CANADIAN NICKEL WELL CONTROLLED

None Reached Germany on Deutschland, Says Lord Robert Cecil.

London, Oct. 23.—I have been granted an interview by Lord Robert Cecil, Foreign Under Secretary, who in an interview to the American press stated that certain amounts of nickel emanating from allied territory which were despatched to the United States ultimately found their way to Germany on board the submarine Deutschland.

Lord Robert assured me that this in no way referred to nickel from Canada, and that he had no intention whatever of criticizing the arrangements for controlling Canadian nickel or suggestions that any Canadian nickel reaches the enemy. The British government is perfectly satisfied with the precautions taken and arrangements made by the Canadian government with regard to nickel.

RESULTED FAVORABLY.

Paris, Oct. 23.—Desperate fighting in the bend of the Cerna on the Macedonian front has resulted favorably to the Entente forces, according to to-day's War Office announcement. The Bulgarians counter-attacked in strong force, but were defeated by the Serbians who inflicted heavy losses on the attacking troops.

One man was drowned, the tug Alfred W. of Duluth was sunk and a scow was overturned in the heavy seas off the Ashland, Wis., break-water.

Calvary Church Mission Circle

The Women's Mission Circle of Calvary Baptist Church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. T. Y. Thomson, Colborne St. on Thursday afternoon. After the opening ceremonies, several matters of business were dealt with. It was decided to affiliate with the young people of the church in sending Christmas comforts to the boys of the congregation on active service. Mesdames Bowyer, Bowen and Henderson were appointed as delegates to the women's convention being held in Jarvis St. Baptist Church, Toronto, in November. The special speaker of the afternoon was Miss Best, of the Y.W.C.A., who gave a very beautiful sketch of the life of Mrs. Judson, missionary to India, of their voyage over, their work among the soldiers in the English garrison, and of the many troubles and persecutions they had to endure at that time. Mrs. Judson was a woman of rare grace and character, whose life was linked with things that cannot perish. At the conclusion of this fine address a very pleasant event took place when Mrs. Bowyer, on behalf of the Circle presented the secretary, Mrs. Charles Brown, with a life membership in the Foreign Missionary Society. Mrs. Brown, although taken completely by surprise made a suitable reply. The members were afterwards served with afternoon tea, the hostesses being Mrs. T. Y. Thomson and Mrs. Hugh Thomson.

REV. S. J. FARMER
For Ten Years Pastor of First Baptist Church, who spoke there Yesterday.

OLD PASTOR AT FIRST BAPTIST

Rev. S. J. Farmer Was Speaker at Both Services There Yesterday.

The large audiences at the First Baptist church were delighted to listen to their old pastor, Rev. S. J. Farmer, formerly of Regina, Sask., and now of Ottawa. Dr. Farmer looked hale and hearty, and preached with great acceptance to the people. Before reading the scripture lesson in the morning, he made fitting reference to the past, and called to mind the absence of some former members whose lives had proved such a blessing to him during his ten years' pastorate here. He said: "I miss the faces of several, such as Mrs. Fred Schultz, Mr. Large and Lewis Benedict." "The West," he continued, "has brought changes to my thinking and my preaching. Although it has altered my views upon none of the fundamentals." The subject of the morning sermon was the ministry of the law. After referring to the law in its relation to Israel, he expounded its permanent mission and worth. "The law," said he, "was given by God to emphasize the fact of sin and to teach men their need of a Saviour." This was a masterly presentation of the need of man and God's supply of grace to meet that demand. In the evening the subject was of a more popular nature, namely, "The Gospel of the Second Chance," and was listened to with deep interest by an audience that completely filled the church. The music at all the services was good. In the morning the choir sang "Bow down Thine Ear," and "Come Unto Me." In the evening the choir sang "Hark, Hark My Soul," Mr. Burrill sang "A Song of Praise," and the male quartette sang "Some Blessed Day." Many surrounded the former pastor after both services, and recalled memories of the days that are over. Mr. Farmer's pastorate was the longest in the history of the church, which has passed the three score years and ten. The best wishes of the people here will ever follow him and his wherever their lot may be cast.

VERY REV. DEAN BRADY
Pastor of St. Basil's Church, Who Returned to the city on Saturday

WELCOME TO VERY REV. DEAN BRADY

Pastor of St. Basil's Church Visits City After Severe Illness.

For the first time since his recent serious illness, Very Rev. Dean Brady said mass at St. Basil's church yesterday, conducting the 9 a.m. service, at which the school children and the Roman Catholic soldiers of the 215th battalion were in attendance. While not yet recovered from the serious illness which he underwent, Dean Brady expressed himself as feeling much better, and extended to all his thanks for their prayers, which he was confident had played a great part in restoring him to health after his operation.

An informal reception and welcome home was extended Dean Brady upon his arrival in the city Saturday afternoon, when the children of St. Basil's school gathered at the Deanery and joined in the singing of hymns as their pastor arrived. Although weary and fatigued by his long journey, Dean Brady addressed a few words to the gathering, speaking in his customary happy and appropriate style, and requesting their prayers for his further recovery. "I might be more capable of continuing his duties in the parish. After a stay of a few days in the city, Dean Brady will leave some time this week for Montreal, where he will remain in order to recuperate his strength fully.

Among the Smart New Trimmings Are Those of Fur

THE early prediction that fur was to be used extensively this Fall, seems now to have been a mere hint as to its tremendous vogue. "The fur doesn't matter, it's how you treat it," says Paris and consequently fur is being worn in all sorts of odd and unexpected places on one's costume. Queer little gussets and odd picturesque pockets are making their appearance on smart coats and suits, and whether the fur be expensive or otherwise, if you would be ultra-fashionable you must heed the call of the mode and be lavish in your use of it. ### SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the "clogged-up" waste, "sour" and "fermenting" food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside-cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

the attack was given out here to-day. "A hostile aeroplane was reported over Margate at 10.05 o'clock this morning. Three bombs were dropped in the Chiltonville district of the town. Slight damage was caused to a hotel and one man and one woman were slightly injured. "British aeroplanes went up in pursuit of the raider, who made off in a southeasterly direction."

THE COURIER

Published by The Brantford Courier Limited, every afternoon, at Dalhousie Street, Brantford, Canada. Subscription rate: By carrier, $4 a year; by mail to British possessions and the United States, $3 per annum.

Monday, October 23rd, 1916.

THE SITUATION The assassination of the Premier of Austria, finds a place in a war summary for the reason that the opinion quite generally prevails, in the Old Land at any rate that his removal is the culmination of a growing desire on the part of many in Francis Joseph's kingdom, to see the government freed from the clique pandering to the interests of Germany.

The British have consummated another brilliant stroke on the Somme front. On Saturday they advanced their lines a distance of from 300 to 500 yards on a front of three miles, and took 1,018 prisoners.

From Macedonia comes the report that German aid has reached the retreating Bulgarians, but that the Serbians still continue to press onward to Monastir.

LAURIER REFUSES Sir Wilfrid Laurier has declined the invitation of Premier Borden to co-operate in the formation of a Parliamentary National Service Committee.

He intimates among other things that he feels he can act better if he is untrammelled. Untrammelled for what? To give countenance in the Dominion House as he did, to the cry that French-Canadians have a grievance over the Ontario school matter?

GERMANY LOSES FIVE BILLIONS The British Export Gazette gives the above figures as an estimate of what Germany has already lost in trade since the war started.

The figures quoted should provide nothing but encouragement for Great Britain and her Allies. Germany's annual loss of $500,000,000 in exports alone will, when conditions are once again normal, and she finds herself cut off for decades from all commercial intercourse with the entente powers, mean just so much additional interchange of trade between the nations now fighting side by side for the salvation of the world from Prussian dominance.

Far seeing Germans quite realize that the Fatherland will be largely ostracised, commercially, at the close of hostilities, and they are talking of a commercial pact between Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. "Let Laurier finish his work," should be changed to "Laurier has finished himself."

The research department of the Kansas City Board of Public Welfare is raising a fund of $25,000 to build 15 workmen's homes, which will rent at a low figure.

THREE SHIPS LOST IN GALE Total of Twenty-Seven Lives Lost in Gale on Lake Erie.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 23.—Marine losses in the gale which swept Lake Erie on Friday have been reported up to date as follows; the total lives lost numbering twenty-seven: Steamer James B. Colgate, a steel whaleback. Founded. Twenty-one lost. One saved.

Nineteen men were sucked down to death when the steamer sank at 10 o'clock Friday night off Long Point, opposite Erie. and Capt. Grashaw's two companions on the life raft were washed away just as rescue ships, the car ferry steamer Marquette and Bessemer No. 2, came ploughing through the waves toward them.

Human strength and tenacity of life succumbed to the deadly cold of the waves and their continuous lashing.

Arrangements Well in Hand for Brantford's Contribution.

School Children's Parade to be One of the Features.

A meeting of the executive in connection with Brantford's campaign of behalf of the British Red Cross took place on Saturday in the Library. Rev. Mr. Woodside was in the chair. Mr. F. D. Reville, chairman of publicity, told of the steps which that committee had taken. The matter of a school children's parade was brought up and deemed to be a desirable feature for Friday afternoon, November 3rd. Inspector Kilmer was asked to take up the matter with the teachers' committee. Mr. Frank Cockshutt very kindly offered the Tea Pot Inn premises for headquarters, unless a steady tenant could be secured in the meantime. Mrs. Livingston, Mrs. Schell and Mrs. Geo. Watt were in attendance to represent the ladies.

RED CROSS DONATIONS.
Although the matter of a public contribution to the British Red Cross Society has been laid over until the next meeting of the Township Council, some private residents of Brantford township, however, have already expressed their approbation of the movement in a concrete form. No. 14, Echo Place $11.10; Fred Luck, $5.50, making a total of $22.60.

Suffering from two wounds four inches long in the calf of his leg, Pte. W. W. Precious, of the 19th Battalion, recently reported wounded, retained consciousness in the face of his injuries, and declined to be transported by ambulance to a field hospital before first notifying his father, also of the 19th battalion, of the nature of his wounds. Such was the information received in the city on Saturday by Mr. Geo. Dickinson, of 79 Arthur street, uncle of Pte. Precious. Upon sustaining his injuries, the young soldier, who celebrated his 21st birthday in the trenches, insisted on being mounted upon the backs of two of his companions and carried by them to the spot in the field not far distant where his father was stationed. He was then conveyed by the latter to the hospital, and is since convalescing favorably from his wounds. Both Pte. W. W. Precious and his father are Brantford men, residing formerly at 79 Arthur street, and enlisting in the 19th battalion here in the autumn of 1914.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour or upset you. There never was anything so safely, quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive, and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

KING'S APPROVAL STOPS PROTESTS

Objection to Somme Pictures Ends When His Majesty Sees Film.

SCREENED IN BRANTFORD.

Coming Presentation by the Courier at Colonial Theatre Creates Interest.

As was expected in view of the importance and the fame of "The Battle of the Somme," the greatest motion picture so far produced, the announcement that films would be shown under the auspices of The Courier for three days beginning Thursday, November 2, at the Colonial Theatre, has attracted wide discussion.

Inquiries have reached the office, personal, by telephone and by mail concerning the pictures, and the number of these already indicate that the presentations of the pictures will attain more than a satisfactory success.

Some controversy, such as accompanied the showing of the pictures in England, has already started among those who are familiar with the character of some of the scenes depicted at the battle front. But the larger majority of persons who have discussed the advisability of having the pictures exhibited in Brantford, assume the same view which in England overcame the effort of those who sought to stop the presentation.

That the hearty approval by the members of the Ontario Board of Censors, and the Appeal Board of Ontario, together with prominent invited guests at a private exhibition, has done much to allay the suspicions of those who believe the portrayal of men being killed and maimed is too fearful a sight for womenfolk, is apparent.

Objections Ends The protest and vigorous objection to the screening of these scenes of horror and bloodshed were overwhelmingly silenced in England, where the King did much to end the controversy by passing judgement on the film.

It was shown to their majesties privately at Windsor Castle, by Capt. Faunthorpe and Lieut. Modick, the latter representing the war office. With the conclusion of the program the King in the course of his conversation with the officers gave his hearty approval to the showing of the pictures throughout the empire, according to the Toronto Daily Star. The King said:

"In the ages before the invention of the motion picture machine it was impossible to convey so clear and full an idea of warfare as anyone can now see in a few pence. At a bound the cinematograph has taken its place as a great moral and patriotic force.

"Before long it will be accepted as a necessary record of all events of national and historic interest. Nothing of importance will happen without the moving image of it being preserved for the benefit of those that and future generations.

"Contempt of the cinematograph will then be found if at all only in the morbidly sensitive and the coldly 'superior' person. But something remains to be done before this great power for instruction and entertainment can become worthy of its indisputable associates. Such mistakes as the display of comic films or sensational films in the same program as the picture of the Somme fighting should not be committed."

Speaks With Authority

The King can speak with authority, for he has seen something of the horrors of war and the bravery of his soldiers in close quarters. As a matter of fact, on the same occasion there was shown a film, entitled "The King's Visit to France," at Windsor castle, which will shortly be released to the public. It forms an interesting record of the King's visit to the battlefront at Fricourt and Mametz. His majesty is shown watching the bombardment of Pozieres, inspecting captured trenches and dugouts, meeting with lines of cheering troops assembled from all parts of the empire. Many of the incidents surprised the King when he saw them on the screen, as he had no idea that his movements had been so closely followed.

Four Killed When Train Strikes Automobile Near Delhi.

OTHER ITEMS.

Norfolk County Is Fine Locality for Longevity.

Simcoe, Oct. 22.—(From our own correspondent)—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marr and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Cahoon, Malahide township farmers, left home Wednesday morning for an auto trip to Simcoe Fair. They stopped for dinner with the family of I. C. McConnell near Delhi and spent Thursday and Friday in Simcoe, the former couple visited. Mrs. Marr's Cousins, the Misses Taylor, on Talbot street, and the Cahoon's stopped at the home of Isaiah Foster, on Head street. They left Saturday forenoon for home, and when entering Delhi, were struck at the railway crossing by the No. 3 Wabash Limited. The side curtains of the car were drawn and evidently the party was not on the lookout for a train, as there is no serious obstruction to a good view at the place. As No. 3 does not pull up at Delhi, it was running at a very fair speed. The car was smashed and three of the occupants killed instantly. Mrs. Marr died about an hour later at the home of Richard Oakes, near the scene of the tragedy.

The train backed up to the scene and the bodies of the three already dead were covered with blankets and curtains. Coroner Dr. Tisdale was notified and has the inquest in charge. The bodies of the dead were taken to McPherson's undertaking parlors and prepared for burial. The No. 3 Wabash on Sunday pulled up at Delhi to receive the four caskets and bear them to Aylmer for interment. There are no children of either of the unfortunate couples and their identity at Delhi was first established from Mr. Marr's auto permit, which was found on his person. The number killed and the marks of violence on the remains threw the peaceful village into fevered excitement. Conductor Downing and Engineer Sanderson were in charge of the train.

First Offender. Geo. Leffler appeared as a well dressed prisoner at Squire Earl's court on Saturday afternoon charged with being drunk on the street on Thursday. This was the first case under the Prohibition Act and the Squire made an example. Lefflar pleaded guilty. He had joined two men in an order for three cases of goods from Montreal. Lefflar's counsel pleaded for leniency and the Squire came down from the bench. The sentence was $25 and costs with no imprisonment. Lefflar was even given time to come across with half in two weeks and half a fortnight later. But the Squire advised those present that in future he intends to go the limit. He claimed that the mass of the people want this law enforced. It was placed on the books at considerable expense and so far as he was concerned, there would in future be no leniency. Men who afford to drink enough whisky to become drunk, can afford to pay the fine, family or no family.

Last of the Season. Charlottetown Township Fair was held at Walsh on Saturday, and was not an entire failure. The gate receipts were over half a good weather income, and the stock exhibit was good.

John Francis, of the J. B. Jackson butter factory, as owner of the building of the South Middleton cheese factory, which was burned last Thursday night, was insured in force. There was light insurance in force. It was Thursday night before Mr. Francis learned of the fire.

Capt. D. Allan Jackson was home for the week-end. Dr. Jackson will soon go overseas for the second time. Paymaster Capt. Selby was home from Camp Borden over Sunday.

Letters from many of the 133rd, received on Saturday, indicate that the unit will leave camp soon. James Potts got one year at the Guelph farm on Friday when he pleaded guilty on the charge of escaping custody. He is now here with three others under sentence awaiting transfer to provincial surveillance, and besides these there are no guests at Castle Robertson.

Rev. J. W. Curry, M.A. B.D., of Blenheim, preached at St. Paul's yesterday. Rev. J. S. Duncan, D.D., of Lucknow, will preach next Sunday. During the hearing of candidates, St. Paul's continues to have large congregations in the morning and evenings. Some embarrassment was caused the local Presbyterians last week through an over-zealous attempt to open a newspaper discussion as to the merits of the men who are heard from week to week. The extract in one of the local papers, setting forth the superior qualifications of one of the candidates, is generally considered to have been in bad taste, and it is hoped that in future this course will not be pursued. Fruit growers in the vicinity of the town are finding it difficult to get help for the apple picking.

Red Cross contributions. South Walsingham and Charlottetown councils have given grants of $350 and $200 each to the British Red Cross fund. Windham council discussed the matter on Saturday, but took no action pending the county council's disposal of an approximate $400 balance of the $11,000 grant from the county council, to equip the 133rd.

There is some movement on foot to have this money diverted to Red Cross work. Mayor Williamson has announced through the local press that private subscriptions left at any of the lo-

The Battle of the Somme

The Battle of The Somme on July 1st,

when the first smash was made by the infantry into the German line, had been preceded by a week or so of the heaviest artillery fire ever known in this war or any other; millions of shells have been expended and the surface of the ground in the neighborhood of the German trenches has been broken like a plowed field and literally packed with mine pits and shell holes.

Some of the monstrous guns used in this battle are of a size possible heretofore only on stationary fortifications and the heaviest armed war vessels.

THE BRANTFORD DAILY COURIER will show what modern artillery fire is like on November 2, 3 and 4, at the Colonial Theatre, when the wonderful film of "The Battle of the Somme," under the direction of the War Office, on instructions of the Imperial Government, will be shown here for the first time.

These wonderful films were actually taken under fire. They show shell explosions "close up"; in one part the film shows a German trench under "concentrated fire"; shells exploding on the field with the frequency of rain-drops splashing in a puddle. But each of those shells carried potentiality to obliterate a score of men from the face of the earth, of burying a section of trench in debris, of blowing a machine gun position out of existence. These shells actually passed over the camera before they exploded a couple of hundred yards ahead, across "No Man's Land." The camera man took chances of life and death with the soldiers, in fact, on many occasions they exposed themselves to get a good picture where soldiers remained under cover.

The "Battle of The Somme," says The Glasgow Citizen, "is the biggest thing ever done in photography; it is worth going a hundred miles to see." You will see it right here in Brantford next week, 3,000 miles from the sound of those terrible guns.

The film will be shown in The Colonial Theatre, November 2, 3 and 4, with daily matinee. Popular Price, 25 cents.

THE FALL WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day it is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic, and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds, and make baby thrive. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA.

ONE of our fellows swore off swearing at New Year's. He puts five cents in the baby's bank every time he forgets himself. It cost him half a dollar to get dressed every morning when he wore a ten button Union Suit. Now he wears the Hatch One-Button Union and gets out with a nicker. It's tough on the baby though!

He says if the button were not so conveniently placed in front it would cost more.

Hatch One-Button Union Suits are made in Zimmerknit quality. That makes a pretty good combination.

POLITICAL MOTIVES CAUSED THE SHOOTING OF AUSTRIAN PREMIER

Grave Rioting in Vienna Follows Assassination of Count Stuerghk by a Socialist Editor, "The Liebknecht of Austria"

London, Oct. 22.—A wireless despatch from Rome reports that there were grave riots in Vienna following the assassination of Count Stuerghk, which the police were powerless to quell.

Vienna, Oct. 23, by way of Berlin.—The assassination of the Austrian Premier, Count Carl Stuerghk, on Saturday, was purely political, and was induced by his refusal to convene Parliament, according to the admission of Dr. Friedrich Adler, his assassin, shortly after his arrest.

Dr. Adler is an eccentric and super-radical Socialist, sometimes known as the "Liebknecht of Austria." He is editor of Der Kampf. At first he declined to reveal his motives, but after being locked up he broke down and declared the Premier's political policies had led him to do the deed.

Wounds Two Others

Dr. Adler's arrest was not accomplished without the wounding of two men who leaped at him after he had fired on Count Stuerghk. He discharged the two remaining chambers of his revolver at these men before Austrian and German officers, with drawn sabres, overpowered him. The wounded men who were injured slightly, are Baron Achrenthal, brother of the late Foreign Minister, and the head waiter of the Hotel Meissl und Schandl, in which the shooting occurred.

Emperor Francis Joseph was informed immediately of the death of the Premier and was affected deeply. A special meeting of the Austrian Cabinet was held during the afternoon. Special editions were issued in Vienna and Budapest the despatch adds, announcing the murder as "tremendous and sensational."

Eats Three Tables Away

Count Stuerghk arrived at the hotel at 1.30 o'clock. With him at luncheon were Baron Achrenthal; Count Toggenburg, Governor of the Tyrol; Herr Jacobson, a prominent Vienna musician, and an actor from the Court Theatre. At 2 o'clock a man unknown to the Premier arrived and took a seat three tables away. He ate luncheon and paid for the meal, but lingered at the table. Shortly after 3 he arose, advanced 1891, when he was elected to the Reichsrath. In 1894 he became a Ministerial Director in the department of which he afterwards became the head. In the interval he was out of office for a time, resigning after the fall of the Wendsch-Graetz Cabinet.

The papers here quote Engelbert Pernerstorfer, Vice-President of the lower House of the Austrian Chamber, who recently declared:

"Public opinion righteously demands the re-opening of Parliament. The administration of public affairs grows ever more difficult, and the exclusion of the Parliament and the press from administrative decisions encourages the insupportable feeling that we Austrians are no longer the subjects of our own Government, but have been handed over to the Hungarian Premier, Tisza."

"Modern Thinker's Rebellion."

Rome, Oct. 22.—Salvatore Barbiato, former Minister without portfolio, in The Messaggero characterizes the assassination of Premier Stuerghk as "a rebellion of the modern thinker against the feudal, militaristic and clerical organization of Austria." The impression made in Italy, he asserts, is heightened by the fact that the Premier's assassin is well known here as a literary man, particularly as a translator of Italian poetry.

"If you please, gentlemen, I know perfectly well what I have done. I shall not resist arrest."

In reply to a question as to the reason for his act he said at first: "That I shall have to answer in court."

It was half an hour later that he admitted he had been actuated by political motives.

Physicians and high police and state officials reached the scene of the shooting within a few minutes, but found that the Premier was lifeless. News of the assassination spread like wildfire, and was received with indignation and sorrow.

The assassin, who is thirty-two years old, is a son of Dr. Victor Adler, a Reichsrath Deputy and a Socialist of mild type. By a strange coincidence the father was speaking before the Reichsrath in 1911 when Count Stuerghk was shot at six times by the Dalmatian Socialist Vakuse. On that occasion the Count was uninjured.

Politician for Years

Count Stuerghk has been a prominent figure in Austrian political affairs for years. He was Minister of Public Works in the Cabinet formed in 1909, at the retirement of which, in October of 1911, he was asked to form a new Ministry.

The Count was born in 1859 at Graz, was educated at the University of Graz, and entered the service of the State in 1881. He began his Parliamentary career on March 12,

Collegiate Wins Season's First Home Rugby Game

Thanks Largely to the Brilliant Playing of Art Kelly, Locals Defeat Guelph By Decisive Score of 19-0.

In large measure due to the splendid playing of Captain Ros Kelly was the 19-0 victory, which the Rugby team of the B. C. I. snatched from Guelph here on Saturday, annexing their first victory of the season, and a well earned one. Although a lighter aggregation than the locals, the visiting team put up a strenuous opposition, and only by the sterling ability of several of the home players, was the score maintained at it stood. A feature of the game, probably the factor, was Kelly's touchdown in the first quarter, which followed a ripple criss-cross play and a sensational run by the captain. Moffatt, the heaviest man on the local team, sustained a sprained ankle in the course of the game, and was compelled to retire.

The play was clean and orderly throughout, the game being one of the most interesting seen here in some time. Each team in the league has now one victory and one loss to its credit, and the standing remains practically as before. The line-up:—
Guelph—Flying wing, Graham; halves, Buckborough, Deagle, Kelly, Nunn; quarter, Purcell; wings, Whiteside, McLeod, Hilliard, Hipwell, Hartford, Martin; scrum, Ziemann, Hignell, Weir.
Brantford—Flying wing, Hurley; halves, Buckborough, Deagle, Kelly, wings, Middlemiss, Truss, Littler, Moffatt, Kitchin, Baird; quarter, Runnings; scrum, Cooke, Smith, Boothe.
George Smith of Hamilton was referee.

Complaints Of Non-Delivery

Under ordinary circumstances the distribution of a Daily Newspaper is a big task, even with an organization trained for the purpose. When great numbers of new subscribers come all together, the difficulties become greater. The rush during the Great Prize Contest now on is an illustration.

At this time it will probably be impossible to avoid all mishaps and mistakes, although every precaution will be taken by the publishers to ensure the delivery of each number of the paper.

The publishers are determined not only to remedy any such mishaps and mistakes, and to reduce them to the lowest degree, but to spare no trouble or expense to prevent them in future.

With this end in view the publishers request subscribers to communicate every complaint regarding late or non-deliveries by letter, card or Phone 139.

BRITISH HAVE TAKEN TOTAL OF 30,000 GERMAN PRISONERS

During Four Months' Offensive Upon Somme Front—Casualties Have Been Comparatively Light—"The Briton Will be on Top"

(Copyright 1916 by the Associated Press.)

British Front in France, Oct. 13—Via London—More than three and one half months of battle on the Somme with the heaviest concentration of artillery, infantry and every type of war material, and the most skillful and desperate fighting the world has ever known, has resulted in marked development of British fighting efficiency and of means for reducing the losses of the attackers. In the way of concrete achievements the British have taken 30,000 prisoners, or a little less than 1,500 for each of the twenty-one villages captured with an average population of about 200 souls. They have taken 125 guns, 10 trench mortars, and trench guns and 42 machine guns. They have not lost a gun.

The task of the British was made especially difficult by the fact that they were confronted at the outset with a most powerful line of trench fortifications. Moreover, every village was a fortress which had to be besieged and stormed. The British have driven back the Germans on a front of eleven miles, to a depth of four to eight miles and when spring comes peasants will plough and seed ground behind the lines which for two years had lain fallow under the storm of shells. In Fricourt and Mametz, villages taken on July 1, trees with their trunks and their foliage blasted by shells have bravely thrown out fresh shoots, while fresh crops of grass are hiding the shell craters in neighboring fields and carpeting the seamed earth trodden by the British in their early charges. Former citizens of captured villages are requesting that they be allowed to return to them and build new homes on the ruins of their old ones.

The offensive consisted of intervals of preparation and siege work after each big general attack to prepare what is called a "jumping off" place for another general attack. Through July, owing to the heavy cost of taking the first line trenches, the British casualties probably were heavier than the Germans. Through August, when over a large part of the front the Germans were out of their second as well as their first line systems of defenses and the battle became one of digging and fighting in the open for both sides, casualties were about even. As the British kept up the offensive their exposure necessarily was greater. Yet, from all information the correspondent can gain both from British officers of all grades who have been in the fighting and from German prisoners, the German losses were not less than 25 and possibly 50 per cent. higher than the British during the month of September when the British gained most ground.

This contradiction of the previously accepted idea of a higher ratio of casualties for the side on the offensive, which is usually considered as necessarily not less than two to one, is due, according to the British officers, to the superior power of British shell fire, the numbers of British aeroplanes, the increased skill of the British soldiers and the use of the tanks. The British staff did not place much reliance on these new contrivances, which aroused such world-wide interest, but regarded them as an experiment which might fail at any time. They are only one of the inventions aiding the offensive against modern fortifications which will be used next spring when the British are fully prepared. Calculations as to the value of the tanks are hard to make but, taking the average opinion of experts at the front, these wondrous new motor cars have saved a loss of 20,000 men, or more than a full division, in the reduction of strong points and machine gun positions. The offensive at every step has proved that no army can have too many guns, which will kill and demoralize an enemy with projectiles fired from a distance from anywhere from 2,000 to 20,000 yards. The great value has also been proved of portable machine guns manned by skillful and cunning soldiers. Men posted in shell craters with these weapons have a formidable power whether their side is acting on the defensive or offensive.

Not in ground gained or prisoners or guns taken does opinion at the front lay most emphasis after nearly four months ceaseless fighting, every day bringing its lesson. Officers are always using the word morale, which means the spirit and team play an army puts into its work. It is the thing which at the end of the month of a twenty-round fight, when both pugilists are still standing up well to each other, indicates the winner. The British, after nearly two years of stalling, have been fighting week after week on soil taken from their foe. Thus the British morale has become the morale of attack. This offensive has been the school of war with death as tutor. As one staff officer said: "We had July 1 to do over again, we should accomplish the same result with less loss."

Before the grand offensive the British staff and commanders, those few professionals who were trained to direct the small regular army, realized fully their immense responsibility in sending an army trained in theory against the experienced German organization. At that time one commander recalled to the correspondent a saying of Von Moltke that although the German as a soldier might not be better than his enemy, the German army would always win because of a superior staff system. "We have met the German staff," said the same man recently, "and I assure you none of us are suffering from stage fright these days. We thank the German staff for what they taught us in the days of our unpreparedness and of late they have been learning a few things from us."

Actual battle conditions have revealed as no theoretical tests could which officers are fit to lead. Those who are not, however good fellows and themselves transferred. The route to promotion has become success in action. Generals in the thirties and forties now direct the fighting in the field, and battalion commanders who are not yet thirty, have ceased to be uncommon. To the correspondent, the improvement in the army week by week has been one of the most interesting and evident features of his long stay at the front. The taking of Thiepval was the most sentimentally important of the capture of any village because it was part of that redoubtable first line where the British failed to break through on July 1. But the hardest fighting was at such places as Gullefont, Delville and High Woods, and at Pazieres and Moquet Farm, where the struggle lasted for weeks to gain the coveted ridge, which is now entirely in British possession. But the British officers think only of the experience gained for the future and keep repeating that word, morale.

A wounded British soldier sitting beside the road recently said to the correspondent: "May be the time will come when only one Britisher and one German will be left alive, if so, the Briton will be on top." This is what the officers mean by morale, and explains why they judge the summer's work of the new army in the light alone of that word.

"Feast and Famine"

:- SIDE TALKS :-

By Ruth Cameron

We were talking about a form of social injustice which particularly arouses a friend of mine.

"Sometimes I think I will try to start a crusade against it," she said, "but what can one unimportant person like me do against a great evil?"

"If you have enthusiasm enough you might do a great deal," she said. "Oh, I don't know," she said. "I have enthusiasm enough, but what can one person accomplish even if she is enthusiastic?"

"Almost everything," I said. "And I meant it."

The World Has Been Moved By One With Enthusiasm

World-wide movements have been started by one person and enthusiasm.

That is because one person with enthusiasm is not long one person. Enthusiasm is contagious.

Take the Sunshine Bulletin and the nation-wide work for blind babies. Both of these exist to-day because when Cynthia Westover Alden found in the course of her newspaper work that there was no home to which to send a blind baby whose parents could not take care of it, she was not satisfied to say, "This is terrible, but what can one person do about it?" Instead she set about arousing the world to this need. She has done it, and incidentally produced that world blessing, the Sunshine Bulletin. One Man And Ten Thousand Babies

When Rufus P. Tobey saw the babies in the Boston streets dying of the heat and thought of his own little girl safe at the seashore, he was not content to say, "This has to be." Instead, he set his heart on giving these babies a chance at the sea breezes, and the Boston Floating Hospital, the wonderful hospital ship which carries hundreds of sick babies down the harbor every day, is the outcome of that determination.

Everyone knows what came of Mrs. Rice's determination that the unnecessary noises of the world should be lessened.

One Woman And A Million Mothers And did anything ever spread more like wildfire than Miss Anna Jarvis' wish to do honor to the mothers of the world?

I don't know who started the "Anti-Tuberculosis" and "Do Your Shopping Early" crusades, that have had such tremendous results in the last few years. Perhaps some reader friend can tell me if it was one enthusiast who got the world started.

How I wish these words might give the final impetus to someone! Do not be afraid. Remember this: The sense of this word among the Greeks affords the worthiest definition of it—"Enthusiasm signifies 'God in Us.'"

RIPPLING RHYMES

I bought an ax of Ezra Wax, who said to me, "Now, sonny, if it's no good at chopping wood, come back that turns out punk, the buyer is no loser; I'll make it good, as dealers should—I'm that sort of a snoozer." With that new ax I took some whacks at divers kinds of lumber; the edge was spoiled, and I was rolled, and said things without number. I took the ax to Ezra Wax, and showed him it was pestered, and for an hour with wrathful power, I roared like baseball rooster. My spiel he heard; without a word, he handed me a new one; an ax so neat, so good at chopping wood, come back that turns out punk, the buyer is no loser; I'll make it good, as dealers should—I'm that sort of a snoozer!" I buy my licks of Ezra Wax, my whistles and my whistles, my hoes and rakes and oil meal cakes, my seed of grass and thistles. He would not break the pledge he'd make, or tramp a promise under, so I make tracks to Ezra Wax for every kind roared like baseball rooster.

LADY'S WAIST.

By Anabel Worthington.

This waist with the becoming open neck will draw favorable attention whether made of one or two materials. The design offers big opportunity for carrying out the smart idea of the season—to have the waist match the skirt in color or else be in harmonizing tones.

It is cut in two sections at back and front, the front having the more novel treatment, with the lower section extending to the neck in vest effect. Another touch that counts is bringing the color of the vest to the sleeve with an epaulet and a very novel cuff.

Although a dressy blouse, this is a serviceable one. For morning wear it may be developed in linen, cotton voile and like fabrics. For better service Georgette crepe promises to hold the favor of fashion during the entire fall and winter. There is also a tubular white as well as flesh color crepe de Chine that is well in the lead. In harmonious combination of light and dark tones, such as navy with yellow or with rose, green with gray, this model may be developed in sheer silk crepe with a half lining of net or Japanese silk for afternoon wear.

The waist pattern No. 7950 is cut in sizes 34 to 42 bust measure. To make in size 36 will require 1 1/2 yards of 36 inch material for the upper part and sleeves, 3/4 yard for the lower part and trim. Or 2 1/2 yards, all one material, one color. To obtain the pattern send 10 cents to the office of this publication.

LADY'S THREE GORE SKIRT.

By Anabel Worthington.

worthy fall feature in separate skirts, and, as it shows unmistakable style when employed, you will no doubt like it.

The garment pictured is cut in three gores and has plenty of fulness brought in with two forward and two backward turning plaits introduced at each side. The front closing is indicated by the decoration with fancy buttons from belt line to lower edge, which measures in size 24 3/4 yards. The buttons alone are high style note, and with the yoke effect and stylish flare this model is indeed most interesting.

Serge, worsted, mohair, taffeta and voile, also wool poplin, are among the favored fabrics for developing a skirt for dressy wear, not really formal. You can be certain of excellent results by following the pattern guide.

The skirt pattern, No. 7963, is cut in sizes 24 to 30. To make in belt size 24 will require 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch goods if with "up and down," or 4 1/2 yards without "up and down."

To obtain the pattern send 10 cents to the office of this publication.

ONE MORE WEEK Of LARGE VOTES Offered You

To-day's Big Vote Offer Affords a Grand Opportunity for New Entries

There are a great many people who would like the Daily Courier and would gladly give a 6 months' subscription to some good live energetic candidate if they would get out and see them. The reason why we say this is because every day there are new subscribers coming into the office with their subscriptions, and were not aware of the fact that there was a contest on until they saw the paper. It is up to you candidates to get out on the Rural Routes and see every one.

The contest is fast nearing an end. Are the judges going to read your name as a winner of the Grand Prize Dodge Bros. Touring Car, or are you going to be counted as a winner of some small prize? Results will tell. Success will crown your effort. The slogan this week, "Get Busy." Keep busy and get results. Success and failure both have the same number of letters. Which is to be yours?

The Great Vote Offer Ends 8 p.m. Get Busy Stay Busy Sharp, Saturday Night!

Several of the candidates are over confident. This is a big contest and is going to take many times as many votes as some think. The candidates who think they are in the land of plenty of votes are going to lose—Why? Because the real live, energetic candidates are getting the results. Wake up—it is results this week or lose. Get busy.

ALLIES MAKE MORE DEMANDS

Greek Troops Must Be Moved to Southern Part of Country.

War Supplies Must Be Handled Over to the Entente.

London, Oct. 23.—The presentation by the Entente Allies of further demands on Greece, including the removal of Greek troops to the southern part of the country and the handing over of Greek war supplies, is reported by Reuter's Athens correspondent.

The Athens despatch, which is dated Friday, says the demands were presented to King Constantine by the French military attaché. Greece is required to transfer the entire military force in Thessaly (in the rear of the allied forces in Macedonia) to the Morea (the peninsula forming the southern extremity of Greece). Delivery to the allies of war materials destined for the Thessalian forces is also required. Other demands were made, the nature of which is unknown.

Boquets For Glad Graney

Henry P. Edwards a well-known Cleveland sporting writer, says of "Glad" Graney, the St. Thomas, Ont., player with the Cleveland Americans:—

"Glad" Graney of the Indians is setting an example that other big league players could follow with profit. Graney, although married and close to thirty years of age, intends to start the study of medicine. He intended to enter the University of Chicago or Ohio State, but discovered he must be better versed in Latin before he could enter either institution. When he at all ceased by such an edict? I should say not. He merely entered Central High School in Cleveland and has gone in to acquire all the Latin he can during the next few months. He is a ball player as you will, but what you find a man in any calling who does anything like that for the purpose of satisfying a greater ambition when he already is assured of a splendid living?"

Mary B. Spencer has won in a Chicago law school the highest class honors.

APPLE GROWING IN NOVA SCOTIA

THERE is no part of Canada where apple production is more successfully carried on than in the Annapolis Valley of Nova Scotia. The principal reason for this, apart from the fact that soil and climatic conditions are favourable, is that practically all of the large commercial orchards are situated in a continuous and closely connected chain. "The Valley" is approximately 80 miles in length, with an average width of 9 miles. There are about 40 shipping stations in that area, all being on the main line of the Dominion Atlantic Railway with its terminus at Halifax. Consequently the facilities for shipping and for export are perfect.

There is one other reason for the success with which fruit growing is carried on in Nova Scotia, and that is the systematic manner in which the fruit is marketed. Over one-half of the entire apple crop is packed and marketed co-operatively. Each particular section of the Annapolis Valley has its own co-operative association and all these subsidiary companies are responsible to one main selling association, the United Fruit Companies. All of the fruit marketed by this organization is uniformly packed in accordance with specific grading rules and marketed under the brand of the central selling body. The details concerning the operating methods of the United Fruit Companies (too lengthy to be outlined here) are well worth careful study. Their headquarters are at Berwick, which is the principal apple shipping station.

By far the greater portion of Nova Scotian apples is exported to Great Britain, the principal market being London. In the year 1911, which was a record season, almost 2,000,000 barrels of apples were marketed. At that time Nova Scotian fruit was introduced in the Prairie Provinces. There is every indication that shipments to those markets will be increased, inasmuch as the Gravenstein apple, for which Nova Scotia is famous, matures at a time when apples are in great demand in the Canadian West. A growing trade is also being developed with South America and South Africa, corresponding geographically to the trade in apples between British Columbia and Australia.

It is rather interesting to note that the apple barrel used in Nova Scotia contains only 96 quarts, as compared with the 112 quart barrel of Ontario. The Canadian Government regulations call for a minimum size of 96 quarts and Nova Scotia has adopted that minimum. The difference in the size of the two barrels must therefore be always taken into consideration when comparing the prices of Ontario and Nova Scotia apples in any particular market.

It is impossible to single out any variety of apple which is most successfully grown in Nova Scotia. Several varieties succeed equally well. Undoubtedly the province is most famous for the Gravenstein, because that variety is grown more extensively in the Annapolis Valley than in any other part of Canada. About 15 per cent of the apples marketed in Nova Scotia are Gravenstein. It is a tender, early fall apple, usually harvested between September 10th and 25th, and should be consumed under ordinary conditions by the end of October. If stored in a suitable cellar it will keep in prime condition until Christmas.

The demand for the Gravenstein apple is increasing. Unfortunately very few new Gravenstein orchards are being planted to replace the old ones which are rapidly dying out. No movement could be undertaken which would be worthy of wider encouragement than the extension and development of Gravenstein orchards.

The apple crop in Nova Scotia, this year will be small. Probably not more than 600,000 barrels will be marketed. The short crop is due to unfavorable weather and to a very heavy June "drop." The quality is expected to be excellent.
