CANADA WANTS NO ELECTION IN WAR

Hon. J. D. Hazen Outlines Policy of Government in Regard to Extension of Life of Parliament --- Prime Minister Will Introduce Matter at Next Session.

REASONS FOR AVOIDING PARTY STRIFE AS COMPELLING NOW AS AT ANY TIME SINCE COMMENCEMENT OF WAR—IF ELECTION COMES LIBERALS MUST SHOULDER BLAME.

If a general election is held in Canada during the period of war it will only be because the Liberal party refuse to agree to the reasonable proposals of the Government for an extension of the life of Parliament until after the world racking struggle has been fought and won.

The Government are not unwilling that the Canadian electors should be given an opportunity to pronounce upon the measure and manner of Canada's participation in war, but Sir Robert Borden and his colleagues desire to avoid plunging the country into the turmoil of party strife at a time when all minds should be unitedly working toward the one great end of victory for the Allied troops. If an election is held the responsibility for it will rest upon the Liberal party.

These facts were made abundantly plain by Hon. J. D. Hazen yesterday in an interview granted to The Standard. The Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who reached the city on Sunday, is in excellent health and spirits and is being warmly greeted by many friends and admirers here. He will return to Ottawa tonight.

To The Standard Mr. Hazen said the Government at the coming session of Parliament in January would ask for an extension of the life of Parliament on the same grounds as obtained last year. Reasons for such an extension are as cogent now as at any time since the outbreak of war; the magnitude of the struggle in Europe and the necessity of united thought and action if the best results are to be attained render it highly inadvisable to divide the people on questions of political concern at this time but—if the Liberals show a disposition to force a fight on the Government they will not hesitate to accept the challenge. It will not be, however, a conflict of the Government's seeking, they preferring to await a decision in the larger struggle before bringing domestic matters to the attention of the people.

Asked as to the possibility of a general election, Mr. Hazen said it was altogether likely that Parliament would be called in January for the transaction of business, and he continued: "As this war arose out of treaties and understandings as to which the Canadian Government had never been consulted, and in which it had taken no part, the administration had received no mandate to participate in the war. Notwithstanding this, the Prime Minister, on August 1st, 1914, cabled the British government to the following effect:

"My advisers, while expressing their most earnest hope that a peaceful solution of existing international difficulties may be achieved and their strong desire to co-operate in every possible way for that purpose, wish me to convey to His Majesty's government the firm assurance that, if unhappily, war should ensue, the Canadian people will be united in a common resolve to put forth every effort and to make every sacrifice necessary to insure the integrity and maintain the honor of our Empire."

"If constitutional considerations alone had been taken into account it would have been proper for the Government of Canada, immediately upon the outbreak of war, to have dissolved Parliament and to have appealed to the people for a mandate as to the part Canada should take.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS.

"There were, however, other considerations. The leaders of the Liberal party had pledged themselves publicly, both before and during the emergency session of 1914, to support the Government in its policy, and the public opinion of the country had expressed itself strongly and even vehemently in support of the Government's action. The organization and equipment of the large body of troops immediately dispatched, demanded all the time and energies of the Government. To put these considerations aside and divide the people in a political contest would have been regarded as highly undesirable and even unpatriotic.

"During the late autumn of 1914 and especially during the spring of 1915 it became apparent that the task of the Allied nations was much more formidable than at first realized and that the war would last longer than anticipated. Many suggestions were made to the Government both for and against an election. The great body of public opinion seemed opposed to an election during the war, and an example of many such expressions of opinion is conveyed in the language of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who, on May 21st, 1915, said:

SIR WILFRID'S VIEW.

"I speak honestly that which I believe is in the interests of the country when I say there should be, there ought to be, a change of government or a different policy pursued, but I do not care, for my part, so long as the war lasts, to open the portals of office with this bloody key.

"But I have this to say to the Prime Minister and his colleagues: I do not care for an election. Let the Prime Minister and his colleagues say that there shall be no election as long as the war shall go on, and I will pledge myself and the party that we shall stop all preparations and think of nothing but the war."

WHAT MR. PUGSEY SAID.

"At a later date, September 16th, 1915, Hon. William Pugsley said, in the columns of the Manitoba Free Press:

"The present circumstances are so grave from the standpoint of Canada and the Empire that it would be deplorable in my opinion to have the people divided upon party questions."

"Another of the reasons WHY I FAVOR PUTTING OFF AN ELECTION UNTIL AFTER THE WAR is because I think it would be a great pity to hold one just when the energies of all the people of Canada, and especially the members of the Government who are pri-

WILSON MEN CLAIM TO BE CONFIDENT

Both Democratic and Republican Leaders Claim Election of their Candidate for President.

INDICATIONS ARE THAT CONTEST WILL BE CLOSE

Prospects are for Fine Weather Throughout Country and Very Heavy Vote.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The Democratic leaders and those who have staked their good money on President Wilson felt more encouraged tonight than they have at any time within the past ten days. For one thing betting in Wall Street, which last week favored Judge Hughes by about 10 to 7, shifted to nearly even terms today. Democratic National Chairman McCannock tonight claimed that President Wilson would win tomorrow by practically 100 electoral votes, Republican National Chairman Wilcox made practically the same prediction.

The general feeling throughout the country is that the situation is very uncertain and many experts believe that the election will be one of the closest known in United States politics. Should their opinion be confirmed it is possible that the result of the balloting for president will not be known definitely tomorrow night, as the count is generally slow in some of the western states. Then there is a difference in time of three hours between the Pacific coast states and this city.

Very Heavy Vote Expected.

A very heavy vote is expected to be cast. The weather bureau of the country predicts fair weather everywhere.

The election is one of the few presidential contests which has not unsettled business. The captains of industry and leading financiers feel that no matter how the election goes the country will do business as usual, and this sentiment was strongly reflected yesterday in the stock markets, where prices were buoyant. Wall Street leaders privately admitted that they were in doubt as to the outcome of tomorrow's balloting.

In this state the Republicans will win, although Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who is being opposed for another term by former Mayor John F. Fitzgerald, Democrat, will be scratched somewhat because of his charge that President Wilson wrote a postscript for his Lusitania note to Germany saying he didn't mean it. Lodge was obliged later to accept President Wilson's emphatic denial. This charge is really injuring the Republicans in more states than one. Gov. McCall, Republican, is being opposed for governor of Massachusetts by Frederick W. Maunder, Democrat.

There is much interest in the states where women have votes, particularly Illinois, where many of the female voters are said to favor Wilson because of his friendship for suffrage.

A very large majority of the railroad men will vote for Wilson because of his favoring the eight hour law. The leaders of the American Federation of Labor are also working for Wilson.

In New York state, the Republican candidate for governor is the present incumbent, Charles S. Whitman. His opponent is Samuel S. Seabury, Democrat.

The state of Maine votes for president and vice-president only, the state having voted for state officers and Congressmen last September.

For vice-president the candidates include former vice-president, Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana, Republican, and Vice-president Marshall, Democrat.

WESTMORLAND CONSERVATIVES ENTHUSIASTIC

County Association to Call Nominating Convention at Dorchester for Dec. 4.

Special to The Standard. Sackville, Nov. 6.—At a very largely attended convention of the Conservatives of Westmorland county, held here today, it was decided to meet at Dorchester on Dec. 4 for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the House of Commons.

The session today was the annual meeting of the County Association of the party. By unanimous vote A. E. Trites of Salisbury was elected president; A. J. Legge of Moncton, vice-president, and H. Trites of Sackville, secretary-treasurer. Stirling addresses were given by Dr. Price, M.L.A., of Moncton; Hon. P. G. Mahoney of Melrose; W. F. Humphrey, M.L.A., of Humphreys, and others.

Resolutions expressing confidence in the righteous cause of the Empire, and the other Entente Allies were presented by E. A. Reilly of Moncton and were unanimously adopted.

The convention also adopted resolutions warmly praising Premier Borden and expressing the unwavering loyalty of the party in Westmorland to the cause of good government as exemplified by the Ottawa administration. Resolutions heartily endorsing the administration of Premier Clarke were adopted.

An effort was made by some of the delegates to have the convention nominate a candidate for the House of Commons but as the necessary notice of fifteen days, as required by the constitution had not been given, it was decided to hold the nominating convention at Dorchester Dec. 4.

BORDEN MACHINE BATTERY PRAISED

Ottawa, Nov. 6.—A brigade order commending the Borden Machine Battery has been received from the front by the premier. The battery won distinction by keeping its guns in action under a terrific shell fire, and supporting and covering the infantry, regardless of its own cost. Thanks to this self-sacrifice, the report says, the infantry, on a most exposed flank, was able to withstand the counter-attacks and retain the position it had won.

GERMANS DESTROY THEIR OWN U-BOAT

Berlin, Nov. 6, wireless to Sayville.—The destruction of the German submarine U-29 by her own crew after the submarine had come aground on the west coast of Zealand is reported by the German admiralty today.

GEN. ROQUES AT SALONKI

Paris, Nov. 6.—General Roques, Minister of War, has arrived at Salonki.

BRITISH WILL SAVE U-BOAT SURVIVORS

Admiralty Denies that Orders Were Issued that Germans Need Not be Rescued.

London, Nov. 6.—The admiralty in a published communique, again denies that it ever issued orders that survivors of German submarines need not be rescued. The communique states that the German press "is trying to make capital out of what they describe as a second Baralong case, possibly in order to incite American opinion against Great Britain, or as a pretext for an unrestrained submarine campaign."

COMMERCIAL TREATIES BY HUNS INVALID

Sir George Foster Vividly Tells of Readjustment Programme of Allied Nations.

Toronto, Nov. 6.—An eloquent address on the results and probable effects of the economic conference at Paris was delivered at the Canadian Club weekly luncheon today by Sir George E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce.

In vivid language Sir George drew a picture of the eight nations drawn up about the conference table at Paris.

The first conclusion, Sir George said, related to the action of the Allies during the war, in prohibiting all trade exchanges and business transactions between any of the Allied nations and the enemy.

He added "the war has broken into shreds the treaties and conventions containing arrangements with favored nations, by which Germany bound certain countries to her in such a way as to gain great advantages for herself. The Allied delegates resolved that these should remain scraps of paper, and that they shall not be renewed. In short, this allows the Allied countries to be free to make any arrangements they like, without considering the Central or enemy powers."

It was agreed, said Sir George, that all their natural resources and industries should be developed by co-operation and mutual good will and self-help, so as to make the Allied nations entirely independent of the Central enemy powers.

LONDON HEARS A BERLIN RUMOR

London, Nov. 6.—In many quarters here an interesting bit of gossip is afloat. It is to the effect that Sir Robert Borden, the Canadian premier, will assume the duties as Canadian high commissioner in Britain, relieving Sir George Perley on the latter's appointment as Canadian minister of militia overseas.

Austrians Bringing Up Heavy Reinforcements in Endeavor to Prevent Fall of Trieste—German Battleship Hit by Dreadnought.

After a week or more of doubt concerning the operations in the Dobrudja region of Roumania, where the forces of the Teutonic Allies had been marching, almost unimpeded, northward across the province, from the Black Sea to the Danube, comes the report that the Roumanians have now taken the offensive, probably aided by Russians, and compelled the Teutonic Allies to retreat at several points.

On the Transylvanian front, however, the Roumanians in the Jiu Valley who for some time had been holding the upper hand over the Austro-Germans, forcing them to give ground, have now been stopped, the Teutons having brought up reinforcements. In the Predeal Pass region, after heavy fighting, the Roumanians also have met with a reverse, being compelled to retreat, after long and stubborn battles.

Steady Fighting in France.

All along the battle line in France, between the Somme and Ancre rivers, the Germans are tenaciously disputing attempts by the British and French to gain further ground. Berlin says that in Sunday's fighting over a front of 12 miles the French and British suffered heavy losses and won nothing, except a local gain in the St. Pierre Vaux Wood. London admits that the British were compelled to give back to the Germans ground the British had previously won at the Butte De Warlencourt.

In the St. Pierre Wood, however, the French on Monday made a further advance in the northern part of the wood, and captured additional prisoners—six hundred of whom were taken in the fighting of Sunday and Monday.

Rome reports that the Austrians are bringing up heavy reinforcements on the battle front north of Trieste. Here the Austrians apparently have taken the offensive, but nowhere have they been able to regain any of their lost positions, according to Rome. Bombardments and small infantry attacks continue to feature the fighting in the Macedonian theatre.

London reports that a British submarine in the North Sea, off the Danish coast, has scored a hit on a German battleship of the Dreadnought class. The amount of damage done to the battleship is not known by the British admiralty.

German Battleship Hit.

London, Nov. 6, 6.05 p. m.—A British submarine, operating in the North Sea, reports that she fired torpedoes at a German battleship of the dreadnought type yesterday, making a hit. The amount of damage inflicted is not known, the admiralty announces.

"FREEDOM" OF POLAND MEANS HUN MILITARY OPPRESSION

London, Nov. 6.—Today the Times comments as follows on the Teutonic proclamation of the independence of Poland, under the heading: "A Trap for Poles; Russia held out to the Poles, as a reward for the sacrifices and exceptional danger she called upon them to face, the abolition of the boundaries which have severed the living body of the nation; since 1772, national freedom under the sceptre of the Czar for the freedom of faith and self-government."

"The Central Powers make no such offer. They propose to form an independent state, an hereditary monarchy, not out of all the territories of the old Polish republic, but only out of the Polish district they have seized from Russia.

"Poland's national development, which implies, of necessity, the reunion of Polish provinces of Austrian and Prussian Poland is arrested and paralyzed.

The announcement follows: "One of our submarines, operating in the North Sea, reports that she fired torpedoes at a German battleship of the dreadnought type near the Danish coast yesterday.

"The vessel was hit. The amount of damage done is unknown."

The British announcement gives no intimation whether any considerable portion of the German high seas fleet was in the North Sea yesterday.

French Flag Hoisted.

London, Nov. 6, 5.25 p. m.—Reuter's Athens correspondent says it is reported from Patras that the French flag was hoisted yesterday on the Greek light flotilla at Keralini.

The Greek government last week refused to permit the Entente to use this flotilla for patrol purposes.

Austrians Repelled.

Rome, Nov. 6, via London, 5.05 p. m.—Austrian attacks on Italian positions on the Carso front were beaten off at the point of the bayonet, the war office announced today. The Italian lines in this district, where the advance towards Trieste is being pressed, were strengthened at several points and a few prisoners taken. The official statement says:

"In the Concel-Ledro Valley enemy detachments attacked one of our advanced positions and were repulsed with loss."

"An intense movement has been observed on the railway line from Trieste to Opicina."

Roumanians Retire.

Petrograd, Nov. 6, via London, 3.20 p. m.—Roumanian troops in the vicinity of Predeal were compelled to retire before the invading Austrians and Germans, the war office announces today. In Dobrudja the Russians carried out successful operations.

Following is the announcement: "On the Transylvanian front, in the direction of Predeal, the Roumanians, after long and stubborn battles, were compelled to retire southward a little distance.

"In the region of Birsht, in the valley of the Tirgujulu river, violent attacks by the enemy were repulsed. In the valley of the Jiu river the Roumanians continue to press the enemy to the north."

"In Dobrudja, on the Danube front, our cavalry and advanced infantry detachments engaged in successful encounters."

Heavy fighting occurred near Kiribaba, in the Carpathians, on the border between Bukovina and Hungary, where the Austro-German forces were repulsed after a temporary success.

Regret in Berlin.

Berlin, Nov. 6, via Sayville.—The Tages Zeitungs, which points out the far-reaching consequences of the formation of the Polish Kingdom—consequences which it says are not possible to forecast in their entirety, expresses regret that the proclamation was not made known to the German parliament before it was issued.

The Kreuzer Zeitung, the only newspaper that takes a stand against the proclamation, says: "We cannot endorse the reasons which led to this decision."

FREE KINDERGARTEN ASSOCIATION MEET

Organization has Done Faithful Work—Forty Children Sufficient for One Teacher to Handle.

The annual meeting of the Free Kindergarten Association was held last evening at the German street institute. Mayor Hayes and subsequently Rev. Sheldon S. Poole presided. A musical programme was enjoyed by those present. This included songs by Mr. Bryant, whose rendering of "The Dear Little Shamrock" and "Silver Threads Amongst the Gold," was much appreciated. Chaplain J. D. Morrow gave an interesting address in which he expressed the view that it would be difficult to duly appreciate the wholehearted work that has been done by the women of Canada on behalf of the younger people.

The president, Mrs. W. C. Matthews, reported in part as follows:

"We, the Free Kindergarten Association of St. John have been working as faithfully as strength, time, brains and grace will permit, that our people may get a vision of the needs of child-life, and the conservation and possibilities through nurture and development; but, so far the people of this great winter port of Canada have not been able to get our vision. We have been working for sixteen years and it may be interesting to you to hear a little of what we have accomplished.

"From one school of twelve children with a teacher having no stated salary, and getting about $150 when Ler year's work was done, we have grown to four schools with forty children in each serviced, and a long waiting list. There are now many disappointed mothers in all parts of the city because their children could not enter during this fall. We do not feel that any teacher can do justice to more than forty children, so we have instructed our teachers to limit their school numbers. Our rooms are not adequate for our work. We have, as you will see, not stood still, but some, unacquainted with our work, will say, 'Why do you not get more schools? Lack of money is the answer. We must pay our teachers, their outfit costs something and in future we cannot hope to get buildings for the purposes of our work without paying for them. Fuel and other commodities are growing in price and we feel sure that public sentiment has so grown in favor of the kindergartens that it must not be long before the people will demand a right for the protection of children."

The treasurer, Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor, presented her report. This showed that the receipts for the year were as follows:—Civic grant $750; subscriptions, $294; Torryburn Ladies' P. S., $70; DeMonts Chapter, L. O. D. E., $25; Loyalist Chapter, L. O. D. E., $42; proceeds of Tag Day, $1,325; total, $2,506.

Expenditures were as follows: Teachers' salaries, rent, fuel, janitors' services, fire insurance on personal property in the schools, total $1,922. Balance in hand, $584.

The reports of the teachers were read and showed that the work of the past year had been most encouraging. The Mayor said that in his opinion the association had a good claim for another Tag Day, and that he would favor it.

A. M. Belding gave a short address, showing the good accomplished by the Children's Aid Society as an organization closely allied to the kindergartens.

A message was read from Mrs. Crockett expressing regret that she was unable to be present. Mrs. Crockett takes keen interest in all kindergarten activities, and it had been hoped that she would be present to sing and take part generally in the evening's proceedings.

NATIVE OF ST. JOHN AND SON LOSE LIVES

William L. Sterling, who lost his life on the steamer Devonian at Boston with two other men last week, was born in St. John 53 years ago. He was employed as a carpenter by the Leyland Line. He leaves a wife, three sons and a daughter. One of his sons, William E., aged thirty, lost his life on the Devonian when the father met his death.

The three men breathed fumes from a powerful disinfectant which had been placed in the hold the day before.

CANADA WANTS NO ELECTION IN WAR

"marly charged with the duty of attending to the recruiting and equipping of the soldiers should be devoted to this one end."

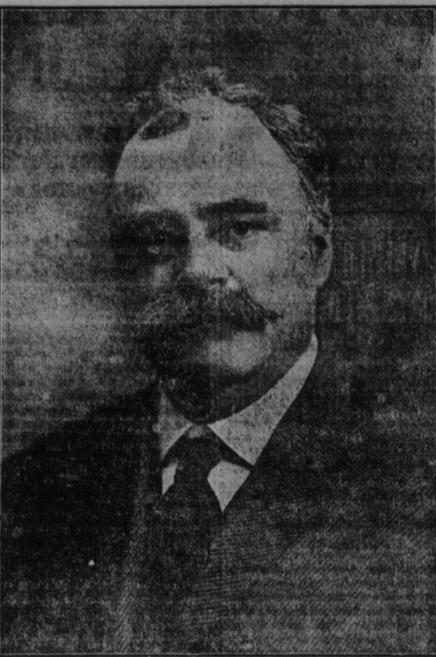

AN ELECTION WOULD BE A CRIME.

And E. M. Macdonald, Liberal M.P. for the County of Pictou, gave an interview to the Toronto Star in which he said:

"An election while the struggle is raging for liberty and humanity would be a crime. An election during the war would divide the Dominion. There should be no election during the war."

"Many other expressions, similar in import, have been made by leading members of the Liberal party and the Liberal press and so far as could be judged from the utterances of leading Liberals and their journals the Liberal party agreed with Mr. Macdonald that it would be a crime to hold an election during the war."

"The Government, having regard to what seemed an almost unanimous public opinion as to the undesirability of an election during the war, reached the conclusion to extend the term of Parliament. Accordingly, at the last session of Parliament, the Premier made the proposal to extend the term and in submitting the matter to the House of Commons said:

HON. J. D. HAZEN, Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

LIBERAL PRESS TRIES TO CRAWL OUT.

"The Liberal press, which was quoted freely during the Premier's speech, is now apparently engaged in attempting to recall the opinions and sentiments which were freely expressed at a time when it was believed an appeal to the people would await a response unfavorable to the Liberal party, and some of Sir Wilfrid's lieutenants and the minor lights of the party have made open and unprovoked attacks upon the Government and have announced that it is the intention of the opposition to oppose any further extensions. This is particularly so in Quebec where an open campaign is being carried on. The feeling, however, is not so strong in other provinces, Liberal leaders there holding to the view expressed by Hon. Mr. Pugsley, Mr. Macdonald and others that an election in war time would be particularly undesirable from every patriotic standpoint.

SHOULD NOT DIVIDE COUNTRY.

"The reasons which induced the Government to defer an election and the proposed extension of the Parliamentary term are as strong today as they ever were, or as they were a year ago. Indeed they are more cogent because the war has reached a surpassing magnitude and if a definite and decisive result is to be attained there is today more need than ever that the energies of the Dominion should not be dissipated in party strife.

"The responsibility for forcing a war-time election, if there is one, will be upon the Liberal party. It was against such an election that Sir Wilfrid Laurier made the strongest objection in May, 1915, when he said he would not stoop to open the portals of office with that bloody key."

"But Sir Wilfrid made a later utterance. In his speech in reply to the Prime Minister on February 8th last he used the following language: "For my part in the words which were quoted by my right honorable friend at that moment ago and he might have quoted them again and again, 'for I have always spoken the same way on the subject—I would deprecate an election during the war.'"

THE GOVERNMENT'S POSITION.

"The position of the Government then," Mr. Hazen said, "briefly stated is as follows:

"1—If constitutional considerations were alone regarded it would have been proper to hold an election in the autumn of 1914 or in the summer or autumn of 1915.

"2—The higher consideration of the public interest and decent regard for public opinion were taken into account by the Government and an ex-

READY TO FIGHT IF NEED BE.

"For these reasons I believe the Government propose to ask for such further extension as may be necessary; and upon the Liberal party will rest the responsibility of determining whether a war election shall be avoided or whether party strife shall be precipitated and carried on during the pending struggle."

"At the next session of Parliament the Government will have a majority in the House of Commons and in the Senate as well and will be in a position to carry through any measures they may deem desirable in the public interest. At the same time the Parliament of Canada has no power to extend its own term. That power exists in the British Parliament by an amendment to the British North America Act and would be exercised only on presentation of a joint address by the Senate and the House of Commons."

"While the Government believes it would not be in the public interest to have an election during the war and consequently desires that the parliamentary term should be extended, yet, at the same time it is not at all unwilling that the electors of this country should have an opportunity of pronouncing upon the manner of its participation in the war since its outbreak more than two years ago. ### DISCOURAGES PEACE TALK AT PRESENT

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-made preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and lustrous and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

For the Belgian Fund.

A concert, pie social and dance in aid of the Belgian Fund, was held in the hall at Somerset last night. The affair was in charge of Miss Hattie Puddington who was assisted by the residents. The programme which was rather lengthy was interesting and in addition to the choruses, dialogues and drills a solo was rendered by Eva Spencer; recitations were given by Joseph Sleep, Ethel Hughes, Thomas Harlow, Jean Hughes, Mr. Irvine, W. Spencer, Mabel Miller and Willie Hughes, also a step dance by Leonard Miller. The sum of $36.50 was realized.

F. S. Dingley of Lakeside regrets that owing to an accident Mrs. Dingley will not be able to receive on Thursday and Friday as announced. Miss Ethel Daly, daughter of Conductor Daly, returned from a visit to Boston yesterday.

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is a remedy for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful eye treatment. "I was almost blind," says one, "and I could not read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would burn dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The glasses I had been wearing for years were broken, but after using this prescription for three days everything seemed clear. I can now read fine print without glasses. I have never had that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a very short time and millions more will be able to do so."

to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of wearing glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription for any active eye trouble. Take and get a bottle of Bon-Opto eye drops and get a bottle of Bon-Opto eye drops. Drop one drop into a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear perceptibly right from the start and in a few days they will be completely restored. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopeless cases might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Now, another prominent physician in whom the above article was quoted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. It contains ingredients you will find in common eye ointments and is very pure and safe. The manufacturer guarantees it to strengthen eyesight in one week. It is the only eye medicine in any language or of any name. It can be used for eye troubles of all kinds. It is the very best almost every day." ### STEEL OF CANADA STRONG IN MONTREAL MARKET.

Montreal, Nov. 6.—At the opening interest was centered in Steel of Canada. The first sale was at 75½—about two points advance from Saturday's close, and it very rapidly sold up to 80½. This big advance from Friday caused a lot of profit-taking at that price, and it reacted to 78. At this figure it was heavily traded in throughout the day, and it closed strong. This strength in Steel benefited the other steel securities. Dominion Iron and Steel closed at 73½, Ontario Steel at 44, Scotia at 142, and Smelters at 38½. During the morning Quebec Rails worked up to 39½ and at the opening of the afternoon session the room was full of buyers for it and it worked up to 44, closing at 42½ to 43. Civic was firm at 83. In the paper stocks, Wywysack made a new high at 106, Jordan was firm at 135 Spanish River sold up to 24. Trading today was the heaviest we have had for some time. Steel of Canada being by far the most active.

Escaped from Germans.

Among the returned heroes who arrived in Halifax on Sunday and who proceeded westward yesterday to their home in London, Ont., is J. P. Burke. He and his brother were victims of gas at Ypres, and were taken prisoners by the Germans. He determined to escape. His fellow prisoners warned him that it would mean certain death. "I'd rather be dead than here, and be starved on his perilous journey, a report of which is in official possession in London, together with valuable information he was able to give. He travelled altogether by night, living on raw potatoes, mangel and other roots. He was nearly naked and on the verge of starvation when he managed to get across the Holland border.

Weak, Nervous Children Quickly Gain Strength Under Following Plan

Nervousness, just like weakness, is a family predisposition. We inherit tendencies to disease just as we inherit physical resemblances. The strain of study, social duties, work at home—these all tend to make nervous troubles among children. No wonder that St. Vitus Dance, Epilepsy and constant headaches have become alarmingly common. Pale, nervous, listless young people are met everywhere.

It is nothing short of criminal for parents to neglect signs of weakness in their children. By ignoring the slightest symptoms of nervous or mental strain, you may condemn your child to life-long invalidism. If any member of your family complains of headaches, fear of going into dark places, give them that wonderful tonic, "Ferrozone." Strength of body and mind, hardy nerves, ability to study with comfort, all the attributes of health quickly follow the use of Ferrozone. It establishes strength, color, endurance, vim—does this by filling the whole system with nourishment and tissue-forming materials.

It's because we know the enormous good that Ferrozone will do, because we are sure every child and even grown folks, will be permanently benefited, that we urge you to give it a trial. All dealers sell Ferrozone in 50c boxes, six for $2.50, or direct by mail from The Carthorse Co., Kingston, Ont.

St. John Lodge, K. of P.

The St. John Lodge, K. of P. enjoyed a very pleasant time in their room on Main street last evening. After the monthly report had been made by the officers, the members were treated to a moving picture show in their own rooms. The second part of the programme consisted of several musical numbers, after which refreshments were served. A vocal solo by Mr. Stilwell was greatly enjoyed. The music for the evening was supplied by the orchestra under the direction of Harry Black.

 of operations are being adopted. As an illustration it may be pointed out that it is only a few years since motor boats began to be used in the fishery. Now there are more than 11,000 in use.

Herring Fishery and Possibilities.

While the herring that abound along our coasts make the impression those caught anywhere, owing to inferior methods of curing and packing, and the use of cheap shaly barrels, the demand for them has been small. Notwithstanding our proximity to the United States, the pickled herring markets of that country are of important extent, those of Canada, however, have been largely supplied from Europe. Instead of following the schools of fish out into deep water, and capturing them when they are in the best condition, their capture has been limited to the time when they come to shore to spawn, and when they are in inferior condition. Before the war, while our best large split herring were selling in New York for from $6.00 to $7.00 per barrel, Scotch "Large-Full" herring were bringing from $12.00 to $15.00.

To remedy this state of affairs, the Fish Inspection Act was adopted two years ago. It came into operation on May 1st last year. Its aim is to bring into use strong well made barrels of a standard size, and to raise the standard of curing and grading the fish, so that the finished article will command the confidence of dealers and consumers and so secure the highest ruling prices. In brief, to bring our pickled fish industry up to the standard of excellence and importance of that of Europe. Our geographical position should make it impossible for suppliers from Europe to successfully compete with us in the market of this continent. If we do not secure these markets, it will be on account of the failure of our fishermen and packers to carry out their operations in accordance with improved methods. Every effort is being made to impress this fact on them, and every reasonable assistance is being given them towards the production of a perfect article. A staff of competent inspectors has been appointed, whose duty it is not only to inspect all packages submitted to them and to brand such as are in accordance with the regulations free of charge, but to act as instructors to the packers and coopers as well.

These efforts are meeting with marked success. Last year, the initial one of the operation of the Act, 1,328 barrels were presented for inspection, of which 1,211 were branded, and this year, to the end of last month, 5,307 barrels of herrings, ale-wines and mackerel were presented for inspection, of which 4,441 received the brand. Sixty different packers put up goods for the brand this year, and many others received instructions from the inspectors, and put up their fish in accordance with the regulations, thus producing a better and higher priced article, though they did not receive the brand. Thirty packers from the inspectors, put up herring according to the Scotch method this season, and about 5,000 barrels of herring were put up in this style, about half of which were branded.

At the present time Canadian Scotch cured branded herring are selling in New York at from $13 to $16 per barrel, while our unbranded large split herring are bringing but from $8 to $8.50 per barrel. These facts should in themselves be a sufficient argument to our packers in favor of adopting the improved methods.

With a view to endeavoring to locate the schools of herring offshore in the Atlantic, my department last season fitted up a steam herring drift, and kept her prospecting through the season. While such a task for one boat, is a difficult one, and no great results could be expected in one short season, a reasonable amount of success was met with, and much valuable information was secured concerning the size and quality of the fish on different grounds worked. A detailed report of the quantity and quality of fish caught on the different grounds is being prepared for general distribution for the guidance of those interested in the industry.

When once the offshore schools of herring are located, the quantities that can be caught will, for all practical purposes, be limitless, the value will be realized from the fact that in normal times, the herring fishery of the British Isles is worth from twenty to thirty million dollars annually,—upwards of two-thirds the present value of all our fisheries.

Fish For the Soldiers.

Added interest has been directed to the fisheries by the fact that they are forming such an important portion of the food of our soldiers, not only in several camps in Canada, but overseas as well. During the past summer about 900,000 lbs. of fish per month have been forwarded to Great Britain for the use of our soldiers, and such have been received with so much satisfaction by them that the Imperial authorities have decided to try supplying fish to the British troops. To that end it has already ordered over one million pounds of frozen fresh fish from Canada, which are now being got ready for shipment. There is every reason to anticipate that the experiment will prove successful, and that during the coming summer, when our fisheries will be in full swing, large quantities will be continuously needed for the British troops.

Fisheries Exhibit.

During the past four years a thoroughly representative fisheries exhibit has been given at the Toronto exhibition. A fisheries restaurant has been operated as an adjunct to the exhibit during the past two years. Both have been highly successful and have admittedly done much to expand the demand for fish in interior centres. The exhibit has each year been one of the most attractive features at the fair, and has been awarded a gold medal on each occasion. Last year over 25,000 fish dinners were served at the restaurant, and this year over 35,000.

Also an attractive booklet, entitled "Fish and How to Cook It," containing comprehensive information regarding fish, and numerous recipes for cooking it in tasty and inexpensive ways, has been issued and distributed freely throughout the country. The demand for this booklet has been quite extraordinary, and it is undoubtedly doing much to expand the demand for fish.

Indeed the time has already come when the problem of the producers has been changed from one of finding paying markets for their fish, to one of supplying the ever growing demand. The need for increased production in our fisheries is therefore paramount, and it is hoped that the fishermen who have found it impossible to undertake military services, will do their full part by exercising every exertion to make the harvest of the sea one of ever increasing abundance.

While the sea fisheries are, generally speaking, inexhaustible, such cannot be said for our river fisheries and those of our inland waters, owing to the restricted natural conditions for reproduction. To maintain the supply of such fish and to replenish depleted areas, Canada has now what is probably the largest and most important fish breeding service conducted by any one government.

Arguments in favor of fish breeding are no longer necessary, in the light of the fact that in our Maritime Province rivers, where salmon hatching is going on, the fishery is not only being maintained, but is continually improving, and such is also the case with our inland fisheries. For instance, in Lakes Erie and Ontario, the Canadian white fish fisheries twenty-five years ago were regarded as nearly depleted. At that time these lakes produced less than half a million pounds annually between them. Now, the Canadian whitefish fishery of Lake Erie alone is nearly two million pounds per year, and that of Lake Ontario nearly one million. Fish breeding has been conducted in Lake Ontario in a limited way, as compared with Lake Erie.

This service has been largely expanded in recent years. In 1911 there were forty-one hatcheries, while now, exclusive of summer egg collecting stations, there are fifty-one main hatcheries and nine subsidiary ones, in addition to which there are five salmon retaining ponds. The increase is more favorable, when it is explained that last year an arrangement was entered into with Quebec, whereby it has taken over the four hatcheries which existed there in 1911 for the propagation of fish for its inland waters.

Amongst the new hatcheries built, is the thoroughly modern establishment at the Little River Reservoir near this city. Previous to the building of this hatchery the old establishment at Grand Falls had to be relied on for the stocking of all the streams in the southern portion of the province. The St. John hatchery is 54 feet long, and 31 feet high, is fitted with thirty hatching troughs, grouped in clusters of five, and has capacity of five million salmon eggs. In connection with it there is a modern dwelling house for the officer in charge. The water from the reservoir, while adequate for hatching purposes, is too high in temperature during the summer for the rearing of fry to the fingerling stage. As it is desirable to rear as many fry as possible to this stage, two ponds have been built for the rearing and retaining of trout. The ground adjoining the larger pond has been graded and prepared for the installation of fry rearing tanks, and the water supply is so arranged that the tanks can be filled from the surface of the larger pond, or from the bottom of it, or directly from springs, as conditions may require, so that a satisfactory temperature can always be assured.

This hatchery is doing excellent work. The final returns of the distribution of fingerlings for the present season are not yet all in, but the following table shows the rivers that have been stocked and the quantities of fry placed in them each year since the establishment of the hatchery in 1914:

All the speckled trout were distributed as fingerlings in 1916. The final returns of this distribution are not yet available.

Amongst the trout distributed was a small quantity of the rare variety of Red Canadian Trout, found in a few lakes in Quebec, which were distributed in Rockwood Park, and it is anticipated that further limited numbers of this variety can be brought here from time to time, and so add to the interest of angling in the Park.

Arrangements have also been made to stock Loch Lomond with the famous Quimiche of the Lake St. John region, Quebec. The eggs for this purpose are now being collected and will be transferred to the St. John hatchery when they reach the eyed stage. Also, in the hope of doing something towards restoring our shad fishery, a shad hatchery was established in 1912 on the St. John river. Shad hatching is surrounded with serious difficulties and limitations, owing to the highly delicate nature of the fish, and to the impossibility of retaining the parent fish in crates until they will ripen and yield their eggs, as is done with the salmon and other fish. This hatchery has been reasonably successful, and all the eggs handled have been just that many saved from destruction as they were procured from the commercial catches of the fishermen. In 1912 750,000 fry were liberated; in 1913, 1,200,000; in 1914, 1,025,000; in 1915, 1,100,000, and in 1916, 261,000, the number of fish that were taken in the vicinity of the hatchery this year having been very limited.

This hatchery is a floating structure, and so can be moved to the places that may be found most advantageous. The good results that it has achieved should begin to show themselves from now on, as it has now been in operation four years.

While much has been done in aiding in the development of our markets for fish, and a good start has been made in certain lines towards educating our fishermen in the adoption of better methods, much, particularly in the latter direction, remains to be done. Obviously some definite system of technical training in lines connected with their calling, is urgently needed. I have arranged that preparation for such should now receive the attention of my department, in order that as far as possible, everything may be in readiness to actively take it up, immediately following the time when peace will be restored.

Fishermen have not had sufficient pride in their calling. Too frequently their sons have been encouraged to take up other professions. There is consequently a serious shortage of skilled fishermen, and the war has increased this shortage, as the fishermen have done their full part in undertaking military services. More vessels would have been to sea during the past few years if suitable fishermen had been available to man them.

When the war is ended, it will be a good thing if fishermen from desirable European countries desiring to emigrate, will turn their faces towards Canada. They will find excellent opportunities awaiting them, and the country needs them.

The contrast between the yield of the sea and of the land is rather aptly expressed in the old sea song,—
 "The husbandman has rent to pay,
 Blow winds, blow!
 And seed to purchase every day,

But he who farms the rolling deeps,
 Though never sowing, always reaps;
 The ocean's fields are fair and free,
 There are no rent days on the sea."

He dealt also with some of the international phases of the fisheries in connection with the seal catch in the Behring Sea and the fisheries in the Great Lakes and other waters along the boundary line. The matter of the seal catch had been satisfactorily disposed of and Canada would soon be receiving a goodly sum from the industry, as under the terms of settlement between the various countries she was to get 15 per cent. of the American catch, 10 per cent. of the Japanese catch, and 15 per cent. of the Russian. With respect to the regulation of the fisheries in waters on the boundary line the negotiations had not as yet resulted in any definite action. In the year 1910 a treaty had been entered into between the United States and Great Britain on behalf of Canada looking toward a settlement of the questions at issue, and uniform fishing laws on both sides of the border. Two experts, Prof. E. E. Prince, for Canada, and Prof. Starr Jordan, for the United States were appointed to investigate conditions and draft the proposed regulations and the governments of the two countries gave assurance that laws would be passed in accordance with the findings of the commission. After an exhaustive study of conditions the two gentlemen referred to brought in a report and the Canadian parliament as in duty bound passed a law along the lines indicated. The United States legislators on the other hand refused to take any action and after waiting for some few years the Canadian parliament were compelled to notify the authorities at Washington that they would resume their freedom of action on this question and withdraw from the agreement.

He also dealt with the lobster fishery and said the catch in New Brunswick this year had been greater than for forty years and this was largely due to the very efficient manner in which the law had been carried out.

At the close of the address a vote of thanks to Mr. Hazen for his kindness in coming to the meeting and for his splendid address was moved by A. H. Wetmore and seconded by H. C. Schofield. This was carried unanimously.

TODAY'S ELECTION.

Today, the people of the United States will vote for the man who will control their destinies for four years from the 4th day of March, 1917. Of the five candidates have been nominated, although, to all intents and purposes, there are but two in the running, Charles E. Hughes, nominee of the Republican party, and President Wilson, as the standard bearer of the Democrats. The Prohibition, Socialist and Socialist-Labor parties have also selected men whose names will be on the official ballot.

The campaign has been sharp and keen and the eleventh hour finds much uncertainty as to the outcome. From Wall street, where the betting odds have favored Mr. Hughes, yesterday reported that sentiment was veering in favor of President Wilson until it was almost an "even money proposition."

There have been forecasts and forecasts, each influenced no doubt by the political preferences of the man, organization or newspaper making them. It is, however, generally conceded that Mr. Wilson will have almost solid support of the south, and that the Republicans will make their chief gains in the east and middle west. New York city and state, while claimed by both parties, is admittedly in doubt.

It may of interest to refer briefly to the election returns in 1912 when Wilson, Taft and Roosevelt stood for the three great parties and Socialist, Prohibition and Social-Labor candidates were also in the field. On that occasion Mr. Wilson received a popular majority of 2,172,140 votes over Roosevelt, the second man on the ticket, while he was in the minority by 1,314,259 votes against Taft and Roosevelt combined. In the present contest Col. Roosevelt is solidly behind Mr. Hughes, while there is much room for doubt whether Mr. Wilson's course in the White House has made for him more friends than enemies. If the Roosevelt influence is as strong as when he was a candidate then defeat seems certain for the president.

Both parties have played a careful game. They have studiously avoided any outspoken pronouncement as to their policy in events overseas and it is quite evident that both have strained every effort to get all the votes possible irrespective of the pro-German or pro-Ally character of the voters. Whatever happens today it is believed in some quarters that there will be a perceptible stiffening of the official American backbone after the contest has been decided. The next election will be four years away and some considerations which, up to the present, have made for silence or speech as the case may be will disappear with the counting of the ballots tonight.

Canada has but a minor interest in the election. The heart and mind of this country is centred on another struggle where actions rather than words form the essential to achievement and success and where a nation's indignation is expressed by bullets rather than notes.

WESTERN ELECTIONS.

It is announced that the Provincial election which the Government of Alberta was thinking of holding has been called off. The wonder is more that there should have been any thought of holding such an election at all, than that the idea should be abandoned. An exchange deals with the situation in this manner:

Premier Sifton gave a definite pledge last June that there would be another session of the Legislature before dissolution. The last election was held on April 17, 1913. The natural term of the Legislature—five years—would not end till April, 1918. Then why should such a thing as an election be sprung, or even dreamt of now?

In 1911, census returns showed that Alberta had a male population of voting age of 146,499. Of these, 80,090 were born in Canada, Great Britain or the British possessions, divided as follows: 43,236 Canadian, 35,038 British, and 2,991 British possessions. The figures have changed since 1911, but the proportions have not. The Liberals have polled the foreign-born vote largely in the past, and think they can control it. Now, then, if one-third of the male population of the Province is abroad serving the King, and if the foreign-born vote, remaining at home, can be swayed by the Liberals, a very tempting opportunity obviously presents itself for getting a snap verdict.

Then why has the election been called off? Is it because Premier Sifton recalls his solemn promise to the Legislature? We wish we could think so. Another reason suffices. British Columbia experience has shown that there is no serious difficulty in the way of polling the soldier-vote—even that in France. In Alberta no provision has been made for the taking of that vote; but now that it has been proven feasible, Premier Sifton would hardly dare to hold a Provincial election without it, and the bulk of that vote, it is thought, would go against the Government. Hence the hesitation, and the procrastination.

There has also been talk of a Provincial election in Saskatchewan, but the idea has not been so seriously pondered there as in Alberta. Saskatchewan has much more reason for a dissolution than Alberta, after a reconstruction of the Cabinet, and in view of the expiration of the Legislature next July. The various royal commissions, however, which have been investigating the charges made against the Government have not yet reported. Till they complete their work and the result is before the people, judgment day must be deferred.

NO TIME FOR AN ELECTION.

The Canadian people are more concerned in the winning of this war than they can possibly be in matters of purely domestic importance. Except as they affect problems overseas politics and political questions can wait until discussion and settlement until deserved triumph has rested upon the arms of the Empire and the battle for British ideals and, in fact, for the future prosperity and happiness of the world has been fought and won. This being the case the position taken by the Prime Minister in deciding to apply at the next session of Parliament for another extension of the parliamentary term will be endorsed by the right thinking people of Canada as representing the sane and patriotic view. To divide the people during the war on matters of political color would be to induce strife and bitterness and, in corresponding measure, to distract the public mind from the really great questions connected with the winning of the conflict in which the Empire is engaged.

In hundreds of thousands of Canadian homes there is, temporarily at least, a vacant chair—a loved one is absent from that circle on the King's business. Compared with thought for him and for those who, by his side, are maintaining the best traditions of Canada and the Empire all other questions must pale into insignificance. While Canadians are facing death abroad it is no time for us at home to be engaged in the petty squabbles and bickerings incidental to party politics.

In seeking to have the life of Parliament extended this thought has ever been uppermost in the mind of the Premier. The Government has nothing to conceal, nothing to fear from the verdict of the people as expressed at the polls. The result in British Columbia, where the soldiers abroad have exercised their franchise, demonstrates that the men in khaki—who are of all best qualified to speak of Canada's war participation—are heartily in favor of the policy pursued by the Conservative administration and as heartily opposed to the petty partisan criticism levelled by self-seeking politicians against an administration which has faced the most trying situation in Canadian history and come through with flying colors.

In short, from a party standpoint, the Government has everything to gain by going to the people while the war is on. But the party standpoint has received but scant consideration from the Premier and his colleagues. There's the broader view, the statesmanlike view, and they believe it would be undestorable to pour on the fire of patriotic endeavor, now burning brightly from one end of Canada to the other, the quenching waters of party strife. This is no time for an election and if one is held it will only be because the Liberal party see fit to take advantage of a war time contest in the effort—so strongly denounced by Sir Wilfrid Laurier a year ago—"to open the portals of office" with "a bloody key."

WILL SELL PROPERTY OF EASTERN S. S. CORP.

Sale will be at Public Auction as Result of Foreclosure Proceedings in Re-organization Plan.

By order of Judge Putnam of the United States District court at Portland the property of the Eastern Steamship Corporation is to be sold at public auction. The order allows the decree of foreclosure on two trust mortgages given by Charles W. Morse and which went into the hands of a receiver for two years and it is understood the foreclosure proceedings are preliminary to re-organization.

The Eastern Steamship Corporation succeeded the Eastern Steamship Co. which was organized by Charles W. Morse and which went into the hands of a receiver for the big panic of 1898. Calvin Austin is receiver of the present corporation. The International Division between St. John, Maine ports and Boston is doing a splendid business, the boats on some of the trips being loaded with freight to capacity. Yesterday the Austin took out a large number of potatoes, fish and sardines.

SERGT. GIFFORD OF 26TH IMPROVING

As a general rule the British soldier is always cheerful no matter how badly he is wounded, and this fact is borne out by two letters received yesterday by Mrs. May Gifford of 16 Cranston avenue, from her son, Sergt. W. Louis Gifford. The many friends of the sergeant will be happy to learn that he is improving and that his wounds are not considered serious. Sergt. Gifford is one of the old original "Fighting 26th," and escaped being injured until about three weeks ago.

The letters received were penned on the 19th and 21st of October, and were dictated by the wounded soldier to the chaplain of the regiment, in No. 18 Casualty Clearing Station in France.

Sergt. Gifford states that he was wounded on October 18th and says that the bullet grazed his neck and lodged in his right shoulder. He said that he expected to be removed in a few days and finished the letter by saying that he had a few pieces of German bombs in him to take to England as a souvenir.

Men's $5.00 and $6.00 Fall Boots

The majority of shoe manufacturers have withdrawn all prices, and many of them are refusing orders for either immediate or future delivery. The leather to make shoes out of cannot be obtained. Immense warehouses that formerly at this time of year would be brimful of leather of all kinds are now empty. We were more fortunate than many dealers in obtaining delivery of our Fall Shoes, and are able to offer at present high class goods at $5.00 and $6.00 a pair. We honestly believe that ere long it will be impossible to buy such goods at these prices as makers are asking more than that for goods today.

MEXICO MUST NOT GIVE AID TO GERMANY

Great Britain Sends Warning Owing to Presence of Submarines in Gulf of Mexico.

Mexico City, Nov. 6.—The Mexican government has been notified by the British ambassador at Washington of the presence of German submarines in the Gulf of Mexico and has been warned that the Allies will take "drastic measures" if the undersea craft receive aid from Mexican ports or sources.

This information was made public by Foreign Minister Aguilar, who issued the text of a note received from the British ambassador through United States Secretary of State Lansing and Charge D'Affaires Charles B. Parker.

The British note demands a strict censorship of the Mexican wireless and says that any failure to maintain Mexican neutrality will be attended by disastrous results. In his reply, addressed to Mr. Parker, Senator Aguilar says that it seems strange to the Mexican government that Great Britain should use the United States state department as an intermediary on a point concerning Mexico alone, especially when Great Britain has an accredited representative to Mexico. Foreign Minister Aguilar says that the Mexican government feels it unjust for the Allies to hold Mexico responsible for submarine activities in the Gulf of Mexico, when the same submarines arrived in American ports and sank ships in American territorial waters without causing conflict or difficulties between Great Britain and United States. He adds that Mexico desires to retain cordial relations with Great Britain.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

Spend 25 cents! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Hair gets beautiful, wavy and thick in few moments.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scourer robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made. We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

G. G. R. WILL HAVE FIRE FIGHTING TRAIN

The Transcontinental Railway in future will fight its own fires. This is saying a great deal, as nearly every other road in the United States and Canada depends on city firemen when railroad property catches fire or allows its property to burn, helpless to save it because of lack of equipment. After several fires had destroyed timber-lines along its right of way and threatened to wipe out whole counties, the Transcontinental Railway placed an order with Canadian Government Railways' shop at Moncton, for a fire-fighting apparatus, which consists of a water tank of more than 10,000 gallons capacity, mounted on a flat car, mounted on which is a steam-driven duplex fire pump, with capacity of 300 gallons a minute. Steam for operating the pump is taken from car heater of the locomotive. The device when tested was found capable of throwing two one-inch streams about 200 feet, which will enable the company to reach most fires within its right of way.

Saskatchewan Man Wants Farm. The fame of New Brunswick as a place in which to make a home is spreading all over the country, and people are turning their eyes toward the land of "the big red apple" as the place to live. Yesterday the secretary of the Board of Trade received a letter from a man at present living in Saskatchewan who is desirous of buying a farm of about 800 acres on the St. John river. The secretary of the board will be glad to hear of any farms which would suit this man.

N. B. GOVERNMENT TO PROTECT FORESTS

Whole System will be Reorganized to Prevent Heavy Losses from Fires—A Forest Patrol.

The New Brunswick government is preparing plans for the reorganization of the whole forest protection system. That the provincial forest possessions of over 18,000 square miles merit the most modern and effective safeguards against fire goes without saying. The notion that forests can be left to take care of themselves has been abandoned by nearly every government on earth having authority over timber lands. Once the responsibility for forest protection is admitted, it behooves a government to build up the most economical and up-to-date patrol service. The maintenance of New Brunswick's forest industry depends absolutely upon the elimination of destructive fires. In 1912, before the slump in the lumber trade was under way, New Brunswick produced nearly 7,500,000 of lumber, shingles, pulp wood and lath, not counting fire wood, fence posts, etc. The New Brunswick Government receives an average of about $500,000 a year from forest operations and thousands of workmen owe their living to the same source. A very substantial part of the business of our merchants and manufacturers is accounted for by the annual wood harvest.

To those who wonder if New Brunswick can be freed from serious forest fires, it may be pointed out that a private association of Quebec Province, the St. Maurice Forest Protective Association, patrolling two-thirds as much territory as the whole forest area of New Brunswick, have reduced forest fires to an extent hitherto regarded as impossible. This was accomplished by good organization, close inspection of rangers, and authority to regulate the clearing fires of settlers. New Brunswick has the same material already in the way of forest protection, and can enjoy similar immunity by taking similar measures. Lacking them, no government can hope to preserve invaluable timber assets against the ravages of fire.

LOST HIS WAD MYSTERIOUSLY IN THE NIGHT

But Hartland Man will Get Money Back—Women Fear Stern Customs Men.

Special to The Standard. Hartland, Nov. 6.—Some few nights ago J. Kirby Shaw, who lives just below the village, had in his possession one hundred and three dollars. Before retiring for the night he counted his money to see that it all was right and then went to bed, and as usual after a hard day's work, slept soundly. After waking in the morning he discovered that the entire amount was gone, but how he could not ascertain. After the first shock he put two and two together and became suspicious of a certain person.

He placed the matter in the hands of the officers of the law, who got busy at once. Tonight it was said that while no arrests had been made, an arrangement satisfactory to Mr. Shaw was entered into by which he will get his money back.

The Carleton Hay Co. has made a contract with the Dominion government for 2,000 tons of compressed hay, and today starting putting its plan at Woodstock in shape for the beginning of pressing operations next week. The price to be paid to the farmers will be about $8.00 loose and $10.00 pressed.

There is consternation among the female people of the place today, word having gone forth that a customs officer from Woodstock was coming here to look into the matter of a number of new gowns, coats, etc., which had arrived from Houlton without the formality of passing through the hands of the customs authorities.

NEXT BRITISH LOAN PROBABLY IN JANUARY

London, Nov. 6.—It is confidently expected that the next long term loan will be issued in January, when money usually is easier, and when so large amount of dividend money is seeking reinvestment. This confidence is expressed in the demand for the existing war loan, which carries conversion rights.

The terms of the new loan are being widely discussed but are a guess-work. It is thought in some quarters that the loan might come just before Christmas, so as to be well advertised by January. Exchequer notes, although selling well, do not attract long term investors such as insurance companies, which will welcome a big public issue as soon as possible.

SUFFERED WITH BACK FOR TEN YEARS

Women are the greatest sufferers from weak, lame and aching backs owing to the continual stooping, bending and lifting so necessary to perform their household duties.

The cause of the backache comes from some derangement of the kidneys, for were there not something wrong with the kidneys the back would be strong and well, and without a pain or an ache.

Doan's Kidney Pills will take out all the stitches, twinges and twinges, limber up the stiff back, and give perfect relief and comfort to all poor, weak backed, suffering women.

Mrs. Chas. Thibeau, Church Point, N. S., writes: "For ten years I suffered with my back, and was so weak I could not do my washing or any hard work. Just a little around the house. One day a friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills, and they helped me so much that after I had taken two boxes I could do my washing and since then I have been in perfect health."

Doan's Pills are the original kidney pills. Do not accept any substitutes put up under similar names. See that you get the oblong grey box, the trade mark a "Maple Leaf."

Price 50c. or three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by THE T. MILBURN CO., LIMITED, Toronto, Ont. Specify "Doan's" if ordering direct.

ED. BURNS STARTED AS A MASCOT

It was as mascot of a college nine that Eddie Burns, the backstop of the Phillies, got his start in the diamond pastime. Eddie was born in San Francisco twenty-nine years ago today, October 31, 1887, and he was about ten years old when he first attracted the attention of some of the St. Mary's college baseball players. He was a little midget of a kid—he never has attained very great stature—and when he began hanging about the college his unfailing good nature and his willingness to run errands won him friends among the rah-rah boys. The members of the nine adopted little Eddie as their mascot, and he delivered the goods. Later he entered the school as a prep, and eventually worked his way up to a place on the varsity baseball squad. Catching was always his strong forte, and he had a brilliant career at St. Mary's, where he spent eight years of his young life, graduating in 1908. After leaving college Burns got a job with Sacramento in the Coast league, but the plot didn't think much of him because of his brevity of stature, and turned him over to Tacoma in the Northwestern. There he played sensational ball, and in the fall of 1911 he was purchased by the Cardinals, but was turned over to Montreal in 1912. His work with the Royals attracted big league attention, and in the middle of the 1912 season he was sold to the Phillies for $2800. Burns continues to reside in California, and has been the coach of the baseball squad of his alma mater for several years.

INJURED HIS FISTS.

Jack Dillon has gone west to recover the use of his hands. The Giant Killer, who mauled Frank Moran into a state of submission last summer, has injured his fists in frequent money setting bouts with Tom, Dick and Harry. He has been "fighting" two or three times a week, regardless of the consequences. The public, which has paid to see him in action, has not been considered. Dillon's tactics illustrate the present method of avicious boxers who care more for gold than for winning exhibitions in the ring.

PHILLIES AFTER CAREY.

The Phillies have lines out for the services of Max Carey of the Pirates, one of the best outfielders in the National league. Carey is said to have lost favor with the Pittsburgh club because of the part he played in a squabble over the receipts from a recent barnstorming trip. He had a verbal scrap with Dreyfuss and wound up by demanding his release. Carey is anxious to play with the Phillies or Giants. It is said, but McGraw will stick to Burns, Kauf and Robertson. Pat Moran, however, is ready to make an offer for the crack outfielder, who might be secured in a trade for Paikert.

ANOTHER RECORD WINNER

Walter Pipp, first baseman of the Yankees, holds other honors besides that of being the champion home run hitter of Ban Johnson's league. The records for sacrifice flies in the American league, just compiled by the sports most thorough statistician, Ernest J. Lanigan, show that the lanky first sacker of the Yankees stood at the top of the list in driving home runs with long flies to the outfielders. He was not alone at the top, sharing the place with Bob Veach, the heavy hitter of the Detroit Tigers.

Pipp and Veach pounded home thirteen runs apiece by the sacrifice fly route. They equalled the top mark of a year ago, when the leaders were Dury Lewis and Larry Lajoie. The closest rivals of Pipp and Veach during the past season were three members of the St. Louis Browns. Derrill Pratt pounded out eleven sacrifice flies, while Armando Marsans and George Slater poled ten apiece. The Speaker, the batting king of the American league this season, hit nine sacrifice flies, the same mark that he reached a year ago. Ty Cobb chased in only four runs by this route.

In sacrifice fly hitting this past season Veach excelled for the Tigers, Pipp for the Yankees, Pratt for the Browns, Gandil, Speaker and Roth for the Indians, Jackson for the White Sox, Lewis for the Red Sox, Smith for the Nationals and Lajoie and McInnis for the Athletics.

This would be the American league's best sacrifice fly hitting team: Pitcher, Slater, St. Louis, 10; catcher, Schalk, Chicago, 6; first baseman, Pipp, New York, 13; second baseman, Pratt, St. Louis, 11; third baseman, Marsans, St. Louis, 10; shortstop, Weaver, Chicago, 6; left fielder, Veach, Detroit, 13; center fielder, Speaker, Cleveland, 9; right fielder Roth, Cleveland, 9.

The Tigers raised the greatest number of sacrifice flies—61—and the Athletics the smallest number—25. Chicago was credited with 50, New York with 42, St. Louis with 40, Boston with 38, Washington with 36 and Cleveland with 29.

The American leaguers who raised three or more sacrifice flies last season are named below:

Raised 13—Pipp, New York, and Veach, Detroit.
Raised 11—Pratt, St. Louis.
Raised 10—Slater and Marsans, St. Louis.
Raised 9—Gandil, Speaker and Roth, Cleveland.
Raised 8—Jackson, Chicago; Crawford, Detroit; Magee, New York.
Raised 7—E. Collins, Pelsch and Fournier, Chicago; Helman and Burns, Detroit.
Raised 6—Lewis, Boston; Weaver and Schalk, Chicago; Vitt, Detroit; Smith, Cleveland; Washington.
Raised 5—Lajoie and McInnis, Philadelphia; Wambersans, Cleveland; Peckinpaugh, New York; Gardiner, Hooper and Scott, Boston; Shanks and Henry, Washington.
Raised 4—Chapman, Howard and O'Neill, Cleveland; Dush, Cobb and Young, Detroit.
Raised 3—Plek, Strunk and Schang, Philadelphia; Graney, Cleveland; Seweroid, St. Louis; Thomas, Boston; Morgan and Foster, Washington.

his opponent in one and Promoter Snowy Baker is figuring on importing some good American for the other.

As good as he is Darcy never has been able to do much with the clever Clabby. He has won all three bouts on points, but all went the limit without even a knockdown. Clabby, of course, took no chances whatever, but merely contented himself with playing safe all the way. At that he was able to sneak in many sharp raps, and in their last bout he had Darcy bleeding badly and looking somewhat worried at times. Clabby is considerable of a veteran now, and the fact that he was able to do so well ought to be encouraging to Mike Gibbons, who took Clabby's measure without much trouble over a year ago.

Darcy has received a letter from

Georges Carpenter, the famous Frenchman, extending congratulations on his success and offering to fight him after the war is over. A Darcy-Carpenter battle will be a tremendously interesting event, no matter where it is held. England, France, Australia and America will bid for this match as soon as it is possible to hold it. America would be a purely central battleground, and American promoters ought to be able to outbid any of the impoverished countries now at war. However, both fighters may be influenced by sentiment rather than dollars and decide to take less money and fight in London or Paris.

HARTLAND

Hartland, Nov. 5.—At an early hour Sunday morning the occupants of the dwelling of Arnold Crabb at Cloverdale were awakened from their slumbers by the crackling of fire and suffocating smoke. Mr. Crabb and family, with his brother, Manfred, were obliged to escape through an upstairs window in their night clothes. The building was burned to the ground and nearly all the contents destroyed. The loss is estimated at $2,700, while there was but $800 insurance.

After nearly a year with the 15th Batt. Minto Wallace, the eighteen year old son of Charles H. Wallace of Cloverdale, has been sent home to take a six months' treatment for an affliction of the lungs. He has been recommended to go to a sanatorium and may enter a Montreal institution to fit him for a return to military duty.

Early Sunday morning death came suddenly to Mr. Clopper Tompkins of Upper Kent. He had been suffering from heart trouble for some time, but retired Saturday night, apparently as well as usual.

Roy Risby, a Hartland man with the 140th Batt., writes an interesting letter concerning the trip overseas. Among other things he says that Corp. Frank Dickinson of this place was promoted to sergeant on the trip over and that he (Risby) had been presented by Col. Boer with a silver wrist watch the last night at sea for the second best standing in the rifle competition at Valcartier. He speaks in high praise of the "intensive" farming practiced by the English agriculturists. Mr. George Johnston, a Hartland man, who has been in British Columbia for about ten years and became quite successful as a lumberman, was here this week renewing old acquaintances and incidentally, securing a New Brunswick bride in the person of Miss Mary Turner, a school teacher of Connel. Mr. Johnston's first wife died a few years ago.

A serious fire was narrowly averted at the Sayers mill on Tuesday evening. Fire was discovered in the stable adjoining the mill boarding house just before six o'clock, but was, with some difficulty subdued before much damage was done.

Aroostook Junction, Nov. 5.—The school children at Aroostook Junction gave an entertainment last Tuesday evening in aid of the Belgian relief fund, in the large hall of the school, and although the inclement weather prevented a large attendance, the amount of $27.00 was realized.

The children had been well trained for their parts by Miss Love, and rendered several choruses and recitations in good style; Master Clifford Kerrigan gained much applause for his recitation, which he gave in good style, dressed in khaki. Mr. Langley gave a short address on "Belgium Before the War," and "Belgium Today," in its dire need, also two patriotic recitations.

Two large flags were beautifully draped back of the reading desk and several smaller flags were in evidence. W. E. G. He made feeling reference to the great sacrifice the young hero had made in giving his life for King and Country. The following hymns were rendered: "Hold the Fort," "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," "Onward Christian Soldiers," and "The Banner of the Lord." ## Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "run-downs," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance.

Those who practice intestinal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

RECRUITING FOR NAVY GRATIFYING

Hon. J. D. Hazen Satisfied with Progress Being Made—St. John and Res. of N. B. Does Well.

That Hon. J. D. Hazen is satisfied with the progress being made in the recruiting of men for the Canadian contingent in the British navy is evident from a statement by him to a Standard reporter yesterday afternoon. Asked as to the campaign, Mr. Hazen said it was proceeding satisfactorily under the charge of the naval department, and the organization of the force was being completed. At the outbreak of the war, in response to repeated offers from Canada to enlist men for the naval service the Imperial authorities had intimated that Canada could do the best service by recruiting men for military purposes. Lately, however, it was deemed desirable to recruit men for the navy and Canada has undertaken to secure 3,000 men by the end of the year, and, if possible, a total enrollment of 5,000. These men are now being enlisted in various parts of Canada and the response up to the present has been fairly satisfactory.

Much Enthusiasm.

A great deal of interest men in the movement has been done in Ontario and the prairie provinces where local committees are being organized and there is much enthusiasm. The appeal for service in the navy has met a response from men who had not shown a disposition to enlist for the army. Men being enrolled for the naval service are being paid at rates of pay comparable to those being paid for the overseas military forces. They will be sent forward to England for training and employment on the ships of the British navy. During the war they will be paid direct the same sum as is paid to men already in the service in British warships. The balance of their pay will be deposited for them to be paid over at the end of the war. In Ontario and the West committees are being organized under the supervision of the naval department and much work of a valuable character is being performed by patriotic citizens, and it is evident that by January 1st next a very considerable number of Canadians will have gone forward to serve on the ships of His Britannic Majesty. Mr. Hazen was pleased that men for the service were coming forward from St. John and expressed the hope that these Maritime Provinces would not be behind Ontario and the West in this regard.

Had the different counties of the province contributed as many men to the cause of the Empire as did St. John county, New Brunswick would have recruited three companies, three-quarters of a full battalion. Unfortunately seven of the thickly populated counties failed to report a man. Forty-eight men signed the honor roll in the city last week. Seven counties reported nil for the week ending Saturday, Nov. 4th.

Table listing recruiting statistics by county: St. John Co., Westmorland Co., York Co., Carleton Co., Albert Co., Northumberland Co., Charlotte Co., Queens and Sunbury Cos., Victoria Co., Madawaska Co., Kings Co., Gloucester Co., Kent Co., Total.

For the benefit of those who are interested, J. M. Robinson & Sons will receive United States election returns this evening. Their office will be open from 7.30 o'clock on.

One Show at Imperial Tonight. There will be only one round of the Imperial programme tonight—from 7 until 8—so that the 16th Battalion may hold their splendid concert. The programme will consist of Barney Bernard in Vitagraph's "Prince in a Pawnshop"; the See America First Travel Pictures, Pathé's British Gazette and Lonty's trained dogs.

'T WAS VERY BUSY DAY AT POST OFFICE

English Mail Yesterday was Particularly Heavy—Parcels for Soldiers Made Up Most of it.

There was a record mail for parcels, letters and newspapers yesterday to England. From early morning until about four o'clock there was a constant stream of people bringing in mail of all dimensions. Assistant postmaster Potter said the day was an especially busy one for handling mail for England and that considerable difficulty had been experienced in handling it in time to meet the train service. Most of the matter entrusted to the post office was in parcels for the soldiers abroad. Piles on piles of boxes were to be seen, and there were about 125 bags of letters and newspaper mail. It had been explained that in order that the boys at the front should get something, whether it be cigarettes, chocolates, plum-pudding (and quite a lot of this cheering commodity was sent yesterday) it would be well to send things away at the earliest moment for Christmas enjoyment. The officials at the post office were kept very busy, but, it is understood, all the English mail was sent away in good time.

THE 222ND IN CITY

The civic authorities will have as their guests of honor at Bond's cafe tonight at 6.15, the officer commanding, Lieut. Col. James Lightfoot, and officers of the 222nd Battalion. Yesterday the men were busily engaged unpacking and arranging their equipment at their quarters for an indefinite stay in the city. The boys are quartered at the different military quarters on this side of the harbor and on the west side.
