Famine, Disease, Rain and Snow the Portion of Help- less Emigrants.

Astrakhan, Russia, Oct. 3.—Hopeless groups of famine refugees crowd the wharves of Astrakhan. Bitter rains are falling almost continuously, and the first snow of the Russian winter has whitened the roofs of the buildings of the city but the throngs of emigrants have no shelter while they wait, perhaps vainly, for transportation to the Kuban and Don regions, where they can obtain food. Astrakhan is a city of misery and suffering and death.

Death seems to dog the footsteps of the refugees. They are fleeing from starvation, but many hungry children and adults die from the first food they eat, because of their weakened condition. Black typhus took a terrible toll in Astrakhan during the winter of 1919-1920. Four out of every hundred physicians died during the awful scourge. During the past summer Asiatic cholera and malaria have carried off thousands of victims.

Anglin was welcomed as a new member.

Lloyd Farquhar gave a thoughtful two-minute talk on the seventh principle of Rotary ethics. Leslie Laing was the chair.

President Spangler made a vigorous appeal for a full attendance of members at meetings. K. J. MacRae, chairman of the fines committee proved much laughter by attributing the small collection today to the fact that the ministers were present and the members thought of the church collection. He was immediately apprised of a plan to fatten up the funds.

Mr. Durham gave a most impressive address dealing with the place of religion in life, and dwelling upon the need of co-operation. He repeated request some striking remarks he had made before the Canadian Club, and expressed great pleasure at the fine spirit in the people of all the churches are taking up the home visitation.

Most Ailments Due to One Thing

That is, impure, impoverished, devitalized blood.

Probably 75 per cent. of the ailments of the human race are due to an abnormal condition of the blood—thin, poor, anemic.

This fact and the further fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood, by creating a healthy appetite, aiding digestion, promoting assimilation and thereby securing in full the benefits of complete nutrition, must impress the thoughtful with the wisdom of giving this great medicine a good fair trial.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is greatest merit plus greatest economy, the most for the money. Get it today.

New York, Oct. 3.—(By Canadian Press)—The New York World today took an optimistic view of the negotiations between the British government and the Sinn Féin leader. It says that latest developments have given "more cause for optimism in regard to the solution of the Irish problem now than at any other time since the signing of the truce."

Neither De Valera nor Lloyd George can contemplate calmly the responsibility of returning to a war-weary and war-torn people the news that nothing can be done, the World continues, and concludes: "Constituents will be lost on both sides of the Irish sea by any settlement that may be reached, but there is even more to be lost by failing to reach a settlement."

The Little Breadwinner

THIS little nipper of twelve, hawking papers in the midst of the city's maelstrom, his clothes in tatters, his eyes eager and shifty, his voice hoarse with shouting—can you see the tragedy of his life? He left school at ten to help earn bread for his mother and brothers.

Yet, Daddy had great hopes for him. Looking down at the wee baby face in the cradle he had said: "I'll give the lad a good start in life—a lift on to the first rung of the ladder."

That was eleven years ago. Daddy had not counted on dying, you see. But he did die—died at the wrong time before his plans had worked out. Are you willing to take a chance like that with your wife and little ones? An Imperial Monthly Income Policy will safeguard them from a danger you dare not ignore.

Just write your name and address on the coupon and mail it to us. Then we'll send you our booklet which tells all about it.

OPERA HOUSE ANNOUNCES PRICE REDUCTION

Week-end Bill Closes Tonight - New Programme Tuesday Contains Big Variety of Offerings.

With the hope of securing several thousand new patrons and as a tangible expression of a desire to reduce the cost of living, wholesome amusement being necessary rather than a luxury, the Opera House management announces a reduction on all seats. Lower floor, 35 cents, balcony 25 cents, gallery 15 cents. Matinee, Adults 20 cents, children 10 cents. These prices will include the tax, and same will take effect with the opening of the new programme on Tuesday (tomorrow). The management assures patrons that the same high standard vaudeville attractions will be maintained, with a complete change of shows twice weekly, Tuesday and Friday.

Today is your last opportunity to hear and enjoy Loney Haskell, celebrated monologist. There are four other sterling acts on the bill; also the final chapter of "The Purple Riders," popular serial story, and last, but by no means least, a very valuable and clever two-reel comedy, "Society Dogs," featuring "Brownie" Century Wonder Dog.

New varieties are coming to the Opera House tomorrow, and the prospects for cheerful sessions for the mid-week week more than good. Anthony and Arnold appear in a character comedy and the big sketch entitled "When Greek Meets Greek." There are blackface comedians and blackface comedians. Some are natural and others put on the burnt cork. Sandifer and Benson are the real article. They offer a comely sketch entitled "Going to New Orleans," which is rich in song, fun and dance. There are three other sterling attractions, but owing to lack of space we cannot say further details, but you can rest assured that the programme for tomorrow will surpass all previous bills shown at this popular house of amusement.

RALLY DAY IN THE CHURCHES

Large congregations attended the rally day exercises in the churches and Sunday schools yesterday. In many of the Anglican churches, yesterday, a harvest festival was held. Both the special music for the rally exercises as well as in connection with the harvest festival was bright and impressive.

A Link With Burns.

A Mrs. Bell, who died within the last few days in the Burns Cottage House, Mansfield, Scotland, was the last grandchild of Robin Wilson, whom the Scottish poet described as the "gallant weaver" in his poem beginning: "Where Cart rins rovin' to the sea."

As a matter of fact, Wilson and Jean Armour were sweethearts until the all-conquering Robin came on the scene. Even when Burns had "cut him out," however, Wilson, fully realizing that his rival had triumphed in love, continued to show kindness to Jean, and it was this which won her the poet call him the "gallant weaver" and, in order to show that this praise was sincerely meant and his fair companion splitting the spoils. The police were notified and the £8 found on her. They then located by Detectives Saunders and Bettle and $8 found on her. They then caught the little boy, who said that he had hid the money near the railway track back of Eain street. This was also recovered. In view of the fact the two juveniles were not arrested but were lauded to court today to be dealt with by the magistrate.

WARNS AUSTRALIA OF ARMAMENTS AS A CAUSE OF ECONOMIC STRESS

Melbourne, Oct. 3.—(Associated Press)—Sir Joseph Cook, in introducing the budget in the Commonwealth House of Representatives, referred to the need for disarmament.

"Unless something is done to relieve us of the tremendous handicap of military armaments," he said, "we may lose the economic struggle as we have won the military one."

He added, however, that the economic strain was now becoming easier.

LIBERALS AND TARIFF

If the Liberal party were in power in Canada tomorrow the tariff would not be destroyed, but improved in the interests of the people. Under a tariff prior to 1896 the country was not only not making satisfactory progress, but was in a bad way. The people put a Liberal government in power and so improved the tariff that prosperity returned. The British preference was one of the remedies applied. They are saying in Nova Scotia that Canada needs a return of Fielding. By this they mean not only a high complement to a statesman tried and proved, but also that a return of the Fielding method of improving the tariff would make the country prosperous. Does Premier Meighen say the present tariff is satisfactory? By no means. He and his colleagues have been promising tariff revision. They have had ample time to do it, but did nothing more than appoint a useless tariff commission. They agree there is need of a change. Let that change be made by a Liberal government, that the experience of Canada after 1896 may be repeated after 1921. This country needs a tariff in the interests of all the people, and not of the manufacturers alone. The latter can be given adequate protection from unfair competition, and the field of manufacturing, based upon the resources and raw materials of the country, extended. No party in this country seeks to put the manufacturer out of business. That would be manifest folly. But the manufacturers are not the whole people, nor are their interests the only ones worthy of consideration. A Liberal government, like that which brought prosperity to Canada after 1896, is the government to deal with the problems of today. It would be composed of the ablest men available in the country, and not a makeshift aggregation gathered together to meet a political emergency.

WHAT IS THE ANSWER?

Will the next parliament of Canada be composed of first or fourth rate men? That will depend upon the voters in the various constituencies. If they are content with fourth rate candidates the affairs of the country at this critical stage of after-war conditions will be in the hands of incompetents. Viscount Bryce has told the American people that their best men do not frame their laws. Confirmation of this is found in a recent remark by the Washington correspondent of the New York Evening Post. He was referring to the men of national standing who form the National Conference on Unemployment, and said of them: "One who studies the countenances of the members is reassured by their intelligence and common sense. It is, in fact, an impressive gathering. To look at it for half an hour and then go to the other end of Pennsylvania avenue and look at the lower house of Congress for half an hour, furnishes a comparison which the Unemployment Conference does not need to fear."

What will the Canadian people have to say of their new house of commons? That it is composed of the ablest men—the men who are needed there at all times, but especially at this time of great national need? Or that it is composed of fourth-rate politicians? As what will St. John be able to say about its representatives?

Toronto Globe: "A thorough revision of the tariff" is part of the platform adopted by the Conservative party upon the accession of Mr. Meighen to the leadership. An investigation with a view to revision was made later in the year, and a huge mass of evidence was collected after a tour through Canada, occupying several months. Tariff revision was promised in the speech from the throne, but the promise was not carried out. The platform stands, however, as an admission of the necessity for revision of a tariff, which, as Mr. Calder said, has outlived its usefulness and is full of all sorts of anomalies which ought to be removed.

One of the owners of extensive steel and coal works in Germany has spent several months in the United States, and has been doing a little missionary work on China. As to Germany, she will never enter the League of Nations and "hopes for advantage in a close economic and financial connection with the United States." The Americans will know just how much weight to attach to the utterances of propagandists.

Hon. Mackenzie King's Nova Scotia tour has been a continued series of popular ovations. He has addressed great audiences and received everywhere a most flattering reception.

Mr. Andre Fauleaux, K. C., has been appointed solicitor general, and the Standard's Ottawa correspondent hears that another French-Canadian will be made a minister without portfolio. Premier Meighen is evidently determined to give Quebec province all possible proofs of devotion. Such a courtship is without parallel in Canada's history, but the loving swain is finding it extremely difficult to win a smile, unless it be a smile of amusement.

President Borden of the Board of Trade issues an appeal to members to take an active interest in the monthly meetings, and puts the case fairly when he says: "Surely it is not asking too much of the business men of St. John to devote one evening a month to consideration of questions affecting the commercial welfare and prosperity of the city, and which have a direct or indirect bearing upon the individual interest of every member."

The home visitation is being taken up with great enthusiasm by the churches and other organizations in this city. It is a fine thing to see people of all creeds uniting in a work that is designed to benefit the community, and if this is the beginning of a more hearty co-operation in religious and social welfare work the results cannot but be of great value in community life.

Hon. Walter Mitchell, provincial treasurer of Quebec, has declared himself against public ownership and operation of railways. But Canada owns and is operating a great railway system, and Mr. Mitchell does not tell us by what means they are to be transferred to private ownership. Public ownership must be given a fair trial under fair conditions.

What an odd turn it would be of the wheel of political fortune that would land Mr. E. Frank Smith, Mr. George B. Jones and Hon. J. B. M. Baxter in Ottawa. They would there have a wider field for high endeavor than the legislature of New Brunswick could afford, for the parliament of Canada is no "small potatoes."

The Standard pictures Premier Foster as a despairing man who would like to get out of provincial politics by way of Ottawa and so be relieved of a desperate situation. What a pity Mr. Baxter decided to go to Ottawa when his genius may be so much needed at home.

Massachusetts appears to have rather more than its share of lawyers who disregard their obligations. A district attorney has just been dismissed, and action is pending against several others against whom very grave charges of rascality and fraud have been preferred.

Run-running should be made so dangerous, and subject to such severe penalties, as would suggest to the gentry who have been making trouble along the Carleton county border the advisability of trying to make a decent and honest living.

And now Hon. Mr. Crothers joins Foster, Calder and Reid in the senate. If there were vacancies enough the old guard would all be made happy. One of the things Canada could do and save money would be to abolish a useless senate.

The little boy and girl who planned and so successfully carried out the theft of money from a store in Prince Edward street, will need very careful training if they are to be turned into the path of honesty for life.

The opponents of prohibition have huge posters on billboards about town that are an insult to the intelligence of the people. They should get an emphatic answer on the day of the plebiscite.

Mr. A. J. Leger, M. P., has been re-nominated as the Liberal candidate in Kent county. As he had a majority of 2,180 in the last general election, his return may be regarded as a foregone conclusion.

The enemies of prohibition are in the last ditch. Now is the time to put them to rout and stop the legal importation of liquor into New Brunswick.

A writer in Forbes' Magazine says: "Full employment at moderate wages is far better for labor than partial employment at high wages."

The need of Canada today is a government that will reduce taxation.

BRITISH CROPS.
Ottawa, Oct. 3—(Canadian Press)—The wheat crop in the British Isles is reported by the Dominion Department of Trade and Commerce to be estimated at more than the average, while that of barley, oats, beans, peas, potatoes and other crops, as well as hops, is estimated at less than average yield. Taking the average crop at 100, the probable yield in wheat will be 104; oats, 89; barley, 89; beans, 85; peas, 86; potatoes 81; turnips and sweetens 70; mangolds 82 and hops 89.

THE PASSING QUEEN.

(Rev. George Scott.)
October gathers up the charms
Of all the seasons as they pass,
She comes and in her tender arms
Bears them across the busy grass.

Of varied colors are her shoon,
Her cape of rich contrasting weaves,
The yellow of the harvest moon,
The purple of the maple leaves.

St. Michael's daisies burn and flash,
And gleam upon her stonacher,
The berries of the mountain ash
Her jewels that most precious are.

For sceptre beareth she, I ween,
A shining spray of golden rod,
The stary stars bend and lean,
Obedient to her queenly nod.

The ribbon of her jewelled snood
Is woven of the fleecey tid
Of mist wreaths gathered from the wood.

Withal sunrise tipped the hills with gold,
And so majestic is her state,
No halting words of mine can say,
The shining planets stand and wait,
The cohorts of the milky way.

And so this queen of matchless grace
Cometh her dauntlessly and well,
The last of all her royal race
She woom us with her wistful spell.

LIGHTER VEIN.

"Arthur," said a young artist to a friend, "do you see that lady and gentleman who are looking at my picture and talking in such low, earnest tones?" "Yes," replied the friend.

"I wish you would saunter by carelessly and find out what they are saying. It looks like business."

"She is calling him down for staying out late last night," said the friend, returning.

An elderly couple got married. The husband locked one room in the house, the inside of which his wife had never seen. Being curious as to its contents, she begged to be allowed to enter the room.

"At last he consented and, lo and behold, the room was full of cheese!" He explained the matter by telling her that for every sweet she had in his young days he bought a cheese.

His wife began to cry.

"Don't cry," he continued, "I've had no sweetheart since I met you."

"It's not that," she replied, still sobbing. "I have been so thoughtful as you and bought a loaf of bread for every man that kissed me when I was a girl; we couldn't buy enough bread and cheese to last us all our days."

EARTH HAVING A ROUGH TIME

Scientists Don't Know What is Doing it—A "Lost Earthquake."

New York, Oct. 3.—The earth is emerging from what some dissonant might call a period of meteorological rumpus. It has been accompanied by an intermittent fever, manifested in "world-wide" bad weather, long lengths and intensity. In spite of earthquakes, tidal waves, cloud bursts, typhoons, winter storms, long droughts and hurricanes in many widely separated parts from Kamelthaka to Cape Horn and from Guam to Gaudaluppe, the doctors are confident the patient will recover.

Meanwhile, North America, for the last year, has been suffering chiefly from an excess of high temperature and a deficiency of precipitation unprecedented in the fifty years history of the U. S. weather bureau.

Whether the wide heat wave is due to some terrible paroxysm of nature, such as volcanic action in some remote region of the earth, or whether it is due to sun spots of some other cause, is entirely problematical. It is only as recently as last December 16, that scientists were cudgeling their brains to solve the mystery of an earthquake estimated to have been "9800 miles from Washington." A few days later news came of an earthquake in the off-shore province, China, four times that distance, in which 2,000 persons perished.

The explanation given was that there probably had occurred two distinct shocks, each widely separated and from that day to this seismologists speak of the "lost" earthquake. The present temperature may be due to it.

It is a fact, however, that whatever the cause, this terrestrial ball has not been subjected of late to rough usage, notwithstanding that the war is over.

DAYLIGHT TIME IN ENGLAND ENDS; IS BEING FOUGHT

London, Oct. 3—(Canadian Press)—Summer time in England ended last night. The movement here was general, by popular favor with some agriculturalists and others who have the care of large bodies of children.

No legal provision has been made, however, for continuing the expeditious of the Realm Act and an attempt to introduce legislation to continue the provisions proved fruitless.

It is possible that the daylight saving plan will not be resumed in future, it is declared by newspapers, as it has encountered considerable opposition in agricultural quarters, and from theatrical, educational and railway interests.

The London Times today printed a long article written by Dr. Beni Moore, professor of biochemistry at Oxford, who argues that, from the health point of view, daylight saving in summer is not a benefit but an evil, especially during a season of intense sunshine and high temperatures, such as experienced in the British Isles this year. He admits, however, that during a cold, dull summer daylight saving time might be beneficial. He contends that the plan of advancing the clocks one hour during the summer months is particularly disadvantageous to school children, agricultural interests and some industrial workers.

Apple Shipments.
From August 21st up to last Friday a total of 62,244 barrels of apples were shipped through Halifax to the United Kingdom markets. This is not as large a total as for the same period last year—280,000 barrels were shipped. About 200,000 barrels have gone from Yarmouth to Boston.

LOSING CHANGE FOR BUSINESS

Canadian Trade Commissioner in City Today.

Major H. A. Chisholm Here to Meet Business Men—Speaks of Conditions and Opportunities in Caribbean District.

Major Hugh A. Chisholm, who has been Canadian Government Trade Commissioner for the Caribbean district, with headquarters in Havana, is in the city for the purpose of getting in touch with the exporters and importers here. Speaking to a Times reporter this morning, Mr. Chisholm said that he had recently been investigating reports on the possibilities of Canadian trade in Cuba, Mexico, Guatemala, Venezuela, Colombia and Jamaica.

He said that the Canadian people were not getting after business in these countries as they might. They thought that it was not safe to trade there except with bank credit or on cash basis. Conditions are better in the West Indies at present but there were many good firms granted credit by English, German and American banks. They showed the same readiness to give credit that a wholesaler would give to a good retailer in British Columbia. Good service was given by Canadian banks in the way of credit information. Canadian firms were not making good use of the West Indian markets even with the West Indian agreement. For example, said Mr. Chisholm, "Jamaica imports 60 per cent of her flour from America, even in the face of a preferential tariff." The Latin-American republics were all very great purchasers of iron work, including reinforced rods, mild iron bars and semi-finished ornamental iron work. These people were also great consumers of starch. Canadian canners must put up a cheap sardine to compete with the Norwegian or Spanish product.

Mexico was coming back, owing to the political parties coming to an agreement. She produces one-third of the world's supply of silver. "We will do well to cultivate a market with Mexico," said Mr. Chisholm.

The Canadian Government Merchant Marine was planning to put on a service between Halifax, Havana, Vera Cruz and Tampico, returning via New Orleans. Cargoes of cotton and sulphur would be brought on the return trip. The C. G. M. M. would also make Laguna a port of call on the Trinidad service. The republic of Venezuela and Colombia were on the threshold of tremendous oil development. Best loads of oil machinery and supplies were being shipped at these countries for the great oil fields. It is expected that these oil fields would rival the fields of Mexico in value.

Colon, the Atlantic seaport of Panama, he said, was developing importance as a distributing point for the Caribbean sea district. The Panama canal had brought this about as a result of every nation passing through the canal. The Canadian people must bear in mind that competition was very severe in those countries. For example, the Canadian codfish export trade to Havana and Rio Janeiro was in danger on account of the competition from Norwegian concerns, who were shipping superior quality fish at lower prices. The Canadian exporter must improve the quality of his pack and put up a more attractive product or he must market it elsewhere.

Mr. Chisholm said that while in the city he wished to see the firms who were going to export to the countries named, and impress upon them the possibilities which lay before them.

He said he would open an office at Calcutta, India, for the Canadian Government in a short time.

Value and Style Predominate

In our Fur department as in all other departments. Our reason for especially referring to the Fur department is that we ourselves are actually responsible for the distinctive appearance of the furs we sell—we manufacture them and we guarantee them, so you see it's justifiable pride isn't it? New friends each day enthuse over the values.

Every garment and small fur alike embodies the best ideas of imported designs with clever original adaptations.

OPRAPHANE FAIR DAILY NEWSLETTER

St. John, N. B., Oct. 3, 1921.
Greetings:
We are very anxious to know if these letters are serving the purpose for which they are intended. We are spending a lot of good money on them, money which had better be spent on feeding and clothing the orphan children, in whose interest the proposed Fair was organized. These daily appeals are not being read or charitable hearts being reached by them.

Our Protestant people could only be brought to see the seriousness of the situation, and realize how many Protestant mothers there are who, through no fault of their own, are suffering untold anguish because of the fact that their children are being placed in orphanages which have lavished a mother's love, but they are no longer able to sustain them by their own efforts, there would surely be an outpouring of practical sympathetic gifts such as would do credit to so worthy a cause.

These present cases of homeless Protestant children in New Brunswick remind us of a time when there was "no room in the inn," Luke 2:7. If there is any room in your heart to assist, no matter how little, write and tell us or send for circular. Address: JAS. E. ARTHURS, P. O. Box 12, City.

The Ordinary Achievement of Twenty-Five Years Cramped Into Five

The difficulties of war time production, the adverse rate of exchange between Canada and the States, and the high tariff have each contributed a special urge to this industry. The combined impetus has sent it ahead at such a swift pace that five years have compassed the progress that would ordinarily be spread over more than two decades.

Before the war Canada was content to make only low priced corsets. She still makes them. But she makes also the GODDESS CORSET of rich fabric that somehow brings youth's lines back to figures that are no longer young.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Don't Stay Gray; Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY REMOVED.

The supreme court of Massachusetts announced on Saturday the removal from office of Nathan A. Tufts, district attorney of Middlesex county. The attorney-general cited new instructions by the district attorney. The most sensational of these had to do with the settlement of litigation charges growing out of a midnight party in 1917 at a Wolburn road-house. Tufts denied all the charges against him and called many witnesses in defence of his actions. He first took office in 1917; was re-elected in 1920, which term would expire in 1923.

PRODUCERS SHOW NO TENDENCY TO CUT—COPPER IS HELD AHEAD OF ADVANCING MARKET.

(New York Times.)
Conditions in the metal markets continue to improve and producers are feeling more confident as to the future. They express the opinion that the gradual increasing prices will persist. Copper, lead and zinc are all held, and producers show no inclination to cut prices to attract business. Silver has advanced rapidly in the past two or three weeks, but in this metal reaction is not unexpected. The tendency in metal prices is to continue upward, according to opinion, and for some, such as zinc, which has long been depressed, would be particularly so. Few of the large producers are selling any copper except through the Copper Export Association, says The Engineer and Mining Journal, "for they are keeping prices just ahead of an advance in the market. Some are willing to sell at 12 1/2 cents delivered, but they may possibly withdraw from the market when business is better. Scrap brass has also been depressed to such an extent that prompt sales are difficult to obtain, and the quality is becoming poorer. Brass makers have contracted for rapidly in the past two or three weeks, but recent reports have minimized rather than exaggerated this demand. We expect a gradual increasing price level for copper."

SEES HIGH TAXES FOR A LONG TIME

BRITISH REVENUE STATEMENT AND COMMENT—NEW TREASURY BOND ISSUE.

London, Oct. 3.—The half year's revenue statement of the United Kingdom shows that, whereas the exchequer calculated for a revenue decline amounting to £200,000,000 for the whole year, there had been an actual decrease of £160,000,000 for the six months. Large unexpected items of expenditure have arisen in connection with mining, agriculture and general unemployment.
It is noticeable that, whereas extra stamp duties were levied for checks, the first widely organized endeavor that has ever been made in this country to bring the records and memoranda of what the government has been doing since the beginning of the war that is noteworthy has been to issue stock on cheaper terms than itself.
"No prospect before us for a general reduction of taxation is the reflection of one who is unusually a sober commentator. The government tomorrow will issue new 5% treasury bonds at 98. It is noteworthy as the first occasion since the beginning of the war that the government has been able to issue stock on cheaper terms than itself.
"I am greatly interested in the effort the Roosevelt Memorial Association is making to gather material about Colonel Roosevelt. It is, as far as I know, the first widely organized endeavor that has ever been made in this country to bring the records and memoranda of what the government has been doing since the beginning of the war that is noteworthy has been to issue stock on cheaper terms than itself.

London, Oct. 3.—The local Fasciae organization at Florence, one of the most active in Italy, has announced its intention to quit the political struggle, according to a Florence message to the London Times, because of "indifference of the municipal burgesses, which failed to display adequate losses at Modena."

If you had begun to save Ten Dollars a month and to deposit that sum regularly with this Corporation, there would now have been at your credit $1,437.73 even if you had not in the meantime increased your savings, which doubtless you would have done. came manager. The team finished fifth in 1914 and second the following season. In 1915 the late Andrew Freedman purchased the controlling interest in the club and was president for eight years. With the exception of 1917, when the team finished third, it was always a winner under Freedman. Eleven managers had the Giants under Freedman. The list includes George Davis, Jack Dooly, Harvey Watkins, Arthur Irwin, Bill Joyce, Capt. A. C. Anson, John B. Day, Fred Hoey, Bud Ewing, George Smith and Horace Fogel.

Freedman finally was induced to give John McGraw a chance in the managerial office. John T. Brush purchased the team in 1903 and placed McGraw in control. The team jumped, almost instantly, into popularity with the public and has since proven one of the best financial investments in the National League.

Under Day and Mutrie the Giants finished first in 1888 and 1890. The twenty-first year of its life and the initial season of McGraw's management.
Freedman had refused to play the Boston Americans for the world's championship. The following year when the then newly formed national commission made the world's series a mandatory contest between pennant-winning teams of the National and American Leagues, the Giants won the title by defeating the Philadelphia Athletics.

In 1911, Harry Heststead succeeded his father-in-law, John T. Brush, as head of the club. McGraw was given a new contract by Heststead in 1917 and acquired stock in the club. In January, 1919, Charles A. Stoneham, John McGraw and Francis McQuade purchased the controlling stock from the Brush estate. Stoneham now is president.

Hughie Jennings.
New York, Oct. 3.—(Associated Press.)—A great deal of credit for bringing the New York Giants successfully through the 1921 pennant campaign is being given to Hughie Jennings. In October of 1920, Jennings signed a contract to serve as assistant manager of the Giants, taking the place made vacant by Johnny Evers, who had been selected to manage the Chicago Cubs. McGraw in no wise relinquished his job as manager, but Hughie began to do all the work of the field. The good-natured Jennings soon won favor with the players, and his fighting spirit helped them pull through many tough games. Jennings is considered a great general and has proved an able second-baseman.

This is Jennings' fifteenth year as a leader. He won pennants in the American League with Detroit in 1907, 1908 and 1909. He is not a stranger in the National League, having spent several seasons with teams representing Baltimore, Brooklyn and Philadelphia in the older circuit. He was a comrade of McGraw's on the famous old Oriole aggregate.

Jennings was born at Pittston Pa., in 1870, and first played professional baseball with the Leighton, Pa., club in 1890. The following year he signed with the Louisville, Ky., club of the Baltimore American league, playing first base and short. In 1894, he was traded to Baltimore Nationals and four years later to the Brooklyn Nationals. In 1901 he became manager and captain of the Philadelphia Nationals, and two years later he was traded to the Eastern League club, playing second and short until 1907, when he was drafted by the Brooklyn Nationals as manager and shortstop. He has managed several teams since that year. All his Detroit teams were regarded as pennant contenders.

Seats For The Games.
Fans unable to get reserved seats for the world's series, have no reason to give up the idea of seeing the Giants battle against the American League champions. The seating capacity of the Brush Stadium amounts to approximately 30,000 seats, of which number 20,000 will be sold daily at the grounds. The seating, with prices which will prevail during the series, is as follows:
Box seats (reserved at $6.00 each) 15,000
Upper stand (unreserved at $3.00 each) 8,000
Bleachers (unreserved at $1.10 each) 11,000
All the tickets for the upper stand and bleachers will be sold on the day of the game, while the reserved seats will be sold in sets for the entire series.

BOWLING.
McAvity League
The McAvity Bowling League will open its fifth consecutive season on the Victoria alleys tonight at eight o'clock. This league boasts several players, who are well-known to the local bowling fraternity, among them being Franky and Harrison, who will appear this year with the R. A. P. works. Garnett and Parlee are putting in a new team for the office of the R. A. P. branch. Fooley will be back again with the King street team, which is a new team for the foundry, but there will be several good rollers on the two teams entered for that branch. The King street store will struggle along with the old guard, including a new bowler by name of Luck. Two series will be played, the winners of each to play off for the championship. The following is the first series schedule:

FORD-NEWBERRY
Agree Auto Man Not Elected to Senate—Disagree About Newberry.
Opinions conflicting along party lines were presented last week by the U. S. majority and minority members of the Senate Privileges and Elections Committee on the Ford-Newberry 1918 Senatorial election contest from Michigan. The majority report cleared Senator Truman H. Newberry, the Republican candidate, of corruption and all other charges, and recommended that he be charged with all advertising in connection with university activities. It was also recommended, on the contrary, asserted Senator Newberry was elected by "corrupt and illegal methods and practices," and recommended that his seat be declared vacant.
With the filing of the reports, the case now goes to the senate for final decision, which will probably not be made for several weeks. In the meantime, it is understood, Senator Newberry will not attend the senate sessions.
On only two major issues were Republicans and Democrats in harmony in the reports filed. They agreed that Henry Ford, the Democratic contestant, had not been elected, and was not entitled to the seat from Michigan. They also agreed that too much money had been spent in the Michigan primary. The Democrats, however, contended that Senator Newberry was responsible personally for the expenditures, while the Republicans held he was not.

Women Under Overtaken Taxi Urge Driver to Hurry and Lift Car Off Their Heads.

(N. Y. Times)

Two young women and a chauffeur had a narrow escape from death shortly after 8 o'clock last night when the steering gear of a taxicab in which they were riding broke in front of 263 West Forty-third street and threw the machine into an excavation fifteen feet below the street level. George Barnett, the chauffeur, told the police that the young women, who were in evening gowns, crawled unhurt from the wreckage of the machine when it landed bottom upward, and refused to reveal their identity.

"When I climbed out of the wreckage," he said, "I found that the top had been crushed in, and after I had helped them to crawl out they declared they had enjoyed the experience and were going to see the performance at the Music Box Theatre anyway."

When he asked if they were hurt one of them said: "Don't worry about us. It was like looping the loop." Then they brushed their gowns, he said, and hurried away through the rear of the excavation.

As the taxicab on its way to the theatre passed the Ascension Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church, which adjoins the excavation, Barnett heard the crackle of his steering apparatus break. He tried to stop the machine with his brake but it swerved into a car standing in front of the church, and then bounced on to the sidewalk. "Then it bounced forward again off the side, walks into the excavation."

Barnett freed himself through a small space left in front of the car when the engine crushed down on the top.

"When I got out," he said, "I called the women, and one of them said: 'It's all right. Lift your car off my heads.' They landed in the space between the rear seat and the front of the car. 'I never saw such women. Even when I was tugging at the crushed door to get them out, they

KEEP AUSTRALIA WHITE COUNTRY

Lord Northcliffe's Advice on Departure for Philippines.

London, Oct. 3.—An urgent appeal to Australians to keep Australia a white country and a strong warning that unless white immigration was encouraged the country was likely to be swamped by Asiatics, whether the Australians were willing or not, was issued by Lord Northcliffe at Sydney when he left there on Saturday for the Philippines.

Remarking that Australia had never known war on her own soil, he told the Australians that they might, forever prevent that experience if they acted wisely, quickly and unflinchingly in promoting immigration in sufficient numbers to make themselves safe from invasion, which they certainly were not now doing. He urged Australians to devise immediately a bold and constructive immigration policy and assured them that British investors would support the right sort of scheme, which would attract suitable immigrants from Great Britain.

WHOLE FAMILY AT CHURCH TOGETHER

An Experiment to be Tried at St. David's Presbyterian Church.

Commencing on next Sunday an experiment will be tried in St. David's church which may be of considerable utility in the life of the congregation. This is in furtherance of efforts which have been made for some time to make the morning service one at which the whole family might be present. An objection by some parents is that their children are too young to attend and it is to meet this that the experiment is to be tried for the balance of the season. During the singing of the hymns before the sermon all children under the age of nine years will be allowed to pass into the Sunday school room where they will be taken charge of by capable leaders who will keep the little ones interested with Bible stories and the singing of children's hymns.

SOME 6,000 IN STRIKE ON N. Y. WATER FRONT

New York, Oct. 3.—Leaders of the 6,000 longshoremen who went on strike at the transatlantic steamship piers on Saturday in protest against the new wage scale yesterday declared their grievances concerned not only reduced wages and the resumption of the forty-eight-hour week but the fact that their overtime pay had been abolished on Saturdays.

The walkout, according to Joseph Ryan, vice-president of the International Longshoremen's Association, was participated in by only nine of the twenty-nine local unions. Officials of the organization declared the majority of the longshoremen in the port had accepted a wage reduction from $1 to sixty-five cents an hour, and from $1.20 to $1 an hour for overtime.

MAN AND GIRL ARRESTED AS DRUNK IN STREET
 Magistrate Commends Sergeant for Taking Them in—Fines of $208 in Other Cases.
 A girl, aged twenty-three, and a man, giving his age as fifty-six, were before the police court this morning charged with drunkenness. Sergeant Spinks said he had placed them under arrest this morning at 115 in Charlotte street. He said the girl told him "she was out getting the air."
 The magistrate took occasion to make some pointed remarks in connection with this case, saying that there was too much street walking on the part of young girls. The practice was becoming altogether too frequent and it was no wonder "that young girls are going to the dogs."
 He said the police should "proving about the streets late at night when they should be home in their beds."
 Turning to the policeman who made the arrest in this case, the magistrate said: "I compliment you for having enough spunk to arrest these people. You were not a sergeant already I would recommend that you be made one."
 The girl was well dressed and good looking. She is known in police circles. The court remanded the pair.
 Two other men were arrested on drunkenness charges. One said that he had got drunk on lemon extract given him by a friend in Mill street, while the other said he had paid $5 for a bottle of whiskey. Fines of $208 were imposed in each instance.

TRAFFIC MATTERS IN POLICE COURT
 There were several by-law cases before the police court this morning. Most of these were charges, submitted by the police, for not displaying the proper license tax issued by the city. There seems to have grown misunderstanding as to what kind of licenses are required. Some reported today that they were unable to secure the proper licenses at city hall. Questions were asked as to the differences between taxis, jitneys and "busses."
 However it has been pointed out by the police that there have been three sets of licenses issued by the city for public automobiles. One is for taxis, which entitles the owners to privileges of the taxi stands and allows a charge of fifty cents a passenger to and from points in the city. Jitneys have another license card which they must display. This license calls for a charge of ten cents to and from points in the city and allows jitney drivers only privileges in certain prescribed territories. The section of the city through which the jitney is to be operated must be submitted to the mayor before the jitney license is issued.
 There are also special licensed tags for "buss" drivers. This allows a fare of ten cents and route schedule. The prescribed route and time table must be adhered to in all cases except in the case of the taxis.
 Those who were reported this morning were: W. A. Wetmore, absent; C. B. Sampson, reported ill; Lambert Stockford, George Hatt, Wilfred Akerly, Cecil Carlyn, absent; W. G. Bolton, Laire Miller, absent; John Nearn, Harold Johnston, William Cursons, absent; Percy McCavour, Leonard Strang, Abraham LeVhe, absent; Roy Robinson, absent; John Moore, absent; Walter Holder and Oliver Wood.
 Evidence in some of the cases was that the drivers of the public cars were displaying wrong licensed tags. Fines were imposed in some of the cases. Other cases were postponed for further hearing. George Hatt was fined $10 for stopping his car within fifty feet of a white pole. He pleaded guilty to this.

SOME INCREASE IN PORT RATES

Wharfage on Grain Raised from 5 to 6 Cents Ton.

Tolls on Cars Using West Side Trestles—Estimated Increased Revenue, $26,832—Two Applications for Water Extensions Dealt With—Other Business.

Decision to increase some of the port and wharfage charges at St. John to provide additional revenue in order to pay for the taking over of railway trestles from the C. P. R. at West St. John was reached at a committee meeting of the city council today. The principal item was a charge of $2.50 a car on all traffic carried over the trestles in question.

Commissioner of the harbor department said that he had decided to drop a proposed charge of 25 cents a head on passengers landed, as it would require legislation before this law was put into effect.

His recommendations, however, to increase the rate on grain from five to six cents, to raise the tonnage rate on 2,000 pounds instead of 2,240 and to charge car tolls at the rate of $2.50 a car, were carried. He estimated the increase on grain rates would give $3,182 additional revenue, the change in the tonnage, $4,900, while the car tolls were estimated at $18,750, making a total estimated increase of $26,832.

He figured the cost of the trestles at $9,500 a year for a ten year period; cost of the trucks, $2,700 a year for the same period, and cost of checkers for cars, $5,400 making an estimated increase in expense of $17,600.

The tonnage rate for grain at Montreal was given as six cents, while in Halifax the charge was 1 1/2 cents a bushel, local, and Mr. Bullock reported he was unable to ascertain the export rate.

Mr. Bullock said the port would require a tariff on oil in bulk. At present it comes under the general commodities at twenty-five cents a ton. Montreal, Quebec and Halifax charged ten cents. He moved that the wharfage by-law be amended to place the rate at twelve cents a ton in bulk delivered into vessels from lighters or across the wharf.

Water Extensions Asked.
 Commissioner Jones reported on the request of E. P. Raymond, on behalf of the Fairville Plateau Syndicate, asking that water mains be extended to Fairville plateau. He said there were 500 lots and 400 houses had been sold. Mr. Jones said this area should be treated in the same way as those of Armstrong & Breese and the Consolidated Land Co.
 Mr. Jones recommended that the extension be made upon the property owners entering into an agreement, guaranteeing an amount equal to ten per cent. per annum on the total cost of the extension, until such time as the revenue yield that amount annually; subject, however, to the Lancaster Highway Board providing proper grades for the streets through which such water mains are to be laid, and that whenever the owners express a willingness to provide such guarantee and state upon what streets they desire the mains to be laid, the city engineer prepare plans and submit an estimate of the cost of such extension. Carried.

Regarding the petition of residents of Charlotte street extension, Whipple street and Havelock street for water extension, Mr. Jones read a report of the city engineer, in which he said a stand-pipe on the Martello Hill was necessary. He moved that the city engineer be requested to take levels and make surveys to determine the cost of providing the water supply and report with an estimate of the cost and amount of revenue to be derived. Carried.

Commissioner Jones moved that P. Campbell & Sons be given the contract for installation of a boiler in the water building, Leinster street, their tender, $810, being the lowest within the specifications.

Mr. Jones explained that Mr. Noble had made an open bid for $685 before tenders were called, but did not submit a closed tender.
 On motion of Commissioner Bullock, transfer of Joseph McCarron's lease of a lot at the head of Rodney wharf on which a lunch cart now stands, to Cummings & Kemp, was passed.

Commissioner Frink asked for permission to pool the unexpended balances in his department. He said he had a total balance of $16,098, but had over-extended $4,719 on stone crushers and $8,843 on asphalt manufacture. He said the department was spending about $1,000 a day in labor and supplies. The permission was granted.

Bouquet For Prince Edward Street.
 Reporting on the pavement of Prince Edward street, Commissioner Frink said that the work would be done before frost set in, if nothing happened to delay it. He said that in spite of the fact that the street had been torn up all summer, the people of the street had co-operated in a praiseworthy manner and there had not been a single complaint all year.
 Regarding the contract for the Marsh road pavement, Commissioner Frink said that the contractor's bond had not yet been received. The plant, he understood, was on its way from Halifax.
 Tenders for the installation of an elevator and steel stairs at city hall were opened and referred to Commissioner Thornton and the city engineer, as follows:
 Canadian Welding Works, Montreal—Steel stairs, $2,213; elevator well, $825; $2,925, lower, $720.
 John Watson & Sons, Ltd., Montreal—Stairs, $3,200.
 Darline Bros., Ltd., Montreal—Elevator, $5,340; stairs, $2,215; enclosure, $825, lower, $720.
 A. R. Williams Machinery Co.—$7,069, $6,738 and $6,750, for elevator only.
 The building inspector reported to council that David Andrews of 93 Newnam street had applied for a permit to erect a house at the corner of Metcalfe street extension and Gertrude streets, and had no water or sewerage facilities. The matter was referred to Commissioner Jones.
 H. B. Robinson, Brydon street, wrote on Monday if some material could be placed on the street to improve the surface. The letter was referred to Commissioner Frink.
