PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

GENTLIMME:—It is a pleasure as well as a duty to welcome you to thus our sixth annual meeting, and to give you a heaty outline of the year's precedings, and to discuss with you the general situation, in the hope that it will assist us to guiding our faiture business along the most professive lines.

it will assist us to guiding our future bininess along the most professive lines.

The great wer, with its waste of human life and capital, is still to progress. The most critimstic of whope that a victorious conclusion can use now be far distant. As apple growers, with trom fifty to ninety per cent. of our capital in apple orchard, we have found it more difficult than the stockman or grain growers sist in the great conflict. In most cases the greater portion of our land is in apple orchard. This must be cared for and protected even if we know that the product will be marked at a loss, for we know that one year's neglect may spoil the crop for the next two years. Land covered with orchard is of course usualitable for other crops. Our equiphical of mechinery, as well as the training of our help, is along the line of growing and marketing apples, and it is therefore impossible for us to grow field crops, nuch as wheat and other grains, to the extent and with the auccess that we desire at the present time. In spite of these handions, there is no doubt that our ments.

When I say that our members caring for their correction as we usual, I mean just that. It is that there has been a most unusual, I mean just that. It is that there has been a most unusual apple seeb has been fund. Our we been, hearing the call for more optimizes, hearing the call for more optimizes, hears, etc., have each themselves to plant these sump. I have watched the weather and condition of their apple trees, with the power sprayer and sping material ready, for use, planted field crops so long as weather continued day each fine we had this year experienced a mai season, there is no doubt that the quantity of spraying usual used among members would heen normal. The point that I we impress upon you here is that decrease in the smount of spraying usual used among members would heen normal. The point that I we impress upon you here is that decrease in the smount of spraying and and good judgment on the part our members promises to result their having storing apples but the largest crop of products that they have ever had, this way their financial position.

Men Nineteen and Twenty Years of Age.

It has some to the attention of the Government that there is a widespread impression that young men of nineteen years, and those who became twenty since October 13, 1917, as well as those who may become nineteen from time to time and who have been or will be called upon to register under the Military Service Act, are to be immediately called to the colours.

This impression is quite incorrect. No date has yet been fixed for calling upon such men to so report for duty, nor has the question been brought before the Cabinet for decision. In view of the need of labour on the furm, it is most over, although of course the Government's action must be determined primarily by the military situation.

There is no further obligation incumment upon young men of the ages above mentioned who have registered or who do so hereafter, until they receive notice from the Registrars.

Harvest Leave.

Harvest Leave.

Some enquiries have been received as to the possibility of granting harvest leave to such troops as may be in the country at that time. No definite assurance can be given on this point as advantage must be taken of ships as they become available. On the other hand, harvest leave will be given if at all possible.

Leave of Absence on Grounds of Extreme Hardship.

Leave of Absence on Grounds of Extreme Hardship.

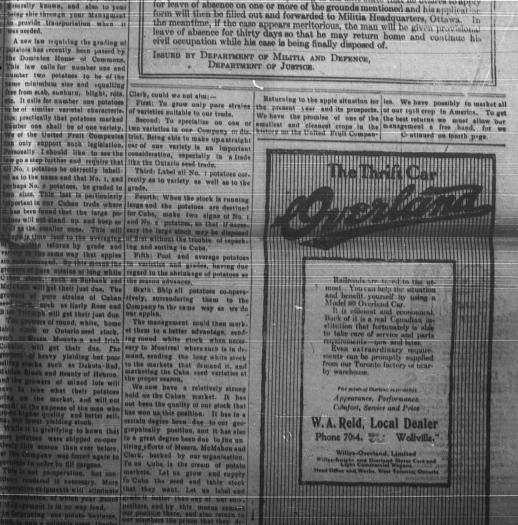

It is desired that the Regulations respecting leave of absence in cases of hardship should be widely known and fully understood. Such leave will be granted in two cases:—(a) where extreme hardship arises by reason of the fact that the man concerned is either the only son capable of carning a livelihood, of a father killed or disabled on service or presently in service overseas, or in training for such service, or under treatment after returning from overseas; or the only remaining of two or more brothers capable of carning a livelihood (the other brothers having been killed or disabled on service, or being presently separate establishments and having a child or children not to be counted in determining the fact that the man is the "only" remaining son or brother; (b) where extreme hardship arises by reason of exceptional circumstances such as the fact that the man concerned is the sole support of a widowed mother, an invalid father or other helpless dependents.

It is to be noted that in all these cases the governing factor is not hardship, loss or suffering to the individual concerned, but to others, that is, members of his family or those depending upon him.

Procedure to obtain leave of absence.

A simple system for dealing with these cases has been adopted. Forms of application have been supplied to every Depot Battalion and an office: of each hattalion has been detailed whose duty it is to give them immediate attention. The man concerned should on reporting to his unit state that he desires to apply for leave of absence on one or more of the grounds mentioned and his application form will then be filled out and forwarded to Militia Headquarters, Ottawa. In the meantime, if the case appears meritorious, the man will be given proxisional leave of absence for thirty days so that he may return home and continue his civil occupation while his case is being finally disposed of.

Rev. Mr. Armitage's
Farwell.

A good-sized congregation gathered at the Methonist church last Sunday evening to bid farewell to the pastor. Rev. Mr. Armitage, who left this week to take up his duties at Windsor. The service took the form of a memorial to the boys of the congregation whe have given their lives for their king and country. Mr. Armitage gave a splendid address, dealing with the work being done by our gallant boys over there. He paid high tribute to their courage and manhood. At the close of his a dress he unveiled an Honor Roll to the memory of the twenty-six boys from the Wolfwile congregation and the two from Greenwich who have donned the khaki. Of these, seven have already made the supreme sacrifice. Their names are William Elderkin, Frid Sieep, Walter Lynch, John Brown, Carl Woodman, Clyde Manning and Robert Spicer. 'Greater love hat hno man than this, that a man lay down his lite for his friends.'

Rev. Mr. Albiliage closed with a read of the pastor of the congression his life for his triends."

Nev. Mr. Afhilage closed with brief farewell. He spoke in terrms

Peace-Talkers.

A very prominent Canadian ecclesi-astic gave forth to his people, some days ago, a deliverance in which he dwelt sombrely on the war, on the mowing down of the flower of our youth, on the crushing of the spirit of our wives and mothers, on the long struggle still before us, and on the waste of our material resources. There was not one cheerful or encouraging word in the whole message. This was one of the favorite innes of attack by the defeatist press upon the morale of one of the favorite lines of attack by the defeatist press upon the morale of the French army. The outstanding example of it was the campaign for peace conducted by the Bonnet Rouge, for whose treasonous influence seven men are now on trial in Paris, and others are being sought. This newspaper, which had a mysteriously large unpaid circulation in the army, made an enormous prefered. large unpaid circulation in the army, made an enotmous pretence of patriotism. When its articles played up French reverses and losses and hard ships, loyal men thought 'the writers mintaken, but probably sincere and — 'every man has a right to hig own opinion.' But they were not sincere. They were in the pay of Germany all the time, and under the direction of Calliaux. A German banker named Marx supplied the funds, of which the Bonnet Rouge got more than $200,000. The editor of the paper escaped court-martial by snielde. The Americaus are contending with this same subtle propaganda, and it is to be hoped that there will not be anout break of it here. Any paper that talks of peace just now should have its mothers and its accounts cleased scanned. of peace just now should have its tives and its accounts closely scan

'The Girl That Doesn't Know!

"Ignorance of self has caused more sorrow than all the wars of history."—The Rev. Dr. Adams, of St. An-rew's church, New York.

The strongest spoken sermon or editorial could never, bring home this lesson with the force and conviction that this screen-play does. The "Girl that Does Not Know" makes an epoch in the dissemination of knowledge, particularly knowledge that leads to moral and social uplift. Every one, old and young, should see this production.
