First Gun in the Campaign Fired Last Night—Indications Are That Northumberland Will Send Four Sturdy Men To Fredericton to Support "Premier Hazen".

CHATHAM, N. B., Feb. 1.—(Special)—The first gun in the campaign in Northumberland county for better government was fired last night when an enthusiastic meeting of Liberals and Conservatives opposed to the local government, sixteen delegates were elected to represent Chatham parish at the opposition convention which will be held here on Monday, Feb. 23, to choose four candidates for the local house. The meeting was held in the town hall and the large assembly room was filled with industrial citizens. Geo. E. Fisher president of the local opposition association presided and W. L. T. Weldon acted as secretary. Delegates were elected as follows: Edward Galloway, Thomas Fitzpatrick, Roger Flanagan, John T. Stewart, Michael Haley, John A. Grey, J. Fred Benson, Charles Bernard, Anthony Adams, Henry Morris, C. M. Messervey, Ed. Baile, J. L. Stewart, Chas. Cassidy, Col. McCully, John Bell.

Cecil Cooper Badly Burned

Seven-year-old Boy Sustained Painful Injuries While Playing With a Lamp.

Shrouded in flames, and crying for help, seven-year-old Cecil Cooper, son of William A. Cooper, of 141 Mecklenburg street, started everyone in the house, and is now lying in a critical condition as a result of severe burns.

The little fellow was playing with a toy lamp when his night-gown caught fire and was soon a mass of flames. His frantic cries started everybody in the house, and Dr. T. D. Walker was hastily summoned and found that his little patient, besides having been painfully burned, was suffering from a severe nervous shock, and his condition is regarded as serious.

Brought Crew of Wrecked "Perry C."

Captain Hawx and Sailors Now Enroute to St. John From Parrsboro.

PARRSBORO, Feb. 1.—(Special)—The steamer Ring arrived here this morning from Portland having on board the crew of the term schooner "Perry C.", consisting of Captain Hawx and five men. The "Perry C." from Fall River, St. John, in ballast, struck on Little Duck Island, off Mount Desert, on Tuesday night in a thick snow storm and became a total wreck. The crew managed to reach this shore where they remained thirty-six hours until rescued by the Ring on Thursday. They suffered greatly from cold and exposure as the mercury was below zero and would probably have perished if the Ring had not gone to the island to get smooth water as they were out of sight of the life-saving station on Cranberry Island. The captain and crew left for St. John this morning. The "Perry C." was built at Port Greville two years ago, was 287 tons register and was owned by Captain Hawx and others of St. John.

THE GEORGIAN BAY SHIP CANAL

Project Considered at Annual Meeting of North Bay Board of Trade.

NORTH BAY, Ont., Feb. 1.—(Special)—At the annual meeting of the board of trade held yesterday the Georgian Bay ship canal was the principal subject for discussion and the government proposition of a royal commission in the matter was vigorously condemned in speeches. The gist of these was that all information necessary had been obtained from the surveys and the commission would merely add to its expense, delay the project and accomplish no real good. A united effort will be made by the boards of trade and citizens of all communities between Port William and Ottawa to impress the government with the wisdom of beginning construction at once.

WRECK ON THE GRAND TRUNK

PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 1.—The Grand Trunk train from Chicago and Montreal due here at about 6 o'clock Friday evening did not arrive until after midnight, owing to a bad smash-up near Compton, Que., in which two freight trains were involved. No damage was done to the passenger train but it was held on the other side of the wreck more than six hours. The wreck was a rear-end collision, one of the trains being a coal train. The coal was set on fire and at last accounts was burning fiercely. There were no personal injuries, members of each crew safely jumping. The traffic was not resumed until a temporary track was built around the wreckage.

MONTREAL STOCKS

MONTREAL, Feb. 1.—Stock trading was light again today. Mexican Light and Power, which started on an upward movement, opened at 91 1/4, and soon advanced to 94.34, compared with 49 at the opening yesterday. Soo Common was strong at 94.

THE ICE CUTTING

A year ago today the St. John Ice Co. had all its ice stored. This year it has not as yet stored a single pound. The snow is now being cleared from the lake and if the weather holds the cutting of ice will probably begin on Monday.

OTTAWA CAUGHT IN BLIZZARD

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 1.—(Special)—After two days with the thermometer dropping as far as 29 degrees below zero, Ottawa is caught in a blizzard, the like of which has not been experienced for many years.

MERELY HARRY K. THAW HAS BEEN DECLARED NOT GUILTY ON INSANITY PLEA AND HAS BEEN SENT TO AN ASYLUM

His Plea of Insanity Was Successful in Saving His Neck—He Has Been Committed to Matteawan Asylum for the Criminal Insane—Attorney Littleton Protests.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Harry K. Thaw has been declared Not Guilty on the ground of insanity at the time he killed Stanford White and probably will be committed to an asylum.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Justice Dowling has committed Harry Thaw to Matteawan Asylum for the Criminal Insane and ordered him taken there at once for an indefinite period. Justice Dowling said he deemed Thaw's discharge would be dangerous to the public safety.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Attorney Littleton has filed an exception to Justice Dowling's decision committing Thaw to the asylum.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—After having argued and battled all night long in the stuffy little jury room adjoining the chamber of the criminal branch of the supreme court, the Thaw jury this morning heartily welcomed their release from confinement when shortly before 8 o'clock they were taken up town to breakfast.

Several of the jurymen are well along in years and the all night session seemed to have gone badly with them. Their faces were drawn and tense and the good nature and companionship which had been so noticeable in this jury ever since the past was completed during the first week of the trial was gone. If there was wrangling or ill-feeling in the jury room the blue-coated guards outside the court room heard nothing of it.

One of the worst storms of the winter, with rain, snow and sleet alternately swept before a stingy northwest gale with rain as the jury went to breakfast.

TALK WITH J. H. ROBERTS

Temperance Evangelist Chats Interestingly on His Life Work.

John H. Roberts the noted temperance orator who is to carry on a campaign here under the auspices of the New Brunswick Temperance Federation arrived in the city on today's Boston train and is stopping at the Clifton House.

A Times man who called upon him had an interesting talk with him. Of conditions in England he said the sentiment there was setting in strongly in favor of a prohibitory law.

Mr. Roberts' views are probably different in a measure from those of previous temperance speakers here as he favors the sentiment preceding the law to prohibit the sale of liquor.

Mr. Roberts came out from his home of Leicester in August last to Boston.

"I have been engaged in temperance work for 15 years," said he, "eight of which have been in campaigning. My work has been principally in England, Scotland, Wales and occasionally in Ireland."

"Are you connected with the ministry of the country?"

JOHN H. ROBERTS.

THE ALDERMEN WILL HELP THEIR FRIENDS

Consequently It is Not Believed That Much Will Come of the Re-organization Plan.

The reorganization committee of the common council meets this afternoon to decide on the report that they will submit to the council on Monday regarding changes in the heads of the various departments. Director Murdoch is expected to present a report on reorganization and his recommendations will probably be discussed. It is the general opinion that nothing will come out of the matter, however, as nearly all the aldermen have friends in office whose interests they will fight for. It is probable that the whole report will be thrown out and matters allowed to go on as before.

CAVANAUGH CASE

Preliminary examination in the case against Frank Cavanaugh, charged with stealing an overcoat and a pair of boots from Frank Kilen last Wednesday night was resumed in the police court this morning, when James Carbury and John S. Coughlan were examined and the prisoner was further remanded.

THE BAY OF FUNDY

To those who regard the Bay of Fundy as an ice-bound region, it will be of interest that the schooner Annie Blanch sailed yesterday from this port for Wolfville, with a cargo of flour shipped by the Star Packet Line and general merchandise. Reports from ports along the bay are to the effect that all the coasting schooners are likely to resume business early in March.

HOWARD MCL. BARNES

A communication received here today announces the death of Howard McLeod Barnes, eldest son of Noah M. Barnes, of Hampton. Deceased was in the thirty-fifth year of his age. It is not yet known whether the body will be brought home for interment.

NEWS FROM FREDERICTON

Wife of Postmaster Edwards is Dead at Halifax—Death of Aged Colored Woman.

FREDERICTON, Feb. 1.—(Special)—Postmaster Edwards received a telegram from Halifax this morning, announcing the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. R. H. Edwards. She was formerly Miss Andrews, of St. John, sister of Dr. Andrews.

HE WOULD NOT LET THEM IN

Despite Councillor Fox's Petition Justice Masson Held His Court Behind Closed Doors.

The action of Justice Masson in refusing to admit the public to the preliminary hearing in the hen stealing case against Edward Bristol and one Hutton, which was resumed yesterday afternoon, caused a mild sensation in Fairville, where for some time to come, several of the jurymen were gossiping in friendly fashion with the court officers as they passed into the seclusion of the court room.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

WANT A SMART MAN.

The editor meditated for a brief time before he replied.

"Young man," he said at length, "you are inexperienced in the ways of politics. Also, I believe, you are naturally honest. You have a conscience. Now, looking squarely at the question, could you assume responsibility for adding the present government on this devoted platform for another term?"

"I hate to," said the new reporter.

"Then don't," said the editor.

"But it's a great chance, to get a good training in fiction writing," said the new reporter.

"Quits true," said the editor, "but you have considerable imagination as it is. Don't stretch it to the point of breaking."

And the new reporter decided to be the prevaricator-in-chief for the rookery department of the Lost Cause.

In the Cause of Freedom, By Arthur W. Marchmont.

It should be quick, it's nearly ten o'clock. We have half an hour. And we're developing a knack of doing a good deal in half an hour. I think I shall be a little afraid of you. Why? You tell them so readily. Ah, that's Bob Garrett. Don't worry about him. He won't tell them to you. I think that for a pair of dangerous companions we keep our spirits capably. I shouldn't be able to without you. I don't know what I should have done, indeed, nor how to do it. Wouldn't a man be a brute who didn't do his best to look after his sister? You make light of everything. Well, you can't talk me at about six or seven o'clock this evening. We shall be out of our hands and of our minds. And after that? By Jove, I don't know. I have thought about that. One thing at that time and another first. We must go. We walked up to the station and found a most welcome change in the proceeding of the police. Our friend of the preceding night was looking out for us, and he had evidently let it be known that there were some persons to be arrested. Everybody seemed to be smiling. Even the man who had acted the inquisitor's part overnight came up and was almost profuse in his apologies. He had not known that I was an English miller; my appearance at that time and in such a way, aroused curiosity; and in such a way, as I have said, duty compelled them all to be suspicious; there were dangerous people about; I had probably heard of the discovered plot; and so on. I understood. I took out some gold coins and fingered them carefully. His eyes lighted with greed as he gazed at them. About the accident? I asked. There has been a bad accident; but no one of the name of Trevor, no Englishman at all, was in the train. I have had a special investigation, he added hesitatingly. I'm sorry to have given you the trouble; but thank you. It is no trouble, and a pleasure to be of some small service to an English miller. I am greatly relieved, I said. You will probably have had to pay some one for the work. Permit me to repay you; and I gave him a fifty franc note. His good will was cheap at a five franc note; good will is a necessary part of a generous man. His face beamed as he pocketed it. Really it is not necessary, he said. I'll be of any further assistance, pray tell me. My sister and I were thinking of going to Crocus, I said indifferently. Is the bus safe, do you think? You still wish to see the British Consul there? This with just a shade of anxiety. Oh, dear, no—unless it is to express my high opinion of the courtesy shown me. Last night is forgotten. I quite understand. The train will start at eleven. It is usual—a mere form of course in your case—to ask for passports when issuing tickets for stations beyond the frontier. Here they are, and I took them out of my pocket book making sure that he should see there was plenty of money in it. Robert Garrett and Margaret Garrett, my sister. He just glanced at them and with a howl to Volna, returned them. Shall I show you where to get your tickets? He was making everything delightfully smooth for us. I suppose we shall reach Crocus by about four? I asked casually, as I took out my cigar case. Inhale its soothing antiseptic vapor, and relief is immediate. Simple to use, delightful and pleasant—nothing compares with Catarrhose, which is the cure of the day for all bronchial and throat troubles. Mr. H. B. McLaughlin, the well known representative of Parke & Blackwell, Toronto, says: "I have used Catarrhose for years and can honestly say it is the only remedy that relieves me from a painful attack of bronchial catarrh. The inhaler for Catarrhose is always in my pocket and I simply couldn't get along without it. I firmly believe Catarrhose is a wonderful remedy." And so does everyone that uses it. Large size, sufficient for two months use, guaranteed, $1; small (trial) size, 25c, at dealers or N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

Tells How to Prevent Throat Weakness, Bronchitis

How many thousands are there who would gladly pay any sum to be cured of bronchitis or consumption? Many could be cured—cured today—cured if they would just use common sense in selecting their remedy. Bronchitis of course is an inflammation of the bronchiae, and these tubes were made for the passage of air alone, and neither the moisture of an atomiser nor the liquid of a cough syrup can get where the trouble really is. The diseased parts can only be reached by a remedy that can force its way through all the breathing organs. Doctors who have used Catarrhose say it is the only rational cure for bronchitis. It cures by inhalation. You breathe in its healing balsams,

Take Your Choice

The horoscope of the world has been cast by a dozen different astrologers and astrologists, and the reader can take his choice of the following predictions for 1908: "There will be St. earthquakes during the entire year." "There will be over 10,000 cases in the United States alone of people being struck by lightning." "There won't be but one little thunder storm during the year, and the only damage will be one calf killed." "Look out for epidemics. There will be more smallpox than ever known before. Men in high places will be stricken down." "The year 1908 will be an unusually healthy one, and half the doctors can take a vacation. A few men in high places will be sent to Sing Sing or elsewhere, but we look for that." "It will be a great year for cyclones. The loss of life and property will be frightful." "You needn't look for anything beyond gentle zephyrs the whole year through." "The hard times will grow harder, and towards the last of the year Gould and Vanderbilt will be asking credit at the corner grocery." "Thirty days more will see business booming as of old, and silver mines and oil wells will be so plentiful that every man can have one." "Look out for a devil of a time. Those sunspots didn't come for nothing." "Be placid and content. Nothing is going to happen. Those things on sun were merely fleckles. He was out doors too much last summer."

OPPOSITION RAPIDLY GAINING AND WILL CARRY YORK COUNTY

Outlook is Entirely Satisfactory There—Fredericton Official Unanimously Censured for Reflections on Mayor McLeod.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 31.—Matters political are becoming more interesting as the time for elections approaches and from an opposition standpoint things look even more satisfactory than the most sanguine advocates of good, clean government had hoped for. Messrs. Giddens, Pinder, Robison and Young are daily in receipt of most encouraging reports from every section of the county, and since the announcement of the newly found provincial secretary from Shediac, who leads the government ticket in this constituency, many who were inclined to be indifferent before are now heard expressing themselves most emphatically in denunciation of the "pull the wool over the eyes" policy of this northern administration.

Those who are in a position to make anything like a reasonable forecast of the result here on March 3 claim that the opposition ticket will carry nearly every poll in the county, and in the parish of Stanley they will have a majority of at least three to one. In Marysville and the city results may be looked for which will be a surprise to many of the voters.

Beginning on Monday next, the 3rd inst., the opposition will open their campaign in earnest, holding meetings nightly in every section of the county, and the good work will have no letup until the last moment, it being the aim of the party to roll this time a majority which will leave no possible doubt as to the indignation which has been aroused in York through the crooked and underhanded methods now controlling in our provincial administration.

City Auditor James D. McKay, who lately published in the newspaper a statement in connection with the sewerage system, was severely censured by the city council at a special meeting this evening. It was claimed that he had garbled and misrepresented the facts. A resolution censuring him was adopted unanimously.

Ald. Scott, chairman of the sewerage committee, who was criticized at the last meeting of the council in re settlement with Hyde & Webster, pipe contractors, made a full and frank statement in regard to that transaction. He showed that there was only about $150 difference between the amount claimed by the contractors and the amount the city was willing to pay, and he had signed an order for payment with the object of saving the city from an expensive lawsuit. In the course of his remarks the alderman gave out considerable information in regard to the sewerage system, not hitherto made public. He stated that thirteen miles of pipe had been laid and the total cost of the system was $84,822.31, against an estimated cost of $92,000 made by Engineer Barbour. The system, he claimed, was one of the best in Canada.

Ald. Escriet accepted Ald. Scott's statement as very satisfactory, and regretted that the information had not sooner been made public.

Mayor McLeod then took a hand in the debate and handled Auditor McKay with-

FAILURE IN HAMILTON HOSPITAL

FULL PARTICULARS NOW GIVEN TO THE PUBLIC.

The case of Mr. Jesse Munro, of 373 John Street, is attracting considerable attention. For more than three years he had the best advice and hospital treatment in the city—but it failed.

"About three years ago," says Mr. Munro, "I began to notice my health breaking up. I became reduced to an extremely wretched condition. Loss of flesh and appetite, a nauseous sensation in the stomach, extreme nervousness and palpitation of the heart were manifest symptoms. Finally I grew too weak to take exercise, and went into the hospital. The doctors wanted to operate on my stomach, but I was unwilling. I left the hospital and tried a number of city physicians during the next two years, without benefit. I lost faith in the doctors, and tried a box of Ferrozone, which gave such encouraging results that I took more.

"After nine boxes of Ferrozone had been used, I was again on my feet and able to walk around. I kept taking Ferrozone for many weeks, and was restored to excellent health. Although I was formerly as weak as an infant, I can now put in a long hard day's work. My cure therefore is permanent. I am glad to add my grateful testimony along with many others, and can recommend Ferrozone to every one who is bothered with weakness, nervousness or stomach trouble. I believe Ferrozone will cure after all else has failed."

We advise our readers to give Ferrozone a trial next time they require a bracing invigorating tonic.

A CANDID FRIEND

(ST. JOHN GLOBE, JAN 31, 1908) "ENTIRELY REGARDLESS OF OUR CAPACITY TO SPEND, AND OF THE AMOUNT WE HAVE TO SPEND, THE PROVINCE HAS INCREASED ITS DEBT YEAR BY YEAR. IT HAS SPENT MORE THAN IT HAS TO SPEND. IT HAS REACHED, ALMOST, THE LIMIT OF ITS BORROWING POWER; ITS EXPENDITURE HAS STEADILY INCREASED, AND IT HAS IN THIS REGARD INDULGED IN A LINE OF ACTION WHICH CANNOT BE JUSTIFIED ON ANY PRINCIPLE OF HONESTY."

MAYOR SEARS

Why is Mayor Sears... This is a perfectly fair question. Up to the morning of the day on which he was nominated Mayor Sears frankly said that he did not want a nomination, but that he hoped for an appointment to office under the federal government. He was awaiting news from Ottawa. He wanted nothing to do with provincial politics. If he were to remain in politics at all he would rather be mayor for a third term than to run for the legislature. But the thing he did want, and confidently expect, was either an appointment or the written promise of an appointment as postmaster. Had he not stood aside for the Hon. Dr. Pugsley and permitted the latter to be elected by acclamation? This view he had presented squarely both at St. John and Ottawa, and was patiently awaiting results. Then came the dissolution of the legislature. The government party in this city could not prevail on Mr. McKown to leave the county and head its ticket, and no other man was available. No strong man wanted to be sacrificed. There remained Mayor Sears. He had been twice elected mayor, and was personally popular. That he wanted an office instead of a nomination was nothing to the machine. The office must wait and Mayor Sears must head the ticket. Now suppose Mr. Sears had refused—what then? If he declined to help the friends of Dr. Pugsley in this fight, how could he hope to get the office he desired at the hands of Dr. Pugsley and his colleagues? This was the position into which the mayor was forced. He wanted an office, and the only hope of getting it, he felt, was if he admitted that the mayor consent to be sacrificed to this campaign. Even if it be admitted that the mayor has no pledge, what could he do under the circumstances? And what do the people think of a party which would thus take advantage of a man, and force him into a position so repugnant to his real feelings and desires? This the government party has done this thing shows clearly the desperate straits to which it has reduced Mayor Sears. For the next few weeks it will be the duty of every citizen to give serious attention to the subject of politics. A government that has been in power for more than twenty years has a new lease of power. Is it not time for a change?

IN KINGS COUNTY

The opposition party in Kings County is united and enthusiastic in support of the strong ticket nominated at Hampton on Thursday. The candidates have the assurance of support from many who in 1903 voted for the government. An active worker for the party informs the Times that if any dependence may be placed in the reports from all sections, and the assurances given by former supporters of the government, he is convinced the county will return the three opposition candidates by a large majority. Nowhere is the highway act more strongly denounced than in Kings, and its abandonment by the government does not allay the resentment of the people. They can not rely on our present provincial rulers.

to carry out a better policy, and therefore look to Mr. Hazen and his supporters for a return to better methods. The government party is weakened by the loss of Dr. Pugsley and Mr. King, and from the list of persons currently mentioned as possible candidates the party cannot hope to select as strong a group as that nominated at Hampton on Thursday.

The Toronto World is controlled by a Maclean. Hence we find it making those jocular remarks:—"In ancient days the Clan Maclean won honorable distinction in cattle-lifting and despoiling Lowlanders. The clan in Canada have started a new kind of foray—that of incursions into the house of commons, and carrying off seats in that chamber, said seats being worth $200 a year, a leather trunk and a fountain pen. So that, in time, when one comes to question the parliamentary antiquity of the clan, as did the Campbell, who said there was no mention of Maclean in the ark with Noah, he will get this reply: 'There never was a Maclean what had na' a seat of her ain.'"

The Times recently stated that the Tourist Association got printing done abroad, which might have been done at home. The board of trade explains that its book was given to a St. John printing house, and it appears that the latter had some of the work done abroad. This leaves the board, but not the local printing house, of responsibility.

The St. John Globe's remarks on the manner in which the provincial debt has been increased, and the expenditure rolled up to an extent which cannot be justified on any principle of honesty, is commended to the thoughtful attention of the electors. The party that rolled up the debt now seeks authority to go on with its reckless and dishonest methods.

The reports that reach the Times office from all parts of the province indicate a general revolt against the provincial government. The "colored" reports in the government press are utterly unreliable. The press took its cue from Premier Robinson, who foolishly asserted that Mr. Hazen would have a hard task to save a single seat.

If all the Charlotte county men mentioned in the Sun and Transcript as possible government candidates in that county are eager to be nominated the desire for political extinction must be spreading in that section of the province. But this is a part of the game.

The Sun and Star gave 10 lines to Mr. Lantieri and 15 lines to Mr. Purdy, in reporting their speeches at the convention. Mr. McAlpine got over a column of valuable space. Why was Mr. McAlpine overlooked in the wild search for candidates?

Mayor Sears is attached to the coalition of Dr. Pugsley, the government party in St. John clings to the garment of Mayor Sears, and the public enjoys the funny spectacle. Mr. E. H. McAlpine would doubtless give much to be in a position to describe it as it deserves.

The Sun says that the provincial government is "straight Liberal." Why, then, does it endorse conservative candidates for its party? And what has the Liberal government at Ottawa to do with New Brunswick highways, school books, provincial debt and general extravagance?

The provincial government promises aid for the establishment of a sanatorium. This government will promise anything and everything until the third of March. It has had ample time to have established a sanatorium, but dodged the issue until it wanted votes.

For the next few weeks it will be the duty of every citizen to give serious attention to the subject of politics. A government that has been in power for more than twenty years has a new lease of power. Is it not time for a change?

The unanimous adoption of the Natal act by the British Columbia government raises a rather awkward question. It makes very clear, however, the feeling of the people of that province with regard to oriental immigration.

The general committee of the city council last evening had the proposed new assessment law a fond and long farewell. This is the net result of a lot of talk and some expenditure of money.

Those interested in sport have their eyes turned today toward Montreal, where men from this city will seek honors at one of the most notable skating tournaments of recent years.

The abundance of snow is a great boon to the lumbermen. They will now have a very active season, to get out their logs. A Canadian Club has been organized in Quebec city. The movement grows. Ottawa, Jan. 31.—E. J. Casey, St. John (N. B.), and R. E. Farmer, St. John (N. B.), have been granted third class excise officers on probation, in the inland revenue department. R. S. Orchard returned from Fredericton last night.

THE ROVERS

(Robert W. Service, in "The Spell of the Yukon.") There's a race of men that don't fit in. A race that can't stay still. So they break the hearts of old and kin. And they roam the world at will. They range the field and they rove the flood. And they climb the mountain's crest. There's the curse of the erythro blood. And they don't know how to rest. If they just went straight they might go far: They're strong and brave and true. But they're always tired of the things that are. And they want the strange and new.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

THINGS THAT HAD HELPED HIM. (Washington Star.) Reporter—"Senator, I have heard that you got your start in life by selling newspapers." Senator—"Not quite correct, my boy. The fact is—but this is confidential, you know—that I got my start by buying one or two newspapers."

THE RECEPTIVE MOOD.

(Philadelphia Ledger.) The dark horse was inclined to be non-committal. "I'm not asking anything of anybody," he said, "but only a cool horse would kick a bucket of oats over."

LIBERTY.

(Harper's Weekly.) There was a man who esteemed liberty above all else. "Particularly," he was wont to say, "as to what I eat. I shall eat what I like, and all I want of it, without let or hindrance."

NOT A COMPLETE STRANGER.

"Was this man Harrison an entire stranger to you?" asked the cross-examining counsel of a witness in a case recently tried in an Ohio court. "No," said the witness, "I could hardly say that, for, in fact, he couldn't be, for he had been my one arm, my leg, my eye, my ear, my nose, my mouth, my hand, my foot, my head, my tail, my backbone, my ribs, my spine, my nerves, my sinews, my muscles, my bones, my marrow, my blood, my life, my soul, my very self."

HOW KIND AND RESPECTFUL.

A Welsh parson, in his sermon, told his congregation how kind and respectful we ought to be toward each other, and advised that we were greatly inferior to the brutes in this respect. To prove this he mentioned as an example the circumstance of two goats which met each other upon a narrow plank across a river, so that they could not pass by without one thrusting the other off.

"And I may add, sir--" "I may add, sir," continued the man with two watch chains.

"But I do, sir. My name is Smith, sir. It may not encourage me personally, as I am just now building four miles of sewers for the city and making half a million dollars clear profit, but there are other Smiths. YESTERDAY IN PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, Jan. 31.—W. H. Bennett complained when the house met today that some departmental public documents which he had been using at the public accounts committee had disappeared.

Dr. Pugsley said that they had not, as far as he knew, been returned to his department, but he would inquire into the matter. The document referred to dredging.

At the public accounts today Gideon Kastner, of Windsor, was examined regarding the payment of $9,476 to the Penetanguishene Dredging Company for dredging at Matilda Bay. What Mr. Bennett wanted to show was that there was collusion between Kastner and Hon. A. G. MacKay, of the Owen Sound Dredging Company, on the tendering for work in 1905.

Mr. Kastner gave an emphatic denial to this. He would not swear to the handwriting one way or the other. It turned out that the contract did not go to either, but to W. H. Pendergast. Part of the work afterwards went to the Penetanguishene Dredging Company as Pendergast could not handle it all. There are a lot of dredging matters to come up this session.

G. H. Perley resumed the debate on the motion of Mr. Lake in regard to timber limits. He started out by congratulating the minister of the interior for making certain changes in the system of disposing of timber limits as was suggested by the opposition. The speaker complained that sufficient time was not given to examine the limits. The notice between the advertisements and the sale were too short. He cited a number of cases where limits were sold for a small amount and afterwards disposed of for a large amount. In one case that 100 square miles were sold by the government for $3,000 and the owner was asking $3,000 a square mile for it. He said that the government alienated the timber lands of the west just at the time they were beginning to get valuable. He concluded by pressing for the committee.

Dr. McIntyre (Birmingham) said that when Mr. Ames specific he could be dealt with. For instance he valued a particular limit of 500 square miles at $3,000 a square mile. That meant the dues from ground rent on such a limit would amount to $2,500 a square mile or all $1,250,000. The bonus price was a mere bagatelle.

In one case Dr. McIntyre said that he knew of a man who cruised a limit by going along the river falls and paid $3,100 for it. Later on he came to Ottawa and wanted his money refunded because it was not worth all that $3,100.

Dr. McIntyre said George H. Perley, member for Argenteuil, obtained that Cedar Lake timber limit in the fifty square miles which he received from the Conservative government and for which he did not pay anything. That was the very same limit which Mr. Ames valued at $800,000. Mr. Perley got the limit in 1881 by order-in-council from the Conservative administration. He paid the rental for one year, and on Sept. 17, 1883, he wrote the department stating that it was valueless, and consequently he was giving it up.

Mr. Haggart did not believe the two quoque argument. He went on to say that there were many changes in conditions since the government were in office. At that time timber limits were granted by order-in-council and it was only when the Conservatives came into power in 1878 that this was changed. It was very difficult in the early days to get any one to invest any money in the development of the west. And in that regard it was not right to compare the present with the past.

He went on to explain his own position, obtaining a timber limit for nothing. His saw mill burned down, and the Liberals came into power, and the regulations were such as required the erection of a new saw mill, and as this did not pay it was abandoned and turned over to the trustees of the mill, and in this way the benefit of it to assist him in his old age.

He wanted the minister of the interior to have such regulations enacted to get rid of the political fish fly who was one of the most contemptible beings on the earth. An act should be introduced to prevent the minister from being pestered from political favorites and parasites.

Mr. Combes said that his friend Mr. Haggart had forgotten a few things which he wished to remind him. He forgot to tell the house that the Conservative party had parcelled out 3,000,000 square miles of timber limits in western Ontario in what was known as the disputed territory among themselves.

Mr. S. McCarthy (Calgary) pursued the timber limit debate at the evening session. He said that by the mismanagement of the public domain in the west practically all the available timber lands in the province of Alberta had passed into the hands of a Montreal machine agent, the Ottawa lawyer, and a mysterious syndicate whom no one knew anything about, called the Imperial Pulp Company.

Mr. McCarthy proceeded to give full particulars and data in regard to a number of timber limits in Alberta, which were given out with practically no competition and which fell into the hands of T. A. Burrows, the present member for Dauphin; A. W. Fraser of Ottawa, and W. H. Nolan, of Montreal.

Mr. McCarthy pointed out that in each case no time was given to examine the limits. The character of the tenders showed that there was no competition. The manner in which the limits were put up showed that competition was impossible. Mr. Burrows never applied for the limits being put up, but he got the limits once they were put up, all the same. The limits on the north Saskatchewan also fell into the hands of T. A. Burrows, W. H. Nolan, A. W. Fraser and the Imperial Pulp Company.

He (McCarthy) did not think that the people were worrying over what the Mackenzie government or the Macdonald government did in regard to timber limits, but what they were interested in was to know how the Laurier government was administering the public domain, and how they were disposing of timber berths.

He cited an instance of the Mackenzie government giving Hugh Sutherland and H. H. Cook 200 square miles anywhere in the Saskatchewan valley. He was willing to admit that there were faults on both sides. In conclusion, he said that a special committee would ascertain who the Imperial Pulp Company were, and a variety of other things which were necessary in the public interest.

Senator Landry asked in the senate if it was the intention of the government to increase the representation of the cabinet in the senate by summoning to it a senator belonging to the French element of the dominion.

Secretary of State Scott replied that it would be inconvenient to name a French minister at the present time to sit in the senate as it would necessitate one of the French ministers resigning from the commons and there was no vacancy of a Quebec seat in the senate at the present time for him to take. He had no doubt that the time would come when there would be a French minister in the senate but he could not say when that would be.

Senator Landry said this was the last day of the second term of the session.

THERE IS TOO MUCH OF EXTRAVAGANCE

Says George Caverhill in an Address to the Montreal Board of Trade.

(Montreal Witness) George Caverhill, in his address at the annual meeting of the board of trade today laid stress on the fact that there was far too much extravagance going on in business affairs, as well as in private life. "Fortunately for Canada," said Mr. Caverhill, "the wave of depression struck our friends across the line, and they were caught in a pretty bad condition. In this country we were able to call a halt, and save ourselves from what might be termed hard times."

HIS GREATEST BOON

Mr. Thomas A. Edison now reports that he has completed his $1000 six-day cement house invention before that of his light-weight long-distance motor battery, which latter was to have been the crowning achievement of his life. If Mr. Edison's cement dwelling-combustible with stairways, bathtub and settee is really practical, it cannot come too soon. Lumber is going up in price and going down in quality. It cost 30 per cent more today to build the average suburban cottage than it did ten years ago. Thousands of house lots in the suburbs are lying idle, in vain anticipation of the day when "building will be cheaper."

AT THE NICKEL

Four New Pictures and Three Excellent Songs on Programme Today.

The clear crisp winter air and the welcome snow will be enticing incentives to the local who will attend the Nickel's big show this afternoon and to the adults who will be present this evening. Last night the attendance was enormous, making up in no uncertain manner for the rather reduced crowds of Thursday which was so stormy and bitterly cold. And those who intend seeing the programme of pictures and hearing the excellent songs will be treated to as fine an entertainment as it is possible to produce for 5 cents. The pictures are: A Fisherman's Conscience, being a tale of filial love among the simple folk of Brittany; A Royal Knight, or the escape of a princeling in the days of Louis XVI. of France; Lady Nicotine Conquers, a delicious comedy of the present day, and a screaming farce, The Quack Doctor.

SPLENDID CURE FOR SORE CHEST

When it hurts to draw a long breath, and you feel as if a knife were stuck in your side, you know it's time to draw out the congestion that will soon become pneumonia. An ordinary cough syrup has no chance at all—you require a powerful penetrating liniment. Probably nothing is known that possesses more merit in such cases than Nerviline. Rub it liberally over the sides and chest—rub it in hard—when the skin is all aglow put on a Nerviline Porous Plaster, take a hot drink of Nerviline to enliven the circulation, and then get into bed. Doctors who have watched the success of this treatment say nothing is better. It is simple, safe and really lasts.

"To the Editor of The Sun: "Sir: It is really surprising how conversant the organs of the opposition in the city are with the true inwardness of the sentiments animating the gentlemen who are to be the Liberal standard bearers in the provincial election. I have no office in my pocket, nor has my attitude as a probable candidate been considered through any desire to make capital out of the situation. I have exacted no promise from the provincial government for a portfolio, nor sought to. My numerous friends desired to have me again as a Mayoralty candidate and my predilections ran along civic honors. When it was suggested to me that I allow my name to go before the Liberal Convention, I declined on that ground.

"My well known Liberal principles and attachment to my party naturally suggested to the Liberal leaders my name as a candidate, and my acquaintance with civic interests and requirements made me in their view a desirable representative of the city and having the confidence of the citizens as has been most conspicuously shown by the vote that elected me two years ago to the chief magistracy. I was urged to reconsider my refusal and as a matter of duty owed to the party to sacrifice my personal desires for the broader

OPPOSITION RALLY IN ALBERT COUNTY

Candidates and Fred M. Sproul Will Speak at Hillsboro on Monday Night.

Hopewell Hill, Jan. 31.—(Special)—A meeting in the interests of the local opposition will be held next Monday night at 8 o'clock in the opera house in Hillsboro. There will be addresses by Messrs. Dickson and Prescott, the opposition candidates in Albert, and Fred M. Sproul, of Hampton, one of the Kings county opposition candidates. The choice of the ticket in Kings county has met with great favor here. Messrs. Murray, Jones and Sproul have all many friends in this county. Mr. Sproul has spoken here before and took a hand in the last federal contest. His clear cut eloquence told most towards the creditable result achieved in that campaign.

TO RAISE LICENSE FEE

Ontario Government Asked to Increase Liquor License Fees in Toronto.

Toronto, Jan. 31.—The Ontario government will be asked to increase the fees for taverns and liquor shop houses in Toronto. At present taverns pay $1,200 and shops $1,000. It is probable the city will ask for an increase to $2,000 for taverns and $1,800 for shops. Controller Spence moved a resolution to that effect at the board of control meeting this morning.

LAID IT OVER UNTIL MAY 1

The general committee of the common council met again last evening to consider the remaining sections of the proposed new assessment act and certain additions recommended by the late chamberlain with regard to the collection of taxes but in view of the almost unanimous expression of opinion at the previous meeting against the adoption of the act it was decided to defer consideration until May 1. The chairman of the board of assessors and the chamberlain were instructed to prepare a report embodying such amendments to the present act as they might consider advisable. The mayor occupied the chair and Ald. Bullock, Vanwart, Frink, McGoldrick, Sproul, Sprague, Fisher, McGowan and Lantalam were present with the chamberlain, A. W. Sharp, the chairman of assessors and the common clerk. The mayor remarked that it was a pity Ald. Baxter was not with them. Ald. McGoldrick said, considering the opinions expressed at the last meeting, he did not expect anyone would be there. The common clerk explained that while all the aldermen will on exception have declared against the new act no motion had been passed. Ald. Bullock said the idea in meeting was to consider amendments to the present act with special reference to recommendations by the chamberlain. Ald. Frink considered the committee in rather a difficult position. Because they had declined to adopt the new act the common council had been the subject of a vicious attack in the press from W. Frank Hatheway. It seemed absurd to attempt to modify the proposed act as Mr. Hatheway evidently represented the board of trade from whom the suggestion for the new act originated. He always understood the board of trade was a kind of senate to the common council and they might as well sit still and await developments.

reward from the government and if I have sought for recognition from Ottawa there is nothing to criticize in this. My friends have worked, no doubt in this direction and long before my name was mentioned in connection with the local ticket. OUR FAIRIES JACK, THE REAL CULPRIT.

The Young Artist

Perhaps you'd call me just a girl; But I'm an artist, too. And if you don't believe me, why, I certainly will show you.

Just look upon my little slate; I've drawn a great big bear, And also a long-necked giraffe, With spots all in his hair.

Used I can draw your picture, too; Just wait and you shall see. But whose's my pencil-long and sharp? I've lost it—goodness me! —Annie James.

Game for Children's Party The game called "Autograph" is very amusing and jolly, and requires only a few minutes to play.

The smallest inhabited island in the world is that on which Edystone lights- house stands. At high water the light- house, whose diameter at the base is 28.34 feet, completely covers it. It is in- habited by three persons.

Jack, the Real Culprit.

BY MAUD WALKER.

Jack was his name, Jack Bennett. He was red of hair, freckled of face and determined of mind.

One day as Jack was on his way from school he decided to make a short cut home, going through an alley a part of the way.

The following day Jack took the alley route to school that he might again see the strange picture of the beautiful child's face framed in the grimy window pane.

Jack entered and sat down beside the stove. "Stay, little girl," he asked, "do you and your granny live alone all the time?"

He was looking at a long, long time ago and suddenly, and now do be very quiet and sleep some. You have been very, very ill, dearie; but the doctor said last night that you would be getting well today; so be Granny's own little girl and lie very quiet.

there're so many wicked boys and girls about here playing in the gutter. "Well, your granny is right," declared Jack, innocently.

To say that Granny was surprised at what was found on the doortop expressed it mildly. Being a bit deaf she had not heard the fairies' signal, and was only roused from her second reading of the letter bearing the good news by her little granddaughter crying: "Oh, Granny, here's a big basket and two boxes. The fairies must have left them."

Disobedient Gracie.

BY HELENA DAVIS

It was Gracie's birthday. She was just eight years old. She had been promised a party, with a big cake (on which were to stand eight lighted candles), all the ice-cream she and her little friends wanted and hours and hours in which to play and play.

Now, of course, Gracie loved her mamma very, very dearly; but the party had been uppermost in her mind for so many days that it was a great disappointment to her when grandmamma told her it must be put off for a few days.

Jack entered and sat down beside the stove. "Stay, little girl," he asked, "do you and your granny live alone all the time?"

Jack entered and sat down beside the stove. "Stay, little girl," he asked, "do you and your granny live alone all the time?"

asked grandmamma of naughty Gracie. "If you do love her you'll behave like a dear little girl. If you don't love her you'll do all you can to make her suffer, and perhaps cause her to become more ill."

pantry for something, Gracie, her lips quivering and her little head nodding emphatically, said to herself: "I'll just do what I please, so I will." And it pleased the naughty mis to go out of doors and sit merrily on the big porch that was cold and wind-swept.

Jack entered and sat down beside the stove. "Stay, little girl," he asked, "do you and your granny live alone all the time?"

Chapel and churchyard of the Savoy. The little chapel and burial ground which belonged to the palace. The church is of quaint architecture, having a low, square bell-tower. A damaging fire in 1850 caused much of the interior of the edifice to be rebuilt, but in general appearance the chapel remains much the same as it was during the residence of John of Gaunt at the Savoy palace.

MONCTON TRIMS MARYSVILLE 4-2

Fredericton, Jan. 31.—(Special)—Moncton Victoria defeated the Crescents in the provincial league hockey match at Marysville tonight by a score of four to two. It was a fast game and although a little on the rough side at times, was a great improvement over last night's sluggish match in this city. There was very little combination work, but the members of both teams got in some good individual play. The score for the first half stood 1 to 1. The second half with six men playing on each side, the Victorians scored three times and Marysville one. The Crescents played well but seemed to neglect their defence. Sturdy Staples of Fredericton gave good satisfaction as referee.

Micmacs Defeated Marathons No. 2

In the intermediate hockey league series, the Micmacs defeated the Marathons' second team last evening in the Glacier rink by the score of 2 to 0. The line-up was:

Amherst, N. S., Jan. 31.—(Special)—In the best game played here so far this season the Wanderers trimmed the Wanderers 8 to 4. The Wanderers have a clever bunch of forwards, but their defense, with exception of Jimmy Hilton, can stand strengthening. Hilton was in great shape and was making sensational stops all through, although he did not have as many stops as Fraser had as week. There was little to choose between the Wanderers forwards, Twaddle played an unusually cool game and he with Mur-

SKATING

In the 8-day race in Houlton (Me.), the score Thursday night was: Mitchell and Shea, 74 miles, 16 laps; Golden and Orie, 74 miles and 15 laps; Law and Vincent, 74 miles and 7 laps, and Nixon and Olive of St. John, 74 miles and 8 laps.

THE RING

Tommy Burns, who will meet Jack Palmer Feb. 10, is hard at work at Jack Straw's Castle, Hampstead, in North London, England. He is making no secret of his training, and the public will be allowed to view him at work any day on payment of a shilling. The proprietor of the house, big Jim Clarke, will pocket this sum, as Burns is sitting there "turf free" as they say in England.

BOWLING

Clinch St. Peter's Y. M. A. Championship. J. McCarthy's team clinched the bowling championship of St. Peter's Y. M. A. league last night when they defeated F. Grass' team by a good margin. This makes five games won and but one lost by McCarthy's champions.

THE TURF

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The Walnut Hall farm consignment brought out spirited bidding today at the Pease-Tipton Company's mid-winter sale of trotting stock in Madison Square Garden. Fair prices were realized for most of the consignment but interest centred in The Harvester, a 2-year-old brown trotting colt by Walnut Hall-Notalet. The Harvester was a fine looking animal and the bids were raised by leaps and bounds until he finally was knocked down for $9,000 to A. Uihlein, a Milwaukee breeder.

The $9,000 which Mr. Uihlein paid for The Harvester is one of the largest amounts ever given for an unbroken colt. Several others were anxious to get the prize, but most of them had dropped out of the bidding when George P. Sherman of Fort Henry offered $7,000. This was followed by a bid of $8,500 from James W. Daly of Mt. Kisco. Mr. Uihlein's increase of $800 brought down the auctioneer's hammer.

The Walnut Hall consignment of 64 horses, mostly unbroken 2-year-olds brought the fine figure of $27,125, an average of $424.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Despite the cold weather large numbers enjoyed the excellent pictures shown in the Opera House yesterday afternoon and evening. The programme is one of the best yet offered and indeed The Pastime Picture Co. are giving better satisfaction every day. They are getting the latest pictures and songs. This afternoon and evening a great programme will be offered for the children—the favorite Uncle Tom's Cabin will be once more shown. Another strong feature will be the Indian and Cowboy picture of Kit Carson, also The Children's Reformatory, The Bigamist, The Boy Tramps, His Master's Voice, and others. The music is a big feature. F. C. Shortis, the noted banjost, with his concert company, has engaged the Opera House for a recital Feb. 10. Mr. Shortis will be remembered as having made a great hit on his tour throughout Great Britain.

FRED M. BARTON HURT

As the result of an injury sustained while working aboard the steamer May Queen at Marble Cove a few days ago, Fred M. Barton is lying at his home, 169 Queen street, in a serious condition, and it was feared he might lose his eyesight. Mr. Barton is employed by the Messrs. Fleming and was engaged in making some repairs on the steamer May Queen. An iron key in a casting had become lodged and the workmen were using a machine called a "gun" to blow out the key. Mr. Barton had his face close to the machine and something suddenly gave way injuring his face and eyes. It was feared for a time that his sight was permanently injured, but his father said last evening that he would recover the use of his eyes. He suffered a severe nervous shock, however, and will be confined to his bed for some time.

SLEIGHING

The sleigh sped swiftly o'er the snow, A-shimmer with the full moon's glow. "This is just grand!" she murmured low. Sweet little thing, she didn't know 'Twas costing five an hour!

Our sled was young and full of go; The motion swayed us to and fro. She nestled close to me, but oh, The little curling didn't know 'Twas costing five an hour!

I knew fifteen or more I'd owe And hinted to go home, but, no! "Oh, don't," she cooed. "I love it so!" Dear little thing, she didn't know 'Twas costing five an hour!

A TRIP TO NEW CANADA

Excellent Lecture by Mrs. E. A. Smith Last Evening for the Free Kindergarten.

"New Canada" formed the subject of an interesting and instructive illustrated lecture given last evening by Mrs. E. A. Smith, in St. John's (Stone) church, in behalf of the Free Kindergarten.

The spacious room was filled and the lecturer held the attention of her audience from the time the first view—an excellent one of St. John harbor—was projected on the canvas, until the close, when S. H. Beckley rendered, as a solo, My Own Canadian Home.

Starting at St. John, Mrs. Smith took her hearers to the historic city of Quebec, visiting the Chateau Frontenac, and the site of the great St. Lawrence bridge, which recently collapsed, when such a large number lost their lives. The Plains of Abraham, the proposed national park, Dufferin Terrace and other points of interest were visited and then the lecturer took her audience to Montreal, there, at Windsor street station, to embark for the "Imperial Limited" for the trip across the vast Dominion to the Pacific Coast. The first important stop is at Ottawa, the "Washington of the North," then on to the great west, visiting numerous flourishing cities, including the great wheat milling and exporting centres, particularly in Manitoba and on through the vast fields of golden wheat and over the great Canadian Rockies, rich in mineral deposits and famous for their lofty trees, giant canyons and superb scenery and through to Vancouver. Every aspect of commercial and historic interest was visited and the panoramic journey, abounding, as it did, in humor and anecdote, was conducted in a most enjoyable manner.

The photos from which these excellent slides were made were taken by Captain E. A. Smith who has attained no small eminence in the world of amateur photography.

After a hearty vote of thanks was tendered, and acknowledged by the lecturer, Mr. Beckley, as already stated, sang "My Own Canadian Home," after which the audience joined heartily in singing God Save the King.

SEMBRICH SEAT SALE

The Subscribers Sale Opens Friday Feb. 14--Some Particulars

The management of the Sembrich concert has been besieged by innumerable requests both from local and outside parties, to personally attend to the selection of recitations on the morning of the subscribers' sale. In all instances and under all circumstances the reply has been the same, that it is impossible, that every subscriber will receive similar consideration. But every subscriber is sure of securing a seat no matter how late an appearance is put in at the Opera House on the day of sale, as the said subscription list guarantees this, and it is for this object the list is used, and patrons urged to sign.

Outside parties may communicate with friends here, asking them to take to the selection of recitations, or the management will be pleased to do so after the first rush is over the morning of sale. It will be reserved that no seats will be reserved without the cash being paid at the time, as it is expected that the demand for popular seats will be greater than the supply. Intending patrons who have not signed the list should do so at once at Landry's news store. All communications should be addressed: F. G. Spencer, City.
