General Villa Has Refused To Be "Dragged" Into War

Head of Rebel Military Forces Not Consulted in Drafting of Carranza Note, and Says He Will Not Fight Against United States.

Canadian Press Despatch.

EL PASO, Tex., April 23.—Gen. Francisco Villa, head of the rebel military forces, informed Geo. C. Carothers, special agent of the state department, that he will decline to be dragged into a war with the United States by anybody.

The Canadian Menace, published at Aurora, Ont., has been granted interim mailing privileges by the postmaster-general at Ottawa. Since the Hon. Mr. Pelletier stated, in the house of commons, that this Protestant publication had been refused mailing privileges, the postoffice department has ed many indignant letters, petitions and strongly-worded resolutions from all sorts of Protestant associations. Members of parliament have been actively engaged during the past few weeks in the interests of The Menace, and its being refused privileges, enjoyed by others, has proved a lively topic for debate in the corridors. Roman Catholic opposition to the paper has also been strong. "The postoffice department had no legal grounds for refusing us mailing privileges. Its opposition was unreasonable and unwarranted from the first," said the editor, Mr. H. M. Wodson, to The World. "Our paper will maintain a high standard of journalism, and will breathe a vigorous Protestanism. WASHINGTON, April 23.—Should the United States government decide on the invasion in force of Mexico army officers here are satisfied that the route selected by Gen. Scott 67 years ago will again be followed by the expeditionary force. This means that Vera Cruz will be the base and that the advance to Mexico City will be made along the line of the Interoceanic railway of the national railway system. It can be pointed out right here that this railroad will offer little help to the invaders, for it is narrow gauge, ancient, and with a rolling stock scarcely sufficient to supply transportation for half a dozen strong units. Moreover, in the event of hostilities, ten Mexicans with dynamite or other explosive could do

Following the precedent set in the Boer war by Jack Hindon, Theron and other train-wreckers of that lik, the defenders by blowing up culverts and bridges over ravines could completely demoralize traffic and stay the onward march of the United States troops.

It is generally accepted that a march to Mexico City from Vera Cruz means guerilla warfare for every mile of the three hundred between the two points.

Only trails made by hundreds of years of mule trains over the old military road can be followed, and that means a constant harassing by sharpshooters in the mountains.

No troops, not hardened to the climate and altitude, could accomplish the fourney unencumbered. Weighed down by their field equipment it would be a physical impossibility for them to the fourney unencumbered. Weighed down by their field equipment it would be a physical impossibility for them to proceed at a fast rate. A hard day's march would be reckoned at a few miles. Added to this, every foot of the way would have to be carefully searched and secured by advance and flank guards before the main body could advance in safety. As in other mountainous campaigns, a few determined sharpshooters, well consumanded and cleverly posted, could hold up the passage of an army corps for a considerable time.

Have No Mountain Guns.

Have No Mountain Guns. The transport of artillery, provided the railway is destroyed, would be attended with extreme difficulty. Unlike the British army, the United States has no mountain guns—the familiar "screw guns" that are carried in parts on the backs of sure-footed, attendary males, and which always play sturdy mules, and which always play such an important part in Indian frontier warfare. Along some portions of the road to the capital city, no field gun could possibly be dragged by horses, and the men would have to harness themselves to drag ropes and haul the cannon up cliff edges in this

If it is possible to save either the Interoceanic or the Mexican railway the problem would be easier. The former road, which is standard gauge and modern, is often described as the "scenic route of Mexico" and the name will at once suggest its disadvantages from a soldier's point of

Up in the Clouds. Where it is not crossing rivers five hundred feet below track level it is clinging to the side of a bluff or burfowing thru it. Its beginning is in a tropical climate, but before it has proceeded far from the coast it is crawling close to the sky line; then up and down, and thru narrow passes, until it reaches the central Mexican plateau. About 26 miles outside of Vera Cruz the road crosses the Rio Jampa on a bridge 400 feet long, which would be probably blown up immediately the advance commenced. After passing over the bridge the line shoots along the side of a deep gorge, thru which the river rushes. Hereabouts the country is broken with hills and valleys. Mule Pass, next on the line,

One of the great bridges on the Interoceanic system is the National bridge close to Jalapa, which is built for vehicular as well as railroad traffic. In 1847 the United States troops had a hard fight for this viaduct before It was captured, and there is little doubt

Day of Great Tension.

These were the outstanding developments which came in dramatic sequence thruout a day of extreme tension. The national capital was nervous with excitement while the diplomatic relations of the Huerta Government and the United States were being finally severed and the army and navy continued to put themselves on a war basis. Revelation of the purposes of Car-ranza and Huerta are being awaited before a complete military campaign is developed. The United States intends to take no offensive steps, for the present preferring to hold Vera Cruz until the situation in Mexico City and elsewhere in the southern re-

There were frequent conferences be-tween President Wilson and Secretaries Bryan, Garrison, Daniels, Mc-Adoo and Lane during the day. To-night Secretary McAdoo and the other secretaries were at the White House discussing formal orders to customs officials to hold up shipments of arms, which eventuated later in a formal announcement of the embargo being re-

Special to The Toronto World.

NEW YORK, April 23.—W. Morgan Shuster, a recognized authority upon Mexico and her relations to the United States has intervened in Mexico is detailed in the current Century as follows:

On Feb. 18, 1913, two Mexican generals, Elanquet and Huerta, executed a coup d'etat, arrested Madero and Vice-President Suarez, forced them to the result. He holds that peace would have been promptly restored had the several interested nations combined to throw a force between the rival armies and give the nation a breathing time in which to elect a president and establish representative government. The foreign troops could have remained until the government would be strong enough to put down further rebellion.

War Between Two Peoples.

He states: "The assumption of the task by the United States alone means war between the Mexican and the American peoples. On the moral and physical effects of such an unholy struggle, and on its outcome, there is no need to dilate. Suffice it to indicate that we should not be fighting to kill Huerta and his clique of congenial power-tasters, but thousands of ignorant and blameless peons, Indians and other Mexican citizens, who would be found bearing a gun in Huerta's or other ranks, either thru misguided pationtism, because above them would fly their country's flag,or thru being presed into military service under pain of death.

"For fear of the vengeance of his own people, no rebel leader or even bandit chief in Mexico would dare ally his men with United States troops, and a war entered into with the best and highest motives would speedily lapse into a long-drawn-out guerilla struggle, with the usual degenerating effect on both sides engaged.

"Acting alone in Mexico, the American nation will only soil its hands in a useless, aimless, inglorious struggle with a weaker, if misguided, people. Whatever the result, the American people would leave a heritage of hatred to the generation to come."

den. Victoriano Huerta became the centre of obloquy. Rightly or wrongly, he and his clique, who were in military control of Mexico City, were held responsible for the death, without pretence of trial, of the men under whose orders he, only a few days before, had been actively engaged in shooting down his own countrymen.

Repulsive Tales.

"The policy of cowardly assassination soon extended to others connected with the late President Madero. Since then each month has had its repulsive tale of murder, rapine, arson and savagery. Each elapsed month has taken its toll of the growing irritation, and, under the surface, official cynicism on the part of other nations whose subjects and their properties in Mexico, are suffering or in jeopardy. Each month has brought fresh discouragement to those interested in the prevention of human misery, and, last of all, the insolent attitude of Huerta towards the United States.

That the United States has a well-recognized predominant political interest in Mexico's condition and future is unquestioned thruout the world. This is in addition to the tangulate interest which she shares with a number of other nations by virtue of her and their citizens in Mexico being subject to the loss and danger of their lives and property.

"The predominant political interest of the United States may be termed that of strategy and propinquity. The Panama Canal and coterminous frontiers along the Rio Grande sufficiently explain this special relationship, and no statesman in Europe or elsewhere has questioned it."

ram of Shaksperean songs, illustrated by living pictures, was presented by the Heliconian Society.

The Morris dance, from Henry VIII., played by the orchestra, was followed by an introductory address, interpersed with readings, by Dr. Pelham Edgar. "Oh, Mistress Mine, Where Art Thou Roaming," sung by Madame innis-Taylor, was illustrated by a beautiful: tableau, in which Miss Pamphylon and Mr. Beaupre were the figures of the "living picture." Miss Mutical Bruce sang "She Never Told Her Love," from Twelfth Night. This was llustrated by Miss Barr. Mr. G. Jones and Mr. Agar Adamson. In all there were 18 songs with tableaux, and among the most attractive were "Twas a Lover and His Lass," sung by Mrs. Denison-Dana and filustrated by Miss Marjorie Dyas and Mr. Agar Adamson, and "Under the Greenwood Tree," sung by Mrs. Dilworth, illustrated by Miss Margaret Bell, Miss Carter and Mr. Agar Adamson. The selection, "I Know a Bank Where the Wild Thyme Grows," by Mrs. Denison-Dana, with tableau by Miss Morley, was one of the exquisite offerings.

Others taking part were: Mrs. Mac-

Others taking part were: Mrs. Mac kelcan, who sang "Who is Sylvia?" with fine effect; Miss Hicks-Lyne, "St. "Where the Bee Sucks There Suck I," both numbers being given with good voice and interpretation.

Others who took part in the tableau were: Miss Barr, Mr. G. Jones. Miss Mavor, Miss Carter, Mr. Fergus Kyle, Mr. Hudd, Mr. Macdonald, Miss Sneath, Miss Stark, Miss Bruce, Miss Hyslop, Miss Mason, Mrs. H. M. Blight was a delightful accompanist.

At the close a magnificent sheaf of roses was presented to Mrs. Agar Adamson, president of the Helicontans, under whose supervision the program had been carried out.

THE BEST MAN

Grace Livingston Hill Lutz has the happy faculty of causing the delightful unexpected to happen at the psychological moment, and of leading her reader thru a breathless chase after adventure until he has reached a truly satisfying climax—only to discover the development of a still more thrilling situation fairly coaxing further Her latest achievement. "The Best man," (J. B. Lippincott Company, Philadelphia and London) is a story hinged on the portrayal of life in the secret service, enhanced by "rapid fire" sketches of adventure and action -the work of real genius, practical knowledge and a live imagination. The brimful of fascinating detail and thrilling—not to mention rather difficult—situations. There is a possible hero—decidedly human—and tangible, there is a most adorable heroine, there is a perfectly terrible villain-and several minor who lend sufficient spice and life to suit the wildest fanatic; there are two perfectly good fairies, one male, one female, and there is a huge, interesting, white representative of the canine world—what more could be desired?

The secret service man must ever place duty first, and to enjoy the pri-vilege of noting his conflicting emotions when love and duty clash is to study human nature and its eccentricities from an exceptionally interesting viewpoint.

"A CELEBRATED CASE."

During the remainder of this week the Strand Theatre is presenting a remarkable photo play, founded on the famous French drama, known as "A Celebrated Case." It presents a thrilling and romantic story revolving round the Battle of Fontenoy, and is full of striking and picturesque incidents. The scene of the battle is given with vivid accuracy, but perhaps most impressive and pathetic is the interior of the gallery where the innocent soldier hero is toiling his life away for a crime of which another is guilty. But more eggs.

The government bulletin also recommends packing eggs in oats and storing them in a cool basement or spring house, but it is suggested that each egg be dipped in warm or melted vaseline before it is put into the grain. The coating of vaseline makes the egg shell air tight, so there is no loss of weight by evaporation. Salt is another medium eggs are packed in successfully.

Always pack eggs with their pointed end down in the grain, or sait, but not touching the bottom of the box, or crock, or one another. There should be an inch of oats between each layer.

When the box is filled place a heavy layer of oats in the top and fasten the lid securely. Mark the date of packing on box. About twice a week carefully turn the box over; this keeps the eggs from settling and helps preserve them. in the end the mystery is solved and justice done.

HOW TO TAKE OFF EXCESSIVE FAT FROM THE PLACES WHERE IT SHOWS.

"Is there anything that will really reduce weight? My heps and abdomen have grown so fleshy that I feel and look far older than I really am. There are certainly others like myself who know the horror of being fat, and to whether there is any hope for get-ting rid of it."—R. K.

Until recently we knew nothing that could be relied upon for reducing superfluous flesh, but we lately learned that a specialist in herboristeric had found a means which many of our readers declare to be most astonishing in its effects. One lady who used it lost 14 pounds of fat from her hips and abdomen in only two weeks' time. so this shows what it will do. The recipe is extremely simple, and you can try it by getting from any good druggist one dram of quassia chips and three ounces of aremone. Take them home and after putting the cuassia chips in a nan pour over them quassia chips in a pan, pour over then a teacupful of boiling water. When it has stood for about a minute, strain through a cloth and add the aremone Then pour the mixture into a bottle and apply it freely every night and morning with your hands for several minutes, using a circular movement By taking your weight and measurements each week you can keep track of the exact progress you are making, and no one need ever know how you and no one need ever know how you reduced your flesh unless you care to tell. Phoning Hennessy Drug Store, 117 Yonge street; the Liggett's Drug Store, 106 Yonge street and 224 Yonge steet, and Moore's, Limited, 380 Yonge street, we learn that all these druggets are filling this prescription free gists are filling this prescription frequently, and that it can be obtained from them at any time.

Some Soils and Some Fertilizers.

Continuing our talk on fertilizers, et me remind you that there are no rtilizers like sun and air. Where the soil is heavy moist, and therefore inclined to be sour, proper draining has got to be managed in some way or other. Small gardeners cannot run drains beneath the soil in the wholesale manner possible to farmers owning large tracts of such land. But what these people can do (and with a most satisfactory result (and with a most satisfactory result too) is to lighten that same sour soil by digging up and throwing where the sun and rain and air can play upon it for ten days or more, before seeding and bed making is determined upon. Just try a good airing, and you will be surprised.

And before throwing that earth back in its original spot, be sure to under-lay it as thickly as possible with all the debris in the shape of old branche and stones, and all the loose wood ashes you can beg, borrow or (but get hold of it some way), and soon from the kitchen pipes, and saved grass cuttings.

All this foreign material placed there feet or more below your heavy soil, will provide a fair drainage. At any rate, it will serve to lift the thrown-back, well-aired soil, a foot or so higher than it was before, which means often a total change in the character of that soil.

And don't be afraid of the work. It And don't be atraid of the work. It sounds like a lot of work. Well, so it is. But so is all gardening. And, the main thing is to master that unfertile soil. And you will do it sooner or later. It cannot be managed in on season, altho you will be surprised at the change one season will show.

It pays to buy a load of yellow sand and have a carter draw it in for you and that done, you will be surprise. and have a carter draw it in for you And that done, you will be surprise how little is in one load. But it al

REMARKABLE SALE CONCLUDED.

Yesterday C. M. Henderson & Co concluded a very successful sale of unusual importance, in their art galleries, extending over a period of three days. In consequence of the highly artistic furniture and other attractions. many of the most prominent citizens and collectors attended, and representatives were also present from London, Hamilton, Ottawa, Montreal and other large Canadian centres. Great interest was shown when the magnificent dining and billiard-room furniture, originally belonging to the Marquis de Layde, was reached, and it was ultimately knocked down at $1950. The very fine specimens of Sevres ware brought unusually low prices, and other rare and valuable bargains were obtained. This, Mr. Henderson explained in an interview after the sale, was due, undoubtedly, to the prevailing money stringency. The auctioneers were very highly compliment ed on the manner in which the goods were displayed in their great rooms and on the tasteful arrangement, which is indeed peculiar to this old-establish-

RACHEL R. TODD & TWISTED STALK

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever." Quite ten days ago we discovered twisted stalk in its moist temple of under green, climbing up the side of a wooded slope to the northwest of the panions, twin members of the same amily, the true and the false Solofamily, the true and the false Solomon's seals. No glimpse of the palegreen twin bells of the one, or the fluffy creamy plume of blossoms of the other. But twisted stalk was too busy to notice their absence. Twisted stalk was too intent on her own immediate business, sending out from her anglystem, just behind each pointed leaf, one deep pink blossom after another. Next week, those pretty swinging solitary bells will be deepest rich, red honey-dripping, and brilliantly beautiful in contrast with the shining deep green of the parallel-veined leaves.

E have all been having boiled eggs for breakfast for so long that it is a considerable joit to be told that we are unscientific and altogether all. Eggs are not boiled, they are esft cooked, or hard cooked, to be exact in the matter. 'A boiled egg:' says Mrs. A. B. Williams, domestic science teacher, 'is an impossibility: the water boils and the egg cooks. When eggs are cooked in rapidly boiling water they become indigestible. The albert because in rapidly so that the egg tastes like rubber instead of being tender and delicate."

They just had an egg day in Mrs. Williams' school, and six hundred and sixty-two and one-half dozen fresh eggs were used by five thousand five hundred and twenty-five girls who are studying cooking there.

One of the girls note books says: "To soft cook an egg in the shell, place it in a vessel of rapidly boiling water; remove the water from the heat and let the egg remain in it six or seven minutes. When opened, an egg cooked by this method, will be of jelly-like consistency and of delicious tasts. It is a vessel of rapidly boiling water; remove the water from the heat and cooked eggs should be subjected to a temperature of 180 degrees for fifty minutes. The vessel containing them should be near heat but not over it."

Evidently properly cooked hard boiled, or, that is, "hard cooked" eggs are greadily as the bees and more than first appears when he wrote: "There is always a best way of deling everything, if it be but to boil an egg."

Hens went on the worst strike in history this past winter; one poultryman had nine hundred hens and for two weeks in December collected but five eggs daily. This month Biddy is making up for lost time and eggs are plentiful and lower in price than they will be again until next spring.

As early spring eggs have the best keeping qualities of any, why not put down a few dozen for next November use, and beat the cold storage men?

John T. Timmins is a well-known poultryman, who claims that clean, the contract of the preference, and the eggs on to damage the later study.

The comparison of these three cannot but be most interesting to everyone. Do not forget that constant alertness both of the mind and eye enables one to acquire a wonderfully accurate sense of immediate observation. The best of the matter is, that one acquires this accuracy almost incidentally, which, after all, is the best way of acquiring knowledge, since is thus becomes a part of one's mind.

No study tends so twards this as accurate observation as the stoudy of botany.

Scarlet Fever.

Scariet fever is one of the most dangerous of the contagious diseases. The child must be kept in bed from the first sign of the disease until the skin has all peeled off. Vomiting or convulsions may be the first symptoms. The throat is sore and is very red and swollen; the tongue has little raised dots of red on it; the glands in the neck swell and become very tender and the head aches. The skin feels hot and within 24 or 36 hours the rash appears. It is seen first on the chest and abdomen in very fine, bright red dots. It spreads quickly until it covers the entire body from head to foot, until the whole skin presents a scarlet appearance, with the first dots showing thru. showing thru.

After the rash has reached its height the fever slowly goes down and in a week should have entirely disappeared. The skin begins to peel, and this continues for three weeks, sometimes until six weeks.

The palms of the hands, soles of the feet, the fingers and toes peel ex-tensively; and by means of this peel-ed-off skin the disease may be carried to others. Infection is liable to remain in the clothes of the patient, and in the walls and furnishings of the room. Until after the fever has left the Until after the fever has left the child must be kept on a milk diet. If the patient is a bottle-fed baby, dilute the milk to one-half strength. As the fever goes down, older children may have broths, cereals, junket, milk toast, but nothing heavier for three or four weeks. four weeks.

SUMMER COSTUMES

All That is Gorgeous and Dazzling in Red, Blue or Yellow Will Be Popular.

The new embroideries to be used in fashioning the summer dance frocks and garden party costumes are nothing less than enchanting. Chiffons of sherest texture are embroidered in faint traceries of exquisite delicacy exploiting rose designs, peacock decorations and charming garland effects. Embroidered silk mulls are very fash-toneble and combine with contrasting ionable and combine with contrasting silks delightfully. Many crepes ex-ploit successfully embroidered effects into which are introduced daring color

Gold and copper are much in vogue and blues of every conceivable hue are being displayed on the most exclusive models. With the approach of summer color will take on a new lease of hues —all that is gorgeous and dazzling in red, blue or yellow will be most favored, and combination will be daring. On white serges, silks and crepes heavy brocades of velvet and silk will be employed as trimming—collars, cuffs, revers and Roman girdles being fashioned in these gorgeous fabrics.

The charm of the filmy materials used for the summer gowns will be displayed in the serpentine or snake skirt-in which the material wreaths the figure in a spiral from waist to hem. Ruffle flounces substituted on a peg-top skirt produce the desired of fect and permit the introduction of the supreme taffeta.

A large number of summer chap have the brim faced under with dainty Dresden silk, and the poke bonnet al-lows the becoming chin ties of black velvet.

EARLY WORK ON LAND

Unless all signs fail and the reports of correspondents are entirely unreliable, seeding conditions this spring are exceptionally favorable in the Saskaton district. From the north, south, east and west comes the same assurance to that city of a "lot of moisture and an early etart on the land." At a number of points the acreage in crop will show an increase over last year and several correspondents refer to the tendency apparent in their district towards mixed farming. An early start in seeding always desirable with a short growing season, and 1914, whatever else it had in store for the farmens, is giving them a good sendoff to the season's work.

ILLIE LEGHORN was chasing grasshoppers one afternoon, when he came to the edge of the duck pond. The ducks were swimming around, enjoying themselves, and at last Dickle Duck came to the bank and said to Willie: "I am tired of swimming. I wish I had something to do."

"Did you ever try to fly?" asked Willie. "No, I don't think I ever did," replied Dickie, thoughtfully.

"Come on, then, and I will teach you to fly," said Willie Leghorn. "I don't think I should like to fly," said Dickie Duck. "I belong on the ground or in the water." "Oh! come on!" Willie urged. Dickie and Willie went up the bank until they came to a tree that was bent so that Willie could walk up it. Dickie waddled up the tree, looking down at the ground every little self as long as they lived, if they once while. When they reached a limb of the tree Willie flew to the ground and imagined themselves in love with him

"Go ahead, now, fly down!" And with that Dickie Duck jumped off the limb and hit the ground with a big "Bang!"

He lay there for a long time, for he was stunned. Finally he woke up, "I don't think that was a very nice thing for Willie Leghorn to do," he but Willie had gone.

STEAM RESERVE. The Telegram: Why should 95 per centr of the consumers of electricity pay double the prices they need pay in order that 5 per cent. of the consumers of electricity may have a guarantee of continuity created by a steam reserve?

This is one of those questions like "When did you leave off beating your wife?" But it takes more than a yes or no answer to settle it satisfactorily. There won't be double rates for anyone, but lower rates. The object of the Hydro Commission is to get the greatest possible number of consumers for its power. Consumers cannot be had who need an assurance of con-assurance cannot be given. The Telegram, it is stated by that newspaper, "depends on the hydro for ing their principles, the supply, and has sufficient steam power to keep the presses moving in case of a breakdown in the hydro."

This is the whole case for steam reserve. It is much cheaper for the comprinciple has been admitted in the or destroying a picture. Mr. Asquith statement that if any steam reserve were necessary the provincial commission would instal it. Toronto customers require a continuous service guaranteed to them, which is not perhaps required anywhere else to the same degree among the power union of municipalities. If the other municipalities do not require it, and Toronto does, it would seem unfair to eswhere but in Toronto.

That it is needed in Toronto is clear from the fact that the Toronto Electric Light Company gains and retains 75 per cent. of the power business of the city because it has the guarantee of a steam reserve. Nor does it charge double rates, but has so far successfully met the hydro competition.

It is deplorable to friends of the cut rates in two. THE "PLAYBOY" AGAIN.

Editor World: To the curious variety of strictures published in the Toronto papers upon those who showed disapproval of the "Playboy" in the Princess Theatre at the opening performance, no answer was made, while the players were filling the balance of their engagement. It was apprehended as unfair to say anything generally prejudicial of Irish men and women far from home, and possibly not overburdened with the opulence of stage folk playing to more numerous classes of play-lovers. Besides it was taken for granted that the impulse of the critics had a leaven of generous feeling towards the Irish players. And that was something to appreciate, But it might, without detriment to anyone, perhaps have been stated as a fact that local Irishmen who consented to act as a committee

TRIBUTE TO DR. HOYLES

Old Student Emphasizes Development of Missionary Work in Canada.

A large audience attended commencement exercises at Wycliffe College last evening. Dr. Hoyles presided and Ven. Archdeacon Cody presented the diplomas to the graduates, fourteen in college, and there was also a balance in the bank to the good.

Good health and good honest work thruout the year on the part of the students was reported by Principal O Meara. In presenting the diplomas, Archdeacon Cody gave a brief summary of the individual work of the students. The first to receive his award was Mr. Abraham from Madras, India, who was returning to the mission field of his native land. Athletics are a feature of the college trophy cups in this subject being among the awards. The medal for oratory in public speaking was awarded to Mr. J. if. Barnes.

The first speaker of the evening was DUSTRY

Archdeacon Armitage, an old student of the college. He paid tribute to Dr. Hoyles as "a man in a thousand," and regretted the absence of Mr. S. H. Blake. He also recalled Edward Blake, whom he regarded as the greatest of Canadian intellects. The tremendous development of the missionary work was then dwelt upon, and advice given as to their future course advice given as to their future course to the graduates. to the graduates.

In his address to the young men about to leave their alma mater, the Bishop of Fredericton reminded them that, insead of being finished, they were but beginning; they were just matriculating into the college of life. Self-respect and a knowledge of their own individuality were the things necessary for their work. It was stew-ardship and not ownership that counted, he told his hearers, and they were to learn to say "I ought, I can, I will." Among those on the platform were President Falconer; the Bishops of Keewatin and Athabasca and the moderator of the Presbyterian Church.

WALTER KIRSCHBAUM RECITAL

Walter Kirschbaum was awarded a series of recals and ovations by a large and fashionable audience at the Canadian Academy of Music recital last night at Foresters' Hall, The selections contributed afforded a fascinating glimpse of the rich and comprehensive repertoire of the gifted artist. Most thin people eat from four to six pounds of good solid fat-making food every day and still do not increase in weight one ounce, while on the other hand many of the plump, chunky foiks eat very lightly and keep gaining all the time. It's all bosh to say that this is the nature of the individual, it isn't Nature's way at all. Thin folks stay thin because their rowers of assimilation are defective. powers of assimilation are defective. They just absorb enough of the food they eat to maintain life and a sembrance of health and strength. Stuffing help them. A dozen meals a day won't make them gain a single "stay there" pound. All the fat-producing elements of their food just stay in the intestines until they pass from the body at waste. What waste would need to be waste. body as waste. What such people need

LACROSSE PLAYERS WERE REINSTATED

Owen Sound Men Who Once Tried Out With Tecumsehs -Boxers Suspended.

At last night's meeting of the registration committee of the Ontario branch of the Amateur Athletic Union, John Hilts and Wm. Fletcher of Owen Sound were restored to good standing. They were lacrosse players who came down two years ago to try out with the Tecumsehs, but did not make good. Having filled the necessary declarations that they were not paid for their services, and having fulfilled the required abstention from sport for two years, their reinstatement was made official.

A number of boxers who took part in the unsanctioned wild-cat show at the Humber recently were placed on the suspended list. They were Aikenhead, Murton, Lawrence, Jones, Cates, Currie, Stewart, Campbell and McDonald, also one who appeared under the name of Bailey, but whose real name is yet to be ascertained.

An application for the reinstatement of W. G. Hyde was laid over for further information. If he is the lad who boxed professionally he is not elegible for rein-

No Training Expenses

The application of the Toronto Boxing Association for an allowance for the training expenses of the clubs in connection with the preparation of their boys for the coming Canadian championship tournament was discussed at a meeting of the committee and the T.B.A. representatives in the Amateur Athletic Union offices last night. The union committee decided not to alter the decision of a previous meeting that such grants could not be made, but a suggestion was made for the holding of a tournament in the interests of the local clubs, by which their stender funds might be augmented. It was the feeling of the committee that the proposal of the T.B.A. was not one that should be considered in commection with the championships of Canada, at which many clubs outside of this city. Mcf. be represented. The boxing clubs favored the proposed method of making the draw for the tournament by lot, each night just before the competition begins. Consequently, the boys will draw their opponents when they come to the Arena, and the pairing cannot be announced in the morning papers, as in the past. This plan, which is the one provided for in the rules of the Union, may bring clubmates together, but everybody favored it as being the fairest and least objectionable system.

"THE OVERCOAT SHOP"

Horse Show Fashions in London Tailored

Top Coats

Half the pleasure of going to such a society event as the Horse Show is in being correctly dressed.

The season says overcoats are in order for comfort, Just that discernment which all good dressers like to be credited with says that London-tailored styles are the most proper.

And that very fact should lead you right here to select your Top-Coat from the best selection of them we have ever had to offer you.

The Silk Hat being much in evidence as the head dress demands the Chesterfield as the Top-Coat.

But you're not bound to be so dressed up unless you've a mind to be, and you may wear the Derby or the Soft Hat and one of those swagger "Balmacaan" or "Connemara" Top-Coats and not be "out of it" in correctness.

FAIR HELEN WINS STAKE FOR FILLIES

McTaggart Lands Two Winners as Usual at Havre de Grace.

HAVRE DE GRACE TRACK, Mr., April 23.—Harry Payne Whitney's famous colors, light blue, brown cap, were much in evidence at Havre de Grace this afternoon. Fair Helen, sporting his silks easily captured the Lassie Stakes. The feature of the day, when Folderol, a handsome filly by Burgomaster, won the day's opener impressively. The Whitney string at this meeting is handled by Albert Simons, who will look after the thorobreds until the big bell tolls at Belmont Park next month, when Jimmie Rowe will assume charge. Republican the supposed cinch of the day was rather poorly handled by Burliname, and was defeated by Brynlimah, ridden by Messenger McTaggart.

FIRST RACE—Four furlongs:

The social evening for the reorganization of the Central Y.M.C.A. Chess Club on Wednesday evening was a pronounced success. Between forty and fifty players were on hand and the chess equipment, provided by the association, was much admired. Congratulatory speeches were made by Bishop Reeve, president of the Dominion Chess Association; P. J. Greyer, president of the Toronto Chess Club, W. Fint Jones, director of the Canadian Chess Correspondence Bureau; Rev. Mr. Dean; S. F. Shenatone, representing the University Chess Club, and Miss Emma Sims, a lady chess champion of Toronto, on behalf of the lady chess players. Messrs, Plunkett and Harvey provided an acceptable musical program of rousing songs. Mr. Hopkins, the secretary, made the visitors welcome, and promised the support of the association for chess in the future.

Early Stages of Development.

The Fort Fraser district is only in the first stages of development. There are a few farmers who have located here several years ago, and the Hudson Bay farm, at the old trading post, has been in existence for more than a hundred years. From the ploneer farmers reports and information can be had to prove conclusively that this district will, when developed, compare favorably, if not excelling, any of the most favored cattle and agricultural districts of the Pacific Coast. Barley ripens well, oats can always be depended on to yield from 65 to 75 bushels er acre, weighing 60 pounds to the bushel. Fall wheat and rye are grown successfully. Nearly all kinds of roots and vegetables grow to perfection.

Saltics glown in the Fort Fraser district are equal in size, flavor and appearance to any grown on the North American continent. In a few years the district will be known for its potato crop and other vegetables. Clover and alfalfa do fine in this district and whenever these crops have been cultivated, excellent results have been had.

CLEVELAND, April 23.—Cleveland, after losing eight straight games, finally wen one today when Mitchell held Chicago to six scattered hits, and Cleveland found Cleotte for ten safe drives, some of them for extra bases. The score was 4 to 1. Outside of Mitchell's pitching, the playing of Wood, a recruit in right field for Cleveland, was the feature of the game. His single and triple both counted in the run getting, and he made between the catches. Score:

Little Leafs Hard At Work Daily

It was routine work for the Canadian Leaguers at the Island yesterday, and Manager Lee hustled them thru, their paces at both practices. President McCaffery has promised to turn over First Baseman Schneider and Pitcher Schwab on Saturday, and with a couple of others that are to come from the big Leafs, the little fellows will have enough material to round out a strong team. Knotty Lee is trying to arrange a practice game for Saturday with one of the strong local clubs and if he is successful it will be the Toronto fans first chance to look over the Class C organization.

The Cardinals are weak before left-handers again this year. Miller Huggins has been unable to get his batting order strengthened so that the southpaws do not have an easy time of it.

It is rather surprising that a player of the calibre of Barbour, the White Sox recruit, who goes to the Denver club, can be let thru the lines this year to go to a class A league. The National League and the class AA leagues have to waive before he gets to the Western League.

community to be in a very satisfactory condition.

The receipts in the general account for 1913 were $51,400.69, while the disbursements total $44,530.66, the bank overdraft of December, 1912, of $7576.77, being reduced to one of $706.74 in December, 1913.

Taking into consideration 2 per cent. discounts on pre-payments and 5 per cent. additions on overdue payments, the total amount of taxes collected was $32.561.83. The value of the assets of the municipality at the close of the year amounted to $320,969.80, while the liabilities are exceeded by the assets by $10,127.67.

The accounts of the Water, Power and Light Commission are also satisfactory; the bank overdraft of the beginning of the year of $6725.40 being reduced to one of $340.79 at its close.

Receipts Increased.

In the electric light and power department, there are now some 350 consumers on the books, the total receipts being $10,127.71, an increase over 1912 of the source of the service of the partment of the books, the total receipts being $10,127.71, an increase over 1912 of the service of the service of the partment of the books, the total receipts being $10,127.71, an increase over 1912 of the service of the service of the partment of the books, the total receipts the proph at york Mills Hotel and the partment of the service of the service of the service of the partment of the partment

Receipts Increased.

In the electric light and power department, there are now some 350 consumers on the books, the total receipts being $10,127.71, an increase over 1912 of $4203.62. There is a gratifying increase in the receipts from the waterworks department, the amount in 1912 being $755.64, and in 1913 $2569.51, an increase of $1814.05.

Further increase is certain, as the system comes into more general use.

Work on the sewerage construction during 1913 was active, and on this account the sum of $92,773.10 has been paid. The total expenditure to the close of 1913 has been $195,191.97, leaving the bank account overdrawn to the extent of $42,536.21.

Sold at Disadvantage.

It is regretted that the sewerage debentures, to the amount of $70,000, sold during the year, had to be disposed of at a time of financial depression, causing a depreciation from the face value of over 10 per cent.

The sum of $24,918.95 was paid out on account of the new high school and furnishings.

The accounts of the public library board show a balance in the bank of $274.02.

The agricultural producers of the country, said Sir Wilfrid, could not raise enough to meet the needs of the consumers. The population in the cities was constantly on the increase, very few were going on the farms. But what inducements were offered which would make farming an attractive industry? "The policy of my party," declared Sir Wilfrid, amid applause, "is not a policy of protection, but one which has as its principle a customs tax for revenue purposes only."

In defending the free wheat policy of his party. Sir Wilfrid pointed out that altho Canada produced over 200,00,000 bushels of wheat, she only used 50,000,000 to Britain, thus leaving on her hands 100,000,000 bushels. Did not the country immediately to the south of us offer the best possible market for this over-production? We could also sell our flour there, he contended, as it was his belief that in many of the states, particularly in the east, Canadam millers could successfully compete with American producers. At present we fold flour in England at $4.70 per barrel, and the same flour brought in Canada $5.50 per barrel. There certainly wasn't much profit in that kind of exporting.

The leader of the opposition, said Mr. Foster, had misquoted the prices of Canadian flour in Liverpool. The price was not $4.70 as quoted by Sir Wilfrid, but on an average it was $6.08 per barrel, which was higher than the price in Montreal.

Sir Wilfrid interrupted to say that he believed his figures were correct.

Mr. Borden: But is the flour sold in Liverpool of the same high grade as that sold in Canada?

Sir Wilfrid: To the best of my belief it is." By this time, however, Mr. Foster had discovered that the price he quoted applied to a heavier barrel than did the one Sir Wilfrid read to the house. But in no way dismayed by his error, Mr. Foster pointed out that, while only the best grade of flour was used in Canada, the third best was the kind that sold in Liverpool at a price proportionately higher than the a price proportionately higher than the price received for the best grade here.

Continuing, Mr. Foster declared that Sir Wilfrid was prone to change his

OTTAWA, April 23 .- The business section of Bryson, Que., the county seat for Pontiac, was wiped out today by a conflagration, which starting in Goddands' Hotel at the end of Main street, early this morning, swept the entire street, destroying twenty-eight stores and dyellings and entailing a loss of $65,000.

Owing to the absence of any firefighting apparatus the residents were unable to stem the progress of the flames, which swept the whole street with the exception of the court house and a couple of other buildings.

Over thirty families have been rendered homeless, and tents and provisions are being rushed from Portage Du Fort, Campbell's Bay, Shawville to the stricken town. All telegraph and telephone wires were burned down and communication was completely cut off.

The report is divided under the three main heads of seed growing, seed testing and seed inspection, and these are again subdivided in such a manner as to render the report of great interest and value to seed growers and others interested in good and pure seed.

Referring to alfalfa—a crop of great and growing importance in Canada—the report says:

report says:

"Of the 353 samples of seed tested at Ottawa last season, probably not more than half a dozen were of Canadian origin, while more than one-third of the total number contained weed seeds which occur only in alfalfa produced in Europe. The remainder originated in the western and middle western states, most of them probably in Montana and Utah. Very sittle alfalfa seed is produced in Wisconsin and Minnesota, and practically none of it is to be had in Canada."

Canadian Press Despatch.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The pig iron industry in the United States is being operated at a loss of $1,000,000 a month, according to a report of John A. Penton of Cleveland, secretary of the American Pig Iron Association. The report was made to the general meeting of the association held here today. It further declared that the average loss on all pig iron sold by eighty-five per cent. of the pig iron manufacturers and merchants north of the Ohio River during February last was $1.15 per ton. Unfilled orders on the books of members of the association on March 1 amounted to 1,714,801 tons, the report says, and as a result of these conditions many furnaces have been shut down and plants are in the hands of receivers.

MARKED WEAKNESS IN MANY ISSUES

C. P. R. and Brazilian Are Leaders in the Down Grade.

OUTLOOK NOT BRIGHT

Canners, Barcelona, Mackay, Bread Are Among the Heavy Losers.

London was a seller of Brazilians yes-There was no explanation of this from the standpoint of earnings or recession of nearly two points was made on this market, putting the price danger.

five points was thought to have been altogether excessive but the price was again lower yesterday by over a point. Much of the liquidation of C.P.R. has come from Berlin, while the price collaps has undoubtedly loosened much stock carried by speculators in Montreal. Sir Thomas Shaughnessy has stated that the present dividend is not in jeopardy, but the markets are looking more at prices than dividends in this and other issues at present.

prices than dividends in this and other issues at present.

C.P.R. and Brazils in their action were not without effect on other listed issues Toronto Rails declined to 134½. Mackay to 80½, and some of the minor stocks would have shown marked declines had sales been forced.

Canners made another low at 43, Barcelona reacted to 26½, and Bread to 27. The market closed decidedly weak, and fearful of the outlook. If liquidation can be tempered to the market's absorptive abilities slow depreciation in prices is expected to follow, but an avalanche of offerings would produce a bad situation. Brazilians are regarded as the key to the action of the market as a whole.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Speculative operations were on a small scale today. The market received the same consistent support which has been accorded on recent days, and the shorts did not venture upon extensive operations. At the same time neither speculators nor investors were eager to buy stocks in view of the Mexican situation. The more serious aspect which the international crisis assumed caused some unsettlement of securities and o'stinct weakness in a few cases. The average loss, however, was small.

European markets, apparently, were more disturbed over the Mexican crisis than was the New York exchange, owing probably to the fact that Mexican securities are held abroad more heavily than here. Such heaviness as appeared in this market was due largely to European selling here. It was estimated that 30,000 shares were unloaded here for foreign account. Canadian racific and M. K. & T.

C. P. R.'s Weakness Had Depressing Effect on Entire Market.

MONTREAL. April 23.—Local stocks continued nervous and unsteady today, a late drive at C.P R at New York bringing the market to a heavy and uncertain close. Leading issues, with the exception of C.P.R., were on the whole far from satisfactory in their showing, and net changes were entirely on the side of losses. Power held tairly steady around 221, but C.P.R. broke periodically into new low ground for the year. Last sale of Power was at 221, or unchanged from the last sale of bown Wednesday and Tuesday, but closing quotations at 220% asked and 220% bid were shaded \(\frac{1}{2}\) Brazilian finished at 79, with a loss of only \(\frac{3}{2}\). Richelleu was very quiet and only \(\frac{1}{2}\) lower on the day. Iron fell \(\frac{3}{2}\), Toxtile \(\frac{1}{2}\), and Cement common, steady for a long time, yielded more easily today and fell one point to \(2\frac{1}{2}\).

This was not a bad showing in view of the continued pressure on C P.R. Opening \(\frac{1}{2}\) lower at 195 on weaker markets abroad with slight rallies this stock broke thru the former lower record for the movement to 194% and then rallied about a point before noon. During the luncheon recess the price improved to 196%, and the afternoon opening was 1954. Heavy selling set in just about the opening of the second session, and before it was completed new lows for the movement of 193% and 193% had been established. The close was at a rally of only a small fraction with a net loss on the day of 216.

PASSED DIVIDEND

LONDON. April 23.—All dividends on Mexican Railway Company loans were passed today. The first preference stock immediately slumped four points, going down to 95 and making an aggregate loss of 8 points today. Ordinary stock was 3½ points and second preference stock 4½ points lower than yesterday.

cents per share.

MONTREAL, April 23.—It is hinted on the street that the source of the present week's drive at Crown Reserve came in a solid block of selling orders from men'at the company's mines. This gossip would seem to substantiate the report that development on the main vein of Porcupine Crown at the 400-foot level has shown up badly, tho officials are hopeful of a return of better conditions at the 500-foot level.

In the midst of the present slump, however, there are many bulls on the local street who consider the stock extremely cheap at the present low levels. Mr. Samuel Cohen, the general manager, has given his definite assurance that "the company for the year to come will be able to earn its present dividend" (24 per cent).

RAINS REMOVE DROUTH DANGER

News West of Missouri River Had Bearish Effect on Wheat.

CHICAGO, April 23 .- Rains that put a to the danger of drouth in that part the country west of the Missouri er had a bearish effect today on the led 14c to 14c under last night. Corn shed a shade off to %c up, oats down to %c and provisions at 21/2c to 15c soon as the market was open. The such places heavier showers would be needed without delay, especially in Nebraska, did not prevent unloading by holders nor restrain aggressive attacks from bear leaders. Cables were disappointing to the buils and there was no support from shorts, which, as a rule, had been eliminated by the advance due to the war excitement of the previous day.

Althe clearing weather in Argentina tended to ease corn at the outset, the market later developed strength, the May aption in particular. A feature of the trading was the active buying of May and the selling of July on the part of several of the elevator companies. Receipts here were small and there was a celpts here were small and there was a big falling eff in Argentine shipments for the week. Unlike corn, oats failed to display pewer to recover. Rainy weather, with more predicted, acted as a weight temporary firmness in provisions. On all temporary forms to the market packers the hard spots in the market packers seized the chance to dispose of holdings.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.

Farmers are too busy seeding to come to the market, and only two loads of hay and no grain was offered.

Hay—Two loads sold at $29 per ton.

Potatoes.

Mr. Samuel Hisey, wholesale dealer in farm produce, stated that if Ontario farmers would select their potatoes so as to have them nearly of goal size, like the Delawares of New Britiswick, hey would get as high a price for them instead of taking 10e per bag less. Mr. Hisey is doing a large wholesale and retail trade at 1131 Keele street.

GAVE ORDERS TO BELFAST POLICE

Instructions Given by Commanding Officer Reversal of Common Law.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.

LCNDON, April 23.—Discussing the white paper on Ulster, The Daily Graphic today remarks that a new fact of considerable importance is revealed. It is the confession that the police of Belfast had received instructions to take orders from the general officer in command of troops.

"This," says The Graphic, "is a significant reversal of common law, that the civilian and not military authorities are responsible for the maintenance of peace.

"The paper does not disclose verbal instructions given Sir Arthur Paget by Colonel Seely, nor does it explain how it happened that a battle squadron was ordered to Irish waters by Mr. Churchill and the order countermanded by Mr. Asquith."

The Daily News remarks that no responsible person suggested that the calling out of the militia during a railway strike was a plot for the suppression of trades unionism.

"Clearly, no one is entitled to suggest that to send troops to Ulster in answer to threats, such as those which the Orange leaders have been reiterating, was anything, in view of the imminence of the passing of home rule, but an ordinary precautionary measure such as any government with due sense of its responsibility for the maintenance of order was bound sooner or later to take."
