Governmen Butt, Henry T., Springdale St. H is on Brisk Governmen is on a red ground) affixed refer of His Majesty's Hon it which it is a forger obtained in Dragee (Tasteless) form.

Vessel COAI -IS THE- .

We've chartered the barque "Lake" Simcoe" and she will be due to arrive about the 2nd week in August with an excellent cargo of North Dawe, Gordon Sydney Screened Coal.

this opportunity. J. J. MULLALY & CO.

EUROPEAN AGENCY

ecuted at lowest cash prices for a kinds of British and Continents goods, including --

Books and Stationery, Boots, Shoes and Leather, Chemicals and Draggists' Sundries, China, Earthen ware and Glassware, Cycles, Motors and Accessories, Drapery, Millinery and Piece Goods Fancy Goods and Perfumery, Hardware, Machinery and Metals, Jewellery, Plate and Watches, Photographic and Optical Goods,

Photographic and Optical Goods, Provisions and Oilmen's Stores, etc., etc., Commission 24

healing

mmission 24 per cent. to 5 per cent. rade Discounts allowed. secial Quotations on Demand. tmple Cases from £10 upwards. msignments of Produce Sold on Accoun (Established 1814.)

WILLIAM WILSON & SONS Oable Addass " ANNUATRE LOND ...

Crawford, Patrick, care G. P. O. Carney, Miss May, card Cipipman, Mrs. W. H. ove, Thomas, card Cohen, A. Cobbett, Mrs. George, with an excellent cargo of North Sydney Screened Coal. We are now booking orders, and householders will do well to avail of Dunphy, Joseph, Duckworth Street Duffitt, Elizabeth, care Dickenson, Rennie's M. Road Durfin, Mrs., Water St. West Larey, W. C., retd. Durfin, Mrs., locate

july17,tf

Rennie's M. Road Dunn, James, card W HOLESALE Indents promptly ex E

25 AbChurch Lane, London, E.C.

diapones as be say a but Showing and the boother the second of

Lacey, Mrs. Legrow, Alfred, du care G. P. O. Penny, John W. Lynch, Willie Lilly, Beatrice; Care G. P. O. Penny, John W. Pearce, Miss Rose, Lilly, Beatrice; Care G. P. O. Penny, John W. Pearce, Wiss Rose, Water Street White, Miss H., card, Aes, card Lynch, Willie Lilly, Beatrice; J., card, Signal Hill Road Lilly, Flora, card, Glara Truthy retd. Lynch, Willie Lilly, Beatrice; Gower Street Pearson, W. H. Pearson, Street WW ngland, J., card, Ellis, Miss Clara, Pleasant Street Lidstone, Emily, retd. SEAMEN'S LIST. Sullivan, Michael, s.s. Ethie Payne, Frank H., 4.7 4-17 3

Arthur, Barrett, Arthur, schr. Annie Raymond Andrews, Harvey, s.s. Algerine Bradbury, Jonathan, Lewis, Wm., schr. A. K. Maclean Control Capt. John, Florence M. Smith Control Capt. John, Florence M. Smith Control Capt. John, Schr. M. S. John, Schr. Maggie Parsons, Capt. Saml, Schr. M. Smith Benguriam, Capt. G. Matthews, Richard, G Lambert, Albert, schr. Gladie Holden , P schr. Emulato Noel, J., schr. Victory L

s.s. Louisburg Mosher, Wesley, schr. Portia Winsor, Edward, schr. Barnes, Chus. W. Perry, George, schr. Emulato schr. Waterwitch General Post Office, July 17, 1911.

satisfactor and the state and town at H. J. B. WOODS. P. M. G. an all a sensated of the same 1 formers but the sense of the more E plan arness he heart, even before I could Integrats

LeMarchant Road Rabbitt Barter's Hill Bowler, James, late Bridgeport Morgan, John, card, care G. P. O. Benskin, L. F. Bell, Samuel, Nagle's Hill Benson, B. Belben, Miss Francis Belben, Miss Francis Bennett, Thomas, Blackmarsh Road Bowden, C. R. Field Brothers, Mrs. Mary, care G. P. O. Bowden, C. R. Field Bowman, Miss Jean, card, Griffin, Mary, retd. Bowman, Miss Jean, card, Goff, Mrs. E. A., George's St. Butler, Jacob, card, card, Goobie, E., retd. Gower St. late Bridgeport Morgan, John, card, Murray, M., card Mulligan, Mr., South Side Spencer, Alfred, New Gower St. Springdale St. H Button, Miss Lizzie, Central Street Butt, Edith Haffey Apsetition Haffey Apsetition Smith, D. F. Long's Hil ean, Wm.. care Mrs. Snow, Water Street Simms, G. Snow, John C. Wishing Well Road McKay, E., retd. Healey, Joseph, Blackhead McKay, E., retd. Snow, Lillie, care G. P. O. McGrath, Peter McCarthy, John, Strong, F. G. Scoles, C. B. Pleasant Street Summers, Thos. r. G. R. Spurrell, John, Lime St. McCowen, Dr. G. R. McNamara, Miss Louise McDonald, David, card, British Hous Squires, Miss Magt. Queen's Road McGrath, J. T. Taylor, Robert, card N Taylor, Wm. Pennywell Roa Noseworthy, Miss Ada, Taylor, D., retd. Gower Street Noseworthy, Moses, late Harbor Grac, Tilley, Mrs. Wm., red. Niel & Bishop, card Tilley, Mrs. C. W. Cobett, Mrs. George, New Gower Street Churchill, Mrs. Agnes, card, Gower Street Culliford, Frank Kitz, H., Culliford, Frank Cullif Signal Hill Road O Oliver, Thomas, retd. Turnbull, Frank, W St. John's West Way, Philip, card Warren, Miss Lillian care Gen'l Delivery Rennie Mill Road Wadden, Mrs. P., retd. Parsons, Elijah, Prescott St. Way, Miss Madge, card

late Badger Brook

Wilkinson, Mr.

Norris, Ambrose.

Warren, Miss Lilly, Rennie Mill Road

King's Road

schr. Pacquet

schr.: Shamrock

schr. Victor Region

Parrin, Edith Parsons, Mrs. Mary, retd.

a Literary and Educational Instie, such as this, our dear old home Alma Mater, our beloved St. Bon iture's. But in these days of the and XX cenuturies the world in its branches and developments is vancing at a rapid pace. The very stailing of the stately and melodiold name of Saint Bonaventure the crisp and familiar St. Bon's. an example of the spirit of the age spirit which, knowing that lif short, and wishing to get th atest possible amount of good ou it, can not brook the delay of pr ncing the ponderous polysyllabl nenclature of the sweet Italia ne of Bonaventura. n my article written for the Jubi-number of the Adelphian, at the of being accused of a bull, I said came to St. Bonaventure's Colbefore the College itself was i nce. Like all other bulls, there a substratum of truth in the stat

he Stomach Needs Help

liver, kidneys and bowels mus kept active with DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS. liver and kidneys are over ed in their efforts to remove the us waste matter from the sys-They fail and become torpid d clogged. The bowels become stipated and stomach derange-nts follow. There is one medicine which will recome this condition more cerand more quickly than any and this is Dr. Chase's Kid-Liver Pills. medicine gets the bowels in at once and by awakening the and kidneys ensures the thor-cleansing of the filtering and the digestive system resumes, healthful condition, appetite ims, Ppains and aches disappear as as irritability and depression. ou cannot imagine a more satis-ory treatment. One pill a dose, at a box, at all dealers, or Edson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

of the gastronomic art and requirements of the disciplinar ws of the church. Hence I concluded to choose newhat lighter service of literar bulum, and to confine my remarks a few reminiscences of the early vs of education in St. John's, with few excursions, as occasion might suggest, into kindred spheres and cognate subjects.

It is not often given to gnyone

a lifetime to witness the bursting of the germ and maturing of the kerne

Therapion may now also be Bussey, Wm., Signal Hill Butler, Miss Mary, retd. Buckley, J. W Buckley, J. W. C. Carew, Mrs. Carry Crawford, Charles L., late Bay of Islands Carew, Mrs., Lime Street Crawford, Patrick, Mars, Patrick, John, Albert St.

white silk Hnings. over colored silk linings vith_evening gowns. shche knot is much in evifures for the evening. idered dress is here to sured successful place. ars of satin or silk are ith black or white chiff-to diminish the the collarless bodice conceit from red sashes and shoes to orter. James, care G.P.O. care Telegram Edward, card, Rose Blanche care Campbell & McKay Ryan, Enos, card, Moore Street itts Roy, Gower St. lead. Isabella. Hamilton Street lowe, Agnes, retd. Lizzie, retd. card. Cornwall Avenue perts Mrs. J., Bond St. Rumsey, Miss Jennie, card, Casey's St. Starks, Roland Geo., card .. Sparks, Mrs. Wm, Stamp, Mrs. Thomas, Pennywell Road Water St. Spencer, Alfred, New Gower erwood, Emily F. Smith, Simeon Smith, D. F., Long's Hill Simms, G. Snow John C. Snow, Lillie, care G. P. O. Strong, F. G. Scoles. C Summers, Thos. John, Lime St. purrell. quires, Miss Magt. Т faylor. Robert, card retd. ew Gower Street Mrs. C. W. Turnbull, Frank, St. John's West W Way. Philip, card Warren, Miss Lillian, Rennie Mill Road Wadden, Mrs. P., retd. Miss Madge, card ren. Alfred, retd. Walsh, Patrick. late Bay Bulls Walsh, John, Long Pond Road Way, Mrs., Gower St. Alexander St. 1 West, Wn ells, Joseph, refe Wilcox, Moses, card Whiffin, Eveline, late Badger Brook White, Miss H., card, King's Road Wilkinson, Mr. Warren, Miss Lilly. retd. Rennie Mill Road

o be delivered at "a breakfast," been a pupil of the old "General sending the thoughts of living minds ed 'that anything of too heavy Academy," which preceded the intro- thousands of miles a second. Weeks re might not altogether conduce duction of the denominational system and even months sometimes intervencountry, still I have very ed before the slow but welcome sail- of Papal aggression. digestion of the matutinal into this vivid recollections of the period, and boat brought its long looked for packwhich have been offered us in rofusion, and with such a nice of the old schoolhouse at "Castle ages of newspapers and correspondof the gastronomic art and of Rennie." Although the standard of ence. Yet the doings of our distant education, especially in the Greek and countrymen attracted a vivid attenquirements of the disciplinary of the church. very high grade, still things were quickly upon our social and intellecce I concluded to choose done in a more free and informal hat lighter service of literary manner, and, if you will, in a less ment, whether in the social, intellecand to confine my remarks reminiscences of the early education in St. John's, with Rigid rule and drastic discipline did excursions, as occasion might not hold sway; and things were alinto kindred spheres and lowed more or less to take their own course. subjects. In looking back upon those times not often given to anyone in one is reminded (to compare small lic men in Newfoundland. possession of this magnificent site of land which dominates our whole city. me to witness the bursting of n and maturing of the kernel things with great) of Literary and Educational Insti- easy system of the palmy days of Newman's conversion, and when Eng- and which is now crowned with a and certainly forget the hardworking such as this, our dear old home Athens, as so graphically described by Newman in his History of the Rise the conversions or passing over to any city of the New World. Bishop ma Mater, our beloved St. Bonure's. But in these days of the and Fall of Universities :--"True it is," he writes, "we at this Newman, Hope Scott, St. John, Dal- this great work to which he had dediand XX cenuturies the world in branches and developments is day who live in the XIX Century, gairns, Stanton, and a host of others, have the books of Greece as a per- the reaction was felt in St. John's. ing at a rapid pace. The very petual memorial; copies there have ailing of the stately and melodibeen since the time they were writ- in the local Legislature for the es- His labours in the great work were old name of Saint Bonaventure's ten, but you need not go to Athens the crisp and familiar St. Bon's, to procure them, nor would you find was the general Academy of which I man. He went twelve times across example of the spirit of the age. them in Athens. Strange to say, that have been speaking. The Principal the wide Atlantic in small and frail spirit which, knowing that life in the age of Plato and Thucidides the ort, and wishing to get there was not, it is said, a book-shop test possible amount of good out n the whole place; nor was the book Professors were John V. Nugent, sleeping in a tfit. He watched the can not brook the delay of protrade in existence till the very time ing the ponderous polysyllable of Augustus. enclature of the sweet Italian "Libraries, I suspect, of Bonaventura. bright invention of Attalus or the Professor in St. Bonaventure's. my article written for the Jubi-Ptolemies. I doubt whether Athens mber of the Adelphian, at the had a library till the reign of Hadof being accused of a bull, I said rian. It was what the student gazed came to St. Bonaventure's Colon; what he heard; what he caught before the College itself was in by the magic of sympathy, not what tence. Like all other bulls, there he read, which was the education a substratum of truth in the statefurnished by Athens." Again; "We have traced our stud ent on his wanderings from the he Stomach Acropolis to the sacred way; and now is in the region of the schools. No Needs Help wful arch, no window of many colored lights, marks the seat of learnliver, kidneys and bower mus kept active with DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS. ing ..... philosophy lives out of doors. No close atmosphere oppresses the brain or inflames the eyelfd, no long he liver and kidneys are over ked in their efforts ession stiffens the limbs. Epicurus in their efforts to rem s reclining in his garden, Zeno looks nous waste matter from the sys-They fail and become torpid clogged. The bowels become ike a Divinity in his porch. The inderstand a word of it, the "Propris quae Maribus," or "Graeca per Aus-oniae fines, sine lege vagantur," &c. Then again, a great intimacy existed between our family and that of the Nugents, and so I was privileged nany a time to peep into, and even take a seat on a form in the great schoolroom which to my juvenile eyes nd imagination assumed gigantic and overawing proportions.

The period preceding the introduc-tion of the denominational colleges into Newfoundiand was due of great ducational activity. About this time, owards the middle of the XIX cenury, was taking place in England the great religious and educational in the year 1858 by the establishment upheaval known as the Oxford Move- of the "Wesleyan Methodist" ment. I will not attempt to dwell on emy. that momentous epoch any further But I wish to confine than to show how, to a certain exconsideration of Catholic Education tent, it affected educational matters The development and advance of edu cation naturally followed the expansion and organization of ecclesiastica The Oxford Movement was primar a religious one, and made itself polity, and in this respect Newfound outwardly manifest in the issue of land was favoured by Providence in he religious tracts which gave it the an almost exceptionally partial maname of "Tractarian." Through the ner. I allude particularly to the fact whole length of this great mental that during the different stages of and intellectual cataclysm, the one her church development she was govgreat spirit looming high above the erned by Bishops especially fitted and equipped for the particular state of and confusion, was that of New-How he fought and struggled advancement in which she found her n the religious and intellectual com- self.

1

ALT

me to get a bottle

25c and 60e Sold everywhere

Board was again further subdivide hat for over forty years, he tells us I will just take two out of the fi the Apologia. It was not until the lustrious line of her bishops to illusyear 1843 that he finally renounced trate my thesis-the two best known the Anglican Creed, though he did and most conspicuous of her hiernot immediately enter the Catholic archical line; two whose names are Church. "From the end of 1841," he household words among us. I mean says. "I was on my deathbed as re- Bishop Fleming and Bishop Mullock. gards my membership with the An- Bishop Fleming was a man of pracglican Church." Finally in Septem-ber, 1843, he resigned the Rectorship theless he was a great champlon of of St. Mary's, Oxford, and on the education, that is, of the primitive or 25th of that month he preached his elementary kind which was necessary last sermon as a minister of the An- in his day. Up to the time of Bishop glican Church. By a coincidence, to Fleming's episcopate there was little me personally interesting, it happen- or no educational organization among ed on the date of that farewell serthe Catholics in Newfoundland. He began his episcopal rule in the memmon, 25th Sept., 1843, an infant was born in the city of St. John's, Neworable year of Catholic Emancipaion, the year 1829. foundland, to whom, when presented For the first time after a long night at the baptismal font, was given the oppression, our forefathers began

What I have been saying may be considered a digression, but it is not those days communication between St. John's and the Old Country was bosom of the vast Atlantic. No sub-

Bishop he was most active in the establishing of the school under the natronage of the Irish Society, which was opened in 1827. He visited thes schools every day and taught per sonally the elements of religion and prepared 400 children for Commun ion, making them walk in "festive timid Catholics, as an audacious act

But Dr. Fleming's great forte was learn that they had human rights and privileges. Bishop Fleming was not slow to assert and vindicate them. Even before he was made

Striking, Stylish, Beautiful AMERICAN Shirt Waists.

The real of the first the

If you want to see a display of Blouses and Shirt Walsts, unique and different to any collection you have ever viewed, then see ours at once. Our

With Stiff Collar & Cuffs, are a SPECIALTY.

We can assure you that your visit will be well repaid if you do come.

than upon asking one of the workthese brilliant and sparkling talents. robes" through the streets. This was men his name, I was thunderstruck The rough work had been done, the past were conserved and perpetuated. considered at the time, even by some to find that it was no less a person- foundations had been laid. There re- porary with the introduction of the age than Dr. Fleming himself. I was mained the completion, adornment, Christian Brothers, the whole trend not a little surprised to see this man and embellishment of the Cathedral, of education has changed. While the

ST.

| chr. Loyalty                     | Norris, Ambrose,schr. Pacquet                                    |
|----------------------------------|--|
| hr. M. S.                        | SBenguriam, Capt. G.,schr. Shamrock                          |
| hr. Maggieaml.,M. Fraser | Matthews, Richard,schr. Victor RegionNoel, J., schr. Victory |
| schr. Portiaschr. Portia     | WWinsor, Edward,schr. Waterwitt                              |

Tares and the the restless Aristotle is walking his put pils off their legs in his Lyceum by ted and stomach derange follow. the Hyssus." tere is one med follow. e is one medicine which will me this condition more cur-and more quickly than any and this is Dr. Chase's Kid-So it was in the old Academy days of Castle Rennie. It was surrounded by an atmosphere of classical er Pills. learning; bathed in an ambient of medicine gets the bowels in cademical ethos. A halo of roman-his medicine gets the bowels in on at once and by awakening the rand kidneys ensures the thor-h cleansing of the filtering and etory systems. The he poisonous obstructions re-ed, the digestive system resumes healthful condition, appetits im-res, Dpains and achee disappear as as irritability and depression, ou cannot imagine a more satis-ory treatment. One pill a dose, ints a box, at all desires, or Ed hon. Bates & Co., Toronto. ic sentiment illumined it. Into this terary sphere I, though almost a child, was thrown by the force of cir umstances, and lived and was nurured upon its breath. Four of my ider brothers were pupils at Castle ennie, and I often listened with inon, Bates & Co., Toronto. knew by heart, even before I could Druggists.

tual life. Every change or develop-Country was keenly scanned and immediately absorbed, in our local life.

land was convulsed to the core by In that year, 1844, an Act was passed Heaven guiding his hand and mind. tablishment of an Academy. This Herculean; indeed almost superhuwas an Oxford M.A. and he, too, bore crafts; he spent weeks among the the name of Newman. The other Esq. (afterwards Principal of the work of the Cathedral day and night first Catholic Academy), and T. Talbor, Esq., afterwards for many years This General Academy lasted only till 1850, when / the denominational sentiment became so strong as to call sentiment became so strong as to call for a new Act of the Legislature, em-bodying the denominational or sep-must not close until I give you an account of a very singular—I might was suspended, or rather a sort of bodying the denominational or sep-arate system. The General Academy was suspended, or rather a sort of Boards of Directors for the said Catholic, a Church of England, and a ticularly amongst us Protestants — a perfect gentleman and thoroughly What to us older folks General Protestant Board." As might bishop Fleming, the Roman Catholic Bishop. I had been here about two his exalted position when called upon the younger ones but the h soon ceased to exist, and in the year 1856 the Academies were definitely separated, each having its own Rector and Board. The General Protestant

MEDICAL

AUTHORITY The British and United States Financopoelas, two of the presteet medical books of suthonity, state that the source principal of FIGS is a val-mable LAXATIVE remedy in the treatment of all KIDNEY, LIVER, STOMACH and BOWEL disorders:

STOMACH and BOWELS disorders: FIC FILLS contain the active principal of FRGS combined with other valuable medi-caments which constitute them the Dest remedy for the above aliments. At all dealers, sy cents per box, or The Fig Pill Co. St The is. Out.

Goban saor of the church in New- quisitely formed black horses. There wonderful store of knowledge, adornfoundland. Besides studding the was certainly a staid dignity about ed with all the accomplishments of business-like manner than nowadays, tual or political sphere in the Old neighbouring outports with neat the equipage, rather seldom to be modern education and ancient literchurches, he commenced the great, met with in British Colonies. The ature, languages, music and fine arts, the almost stupendous work of the beauty of the carriage, the neat ele- found in the work before him an am-Hence it was that at this, time a erection of our grand Cathedral. To gance of the harness, all correspond- ple and congenial field to labour in; great activity was manifested in the his practical foresight and his eye ed so well with the jetty gloss of the and how well he fulfilled the task is question of education among our pub- for architectural fitness, we owe the pair of bloods, that you could not fail possession of this magnificent site of to see reflected in them a man of no ordinary taste for fashionable life, group of buildings unsurpassed in overseer of the Cathedral." Such was the man to whom all futhe Church of Rome of such men as Fleming became so enthusiastic over ture generations of Catholic Newoundlanders are indebted for our cated his life, that he appeared to grand Cathedral. He was pre-emihave almost had an inspiration from nently qualified for the position of laying broad and deep the foundations of the church which was soon to assume such splendid and colossal proportions. He brought the Catholic religion into an honourable and respected position, and prepared the men quarrying at Kelley's Island. ground for the adorning and embellishment of the fabric which was to ther rambling and desultory be the work of his great and illus- thoughts, I may say on behalf of mytrious successor, Bishop Mullock, self and the older boys of the first during its progress. The following extract from a letter Though both these Bishop's were decades of the history of St. Bon's, great princes of the church, each ad- that we have reason to rejoice in bewritten by a traveller who visited St. mirably adapted for the special work ing permitted to see in our generation John's in those days gives an interneeded during the time of his Epis- the advancement towards, completion esting picture of Bishop Fleming and copate, yet there was a wider differ- of this great work of which we also his work :-- doles between them. Bishop Fleming ber the laying of the first stone of the we have seen to be a man of practi- old building, and we now contemplate cal bent, almost primitive and un- the culmination of the new one. sophisticated in his ideas, a man of course the work will still go on decompromise was effected, and "three whom every one I met attributes the broad and far-seeing views, of firm veloping and enlarging as time rolls improvements in achitecture and the Academy were elected, viz., a Roman new zeal for building churches, par- and unbending determination, withal by.

compromise was impracticable, and soon ceased to exist, and in the year to visit, the Roman Cacholfo building. to do so. Bishop Mullock on the other hand of education. The College by the in-I fell into conversation with the over-seer, and found him a man very litwas a man of polished manners, bril- troduction of the Christian Brothers tle skilled in his trade. I met him at my approach, and as he wore a shine in the courts of royalty or to Professor Taibot of "Castle Rennfe" black vest and trousers, a grey coat take his place in the highest ranks to the Halls of St. Bonaventure's inand a black chip hat, all pretty well of Ecclestastical councils. He was fused some of the classical atmosbedaubed with mortar, &c., I judged at once his character, and his reply showed me I was right. He conducted me round the building within and without, and shortly finding I was a rotestant, he took some trouble with xplaining all the parts of the edi-tice, the ambulatory, the aisles, the As for my part I repaid his kindness and attention by giving my opinions with all the frankness of a Yankee, and tortunate enough it erest and awe to their conversations. Sold in St. Joha's, Nud.; by T. Mo-ereolent of syntax and propody. I Murdo & Co.; Wholesale & Retain disposed to be favourable; for the overseer no sooner left the grounds, had almost said so shab- and the erection and completion of as I mentioned, of a more practical by-in his outward man; so appar- the grand pile of Educational build- still well cherished, yet it must be nature. He was a great builder-up of ently unostentatious and simple in ings winch now crown the summit of admitted that they do not hold the the material edifice of the church. He his manners, air, and address, a few our beautiful city. For this work place of honour which they did of Latin classics, was at that time of a tion among our people and reacted might be well called a "stone-and- days afterwards dash past me in a Bishop Mullock was the ideal man. old. mortar Bishop," the Ecclesiastical beautiful barouche drawn by two ex- His great mind, equipped with its Modern education takes a more practical turn: technical, mechanical, empyrical, utilitarian subjects are more in harmony with the mind and purpose of the present day. The world has taken on itself a new life: all is vigour, impulse, movementman is no longer content to dream testified by the grand and magnificent away his life in reciting hexameters. Cathedral with its wealth of rich or composing sapphics, in listening paintings and unrivalled statuary. to the harmony of the birds, the rust-Under his magic touch sprang into ling of the leaves and the rippling of being all these architectural gems, the streams. No! he must be un and the Palace, Convents; Library, doing. He must capture the elements: Schools, and finally old St. Bon's. he must ride the tempest, and dis now standing somewhat shame-faced solve the bounds of space. "vincula under the aegis of its young and imrerum solvens." Even the wide uni posing offspring, the stately building verse is all too small for him. He in which we are now gathered. This will not be satisfied fill he has nierced magnificent of Ecclesiastical buildings the heavens and made conquest of makes of the place a veritable Unithe very stars of the firmament. versity, and excites the wonder and "Terminus omnis, et urbes admiration of all strangers who visit

our city.

Muros, terra posuere nov Nil qua fuerat sede reliquit As a conclusion, then, to these ra-Pervius Orbis, Indus gelidum Potat Araxen; Albyn Persa Rhenumque bibunt." (Seneca Medea.) TRANSLATION.

The path-tracked ourth Leaves naught where Nature placed it at its birth.

The Indian parched by Phoebus' tor ence of character and contrast of in- have seen the foundation: We rememrid beam

Can drink of cool Araxes' freshening stream. Of The Persian e'en can duan the Elbe's blue wave. Or in the Rhine his weary members lave seem Dr. de Van's well fitted to uphold the dignity of completion and consummation, is to his exalted position when called upon the younger ones but the beginning of a new onward career in the paths

A reliable French regulator; never tails. Thes pills are exceedingly obverful in regulating the renerative portion of the female system. Refusa all cheap imitations. Dr. de Yan's are sold at the abox, or three for $10. Mailed to any address The Scould Drine for

The vogue of fuschia has but little abated. Foulards are combined with plain silks very extensively. Rarely do we called to govern the church of New- phere and academical aroma of the see a slik dress of entirely one kind of foundland at the time when a field former into the new building, and so material: It is indeed a season liant mental accomplishments, of rare has undergone a sort of educational and extraordinary talents; fit to metempsychosis. The translation of take his place in the highest ranks to the Halls of St. Bonaventure's inmemories and traditions of the remnants. was opened up for the exercise of the lar alike with employer and em llins, 340, ter Street.

should be removable, so that it can be easily taken to pieces for cleaning purposes.

Song-"His Majesty," Mr. J. C. Hep- ployees, and he made a brief but hearty reply.

"The Firm"-Prop. Hon. Jno. Har-Mr. Edwards sang "I won't go home vey; who in a very eloquent speech till morning," after which Mr. R. reviewed the history of the firm of Dowden in a very able manner pro-Bowring Bros. during the centenary posed the health of the Chairman, Hon. E. R. Bowring, who replied at and paid a tribute to the various prined how he appreciated this tribute by Benjamin Bowring, 100 years ago. He also referred to the personal to himself. The newspaper men present besides Mr. J. W. Withers were Messrs. T. D. Carew (Telegram), R. J. Dowden (Herald), T. J. Foran (News), and W. J. O'Neill (Chronicle) After the dinner concluded there was a grand display of fireworks superintended by Mr. P. Hanwere set in a very artistic manner of the founder, Mr. Benjamin Bowlev and worked by Messrs. F. and J. length of the saloon, at which all a good state of preservation. It was hour, while the C. L. B. band played were comfortably seated. During the passed along the tables for all to ex- several selections. At 12.30 this amine. He praised the zeal evidenced | morning all left by train after enjoyby the firm's employees, their loyalty ing a fete which will imprint itself on balcony at the west side of the open- and good will, and as an earnest of the memory of all who participated in the reciprocal feelings of the firm to- it. The Sporting Committee, composhanced the pleasure extracted from wards them, promised each one a ed of Messrs. F. W. Hayward, Will the discussion of the splendid menu present of a month's salary. This Collins, Jas. Foley and Jno. LeMesbrought great applause, and later in surier, acquitted themselves with sided at the head of the table in a the course of his address Mr. Bowring credit. On arrival at the railway stabe a host from whom radiated cheer- celebration of the Centenary the firm friends sang "Auld Lang Syne" and would donate to the country for five the National Anthem after vociferous years the sum of 19,000 yearly, or an cheers had been given for the memaggregate of $50,000, to be devoted bers of the firm of Bowring Bros. and to some public utility which will be Messrs. Hayward, LeMessurier and others. this announcement was made the as-Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and all sembly rose to their feet en masse throat troubles cured by Stafford's and cheered loudly for fully 5 min-Liniment.-july6,tf utes. Such generosity is unparalleled in Newfoundland and is a testi-Arches Erected.

mony to the generosity of Bowirng

The arches in the city in honour of Mr. Fearn then sank with much acceptance "Hurrah for the Highlands." the Delegate are now being pushed to Mr. Stoddard proposed the health | completion. Those at the King's of the employees in a hearty and elo- | Wharf and Cochrane Street will be finished to-morrow. The others will quent speech, to which Mr. F. W. Rennie, who is 50 years in the busibe completed Friday morning, viz., ness and is now accountant, respondone near West End Fire Hall, one on Patrick Street, and one near the Song-"Bowrings' Ball," Mr. C. residence of Mr. J. T. Martin.

"Our Guests"-Prop. Mr. Jno. S Munn in a neat little speech; resp. Dr. Rendell in a very happy and witty Mr. J. P. Crotty "brought down the house" with a series of local comic sketches and song, "Come round The Press was proposed in a very able manner by Mr. Jno. LeMessurer, who paid a tribute to the power of the press and its influence for good, at the same time making kindreferences to the reporters whose ndustry, zeal and enterprise he exolled, Mr. J. W. Withers responded

Heacook, acc16,tt

