PARRE'S STORY STILL ON.

Severe Cross-Examination Shows That the Robber's Memory is Bad.

Young Durand's Dog Was Troublesome—The Crown Said to Have an Important Witness in the Person of Miss Sarah French, a Sister of Miss French—The Most Sensational Piece of Evidence to Be Produced by the Prosecution is Claimed to Be the Story Holden Will Tell in the Box To-day—Incidents in the Court.

Napanee, Ont., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The new witness alleged to have been found by the Crown in the person of Miss Sarah French has been seen by the World. She is a bright-eyed, rosy-cheeked, luxuriant of hair, and told the reporter she had no story to tell. Her sister, Miss French, the nurse, was present and reiterated her sister's statement with: "She does not know anything of the case."

It is reported that the story of the new woman witness will have reference to the visit of Robert Mackie to Toronto in the spring of 1898, and to the habits of her uncle, who formerly lived in Toronto, and is now in the Yukon. On the best of authority The World learned that she was present at the home of Robt. Mackie, Belleville, when he was arrested and besides knowing all her sister told, can tell a story that, if it is admissible, will point strongly against the accused.

The defence claim that Miss Sarah French was seen by their agent in Toronto and her whereabouts were known before the Crown officers placed her with her sister at Comby Constable Hill's home. They complain that she is now secreted so that the defence can not reach her. It was the intention of the defence to get her as a witness. She has told her story to Mr. W. S. Harrington.

The most sensational piece of evidence yet produced is claimed of the story by Holden. His story dates from January, 1897, and picks up the beginning of the thread, whereas Parre gave only the tail end. The Crown claim that his story will be on an entirely different line from that of the latter, and, taken in conjunction with it, will put the blame beyond a chance of a doubt upon the two accused. The whole case, of the Crown is said to be based on the startling revelations Holden will give. The defence preserve an exterior of calm and point to the record of the two star witnesses, and to the inducements for them to corroborate the Crown case and say, "Can such men be believed?" There is no truth in the fake story about a bicycle lantern the Crown authorities affirm.

Other Defence Witnesses.
Still another new witness is possessed by the defence. He is Engineer Moloch, who drove the only compound engine on the G.T.R. He has been in town since Monday. Speaking to The World he says he will swear that the compound engine that Parre says was on the track on the night of the robbery was really laid up and undergoing repairs and did not continue her run till on September. Parre was astray about his compound engine.

The town was flooded yesterday by outside parties, who, having a holiday, spent it at the Court House, where the interest is at a white heat. Pleton, Trenton, DeSoto, Belleville, Kingston and Toronto were all represented. There is a hum of excitement pervading the whole community and the trial is breakfast, dinner and tea for every one all the time.

Mrs. Ponton, mother of the prisoner, was in the court room all day, listening to the progress of the case with anxious interest. She held affecting interviews with her son when the court arose at 1 p.m. and 6 p.m.

J. B. Myles, the expert safe man from St. Paul, was telegraphed for yesterday and is expected here on Saturday.

To-morrow Parre will be again put on the stand and following him will come the witnesses from across the line, at the suggestion of the Crown.

As the trial goes on popular opinion takes courage and shows itself in words. It is believed that the coming of Holden into the ring of Crown witnesses rather weakens the case than strengthens it. Before there was but one criminal testifying against three accused men, innocent till found guilty. Now it is two confessed criminals and in the legal sense innocent men.

The defence claim that the file that Parre said he used to tamper with the lock

THEIR STAR WITNESS ARRIVES.

Detective Flynn Recalled to Memory by Miss Baldwin.

Napanee, Ont., Nov. 25.—(Special.)—At 12:30 this morning, information was received that Detective Flynn, who left on Monday night for Oswego, had returned, bringing with him May Baldwin, the star woman witness of the defence. Detective Flynn was seen by The World, but refused to speak. He was, however, in close consultation with Edward Luftman at the Paisley House last night. The latter is the young man whose name is connected with what the defence claim to be their strongest evidence. It is said that Miss Baldwin and Edward Luftman will testify that on the night of the robbery they were in the passage-way adjoining Ponton's room during the hours that Parre declares he and his gang entered Ponton's room. The defence will try to establish that any noises, groans, etc., were caused by these two. It is said that at the preliminary investigation, Miss Baldwin was sought for high and low by the defence, but she had been spirited away by a certain detective. Now, however, she has been found, served with papers and is at present in Napanee ready to give the testimony that the defence claim is conclusive.

Lord Farrer Says a Ring Fence of Protection Would Dissolve Good Feeling.

London, Nov. 24.—Lord Farrer, presiding at the annual meeting of the Cobden Club this evening, in the course of his address, said that America, having wisely or unwisely, embarked upon a policy of expansion, would, from the natural force of circumstances, be impelled to extend her empire. No nation, he asserted, had committed more economical follies than the United States, and if she attempted to surround her new territories with a ring fence of protection he would be inclined to think the era of good feeling now existing between America and Great Britain would very speedily be dissolved.

GIRL WOULD BE MURDERERS.

Three Under Fifteen Beat a Young Lady Almost to Death at Pittsburgh, Pa.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 24.—Miss Nora Bitter, a highly respected young lady of Allegheny, was beaten so badly this afternoon by three girls (some of whom are over 15 years of age) that she will probably die. Her assailants, Mamie Wright, Sophia Mickle and Victoria Bennet, are in jail. The cause of the assault is rather mysterious. It seems that Miss Bitter, with a young lady companion, was walking along East Ohio-street, and, in passing a group of young girls at play, she made some jokey remark concerning the party, whereupon one of the youngsters seized her by the hair and pulled her to the ground. While prostrate Miss Bitter was kicked on the head and beaten into insensibility. Her rescue was only effected when two men came upon the scene. The physicians attending Miss Bitter say her skull is fractured and a blood clot has formed on the brain. Her recovery is doubtful.

Mr. Chamberlain stated that the condition of affairs represented by the commission was intolerable, and that he was preparing to open negotiations with France for a settlement of the question, with a view to enabling the colony to pursue its industries unhampered by the restrictions created by the existence of more or less substantial French rights.

PROGRESS OF THE SIEGE.

Showing Just How Toronto Fell on Nov. 24, 1898.

The banks of the Humber, beautiful at any time, yesterday presented a doubly attractive interest for many thousands of pleasure-seekers, who, in the brightness of a delightful autumn morning, with just enough frost in the air to make the day exhilarating, viewed the interesting manoeuvres of Toronto and Hamilton's crack regiments in this romantic valley. It was the annual sham fight, and it is safe to say that never have the men enjoyed a day more, nor have spectators ever had so grand an opportunity of witnessing so much with so little exertion.

It was half past 11 and more when, after an hour of stand-at-ease confusion among the men and of confab and consultation among the officers, the party to which the defence of the city was entrusted began to get fairly under way for the front. The movement was directed from a point well towards the upper end of the park and overlooking the Grenadier Pond from the high ground to the north. For the purposes of the day the Humber was supposed to be unfordable, and consequently the Lambton Mills and Bloor-street bridges were the two most vulnerable points of the defensive line. For obvious reasons, it was expected that the heavier weight of the enemy would be directed against the latter, and, as the event proved, it was there that the hottest fighting of the day took place. The marshalling place was, therefore, chosen

DR. BRYCE'S VIEW.

What Should Be Done in Respect to Consumptives—Churches Should Assist in the Work.

Dr. Bryce, speaking at the convention of health officers, held in Ottawa recently, said: "Hundreds of people have been sent to Muskoka this summer with tuberculosis by their physicians, with no place for treatment, and they were looked on almost as lepers. The public can assist in the work of relieving these people by granting money for the establishment of sanitariums for their recovery. In every sanitarium I have visited the same remark has been made by the staff: 'Oh, if the doctor would only send the patient early enough, we could save his life.' In Toronto hospitals in 1896, 473 consumptives were treated, at an average of 50 days each, or 23,650 days of medical service. In the maintenance of these the public of the city paid some $5000. As 237 of these died, it is plain most were in the last stages of the disease. They must be dealt with in a different fashion. 'How?' you say. By air cure, or life in the pure country air. The death rate for Toronto is one consumptive for every 200 of the population, or one in every 40 families. This means that each church

THE DIRECT LEGISLATION LEAGUE

The so-called social reform convention that was held in the city yesterday is an event of some importance. A feeling of dissatisfaction with the present method of ascertaining the public will on any given question undoubtedly exists among the people. A widely spread belief is current that the system of party government does not do justice to the public. It is believed that between the two parties, capitalists and corporations, the rights of the people are being continually sacrificed.

The citizens of Toronto almost universally observed Thanksgiving Day, though in manner of its observance varied according to individual predilection. Large numbers attended church, joined in holy fast and again listened to sermons replete with the customary and this year's special causes of thanksgiving, and of their worldly substance contributed to the church funds.

Wilson Barrett's Best.

"My best play," said Mr. Wilson Barrett recently, in answer to an interrogation, "that is a question hard to answer, but the qualities Mr. Barrett speaks of and is therefore sure to make a big hit at the Princess next week, where it is to be played twice daily. It is a comedy by the Cambridge Stock Company, including an old favorite in Mr. Harry Glazier, who will be the redoubtable Jack, and Miss Josephine Morse, a rising young star of great power, will be Nazee Yulett. The sale of seats commences at the box office this morning.

Canary Bird Show.

The Canadian Canary and Cage Bird Society held their third annual show yesterday afternoon in Form Hall and proved the most successful yet. It was estimated that over 2000 people visited the exhibit, among whom was His Worship the Mayor, who opened the show, making a rising star of the birds represented 40 classes and were from 50 exhibitors in different parts of Ontario.

Hurt on the Battlefield.

Robert Ferguson, a private in the ambulance section of the 13th Batt. of Hamilton, was kicked in the head by a horse yesterday, while participating in the sham battle. He was taken to the hospital at the time and the injury was received from an officer's horse. After his wounds were bandaged by Capt. Smead, he was removed to the 13th Batt. Ferguson was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where he was cared for by Dr. Milles, formerly assistant surgeon of the Hamilton Regiment.

Steadman Resisted the Police.

Last night P. C. Murphy saw George Steadman of 21 Eder street, acting in a disorderly manner at Queen and Bathurst streets. Before the constable could get Steadman to the patrol box the prisoner put up a hard fight. The officer was getting the worst of the encounter when a couple of citizens took a hand in the fight and Steadman was landed in No. 3 Station. The prisoner is charged with disorderly conduct and assaulting the police.

The annual tea and entertainment by the beneficiaries and bachelors of Berkeley-street Methodist Church was held last night and enjoyed a great success. A great crowd of guests from 6 to 8 P. M. and there was a still larger crowd attended the entertainment, the entire program being provided by the main members of the church. The chair of the evening was occupied by Mr. John Hillcock.

Odafellows' Concert.

The Toronto District, No. 10, I. O. O. F., held their second annual concert last night in the Pavilion and gave the large audience a rare treat in the way of music and song. The program consisted of a piano duo by Prof. John Sinclair and violinists Christine Chenoweth, songs by Miss Nellie James, Miss Alice Fieldhouse, Mr. J. M. Sherlock, Mr. Bert Harvey and Miss Teresa Flanagan a duet, soprano and tenor, by Miss Alice Fieldhouse and Mr. J. M. THE LONDON ASSAULT CASE.
Walter Richards, Charged With Being a Party, on $2500 Bail—What the Police Think.
 London, Nov. 24.—Walter Richards, the ex-actor conductor who is alleged to have had a hand in the assault on Addison, has been remanded for a week, as the injured man will not be able to appear in court for ten days. Dr. English, however, does not entertain any fear of Addison's recovery. There were six lacerated wounds on Addison's head, and his face was so badly swollen as to render it unrecognizable and he has complained of pains through his body. Richards was allowed out on $2500 bail. The hearing of the case will be interesting. The prosecution will endeavor to show that Richards aided Addison's car at the corner of Eglinton and Adelaide streets, and afterwards joined in the assault with a number of others. It is said that the motorist identifies Richards as the person who stopped the car, and that he was prepared to swear that that person, who ever he may be, ran to the rear of the car and attacked the conductor. The passenger does not pretend to say Richards is the man.
 The police are of the opinion that it was known among some of the employees that the assault was to be committed. Several cars were tied up on Central avenue late on Monday night, owing to a fire being broken, and the offense occurred a few minutes after the break was repaired and the power turned on again. Two other belt line cars were tied up at Addison's very closely, and the police look upon it as strange that the crews of these cars should not have heard the cries of Addison, and gone to his assistance. The police say they were warned by a member of the employees' union that Addison was to be assaulted on Monday night.

Archibald, Toronto, and Miss Francis, Victoria, who were assisted by Nellie Collins and Miss Jessie King, electrician, and addresses from Rev. J. W. Stewart, Maple, and Rev. A. P. Addison, E.  The demon dyspepsia—its odious time it was a popular belief that demons moved invisibly through the ambient air, seeking to enter into men, and trouble them. At the present day the demon, dyspepsia, is at large in the same way, seeking habitation in those who by careless or unwise living invite him. And once he enters a man it is difficult to dislodge him, and that finds himself so possessed should know that a valiant friend to do battle for him with the unseen foe is Parmelee's Dyspepsia Pills, which are ever ready for the trial.

MAD DOG SCARE IN FENELON
 A Couple of Animals Killing Off Sheep and Fowls.

THE SCHOOL WAS CLOSED
 Because the Trustees Did Not Consider It Safe For the Children to Walk Along the Road Unprotected—An Attempt to Kill the Dogs Who Charged Those in Paraffin-Farmers Again Turn Out.

Lindsay, Nov. 24.—A well-known and reputable farmer, residing in Fenelon Township, near Cambridge, tells a very strange story. It seems that early last week farmers in this vicinity found a number of their sheep, turkeys and geese killed and torn in a manner that resembled the work of some wild animal. The farmers met and compared experiences, and it turned out that one or more of them had seen two small dogs prowling about their premises.
 Next morning more sheep were reported killed, and as the dogs had again been seen close by it was concluded that they were the marauders and must be exterminated. Guns and revolvers were loaded in some houses and armed watchmen kept lonely vigil for hours in secluded spots without success.
 Later on it became noised about that the dogs were mad, farmers who had seen them averred that they acted unlike any dogs they had ever set their eyes on—and they had suffered from sheep-killing dogs many a time. The mad dog theory was considerably strengthened by an incident which occurred on Saturday last. The dog suddenly appeared in the barnyard of Mr. A. E. Oxy, lot 7, concession 3, and attacked a sheep. Mrs. Oxy, happening to look out, saw the animal at their deadly work and called to the men-folk to get their guns. They did so, and a couple of shots were fired at the dog, as they stood snoring and snarling with bloody jaws over the carcass of the sheep. Unfortunately the shot of the man was poor, and the dog was not given time for a second shot, as the dogs charged them viciously, and then to fall over each other in the race to get inside and close the door. More sheep and fowl were killed on Sunday night and on Monday the school was closed by many a time. The mad dog theory was set at rest for the children to walk along the roads unprotected.
 Yesterday the farmers and their hired help went out in numbers, with guns and traps, and scoured the country, but found no trace of their quarry.

BALDWIN HOTEL FIRE.
 Only $50,000 Insurance Carried on the Building—Three Guests Missing Since the Disaster.

San Francisco, Nov. 24.—A careful survey of the loss by the Baldwin Hotel fire places the hotel by $1,500,000, on which at the outside there was not over $50,000 in insurance. The fire was carried on the hotel. The two chambers and the tower, which were under construction, were destroyed. The fire was caused by a gas leak in the kitchen, and the fire spread rapidly through the building. Three guests were missing since the disaster.

 Evidence Which is Right to the Point and Reliable.
 Judge Frank Ives of District Court of Cook County, Minn., says: "For some time I have used Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with great benefit with few exceptions. I have not been so free from indigestion in many a time. The mad dog theory was set at rest for the children to walk along the roads unprotected."
 George W. Roosevelt, U. S. Consul to Brussels, Belgium: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have done its work, and I am again gaining flesh and strength."
 W. D. Tomlin, mechanical engineer, Duluth, Minn.: "One box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets has done its work, and I am again gaining flesh and strength."
 O. E. Raymond, Hustonville, Ky.: "I was distressed and annoyed for two years with throwing up food, often two or three times a day. I had no certainty of retaining a meal if I ate one. Four boxes of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have freed me from this trouble. I find them pleasant to take, convenient to carry, give keen appetite, perfect digestion."
 Rev. G. D. Brown, Mondovi, Wis.: "The effects of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are most marvelous. I quite hardly digest of broiled beefsteak causes no distress since I began their use."
 Over six thousand people in the State of Michigan alone in 1934 were cured of stomach troubles by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Full-sized packages may be found at all druggists at 50¢, or sent by mail on receipt of price from F. A. Stuart Company, Marshall, Mich.

RUSSIANS IN MANCHURIA.

Colonization Work is Being Carried on Rapidly, and Chinese are Being Thinned Out.
 Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The Manchuria country is quickly being colonized by the Russians, says a late Oriental advice. Hundreds of native carpenters have been imported and Russian houses are springing up like mushrooms from the ground. Eight hundred Russian families have been landed by the Russian Government in the city of Sienchun (New City), and the heads of these families have been promised lucrative employment. Another change proceeding on the part of the Russian Government is that they are thinning out the natives in the district by sending them to Russia to work in mines on contract.

OUT INTO THE DARKNESS.

What mother would turn her young daughter out alone unprotected into the dark night? Yet many loving mothers allow their daughters, who are just coming into the time of womanhood, to proceed without a proper and complete protection and alone into the perils of this critical period. Young women at this time often suffer from irregularity and a weakness which may afterwards develop into dangerous disease and still cause a perfect health. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive specific for all diseases of the feminine organism. It restores the perfect health, and returns to the special functions, and vital vigor to the nerve-centers. It is the only medicine of its kind devised for this one purpose by an educated, experienced physician.
