British Forced to Retire After Assaults on Strong Position.

(BRITISH OFFICIAL)

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Nov. 23, 7.55 p.m.—The official press bureau tonight made public the following communication issued by the Marquis of Crewe, secretary for India, dealing with the British military operations at the head of the Persian Gulf and in East Africa.

These last few days, except on certain points, have been characterized by a perceptible slackening of the German actions. On the other hand, our artillery and infantry have gained on the enemy noticeable advantages in the regular siege war necessitated by the configuration of the country and the positions of the two fronts.

On Nov. 17, in the region of Ypres, we destroyed several German guns and on the 19th and 20th obtained the same result at Neuport. It was through our artillery spiritedly returning the fire of the enemy that on the 19th we silenced the German batteries which were shelling the Ypres station and the road from Boplingen to Ypres.

On Nov. 23, 10.50 p.m.—A semi-official statement, giving some of the particulars of the fighting at the front in Belgium and France, from Nov. 15 to 21, was issued here tonight. It says:

slan attack, and in the hands of the czar would constitute a valuable base for operations against Koenigsberg, the principal city and fortress of East Prussia.

Making Steady Headway.

With the arrest of all German troops turned to events in the eastern theatre, which overshadow those transpiring in the west for the present, it is to be noted that Russian progress in Galicia against Austria is making steady headway. The situation of the garrisons at Przemyel is said to be dangerous, and the reports have been of an offer of capitulation from the commander, reported to have met with refusal by the Russians because it is known that the stronghold must fall ere long. It is not at all unlikely that the aid of Russia with relation to the war for many months to come will be established by the operations under way. If the drive of Gen. von Hindenburg should gather renewed impetus and break thru to Warsaw, then the Russian position will be perilous and a withdrawal from Galicia and East Prussia inevitable. The alternative of an east to west offensive against the Germans, who literally must win or fight on their own doorsteps under disadvantages.

Cannot Save Austria.

Fresh reports of trouble between the German and Austrian allies are prevalent. The correspondent of the London Morning Post is authority for the following:

"No doubt now remains that serious differences have arisen between the Germanic allies. It is said that at a stormy council held under the presidency of Emperor William at Breslau after the German flight from Poland and after mutual recriminations, Germany demanded that Austria should give every man she had for the defence of East Prussia, implying that Austria was already beyond hope of saving. The Emperor's brook no such demand, required that the Germans make a serious attempt to save Cracow and that goes with the fall of this stronghold."

"It appears that this stormy council had been preceded by actual fighting between Austrian and German divisions. In the course of the retreat when the Germans reached the neighborhood of Tarnobrzeg, which is largely peopled by German colonists, the Austrians, the inhabitants being exclusively Jews, the Germanic armies appeared to feel already at home. The Austrians, who terminated in the Austrians leaving the Germans striking away on their own line of retreat. Strong bodies of Germans were seen at various points where the parties opened fire. The result was decided by the arrival of German reinforcements, who are believed to have exterminated what they considered mutinous troops rather than misused allies."

Barker of the headquarters staff to arrange with Toronto's rifle associations for inspection of three or more units at the armories on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The first inspection will be at 4 p.m. on Nov. 25. The object is to secure information upon which General Lescaud may report to the city council on proper military arms requirements. To pass inspection units must be formed on proper military lines and be regularly officered and non-commissioned-officered.

Five-Year-Old Boy Collected Money for Belgian Relief Fund

One of the finest contributions received by the Belgian Children's Relief Fund came yesterday. Jack Wallis, five years old, collected, by vigorous work, $4.61 for the stricken youngsters in Belgium. He lives in Granton, Ont. Among other receipts recorded yesterday by the secretary, was one from the pupils of Mr. Carswell's Sunday school class at St. Aidan's, Balsam Beach, $10. The idea of classes and clubs making a collection among themselves and friends for Belgian relief seems to be spreading. Mr. Marriot, secretary, Board of Trade Building, is the man who receives the cheques, and marks what they are for. The board pays all expenses so the whole amount of the cheques goes direct to relief work.

MYSTERY SHROUDS FOREMAN'S DEATH

William Wiggins Dead - Injuries to His Back Puzzle Police.

William Wiggins, who gave his address to the police as 192 Tecumseh street, died in the General Hospital last night. It is thought from injuries to his back. Wiggins was employed as a foreman at a Bathurst street mill yard, and on Saturday night he went to the home of William Lane, 104 Portland street, who is employed in a similar capacity at the same place as Wiggins, and told Lane that he had been turned out of his boarding house. Lane took him in for the night. Wiggins, the police said last night, was under the influence of liquor at the time.

On Sunday morning Wiggins came downstairs and asked for a glass of liquor, but was unable to get any. He stayed about the house till near noon, when he collapsed. When a police officer from Clarendon street police station arrived at the 104 Portland street residence he found an amount of blood about Wiggins' mouth. Wiggins, the police said, died about 11 o'clock on Saturday night before he went to the house of his benefactor. He was removed then by the police ambulance to the General Hospital.

The necessary steps to have a coroner's inquest on the death of Wiggins were taken yesterday. The coroner's jury will meet on Wednesday at 10 o'clock at the coroner's office, 100 Queen street west.

OFFICIAL STATEMENTS

FRANCE

The following official communication was issued last night:

"Yesterday morning, there was cannonading in the north and in the direction of Soissons and Rheims. The French government issued the following communique Monday afternoon: 'Yesterday morning, the enemy directed his attacks by the north and in the direction of Soissons and Rheims. The number of houses were set on fire, so Soissons and Rheims. Both in the Argonne the day was characterized by very spirited attacks, which delivered very spirited attacks, which in the Vosges the situation is without change.'

GERMAN

The following official communication was issued by the German army headquarters yesterday:

"Fighting continues at Neuport and at Ypres. A small British squadron twice approached the coast but was driven back by our artillery. The British naval gun had a shot."

"In the forest of the Argonne we are gaining ground step by step, one trench after another being wrested from the French, and a number of prisoners taken daily."

"Violent reconnoitering expedition against the post of Dunin Zaya, and the Moselle River was made ineffective by our attacks."

"In East Prussia the situation remains unchanged."

"In Poland the appearance of Russian reinforcements is postponing a decision of the battle."

"In the region to the east of Casanochowa and to the northeast of Grocowa the Austro-German offensive has been maintained."

RUSSIAN

The official Russian statement of the afternoon is characteristically terse, to wit:

"The fighting between the Vistula and the Warthe continues. We have obtained some partial successes."

"The fighting on the front of Casanochowa-Cracow have resulted in no essential changes, except 2000 prisoners, some guns and some machine guns."

"The Austro-Germans have evacuated Novy-Sandez, Austrians have evacuated our troops."

"The following statement from the Russian general staff was issued tonight: 'The fighting between the Vistula and the Warthe continues. It still maintains the character of extreme stubbornness at the north of Lodz.'

"Throughout the entire day of Nov. 23 we repulsed everywhere impetuous German attacks."

"We discovered, towards Valouon, new German forces, with which it was intended to turn our left wing."

THESE TURKS COLLECTED MONEY FOR ORPHANAGE

Following the receipt of information by Detective Inspector Kennedy that seven subjects of the Ottoman Empire who were collecting money for an orphanage home in Constantinople, Turkey, which was being run by a woman named Mrs. Kennedy, he issued a warrant for their arrest. The subjects were arrested and lodged in Agnes Street Police Station. Six of the prisoners allege that they are either chemists or doctors. One admits that he is a laborer.

The prisoners are: Joseph Eila, clergyman; Salim Salim, clergyman; Danka Zaya, clergyman; John Andrew, deacon; Euralin George, laborer; John Wasley, deacon; and Michael James, deacon.

The dress of the prisoners looks to be anything but a minister's garb. The treasurer of the fund is Danka Zaya, and when he was searched $300 was found on him. Smaller amounts of money were found on the other prisoners. When they were brought into the detective office they were evidently under the impression that they were going to be severely treated. They pleaded with Inspector Kennedy to prosecute them. After hearing an address on the virtues of living under the British flag, which was delivered by the inspector, they were satisfied that they would come out of the ordeal with their lives. Their affairs will be further investigated.

ENTER NO PROTEST IN WEST HAMILTON

Independent Labor Party Has Insufficient Evidence to Warrant Proceeding.

RECOUNT TO BE MADE

Hamilton Home Guards Will Embark on Big Recruiting Campaign.

By a Staff Reporter.

HAMILTON, Nov. 24.—A meeting of the Hamilton Rifle Association, or Home Guard, was held in the board of trade room last evening at the call of Sir John M. Gibson, K.C., who urged that greater interest be taken in the association, which may in the near future be called upon to defend the city. He claimed that the association was not representative enough, and had not large enough membership with the Home Guards of other cities. The membership is now only 500. A recruiting campaign will be held, and it is expected that the number will be swelled to 1000. Lieut.-Col. Aitchison was appointed commander, with Col. Newbury assistant commander. A mass meeting will be held in the armories in a few days for recruiting purposes.

Death of Edward Pearce.

Edward Pearce, 41 North Pearl street, died at St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday afternoon. Mr. Pearce was organist of All Saints' Church. He was taken suddenly ill before the service Sunday morning, and never regained consciousness.

Not to Protest Election.

A meeting of the Independent Labor Party executive was held at the Labor Temple last evening, when the scrutineers who had evidence of irregularities committed during the recent West Hamilton by-election were heard. The evidence submitted was not sufficient to call for a protest. The recount of the ballots will be held before Judge Monck on Dec. 9.

Dr. Adam Shortt Speaks.

Dr. Adam Shortt, chairman of the civil service commission at Ottawa, addressed the members of the Canadian Club last evening on "The Effect of the War on Canadian Trade."

To Banquet General Hughes.

The Canadian Club has arranged for a special luncheon to be held in George W. Robinson's tea room on Thursday evening at seven o'clock, when a military dinner will be given in honor of Major-General Sam Hughes. Besides General Hughes, the invitations of the club for Thursday evening have also been issued by Hon. Chomoluk Yoda, Consul-General of Japan at Ottawa, and Hon. Maurice Gorr, Commissioner of Belgium at Ottawa, both of whom it is expected will be present. General Hughes will speak on military training and the army's duty to the empire.

Recount Demanded.

The necessary steps to have a recount of the ballots cast in the recent West Hamilton by-election were taken yesterday morning, when a coroner's inquest was made with Judge Seiler, and the recount will take place before that official on Dec. 9.

One of the Independent Labor Party workers stated yesterday that there is enough evidence now gathered to cause some men to fall, and should anyone suppose that the necessary 1100 which is required to hold a protest, must be the corruption in West Hamilton could be cleared up. While there are likely to be a couple of police court cases, it is hardly probable that there will be a protest made.

Inspector Returns of the provincial department is now investigating the mysterious death of Amos Lane, who was killed by an explosion near the Fair Inn a week ago Sunday. The provincial coroner called on Chief of Police Clark yesterday morning, and together with Dundas yesterday morning, and they went over the evidence.

Chief Clark is now confident that the finding of a grave on the bay shore Saturday morning adds to his belief that Lane did not commit suicide, and that the person or persons who dug the grave killed Lane.

Would Elect Hydro Board.

Whether or not the Hydro-Commission should rest in the hands of the municipal power-users or the general public, the question arising out of an interesting discussion yesterday morning over the move to transfer the surpluses of the hydro department each year to the city's general funds. Engineer Egan yesterday told Ald. Chester Walters that he favored the retention of the department's surpluses to reduce the municipal power rates.

Civic Report Ready Soon.

The Dominion Railway civic works department will not be ready for the city council to call a special meeting of the council to deal with the report when it is received at the end of the week, and he then intends to submit a motion to prosecute those civic officials condemned by the judge.

The city council this evening will be asked to introduce a by-law to be submitted to the people next January for a reduction of the license tax. The move is to cut the tavern license to forty-five and the shop license to ten. German Guns Unable to Cope With Opponents' Effective Cannonading.

A GALLANT SACRIFICE

Reverse at Chauvoncourt Described—General Situation Most Satisfactory.

It is the first to undertake a counter attack. Thus, Gen. Vidal's troops in the region of Ypres took on the onset of Nov. 17-18, a wood which they had lost during the day. They made it a question of pride not to postpone the moment the retaking of the position.

Still further south, Nov. 15-16-17-18-19-20, they were quiet in general. Our artillery scored some happy victories. On the 17th, it dispersed and destroyed a company of German bomb throwers, who were attempting to throw bombs in our trenches.

Dominates Foe's Defenses.

"Toward the middle of the 19th of the 19th did not obtain all the results expected, but our artillery played havoc in the German trenches and our entanglements without the enemy's guns returning the fire. This success has made us the masters of position from which we dominate the German defenses."

From the Oise to the west of the Argonne there have been several severe engagements. Our guns have inflicted upon the enemy serious losses. "East of Rheims was an ammunition storehouse which was blown up. On the 17th, near Villers Army (Oud Army), our heavy artillery demolished three German guns and exploded a caisson. The same day, north of Craonne, our guns silenced the fire from several of the enemy's batteries."

Numerous Successes.

"The next day, near Amfontaine, a German camp, located by our batteries, was compelled to move."

"The 19th, near Rouge Anson, we put in bad condition a section of the 105th Regiment of the enemy, and demolished extensive earthworks near the farm Herbeles."

"Nov. 20, near Vailly, we prevented the continuation by the Germans of training operations which had been commenced there."

"All these successes confirm the confidence of our artillerymen in the efficacy of their fire."

"On the 17th the affair at Tracy la Vallée was a brilliant success for our infantry. It was near 11 o'clock when the Germans attacked. They overhauled the village with howitzers and then threw two battalions upon its northern side. Their attack, sudden and in mass, carried the Germans as far as the public square and then to the church and enabled them to take from us a mitrailleuse."

Fine Charge.

"But this success, quickly gained, was a quickly broken down. One of our batteries was charged. They commenced their action by attacking the mitrailleuse and then, retiring, pushed forward past the church. The squares, where the Germans had their point of entrance into the town. They were trying to break thru to the east."

"In the vicinity of St. Eulbe, two of the companies, suddenly attacked by the German troops, were driven from their trenches, but the next morning they recovered all the lost ground and they were back to their positions."

"On the 19th of the Oise and the Argonne our aviators have been able, in spite of the rain at first, and then the strong fog, to do some good work. We have seen the services they rendered to the artillery in directing the fire. They also twice upon the Alsne and to the east of Rheims, compelled the aviators of the enemy to interrupt their missions and return to the German lines."

"From the Argonne to the Vosges, numerous actions have taken place, and our troops have given ample evidence of their endurance. Each night around Verdun and upon the heights of the Meuse they have had to repulse some particularly violent attacks."

MAJOR-GENERAL HUGHES SPENT DAY AT MONTREAL

Extraordinary Activity Featured His Routine of Duties—Made Two Speeches.

Canadian Press Dispatch. MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—During a day of extraordinary activity in the Montreal district, Maj.-Gen. Sam Hughes today not only found time to inspect the 23rd and 24th Victoria Rifles, active service regiments for the second Canadian contingent, but also to address the Canadian Club, inspect the barracks at Peel street, hold a conference on divisional military matters with the officers at the headquarters on Union avenue, review the McGill regiment and address the men after the parade, but to wind up the day by attending a dinner given in his honor this evening at the St. James' Club by Dean Adams. Gen. Hughes then took the train for Ottawa.

CANADIANS SOON MAY LEAVE CAMP

Movement From Salisbury to Firing Line Expected Any Time.

P. P. L. I. IS READY NOW

Will Shortly Go to the Front as a Separate Unit.

By John A. MacLaren, one of the World's Staff Correspondents with the Canadian Forces.

SALISBURY, Eng., Nov. 23.—When the Canadian contingent will shortly leave England for France or Belgium is an unanswered question, but there is every likelihood that a movement of troops from the camp will occur within a very few weeks. There is a general impression that the crack regiment of practically all ex-service men—the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry—the Royal Canadian Dragoons and the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, all of which are ready at a moment's notice to join the allies, will leave England some time before Christmas. These three are not embraced by the Canadian division, but are separate units and will go to the front as such.

Several hundred carpenters were weeded out of the ranks of the force and are now engaged in building huts at Larkhill, three miles outside the town of Salisbury. These wooden buildings will be the winter quarters of the troops, but that is by no means an indication that the Canadians will be housed there for several months.

On several nights, no ditch can be dug around a tent. This is against orders, and orders must be obeyed. It rains the night, and the water flows under the canvas of those tents which have been located on a slope. Many soldiers declare that they have become web-footed since they stepped on English soil and they had a decent night's rest for two weeks. "May as well be in the trenches," they say. Nevertheless, there has been comparatively little sickness.

Night attacks have become a general thing. At 7 o'clock battalions are sent to the front, and return in three or four hours. But tactical exercises, except for company marching, have been rather infrequent here. Most of the work is in the nature of long route marches, and the men in splendid physical condition.

"They must be able to march long distances," said one officer. "Their muscles must be hard and their digestive organs in proper condition. Marching will do all this. This war is not a game and it is not a picnic. The covering was so essential. Endurance and marksmanship count principally in the nature of the work being given to the men in each day in each. But there will be plenty of manoeuvre with the Germans in the mix it up."

Bayonet exercises are a daily event, every man is given a few wrinkles on his uniform as he goes. He is sipped the art of defence, in the case of a charge, and also the art of defence in a rest after duty. In the case of a charge, and also the art of defence in a rest after duty. In the case of a charge, and also the art of defence in a rest after duty.

The statement made by Major-General Hughes that there were more than 60,000 applications from Americans for the first contingent, and that all were refused because there was a surplus of Canadian volunteers, brings to mind the fact that many Americans may be in the ranks at Salisbury. Of their commanding officers do not know how they came across the border just that Canada would send men to the aid of the motherland. They merely came to Toronto, Montreal, or any other place, and were enlisted as Canadians, and their word was accepted in most cases. It was just a

Trampled To Death

Suppose you were to read in the paper some morning that a disastrous fire had wiped the town of Amherst, or Galt or Lethbridge completely off the map. That would be a hard knock to Canada wouldn't it?

Yet, figuratively and literally, Canadians are ruthlessly trampling a town that size under their feet every year,—actually obliterating it.

Every year we Canadians import $4,000,000 worth of boots and shoes from the United States. On them we pay over $1,000,000 duty.

That $5,000,000, if spent for Canadian-made boots, would keep six big shoe factories busy the year round—employing altogether about 2,400 hands, paying out $1,500,000 in wages, supporting in all about 10,000 people.

Concentrate all these people in one place and you add to the map of Canada a good live town like Amherst or Galt or Lethbridge. Rather startling, isn't it?

When out of pure thoughtlessness, you buy an imported boot you crunch under your heel the opportunity to build up such a town.

In buying Canadian-made shoes you are paying for quality, not duty. Dollar for dollar they give you a value that is equal to, if not better than any others.

Next time be patriotic enough to refuse the pair the dealer offers you that is not matter of telling a falsehood and doing it smoothly. Many Americans Enlisted.

"MADE IN CANADA"

The other day a private, while passing headquarters, shouted to some of the officers: "I'm a brother ranker. He draw indicated that he was a down-east Yankee. There was something in his tone. When spoken to this adventurous American said that he had very many of his countrymen at Salisbury. "There are not a great number, but still we are fairly well represented," he admitted laughingly. "I told the recruiting officer that I was born in Annapolis, N.B., but had lived in New Bedford, Mass., for many years. I got away with it and it was easy. I know an officer in the Army Service Corps from my home town, but he had many years of experience in soldiering in the American army. He passes for a good Canadian."

Probably more Americans would have been able to join the Canadian expeditionary force had they made application in person instead of by letter. Those who crossed the border did not have very great difficulty at some of the recruiting points. And they make good soldiers. They have their whole heart in the game and are as eager as the rest to get into the actual fighting. Many came from the west, having joined up with western regiments. One of the men in the eastern contingent, just as there is at home between western and eastern cities. This is especially evident among the officers. At times the boasting done by the officers from the prairies makes an easterner feel like starting a riot. It is all due to the fact that the west is so well represented. As a matter of fact, about half of the contingent comes from the west, from every city town and village from Victoria to Winnipeg. They are a fine looking body of men, especially the cavalrymen from the prairies.

They have two great grievances. One is the fact that the various squadrons of dragoons and rangers from the prairies will not have horses, but will have to fight with the infantry. This is a sore point, especially when taken into consideration that there are many splendid horsemen among them. Men who were born and reared on ranches and know how to handle anything from a wooden rocking horse to a bucking broncho. Despite the fact that they apparently have no chance of becoming anything but infantry, they still wear the cavalry uniform, and of course a sash. The other grievance is that this headgear must be discarded before leaving England, and to all of them it will be worse than parting with a loving friend. One goes through the Englishman's uniform of a Canadian is not complete without the sash. This is supposed to be the distinctive dress of the Canadian because he always is pictured with the wide hat, the same as the Australian with his turban and the Indian with his feathered headdress. The majority, or ninety per cent. of the Canadians, wear the uniform of the British soldier only with the shoulder strap, which is colored dark blue if an infantryman, red if an artilleryman, yellow if a cavalryman, light blue if a signaller, and so forth. The brass sash stands out as each shoulder strap stands out as a beacon light to the hospitable Englishman.

It is not likely that the nurses brought from Canada will go to France. The World was informed that these 100 lieutenants will be used for hospital duty in England on account of the need

ASQUITH VISITED CANADIAN CAMP

Soldiers Cheered Premier Who Gave Praise to Their Sturdy Physique.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. SALISBURY, Nov. 23.—The prime minister, accompanied by his daughter, paid an unofficial visit here yesterday. He went over the whole four camps with the commander, and conversed freely with the officers. He seemed to take a particular interest in the arrangements made for the social entertainment of the soldiers.

The men soon recognized the premier as he drove up in a motor, and gave him a rousing welcome. He was greatly impressed with the appearance of the troops and spoke of their sturdy physique. On Saturday evening a number of Canadian officers were entertained by the Lyceum Club at a dinner presided over by Lady Strachey. Col. Dunlop and Hodgkiss being the principal guests.

A picked team of Rugby players from the Canadian contingent played the Newport Saturday and played the Monmouthshire eleven, the Welshmen winning by 34 points to nil.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 24

Miss Pankhurst's Local Application

A chip of the old block, perhaps, but with many qualities all her own. Miss Christabel Pankhurst has brought over to Canada the latest, the strongest and the most inspiring note of the new woman's movement in Great Britain to the new world across the ocean, and across the threshold of the war. Nothing has so caught the imagination of the British people in connection with the "Votes for Women" agitation as the instant cessation of hostilities with the state when hostilities with the enemy of the empire were entered upon.

Miss Pankhurst, who is accompanied by Miss Barton, a charming representative of the younger school of suffrage propaganda, is to speak tonight in Massey Hall. She was entertained last night by the Canadian and Toronto Suffrage Associations, and the impression she left upon those who met her should ensure a very large attendance. She is a notable speaker, and the tense and vibrant violin, or viola, tones of her voice bear a message which is awakening to hear.

Miss Pankhurst thinks there has seldom been such an opportunity for any man as presents itself at this time to Premier Hearst to take the lead in the western field of the British Empire in establishing a reform which might owe its initiation here to him, but which is certain to come in the new world that will follow the close of the war. It is not conceivable that woman's suffrage will lag much behind the declaration of the world's peace. Premier Hearst and his party might have the glory of leadership in this matter, if they do not choose to let that glory pass to some more progressive party.

Miss Pankhurst thinks it strange that Ontario with its pretensions to progress should lag behind any part of the empire in this policy, or behind the more advanced states of the American Union.

The truce that exists between the British Government and the militant suffragists is a tribute to Miss Pankhurst's dominant influence and patriotic spirit. Even more than her mother she represents the new time and the new information to right the social and political wrongs of her sex. The government is aware of this potent factor which must be recognized in reconstituting the England that is to follow the war. It is evident that British statesmen no longer think it below their dignity to treat with brains and power and sagacity and foresight when embodied in a female form, and that they will yield to the moving tide of popular feeling in this as in all else. We trust that Miss Pankhurst does not take too sanguine a view of the progressive competency of Premier Hearst.

Comparative Taxation

That cheerful season is upon us when the city accounts are overhauled and the overburdened taxpayer is shown how much worse off he is than half the other taxpayers on earth, and why he is not as well off as half the other taxpayers. This international method of gouching has just been resorted to by the bureau of municipal research, and while it is useful to know the figures, unless a vast amount of supplementary information is given they mean nothing at all to the average man. Following Mark Twain's suggestion municipal candidates and critics take the figures and distort them as they please.

Of thirteen leading cities in the United States and Canada Toronto lays a burden on its taxpayers which is about the average. St. John's per capita is $11.52 and Boston's is $16.88.

READY FOR THIRD ROUND

Toronto's is $22.14. Any Boston man would gladly pay the difference to live in Boston, and if any Toronto man prefers St. John's to save $11 a year he is welcome to go. Or he can go to Montreal and pay $14.56 per head for his family. Chicago levies about the same as Toronto or $22.55. Were all the people included in Toronto who ought to be our per capita would be considerably lower, probably as low as Detroit, where it is $15.73. Buffalo only pays $16.51, but that city has been steadily going backwards for some time. Hamilton's per capita is $14.85, but no fair comparison can be made except with cities of about the same area and population. Twenty-five years from now, when Hamilton is about the same size as Toronto is at present, and most of the present race of gouchers in Toronto have passed away from the scene of their discontent, Hamilton taxpayers, unless their own government profits marvelously by Toronto experience, and exercises an amount of foresight no set of aldermen have ever been known to do in this city, will pay as much or more than we do.

Another set of comparisons have been made of the debt, but this is also highly misleading. Under our local improvement by-law system, and on account of our rapid development we have made a lot of improvements on credit, and our debt is largely on this account, and our taxes go for interest on borrowings. Cities with low debt and low taxes have been paying as they go, and cannot be cited against Toronto as evidence that we are either extravagant or wasteful. If we pay high interest amounts it is because we find it more convenient than to pay out capital sums. If it can be shown that our rate of interest is too high, and that it can be reduced by proper financing, this is a legitimate line of criticism; but empty comparisons lead to nothing any mean nothing.

In fact, unless it can be shown that money has been dishonestly, wastefully or carelessly spent, there is no object in the comparative method at all. Suppose another city has a lighter taxation. Well, then, everybody is welcome to go and live there. Hamilton and Philadelphia have almost of the same per capita tax rate, $14.85 and $14.36 respectively. Does this represent any similarity in any other way or does it lead to a stampede from New York, where they pay $28.24, or from Boston, where they pay $36.88?

Perhaps the most interesting thing in the table compiled by the bureau is the fact that the basis of assessment per cent. of actual values is 100 in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Cleveland, Cincinnati and St. John. Our local assessor declares that he prefers to violate his solemn oath rather than do this. Sir James Whitney constantly declared that it was the failure of the assessors to live up to their oath and put the Assessment Act into operation, which led to so much complaint against the assessment law. It is the only loophole by which favoritism is possible, and there have been many glaring examples of it recently. The reduction to 70 per cent. (nominally) instead of the assessment at true values is the occasion of much unjust incidence of taxation upon the bulk of the taxpayers.

It is difficult to understand why any conscientious official can persistently violate his oath and the terms of the Assessment Act in this particular. The court of revision, the judges who have to sit on appeals, and either the provincial secretary or the attorney-general should take steps to have the law observed. If it is to be a dead letter it ought to be repealed.

Japan and the Eastern Pacific

Japan is still regarded with suspicion in the United States. Its motives in engaging in the great war and its objects have given rise to considerable speculation, apparently because the idea that an Asiatic power can be governed by respect of treaty obligations and of assurances given by its responsible government, is in itself somewhat incredible. The Philadelphia Record, usually very fair-minded, thinks that Japan desires to become a full member of the triple entente, with a status equal to that of Russia, Britain and France, and that this means peace will not be made unless the demands of Japan are satisfied. The Record inclines to believe that one of these demands would be the cession of Kiaochau, and hints that German New Guinea might be a fine place for Japan to expand into. It finds ground for this latter supposition in the fact that the big island is not included in the job lot turned over by Japan to Australia the other day.

In this The Record is astray from the facts. The Marshall Islands, recently taken by Japan, and now to be handed over to the Australian Government for administration, is one of the groups included in the German administrative colony of New Guinea, comprising Kaiser Wilhelmland, on the main island, the Bismarck Archipelago, part of the Solomon Islands, the Marshall Islands and the Caroline Islands. German New Guinea proper and the Bismarck Archipelago were occupied by an Australian expeditionary force early in the war, and the cession of the Marshall Islands by Japan rounds off the German possessions in that part of the Pacific. The Japanese Government has thus shown it has no designs on New Guinea, but recognizes that it and the subordinate islands fall within the Australian

NEW ONTARIO PLANS WERE CARRIED OUT

Bulk of Government Expenditure Went Toward Good Roads Program. FARMS PROVED USEFUL. Permission to Export Pulpwood Likely to Be Continued for While Yet.

The government program for the development of New Ontario did not suffer to any material extent during the fiscal year of 1914, which was just closed. Any retrenchments that might have been thought necessary in view of financial conditions in the country did not materialize until the year's budget was completed, and the total appropriation for last year, out of the five millions set aside for this purpose, was spent on export pulpwood, granted, according to Commissioner Whittemore, who is still carrying on the duties of minister of crown lands, gave the year's figures last evening.

In all, the expenditure for 1914 was $202,576.15, a sum somewhat less than that of last year. These expenditures have now taken $2,067,098 out of the total New Ontario appropriation. One new venture of the department has worked out very satisfactorily. The demand of prospective settlers for a knowledge of the crop possibilities of the north decided the government to establish several experimental farms, and these have already proven themselves "worth $4000 for their work." The Toronto World, 40 Richmond Street West, Toronto, is a wonderful illustration of the fact that farms have been worked at Cochrane, Hearst, Grondhog and other points. The crop crops have shown wonderful growth and the wheat returns are also encouraging.

Mr. Hearst stated that the bulk of the expenditure had been on good roads, and that the work was still proceeding. It is probable that the permission to export pulpwood, granted last year, will be continued thru the fall and winter because of unemployment troubles. This permission originated with the present government, and the quantity of blown-down timber following the fall storms, and Mr. Hearst will ask the house for the privilege of its renewal if local markets cannot be had. It is purely an emergency condition.

SHIPMENTS OF COPPER ARE CLOSELY WATCHED. Britain's Task of Cutting Off Germany From Supplies Big One.

Canadian Press Despatch. WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—To maintain successfully her right to seize or detain cargoes of American copper carried on American or other neutral vessels to a neutral country, such as Italy in the south and Holland in the north of Europe, Great Britain apparently finds it necessary to establish the probability that copper actually is destined for Germany, or Austria, or even Turkey.

One means of establishing this probability is to demonstrate that there has been an increase in the imports of copper to any neutral country in excess of the normal requirements of the surplus copper, or a corresponding quantity already in the country, has been allowed to pass across its borders into a belligerent country.

RAIDERS MIGHT INVADE SALOONS

Hughes Makes Caustic Reference to Warning Given by Mayor Hocken.

Canadian Press Despatch. MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—That he had been called a murderer for suggesting prior to the outbreak of hostilities that many had hostile intentions, was the announcement made by Major-General Sam Hughes, minister of militia, to the Canadian Club today. The caution came in one of many critical letters he had received for his attempt to place Canada, in a state of preparedness for war. He said the letter he had received, was from a man who actually broke out, asking Britain what she wanted, Sir Robert Borden offering 15,000 men. Six weeks after the order to mobilize was received, 32,000 men left Canada.

Dealing with the talk of an invasion of Canada by German-Americans, the major-general remarked: "I was told by the chief magistrate of Toronto with sober mien—I mean his, not mine—that 47,000 hunting licenses had been taken out in Maine. The only places marauders from the States were likely to raid were the saloons. There were only 1,214 licenses taken out in Maine this year, and any freebooters who put foot on Canadian soil would get a very warm reception."

NEW ONTARIO PLANS WERE CARRIED OUT

Bulk of Government Expenditure Went Toward Good Roads Program. FARMS PROVED USEFUL. Permission to Export Pulpwood Likely to Be Continued for While Yet.

The government program for the development of New Ontario did not suffer to any material extent during the fiscal year of 1914, which was just closed. Any retrenchments that might have been thought necessary in view of financial conditions in the country did not materialize until the year's budget was completed, and the total appropriation for last year, out of the five millions set aside for this purpose, was spent on export pulpwood, granted, according to Commissioner Whittemore, who is still carrying on the duties of minister of crown lands, gave the year's figures last evening.

In all, the expenditure for 1914 was $202,576.15, a sum somewhat less than that of last year. These expenditures have now taken $2,067,098 out of the total New Ontario appropriation. One new venture of the department has worked out very satisfactorily. The demand of prospective settlers for a knowledge of the crop possibilities of the north decided the government to establish several experimental farms, and these have already proven themselves "worth $4000 for their work." The Toronto World, 40 Richmond Street West, Toronto, is a wonderful illustration of the fact that farms have been worked at Cochrane, Hearst, Grondhog and other points. The crop crops have shown wonderful growth and the wheat returns are also encouraging.

Mr. Hearst stated that the bulk of the expenditure had been on good roads, and that the work was still proceeding. It is probable that the permission to export pulpwood, granted last year, will be continued thru the fall and winter because of unemployment troubles. This permission originated with the present government, and the quantity of blown-down timber following the fall storms, and Mr. Hearst will ask the house for the privilege of its renewal if local markets cannot be had. It is purely an emergency condition.

SHIPMENTS OF COPPER ARE CLOSELY WATCHED. Britain's Task of Cutting Off Germany From Supplies Big One.

Canadian Press Despatch. WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—To maintain successfully her right to seize or detain cargoes of American copper carried on American or other neutral vessels to a neutral country, such as Italy in the south and Holland in the north of Europe, Great Britain apparently finds it necessary to establish the probability that copper actually is destined for Germany, or Austria, or even Turkey.

One means of establishing this probability is to demonstrate that there has been an increase in the imports of copper to any neutral country in excess of the normal requirements of the surplus copper, or a corresponding quantity already in the country, has been allowed to pass across its borders into a belligerent country.

RAIDERS MIGHT INVADE SALOONS

Hughes Makes Caustic Reference to Warning Given by Mayor Hocken.

Canadian Press Despatch. MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—That he had been called a murderer for suggesting prior to the outbreak of hostilities that many had hostile intentions, was the announcement made by Major-General Sam Hughes, minister of militia, to the Canadian Club today. The caution came in one of many critical letters he had received for his attempt to place Canada, in a state of preparedness for war. He said the letter he had received, was from a man who actually broke out, asking Britain what she wanted, Sir Robert Borden offering 15,000 men. Six weeks after the order to mobilize was received, 32,000 men left Canada.

Dealing with the talk of an invasion of Canada by German-Americans, the major-general remarked: "I was told by the chief magistrate of Toronto with sober mien—I mean his, not mine—that 47,000 hunting licenses had been taken out in Maine. The only places marauders from the States were likely to raid were the saloons. No Scottish river or even burn but has been commemorated in song or story. WISE NEWSPAPER RUGBY CRITICS PLAY BIG GAMES OVER AGAIN

Hamilton Papers Disagree on Ability of Argos—Referee McEwen Declares Varsity Better Than McGill—Football News and Gossip.

Hamilton Herald: Argos are not a better team than Tigers, but on Saturday's play they appeared slightly so. Their scrum-half, trickiness and all-round behavior was better. The showing of Argonauts, while not unexpected by any means, was surprising, knowing that they are a better team than the Ontario Club.

Montreal Gazette: Referee Sinc McEwen stated that in his opinion the Argos are a better team than the Ontario Club. He stated that in his opinion the Argos are a better team than the Ontario Club.

Hamilton Spectator: Tigers should have won. That is the general opinion of rugby enthusiasts in this city, and it is shared in no small way by the Tiger officials. In support of this claim the arguments are advanced that mistakes in judgment in the last quarter cost the team the game.
