UNIONIST MAJORITY TWENTY-ONE VOTES IN PASSING G. T. BILL

Measure to Ratify Agreement of Acquisition of Road Has Third Reading.

MOTION OF KING FAILS

Ottawa, April 22.—(By Canadian Press.)—Interest in the house today was largely centred on proposed amendments to the bill to ratify the Grand Trunk acquisition agreement.

An amendment of the Grand Trunk bill was proposed by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the opposition. The bill was brought up again for third reading, bringing up again the great Grand Trunk strike of 1910.

King moved that the bill be referred back to committee, with instructions to insert a clause to protect the pension rights of the employees who struck.

Divide on King Motion. At ten minutes after twelve the house divided on the King amendment.

Of the cross-benchers, Messrs. Kennedy and Halbert voted with the opposition. Messrs. Reid, McNutt, Thompson, Maharg and Gould voted with the government.

Third reading was then declared carried on the same division reversed. The reduced government majority was explained by empty benches on that side of the house.

For two minutes today the house of commons stood in silent prayer in memory of the battle of St. Julien.

Replying to a question, Hon. Dr. Reid said that the Canadian Northern by order-in-council acquired the electric system of the Toronto Eastern Railway on September 27, 1918.

The conditions were that the Canadian Northern would take over the railway at actual cost. The line was not yet in operation.

The house then resumed consideration in committee of the franchise bill. Fielding Amends Bill.

The house took up the clause which deals with the returning officers. Hon. W. S. Fielding moved that provision be made to restrict the appointment to solicitors, clerks, clerks or secretary-treasurers, chief clerks or municipal, postmaster and collectors of customs.

Administrating Estates of Missing People Disappearance of Ambrose Small Leads to Initiation of New Legislation.

Attorney-General Raney introduced a bill in the legislature yesterday, dealing with "absentees" from Ontario whose whereabouts are unknown.

Large interests are involved, he said, "and we have no law governing such a case. The object of the bill is to provide that a company or trustee may be appointed to administer the estate until such time as the person returned."

H. H. Dewar thought the attorney-general was trying to introduce "a general bill to cover a particular incident." The matter could not be dealt with in a special bill, he said.

In answer to J. C. Ramsden and H. H. Dewar, the attorney-general referred to the absence of a Toronto man during the last few months, in which large interests were involved, and the absolute failure of the authorities and his relatives to find any trace of him as the immediate cause for the bill.

Mr. Ramsden agreed that while the bill might apply to cases such as mentioned by the attorney-general, it would not apply to a number of "colours" roaming around the country "a little bit wrong in their heads, due to their experiences overseas."

Mr. Raney replied that its application could be considered when the bill came before committee.

Hon. Howard Ferguson referred to cases where the public trustee intervened, and the attorney-general that matter could be considered

WESTERNERS GIVEN ENCOURAGING REPLY ABOUT HUDSON LINE

Sir G. Foster Promises Line Will Be Repaired and Early Completion Considered.

DELEGATION PLEASSED

Ottawa, April 22.—(By Canadian Press.)—Assurance that the completed portion of the Hudson Bay Railway would be put in good repair this year, and that the government would carefully consider the early completion of the road, was given by Sir George Foster today to the special delegation of members of parliament, senators and representatives of western boards of trade, which waited upon the government today to present the case for the completion of the road.

Members of the delegation expressed satisfaction with the result of the interview, and their confidence that the completion of the road would not be neglected. Sir George left the impression, the delegates say, that in addition to the repair work promised, some additional track might be laid this year, possibly as far as Limestone river. The government had never intended to abandon work on the road, he said.

Dr. R. M. Blake, M.P. for North Winnipeg, chairman of a special western caucus of members of parliament, introducing the delegation, urged that the government could practice economy at the expense of other public works rather than the Hudson Bay Railway.

J. A. Campbell, M.P. for Le Pas, urged that the resources of the territory and the bay itself would more than pay for the work, apart from (Continued on Page 9, Column 5).

How to Relieve the Power Famine in Ontario.

Ontario is vitally interested in getting more electric energy for her factories, farms, homes, roads. The world understands that if the Mackenzie and Gibson power plants were taken over by the Hydro-Electric Commission and all the "juice" consolidated in one system of transmission nearly seven-fifths of the available next day for the relief of the existing famine in the province.

Whether this consolidation is effected at once depends on Sir John Gibson, Sir William Mackenzie and Sir Adam Beck. We believe they are getting close together as to what would be a fair price for the Hydro to pay the private-owned companies, including their radials, generating, transmission and distribution plants.

The World believes that a reasonable settlement is near at hand and that a spirit of fair dealing animates the minds of the three prominent men named above as now in negotiation.

This may be one of the first big clean-ups as far as Ontario is concerned.

ON WITH TERAULEY STREET EXTENSION.

The short talk in the board of control yesterday indicates the pressing need for this improvement, and ought to be a hint to the board to send the question on today to the council. The mayor said every unnecessary portion of the improvement, paving, etc., could be held over for a time, but the necessary parts must go on at once.

DARDANELLES TO BE PERPETUALLY FREE TO WORLD SHIPPING

Supreme Council Formulates Plans to Control by Two International Boards.

ERZEROU TO ARMENIA

San Remo, April 22.—The plans for the control of the Dardanelles were formulated by the supreme council at today's session. The control will be exercised by two international commissions. One of these, an administrative body, will regulate the traffic, fix the dues for the use of the straits, and supervise affairs generally, much the same as the Suez canal commission does for the Suez waterway.

The other body will be a military commission, having at its disposition forces which will be located in part on the Gallipoli peninsula and in part on the other side of the straits.

The passage of these straits was declared to be forever free to the world's shipping during either peace or war. It does not appear that the United States will be represented on the commissions.

The tribute that Egypt has paid since 1840 to the Turkish empire, which was hypothecated by the Turks as security for loans, will continue to be paid by Egypt to the bondholders.

The afternoon session of the council was devoted to the Turkish treaty. After hearing the statement of the Armenian delegation, the conference gave Erzeroum to Armenia. Bogos Nazer Pascha submitted the Armenian viewpoint.

The control of Constantinople was also taken up, and the project recently advanced from London for a high commission, composed of England, France and Italy was considered.

The advance of the Bolshevik forces on Batoum was also taken up. The military experts gave it as their opinion that the Bolshevik troops were too strong for the forces at Batoum, which should be evacuated.

The English and French representatives opposed the suggestion, pointing out that Batoum was indispensable as an outlet for Armenia, Georgia and Erzeroum, from which the allies were receiving important supplies of oil and manganese.

France, it was brought out, especially opposed it because Batoum is (Continued on Page 9, Column 3).

GENERAL TOWNSEND TO VISIT TORONTO

Hero of Kut Expected to Deliver an Address on May Third.

New York, April 22.—It was announced here tonight that General Sir Charles Townsend, the hero of Kut, will visit Toronto on May 3, and will probably accept an invitation to deliver an address in that city.

Details of the arrangements for his visit to Canada have not yet been worked out. He will likely spend only one day in Toronto.

The famous British general was entertained at luncheon at the Canadian Club today by a number of prominent Canadians resident here.

Among those present were Arthur Knowlson, president of the Canadian Club; Fred W. Shibley, president of the Canadian Society; F. Y. Hebdon, of the Bank of Montreal; Francis, of the Bank of Commerce; Dr. Lambert, president of St. George's Hospital; and Lieut.-Col. J. A. Cooper, chief of the Canadian bureau of information here.

Moratorium Measure May Be Granted New Lease of Life

Unexpected Opposition Develops in Legislature to Government's Proposal That Act Be Declared Non-Effective Next July.

There is a strong probability that the bill of the attorney-general terminating the moratorium act next July will, with the consent of the government, be extended. Unexpected opposition to the measure developed in the legislature yesterday afternoon and it was officially intimated that if good reasons were advanced the present act would be extended for a short time.

Hon. Mr. Raney explained that as the law now stood the moratorium act expires thirty days after the prorogation of the present session of the legislature. In fixing July 1 as the date for the termination of the act the government did so having in view the present favorable condition of the money market as regards the mortgage. Up to the present the mortgagee had plenty of leeway and the mortgagee should now have his innings.

Chicago, April 22.—Wearing overall twenty women volunteers, weighing an average of 220 3-5 pounds, started in today to reduce weight, under the direction of Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner. The menu comprised gardening, long walks, strict dieting, and so on.

The commissioner called for 50 volunteers, half of them men. Twenty fat women and one fat man responded. The man fled when he found the company he was in. The course lasts six weeks.

CAILLAUX GUILTY OF LESSER OFFENCE

Convicted of Having Commerce and Correspondence With the Enemy.

MAY BE BANISHED

Incarceration in Fortress Possible Sentence When Court Convenes Today.

Paris, April 22.—Joseph Caillaux, former premier of France and twice minister of finance, stands tonight convicted of having placed his personal political ambition during the war above the interests of the country that honored him and gave him birth.

Caillaux, while escaping conviction for high treason, was found to have been recklessly imprudent and very close to treasonable ambitions, for such is the interpretation of the verdict of "guilty of commerce and correspondence with the enemy," which was rendered today against him by the French senate.

This is the first verdict of the sort rendered in any of the allied countries since the war began, "commerce," as interpreted by the senators who were the judges, not meaning financial trading, but commerce by means of common ideas, while "correspondence" in this particular sense is employed in the sense of association.

The senators entered Luxembourg palace this afternoon with the determination to have finished the affair, which has taken up their time during the past three months. They began the discussion in a virulent, business-like manner, presenting a strange contrast to their bored attitude during the closing days of the trial.

No one, however, took seriously the prediction that the verdict would be reached this evening. But after the court had disposed of the high treason charge and that of "in- (Continued on Page 9, Column 3).

EXPLORER AMUNDSEN AT ANADIR, SIBERIA

Nome, Alaska, April 22.—A wireless flash from Anadir, Siberia, announces the presence there of Raold Amundsen, the explorer. The details of his arrival are not given.

A message from Anadir suggests that the explorer may have reached that point with a vessel.

Last August Raold Amundsen was reported to be drifting north of western Siberia. Nothing has been heard from Amundsen since September 1, 1918, when his schooner was reported to be taking oil for her motors at Dixson Island, a White Sea point.

From the White Sea Amundsen expected to drift east with the ice to the New Siberian Islands, which lie in the Arctic off Siberia. At the new Siberian islands it was believed the drift would carry him toward, if not across, the pole.

Charge of Cork Jury Against Prominent Men Brought Up in Commons.

London, April 22.—The question has been raised in the house of commons whether the persons accused of murder in the Cork jury verdict at the inquest over the body of Lord Mayor MacCurrian would be brought to trial.

The Attorney-General for Ireland, the Rt. Hon. Denis Henry, in reply, said he was awaiting the report of the evidence given before the coroner before he would consider the matter.

Replying to another query, Mr. Henry said that as it was a matter affecting the public service he could give no further information as to whether the government had proof that Mayor MacCurrian was murdered by a secret society, and if so, why this evidence was not produced at the inquest.

Charges of wilful murder, in the death of Lord Mayor MacCurrian, were made in the verdict brought in by the Cork jury on April 17 against Premier Lloyd George, Lord French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Sir Ian MacPherson, late Chief Secretary for Ireland; Acting Inspector-General of the Royal Irish Constabulary, and other officials.

Three Cabinet Ministers Justify Administration's Attitude in Allowing Private Member to Introduce Temperance Legislation—Labor's Position Defined by Member for Brantford.

The government assumed the defensive yesterday in the legislature on the McCreary resolution to request the Dominion government to grant the province a referendum on the importation of liquor. Three cabinet ministers—the attorney-general, provincial secretary and minister of agriculture—gave a general defence of the position taken by the government of allowing a private member to introduce a measure the responsibility for which should, so many members contend, be assumed by the administration.

The debate was participated in by a labor member, three U.F.O.'s, four Conservatives and two Liberals. Four the end is not yet. Hartley Dewar and Hon. Howard Ferguson, Liberal and Conservative leaders respectively, are still to be heard from.

M. M. McBride, Labor (Brant South), thought a temperance lecture reminiscent of bygone days was "uncalled for. Everybody knew that the liquor traffic. The labor party took the ground that they would go the limit under provincial power in supporting legislation for the control of the traffic. The Ontario government can tell exactly how much liquor comes into the province and where it comes from. When the prohibition law was passed and the trade was suppressed in 1916 the store and hotel-keepers were told to get rid of their stocks. Could not some similar legislation be passed telling those who had stocked up cellars they must get rid of it by a certain date.

The excessive profits made by the provincial vendors were condemned by Mr. McBride, who thought if they sold liquor at actual cost it would go a long way towards putting an end to importation. Profits from the liquor trade constituted the worst kind of tainted money.

The drug traffic was also touched on by Mr. McBride. Drugs dealers were being created by hundreds in the province and this matter should also be dealt with by the government. This evil was a great deal worse than the liquor evil. It demanded immediate attention and he called on the government to take action.

The present O.T.A. should certainly be amended to make it more workable and effective. Returned soldiers, he had heard, told by prominent medical authority who had served in the trenches, need a stimulant all the time and should be able to get it. The O.T.A. was the hardest acts to enforce he ever heard of.

He believed in majority rule, but a great section of the province had voted "no" and they had their rights, which should be recognized.

When social uplift and reform were carried to extremes, disaster was the result. In the states there was the gross instances of this, as the vote taken in Vermont showed. That state's a stronghold of prohibition. That state, far a reaction had set in and the vote was decided by a narrow margin.

After paying his respects to the Union government at Ottawa, Mr. MacBride said that in view of that the Drury Rowell, were behind the proposed referendum in Ontario. The scheming hand of that Ottawa politician was plainly to be seen.

Prohibition was a plank in the U.F.O. platform, and in view of that the Drury Rowell, were behind the proposed referendum in Ontario. The scheming hand of that Ottawa politician was plainly to be seen.

M'CREARY BILL UNDER DISCUSSION

government should itself bring down legislation and stop the Ottawa crowd from passing the bill.

As for the expense of taking a referendum, he thought that if the province was called on for an expression of opinion, the government should go also to the country among with the referendum and thus show their sincerity and honesty of purpose. As things were at present the proposed referendum was simply a gold brick.

The announcement of the member for East Kent to prepare a stated case for the province's legal position, should the referendum be taken, should be supported, continued Mr. MacBride.

At the opening of the evening session the speaker was slim among all groups and the speaker raised a laugh when he said: "Shall the question now be put?"

Joseph Thompson (Conservative, North-east Toronto), who continued the debate, told the house he had endorsed the O.T.A. at the time of its introduction, and would do the same thing today. It was a good war-time measure. The present government, he thought, should bring down legislation on its own responsibility.

Hon. Manning Doherty, minister of agriculture, said the government were not concerned with a vote on the McCreary resolution, according to party lines, but rather wanted a vote according to the dictates of conscience. He added he would support bona dry legislation if the people of the province voted for it.

J. R. Cooke (Conservative, North Hastings), was against both the proposed amendments, and favored the McCreary resolution, calling for a referendum being the most effective way of dealing with present conditions.

The attorney-general then took up the fight on behalf of the government. He explained the three propositions before the house—to ask the Dominion for a referendum to secure a stated case as to the province's exact legal position to the government, on its own responsibility, introduce legislation. He told of the objections to a stated case. It would cause untold delay through appeals.

The Attorney-General: Yes, but not

The speaker had no objection to this unusual procedure. He said, and while Mr. Raney was on his feet, Hartley Dewar entered the house and, not understanding what had taken place, drew the attention of the speaker to the attorney-general's attitude.

Mr. Raney explained how he had secured permission to speak as he did so as to be better heard by the majority of the members of the house.

Mr. Dewar: Yes, and by the more sympathetic audience. (Laughter.)

Mr. MacBride (Brantford), asked the attorney-general if he could give the same opinion. Prominent provincial no litigation in the event of the McCreary resolution carrying.

The speaker's throne was draped with a big Union Jack in honor of the anniversary of St. Julien.

Lieut.-Col. H. S. Cooper seconded a resolution by Lieut.-Col. D. Carmichael, permanent memorial for Ontario soldiers in favor of providing some form of permanent memorial for Ontario soldiers who fell during the great war. The house endorsed the suggestion, and a committee will be appointed to consider the best form of memorial, and will report back to the next session of the legislature.

DEMAND THAT RUSSIA GIVE PLAIN ANSWER

London, April 22.—Another note received from the Russian Soviet government today regarding Great Britain's request for protection for the Crimea still leaves the situation unsatisfactory, in the opinion of the foreign office.

The Russians in their third note asked Great Britain to open personal negotiations, which are considered here to be unnecessary. Consequently the government has again transmitted to the Soviet government its original proposition, with a request that Russia answer yes or no.

Dr. Forbes Godfrey (Conservative, West York), told the house he had never made a doctor's prescriptions for amendment to vote for the government to share all the responsibility for any future temperance legislation. It was time pussyfooting should cease and the temperance question removed from politics.

GERMANY STARTS TRIALS OF HER WAR CRIMINALS

Leipzig, April 22.—The preliminary proceedings for the trial by the supreme court of German war criminals has begun, but, according to the Neueste Nachrichten, they are being rendered difficult by "the partly incomplete and partly erroneous data, supplied by the allied lists of accused."

The data of the main trial has not been fixed.

The preliminaries also have begun in the case against Wolfgang Kapp and Major-General Baron Von Luttwitz and their associates in the recent uprising, who are charged with high treason. The mass of evidence in the case is still increasing.

PROGRESSIVES PUSH HIGH-FIVE BRIDGE ACROSS HUMBER

Bloor Street Association Hears W. F. Maclean on Civic Improvements.

REMEMBER VIADUCT

The Bloor Street Progressive Association last night decided to push the propaganda campaign in connection with the proposed high level bridge over the Humber river at Bloor street.

A meeting will be held next Thursday, when the Bloor Street Association will confer with the Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association, the Ward Seven members of the city council and local government representatives, with regard to sending deputations to the Ontario legislature and the board of control for the forwarding of this bridge and the improvement of Bloor street from High Park avenue to Jane street.

W. F. Maclean, M.P., addressed last night's meeting, which was held in the real estate office of E. L. LePage, Runnymede road and Bloor street. He has always taken an interest in public questions, Mr. Maclean began, "but I have taken a special interest in transportation problems. The hardest fight I ever fought was for the Bloor street viaduct and it is now the greatest single improvement in Canada. The whole east end of the city was opened by the construction of this bridge, and Danforth is now one of the finest and busiest streets in the city. I can remember when Danforth was only a township concession, and I saw it 'kick along' for years without going ahead."

Mr. Maclean then pointed out that at the west end of the city should advance as rapidly as did the eastern section if the west is given as fine an entrance to the city as Danforth. He stated that the construction of the Humber bridge is the last link in the chain which will make Toronto a city with a million population. The proposed bridge will link up the eastern section of the government highway with Dundas road and the west; whereas, if it is not built the highway will have to make a detour of one and one-half miles around by Dundas street and will encounter three grades of 7 p.c., 7 1/2 p.c. and 9 p.c., while if the Humber bridge is constructed only two grades of 3 p.c. and 4 1/2 p.c. will be met.

Ravines Hamper Toronto "I have thought over this matter a good deal," continued Mr. Maclean, "and I find that one of the main reasons Toronto back was the inability to cross ravines. In olden times people thought that all they had to do to cross streams was to throw across beams and lay brush on top, but the feasibility of these was shown when they were swept away by floods. "Tosendale was a great financial success, but it was the high level bridge at Sherbourne street that made it a success, and the proposed bridge over the Humber will do the same for the west end."

The speaker pointed out that the whole Toronto district was once a fairly level plain sloping toward the lake, but the constant wearing away of very old rivers had cut deep ravines, which greatly impede transportation. He stated that the highways should be brought back to the original level by the construction of high-level bridges.

Credit to U.F.O. To connect the roads east and west of Toronto is simply a matter of bridging the Humber and Don, and now only a matter of bridging the Humber, continued Mr. Maclean. "I give the farmers' government credit for appointing a minister of public works who was only in a few weeks before he saw that to have good roads the valleys must be raised to the level of the ridges. The new system of good roads must follow the old roads, but the ravines must be raised to one level."

Mr. Maclean showed that to have continuity, the new government road should run down Danforth road and Danforth avenue, along Bloor street to Dundas, and then on Yarmouth gardens, other proceeding in the opposite direction, driven by J. Wiselade of Oxford street. Albert Vale's daughter sustained injuries, but the others escaped unhurt.

Must Co-operate. "All the municipal organizations must go together and press the government to build the bridges," declared the speaker. "I am seized with the importance of this thing. I recognize it as one of the most important problems that have ever come before the district. It will be of value to everyone—to farmer, villager, resident of the city, and motorist alike. "I have an inkling that Sir Adam's negotiations for the bridges, if successful will be completed at an early date, and when this is finished, a way must be found to connect the municipal line on Bloor street to the municipal line on St. Clair. This will be another great development," he concluded.

R. Home Smith declared that "Toronto is the hub of the provincial wheel," and is just as important to Ontario as the province is to Toronto. "The government is going to put $25,000,000 into good roads, and what good will it be unless free access to Toronto is gained," argued Mr. Home Smith. "It is only common-sense to say that if this sum is spent on everything we're lending some of that money," put in Mr. Maclean.

"That's right, but if this money is to be spent to the best advantage, proper entrances to Toronto must be built. From the north we now only have Yonge street thru Hog's Hollow. "And that isn't the good," said the editor of The World.

No Eastern Entrance. "There is no really good entrance from the east," continued Mr. Home Smith. "Danforth, the King road, is cut congested entrance, so that it is up to the government to make that $25,000,000 serve the province by providing entrances to Toronto. "Every farmer from Etobicoke travels three miles farther on a return trip to get to Toronto and has to go up bad grades as well. The problem of entrance at the Humber, Yonge street, and at the Danforth must be solved. The home minister of public works and highways is ready if the public get behind him, and the way to show we are behind him is by deputations. A deputation should also be sent down to the board of control with a request to fix up Bloor street from High Park to Jane."

Pep and Go Needed. Mr. Home Smith strongly urged that a better system of communication be installed between the heart of the city and Keels and Dundas, where the suburban cars unload their passengers. He pointed out that it now takes 45 minutes to get downtown from this point, which should not take more than fifteen minutes. "The government won't do this thing unless you get after them. You can have the whole thing finished next year if you have pep and go," he concluded.

Extend Congratulations. Alderman Sam Ryding congratulated the association for its progressive policy, and W. F. Maclean for his work in connection with civic and suburban improvements, saying that Mr. Maclean is to be credited with the construction of the Bloor street viaduct. In pointing out the need for better highways in the western section of the city, Ald. Ryding said: "It is up to you, and I see that some of this $25,000,000 is spent in the west end. What we need is a permanent line to Runnymede and a temporary line to Jane street, which would greatly help the west end."

Deputy Reeve W. J. Gardhouse, on behalf of Etobicoke council, gave his hearty support to the proposed bridge over the Humber. Geo. M. Gortou, A. E. K. Bunnell, and representatives of the board of trade also spoke. The latter stated that they would only listen to arguments in favor of the bridge, but reported that the public service committee is favorably discussing the matter. President J. A. MacPherson, who occupied the chair, stated that he was glad to see public bodies taking such a keen interest in the matter.

LACK OF NEW CARS STIRS MAYOR'S FIRE

Also Demands Action to Enforce Building of the Viaduct.

WHO IS LEGAL HEAD?

Some Opposition to Proposal to Rent Space in Registry Office to County.

Mayor Church embraced the opportunity at the board of control meeting yesterday to again pay his respects to the Ontario Railway Board, the Toronto Railway Company and city legal advisers over the lack of street cars, and to the railways over the delay in getting the railway viaduct under way.

"Here we have been for nine years trying to get cars, and nothing has been accomplished. The railway board has done nothing for us, and the whole bunch ought to be fired," he declared. "Have we power to fire them?" asked Controller Maguire, meekly.

His worship recalled that an effort had been made to have the provincial government reorganize the railway board.

The mayor also declared that if outside counsel had been secured to handle the street car situation, the city might have made better headway. He was in favor of dropping the appeal now before the railway board to compel the Toronto Railway Company to provide cars.

Corporation Counsel Geary remarked that the evidence was all in, and it was just a question of awaiting judgment.

That ended the discussion regarding cars, but the mayor drafted a resolution that application be made to the board of railway commissioners for a further order to enforce the terms of the agreement with the railways regarding the building of the railway viaduct.

At the suggestion of Controller Maguire, the city legal department will be asked to report on the powers of the city to appeal to the courts in case of a refusal of the railway board.

Who is legal head? "Who is head of the city legal department?" asked Mayor Church. No body seemed to know, so his worship scribbled a notice of motion calling for a declaration by the board to clear up that matter.

Appointment of Draftsmen. A recommendation by city architect, that two draftsmen, R. McSymonds and James H. Lowry, be appointed to his staff at a salary of $2500 each, was held up for a report as to whether they are returned men or not.

The secretary pointed out that one James H. Lowry had been appointed in February at a salary of $1800. The inference was that the same man is now recommended for a salary of $2500.

The works committee's recommendation that P. McMassey, on the street, be given permission to construct a garage under his residence which would necessitate the widening of the boulevard to a considerable depth, was rejected by the board.

In order to avoid the expense of special elections to fill any vacancies on the board of education, City Clerk Littlejohn wrote to the board of control suggesting that the law be amended to vacate the school board to fill any vacancies occurring after May 1. The board endorsed the idea.

Township Wants Water. Another appeal was made by A. W. Balaityne, representing the Robert Davies estate, to the board of control to come to some decision on the question of supplying water to the portion of the township of York immediately adjoining the city limit north of Danforth avenue.

Controller Gibbons thought the matter should be disposed of one way or another, but no action was taken.

Joint Registry. A report that negotiations were proceeding between the property commissioner and the county with regard to placing the registry offices of both municipalities under one roof brought from the mayor the observation that the city should be divorced from the county every way. He suggested that the county was not paying its share of administration of county justice.

Police Court Re-Organization. The board made some revisions of the motion by Ald. Fieschi calling for a re-organization of the police court and department. The clause calling for the retirement of magistrates automatically at the age of 70 was voted out.

The clause empowering council to appoint three assessors to the police commission was killed by a 10-5 vote, the mayor and Controller Maguire voting against it.

The board recommended grants of $1000 to William Fodick and Robert Belsley to compensate them for damage to wearing apparel when they rescued two persons from the lake some weeks ago.

The property committee's recommendation that the city architect and the fire prevention convention was revised to provide for sending only a representative of the fire department.

The board called for a report on the number of houses that would have to be demolished to clear the art gallery property.

No action was taken on the letter from Mrs. Emma Scott Nasmyth, asking the mayor to call a public meeting to take up the question of the erection of a Toronto temple of music.

The board recommended remission of the fine imposed on Dr. John Adams in connection with violations of the plumbing bylaw.

GOING HIGHER IN UTAH. Ogden, Utah, April 22.—Mayor Frank Fremont announced today a city investigation is being made of charges that stores had raised the price of goods because of the widespread movement for overall clubs to combat the high cost of the clothing. The mayor said the result of the investigation would be published.

CITY HALL NOTES

The housing question will be threshed out before the board of control this morning. Both the gull plan and the suggestions from the Builders' Exchange will be heard, and a report will be made ready for council on Monday.

Hundreds of letters are going to members of council, complaining against the boosting of rents. The assessment commissioner has suggestions for dealing with the problem, which will come before the board of control next week.

Ald. Nesbit will raise in council the question of having some of the revenue from motor licenses go to the city treasury.

A suggestion of Mayor Church, Assessment Commissioner Foreman endeavored to secure the use of public buildings and hotels not now in use for families in need of living quarters. He reports on a number of places available, including the Palmer House, which he estimates can be made suitable for tenants for $100,000.

TERAULAY EXTENSION BEFORE BOARD TODAY

Some Local Improvements May Be Held Up, Owing to High Interest Rate.

Half a million dollars was cut off the four million dollar list of local improvements by the committee on works last week, and remarks of controllers yesterday would indicate that the list is in for another pruning at the hands of the board of control this morning. Members of the board took a brief glance at the figures yesterday and decided to call the finance commissioner into conference this morning.

Mr. Bradshaw, who was present yesterday, again raised the question of interest on money for improvement works. "The province is paying eight per cent," said the commissioner.

"Eight per cent," re-echoed the mayor feelingly, "well we had better stop the whole thing right up. The Teraulay street extension, I consider very urgent but there are many works that can be dispensed with this year."

Controller Ramsden remarked that there was little chance of getting relief from traffic congestion without the Teraulay street extension.

BOARD IS UNDECIDED RE DAYLIGHT SAVING

With Controller Cameron absent, the board of control yesterday voted against daylight saving and immediately adopted a resolution to reconsider it today. Controller Ramsden's resolution that the change be adopted, effective May 1, received only the support of the mayor and Controller Maguire. Controller Gibbons was opposed and Controller Maguire urged that decision be withheld until today.

His motion to delay was adopted with Controller Ramsden opposing. "If the board does not decide soon I will settle the matter myself the way I did last year," said the mayor.

WANT NEW HOSPITAL NEAR THE GENERAL

A deputation opposed to the erection of a reception hospital on the Trinity College grounds had a conference with the board of control yesterday. They wanted the hospital located near the General Hospital and said that the aid of the provincial government was being sought. A request was also made that temporary quarters for mental cases be secured until the permanent hospital is ready. The board will consider the situation. Some of the members of the deputation were Prof. Anderson, Mrs. A. Huestis, Canon Plumtree and Dr. Clarke.

OWEN SOUND WILL NOW BECOME CITY

Legislative Committee Gives Town Permission to Realize Ambitions.

I. B. Lucas, representing the county of Grey, and Hon. F. C. Biggs, minister of public works, vigorously opposed an act to incorporate the city of Owen Sound before the private bills committee of the legislature yesterday morning. The committee finally decided to pass the measure, providing the applicants made an agreement satisfactory to the minister of public works.

The county is not particularly concerned about Owen Sound becoming a city, said Mr. Lucas. The main object of the town, however, is to get out of the good roads payment. He said that the county of Grey irrevocably pledged to a system of 400 miles of good roads, and having got all the roads, the town is practically saying to the county: "Now you go ahead and pay for them."

W. B. Wright, K.C., the solicitor for the town, denied that they were trying to escape the good road bargain.

CARR-HARRIS SUIT

Witness for Defendants Admits Meetings Brought Large Orders From British.

Further evidence was adduced in the action by R. R. Carr-Harris against the Canadian General Electric Company for $43,280 commission, alleged due on orders for shells for the imperial government. J. A. Milne of the defendant company said he had been sent to England, along with the plaintiff, and that they had been together at most of the interviews at the British war office. He admitted that as a result of these meetings a large volume of business accrued to the defendants.

J. D. Axworth, assistant general manager of defendant company, said they got continuing orders as they applied for them and knew of no outside influence which had to be used to get them. They simply shared with the other Canadian manufacturers in the orders.

Mr. Axworth also said that he had had negotiations with Sir Joseph Flavelle for contracts for forgings. The shell committee inspected the Canadian plants and if they were satisfied that the firms could do the work, the contracts were divided amongst them. He denied that the plaintiff had anything to do with the securing of this. The hearing was adjourned.

CLAIM FOR ACCOUNTING

Evidence was heard by Mr. Justice Kelly yesterday in the action brought by Andrew A. Res against the executors of J. B. Holden and J. Y. Ormsby for an accounting of the profits of the sale of the stock of the Woolen Mills, the Standard Woolen Mills, and the Bonner-Worth Company to Canadian Woolens, which the plaintiff alleged were due to him under an agreement. The defendants deny that the plaintiff is entitled to any share in the profits from the sale of the Bonner-Worth stock.

TAXICABS ALLOWED TO STAND IN STREETS

Mayor's Suggestion, That They Be Cleared Out, Rejected by Board.

Mayor Church took strong objection to a report of the commissioner of works, and endorsed by the works committee that a number of downtown streets be designated for taxi stands. He questioned the statement that the police department had given its approval. Chief Grasett when summoned endorsed the report entirely.

"Then I don't wonder that the police department is criticized," replied the mayor, to which the chief replied that the board did not like his recommendation it was their privilege to reject it. Taxi stands, he said, were a public necessity. They were found in every big city in the world and were needed here.

Property owners on Scott street are complaining, said the mayor, about the congestion by taxicabs, and he thought the owners of these cars ought to be compelled to buy property for stands.

"Let everybody use Fords and hang them on the poles," was Controller Maguire's suggestion. The report was adopted without amendment.

A Most Trying Time In A School Girl's Life

"Nothing is more common with physicians" writes Hon. Dr. W. H. Roberts, Minister of Health, New Brunswick, "than to find that during the few weeks preceding the closing of the school term, we are visited by mothers having with them their daughters who have been cramming for final examinations and in the majority of instances the story related is something like this—'Doctor! I have brought Mary to you to see if you can do something for her. You know she has been leading her class nearly all of the term; she is competing for the Governor-General's Medal, and we are so anxious that she be successful; but of late it is so hard for her to study, her head aches, she has no appetite, we cannot force her to partake of food, her bowels are constipated, she is so nervous, Doctor; she cannot get to sleep, sometimes for hours after she retires.'"

"She is so white and frail looking. We also notice her twitching her face, eyelids and mouth a lot, and of late tossing her head to and fro and we are fearful, if something is not done, she will not hold out and we do, so much, want her to take the honours she has worked so hard for all winter."

"We take a look at the girl and find that in almost every particular the word picture of the mother quite correctly describes the condition found. We find she is truly very anaemic in appearance, tongue quite heavily coated, generally far below the average weight. We notice, too, the nervous symptoms spoken of by the mother, simulating a beginning chorea, or St. Vitus' dance. Upon examination of the heart, which she complains about as beating rapidly at times, there is revealed a functional murmur, and suspecting from her headache some possible eye complications, we have her see an oculist, who reports severe condition of astigmatism. At the same time, bear in mind, nature is doing her best to shapen and perfect her scheme of physical economy."

Such remarkable results are being obtained by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, under conditions as well described by Dr. Roberts, that it becomes a duty as well as a pleasure to tell others about it.

This letter from Mrs. Parks of 72 Picton St., Hamilton, Ont., is very interesting in this connection. She writes:—"Five years ago my little girl was taken ill with St. Vitus' dance, and for four years we doctored her, trying several doctors and different remedies without curing her. She could not walk or get around at all, and we had to feed her, as she was unable to hold a spoon in her hand. Her tongue was affected so that we could scarcely understand her when she talked. One day a friend of mine who knew of the benefits of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food advised me to give my little girl some. I acted upon her advice, and soon could notice a difference. She was quieting down and commenced to eat better. I continued the treatment for some time, and she gradually got stronger and healthier. She recovered from her nervous trouble and was able to get around nicely. We are very grateful to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for the cure it effected for our daughter."

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 23.

Memory and Pledge.

Fittingly the house of commons, on the eve of St. Julien Day, appointed a special committee to devise memorials for the battle grounds most covered by the Canadian slain during the great war.

All the late fighting areas are scarred by the battles whose story can never be adequately told. In a little while there will be restoration, the not obliteration of all save the tombs and cenotaphs.

It may not be possible to express in chiseled stone or moulded bronze what Canada lost and what Canada has gained by these battles.

Hands that the rod of empire might have aweaved. Or woke to ecstasy the living lyre. If it is impossible to record what has been taken away, it is even more impossible to set forth what remains—chiefly in a national and an individual responsibility which neither nation nor people is too well fitted to carry into peace and reconstruction.

Drury's Missed Chance. The private member's resolution, that is to settle a prime question of provincial policy, appears likely to carry in the legislature, it was put forward in abrogation of the doctrine of ministerial responsibility which is the corner stone of the Canadian system of government.

Nothing is more deplorable in latter-day British history than the surrender of parliamentary authority, initiative and correction to the cabinet in every Britannaic country. It has been accompanied, or rather, caused, by a declining sense of what parliamentary government means.

Mr. Drury started on a promising theoretical road, but he has temporarily tripped in action. Because the temperance forces have quarreled among themselves is no reason why the ministerial responsibility of the government should be confused thru a dispute that raged around two men belonging to another sort of ministry.

have been ignored by the government. The dominating fact of its situation was the province's overwhelming declaration for prohibition by the October referendum.

Ontario was then living in a state of prohibition, which most people believed to be a state of grace. It is no stretch of truth to say that the majority vote was, fundamentally, a vote for the sort of prohibition minus importation.

Mr. Drury would have preferred to proceed in this direction with a government measure. But he frankly confesses that he met difficulties among his supporters. If they failed to furnish a majority for a referendum, he might meet hostility from the other groups which would defeat the referendum and destroy the government.

But why didn't he go ahead and take the big chance on the big policy? He would in the end carry the public sentiment with him, or he would not. A hostile majority in the house would put the government's convictions about democracy to the touch.

Unless the signs belie, the event will prove that the legislature is not to be asked for a bold staking of chances on the government's adhesion to ministerial responsibility? Next time the premier will probably recognize that there is more real importance in being earnest than there can ever reside in being timid.

'Ware Overalls! 'Ware. Solid again, if the reading of the run on denim hereafter to be summarized is worth its face value. Did it not seem just a little peculiar that the game of wearing cotton overalls in protest against the high cost of more customary clothes started in the southern States, where strenuous reforms do not commonly arise?

The yarn is reported without acceptance, but with clear recognition of the fact, which was discussed here the other day, that a run on overalls will raise the price of the materials in the south, with consummate skill, the southern cotton growers must be chucking, regardless of whether they are as clever as they are said to be.

A Grand Trunk Bawl. There is no pleasing the Grand Trunk shareholders, who have drunk deeply from the fountains of bitterness opened for them by Chairman Smithers before, and at the meeting which authorized the agreement for nationalizing the system two months ago.

Nothing is more deplorable in latter-day British history than the surrender of parliamentary authority, initiative and correction to the cabinet in every Britannaic country. It has been accompanied, or rather, caused, by a declining sense of what parliamentary government means.

THE REAL CURE FOR NORTH TORONTO

"This is not fair, and the commission should be appointed without delay." Quite so. The commission should be appointed, and the whole business cleared up.

Further evidence was taken last night before Fire Marshal Heaton at the city hall in connection with a fire which destroyed three stores in New Toronto last March. The cross-examinations were carried out by the Toronto Fire Department.

The point to be observed, too, is that the complainant, who writes from the stock exchange, speaks of "the harshly-treated stockholders" in the same sentence in which he grows because the £3000 a day is not hurried along—a £3000 a day, obviously, the Grand Trunk's present management cannot find, and which is only possible thru public ownership.

Senator Bennett Says Returns "A Farce"—Urges Publishing Names. Ottawa, April 22—Canadian Press. Two bills went thru a committee stage of the senate today. One seeks to unify the practice of provincial divorce courts; the other provides for the identification of persons trading in German goods.

Senator Bennett of Simcoe advocated publicity for income tax payers. There were some tax dodgers who would be reported and listed if communities were informed who were paying that in Toronto an income of $100,000 or over was returned by thirteen persons.

Germany Has Paid Only Commission's Expenses. London, April 22—Replying to questions in the house of commons today, as to the amount of reparations Germany has made to the allies under the peace treaty, Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, after referring to considerable deliveries of ships and coal, said: "The only cash received is that required to meet current expenses of commission. There is no reason to suppose that Germany will not be able to pay a very considerable contribution, as she is bound to do under the treaty."

PROBE RESUMED ON MENDLESOHN FIRE

Further evidence was taken last night before Fire Marshal Heaton at the city hall in connection with a fire which destroyed three stores in New Toronto last March. The cross-examinations were carried out by the Toronto Fire Department.

The four men had been acquitted shortly after their arrival in this country they had separated. Mendlesohn went to Montreal, where he conducted a second-hand store. Distrusting banks, he had kept the proceeds of his sales on his person and in cash, and had brought it, thus to Toronto.

GERMANY OBSTRUCTS ALLIED COMMISSION

Paris, April 22—General Masterman, a member of the entire commission of control in Germany, in a report made public today, severely arraigned Germany for the way the inter-allied commission has been obstructed in its mission. He says that all sorts of difficulties have been placed in the commission's way and that access to places the commission desired to inspect has been prevented.

ANNOUNCE CHANGE IN FRANCHISE BILL

Ottawa, April 22.—(By Canadian Press).—In the house of commons today the franchise bill was again in the limelight. The question at issue was that of alienation of enemy birth. When the bill entered on committee stage, the criticism was made that women, naturalized by marriage, would not be enfranchised under its provisions, altho resident in Canada long before the war, and some of them, mothers of men who fought for Canada in the war.

On the motion for third reading of the Grand Trunk Railway bill, at the evening sitting, Hon. C. J. Doherty introduced an amendment which makes it clear that the government is not authorized to lend money to the board of management of the railway without the specific authority of parliament.

THE GIRL WHO SMILED THRU

By MARION RUBINCAM

TO THE CITY. CHAPTER 85. Alice had never loved Lawrence as much as she did the last few weeks before she left for the city.

"I remember. But I can't take it. Why it's worth hundreds!" Alice protested. "Please do, dear. I'd like to think of you wearing it. I can picture you so well in it. You look so pretty with all the fur around you."

"You will love me, won't you?" Lawrence asked, as unaware as any lover of the futurity of such a question. "Of course I will," Alice answered, her eyes happily smiling as she looked at him. "You've been so sweet and dear, Lawrence."

"I'll write you twice a week," Alice promised. "Lawrence, dear, I am so happy. I'm actually going to the city to live there, to be among new and interesting people. It's going to be wonderful. I don't want anything but the privilege of studying in a real college, and of walking about thru streets crowded with millions of other people, of seeing gigantic buildings—she broke off with a sigh of pure happiness."

"What an enthusiastic child you are!" Lawrence laughed. "Well, you will want more than that when you get there. You'll want to taste a little of the many-sided life of the big city." "But I won't forget you for a moment," Alice said, turning her eyes now blue and tender, to him. "I'll not let you forget me. I'll find lots of ways of reminding you of me," he said, with a little air of mystery.

At a conference held last night between the master printers and bookbinders of Toronto and representatives of Local No. 91, International Typographical Union, the former offered a ten per cent. increase bonus upon the present weekly wages, this increase to go into effect on May 1, 1920. They stated that they were making this offer in spite of the fact that their present agreement with the union still had many months to run. The offer will be presented at a special meeting of the union to be held tomorrow night at the Labor Temple.

Baseball Toronto 10 Reading 7

LEAFS POUNDED THREE PITCHERS

Manager Duffy Makes Great Start at Reading—Shea Careless in Ninth.

O'ROURKE SIX HITS

Special to The Toronto World. Reading, Pa., April 22.—The International League season was opened in this game, which was a rather wild ball game, which went to the Toronto 10 to 7. The Leafs pounded three Reading pitchers for a total of 23 hits, and the ninth inning, when Reading staged a batting rally which ended in a 10-7 victory.

Due to the elaborate opening ceremonies, in which Mayor J. K. Stauffer and other local public officials participated, the game was delayed for nearly two and a half hours to decide the issue, and darkness was coming over the field when the last play was made.

O'Rourke had a great day at bat. Out of six times at the plate, he hit each every time, three times for doubles, no bases being allowed on a hit because of the crowd's back right and left field.

Every man on the Toronto team, with the exception of Whiteman, the star slugger, and Shea, had a great share in the hitting. Shea pitched a great game until the ninth, when he got a bit careless and allowed the Reading players to land on him for seven safeties. Up to that time he had held the Reading team to six hits.

Karp, a former New York State League man, started the game for Reading, and performed fairly well until the sixth, when he was pounded heavily. Justin, one of last year's Toronto pitchers, was sent in as relief over the remainder of the inning. Barrels, who was a member of Reading's pitching staff last year, started the eighth, but he was not very successful in stopping the Toronto batters.

Toronto tied the score in the third after Shea fanned. O'Rourke doubled into the crowd behind left field. Spencer walked. Whiteman was out on a high fly to Weiser, and O'Rourke scored on O'Neil's two-runner. In the fifth inning Toronto took the lead. After Shea fanned, O'Rourke got another double into the crowd. Spencer and O'Rourke scored on Whiteman's only single.

Toronto scored five runs in the sixth with Blackburn, who pitched to right field and went to third on a wild pitch. Sanberg was hit by a pitched ball. Anderson scored on Shea's bunt and Shea was safe on a fielder's choice. Sanberg scored on O'Rourke's single. At this point Justin replaced Karp in the pitcher's box. Spencer immediately made a single and scored Shea. Whiteman walked. O'Rourke and Spencer scored on O'Neil's double. Blackburn fanned.

Three more runs came to the Leafs in the eighth, after O'Neil flied to Burns, Riley doubled and scored on Blackburn's double. Blackburn scored on Anderson's single and Anderson went to second on a wild pitch, scoring on Sanberg's hit.

Reassuring Statements of Banking Interests Tend to Check Panicky Feeling.

LIBERTY BONDS OFF

New York, April 22.—The stock market recovered today much of the ground lost during yesterday's demoralized trading, despite the concerted effort of an unbroken short interest to effect further shrinkage of quoted values.

Assurances extended overnight from banking interests that loan market conditions were fundamentally sound, were borne out by the easy rate for call money, which ruled at seven per cent throughout the session.

Stocks that suffered greatest depreciation yesterday were among the three banking interests that loan market conditions were fundamentally sound.
